Chapter 89 Fan Dian: Ice and Snow Goddess!

Next, it's time to continue forward.

Still, it was a landscape of white snow.

However, this time, Lin Tianhao saw a palace in the distance.

The palace was dilapidated, not the castle-type palace of the West, but more like an ancient temple of Great Xia.

It was just much grander than ordinary temples.

He arrived in front of this palace.

Lin Tianhao's eyes fell on the plaque at the entrance of the palace.

The divine might that enveloped Lin Tianhao dissipated!

Lin Tianhao didn't get affected by the divine might because of the Godslayer mark.

But that didn't mean the divine might disappeared.

But now.

Standing here, Lin Tianhao could clearly feel that the divine might was being repelled.

After pondering for a moment.

Lin Tianhao stepped into the Mortal Hall.

As soon as he set foot here, Lin Tianhao saw a statue that was not very tall in the center of the Mortal Hall.

It was a person wearing armor, with the aura of an ancient Great Xia general.

Lin Tianhao's eyes fell on it. In the hands of this ancient general was a long sword.

This long sword was wider than anything Lin Tianhao had ever seen.

If it weren't for the sufficient length, Lin Tianhao would have suspected that it was a shield.

On either side of this ancient general were two stone pillars, with two lines of words on the stone pillars.

"Gods without morality, Immortals without virtue, Mortals suffer."

"Fight against the heavens, slay gods to live, forge immortality."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows slightly. It seemed that this ancient general was the Godslayer warrior.

Lin Tianhao looked around, but didn't see the name of this ancient general.

At the same time.

He was also a little curious.

There seemed to be no danger here.

Since that was the case.

Then, just like the previous situation, after passing through here, he would encounter danger.

And intuition told Lin Tianhao.

Since this was the palace of the Godslayer General, then what place would be ahead?

The answer was already obvious.

Lin Tianhao stepped through the Mortal Hall.

Behind the Mortal Hall, it was no longer a vast expanse of white snow.

But... magma!

A field of scorching magma.

Everywhere Lin Tianhao looked, it was all magma.

Lin Tianhao was dumbfounded.

One side was white snow, and the other side was endless magma. This was simply terrifying.

In the middle of the magma, there was a road that Lin Tianhao couldn't see the end of at a glance.

He stepped onto this dark road with blood-colored patterns.

Lin Tianhao didn't know what would happen next.

Most likely, it would be some monster.

The Ice Snow Giant's health points were already as high as 85 million.

If there were monsters here, how high would their health points be?

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth rose. It seemed that he could happily stack health points again.

However, something was destined to disappoint Lin Tianhao.

He had been walking for almost ten minutes.

Yet not a single monster had appeared. It seemed that there were no monsters here at all.

Just at this moment.

Lin Tianhao suddenly felt a chill sweeping toward him.

"Here it comes?"

Lin Tianhao was not only not afraid, but also a little expectant.

After all, like this dungeon, being able to stack health points so crazily before the second job change.

In Lin Tianhao's impression, this was absolutely unique.

A woman dressed in ice clothes floated out from the magma in front.

"A spirit body?"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows, and at the same time, his eyes also fell on her.

??? : ???

Health Points: ???

Attack: ???

Skills: ???

Everything was a question mark. Not even a single attribute could be seen by Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao tightened the longbow in his hand and asked in a deep voice: "Are you the Ice Snow Goddess?"

The Ice Snow Goddess nodded, "That's right, I am the Ice Snow Goddess."

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed, and he raised his hand and shot an arrow through the air.

The Ice Snow Goddess frowned slightly. The feather arrow flying in front of her was actually frozen into an ice sculpture, and then shattered with a bang.

"As expected of the Ice Snow Goddess."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. He had guessed that such a situation would occur, but since he had come this far, a battle was inevitable.

"Adventurer, there is actually no need for us to become enemies."

The Ice Snow Goddess spoke unhurriedly. Her voice was very ethereal, as if it could penetrate people's hearts.

"Oh?"

Lin Tianhao looked at the Ice Snow Goddess with interest, "There is no need for us to become enemies. So, we can become friends?"

"Why not?"

"As long as you are willing to help me, I can give you a country."

"The Star Kingdom, using the benefits of a country to make you my friend, is my sincerity enough?"

Hearing these words.

Lin Tianhao's breathing became rapid.

The Star Kingdom may not be worth mentioning compared to those great powers outside.

But if he could obtain the Star Kingdom, the benefits that could be obtained would be immeasurable.

Later, players will create territories, but in general, a territory that can develop to the level of a city-state is already commendable.

If you want to develop better, it can be said to be extremely difficult.

However.

Lin Tianhao was very clear about one thing: benefits and risks coexist.

A pie will not fall from the sky.

When someone puts huge benefits in front of you, there is a high probability that there will be a huge crisis behind it.

Just like... Myanmar North fraud!

What you see is high salary benefits, what others see is your kidney, of course, including the heart, liver, spleen, lungs, cornea, etc.

"Why should I believe you?" Lin Tianhao asked.

The Ice Snow Goddess said very confidently: "I am a god, I don't lie."

"Stop talking nonsense, who can prove that gods don't lie?"

"You are a god, at most you can only prove that you are very powerful, and you are now in a spirit body state, you should still be in a sealed state, that can only prove that you were very powerful, but it can't prove that you won't lie."

Lin Tianhao's words were sharp, making the Ice Snow Goddess a little annoyed.

As a god, she was actually questioned by a mortal like this.

"Then what do you want me to do to believe me?" the Ice Snow Goddess asked.

"I won't make things difficult for you. Just give me tens of thousands of free attribute points, or a few divine artifacts, divine skills, etc., and I might believe you."

When the Ice Snow Goddess heard Lin Tianhao's words, her face became extremely gloomy.

Just give tens of thousands of free attribute points?

Damn it!

Do you really think free attribute points are cabbage?

And a few divine artifacts?

Being able to give you one divine artifact is already thanking God.

"I can't give you these. Currently, I am in a sealed state, and at most I can only give you a blessing from the gods."

"Okay, then give me a blessing from the gods first."

"No problem, but you have to promise to help me."

"Help you with what?" Lin Tianhao asked.
