Chapter 66 Princess Leona's Reward!

Lin Tianhao feigned interest, "That sounds pretty good."

"Wait."

Lin Tianhao looked at the Klinfis bird, "When can you fulfill this promise?"

"When Qing Fuyun ascends the throne and becomes the new king."

Lin Tianhao shook his head without hesitation, "If that's the case, how long will I have to wait?"

Hearing this.

The Klinfis bird pondered for a moment, "Princess Leona is the ultimate reward. As long as you take action this time, I can reward you with a set of bronze equipment suitable for archers."

"That's it? Can't I get it myself?"

The Klinfis bird was stunned for a moment. What he said seemed to be true.

With Lin Tianhao's current ability, it was indeed not difficult to obtain a set of level 20 bronze equipment.

"Then what do you want? Free attribute points?"

Lin Tianhao grinned, "I want a displacement skill, special equipment, and a special skill."

"Displacement skill..."

The Klinfis bird thought for a while before saying, "Okay, as long as you help, I'll give you the skill 'Space Blink.' It has no cast animation and is released instantly. A one-star skill has a maximum displacement distance of five meters."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. This skill sounded pretty good.

"Plus two hundred free attribute points," Lin Tianhao said.

The Klinfis bird frowned, "This is just a task. It's only beneficial to you and not harmful. Space Blink is already very precious."

"Then forget it. I'll just continue to grind monsters."

Lin Tianhao didn't continue listening and directly refused.

"Don't."

The Klinfis bird pondered for a moment, "One hundred free attribute points plus Space Blink."

"Two hundred."

"One hundred and twenty."

"Two hundred."

"One hundred and fifty."

"Then there's no need to talk," Lin Tianhao said.

The Klinfis bird's expression darkened, "Okay, then let's not talk. I'll send you back to the resurrection altar to take a bath."

As soon as he finished speaking.

An extremely terrifying aura erupted from the Klinfis bird.

Lin Tianhao's first reaction was to put away his equipment, then he grinned at the Klinfis bird.

"Let's talk things over nicely. Don't resort to violence at every turn."

"So, you're agreeing?"

The Klinfis bird asked.

Lin Tianhao shook his head, "No, I mean three hundred free attribute points. Not one less."

"You're courting death!!"

The Klinfis bird's eyes were like knives, staring at Lin Tianhao like a demon about to devour him.

Lin Tianhao didn't show any fear and coldly met the Klinfis bird's gaze.

"You can kill me, but if I die here, I guarantee that the Queen's dealings with the Nether race will resound throughout the entire Star Kingdom."

Hearing this.

The Klinfis bird's expression suddenly changed. The aura on his body did not diminish, but became even more sinister.

"Hmph, who would believe the words of a criminal like you?"

Lin Tianhao spread his hands and said indifferently, "I don't know, but I don't lack gold coins anyway. I can make it ring three times a day."

"Aren't you afraid of being permanently imprisoned?!"

"But if the King believes it, I don't know what will happen to your Queen."

"Moreover, if I guess correctly, the one who sent the Silver Commander Val to kill me was your Queen, right?"

At this point, Lin Tianhao changed the subject.

"If it weren't for the Silver Commander's matter, I would have agreed to one hundred free attribute points, not to mention one hundred and fifty."

"But because of the Silver Commander's matter, three hundred free attribute points, not one less!"

Lin Tianhao's actions could be described as a combination of kindness and intimidation.

What he wanted was not to scare away the Klinfis bird.

But to obtain enough benefits from the Klinfis bird.

"What do you say? Senior Klinfis bird."

The Klinfis bird took a deep breath and finally nodded heavily, "Okay, let's do as you say."

"Ding, the Klinfis bird has issued you a mission: Frame Princess Leona. Do you accept?"

"Mission Requirement: Tell the King that you helped Leona kill the Demon King's son, Gray Lorinson."

"Mission Penalty: None."

"Mission Reward: Space Blink, three hundred free attribute points."

"Accept."

Lin Tianhao accepted the mission and asked, "When do we go?"

"Tonight. I will inform you then."

"Okay."

Lin Tianhao breathed a sigh of relief after sending the Klinfis bird away.

Negotiating with such a powerful person was still somewhat risky.

But the result was good. He succeeded.

Using the Queen's affair with the Nether race, he successfully made the Klinfis bird compromise.

Not long after the Klinfis bird left.

A graceful figure slowly approached.

"Princess Leona, you've finally arrived."

"I've been here for a while. It seems you've reached some agreement with the Klinfis bird," Leona said with a somewhat solemn tone.

Lin Tianhao didn't hide anything, "What about the reward for helping you kill the Demon King's son, Gray Lorinson?"

"Tell me first what the Klinfis bird wanted from you just now?"

"Not giving it? Then I'll go tell the King now that you killed Gray Lorinson in cooperation with me, a heinous criminal."

Leona's expression darkened, "I've never seen such a shameless person as you!!"

Lin Tianhao grinned, "Give it to me."

Leona took out a scroll, a skill book, and a talisman.

"That's it?"

"These are all carefully selected by me and are very suitable for you," Leona said unhappily.

"Eternal Scroll (Special): One-time use item."

"Effect: Can enchant a piece of equipment, completely binding the equipment to yourself, making it indestructible, unstealable, and undroppable."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up.

This Eternal Scroll could definitely be considered an auxiliary artifact.

During the game phase.

Some precious equipment would accidentally drop when killed.

This Eternal Scroll could effectively avoid this.

Not only that, but the Eternal Scroll could also make the equipment indestructible.

Lin Tianhao immediately thought of the Bloodthirsty Necklace.

There was no other reason.

The Bloodthirsty Necklace was too compatible with him.

What about getting a higher-level necklace later?

Based on Lin Tianhao's ten years of experience in his previous life, it was almost impossible.

Because this kind of equipment that restores a percentage of maximum health was quite heaven-defying, no matter which stage it was placed in.

However, Lin Tianhao wasn't too anxious.

He checked the second item.

"Mystic Ice Wings: One Star."

"Effect: Can condense a pair of Mystic Ice Wings, allowing you to fly for five minutes."

"Consumption: 300."

"Cooldown: 60 minutes."

"Proficiency: 0/100."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. A flying skill was indeed very wicked.

Within level 50, it was rare to encounter flying monsters. Even in the later stages of the game, flying monsters were a minority.

And with a flying skill, he could quickly leave the battlefield if he was no match for an opponent.

It was indeed a very good skill.

Finally, there was that talisman...
