Chapter 1041: The Truth of The Incident

The more the woman spoke, the more agitated she became. She even wanted to go past Jiang Yu and hit Hong Na.

Seeing this, Hong Na also took a step back and retreated to a safe distance.

She said loudly, "What's wrong with being a hostess? I'm not selling my body. I'm just drinking with you! I'm making money by relying on my own strength. Is this shameful? Besides, I've been a hostess for a long time. How would I know which one your husband is? He fell in love with me in a corner I didn't know. Can you blame me?"

Hong Na didn't think that "Hostess" was a shameful profession, but the other employees all looked at her strangely. But she didn't care at all, because when she resigned and went to Kang He's company to introduce herself, the group of people also looked at her in the same way.

She was already used to it. After all, she was doing it for money, not for anything else.

When the middle-aged woman heard this, she was furious. "Who else can you blame?! Isn't it your fault that you caused him to become like that?!"

The more the woman spoke, the more agitated she became. Before the matter developed beyond control, Jiang Yu stopped the two of them in time and allowed the other employees to continue working.

"If you have something to say, go to my office! Don't delay the other employees' work here!"

The woman still didn't want to go, but Jiang Yu's expression had already turned ugly. "You keep telling me to solve this matter, but you won't listen to me. Then what do you want me to solve? Solve the air?"

Jiang Yu's expression was still good at the beginning, and her tone was very gentle. This made the woman feel that Jiang Yu was a soft persimmon that was easy to bully. That was why she had been staying at the entrance and insisted on resolving the matter here.

Her goal was to let more people know how shameless Hong Na was, and how this boss, Jiang Yu, was a soft persimmon that was afraid of trouble.

However, Jiang Yu's temper had really flared up at this moment, and her expression had become gloomy. The woman was frightened and immediately kept quiet. She knew that Jiang Yu was not someone to be trifled with, so she obediently followed Jiang Yu to the office.

After they went to the office, Jiang Yu stood by the window and slowly let out a few sighs of relief. She then turned around and asked, "I have roughly understood this matter, so tell me your thoughts. How do you want to resolve it?"

The woman spoke before Hong Na could say anything, "I have no other opinions. As long as you fire her, I promise that I will not appear here in the future."

Jiang Yu looked at her coldly. "And then? After she works for another company, will you go and cause trouble for that company?"

The woman froze and didn't say anything.

Because that was exactly what she thought.

Although it was a little troublesome, as long as she could make it so that Hong Na couldn't find a job for the rest of her life, she was willing to do such a troublesome thing.

Jiang Yu looked at Hong Na again. "What do you think?"

"There's nothing to say. A clean slate is a clean slate. Anyway, I haven't done this before, so I definitely won't admit my mistake." Hong Na crossed her arms and turned her face away. "But if you fire me for the sake of the company's reputation, then I have nothing to say. Every boss would do this when they encounter such a thing. I can understand you."

Jiang Yu fixed her gaze on Hong Na and suddenly turned to ask the woman, "You also went to the company that Hong Na used to work for?"

"Yes." The woman looked at Jiang Yu's expression and for some unknown reason, she suddenly stuttered and subconsciously said the name of the company.

Hong Na's expression changed. "Hey! What's wrong with you!"

Jiang Yu smiled, but she did not expose Hong Na immediately, instead, she said to the woman, "I advise you to take back that idea. You can only achieve your own goal, but you will cause trouble for others. Don't you care about that?"

The woman pursed her lips. "That's their business. What does it have to do with me?"

Jiang Yu was silent for a moment and said, "This matter ends here. Don't come here to cause trouble again."

"How can it end here?" The woman hurriedly said, "Have I waited here for so many days without a proper explanation?"

"As you said, this is your business. What does it have to do with me?" Jiang Yu asked back, "Pat your conscience and see if this matter really has anything to do with Hong Na? Aren't you the one who made a fuss out of nothing and wasted so much time here? Your husband likes drinking and has fallen in love with someone who drinks with him. Shouldn't you be questioning why he has the intention of betraying you? Hong Na is accompanying him with wine, not feelings. Even if you want to explain, you have found the wrong person."

Chapter 1042 - 1042 Different Impression

1042 Different Impression

The woman refused to give up and said, "You mean to say that you want me to go back just like that? I'm warning you, it's absolutely impossible..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Jiang Yu said coldly, "I don't care whether it's possible or not. If you continue to cause trouble in my company, I'll immediately call the police and go to the police station to settle this matter! When the time comes, you will see whether Hong Na's crime is serious or your crime is serious!"

Her expression did not look like she was joking, so the woman was also frightened and did not dare to speak.

After a long time, she said timidly, "You, don't think that this matter is over just like that! If I don't come in the future, it doesn't mean that I will never come! If you want to keep your company safe and sound, I advise you to fire this woman! When that time comes, even if I make a fuss, it won't come to you!"

After that woman left, Hong Na didn't want to stay with Jiang Yu anymore, so she turned around and was about to leave. However, just as she turned around, Jiang Yu stopped her. "Hong Na."

Hong Na stopped in her tracks, turned around, and asked with a smile, "What's the matter?"

"Explain it." Jiang Yu sat in her office chair and found a comfortable angle to lean against the back of the chair. "You used to be a member of Kang He company. Why didn't you write it on your resume?"

Hong Na cursed in her heart. It seemed that this matter couldn't be hidden anymore.

It was all that woman's fault. Why did she have to say the name of the company?!

She looked at Jiang Yu carefully. She did not see any anger or disgust on her face.

This was not what Hong Na had imagined.

When Kang He had asked her to come over, she had specifically warned her not to let Jiang Yu know that she had worked in Kang He's company before. Otherwise, she would be fired immediately.

Therefore, Hong Na subconsciously asked, "Aren't you going to fire me?"

Jiang Yu asked in surprise, "Why would I fire you? You didn't do anything wrong."

"I used to be a hostess, and I didn't do a proper job. Moreover, I used to... work in Kang He's company," Hong Na said.

"It's not a big deal. Why would I fire you?" Jiang Yu smiled.

In fact, she didn't plan to expose Hong Na so early. She wanted to wait for some time to see the connection between Hong Na and Kang He. However, since that woman said the name of Kang He's company today, and Hong Na wanted to stop it with a terrified look, Jiang Yu felt that it was not bad to expose Hong Na as soon as possible and put her in her place.

“Huh?” Jiang Yu raised her eyebrows, “Being a hostess isn’t a career that endangers society. Everyone earns money by themselves, and no one is nobler than the other. Moreover, you said yourself that you were only drinking with her and didn’t do anything else, which means that the money you received was clean money. “As for Kang He... What happened between me and her has nothing to do with you. Whether you quit your job to work for me or she sent you here to spy on me, I won’t fire you.”

“Why?” Hong Na didn’t understand. “Even if I’m here to spy on you, you won’t fire me?”

“Because I’m still waiting for you to send a message to Kang He.” Jiang Yu smiled and crossed her hands. “If I fire you, I don’t know what Kang He will do next.”

Hong Na’s breathing stopped, and she looked at Jiang Yu with fear.

So Jiang Yu already knew her identity?!

Then, not only did she recruit her into the company, but she also didn’t expose her for such a long time. Was this what she was planning in her heart? If she didn’t say anything today, was she planning to continue playing along?

The more Hong Na thought about it, the more terrified she felt. Cold sweat broke out on her forehead, but she wouldn’t admit it. “You’re mistaken. I, I resigned on my own accord. I came here because I saw that your salary is high.”

“Is that so?” Jiang Yu’s eyes were filled with curiosity, “The monthly salary of the operations team leader should be about the same as what I gave you, right? Why did you give up such a stable job and come to me? Moreover, it’s a company with a bad reputation. If I didn’t raise the salary, I don’t think anyone would be willing to come.”

Hong Na was so guilty that she did not dare to look directly into Jiang Yu’s eyes.

She wanted to explain, but at the moment any explanation was useless.

Chapter 1043 - 1043 Restricted By People

1043 Restricted By People

Hong Na’s forehead was covered in cold sweat, and she didn’t know whether she should speak or not.

The two of them remained in a stalemate. Fortunately, Jiang Yu didn’t plan to waste any more time with Hong Na, so she waved her hand and let her leave.

Hong Na, who had left the office, still had lingering fear in her heart. She quickly found an empty corner and called Kang He. “Hello? Jiang Yu found out my identity. I can’t stay here any longer.”

Kang He was furious when she heard that. “You piece of trash, What’s wrong with you? Didn’t I tell you to hide your identity? How did she discover it?”

“How would I know? From the looks of it, she probably knew my identity from the start. It’s just that she hasn’t said anything.” Hong Na was also angry in her heart, however, she didn’t dare to speak loudly to Kang He. She could only speak softly like a dog that had been reprimanded by its owner.

“I don’t care if she knows your identity or not. Just stay there obediently. If you were to come back, wouldn’t I have to find a new person to replace you? Wouldn’t that alert the enemy even more? Do you have a brain?” Kang He cursed angrily.

Hong Na was also furious. She wanted to curse Kang He as well. However, she still had to rely on her to treat her mother’s illness and provide for her sister’s education, so she could only swallow her anger for the time being.

Thus, she took a few deep breaths and finally calmed herself down.

“You’re really useless. I used the money to support you and your family. You can’t even do a small thing well!” Kang He was still scolding people on the other side of the phone. “If I knew you were so useless, I wouldn’t have looked for you!”

Hong Na was so angry that she gritted her teeth, but she only dared to listen to Kang He’s scolding.

Meanwhile, Hong Na sorted out her expression and returned to her job as if nothing had happened.

That middle-aged woman had already left, and she probably wouldn’t return for a short period of time. However, it was still impossible for her to completely give up on this matter.

Unless she really fired Hong Na according to her wishes, otherwise, she might come to cause trouble every few days.

Although Jiang Yu was also on guard against Hong Na, this didn’t mean that others could go to her company and cause trouble at will. Jiang Yu had already thought it through. As long as that woman dared to come again, she would immediately call the police and invite that woman to go to jail for a few days.

Then, she went to the finance office to check the accounts that had been tidied up.

It had to be said that the finance department was very capable. In just a few days, they had already tidied up the accounts of the Jiang Jewelry Company for several years. Moreover, sister Xia had also solved the problem, so the company’s accounts could now be completely reconciled.

“Well done.” Jiang Yu nodded in satisfaction.

She went to other departments to check on their work and found that everyone was very serious and efficient. This made Jiang Yu very pleased.

However, there was still a problem in front of Jiang Yu, and that was the Luo Jade that Jiang Hai had bought with a huge sum of money.

Although it was all fake, it was still quite a large sum. If it was resold, the money that was sold would not be able to recoup. However, if they were all turned into accessories, it would not be able to recoup the money.

Both methods were unfavorable, so Jiang Yu could only think of a way to reduce the losses.

In comparison, it was better to turn the Luo Jade into accessories. However, there was only one designer left for the Jiang Jewelry Company. It was impossible to rely on her to design many styles in a short period of time.

Therefore, Jiang Yu posted a message on the Internet and started a voting campaign for the gem idea. The first-ranked manuscript was selected and a huge reward was given.

If someone's idea could satisfy Jiang Yu, they would even hire a designer with a huge amount of money.

Once this message was sent out, people from all walks of life showed their remarkable abilities. Within a week, hundreds of people had submitted their manuscripts.

However, their votes were very poor. It seemed that the public did not like their ideas. Moreover, when Jiang Yu saw it, she also felt that their ideas were very ordinary.

Rather than saying that they were ideas, it was more appropriate to say that they were randomly picked up from the streets. They were really too common.

Ideas like "First love", "Passionate love", and so on were all over the streets. It was not refreshing at all.

Jiang Yu was not the only one who was disappointed. Even Lu Qi and Dai Zhu felt that there was nothing creative about it.

"This is called creativity? Isn't this something that can be seen all over the streets?" Dai Zhu snorted.

Chapter 1044 - 1044 Creativity For Jade

1044 Creativity For Jade

"That's right. If this can be called an idea, then I can be a designer." Lu Qi kept flipping through the manuscripts. As expected, they were all common ideas. There was no novelty at all.

"Let's wait a little longer. Maybe there will be a good idea." Jiang Yu held her forehead helplessly. She still gave hope to the contributors.

Unfortunately, another three days passed. The number of contributors increased, but the number of votes became more and more dismal. Even for the first-place contributors, the number of votes was only 30,000.

"There is only one week left until the deadline. There is only a difference of nearly 1,000 votes between the first and second-place contributors," Lu Qi said, "But even if he is the first-place contributor, his creativity is not necessarily that good. I still feel that the bonus is very bad for him."

Dai Zhu agreed with Lu Qi, but in comparison, she had a better idea.

“Jiang Yu, don’t you have any ideas in your mind?” Dai Zhu smiled. “If you have a good idea, you can submit it.”

“Me?” Jiang Yu was stunned.

She did have an idea in her mind, but after all, she was the sponsor of this event. If she still submitted it, wouldn’t it be a little unreasonable?

Therefore, Jiang Yu was still in a dilemma. “I’m the initiator. If I still submit the article, wouldn’t that be a little inappropriate?”

Dai Zhu didn’t feel that there was anything inappropriate about it. “What’s inappropriate about it? Instead of choosing something that she wasn’t satisfied with, it would be better to design something that she was satisfied with. This kind of thing depended on the public. If the design that you designed was popular with the public, then use your own creativity. If the general public doesn’t like it either, then we’ll think of another way.”

Lu Qi also felt that Dai Zhu’s words made sense. “Yeah, we can’t spend time and energy on these three pots of dried flowers. If you think that it’s not good to submit as a sponsor, then why don’t you change your name and submit as a contributor? In that case, people won’t know it’s you.”

Jiang Yu thought for a moment and felt that what the two of them said made sense. She thought of a name for herself, Diana.

Her thoughts were different from those of the conventional hot love, first love, and even the sadness after a breakup.

She was thinking of the broken peace after the war.

Jiang Yu drew a simple design on a piece of paper and showed it to Lu Qi and Dai Zhu.

Lu Qi and Dai Zhu were immediately attracted by the design.

It was not to compliment Jiang Yu, but because the design was very unconventional.

On Jiang Yu’s design, there was a simple design of a bracelet. The gemstones inlaid on it were broken and pieced together. At the end of the pendant, there was a small transparent ball with broken gemstones inside.

In comparison, it was many times better than those gemstones that were heart-shaped and square.

“I think this idea will crush them!” Lu Qi was very excited. “It would be even better if the color combination could be a little more unique!”

This idea was the same as Jiang Yu’s.

“Luo Jade is originally a variety of colors. If they are mixed together, they will definitely create different sparks,” Jiang Yu explained.

Dai Zhu was even more excited than the two of them. “Then what are we waiting for? Hurry up and draw a picture and submit it to the Internet!”

The rest of the time was spent waiting for the final results of the votes.

"I think Jiang Yu's submission is really good. If the final votes are not as good as the 30,000 votes, it's because they don't have good taste," whispered Dai Zhu.

"Who knows about the public's aesthetic judgment?" Lu Qi comforted her. "Xiao Yu's creativity is indeed good, but since people like it, there must be people who don't like it."

"It's okay. It feels pretty good to be able to draw your own ideas," Jiang Yu smiled, "It doesn't matter if people don't like it. Just make the one that everyone likes. After all, these accessories are made to be sold to the public. Naturally, they can do whatever they like."

"You're really open-minded," Dai Zhu mumbled. "If it were me, I would definitely scold them for not having good taste and not understanding art."

"Wait a little longer. The results will be out in a week. No matter what the results are, the two of you are not allowed to be anxious," Jiang Yu said with a smile.

"Got it," Dai Zhu replied gloomily.

Chapter 1045 New Designer

In the following week, Jiang Yu would visit the company in her free time, but she had never paid attention to the votes for the jade idea.

It was not until a week later, when the deadline for submitting the article closed and the voting channel was closed, that Jiang Yu went to check her own votes.

However, what she did not know was that when she saw it, she was shocked. Not only was Jiang Yu's idea ranked first, but her votes had also reached an unprecedented 100,000 votes!

Lu Qi and Dai Zhu also saw this number of votes. While they were happy for Jiang Yu, they also felt that it was not worth it for her.

"Why is there only 100,000 votes? The nationwide vote only ended up with 100,000 votes?" Dai Zhu was a little indignant.

Jiang Yu comforted her, "Actually, I've only publicized the news of this 'jade idea' on a few websites. Most people don't know about this vote. Moreover, there are many people who don't think highly of the Jiang jewelry, so it's normal that the number of votes is small. One step at a time, you can't become a fat person in one go, right?"

"Sigh... I got it." Dai Zhu turned her face away.

Because this was a work designed by Jiang Yu herself, she directly brought this work to the company. However, she didn't tell anyone who the author of this work was. She only said that the author's name was Diana.

Now that she had the design of the work, she had to find a production company. However, based on the reputation of the Jiang Jewelry company, there were probably not many production companies that were willing to cooperate.

However, Jiang Yu was unwilling to give up. She still contacted several small production companies.

However, even small production companies were unwilling to cooperate with the Jiang Jewelry Company at this juncture. Even though Jiang Yu continued to raise the price, no production company was willing to cooperate.

Their answers were very consistent: “Boss Jiang, you know what the Jiang Jewelry Company is like now. You raised the salary to attract employees to work. This is indeed a good idea. But we are the bosses. We are more forward-looking than the employees. “hey are moved by the current salary, but we are looking at the benefits in the future. So I’m sorry, we can’t work with you for the time being.”

Jiang Yu was not discouraged by the rejection. Since others were not willing to help, she would do it herself.

It just so happened that Jiang Yu had done handicrafts before. Although she had not done anything related to diamonds, she felt that the problem should not be too big.

Besides, Luo Jade itself wasn’t as fragile as other jewelry. In comparison, it was easier to polish and shape.

This was a batch of fake Luo Jade. Compared to the real one, the material was tougher.

Jiang Yu bought the tools and polished them bit by bit according to her design. Then, she glued them together.

After a few hours, a perfect bracelet was made.

At this moment, it was not suitable to find a spokesperson. Jiang Yu simply put the bracelet on her hand and took a clear and beautiful photo as a promotional photo.

In the photo, Jiang Yu was beautiful. Even without makeup, one could still see the elegance and beauty in her bones. Her hand was placed next to her face. The position was very eye-catching, and one could see the bracelet on her wrist at a glance.

She sent the picture to the publicity department and asked them to edit the promotional copy before posting it online.

In fact, Jiang Yu was already a very good spokesperson. She was young and beautiful, and she was also a movie queen. This was better than finding any celebrity to be the spokesperson.

“Isn’t this Movie Queen Jiang? Can I look as beautiful as the movie queen if I buy this?”

“Although the reputation of the Jiang Jewelry is indeed not good... but this bracelet is really beautiful! As long as the price is not expensive, I can buy it!”

“Where do you want to buy it? Why don’t you just show the pictures and give me a link?”

The rest of the comments were mostly looking for the purchase address. It seemed that they were really attracted by the bracelet.

The publicity department selected a few comments and sent them to Jiang Yu, “Boss, everyone wants to know where to buy it.”

Jiang Yu looked at those comments and was in a good mood, she replied, “Tell the operations department and the marketing department to set up an online shop specifically for selling such small accessories. As for the name... Let’s call it ‘Jiang Yu’s accessories shop’.”

After all, Jiang Yu was a movie queen. Adding her name to the front of the online shop could improve her popularity.

“Okay, boss,” The marketing department replied and immediately started to do it.

Chapter 1046 Large Orders

The next day, “Jiang Yu’s jewelry shop” went online. It was the bracelet in the window, but it was an exhibition item, not for sale. The name of the author, Diana, was written on the bottom of the bracelet.

The marketing department set the price of the bracelet at 100 Yuan according to the market price. At the same time, they marked the bracelet — the gemstones used were imitation lapis gems, the main style.

The bracelet with such a price attracted many customers to place orders.

In one day, the jewelry shop received 60,000 orders. If this trend continued, the orders would probably only increase in the future, not decrease.

And it was obviously impossible for Jiang Yu to make these bracelets alone. So she decided to contact a few workshops and ask them to help make them.

Workshops were different from those production companies. They would not pursue long-term interests. As long as there was money to be made, they would accept any job.

Jiang Yu contacted a few workshops that had good reputations and credit, and submitted her ideas for cooperation to the store managers. The deposit she gave was also a very sizable sum. The store managers had no reason to refuse and immediately accepted the job.

Jiang Yu asked Sister Xia to print out a few paper contracts and asked her to sign them with the store managers.

Sister Xia did not disappoint and completed the task. She even called Jiang Yu to tell her the good news, “It’s all done!”

“Thank you for your hard work, Sister Xia. When I’m not busy anymore, I’ll treat you to a meal.”

“No need. We’re so close, there’s no need to be like this.” Sister Xia smiled very happily. “I’ve been so busy in the company these past few days that I almost forgot that I’m an agent.”

Jiang Yu was stunned for a moment before she burst into laughter. “That’s right. Now that you mention it, I’ve almost forgotten that I’m an actress.”

“There were a few scripts that were looking for you these past few days, but they were all rejected by me. Aiya, that plot is so old-fashioned and illogical. If you really went to film it, wouldn’t you be waiting for someone to scold you?” Sister Xia said, “Also, I saw that you’ve been so busy with your classes recently, so I pushed your schedule back to a few months later. Everything is still focused on your studies. Besides, you’ve already won two Movie Queen awards. Even if you really don’t film for a long time, it won’t delay anything.”

“Thank you, Sister Xia.” Jiang Yu smiled.

“It’s okay. I can take advantage of this period of time to rest more and help you manage the company. Managing the company is a little easier than being a manager.” Sister Xia also laughed loudly.

After laughing, Sister Xia asked again, “Who is this Diana? I heard that she was the top creative contributor. Have you seen her? Her creativity is indeed not bad and the bracelet she made is very beautiful. Why don’t you consider hiring her as a designer?”

When Jiang Yu heard this, she smiled a little embarrassedly and said, “Sister Xia, that Diana is me.”

“Huh?” Sister Xia was stunned.

She had guessed all the possibilities. She had even thought that this Diana was a man, but she had never thought that this person was Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu explained, “It’s really me. Because I had an idea in my mind back then, so I drew it. But I was afraid that others would gossip if I went to submit an article as the sponsor, so I submitted it as Diana.”

“Oh my God...” Sister Xia was so shocked that she couldn’t recover for a long time. “Jiang Yu, I always thought that you were already very talented in acting. I didn’t expect you to be so talented in designing!”

“I’m not really talented, but my ideas just happen to be what everyone likes.” Jiang Yu was a little embarrassed by Sister Xia’s praise.

“There are already some people paying attention to Diana. They are all looking forward to her coming out with more creative works in the future.” Sister Xia became more and more excited as she spoke, “Jiang Yu, you will soon become a world-famous jewelry designer!”

“It’s not that exaggerated. I just designed some small accessories.” Jiang Yu smiled. “In the field of big jewelry, we still need a more professional designer.”

“Don’t be too modest. You have to have information about yourself. I think this bracelet is the first step to your fame!” Sister Xia’s voice was raised, causing the passersby to look at her in surprise.

Jiang Yu laughed a few times but didn’t say anything.

Actually, she had thought about designing a few pieces of jewelry herself, but she had never studied design professionally, so she couldn't guarantee that the jewelry she designed would be loved by the public. The bracelet this time was probably just a coincidence. Everyone was only interested because they had never seen such meaningful jewelry before.

However, that might not be the case in the future. Therefore, Jiang Yu decided to be more cautious with this move.

Chapter 1047 Stealing Creativity

However, Jiang Yu was more cautious when it came to big jewelry. In terms of creativity in making small accessories, Jiang Yu felt that she could still show off her skills.

This batch of bracelets was only a down payment. When the workshop finished three quarters of the bracelet, the customers could pay the rest.

After the first order was completed, they would start the second order. At the same time, Jiang Yu also planned to design a few new accessories.

This way, customers would have more choices, and the online store would become more and more famous.

And all of this was seen by Hong Na. She immediately told Kang He about this.

Since Jiang Yu didn't fire her, Hong Na naturally stayed here in peace and continued to pass on information to Kang He.

To her, Kang He was the biggest boss.

After Kang He got wind of the news, she immediately got the operations and marketing departments to open an online store called 'he's store'. The bracelet on sale was very similar to the one sold by Jiang Yu.

The only difference was that the color of the gemstones was the same. Other than that, there were no other differences.

Moreover, Kang He didn't use precious stones, but the lowest-grade jewelries in the warehouse. Although it was the genuine one, its quality was not as good as the fake Jade.

Therefore, when the bracelet was launched, someone commented in the shop's comments: "Isn't this the bracelet from movie queen Jiang's online store? What kind of shop is this? What's the difference apart from the color?"

"Moreover, movie queen Jiang even carefully wrote down the original author's name, but you didn't even write it and dared to use it? You're really shameless."

"I really want to report this shop."

There were countless comments like this, but Kang He didn't care. Not only did she delete their comments, but she also lowered the price of the bracelet.

With this move, the number of people who came to Kang He's shop to buy bracelets increased.

One of the shops sold imitation jewelry, while the other sold authentic jewelry at a cheap price. Although they had stolen someone else's idea, those who only wanted to take advantage of the situation didn't care so much. They just wanted to buy something that was the same as the original with less money.

As soon as Kang He's shop opened, Jiang Yu naturally knew about this news.

She really didn't expect Kang He to be so thick-skinned. Not only did she blatantly steal her idea, but she also deliberately lowered the price of the bracelet. Anyone with a discerning eye could immediately see what Kang He's goal was.

Sister Xia was even angrier than Jiang Yu when she found out about this.

"This Kang He is too shameless! Isn't this stealing your idea? What was even more outrageous was that there were actually people who supported her because of the cheap price of her shop! What was the meaning of this? Did this group of people not even have the slightest bit of consciousness of the original? Jiang Yu, let's make a report!"

the company's reputation has always been bad. It's not good for the company if this matter blows up. Jiang Yu sighed. sister Xia, how about this? I'll send someone to negotiate with them. If Kang He is willing to take the goods off the shelves, we'll let this matter go.

"But I don't think Kang He will take the products off the shelves." The more sister Xia spoke, the angrier she got. She might even bite back at you and say that you stole her idea!"

This situation was indeed possible, and it was not that Jiang Yu had not thought of it. However, for the sake of the shop's stable development, Jiang Yu still decided to negotiate with Kang He first.

Sister Xia also knew that Jiang Yu was doing this for the sake of the store, so she volunteered to take on this task.

Jiang Yu couldn't think of a more suitable candidate. She couldn't let Hong Na do the talking, so she let sister Xia handle it.

Although sister Xia was angry, she knew that she could not lose her temper when negotiating with Kang He. Otherwise, they might even bite back and say that she was there to cause trouble.

Therefore, when sister Xia saw Kang He, she had a standard smile on her face.

Kang He's face was full of disdain. "I was wondering who it was. It's you. Aren't you the manager of an entertainment company? Why are you here? I don't have any plans to invest in a movie or TV series. Even if I do, I definitely won't let Jiang Yu act in it."

"It's not about that." Sister Xia smiled and went straight to the point. the bracelet you sold online was our idea, so we hope you can take it off the shelf and we won't pursue the matter.

“Hehe,” Kang He sneered, “whose idea did I steal? Yours? Or Jiang Yu’s?”

“Who’s Diana? I’ve never heard of this person. Could it be that you guys made him up? Just to get me to take my goods off the shelves?” Kang He refused to admit it. “Either get that Diana to come to me, or get Jiang Yu to come personally. What are you doing here? You’re the manager of an entertainment company, not a jewelry company.”

Kang He’s attitude infuriated sister Xia, but her remaining rationality told her that she must not start a fight with Kang He here.

“We just want the best for both of us, so we decided to only come and negotiate with you.” Sister Xia said, “If you insist on not taking it off the shelf, we will take some measures.

“Do as you please, but do you think I’m scared?” Kang He laughed arrogantly because she had sun you backing her up.

“I advise you to go back early. If Jiang Yu doesn’t show up, it means that she doesn’t care about it. If that’s the case, why do you have to take this matter so seriously?”

Kang He smiled and tried to sow discord between sister Xia and Jiang Yu. “I think she’s treating you as a free errand boy. Look at you, you’ve worked so hard to raise her for so long, and she didn’t even say ‘it’s hard’ to you. Now that she’s opened her own company and online store, she’s actually treating you as free labor! If it were me, I wouldn’t be able to stand it!”

After hearing this, sister Xia’s voice turned cold. “I’m doing this of my own free will. Don’t try to drive a wedge between us.”

Seeing that her plan had failed, Kang He sneered disdainfully, “Hmph, as you wish. You can think whatever you want. Anyway, it’s useless for you to talk about this. Let the person involved come and talk to me.”

Meanwhile, sister Xia was fuming with anger.

This Kang He was too thick-skinned! Not only did he not admit that he had stolen someone else’s idea, but he also spoke in such a matter-of-fact manner!

The angry sister Xia called Jiang Yu and told her about it. Jiang Yu had a headache and said, “Got it. Let’s go through the legal process.”

She knew that Kang He was thick-skinned, but she didn’t expect her to be this thick-skinned.

“Okay, I’ll go back and write the complaint now. I’ll submit it to the platform and the administration of the Industry and Commerce Bureau immediately,” said sister Xia.

“Yes, I am. I’ll have to trouble you, sister Xia. My classes will end in two days, so I won’t be so busy in the future. If you think it’s too troublesome to do it yourself, why don’t you wait until I go to the company to do it together?”

"It's no trouble at all!" Sister Xia said, "I love to teach people like Kang He a lesson! Let's see what she's going to do after I submit the complaint!"

Chapter 1049 The Missing Complaint

Jiang Yu made a call to the management office and the call was picked up after three rings.

Hello, this is the administration of the Industry and Commerce Bureau. "How can I help you?" The person who answered the phone was a young girl.

Jiang Yu's tone also softened. "Hello, my name is Jiang Yu. I submitted a complaint to you a few days ago, but you didn't give me a reply. That's why I want to ask, did something happen there?"

The girl who picked up the phone was also very easy to talk to. "I'm sorry, please tell me the name of the complaint you submitted. I'll check it for you."

"The name should be 'Jiang Yu's shop'," Jiang Yu said.

"Alright, please wait a moment." The girl on the other side of the phone searched carefully on the computer, but she didn't find the complaint.

Therefore, she told Jiang Yu the news, "I'm sorry, I didn't find the complaint you mentioned. Did you say the wrong name?"

Jiang Yu looked at Sister Xia in confusion, but Sister Xia was also very confused. "I wrote 'Jiang Yu's shop' as my signature. How could it be wrong?"

Jiang Yu could not understand the development of the situation and said, "I'm sorry, but can we submit a new complaint?"

"Yes, I can."

So, Jiang Yu handed over another complaint and said to the girl on the phone, "Hello, I've already submitted it. Please remember to check it."

"Alright, I've received it. I'll send this complaint to the higher-ups, please wait patiently."

"Thank you," With that, Jiang Yu hung up the phone.

"What's going on?" Sister Xia asked impatiently. "How could she not have found the complaint?"

"I don't know," Jiang Yu shook her head. perhaps there was a problem with the network when I sent the message. It was shown that I sent it, but the other side didn't receive it at all. But this time, the customer service lady said that she had already received the complaint. There shouldn't be any problems this time."

"Yes." Sister Xia frowned and nodded. She still had an ominous feeling in her heart.

As expected, another three days passed, and the management office still did not give a reply.

"Is this cold treatment by the management office?" Sister Xia said fretfully, "Three days and three days. Our time didn't just fly by!"

Jiang Yu also realized that something was wrong, so she called the management office again.

This time, it was a man who answered the phone, not the girl from last time. They should be taking turns to rest.

“Hello, this is the administration of the Industry and Commerce Bureau. How may I help you?”

Jiang Yu did not ask anything else this time and only asked, “Hello, please help me check my complaint. It’s called ‘Jiang Yu’s shop’.”

“Alright, please wait a moment.”

A minute later, Jiang Yu received the same message as the last time: “I’m sorry, I didn’t find your complaint here. You can submit another copy, and I’ll help you pass it to the higher-ups.”

“No, thanks.”

When Sister Xia saw Jiang Yu’s expression, she knew that the outcome would not be satisfactory.

“How’s it going? Didn’t you find anything?”

“Yes.” Jiang Yu frowned. “Will the complaint automatically disappear after it is handed over to the higher-ups?”

“I’ve never heard of it. It can only disappear if it’s deleted. Otherwise, how can it not be found?”

Sister Xia’s words made Jiang Yu suddenly understand.

Someone in the management office had deleted the complaint letter, so the customer service couldn’t find any trace of the complaint letter.

It seemed like this matter was more troublesome than Jiang Yu had imagined.

“What do we do now? If the complaint letters keep disappearing mysteriously, doesn’t that mean that our problem will never be resolved?” Sister Xia was a little worried. “Then Kang He’s store will continue to be open. In the future, no matter what style of jewelry you design, it will be stolen by Kang He.”

“Let’s go, we’ll head straight to the administration office of the industrial and commercial Bureau,” Jiang Yu said after some thought.

Jiang Yu and Sister Xia went to the industrial and commercial Bureau and were stopped by the security guard as soon as they entered. “Who is it? Why are you rushing in? Do you have an appointment?”

“No, I haven’t. We’re looking for the person in charge of the management office.” Jiang Yu said.

“You said you were looking for someone without an appointment. How can I let you in?” The security guards blocked Jiang Yu and Sister Xia and refused to let them in. “You two go back and make an appointment first. Come back on the day.”

“We’ve already waited for six days. How much longer do you want us to wait?” Sister Xia said angrily, “Call the person in charge of the management right now and tell him that Jiang Yu wants to see him.”

Chapter 1050 Refuse To Deal With It

The security guard usually read the newspaper and did not pay much attention to the internet. Naturally, he had not heard of Jiang Yu.

“I don’t care if you’re Jiang Yu or whoever you are. You can’t get in without an appointment. The security guard picked up the walkie-talkie and was about to call the other security guards to drive Jiang Yu and sister Xia away.”

Jiang Yu was not in a hurry. She said very calmly, “Uncle, even if you drive us away today, we’ll still come back tomorrow. If this matter is not resolved, then you will see me every day. Instead of suffering in the future, why don’t you do us a favor now?”

“You guys still want to come and make trouble in the future? I’ll call the police if you do!” the security guard was not someone who was easily frightened. “Let me tell you, hurry up and leave! If you don’t have an appointment, don’t come to such a place!”

“What is this place?” Sister Xia was really angry. She even started arguing with the security guards. “This is the first time I’ve heard that you need to make an appointment to come to the industrial and commercial bureau!”

“I don’t care how many times you’ve heard about it. You’ll have to make an appointment if you come!” The security guard also raised his voice. “If you don’t have an appointment, leave quickly! Don’t make me call for people to chase you away!”

“What’s wrong? Do you still want to fight?” This was the first time sister Xia had seen such an unreasonable security guard.

“Fine, you forced me to do this!” Before the security guard could finish his sentence, the customer service officer came out of the room.

“What’s wrong? What happened?” The customer service representative who came out was the boy who had answered Jiang Yu’s call just now.

Hello, I’m Jiang Yu, the one who called just now to inquire. Jiang Yu took a step forward. I would like to meet the person in charge of the management.

“Hello, do you have an appointment?” The customer service officer asked.

“No, I didn’t,” Jiang Yu shook her head. please contact the person in charge and tell him that Jiang Yu wants to see him.

The customer service representative did not intend to do such a thankless thing, but when he saw Jiang Yu’s serious expression and the woman behind her looking like she was about to fight with the security guards, he called the office phone of the person in charge.

“Hello, chief Zhang. There’s a lady called Jiang Yu at the door who wants to see you.”

Chief Zhang replied impatiently, “Anyone can see me now? Chase them away!”

“But they seem to have something important to do, and the lady with them even wanted to fight with the security guards.” The customer service officer had a troubled expression on his face.

Chief Zhang was annoyed and said, “Alright, alright, get them to come see me.”

“Okay, I’ll let her know.”

After hanging up the phone, the customer service officer gestured for her to follow him. “Miss Jiang Yu, please come this way.”

After the customer service representative brought Jiang Yu to director Zhang’s office, they returned to their own posts.

“You’re Jiang Yu?” Director Zhang looked at Jiang Yu, who was in front of him, and his eyes suddenly became perverted. “What’s the matter?”

Jiang Yu stated the purpose of her trip directly, “I’ve already submitted two complaints. Why haven’t you given me a reply yet?”

“That’s impossible. When we called the customer service last time, she said that she had already passed it to you. How could you not have received it?” Sister Xia, who was standing behind Jiang Yu, was burning with anger. “And the customer service didn’t find the complaint these two times. Could it have disappeared on its own?”

“Who knows? What if it just disappeared?” Director Zhang smiled indifferently and looked at Jiang Yu even more unscrupulously. “Jiang Yu, do you have a boyfriend?”

“This has nothing to do with you, right?” Jiang Yu looked at him in disgust.

“How can that be?” Director Zhang stood up and reached out his hand to Jiang Yu in a perverted manner. “If you become closer to me, then wouldn’t we be related?”

Jiang Yu dodged to the side and director Zhang’s hand missed.

However, he wasn’t angry. On the contrary, he was even more excited.

“Don’t hide. Don’t look down on me because I’m a little old, but my body is still very strong.” Chief Zhang kept smiling wretchedly, completely ignoring the look of disgust on Jiang Yu’s face.

He reached out his hand to Jiang Yu again. This time, Jiang Yu did not dodge. Instead, she reached out and grabbed his wrist.

Director Zhang was overjoyed and thought that Jiang Yu was trying to cater to him. However, in the next second, his wrist was twisted by Jiang Yu.
