

O Summoner 2189

Chapter 2189: Both Are Chaotic II

Sirius and Kimat lunged at Amatsu-Mikaboshi, but they were easily struck by him in retaliation. Sirius managed to land a claw swipe and Kimat was able to bite an arm but the chaotic dark tendrils sprouting from behind Amatsu-Mikaboshi slammed them down the ground. The two soulbounds lost a quarter of their health with a mere strike but that did not dim Kanlaon's confidence as he swung his tail towards Amatsu-Mikaboshi.

Kanlaon did not just casually slammed his tail but also infused it with the elements that he could control. The tail is basically enhanced with every element which means that it akin to an Elemental Catastrophe spell. Sensing the abnormality of the tail, Amatsu-Mikaboshi defended himself with his chaotic darkness to form a sphere. Kanlaon's tail attack did apply Elemental Catastrophe but the defense that the enemy had was perfect.

Kanlaon's tail just bounced off while a fast chaotic darkness tendril shot out from the sphere of darkness. The chaotic dark tendril did not aim for Kanlaon but directly for Adrian's forehead. Kanlaon tried using his tail to defend Adrian, but it actually got pierced which made him scream in pain. The chaotic dark tendril continued on its path, but Adrian managed to take notice of it thanks to Kanlaon's scream.

Adrian narrowly dodged the chaotic dark tendril, but it did manage to chip a part of his left ear. Adrian had to partially summon Saena to release a healing wind that swept to all of his allies. The chipped ear was healed back but the onslaught of attacks did not stop there. More chaotic dark tendrils burst out from the sphere and were all aimed towards Adrian in such a fast pace.

To add more to the confusion, Tai also joined in on attacking Adrian as he was still enraged. The ones sucked by the black hole also got spat out which meant a new set of enemies are added into the mix. Adrian could not use Time Stop with the mana that he has as he used a lot already. Paradox also consumed the expected amount of mana when it used Time Stop as it does not have passive skills like Adrian.

"Welp. I guess I will just need to revive." Adrian stated as he knew when he could dodge and when he could not.

"Divine Sanctuary!" Levin Cloud stated as he appeared at the midst of the battlefield via a flower.

A golden energy suddenly burst out from Adrian at the epicenter. The divine energy was so potent that it also healed his wounds and restored some of his mana as well. Not only that, but the Divine Sanctuary spell also blocked all forms of damage from reaching the intended target. The enlarged oni fist of Tai and the chaotic dark tendrils were unable to reach Adrian body because of it.

"You will not have any respite!" Vixen shouted as she opened her fan to release mystical fire foxes that an actually deal damage via curse even if the enemy is invulnerable.

"I will deal with you, foxy hag." Peridot stated as she appeared with all of her elemental gems around her.

Peridot used up a pure blue gem to instantly create a powerful freezing wind that froze the mystical fire foxes that Vixen released. This powerful freezing wind also went towards Vixen, but she was able to defend herself from the cold by wrapping her tails in flames. The two fierce women looked at each other and immediately knew that they will never like each other.

"You dare call me a hag, pre-schooler!" Vixen stated as she has the body of a well-endowed woman in her early twenties while Peridot has the body of a teenager still.

"Are those fox ears only for decoration?" Peridot stated as she released another spell that created a powerful quake that snaked its way towards Vixen.

"The Ryujin princess dares to mock me? Are those dragon horns sticking out of your head also for decoration?!" Vixen shouted as she released larger mystical fire foxes that ran towards Peridot.

"I shall aid you, Mistress Vixen!" Akane stated as she ran towards Peridot with the aim of decapitating her head.

Just as the blade that Akane wielded is about to hit Peridot, a spear suddenly parried it as a figure dressed in armor that shined in light appeared. Frey protected Peridot from the surprise attack and immediately counterattacked the NPC. Frey did not underestimate the female samurai or Onna-musha as her blade was heavy and precise. Frey knew that she was in combat with a seasoned warrior that might have won a few wars.

"Thanks bestie!" Peridot stated as she released a powerful gale that swept up the large mystical fire foxes that Vixen used.

"Equinox still needs help." Levin Cloud reminded them as their powerful damage dealer is still in between a lot of enemies.

"Fear not, Mediator of Life. I shall handle most of them." The beautiful voice of a woman that is filled with authority and elegance echoed in the area.

As soon as the beautiful voice echoed, a large thunderstorm brewed in the horizon. The earth swallowed up enemies that were not expecting it to open. The winds blew hard as blades of sharp fierce gales swept across the enemies. The most powerful of them all is an explosion of light that targeted the being clad in chaotic darkness.

"Nuwa!" Amatsu-Mikaboshi stated as his protective sphere made out of chaotic darkness was shattered.

"I once offered you to join us, but it seems that I should not have let you live back when you ran for your life. I will not make the same mistake twice as I will sweep every enemy that dared to attack the Sanctuary of the Ryujin!" Nu Wa stated as her entire clothes suddenly changed to a frosty appearance.

"Let the world be covered in ice! Ice Age!" Nu Wa shouted as her voiced echoed in three different octaves and the entire area was suddenly covered in white.
