

Obsessed CEO Throws Himself at Me Chapter 1846

Chapter 1846 Will You Marry Me

About an hour ago, Vinson had brought Arielle over to one of his mansions. He then got down on one knee and proposed to her with a ring in his hand, "Sannie, will you marry me?"

Arielle had assumed the two of them would skip everything else and just proceed with the wedding, so she was not expecting such a pleasant surprise from him at all. "Marry him! Marry him!"

Arielle turned around when she heard that and saw all her family members and friends coming out of the mansion. Her tears flowed uncontrollably when she spotted Aaron among them. "Aaron..."

"Marry him, Sannie," Aaron said with a smile. Arielle then shifted her gaze back toward Vinson, who was still kneeling on the ground, and nodded at him. "I will marry you, Vinson Nightshire."

Vinson pulled the ring out of gotten the proposal out of the way, Vinson had Rayson take them to Maureen's Kitchen for a meal. It wasn't until the guests had left that Arielle noticed a pregnant this girl? She looks at least a few months pregnant! When Aaron noticed the curious look on Arielle's face, he led Alicia over to her side and said, "Sannie, this is my fiancée, Alicia. We're going to get married after she gives birth to the smile. "Nice to meet you too!" Arielle then placed her hand on Alicia's replied. She felt somewhat awkward as she had gotten jealous of Arielle in the past, only to

She can head back after she recovers from childbirth,” Arielle suggested. She didn’t trust the healthcare quality in Turlen enough to let agreed to her suggestion without any hesitation. Since he couldn’t just let Alicia stay here all by herself, he decided to put his mother, Lawrence, and Morrison in charge of the country’s affairs while he remained here