

OMEGA SUMMONER

Chapter 15 - Asmodian Prowess

(System to Player Announcement)

The player has chosen the Daemos race. Player will now be transported to your next destination.

A few minutes earlier...

"Now that you have chosen your new form champion Equinox, it is now time to give you the message the twin gods Gaea and Abaddon have entrusted to you " the hall said.

●QUEST NOTIFICATION●

The Ancient Heroes part I(Summoner Quest)

The twin gods, Gaea the goddess of life and Abaddon the god of death, have entrusted you to put a stop to the revival of the Lich King for he will lay waste to the world. You must find clues on what the ancient heroes did in order to strengthen the seal that keeps the Lich King from reviving.

Difficulty: B

Time limit: 100 days

Reward: Random Epic Soul Stone

Adrian cannot believe the quest he was given. Quests are basically ranked from F,E,D,C,B,A,S to SSSSS according to the level of difficulty. For a level 5 rookie to be given a B rating quest would be already mind-blowing. The quest also had a time limit which is also debilitating for him because he can only log in for 8 hours which is equivalent to 1 day in-game time.

He really will have to be actively looking for clues on this event in order to even finish his first quest. Although of great difficulty, the reward is really nice for it was an epic soul stone. An epic soul stone would give him a chance to summon a creature that has a great power. The stone might even give him a dragon or like a griffin. This reward was too good to pass. With the lucrative reward, he resolved himself to find the clues as fast as he can.

The pentagram started glowing and becoming even brighter.

"The pentagram is ready champion Equinox. I bid you farewell and give you the blessings of the gods to avert the crisis at hand." the hall's voice echoed.

Adrian's ghostly form started fading from where he stand then his vision blacked out. When Adrian regained his vision, he was inside a room with furniture made from stone that illuminates with a pattern like that of the galaxies. Not only the furniture but the whole inside of the house sparkles with this effect. He checked the game logs and managed to see multiple announcements. He also checked his new character status.

Adrian's eyes bulged when he saw his stats. His basic stats went up by a lot and his unused status points basically doubled. He wanted to check what made this phenomenon possible so he checked his newly acquired skills in order to clarify his speculation and it did not disappoint.

Name: Racial Skill:Origin Magic

Effect: Grants the user the ability to master Origin Magic. Origin Magic pertains to magic that is harnessed from the aether which allows the user to grasp the principle of time and space. Due to the uniqueness of aether the user cannot use other magics other than origin magic.

Name: Daemos Core

Effect: Doubles the player's stat bonus per level. Also increases the basic stat of the player. Grants slight bonus to origin magic mastery.

Name: Asmodian Prowess(Summoner)

Effect: Grants the player the chance to nullify abnormal status conditions(dependent on bloodline purity). Grants the player and soulbound 100% experience gain.

Adrian just perhaps witnessed a summoner player game breaking skill.
