

O game 81

Chapter 81 The ancient Eastern country rests here forever!

However, it's useless here. If it were outside, it would definitely be a powerful tool for kiting.

Reducing attack speed or movement speed alone would be strong, but reducing both simultaneously is truly insane.

Especially for warrior classes, their attack speed and movement speed aren't fast to begin with. Once reduced by twenty percent, they become sitting ducks.

The same applies to monsters.

However, since the effect doesn't specify whether it's forced, it's likely that it can be removed with purification.

But!

It's still useless.

Because normal attacks can trigger it, Lin Tianhao only needs to keep attacking, and whether others use purification or not is irrelevant.

Retracting his thoughts.

The door of Aunt Chen's house was knocked, and an old voice came from outside.

"Aunt Chen, is that adventurer here?"

"Yes, he is, Village Chief."

Aunt Chen opened the door, and a short, white-haired old man appeared outside.

Village Chief Li: ???

Health: ???

Attack: ???

Skills: ???

Everything was question marks.

Lin Tianhao felt his scalp tingle upon seeing this.

"Brave adventurer, thank you so much. However, simply killing those ice snow werewolves isn't enough."

"This place was once peaceful, but a god from the west passed by, and it began to snow heavily for a full half-year."

"Since then, this place has been covered in ice and snow for half the year. After the ice and snow arrive, monsters also appear."

Lin Tianhao knew that he had triggered a side quest storyline.

"Village Chief, is there anything I can do to help?"

"We all hope that this place can return to its original state. If you can destroy the traces left by the snow corpse and restore peace to our village, our village will offer our most precious treasure."

"Ding, Village Chief Li has issued a quest to you. Do you accept?"

"Quest Requirement: Destroy the traces of the snow corpse and restore peace to the village."

"Quest Penalty: None."

"Quest Reward: Weapon Evolution Scroll + 1."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up!

This was definitely a good thing.

A Weapon Evolution Scroll can evolve a weapon.

After all, for him, these were all unexpected surprises.

"Please rest assured, Village Chief, I will do my best."

Hearing this.

Village Chief Li revealed a satisfied smile on his face.

"Brave adventurer, good luck."

Lin Tianhao nodded and walked out of Aunt Chen's house.

"In that case, I will take my leave."

He was going to continue his campaign.

Passing through the village.

Many people were observing him through the windows.

But not a single person appeared.

They were all just watching from afar, seemingly worried that monsters would appear again.

Walking forward.

It was still a vast expanse of white snow, with no end in sight.

Suddenly.

Lin Tianhao kicked something under his feet. He kicked away the surrounding snowdrifts and saw a stone tablet.

Lin Tianhao swept away the snow on the stone tablet and saw the words on it.

"Eastern Ancient Kingdom, buried here."

These simple eight words made Lin Tianhao think of many things in an instant.

Players from the Dragon Kingdom should have descended into this Eastern Ancient Kingdom after entering the Twilight of the Gods.

But for some reason, this Eastern Ancient Kingdom was buried here.

This was the reason why Dragon Kingdom players entered the Westernized Star Kingdom.

Continuing forward.

Lin Tianhao inexplicably felt a sense of oppression, as if some force was pressing on his heart, causing his heartbeat to suddenly accelerate.

"This is... Divine Might!!"

Even in his previous life, Lin Tianhao had not felt Divine Might many times, but now, he actually felt Divine Might in this instance.

"Ding, you are affected by Divine Might, all attributes decreased by ten percent."

"Crack, crack—"

Suddenly.

Lin Tianhao's expression changed drastically.

Because cracks actually appeared on his Purification Jade Pendant.

In just an instant, Lin Tianhao put away the Purification Jade Pendant.

Purification Jade Pendant: Special Equipment.

Wearing Requirement: Can be worn by the active transferor, cannot be dropped, cannot be taken, cannot be worn unless actively given to outsiders.

Effect: Immune to 80% of control, slow, curse, poison, burn, freeze, paralysis, and other negative buffs.

Durability: 80.

Lin Tianhao's reaction speed was already very fast, but the Purification Jade Pendant's durability had decreased by twenty.

As special equipment, it was very difficult to damage.

But this Divine Might had damaged the Purification Jade Pendant.

"Ding, you are affected by Divine Might, the increase in all attribute reduction is 50%."

"Ding, you are affected by ice and snow, the increase in movement speed and attack speed reduction is 25%."

Lin Tianhao gasped.

As expected, without the Purification Jade Pendant, his attributes were greatly affected.

His original attack speed of 6.73 had now dropped directly to 1.68.

Damn it!

A seventy-five percent decrease was too outrageous.

Lin Tianhao felt his scalp tingle, and his movement speed and health were also greatly affected.

In other words, his damage would now be greatly reduced.

This was terrifying.

The difficulty of this instance was already extremely terrifying, and now he was also suffering such a severe impact.

"It seems that I was too smooth before, which gave me confidence. The Hell difficulty of this instance is more terrifying than I imagined."

Lin Tianhao continued to move forward under the Divine Might.

Abruptly.

Lin Tianhao sensed something moving under the snow.

Before he could react, an ice snow serpent rushed out of the snow and bit at Lin Tianhao with its bloody mouth open.

Lin Tianhao immediately rolled away to avoid it. At the same time, the feather arrow in his hand flew out.

Ice Snow Serpent (Bronze): Level 50.

Health: 30000000 / 30000000.

Attack: 10010.

Skills: ???

Bronze Boss!

And it was a snake!

As everyone knows, a snake's body is smooth, and it is very, very difficult to knock a snake into a floating state.

If the attack speed was not affected, Lin Tianhao would still be able to do it.

But with an attack speed of 1.68, it was as difficult as ascending to heaven to do this.

Lin Tianhao still had 380 free attribute points in his hand at this time. If he added all of them to attack speed, his attack speed could reach 12.15.

However, this was the unaffected attack speed.

If he had to deduct the seventy-five percent attack speed impact, his attack speed would drop to 3.03.

Very low, very low.

But if he controlled the attack rhythm well, it was not completely impossible to achieve infinite knock-up.

After only a slight thought, Lin Tianhao added all 380 free attribute points to attack speed.

Letting the attack speed reach 12.15, actually 3.03.

"Swish, swish, swish!"

Lin Tianhao kept pulling and releasing, and the String Twisting Arrow Technique was also constantly being used.

-11023.

-11024.

.....

Because of the fifty percent reduction in all attributes, the damage Lin Tianhao was outputting now had also decreased a lot.
