Chapter 77 Confrontation in the Hall!

Leona had barely finished speaking when Queen Fiodina's voice suddenly rang out.

“It is indeed inappropriate for the Prime Minister to speculate, but my people have recently met with the Snow Emperor, and he told them that he was the one who helped you kill the Demon Prince, Grello Linsen.”

Queen Fiodina's words were like a stone thrown into a calm lake, creating a thousand ripples.

On the throne.

King Abra looked at Leona with interest, “Leona, is what the Queen said true?”

Leona's face was gloomy, she knew that she would inevitably be exposed next.

This was also what she had discussed with Lin Tianhao.

If she denied it now, wouldn't that be deceiving the king?

“Father, Mother, I did promise to keep secret who I asked for help. If Mother has evidence, she can present it.”

But Leona just happened to say so much, which made it seem like there was a problem.

Queen Fiodina smiled and said, “Coincidentally, my people have brought the Snow Emperor. To determine the truth, we just need to call the Snow Emperor up for a face-to-face confrontation, how about it?”

Hearing this.

Leona's face sank, although she already knew, she still had to put on a complete act.

King Abra raised his eyebrows, "Since that's the case, then call the Snow Emperor up for a face-to-face confrontation."

Klinfis Bird led Lin Tianhao into the hall.

Seeing Lin Tianhao's arrival, many people looked at him with interest.

After all, a million red name value.

This hadn't appeared in the Star Kingdom for many years.

The previous people with a million red name value were all great villains.

Lin Tianhao was naturally no exception in their eyes.

"Snow Emperor, the Queen said that you killed Grello Linsen, is this true?" King Abra questioned.

Lin Tianhao nodded, "It was indeed I who killed Grello Linsen."

As soon as these words came out, Leona immediately retorted, "Snow Emperor, you still need to think clearly before you speak, don't spout nonsense here."

King Abra raised his hand to signal Leona to stop talking.

"Snow Emperor, you said that you killed Grello Linsen, then can you tell us, how exactly did you do it?"

Lin Tianhao took out the treasure that Klinfis Bird had prepared for him in advance.

“It's this thing, it can allow me to ignore the formation and enter the Well of Shattered Stars.”

Hearing this.

King Abra turned his gaze to the magic weapon in Lin Tianhao's hand.

Lin Tianhao didn't hide the attributes, so everyone present could see the attributes of this magic weapon.

“Even so, do you have that much damage to kill Grello Linsen?”

King Abra continued to ask.

“With your current level, to put it bluntly, you can't even break Grello Linsen's defense.”

Lin Tianhao was very confident, “What if my damage is true damage?”

Abra narrowed his eyes, “Someone come.”

As soon as he spoke, a general wearing golden armor walked out.

“Use your true damage to hit him and try.”

“咻！”

Lin Tianhao raised his hand and shot an arrow.

-20598.

A huge damage number appeared.

Abra was slightly surprised.

Seeing this, Leona still retorted, "Father, this can only prove that the Snow Emperor has the strength to kill Grello Linsen, but it cannot prove that he is the one who killed Grello Linsen."

Leona's rebuttal was reasonable and well-founded, and there seemed to be no problem.

However.

Queen Fiodina's next words made Leona's expression extremely ugly.

"Your Majesty, if Leona's partner is not the Snow Emperor, then who is it that she needs to hide so painstakingly?"

King Abra also looked at Leona, "Leona, now that things have come to this, you can only call out the person who helped you kill Grello Linsen to prove your innocence."

Hearing this.

Leona was silent, and sighed after a while, "Father, I promised that adventurer that I would not reveal his identity."

"If that's the case, I will cancel the reward for you killing Grello Linsen, do you have any complaints?"

Leona's heart was bleeding.

The identity that the helmsmen of the Star Commerce Association, Qing Fuyun and Di Xuejian, were desperately trying to obtain was now slipping away from her hands.

“Father, I have no complaints.”

“As a princess of the Star Kingdom, if I don't even have this bit of integrity, how can I convince the public!”

Leona's words were sonorous and powerful, causing some of the nobles present to look at her in a new light.

Giving up the Star Commerce Association to keep her promise, there weren't many people like that.

Of course.

Some people also felt that Princess Leona was quibbling, and that the Snow Emperor was the one who helped her kill Grello Linsen.

What she was doing now was all excuses to escape responsibility.

In addition to this.

Some people also realized that this was Queen Fiodina's frame-up of her.

In any case.

In this court, a small number of people had already begun to lean towards Princess Leona in their hearts.

This was the effect that Lin Tianhao wanted to achieve with this layout.

Turn the tables.

He could get benefits, and also gain the trust of Queen Fiodina, killing two birds with one stone.

Princess Leona seemed to have lost the Star Commerce Association, but she had gained the approval of some ministers.

As for the Star Commerce Association.

She could find a way to compete for it later.

“Snow Emperor, do you have any evidence to prove that you have cooperated with Princess Leona?”

Lin Tianhao shook his head, the current result was already the best.

“No, because Leona only gave me a verbal promise and didn't give me any substantial benefits.”

King Abra's eyes were sharp, staring at Lin Tianhao, and said again, “Snow Emperor, you are a sinful person, coming here, aren't you afraid that I will arrest you?”

“Your Majesty, I have not killed anyone in the main city, you can expel me.”

Abra sneered, “I am the king of the Star Kingdom, in addition to expulsion, I can also imprison you for half a month.”

“You adventurers now seem to be racing against time to increase your strength. If I imprison you for half a month, it should be able to slow down your progress a lot, right?”

Lin Tianhao didn't speak, he was waiting, waiting for Queen Fiodina to speak.

Since he dared to come here, he was not afraid of being imprisoned.

Because Queen Fiodina had to protect him, otherwise he didn't mind dragging her down with him.

Queen Fiodina obviously knew this too.

She pondered for a while before saying, "Your Majesty, I brought the person here. You see that his red name value has decreased by 100,000, which shows that he is also actively correcting himself. Why not give him a chance to reform, how about it?"

"Oh?"

Abra looked at Queen Fiodina and asked, "I wonder what kind of opportunity the Queen is going to give her?"

"Open a dungeon for him, the Footprints of the Snow Corpse, let him enter the dungeon. If he can clear it, the red name value will definitely decrease a lot again."
