

Older Man 1221

Chapter 1221 Hidden Story

Jiang Yu shook her head. "I'm not. I'm just passing by."

She told Chang Kai everything that had happened.

"Was he stabbed by an enemy?" Chang Kai was shocked.

"That's what the Auntie told me, but I'm not sure." Jiang Yu said, "because I don't know the whole story, so I can't be 100% sure of what Auntie said."

"It seems that I have to wait for the patient to wake up before asking." Chang Kai said.

An hour later, the light of the operating room finally went out. The chief surgeon came out and said to Jiang Yu and Chang Kai, "The operation was very successful. Although the cut was very deep, it fortunately didn't hurt any vital parts. Moreover, he was sent here in time and there were no major problems. If you go there tonight, you can be transferred to the general ward."

"Okay, thank you, doctor." Jiang Yu said very politely.

After the chief surgeon left, Jiang Yu said to Chang Kai, "I'm going to pay the fee and then go back first. If there's anything you need, just call me."

"Alright, be careful on your way back."

Jiang Yu went to the payment office on the first floor to pay and then returned to the company with sister Xia.

She was only doing a good deed and did not expect the man to thank her when he woke up. However, Jiang Yu received a call from Chang Kai three days after the incident.

Jiang Yu, that man has woken up and said that he wants to see you.

"Which man?" Jiang Yu was still in a daze. "Why do you want to see me?"

"It's the man you sent to the hospital a few days ago," Chang Kai said. "He's awake now. He wants to see his savior no matter what."

"I see, I'll go over after I get off work."

"Alright," he said.

After work, Jiang Yu went to the Central Hospital.

The man had already been transferred to a general ward, and he looked to be in good spirits.

Jiang Yu walked into the ward and saw the man sitting on the bed motionlessly like a statue. Hence, she walked over and greeted him politely, "Hello, I'm Jiang Yu."

The man then raised his head and stared at Jiang Yu. "You're Jiang Yu?"

"It's me. What's wrong?" Jiang Yu was confused.

"Why did you save me?" The man asked again.

"...?" Jiang was a little confused. "I saw that you were injured on my way back, so I wanted to do a good deed and sent you to the hospital."

The man seemed to be suspicious of the truth of this sentence and asked, "Don't you know who I am?"

Jiang Yu was even more confused and asked, "Do you think I know who you are?"

The man looked at Jiang Yu's expression and felt that she did not seem to be pretending. She probably really did not know his identity.

After a moment of silence, he said, "It's fine. I thought you knew me. You paid for my hospitalization fees, didn't you? Give me an address, and I'll return the money to you after I'm discharged."

However, other than money, Jiang Yu caught another key point. "Who are you? It looks like you're very surprised that I saved you."

"I'm afraid that's not the reason." Jiang Yu looked at the man named "Zhang Chuan" with an inquisitive look in her eyes. "You know me, but it's definitely not just my identity as the 'movie queen'. And in your mind, you think I should know you, which means we've met before."

The man paused and explained, "my name is Zhang Chuan, I'm unemployed. I know you. Aren't you the movie queen? I'm just a little surprised that a movie queen would actually save someone like me."

"I'm afraid that's not the reason." Jiang Yu looked at the man named "Zhang Chuan" with an inquisitive look in her eyes. "You know me, but it's definitely not just my identity as the 'movie queen'. And in your mind, you think I should know you, which means we've met before. But I don't have any impression of you in my mind, which means we haven't met before. Since we've never met before, why do you think I should know you?"

Jiang Yu's analysis not only shocked Zhang Chuan, who was lying on the hospital bed, but even Chang Kai, who was beside her, was amazed.

"As expected of Jiang Yu. Her analysis is so logical." Chang Kai couldn't help but clap, then asked Zhang Chuan, "Who are you?"

Zhang Chuan replied impatiently, "didn't I already tell you? I'm unemployed! No matter what you ask, this is the only answer I can give. Can you please stop asking this question?"

Jiang Yu looked at Zhang Chuan up and down and asked, "Do you have something you can't tell me?"

Zhang Chuan became even more impatient and shouted, "I've said all I can. No matter how you ask, this is the answer! So, can you stop asking?"

Chapter 1222 Who Is It?

Zhang Chuan was very emotional. Chang Kai was worried that he would open his wound, so he could only leave first and call the doctor to comfort him.

Jiang Yu also came out and asked, "Did you find out anything else besides his name, Zhang Chuan?"

"No," Chang Kai shook his head helplessly. To be honest, I only found out his name after you came. Before you came, he refused to say a word. Later, when he heard that you saved him, he said he wanted to see you. If I don't see you, I won't tell us anything. But it's no use even if you come, he's still not willing to say anything."

"That's strange. Who is he?" Jiang Yu squinted her eyes and tried hard to find the person named " Zhang Chuan " in her memory.

However, no matter how many times she thought about it, Jiang Yu was 100% sure that it was the first time she had met this man named Zhang Chuan. She had never seen him again or even heard of his name.

"And from his words, he seems to think that you know him?" Chang Kai also felt that something was wrong. "Then where did you two meet? "

"No, I'm sure this is the first time I've seen him." Jiang Yu said firmly.

"That's really strange. Is he an extreme fan of yours?" Chang Kai made a hypothesis. "So, he subconsciously thinks that you should know him?"

"No." Jiang Yu shook her head. "I haven't seen any extreme fans around me, whether it's at school or at the studio. It's even more impossible near Mo garden. If he's really an extreme fan, he'll definitely follow me around all the time."

"Who else could he be?" This time, Chang Kai had no direction to guess. "I've guessed all the possible identities, but no matter what identity it is, it doesn't match."

Jiang Yu also found it strange. Was there anyone she had not met recently but had interacted with?

She thought about it and finally settled on One Identity-the hacker hired by Lanna.

If this was really his identity, then it could be explained that Zhang Chuan knew Jiang Yu, but Jiang Yu didn't know him. And because of the firewall, the two of them had been hacking each other's accounts, so Zhang Chuan mistakenly thought that Jiang Yu knew him.

But how could the hacker hired by Lanna be stabbed for no reason?

It seemed that this matter was not that simple.

Jiang Yu originally wanted to tell Chang Kai about this and let him ask. However, she couldn't let him know that she was a hacker, so she planned to wait for Chang Kai to return to the police station before going back to the ward to ask Zhang Chuan.

Chang Kai did not plan to stay any longer. He wanted to return to the police station first and think about what to do about this matter.

"Then I'll go back first. You go back too. Be careful on your way back."

"Alright, be careful."

After Chang Kai left, Jiang Yu returned to Zhang Chuan's ward.

When Zhang Chuan saw that Jiang Yu had returned, he sneered and said, "What's wrong? have you remembered who I am? I knew it. It's impossible that you don't know me."

Jiang Yu smiled faintly and said, "it's true that I don't know you. I only guessed your identity based on some clues. But I'm not sure, so I came in to ask you in person. You're the hacker that Lanna hired, aren't you?"

"Guess?" Zhang Chuan sneered. "Don't talk about guessing. Don't you know who I am?"

"It was just a guess. I didn't expect you to be the one." Jiang Yu laughed. "Tell me, since you're a hacker hired by Lanna, why were you stabbed for no reason on the road?"

"What does it have to do with you?" Zhang Chuan started to get impatient. "Just mind your own business. Why do you have to care about me? " If you're doing this for money, then you don't have to worry. I said that I'll return you the money when I'm discharged, so I'll definitely return it to you. I, Zhang Chuan, am a man. I won't be reduced to the point of being helped by a woman!"

"Ah, it seems like you're not convinced." Jiang Yu smiled and extended her hand to Zhang Chuan. "Then, you can return the money to me now."

Zhang Chuan paused and said, "What is wrong with you? I already said I'll pay you back after I'm discharged!"

"You don't have any money even if you're discharged." Jiang Yu said, "if you had the money, you would be able to return it to me now."

"You!" Zhang Chuan's face turned red with anger.

"I'm not here for the money. I just want to know what happened." Jiang Yu said, "Lanna must have something to do with what happened to you on the side of the road, right?"

Chapter 1223 Take It

Zhang Chuan fell silent after Jiang Yu's question.

"Why aren't you saying anything?" Jiang Yu asked again, "did I guess right? Or you don't know?"

Zhang Chuan was silent for a while before he asked, "Are you sure it was Lanna who did this?"

"I'm not sure," Jiang Yu said honestly, "but the possibility is no less than 90%."

Zhang Chuan stopped talking again, as if he was thinking about the credibility of Jiang Yu's words.

After a while, he seemed to have made up his mind before he said to Jiang Yu, "Lanna paid me to hack into your account. I don't think you're friends. As the saying goes, 'the enemy of my enemy is my friend'. Since you and Lanna are enemies, I can treat you as a friend for the time being."

"I'm extremely honored." Jiang Yu raised her eyebrows.

Zhang Chuan explained to Jiang Yu what had happened in the past few days, "Back then, I didn't succeed in hacking into your account. Instead, I was hacked by you, and I couldn't even crack the firewall you set up. I messed everything up. When Lanna found out, she said she would fire me and didn't give me any money."

"I wasn't convinced, so I made a scene there for a few days. Today, Lanna gave me a card and told me to withdraw money from the bank. That's why I'm here. Who knew that a masked man would suddenly appear on the road and stab me with a knife! This woman, Lanna, just wants my life!"

He didn't look like he was lying, but Jiang Yu still asked tentatively, "Are you sure they're not your enemies?"

Zhang Chuan's eyes widened in anger, "of course not! I don't have any enemies. I know it very well! I've been a hacker for so many years, and I've basically been staying at home. What enemy could I have? Who else could it be if it wasn't Lanna?"

It seemed that Zhang Chuan was also sure that Lanna was the one who did it.

"Don't worry. Do you still remember the characteristics of that masked man? The eyes, or a physical feature?" Jiang Yu asked.

Zhang Chuan carefully recalled and said, "Now that you mention it, I remember that there was a long knife scar at the corner of his right eye! As for its shape, I don't really remember. But if I remember correctly, that person should be left-handed."

"Okay, I got it. I'll tell the police about this." With that, Jiang Yu got up and was about to leave.

"Wait a moment." Zhang Chuan stopped her. give me your contact information. "When I'm discharged, I'll go to you to return the money."

Jiang Yu sized him up and couldn't help but smile. "I don't think you have much money, do you? You'd better recuperate first before we talk."

"No! Even if I said I'd treat you as a friend for the time being, it doesn't mean you're my friend! I haven't cracked your firewall code yet, so I don't want to owe you a favor." Zhang Chuan said, unconvinced.

Upon hearing this, Jiang Yu could not help but smile and say, "I'm just lying to you. The firewall I set up doesn't have a password. It's because you're not willing to think in this direction that you can't solve it."

"What?" Zhang Chuan was stunned.

"As for the favor, if you really want to return it, why don't you join my team?" Jiang Yu continued.

"Everyone has to deal with Lanna anyway, so one more person means one more chance of winning."

"Really?" Zhang Chuan looked at Jiang Yu in surprise. "You don't want the money?"

Jiang Yu shrugged her shoulders. "If I saved you because I wanted you to pay me back, I could have not saved you back then. It would have saved me so much time. Don't you think so?"

Zhang Chuan looked at Jiang Yu's expression. She did not seem to be joking.

So he said, "it's useless even if I'm in the same team as you. I've already told you everything I know. I really don't know anything else."

"It's okay. In the end, you still need to be a witness." Jiang Yu said, "I'll get someone to stand guard in front of the ward for the next few days. You're fine now, but Lanna might not let you go. I'm afraid she'll continue to find people to kill you."

Zhang Chuan trembled and shouted, "Come on! If you have the ability, then come! If I was afraid of her, my surname wouldn't be Zhang!"

"You'd better be more honest. Be careful that the masked man will come back for you!" Jiang Yu tried to scare him.

As expected, Zhang Chuan was shocked, but he still said to Jiang Yu before she left, "If there's anything you want to know, you can ask me. I'll tell you everything I know."

Jiang Yu laughed in her heart, but she put on a serious face and said, "I know."

After that, Jiang Yu left the hospital and called Chang Kai, hoping that he would send a few police officers to protect Zhang Chuan.

Chapter 1224 Don't Expect To Do Well

Chang Kai immediately sent a few police officers to the hospital and kept watch in front of Zhang Chuan's ward.

After all, this was an attempted murder case, and it was committed in the street, which was very bad.

As a victim and a future witness, Zhang Chuan should be protected.

When Jiang Yu returned to the Mo garden, Mo Long had already returned and was sitting on the sofa reading a book. When he looked up and saw that Jiang Yu had returned, he put down the book and asked, "Why did you come back so late today?"

As Jiang Yu changed her shoes, she told Mo Long about what happened today.

After Mo Long heard this, he seemed to have some impression of Lanna. "Didn't Lanna debut a few years earlier? In order to make her famous, star feather company once submitted an application for cooperation with me."

"That's her," Jiang Yu said, "during the recording of the show a few days ago, the reporter said that her song was lip-syncing and asked her to sing a song on the spot. But she didn't sing. Instead, she waited for the accompaniment to end before she left the filming set. Now, everyone knows that she was lip-syncing."

"She doesn't know how to find an excuse for herself." Mo Long said, "her looks and figure are extremely popular in the entertainment industry. But she's not smart enough, so she's destined not to be able to stay in the entertainment industry."

"That's because she had plastic surgery." Jiang Yu pouted. "Can't you tell that she had plastic surgery?"

Mo Long paused and could not help but laugh. "I'm not even looking at her, how would I know if she had plastic surgery? The only reason I found out about this recently was because of the confrontation between the two of you on the internet."

"Who told her to spread such rumors about me?" Jiang Yu found it funny at the mention of this. "She even used her pre-plastic surgery photos to spread rumors about me. She really wants to make a big deal out of this. However, she's been quite well-behaved recently and hasn't done anything out of line."

Although that was what she said, Jiang Yu thought that Lanna would continue to bide her time for the next few days. She did not expect to receive a summons from the court the next day.

When sister Xia received the subpoena, she thought that the court had sent it to the wrong person. However, she carefully looked at the address on it and confirmed that it was indeed the Jiang jewelry company.

She could only pass the summons to Jiang Yu and couldn't help but say, "Did they send the wrong one? How did the court summon get here?"

When Jiang Yu heard these words, she was also stunned. She took the summons from sister Xia's hand, opened it, and found that the person who reported her was actually Lanna.

"Lanna?" Jiang Yu frowned. "Why is it her?"

"It's Lanna?" Sister Xia was shocked. "What is she trying to do? I haven't settled the matter with her for spreading rumors about you, and she thinks she has escaped? And now she's taking you to court, what's she thinking?"

Although Jiang Yu didn't know why Lanna was suing her in court, she guessed that it was most likely because of her plastic surgery.

It seemed that Lanna had found the evidence that could completely defeat Jiang Yu.

"It seems like she's still trying to drag me down with the plastic surgery incident." Jiang Yu sneered and threw the summons aside. "Since she wants to blow this matter up and bring it to so many people, I'll accompany her and see who the final winner is. If she doesn't want to live well, then no one will."

Jiang Yu asked sister Xia to find lawyer Tang. After all, the two of them had worked together once before and were more familiar with each other.

"What's the matter?" Asked lawyer Tang.

Jiang Yu then told her about it.

"Plastic surgery and rumor-making?" Lawyer Tang paused. "In all her years in the industry, this was the first time she had encountered such a case. "Does the other party have any evidence?"

"I'm not sure. I didn't know about this until I received the summons today." Jiang Yu said.

"Since it's a case related to plastic surgery, have you found the chief surgeon?" Lawyer Tang asked after some thought.

Jiang Yu said, "we're still looking. He had found the plastic surgery hospital before, but the chief surgeon had retired and moved back to his hometown. No one knows where his hometown is, so we haven't found it yet."

"The most important thing now is to find the chief surgeon. As long as we find him, we'll know who had plastic surgery." Lawyer Tang said, "otherwise, if the other party spent money to bribe a fake doctor to be a witness, it would be difficult for us to handle it."

"I know, I'll hurry up and find it." Jiang Yu nodded.

"Well, I'll study the case first. Call me if you need anything."

"Alright, take care." After that, Jiang Yu asked sister Xia to send lawyer Tang out.

Chapter 1225 The Person Behind The Curtain

After sending off lawyer Tang, sister Xia returned and happened to see Jiang Yu on the phone with Mo Long.

She told Mo Long about this and asked him to find the chief surgeon's address in the shortest time possible.

Mo Long immediately had Teng Yi handle this matter.

After hanging up the phone, sister Xia said, "This Lanna is really pushing people to their deaths."

Jiang Yu frowned and felt a slight headache. "She has fake evidence in her hands, but we don't even have any fake evidence now. If we really go to court, we still have no chance of winning."

"Lanna's brain isn't that good, but she's really crazy," Sister Xia couldn't help but scold her. "First, she went against you in every way. Then, she spread rumors that you had plastic surgery. She even deliberately dirtied your dress at the variety banquet. She's a person who'll feel uncomfortable if she doesn't seek death, isn't she?"

"Who knows?" Jiang Yu said helplessly, "it seems that the person behind her is not a simple person. It's a very powerful person. Since Lanna dared to argue with me to this extent, it means that she's not afraid of the Mo Long. To be more precise, it should be the person behind her who's not afraid of the Mo Long. Otherwise, they wouldn't have allowed Lanna to do whatever she wanted."

"But apart from the Kang family in the capital, which is your mother's family, there's no other family that can compete with the Mo Corporation." Sister Xia could not understand.

Jiang Yu could not understand it either. She had thought that she had nothing to do with Lanna's matter, but now that Lanna had brought it up with her, even if it had nothing to do with her before, it had to do with her now.

Jiang Yu's expression was cold. I'd like to see who is behind Lanna and who has such great power.

Seeing that the day of the court hearing was getting closer and closer, the variety show's recording had to be suspended. Online, the news about this incident had also entered the stage of white heat.

Its popularity was higher than any of the previous Hot Searches, and it was not just higher by hundreds of thousands or tens of millions of points, but by a billion points!

Logically speaking, it was very normal for people in the entertainment industry to have plastic surgery. Even if the person who had plastic surgery was not willing to admit it, everyone would only scold him in dissatisfaction, saying that the person was not sincere enough. However, it was really rare to see a case like this in court because of a plastic surgery incident. It could be said that it was probably the first time in hundreds of years.

Moreover, the last time Jiang Yu appeared in court, she was the plaintiff who helped a poor family. He did not expect her to be the defendant this time.

Therefore, while everyone was discussing this matter, they also wanted to see who would be the final winner between Lanna and Jiang Yu.

However, while everyone was looking forward to it, Jiang Yu was not. The court was about to start, but Teng Yi still hadn't found the chief surgeon's address.

Mo Long was a little angry about this and felt that Teng Yi should be able to do something so small.

However, Jiang Yu could not help but suspect that the chief surgeon did not retire voluntarily but was forced to do so.

Or perhaps he was taken away by someone after he retired.

He was probably the person behind Lanna.

"The trial is about to start, why hasn't Teng Yi found the chief surgeon yet?" Sister Xia was also very anxious.

Jiang Yu's face was calm. "We can't be flustered. Otherwise, the other party will see through our flaws and take advantage of us."

"Alright, alright," Sister Xia quickly adjusted her expression and made herself look very serious. She was not affected by the court case at all.

Lawyer Tang was also well prepared, but because he lacked the most important part-the chief surgeon who had plastic surgery, his chances of winning today's trial were a little low.

The court hearing began. After the plaintiff and the defendant took their seats, the plaintiff's lawyer stated that Jiang Yu had fabricated Lanna's plastic surgery and many other charges. "This has already caused a serious impact on my client, so I think the other party should be severely punished."

Then, it was lawyer Tang's turn to express his views.

Lawyer Tang listed all the evidence he had and continued, "The other party claimed that my client had plastic surgery based on a few photos. After my client found the original photos, she retaliated, but the other party accused her of spreading rumors. We also have the evidence in the other party's hands."

"Your evidence is fake!" Lanna couldn't help but say, "I didn't have plastic surgery. Jiang Yu has been spreading rumors about me!"

"Silence!" The head judge slammed his gavel heavily. "Before I allow you to speak, please remain silent!"

Chapter 1226 A Fake Doctor

Only then did the audience fall silent.

"The plaintiff will speak first," the head of the court said.

Lanna got the chance and quickly said everything, "I admit that I was the one who discovered Jiang Yu's plastic surgery and posted it on the internet! However, after Jiang Yu found out about this, not only did she not admit it, but she also turned around and accused me, saying that I was the one who had plastic surgery! I think that the rumors she spread about me have seriously affected my physical and mental health, so I request the court to sentence Jiang Yu heavily!"

"Are you done?" The head of the court glanced at Lanna. After making sure that she had finished speaking, he said to Jiang Yu, "May the defendant speak."

Jiang Yu responded to Lanna's words, "You should know better than anyone else whether I was the one who had plastic surgery. As for the photos before plastic surgery and the photos that were signed on the surgery certificate, I don't need to say much about the authenticity of them. Because those are all fake. No matter what I say, it can't become real."

"But since you're so confident, it must be because you've found evidence that I can't refute? Let me guess, you must have invited the chief surgeon for the plastic surgery back then, right? As long as he's here, he'll be able to find out if I was the one who did the plastic surgery back then."

She had completely guessed Lanna's thoughts and what she was going to do next, which made Lanna a little overwhelmed.

Lanna was sure that Jiang Yu had also gone to the chief surgeon. However, he had already retired and was taken away by someone. No one knew the address and it was impossible for Jiang Yu to find him.

Did Jiang Yu think that the reason she couldn't find the chief surgeon was because she had brought him here?

When Lanna thought of this, she felt more confident.

Hence, he said, "yes, I did bring the chief surgeon from back then. As long as he comes over to take a look, won't he know who performed the surgery?"

As she spoke, Lanna gestured to the head of the court to bring the witness.

The head of the court nodded and allowed the witness to be brought in.

"Jiang Yu, just you wait and see." Lanna giggled and looked at Jiang Yu triumphantly.

The witness was brought in. He was wearing a white coat and looked like a doctor from the hospital.

After getting permission from the head of the court, the doctor pointed at Jiang Yu and said, "Jiang Yu was the one who went to the hospital for plastic surgery back then. I remember it clearly. Now that she's the movie queen, it's even more impossible for me to remember wrongly."

When he said this, his tone was calm and not nervous at all. He did not look guilty at all. Therefore, it gave people a high level of credibility, which led to the audience leaning towards Lanna and began to talk about Jiang Yu.

"It can't be. Did Jiang Yu really have plastic surgery?"

"Plastic surgery is plastic surgery, why don't you admit it? And she even spread the rumor that Lanna was the one who had plastic surgery. Jiang Yu, this person, isn't she too evil?"

"There are so many people in the entertainment industry who don't admit to having plastic surgery. It's not a big deal. However, I can't take it anymore when Jiang Yu accused someone of plastic surgery."

"I used to like her, but she's actually this kind of person? It's such a waste of my love for her. "

"I don't think there's a need to continue listening to this trial. Let's end it quickly. The truth is that Jiang Yu had plastic surgery and she even framed Lanna. What else is there to interrogate?"

"That's right. If this doctor didn't come forward today, I'm afraid I would still be in the dark about Jiang Yu."

"When this matter gets out, Jiang Yu's reputation will definitely take a dive."

The public gallery was getting noisier and noisier. The head judge knocked his gavel again and shouted, "Silence!"

Only then did the crowd quieten down.

The head of the court looked at Jiang Yu again and said, "do you have anything else to say?"

Jiang Yu narrowed her eyes and said to the plastic surgeon, "Doctor, do you know the professional term for plastic surgery?"

The doctor was stunned. He did not know why Jiang Yu asked this question, but he still answered truthfully, "Plastic surgery is plastic surgery, what's with the technical terms?"

However, Jiang Yu said, "the professional term for plastic surgery is 'cosmetic surgery' or 'plastic surgery.' You're a plastic surgeon. How come you don't even know this? "

The doctor was stunned and quickly retorted, "We, we plastic surgeons are in charge of the surgery. Of course, we don't remember such unimportant ethical knowledge! You must have done your homework in advance, that's how you knew!"

"Okay. Doctor, do you still remember what I did when I had the surgery?" Jiang Yu asked again.

"Of course, the whole face was moved!" The doctor blurted out.

Chapter 1227 Unknown

"Okay, since you said that my entire face has been moved, why don't you tell me what to pay attention to after the surgery?" Jiang Yu was all smiles and did not feel angry at all for being framed.

However, it was this question that stumped the doctor in front of him.

"This..." He stammered and hesitated for a long time before he managed to make up some words. "Just pay attention to the wound and the like, nothing else."

"Really?" Jiang Yu asked with a smile.

"Of course it's true." The doctor did not dare to look up at Jiang Yu and could only give an ambiguous answer.

After all, he wasn't a real plastic surgeon. He was just the owner of a veterinary shop. How could he know so much about plastic surgery? Lanna had given him a few pieces of paper with some medical knowledge, and he had just memorized it.

Now that Jiang Yu was asking him these things, he couldn't answer them at all because the papers didn't have them.

"After plastic surgery, you don't just need to pay attention to the wound. You also need to pay attention to your diet and rest." Jiang Yu said slowly, "how do you know less than an outsider like me?"

The doctor lowered his head and retorted in a low voice, "you must have checked it in advance. Otherwise, how would you know?"

"Yeah, I just did some research." Jiang Yu admitted to it graciously. "But as a plastic surgeon, how come you don't even know this?"

The doctor was really speechless this time.

Seeing this, Lanna quickly said to the presiding judge, "I request for Jiang Yu to stop speaking! She had already affected the witness's mental state! If this continues, the witness "mental state will be very bad!"

The presiding judge ignored him and carefully examined the doctor.

He kept his head down, so she couldn't see the expression on his face. However, from his words just now, she could tell that he did not seem to be a plastic surgeon.

"Are you a plastic surgeon or not?" The head of the court asked sternly.

The doctor's head drooped even lower, but his mouth was still stubborn. "Y-yes, I'm a plastic surgeon."

As soon as he finished speaking, the door behind him was pushed open, and a voice came, "The plastic surgeon who really did the surgery is here."

It was Teng Yi and behind him was a white-haired old man.

When Lanna saw the old man, she was so scared that she immediately stood up.

The old man followed behind Teng Yi quietly. There were some obvious scars on his face and neck.

Teng Yi brought the old man over to Jiang Yu and said, "Madam, I've already helped you find a real plastic surgeon. We also took him to the hospital's archives to check the operation records of that year. After getting permission from the director, we have brought the operation records over."

"Alright, thank you for your hard work." As Jiang Yu spoke, she looked at Lanna and asked, "the real doctor is already here. What else do you have to say?"

Lanna knew the old man. She was worried that he would point her out, so she said before he could, "No! Did you hire him? They found a fake doctor! I've found a real plastic surgeon!"

"How do you know that the one I'm looking for is a fake and the one you're looking for is the real one?" Jiang Yu looked at Lanna with a smile and asked Teng Yi to take out the surgery record and hand it to the judge.

After the head of the court carefully read the surgical record and confirmed that it was Lanna's name, he said, "Lanna, your name is on this surgery record. What other explanation do you have?"

"No, impossible!" Lanna shouted hysterically, "impossible! It shouldn't have my name on it! I know, it's Jiang Yu. It must be Jiang Yu. She secretly changed the surgery record!"

She seemed to have gone crazy, as if she couldn't accept this.

Seeing how crazy she was, the presiding judge said, "There's even the hospital's exclusive seal on it. Do you think Jiang Yu can forge it? If it's not your name, whose name can it be?"

"It wasn't me, it definitely wasn't me!" Lanna shouted crazily, "this must be Jiang Yu's fake! They crossed out my name a long time ago. Even if it wasn't Jiang Yu's name on it, it shouldn't be my name either!"

In her mental breakdown-Lanna admitted the truth of what happened back then-she was the one who had plastic surgery, not Jiang Yu.

"Someone, take her away!" The head of the court knocked on the gavel and asked the security guards to take Lanna, who had a mental breakdown, away.

Chapter 1228 The Chi Family

The case ended in such a comical way.

No one present had expected that an old man who claimed to be a "real plastic surgeon" would appear on the way. He even brought the hospital's surgery certificate to prove that Lanna was the real plastic surgeon.

The doctor who forged the certificate was also taken away. No one knew what kind of punishment he would receive in the end.

"What? So it was Lanna who framed Jiang Yu?"

"I thought she was innocent, but now you're telling me that she's the culprit?"

"Who can accept such a situation? I even said bad things about Jiang Yu just now. How am I supposed to accept this?"

The people present were all discussing it, but Jiang Yu's focus was not on this.

There were too many suspicious points in this matter, and it was definitely not as simple as it seemed on the surface. Both Lanna and the old man had too many mysteries.

Jiang Yu first found the old man and asked, "Hello, I'm Jiang Yu. There's something I'm curious about. You should have returned to your hometown after retirement, right? No matter how much I asked, I couldn't find out the address of your hometown. Then, have you been in your hometown during this time? Or did someone take you away?"

The old man paused and said, "my surname is Yang. You can call me uncle yang." To be honest, I was taken away by a group of men in black and locked up in an abandoned garage. If this young man didn't save me, I don't know how much more torture I would have to suffer there."

Old Yang was talking about Teng Yi.

"Taken away by the men in black?" Jiang Yu was shocked.

"Yup," Elder Yang sighed. "It's because I helped Lanna do plastic surgery before that the group of men in Black took me away. They seem to have an unusual relationship with Lanna, but they don't seem to be enemies."

Jiang Yu was getting more and more confused. First, it was Zhang Chuan, then it was old Yang. These things were indeed related to Lanna, but was it really Lanna who did it?

Was it really Lanna who sent people to kill Zhang Chuan? Or did Lanna find someone to imprison Mr. Yang?

I'm afraid not.

Jiang Yu frowned and thought for a long time before she went to find Lanna.

Sister Xia followed behind her, worried that Lanna would hurt Jiang Yu.

However, her worry seemed to be unnecessary, because Lanna's mental state was already a little abnormal. He wasn't crazy, but he couldn't communicate with people normally anymore. Most of the time, he was talking to himself.

Jiang Yu walked in front of Lanna and said, "Lanna, it's me, Jiang Yu."

It was as if Lanna had heard this name for the first time. She looked at Jiang Yu in a daze and asked with her head tilted, "Who is Jiang Yu?"

Jiang Yu was silent for a while before she asked, "You really don't remember me?"

"I don't know you." Lanna said, "don't talk to me anymore. Nana is a good girl. She won't talk to strangers.

When sister Xia saw her like this, she was also frightened. She whispered in Jiang Yu's ear, "What's wrong with this Lanna? didn't she just lose a lawsuit? It shouldn't have become like this, right?"

Jiang Yu also found it strange, but Lanna didn't seem to be pretending.

"Do you know what this place is?" she asked.

Only then did Lanna raise her head and look around. She suddenly said in horror, "This is not Nana's room! Ah! I don't want to come here! I don't want to stay here! Uncle Chi, please come and save Nana!"

She kept screaming and covered her head with her hands as if this was a terrible place.

Jiang Yu sharply caught the main point in Lanna's words-uncle Chi.

"Who's uncle Chi?" Jiang Yu asked sister Xia, "is there anyone with the surname Chi in Shanghai?"

Sister Xia thought about it carefully and said, “there aren’t many people with the surname Chi in Shanghai. I think there are only a few families. But their backgrounds are very simple. They don’t seem to be related to Lanna.”

“That’s not the Chi family from Shanghai.” Jiang Yu frowned. “Where could it be?”

Sister Xia was also puzzled.

If the scope was expanded, there would be at least hundreds of thousands of people with the surname Chi. Could it be that Lanna was related to every person with the surname Chi?

Jiang Yu tried to ask Lanna again, “Lanna, can you tell me who uncle Chi is?”

As soon as she heard the words “uncle Chi,” Lanna’s emotions calmed down. She said, “Uncle Chi, you’re a good man. In the past, there were always people who bullied me and liked to inject me with needles. But uncle Chi wouldn’t. He would take me to eat delicious food and buy me toys. Nana loves uncle Chi the most.”

“She’s already starting to lose her mind.” Sister Xia sighed.

Chapter 1229 Black Market

“Did the plastic surgery incident really affect her so much?” Jiang Yu was surprised. “If she didn’t use this matter to spread rumors from the start, none of this would have happened.”

“She’s just jealous of you.” Sister Xia said, “it’s because she’s so beautiful after plastic surgery, but you’re naturally beautiful. It’s normal for her to be jealous of you with her personality. That’s why she wanted to spread the rumor that you had plastic surgery. That way, she’ll feel better.”

“But there’s no need to bring this to court, right?” Jiang Yu still couldn’t understand. “Why did she bring this matter to court? She knew that the evidence and witnesses she found were fake and would be exposed one day, so why did she do that?”

Sister Xia couldn’t understand either. She could only say that people with mental disorders did things that normal people couldn’t understand.

“There’s also the Chi family. I’m afraid that the Chi family has something to do with Lanna’s current state.” Jiang Yu guessed, “but we still need to investigate the Chi family’s background.”

With this thought in mind, Jiang Yu left.

In any case, Lanna had already become like this. Even if he really asked her something, she wouldn’t be able to answer. Other than the so-called “uncle Chi,” she probably would not mention a second person.

Jiang Yu left the court. It was getting late, so she returned to the Mo Garden.

Mo Long had already gotten off work, but there still seemed to be a trace of anger on his face.

Jiang Yu knew that he was still angry about Teng Yi’s matter, so she walked over and said, “Don’t be angry, no matter how capable Teng Yi is, he’s not superhuman. It’s a bit complicated to begin with, and it’s really good that Teng Yi is able to do this.”

"With his ability, he should be able to find the plastic surgeon earlier!" Mo long suppressed his anger and said, "and not at this time today!"

"But we should be glad that Teng Yi found him. If it wasn't for Teng Yi, I don't know how this case would have ended." Jiang Yu had been trying her best to put in a good word for Teng Yi. besides, he's been with you for so long. You can't bear to fire him because of this, can you? "

"Then he should be punished!" Under Jiang Yu's comfort, Mo Long was barely able to calm his anger.

"Speaking of this, there's something more important." Jiang Yu said that she told Mo Long about what she had asked Lanna today.

"The Chi family?" Mo Long was not too surprised when he heard this surname. After some simple thought, he slowly said, If I'm not wrong, it should be the Chi family from Qingcheng, right?"

"The Chi family from Qingcheng?" It was the first time Jiang Yu had heard of this family.

"In the early years, the Mo family of Shanghai, the Kang family of Shang Jing, and the Chi family of Qing Cheng were known as the 'three giants'. However, in the following years, the Chi family gradually declined and no one mentioned them again. However, the recent news about the Chi family is that they organized a black market, but there is no evidence, so the police can't do anything about them."

"Black market?"

There was too much information in that short sentence, and Jiang Yu couldn't accept it for a while.

"As for what they are selling in the black market, we have no idea." Mo long said, "Qingcheng and Shanghai are very far apart. Furthermore, the Mo family and the Chi family didn't have much interaction in the beginning, so I didn't pursue this matter in detail. But you said that Lanna mentioned uncle Chi? You suspect that Lanna is related to the Chi family of Qingcheng?"

"It's like this," Jiang Yu said, "but this is just my guess. I can't be 100% sure. Also, from what Lanna said, she knew that she had grown up in the Chi family and that someone in the Chi family would poke her with a needle. Whether it's domestic violence or some other problem, it needs to be solved."

"You want to help Lanna solve this problem?" Mo Long asked.

"Not just to help Lanna." Jiang Yu said, "if this isn't a problem of domestic violence but some kind of drug was injected into the child's body, then I don't know how many children the Chi family has. For their sake, I have to give it a try."

"Who knows. I'll get Teng Yi to do it." Mo long muttered to himself and called Teng Yi.

Teng Yi had long blamed himself for elder Yang's matter. Now that Mo Long had given him a better chance to redeem himself, Teng Yi would naturally grasp it tightly.

After giving his instructions, Mo Long hung up the phone.

However, Jiang Yu was still worried about Lanna for some reason. "I keep worrying about Lanna."

Chapter 1230 Lanna's Body

"Don't worry," Mo Long consoled her, "since Lanna's mind has become that of a child, the police will not force a confession out of her. Instead, they will do their best to take care of her."

Even though that was what Mo Long said, Jiang Yu was still very worried, causing her to be unable to sleep well the entire night.

When she got up the next day, Jiang Yu went to the mental hospital before she went to the company.

Because Lanna was not in her right mind, the police sent her to a mental hospital for treatment. He hoped that he could continue asking her questions after she regained a little of her consciousness.

Jiang Yu took a car to the mental hospital. After asking the nurse for Lanna's ward number, she immediately went to Lanna's ward.

However, the closer they got to the ward, the more uneasy Jiang Yu felt. There was also an unpleasant smell in the air.

Jiang Yu felt dizzy from the smell. She kept feeling that this smell was very familiar.

At that moment, a nurse came over with some medicine and helped Jiang Yu up so that she would not fall.

"Be careful," The nurse's voice was very gentle. "Are you here to see this patient too? I'm going in to give her an IV, let's go in together."

The nurse opened the door.

The next second, a sharp scream was heard. "Ah!"

Jiang Yu's eardrums were about to burst from the sound and she couldn't help but go forward to take a look. However, it would have been better if she didn't see it. Once she saw the scene in front of her, Jiang Yu immediately fainted.

There was a large patch of blood on the bed and on the ground. Lanna was lying on the ground, her clothes disheveled. Her eyes were staring at the door.

Jiang Yu did not know how long she had been unconscious for before she slowly opened her eyes.

Beside the bed was an anxious-looking Mo Long and sister Xia.

"What's wrong?" Jiang Yu's head was still dizzy and she was still in pain.

"Lanna is dead." Mo Long's heart ached as he said, "if I had known this would happen, I would have sent people to follow you. When I received the call, I thought you were in trouble."

His eyes were red, and he seemed to be crying.

Jiang Yu was stunned. She never thought that Mo Long would actually have such a side to him.

"I'm fine," she consoled. I didn't expect this to happen, so don't blame yourself. I should have known that something would happen to Lanna, but I didn't expect it to happen so soon."

"Aiya, Jiang Yu, you really scared me to death!" Sister Xia rebuked. Her eyes were already swollen, and it was obvious that she had really cried. "You, why didn't you tell me you were coming here!"

"I'm fine, sister Xia. Don't worry." Jiang Yu comforted her. "I've been worried about Lanna since yesterday. I've been feeling uneasy, so I thought of coming to see her before work today. I just didn't expect this to happen. Oh right, how's Lanna's body?"

"The body has already been carried away." Mo Long said, "but after a rough examination by the doctor, most of Lanna's organs have been removed."

Jiang Yu fell silent.

Sister Xia, on the other hand, was quite shocked. "Aiyo, my God. He killed someone and even took away their organs? Wasn't the murderer too inhumane? Why didn't you even leave her corpse intact?"

Jiang Yu said, "He took the organs after killing her because he wanted to sell the organs. However, it's illegal to traffick human organs, so if they want to carry out this transaction, they can only do it in the black market."

"Black market?" Sister Xia was confused. "Jiang Yu, what are you talking about?"

However, Mo Long knew what Jiang Yu meant.

"Yu 'er, do you mean that it's true that the Chi family has organized a black market?"

"More than 90%," Jiang Yu said as she nodded her head.

The Chi family of Qingcheng had been on the decline in recent years. The latest news was that they had some connections with the black market. After this incident, Lanna was killed and her organs were taken away. Also, Lanna had connections with the Chi family, so the news that the Chi family had organized a black market was 90% true.

Sister Xia was listening at the side in confusion, but she had also realized the seriousness of the matter, so she had not said anything.

Mo Long muttered, "but the Chi family has been in a state of retirement for the past few years. Even if it was exposed that they were related to the black market, they didn't come forward to explain." "Therefore, it's going to be very difficult to get any information about the Chi family."

Moreover, their only link of contact-Lanna-had already left this world completely. It would be even more difficult to find out more about the Chi family.
