

Online game: I have super god-level talent

#8 - Chapter 8 Treeman suit, skill resurrection!

While Lin Tianhao was checking the skill attributes.

Many players were shocked by Lin Tianhao's server-wide announcement.

“Damn, who is it? So monstrous, actually soloing the novice village boss.”

“Snow Emperor? I've never heard of this ID before. Does anyone know which guild he's from?”

“Isn't the trigger condition for the novice village boss very harsh? How did he trigger it? I heard that there are ten bosses in the novice village, but so far, none have been triggered.”

.....

Many people were discussing it, especially some top players, who were very clear about how outrageous it was to solo a boss at this stage.

Lin Tianhao didn't care so much. After learning the skill, he checked the rewarded weapon again.

Thunderclap Bow: Silver.

Equip Requirement: No level requirement, limited to archer class.

Effect 1: Attack +300.

Effect 2: Critical Hit Rate +15%.

Effect 3: 15% chance to trigger paralysis effect on attack.

Effect 4: 15% chance to splash surrounding enemy units on attack.

Lin Tianhao was dumbfounded when he saw the attributes of the Thunderclap Bow.

Better than nothing attributes!

That's right, in Lin Tianhao's opinion, the only useful thing might be the paralysis effect, but the probability is so low.

As for attack power, as long as his health is stacked up, the amount of attack power doesn't matter at all.

How should I put it!

For him, it can only be used in the novice village.

The key is that this is still a silver weapon. Lin Tianhao only felt that his mentality was being messed with.

It's really outrageous.

Wouldn't it be better to have attack speed +1?

This wave is a gank from the system.

Rubbing his hands, Lin Tianhao set his sights on the Twisted Treant King.

Finally, it's time for the popular corpse looting session.

“Ding, you obtained the equipment Treant King Necklace.”

“Ding, you obtained the skill Revival.”

“Ding, you obtained the Treant King Helmet.”

“Ding, you obtained gold coins +5.”

“Ding, you obtained the heart of the Treant King.”

Lin Tianhao looked at the good things he got in his hands. Except for the gold coins, there didn't seem to be anything he could use.

Wait, this Revival skill seems pretty good.

Revival: 1 star.

Effect: Restores 1 point of health per second, not interrupted by attacks.

Cooldown: None.

Consumption: None.

Proficiency: 0/1000 (Proficiency equals health, note that the skill has no upper limit on star rating.)

Lin Tianhao didn't care about this Revival skill at first, but when he saw the introduction of proficiency, he was stunned.

This, is this the system giving him a surprise?

His talent, Hand of Heavenly Punishment, can infinitely stack health.

It just fits this skill perfectly!

Consumption: None.

Proficiency: 25130/100000 (Proficiency equals health, note that the skill has no upper limit on star rating.)

Steady!

With this skill, Lin Tianhao felt that his safety factor increased linearly.

“Resurrection, come out quickly, don't you want to level up.”

Lin Tianhao shielded private messages and friend requests and sent a message to Floating Tower Shield Mountain.

At the same time, he started leveling up.

“Whoosh!”

Lin Tianhao put on the Thunderclap Bow and hit the core of an elite Twisted Treant with an arrow.

-1524.

A huge bright red number appeared.

Critical hit!

At the same time, an arc of electricity jumped out from the elite Twisted Treant, continuously jumping around five Twisted Treants.

-152.

-152.

.....

Damage numbers jumped out one by one.

Taking damage, a total of six Twisted Treants began to approach Lin Tianhao.

However, Lin Tianhao didn't care.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Critical hit, critical hit, still critical hit...

Lin Tianhao's critical hit rate is now sixteen percent, which is already pretty good at this stage.

In addition, Lin Tianhao performed weak point strikes, increasing critical hit damage.

The elite Twisted Treant, which originally required twelve arrows to kill, now only requires four arrows.

Moreover, because of the lightning jump, after killing the first Twisted Treant, the other Twisted Treants lost 608 health points.

As Lin Tianhao pulled, more and more Twisted Treants were pulled over by him.

“This lightning jump is a double-edged sword. Pulling so much aggro at once, if you can't withstand it, you'll be killed in two hits.”

Looking at the group of Twisted Treants following behind, Lin Tianhao was a little bit tearful.

Fortunately, the attack speed is amazing now, four arrows in two seconds, easily solving a Twisted Treant.

Moreover, because of the lightning jump, when killing the Twisted Treants behind, he only needs three arrows, or even two arrows.

“Ding, you have leveled up to level 7, free attribute points +5.”

Without the slightest hesitation, Lin Tianhao added all the free attribute points to attack speed.

The attack speed of 2.13 was increased to 2.23.

“Snow Emperor, I'm here.”

Floating Tower Shield Mountain came late at this time. He had just arrived when he saw Lin Tianhao's terrifying monster-killing speed.

“Snow Emperor, you have become stronger again.”

Lin Tianhao threw a team invitation over. This time, the experience points were still divided nine to one, but Floating Tower Shield Mountain got nine, and he got one.

The next time will be to complete Floating Tower Shield Mountain's order first, and then start preparing for the next thing.

With the blessing of 2.23 attack speed, plus lightning jump, Lin Tianhao only spent three hours to raise Floating Tower Shield Mountain's level to level 10.

Not only that, after hunting a large number of elite Twisted Treants, the Treant set that Lin Tianhao promised Floating Tower Shield Mountain was also brushed out.

Wearing the Treant set, Floating Tower Shield Mountain was immediately dumbfounded when he saw the changes in his attributes.

“Snow Emperor, this set is really awesome.”

Especially the two set effects, which are simply heaven-defying.

“I still have two pieces of black iron equipment here, dropped by the Twisted Treant King. Wearing them will not affect the set effect, and can also enhance attributes.”

“How much money?”

Although he hasn't spent much time with Lin Tianhao, Floating Tower Shield Mountain already knows Lin Tianhao's urine.

“Fifty thousand for one.”

Floating Tower Shield Mountain twitched the corner of his mouth. Lin Tianhao really opened his mouth like a lion.

“Black iron equipment at this stage, fifty thousand... Okay.”

With only a slight hesitation, Floating Tower Shield Mountain agreed.

It's just that he is rich and powerful, otherwise it would be impossible to spend 100,000 yuan to buy this kind of transitional equipment.

No matter how good this set is, it's only level ten after all.

At most, this set will be eliminated in a week.

Receiving the transfer of 100,000 yuan, a satisfied smile appeared on Lin Tianhao's face.

“Happy cooperation, I should be able to get more equipment in the future, and we can continue to cooperate then.”
