Chapter 1331 The Great Sage Equaling Heaven, Sun Wukong!

The old director was chased all the way to the lonely king's palace.

They followed the clues all the way and after several people's pursuit, they finally met the old director who was under attack from all sides in front of the Palace of the Lonely King.

"It's the old director."

The ambitious Taoist priest did not act rashly. This was Mo Yuan, so it was better for them not to reveal their position first.

Lin Tianhao also looked at the old director of Bureau 749.

This man has a childlike face, white hair and a ruddy complexion.

What attracts the most attention is his exploding muscles.

His body size is not as big as that of the Taishan buffalo, but the muscles on his body seem to be stronger than those of the Taishan buffalo.

"Is this the old director of Bureau 749? His muscles are incredible!"

at this time.

The old director's situation is not very good.

In front of him are two tall golden gatekeepers, and behind him is a monkey standing upright.

There is nothing special about this monkey except that it stands upright like a human.

If I put on clothes and a hat, people would probably think it was just a person standing there.

"Little old man, you're not going to run away?"

at this time.

The monkey stood up and looked at the old director with a smile.

"Aren't you a very good runner? Run another one for me to see."

The old director grinned and said:

"Brother Monkey, what hatred or grudge do you have? Why do you have to keep chasing me?"

"I am also a monkey that evolved into a human. Maybe eight thousand years ago, we were still one family!"

"Who is your family?!"

The monkey bared his teeth and shouted angrily:

"Hand over my stuff, or I'll kill you!"

The old director waved his hand and said:

"Brother Monkey, why don't I understand what you are saying?"

"Things that fall on the ground, aren't they ownerless?"

"fart!!"

The monkey shouted angrily, "It seems that you, old man, will not cry until you see the coffin."

The words fell.

The boy's body turned into a stream of light and in an instant he was in front of the old director.

The old director seemed to be afraid of a head-on confrontation with the monkey. He kept dodging the monkey's attacks and at the same time moved closer to the two golden gatekeepers.

When the golden gatekeeper saw this scene, a majestic voice rang out.

"My palace is a restricted area, no outsiders are allowed to approach!"

The moment he spoke, a powerful pressure was released.

Followed by.

The golden gatekeeper on the left seemed to realize that the old director had no intention of leaving, and slapped the old director through the air.

The old director dodged the attack, but the monkey shattered the golden gatekeeper's palm print with one punch.

"Look carefully before you fight. Help me catch this old man."

"You rascal, why don't you leave immediately? You dare to order us around. You really don't know how to live or die!"

The golden gatekeeper on the right swung the spear at the monkey.

The monkey grabbed the spear and took a step back, thus offsetting the force of the golden gatekeeper's spear.

"You bastard, you don't understand monkey talk, right? He is breaking into my palace, stop him or me!!"

The old director was agile and in the blink of an eye he immediately distanced himself from the enemy.

He didn't want to break into the palace, but planned to use the palace's golden gatekeeper to delay the monkey.

"Little old man, don't leave!!"

Seeing that the old director was about to run away, Monkey let out a low growl and immediately wanted to chase the old director.

But the golden gatekeeper refused to give in and attacked the monkey again.

"You two fools, wait until your Monkey Grandpa gets the things back, then I'll deal with you."

The monkey kicked the golden gatekeeper's spear and used the power of the golden gatekeeper's spear to chase after the old director.

"It's now!"

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and slashed out a sword energy.

The monkey was flying in the air due to inertia, and he had no way to avoid Lin Tianhao's sword.

"Grandson, you're planning a sneak attack, right?!"

Lin Tianhao's sword energy cut the monkey's body in half.

The power of the first level of the Asking Dao Realm should not be underestimated.

But the moment the monkey's body was cut open, his body fell apart.

It was only at the moment when his body collapsed that Lin Tianhao realized the problem.

This is a substitute technique!

But when Lin Tianhao still wanted to attack, he found that the monkey had disappeared.

"Be careful....."

When the old director's voice came, Lin Tianhao subconsciously raised his sword to block it.

Then a hairy hand slapped his shield.

"Bam—"

There was a muffled sound.

Lin Tianhao only felt a huge force coming from the sword, and his body flew backwards uncontrollably.

With just one strike, Lin Tianhao's proficiency in the Iron Skin and Bone increased by thirty-three.

This is because the monkey's attack did not hit Lin Tianhao's body, but only the power transmitted from the long sword.

Lin Tianhao glanced at the long sword in his hand, and the wear resistance dropped from 71 to 42! !

This strike knocked off 29 points of wear resistance from the sword in Lin Tianhao's hand.

If he gets hit two more times, the long sword that Lin Tianhao snatched from the demonized leader will be scrapped.

This monkey was even more powerful than he had expected.

Lin Tianhao formed a sword finger with his other hand and slashed out a sword energy while flying backwards.

The ambitious Taoist priest's golden whip also came close to the monkey.

The monkey's body split into two and ran to both sides.

Clone Technique!!

just.

Lin Tianhao's intuition told him that these two clones were fake.

“Come here!!”

The mysterious and yellow energy gathered on the palm of Taishan Buffalo, and he slapped out heavily.

As the palm print fell, the Taishan buffalo was knocked back two steps.

"What a powerful force!!"

This time they killed more than a thousand demonized guards on the eighth level of Mo Yuan.

The strength has been greatly improved.

But Taishan Buffalo never expected that under such circumstances, he would still lose the strength contest to the monkey.

"This monkey is very strange. It has no weaknesses, great strength, and high defense."

Came the old director's voice.

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows and said:

"If you don't speak, no one will think you are dumb!!"

That's it.

The monkey looked at Lin Tianhao with strange eyes and said:

"Boy, you have... the aura of Liu Er!"

Lin Tianhao was slightly stunned.

"Six-eared macaque?"

"good."

The monkey nodded and said:

"I don't care who you are, I just want to take back what belongs to me."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised that the monkey actually said that he had the aura of Six-Eared Macaque.

"Who are you? What did the old director take from you?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Without waiting for the monkey to answer, the old director walked up to Lin Tianhao and said:

"Hey, you must be Xue Di, this monkey claims he is the Great Sage Equaling Heaven Sun Wukong, don't you think it's ridiculous?"

"Let's not talk about whether there is a Monkey King Sun Wukong. Even if there is, would he be like this?"

Lin Tianhao was even more surprised. This monkey said that he had the aura of Six-Eared Macaque?

Could it be because he received the blessing from the Monkey King? !

Chapter 1332 The lonely king is playing monkey tricks!

"What you said is not credible. If you really are the Monkey King, you would have pinned us all to the ground." said Taishan Buffalo.

The monkey waved his hands impatiently, "I am not interested in arguing with you. It doesn't matter whether you believe it or not. My things have been taken by your old man. Let him take them out."

The ambitious Taoist priest glanced at the old director and asked in a low voice:

"Old Chief, what did you take from him?"

The old director approached the ambitious Taoist priest and whispered:

"Nothing much, just a storage bag with a lot of stuff in it. Before I could check it out, he was chasing me."

The corners of the ambitious Taoist's mouth twitched. This old director was really unreasonable.

"I didn't rob him. He dropped it on the ground and I picked it up."

"According to the rules of the secret realm, things that fall on the ground are ownerless. Whoever picks them up will own them."

Hearing the old director's rogue remarks, Monkey bared his teeth at him.

"Little old man, you are so unreasonable. You snatched it away as soon as I dropped it on the ground."

The corners of Lin Tianhao's mouth twitched. He felt that he was already quite shameless.

Now, does he seem shameless?

He is indeed a good person.

At least.

He couldn't do the kind of thing the old director did.

"What our old director said makes sense."

The ambitious Taoist said seriously:

"If you throw something on the ground, everyone will think it's unwanted trash. It's a bit unreasonable to be chased after picking up some trash."

"Rubbish?!"

"Your whole family is garbage!!"

"I, Old Sun, don't want to waste time talking. Just say one word: return it or not?!"

The ambitious Taoist looked at the old director, who grinned and said:

"Yes, it's not impossible, but you've been chasing me for so long, shouldn't you give me some compensation?!"

The monkey took a deep breath and clenched his fists involuntarily.

"I am really useless. No one dares to bully me like this."

"Don't be angry."

The old director smiled and said:

"I'll return your things to you, and you just need to do us a small favor."

"It was originally mine, so you should have returned it to me. You are really going too far by asking me for help!"

The old director waved his hand and said:

"It's just a small favor. For a great sage like you, it's a piece of cake."

Hear this.

The monkey's expression became a little better, and he said:

"What do you want me to do for you?"

The old director pointed to the lonely palace in front of him and said:

"Help us capture the palace of the lonely king and kill the lonely king."

The monkey frowned slightly, looked at the lonely palace with some fear, and said:

"If it was me in the past, I could just stomp my feet and it would be solved, but I can't do that now."

"The Monkey King Sun Wukong may have become weaker due to some reasons, but he will definitely not become a coward." Lin Tianhao said.

The monkey glared at Lin Tianhao and said:

"But there is no need for me, Old Sun, to help you."

"The things originally belonged to me, Old Sun. It was this old man who was unreasonable."

"Great Sage, if this world were reasonable, would you still be here? Shouldn't you be the Fighting and Victory Buddha now?"

Lin Tianhao's words seemed to have touched Monkey's sore spot. He groaned:

"Humph, I just can't stand unreasonable people like you!!"

"But what is your relationship with the Six-Eared Macaque? The aura on you seems to have blessed you."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows and said:

"Great Sage, tell me if this is infuriating or not, I have received the blessing of the Great Sage Equaling Heaven, and the magical power I have obtained is the Seventy-Two Transformations."

"fart!!"

The monkey shouted angrily and scolded:

"I, Old Sun, have never blessed anyone, except one person."

"But it's not you either."

"Damn it! They are really going too far. They even pretended to be me, Old Sun."

Lin Tianhao grinned and said:

"Great Sage, you see how wronged you have been. If that's the case, then join us in the fight."

"You don't want to be trapped here forever."

Hear this.

The monkey thought for a moment and said:

"I can help you deal with the lonely king, but if any of you become a saint, you must rescue me."

Sanctification?

Everyone present looked at each other in bewilderment. The monkey waved his hand and said:

"Forget it, this is too difficult for you."

"If any of you can meet my master one day, I mean Patriarch Bodhi, please tell him about my experience."

"I was tricked by old Tathagata and I am trapped here and cannot get out."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. Seeing the monkey speaking in a serious manner, it seemed as if he was really the Monkey King.

"Isn't it a bit inappropriate for you to discuss how to deal with me at the gate of my lonely palace?"

Just now.

A tall and thin young man with sharp features and long red hair appeared at the gate of the lonely palace.

He looked at Lin Tianhao's position with a playful look and said:

"Monkey, you'd better stop meddling in other people's business. We are both wanderers in this world. I will help you get your storage bag back. Let's join forces and not suffer this humiliation."

Lin Tianhao's face darkened. This was a lack of martial ethics on my part.

He is the big boss.

What's wrong with those who fight bosses forming a team?

The monkey grinned at the old director and said:

"Little old man, the situation seems to have reversed. Now, how are you going to deal with it?"

The old director raised his eyebrows and said:

"It doesn't matter. At worst, I'll just keep running. I'm not afraid to run with you. If you think you can catch up with me, you can try."

"you--"

The monkey was a little annoyed. The red-haired young man at the gate of the palace smiled and said:

"Monkey, I can send out all the demon commanders of our Lonely King's Palace. No matter how powerful this old man is, he will be blocked."

"You know nothing. If this old man was so easy to chase, I wouldn't be in such a mess."

That's it.

The monkey looked at the old man and said, "Give me my storage bag first, and I will help you deal with the lonely king."

The old man looked at the monkey, somewhat hesitant.

"Don't worry, do you think I, Old Sun, would be as shameless as you?"

"alright."

The old man threw a gray storage bag to the monkey.

The monkey took the storage bag and flashed to the side of the lonely king.

"My Lord, screw him, I will help you!!"

After saying this, Monkey made a face at Lin Tianhao and the others.

"If you can be unreasonable, I, Old Sun, can be unreasonable too."

The old man sighed and said:

"It looks like I can't win. Let's retreat."

"and many more!!"

The monkey seemed to have discovered something and exclaimed:

"What's in the storage bag?"

The old man shook his head and said:

"I don't know. I just found this storage bag. It was empty when I found it. You can't blackmail me like this."

The monkey's expression instantly darkened, "You are playing tricks on me, right?!"

Chapter 1333 The battle begins, angering the lonely king!

"I don't want the stuff anymore, my king, let's join forces and kill them!!"

The monkey pointed at Lin Tianhao and the others, and made plans to take action the next moment.

"it is good."

"With your help, I will be much more confident."

When the words fell.

The monkey rushed forward first.

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and slashed out several sword energies, which forced the monkey back.

This monkey doesn't look like the Monkey King Sun Wukong at all.

As for why the old director took the monkey's storage bag, Lin Tianhao felt that the reason should not be that simple.

otherwise.

There was no need for the old director to make himself so embarrassed just for a storage bag.

When the monkey made his move, the lonely king also took a step forward, and an invisible wave swept towards Lin Tianhao and the others.

In a flash.

Lin Tianhao only felt his body sink, as if a thousand-pound rock was pressing on him.

This is... Gravity Suppression!!

A cold light flashed in Lin Tianhao's eyes. He raised his hand and swung out a few sword energies. Holding the long sword, he rushed out directly.

Two-handed shadow puppetry!!

This is the skill in Lin Tianhao's current skill jade pendant, but the lonely king is a little far away from him.

He needed to get closer.

Enough distance!!

Lin Tianhao performed the shadow puppetry with both hands without hesitation.

These two shadow puppets can control two people at the same time. Lin Tianhao plans to control the lonely king and the monkey together, and then solve them together.

But when Lin Tianhao's two-handed shadow puppet was performed, the silk threads all broke before they touched the lonely king.

"not good!!"

Lin Tianhao thought to himself that it was not good, but the lonely king had a smile on his face.

"Two-handed shadow puppetry? I can do that too!"

The words fell.

Lin Tianhao felt a thread winding towards him.

Lin Tianhao secretly thought that something was not good, and the sword energy around him surged, actually cutting all the silk threads.

The silk threads of the two-handed shadow puppet are not unsolvable. When the strength reaches a certain level, this limitation can be broken.

"It's quite interesting. At such a young age, his swordsmanship has already reached this level. It's really a young man to be feared."

"It's a pity that I'm going to die here."

The last few words of the lonely king rang in Lin Tianhao's ears.

Lin Tianhao's face changed drastically, and before he could react, a red palm slapped his back.

Slow area!!

Lin Tianhao deployed the slow field without hesitation. With the help of the deceleration clues brought by the slow field, Lin Tianhao rolled out.

at the same time.

The two-handed shadow puppet attacked again, this time locking onto the monkey.

Since the monkey was unwilling to help, he used the double-handed shadow puppet to make the monkey come to help.

however.

What Lin Tianhao didn't expect was that the silk thread of the double-handed shadow puppet became ineffective again on the monkey.

This monkey is more complicated than it appears.

The Lone King's attack followed closely, and the moment Lin Tianhao rolled out, a fireball flew towards Lin Tianhao.

"call out--"

Others did not sit idly by.

A flying sword cut through the sky and pierced the king's back.

"clang--"

When the long sword was about to hit the king's back, a golden bell appeared around him. The golden bell made a buzzing sound and bounced the flying sword away.

"Golden bell?"

Lin Tianhao dodged the fireball attack again and slashed out several sword energies in succession.

The solitary king seemed to know that he could not withstand Lin Tianhao's sword energy head-on, so he stepped lightly and easily avoided Lin Tianhao's several sword energies.

And the other side.

Tarzan's buffalo also collided with the monkey.

In a pure competition of strength, the Taishan buffalo is actually inferior to the monkey.

Venerable Dragon and Tiger and Corpse Ancestor Tianyue also took action together. The three physical cultivators dealt with the monkey at the same time and only then were they able to fight the monkey on equal terms.

But the situation is still not good.

Because of the monkey's defensive ability, even the Corpse Ancestor Tianyue was frightened when he saw it.

As a zombie.

The defensive power of Corpse Ancestor Tianyue can be described as appalling.

But this monkey's defense is even more amazing.

Taoist Priest Motivator and Chu Landu came in to help Lin Tianhao fight.

The golden whip lashed towards the lonely king.

But a golden bell appeared around the king, blocking all the golden whips.

There were two flying swords surrounding Chu Landu, and he also held a long sword in his hand.

Flying swords attacked the lonely king from both sides, and he also attacked at close range.

Lin Tianhao saw this.

He also knew that it would be difficult to hit the lonely king with sword energy from a long distance, so he rushed forward directly.

The lonely king chuckled, "Double the gravity!!"

The words fell.

Everyone present froze in their tracks, with expressions of horror on their faces.

Because the pressure that had just been on them suddenly doubled.

At first they were able to resist with their powerful skills, but now that the gravity has doubled, their movement speed has slowed down again.

"The ghosts are crying, the wind is blowing, the sky is dark and the earth is evil, disperse their true souls!!"

The ambitious Taoist priest clasped his hands together, ghost energy rose from his body, and a strong cold wind blew around him.

He pointed with both fingers, and a mysterious force rushed out instantly.

Taoist Ghost Magic!!

The lonely king was slightly surprised, and he activated the Golden Bell Cover again.

But this time the Golden Bell Cover seemed to be useless, and that mysterious power still rushed into his mind.

Just now.

The King's expression froze. Lin Tianhao knew that this was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. His body turned into a shadow, and the long sword in his hand slashed the King's neck.

The long sword was approaching, and the king came to his senses in an instant, but the long sword had already reached his neck.

He raised his hand instantly, and at this critical moment, used his palm to block Lin Tianhao's attack.

On his palm, there was a red rune flashing with fire, and he actually grabbed Lin Tianhao's sword.

Lin Tianhao let out a low shout, and the sword power of the first level of the realm of Taoism burst out completely.

Just for a moment.

Half of the lonely king's palm was cut off by Lin Tianhao's sword.

Chu Landu did not miss this excellent opportunity to attack. He attacked without hesitation, gathering the sword intent in the long sword in his hand and chopped it down fiercely.

The palm was cut in half, which seemed to have aroused the murderous intention of the king.

He kicked Lin Tianhao away with one foot, and with his other hand, he hit Chu Landu on the chest, knocking Chu Landu away.

"court death!!"

Looking at the bleeding half of his palm, the lonely king was extremely angry.

He let out a low roar and instantly rushed to the front of the ambitious Taoist priest.

If it weren't for the strange method used by Taoist Motivation that made him lose consciousness for a moment, how could Lin Tianhao have cut off half of his palm?

Just as the power of the lonely king's attack fell on the ambitious Taoist priest, the ambitious Taoist priest's body flew backwards.

The person who took action was none other than the old director.

The old director pulled the ambitious Taoist priest to avoid the attack from the lonely king.

the other side.

After Lin Tianhao landed, blood spurted out of his mouth.

The power of the angry kick just now was too strong. Even though he had a four-star iron body, he was still beaten to the point of vomiting blood! !

And the proficiency of Copper Skin and Iron Bones also increased by 300 with this kick.

just.

This is still far from being able to reach the Iron-Bodied Star Level.

Chapter 1334 The power of Yin and Yang thunder!

Chu Landu was also beaten to the point of spitting blood. His condition was even worse than Lin Tianhao's.

"How about I try again and kill this guy in seconds, and you guys revive me."

Chu Landu felt the injuries on his body. He knew that although Lin Tianhao had powerful sword skills, he did not have the coordination between sword skills and body movements.

In addition, due to the reversal of yin and yang in the body and the reverse flow of qi and blood, it is impossible to use internal strength.

It is still too difficult to rely on Lin Tianhao to deal with an opponent like Gu Wang.

"Let me go first!!"

This lonely king is obviously not a simple person. Chu Landu directly asked the old guy in his body to take action.

Even if that old fellow destroyed Chu Landu's body, he might not be able to defeat me.

and.

The reason why Lin Tianhao said this was because he was lucky. The skill jade pendant gave him a second skill: Swift Shadow Body Movement.

The skill of two-handed shadow puppetry is about to disappear. If nothing unexpected happens, Lin Tianhao may get another skill.

The skill jade pendant randomly gives Lin Tianhao one to three skills.

Although Lin Tianhao has basically never encountered a situation where three skills are used at the same time, the probability of two skills being used is still relatively high.

as predicted.

After the shadow puppets in both hands disappeared, Lin Tianhao obtained the second skill from the skill jade pendant: dimensional virtuality.

With his swift body movements and dimensional emptiness, even if Lin Tianhao cannot defeat the lonely king, he will not be defeated.

"Swift Shadow Movement?"

Seeing Lin Tianhao's figure turned into a residual shadow, the corner of the lonely king's mouth slightly raised.

"Being fast at running doesn't mean you're good at fighting."

Lin Tianhao did not respond. He closed the distance with swift movements and slashed with the sword in his hand.

But when Lin Tianhao had only swung the sword halfway, he felt his body stiffen and he couldn't move.

"Dangdang——"

at the same time.

Chu Landu's two flying swords also hit the King's Golden Bell Cover.

The lonely king just used the Golden Bell Cover to resist, and he slapped Lin Tianhao with a swift palm.

Lin Tianhao's eyes narrowed slightly, and he performed the Dimensional Void Technique.

While avoiding the attack of the Lone King, Lin Tianhao also found that his body was finally able to move.

Lin Tianhao dodged and retreated while continuously slashing out three sword energies.

The lonely king continued to chase, and at this moment, a figure came silently behind the lonely king. He slapped out with his palm, and golden light gathered on his palm.

The one who took action was none other than the ambitious Taoist priest.

The lonely king remained the same as always and used his golden bell cover to block the attack from the ambitious Taoist priest.

But the moment the ambitious Taoist priest's palm was about to slap, he suddenly retracted his palm and pinched a long black needle between his fingers.

This long needle actually broke the golden light spell and pierced towards the body of the lonely king.

"interesting!"

The lonely king smiled playfully, dodged Lin Tianhao's three sword energies, and at the same time, pinched the steel needle in the ambitious Taoist's hand with two fingers.

Just added the steel needle.

The lonely king felt an extremely strong electric current coming from the steel needle, and even he couldn't help but let go of the needle.

The steel needle pierced the king's abdomen, and the king's abdomen contracted and his body moved sideways.

But with the help of his Swift Shadow Body Movement, Lin Tianhao had already reached the side of the lonely king, and swung his sword with the powerful force of swordsmanship, slashing towards the lonely king.

Being attacked from both sides, the lonely king chose to slap Lin Tianhao's sword from the side, and with the internal strength in his body, he resisted the steel needle of the ambitious Taoist priest.

The steel needle pierced into the king's abdomen, and a stream of black air rushed into the king's body.

The lonely king turned into a ghost, floating backwards while tapping his body with two fingers, trying to force out the black air in his body.

When the ambitious Taoist saw that the attack hit the target, a look of joy appeared on his face, but he still did not dare to be negligent.

Under the suppression of gravity, their combat effectiveness was severely damaged.

and.

Even the ambitious Taoist priest himself was not sure whether the black energy could threaten me.

"Because of you, I'm hurt again."

The lonely king looked at the ambitious Taoist priest, and a hint of coldness flashed in his eyes.

The ambitious Taoist thought something was wrong, and by the time he reacted, he already felt that his body could not move.

The next moment.

The lonely king has already arrived in front of the ambitious Taoist priest.

Looking at the hand coming towards him, the ambitious Taoist's face changed drastically.

Lin Tianhao used swift body movements and the slow field at the same time.

But the slowdown field had too little effect on me, so I slashed with the sword in my hand.

As long as I dare to strike out with this palm, then with the power of the sword in the first level of the Dao Realm, I will be able to cut off my arm! !

however.

What Lin Tianhao never expected was that the lonely king had no intention of stopping and his palm was still slapping towards the ambitious Taoist priest.

"not good!!"

Just as the sword in Lin Tianhao's hand was about to fall, he realized something was wrong.

The lonely king in front of me is a fake.

But by the time he reacted, the real Lonely King had already appeared behind the ambitious Taoist priest.

He just happened to run into the old director who wanted to rescue the ambitious Taoist priest from behind.

"Bam—"

The lonely king touched palms with the old director, who flew backwards involuntarily and fell heavily to the ground.

"You don't know your own limitations, and you still want to be a troublemaker!!"

Although the old director did not directly attack the lonely king or the monkey.

But he relied on his extremely fast body movements to move between the two sides, providing rescue efforts while also putting pressure on the side.

The ambitious Taoist priest's body was filled with golden light that shook, breaking the power that controlled him. He turned around and two bolts of lightning, one yin and one yang, struck out.

The Yang Five Thunders and the Yin Five Thunders each have their own merits, but they are secrets known to very few people.

If the Yang Five Thunders and the Yin Five Thunders are used together, their power will be multiplied.

At such a close range.

The ambitious Taoist priest was very confident that his attack, which was a fusion of the Yin and Yang Five Thunders, could hit the lonely king.

Facts have proved that it is true.

The lonely king raised his hand, with only half of his palm left, and slapped out.

Although only half of the palm was left, the palm print it produced was a complete red flame palm print.

"Boom——"

With a loud bang, the lonely king and the ambitious Taoist priest flew out at the same time.

The powerful shock wave knocked Lin Tianhao away.

Just as the lonely king had steady himself, Chu Landu's flying sword had already come charging towards him.

The golden bell around the lonely king condensed again, and it was with this move that he was able to defend Chu Landu tightly.

"Dangdang——"

Chu Landu's flying sword was bounced away again.

Lin Tianhao and the ambitious Taoist priest have once again approached the lonely king.

The lonely king snorted coldly and clapped out with both palms at the same time.

A long golden dragon actually flew out from his palm.

The ambitious Taoist priest was horrified because the golden dragon was heading towards him.

The golden light in front of him condensed into shields.

But the golden dragon smashed the golden shield in front of the ambitious Taoist priest one by one.

The ambitious Taoist priest raised a long sword to block in front of him.

"Bam—"

With a dull thud, the ambitious Taoist was knocked out again.

Fortunately, the golden shield and the long sword removed most of the golden dragon's lethality, so he did not suffer serious damage.

Chapter 1335 Kill the lonely king!

The long sword in Lin Tianhao's hand continuously slashed out sword energy, forcing the lonely king back while suppressing him with firepower.

at this time.

Lin Tianhao just noticed it.

The situation for Corpse Ancestor Tianyue and Taishan Shuiniu in dealing with the monkey is not optimistic either.

The monkey is extremely strong and invulnerable to swords and guns.

Even the Taishan Buffalo's palm wrapped in the mysterious yellow energy still couldn't cause much damage to the monkey.

This monkey.

Could it be that he has also cultivated to have skin of steel and bones?

Getting beaten can enhance defense, and hunting monsters in this Mo Yuan will naturally give you strong defense and strength.

Although Tarzan and the Buffalo were unable to deal with the monkey, the monkey was also unable to do anything to Tarzan and the Buffalo for a while.

Lin Tianhao continued to suppress the lonely king.

The lonely king kept dodging, and the ambitious Taoist priest also activated the power of thunder and blasted towards the lonely king.

"Boy, you're so annoying!!"

A cold light flashed in the eyes of the lonely king, and in an instant he was close to Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao is not afraid because he has the Swift Shadow Body Movement.

He dodged immediately.

The lonely king pursued him relentlessly, and it seemed that he did not want to let Lin Tianhao go.

Lin Tianhao kept dodging and moving, avoiding the attacks of the lonely king, and sometimes even had to use dimensional virtualization to dodge.

at the same time.

Chu Landu's flying sword attacked again.

The King's attention was all on Lin Tianhao at this moment, and he had used the Golden Bell Cover to block Chu Landu's flying sword before.

This time, the same thing happened to me.

however.

When the flying sword collided with the golden bell cover, it shattered in just a moment.

The lonely king was shocked.

Lin Tianhao took the opportunity to fight back.

The sword power of the first level of the realm of asking for the way was completely gathered, and the vast and powerful force was formed in an instant.

The lonely king's figure became blurred and he moved out directly.

Two flying swords followed closely behind him, and almost the moment the lonely king landed, the two flying swords were already close to him.

The lonely king's face changed drastically, and he formed a seal with one hand and attacked.

at this time.

The disadvantage of having half of his palm cut off by Lin Tianhao before became apparent.

The power and speed of forming seals with one hand are completely different from the power and speed of forming seals with both hands.

It was almost a moment.

The flying sword broke the seal formed by the lonely king and created a flaming shield.

The lonely king dodged one flying sword by leaning sideways, but was still pierced through the shoulder by another one.

The moment the flying sword pierced through the lonely king's shoulder, it actually exploded directly! !

Explosive swordsmanship!!

This can be considered a minor magical power in Ragnarok.

Explosive Sword Technique, as the name suggests, can make a flying sword explode.

This method is like hurting the enemy by a thousand and hurting yourself by eight hundred.

Because the power of the explosive sword technique depends on the quality of the sword.

If the flying sword is of poor quality, even if a ninth-level expert performs the Explosive Sword Technique, the power of the Explosive Sword Technique will not be that strong.

With a loud "boom", the flying sword exploded, and one of the King's arms was actually blown off by the explosive sword technique, and even half of his shoulder was blown off.

"Ah ah ah..."

Due to the intense pain, King Pao Gu could no longer maintain his image as a master. He screamed miserably and looked at Chu Landu with extreme resentment.

But at this moment, Chu Landu's entire aura had undergone a drastic change.

Chu Landu's body turned into a stream of light, and while he swung the long sword in his hand, another flying sword also came from behind to kill the lonely king.

Lin Tianhao did not just watch the show, he also assisted from the side, helping [Chu Lan Du] to limit the king's space for movement.

"Damn!!"

The lonely king growled in anger, his Qi churning throughout his body, and with only half of his palm remaining he slapped towards Chu Landu.

[Chu Landu]'s eyes narrowed slightly, and although he did not dodge the palm from the lonely king, he slapped the lonely king directly.

The lonely king seemed to have sensed something and his expression changed drastically.

[Chu Landu] had a smug look on his face, he chuckled and bumped into the lonely king.

The king realized that something was wrong, but it was too late to stop.

"Bam—"

The palms of their hands collided with each other, and the whole face of the lonely king showed pain.

Followed by.

Sword Qi penetrated through his arms and tore his remaining arm into pieces.

After this palm strike, Chu Landu's body could no longer hold on and collapsed instantly.

Lin Tianhao's attack also arrived at this time. He slashed down with the long sword in his hand, and King Gu's hands were disabled. In addition, the palm strike from Chu Landu made it impossible for him to resist Lin Tianhao's sword.

Lin Tianhao's sword from top to bottom tore the king's body in half.

A feeling of enlightenment came over me.

The lonely king dies!!

Just in case, Lin Tianhao chopped up the king's body, then took out the resurrection coin and began to resurrect Chu Landu.

Chu Landu's body collapsed, and there was no intact part of his body.

Lin Tianhao used nine resurrection coins in succession before Chu Landu was resurrected.

The resurrected Chu Landu showed excitement on his face.

"Hahaha, good, great, I feel better than ever."

"All the hidden diseases and old injuries in the body are wiped out."

Lin Tianhao smiled slightly and looked in the direction of the monkey.

"The lonely king is already dead, do you still want to fight?"

The monkey immediately withdrew his hand and distanced himself.

"I am such a loser that I was killed by you guys."

The words fell.

He looked at Chu Landu.

"The guy in your body is indeed very strong, but if you use him like this, sooner or later he will completely take over your body."

Chu Landu cupped his hands and said:

"Thank you for the reminder. I know my own business and I know what to do."

Monkey looked at the old director and said, "You can't do anything to me. Give me the things, or I will fight you all the way to the ninth floor and see if you can be so smooth on the ninth floor."

The old director frowned slightly and said:

"Great Sage, just think of this as an investment in us. Didn't I explain this to you very clearly before?"

"As long as you are willing, we can become friends in the future. The Buddha thinks that you are stubborn and untameable, but I don't think so."

"I don't think you are a bad person, you are just being taken advantage of."

The monkey waved his hands and said:

"I, Old Sun, don't trust anyone now. I only trust myself."

The old director smiled helplessly and said:

"Great Sage, the era of great strife is approaching. I wonder how many of the gods and Buddhas in the sky can see us here."

"The number of gods we can win over and win over is too few."

The monkey waved his hand and said:

"It's your business if you can't win over the gods. It has nothing to do with me, Old Sun."

The old director took a deep breath and said, "Great Sage, we really want to cooperate. If you don't agree, I won't return the things."

"It doesn't matter if I am criticized. I want to leave a guarantee for the country behind me."

"You are in such a situation that you cannot stay with us. We will definitely take away your things!!"

Chapter 1336 He is truly a great sage!

When Monkey heard the old director's words, he bared his teeth.

"You little old man, how can you be such a scoundrel."

The lonely king said very seriously:

"It's not that I'm a rogue, it's that I have to consider the country behind me."

"and."

"You are a threat if you cannot cooperate. I will not allow an uncontrolled god to be born in the Dragon Kingdom, especially the Great Sage. You are a God of War!!"

Listen to what the old director said.

Lin Tianhao was very surprised.

Look like this.

Could this monkey really be the Monkey King Sun Wukong?

"You are forcing me. Even if I agree today, aren't you afraid that I will regret it one day?"

The old director looked very serious and said very seriously:

"Not afraid."

"You were abandoned by your dearest master. You know very well that your master knows that you were replaced. Your master knows that the person who followed him into the Great Leiyin Temple was the Six-Eared Macaque."

"But he didn't say anything."

"He could have saved you, so why did your true body have to be shattered?"

The monkey's face turned very ugly, "So what?"

"Since you know, you should know that I, Old Sun, don't trust anyone in this world now!!"

The old director looked at the monkey very seriously and said:

"That's why you need cooperation."

"You should consider how to maximize your benefits."

"Even if you have those things, how far can you grow?"

The monkey did not answer, and the old director continued:

"We can help you find the other seventy-one origins that you have scattered. Compared to the countless gods and Buddhas, we humans need you more."

"Because we need you, we won't plot against you."

That's it.

The old director changed the subject and said:

"Let's take a step back and say that even if one day our Dragon Nation has other gods, what reason do we have to give up on you, the God of War?"

The monkey remained silent, and the old director knew that his words had touched the monkey a little.

"We will pay more attention to you because of the need."

"From Bi Ma Wen, to the pilgrim, to the present world, you are a god of war among the three realms. When have you ever been taken seriously?"

"Even if you have a very good background, those high and mighty immortals and gods only treat you as a dispensable chess piece."

Monkey suddenly raised his eyes and wanted to say something, but the old director interrupted him.

"I know what you want to say. I can tell you very clearly that you are not a pawn to our human race, but a genuine God of War of the Three Realms!!"

"You may not know how popular the four characters 'The Great Sage Equaling Heaven' are in our Dragon Country, and how many little fans you have."

"In our Dragon Country, there are too many people like you."

"They are full of passion, but in the end, what they get may not even be as good as a position as Bimawen."

"You are human beings. No matter how bad Bi Ma Wen is, he is still a god." said the monkey.

"It's the same with humans. There are positions among humans too. Some people work very hard, study constantly, and work overtime constantly, but in the end, they become the Bi Ma Wen of the human race, or even worse."

The monkey shook his head, "This is your human race's problem."

The old director shook his head and said:

"We are trying to change, but our power is too small and there are many forces that don't want us to change."

The monkey was speechless. "What does what you said have to do with me?"

The old director said very seriously:

"Of course it matters. I tell you this because I hope you can change everything. We can't change it. There are some obstacles that we can't solve."

"But you can."

The monkey smiled jokingly and said:

"You are now just like the Taishang Laojun back then, you talk a lot, but what is the result?"

"Bimawen, the joke of the three realms!!"

The old director wanted to say something, but Lin Tianhao raised his hand to interrupt him.

His eyes fell on the monkey, and then on the old director.

"Old Chief, give his things back to him. It's not good to threaten him with other people's things."

The old director was a little hesitant, but seeing Lin Tianhao's determined eyes.

He still took out all the monkey's things.

"monkey."

"We are going to the ninth floor. Should we go together or stay here and guard these things? You decide for yourself."

"If it were any other god, I might not even want to say it, but because you are the Monkey King, you mean something different to many of us."

"I still want to say this, believe me, I dare not say we, because people's hearts are unpredictable, and I don't know what others really think."

"But I am willing to help you regain the position of the God of War of the Three Realms, or even higher."

The monkey stared at Lin Tianhao, "You have the aura of Liu Er, I don't like it."

"You are unhappy that Liu'er replaced you, but have you ever thought that Liu'er might be just a pawn like you?"

"It could be you or Liu Er who is here."

"It's just that you have more backbone."

The monkey sighed, not knowing what he was thinking.

After a while.

The monkey then slowly said:

"I do not know."

"I'm actually waiting for someone, but you're not that person."

"If she doesn't show up, you won't be able to survive this catastrophe."

"Who?" Lin Tianhao frowned and asked.

The monkey chuckled and said:

"I don't know either. It's a mysterious feeling."

"My soul was once thrown into the long river of time, and I saw many fragmented images, some of the past, and some of the future."

"I have seen your destruction. This place has long been a place forsaken by God."

That's it.

The monkey raised his eyes and looked at Lin Tianhao meaningfully.

"I don't want to cooperate with you, but I can tell you, don't believe in any gods, they have abandoned you long ago."

"They just want to use you to recover and then go to the divine realm."

"As for this place, it is dispensable to them."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly and said with a smile:

"That's why we need to save ourselves."

"Likewise, you need to save yourself."

"We'll rest here for an hour while you think about it."

The monkey did not respond immediately. He looked at Lin Tianhao and said calmly:

"Okay, I agree to cooperate."

The monkey's answer did not surprise Lin Tianhao.

Because as the monkey himself said, if this place was really abandoned by the gods, then if the monkey stayed here, he would have no chance in the future.

"Are you not waiting for the person you are waiting for?" Lin Tianhao asked.

Old director, the ambitious Taoist priest's heartstrings were tense.

The monkey has already agreed to cooperate, why are you still saying these things?

"I am the Monkey King from the Water Curtain Cave in the Flower-Fruit Mountain."

Lin Tianhao smiled and said:

"Okay, but you are not yet. When you recover, you will be the Great Sage Equaling Heaven, you will be the God of War of the Three Realms!!"

Monkey did not refute Lin Tianhao's words, but instead asked:

"What should I call you now?"

Chapter 1337: Thanks alone are not enough!

Lin Tianhao thought for a moment and said:

"It depends on you. The Great Sage certainly can't do it. If you go by your original name, the resistance to your recovery will probably be very great."

The monkey thought for a moment and said:

"Then call me Yellow-haired Monkey."

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised, "This is not like you."

The monkey nodded and said, "It's better not to be like me, isn't it?"

"really."

Everyone began to rest and recover.

The lonely king died, and his demonized guards also disappeared.

However, Lin Tianhao still asked:

"Monkey, there should be two lords on this eighth floor. Do you know who they are?"

The monkey shook his head and said:

"I don't know. Although I have never been to the eighth floor of Mo Yuan before, I have never heard of two lords in Mo Yuan. Hasn't it always been the Solitary King?"

Lin Tianhao looked towards the direction of the Lonely King's Palace and said:

"Wait until you have rested, then go in and take a look and you will know."

Just as Lin Tianhao finished speaking, a group of demonized guards came out from the depths of the corridor.

They all had red strips tied on their left arms, and it seemed that they were all rebels.

Leading the group were two demonized commanders wearing golden armor, one of them holding a long sword and the other holding a longbow. Judging from their appearance, they were both demonized commanders.

When they saw Lin Tianhao and the others, they smiled and said:

"Thank you for your help and for killing the lonely king for us."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows and said:

"We helped you kill the lonely king, and you just say a word of thanks?"

The demonized archer smiled and said:

"Aren't you helping yourselves too?"

Lin Tianhao stood up directly and said with sharp eyes:

"If you want to help us, we should kill you too. This is the best way to maximize our interests."

Upon hearing this.

The demonized archer looked a little unnatural.

"We are not enemies."

Lin Tianhao shook his head and said:

"In the entire Mo Yuan, there are few demonized creatures that are our enemies. For us, this is a dungeon. It is natural for us to kill the monsters here to become stronger."

The demonized commander holding the long sword asked, and immediately said:

"Little brother, don't be angry, it's just a joke. We are willing to give you ten resurrection coins to thank you for killing the lonely king."

Hear this.

Taishan Water Buffalo stood up, rubbing his hands, "I, Old Buffalo, was not planning to take action, but now that you've said so, if I don't take action, how will others look at me?"

That's it.

The Taishan Buffalo sprinted forward and rushed straight forward.

"Let me see if you are tougher than that monkey."

Seeing Taishan Buffalo take action, the two demonized commanders' expressions changed slightly.

He swung the big knife in his hand directly at the Taishan buffalo.

Although Taishan Buffalo looks silly, he is not stupid at all. It seems that he suddenly attacked, but he was actually covering for Chu Landu.

When Taishan Buffalo saw the demonized commander slashing at him with his sword, he slightly tilted his body and two flying knives instantly slashed towards the demonized commander's abdomen.

The sword in Lin Tianhao's hand also flew out.

With the power of the first level of the Asking Dao Realm, the lethality of his sword-controlling attacks should not be underestimated.

Chu Landu's two flying swords broke through the demonized leader's defense.

Lin Tianhao's sword followed closely and went straight through the hall, severely injuring the demonized leader.

"Do you think we are kidding you?"

Lin Tianhao said indifferently, "We invited you to cooperate before, but you were unwilling to cooperate. Now you want to enjoy the fruits of victory. Aren't you thinking too well?"

The demonized commander held his chest and glared at Lin Tianhao.

"You guys are really unreasonable. We have never attacked you. Just because we don't cooperate, you want to kill us all?!"

Lin Tianhao smiled and said:

"I'm sorry, in my eyes, you are just small monsters in Mo Yuan's dungeon."

"To put it bluntly, to your Lord, you are nothing more than soldiers recruited from the Soldier's Nest."

That's it.

Lin Tianhao changed his subject and continued:

"Compared to the so-called ten resurrection coins you gave me, I think killing you will bring more benefits."

The demonized archer took a step forward and asked in a deep voice:

"So what do you want?"

"That depends on what you can give."

Lin Tianhao said calmly: "I said, this is a dungeon for us. What can you give that is more than the reward for killing your dungeon?"

The demonized archer gritted his teeth and said:

"We can't take out so many things at once. How about this? When we meet our lord, we will definitely give you a satisfactory explanation."

Lin Tianhao grinned and said:

"Meeting your lord is an uncertain thing. I think that if I kill you, the reward will be more stable."

Upon hearing this.

This demonized archer wanted to curse.

"You are a devil, you want to kill us every time you open your mouth."

Lin Tianhao raised his hand and the long sword flew into his hand, "Come on, let's have a fair fight."

The demonized archer clenched the longbow, and after a while, it seemed that she really wanted to fight.

But the demonized commander behind her shook his head and looked at Lin Tianhao seriously.

"I hope you will keep your word."

The words fell.

The demonized commander took the initiative to put down the long sword in his hand.

"We don't have many things we can use, and this long sword is one of them."

"I personally still have ten resurrection coins."

"You too, leave your weapons and resurrection coins behind."

The demonized guards and the captain of the demonized guards behind the demonized commander all left behind their weapons and resurrection coins.

What surprised Lin Tianhao was.

Even among the demonized guards, some people took out resurrection coins.

"Not every demonized guard has resurrection coins, so we've taken out all the ones we can."

The demonized archer was a little unhappy, but he still took out everything.

Looking at the things all over the floor.

Lin Tianhao went to count these things personally.

There are more than 200 standard-issue spears and more than 200 resurrection coins! !

The harvest this time was quite rich.

"Do you know how to get to the ninth floor?" Lin Tianhao asked.

The demonized archer frowned, "Didn't you kill the king? The king has the teleportation key to the ninth floor."

"Of course, if you don't want to use the teleportation key, you can just go down from the back of the lonely palace."

Lin Tianhao nodded slightly and said:

"Who is your lord?"

The demonized archer shook his head and said:

"We cannot reveal the identity of our lord. This is the order we received since we were recruited."

"We are recruited soldiers with absolute loyalty to our master."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and glanced at the ambitious Taoist priest.

When the lonely king was killed just now, it was the ambitious Taoist who was responsible for searching the corpse.

"There is indeed a teleportation key."

Chapter 1338 Corpse Burning and Bone Dissolving Powder!

Lin Tianhao smiled, and this smile surprised the Demonized Archer and others.

"Is there anyone else on the eighth floor of Mo Yuan?"

"Have."

The demonized archer answered honestly.

"But they are all very withdrawn, and our people have had almost no positive contact with them."

"How many waves of people?" Lin Tianhao changed the question.

"Not counting you, there are three more groups of people on the eighth floor. Two of them are good at hiding, and the other group has similar clothes. They should be from some sect."

Lin Tianhao glanced at Chu Landu.

Because he had received news that some people from the mountains were coming.

What sect does this person belong to? Could he be another ancient Qi-refining master?

Chu Landu frowned and shook his head, "Don't look at me. Most of the people I know chose to leave when they were on the sixth floor of Mo Yuan."

"There probably aren't many people who will insist on coming down here."

Lin Tianhao thought for a moment, "If two waves are good at stealth, does that mean that in addition to the Luowang killers, there are also ninjas."

The ambitious Taoist smiled slightly and said:

"Xuedi, you are not planning to attack those ninjas?"

Lin Tianhao nodded, "I have the idea, but it will probably be difficult to find them."

"Unless, we choose to go fishing and see if we can catch them out."

Tarzan Buffalo grinned and said:

"Pretending to be the lonely king?"

Lin Tianhao shook his head. "When the king dies, a large number of demonized guards will disappear. They will also realize that the king is dead."

"It's definitely not possible to pretend to be the lonely king."

That's it.

Lin Tianhao pointed at the demonized guards in front of him.

"We can take over their place and pretend to be their lord!!"

Hear this.

The demonized archer shook his head and rejected it without even thinking:

"You think too simply. The king will be resurrected in three hours."

"Then just check in." Lin Tianhao said with a smile.

"If they don't come out in three hours, then we'll leave."

The demonized archer said with a bitter face:

"But we can't wait that long. The king is dead, and we need to go see our lord."

Lin Tianhao grinned and said:

"And then what? The lonely king resurrected, and you were cleared out again?"

The demonized archer shook his head and said:

"No, as long as we can rescue our Lord, we can fight against the King?"

The ambitious Taoist priest immediately said:

"According to what you said, wouldn't it be easier for the people behind to deal with me?"

The demonized archer nodded and said:

"That's it."

"My fighting power has not reached its peak, and the number of demonized guards killed is too small. If you kill enough demonized guards, it will be difficult for me to be killed."

Just now.

Chu Landu suddenly looked in the direction of the corridor, and a flying sword broke through the air.

In the corridor, a three-leaf flying knife came and collided with the flying sword.

But how could this small flying knife reach the reach of Chu Landu's flying sword?

While chopping the flying knife into pieces, the flying sword pierced the shoulder of the person in the dark.

"This is the legendary Japanese ninja, he doesn't seem that great."

Chu Landu walked towards the corridor.

On the left side of the corridor, a man in night clothes was nailed to the stone wall with a sword.

When the man in black saw Lin Tianhao and his companions, a strange smile appeared on his face.

"Are you the Snow Emperor?"

His accent was obviously not from Longguo. His Mandarin was extremely unstandard and had a heavy Japanese accent.

"I'm."

Lin Tianhao nodded. "How many of you are there? Why are you the only one here?"

The man in black shook his head and said:

"Don't try to trick me. I have achieved my purpose. I can die now."

"Oh?"

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised.

The next moment.

He felt a sharp pain in his body.

"The poison of the Corpse Burning and Bone Dissolving Powder will turn even a master into bloody water. Even a great master can only resist it head-on."

"You...will definitely die!!"

Chu Landu was startled, and he used his internal energy to try to force the toxins out of his body.

"You are an ancient Qi cultivator, so this method can't do anything to you, but it's different for Snow Queen."

Lin Tianhao smiled and said:

"What's different about me?"

"Do you think that you can kill me with just this little bit of poison?"

The man in black was very surprised to see that Lin Tianhao could still speak normally.

"How can it be?!"

"How can you still speak?!"

"You weren't poisoned?"

"Impossible. The Corpse Burning and Bone Dissolving Powder is colorless and odorless. The ancient Qi Refiner next to you was affected by it, so how come you didn't get affected?"

Lin Tianhao smiled slightly and said:

"I was hit, but the power of your Corpse-Burning and Bone-Dissolving Powder is just that, not enough to kill me."

Having said that.

But Lin Tianhao was still secretly frightened.

Because he never expected that he felt a sharp pain in his body.

Even after Iron Skin and Bones reached four stars, he could still be poisoned to this extent.

This corpse-burning and bone-dissolving powder is really awesome.

If the Black Demon had brought this corpse-burning and bone-dissolving powder with him at the beginning, he would probably be dead.

"Where did you get this corpse burning and bone dissolving powder?"

"Don't say you mixed it yourself. You don't have the ability to do it yourself."

According to Lin Tianhao's estimation.

This corpse-burning and bone-dissolving powder is most likely a prop from Ragnarok, but for some unknown reason, it fell into the hands of these Japanese.

"I never thought of living when I came here. I don't know how you managed to hold on, but you can't possibly neutralize the power of the Corpse-Burning and Bone-Dissolving Powder."

After saying these last words, the man in black suddenly started burning and turned into ashes.

Chu Landu looked at Lin Tianhao and asked worriedly:

"Are you really okay?"

He had just inhaled the Corpse Burning and Bone Dissolving Powder and was well aware of how potent the toxicity of the Corpse Burning and Bone Dissolving Powder was.

"puff--"

Lin Tianhao spat out a mouthful of blood and his face turned very ugly.

"This poison is really overbearing. My blood and qi are already flowing backwards, and my heart is upside down. This poison directly burns my flesh and blood."

"If I hadn't been so strong, I would have died here."

Lin Tianhao quickly exited the corridor.

"Do you know this corpse burning and bone dissolving powder?"

It would be terrible if those Japanese guys could mix such a powerful poison themselves.

Don't say anything else.

Even a martial artist at the Grandmaster level cannot withstand such poison.

"Never heard of it."

Chu Landu shook his head. "I haven't encountered such a powerful poison in nearly a hundred years."

"Before that, I've only heard that the Ten Fragrance Softening Powder is very powerful and that even a master warrior can be affected by it."

The ambitious Taoist priest also came quickly at this time, "Snow Emperor, can you bear it?"

Lin Tianhao smiled indifferently and said:

"piece of cake."

"I can withstand this poison, but if it is used on a martial arts master, I guess few masters can survive this corpse-burning and bone-dissolving powder."

Hear this.

The ambitious Taoist priest had a very ugly look on his face, and he also realized how perverted this corpse-burning and bone-dissolving powder was.

Chapter 1339: White-robed scholar, demonized longbow!

If the corpse cremation and bone dissolving powder is used on a large scale, the consequences will be disastrous!

"Let me calm down before going to the ninth floor." Lin Tianhao said.

This corpse-burning and bone-dissolving powder is very powerful, and it greatly improves his proficiency in the Copper Skin and Iron Bones skill.

At this rate of improvement, if he is hit by the Corpse-Burning and Bone-Dissolving Powder a few more times, he will be able to reach five stars with his bronze skin and iron bones.

The four-star ones are already so powerful, what about the five-star ones?

"What about us?" asked the demonized archer.

Lin Tianhao waved his hand and said:

"You want to go find your lord, go ahead!"

The Japanese ninjas had obviously discovered them, and it was not so easy to fish and kill them.

The poison in the corpse-burning and bone-dissolving powder took more than half an hour to completely dissolve.

In more than half an hour, Lin Tianhao's proficiency in the Copper Skin and Iron Bones increased by more than twelve thousand.

Although there is the blessing of the reversal of yin and yang and the reverse flow of qi and blood, this level of proficiency increase is still very scary.

"Wait me a moment!"

Lin Tianhao returned to the corridor and took a few deep breaths.

Seeing Lin Tianhao like this, everyone present had strange expressions on their faces.

Is this because he likes the Corpse Cremation Powder?

however.

To Lin Tianhao's disappointment, he did not inhale the corpse-burning and bone-dissolving powder.

"That's all. If I had known this earlier, I would have inhaled a little more." Lin Tianhao said.

As soon as he finished speaking, an inopportune voice suddenly rang out.

"You are the ones who robbed my men?"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows. It seemed that the BOSS was about to be refreshed after hearing this!

Everyone looked in the direction of the voice and saw a scholar in a white robe walking towards the gate of the lonely palace.

The previous demonized commander, demonized archers, and a large number of demonized guards followed behind this white-robed scholar.

Lin Tianhao stepped out, faced the white-robed scholar, and asked with a smile:

"From the looks of you, are you planning to beg for something on behalf of your men?"

The white-robed scholar shook his head and said:

"No, you defeated me, so you are my savior. I came here to go to the ninth floor of Mo Yuan with you."

"you?"

Lin Tianhao was a little hesitant. It was not clear whether the white-robed scholar was a friend or an enemy, and it was not a wise move to keep him around.

"I'm quite strong and won't be a drag." said the scholar in white robe.

Lin Tianhao shook his head and said:

"I'm not afraid of you holding me back, I'm afraid of you stabbing me in the back."

"Now that you have escaped, shouldn't you think about driving me away? Why go to the ninth floor of Mo Yuan?"

The white-robed scholar smiled slightly, raised his hand and took out fifty resurrection coins.

"Take me to the ninth floor of Mo Yuan. This is your reward. After we reach the ninth floor, we will go our separate ways, each with our own things. How do you do that?"

Lin Tianhao narrowed his eyes slightly, "What are you doing on the ninth floor?"

The white-robed scholar hesitated to speak, and finally shook his head and said:

"Everyone has their own secrets, I just want you to lead the way."

"I heard from your men that the ninth floor of Mo Yuan can be reached behind the Lonely King's Palace. If you want to go, why do you have to follow us?"

"That road is for you to take, not us. I want to go to the ninth floor of Mo Yuan, and I can only do it with you."

Lin Tianhao thought for a moment, then communicated with the old director and the ambitious Taoist priest through voice transmission.

Lin Tianhao had no idea what the purpose of this white-robed scholar was.

Are there any hidden dangers if we rashly take him to the ninth floor?

The final result of the conversation was...you can bring him, but the compensation must be sufficient.

After the discussion, Lin Tianhao smiled and said:

"We have discussed it and decided that less trouble is worse than more. We don't need your fifty resurrection coins right now. So let's say goodbye now."

Hear this.

The white-robed scholar smiled slightly, not panicking, and said:

"Why don't you just tell me how much you need?"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows slightly and said:

"You are an understanding person. That will be easy. Five hundred resurrection coins."

The white-robed scholar remained calm and said, "Then you guys go. I'll wait for the next group of people."

Lin Tianhao smiled and said:

"Besides us, how many people in Mo Yuan can kill the lonely king?"

"and."

"Those guys are very enthusiastic about killing the demonized guards. I will only become stronger and stronger. You left..."

The white-robed scholar raised his hand to interrupt Lin Tianhao's words, "It's not that I don't want to, it's that I don't have it."

"I only have ninety-seven resurrection coins. For some reason, I need to leave at least twenty for myself."

"so."

"The most I can give you is 77 resurrection coins. The 500 you offered is too much. There's no need for me to bargain."

Lin Tianhao waved his hand, "One hundred and fifty, if that's all we don't have, then there's no need for us to take the risk and take you down."

"make a deal."

The white-robed scholar agreed readily.

really!

They are all human beings.

He said something about ninety-seven coins, both in odd and even numbers, as if he really only had this many.

"It looks like I'm going to get less." Lin Tianhao said.

"A lot."

The white-robed scholar smiled and said, "I agreed quickly because I had an idea in mind."

"Your number is very close to mine."

"Give it to me." Lin Tianhao said.

The white-robed scholar didn't say much and directly took out 150 resurrection coins.

In addition to the two hundred resurrection coins that Lin Tianhao had previously robbed from the white-robed scholar and the thirty resurrection coins he received as a reward for killing the lonely king.

Lin Tianhao and his companions obtained 280 resurrection coins this time.

Because Chu Landu died because he killed the lonely king, the nine resurrection coins used to resurrect the lonely king were deducted from the two hundred and eighty resurrection coins.

The remaining 271 resurrection coins will be divided equally.

Of course there was no monkey involved. After all, not only had the monkey not been dealt with before, it had also been causing trouble.

The seven people who divided the spoils were Lin Tianhao, the ambitious Taoist priest, the Dragon and Tiger Venerable, the old director, Taishan Buffalo, Chu Landu and the Corpse Ancestor Tianyue.

On average, each person has a little more than thirty-eight coins.

Because Chu Landu paid the greatest price in this battle, he was given five more resurrection coins.

Everyone got thirty-eight coins each, and Chu Landu got forty-three coins.

The Dragon Tiger Venerable also returned all the remaining resurrection coins he owed to Lin Tianhao.

Lin Tianhao's harvest this time was quite good.

Because of Lin Tianhao's profession in Ragnarok, the longbow left by the demonized archer was also given to Lin Tianhao.

Enchanted Longbow (Gold): Level 200.

Wearing requirements: Archers above level 200.

Effect 1: Attack power +58000.

Effect 2: Critical damage +10%.

Effect 3: Attack speed +1.8.

Effect 4: Movement speed +2.2.

Effect 5: Blood sucking +5%.

Effect 6: Health +100000.

Wear resistance: 100.

The attributes of this demonized longbow can be regarded as very standard longbow attributes, and none of its attributes are useless.

The only pity is that without any attribute bonus, this demonized longbow is just a longbow of relatively high quality for Lin Tianhao, and it does not have much practical use.

Chapter 1340 9 Dragon Cave Heaven, Little White Dragon!

After everyone had a brief rest, the ambitious Taoist took out the secret teleportation key.

The teleportation key was dark gold in color. Everyone gathered around the ambitious Taoist priest and moved closer to each other.

The ambitious Taoist priest used the teleportation key without hesitation.

After using the teleportation key, Lin Tianhao could feel a fluctuation in the surrounding space, but this fluctuation did not last long.

After a few breaths.

The spatial fluctuations around him disappeared, and Lin Tianhao could see the situation around him clearly.

here.....

After seeing the situation clearly, everyone present showed a look of horror on their faces.

because.....

This place is completely different from the previous corridors and stone chambers.

This is an underwater world. Above, the deep blue water is separated by an invisible barrier.

The place where they were was full of green trees and it was an underwater forest.

Such a picture.

To everyone present, it was all too mysterious, as if it were a fairy tale world.

Every level in front of Mo Yuan gave people an invisible sense of oppression.

But this time it's completely different.

This feeling is like discovering a paradise.

"The more beautiful the mushroom, the more toxic it is. The more beautiful the place, the more dangerous it may be." The voice of Corpse Ancestor Tianyue sounded.

Only then did everyone come back to their senses from this dreamlike scene.

The white-robed scholar bowed to Lin Tianhao and the others and said:

"Thank you all, we'll say goodbye now."

The words fell.

The white-robed scholar left immediately.

After watching the white-robed scholar leave, Lin Tianhao and his companions did not pay much attention to him, but began to look around.

There is no danger found around here for the time being, but the more dangerous it is, the more cautious everyone becomes.

"There is a road outside, let's go out and take a look?" Chu Landu said.

Outside of this woods, there is a bluestone road. About a thousand meters to the left of the bluestone road, there is a row of small houses. It seems that there are people there.

The crowd was skilled and courageous, so they went straight towards the small house.

This bluestone road is more than thirty meters wide. I wonder why such a wide road was built on the ninth floor of Mo Yuan.

"Judging from the situation here, there is a high probability that the ninth floor of Mo Yuan is the same as the ones above, and is a special plot copy."

Lin Tianhao said calmly:

"Judging from the configuration of this road, if there is a city ahead, the population is likely to be no less than 10 million."

"In addition, based on what we have learned before, this should be the world of the dragon clan, and we cannot rule out the possibility of so-called shrimp soldiers and crab generals."

Lin Tianhao and his companions came to the location of the row of houses. As if to verify Lin Tianhao's words, the first thing that caught their eyes was two young men carrying turtle shells on their backs.

They also noticed Lin Tianhao and his group. One of the young turtles took two steps forward and asked in surprise:

"You...are human?"

Lin Tianhao didn't know what kind of plot copy the ninth level of Mo Yuan was, so he decided to try it out first to learn more about it.

"Ah."

Lin Tianhao also stepped out, "By chance, my friend and I came to this precious place, I don't know..."

Before Lin Tianhao could finish his words, the young man smiled and said:

"No need to explain so much. Lord Bailong once said that if a human comes here, he must be an extraordinary person, and we must not offend him."

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows and asked:

"We are new here and don't know much about the situation here. I wonder if you can tell us something."

The young turtle was very enthusiastic. He said:

"no problem."

"This is the Nine Dragons Cave Heaven, a blessed land opened up by Lord Dragon King, so that we, the small fish and shrimp, can have a place to settle down in the future catastrophe."

Lin Tianhao frowned slightly. It seemed that many people knew that the catastrophe was coming.

Some of them are already making preparations in advance.

"There are already quite a few small fish and shrimps in this Nine Dragons Cave Heaven."

"Master Bailong said that if someone from another race arrives, we can notify him and he will come to communicate with you."

Lin Tianhao glanced at the other young turtle man and asked, "Have you informed him?"

"Master Bailong has been notified. He will be here soon."

"Dear human leaders, please be patient. We have no ill intentions."

Tarzan Buffalo grinned and asked:

"The Lord White Dragon you are talking about, is he going to come with a bunch of shrimp soldiers and crab generals and surround us directly?"

The young turtle shook his head and said:

"You adults have misunderstood. No, Master Bailong said that we just want a place to settle down and have no conflict with other races."

"But when we come here, your shelter will be exposed."

Taishan Buffalo said with a straight face:

"So, you must think it would be safer to get rid of us."

After hearing what Taishan Buffalo said, the two young turtles didn't know how to respond for a moment.

Just now.

An elegant and easy-going voice sounded.

"You may have really misunderstood. Killing cannot solve the problem. It will only make our Jiulong Cave Heaven fall into an irretrievable situation."

Falling with the sound.

Then a scholar in a white robe slowly walked towards them.

"Yes....."

Taishan Buffalo's eyes widened, slightly surprised.

Because this white-robed scholar was the one who had just separated from them.

However, Taishan Buffalo did not say it out loud, because he found that the white-robed scholar in front of him was obviously different from the white-robed scholar who came down from the eighth floor with them.

The aura, temperament, and the vague sense of oppression are all different from the previous white-robed scholar.

The white-robed scholar looked easy to deal with.

But the white-robed scholar in front of him looked extremely difficult to deal with.

"Hello, I'm Xiao Bailong, the manager of Jiulong Cave Heaven. What are your names?"

Lin Tianhao raised his eyebrows and said, "My name is Xiao Tianhao."

Xiaobailong was slightly startled, but didn't care about this question.

"What is your purpose for coming here?"

Lin Tianhao pondered for a moment and said seriously:

"To be honest, we found the Resurrection Coin here, so we came here to hunt for treasure."

Little White Dragon nodded gently, "Nine Dragon Cave Heaven is isolated from the outside world, but because of these resurrection coins, it is inevitable that someone will come here to search for treasures."

"How about this, everyone here will get ten resurrection coins, and I'll send you off, how about that?"

Lin Tianhao was a little surprised. Is this the easiest way to pass this copy?

They have now found the old director, and there seems to be no need to continue wasting time here.

But having lived two lives, Lin Tianhao knew very well that if he missed this opportunity, it would not be easy for him to obtain these resurrection coins in the future.

Little White Dragon saw Lin Tianhao's hesitation, but he was not angry and said:

"Your Excellency, you may not know something."
