

Older Man 171

Chapter 171: Real Life Cinderella

That night.

The news of Jiang Ran and Sun You's engagement was placed on the front page of the local news in Hu city.

"They've really soared to the top and become a Phoenix!"

"I didn't expect that the Sun family would actually marry such an ordinary family."

"I've seen the performance of Jiang Ran and Sun You on the dating show. It's so sweet. I didn't expect them to get together so soon."

"I'm a fan of their couple and I've also seen that show. Sun You is so capable of being a boyfriend. Jiang Ran must have picked up a treasure."

"I'm so envious!"

"The two of them look so compatible when they stand together. This dress is too beautiful."

"I heard that it was specially customized by the Sun family."

"Oh my God, this is the real-life Cinderella."

That night, the Jiang family was in the limelight.

Jiang Yu looked at the news with an indifferent expression.

If Jiang Ran really sent people to deal with her today, then she would definitely not be lenient with Jiang Ran in the future.

Soon, Mo Long walked in.

Jiang Yu asked, "Have you found out?"

Mo Long shook his head. "The other party used a concealed cell phone and account. There's no way to trace it back to the source."

Jiang Yu was stunned for a moment and said in a low voice, "That might not be done by Jiang Ran."

Mo Long also nodded. "Someone is fishing in troubled waters."

Today, Jiang Ran obviously came up with it on the spur of the moment and even revealed such a big flaw. Even the surveillance camera could capture Jiang Ran's conversation with the waiter.

How could she still make such detailed arrangements and still be able to conceal her identity and account.

Therefore, the waiter and those hooligans were two different groups of people.

"No matter who that person is, if you don't succeed this time, you'll definitely make a move next time. Be careful, I'll get a bodyguard to protect you." Mo Long's pitch-black eyes looked at Jiang Yu.

However, Jiang Yu said, "Do you think I need a bodyguard?"

The two hooligans today were subdued by Jiang Yu with a silver needle.

Mo Long heard this and said, "Then you be careful."

Jiang Yu nodded.

The next day.

When Jiang Yu arrived at school, she saw many people discussing the engagement between Jiang Ran and Sun You.

Jiang Ran was surrounded by many people. Those who originally looked down on Jiang Ran's identity were now smiling at Jiang Ran in a very flattering manner.

When Jiang Ran saw Jiang Yu, she immediately followed.

"Sister, when do you think you will be engaged to Mr. Mo? I'm waiting to attend your engagement party too."

Jiang Ran said sarcastically on purpose because she didn't believe it at all, Jiang Yu had the chance to get engaged to Mo Long. "Oh, right, I almost forgot. You and Mo Long haven't reached that stage yet. You haven't even seen his family. How could it be so fast. It seems that you can only attend my wedding first."

The surrounding classmates complimented, "Are you getting married so soon?"

"We just got engaged."

Jiang Ran smiled and said, "Last night, our two families discussed it. We will get married next month."

For a moment, the surrounding people looked at her with envy. "Isn't this too rushed?"

"It was Sun You who suggested it. He wants to get married as soon as possible." Jiang Ran deliberately said embarrassedly, "It can't be helped. If a man loves you, he really wants to be tied to you. Sister, don't you think so?"

Jiang Yu looked at Jiang Ran's performance expressionlessly.

"Have you heard of the so-called flash marriage clan?"

Jiang Ran was stunned for a moment. "So what?"

"The flash marriage is the number one cause of divorce. It even exceeds the divorce caused by infidelity," Jiang Yu said lightly.

Hearing this, Jiang Ran's face turned green with anger.

"Jiang Yu, you..."

"I'm just reminding you so that you won't be too blindly confident." After Jiang Yu said that, she left with the book in her arms.

Behind her, the crowd tried to persuade Jiang Ran. "I think she's jealous of you."

"Yes, you have such a good relationship with Sun You. With such love, you will definitely grow old together.."

Chapter 172: Return The Favour

When Jiang Yu arrived at class one, Dai Zhu came over.

"Sister Jiang, the dance you danced last night was really beautiful."

As the number one socialite in Hu city, the Dai family was also invited to attend the engagement party.

However, Dai Zhu arrived late. By the time she got there, the dance was already halfway through.

She didn't expect to see Jiang Yu and Mo Long dancing together.

At that moment, Dai Zhu admired Jiang Yu even more.

This Jiang Yu actually danced better than the movie queen that she had once admired.

Jiang Yu walked to her seat and pulled out a chair to sit down.

Seeing that Dai Zhu was still being attentive to Jiang Yu, the surrounding friends could not help but ask, "Dai Zhu, how is your father's condition now?"

Dai Zhu said, "It's only been two days. How can he recover so quickly? But it's obviously much better."

The other students immediately sighed in their hearts.

They felt that Dai Zhu was really stupid to not realize that she had been tricked by Jiang Yu.

No one believed that Jiang Yu's medical skills were that good.

Only Dai Zhu believed it.

Jiang Yu nodded. "I'll go and help your father take a look again tonight."

"Okay, I'll arrange it right away." Dai Zhu's face lit up. It was great that Jiang Yu could go to the Dai family again.

Jiang Yu, on the other hand, was a little doubtful.

Actually, Jiang Yu also had some doubts about Director Dai's illness.

Because of Director Dai's illness, when Jiang Yu checked twice, it actually worsened very seriously.

This was a little unusual.

Therefore, Jiang Yu wanted to check again to see if there were any other factors that caused Director Dai's illness to worsen.

Today, she had to go to the Dai family to confirm it.

...

At the same time.

"I didn't expect that the music video this time would have such a high number of views. Many of the comments were praising the female lead's performance." Zhuo Zheng's assistant was extremely excited when she saw the song whose popularity had skyrocketed to number one on the music chart.

Zhuo Zheng, who was in the middle of a concert, also said, "Indeed. If it weren't for Jiang Yu's good acting, this music video wouldn't have such a large number of views."

Although Zhuo Zheng's song had the potential to be a hit, it wouldn't normally have such a huge popularity.

According to Zhuo Zheng's expectations, it would at most enter the top ten of the music chart.

But now, it had miraculously rushed to first place.

All of this was indeed Jiang Yu's credit.

"Looks like I owe Jiang Yu a favor again," Zhuo Zheng said with a sigh.

Originally, this MV was to return the favor of Jiang Yu treating his throat. He did not expect Jiang Yu to help him instead, making him even more popular.

The assistant shook his head and said, "Didn't Jiang Yu gain a lot of benefits from this MV? Many of your fans have already become Jiang Yu's fans."

Thinking of this, the assistant was also very puzzled. Why did Jiang Yu's fans increase so much after a MV.

Jiang Yu was getting popular from whatever she released

However, Zhuo Zheng said, "No, after all, I still owe her."

"If you want to repay her favor, I have an idea. In a few days, isn't there a variety show that has been inviting you? Do you really have to participate?"

When Zhuo Zheng heard this, his eyes immediately lit up. "You mean to recommend Jiang Yu to join them?"

"That's right. Jiang Yu's reputation is still high anyway. If she joins the show, you'll return the favor and the program team will find a suitable guest. Wouldn't that be the best of both worlds?" The assistant said.

Zhuo Zheng thought for a moment and nodded. "Go make the arrangements."

The assistant immediately took out his phone and made a call.

When they heard that the number one singer on the music chart was willing to participate in the reality show, they were instantly excited.

"However, we have a request."

“As long as Zhuo Zheng is willing to participate, we will try our best to satisfy any request. Does he need the most scenes or do he need to know the script of the reality show in advance?”

The assistant was speechless. He could actually see the script of the reality show in advance?

“No, no, I want to recommend a guest.”

“Who?”

“Jiang Yu.”

Chapter 173: Chronic Poison

At night, Jiang Yu followed Dai Zhu to the Jiang family.

“Hey, sister, is this the female doctor who wrote the prescription?”

In the hall, Dai Zi, the adopted daughter of the Dai family, was standing beside her mother.

At first, Director Dai thought he couldn't have children, so he adopted a daughter.

He didn't expect Dai Zhu to be born the next year.

So, the Dai family had two young ladies.

“Zi, this is my classmate, Jiang Yu,” Dai Zhu introduced to Dai Zi.

Dai Zi looked at Jiang Yu in surprise.

She had heard from her mother that although Jiang Yu was young, her medical skills were really good.

She had cured him very quickly when Director Dai got sick.

She even wrote a prescription.

She heard that he would be able to recover after taking this prescription for a month.

When she thought of this, Dai Zi secretly clenched her fists.

“Is my dad upstairs?” Dai Zhu asked.

“Yes, dad's complexion is much better today. He even said that he would have to let Miss Jiang stay at home for dinner tonight. Miss Jiang's medical skills are superb, so he must show up.”

Jiang Yu nodded and said, “Okay.”

Then, Dai Zhu brought Jiang Yu upstairs.

Dai Zi also hurried to follow.

She wanted to see if Jiang Yu's medical skills were really that good.

In the room.

Director Dai was lying weakly on the bed to rest.

Although he had taken medicine for a few days and was obviously getting better, he still needed to recuperate.

After Jiang Yu entered the room, she frowned when she saw director Dai's expression.

Dai Zhu said, "Look, my father is much better."

Jiang Yu went forward and pulled director Dai's wrist. She took his pulse and a thoughtful look flashed across her eyes.

When Dai Zi saw Jiang Yu's serious expression, she could not help but probe, "What's wrong? How's my father's condition?"

Jiang Yu put director Dai's arm down again. "He's getting better."

Director Dai also said, "I feel a little better too."

Jiang Yu, however, still frowned. According to the prescription she gave, it was impossible for him to recover so slowly.

"Director Dai, have you taken any other medicine these past few days?"

Director Dai said, "No, I've only taken some health supplements that I usually take."

Upon hearing about health supplements, Jiang Yu immediately asked, "Can I take a look?"

Dai Zhu hurriedly passed the medicine on the table to Jiang Yu. "This is it. My sister bought it specially from overseas. This medicine is good for health."

Jiang Yu looked at the packaging outside. It was indeed an ordinary health supplement.

However, when she thought of Director Dai's health condition, Jiang Yu subconsciously wanted to open the medicine bottle to take a look.

Dai Zi asked nervously, "What's wrong?"

Jiang Yu didn't say a word. After she opened the bottle, she took a look at it before putting it back in.

In reality, she had secretly hidden a pill in her hand.

She needed to test the composition of the pill before she could find out.

"It's nothing."

Jiang Yu put the pill back in her hand. "I'll help Director Dai with the acupuncture. Those who have nothing to do with it, please leave."

Dai Zhu quickly pulled Dai Zi out.

In the room, Jiang Yu said while giving Director Dai the injection, "Your illness might be caused by a chronic poison."

Director Dai's expression changed when he heard that. "Are you saying that someone poisoned me?"

“The thing that you eat every day is this health supplement?”

Director Dai said, “There can’t be a problem with this health supplement.”

“You can’t judge a book by its cover. I’ll bring the medicine over for a test.”

Director Dai looked at Jiang Yu with a complicated expression.

He never believed that his illness was actually caused by eating this health product.

If that was really the case, then Dai Zi...

Impossible.

Director Dai quickly dismissed this idea. He remembered that Dai Zi had been very obedient since she was young. It was impossible for her to do such a thing.

“Then go ahead and test her. You shouldn’t be able to find anything.”

Jiang Yu didn’t comment.

This time, Jiang Yu gave director Dai an injection, which made him look a little better.

Director Dai was able to get down on the ground, and his face was a lot ruddier.

Chapter 174: Copycat

At night, the Dai family invited Jiang Yu over for dinner.

At the dining table, Dai Zi smiled and said, “Miss Jiang, my father looks better now that you’re here. I’m really grateful to you. Otherwise, I would have been worried to death.”

President Dai and his wife also looked at Jiang Yu gratefully.

However, Jiang Yu said, “He could have gotten better faster.”

Only Dai Zi looked at Jiang Yu with a complicated expression. Could it be that Jiang Yu had noticed something?

Halfway through her meal.

Dai Zhu’s cell phone suddenly rang.

Her expression changed when she picked up the call. “What? The script I took to participate in the competition was accused of plagiarism? How is that possible?”

Dai Zhu hung up the call and quickly opened the competition website.

She realized that her work had already been removed from the shelves.

Moreover, the comments below were all scolding her.

“Copycat!”

"This script was already published half a month ago. You only took it out to participate in the competition now. Aren't you too daring?"

"This person's character is too questionable. She is a student of Green Vine University. I suggest that the university expel this person."

"The original author is on this link and will severely punish this kind of plagiarism."

Dai Zhu was stunned when she saw this.

The others also looked over.

When they saw the content, their expressions changed.

Dai Zi immediately exclaimed, "Sister, how can the work you participated in be someone else's work?"

Dai Zhu was dumbfounded. "I don't know. I didn't plagiarize at all."

Jiang Yu said, "Take a look at the content of the link first."

Dai Zhu clicked on the link. When she saw that the content was exactly the same as her original manuscript, she was instantly thrown into confusion.

"That's impossible. How could this person have my original manuscript!"

This original manuscript was from half a month ago.

And now, the version she was participating in had been revised twice.

But how could her manuscript be published in advance.

"Zhu Zhu, how did I teach you? How could you do such a thing?" Seeing that the evidence was conclusive and that the two scripts were basically the same, Director Dai's face instantly turned livid.

"No, I didn't plagiarize."

"But sister, this person published it half a month earlier than you. Do you have any other evidence to prove that this script was written by you?"

Dai Zhu shook her head.

She had the original manuscript, but she could not prove when it was written.

She was simply being framed to death.

"Then this matter is complicated. Sister, did you read this script in advance, so you accidentally memorized the plot?" Dai Zi said deliberately.

Although she said this, it seemed like she was speaking up for Dai Zhu.

However, anyone with a discerning eye could see that the words and sentences in the two scripts were almost exactly the same. It was impossible for them to have memorized the plot.

When Director Dai heard this, he was so angry that his lungs were about to explode. "Zhu Zhu, you..."

After saying this, Director Dai was on the verge of collapse again.

Madam Dai quickly supported Director dai. “Hubby, you can’t be angry now. Go to the room and rest. I’ll discipline Zhu Zhu.”

Madam Dai’s expression was ugly as well.

She didn’t expect Dai Zhu to do such a thing.

Jiang Yu also took the content of the so-called original author and read it. “Are you sure that this manuscript was written by you?”

Dai Zhu nodded. She was so anxious that she was about to cry.

“Okay, then I’ll help you investigate.”

Dai Zi immediately sneered. How else could she investigate.

This time, Dai Zhu would definitely not be able to turn the tables.

Once the matter of Dai Zhu plagiarizing was confirmed, the school would definitely expel such a student.

And the Dai Corporation would not allow such a person with bad conduct to inherit it.

Then, she would be the only one left.

Dai Zhu did not think that Jiang Yu would be able to find anything out.

She was unable to defend herself against this matter.

After sending Jiang Yu away, Dai Zi said, “Sister, since this matter hasn’t blown up yet, you should contact the original author and take a look. Try to minimize the matter as much as possible.. Otherwise, the reputation of the Dai family will be affected.”

Chapter 175: Bribing The Original Author

The next day.

Dai Zhu walked along the school’s boulevard and was met with the students’ strange gazes. Everyone’s gazes followed her, whispering about something.

“This person is a plagiarist.”

“After plagiarizing, she even tried to bribe the original author. Now it has been exposed.”

Dai Zhu arrived in class one.

The way the others looked at her was not right.

“I thought she was very talented. I didn’t expect the script to be plagiarized.”

“People like her should be kicked out of class one.”

Dai Zhu was confused. What bribery?

She took out her phone and saw that the “Original author” had posted a screenshot of a private message on Weibo.

It was the same message that Dai Zi had helped her reply to last night: “How much money do you need to tell the truth? Where did you get this script?”

It was this message that had been posted by the author. Many netizens thought that Dai Zhu was hinting at bribery and wanted to settle this matter with money.

“Why did you post this?”

Jiang Yu also saw this news and looked at Dai Zhu in surprise. Dai Zhu was usually quite smart, but why was she so stupid this time.

“It was Zi who said that in order not to affect the company, we should first use the fastest method to settle it.” At that time, Dai Zhu was also panicking. She would listen to whatever Dai Zi said.

Who knew that she would be blamed by others?

Dai Zhu did not expect that she would actually be isolated by class one one one day, except for Jiang Yu and a few classmates who were usually close to her on her side.

Jiang Yu had already asked Yuan Zhen to investigate the matter using hacking skills last night.

“Jiang Yu, there are so many people who are slandering me now. Do you think I should go and ask for online army to control the debate? I didn’t do anything. I really wrote that script. I wrote it half a month ago.”

Who knew how the script could have been published at that time?

“Who has read your script?” Jiang Yu touched her chin.

“I wrote it at home and didn’t bring it to school. It’s impossible for others to see it.”

Hearing this answer, Jiang Yu suddenly had a direction.

“There’s no need to ask the troll army for now,” Jiang Yu said.

At that moment, Jiang Yu’s phone received a document.

It was the information about the “Original author” that Yuan Zhen had found out.

Jiang Yu touched her chin. When she saw the content on it, she raised her eyebrows.

“Interesting. The account was recently registered, and it was specially sent to that script. And this ID address...”

The ID address written on it was extremely familiar to Jiang Yu, because she had just gone to look at it yesterday.

“Jiang Yu, what’s wrong?”

Dai Zhu asked curiously when she saw Jiang Yu suddenly staring at her phone with a meaningful expression.

Jiang Yu directly showed her the results of the investigation.

“Take a look for yourself.”

Dai Zhu went over to take a look. When she saw the address on it, she was stunned. “Isn’t this my home address? How could that person...”

“Don’t you understand? It’s someone from your family who wants to mess with you.” Jiang Yu sighed helplessly.

Basically, she had already locked onto her target.

Dai Zhu was completely dumbfounded. She had never expected that it would be someone from her family.

However, her family had always been harmonious and she did not have any enmity with anyone.

At this moment, the teacher’s voice came from the door. “Student Dai Zhu, come out for a moment.”

Dai Zhu saw that it was the grade director and quickly went forward.

“The school has given you a holiday because of your bad reputation. They want you to properly handle this matter.” The teacher’s eyes were extremely sharp, as if he had already treated Dai Zhu as a plagiarist.

Dai Zhu immediately understood what was going on. She was about to say something when a hand pressed on Dai Zhu’s shoulder, “Dai Zhu, I’ll send you home.”

Dai Zhu nodded. She knew that if this matter was not resolved, she would not be able to return to school. Instead, she would be directly expelled.

The school would not allow such a tainted student.

Chapter 176: Suspended From School

Jiang Yu followed Dai Zhu out.

Along the way, the students were discussing animatedly.

“I heard that she was suspended from school by the school.”

“I didn’t expect Dai Zhu to do such a thing despite her good grades.”

“You can’t judge a book by its cover. I guess she won’t come to school anymore.”

Dai Zhu gritted her teeth and waited until she got into the car with Jiang Yu before she asked, “What should we do now?”

Jiang Yu sat there calmly.

Although she did find out that the ID address is at Dai's house, they have no idea who it was.

You can't prove your innocence just by showing this proof.

Just at this time, Jiang Yu's cell phone rang again.

Jiang Yu answered the phone and said to the other side, "Send me the test results."

Very quickly, Jiang Yu looked at the information.

Dai Zhu looked at it and immediately said, "This is a chronic poison? Why are you investigating this?"

Jiang Yu just looked at Dai Zhu and said, "What do you think?"

Dai Zhu reacted and suddenly said, "Does it have anything to do with me?"

"This is the test result of the health product that Dai Zi bought," said Jiang Yu.

Dai Zhu took a deep breath and said, "How can it be? Why is it poisonous? Is there a mistake?"

Dai Zhu remembered that she had a good relationship with Dai Zi since she was a child. Dai Zi was also very filial to her father. How could she do such a thing?

"If there's a mistake, I'll have to go to your house to take a look." Jiang Yu frowned. "Even if we have these two pieces of evidence now, it's still not enough. Dai Zi will still say that it's very likely that someone switched the medicine. We need more evidence, so we have to go to your house."

Dai Zhu was confused. She heard Jiang Yu say, "Just do as I say."

Because there was not enough evidence now, Jiang Yu told Dai Zhu to stay put and pretend that she didn't know about the two things.

Jiang Yu went to the Dai family to investigate.

When they arrived at the Dai family's house, Madam Dai and Dai Zi were already in the hall, anxiously looking at the situation on the internet.

"Why is it getting worse?!"

"What is Zhu Zhu thinking? She actually asked to give that person money." Madam Dai was about to faint.

A hint of a smile flashed across Dai Zi's eyes, but she quickly concealed it.

"Mom, don't be anxious. Have a glass of water. We can't do anything about it. The original author won't budge. We won't be able to find a breakthrough for the time being."

Jiang Yu let Dai Zhu get out of the car first while she began to investigate through the Dai family's network.

She wanted to find more evidence.

Soon, Jiang Yu hacked into Dai Zi's phone and began to read the contents of her phone.

It had Dai Zhu's contact with a wechat friend, from which she bought chronic medicine.

"It must not be found out. I want him to think that his condition has worsened and there's no way to treat it." Dai Zi's voice came from Jiang Yu's computer.

Jiang Yu immediately collected all the information on her computer and casually flipped through it.

She flipped to the photo of Dai Zhu's draft and sent it to another person, asking him to post it in advance.

"Remember, when the time comes, hire a troll army. I want Dai Zhu's reputation to be ruined and she will never have the chance to inherit the Dai Corporation. Do you understand?"

With this, Jiang Yu had enough evidence.

She didn't expect Dai Zi to make a move on her adoptive father and the good sister she grew up with.

It seemed that Dai Zi wanted Dai Zhu to be unable to inherit the company and let Director Dai pass away so that she could take over the company..

Chapter 177: Criticised

Dai family.

Madam Dai asked Dai Zhu, "How is it?"

Dai Zhu shook her head. "There's no other way."

When she heard that, Madam Dai nearly fainted.

At that moment, Dai Zi said, "Not good. Sister has been attacked again."

At that moment, many people were criticizing Dai Zhu on the internet.

"Such a person should be kicked out of school."

"I didn't expect the Dai family to raise such a person. If such a person inherits the company in the future, the company will definitely go bankrupt."

"The eldest daughter of the Dai family has an outstanding character. She's much better than Dai Zhu!"

"Sigh, the stock price of the Dai family has been affected. I wonder how the Dai family will deal with such a daughter."

"If it were up to me, I would have kicked her out of the family instead of leaving her to ruin the family's reputation."

Dai Zi's lips twitched slightly when she saw that the internet trolls had finally appeared.

When she turned around, Dai Zi pretended to be very anxious. "Why are these people spouting nonsense? We need to issue a lawyer's letter to sue them for slander. I believe that my sister is innocent. There must be some misunderstanding."

Dai Zhu looked at Dai Zi's anxious expression, but there was a look of scrutiny in her eyes. If Jiang Yu had not told her not to tell her everything yet, Dai Zhu would have asked her why she changed her father's medicine.

Did Dai Zi ask someone to send that script to defame her.

Madam Dai was also dumbfounded when she heard that. How could the situation be getting worse?

Now, they were actually attacking the Dai family?

At the same time.

Upstairs.

Director Dai walked down with the help of the butler.

Jiang Yu had helped Director Dai's spirits improve a lot last night, but for some reason, Director Dai's health deteriorated again this morning.

Director Dai even suspected that there was something wrong with Jiang Yu's prescription.

After all, other than taking Jiang Yu's medicine, he had only taken home-cooked meals and health pills.

In the morning, Director Dai woke up in a daze. His family didn't dare to let him know about the stuff on the internet.

Now that Director Dai heard the conversation downstairs, he asked the butler to bring him down.

Director Dai went downstairs and sat on the sofa in the main seat. He narrowed his eyes and asked, "What is it?"

The atmosphere in the hall was very strange. How could Director Dai not notice it.

"Dad, it's Dai Zhu's matter that has worsened. The original author on the Internet revealed that sister wanted to bribe him. The company's stock has also been affected," Dai Zi said deliberately. She was also deliberately trying to provoke director Dai. She wanted his situation to deteriorate earlier.

As expected, when Director Dai heard this, his face turned pale and his blood surged. "Zhu Zhu, tell me, did you plagiarize it? Why did you still bribe that person?"

Director Dai was so angry that he was about to die. Only then did he realize that his phone had been switched off at some point.

He quickly opened it and saw that it was all calls from people in the company.

The messages that were sent were all asking about Dai Zhu, indicating that it had affected the company's reputation.

For a moment, Director Dai felt his blood surge. The illness in his body was acting up again.

"Dad!"

"Send him to the hospital quickly."

Everyone in the Dai family panicked.

At that moment, Jiang Yu's voice came from the door. "Let me take a look."

Dai Zi didn't expect Jiang Yu to come. She hurriedly stood in front of Jiang Yu and said, "You liar. You said that my dad would recover after taking the prescription, but it's useless now. You can't look at him."

Dai Zi looked at Madam Dai and said, "Mom, send father to the hospital quickly. This person is useless. Dad seemed to have recovered a little yesterday, but it's all an illusion. Dad's condition is obviously worse today."

When Madam Dai thought of this, she suddenly understood.

That's right. Every time the old man took the prescription, although he temporarily recovered, he would soon deteriorate again. He had to stay at home to recuperate.

Back then, Jiang Yu had said that he could recover within a month after taking the medicine.. This didn't seem like a sign of recovery.

Chapter 178: Mastermind Behind The Scenes

When Madam Dai heard this, she hurriedly said, "Quick, send him to the hospital."

She must not let Jiang Yu treat him again.

Dai Zi pointed at Jiang Yu and said, "If anything happens to my father, I won't let you off."

This was really a backstab.

Dai Zhu was dumbfounded. This time, she suddenly understood that it was probably because of Dai Zi's instructions.

Now that her father was in such a state, Dai Zi actually refused to let Jiang Yu save him.

If she missed the best first aid period...

Without saying a word, Dai Zhu stopped Dai Zi and said to Jiang Yu, "Jiang Yu, quickly take a look at my father."

Dai Zi was in disbelief. "Sister, you aren't working with that swindler, are you? Are you trying to get father killed?"

Madam Dai's face was pale as she looked at Dai Zhu suspiciously.

On the other side, Jiang Yu had already taken out a silver needle and was applying the needle quickly and accurately.

Soon, Director Dai's expression returned to normal.

He looked at Jiang Yu and said weakly, "I'm acting up again. It's all because of anger!"

After saying that, Director Dai looked at Dai Zhu.

He didn't expect Jiang Yu to say again, "You're acting up because you ate a slow-acting poison!"

When Dai Zi heard the words 'slow-acting poison', she immediately became nervous. She hurriedly pointed at Jiang Yu's nose and said, "Quickly arrest her. She admitted it herself and drugged my dad."

A few servants surrounded Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu coldly glanced at Dai Zi.

This glance immediately sent a chill down Dai Zi's spine.

Could it be that Jiang Yu knew something?

However, when she thought about it, even if it was verified that the health supplement was a slow-acting poison, she could be said to have been swapped out by someone. She could say she had no idea at all. Immediately, Dai Zi calmed down slightly. She could not feel guilty at this moment.

Just as the servants were about to catch Jiang Yu, Director Dai said in a deep voice, "Stop!"

Dai Zhu quickly went forward. "Dad, we found that the health supplement you ate contained a slow-acting poison."

"Is what you said true?" Director Dai's expression turned cold. He suddenly thought of something and looked at Dai Zi, who had been providing health supplements all this while.

He suddenly remembered that he had taken health supplements before his illness started.

Moreover, he had been taking health care products nonstop for the past few years.

Madam Dai was extremely surprised. "Why would there be a problem with the health care products?"

Dai Zi hurriedly said, "Dad, I personally went overseas to get this medicine. It can't be wrong. If there's a problem, it's very likely that someone switched it out."

She looked as if she didn't know anything.

If this was any other time, Dai Zhu would definitely believe Dai Zi. However, after the suspicion in his heart was planted, he felt that there was something wrong with Dai Zi.

"Oh, is that so? Then how do you explain this?"

Suddenly, Jiang Yu took out her phone.

"Yes, this is the drug test report," Dai Zhu said.

Dai Zi did not mind it and looked at Jiang Yu innocently. "I don't know what you are talking about."

She thought that Jiang Yu only had one test report.

She did not expect Jiang Yu to directly send out a message. "It must not be found out. I want him to think that his condition has worsened."

The crowd quickly recognized that the voice was from Dai Zi.

For a moment, Director Dai and Madam Dai looked at Dai Zi in shock.

Dai Zi was also stunned. "Impossible, this must be a synthetic voice. It's not me."

Why was what she had said to the seller in Jiang Yu's hands?

Jiang Yu sneered and played another voice, "Remember, when the time comes, hire another troll army. I want to destroy Dai Zhu's reputation and never have the chance to inherit the Dai Corporation. Do you understand?"

Hearing this voice, Dai Zhu's expression changed drastically. She did not expect Dai Zi to really be the one who was slandering her.

"Sister, why are you doing this to me and dad?" Dai Zhu muttered.

Dai Zi forced herself to remain calm, "These are all synthesized by her, not me. You must be blaming me for this."

Dai Zi pointed at Dai Zhu indignantly.

Director Dai looked at the two of them with a complicated expression. His entire face turned gloomy.

It was actually an internal conflict among the family members.

Chapter 179: Can't Call The Police

Dai Zhu stared at Dai Zi with her mouth agape. She did not expect Dai Zi to blame everything on her.

"I didn't." Dai Zhu hurriedly shook her head.

Dai Zi's eyes immediately reddened, she looked at Madam Dai. "Mom, you know me. I've always let my sister do whatever she wants since I was young. I didn't fight for anything. How could I do such a thing? Now, my sister is working with that outsider to slander me. I..."

"I know that all of you must stand on your own daughter's side. If that's the case, then I'll just accept it so that you won't be in a difficult position."

After saying that, Dai Zi's tears began to fall, as if she had been wronged.

Madam Dai's heart immediately softened. "I didn't say that you did it."

Director Dai's face darkened as he looked at everyone present. It was unknown what he thought.

Dai Zhu was also dumbfounded. If Dai Zi didn't do it, didn't that mean that she and Jiang Yu had slandered Dai Zi?

"Mom..." Dai Zhu shouted.

Madam Dai's eyes were also red, she looked at Dai Zhu and said, "Zhu Zhu, in order to clear your name, how could you slander your sister? Your sister has always been very concerned about you. In order to help your father get better, she helped to buy health care products. How could she do anything to you?"

From Madam Dai's point of view, Dai Zi had always been very sensible and cared about everyone in the family. How could such a kind person do such a heinous thing and even use slow-acting poison?

"In my opinion, all the slow-acting poison is fake. It's all an excuse made up by that swindler because she saw that hubby couldn't be cured. Otherwise, why would hubby not be in good condition the next day after he was rescued?" Madam Dai looked suspiciously at Jiang Yu who was standing there.

It must have been Jiang Yu, the liar, who had taught Dai Zhu badly. That was why Dai Zhu had blamed Dai Zi for everything.

"Mom, what I said is true," Dai Zhu said in disappointment.

Jiang Yu sneered when she saw this. "Madam Dai, don't forget who your biological daughter is. Are you sure you want to give your heart to such an ingrate?"

"You called me a liar and said that the test results of this health product were fake. How about this, we'll call the police and see what the results of the investigation will be?"

As Jiang Yu spoke, she shook the evidence in her hand.

With this, was she afraid that the police would not be able to distinguish right from wrong?

Director Dai narrowed his eyes. He wanted to say something, but he restrained himself.

Dai Zi's hand, which had been tightly holding Madam Dai's hand, tightened.

She hurriedly turned to look at Jiang Yu. Seeing that Jiang Yu was about to make a call, she hurriedly said, "You can't call the police!"

However, Jiang Yu only glanced at her indifferently and continued to make the call.

Only then did Dai Zi really panic.

Now that the few of them were confronting each other, she might still be able to use family ties to fool them.

But if she really got the police to intervene, that would be...

Thinking that she had so much evidence in Jiang Yu's hands, Dai Zi felt a chill down her spine.

She hurriedly rushed over, wanting to snatch Jiang Yu's phone.

But just as she was about to touch Jiang Yu's hand, Jiang Yu dodged her.

Jiang Yu's lips curled into a half-smile.

Everyone present looked at Dai Zi in shock.

Dai Zi's reaction was too suspicious.

Even Madam Dai, who had just been overwhelmed with motherly love, paused for a moment. A look of shock flashed across her eyes.

When Director Dai saw this, he understood what was going on.

He sighed. "Zi, you have disappointed me."

Dai Zi's face was pale. She knew that she had overreacted in the heat of the moment. For a moment, she stood there speechless.

Only then did Dai Zhu take out her phone. "Dad, this is the result of the identification of the health care product."

It was indeed written with the words 'chronic poison'.

Jiang Yu said, "This is your family's matter, so I won't be involved. I will pass the information I collected to Dai Zhu. As for how to handle it, it's also your family's matter."

After saying that, Jiang Yu passed the information in her hands to Dai Zhu.

Then, she turned around and left.

Chapter 180: Misunderstanding

Dai family.

On Dai Zi's phone, the information about how she framed Dai Zhu and how she seized the family property was exposed.

Director Dai and Madam Dai's faces turned black.

Madam Dai was on the verge of collapse. The voice on the phone was indeed Dai Zi's voice.

"Zi, do you have anything else to say?" Dai Zhu looked at her sister in disappointment.

If Dai Zi still wanted to say that these were all fakes, then she just needed to take out Dai Zi's phone to compare.

"Or do you really want to wait until the police come to investigate before you're willing to tell the truth?" Seeing that Dai Zi was still unwilling to admit it, Dai Zhu's face also turned cold.

Such a person actually wanted to kill her father. There was no need to talk about kinship with her.

When Dai Zi saw that things could not be salvaged, she could only say, "I was the one who did all those things. However, I am also the daughter of the Dai family. However, the family did not consider me as the heir of the family. If not for that, I would not have done all those things!"

If she had not heard her father's words one day when he said that he wanted to hand over the entire company to Dai Zhu, she would not have done such a thing.

It was all her father's fault for being so cruel to her.

Dai Zi stood there, her eyes filled with accusation. She wasn't wrong. It was this family that was at fault.

Director Dai shook his head. "I want to hand over the company to Zhu Zhu because she is more outstanding and cohesive in this aspect. However, I will also leave the other properties and stocks to you. It will be enough for you to live a carefree life. I didn't expect you to do such a thing."

Director Dai clutched his heart in disappointment.

If Jiang Yu had not saved his life time and time again, he would have died from those chronic drugs.

Hearing that, Dai Zi's expression changed drastically. "What did you say..." she did not expect that there would have such a deep misunderstanding.

"It's useless to say this now. From now on, you are no longer a member of the Dai family." Director Dai closed his eyes.

When Madam Dai heard Dai Zi admit it herself, she had already fallen on the sofa. She had always taken care of Dai Zi as an adopted daughter, so she had given her more motherly love.

Unexpectedly, she had almost harmed her own daughter and husband.

At this moment, Madam Dai was filled with regret. She felt that she owed Dai Zhu a lot over the years.

When Dai Zi heard that Director Dai was going to kick her out of the house, she panicked. If she left the Dai family, she would be nothing.

The glory of the past, the sisters who were willing to be friends with her, the luxurious life of the past would no longer exist.

Thinking of this, Dai Zi panicked. "Dad, I was wrong. I will remove the influence on my sister right now. Please don't kick me out."

The spammers and the people who posted the posts were all on Dai Zi's side.

After saying that, Dai Zi immediately took out her phone and instructed the spammers to stop slandering Dai Zhu.

Then she admitted that it wasn't Dai Zhu who had plagiarized, but the person who had posted it had stolen someone else's manuscript.

After a series of things were done, the situation on the Internet immediately changed.

After Dai Zi had done all this, she immediately played the emotional card with Dai Zhu. "Zhu Zhu, are you willing to give me a chance?"

"And mom, your daughter was only infatuated for a moment. I will definitely take good care of you in the future."

"Dad, I was wrong. You have to believe me."

Dai Zi stood there with a sincere expression.

No matter what, she did not want to leave the Dai family.

However, Director Dai's expression did not soften.

"Leave the Dai family immediately. From now on, you are no longer my daughter. If you do anything bad to Zhu Zhu again, I will not let you off."

Director Dai no longer had any hope for Dai Zi. Leaving such a ticking time bomb at home would only hurt her family.

The best way was to drive her out of the Dai family.

When Madam Dai heard this decision, she moved her lips. She couldn't bear it, but when she saw Dai Zhu, she didn't say anything else.

In the future, Dai Zhu would be the only daughter in the family.

When Dai Zi heard this, she stood on the ground with a dazed look on her face. Tears fell again. "Don't drive me away...."
