Chapter 99 - Bid for the Heart of the Golden Lord!

"Ding, you are indiscriminately killing innocent people in the main city, and the city guards are about to arrest you."

Lin Tianhao didn't care and picked up the quest scroll that the beggar dropped.

At the same time.

More than a dozen city guards came and surrounded Lin Tianhao.

"Presumptuous! You dare to kill people in Sky Star City!"

The leading city guard captain sternly rebuked, "Now come back with us to face trial."

"Trial me?"

Lin Tianhao smiled playfully, "You are not qualified enough."

As soon as he finished speaking.

The divine projection bestowed by the Ice Goddess appeared.

I have to say.

The divine projection bestowed by the Ice Goddess is very useful. After seeing the divine projection bestowed by the Ice Goddess, all these city guards knelt down.

"Greetings, my God, may my God be forever safe!!"

Not only them, but some NPCs around them all knelt down, extremely respectful.

As for the surrounding players.

They were all looking at this scene with a dazed expression.

Some who reacted quickly had already filmed this scene and posted it on the forum.

"Damn, is this so outrageous? After killing someone in Sky Star City, the city guards not only didn't arrest him, but they even knelt down to him."

"Am I playing the same game as him? Last time I just hit another player, and I was fined five gold coins."

... ..

Many people were discussing.

The video of Lin Tianhao using the divine projection to deter the city guards quickly went viral online, and all kinds of experts came out to share their understanding.

"There are also nobles among the players, and there is also such a thing as reputation value. The vice president of our guild is now a baron of the Star Kingdom, enjoying certain privileges."

"Can a baron kill people in the main city? Could it be because the person killed was just a beggar, so he wasn't held accountable?"

"It doesn't seem like it. I think that even a baron shouldn't make these people kneel after killing someone. And listen to what the city guards said, 'Greetings, my God, may my God be forever safe,' it's obviously related to the projection behind that player."

... ..

For a time.

There were all kinds of opinions online.

Later on, a player named 'Poor Daoist Ambition' explained it in the forum.

"It should be the projection. I also did a quest and got the blessing of the gods. After getting the blessing, you can release something called the Divine Projection, which is very similar to this fellow Daoist's."

"The god of faith of the Star Kingdom is the Ice Goddess, and this player's divine projection should be that of the Ice Goddess."

As soon as Poor Daoist Ambition's explanation came out, many people immediately understood.

"So that's how it is, but there is even such a thing as the blessing of the gods, this is too outrageous."

"I don't know, anyway, it sounds very awesome. Can Daoist Ambition popularize what the blessing of the gods is?"

"Yes, yes, yes, popularize, popularize, what is this blessing of the gods?"

... ..

A large number of people started @ Daoist Ambition.

After all, very few people can come into contact with the blessing of the gods at this stage.

Daoist Ambition was approachable and quickly responded.

"The blessing of the gods can grant extraordinary skills. What I got was the blessing of the Golden Light Immortal of the Daoist sect. The reward is the Golden Light Charm. The usage is similar to the Golden Light Immortal you see on TV. It integrates offense and defense and is still relatively strong."

"As for how to obtain it, quests issued by ordinary NPCs cannot be obtained. You need to obtain a quest scroll and complete the quest on it to have a chance to obtain it."

... ..

"Quest requirement: Obtain 1 million gold coins within three days."

"Quest penalty: Unknown."

"Quest reward: Unknown."

After getting this quest, Lin Tianhao didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Making money?

Is this difficult?

Not difficult!

Therefore, Lin Tianhao planned to hold an auction.

As for the auction location, Lin Tianhao directly chose a group chat auction.

And he started adding friends like crazy.

In his previous life, he knew all the big shots with faces, guild leaders, heads of financial groups, heads of government departments, and private bosses.

Lin Tianhao added all the rich people he could think of as friends.

Thanks to the influence brought by his Snow Emperor title, 90% of them passed his friend request.

Then.

Lin Tianhao pulled them all into a group.

"Snow Emperor, what is this for?" Floating Slaughter Divine Wolf popped up in the group.

Berserker Blade: Suddenly pulling people from our big guilds into a group, are we going to farm a world boss?

Asura Yize: Snow Emperor, do you have a way to make a fortune that you are going to share?

... ..

Lin Tianhao saw that he had pulled in almost everyone and said in the group: Lacking gold coins, preparing to auction some equipment, ranging from level 10 to level 50.

As he spoke, Lin Tianhao first posted several sets of level 10 equipment that he had dropped from the novice village.

Startling Swan Dream Frost: Snow Emperor, your equipment is not good, level 10, it's a bit outdated.

Lin Tianhao hesitated for a moment and threw out a pile of level 45 equipment. These were all dropped from farming the Bloodback Xuan Turtle.

Asura Yize: Snow Emperor, our elite team players are only level 21 or 22 now. We can't heavily reserve your level 45 equipment now.

Lin Tianhao supported his forehead.

He was a little taken for granted.

He had dropped a lot of equipment, but the level gap was too big.

As for the previous skill books, they were basically all fed to the Withered Tree Revives skill.

"Wait for me."

Lin Tianhao responded.

Equipment is easily eliminated, but skills are not.

He was going to farm some more skill books.

But... ..

He seemed to have a better choice.

For example, the Lord's Heart.

Thinking like this.

Lin Tianhao directly posted the attributes of the Golden Lord's Heart.

"Golden Lord's Heart, you can build a territory now if you take it down now, and because it is golden grade, the territory built can have five territory characteristics."

The group chat fell into a brief silence.

After a short while.

Asura Yize said, "So-so, I'll offer two thousand gold coins."

Floating Slaughter Divine Wolf: ? ? ?

Floating Slaughter Divine Wolf: Since Brother Yize doesn't like it, then our Floating Slaughter Guild will offer two hundred thousand gold coins.

Startling Swan Dream Frost: Snow Emperor is willing to part with it. Our Startling Swan Guild has always wanted to build our own territory. We offer two hundred and fifty thousand gold coins.

Berserker Blade: Don't fight anymore, our Berserker Guild offers four hundred thousand gold coins.

The price was raised all at once.

After the price reached four hundred thousand gold coins, it stagnated a bit.

No other reason.

Now these guilds, even if they gather the strength of the entire guild, three or four hundred thousand gold coins is almost the limit.

Asura Yize: Snow Emperor, I really don't have any more gold coins. How about four hundred thousand gold coins plus five million in cash?

Berserker Blade: Tsk tsk tsk, Asura Yize, didn't you just say it was so-so? How come you're raising the price?
