

Older Man 1201

Chapter 1201 Makeup Removal Wet Wipe

As for the new players, since they were participating in the men's team competition, they had nothing to do with the women's team competition and naturally would not disturb Jiang Yu.

At the thought of this, Jiang Yu said, "forget it, this matter is not something we can control. Since the new players are participating in the men's team competition, they won't disturb us."

"That's true." Sister Xia nodded. "But this is still very strange. I remember director Liu saying before that he values this variety show a lot. No matter how tired or difficult it is, he will persist. But now that there's no result, he just handed the show over to someone else so easily. I really can't understand it."

Jiang Yu couldn't figure it out either and felt that there was something strange about this.

"We have to be careful," she said. "There are so many strange things happening together. It's definitely not a coincidence."

"Indeed, and it seems to be rather deliberate." Sister Xia also guessed, "I just don't know who they're targeting."

"The new male player Jian Jia can't be targeting Xue Ran, right?" Jiang Yu guessed.

But on second thought, he felt that something was wrong.

Xue Ran was usually a low-key person, and this was his first time filming a variety show, so he was very gentle. So what kind of people were targeting him?

Perhaps Wan Wan didn't want to target Xue Ran, but she had other motives?

Jiang Yu couldn't figure it out, so she decided to wait until the day of the recording to go to the scene to see what was going on.

Although the director had changed, the overall recording was still in the form of a live broadcast. Jiang Yu and the other two were still in charge of the girl group's practice process.

As for the new male contestants, the other three judges were in charge of them.

The three judges were Lanna, Fan Lu, and Sheng Wen.

Among them, Fan Lu and Sheng Wen were members of the boy group with Xue Ran.

When acquaintances met, they would naturally greet each other warmly, except for Jiang Yu and Lanna.

This was because Lanna had been on the best Actress rankings before. She had missed out on that award when she had been third place that year.

In her eyes, if she had lost to Li Jing back then, it would have been a reasonable thing. However, she did not expect to lose to Jiang Yu in the end, someone who had not been in the entertainment industry as long as she had!

"It's been a long time since I last saw you, movie queen Jiang, and you seem to have become more elegant." Lanna said sarcastically, "your temperament is more mature than before. I wonder if you will still win the Best Actress award this year?"

Jiang Yu looked at her with a smile. "It doesn't matter if it's me or not. This award has never belonged to me. Naturally, it's for the capable. If you're better than me, this award might be yours this year."

Lanna was stopped by Jiang Yu, and the atmosphere was a little awkward.

In the end, Lanna was the first to give in and said, "just you wait. I won't let you win this award this year."

Then, she left.

Jiang Yu only felt that she was ridiculous.

I don't have any impression of that person at all, so why did she speak in such a strange tone?

Lanna stood in the corner and sulked. She saw her assistant in the distance, who was still holding her handbag, and suddenly remembered that there was a pack of makeup removal wipes in her bag.

She rolled her eyes and quickly walked to her assistant to take out the pack of wet tissues. He then walked over to Jiang Yu and said, "I think the movie queen must be tired from filming. I'll give you a wet tissue to wipe your face."

Lanna was still smiling as she said that, giving off a harmless feeling.

However, Jiang Yu knew that she was pretending, so she said, "I'm not tired, the players are the most tired. If you really feel bad for them, why don't you give them some wet tissues to wipe their faces?"

Lanna paused and tried her best to maintain her smile. She said, "If you don't clean it, how would the contestants dare to clean it?"

"I'm not a man-eating monster," Jiang Yu said. "I'm just using a wet towel to wipe my face. What's there to fear?"

As she spoke, Jiang Yu also said to the girls, "Are you tired? The judging teacher from the boy group next door is going to give you some wet tissues to wipe your faces, afraid that you'll be tired."

"Really? Aiya, thank you so much, judges!"

Lanna was very embarrassed, but since things had come to this, she could only hand over the wet wipe.

However, these female contestants all had makeup on, so they definitely didn't dare to use makeup removal wipes.

Someone returned the towelette and said, "no way. This is a makeup removal towelette. We've all put on makeup before filming. How would we dare to use such a wet wipe?"

"I was in a hurry," Lanna said awkwardly. "I took the wrong one. I'm so sorry."

Chapter 1202 The So-Called Truth

There were also some female contestants who said, "That can't be. The words 'remove makeup' are written on the wrapping paper. As long as your eyes are good, how can you not see it?"

Lanna had never been so embarrassed in her life, and it was the first time she had been in such a situation.

So at first, she was indeed too ashamed to say anything, but now she was a little angry.

So she said, "I really saw wrongly. I had good intentions. I was afraid that you would sweat too much and catch a cold easily when the cold wind blows. That's why I thought of giving you this wet wipe to wipe your sweat. Who knew that you all had makeup on? This isn't a serious competition, it's just normal practice. Why are you guys putting on makeup?"

Lanna's words angered many of the female contestants, and they all retorted, "Isn't it normal for girls to put on makeup? Besides, we're recording a variety show, so of course we have to put on makeup to show our respect."

"That's right. According to what you said, doesn't that mean we can go out after brushing our teeth and washing our faces every day? Then why can't we use the cosmetics we bought? Besides, you haven't seen any girl group members who appear on screen without makeup, have you?"

"It's normal for girls to put on makeup. You're a girl too, don't you understand this?"

Lanna couldn't refute his words. She stammered for a long time before saying, "You're talking nonsense. I don't have any makeup on my face. I just look a little different from usual! I'm not like you guys, wearing thick makeup all day!"

"What nonsense are you talking about?" Someone sneered, "look at the eyeliner and eyeshadow on your eyes in the mirror. They're so thick that you look like a female ghost from a ghost story. You have the cheek to say that you're not wearing any makeup?"

"I'm telling the truth," Lanna argued. "Why don't you believe me? Besides, your judges are all wearing heavy makeup. I don't see you guys saying that."

She glanced at Jiang Yu as she spoke.

In fact, Jiang Yu did not have much makeup on her face. She just applied some skin care products and a light layer of Foundation. She didn't even put on any lipstick, and it was the color of her own lips.

But Lanna didn't believe her.

She admitted that Jiang Yu was indeed beautiful, but that was all because of her makeup. If she removed her makeup, she did not think that Jiang Yu would still have such a beautiful face.

As long as one had excellent makeup skills, even the ugliest person would become beautiful.

That was why Lanna had always thought that Jiang Yu was so beautiful because of her amazing makeup skills. Moreover, it could make people feel that there were no traces of makeup at all. This was the most amazing thing.

However, the contestants said, "if your eyes are not good, you can donate it to someone else. Movie queen Jiang's face is already so plain, and she looks the same as usual without makeup. You're still spreading rumors that she has heavy makeup on?"

"You're the one who put on heavy makeup, So You Think everyone else is the same as you, right? But it's a pity that our movie queen Jiang is a natural beauty!"

"That's right, that's right, ugly people do many strange things. If you have the time, can't you take care of the male players on your side? Why did he have to come to our side? You're not a judge for our female contestant."

This was the first time Lanna had heard someone talk to her like that.

She was considered a rich young lady and a popular artiste in the entertainment industry. It had always been people who supported her and praised her. No one had ever dared to scold her.

"If you don't believe me, why don't you let her remove her makeup on the spot?" Lanna never hid her temper. I'll let you see movie queen Jiang's true face.

As she spoke, Lanna handed the bag of wet makeup-removing towels to Jiang Yu and said with an unfriendly smile, "Since the fans have requested it, movie queen Jiang shouldn't be able to reject it, right?"

Jiang Yu looked at Lanna's smug expression and immediately took the wet tissues. She opened the packaging and took out one to wipe her face.

On the other hand, Lanna was waiting to see Jiang Yu make a fool of herself.

She did not believe that Jiang Yu would still look so good without her makeup!

However, as time passed, Jiang Yu wiped her entire face with a wet towel, but Lanna still couldn't find anything different.

"Did you wipe it or not?" Lanna asked impatiently, "why does it look like you didn't wipe it?"

Jiang Yu showed her the wet tissue and said, "There are still some cosmetic residues on it. My face is already very clean."

Chapter 1203 How Is It Possible?

Lanna snatched the wet tissue in disbelief. Her eyes were so wide that they were almost like light bulbs.

"Impossible! You must've wiped it gently, or there wouldn't be such a light mark on it!"

Jiang Yu said helplessly, "I've already removed my makeup as per your request. I've shown my truest side to everyone. Are you still not satisfied?"

"You must have not removed your makeup properly!" Lanna was unconvinced. "If you really removed your makeup, this wet wipe will definitely be full of traces of makeup! But it's clean. Even if there's a faint trace, you won't be able to see it if you don't look carefully!"

Jiang Yu felt that Lanna was really childish, so she said, "Then I'll just go wash my face and come back."

"If you want to wash, then wash in front of me." Lanna said, "If you go to the bathroom to wash your face. Who knows if you've washed your face or not? If the makeup on your face is waterproof, the makeup won't be removed even if you wash your face!"

"Then I'll bring the water over and wash your face with your makeup removal wipe." Jiang Yu said.

Then, before Lanna could answer, she went to the bathroom and got a basin of hot water.

Jiang Yu took out a makeup removal wet wipe and wiped her face a few times. Then, she borrowed some facial wash from one of the female contestants and washed her face clean in front of Lanna.

After she wiped her face dry, she said to Lanna, "Now do you see? First, it was the makeup removal wet wipe, then it was the face wash. Even if the makeup on my face was made of iron, it should have fallen off by now."

Looking at Jiang Yu's face, which was the same as before, Lanna couldn't hold it in anymore. "That's impossible. Do you dare to say that you really don't have any makeup on?"

"I did, but it's really light makeup," Jiang Yu said.

After taking a closer look, Lanna had to admit that Jiang Yu's face was indeed very clean. There was no trace of makeup at all. However, it was precisely because of this that she could not accept it.

Why was Jiang Yu so beautiful? Why did Jiang Yu look the same with and without makeup?

The more Lanna thought about it, the angrier she got. In the end, she simply threw the wet tissue on the ground, turned around, and left, not even recording the variety show.

Everyone looked at each other and their eyes fell on the new director at the same time.

However, the new director acted as if nothing had happened. He was busy with his work and said to them, "Continue filming. It's her business that she left in anger. It has nothing to do with you. Do what you have to do. You can't stop filming this variety show just because of her."

Only then did everyone return to their usual routine. The contestants practiced, and the judges checked the results of their practice.

However, after what Lanna had done, not many people were focused on practicing. Everyone had their own thoughts.

Some of them were sizing up Jiang Yu's face and felt that she was really beautiful. On the other hand, some people were worried that Jiang Yu would be upset after this incident. They were afraid that she would be in a bad mood.

However, just like the director, Jiang Yu acted as if nothing had happened and continued to do her own things.

Seeing this, everyone obediently started recording.

However, although Jiang Yu was still doing what she was doing, she felt that things were not that simple.

She wasn't close to Lanna, so why did she target her like this? Was it just because she didn't win the Movie Queen award back then? If that was the case, then why didn't Lanna jump out when Li Jing won the Movie Queen award twice in a row?

There were many strange things about this, especially about Lanna.

Jiang Yu was secretly on guard against Lanna. She felt that this person was definitely not simple.

However, Lanna didn't show up until the end of the recording today. It seemed that she was really angry about that incident, so she threw a tantrum and didn't want to record.

However, the consequence of doing so was nothing more than letting her popularity continue to decline. Whether it was the players at the scene or the audience watching the live broadcast, they were all extremely disgusted with Lanna's attitude.

"Where did this clown, Lanna, come from? I don't even know her!"

"You're not famous, yet you're still acting like a celebrity? Who gave her the courage?"

"Compared to her, movie queen Jiang is really too gentle, too peaceful, and easy to approach."

"That's right. This new director is not bad either. He didn't delay the filming process because of Lanna. He's very professional."

"This Lanna isn't even fit to carry the shoes of our movie queen, yet she still dares to put on airs here."

Chapter 1204 Plastic Surgery

The online audience's attitude towards Lanna was the same, and they liked Jiang Yu even more.

To be able to gain so many fans was naturally a happy thing. However, what followed closely behind was not a good thing.

Just a few days after the recording ended, a few posts suddenly appeared on the internet out of nowhere. The content was the current popular actress, the youngest movie queen, Jiang Yu, could possess such beauty because she had undergone plastic surgery.

Along with the post, there were also the so-called "pre-plastic surgery photos", "plastic surgeon", and "plastic surgery proof".

When the three pieces of evidence were put together, public opinion began to slowly press towards Jiang Yu.

The reason why it was slow was that most people did not believe that Jiang Yu had plastic surgery. However, if this matter was allowed to continue to ferment, then the public opinion would only be one-sided towards Jiang Yu.

"What is this?" When sister Xia saw these posts, she was so angry that her lungs were about to explode. "No matter what photos or surgery certificates they are, these photos are obviously fake! Without evidence, how would they dare to say anything!"

Jiang Yu looked at those posts and knew without thinking that they were Lanna's masterpieces.

After all, in the near future, no one else would have the time to do such things.

When sister Xia saw how calm Jiang Yu was, she couldn't help but become even more anxious and said, "Jiang Yu, are you just going to watch them spread rumors about you? I've checked all these pictures on the internet, but there are no original pictures! So even if we know that these pictures are fake, we have no evidence! As time passes, those who originally believed in you will no longer believe in you!"

Jiang Yu said, "sister Xia, since you said that it's a rumor, then the saying 'a wise man stops rumors' is always right."

"That's right, but we have to think of a solution now!" Sister Xia said, "We must not let this matter continue to ferment! I'll contact the studio now and ask them to think of a way to suppress the popularity of these posts."

As she spoke, sister Xia took out her phone to contact the studio.

Jiang Yu stopped her and said, "sister Xia, I know who did this. It's Lanna from a few days ago. Perhaps it was out of jealousy, so he found someone to make these posts to frame me. I've seen this kind of thing many times before. Not to mention the ones far away, just the ones close to me are Hu Jing and Sun Miao. This kind of method doesn't require any skill at all. Therefore, there's no difficulty in solving this matter. You just have to leave it to me."

"Really?" Sister Xia was still a little worried. I think it's better to get the people from the studio to help you.

"No need. Don't you believe me?" Jiang Yu smiled, turned on the computer, and started working.

Just like before, she wanted to check Lanna's account as a website administrator, but she found that there was an unbreakable firewall. No matter how she changed the address, she could not unlock the password.

"What's going on?" Jiang Yu exclaimed in surprise, "the firewall of most websites is very simple to set up. Why is this so difficult? No matter how many times I tried, I couldn't crack the password."

When sister Xia heard this, she thought that Jiang Yu's experience in this area was really limited, so she still planned to find someone from the studio for help.

However, only Jiang Yu knew that she had met a strong opponent.

She had always used this website, but she had never encountered such a difficult firewall. This 'plastic surgery incident' had created another wall for the website. There was no other explanation other than that it was man-made.

"It seems that Lanna is really willing to pay a high price to hire a hacker to set up the firewall." Jiang Yu was suddenly interested in this matter. I thought she was the same as Sun Miao and the others, someone who doesn't use her brain. I didn't expect her to be so smart. She knew to get someone to set up a firewall so that no one could hack her account."

"I think it's better to let the studio solve it." Sister Xia became even more worried. This matter can't be solved by you alone. Get the people from the studio to help. After all, the strength of a person is great.

Seeing that sister Xia was so insistent on getting help from the studio, Jiang Yu no longer stopped her and agreed. "Alright," he said.

The people at the studio were very efficient. Two hours after they received sister Xia's call, they successfully suppressed the heat.

However, this was only temporary. Perhaps the popularity would return the next day.

Therefore, if he wanted the heat of this matter to completely dissipate, he could only solve this problem from the root.

Chapter 1205 Meeting A Worthy Opponent

However, Jiang Yu had indeed met her match this time, and the other party was not a simple hacker.

The password of this firewall was very difficult to break through. Every time Jiang Yu tried to break in successfully, the other party would immediately set a new password to block Jiang Yu from entering.

This rapid speed made Jiang Yu feel that the other party had been staring at the computer the whole time.

"It seems like the people on the other side have been on high alert." Seeing that she couldn't crack the password, Jiang Yu simply threw the mouse away and stretched lazily. She asked sister Xia, "How's the popularity of this matter?"

Sister Xia said, "It's suppressed pretty well, but occasionally it'll suddenly pop out. Jiang Yu, you have to resolve this matter as soon as possible. The public opinion is already starting to point at you. Those people who didn't believe you had plastic surgery are starting to suspect you now."

"I've asked myself honestly. I've never done this before, so I'm not afraid of them suspecting me." Jiang Yu said.

However, sister Xia said, "Aiyo, my ancestors!" You're in the entertainment industry, a glamorous artiste, and billions of people are watching you! Whether they liked you or not, you would do whatever they said. If they say you're the most beautiful, then you're the most beautiful. If they said you had plastic surgery, then you had plastic surgery. Even if the evidence is right in front of them, saying that you didn't have plastic surgery, they won't believe it."

Jiang Yu was unconvinced. "I'll admit it if I did it. If I didn't do it, I'll never admit it!" she said. "I can't possibly change myself just to cater to other people's views, right? Since they like to say that I have plastic surgery, then let them be. I can't control their mouths!"

Jiang Yu was really angry, and her tone was a little high.

This was the first time sister Xia had seen Jiang Yu so angry about something other than Mo Long, so she quickly consoled her, "but I'm telling the truth. This matter can only be resolved as soon as possible. Otherwise, it will be very difficult for you in the future."

"I'll take care of this." Jiang Yu gradually calmed herself down. "I just feel that if I change myself to cater to the public, it will go against my original intention of entering the entertainment industry."

"I know," Sister Xia could understand Jiang Yu very well. After all, no one wanted to live in the eyes of others.

"Sister Xia, I will see to this matter." Jiang Yu said, "the other party is a rather powerful person. He seems to be guarding the computer all the time, afraid that someone will hack in."

"What should we do?" Sister Xia said anxiously, "why don't we also hire a hacker and let the two of them have a match to see who will win?"

Jiang Yu smiled. "Sister Xia, there's a ready-made one in front of you. Why spend money to hire another one?"

"What?" Sister Xia covered her mouth in shock and looked at Jiang Yu in disbelief. "You, you said you're a hacker?"

"Yes." Jiang Yu nodded.

Sister Xia suddenly remembered an international hacking competition that was held a few years ago. Although all the participants were required not to reveal their real names, sister Xia's intuition told her that Jiang Yu had probably participated in that competition.

"Did you participate in the hacker competition a few years ago?" she asked Jiang Yu tentatively.

He did not expect Jiang Yu to agree so readily and say, "Yes, I am."

Then, she lowered her voice and said to sister Xia, "And I was first place at that time."

"First place?!" Sister Xia shouted in shock.

After realizing that she had lost her composure, sister Xia immediately covered her mouth and asked in a low voice, "You're first? I've heard of that competition. I heard that the difference in points between the first and second place is huge. You basically won the championship without a doubt. Could the person who set up this firewall be the same person who was in that game?"

Jiang Yu also had the same idea and said, "I also have such a guess, but I don't have any evidence. He's also very strong. I didn't meet such a strong opponent in the competition that year. Although he can learn and improve in these few years, the speed of his improvement is a bit too fast."

"Could it be someone who has the strength but didn't participate in the competition?" Sister Xia made another guess.

However, Jiang Yu did not agree with him. "This kind of competition might not happen once in a few decades. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for all hackers. Logically speaking, no one should miss it."

"But we can't rule out the possibility that there are people who don't like to participate, right?" Sister Xia said.

Chapter 1206 A Strange Organization

Jiang Yu felt that it made sense, but she had another question in her mind-how did Lanna contact this person?

If the other party made a living from this job, there must be a corresponding website to take the order. However, if they didn't make a living out of this and only treated it as a form of entertainment, then there should be something similar to a society, and there should be such a group of people in it.

It was unlikely that the other party made a living out of this, because whether it was a hacker setting up a firewall or an intrusion code, it was illegal under the circumstances of not being allowed by the country.

But because few people hired hackers to do this kind of thing, and the hackers themselves wouldn't be so free to touch the law, such incidents were pitifully rare in Shanghai.

Therefore, if a hacker was bored enough to hack into a firewall or code, everyone would just turn a blind eye to it. No one would care about such things.

The current situation was probably what Jiang Yu had guessed.

In that case, there should be an organization similar to a club, and all of them should be like this.

However, Jiang Yu had never heard of such an organization, so she had no idea where to start.

After much thought, she decided to change her way of thinking. He had been trying to crack the firewall and hack into Lanna's account. But this time, she decided to bypass the firewall and try to hack into the hacker's account.

However, this matter wasn't that simple. A hacker's account was more troublesome than a firewall. But it was a permanent solution.

This was because when all hackers registered their accounts, the system would issue them a unified account. No matter how good a hacker was, they couldn't hack into that system, so they couldn't change their own account's password.

Moreover, as long as the password was cracked once, all the places set up by the account would automatically disappear-such as the hard-to-crack firewall.

And from the looks of it, the other party would probably still focus on the firewall and wouldn't care about his account at all.

This was a good opportunity to strike.

Jiang Yu immediately started working on the computer again. However, her target this time was not the firewall but the hacker's account.

The other side didn't seem to know about the incoming danger, and all their energy was focused on the firewall. When he saw that Jiang Yu did not move, he thought that she had given up on cracking it. So, he stretched lazily and got up to make himself a bowl of instant noodles.

In the end, when the man came back from the instant noodles, he suddenly found that the firewall he had set up was gone.

“Where’s the firewall?” He shouted, thinking that Jiang Yu had successfully infiltrated the firewall system.

However, this firewall was the thing he was most proud of. Even the most powerful senior in the organization had to spend nearly a week to crack this firewall.

What was the background of Jiang Yu? how could she crack it so easily in less than three days?

The man scratched his ears and cheeks, unable to understand. At that moment, he suddenly noticed that his account’s profile picture had turned gray, which meant that someone had hacked into his account.

“Who hacked into my account?!” The man cried out in despair.

If the account was hacked, it meant that the account was invalid, and all the achievements that had been done with the account in the past would also be invalid.

If he wanted to continue being a hacker, he would have to apply again. However, once they applied again, not only would they have to restart all the assessments, but if they did not pass any of the assessments, they would never be able to enter the organization again.

This identity was obtained by the man after a few months of sleepless nights. Now, he was being ruthlessly stepped on. To him, this was an extremely devastating matter.

If I had known, I wouldn’t have agreed to that woman!

The man looked at the floor with resentment and had already made up his mind. Jiang Yu was the one who hacked his account, but the one who caused all this was the woman who had found him back then.

Therefore, he decided to hack into Jiang Yu’s account first and destroy her account before dealing with the woman who had brought him into the fire pit.

The man still remembered that when the woman found him, she had mentioned to him that Jiang Yu was just a small-time actress who had been lucky enough to win the Movie Queen award twice in the past few years.

Since that was the case, Jiang Yu must have hired a hacker.

Hence, the man took it for granted and began to try to hack into Jiang Yu’s account. However, when he tried to do so, he was blocked by a firewall.

The man looked at the code and realized that it was a firewall he had set up!

Chapter 1207 It Was Actually Changed

The man was secretly happy. He even thought that Jiang Yu was a fool to actually use the firewall he had set up to defend against him.

However, when he tried to enter the password, he found that he could not unlock it.

“What’s going on? I was the one who set up the firewall!”

The man became more and more anxious, and more and more sweat appeared on his forehead.

“This is weird. It’s my firewall. Why is the password wrong?”

No matter how many times the man tried, he couldn’t crack the firewall’s password. This made him wonder if this was a firewall he had set up.

However, he looked at the code carefully and was 100% sure that it was his own firewall.

But why couldn’t he crack it?

The man couldn’t figure out the answer to this question. He was so anxious that a few strands of hair fell off.

This was because the firewall was not the one he had originally set up. It was Jiang Yu’s modified code.

Jiang Yu took advantage of the time when she hacked into the man’s account to copy the original code of the firewall, then modified the code of his firewall, and then covered the copied code.

In this case, as long as the man saw it, he would think that it was her firewall. However, no matter how many times she entered the password, it would not crack. As for the correct password, he would probably never know.

This was because Jiang Yu did not set a password at all.

Seeing that Jiang Yu was smiling so happily, sister Xia asked in confusion, “What happened? Why are you smiling so happily?”

Jiang Yu then told him about how she had modified the firewall code and how she had not set a password.

“Why don’t you set a password?” Sister Xia was a little worried. “What if he manages to successfully hack into the system?”

Jiang Yu said, “when a normal person encounters such a thing, they will think that the other party has set a password. The person on the other side was no exception. He would definitely try his best to steal the password. I knew what he was thinking, so I didn’t set the password on purpose. I admit that he’s a good hacker, but he’s still a little too slow when it comes to things like this.”

Sister Xia couldn’t help but laugh. “I didn’t expect you to have such thoughts. It looks like you’re quite clever.”

Jiang Yu also laughed and said, “he’s too slow-witted.” Even if he finds out in the end that he doesn’t need a password, by that time, I’m afraid this matter would have already ended.”

“Finished? What do you mean by that?” Sister Xia asked, puzzled.

Jiang Yu turned the computer screen to sister Xia and said, “those chat records are no longer important. I found something more important than that.”

I-isn't this the original picture of those people who spread rumors about your plastic surgery?! After sister Xia saw it, she was shocked.

Sister Xia looked at the pictures again and suddenly saw a familiar name-Lanna.

Whether it was the signature on the plastic surgery certificate or the signature on the review form, it was Lanna.

Sister Xia covered her mouth in shock. so, the person Wanwan had plastic surgery on was actually Lanna?!

"It seems so." Jiang Yu said, " she sent these pictures to a retouch artist she trusted and changed her name to mine. Then, she attached an ugly picture of a woman she found from somewhere and said that the person was me.

Sister Xia looked at the woman's photo. The more she looked at it, the more she felt that the woman looked like Lanna. It wasn't until she saw the mole next to her nose that sister Xia was convinced that this woman was Lanna.

Hence, she said,"Jiang Yu, look!" The woman in the picture, like Lanna, had a mole next to her nose! How could there be such a coincidence in the world? this woman is the Lanna before plastic surgery!"

Jiang Yu also noticed the mole at this time. It was indeed very similar to the mole next to Lanna's nose. To be precise, it was exactly the same, because the size and position matched.

"It seems that Lanna has really put in a lot of money this time." Jiang Yu couldn't help but laugh. "And she's not stupid. She even knew to cover up the mole in the picture she posted on the post. If she didn't cover that mole, people might find out that this woman is her."

"This Lanna is really bold. She actually dared to post this photo to frame you." Sister Xia said.

"I finally know why she doesn't like pretty people." Jiang Yu said, "because I didn't look good in the past. In order to continue in the entertainment industry, she chose to have plastic surgery."

Chapter 1208 Jealousy

"Isn't this jealousy? Looks are innate. Some people were good-looking, while others were not. But that's just their appearance. As long as you have the temperament and confidence, there's no ugly person in this world."

His words made sense, but Lanna didn't think so. If she really had such thoughts, she would not have spread rumors about Jiang Yu's plastic surgery.

"How do you plan to deal with this matter?" Sister Xia asked, "I suggest you deal with it as soon as possible. Otherwise, the longer you delay, the more rumors Lanna will spread about you."

Jiang Yu laughed and said, "there's no hurry. I'd like to see how Lanna will continue to spread rumors about me. Now that we have evidence of her plastic surgery, no matter what she says next, I will find evidence to prove that she is lying. However, let the studio issue a statement first, saying that this matter is still under investigation."

"Alright, I'll leave this matter to you. I won't make any more comments." Sister Xia said, "by the way, is the theme for the International jewelry competition's semi-final out yet?"

"It's out. It's a 'false appearance'. When I first saw this theme, I didn't know how to design it. Now, I have to thank Lanna. If it wasn't for her, I'm afraid I wouldn't have any inspiration."

Jiang Yu smiled very happily, as if she was really happy that Lanna had given her inspiration.

As this incident happened late, Jiang Yu had to film another program again in a few days.

As expected, Lanna's face was filled with pride.

She deliberately walked to Jiang Yu's side and said in a strange tone, "Aiya, isn't this the famous movie queen Jiang? Didn't you say that you look good without makeup? How did the plastic surgery scandal come out so quickly?"

The recording had not started yet, and everyone was busy with their own things. Perhaps Lanna felt that not many people had heard her, so she walked to a crowded place and said loudly again, "it's such a pity. Such a good-looking movie queen Jiang actually had plastic surgery."

The people around her looked up at her and then at Jiang Yu. The expressions on their faces were also changing.

Some people still supported Jiang Yu because they liked Jiang Yu's personality and had nothing to do with her appearance. Moreover, Jiang Yu's studio had also issued a statement saying that they would definitely investigate this matter, so the truth of the matter could not be concluded for the time being.

However, some people had already begun to dislike Jiang Yu because they had liked her from the beginning because she was beautiful. Now that it was exposed that she had plastic surgery and refused to admit it, they naturally did not like Jiang Yu anymore.

As for the statement issued by the studio, in their eyes, it was Jiang Yu's final struggle. As long as this matter was settled, it would be useless even if the studio released a hundred statements overnight.

A few of them started to agree with Lanna. "Sigh, I didn't expect that movie queen Jiang's face was actually fake."

"I thought she was pretty, but now that I think about it, isn't that all thanks to the plastic surgeon? If I had met that doctor, I might have done better than her!"

"Don't do that. It's scary just thinking about cutting her own face. I really don't know how cruel she can be."

"What do you guys know? Movie queen Jiang was so ugly before. If she didn't go through plastic surgery, how could she continue to stay in the entertainment industry? However, her recovery after the surgery is really good. It seems that her physique is not bad."

They spoke loudly, and every word hit Lanna's heart.

Jiang Yu's supporters couldn't stand it anymore and said, "Do you guys only know how to look at people and things on the surface?"

"You guys are really shallow. Do you like a person only by looking at their appearance?"

"If you like the movie queen because of her appearance, then you might as well not like her. There aren't many natural beauties in the entertainment industry, but there are some. Why don't you guys like them?"

"That's right. You're a person who judges people by their appearance, yet you're still biting your tongue here!"

"And the movie queen studio has already issued a statement, saying that this is fake! You're still being sarcastic here. What, don't you have anything to say?"

The two sides were arguing fiercely, which was what Lanna liked.

She looked at Jiang Yu triumphantly, as if she was demonstrating her strength to her.

Jiang Yu said unhurriedly, "I want to ask, why did you think that the picture was me? Is it because of the missing mole?"

Hearing this, Lanna's expression changed.

"What mole? If you don't know, then don't spout nonsense!" Lanna argued, "that picture didn't have a mole!"

"You're quite observant," Jiang Yu sneered.

Lanna was so nervous that she almost choked on her saliva. "I've seen it carefully, of course I know!"

Her heart was beating fast. She didn't know how Jiang Yu knew about the mole.

She remembered that there was no mole next to her nose when she got the picture. How did Jiang Yu know about this?

Only the company had pictures of her before plastic surgery. The company had destroyed all the photos after she had stepped out of the way. Even that photo had taken her half an hour to find. No one else knew about it except her.

Jiang Yu ignored her and said to the others, "Today is your match. I hope that all of you will focus on the match and not on something that doesn't matter. If you really want to pay attention to this matter, then wait until the competition is over."

Her expression and tone were very serious. For a moment, no matter if it was the girl group or the boy group, they were all silent.

The recording began. The female team members began to compete on stage one by one, while the male team members were preparing backstage.

However, the six judges still sat together, because there was no extra space.

Halfway through the competition, the behind-the-scenes staff suddenly found the director and anxiously said, "Director, one of the contestants had a heart attack and has been taken away by the ambulance!"

"What?" The director frowned. "When will she be appearing?"

The staff member looked at the name list in his hand and his eyes suddenly turned black. "She's the next one!"

Time was so tight that there was no way to resolve it.

Due to the large number of people in this variety show, the total length of the program had been applied to the headquarters. Not a minute more, not a minute less.

Moreover, the emcee didn't know about this, so he would probably call out the name of the contestant and ask her to come up for the competition.

Sure enough, the host shouted several times, but no one came up to compete.

Everyone was surprised. Even Lanna, who had been nonchalant, couldn't help but say, "What's wrong with this person? He had already called out a few times, and he was still not coming out? What, do you still need someone to invite her?"

The director had no choice but to go on stage and say, "I'm sorry, this contestant can't continue to participate in the competition due to physical reasons."

"Seriously, why did he participate in the competition when he's not in good health?" Lanna said impatiently, "aren't you wasting everyone's time?"

"I'm sorry for taking up everyone's time," the director smiled awkwardly. "In these five minutes, everyone can do whatever they want."

"Only five minutes? Isn't that a little too short?" said Lanna.

The director was even more embarrassed, but Lanna was a sponsored guest, so he didn't dare to say anything.

Seeing that the director still didn't speak, the frustration in Lanna's heart became more serious. She saw Jiang Yu from the corner of her eye and an idea popped up in her mind for some reason. She said, "I've long heard that movie queen Jiang is both talented and beautiful. Previously, at the newcomer Award, she even improvised a piece on the spot. There's a contestant who can't participate in the competition today, would you like to show her?"

Her words were a clear provocation.

Everyone broke out in a cold sweat for her, because the person she was provoking was Jiang Yu!

Seeing that Jiang Yu was ignoring her, Lanna was not convinced and said, "The movie queen wouldn't be so arrogant, right? I'm just asking you to show off your talent, you don't have to be so stingy, right?"

Jiang Yu looked at her and said slowly, "Lanna, are you trying to play me like a monkey?"

Her tone was so cold that Lanna shuddered.

However, Lanna still braced herself and said, "What is the movie queen saying? I just wanted to see you perform your talent. You don't have to say that about me, right? Besides, it's not like you don't know how to do it. What's wrong with performing a little?"

Jiang Yu looked at Lanna and suddenly revealed a playful smile. "Okay, but it's better for you to go up with me, right? After all, we're the only two female judges. Compared to me, maybe everyone would prefer to see us perform together?"

"I don't know anything! How can I perform with you?" Lanna said quickly.

She was definitely not trying to absolve herself, because Lanna really didn't know how to do anything.

Chapter 1210 Flower Vase

In the entertainment industry, there was no lack of talented geniuses.

Although Lanna used to be a singer, she had never been able to get the tone of any of her songs right. She had to rely on the tuning master in the later stages.

Lanna had never held a concert because she was afraid that this would be exposed.

However, she was pretty, so some people were willing to buy her album.

Now that Jiang Yu had asked her to perform on stage with her, wouldn't it be over if she were to sing?

Thinking of this, Lanna quickly said, "forget it, movie queen. In any case, the five minutes are almost up. Why don't we wait for the next contestant to perform?"

"Don't!" Jiang Yu laughed. "Since everyone wants to see it, what reason do we have to not act?"

Then, she looked at the audience and asked with a smile, "I'm sure everyone wants to see it, right?"

"Yes!" The audience agreed.

Lanna was even more embarrassed now, even more so than the director on stage.

Originally, he only wanted Jiang Yu to perform. If she failed, he could still laugh at her and see her make a fool of herself.

But now, she actually wanted to pull him up together. Wouldn't that be embarrassing for both of them?

However, since the audience had spoken, Lanna didn't dare to not go up.

The company had told her that she could offend anyone but the audience. If she offended the audience, her popularity would decline, and the company would have no need to continue supporting her.

That was why Lanna dared to speak to the director and even provoke Jiang Yu, but she didn't dare to go against the wishes of the audience.

After going on stage, Jiang Yu thought for a while and said, "How about this? since you're a singer, why don't you sing the song you're best at? I'll dance for you."

"Can we change it? You're not going to sing?" Lanna asked.

She really didn't know how to sing!

Jiang Yu looked at her in surprise and asked, "but aren't you a singer? Do you know anything else besides singing?"

Even if he didn't know how to do it, he had to say he did!

"I will!" Lanna nodded vigorously.

"Ah... then you'll dance." Jiang Yu said, "I've seen your MV video. Your dance is not bad. And I heard that you're a dual practitioner of singing and dancing. In that case, it shouldn't be difficult for you to dance, right?"

"It's not difficult!" Lanna said.

Compared to singing, dancing was much simpler.

Because she was not a dancer, even if she did not dance well, she did not have to be afraid. If he didn't sing well or even went out of tune, he would be ruining his own reputation.

Jiang Yu chose a song that was rather popular in the past few years, but not many people listened to it in recent years.

Lanna had also heard this song and practiced the dance before. Although she had forgotten some of the movements, she still remembered the general idea. So, she silently agreed with Jiang Yu's choice of song.

There was a dance at the beginning of the prelude, and Lanna started to dance according to her memory.

However, she hadn't been practicing her body shape recently, so her limbs were a little stiff. The originally soft dance on her body was like four sticks dancing. It was very ugly.

She didn't remember many of the details, so the prelude was very ugly.

However, when Jiang Yu started singing, her first line shocked everyone present.

They only knew that Jiang Yu was a movie queen who was very good at acting. At the same time, she had also learned several musical instruments by herself. She was indeed a rare genius in the entertainment industry. However, she did not expect Jiang Yu to sing so well. Her voice was as clear and melodious as a Skylark in the forest.

Moreover, every line of the lyrics was in tune, and it felt like she was singing the same song as the original.

On the other hand, Lanna's limbs were stiff, and she was dancing like a machine.

Some in the audience couldn't stand it anymore and whispered, "I've seen videos of Lanna. Her body wasn't this stiff at that time."

"That's right, what is this dance about? Although it was just a live performance, it didn't have to be so stiff, right? It's completely different from the video."

"I really didn't expect movie queen Jiang to sing so well. I feel like she can be a singer too."

"This Lanna's strength doesn't match what she showed in the video at all. She's just a flower vase with an empty appearance."

"I agree, it really didn't dance well. She was a singer, but she had to choose a dance that she was not good at? What do you mean? is this a challenge to the impossible?"
