

Older Man 1451

Chapter 1451 Moved

Lei Yuan felt that it was inappropriate for her to have such thoughts, and she felt very sorry for Chi Rui, so she quickly shook her head and wanted to throw this thought out of her mind.

However, after she changed into the gown, that thought came back involuntarily.

She originally thought that with Jiang Yu's status, she would definitely choose those luxurious and beautiful gowns. However, the clothes he was wearing were different from those luxurious ones.

The simple black and white combination, coupled with the golden sleeves, matched the temperament of Thunder Garden very well.

It could be seen that Jiang Yu had made her choice carefully.

Jiang Yu rambled on and on again. No matter what she said, she did not look at the expression on Lei Yuan's face.

Lei Yuan watched Jiang Yu do all of this in a daze. It was as if she was in a daze until she looked up at him and asked, "How is it? Not bad, right?"

Lei Yuan's eyes reddened unknowingly. "Why did you buy this for me all of a sudden?" She asked.

Jiang Yu smiled and said matter-of-factly, "Didn't you say yesterday that you yearned for a life in the entertainment industry? Most people in the entertainment industry would wear this kind of clothes. So I have a feeling that you will like it too."

Lei Yuan really liked it, but her personality made her unable to express it. So she stammered for a long time before spitting out two words, "I like it."

“If you like it, wear it. There’s no need to suffer.” Jiang Yu said.

She was wearing pajamas, but in Lei Yuan’s eyes, Jiang Yu was like an angel who had descended from heaven. She was incomparably beautiful.

This was the first time someone had taken her to heart like this.

When she was still a little girl in the Thunder Garden, she liked to tell others about her past ideals and would also cherish those things that she had wanted but never got. However, when Chi Rui heard this, he would only laugh and say, “Useless. What good is there in pursuing to show off in front of the public?”

No matter how many times Lei Yuan said it, the answer she got was always the same. After a long time, she felt bored and stopped talking.

However, yesterday, Lei Yuan did not know what was wrong with him, but he had told Jiang Yu about this. Perhaps it was because they were all girls of the same age, so they resonated with each other.

However, Lei Yuan never thought that Jiang Yu would take her words to heart. He even bought a gown for her.

“This gown is very expensive, right?” Lei Yuan asked.

“It doesn’t matter if it’s expensive or not. It’s fine as long as you like it. If you don’t like it, don’t force yourself.”

“No, no, no, I like it very much!” Lei Yuan hurriedly said, “This is the first time I’ve been taken to heart by someone like this. I’m really touched. I don’t know how to thank you.”

“You don’t have to thank me. We’re both girls. After what you told me yesterday, I knew what you wanted. I don’t think you’ve ever gotten it either, so you’ve always been so regretful and brooding over it.” Jiang Yu said, “If that’s the case, then I’ll just satisfy you.”

This time, Lei Yuan really couldn't hold it in anymore. She sobbed softly and said, "Thank you so much!" He would take care of such a subtle emotion like mine. Actually, rather than thanking you, I should be apologizing to you! I'm not a business partner sent by Chi Rui. I was sent by him to monitor you."

"I knew it a long time ago. When Chu Ran first came, I knew that he was here to spy on me. Since you're here to take over his position, you must be here to monitor me. Although I don't know how much benefits Chi Rui gave you to make you work for him, I think I can give you the same benefits he can give you, right?"

Jiang Yu's words hit the nail on the head.

Lei Yuan hesitated for a long time and said, "My parents passed away early. I've always depended on my brother. Back then, it was my brother who dropped out of school and went to work to pay for my education. Later, my brother got into an accident at the construction site. The contractor only paid tens of thousands of yuan, but it was not enough for my brother to see a doctor. In the end, Mr. Chi Rui gave me a large sum of money. He said that as long as I work for him, he can always provide medical expenses."

Chapter 1452 Try It

Jiang Yu could completely understand that the benefits that Chi Rui gave might not seem like much in the eyes of others, but in the eyes of Lei Yuan, it was a life-saving straw.

"What happened to your brother? Is this illness very difficult to treat?"

Lei Yuan was very sad when he mentioned his younger brother. "My younger brother was at the construction site at that time. He was hit by a falling shelf and injured his leg nerves. He needed constant treatment and rehabilitation training before he could stand up. However, this amount of money is not a small amount to me. I can only rely on Mr. Chi Rui's help."

"Can't stand up?" Jiang Yu pondered for a moment before asking, "Which hospital is your brother in now? Maybe I have a way to save him."

"You have a way to save him?" Lei Yuan looked at Jiang Yu in confusion.

However, the expression on Jiang Yu's face was very firm, and Lei Yuan was willing to believe her.

Although he didn't know what method Jiang Yu was talking about, they were in the hospital after all. The doctors would definitely help and wouldn't just stand by and watch.

Hence, she took Jiang Yu to the hospital.

That hospital was the best hospital in Qingcheng. It seemed that Chi Rui had sent her brother to the best hospital in order to win over Lei Yuan's heart.

Not to mention what he was thinking in his heart, at least he had done enough on the surface.

Lei Yuan took Jiang Yu to her brother's ward and saw a group of people standing together and quarreling.

"My brother is not staying in the VIP ward, so there are other patients in his ward. I'm sorry for disturbing you." Lei Yuan was somewhat apologetic.

However, she had come to this hospital to visit her brother many times. Today was the first time she saw the family members of the patient in the next bed.

Lei Yuan's younger brother, Lei Hao, sat on the bed. Actually, he also felt that the ward was a little noisy, but he could not leave. He could only sit there helplessly and listen to them quarrel over some trivial matters.

"Sis, you're here." When Lei Hao saw Thunder Garden, his face was still filled with surprise. Then, she saw Jiang Yu behind her and was instantly stunned by her face.

"This is Jiang Yu, my good friend. She heard about you, so she came over to take a look. She even said that she had a way to cure your leg." Lei Yuan said.

Lei Hao was still immersed in Jiang Yu's beauty. However, when he heard Lei Yuan's words, he could not help but smile bitterly. "Sister, don't comfort me. I know my own physical condition very well. My legs are crippled. Even if the best doctor came, I'm afraid he wouldn't be able to cure my leg, let alone your friend."

"You must not be discouraged. After all, your attending doctor also said that as long as you treat yourself well and actively participate in rehabilitation training, you will be able to stand up in two years at the earliest." Lei Yuan comforted Lei Hao.

But Lei Hao didn't believe it at all. He just shook his head with a bitter smile and said, "Sis, I know you're doing this for my own good. Those doctors probably don't want me to lose confidence in life because of this. That's why they're comforting me like this. But I know that my leg can't be cured."

Jiang Yu lifted the blanket off Lei Hao's body and looked at his leg. She reached out and pinched it hard. "Do you feel anything?" She asked.

"Fortunately, your injuries are not very serious." With this acupuncture technique, you'll be able to stand up in half an hour," Jiang Yu said as she took out the silver needles from her bag. Then, he took out a few needles and stuck them into the acupuncture points on Lei Hao's legs.

Although Lei Hao felt pain, he still said, "Don't do useless things anymore. My leg can't be saved. I'm afraid I'll have to spend the rest of my life in a wheelchair."

"Don't say such depressing words." Jiang Yu said, "If you really don't believe me, just wait and see. Let's see if you can really stand up in half an hour."

After she said this, Lei Yuan and Lei Hao were a little puzzled. Even the family members of the patient next door stopped arguing and looked over in surprise.

"Can you cure a disease that even doctors can't cure?" A bald middle-aged man asked.

"Try it. What if it can be cured?" Jiang Yu shrugged.

A middle-aged woman with big waves said, "I think you're a liar, right? Don't be deceived by such a person. When the time comes, he will deceive you until you have nothing left. Your brother's leg won't be able to be cured."

Chapter 1453 He Stood Up.

Lei Yuan looked at Jiang Yu and said to the middle-aged woman, "She's not a liar. She's my good friend."

The middle-aged woman was disdainful. She sneered and said, "This is a common trick of a swindler. First, she will build a good relationship with you and become friends with you. Then, she will tell you how powerful she is. As long as you gave her money, she would show you her skills. At that time, you won't be able to suppress your curiosity and give her all the money in your pocket."

Lei Yuan didn't seem to be familiar with dealing with strangers. "My friend doesn't charge money."

"You don't want to take money, and you still dare to let her take a look at your brother's leg? Then your brother's leg definitely can't be cured! She just wants to show off in front of you. She won't charge a single cent. Why would she come and help you treat your brother's leg? I think you should quickly get her to remove those silver needles. Otherwise, when the time comes, your brother's leg will be completely crippled after being pricked by her."

Jiang Yu ignored him. Anyway, she had already encountered situations like this where her medical skills were suspected many times. However, those people would always be slapped in the face.

After the middle-aged woman finished speaking, she realized that no one was paying attention to her. She sat beside the bed resentfully and looked at the old man on the bed. She said, "Dad, you should divide our family's assets. You look like you're lying here for a few days. If you don't divide your assets, then Big Brother will make a lot of money."

"What are you talking about? So what if you're the boss? Are you treating Dad better than me?" The middle-aged woman suddenly stood up. Her movements were so big that even the fruit plate on the bedside table was overturned.

“Ask yourself, are you good to Dad? Dad’s health isn’t good, so I sent him to the hospital.” The middle-aged man retorted.

At this moment, a teenage girl with tears all over her face was kneeling beside the bed. She had been silent all this while, but now she could not listen anymore. She said, “Can you guys stop arguing? The doctor said that Grandpa needed to rest quietly! What are you guys still arguing about?”

It would have been fine if she hadn’t said anything, but the moment she did, the men and women pointed their spears at her. “If it weren’t for you, your parents wouldn’t have died so early! You’re a jinx. You’re the jinx that killed your parents! You’re a jinx. It’s already good enough that we didn’t chase you out, but you’re still throwing a tantrum at us here?”

The little girl did not speak again. She could only keep crying in silence.

The man and the woman continued to argue. After a long time, Jiang Yu yawned and pulled out all the silver needles from Lei Hao’s leg.

“I just took out the silver needles. Don’t be anxious.” Jiang Yu sat by the bed and gently pressed on the acupuncture points on Lei Hao’s legs for a while. Then, she said, “Okay. Try it now. See if you can move.”

Lei Hao was skeptical and tried to move his legs. He did not expect that he could really move them.

“Don’t just try to move. Get out of bed and walk around. You might need external help at first, but once you get used to it, you can walk freely without external help.” Jiang Yu said.

When Lei Yuan heard this, he quickly held onto Lei Hao’s arm and said to him, “Get off the bed and take a walk.”

Lei Hao was also very pleasantly surprised in his heart, so he also tried to get off the bed and walk. He did not expect that with the support of Lei Yuan, he could actually walk.

Although his legs were still heavy and uncomfortable, he was much better than before.

“I really stood up!” Lei Hao shouted in surprise and looked at Jiang Yu with gratitude. “Thank you! If it weren’t for you, I don’t know how long it would have taken me to stand up!”

When the man and woman on the next bed saw Lei Hao stand up, they immediately lost the mood to argue. Instead, their eyes widened and their mouths opened so wide that two eggs could be stuffed in.

“He really stood up?” The woman could not believe it. “The doctor has been treating her for years, but she still hasn’t been cured. You cured her with just a few silver needles?”

The man was also surprised. “You’re really something, you charlatan.”

Chapter 1454 Save My Grandfather

Jiang Yu was still very resistant to the term “charlatan” because it reminded her of Master Jia, who was in prison.

So she said, “This is acupuncture from traditional Chinese medicine. Don’t lump me together with those scammers.”

“What acupuncture? In such a top-notch hospital, what you did was not considered medical skills! Besides, you’re so young. How could you have learned acupuncture? It’s just some superficial treatment. You can cure this person’s leg. I guess you’re lucky, or his injuries aren’t serious. If he was seriously injured, his leg might have been completely destroyed.”

The man said disdainfully.

At this time, the woman and the man were on the same side. Neither of them believed in Jiang Yu’s medical skills. Only the little girl who was crying in front of the hospital bed said to Jiang Yu, “Since you can cure that big brother’s leg, can you help me save my grandfather? My grandfather has been unconscious for a long time. The doctor said that we have to prepare for his funeral. Can you come and save him?"

The man and woman quickly stopped the little girl and said, "Are you crazy? She was a liar. She was lucky to be able to cure that person's leg! You're asking her to save your grandfather now. Aren't you treating your grandfather's life as a joke?"

"But my grandfather has been lying here in a coma for a long time. The doctors can't do anything!" The little girl shouted, "Now that there's finally a chance, how can I not seize this opportunity?"

"But you can't let such a young girl come over to treat your grandfather! If you really want your grandfather to wake up, we can go overseas to find a top doctor. There's no need to find a liar here." The woman said.

Jiang Yu lost all her patience. "I'll say it one last time. I'm not a liar."

She took the remaining silver needles in her bag and walked to the little girl. "Ask all the people in your family to leave. I want to give your grandfather acupuncture."

"I advise you not to make a move." The man reached out to stop Jiang Yu. "The person lying on the hospital bed is my father. If you dare to do anything to him, be careful that I won't be polite to you."

When the woman saw that the man had already said so, she quickly walked over in her high heels and stopped Jiang Yu. "If you dare to do anything to my father, I will call the police immediately and have them take you away!"

"The two of you are blocking me because you don't want me to save him?" Jiang Yu said indifferently, "I saved him because of this little girl. But you guys are blocking me and not letting me attack. Are you guys guilty? Just now, you were standing here saying that you wanted your father to wake up and share the inheritance. But now, there's an opportunity in front of you to wake up your father, and you don't cherish it."

"If you were a proper doctor, I would believe you if you said you could save my father." The man frowned. "But you're not a proper doctor. You can cure a person who has been unconscious for several years with just that bag of silver needles in your hand?”

“I’ll try. Didn’t I just try? Jiang Yu smiled.

“That’s because the young man’s injury is not very serious. The doctor is confident that he can stand up in two or three years!” The man said sternly, “But my father has been in a coma for several years. The doctors are not sure if they can cure him! You’re telling me that you can save him now? If you’re not a liar, then what are you?”

“Stop arguing. My grandfather has been lying in bed for several years! Now that we finally have a chance to save him, you guys are still stopping us. What are you guys thinking?” The little girl couldn’t take it anymore. She stood up and shouted, “Even if she’s a liar, I’ll admit it! As long as it can save my grandfather, I can accept any method!”

“You bastard, you really want to kill your grandfather!” The woman raised her hand and slapped the little girl hard. “Let me tell you, as long as I’m here today, no one can lay a finger on your grandfather! You should get out of here as well. You’re a jinx. There won’t be a place for you in the family in the future!”

The little girl staggered a few steps back from the slap, and blood seeped out of the corner of her mouth. However, she was not afraid. She stared straight at Jiang Yu and said, “I beg you. Please save my grandfather.”

Chapter 1455 Awakening

The young lady’s determined gaze shook Jiang Yu’s heart. She made up her mind that no matter how the two people in front of her tried to stop her, she would help this young lady and wake up her grandfather.

“Why are you begging her? You’re really not embarrassing enough!” The woman was so angry that she wanted to take off her high heels and hit the little girl. “I said no one can touch your grandfather! Get out of here and don’t let me see you again! Otherwise, I’ll beat you up every time I see you!”

“If you really have the ability, then kill me today!” The little girl provoked him with hatred. “If you don’t have the ability, then shut your mouth and let her save my grandfather!”

“Little brat, I think you’ve really grown up. You won’t listen to anything the elders say!” The woman was really angry this time. She took off her high heels, grabbed the girl’s collar, and hit her.

“Don’t hit the child!” Lei Yuan quickly went to stop the woman and then blocked the little girl behind him. “No matter how angry you are, you can’t take it out on the child. You even hit her with your high heels. What if you beat her to death?”

“This is our family’s business. It’s not up to you to interfere!” The woman was so angry that she had lost her rationality. “If you dare to stop me again, I’ll beat you up too!”

Lei Hao couldn’t bear to see Lei Yuan being wronged. Hence, he supported himself on the bed and walked over. He said, “Don’t even think about hitting my sister!”

“Did your family collude?” The woman became even angrier. “You’d better stay away from me! If you provoke me again, I’ll beat you and your sister up!”

As she spoke, she grabbed the little girl’s arm and said as she pulled! “Get the hell out here. You always hide behind others when you encounter trouble!”

She grabbed the little girl, and Lei Yuan was in the middle, blocking her. The scene became very chaotic for a moment. The man couldn’t care less about Jiang Yu at this time and quickly went over to participate in the battlefield.

Hence, the scene became even more chaotic.

Jiang Yu took the opportunity to insert silver needles all over the old man’s body.

The doctors and nurses quickly rushed over and pulled the group of people away. Only then did the man and woman suddenly remember Jiang Yu.

However, when they walked over to take a look, they realized that the old man's body was already covered in silver needles.

"Are you crazy? Didn't I tell you not to touch my dad?!" The woman shouted like she had gone crazy. She grabbed the doctor beside her and said, "Call the police quickly. Someone here wants to kill someone for money!"

Before the doctor could figure out what was going on, Jiang Yu sneered and said, "Your family's relationship is very messy. Your assets might not be clean either. I killed for money? Is it because of your dirty money?"

"Stop talking nonsense. I told you not to touch my dad!" The man was so angry that his saliva flew out. He reached out and was about to take the silver needles out of the old man's body.

Although the doctor was a Western doctor, he had some understanding of acupuncture. He knew that if he took out the silver needle before it was time to remove the needle during the acupuncture process, it was very likely that the person would die.

So he quickly stopped the man and said, "You can't do that. If you take out the silver needles now, your father will really die!"

Jiang Yu was happy to watch the show from the side. She said, "Don't stop him. Let him take out the silver needles. When the person was gone, they would send him to the laboratory and find out that he was the cause of death. At that time, how will he inherit the inheritance?"

The air instantly became quiet. Jiang Yu felt bored and said, "Take out the silver needles in an hour. Your father will wake up in half an hour. I can stay here until your father wakes up."

"What if my father never wakes up?" The man gritted his teeth. "Then pay with your life!"

"If he dies because of me, he should pay with his life." Jiang Yu shrugged. "But if your father wakes up, you and your sister must apologize to me. You must at least bow 90 degrees to show me your sincerity."

“Don’t go too far!”

“Don’t say that I’m going overboard. You’ll know when you see the results.” Jiang Yu did not want to bother with him anymore.

Everyone waited in the ward until an hour later when Jiang Yu removed the silver needles. After waiting for another half an hour, the old man actually slowly opened his eyes.

“Grandpa!” The little girl cried out in surprise and pounced over. “You’re really awake!”

Chapter 1456 Don’t Even Think About Getting A Single Cent

When the man and woman heard this, they walked over and saw that the old man on the bed had indeed opened his eyes. The two of them looked at each other.

“You’re really awake?” The woman asked the man.

The man pointed at the person on the bed and said, “Are you blind? Can’t you see for yourself? Aren’t you awake?”

“She’s been unconscious for years. Don’t tell me she’s going to wake up with just a few silver needles?” The woman couldn’t believe what she said. “This is fake, right? How could he really wake up?”

“I see that you find it hard to accept that your father has woken up.” Jiang Yu stood at the side and crossed her arms. “Anyway, I saved her for you. What about the apology? And he had to bow 90 degrees. There are so many people here watching. If you don’t apologize to me, it won’t be good for your reputation.”

The man took a deep breath. Then, he bowed 90 degrees to Jiang Yu and said, “I’m sorry. I didn’t recognize you just now.”

The woman straightened her back and refused to apologize. It was only when the man pressed down on her neck that she bowed reluctantly. "I'm sorry, okay?"

"I'm not sincere, but it doesn't matter. I can't interfere in your family affairs." After saying that, Jiang Yu went to check on Lei Hao's leg.

The doctor was also extremely shocked by Lei Hao's leg, so he walked to the side to discuss his condition.

The scene on this side was very heartwarming, while the other side was like a palace battle scene. The few of them gathered together and spoke one after another. It was unknown what they were talking about.

Only the little girl knelt in front of the bed and grabbed the old man's hand. She cried and said, "Grandpa, you're finally awake! You've been in a coma for several years, and the doctor said that you can't be saved! Fortunately, a big sister saved you today."

When the old man woke up, all his consciousness had returned. He looked at his granddaughter and smiled. "Don't be afraid. Grandfather has left all his assets to you."

The man and the woman were still arguing when they heard this. Now, they were shocked. They looked at the old man and questioned, "Dad, how could you leave all your assets to her? She's a jinx!"

"She's not a jinx. She's my most obedient granddaughter! A few years ago, you all said that you were busy and refused to come back to see me. It was her who took care of me! How old was she then? But you did better than the two of you elders!" The old man said, "If that's the case, why don't I leave the family property to her and leave it to you?"

"We're your son and daughter! Although she's your granddaughter, if it weren't for her, her parents wouldn't have passed away so early. She's a jinx, a jinx! If you keep her by your side, sooner or later, you will also be cursed to death!" The woman said.

"Don't say such unlucky words! Stop!" The old man shouted. "No matter what she is, she is still my most precious granddaughter! Better than the two of you! I'll only leave these assets to my granddaughter. I've already found a lawyer to draft a will. The two of you won't get a single cent!"

When they heard that the old man had already drafted the will, the man and the woman immediately could not stand still. One of them grabbed the old man's hand and asked sternly, "Where is your lawyer? Tell him to come over and get the will!"

"My grandfather just woke up. Don't be so rough with him, okay?" The little girl tried her best to push the two of them away, but she was pushed to the ground by the man's palm.

"A jinx. Don't talk. You have no right to speak here!"

Jiang Yu was originally discussing Lei Hao's injury with the doctor. Now that she saw such a dramatic scene in the hospital bed next door, she could not help but walk over and say, "Since the lawyer has already drawn up the will, then this family property has nothing to do with you. Why are you so persistent? Anyway, you're not willing to fulfill your obligation to provide for them. Don't you feel guilty after getting this money? If you have the time, you might as well do your own job. That way, you can earn more."

"Grandpa, it was this big sister who saved you." The little girl quickly introduced him to the old man.

When the old man heard this, he reprimanded the woman again. "This is my savior. How can you talk to her like that? Show me some respect!"

Chapter 1457 Will

"Dad, she's a liar!" The woman quickly criticized him. "She stabbed you with silver needles when we weren't paying attention. Fortunately, you're awake. What if you're not? Then what should we do?"

"I took advantage of the chaos to insert silver needles into his body because you didn't allow me to save him. If you didn't stop me, she might have woken up long ago." Jiang Yu said bluntly.

The little girl also spoke up for Jiang Yu. "Grandpa, this big sister's medical skills are really brilliant! The brother next door had an injury on his leg and couldn't stand up for several years. This big sister inserted silver needles into his leg for a while, and that brother was able to stand up!”

“She was lucky. Why are you all speaking up for her? She has nothing to do with our family!” The woman was very dissatisfied. She said to the old man, “Dad, don’t change the topic now. Tell me about the will now. What exactly is going on?”

The old man snorted and said, “It’s what it means literally. I’ve already found a lawyer to draft a will. All my assets belong to my precious granddaughter. It has nothing to do with you. If you’re willing to stay here and take care of me, I won’t chase you away. If you still don’t want to care about me like before, then you can leave now. I definitely won’t ask you to stay.”

“Dad, don’t say that. After all, we’re your children. It’s our duty to take care of you.” The man quickly said as if he was trying to curry favor with her. He glared at the woman, signaling her to stop talking.

However, the old man did not seem to appreciate it. He did not even look at his children. Instead, he looked at his granddaughter lovingly and said, “No matter what you say, it’s useless. Go get my phone. I’ll get the lawyer to bring the will over now.”

When the little girl heard this, she quickly went to get the old man’s phone.

After hanging up the phone, about half an hour later, the lawyer knocked on the door with a document and walked in.

When the old man saw the lawyer come in, he quickly called him over. “Lawyer, I’m here.”

The lawyer quickly took out the will and unfolded it. Then he handed the pen to the old man and said, “Mr. Xu, this is your will. If you’ve really thought it through and don’t want to change it anymore, please sign on it.”

The old man took a pen and signed his name at the end of the will. “This is the result of my careful consideration. I will never change it.”

After signing, the old man seemed to have completed a major event in his life. He let out a long sigh of relief and then said to the little girl, “Child, grandfather’s family property has been left to you. Take this will. If anyone dares to come and snatch it from you, you can take this will to court and sue them.”

His words were referring to his children.

When the man and woman saw the will in the little girl’s hands, their eyes were so red that they looked like they were about to bleed.

“Dad, think about it carefully. Do you really want to leave all your assets to this jinx?” The woman asked.

“I told you, she’s not a jinx!” The old man was so angry that he couldn’t help but cough violently. “I’ve already signed the will. It has legal effect. These assets have nothing to do with you. You don’t have to pretend to be a good person here. If you want to leave, leave quickly. Otherwise, I’ll be annoyed when I see you.”

“Good, good! You’re the one who chased us away. Don’t say that we’re unfilial in the end!” The woman turned around and left in her high heels.

The man sighed and seemed to want to say something more, but in the end, he shook his head and left.

The lawyer saw this and said to the old man, “Mr. Xu, if there’s nothing else, I’ll leave first.”

“Thank you. I can’t stand up to see you off with my physical condition. I hope you can forgive me.” The old man said apologetically.

“It’s okay. I understand. I hope you can rest well.” With that, the lawyer left.

With three people leaving, the entire ward became empty.

Chapter 1458 Reduce Medication

The little girl and the old man spoke warmly while Jiang Yu asked Lei Yuan to take good care of Lei Hao. Then, she pulled the doctor out of the ward.

“Are you Lei Hao’s attending physician?” She asked the doctor outside the ward.

“I’m not.” The doctor shook his head.

“Then do you know who Lei Hao’s attending physician is?” Jiang Yu asked again.

The doctor said, “I know that. His attending doctor is the top professor in our hospital. Lei Hao’s legs have been treated for several years, but they haven’t been completely cured. However, you only used less than an hour to make him stand up. That’s why I’m curious and want to discuss it with you.”

The top professor? Jiang Yu was stunned. Since he was a top professor, how could he not be able to cure her legs?

When she was massaging Lei Hao’s legs, she had already noticed it. Although his two legs were injured on the nerves, it was not very serious. With the current advanced medical technology, even a very ordinary doctor would only need a year at most to make Lei Hao stand up.

Why was it that in such a top-notch hospital, a top-notch professor had spent several years but still could not cure Lei Hao’s leg?

The more Jiang Yu thought about it, the more she felt that something was wrong. Therefore, she wanted to get some information from this doctor. However, he did not expect that this doctor was not Lei Hao’s attending physician at all.

It seemed that he had to find that medical professor.

Therefore, Jiang Yu asked, “Then can I trouble you to take me to see that medical professor?”

The doctor was a little hesitant at first, but when he thought about how the person in front of him was a friend of the patient and had superb medical skills! If the professor knew that she had cured Lei Hao's leg, he would be so happy.

"Come with me then. I'll take you to see the professor now."

Jiang Yu followed behind the doctor and soon found the professor's office.

The doctor said, "The professor is in this office. You can go in by yourself. I have other things to do. I'll go and do them first."

"Alright, thank you."

After Jiang Yu thanked him, she knocked on the office door. Soon, a response came from the office. "Please come in."

Jiang Yu opened the door and saw a man in a white coat sitting by the window. He looked to be fifty years old, and his hair was a little gray.

This was the first time the professor had seen Jiang Yu. He could not help but feel a little puzzled. "May I know who you are?"

Jiang Yu went straight to the point. "I'm a friend of Lei Hao in Room 603. I have something to ask the professor about his leg."

The professor sighed and said, "Sigh, I've been treating his leg for several years. But she hasn't recovered and can't get out of bed to walk."

"Then you can go to the ward now. He can already walk." Jiang Yu said.

"How is that impossible? If you don't believe me, you can go and take a look for yourself." For this reason, Jiang Yu even made way for him.

The professor couldn't believe it. He quickly got up and went to Room 603. However, he didn't go in. He only looked out of the window and saw that Lei Hao could already walk on the ground with the help of the Thunder Garden.

"How is it? Are you shocked?" Jiang Yu stood behind the professor. "Then tell me the truth. Lei Hao's leg injury isn't serious. Why can't you, the top professor in this hospital, cure his leg even after treating it for a few years? Don't tell me that you tried your best. You didn't try your best at all."

"How, how did you know?" The professor was terrified. After a moment, he reacted. "Could it be that you cured Lei Hao's leg?"

"What else? If I didn't cure it, could it be that you did?" Jiang Yu shrugged. "I'm guessing that Lei Hao's leg injury has been delayed for so many years. I'm afraid that you, the attending physician, will reduce his dosage every time, right? That's why his leg injury recovered very slowly. That's why his leg injury hasn't healed for so many years."

The professor was frightened again. Cold sweat seeped out of his back and soaked his shirt.

He did not dare to deny it, but he did not dare to admit it either. He could only look around to avoid Jiang Yu's questioning.

Chapter 1459 The Truth

Seeing the professor's expression, Jiang Yu knew that he must be hiding something from her. No, rather than saying that, it was better to say that he had guessed correctly.

"Did you really reduce the dosage of the medicine?" Jiang Yu continued to press on. "You dare to earn money that can harm people's lives? Don't you feel guilty holding it in your hands?"

"Why would I be heartless? What did he mean by money that could harm people's lives? He only hurt his leg. So what if it couldn't be cured? He won't die!" The professor growled. He did not dare to speak too loudly because there were nurses and doctors coming and going. He did not want to be looked down upon in the hospital.

“As a doctor, what you have to do is to treat patients and save lives! Now that you’ve deducted his medication and don’t want him to recover, aren’t you going against your conscience to earn that money?” Jiang Yu questioned.

“He didn’t give me that money. Even if I earned money against my conscience, it didn’t come from the siblings!” Said the professor.

“It was indeed Chi Rui who gave the money, but...” Jiang Yu was suddenly stunned. She thought for a while and suddenly asked, “Why do you want to reduce Lei Hao’s dosage? Was it because of Lei Hao’s medical expenses? Or was it because Chi Rui instructed you?”

“This has nothing to do with you,” the professor snorted.

“Indeed, it has nothing to do with me, but this matter has something to do with Lei Hao, right? If I tell him about this and he takes you to court, you won’t be able to stay in this hospital anymore.”

Jiang Yu knew very well that to deal with such a shameless person, she had to threaten him with what he was most afraid of. “If you want to keep your position in the hospital, I advise you to tell me the truth.”

Initially, the professor was still a little hesitant. He felt that Jiang Yu would not do such a thing. However, Jiang Yu could tell what he was thinking. She immediately said, “Don’t take any chances. Since I said I would do this, I will definitely do it.”

The professor was a little scared and quickly said, “Can’t I tell you the truth? Yes, it was Chi Rui who asked me to do all of this. When he gave me the money, he told me not to treat Lei Hao’s leg and to let him stay in the hospital for as long as he could. If we really can’t wait any longer, we’ll think of a way to cripple his legs.”

“Did Chi Rui really order you to do this? Did he say this?” Jiang Yu was a little shocked.

No matter what, although he had bribed Lei Yuan with money, Lei Yuan had also worked hard for him. How could he do such a thing to Lei Hao?

“Yes,” the professor quickly said. “He did instruct me. Even if you call the police now, I’ll still give the same answer. I’ve already told you the truth. You must not spread this matter! Otherwise, I really can’t stay in the hospital anymore. I’ll lose all my face.”

“I can promise you that I won’t tell anyone, but Lei Hao and his sister must know about this.” Jiang Yu said, “You don’t have to blame me for being heartless. If you don’t want people to know, you have to do it yourself. If you had rejected such a request from the beginning, then this wouldn’t have happened.”

“Why? Do you know how much money Chi Rui gave you? Who would go against money?” The professor retorted, “If that huge sum of money was placed in front of you, I don’t believe that you would reject any request Chi Rui made.”

“Up to you. You can think whatever you want. However, I will definitely tell Lei Hao and Lei Yuan about this matter.” As Jiang Yu spoke, she opened the door and walked in.

Even if the professor wanted to stop her, it was too late. In the end, he could only stand at the door and chop his feet in frustration before returning to the office.

After Jiang Yu returned, she said to Lei Yuan, “Come out for a moment. I have something to tell you. Lei Hao, come out too. Let’s take a walk downstairs as a form of exercise. We can also breathe in the fresh air.”

“Sure, I haven’t gone downstairs for a long time. I haven’t smelled the air outside for several years. I’ve been staying in the ward all this time. I’m disgusted by the smell of disinfectant.” Lei Hao smiled and helped Lei Yuan and Jiang Yu downstairs.

Chapter 1460 Instigate A Rebellion

Jiang Yu told her what she had heard from the professor.

Lei Yuan did not believe it at first, but when she saw the serious expression on Jiang Yu’s face, she had no choice but to believe that Jiang Yu was telling the truth.

“Why did Mr. Chi Rui do this? I’ve done so many things for him in fear for so many years, but he’s been lying to me all this time! You want to use my brother to restrain me!” Lei Yuan muttered to himself in shock, “Why? I don’t think I’ve done anything wrong to him. Why would he do this to me?”

“This matter is very easy to understand because he lacks people like you who can work for him for money. As long as he can use money to control you, then he will have absolute trust in you. After all, in his eyes, there’s nothing that money can’t solve.” Jiang Yu said.

“But he can’t joke about my brother’s leg!” Lei Yuan was anxious. “My brother is the only family I have in this world. If anything happens to him, I won’t live alone anymore! Since Chi Rui did such a thing, don’t blame me for being heartless! Since my brother’s leg has been cured, I won’t work for Chi Rui anymore!”

“But he was the one who paid for the medical expenses for the past few years.” Lei Hao was mainly worried about this problem.

Although he didn’t have a good impression of Chi Rui, he was the one who took the money for his leg treatment. Even if he had to part ways with him now, he didn’t want to owe Chi Rui any favors.

Lei Yuan consoled him, “Don’t worry. I’ll work hard to earn this money and return it all to him. I definitely won’t owe him a single cent.”

“I can help you get the money.” Jiang Yu suddenly said, “However, I will help you pay back the money. I have a condition.”

“What condition?” Lei Yuan asked.

“That is to act with me. You have to stay by my side and pretend to monitor me. When you report my situation to Chi Rui, you have to do as I say.” Jiang Yu said, “Chi Rui is the boss of the black market. I think you should know about this. Moreover, his business was related to drugs, which was illegal. If the police find out, they will definitely arrest him.”

“I do know that he has illegal businesses in his hands, but he hides them very well. The police usually can’t find any evidence.” Lei Yuan was a little troubled. “If you want to use this opportunity to find clues related to illegal industries from him and then hand them over to the police, then I think it's very difficult. Even if there is such a possibility, I don't know how long it will take to find clues."

"Of course, I'm not looking for such clues." Jiang Yu smiled. "Leave this to the professionals. You only need to help me with this and let Chi Rui continue to trust you. Then, don't let him suspect me."

"But my brother's leg has been cured. He will definitely know about this soon." Lei Yuan looked at Lei Hao's leg. "As long as Chi Rui knows about it, he will know that I have no value to him anymore. He will most likely abandon me like an abandoned child."

"That's simple. As long as he doesn't know about this, it'll be fine." Jiang Yu snapped her fingers. "Chi Rui knew about this because of that professor. As long as we threaten that professor and stop him from telling Chi Rui about this, Chi Rui won't know."

"But he's someone who works for Chi Rui. Will he really help us hide it from Chi Rui?" Lei Yuan was a little worried.

"Of course he'll help us, unless he doesn't want to stay in this hospital anymore." Jiang Yu was full of confidence. "You don't have to worry about this matter. I'll take care of it. All you have to do is help me. However, Lei Hao will have to suffer. He might need to stay in the hospital for a period of time."

"I'm willing to stay in the hospital for as long as I can help my sister get out of her misery and bring that bad guy Chi Rui to justice. No matter what it is, I can do it." Lei Hao said.

"Thank you in advance. Go back. Although Lei Hao's legs can walk now, it's still not suitable for him to walk for a long time. I'll go find that professor and tell him about this." Jiang Yu said.

Lei Yuan helped Lei Hao back to the ward while Jiang Yu went to the professor's office.
