Chapter 95 - Taohualou: Water is like smoke!

Emerging from the palace, Lin Tianhao began to sort out the strategy for the hidden Divine Archer class in the royal capital, Tianxing City.

However.

Just as he left the palace, a figure blocked Lin Tianhao's path.

The person was none other than Klinfirth Bird.

Klinfirth Bird's expression was somewhat solemn as she stared at Lin Tianhao for a moment before slowly speaking:

"Snow Emperor, let's make a deal. What will it take to keep that secret?"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. "You came so quickly. How about the same request as in the main hall: a Divine Talent Awakening Stone."

Klinfirth Bird frowned. "The Divine Talent Awakening Stones within the palace are all recorded. If the Queen gives you one, it might be difficult to explain."

Lin Tianhao smiled and said, "What's so hard to explain? I can nominally join the Queen's faction, and the Divine Talent Awakening Stone can be considered a reward."

Klinfirth Bird shook her head. "At this critical juncture, who in the palace would dare to openly win you over?"

"You've been to the Snow Corpse's Footprints and cleared it. You should know that our Starry Empire's God is there. If you can gain our God's approval, from a certain perspective, your influence among the nobles of the Starry Kingdom is second only to the King."

Lin Tianhao was stunned.

Indeed.

To clear the Snow Corpse's Footprints, it wasn't necessarily about killing the Ice and Snow Goddess.

Gaining the Ice and Snow Goddess's approval could also clear the Snow Corpse's Footprints.

However.

Klinfirth Bird thought he had gained the Ice and Snow Goddess's approval.

If she knew that he had come out after killing the Ice and Snow Goddess's remnant soul, he wondered what her reaction would be.

"Since you can't give it, let's talk about it later."

"I know this secret is for profit, so you can rest assured that I won't reveal this secret unless absolutely necessary," Lin Tianhao said.

Klinfirth Bird looked at Lin Tianhao meaningfully.

Lin Tianhao's words made sense, and it seemed to be the truth.

"Alright, if you want something in the future, you can come find me again. I also hope that you can keep your promise."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and turned to leave.

He didn't rush out of the city to hunt monsters but went straight to the Peach Blossom House in Tianxing City.

Don't misunderstand; it's just a place with many fallen girls.

Lin Tianhao's main purpose here was to trigger the hidden Divine Archer class.

If he could also save a few fallen girls along the way, that would be acceptable.

Full-immersion virtual reality, those who know, know.

Few players can afford to spend money in the Peach Blossom House at this stage.

Even the few high-level players who can afford it wouldn't spend a lot of gold coins here for pleasure at this stage.

After all, not everyone is like Lin Tianhao, who has accumulated nearly 100,000 gold coins in just a few days.

Although players don't often come to the Peach Blossom House, many NPCs do.

In particular, some merchants, in order to seek benefits for themselves, inevitably have to become high-level members here and then host banquets for the nobles of the Starry Kingdom.

What's this called?

Catering to their preferences!

After all, which is more comfortable than getting a woman for free, compared to spending your own money?

Cough cough!

The madam wasn't there to receive Lin Tianhao but to receive a viscount who walked in with him.

"Oh, Lord Flinz, you haven't been here for half a day. Cherry misses you so much."

The viscount named Flinz waved his hand. "I'm not here for Cherry today."

"I heard a long time ago that today is the day the courtesan Shui Ruyan leaves the pavilion. The guest of honor should naturally be me."

The madam nodded with a smile. "Miss Shui Ruyan has been preparing for a long time. It's just that many adults have come today..."

Lin Tianhao couldn't help but brighten his eyes when he heard their conversation.

Shui Ruyan!

One of the three great beauties of the Starry Kingdom!

Of course, this was voted by the players. If the NPCs were to vote, it would definitely be the King's three princesses.

However, Lin Tianhao knew that although the three princesses were extremely beautiful, with appearances no less than those of first-tier female stars in reality, they were indeed inferior to the three great beauties voted by the players.

However.

Lin Tianhao remembered.

In his previous life's game, Shui Ruyan had never left the pavilion.

Of course.

The so-called leaving-the-pavilion ceremony had been held many times, but unfortunately, no one could meet Shui Ruyan's conditions.

Later, some people even felt that Shui Ruyan's leaving the pavilion was just a gimmick to help the Peach Blossom House make money.

Lin Tianhao's purpose here wasn't Shui Ruyan, but it wouldn't be bad to feast his eyes.

He found a seat and sat down, and immediately a woman in a thin gauze green dress came to greet him.

Lin Tianhao threw out a bag of gold coins and said, "Is the Nine Phoenix Room still empty?"

The green-clad woman was dumbfounded when she saw the bag of gold coins Lin Tianhao threw out.

You should know that a dozen gold coins are enough to spend the night here.

This bag has at least a hundred gold coins.

"Guest, you're in luck. Tonight, the big shots are all here for Sister Ruyan. The Nine Phoenix Room is still available."

Lin Tianhao's eyes lit up. "Lead the way."

"Yes."

The green-clad woman led the way, bringing Lin Tianhao to the entrance of the Nine Phoenix Room.

As the name suggests, the Nine Phoenix Room has nine beautiful women, each with their own merits. Here, one can indulge in extreme pleasure.

However.

Lin Tianhao's purpose here wasn't pleasure.

Pleasure.

That's something for the future.

After entering the Nine Phoenix Room, Lin Tianhao looked around and quickly saw a vase that was more than half a person tall in the corner.

According to what he saw in his previous life, there was a quest scroll inside this vase.

By following that quest scroll, one could obtain a Divine hidden class for archers.

Last time, a player was too excited and accidentally knocked over this vase, and in the end, he had to pay a hundred gold coins in compensation.

This is all small money. After all, gold coins and a Divine hidden class cannot be compared at all.

Just as Lin Tianhao was about to pretend to accidentally break the vase, an anxious voice came from outside.

"General Ke Zhen, the Nine Phoenix Room really already has a guest..."

"I don't care who he is. Today, the Nine Phoenix Room can only be mine. No one can stop me!"

As this voice fell, the door of the Nine Phoenix Room was kicked open, and then a general with a fierce face and wearing armor kicked open the door.

Lin Tianhao frowned.

After General Ke Zhen kicked open the door, he saw Lin Tianhao. "Boy, get lost if you don't want to die."

"Get lost?"

Lin Tianhao smiled noncommittally. "What if I don't leave?"

"Don't leave?"

General Ke Zhen sneered. "Boy, do you know who I am?"

"Randy Ke Zhen, the number one fierce general under the Grand Marshal," Lin Tianhao said.

"Since you know my identity, you still dare to challenge me?!"

Lin Tianhao said unhurriedly, "I know your identity, but do you know who I am?"
