

O game 93

Chapter 93 - A real novice village!

"Yes."

Village Chief Li smiled, "For you adventurers, we should be the newbie village."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised.

You should know that any one of Village Chief Li and the others could easily beat the old village chief and Wang the blacksmith of the newbie village.

But now, Village Chief Li actually said that they were their newbie village.

What about the previous newbie village?

A fake?

"He knows what you're thinking. That newbie village isn't a true newbie village in the real sense. It's just because we weren't there that they temporarily took over our duties."

"Now that the Ice Goddess's spiritual body has been destroyed, we should naturally leave here and fulfill our duties."

As Village Chief Li's voice fell, a ray of light descended from the sky.

"Global Announcement: The true newbie village is reviving, and the destroyed newbie village is about to return."

"Global Announcement: The true newbie village is reviving, and the destroyed newbie village is about to return."

... ..

The sound of the global announcement resounded in all directions, immediately shocking countless people.

"What happened?"

"The true newbie village is reviving? Could it be that the newbie villages we encountered before were all fake?"

"Damn, does that mean the players who enter the game later are going to take off? I'm so envious."

... ..

Discussions arose one after another.

The appearance of the true newbie village would undoubtedly shock many people.

Lin Tianhao watched as the newbie village disappeared, and a system announcement suddenly sounded.

However, it seems that it can be used to prevent being ganked.

Especially in the later stages of the game, after players establish territories, they can have inscription masters create return scrolls, and the resurrection point can also be chosen as their own territory.

But territories are not invincible. Later, there will be territory battles.

In other words, other players can come and attack the territory. If the territory is breached, the enemy can guard the resurrection altar and kill the guild's higher-ups down to level one.

After all, this kind of thing happened in his previous life.

But now, this title can effectively help Lin Tianhao avoid this situation.

It's similar to how Lin Tianhao was spawn-camped in Blackwind City before. He couldn't break free, nor could he fight back.

But...

...if he had this title, he could directly resurrect in the newbie village.

It's just that...

...looking at it now, this talent doesn't seem to be of much help to him.

Preventing spawn-camping?

That's not very realistic.

With his current strength, it wouldn't be so easy to be spawn-camped.

Of course...

...it's better to have it than not. Anyway, titles like this don't have much impact.

Withdrawing his thoughts, Lin Tianhao left without hesitation.

There was nothing he could do here anyway.

Emerging from the instance dungeon...

...Lin Tianhao reappeared in the Starry Kingdom's palace.

At this time, only a priest was waiting here.

He was startled by Lin Tianhao's appearance.

"You... how did you get out?"

Lin Tianhao spread his hands and said with a smile, "I cleared the instance dungeon, so naturally I came out."

"This... how is this possible!!"

The priest was shocked upon hearing this.

"No... impossible."

"No one has ever been able to come out of that instance dungeon. How did you do it?!"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows and smiled, "How I did it is not important. What's important is that I completed the challenge."

Hearing this...

...the priest immediately shouted outside, "Come quickly, the Snow Emperor is out."

Before long...

...many people gathered in the main hall.

Leona, Tixuejian, the Prime Minister, the Grand Marshal, Queen Fiodingyu, and King Abra all came.

The reason was simple.

None of them had expected Lin Tianhao to come out alive.

"Snow Emperor, you're out?!"

Leona said in shock.

"Has your sin been eliminated?"

There was an uncontrollable excitement on Leona's face.

But she still suppressed this excitement.

Because she knew very well that she couldn't show it too obviously, otherwise these astute people present would definitely see through the problem.

If there was anyone who was the most withdrawn in the scene, it would definitely be Queen Fiodingyu.

She couldn't wait for Lin Tianhao to stay in the instance dungeon forever.

But now, Lin Tianhao had actually come out, which was extremely surprising to her.

Not only that...

...Lin Tianhao knew her secret. If Lin Tianhao broke off relations because she had him enter this instance dungeon, then her situation would be very dangerous.

"Your Majesty, what now?"

Lin Tianhao asked with a smile.

King Abra nodded and said, "Snow Emperor, you have truly given me a big surprise."

Having said that...

...King Abra asked, "Tell me, what reward do you want?"

"A God-Grade Talent Awakening Stone."

Lin Tianhao said straightforwardly.

Talent Awakening Stones are not rare, but Saint-Grade and God-Grade, such high-level Talent Awakening Stones, are very important to him.

Moreover...

...because his talent is a Transcendent-Grade talent, but the Talent Awakening Stone he used last time was God-Grade, he only awakened a portion of his talent.

According to his speculation, if he can't continue to awaken with God-Grade Talent Awakening Stones, then his talent will be stuck at three stars.

It's just that the proficiency for three-star to four-star is not enough, so Lin Tianhao is only guessing and can't be sure.

What if a new God-Grade Talent Awakening Stone can help him awaken another talent?

Regardless of the situation, he needs a God-Grade Talent Awakening Stone.

King Abra pondered slightly.

"Snow Emperor, I naturally have this God-Grade Talent Awakening Stone."

"However, this instance dungeon was originally meant to eliminate the sins on your body. Your request is a bit excessive."

Lin Tianhao frowned, "Then I don't know what Your Majesty thinks I should ask for that wouldn't be considered excessive?"

Hearing this...

...King Abra smiled and said, "I don't have God-Grade ones, but if you need it, I can give you a Saint-Grade one."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly. He knew that he didn't have the right to bargain here.

Even if he didn't want to agree, the current situation wasn't one where he could do whatever he wanted.

"Okay, since Your Majesty has spoken, then Saint-Grade it is."

King Abra waved his hand.

Immediately, someone brought Lin Tianhao a Saint-Grade Talent Awakening Stone.

Lin Tianhao took the Saint-Grade Talent Awakening Stone, waved his hand, and said, "Your Majesty, Queen, now that my mission has been completed, can I leave?"
