Chapter 1031: Buy The Jiang Group

Lu Qi was worried that Jiang Yu was in a bad mood because all the members of the Jiang family were in jail, so she comforted her, “Xiao Yu, don’t think too much. The Jiang family has done all kinds of bad things, and now they’re in jail. They deserve it.”

“That’s not what I’m thinking about.” Jiang Yu shook her head. “I’m thinking about the Jiang Group’s jewelry.”

“That company? Why?” Lu Qi asked curiously. “Didn’t they say that they’re already in the red? I heard that the bank is going to take it away in a few days.”

Jiang Yu lowered her head and said in a low voice, “I want to buy the Jiang Jewelry Company.”

“Huh? Why did you buy that bankrupt company?” Dai Zhu couldn’t figure out Jiang Yu’s thoughts.

“That’s right, Xiao Yu. The money that the Jiang Jewelry Company lost is not a small amount. Even if you can really afford it, there’s no need for this company to buy it, right?” Lu Qi tried to dissuade Jiang Yu, “Moreover, this is Jiang Hai’s company. Why do you have to help him clean up the mess?”

“But if I buy the company, it will be my company,” Jiang Yu said.

“But Jiang Jewelry is a company that no one can save.” Dai Zhu frowned, “Everyone thinks it’s a hot potato, so no one wants to buy it. If you buy it now, wouldn’t it be the same as taking the hot potato into your own hands?”

“Moreover, Jiang Hai’s reputation is not good, and so is the company’s reputation. Most people think that the Jiang jewelry company will only sell fake jewelry.” Lu Qi was angry and helpless when she said this, “If you run this company, just restoring its reputation will be a big project, not to mention making a profit.”

Jiang Yu felt that what Lu Qi and Dai Zhu said made sense, but she still wanted to buy the Jiang Jewelry Company.

Not only because Jiang Jewelry was Jiang Hai’s last resort, but also because she wanted to prove to Jiang Hai with her actions that as long as she worked hard and didn’t engage in so many evil ways, then the company’s business would definitely prosper.

Therefore, Jiang Yu made up her mind — to buy Jiang Jewelry.

Lu Qi and Dai Zhu saw that Jiang Yu’s attitude was so firm, so they didn’t try to persuade her anymore.

Jiang Yu chose a day without classes and went to the detention center.

She heard that Jiang Hai’s crimes had all been decided and that he would be sent to court the next day. Since that was the case, she had to hurry up.

When Jiang Hai heard that Jiang Yu had come to see him, he thought that she had suddenly realized her conscience and couldn’t bear to see her father suffer in prison, so she came to redeem him.

However, when Jiang Yu saw him, the first thing she said was, “I want to buy Jiang Jewelry.”

Jiang Hai was stunned. He thought that he had heard wrong, so he asked again, “What? You want to buy my company?”

“Yes.” Jiang Yu nodded firmly.

“Why do you want to buy my company?” Jiang Hai was puzzled.

It was not because he was unwilling to sell it to Jiang Yu, but because he knew the evaluation of his jewelry company in the market. Therefore, he could not believe that Jiang Yu would go against the public opinion and buy Jiang Jewelry.

“Other than me, only the bank will take over your company.” Jiang Yu looked down at Jiang Hai. “You can choose between me and the bank. This is not a difficult problem. I think you should be able to tell the pros and cons.”

Jiang Hai hesitated.

Jiang Yu was right. If the company was bought by the bank, it would be sublet at a low price or resold at a medium price, but he would not get a single cent.

However, if Jiang Yu bought the company, she might be able to get some money from her. In this way, he could live on that money for a while after he got out of prison.

With this in mind, Jiang Hai agreed to Jiang Yu’s request.

“Okay, I agree.” Jiang Hai looked up at Jiang Hai. “Go back and prepare the acquisition agreement. I’ll sign it right away.”

“There’s no need to go back and prepare it. I’ve already prepared it.” As she spoke, Jiang Yu took out two folded hand bone agreements from her handbag, unfolded them, and placed them in front of Jiang Hai.

Jiang Yu handed him a pen. “I’ve already printed it when I came here. Take a look. If there’s no problem, just sign it.”

Jiang Hai held the ballpoint pen and suddenly laughed at himself. “You’ve already prepared it? You knew I would agree to it?”

“It’s not hard to guess.” Jiang Yu shrugged. “There are only benefits and no harm in transferring the company to me. If your brain isn’t stupid, you should be able to figure it out.”

Chapter 1032: Reorganization

“Hahaha!” Jiang Hai suddenly burst into laughter and signed his name on the two acquisition agreements. “I really underestimated you. The little daughter from the countryside that I always looked down on has actually grown up to look like this now. Ah... I’m a little regretful now. If only I hadn’t been so biased towards Jiang rRn back then. If that was the case, things wouldn’t have ended up like today.”

Jiang Hai sighed as he returned the two agreements to Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu folded them and put them back into her handbag. There was no expression on her face. "It's a pity that there's no medicine for regret in this world, so you'd better stay here and regret it."

Jiang Yu turned around and was about to leave when she heard Jiang Hai ask her from behind, "Jiang Yu, do you really hate me?"

"What do you think?" Jiang Yu didn't stop in her tracks and only asked faintly in return.

How could she not hate him?

Back when she married her mother, she didn't give her a proper wedding, but she even did such a despicable thing as an extramarital affair. Later on, in order to establish a good person's image in front of others, she brought herself back to the Jiang family, but she didn't fulfill her duties as a father for a day.

"Sigh." Jiang Hai sighed, but he also knew that this rhetorical question was Jiang Yu's true words.

But now, he was indeed somewhat regretful.

Jiang Yu left the detention center, gave Mo Long a call, and told him about this matter.

After Mo Long heard about this matter, his first reaction was the same as Lu Qi and the others. "Why would you want to buy the Jiang Jewelry? Its reputation and credibility are very bad now. Buying it at this time is undoubtedly taking back a hot potato."

"I know." Jiang Yu smiled in relief. "But it's my company now. As the boss, it's my duty to restore its credibility. You just wait and see how I manage it bit by bit."

Jiang Yu smiled when she said this, and her tone was full of confidence.

Anyway, the previous "Geli" Lipstick Company had been resurrected in her hands, so the Jiang Jewelry was definitely not a problem.

Hence, Mo Long smiled and let Jiang Yu go. "Okay, then you must work hard."

"Okay!"

Jiang Yu answered happily as she talked to Mo Long about her plans for the company's future. At the same time, she took a taxi to the company.

Fortunately, there was no class today, so Jiang Yu had time to go to the company to take a look.

As soon as she entered the door, Jiang Yu found that the scene inside was exactly the same as what Chang Kai had said — there was no one inside, and the surroundings were in a mess as if they had just been robbed.

"Not a single person," Jiang Yu said to Mo Long, frowning. "And when I looked around, it seemed like all the valuables were gone."

"It seems like that group of employees are prepared not to come back," Mo Long guessed. "If they take away the valuables, it's equivalent to making up for the salary that Jiang Hai owes them."

"But they are old employees and are very familiar with the company's business. In the early stages of running the company, I still plan to ask them to come back and help," Jiang Yu said, "You can temporarily postpone the unimportant positions, but an important position like finance can't be delayed."

Mo Long thought for a moment and said, "I'll ask Teng Yi to check the list of employees of the Jiang Jewelry Company for you in a while. You can choose from them and see who needs to come back and continue working. I'll ask Teng Yi to talk to them."

"Just give me the list. I can talk to them myself. After all, I'm the one who runs the company and I want to ask them to come back to work. If I didn't do it myself, I'm afraid it wouldn't be convincing."

"That's good too." Mo Long agreed.

After hanging up the phone, Mo Long called Teng Yi over and asked him to check the employee list of Jiang Jewelry. Then, he sent the results to Jiang Yu.

After Jiang Yu received the list, the first person she looked at was the finance department from before.

The finance department's name was Yu Li. From the photo, she looked like a middle-aged woman.

Jiang Yu called her based on the contact number and wanted to ask if she was willing to return to Jiang jewelry to continue working.

The phone rang a few times before it was picked up. A surprised voice came from the other side, "Hello?"

"Hello, are you Ms. Yu Li?" Jiang Yu asked politely.

"Yes, who are you?" Yu Li thought it was a sales call, and her tone was not very good.

Jiang Yu quickly explained, "I'm the new boss of Jiang Jewelry. I want to ask if you are willing to come back and continue working here."

On the other end of the phone, Yu Li was also very shocked.

Chapter 1033: Robbing People

"The new boss of the Jiang Jewelry Company?" Yu Li asked in surprise.

"Yes, my name is Jiang Yu." In order to make Yu Li believe in her, Jiang Yu directly said her name.

"Jiang Yu? ... I seem to remember now..." Before she could say anything, Yu Li's phone was snatched away.

"Hello? Ms. Yu Li? Do you have any other questions?" Seeing that Yu Li did not speak for a long time, Jiang Yu thought that she had hung up the phone. However, when she looked at her phone, she realized that the call was still going on.

After a long while, a very familiar voice came from Yu Li's end. "Jiang Yu, isn't it not good for you to steal people from me?"

Jiang Yu paused and recognized that it was Kang He's voice.

She was silent for a while before she said, "I'm sorry, I didn't know Ms. Yu Li was already working at your place."

As she said that, she was about to hang up the phone when Kang He's voice sounded again, "I heard that Jiang Ran went to prison. Is that true? And Wei Juan and Jiang Hai, I heard that they've been living quite miserably recently?"

Jiang Yu didn't say anything, but she was also wondering how Kang He knew about these things.

Kang He was not surprised that Kang He knew that Jiang Hai went to prison because it was reported online. But how did she know about Jiang Ran's imprisonment?

"Speak, are you mute?" Kang He mocked, "Tell me about your Jiang family. There are four people in your family, two are in prison, and one is half-dead in the hospital. And you are the ingrate who sent your father and sister to prison. Sigh, why is your Jiang family so miserable?"

When she said this, she deliberately raised her voice as if she wanted everyone around to hear it.

And Jiang Yu did hear it. There were faint whispers coming from the phone.

Kang He thought that her words would anger Jiang Yu, so she even turned on the speakerphone to let everyone in the company hear Jiang Yu's hopping voice.

However, she didn't expect Jiang Yu to be indifferent and said, "This is a family matter of our Jiang family. As an outsider, you don't have the right to interfere."

Kang He immediately complained in an aggrieved voice, "No matter what, you and I are both members of the Kang family. You still have to call me 'sister' when it comes to age. Is this how you talk to your sister?"

"Don't raise your own status. What status do you have to be my sister? I don't even fancy a mere side branch member. You still want to be sisters with me, a member of the Kang Family? Kang He, you're dreaming in broad daylight. This is an illness. You need to be treated." Jiang Yu's voice was neither fast nor slow, it was very calm.

However, after hearing this, Kang He was so angry that he stomped his feet and turned off the speakerphone.

"Jiang Yu! I'm warning you, don't talk nonsense in front of my employees!" Kang He was so angry that her face turned red.

"Oh, you turned on the speakerphone just now?" Jiang Yu retorted. "If I had known earlier, I would have said more so that you would lose face in front of your employees."

"Don't talk nonsense! What did I do?" Kang He gritted her teeth in anger. "Do you think you can step on my head just because you have Mo Long and the Kang family's support? Who do you think you are?"

Jiang Yu felt that her words were baffling. "Who else can I be? Of course I'm your grandfather's biological granddaughter."

"You!" Kang He choked on Jiang Yu's words and almost choked on her breath.

She walked to a corner where no one was around, then, she continued, "Jiang Yu, I'm warning you not to spout nonsense in front of my employees. You want to snatch people from me, yet you still say those words in front of my employees. What do you mean? You're openly provoking me?"

"...Do you have anything else to say?" Jiang Yu felt that Kang He must be mentally ill, and it was not a light illness. "If you don't have anything to say, I'll hang up. This isn't your phone either."

"I..." Before Kang He could finish speaking, Jiang Yu hung up the phone.

"She's really mentally ill." Jiang Yu could not help but scold Kang He, "Is this person delusional? She obviously put the speaker on herself. What does it have to do with me? How can she start a company with this kind of brain? Won't she be losing money all the time?"

Kang He sneezed after being scolded. She turned around and returned to the workplace, returning her phone to Yu Li.

"Don't answer the phone during work hours in the future, do you hear me?" Kang He's gaze was very sharp. "If I find out about it again, I'll fire you immediately! Do you hear me?!"

"I hear you." Yu Li quickly switched off her phone and continued to work.

Kang He glanced at the other employees who were still working. Just as he was about to return to his office, he suddenly turned back and asked Yu Li, "What did Jiang Yu say when she called you?"

Chapter 1034: Suppressed

Yu Li then told Kang He everything that Jiang Yu had just said.

When Kang He heard this, he also had a look of surprise on his face. "Jiang Yu bought the Jiang Jewelry? Is she crazy to buy that company on the grill?"

"I don't know." Yu Li shook her head.

"What do you know?" Kang He rolled her eyes and turned around to return to her own office.

She sat on the chair for a while. The more she thought about it, the more she felt that something was wrong, so she quickly called Sun You.

In order to borrow Kang He's identity to help the Sun family, Sun You naturally treated her as a treasure in his hands. His tone was also very gentle. "Baby, what's wrong?"

Kang He liked to hear Sun You call her that the most. Every time she heard it, she couldn't help but coquettishly say to Sun You, "I miss you, can't I?"

"Darling, I miss you too." Sun You kissed his phone a few times. Anyone who saw it would spit out the last night's meal.

Kang He was probably the only one who could accept it.

However, now was not the time to talk about love. Kang He quickly stopped him and said, "Stop fooling around. I'm serious. Jiang Yu bought the Jiang Jewelry. Do you know about this?"

Sun You really did not know about this. "Is Jiang Yu crazy? Buying the Jiang jewelry at this time? Doesn't she know how much money the Jiang Jewelry has lost? If this money is taken out, although it won't kill her, it can still hurt her blood."

"I think so too. From what she said, it seems that she has already bought the Jiang Jewelry. She even plans to poach people from me to work for her! How shameless." Kang He complained to Sun You, "You must help me get back at her."

"Okay, I will definitely help you teach Jiang Yu a lesson. Jiang jewelry was about to go bankrupt. As long as I simply suppressed it, Jiang Yu would not be able to hold on. Baby, don't worry. When the time comes, I will definitely ask Jiang Yu to come and apologize to you," Sun You boasted.

"Okay, okay." Kang He smiled happily.

"I have a meeting in a while, so I'll hang up first."

Then, Sun You hung up the phone.

He didn't have a meeting. He simply didn't want to hear Kang He's voice anymore.

The soft voice really made him want to vomit every time he heard it.

However, Jiang Yu bought the Jiang Jewelry. This was still useful information that Kang He had gotten.

"What exactly gave you the confidence to think that you can manage this company well?" Sun You sneered, "Mo Long? Or the Kang Family? Jiang Yu, ah, Jiang Yu, you're still too young. It can only be said that you're lucky that 'Ge Li' was saved by you. However, you can only watch as the Jiang jewelry goes to hell."

Sun You's smile became colder and colder. He had already planned how to suppress Jiang Yu.

He would first let her see some hope, and then step on her hope ruthlessly. When that time came, her expression would definitely be spectacular.

After he had planned everything in his heart, he began to secretly keep an eye on Jiang Yu's movements.

He knew that Jiang Yu was currently recruiting new employees, so he wanted to see how she would recruit new employees. After all, no one was willing to work for the Jiang Jewelry Company now.

However, what Sun You didn't expect was that Jiang Yu actually doubled her salary.

The salary of the Jiang Jewelry Company wasn't high before, but it wasn't a small amount when it doubled. Jiang Yu had just taken out a sum of money to buy the company, so how could she dare to raise her salary when the company wasn't doing well?

Soon, Sun You found that people were submitting resumes to the Jiang Jewelry Company.

After all, no one was unmoved by money, and Jiang Yu's salary was indeed high, so many people were attracted to submit their resumes.

Even the salary of the cleaning staff was doubled. The cleaning staff in other places wanted to change jobs and work for the Jiang Group jewelry.

"This Jiang Yu!" Sun You fiercely threw the mouse on the table. "She actually thought of such a method. I really underestimated her."

More and more people sent their resumes to Jiang Jewelry, and soon, there were more than a hundred people.

The more Sun You looked at it, the more he felt that things were developing in a direction that he couldn't control. He even began to have a headache.

He had no choice but to call his secretary. "Get someone to keep an eye on Jiang Jewelry. No matter what happens, you have to tell me."

"Yes, President Sun."

Although the Secretary felt that Sun You's request was a little strange, he still did it.

"Anyway, it's a bankrupt company. I want to see how capable you are to save it."

Chapter 1035: Strange Resume

Jiang Yu came up with a compromise method to increase the salary of the employees.

After all, the Jiang Jewelry Company was in the middle of a storm, so it was normal for no one to want to work here. Therefore, after thinking about it, Jiang Yu felt that the only way was to increase the salary.

This way, not only could it stir up the hearts of the former employees, but it could also attract new employees to work here.

"Ah... money is indeed the best use." Jiang Yu looked at the hundreds of resumes in the mailbox and her head began to hurt.

She had indeed thought that as long as she raised her salary, many people would come to apply for resumes, but she did not expect that there would be so many people.

These hundreds of resumes could not be read by Jiang Yu alone for days and nights, so she needed to find a few helpers.

Originally, she wanted to borrow Teng Yi from Mo Long, but on second thought, Teng Yi still had to work for Mo Long, so she thought about it and finally called Kang Xue and Lu Qi.

Kang Xue had already started to take over part of the company's business, so it shouldn't be difficult for her to sift through resumes.

As for Lu Qi, she had once helped father Lu run the company during the holidays, and had also done personnel work like sifting through resumes.

Jiang Yu was relieved to share the work with them.

After Kang Xue and Lu Qi received the call, they came over without a word. When Dai Zhu heard that Lu Qi was going to work for Jiang Yu, she also insisted on coming along.

Lu Qi couldn't refuse, so she brought her along.

When the three of them rushed to the company, what they saw was a mess.

"Oh my God, is this a robbery?" Dai Zhu was terrified. "This company is about to go bankrupt, and there are still people coming to rob it?"

Lu Qi explained, "It should be because those employees took away all the valuable things when they left, and that's why it became like this."

When the three of them came to Jiang Yu's office, they saw her sitting on the office chair, concentrating on reading her resume.

Lu Qi knocked on the door symbolically. "Boss Jiang, we're here to help."

Jiang Yu stood up to welcome them and said with a smile, "Come in."

Lu Qi and the others sat on the sofa at the side. There were two laptops on the table in front of them — these were the ones that Jiang Yu had just taken from another office.

"I'll send you my resume. Please help me with this job," Jiang Yu said as she divided the resume into three parts and sent them to Lu Qi and Kang Xue respectively.

Seeing that she was the only one with nothing to do, Dai Zhu said, "What about me? I'm already here. You have to give me something to do."

Jiang Yu thought for a moment and said, "Why don't you contact those people to come for the interview?"

Dai Zhu made an "OK" gesture and said, "No problem."

After the division of work was completed, the few of them began to bury themselves in their work. As soon as the right person was selected, Dai Zhu would immediately contact that person to come for the interview.

Before they knew it, it was already night time. Jiang Yu and Lu Qi had already selected all the resumes in their hands, except for the last one in Kang Xue's hands.

However, she seemed to have encountered some difficulties with that resume. She frowned and her expression was not very good.

Seeing this, Lu Qi asked, "What's wrong? Why are you frowning?"

Kang Xue pointed at the picture on the computer. "I've seen this person before. She's an employee of Kang He company."

"What's so strange about that?" Dai Zhu didn't think much of it. "Maybe she resigned and has been looking for a job recently? Then she happened to see that there was a recruitment here, so she came over."

Kang Xue shook her head. "That's not right. I saw her a few days ago. She's also the leader of an operations team. She's not a strict person and everyone likes her. Her salary isn't low either. There's no reason for her to resign."

"Then what's going on? Why did she send her resume here? Is she trying to jump ship?" Dai Zhu was a little confused.

Lu Qi had a guess. "Is she a spy sent by Kang He?"

Jiang Yu was silent for a moment and said, "Whether she wants to jump ship or become a spy, she has to see it for herself to know. Dai Zhu, contact her about the interview time."

"Okay." With that, Dai Zhu called the person and arranged the interview time.

Dai Zhu hung up the phone and said, "Three o'clock tomorrow afternoon."

"Okay." Jiang Yu nodded and decided to meet this person in person.

"I still feel that something is wrong. She has a good job and has a good interpersonal relationship there. I don't understand why she wants to resign." Lu Qi didn't understand, "Xiao Yu, be careful. Don't be deceived by this person."

Chapter 1036: Meeting

"It's okay. I'll be careful." Jiang Yu smiled. "I've only heard of companies deceiving their employees. I've never heard of employees deceiving companies."

"You still have to be careful. I have a feeling that the person coming isn't friendly," Lu Qi warned.

"Okay, I'll be careful."

The next afternoon, Jiang Yu happened to have no classes, so she came to the company ahead of time. She packed up all the messy things and quietly waited for the arrival of the interviewees.

The interviewees that she contacted yesterday came one after another after two o'clock. Until three o'clock, a very plain-looking person walked in.

"Hello, my name is Hong Na. This is my resume." The person respectfully handed over a resume with a very cautious attitude.

This person was the person that Kang Xue mentioned yesterday.

"Hello, I am the boss of this company. My name is Jiang Yu." Jiang Yu stood up and smiled as she stretched out her hand.

Hong Na also stretched out her hand and shook Jiang Yu's hand to show her respect.

However, when she sat down, she secretly took out a wet tissue from her bag to wipe her hands.

However, Jiang Yu still saw it, so she casually asked, "What's wrong? Are you a neat freak?"

Hong Na seemed to be shocked and hurriedly stuffed the wet tissue into her bag. She laughed dryly and said, "No, no... Ah, I am indeed a germaphobe. I'm sorry."

"It's okay. Many people have it. It's understandable." Jiang Yu smiled slightly and picked up the resume on the table. After flipping through it, she found that it was exactly the same as the one she saw yesterday.

However, she did not write on it that she had worked for those companies before and why she had resigned.

Jiang Yu put the resume away and asked, "I saw that your resume did not mention where you worked before?"

Hong Na was stunned for a moment before she immediately smiled awkwardly and said, "Yes. I didn't write it because I felt that my previous work experience was not important."

Jiang Yu looked at Hong Na with a scrutinizing gaze, with a fake smile, she said, "How can it not be important? This is also considered your growth experience. Moreover, if you don't write it, I won't be able to understand you through this information. I also don't know if you are suitable for this job."

"I'm sorry. I'll definitely take note of it next time." Hong Na hurriedly apologized.

Her apology was very smooth, but her attitude was not sincere. Her expression did not change at all, and she did not realize her mistake at all.

Moreover, Jiang Yu guessed that Kang He's company should be Hong Na's first company, so she could not write down what company she worked for before.

Jiang Yu stared at Hong Na for a long time, then suddenly smiled and said, "Don't be nervous, I'm a very easy person to talk to. I see that the position you're applying for is the operations department. Did you do this job before?"

"Yes." Hong Na nodded.

It seemed like what Kang Xue said, this person was also the team leader of the operations team in Kang He's company.

"It's not easy to do the operations position. Do you have the previous experience? I need to look at your performance to decide whether you can work here or not," said Jiang Yu.

"Yes!" Hong Na quickly took out another document from her bag and handed it to Jiang Yu. "Here are all my previous results. I have printed them out."

"Okay." Jiang Yu took it and looked at it. The name of the company still did not appear on it.

It seemed that this person was quite meticulous.

"Your results are good. Go back and wait for the results. If you pass the interview, I will contact you to come to work." Jiang Yu smiled and said.

"Okay, thank you." Hong Na thanked him, then stood up and left.

After Hong Na left, Jiang Yu put away the document and resume.

Through the conversation just now, Jiang Yu could confirm that Hong Na was not a serious interviewer.

Why would a good operations team leader give up her bright future and turn to this company with a bad reputation? If it was for the sake of her salary, the amount of money she received as an operations team leader was about the same as the amount of money she raised her salary. There was no need to go through so much trouble.

Jiang Yu would never believe that Kang He was not involved in this.

But Kang He did not hesitate to put her operations team leader into Jiang Jewelry. What was her purpose? Was it really like what Lu Qi said, she wanted to place a spy in Jiang Jewelry?

Jiang Yu's expression became more and more unsightly. She planned to play along and recruit Hong Na into the company first.

She had to attend classes recently and didn't have time to manage the company, so she entrusted this task to sister Xia.

Sister Xia was unwilling at first. "I've never managed the company. What if something goes wrong?"

Chapter 1037: Play With The Trick

Jiang Yu smiled and said, "Just treat them as artists and manage them. It's very simple."

Sister Xia could not persuade Jiang Yu, so she could only agree. "Alright then, but you have to come and visit often."

"I got it. By the way, Sister Xia, help me pay attention to that operations staff called Hong Na," Jiang Yu instructed.

"Okay, what happened to her? Did something happen to her?"

Jiang Yu then told her that she used to be an employee of Kang He's company.

"This Kang He really doesn't want to be honest." Sister Xia was also very angry, "Isn't she doing this to plant an informant in your company? Let's not talk about other things first. You are all members of the Kang family, yet she is so aggressive towards you. What on Earth is she trying to do?"

"I'm not sure either, but I heard from Kang Xue that Kang He and Sun You are together."

"Huh? The two of them?" Sister Xia was also shocked, "It's over. Nothing good will come out of the two of them getting together. I suspect that Sun You and Kang He worked together to do this. Jiang Yu, be careful. Don't let Kang He and Sun You trick you."

"I got it. I'll be careful." Jiang Yu smiled. "I want to see what tricks Kang He and Sun You will play."

"Well, if you find anything wrong, quickly fire Hong Na."

"Got it." Jiang Yu smiled, "Sister Xia, you should know the address of the company. Just organize the internal affairs of the company for the next few days. There are also fake accounts. This is the most serious problem. Sister Xia, please help me pay more attention."

"No problem. Previously, the management company also encountered the problem of fake accounts. I was the one who solved it, so you can rest assured and leave this matter to me."

“Okay.”

Jiang Yu returned to school for class while sister Xia went to the Jiang Jewelry Company. It was dark and crowded inside.

Some of the employees were old employees. Jiang Yu gave sister Xia a sum of money and asked her to send it to the old employees as compensation for the salary that Jiang Hai owed them.

This made the old employees who took valuable things from the company before they left feel ashamed, so they worked even harder.

And the new employees who saw this scene also began to respect Jiang Yu, the boss they had never met before.

Sister Xia nodded in satisfaction. From the corner of her eyes, she saw a sneaky figure walking toward the pantry.

Sister Xia frowned and followed her suspiciously. She saw her quietly hiding behind the water dispenser and making a phone call.

“Hello? It’s me, I’m Hong Na...” Before Hong Na could finish her words, sister Xia stood behind her and shouted, “What are you doing here instead of working?”

“Huh!” Hong Na was so scared that her phone fell to the ground.

“Which employee are you? Don’t you know that today is the first day and everyone in the company is very busy? Aren’t you going to help me make a phone call here secretly?” The expression on sister Xia’s face was not very good. Hong Na was so scared that she did not dare to breathe.

“Hello, my name is Hong Na, I’m a new employee in the operations department.” Hong Na carefully observed sister Xia’s expression, afraid that if she said something wrong, she would anger the person in front of her and fire her.

If that was the case, then her mission would not be able to be completed.

When Sister Xia heard the two words “Hong Na”, she could not help but be stunned. “You are Hong Na?”

“Yes.”

Sister Xia looked Hong Na up and down. She felt that the girl in front of her was very simple and her voice was very gentle. She did not seem like a bad person. Therefore, sister Xia found it hard to imagine that Hong Na was actually from Kang He’s side.

It seemed that Kang He had some foresight when it came to choosing people. He knew how to choose people who looked innocent.

“There’s nothing else.” Sister Xia waved her hand. “Go over there and get me a cup of water. I’m Thirsty.”

“Okay.” Hong Na turned around and took a disposable cup of water. She went to the water dispenser to get a cup of hot water.

She handed the cup to sister Xia with an innocent smile on her face.

Sister Xia reached out to take it. Just as her fingers were about to touch the cup, Hong Na let go of her hand and the cup fell to the ground.

The hot water splashed onto sister Xia's exposed calf.

"Ah!" Sister Xia cried out in pain from the heat and jumped up. "Why is this hot water!"

"I'm sorry, I'm so sorry. I didn't notice." Hong Na hurriedly apologized and took out a tissue to help sister Xia wipe the water.

Sister Xia's calf was already red from the heat. Although it wasn't a serious injury, it was still very painful. At this time, Hong Na was holding a dry tissue and rubbing it back and forth on Sister Xia's wound. This made Sister Xia hurt even more.

Chapter 1038: Not An Easy Person To Deal With

"There's no need to wipe." Sister Xia endured the pain and pushed Hong Na away.

"I'm sorry. I'm really sorry." Hong Na lowered her head as if she was blaming herself for this.

"... It's okay. I was careless," Sister Xia said.

Actually, she had seen it just now. Hong Na had let go of her hand on purpose. However, she thought that Hong Na was just acting like a Missy and didn't want her to drink water. She didn't expect that the cup of water was actually hot water.

It wasn't winter now, why would Hong Na bring hot water?

Sister Xia was very angry at first and wanted to question Hong Na. But if the two of them quarreled in the pantry, it would delay the work of the other employees.

Today was the first day of the company's re-opening, and it was also the first day of everyone's work. There was so much work that it was uncountable. Sister Xia didn't want to delay the progress of work because of her own matters.

Therefore, she swallowed her anger and silently wrote a note in her heart for Hong Na.

"Thank you, you're so kind." Hong Na smiled again and even thanked Sister Xia.

"Go back to work, don't waste your time here." Sister Xia chased her away.

After Hong Na picked up her phone, she hurriedly returned to her work position.

"You're really not easy to deal with." Sister Xia cursed silently and took out a wet tissue to wipe her wound back and forth.

"Fortunately, it's not boiling water. Otherwise, these two legs would be wasted," Sister Xia muttered softly as she wiped her legs.

After she finished wiping her legs, she went to the finance office to see how his work was.

After all, this was the important work that Jiang Yu had specially instructed, so Sister Xia was naturally very attentive.

The new finance manager was a young man. He wore a pair of black-rimmed glasses and had a very serious expression on his face. Even when he saw Sister Xia, he only greeted her lightly. The corners of his mouth did not even curve upwards.

Fortunately, Sister Xia did not care about this. She only cared about her financial work.

"I've already read one-third of the books here. I've already recorded all the problematic areas," the accountant said. "If you want to take a look, I can show it to you."

"There's no need. You can show it to me after you've finished organizing it."

"Okay."

Sister Xia came out of the finance office. Just as she was about to sneak into the lounge to rest for a while, she heard a faint noise at the door.

She hurried over and saw a group of people gathered there. She didn't know what they were looking at. She could only vaguely hear a few curses from the crowd, such as "Vixen" and "Coquettish Slut."

In order to prevent the situation from becoming more serious, Sister Xia hurriedly squeezed in and saw Hong Na and another middle-aged woman tearing each other's hair.

The middle-aged woman kept scolding Hong Na. "You vixen! Are you seducing other people's husbands everywhere, ah? You're so young, yet you're not learning well. Are you trying to seduce people like a vixen?"

Hong Na was not willing to be outdone either. She shouted loudly, "I said I don't know who your husband is! Are you deaf? I said I don't know your husband!"

When the middle-aged woman heard that, the fire in her heart grew even stronger. The strength in her hands also increased. "Try saying you don't know him again? You don't know him? My husband is going to grow on you!"

"That's his business, why are you looking for me? I don't know him!" Hong Na shouted, and her eyes were already filled with tears of pain.

Sister Xia hurriedly went forward to stop her. "Alright, the two of you, don't fight, quickly let go!"

The middle-aged woman's strength was very strong. With one hand, she pulled Hong Na's hair, and with the other hand, she fiercely pushed Sister Xia to one side.

Sister Xia staggered a few steps and started to get angry. "I said stop fighting! What does it look like to fight at the entrance of the company? If you don't stop, I'll call the Police!"

Upon hearing the police call, the middle-aged woman and Hong Na let go of each other. However, the way they looked at each other was the same.

"Tell me if there's anything. I'm the person-in-charge of the company," said Sister Xia. "Hong Na, go to work."

Hong Na snorted coldly, turned around, and left.

The middle-aged woman was ungrateful. "If you're the person-in-charge, then are you the boss? I want to see your boss!"

"The boss has something on. She's not here today," Sister Xia said in a good-natured manner.

"I don't care. I want to see your boss!" The middle-aged woman began to throw a tantrum. "If I don't get a reasonable explanation from your boss, I'll just stay here and not leave!"

As she spoke, the woman really sat on the reception sofa at the door.

Sister Xia had a headache. "Madam, you're disturbing the social order."

"I don't care what kind of order you are. If you don't give me a reasonable explanation today, no one will be able to think properly!"

Chapter 1039: Mistress

The woman sat down on the sofa. The aura around her was a little terrifying, and no one dared to approach her.

Only Sister Xia walked over as if nothing had happened. She smiled apologetically and said, "I'm sorry, the boss has something on. He really can't come today. If you have something on, just tell me first."

The woman looked at Sister Xia disdainfully. "You're not the boss, what can I tell you? Quickly call your boss over, or else none of you will be able to get off work today!"

"Can you not be so unreasonable?" Even though Sister Xia had a good temper, she could not help but be so unreasonable.

The woman did not listen to Sister Xia at all, she still had a high and mighty look on her face. "Don't talk to me like that. Either you call your boss over, or you fire that woman just now! As long as you fire her immediately, I'll leave immediately."

"She's an employee of this company. I can't fire her for no reason."

"Then shut up. You can't even speak a word in this company. Do you still want to try to resolve this matter?"

The woman's disdainful attitude angered Sister Xia. "If you have nothing to do, then go out and look for something to do. What are you doing here?"

"What kind of attitude is that?" The woman stood up with a whoosh. "Your company would hire that kind of woman as an employee. I don't think this is a good company!"

"If you're here to cause trouble, then get out of here!" Sister Xia was furious, but she suppressed her anger and did not curse out loud, giving the middle-aged woman enough face.

The woman was also so angry that her face turned red and her neck was thick. She wanted to stand there and argue with Sister Xia, but after receiving a phone call, she left with a smile on her face.

However, before she left, the woman did not forget to leave a sentence. "Don't think that this matter will end here. I will come over every day until this matter is resolved!"

This time, not only Sister Xia, but the other employees were also beginning to be dissatisfied.

"What is she doing? It's her own family matter. Why is she making a fuss in our company?"

"Exactly. Is she treating our company as her own home?"

Some people began to hate Hong Na as well.

"Since Hong Na provoked her, why didn't she go and solve it? Is she planning to leave this mess to us so that we can solve it?"

"She encountered such a thing on her first day at work. I don't know what will happen in the future!"

"Fortunately, the boss didn't come over. Otherwise, if he saw Hong Na like this, he might really fire her!"

Hong Na, who had been working in her seat, heard these words and was so angry that her hands trembled.

She stood up, pointing at the group of people, she scolded, "You bunch of chatterboxes. Can't you speak in front of others? You only know how to secretly criticize others. What are you guys capable of? "If you don't work hard on the first day of work and only know how to talk about others behind their backs, I don't think you guys are any good either!"

Since Hong Na said so, those people were not pushovers either, they immediately started scolding Hong Na. "How dare you speak here! Didn't you hear what that woman just scolded you for? A mistress! She said you're a mistress! How can someone like you, who seduces other people's husbands and destroys other people's families, have the face to work here

"I said I don't know her husband. Are you deaf? She couldn't control her husband and then pushed the blame onto me. Do I have to admit to this crime?"

"If there's really nothing between you and her husband, then why did she find you! It's all because the two of you had an affair and were discovered by others. That's why she came here!"

Hong Na wanted to continue arguing, but Sister Xia stopped them with a stern voice.

"If you don't work hard, why are you arguing here? The work content is too little, isn't it?" Sister Xia's sharp gaze swept over everyone, "Who told you that you can gossip during work hours? You guys really don't cherish this job!"

After Sister Xia said that, the group of people shut up and returned to their posts awkwardly, burying their heads in their work.

It seemed that managing the company was not an easy task.

Sister Xia returned to the lounge and made a call to tell Jiang Yu about this matter.

Jiang Yu was also very surprised. She didn't expect that Hong Na would encounter such a thing on her first day at work.

"You'd better find some time to come over." Sister Xia's facial features were squeezed together because of helplessness, "Otherwise, I'm really afraid that middle-aged woman will go crazy in the company every day. This time, I can't stand it. If she comes over every day in the future, then this company won't be able to manage."

Chapter 1040: Family Matters

"I got it. I'll be there as soon as possible."

Jiang Yu also had a headache. She originally just wanted to see what kind of message Hong Na would send to Kang He, and what kind of actions Kang He would make because of this information.

She didn't expect Hong Na to bring her personal matters.

Jiang Yu was also worried that the middle-aged woman would go to the company every day to find trouble with the employees, so she chose a day without classes to go to the company.

As expected, when she walked into the company, she saw a middle-aged woman with a mean face sitting on the sofa at the door.

When she saw Jiang Yu, she also hurriedly stood up and walked over, she said, "Young Lady, you are also here for an interview, right? Then I advise you not to come. Their boss hasn't been here for several days, and her attitude is completely irresponsible. Moreover, their company has recruited a mistress as an employee. I asked the person-in-charge to fire the mistress, but that person-in-charge actually remained indifferent! Just tell me, who would dare to come to such a company?"

Jiang Yu was about to speak when, an employee walked out from the room and reprimanded, "It's our working time now. You're not an employee of our company. What nonsense are you talking about? Is the person next to you here for an interview? Come in quickly, don't listen to that woman's nonsense."

Before Jiang Yu could react, the woman started arguing with the employee who was speaking. "Are you speaking up for that mistress? I don't think you're a good person either!"

"Shut up!" The employee who was being insulted was a young lady. It was probably the first time she had been scolded so harshly. She was so angry that she cried on the spot.

If one employee cried, then the other employees naturally had to stand up for her.

Therefore, the other employees stood up one after another. The atmosphere instantly became tense.

Seeing that the group of people was about to quarrel, Jiang Yu quickly stopped them and said, "Wait a minute. I'm the boss of this company. My name is Jiang Yu. Don't quarrel first. If there's anything, we can talk about it."

The employees had already seen Jiang Yu during the interview, but at that time, they only thought that she was the HR team leader who was in charge of the interview. They didn't expect that she was the big boss of this company.

The middle-aged woman also looked at Jiang Yu in surprise, her gaze was full of scrutiny.

“You’re the boss of this company? You’re so young, how is that possible?”

“I am indeed the boss. If you have anything to say, just tell me.” Jiang Yu was very polite.

The woman was skeptical, not knowing whether Jiang Yu’s words could be trusted. However, she had been sitting here for several days. It was not easy for her to wait for someone to say that she was the boss, so for a moment, the woman really believed Jiang Yu’s words.

However, she was too young and did not look like the boss at all. Instead, she looked like the boss’s secretary.

Jiang Yu also saw the woman’s confusion and explained, “I’m really the boss. There’s no need to lie to you. This matter is so complicated. Besides the real boss, no one else should be willing to step out and solve this matter, right?”

Her words had somewhat convinced the woman. Therefore, the woman snorted coldly and said, “Since you say you’re the boss, then I’ll believe you this time. “This matter is also easy to solve. As long as you fire that Hong Na and promise to never hire her again, then I won’t come and make trouble again.”

“Let’s go to the office and talk,” Jiang Yu suggested. She didn’t want to talk about this kind of matter at the entrance of the company.

However, the woman didn’t agree. “Go to the office? That shameless vixen dares to do such a thing. Is she afraid of others talking about it? This is originally my family’s matter, but I’m not afraid of losing face. What is she afraid of?”

Jiang Yu had a headache. It seemed that this woman was indeed as sister Xia had said, and it was somewhat difficult to resolve.

After Hong Na heard the commotion over here, she also walked over.

She wasn’t worried that Jiang Yu would be put in a difficult position, but simply couldn’t stand this woman fabricating facts behind her back and damaging her image.

Hong Na walked over, however, she deliberately kept a little distance from that woman. “Since you’ve said that this is your family matter, can you go back and resolve it? What’s the point of you always blocking me here? If you can’t control your husband, who else can you blame but you?”

“Aiyo, you seductive fox, I’ve waited for you for so long, and you’re finally willing to step out?” When the woman saw Hong Na, her smile was very ferocious, “If you hadn’t seduced my husband when you were a drinking girl back then, things wouldn’t be like this between us! Now that you’ve switched careers and taken up a proper job, what about my husband? What about the happiness of our family? Can you afford to pay for it!”
