

Obsessed CEO Throws Himself at Me Chapter 1842

Chapter 1842 Refusing To Return

Her words stunned the people like a bolt from the blue, and the entire hall erupted into an uproar. They never thought that the beautiful and graceful woman on stage was already married, let alone married Nightshire Group's chairman, Vinson Nightshire.

Those who had brought their children along were feeling regretful about not approaching her earlier. Right as Susanne was done with her speech, Vinson walked up the stage with two bouquets of flowers. After hugging Susanne and handing her the bouquet of carnations, he strode toward Arielle. As the people watched on with envy in their eyes, he placed the fiery red roses in Arielle's arms and gave her a quick hug.

Arielle never expected Susanne to announce her identity at her birthday party. After a moment of shock, Arielle curled her lips. She then held Susanne and Vinson's hands before stepping down the stage.

What happened next was up to the hotel, who provided a band and some performances.

At Turlen, after much effort, Aaron finally received news about Alicia. Immediately after handing over what was on hand to Lawrence, he went with Morrison to the island to look for her.

Just as he arrived outside the wooden house, he found his courage fleeing him, for he spotted the visibly pregnant Alicia hunching over and keeping the herbs away.

pregnant? She's pregnant but she ran the desperate urge to capture the woman and hit her buttocks surged into Aaron's be so ruthless to leave no words behind before vanishing from my world?

turn around. Right as she saw the familiar face, her up, but Aaron was quicker than her. His eyes had been fixed on move! I'll put them back into the basket before putting the basket on the rack. Once he was done, he without saying anything?" he lips in silence. However, tears welled up in her eyes cry? Do you think that