

Obsessed CEO Throws Himself at Me Chapter 1826

Chapter 1826 Treatment

“What’s the matter?” Upon seeing his frown, Arielle placed her hand on his. Instead of replying verbally, Vinson handed the phone to her.

The instant she read the content of the text, she understood why he had that expression. If she were in his shoe, she also wouldn’t know what to do.

After all, Gaspar was Vinson’s brother. As much as Vinson didn’t want to admit it, both of them were related by blood. The situation was just like the one between her and Aaron. While she really didn’t want to regard Aaron as her little brother, she still did it in the end because it felt pretty good to have an additional family member.

The difference between her and Vinson’s situation was that this half-brother of his was very hostile toward him. Time and time again, Gaspar tried to kill Vinson. That was totally unacceptable to her.

“What’s your plan? Are you going to do as this message instructed?” Staring at Vinson, Arielle assured, “I’ll support whatever you decide to do.”

I decide how to deal with this matter.” He sighed. Susanne didn’t give a clear explanation on the phone last time. If he wanted to understand the details of the situation, he had to go back and ask her about to Arielle. “What did her phone again and handed it to what he was reading. “What does this mean?

at Vinson for a while, Arielle uttered with a

Vinson, who was usually calm, couldn't maintain his composure

Mom mentioned she gets mild headaches occasionally. So, I took her to the hospital for a checkup.” Holding his hand, she continued in a serious tone, “Let me handle Mom. I’ll benign or malignant. Things would be okay if the case, she still had to come up with a plan to take Susanne to a idea what excuse she could use to bring Susanne for a checkup. After all, once the checkup was