

Older Man 141

Chapter 141: Hit Someone

Jiang Ran said, "Actually, my sister is also very hard-working. Don't laugh at her."

A few classmates immediately pursed their lips and smiled. "Jiang Ran, you're too good to your sister. You're still speaking up for her at this time."

"Yeah, she can't be compared to you at all. You're going to get engaged to Sun You soon, right?"

"With the movie queen as a comparison, Jiang Yu is nothing. She'll probably be abandoned soon."

"What kind of family is the Mo Family? What kind of woman can't they marry? Why would they take a fancy to her?"

"However, I heard that Mo Long's legs are inconvenient and he has to sit in a wheelchair for a long time. From this perspective, he might not be able to marry a good wife at all. He is a perfect match for Jiang Yu."

On the other side, Jiang Ran's good friend was talking enthusiastically.

Jiang Yu suddenly walked over with big strides.

"Jiang Yu, why are you looking at us like that?" The female student who spoke ill of Jiang Yu immediately pursed her lips and smiled, not taking her seriously at all.

But very quickly, Jiang Yu directly reached out and grabbed the her wrist. Then, before the she could react, there was a crack.

The female student immediately wailed.

"Ah!"

"Jiang Yu hit me."

A few students immediately cried out in surprise.

No one had expected that Jiang Yu, who had been silently enduring the rumors, would suddenly make a move at this time. Moreover, she was so violent.

She had actually broken a bone in her hand.

It was painful to watch.

But Jiang Yu's eyes flashed with a chilling coldness. "What did you say just now?"

Jiang Yu did not let go of the person who spoke ill of her. She grabbed the other party's collar and her gaze was cold and merciless.

For a moment, everyone was shocked by Jiang Yu's appearance.

The female student immediately said in horror, "I... I..."

"Next time, if I hear you speak ill of Mo Long again, you won't your hand anymore," Jiang Yu said.

Only then did she let go of that person.

Jiang Ran's expression also changed drastically. "Jiang Yu, what are you doing?"

"Jiang Yu, you attacked a classmate. I'm going to tell the teacher and punish you," The other students reacted and immediately said.

Jiang Yu smiled. "Okay, go and call the teacher over. Let everyone know what that person said just now. Let's see if she can still survive in this school."

A few of the students felt a chill down their spine when they thought about how that student had actually said bad things about Mo Long.

Everyone knew the power of the Mo family.

No matter what, the person in charge of the Mo family would not allow others to say bad things behind their backs.

If that person heard this...

The injured student could only look at Jiang Yu with resentment, but she was also extremely afraid.

For a moment, no one dared to say anything else.

On the other side, Jiang Yu was just about to turn around and leave.

Not far away, Wei Juan walked over.

Wei Juan's face was beaming. She had heard that Jiang Ran's grades in class eight were very good, so it was really a great honor for her to be Jiang Ran's parent today.

"Ran Ran, your mother is here!"

"That's right, your mother is here to be your judge, right?"

The students immediately looked at Jiang Yu with ridicule.

Wei Juan walked over and said to Jiang Yu, "Yu'er, did you invite your uncle to be your judge?"

Jiang Yu shook his head and Wei Juan sighed. "Then do as you see fit. I can't be in two places at once."

After saying that, Wei Juan walked over to Jiang Ran.

"Ran Ran, let's go. where is the classroom for your exam?"

"If you get first place in your class this time, I'll reward you properly."

At this moment, there was a commotion not far away.

A few girls were screaming at the school gate.

"He is too good-looking, isn't he?"

“Oh my god, is this the person in charge of the Mo family?”

“Ah ah, I feel like I’m in love.”

In the crowd, a tall and straight figure slowly walked over.

It was Mo Long and Teng Yi.

Not only the students, but even the parents of the students wanted to curry favor with Mo Long.

Many people followed behind Mo Long, so it seemed like there was an entire team walking over.

Chapter 142: Always Been Biased

Wei Juan looked at the commotion over there and was immediately shocked.

It was actually Mr. Mo...

The principal was following by Mr. Mo’s side, nodding and bowing. “Why are you here in person? The school didn’t even prepare properly. It’s really a slight. The school still has an exam today, so it’s a bit messy.”

The principal was sweating profusely, afraid that someone who was blind would offend Mo Long.

After all, Mo Long was the school’s biggest donor.

If there was anything that Mo Long was not satisfied with the principal, with just a word from Mo Long, the school board would immediately change to another principal.

What made the principal feel strange was that Mo Long was actually walking towards the performing arts department’s exam class.

He was immediately shocked. “Mr. Mo, there are too many people over there. You should go to the reception room...”

Teng Yi said, “Our Sir is here to be the judge for a student.”

“What?” The principal suddenly understood.

Mo Long actually came over personally to be the judge for a student. For a moment, the principal subconsciously looked at Jiang Yu who was standing not far away.

He immediately understood that this was the god that Jiang Yu had invited over!

“Mr. Mo, why are you here?” Wei Juan took a step forward and hurriedly greeted Mo Long with a smile.

However, Mo Long looked at her coldly and said, “Mrs. Jiang, your Jiang family has always been biased. You still only care about one person and not the other. I have no choice but to come here personally.”

Wei Juan’s flattering smile suddenly froze.

She didn’t expect Mo Long to treat Jiang Yu so well.

Moreover, he was giving her a hard time because of Jiang Yu.

Originally, Jiang Hai was so busy these few days because of Jiang Yu's relationship with Mo Long. That was why many businesses came to him voluntarily.

Jiang Hai even told Wei Juan that if Wei Juan couldn't go to Jiang Yu's place, she must arrange for Jiang Guo to come over and be Jiang Yu's judge.

However, Wei Juan didn't take it to heart. She just wanted to see Jiang Yu make a fool of herself.

However, in front of so many people, she couldn't let everyone know that Mo Long's attitude toward the Jiang family wasn't good.

"Mr. Mo, you've misunderstood. Jiang Yu is also my daughter. My heart aches for her too. I'll call her uncle over immediately."

Wei Juan pretended to say that and quickly took out her phone.

On the other side, Jiang Yu said, "No need. I already have Mr. Mo..."

Wei Juan hurriedly smiled, her face almost turning stiff.

On the principal's side, sweat was about to drip down.

This Jiang family was too insensible. They actually didn't send anyone, and president Mo had to personally make this trip.

Many parents of the students immediately understood what was going on when they saw Mo Long's attitude towards Wei Juan.

Very quickly, someone in the parents' group said that Jiang Yu wasn't favored by the Jiang family and had angered Mo Long.

Many of these parents' group were doing well in the business circle.

This news was spread out in a short time.

On the other side.

Jiang Hai was busy in the branch office.

The company had been exceptionally smooth these few days. Many capitalists had taken the initiative to invest in the Jiang family's company.

This caused Jiang Hai to wake up from his dream with a smile.

This was all thanks to the various scandals between Jiang Yu and Mo Long.

However, all of a sudden, the company received a lot of news that they were going to withdraw their investment.

Jiang Hai was dumbfounded. "How can that be? Didn't we have a good discussion earlier?"

"You'll have to ask your wife about this."

After saying that, the other party hung up the phone.

Jiang Hai was stunned for a moment and quickly called Wei Juan. "What did you do to me?"

"What? Jiang Yu has no one to attend her parent-teacher conference. Mo Long went there personally! How did you do it? Didn't I ask you to arrange for someone else?"

Jiang Hai was not angered to death.

It was really more of a failure than a success.

"I don't care. Go to class one now and apologize."

"You don't have to care about Ran Ran anymore!"

Jiang Hai said in exasperation.

So many investors had withdrawn their capital, which was a lot of money.

At this moment, Jiang Hai really regretted not treating Jiang Yu better.

That was why such a big thing had happened.

Chapter 143: Make amends

The exam was about to begin.

Jiang Ran was about to bring Wei Juan to the exam room when Wei Juan hung up the phone. She walked over and said, "Ran Ran, tell your teacher that I'll come over later."

Jiang Ran's expression changed. "The exam is about to start. Where are you going now?"

The other students looked at Jiang Ran strangely.

Wei Juan said, "You go in first. I'm going to class one for a while."

Originally, Jiang Ran had been bragging in class that no one was going to Jiang Yu's side. Now, Wei Juan was actually rushing over to Jiang Yu's side.

For a moment, many students looked at Jiang Ran meaningfully.

Jiang Ran suddenly felt her face burn.

Wei Juan did not explain anything and left in a hurry.

In the exam room of class eight.

The teacher was confirming the parents' names, but when they arrived at Jiang Ran's family, they did not see anyone.

The teacher immediately called Jiang Ran over and asked, "Jiang Ran, where's your parents?"

Jiang Ran's face turned red. "Teacher, my mother might have gone to the toilet."

The teacher frowned. "But the exam is about to start. Your parents really don't know how to arrange their time."

After saying that, the teacher let Jiang Ran go out to prepare.

The students waited outside and came in one by one to perform.

Jiang Ran's expression was very ugly. After she went out, the other students all looked at her with interest.

"She even said that everyone in the family dotes on her. I think she's bragging." Some students immediately sneered.

Jiang Ran: "..."

At the same time in the exam room of class one, a few parents had already arrived.

However, everyone's eyes were fixed on the door. Because they already knew that Mo Long would come to this class.

Usually, many people who did business could not even see Mo Long. Now that they could actually sit together with him. Everyone was instantly very excited.

Very soon, a tall and straight figure appeared.

Mo Long walked over to this side. The chair in the middle in front of the parents was empty. Everyone was very aware that this seat was reserved for Mo Long.

Mo Long walked over.

Feeling the burning gazes of the other parents, Mo Long crossed his legs and sat lazily and casually.

"President Mo, my daughter and Jiang Yu are good friends!"

"My daughter is the same. She said that Jiang Yu is her role model and that she studies very seriously every day."

The parents immediately started to flatter Mo Long.

Teng Yi stood beside Mo Long and looked at the crowd. He thought to himself that no matter how Jiang Yu performed, she would probably get an extremely high score.

The only person who behaved coldly was Dai Zhu's father.

President Dai frowned but did not try to curry favor with Mo Long.

After all, Dai Zhu was his precious daughter. Previously, Dai Zhu had told him that he had to give Jiang Yu the lowest score possible.

President Dai felt that even if he tried to flatter Mo Long, he might not be able to get the his favor. He might as well help his daughter.

At this moment, Wei Juan walked in.

Wei Juan's heart skipped a beat when she saw Mo Long being pampered by so many stars. She could clearly feel the difference in their statuses.

Jiang Hai was rushing over. Moreover, he wanted her to apologize to Mo Long because Jiang Yu's parents didn't come.

Wei Juan took a deep breath and smiled. "Mr. Mo, my husband is rushing over. He also thinks that Jiang Yu's exam is the most important. He just couldn't make it in time because he couldn't get away at the last minute."

Mo Long heard this and looked at Wei Juan.

Wei Juan continued, "I didn't arrange this well. I originally thought that if he couldn't make it in time, I would still come over to Jiang Yu's side. You see..."

Mo Long nodded. "Since you are also here to be Jiang Yu's judge, you can stand aside and watch."

"Okay, okay, okay.." How would Wei Juan dare to say no? She hurriedly stood aside and didn't even dare to sit on the chair.

Chapter 144: Fans List

After the teacher came in, he carefully confirmed the names of the students' parents.

When he came into contact with Mo Long, the teacher did not even dare to breathe heavily.

Who would have thought that such a powerful figure would be invited to a small exam.

At class eight, Jiang Ran's face was completely green.

The teacher had already come twice to confirm whether Jiang Ran's parents would come or not?

Jiang Ran could not even come up with a reason.

In the end, Wei Juan actually sent a message over, indicating that she could not come over.

For a time, Jiang Ran was the only exception in the entire class. She could not even invite a single parent.

The teacher was also very helpless. He thought that Jiang Ran's family did not attach much importance to this exam, so he said a few words before leaving.

Jiang Ran was already on the verge of tears.

The classmate who was on good terms with Jiang Ran quickly said, "Ran Ran, don't worry. Even if your parents aren't here, you can still get good grades."

"Yeah, when you get first place in the class, you will be the most glorious person."

Jiang Ran took a deep breath and tried to calm down her current mood.

She could not panic, or else she would not perform well in the exam later.

She had to concentrate.

Meanwhile, the students of class one.

“Dai Zhu, you will definitely get first place in the grade this time.”

“Yeah, once Jiang Yu doesn’t get into the top ten of the grade, she will be kicked out of class one!”

“This isn’t a place where you can get respect by relying on your connections.”

“Yeah, we only respect those who have real capabilities. Jiang Yu’s methods won’t work on us.”

A few of the best actress fans spoke righteously. Their idols often said that they had to rely on their abilities to speak, so the fans had always adhered to this point.

This was why they were extremely disgusted with Jiang Yu who had entered class one by relying on her connections.

“Jiang Yu, remember what you said. When the results are out, don’t go back on your words!”

Jiang Yu faced the provocative gazes of those few people and said, “This sentence is a gift from me to all of you. Prepare to apologize to me.”

Jiang Yu took out a name list and the names written on it were all Li Yue’s fans.

The few of them burst into laughter when they saw how well prepared Jiang Yu was. “You wish.”

“You must be blindly confident in yourself.”

Jiang Yu smiled noncommittally. Wouldn’t it be more satisfying to slap them in the face with her strength?

The examination proceeded smoothly.

One by one, the students entered the examination room and began to perform.

As the examination was separated, no one knew how the other students performed.

Dai Zhu came out with a relaxed smile on her face.

She was very sure that her performance this time was very stable. She was either first or second in the grade.

As for Jiang Yu...

Dai Zhu looked at Jiang Yu. She had already instructed her father to give Jiang Yu a low score.

No matter what, Jiang Yu would never have a chance to enter the top ten of the grade.

Dai Zhu sneered as a sense of satisfaction for revenge flashed through her heart.

When Jiang Yu waited for the results to be announce and found out she was actually ranked at the bottom of the grade, this face slap would definitely make Jiang Yu unable to raise her head in the future.

The long exam finally ended.

The parents inside immediately gave their scores on the spot.

The scores were immediately recorded.

Every parent had a scoring app in their phone. As long as they pressed the button, they could give their scores to the examinees.

The exam finally ended.

Outside the class, Jiang Hai rushed over, but because the exam had already started, he didn't dare to come in.

Wei Juan also went out to welcome him, indicating that president Mo should have calmed down. As long as the two of them didn't go to Jiang Ran's place, they should be able to pass this test.

Jiang Hai heaved a sigh of relief.

Just then, a phone call came.

"Mom, I got first place in the class!" On the other side, Jiang Ran said excitedly, but at the same time, she complained, "Why didn't you come over? Is it because Jiang Yu clung to you and refused to let you leave? I was so embarrassed just now."

Wei Juan immediately smiled, "What? You got first place in the class? That's great."

Jiang Ran said with a smile, "With this result, I have a chance to enter class one."

Chapter 145: First Place

Jiang Hai and Wei Juan looked at each other and felt very gratified.

Wei Juan also regretted not witnessing her daughter's glorious moment.

If she were in class eight, countless parents would throw envious looks at her.

At the same time, in class one, the teacher was announcing the final result.

"First place, Jiang Yu!"

Jiang Hai and Wei Juan were stunned for a moment before they hurriedly walked into class one's exam class.

A few parents were complimenting Mo Long. "Miss Jiang's performance was really good!"

"It was indeed the best performance I've ever seen."

Even Dai Zhu's father, director Dai, said sincerely, "I didn't expect someone to be able to act so well. She's really too talented."

Wei Juan and Jiang Hai went over. "What? Who got first place?"

This was the first place of class one.

If they weren't wrong, the first place of class one would be the first place of the grade.

How could Jiang Yu get such a high score?

Wei Juan had left for a while when Jiang Hai arrived, so she had missed Jiang Yu's performance.

"Director Jiang, your daughter got first place in the grade. What's wrong? Are you happy now?"

"Yeah, if I had a daughter like her, I would have woken up from my dream with a smile."

Jiang Hai came back to his senses and his face immediately turned red. "Our Yu'er works very hard at everything. I have always been very relieved."

Mo Long looked at Jiang Hai's smiling face and instantly, the little bit of hostility he had earlier dissipated a lot. He did not make things difficult for Jiang Hai anymore.

Outside, when Dai Zhu heard that the first place was actually Jiang Yu. She immediately shook her head. "Impossible."

Dai Zhu immediately rushed into the class. "The grading system must be wrong. Teacher, I want to see Jiang Yu's score."

The teacher said, "It can't be wrong. The teacher has checked it."

However, Dai Zhu insisted, "I want to see."

The teacher thought that Dai Zhu could not accept the fact that she had been overtaken by Jiang Yu, so she took out her phone and said, "Take a look."

Dai Zhu took a look at the score. Every single parent gave a high score.

When she saw that her father had given Jiang Yu a full score, Dai Zhu's expression changed, she said excitedly to the teacher, "Teacher, the system really made a mistake. My father would never give Jiang Yu such a high score."

Jiang Yu walked in and heard what Dai Zhu said. However, she raised her eyebrows and didn't say anything. She just walked in.

Dai Zhu found her father in the crowd.

Director Dai walked up with a serious expression, "Zhu Zhu, I did give that score."

"Dad, how could you..."

Dai Zhu finally reacted. In the crowd, Mo Long's figure stood alone.

Everyone must have given her high marks on purpose to curry favor with Mo Long.

It was too despicable. It was clearly a fair and impartial exam, but just because Jiang Yu had a strong background, she was given such high marks. It allowed a person with average acting skills to get first place in the grade.

The teacher announced, "Since the scoring system did not make any mistakes, the first place in the grade this year is Jiang Yu."

Everyone started clapping.

The students outside were also in disbelief.

Jiang Yu looked at Dai Zhu and said, "You should fulfilled your promise now, right?"

After saying that, Jiang Yu walked out and looked at the students outside.

She took out a piece of paper with the students' names written on it.

The faces of the few movie queen's fans instantly darkened.

Their parents were all present, and Jiang Yu actually wanted them to apologize to her at this time.

"What? You can't afford to lose?"

Jiang Yu raised her eyebrows and looked at them.

The faces of those students alternated between green and white. They were so embarrassed that they were flustered. "Can we change the time?"

"Yeah, we can do it tomorrow."

However, Jiang Yu shook her head and said mercilessly, "If I lose, will you let me choose a good day to apologize?"

Certainly not.

Chapter 146: The Person Who Saved Her Life

The faces of the movie queen's fans turned pale. One of the students quickly stood up and bowed to Jiang Yu before the parents came out to see her. "Jiang Yu, I'm sorry. It was my fault. I shouldn't have looked down on you. I apologize to you."

The other students quickly followed suit and quickly apologized to Jiang Yu.

They couldn't possibly be labeled as not fulfilling their promises even if they lost a bet in the future.

Moreover, it wasn't just one person who lost. After all, there were so many people who lost their face collectively, so she could accept it.

Dai Zhu walked out and saw the other students bending over to apologize to Jiang Yu.

In the end, only Dai Zhu was left looking at Jiang Yu unwillingly.

Jiang Yu then turned to look at Dai Zhu. "Dai Zhu, it's your turn."

Dai Zhu gritted her teeth and said unwillingly, "This isn't fair!"

Jiang Yu smiled and said, "Why? Are you questioning the other parents? This includes your father."

At that moment, director Dai walked out.

"Jiang Yu's performance was indeed the best."

When he saw Jiang Yu enter the examination room, he recognized that Jiang Yu was the person who had saved him back then. He was instantly very excited.

Jiang Yu was his savior.

Although Dai Zhu had asked him to give her a low score, director Dai had decided to watch Jiang Yu's performance and give her a score based on her actual level.

However, he had not expected Jiang Yu's performance to be so eye-catching.

After getting used to the performance of the other students, Jiang Yu's every move was extremely natural, as if she had been directly brought into the role.

Everyone present sincerely felt that Jiang Yu was very likely to be the champion of this examination.

Hence, they subconsciously gave the highest score.

This was not because Mo Long was sitting at the side, but because Jiang Yu obtained it by herself.

Dai Zhu shouted, "Dad, why are you speaking up for her? Could it be that you are also..."

Just like the other parents inside, were they all trying to flatter Mo Long?

However, Director Dai said, "Zhu Zhu, do you still remember that I was saved by someone a few days ago? That person was Jiang Yu. Do you still want to target Jiang Yu? I don't care if you chase after celebrities, but is that celebrity more important than your dad's Life?"

Dai Zhu looked at Jiang Yu in a daze.

"What? She's the person who treated you with acupuncture?"

Mo Long walked out and said, "That's right. We happened to pass by that day and saved Mr. Dai."

Dai Zhu felt her mind was in a mess.

So Jiang Yu was the person who saved her father with a silver needle that day.

She gritted her teeth and looked at Jiang Yu. Immediately, she said, "Jiang Yu, I apologize for being rude to you previously."

After saying that, Dai Zhu, who had always been arrogant, bowed to Jiang Yu.

The other students were stunned.

As a result, all the fans of the movie queen bowed to Jiang Yu.

At the same time, the results of today's exam were posted on the school's website.

Jiang Yu, who was not favored by others, had actually gotten first place in the grade all of a sudden.

Although many of the students had guessed that there was some kind of trickery behind this, due to Mo Long's authority, they did not dare to question this result.

At the same time, another post was released.

The picture was of Dai Zhu apologizing to Jiang Yu with her head lowered. On it was written that Jiang Yu had once saved Dai Zhu's father.

"What? Jiang Yu used a silver needle to save someone?"

"When did Jiang Yu become so good at medicine?"

"I heard that every time Director Dai's illness flared up, even the most authoritative doctor in the Chinese medical hospital could only treat him for an hour before he could control it. However, it seems that Jiang Yu only used a simple acupuncture treatment and Director Dai became fine."

"It can't be a coincidence, right? In fact, acupuncture and moxibustion have no effect at all. It's just that the time when the illness flared up was relatively short."

"Who knows?"

Chapter 147: Agree To One Condition

When Dai Zhu saw that Jiang Yu was about to leave, she immediately walked over and asked, "Jiang Yu, can you tell me about the acupuncture technique you used last time?"

Jiang Yu was walking out with Mo Long, and the other parents subconsciously followed behind her.

Dai Zhu hurriedly stood in front of Jiang Yu, afraid that her father would suffer again the next time his illness flared up.

"I'm not free," Jiang Yu said lightly. Although Dai Zhu had just apologized to her, it didn't mean that she had to help her.

After saying that, Jiang Yu walked out of the school gate.

A luxurious Maybach was parked outside. Just as Jiang Yu was about to open the door, a figure came over.

Dai Zhu opened the car door for Jiang Yu with a serious look on her face. "Jiang Yu, I'll wait for you when you're free."

The other students who followed her out were all dumbfounded.

They did not expect that Dai Zhu, who had always been at odds with Jiang Yu, would actually fawn over her now.

For the sake of her father's illness, Dai Zhu was willing to go all out.

Jiang Yu pursed her lips slightly and did not say anything else as she got into the car.

The next day.

When Jiang Yu returned to school, she noticed that many people were paying attention to her.

"She actually got first place in the grade!"

“This is a complete reversal.”

“Oh my God, I heard that even the original first place in the grade had to bow down to her.”

Yesterday, the news of Jiang Yu getting class one movie queen fans to apologize to her had spread throughout the school.

Along the way, wherever Jiang Yu went, the students would stop and start discussing her.

This reversal was too big.

When Jiang Yu arrived in class one, the lively class one immediately quieted down.

Dai Zhu was sitting beside Jiang Yu. When she saw Jiang Yu, she immediately took out a large bag of snacks.

“Jiang Yu, you’re here. I don’t know what you like to eat, so I bought some of everything!”

“There’s also chocolate, cake, and milk here. What do you like to eat?”

Jiang Yu looked at the big bag that Dai Zhu took out and was speechless.

This was too exaggerated.

Dai Zhu saw that Jiang Yu didn’t move and immediately said anxiously, “Then what do you like to eat? I’ll buy it right away?”

Jiang Yu paused and said, “It’s not impossible for me to help you, but you have to agree to one condition.”

Dai Zhu’s eyes lit up. She was willing to agree to even ten conditions, let alone one.

Hence, she nodded her head desperately.

Jiang Yu said, “Give me your wechat account.”

Dai Zhu immediately added Jiang Yu’s wechat account and Jiang Yu invited Dai Zhu to a group chat.

Dai Zhu took a closer look and realized it was a group chat for Jiang Yu’s fan club.

While Dai Zhu was still in a daze, she saw Jiang Yu say to the group leader, “From now on, this person will be a core member of the fan club.”

Immediately, group leader Tian Guo jumped out, “No way, but this person is a fan of the movie queen.”

She only saw that Dai Zhu’s wechat name was: Yueyue’s number one fan

Dai Zhu said tactfully, “I’ll change my wechat name immediately.”

Very quickly, Dai Zhu changed her wechat name to: “Yuyu’s number one fan.”

Dai Zhu was very aware.

She said in the group chat, “From now on, I’ll be a loyal fan of Jiang Yu!”

Tian Guo unexpectedly sent a private message to Jiang Yu. "Why did you poach the number one fan of the movie queen?"

Jiang Yu replied, "Dai Zhu's ability to organize groups is better. Our support group lacks such talent."

Tian Guo's side was already in a mess. "So the person just now was Dai Zhu? You actually poached Dai Zhu over?"

Dai Zhu had already started to greet the fans in the group and was extremely busy.

At this moment, a voice suddenly came from outside the door. "Hello, everyone. I've just been promoted to class one. My name is Jiang Ran."

Jiang Yu paused and subconsciously looked outside the door.. As expected, she saw Jiang Ran greeting everyone with a smile on her face.

Chapter 148: Jiang Ran Also Came To Class One

When the other students saw Jiang Ran arrive in their class, they all subconsciously looked at Jiang Yu.

This time, some of the students' grades dropped by 40 places.

Jiang Ran happened to be in 40th place, so she was promoted to class one.

In fact, the reason why Jiang Ran always got first place in class eight was because she secretly gave some benefits to the teacher.

Fortunately, no one questioned her. After all, her acting was not too bad. She just asked the teacher to give her more points.

"Where is my seat?" Jiang Ran asked a classmate.

The classmate casually pointed to an empty seat.

Jiang Ran smiled and walked over. At the same time, she was very excited.

She walked over from class eight under the eyes of thousands of people.

She didn't know how many people were envious of her for being able to squeeze into class one.

But soon, Jiang Ran couldn't smile anymore because the discussions of the students behind her could be heard.

"One got first place in the class, and the other got last place in the class. This is too dramatic."

"I heard that the two of them are even twin sisters. The gap is too big."

Jiang Ran's expression darkened. She placed her backpack on the table and looked at Jiang Yu with a cold gaze.

Jiang Yu was sitting there with a big bag of snacks in front of her. She was casually eating a bag.

Dai Zhu was sitting at the side, busy typing with her head lowered.

Jiang Ran frowned. She knew that Dai Zhu and Jiang Yu were not on good terms. Why were the two of them safe and sound now?

Jiang Ran lowered her head and took out her phone as well. A trace of resentment flashed in her eyes.

She did not believe that Jiang Yu's test results were based on her own real ability.

It must be because of Mo Long's face that those parents gave her high marks.

Since no one raised any doubts, then she would bring it up herself.

After thinking for a while, Jiang Ran opened the school forum and posted an anonymous post.

"This time, the grade one is too exaggerated."

Everyone knew that the class one was the best in all the art classes before they went to university.

How could Jiang Yu, who came from the countryside, catch up to these people so quickly?

Shouldn't someone stand up and question it? Since no one stood up, then I will stand up.

Let me make it clear that I have no enmity with Jiang Yu. I just don't like the fact that exams can be unfair.

In fact, on the day of the exam, the other parents only gave high marks for the sake of the person behind Jiang Yu.

As for what Jiang Yu's performance was like, no one else knew.

I felt that it was necessary to release Jiang Yu's exam video so that everyone could see what kind of level she was at? Was she worthy of being first in the grade?

After this post was posted, Jiang Ran pursed her lips. A hint of pride flashed in her eyes.

Very soon, someone followed the post and expressed that they also felt that there was something wrong with Jiang Yu's score.

There was no reason for her to get such a high score.

Everyone started to follow the post and expressed that they wanted to release Jiang Yu's test video.

At the same time.

Dai Zhu was chatting happily in the fan group. She had already talked about how to build a fan group, how to maintain Jiang Yu's image on a daily basis, and how to help promote her.

But suddenly, someone in the group posted a post: "Oh no, Jiang Yu has been slandered."

Dai Zhu immediately clicked on it.

She saw that someone was actually questioning Jiang Yu's academic results.

At this moment, someone was already comparing Jiang Yu to Dai Zhu.

It meant that Dai Zhu's acting skills were completely superior to Jiang Yu's, and it was impossible for her to lose to her.

Seeing this, Dai Zhu felt a chill down her spine and hurriedly posted a post. She said without conscience, "I am Dai Zhu. I am sure that Jiang Yu's strength is definitely above mine. I am completely subservient to her. In any case, I am completely convinced of the ranking this time!"

Dai Zhu wished she could praise Jiang Yu from head to toe to prove her innocence.

What a joke. She was trying to curry favor with Jiang Yu and was even thinking of asking Jiang Yu to help treat her father's illness.

The revolution hasn't even succeeded yet.. These people mustn't come and spoil it.

Chapter 149: Video Clarification

Jiang Ran glared at Dai Zhu and snorted. She lowered her head and continued to stir up everyone's emotions.

Anyway, no one found out what she was doing with her phone.

Jiang Ran sneered and quickly made the matter worse.

"Who is the person who posted the anonymous post? How dare he spread rumors!" Dai Zhu shouted in class one. "If I find this person, I will teach him a lesson. How dare he slander my goddess?"

A few people who were on good terms with Dai Zhu said in surprise, "Zhu Zhu, when did Jiang Yu become your goddess? Shouldn't your goddess be Li Yue?"

The mention of Li Yue made Dai Zhu's heart ache. But for her father's sake, Dai Zhu quickly said, "What nonsense are you talking about? I'm no longer a fan in Li Yue's fan group. Now, I only follow Jiang Yu."

Jiang Yu also picked up her phone. When she saw the anonymous post, she narrowed her eyes. But as she thought of something, Jiang Yu didn't do anything.

Instead, she sat there leisurely and continued to munch on sunflower seeds. She wanted to see what tricks the person behind her had up his sleeves.

At the same time in the principal's office, many teachers had reported the latest news to the principal. "Principal, there are people questioning the results of the performance department's examination. They have requested for Jiang Yu's examination video to be released."

When the principal heard the name Jiang Yu, he immediately became nervous. "What? Who is so blind to actually dare to provoke this person?"

"It's an anonymous post from the school. We don't know who it came from."

The principal wiped the sweat off his forehead. "Hurry up and delete this post. How can you create rumors and make a statement? If anyone dares to create rumors again, they will be penalized after being investigated."

“Principal, what about the video of Jiang Yu’s performance?”

The principal thought for a moment and said, “I’ll ask for permission.”

...

On the forum, the anonymous post from earlier was deleted.

Jiang Ran was stunned for a moment and her chest was filled with anger. No one in the school was paying attention to her.

Jiang Ran didn’t take the school’s warning seriously. No one knew it was her anyway.

Jiang Ran opened another post, explaining the school’s intention to cover up for Jiang Yu, deliberately stirring up the emotions of the onlookers.

Soon, the students followed the trend and discussed with dissatisfaction.

“This background is too strong. We only asked to see the video. Why was that post deleted?”

“How can she deny she didn’t get first place because of her background.”

At this moment, someone suddenly said, “The school’s official account has released a new news.”

On the other side, after the principal obtained Mr. Mo Long’s approval, he released all the first grade exam videos according to the rankings.

The first video was Jiang Yu’s.

The students clicked on it immediately.

Those who wanted to scold Jiang Yu were speechless when they saw the content.

They didn’t expect Jiang Yu’s performance to be so natural.

Jiang Yu’s performance was so exquisite that it was comparable to the movie queen, Li Yue.

“D * mn, this is too amazing.”

“You told me that this is a freshman and that she is the best actress. I believe it.”

“Who spread the rumor that Jiang Yu is a rookie with no real ability? If this is called having no ability then no one has the ability.”

“With this level of strength, any movie can become popular.”

The public opinion on the forum instantly changed.

Jiang Ran was dumbfounded.

Dai Zhu was also dumbfounded when she saw Jiang Yu’s performance.

But at this moment, Jiang Yu gave Jiang Ran a meaningful glance. She had actually discovered that since Jiang Ran started playing with her phone, that anonymous post had appeared.

The two anonymous posts appeared at the same time that Jiang Ran lowered her head to play with her phone.

Therefore, Jiang Yu was sure that the person who posted the anonymous post was Jiang Ran.

Soon, Jiang Yu lowered her head and started typing.

A new post was posted, "Is this the ability of the student newly promoted class one?"

Chapter 150: Fake Points

On the school forum, a new anonymous post was posted.

In the post was a video of Jiang Ran's exam in Class 8.

Many students shook their heads when they saw Jiang Ran's performance.

"This is too average."

"Her performance is at most 60th or 70th place in the grade. It's impossible for her to get into the top 40!"

"This score is too fake."

Initially, everyone was questioning Jiang Yu's score. However, after seeing Jiang Yu's performance, they felt that she deserved it.

However, it was different on Jiang Ran's side. Jiang Ran was the only one who had been promoted to class one this time. Naturally, many people were jealous.

However, when they saw her performance, it wasn't much better. Some people who had obviously performed better than Jiang Ran were unhappy.

"There must be a conspiracy!"

"This is the person who entered class one by relying on her background."

When Jiang Ran saw that everyone's focus was on her, she immediately broke out in a sweat and guiltily turned off her phone.

She saw that the other students were looking at her with suspicion.

When Dai Zhu saw this post, she was immediately amused.

She knew that Jiang Yu and Jiang Ran were not on good terms, so she stood up immediately and took the initiative to say, "I want to report this situation to the school!"

"Our class can not allow such a weak person to exist."

After saying that, Dai Zhu walked out indignantly.

Jiang Ran quickly pulled Dai Zhu back. "This student, are you mistaken? I really came in by relying on my strength. Those ranked behind me clearly did not perform as well as I did."

Jiang Ran never expected that the video of the exam, which she had asked for, would end up hurting her own foot.

Why did the school release all the students' videos? She thought it was only Jiang Yu's.

Dai Zhu coldly pushed Jiang Ran away. "Whether it's based on strength or not, we'll let the principal decide."

After saying that, Dai Zhu left in large strides.

Jiang Ran's face turned pale. However, Dai Zhu was an existence that she could not afford to provoke. She was so anxious that her entire body was trembling.

However, Jiang Yu smiled and said, "I really have to thank the person who posted the post to uphold the fairness of the exam. Such a spirit is worth advocating."

Jiang Ran looked at Jiang Yu with a defeated expression.

At the same time, in the principal's office.

A teacher came in again. "Principal, a student has requested to re-evaluate the results of a student who entered class one."

The principal's eyes widened. "Are you stupid? Can I touch Jiang Yu?"

The teacher said, "Principal, it's not Jiang Yu. It's another student."

The principal was stunned when he heard that. He then said, "Which student is it? Let me see."

After looking at Jiang Ran's performance and the comments from the crowd, the principal could clearly tell that Jiang Ran indeed did not have the ability to enter class one.

However, wasn't Jiang Ran Jiang Yu's twin sister? It was better to call that person to ask about this matter and see how to deal with it.

Class one.

After Dai Zhu returned, she continued to play with her phone with her head lowered. She started to agitate her fans and promote Jiang Yu's test video, creating the impression that Jiang Yu's acting was very good. No, this time, Dai Zhu sincerely praised Jiang Yu on the internet.

A few of the movie queen fans were at a loss. "Zhu Zhu, why are you promoting Jiang Yu?"

Dai Zhu looked at her classmates. "All of you will follow me. You will all be Jiang Yu's fans in the future."

A few of her classmates looked constipated. "..."

So what if Jiang Yu's acting was good? In their hearts, the best actress was still the best actress.

But who asked them to be good friends with Dai Zhu? In order to continue being friends with Dai Zhu, they could only go against their conscience and promote Jiang Yu everywhere.

Jiang Ran was already extremely anxious. She was thinking of ways to contact Sun Miao and get her to help her think of a way to suppress this matter.

On the other side, Sun Miao replied, "Don't worry. I've already asked my father's secretary to inform the principal to take care of you."

Jiang Ran immediately heaved a sigh of relief.. Just then, a teacher walked into class one. "Jiang Ran, come out with me!"
