

Online game: I have super god-level talent

#9 - Chapter 9 Be careful of your sister!

"Snow Emperor, wait a moment."

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain saw that Lin Tianhao intended to log off, and immediately called out to Lin Tianhao.

"Is there anything else?"

"Snow Emperor, I am the young master of the Floating Slaughter Guild. I would like to invite you to our Floating Slaughter Guild, with an annual salary of ten million. How about it?"

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain has his own understanding of the game. Lin Tianhao's skills are too strong, stronger than any professional player he has ever seen.

With just this skill, he is worth an annual salary of ten million.

Moreover, Lin Tianhao also has such strong attributes.

"Sorry, I created my own team."

Lin Tianhao shook his head, "Thank you for your kindness."

"Oh? So that's how it is, but we can also become long-term partners."

"No problem."

Lin Tianhao nodded. Suddenly, he paused, "You said you are the young master of the Floating Slaughter Guild?"

"Yes, what's wrong?"

"Since we've met, let me give you a reminder: be careful of your sister."

In his previous life, three months after the launch of Twilight of the Gods, news broke that the Floating Slaughter Group was undergoing a major reshuffle.

Originally, the young master of the Floating Slaughter Group had a car accident due to brake failure while driving, becoming disabled.

Half a year later, it was revealed that the mastermind behind sabotaging the Floating Slaughter Group's young master's brakes was this young master's sister.

"Be careful of my sister?"

Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain frowned, "What's wrong?"

"Just remember what I said."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand. Since they had met, his reminder was already enough.

As for the Floating Slaughter Shield Mountain's ultimate fate, it was none of Lin Tianhao's concern.

This time, Lin Tianhao did not log off in place.

Instead, he returned to the novice village before logging off, mainly because he had offended that assassin, and he still had to be careful.

It would not be worth it if he was killed by the assassin after logging off in the wild.

After logging off, Lin Tianhao looked at the time.

Eight o'clock in the morning.

Zhou Xiaopang was still in the game.

Lin Tianhao did not disturb him, opened the refrigerator, and made breakfast.

As a cross-era online game, Twilight of the Gods has a very magical point, which is that in the game, the body gets full rest, and even the spirit can be more sufficient.

Later, some experts came out to popularize the idea that this is because being in the game is equivalent to sleeping.

This statement is not correct.

That was discovered later in the game. Leveling up and increasing attributes in the game.

Although reality cannot be materialized, it can sublimate people's souls, and naturally the spirit will get better and better.

"Fatty, log off and eat."

Because of budget reasons, Lin Tianhao and the others used ordinary game pods instead of advanced nutrient pods.

It is said that the most advanced nutrient pod, after preparing the nutrient solution, can stay online continuously for half a month, and the body's nutrition can keep up.

Zhou Xiaopang had just logged off and smiled at Lin Tianhao: "Brother Hao, you are right. It is still very easy to make money on your own."

"I got a level seven piece of equipment today and sold it for twelve thousand yuan. There are so many tycoon players in this game."

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally. It's not that there are many tycoon players.

On the contrary, the number of individual tycoon players is generally not large.

After all, the game industry of PC games can reach hundreds of billions, and the game industry of this Twilight of the Gods will definitely be in the hundreds of billions or even trillions.

The consortia and the government naturally know some of the essence of Twilight of the Gods and are naturally very clear about the importance of becoming stronger in Twilight of the Gods.

Lin Tianhao knew the reason why Zhou Xiaopang was so fierce in the early stage. The profession he chose was a warrior. After leaving the novice village, he met a bard and heard the bard reciting incomprehensible poems.

Zhou Xiaopang used the ancient poems of the dragon country's past sages to put on a great show in front of the bard.

This move not only did not make the bard dissatisfied, but instead made him admire Zhou Xiaopang very much. He immediately prepared to become Zhou Xiaopang's disciple.

And the apprenticeship gift was the warrior's three passive skills.

Relying on these three passive skills, Zhou Xiaopang was a fierce batch in the later stages of the game.

The three passive skills are Double Armor, Double Shield, and Double Slash.

The skill effects are:

Double Armor: All attacks received will reflect a certain percentage of the damage to the opponent.

Double Shield: Each time a control skill is used, a shield with a percentage of the caster's health is gained.

Double Slash: Each attack (including skills, equipment effects, potion effects, etc.) may trigger multiple effects.

Counter-damage, shield, damage, relatively speaking, it is still relatively versatile.

Especially, these three are passive skills and can be triggered infinitely.

Moreover, Double Slash and Double Shield can be stacked on each other.

For example, the warrior's charge skill is a control skill that can trigger Double Shield, and if Double Slash triggers multiple effects, then the shield will also trigger multiple effects.

"Brother Hao, I am already level 9 and have obtained three passive skills."

"I will definitely be able to get higher-level equipment later."

Lin Tianhao nodded, "Fatty, don't worry, I have already paid my sister's surgery fee."

"Paid?"

"Yes."

Lin Tianhao took out the payment list, "I have better luck than you. I brushed a boss."

"Damn, Brother Hao, are you Snow Emperor?"

Lin Tianhao nodded and said to Zhou Xiaopang: "Eat, I will sort out a novice village guide for you later. In the novice village, there are many hidden rewards."

"So that's how it is, Brother Hao, you are so fierce. If Li Haitao knew your current achievements, his intestines would probably turn green with regret."

Lin Tianhao ate while recalling the novice village guide.

These hidden rewards in the novice village are more suitable for each profession.

"Fatty, go to the novice village tavern, buy two bottles of the most expensive spirits, and go to the blacksmith shop to let the blacksmith shop forge you the strongest warrior weapon."

"Then, he will give you a series of quests. The higher the completion of this series of quests, the more rewards you can get."

"Okay."

Zhou Xiaopang did not ask how Lin Tianhao knew, and readily agreed.

After the meal, Lin Tianhao gave Zhou Xiaopang two more guides, one suitable for Monkey and one for Glasses.

"Fatty, you enter the game, I will go see Qingqing."

"Let's go together."

Zhou Xiaopang did not enter the game alone and came to the hospital with Lin Tianhao.

Because Lin Tianhao had already paid the fee, the hospital was arranging the surgery.

In the ward.

Lin Tianhao looked at the unconscious Lin Qingqing, his eyes softened a lot.

"Doctor, when will my sister's surgery start?" Lin Tianhao asked.

"It is already being arranged. The surgery can be performed this afternoon. You can sign here."

"Okay."

Lin Tianhao nodded and signed the surgery confirmation form.

After doing these things, Lin Tianhao returned to the rental house and entered the game.
