

O Summoner 35

Chapter 35 - Zombie Dragon

The zombies that were charging to Adrian became ashes as soon as the zombies charged. The fire breath of Kanlaon proved to be very fatal since zombies or other undead are weak to fire that are very hot or have divine properties. Although Kanlaon is low leveled, he was still a dragon the hundreds of enemies keep falling due to the skills of Adrian and his soulbounds. Adrian see his experience bar rising steadily and he leveled up twice because of the number of enemies but lost all his mana in the process. He chugged a Medium MP potion to fill his mana back to half which he did begrudgingly since Medium MP potions were expensive and the price is still steadily rising. He thought maybe he could get the alchemist sub job to minimize his burden.

[Player Equinox has leveled up]

[Sirius has leveled up]

[Kanlaon has leveled up]

[Kanlaon has leveled up]

The zombies are all cleared because of Adrian and his soulbounds but the gravekeeper is still alive. As soon as the last zombie fell, Adrian bolted towards the gravekeeper. Monsters that are good at magic have great magic resistance but low physical resistance which is the reason Adrian opted to do physical damage. He sprung to his feet like a cannonball towards the gravekeeper further propelled himself using his wings. He dealt great damage to the gravekeeper when his fist connected with the gravekeeper's face.

Gravekeeper -1000hp

The gravekeeper has been paralised due to phenomenal force.

With the gravekeeper stunned, Adrian commanded Sirius and Kanlaon to help him deal damage. Due to the gravekeeper's body that could bleed, Sirius dealt massive damage to the boss. As soon as the boss monster's body went to 70% HP, a shock wave rang out and pushed back Adrian and his soulbounds. The gravekeeper suddenly screamed and shadows suddenly covered its body and formed a cloak while it levitated in mid-air. The staff that it was carrying elongated and a blade protruded. The staff now became a scythe.

This transformation meant that the boss monster was at phase two. The gravekeeper then spoke to Adrian in a mocking tone.

"It seems you are better than I imagined but you will meet your end today. Once I kill you, I will entrap your soul for eternity and torture you for a millenium."

The gravekeeper flew towards Adrian in a fast speed. The gravekeeper was suddenly fast and turned to a warrior or like an assassin because of its speed. Adrian did not predict its speed but managed to prepare if the gravekeeper suddenly closed the distance. He placed spacemines near him fearing this situation and detonated them when the boss monster was in the area of effect. Due to the explosion, the gravekeeper flinched and was again bombarded with attacks by Adrian's soulbounds. The gravekeeper screamed in pain and swung its scythe without a pattern. It managed to damage Adrian and his soulbounds but was not able to threaten them. Adrian was now getting used to using the talons or claws that the demi-gauntlets get when its supersized. He would dig out the flesh oh the gravekeeper and the boss monster would screech loudly that deafened Adrian's ears but Adrian held on and kept attacking until another shock wave blew him and his soulbounds away when the gravekeeper's health reached 10%.

The gravekeeper stood up and gave Adrian a menacing stare and spoke.

"You have angered me infidel. I would have trampled on you like a bug if it was not for this damn barrier that your ancestor created. You left me no choice since you kept resisting. I did not idle by the last couple hundred years breaking the barrier without effort. I managed to open a small crack but a damn lizard exited instead but I managed to make it into an undead. Tremble before it."

As soon as the gravekeeper finish saying those words, it started chanting and a huge magic circle appeared on the ground. Adrian and his soulbounds could not move because this was meant to happen in the story of the mission. Adrian frowned because the difficulty soared again because the gravekeeper is summoning another monster. As the monster was summoned, Adrian was still confident because the gravekeeper said that it was a lizard but Adrian forgot that it was a lizard by the gravekeeper's standards. He completely forgot that the gravekeeper was a powerful being before being weakened by the seal. The magic circle started shining in a an ominous green light and the monster was now summoned. Adrian's confidence suddenly plummeted because when he inspected the lizard it was not a lizard at all.

Monster: Abyss Zombie Dragon(Weakened)

Lvl: ???

HP: 100000/100000

Description: A once mighty dragon that roamed the skies and the seas but was changed to an undead by the power of a sorcerer. Able to use ice breath due to its nature as a water dragon that live in the deep ocean abyss but is now weakened. Due to being a zombie poison attacks have been added to its elemental breath. Has brittle bones due to living for a long time and not strengthened by its new master.

Adrian's face paled because he was running low on potions but he was stunned because the abyss zombie dragon's mouth opened and roared towards the gravekeeper.
