

Older Man 1491

Chapter 1491 Difficult To Solve

“Xue Ping, what’s wrong with you? Don’t scare me!” Xue Ping’s wife sensed that something was wrong with Xue Ping at this moment. It was as if her entire body had been emptied.

“Haha, this is my retribution, haha!” Xue Ping kept laughing, his mouth drooling.

Xue Ping’s wife fell to the ground as if the sky had collapsed.

She knew that Xue Ping was crazy.

“Aiyo, what kind of sin did you commit?” Xue Ping’s wife was wailing like a ghost. Jiang Yu, who was on the other end of the phone, could not help but hold back her laughter.

After a long time, when Xue Ping’s wife was crying until she was out of breath, Jiang Yu said, “I think you guys have realized your mistakes. If you really want to admit your mistakes sincerely, why don’t you tell the Buddha statue about your accomplices? Perhaps this way, you will receive the blessings of the gods.”

Even though Xue Ping’s wife cried bitterly, she did not believe that ghosts really existed in this world because of this matter.

Therefore, she said to Jiang Yu on the other end of the phone, “If you have the ability, keep calling me. Use this number!”

After saying that, she hung up the phone.

After hanging up the phone, Xue Ping’s wife immediately contacted her son, Xue Yang, who was working outside.

Xue Yang and Xue Ping worked in the same place.

Xue Ping was in charge of the surgery, while Xue Yang was in charge of making the human skin mask. It was so that the experimenters could hide when they were outside.

The man who killed Qiao Shen in prison was wearing a human skin mask made by Xue Yang. After escaping from the police station, he took off the human skin mask on his face, so he was not recognized by the police.

She called Xue Yang and told him about Xue Ping's situation. Your father is already in this state, but you're still staying at that experimental base. I'm really worried!"

Xue Yang was a materialist and definitely did not believe that there were any ghosts in this world. Therefore, when Xue Ping initially planned to worship the Buddha statue at home, Xue Yang was against it. However, Xue Ping insisted on not listening, so Xue Yang was too lazy to care.

"Mom, don't scare yourself. My dad must have just been frightened and couldn't react for a moment. He'll be fine after a few days." Xue Yang said as he made the latest human skin mask. He had added a special material to the mask this time, making it waterproof and breathable.

In this way, their experimenters would not feel bored no matter how long they went out wearing this mask.

"But with your father's current situation, if you don't come back, I'll be afraid to stay at home alone." Xue Yang was now the only psychological support for Xue Ping's wife.

"Alright, I got it. Wait for me to go back tonight."

After Xue Yang hung up the phone, he concentrated on fiddling with the human skin mask in front of him. Xue Ping's wife could only hide in the room with her in her arms.

Because Xue Ping in the living room looked like a lunatic. He was waving his kitchen knife at the air and shouting, "I know you guys didn't let me off! If you have the ability, come and find me. I'm not afraid of you!"

He was like a lunatic in the living room. When Xue Yang came back and saw such a scene, he was almost slashed in the head by Xue Ping.

“Dad, what are you doing?” Xue Yang was shocked. He quickly grabbed Xue Ping’s wrist, snatched the kitchen knife from his hand, and threw it at the door.

When Xue Ping saw Xue Yang, he hesitated for a moment, as if he did not know the person in front of him. Then, she thought of something and suddenly hugged him. She cried bitterly and said, “Son, those people who Dad killed in the past have come to look for me!” What should he do? You have to save me!”

When Xue Ping’s wife heard Xue Yang’s voice, she immediately ran out of the room and wailed. “Son, you’re finally back! If you don’t come back soon, you won’t be able to live your days!”

Although Xue Yang didn’t think it was a big deal at first, when he returned home and saw Xue Ping’s mental state, he felt that this matter was a little troublesome, even a little difficult to resolve.

Moreover, the living room was also in a mess. The Buddha statue that Xue Ping had once treated as a treasure was now on the ground.

“Mom, what’s going on?” Xue Yang asked.

Xue Ping’s wife didn’t know what to say. She handed the phone to him and said, “The number on the top called me today. After your father heard the contents of the call, he became like this.”

It was a completely unfamiliar number. Xue Yang knew at a glance that this number was fake.

Chapter 1492 Human Skin Mask

Xue Yang did not say anything and directly called. This time, the call was picked up immediately.

“You’re the one who’s playing tricks here to scare my dad, aren’t you?” Xue Yang cursed. “If you have the ability, come out and meet me. I will definitely peel off this fake ghost skin on you!”

This time, Jiang Yu used a voice changer to change her voice and tone. “I’m not the only person your father killed. You shouldn’t just be meeting me. You should be meeting all the victims.”

“Don’t give me these illusory things! Let’s set a time now. We’ll meet under the Ferris wheel in Qingcheng at nine o’clock tomorrow morning! If you don’t dare to come, it means that you’re playing tricks. I can sue you!”

“If you’re so eager to meet me, why don’t you meet me now?” Jiang Yu said, “Actually, I’m already looking at you from the sky. I can see you too. Your father, who has done all kinds of bad things, is standing beside you. You’re his son, so I don’t think you’re any better.”

“Stop talking nonsense and come meet me!” Xue Yang roared.

He had already thought it through. If the person on the other end of the phone agreed to meet him, he would wear the newly developed human skin mask to meet him.

At that time, he could expose the person’s face, but the person did not know his true face.

However, Jiang Yu said, “I’m at your door. As long as you open the door, you’ll be able to see me.”

“He’s at the door!” Xue Ping shouted and rushed to open the door before everyone else. However, when he opened it, not only was the door empty, but there was also a cold wind blowing in.

Xue Ping shivered, his eyes rolled back, and he fainted on the ground.

“Xue Ping!” Xue Ping’s wife hurried over and dragged him to the sofa.

Xue Yang wanted to say something when he saw Xue Ping's reaction, but Jiang Yu had already hung up on him.

"This man is really Xue Ping's son." Jiang Yu muttered to herself.

In fact, at first, she was not sure about the identity of the man who called. She just guessed. However, he did not deny it, so Jiang Yu was certain that he must be Xue Ping's son.

Jiang Yu immediately started an investigation on Xue Ping's family using him as a benchmark. In the end, he found out that his son's name was Xue Yang.

Jiang Yu started investigating Xue Yang again, but there was very little social information about him. The only thing she could find out was that he and Xue Ping worked in the same company.

It was probably that experimental base.

"Enterprise? To put it nicely, it's probably that experimental base." Jiang Yu sneered.

Jiang Yu had already found out all the information about Xue Ping. What she needed to do now was to start with Xue Ping and find out about the experimental base. Xue Ping's mental state had already collapsed, so Jiang Yu only needed to find him and give him a final blow to his psychological defense. Perhaps she would be able to achieve her goal.

The next morning, Jiang Yu went to Xue Ping's residence. Although Xue Yang and Xue Ping's wife were at home watching over Xue Ping, Jiang Yu was not afraid.

Before she knocked on the door, she even canceled the fake number to avoid any trouble. She even disguised herself as a middle-aged woman.

After everything was done, Jiang Yu knocked on the door.

After a long time, someone came to open the door. The person who opened the door was Xue Ping's wife. She looked at the gorgeous middle-aged woman in front of her and instantly thought that she was Xue Ping's old lover.

"Who are you?" She asked in a higher tone.

"I'm here to take over Xue Ping's job." Jiang Yu smiled and took out a fake business card. "You can call me Gao Fan."

Xue Ping's wife took the business card and looked at it carefully. However, Jiang Yu had already ignored her and walked into the house.

"Who are you?" Xue Yang was now on high alert against any stranger. He now thought that everyone was the person who answered the phone last night.

"I'm here to take over Xue Ping's work. I can be considered your colleague. You don't have to be so wary of me." Jiang Yu smiled. "After all, everyone is working for Chi Rui."

Hearing the name "Chi Rui", Xue Yang's psychological defense slowly relaxed. He said, "I will verify your true identity with Mr. Chi Rui. What do you want to say? Hurry up and say it."

Chapter 1493 Deep Inside

"I didn't say anything. Chi Rui only gave me Xue Ping's home address and asked me to come over to hand over the work. I don't even know where the experimental base is. You have to take me there."

Xue Yang stared at Jiang Yu for a long time before he said, "Got it. Sit here for a while. I'll go upstairs and change my clothes. I'll send you over in a while."

"Thank you."

Not long after, Xue Yang came downstairs with a questioning expression on his face. He said, "I just called Mr. Chi Rui. He said he doesn't know you at all! Who exactly are you? How did you find this place?"

Jiang Yu did not expect Xue Yang to take this opportunity to ask Chi Rui for confirmation. However, she still smiled and said, "Then give him another call. I'll explain it to him."

Xue Yang gave Chi Rui a call. He wanted to press the speaker button to listen to the conversation between the woman in front of him and Chi Rui, but Jiang Yu snatched the phone over and said to Chi Rui, "Lu Ting has been taken away by the police. This means that the police have their eyes on you! As long as there was the slightest movement, the police would catch you! Now that Xue Ping has unexpectedly gone crazy, if I don't help you clean up the mess now, you might really be arrested by the police! But if you are captured, I will also be implicated."

"Alright, I'll leave this matter to you." Chi Rui was silent for a long time.

Jiang Yu returned the phone to Xue Yang. Chi Rui said to Xue Yang, "Just listen to her. Do whatever she tells you to do."

Then, he hung up.

Only then did Xue Yang let down his guard against Jiang Yu. "Follow me."

The two of them walked all the way to the experimental base.

This base was very similar to the Chu family's secret weapon manufacturing base. It was an ordinary small residence outside. As a cover, it would only be discovered after entering. There was also a secret door that led underground.

Their experiments were all conducted underground.

Xue Yang brought Jiang Yu along as they walked. As they walked, he said, "I'll bring you to meet the highest-ranking leader of our experiment. When the time comes, you can tell her everything. She will help you with the basic information of your face verification. Then, you will be able to go through it without any obstacles."

“Thank you.”

Xue Yang brought Jiang Yu to a room and knocked on the door. “Sister Lan, Mr. Chi Rui has sent a new staff member to take over my father’s work.”

“Let him in,” said a voice from inside the room.

Jiang Yu opened the door and walked in. She realized that the person in front of her was actually a young and beautiful woman.

Zheng Lan was quite kind to the person sent by Chi Rui. She took the initiative to greet Jiang Yu and did not ask any other questions before taking her to record her facial information.

“Other than facial information, there’s also fingerprint information. These are all convenient for you to enter and exit. You can choose one of the two.” Zheng Lan said.

Of course, Jiang Yu chose the fingerprint information that was most useful to her.

After entering all the information, Zheng Lan brought Jiang Yu to Xue Ping’s previous position to familiarize her with the work.

She said, “Xue Ping is the doctor who does brain transplant surgeries here. He’s in charge of putting chips into the brains of the experimental subjects. Do you know how to do that?”

“Of course, if I didn’t know how to do it, Chi Rui wouldn’t have sent me to take over his job.” Jiang Yu said with a smile.

“Since it was Mr. Chi Rui who recommended you here, I will definitely not doubt your ability. I’ll bring you around to familiarize you with the basic work, and you can get started immediately.”

After Zheng Lan brought Jiang Yu to familiarize herself with the basic work, she returned to the office to deal with the business.

The group of people looked at Jiang Yu and felt that she was not up to the job. There were also some people who were very close to Xue Ping. Now that someone had come to take over his job, they felt very uncomfortable, so they looked at Jiang Yu strangely.

Jiang Yu was quite generous. She introduced herself to them and said, "Hello, my name is Gao Fan. He's the brain transplant doctor who will replace Xue Ping. I hope we can become friends."

"Who wants to be friends with you? If it wasn't for my Brother Xue's accident, do you think you would have come? I think your skills can't compare to Brother Xue's at all!"

"We'll only know after we try." Jiang Yu smiled.

"Alright, then prove it to us!" The group of people jeered, "It just so happens that there's a new batch of experimental subjects. It's just nice that you can perform a surgery. Let us see how good your skills are!"

Chapter 1494 Stealing The Heavens And Swapping The Suns

As he spoke, someone led a new batch of test subjects in. There were infants, children, and adults in that batch of experimental subjects.

Jiang Yu couldn't help but feel sad.

"You can perform the surgery now! As long as you can successfully implant the chip into this baby's head, I'll approve of you taking over my Brother Xue's position!" A muscular man carried a crying baby over and placed it on the operating table.

Because the infant's skull was too thin and the skull was too brittle, it was not easy to perform surgery. Even if Xue Ping was here, he would have to think for a long time before he could make a move. The reason why this man had brought a baby over was to make things difficult for Jiang Yu.

Since Jiang Yu had a phobia of blood, she absolutely could not do this surgery.

She sneaked her hand into her pocket and pressed the power button and volume button. Then, her phone rang.

This was an emergency ringtone that she had specially designed to deal with emergencies.

“I’m sorry. Let me go out and take a call first.”

After saying that, Jiang Yu took the phone and went out.

After she went out, she immediately walked up the original path. After making sure that there was no one around, Jiang Yu shouted at a corner outside the house, “I’m here. Come over quickly.”

Immediately, a person dressed exactly like Jiang Yu stood out.

She had been following behind Jiang Yu the entire time.

The only difference between the two of them was their faces. However, this person was wearing a mask. If he didn’t take off his mask, he wouldn’t be recognized.

Jiang Yu took out a wireless loudspeaker and dipped it into the person’s collar before bringing her downstairs.

This person was a doctor that Lu Yu had applied for from the higher-ups. He had rushed from Shanghai to Qingcheng overnight yesterday. Otherwise, he would not have been able to make it in time.

If Jiang Yu had not been fainting because of blood, she would not have needed to apply for a doctor to come over.

“Most of the people in this experimental base are men. They have less contact with women, so you don’t have to be too nervous. Just do as you usually do.” Jiang Yu said.

“But I’ve always been a doctor. I’ve never acted before.” The man said softly, “I’m really nervous about suddenly acting in front of so many people. Moreover, the surgery performed in the experimental base is also illegal. It’s also a challenge for me to come in and perform it.”

“Don’t be afraid. We’ll be operating on a baby later. After that, you just need to take out the chip. This undercover work will only last for a few days. Just try your best to find a way to reject all the surgeries in the next few days.” Jiang Yu said.

“Alright, I’ll try my best.” That person kept encouraging himself.

This time, the person who entered the experimental base was no longer Jiang Yu, but someone else.

However, the group of people couldn’t see anything amiss. They only noticed that she was wearing a mask on her face. They mocked, “Isn’t it just going out to answer a phone call? You even put on a mask. Could it be that there’s some poisonous gas in our experimental base?”

At this moment, the loudspeaker on the man’s collar rang. “But which doctor do you see who doesn’t wear a mask during surgery? Could it be that Xue Ping has a big mouth when he performs surgery?”

The group of people looked at each other.

This was because Xue Ping did not wear a mask during surgery.

However, they were not performing proper surgery, so it did not make any difference whether they wore masks or not.

“No matter what,” Jiang Yu said, “I’m a proper doctor. Even if it’s not a proper surgery, I have to prepare all the necessary facilities.”

“Do as you please.” The muscular man said, “I’m asking you to operate on this baby. Don’t change the topic.”

“I didn’t say that I’m not going to perform surgery.”

Jiang Yu’s words were transmitted through the loudspeaker on the young doctor’s collar, and she was the person in charge of the surgery.

Twenty minutes later, the surgery was completed. The group of people were dumbfounded.

Even if Xue Ping was here, it would probably take nearly forty minutes to complete the surgery. He did not expect this person to finish it in half an hour, and it was very successful.

“I really didn’t expect you to have some skills.” The group of people couldn’t help but praise him. “In that case, we’ll approve of you taking over Brother Xue’s job.”

“Thank you.”

After saying this, Jiang Yu did not say anything else. The young doctor did not dare to make a sound as he was afraid that he would reveal something.

Those people thought that this newcomer was a very cold person, so they were not willing to talk to her.

Chapter 1495 Cooperate From The Inside And Outside

Fortunately, those people did not want to talk to the young doctor. Otherwise, she was really worried that she would be exposed.

When night fell, the young doctor packed up and left. She then placed the small locator that Jiang Yu had given her in a corner where no one would notice her.

That was all she had to do. She just had to pretend to be Jiang Yu for the next few days and continue to lurk in the experimental base.

Jiang Yu had been in close contact with Lu Yu and the others for the past few days. Ever since the young doctor placed the locator in the experimental base, Lu Yu and the others had been observing the changes in the locator.

After three consecutive days of observation and no abnormalities, Lu Yu immediately applied to the higher-ups to send more people over. At the same time, he also released this news to the media in Shanghai City and Yang City.

As for the media in Qingcheng, they did not inform them.

Firstly, they were afraid of alerting the enemy. Secondly, they were in Qingcheng. Once this matter broke out, the media in Qingcheng might arrive faster than the media in Shanghai City and Yang City.

Everything they did was done in secret, and no one noticed at all.

After Chang Kai, who was undercover in the Chi family, found out about this, he also silently observed Chi Rui's actions. He could not let him notice this matter, nor could he give him any chance to escape.

However, the news was tightly sealed, and Lei Yuan and the professor at the hospital were also helping Jiang Yu cover up, so Chi Rui didn't know about this at all.

The only one who noticed it was probably Chi Rui's wife.

She was still very good to Chang Kai, but recently, the way she looked at Chang Kai was a little bitter and helpless.

At first, Chang Kai only thought that she was feeling unwell and that was why she was like this. However, one day, when Chi Rui was out of the house, she came to find Chang Kai. After hesitating for a long time, she asked, "Is something big going to happen in the next few days?"

Chang Kai was stunned. He thought she was talking about the arrest operation. However, he was sure that he had not revealed this information, so he said, "Madam, you're thinking too much. What big deal could it be?"

However, Chi Rui's wife had not been able to let go of the stone in her heart. She was even more experienced than a few days ago. Even someone as inattentive as Chang Kai could sense the change in her.

She didn't say anything else and turned to leave. He stopped after a few steps and said to Chang Kai, "Actually, I knew this day would come sooner or later."

She seemed to be talking to Chang Kai, but also to herself. However, it was undeniable that she must have discovered something.

Perhaps it was a woman's sixth sense, Chang Kai thought silently.

Chang Kai quickly threw this matter to the back of his mind and continued to watch Chi Rui's daily life. Meanwhile, Jiang Yu and Lu Yu had also received reinforcements from the higher-ups.

He was prepared to give Chi Rui and the others a blow.

The three major industrial chains of artificial human experiments, drugs, and human organs had all been controlled by Jiang Yu. Moreover, these three were the largest industrial chains in the black market under Chi Rui's control. Then the black market would become an empty shell.

The young doctor did not go to the base. By the time the people in the experimental base realized that something was wrong, Lu Yu and the others had already surrounded the base.

As for the media from Shanghai City and Yang City, they had been guarding the periphery. Everyone was holding their cameras, afraid to miss this explosive news.

As time passed, everyone in the experimental base was in a state of panic. No one was in the mood to perform surgery or organize data.

Even Xue Yang's heart was pounding.

When the tube of glue in his hand accidentally broke on the ground, Lu Yu gave the order outside the house, and all the police rushed into the base. Under Jiang Yu's lead, they broke into the enemy's lair and captured all of them.

The media also swarmed over and took at least a thousand photos of this incident.

After the media in Qingcheng found out about this, they also came over with their cameras.

Even though they didn't know who was behind all of this, such a big piece of news was explosive no matter where it was placed.

After Lu Yu and the others caught the people, they immediately escorted them to Shanghai City. The highest-ranking officials in Shanghai City gave the order to clean up the police station in Qingcheng.

Chang Kai had made a great contribution in this case, so the higher-ups gave him this task.

He found Jiang Yu and expressed his heartfelt gratitude to her.

Chapter 1496 Breaking News

Following that, Chang Kai led his men to arrest Chi Rui and his family.

Chi Rui looked at Chang Kai's familiar face and said in disbelief, "Zhao Lei, you dare to betray me?!"

After he said this, before his shock disappeared, he saw Jiang Yu wearing sunglasses behind Chang Kai. She was wearing a tight black dress that outlined her perfect figure.

His aura was fully released.

Only now did Chi Rui realize that his previous guess was true. These two people had always been lying to him and had never sincerely worked for him.

“So the two of you have been lying to me all this time! Hahahahaha!” Chi Rui laughed at himself, but after laughing, he realized that something was wrong.

Lei Yuan had been monitoring Jiang Yu all this time, but she had never told him about Jiang Yu’s abnormality.

“This is absolutely impossible!” Chi Rui’s mental state was on the verge of collapse. He would never allow anyone to betray him.

He was still going crazy alone when Lei Yuan walked out from behind Jiang Yu. Lei Hao was also with her.

Lei Hao’s legs were almost fully healed now, and he could walk freely without any external help.

The two siblings walked up to Chi Rui and looked down at him as if they were looking at a pile of trash.

When Chi Rui saw Lei Hao’s leg, he was so shocked that he couldn’t say a word.

Lei Hao smiled coldly and said, “Are you shocked to see my leg? Do you still think that I’ll be a cripple like before? Unfortunately, Jiang Yu has already cured my leg!”

“This is impossible! I clearly sent someone to reduce your dosage!” At this point, Chi Rui reacted.

It was likely that the old professor from the hospital had also become Jiang Yu’s ally and had been helping him deceive him. They even said that Lei Hao’s legs were the same as before, but now he could clearly walk.

The old professor did not appear. Perhaps he felt that it was difficult to face Chi Rui, so he used the excuse of not feeling well to hide at home.

“I didn’t expect that I, Chi Rui, would lose to a little girl like you!” Chi Rui trembled as he pointed at Jiang Yu.

He was unwilling to let his many years of hard work be destroyed just like that. In an instant, he suddenly thought of Mo Long.

So, she stood up like a madman and rushed to Jiang Yu. ” If you call the police to arrest me now, have you ever thought about you and your fiancé? ” she said. Both of you have a cooperative relationship with me. Aren’t you afraid that you’ll be involved? Let me tell you, if I’m finished, you guys will be finished too!”

“How can you be so sure?” Jiang Yu took off her sunglasses.” Did you really think that Mo Long and I would work for you wholeheartedly after agreeing to work with you? Besides, the industrial chain you gave to Mo Long isn’t illegal.”

When Chi Rui saw that he couldn’t get Molong into the water, he pointed his finger at Jiang Yu. “What about you?” He asked. “You have drugs and human organs in your hands. If I fall today, you’ll definitely be my scapegoat!”

“How can you be so sure that I’ll do what you gave me? I’ve never dealt with any business related to human organs. As for the business in Lu Ting’s hands, I’ve already thought of a way to wash it clean. Even if I haven’t completely cleared my name, at least everything that passed through my hands is in accordance with the legal procedures.” Jiang Yu stared into Chi Rui’s eyes. “Chi Rui, you want to drag me into this? That’s absolutely impossible.”

“Impossible! Chu Ran clearly told me that not only did you buy the poppy seeds, but you also contacted the human organ workshop!” Chi Rui roared furiously.

Jiang Yu, on the other hand, said casually, “Chu Ran, he has no experience in this area at all. I even did something right under his nose, but he didn’t notice anything wrong. It can only be said that the person you chose from the beginning was wrong. If the person you chose from the beginning was Thunder Garden, I’m afraid that you wouldn’t have this day.”

“Thunder Garden? Haha.” Chi Rui couldn’t help but laugh again. “I thought that she would never betray me as long as I could continue to provide her with money. But I didn’t expect that she would still stand on your side in the end.”

“I’ve never done anything for you for the money, but for Lei Hao’s leg!” Lei Yuan roared, “But if it wasn’t for you, Lei Hao would have recovered long ago! Chi Rui, I already hate you to death!”

Chapter 1497 Live Broadcast of the Trial

Chi Rui also knew that since things had developed to this point, no matter what he did or said, it would be irreversible. However, he only hoped that his wife and daughter would not be implicated because of this matter.

When he was sent to the police station, he said to Chang Kai, “Although I don’t know your true identity, you’ve been with me for so long. You can see what kind of people my wife and daughter are. This matter has nothing to do with them. I hope you won’t make things difficult for them.”

Chang Kai said, “It’s too early to talk about this now. You’d better take care of yourself. What kind of punishment your wife and daughter will receive in the end is not up to me to decide.”

Chi Rui was escorted to the police station with his head covered. Due to the severity of his crime, the live trial was scheduled to be held in the highest court.

As for Jiang Yu and Mo Long, they attended the hearing as witnesses.

The live broadcast of the two of them entering the country caused a huge uproar on the Internet. After all, the two of them had never been in the same frame before.

Even Sister Xia could not help but be stunned when she saw the live broadcast of the trial.

This time, she had also transformed into a fangirl and was crazily reading comments in the live broadcast room.

“Oh my god, Movie Queen Jiang is so handsome!”

“She and President Mo are really a match made in heaven!”

“But why are the two of them on the witness ‘side? Could they be of any help to this case?”

“Of course. If they were not helpful to this case, why would the police let them participate in this trial?”

“Previously, when Movie Queen Jiang slapped the faces of those wealthy families in the live broadcast room, I thought it was already cool enough. I didn’t expect that she would actually help the police crack such a big drug trafficking gang this time! I heard that he’s a black market boss!”

“They’re too bold. If it were me, I definitely wouldn’t dare to go.”

However, there were also strange voices in the live broadcast room, and they were not blindly supporting Jiang Yu.

“You little fangirls, why do you speak as if you don’t have a brain? The two of them, one CEO and the other Best Actress, are both spoiled people. How could they help the police solve a drug trafficking case?”

“I’m afraid that they’re only here because of their high status and popularity. They want to increase the popularity of this live broadcast.”

“Yeah, even if the two of them really help the police solve the case, what they can do is very small. It’s already good enough that they don’t drag us down.”

The two sides started arguing over this comment, but they were also paying attention to the live broadcast.

Chi Rui had confessed to his crimes. When the final verdict came out, Chi Rui also expressed that it was meaningless. He only hoped that they would not make things difficult for his wife and daughter.

Chi Rui's wife and Chi Ruo were sitting at the hearing table. She was already crying her eyes out. Chi Ruo was still too young and did not understand what it meant to be in prison.

As he was being escorted away, Chi Rui glanced at his wife and daughter. However, before he could take a closer look, he was taken away.

The hearing had ended, but the live broadcast was not over yet. On behalf of the Shanghai City Police Department, Luo Hao expressed his sincere gratitude to Jiang Yu and Mo Long.

"If you hadn't infiltrated the enemy camp this time, I'm afraid it would have taken more time to crack this case," he said.

Mo Long nodded lightly. "Helping the police with a case is what a citizen should do. Director Luo, you don't have to thank me."

Jiang Yu also said, "Furthermore, we can help you solve this case and save more innocent people. This means a lot to us."

"But no matter what, it's all thanks to your help that we were able to capture Chi Rui so smoothly and successfully destroy the entire black market." Luo Hao shook hands with Mo Long and Jiang Yu respectively.

"Director Luo is too polite."

The three of them exchanged pleasantries for a while before leaving. The live broadcast ended here.

The people who had doubted Jiang Yu and Mo Long felt a burning pain on their faces after hearing what Luo Hao had said. It was as if they had been slapped in the face.

They had never thought that Jiang Yu and Mo Long would help the police solve the case by sneaking in a dangerous enemy. They were clearly putting themselves in danger.

They were actually still speculating about them here. They really felt too bad.

When Jiang Yu returned to the company, all the employees in the company looked at her with admiration.

Some employees gathered their courage and came over.

Chapter 1498 Cooperation

Jiang Yu smiled and said to the employees, "While I was away, it was hard for everyone to be at the beck and call of this company. When it's a legal holiday, I'll take you on a trip out of my own pocket."

"That's great! President Jiang is the best boss in the world!" The employees cheered.

After Jiang Yu returned to her office, Sister Xia also knocked on the door and walked in. She said excitedly, "Jiang Yu, I saw the live broadcast. I didn't expect you to cause such a huge sensation the moment you returned from Qingcheng!"

However, Jiang Yu didn't feel anything. She said calmly, "Are you alright?"

"You're quite calm. Let me tell you, after this case is solved, not only can the variety show that you filmed before continue to be filmed, but there are also many companies that want to cooperate with our Jiang Jewelry!" As she spoke, Sister Xia took out a list and handed it to Jiang Yu. "Look at this. It's all the companies that want to cooperate with us."

Jiang Yu looked at all the companies on the cooperation list. Even Kang He was on it. She could not help but laugh coldly. "Kang He treated me as an enemy back then. I never thought that she would be willing to put down her pride and work with me now."

“Isn’t this just because you’re enjoying endless glory? I thought I could write off what happened before.” Sister Xia also scoffed at Kang He’s behavior. “However, Kang He is Kang Xue’s sister after all. You and Kang Xue are also friends. It’s not good to disobey Kang He. ”

Jiang Yu crumpled the piece of paper into a ball and threw it into the trash can. Then, she said to Sister Xia, “The people on this list are all people who looked down on Jiang Jewelry. Now, not only was Kang He inside, but Sun You was also inside. There’s no need for me to cooperate with such a group of people.”

Sister Xia thought about it and felt that what Jiang Yu said made sense. She said, “That’s fine too. When the time comes, you can decide which company you want to cooperate with. Speaking of this, I also remembered that the results of the international jewelry competition you participated in have been sent to my email. You’ve already passed. They were about to head to the competition area to participate in the semi-finals. As long as you passed the semi-finals and entered the semi-finals, I’m afraid you would have to verify your identity. If you want to hide Diana’s identity, I’m afraid you won’t be able to.”

Jiang Yu said, “Since we can’t hide it, let’s make it public.”

This time, the semi-finals were held in Australia. Mo Long had stayed in Qingcheng for too long, and Teng Yi had been recovering from his injuries. As a result, the Mo Corporation had accumulated a lot of business.

In order to handle these matters, Mo Long had been very busy recently.

Sister Xia helped Jiang Yu manage the Jiang Jewelry Company, so she didn’t have much business to do. There were only some things that Sister Xia couldn’t make a decision about, so she waited for Jiang Yu to come back to deal with them.

Therefore, Jiang Yu planned to go to Australia alone this time.

Furthermore, Mo Long had an even more important matter, which was to catch the mole beside him.

After eliminating all the suspicious people, they locked their eyes on one person. It was Teng Yi’s assistant, Su Guo.

Mo Long had always left the interrogation to Teng Yi, but Teng Yi was used to using violence. Su Guo was a girl, after all. Teng Yi was worried that if he hit her too hard, he would hurt her.

Su Guo and Teng Yi had been together for a year or two. He really couldn't ask Teng Yi to interrogate Su Guo.

After thinking about it, Teng Yi could only turn to Jiang Yu for help. "Madam, can you help me with Su Guo's interrogation?"

Jiang Yu also knew about the relationship between Teng Yi and Su Guo. "You guys control Su Guo. I'll go over now."

Su Guo was locked in the basement. She was tied to a chair and blindfolded. She couldn't see her surroundings, only the sound of dripping water in the dark and long corridor. Su Guo's nerves were extremely tense.

To her, this was an even more terrifying torture.

It was only when she heard the sound of high heels that Su Guo cried out in horror, "Who is it? Are you here to save me? Or are you here to interrogate me? Please, take off the cloth on my face!"

Jiang Yu walked up to Su Guo and pulled off the cloth covering her eyes.

When Su Guo saw Jiang Yu, she immediately begged for help, "Madam! I've been wronged. You have to believe me! You must save me! I've been by President Mo's side for so many years and have always been loyal. How could I betray him?"

Chapter 1499 The Snitch

Jiang Yu kept staring at Su Guo until her heart went numb. She no longer had the confidence to speak. "Madam, why are you looking at me like that? Are you suspecting me?"

Jiang Yu bent down and looked Su Guo in the eye. “Although I don’t know the exact situation, I believe in Mo Long. Since he said that you’re a mole, you can’t run away.”

“I’m really not!” Su Guo panicked and kept defending herself. “Madam, you’re a woman too. Why are you making things difficult for me? I was really wronged! Do I look like a traitor to President Mo?”

“You really don’t look like a decent person. You hid for so long before you were discovered. It can only mean that your acting skills are good.” Jiang Yu moved a chair over and sat opposite Su Guo. “When the Chu family sent the invitation to Mo Long, you were the one who sent the message, right? That’s why the fake Mo Long dared to impersonate him. Since that’s the case, it means that you’re also on Chi Rui’s side. Chi Rui has already been caught by the police. As long as he gives you up, no matter how much you explain, it’s useless.”

“But I’m really not a mole. I don’t know that Chi Rui either!” Su Guo was too anxious. “Even if he confessed to the police, my name would never appear!”

“Either your name isn’t Su Guo, or Chi Rui doesn’t know about your existence. I’m afraid you were recruited by the fake Mo Long, right?” Jiang Yu looked straight into Su Guo’s eyes.

Su Guo had bet that Chi Rui didn’t know her, which was why she had been playing dumb in front of Jiang Yu. He kept telling her that he was not the mole, hoping that Jiang Yu would believe him.

However, Jiang Yu believed in Mo Long.

“Su Guo, don’t forget that if Chi Rui is captured, the fake Mo Long won’t be able to escape death. Moreover, you should have known about this long ago. The police haven’t started interrogating the fake Mo Long yet. If they start interrogating him, do you think your identity can be hidden?”

“But I really don’t know what’s going on!” Su Guo blinked her eyes and two drops of tears fell, trying to pass it off as the real thing.

However, in Jiang Yu’s eyes, this was just poor acting.

“If you’re really not afraid and insist on thinking that you’re innocent, then it can only mean that your real name isn’t Su Guo. Or rather, your name in front of the fake Mo Long isn’t Su Guo.” Jiang Yu snapped her fingers and said, “But, are you involved with the fake Mo Long? We just need to call him over and identify him in person.”

Of course, Su Guo didn’t believe that Jiang Yu could call the fake Mo Long over. After all, he was already a felon. Even if Jiang Yu had a high status, she couldn’t easily bring him over from the police station.

As long as she could stall for some time and make Jiang Yu soften her heart and let her go, Su Guo could take this opportunity to escape to the ends of the earth so that no one could find her.

Jiang Yu seemed to have seen through Su Guo’s thoughts and called Chang Kai directly to explain the whole story.

Chang Kai did not say anything and sent a car to send the fake Mo Long over.

When Su Guo saw the fake ink dragon, she was so shocked that her mouth could fit an egg.

The fake Mo Long had become thinner. When he was captured, he had lost his mind because he could not withstand the blow.

Jiang Yu did not ask him to meet Su Guo directly. Instead, she walked out and took out Su Guo’s photo. She asked him, “Have you seen this person?”

The fake Mo Long squeaked and could not say a complete sentence. Jiang Yu raised her voice and said, “Have you seen it or not? You just need to nod.”

Su Guo was in the house. She didn’t know if the fake Mo Long had identified her based on the photo.

Not long after, Jiang Yu came in from outside and said to Su Guo, “The fake Mo Long has already identified you. What else do you have to say?”

“Impossible! How could he know me?” Su Guo’s psychological defense was beginning to collapse. “Every time I see him, he wears a mask! It’s impossible for him to recognize me! Besides, my name isn’t Su Guo in front of him. How could he know this name?”

“He really doesn’t know. I was lying to you.” Jiang Yu was expressionless. At the same time, she called Teng Yi over. “Teng Yi, this is all I can help you with. Since she had already admitted her relationship with the fake Mo Long, she was the mole beside Mo Long. As for the specific way to deal with it, I’ll leave it to you to decide.”

“You lied to me?” Su Guo finally woke up from her dream. She shouted at Jiang Yu’s back like a madman, “Jiang Yu! You b * tch, how dare you lie to me!”

Chapter 1500 Seeking Cooperation

After Jiang Yu left, she allowed Su Guo to curse at her from behind. Teng Yi found a piece of cloth and covered her mouth.

“Su Guo, I’ve been with you for so long. I didn’t expect you to be this kind of person!” Teng Yi said resentfully.

Even Teng Yi, a man of steel, couldn’t help but feel his eyes turn red. He didn’t want to show this expression in front of Su Guo, so he turned around and left.

Su Guo struggled in the basement for a long time, but no one came to save her. In the end, she closed her eyes and accepted her fate.

It seemed that she would stop here for the rest of her life.

When Jiang Yu returned to the company, she originally planned to deal with some tricky matters before preparing to go to Oceania.

However, when she went back, she actually saw a person who should not have appeared in the reception room-Sun You.

When Sun You saw that Jiang Yu had returned, he immediately stood up and acted like a gentleman. He extended his hand to Jiang Yu. "Hello, President Jiang. I've been waiting for you here for a long time."

Jiang Yu only glanced at him indifferently and did not shake his hand. This made Sun You feel very awkward.

Jiang Yu sat on the sofa minding her own business. She knew that Sun You was here to discuss a collaboration with her. However, no matter how tempting his offer was, Jiang Yu's answer was always the same: rejection.

Sun You was still trying to change Jiang Yu's mind as he chattered on. Jiang Yu was already impatient and interrupted him. "I won't work with you. I've already made myself clear. Don't think that just because you're married to Kang Xue, you can build a relationship with me."

Sun You coughed twice to ease the awkwardness. He said to Jiang Yu, "I didn't come to work with you because of Kang Xue. I really saw your talent and ability, so I decided to work with you. Don't think too much about it."

"I didn't think too much about it. This is the truth." Jiang Yu no longer looked at Sun You. She directly let Sister Xia in and said, "After Sister Xia sends the guests off, don't see him again if he comes again."

"Jiang Yu, you can't be so heartless!" Sun You was furious. "Don't be so cruel. We can meet again in the future! I don't think I've done anything to anger you, so why must you be so ruthless? If you really think that I've let you down, then just say it. I can apologize to you!"

"The person you're sorry to isn't me, it's Kang Xue. If you really want to apologize, then you should say this to Kang Xue." Jiang Yu stood up and left. As she walked, she said, "From the beginning, you and I were like fire and water. Previously, we had a few words because of Kang Xue. Don't think that we have a good relationship. As for cooperation, don't even think about it."

After saying that, Jiang Yu disappeared from the reception room. Sun You still wanted to call out to her, trying to persuade her to stay. But Sister Xia stopped him and said with a smile, "Director Sun, please go back."

Sun You felt extremely uncomfortable after being rejected by Jiang Yu. He stood there for a while in a rage before muttering to himself indignantly, "If Kang Xue finds out about this, I think the two of you won't even be friends anymore!"

After saying that, he left with a long face.

After Jiang Yu returned to her office, she sat in her office chair and guessed that someone else would definitely come after Sun You.

"Sister Xia, do you still remember those people on the list?" she asked.

Sister Xia nodded.

Jiang Yu continued, "After Sun You, there will definitely be other people who will come to seek cooperation. It must be those people on the list because I haven't given them an answer yet. If someone from above comes looking for me, just stop them and don't let them in. Just reject them on my behalf."

"No problem," Sister Xia replied, but she immediately thought of another person-Kang He. "Then Kang He should also refuse? She's not only Kang Xue's sister, but you're also a member of the Kang family. You can reject her, but if you stop her outside the door, it's hard to guarantee that she won't talk about you when she returns to the Kang family."

Jiang Yu thought about it carefully and felt that what Sister Xia said made sense. She said, "Alright then. If Kang He is here, you can let her in. As for the others, I'll have to trouble you to reject them on my behalf."

"Alright, no problem." As she spoke, Sister Xia took out another notice and handed it to Jiang Yu. She said, "This is the variety show that you recorded previously. We've already started recording it again. I was thinking that before you go to Australia, you should finish recording the last episode."
