

Online game: I have super god-level talent

#6 - Chapter 6: Accurate shooting, interrupting skills!

Even those level 20+ sets are inferior compared to this Treant Set.

The Treant Set, when all 10 pieces are collected, triggers a set effect.

Effect: Regenerates 50 health points per second, uninterrupted by attacks.

This is an incredibly overpowered effect in the early game.

And when all thirteen pieces of the set are collected, there's a second set effect.

Effect: Automatically reflects 10% of all physical damage you take.

Combined with the attribute bonuses from the Treant Set, you get a shield warrior with high regeneration, damage, and tankiness.

For thirty thousand, Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain can get this set, it's definitely worth more than it costs.

"Ding, due to your excessive hunting of Twisted Treants, you have angered the Twisted Treant King. It will arrive on the battlefield in five minutes. Please leave immediately."

Both Lin Tianhao and Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain received the system notification.

"Finally, it's here?"

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain also received the system notification and immediately became excited.

"Snow Emperor, the boss spawned! Are we fighting it?"

Lin Tianhao nodded, and then... Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain received a system notification.

"Ding, you have been kicked from the party by Snow Emperor."

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain: ??!

"Snow Emperor, what do you mean? You're not taking me to fight the boss?"

Lin Tianhao just nodded again, "Just stay out of the way, hide somewhere far away."

"But..."

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain felt bitter. Is this how you treat your sugar daddy?

"Snow Emperor, isn't this a little unkind?"

"I only promised to carry you to level ten, not to share the boss with you."

Lin Tianhao's answer was very simple.

All first boss kills come with special rewards, and if you complete the first kill alone, the rewards are even more generous.

Bringing Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain, this burden, would only affect his rewards.

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain wanted to say something, but suddenly noticed a large creature approaching them.

Twisted Treant King (Black Iron Boss): Level 10.

Health: 116800.

Attack: 325.

Skills: Summon Treant, Revival, Vine Entanglement, Thorns Shield, Vine Prison.

"Holy crap!"

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain was dumbfounded, "This is the boss? Over one hundred and sixteen thousand health, and this attack power, who can beat it at this stage?"

Even if Lin Tianhao's basic attack could deal five hundred damage, it would still take more than two hundred basic attacks to kill it.

"This is too ridiculous."

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain involuntarily retreated, while feeling secretly pleased.

The Twisted Treant King's attributes are so abnormal, let's see how you farm it!

You should know that the Twisted Treant King is a magic monster, and its hidden magic power attribute is definitely much higher than its attack attribute.

Plus two control skills, who would dare say they can solo it at this stage?

Then, just when Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain thought Lin Tianhao would back down.

"Swish!"

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly, but he wasn't afraid. At the same time as the arrow was fired, he immediately moved, and then another arrow flew out.

-501.

The damage was still decent, but the Twisted Treant King's movement speed, attack speed, and attack range were not comparable to ordinary monsters.

A super long-range vine lashed out at Lin Tianhao.

-319.

Over three hundred damage from a basic attack, Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain was stunned.

He was barely reaching level six, and with the equipment he could wear, his health was only a little over seven hundred.

With this attack, he could only take three hits at most.

But the next moment.

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain saw a scene that made his scalp tingle.

That was, after Lin Tianhao lost more than three hundred health, his health bar only dropped a tiny, almost imperceptible amount.

"Holy crap, holy crap, holy crap!!"

Now Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain could only use the words 'holy crap' to describe his current mood.

If he didn't have some understanding of the game 'Twilight of the Gods', he would definitely have shouted that there was a cheat.

However, this feels even more abnormal than a cheat.

Lin Tianhao ignored the shocked Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain. He deliberately tried the Twisted Treant King's attack.

The basic attack was a bit of a scratch.

Of course, he couldn't withstand the skills.

Since that's the case, there's no need to kite with basic attacks, affecting the output time.

With that thought, Lin Tianhao stopped dodging basic attacks and started trading blows with the Twisted Treant King.

This scene made Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain even more dumbfounded.

Trading blows with the boss, what kind of godly figure is this?

After the shock, Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain turned on the recording function again. He dared to guarantee that if his guild leader saw this scene, he would definitely be shocked too.

However, Lin Tianhao's next operation really dumbfounded Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain.

He saw that the Twisted Treant King was waving its vines, preparing to release a skill.

A playful smile appeared on Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain's face. He naturally knew that the Twisted Treant King was a magic monster, and the skill damage would definitely be extremely abnormal.

But just as the Twisted Treant King was casting the skill, Lin Tianhao shot an arrow at the Twisted Treant King's waving wrist, forcibly interrupting the Twisted Treant King's chant.

"This is... Precision Strike?!"

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain was a game expert after all, and he knew the principle as soon as Lin Tianhao made this move.

However, knowing is one thing, but hitting the Twisted Treant King's arm in so many vines and interrupting its spellcasting, even if you brought the Olympic archery champion, they might not be able to do it.

"Swish!!"

Lin Tianhao's attack rhythm didn't stop, the smooth kiting was simply pleasing to the eye.

Every time the Twisted Treant King wanted to release a skill, it was interrupted by Lin Tianhao's precise strikes with arrows.

What... what kind of immortal monster is this?!!

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain could understand that Lin Tianhao's game attributes were high. After all, he had just entered the game, and it wasn't impossible to get equipment or special rewards that surpassed the current stage with good luck.

But high attributes and such outrageous skill, this made Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain have to think deeply.

Where did Lin Tianhao come from?

The dignified Black Iron boss was actually being played by Lin Tianhao, completely unable to fight back.

Its attack power seemed very high, but hitting Lin Tianhao was just a scratch.

With Lin Tianhao's current health of over twenty-five thousand, even if he tanked it, he could withstand three hundred basic attacks!

What's more, Lin Tianhao was constantly kiting.

"Monster, we must bring such a monster to our guild."

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain secretly made a decision. He was not only a member of the Floating Slaughter Guild's elite team, but also the young owner of the Floating Slaughter Guild.

The Twisted Treant King's health bar was still decreasing, and Lin Tianhao's attack frequency didn't change.

Finally, the Twisted Treant's health bar was only five percent left, and it looked like the Twisted Treant King was about to be killed.

But what Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain didn't expect was that Lin Tianhao actually stopped.

He was a little confused, but at this moment, he saw Lin Tianhao actually shoot an arrow into the air behind the Twisted Treant King.

"Swish!"

The arrow cut through the air.

"Clang!"

With a soft sound, a dagger emerged from the air, actually cutting Lin Tianhao's arrow in half.

"Holy crap, there's an assassin!!"
