Chapter 75: Gank from the Ancient Warrior!

Next was the time to count the first clear rewards.

“Ding, you have obtained 42 skill books.”

“Ding, you have obtained 65 pieces of equipment.”

“Ding, you have obtained +2200 gold coins.”

“Ding, you have obtained Dragon Gall + 1.”

“Ding, you have obtained...”

A series of system prompts sounded.

For Lin Tianhao, it was another great harvest.

Lin Tianhao didn't consider the equipment because his level was not high enough.

Lin Tianhao pondered the skill books for a moment, feeling a bit of a headache.

After arriving in the main city, skills and equipment were categorized, and the requirements for equipping and learning were much stricter than in the novice village.

However...

As the first to clear the dungeon, he still had special benefits.

For example, the previous Bloodthirsty Dragon Armor could originally only be learned by warriors.

But because Lin Tianhao was the first to clear the dungeon, this condition seemed to be relaxed, and he could actually learn the skill.

“Learn Bloodthirsty Dragon Armor.”

Lin Tianhao learned the Bloodthirsty Dragon Armor without hesitation.

Bloodthirsty Dragon Armor: 1 Star.

Effect: 5% of the damage you take will be converted into healing to restore your own health.

Cost: None.

Cooldown: None.

Proficiency: 0 / 1000.

(Note: This proficiency is one-tenth of the value of the health you recover using this skill.)

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. This was great; leveling up would be very fast.

After all, Lin Tianhao now takes tens of thousands of damage when fighting bosses, and even 5% of that is five hundred, and one-tenth of that is fifty.

In other words, isn't leveling up this skill a piece of cake?

But this was only true for Lin Tianhao. If it were other players, it wouldn't be so easy.

Even for tank players.

Most level ten to fifteen tanks now only have five thousand to ten thousand health, and very few can reach twenty thousand.

Such players would not be able to withstand such high damage while taking damage and healing.

Even if 15,000 health points were cleared, the proficiency gained would be less than one hundred.

Lin Tianhao looked at the time and figured that Zhou Xiaopang should be here.

But at this moment.

A figure instantly appeared behind him.

It was a displacement skill!

“Knock-up!”

-295.

Not very high damage.

As soon as that person used the skill, he immediately followed up with three straight thrusts, knocking Lin Tianhao into the air and forming a僵直 (jiang zhi) state.

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. Who was this?

To actually ambush him.

Before he could think too much, another person appeared.

At the moment Lin Tianhao was about to land, he instantly grabbed Lin Tianhao's neck.

Throat Lock!

Then came a rushing punch, knocking Lin Tianhao flying again.

“Such high tenacity.”

The player who used the rushing punch was a little surprised, because the knock-back effect of his rushing punch was different from his usual knock-back effect.

But he didn't stop at all and once again took action.

Rapid Burst Punch!

-315.

-312.

-314.

... ..

Damage numbers floated above Lin Tianhao's head.

Lin Tianhao was about to land, but immediately after, a pillar of fire rose from under his feet, knocking him into the air again.

“Earth Flame Impact, this is a skill that elemental mages can only learn after level thirty!!”

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised. What kind of shortcut did that mage take to learn a level thirty skill before even completing his first job advancement?

“Crushing Stone Palm!”

The player in front of Lin Tianhao attacked again, knocking Lin Tianhao back in the air.

The warrior with the long sword cooperated with him, actually knocking Lin Tianhao into an airborne state.

“Ancient Martial Artist!!”

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly.

Because this airborne knock-back technique had the same effect as his airborne archery.

It didn't belong to the skills in Twilight of the Gods, it was a relatively pure combat technique.

Melee airborne combos were easier than ranged airborne combos, but not something ordinary players could do.

To be precise, even if you called all the top players from the major clubs, they probably wouldn't be able to do it at this stage.

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. He wasn't in a hurry to use Star Moon Purification.

Anyway, Zhou Xiaopang hadn't arrived yet, so it wouldn't hurt to use them to farm some Bloodthirsty Dragon Armor proficiency.

Before Lin Tianhao could land, the fourth person appeared.

The four of them working together actually kept Lin Tianhao in the air continuously, dealing a hundred combos in a short period of time.

The more airborne combos, the higher the damage would naturally be.

Their original normal attack damage to Lin Tianhao was only around three hundred.

As the number of combos increased, a single normal attack could already knock off more than five hundred of Lin Tianhao's health.

In order to connect the airborne combos, the four of them didn't attack together, so Lin Tianhao only took a little over a thousand damage per second.

But his Tears of the Goddess of Life could recover ten thousand per second, so this little damage was really not as much as Lin Tianhao recovered.

The four of them also realized this problem, but they didn't panic at all.

If a hundred combos wasn't enough, then a thousand combos!

As long as Lin Tianhao didn't have a purification skill, they were confident that they could combo Lin Tianhao to death.

Lin Tianhao was currently observing their attack patterns, wanting to determine which martial arts faction they came from.

Suddenly.

Lin Tianhao thought of something.

In his previous life, there was a notorious guild.

Called the Domineering Guild.

The people inside relied on superb cooperation to deal infinite combos, and often sniped high-level players to steal their equipment.

Under normal circumstances.

Not to mention not having purification, even if you had purification skills, it would be difficult to interrupt their attacks in a one-on-one situation.

“Damn it, this guy is too perverted.”

One player complained, because the number of combos had already exceeded the five hundred mark.

The damage they could cause per second had also exceeded the five thousand mark.

But was there any point?

None at all!

“What are you doing?”

At this moment.

Zhou Xiaopang arrived. Seeing that Lin Tianhao was being attacked, he directly activated Savage Charge and charged towards one of the people close to Lin Tianhao.

Seeing Zhou Xiaopang charging, the mage's expression changed, "Stall him, I'll take care of this warrior."

As soon as he finished speaking, she waved her staff, and a circle of flames rippled from her body.

"Fire Resistance Ring!"

The level of this skill was higher than Savage Charge, so it directly interrupted Zhou Xiaopang's charge.

After Zhou Xiaopang's charge was interrupted, he saw three consecutive fireballs flying towards him.

He instinctively moved to the side, but his movement speed was not enough.

In addition, the mage had predicted his position and used a chain of fireballs the moment the Fire Resistance Ring was cast, so he smoothly hit Zhou Xiaopang.

-289.

-291.

... ..

Three consecutive damage numbers appeared above Zhou Xiaopang's head, and Zhou Xiaopang's health bar only dropped by a tiny bit.

“How... how could this be?!”
