

Older Man 201

Chapter 201: Break Through The Firewall

Inside the dormitory, Yuan Zhen was bitterly waiting for the results of the competition.

But as he waited and waited, he did not see it.

Yuan Zhen could only say to Jiang Yu, "Boss, it's too slow over there. Why don't you continue with your tasks? There's no need to waste time here."

In order to participate in the hacker competition, Yuan Zhen did not have the time to pay attention to Jiang Yu's filming situation.

She had thought that Jiang Yu had taken a break from her busy schedule and came over to work with her.

Little did she know that Jiang Yu was really very free. At this moment, she was sipping tea and munching on the sunflower seeds that she had brought with her. She was enjoying herself.

One had to know that Jiang Yu had brought so many luggage with her, so she had everything.

Jiang Yu calculated the time and said, "It's fine. Wait for another three minutes, and the results should be out."

Yuan Zhen unexpectedly sent a question mark over, but Jiang Yu did not explain further.

Sure enough, as soon as the three minutes were up, Yuan Zhen saw the results of the advancement competition on the competition screen.

When she saw the rankings, Yuan Zhen jumped in fright.

Could it be that the results of this year's competition had been written wrongly? She remembered that Team X had been the first place before, so how did her team get first place in the blink of an eye?

Yuan Zhen stared at the interface and kept refreshing it, thinking that the staff member might have made a mistake and would correct it soon.

However, the interface did not change no matter how she refreshed it.

Only then did Yuan Zhen realize that they had really gotten first place.

Yuan Zhen could not help but pinch her thigh. The pain was real.

Then, she hurriedly hugged Jiang Yu's thigh and said, "Boss, you are too amazing."

At the same time, when the teams from other countries saw the results of the competition, they were all dumbfounded.

The first place was actually the "Black" team from China.

Moreover, their team only had two people at the moment.

Two people were actually better than five people in their team.

Wasn't this a ruthless slap to the faces of the hackers from many countries?

This was especially so for Team X, who had been waiting for the first place. They had even opened the champagne.

However, just as they were about to toast, they saw this result. Everyone froze. The champagne kept bubbling in the wine glass, but no one had the mood to drink anymore.

What was going on? They were clearly so far ahead of the second place, but they were actually overtaken?

"Boss, what exactly is the background of this 'Black' team? Why is it so powerful?" Someone pushed up his glasses and asked in a daze.

Captain X narrowed his eyes and tried his best to recall the Chinese hackers he had met in the past few years. He did not expect anyone to be so powerful.

After all, many powerful Chinese hackers had been secretly recruited by them.

Otherwise, they would also be recruited by other organizations. However, this was the first time he had heard of this Black team.

"Go and investigate the people in this team," Captain X said gloomily.

On the other side, Yuan Zhen was still chatting excitedly with Jiang Yu when the computer suddenly rang.

After taking a look, she quickly replied to Jiang Yu, "Boss, someone is trying to attack my computer."

There must be someone on the other side who was curious about them, so they followed the internet cable and came over.

Jiang Yu smiled and said, "Don't worry, I'll help you take a look."

Jiang Yu also followed the network cable and went over to help Yuan Zhen defend.

In the end, they discovered that there were a few groups of people probing around the periphery, but Jiang Yu quickly sent them flying out.

She even threw a smoke bomb at them.

In the end, the people from team X said excitedly, "We found it!"

A few people hurriedly went over, wanting to see who the champion was.

However, when they saw the address, they were all stunned. "Boss, isn't this our current address?"

Captain X was sitting at the side drinking tea, thinking that his subordinates would be able to find out who the winner was. However, when he heard that, he immediately blew up and quickly went over to take a look.

He realized that the IP address displayed on the interface was actually their current address.

Instead of finding out the other party's alias, he had lost his alias.

Chapter 202: Hidden Identity

"Second brother, there's actually someone who can break through your firewall!"

"Who is this person? This team Black actually has such a powerful person. Boss, let's quickly poach him over."

The hacker who had his firewall broken immediately had a depressed look on his face. The defensive tool that he was so proud of had actually been broken through so quickly.

Immediately, he looked at the captain guiltily. "Captain, what do we do now?"

The captain's face darkened, and his hands were starting to sweat. If he was the one to make a move earlier, he did not know if he would have been able to defend against it.

However, it was very obvious that the other party was really an expert.

At this moment, a line of words appeared on the interface. "Beat me in the competition first. The loser does not have the right to know who I am."

Jiang Yu had heard their conversation through the microphone on their computers.

In order to prevent them from looking for more information about Yuan Zhen, she had deliberately provoked them.

This way, Yuan Zhen would be safer.

As expected, as soon as these words were said, the voice of the person who was called boss came from the other side. "You're quite brave. Let's see what happens in the competition!"

As soon as this sentence was said, Jiang Yu's connection was directly cut off.

When Jiang Yu wanted to attack again, she found that the defense system had been changed. It would not be so easy to attack again.

Jiang Yu smiled and directly withdrew. It was good that her goal had been achieved.

On the Internet, in the International Hacker competition, the first place in the qualifying competition was actually the Chinese hacker team.

For a time, the popularity of this hacker team had increased.

After learning that there were only two people, everyone was very curious about who these two people were.

When Yuan Zhen went to the cafeteria to eat, she heard many junior students from the computer science department discussing this matter.

"This team is so amazing. Two people actually got first place."

“I really hope that we can be this amazing in the future.”

“I must go and watch the next semi-finals. I suddenly feel so proud.”

“Our hacker boss is actually so awesome?”

Yuan Zhen chuckled and secretly rejoiced in her heart. No one knew that she was one of the members of that team.

The most important thing for hackers was to hide their identity, so Yuan Zhen was very strict about this. She even said, “Who is so awesome? Let me take a look.”

She immediately joined the group of people who worshipped her.

After Yuan Zhen finished her meal, she took out the live broadcast video of the mountain forest hut and watched it.

It was already dusk outside.

Inside the mountain forest hut, many artists were already exhausted from being busy.

Yuan Zhen really wanted to see what Jiang Yu was doing at this time. Could it be that she had delayed the filming of the program because she was participating in the competition, causing her to be still busy now?

In the end, she did not see Jiang Yu at all after looking around.

In the live broadcast, there was only Li Lu, Zhuo Zheng, and Wu Ling who had just washed up. They were walking to the door of a tightly shut room and discussing something.

“Why isn’t she out yet?”

“Could it be that something has happened?”

Yuan Zhen looked at the bullet screen in the live broadcast room and realized that Jiang Yu had not come out for the entire afternoon, nor had she done any missions.

At that moment, Jiang Yu’s cameraman lost his cool.

He quickly knocked on the door of the room. “Miss Jiang?”

The sound of knocking echoed throughout the entire courtyard.

Yuan Zhen also became nervous.

Immediately after, the door of the room was suddenly opened from the inside.

The fragrance of tea wafted out from inside. Jiang Yu yawned and glanced at them before leading a few people inside.

“Are you done?”

Jiang Yu returned to her original seat and sat down. The latest movie was playing on the computer.

There were sunflower seeds, tea, and small things that no one had seen before on the table.

Jiang Yu's suitcase was still bulging. It was obvious that she had brought quite a lot of things.

Zhuo Zheng, Li Lu, and Wu Ling were dumbfounded.

So they worked until their legs were almost soft, and Jiang Yu just enjoyed the afternoon here instead?

Chapter 203: Harvest Thank You Card

Jiang Yu looked at their petrified expressions and coughed. "I'm studying my acting skills."

She looked very professional.

At the same time, when the program team saw the situation in Jiang Yu's room. They were dumbfounded.

Why were there so many things in Jiang Yu's room.

A few assistants quickly looked at the director and saw the constipated look on his face. "Why is Jiang Yu's room so well-stocked?"

The assistant gulped and suddenly remembered that when Jiang Yu came over earlier, she was carrying two large suitcases of luggage.

These must be the things inside.

The director quickly stood up. "This is outrageous. I'm going to confiscate her luggage."

She had broken the program's rules and actually made her own furniture to exchange for the other participants thank-you card.

It was fine if she did not show her face for the entire afternoon, yet she had even exploited a loophole in the program team!

A few assistants quickly went forward to stop the director. "Director, don't be rash. The rules of our show do not stipulate that you can not bring your luggage."

It was against the rules to go up and confiscate her luggage at the last minute, wasn't it.

The director's face turned pale as he sat down angrily again.

In Jiang Yu's room, Zhuo Zheng sighed helplessly and walked over. He took out two thank-you cards from his pocket and handed them to Jiang Yu. "I'm returning these to you. I still owe you one."

Zhuo Zheng owed less thank-you cards.

Wu Ling also took out two thank-you cards. "Returning two. Three more to go."

If they had known that they would have to work so hard for so long to get two thank-you cards, they would not have been so impulsive. They had actually bought so much furniture from Jiang Yu.

But now, they had wasted the whole afternoon.

Jiang Yu immediately reached out and took the thank-you cards.

Wu Ling was still holding the thank-you cards tightly. Jiang Yu tugged but did not take them out. She then looked at Wu Ling.

Wu Ling blushed and had to let go.

Jiang Yu immediately put the four thank-you cards away happily.

Then, she raised her head and looked at Li Lu with raised eyebrows.

Li Lu suddenly felt a little nervous and hurriedly said, "I... I didn't get the thank-you cards today."

After saying that, she subconsciously clenched her fists. She absolutely could not let Jiang Yu know that she had also gotten the thank-you cards. She also wanted to exchange for some new furniture with the program team.

When the time came, she would secretly exchange for it and not let Jiang Yu know.

Jiang Yu did not say a word. Zhuo Zheng smiled and comforted her, "Maybe it's because you didn't get the hang of it today. Let's sum up the experience of completing the mission later."

Li Lu immediately nodded and lowered her head, looking regretful.

Jiang Yu narrowed her eyes. She had seen the live broadcast room and knew that Li Lu had also gotten a thank-you card.

Jiang Yu smiled coldly. That smile did not have any warmth at all. "Oh, you didn't get any?"

Li Lu's face turned slightly red. She raised her head and said, "Don't tell me you want to laugh at me too."

Wu Ling had seen Li Lu get a thank-you card with her own eyes. Now that she could still deny it, she was excited. At the same time, she felt a little regretful. Why did she have to be so honest? If she had known that she could hide one, she would have just given one to Jiang Yu.

She would do the same next time.

Immediately, Wu Ling immediately covered for Li Lu and said, "Her work today was in vain. Perhaps the villagers were not satisfied and did not give it to her."

Li Lu gave Wu Ling a grateful look and could not help but praise Wu Ling in her heart.

As expected of her sister's best friend. She even helped her at the crucial moment.

Jiang Yu saw their interaction. Then, she slowly walked towards Li Lu with an indifferent expression.

Li Lu was caught off guard and couldn't help but see Jiang Yu reach out and grab her hand.

Li Lu immediately struggled in panic and Zhuo Zheng was stunned as well. He quickly came over to mediate the fight. "Don't hit her, she didn't do it on purpose, you..."

However, just as Zhuo Zheng was about to pull Jiang Yu away, Jiang Yu dodged him.

Zhuo Zheng was vexed in his heart and immediately lost his good impression of Jiang Yu in an instant.

Chapter 204: Exposed

Li Lu immediately cried out in panic, "Let go of me, Jiang Yu, this is a live broadcast!"

Li Lu was also dumbfounded. She did not expect Jiang Yu to actually attack her for not getting a thank you card.

This was too lawless.

Wu Ling was already stunned and momentarily forgot to react.

Zhuo Zheng saw that Li Lu was about to cry from fright and hurriedly rushed over.

However, before he could even touch Jiang Yu, he saw Jiang Yu quickly and accurately reach into Li Lu's pocket.

Then, she took out a golden thank-you card.

Jiang Yu held the thank-you card in her hand and pushed Li Lu away.

Li Lu stared at the thing in Jiang Yu's hand and froze.

Damn it, how did Jiang Yu know that the thank-you card was in her pocket.

Zhuo Zheng's gaze landed on the card as well. He stopped in a hurry and nearly hit Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu smiled coldly. "What's this?"

The entire place fell silent in an instant. No one said a word.

Zhuo Zheng looked at Li Lu in disbelief, his eyes filled with disapproval.

Li Lu also hurriedly dodged.

At this moment, Wu Ling feigned surprise and said, "Why is there a thank-you card? Did someone give it to you? Did you forget?"

Li Lu hurriedly walked down the stairs. "I remember now. I seem to have gotten a thank-you card and forgot about it."

When she said this, Li Lu felt so guilty that she did not dare to look Jiang Yu in the eyes.

Jiang Yu sneered. "It seems that your memory is not very good. Next time, don't let anyone remind you."

Li Lu was so embarrassed that she wanted to dig a hole and hide.

She didn't even dare to answer and hurriedly turned around to run away.

When she ran out, her entire face was burning.

The f * cking live broadcast cameraman was still following Li Lu.

Li Lu's fans were all dumbfounded.

When they saw that Li Lu deliberately didn't give the thank-you card to Jiang Yu, they even jeered and thought that Li Lu had done the right thing.

But now that the scene had been exposed, they also felt their faces burn.

But they could not blame Jiang Yu for anything. After all, Jiang Yu had not done anything wrong.

Li Lu returned to her room and closed the door.

Her cell phone immediately rang. Her heart was beating very fast, thinking that she was done for this time. She had been quick-witted, but now that she had been exposed. She had made a fool out of herself.

The person who called was her manager.

After Li Lu answered the call, she was scolded by her manager telling her not to do such things in the future. If Jiang Yu found out about it again, then Li Lu's image would be gone.

In other words, no matter how many thank-you cards Li Lu received, the first thing she would do was to repay the debt.

At the same time, Zhuo Zheng and Wu Ling returned to their own rooms and received a reminder call from their company's manager.

At night, the three guests did not have a thank-you card and did not buy any new furniture.

In the end, they saw Jiang Yu lavishly buy pots and pans and even exchanged for a lot of sumptuous delicacies.

In the courtyard, Jiang Yu started to grill the fish and meat on it. It was simply too tempting.

Li Lu and Wu Ling's stomachs started to growl again.

They originally thought that Jiang Yu would ask them for a thank-you card.

They did not expect Jiang Yu to be so enthusiastic. "Come, let's eat together."

Li Lu and Wu Ling could not believe it. They asked tentatively, "How many thank-you cards do you want?"

Unexpectedly, Jiang Yu smiled and said, "No thank-you cards. You guys worked hard today too. This is the boss' welfare meal for the employees."

Initially, when Li Lu heard that there was no need for a thank-you card, she was a little happy.

When she heard that there was a welfare meal, she did not know whether to laugh or cry.

Jiang Yu really thought that she was a capitalist.

She treated them as if they were her employees.

However, even though she would lose face, when faced with the delicacies, Li Lu still nodded her head shamelessly and pretended that she did not hear what she just said.. She pulled up a chair and sat down.

Chapter 205: Employee Benefits

“Employee benefits? I’m dying of laughter. Jiang Yu really thinks she’s a boss.”

“This boss is rich and overbearing. She’s way too rich!”

“I just felt that Jiang Yu was too unfriendly to the other guests. Now that I see this scene, I suddenly feel that Jiang Yu has a conscience.”

“I’m suddenly not used to this.”

“Our Li Lu can finally eat a meal with peace of mind.”

“Thank you, Jiang Yu, for hosting my goddess Wu.”

In the courtyard, the two female guests could not wait to start eating. They did not care about their image at all.

The corners of Jiang Yu’s mouth curled up. She had only exchanged kitchen utensils with the program team. In fact, these delicacies were provided by the program team.

Originally, the program team had planned to improve the food for the guests at night so that they could relax.

However, when they saw that Jiang Yu had conveniently given them a favor, they were all a little speechless.

When Zhuo Zheng came out, he saw Li Lu sitting beside Jiang Yu. She was taking the grilled chicken wings from Jiang Yu’s hand and eating them happily.

It was obvious that she had already forgotten about the unhappiness from before.

Zhuo Zheng walked over with a smile and pulled up a chair.

Wu Ling said, “Jiang Yu treated us to this meal for free.”

Jiang Yu immediately gave a noncommittal smile and did not say anything. She lowered her head and continued to fiddle with the chicken wings.

In Zhuo Zheng’s eyes, this was a tacit agreement.

The meal was very enjoyable.

The bullet comments in the live broadcast room were filled with the gratitude of the fans towards Jiang Yu.

Their idol could finally eat well.

It wasn’t easy.

Just as the guests were grilling meat, Jiang Yu was nibbling on a chicken drumstick as she walked towards the director.

The director wasn't as luxurious as Jiang Yu and was eating simple fast food.

When he saw Jiang Yu walking over, the director immediately became wary.

Jiang Yu smiled. "Director, let me treat you to a chicken drumstick."

Jiang Yu handed the delicious food that she had brought over to the director.

The director did not dare to take it, afraid that Jiang Yu would have some tricks up her sleeve.

Jiang Yu smiled and said, "Don't worry, I'm here to exchange for furniture."

Only then did the director let out a sigh of relief. The entire courtyard was filled with the fragrance of barbecued meat. He was already drooling with envy just now.

Immediately, he unceremoniously picked up the chicken drumstick and took a good bite. After all, they were the ones who had provided the ingredients. The director thought to himself, even if he ate it, it would not be a big deal.

Only then did the director look at Jiang Yu, who had a mouthful of oil, and frowned. He handed over a piece of tissue and asked, "What do you want to exchange for?"

Jiang Yu smiled and took out three thank-you cards.

The director's heart instantly welled up with tears of bitterness. Finally, a guest came to exchange for something. The things in the warehouse were almost moldy.

...

At night, the other guests could finally rest. However, when they looked at the empty room, they suddenly felt that something was missing.

Li Lu and Zhuo Zheng were both people who played the piano every night.

When they saw that there wasn't even a piano in the hall, their hands suddenly itched to move.

They were very helpless especially Zhuo Zheng, who had been practicing the piano every night for the past ten years.

He suddenly felt very uncomfortable.

At this moment, the sound of the piano suddenly came.

When Zhuo Zheng heard the sound of the piano playing, he thought that it was from the television.

However, he still walked over curiously to see which artist was playing.

Li Lu, who was in the next room, also walked out curiously.

She bumped into Zhuo Zheng. The two of them scanned the room and realized that the sound was coming from Jiang Yu's room.

However, the closer they got, the more they felt that something was amiss.

The quality of the sound was too good. Why did it feel like it was being played live?

Li Lu had a vague guess in her heart, so she hastened her footsteps.

The two of them instantly arrived in front of Jiang Yu's room. When they saw the scene in the room, both of them were dumbfounded.

Who could tell them why there was such a piano in Jiang Yu's room?

Chapter 206: Waiting For You All

In the live broadcast room, the audience shook their heads and sighed when they saw a staff member carrying the piano to Jiang Yu's room.

"It would be great if we could give this piano to Zhuo Zheng. It would be a waste to put it here."

"Just give it to our Li Lu. Our Li Lu can play the piano pretty well too."

The fans of the other guests shook their heads and sighed.

Only Jiang Yu's fans were indignant.

They expressed that all of this was discrimination.

In the end, everyone saw Jiang Yu move her fingers a little before walking to the front of the piano. She took a turn and sat down.

The audience was dumbfounded.

"Can Jiang Yu play the piano?"

"Who knows?"

"She should be able to. All the arts school students should be able to play."

"We'll know after listening and watching."

"If she can't play well, let our idol come over and give her some guidance."

Very quickly, Jiang Yu straightened her posture and her back.

The audience was still gloating about their own idol's piano skills, telling Jiang Yu not to make a fool of herself here.

In the end, a wave of beautiful music was quickly transmitted over.

The bullet curtain immediately disappeared.

All of them had shocked expressions on their faces.

Upon a closer look, it was really Jiang Yu who was playing. It was even more chaotic in the wind.

At the same time, the scene changed and they saw that their idols were also looking at the situation in the room in a daze.

Jiang Yu curled her lips. Of course, she knew that Zhuo Zheng and Li Lu would come. She had been waiting for them.

However, Jiang Yu did not show it. She just smiled and played seriously.

As expected, two figures stood behind her very quickly.

Li Lu swallowed her saliva. Zhuo Zheng also clenched his fists. His eyes were filled with shock.

The two people stared at Jiang Yu's fingers without moving an inch.

Was this still an ordinary person's hand? This speed was too fast.

It was simply an astonishing level of performance.

When Jiang Yu finished playing to her heart's content, she immediately pretended to be startled by the people behind her.

Jiang Yu stood up. "Why are you guys here?"

Zhuo Zheng looked at her with a complicated expression. "You actually play the piano so well."

Wasn't Jiang Yu's specialisation performing art.

Li Lu also looked at her with a defeated expression.

Initially, when she saw Jiang Yu playing the piano, she wanted to show off her skills. However, after hearing Jiang Yu's performance, she didn't want to compete with her no matter what.

The gap between them was too big.

Jiang Yu pretended to be at a loss and said, "I just casually practiced. I can't compare to a professional."

Then, she lowered her head and a glint flashed in her eyes.

Zhuo Zheng and Li Lu were speechless.

If this was just casual practice, then they didn't need to practice piano anymore. They couldn't even be considered casual.

"Oh right, did you guys come together?" After Jiang Yu finished showing off, she changed the topic.

Zhuo Zheng coughed and said, "I want to borrow the piano from you."

He had this idea when he found out that Jiang Yu had a piano here.

Jiang Yu smiled and said, "Sure, just give me a rental fee. You can use the piano for the entire season's filming."

When she heard about the rental fee, Li Lu became nervous. "How much?"

Jiang Yu gestured with two fingers.

This time, Li Lu immediately looked constipated. “You might as well go and rob someone.”

Exchanging for a piano only required three thank-you cards, and Jiang Yu would be using the piano herself.

But she still wanted to take two thank-you cards for renting it.

Wasn’t this obvious robbing.

Li Lu would rather die than borrow it from Jiang Yu.

But Zhuo Zheng gritted his teeth and said, “I’ll pay.”

The main thing was that filming the entire season would take a few days. He couldn’t delay his piano practice just because he was filming a variety show.

Compared to an artist’s primary skill and ability, a thank-you card was nothing.

Zhuo Zheng signed his name decisively.

Jiang Yu quickly stepped aside and invited Zhuo Zheng to play.

A beautiful music came from Zhuo Zheng’s hand.

Li Lu’s hands were itching.

Jiang Yu looked at Li Lu and saw that she seemed moved. She was not in a hurry.. Instead, she sat idly by the side.

Chapter 207: Competing For Favor?

When Zhuo Zheng was playing somewhere, Jiang Yu suddenly said, “If you play it a little faster here, it will sound better.”

Zhuo Zheng was stunned for a moment. He played it again according to Jiang Yu’s method, and sure enough, it sounded much better.

What he played was the most classic piano piece, and it was played according to the strictest standards. He had never thought that it could be changed like this.

He looked at Jiang Yu as if he had found a treasure.

When Li Lu saw that Jiang Yu really had the capability and she was able to get Jiang Yu’s guidance when she played here, she was instantly moved. “I want to borrow the piano too.”

Why was Li Lu being bewitched all of a sudden?

The audience in the live broadcast room was completely confused.

“Why is my Li Lu also dumbfounded?”

In the broadcasting team, the director watched as Jiang Yu exchanged three thank-you cards for the piano, and in the blink of an eye, she received four thank-you cards.

She looked like an opportunistic black-hearted businesswoman. The director almost vomited blood when he saw this.

You could pull such a move?

Li Lu was actually willing to spend two thank-you cards to borrow the piano!

“What do you mean by faster and slower? In my opinion, there’s no difference between the two versions at all.”

“I’ve been killed again. I can’t even look at it.”

Compared to the wailing of the audience, Li Lu’s face was full of excitement.

A bright light flashed in Jiang Yu’s eyes, but it quickly calmed down. She calmly asked Li Lu to sign another two thank-you cards.

Previously, the director had thought that Jiang Yu really wanted to practice the piano, and he was quite touched. He did not expect that in the blink of an eye, Jiang Yu would exchange the piano for a thank-you cards.

In the end, not only did Jiang Yu get a piano for nothing, she even earned an extra thank-you card.

It was like a pie falling from the sky.

When the assistant saw that the director’s face was as black as the bottom of a pot and was so angry that smoke was coming out of his head, he quickly fanned the flames of anger on the director. Who wouldn’t be angry?

“Director, this Jiang Yu is too cunning. Our rules are useless against her!”

The director could also tell that Jiang Yu did not need to do any missions today to get the thank-you cards from the other guests.

The director calmed himself down and said, “From tomorrow onwards, everyone will have to do missions. I want to change the rules of the show! We must not let her take advantage of any loopholes.”

The director clenched his fists and said firmly, “No matter what, we must get Jiang Yu to do missions tomorrow.”

In the room next door, Wu Ling had just finished washing up when she heard the sound of the piano.

She was attracted by the beautiful music and walked towards Jiang Yu’s room.

She was very surprised to hear the sound of a piano in Jiang Yu’s room.

However, when she saw that the person who was playing was Li Lu, Wu Ling raised her eyebrows and said, “It can’t be Jiang Yu.”

Wu Ling was an actress and knew nothing about the piano. However, she clapped her hands and said, “You played really well.”

In the room, Zhuo Zheng was sitting at the side, watching Li Lu play.

Li Lu had just finished playing a piece. She did not look at the praise of the person who came in. Instead, she turned to look at Jiang Yu and asked, "How was it?"

Wu Ling stopped in her tracks. She was very surprised that Li Lu would ask a layman for his opinion.

However, she still walked over indifferently.

Jiang Yu said, "You lack emotion, you can play it a little softer."

Wu Ling scoffed at Jiang Yu. It was obvious that Jiang Yu was just commenting casually, as if she knew what she was talking about.

Li Lu would definitely not listen to her.

However, Li Lu nodded heavily and said, "You're right. Let me play it again."

Then, she started playing seriously again.

Wu Ling was petrified on the spot. Why did Li Lu listen to Jiang Yu so much?

This didn't make sense.

Unexpectedly, the next second, Zhuo Zheng said impatiently, "You just said that you would only play it once. It's my turn now, right?"

The two of them couldn't wait to play piano for Jiang Yu.

It was just a piano! Was there a need to compete for it?

Wu Ling was dumbfounded.

Why did it feel like Li Lu and Zhuo Zheng were competing to perform in front of Jiang Yu?

Chapter 208: Good At Bragging

Li Lu reluctantly moved away from the piano and stared at Zhuo Zheng, as if Zhuo Zheng had snatched her opportunity.

She had just received a few pointers from Jiang Yu and felt that her performance had improved.

She could not wait to play in front of Jiang Yu again.

However, Zhuo Zheng chased her away.

Wu Ling could not help but pull Li Lu over. "Do you think she can understand?"

However, Li Lu said confidently, "Her standard is definitely above mine."

Forget it!

Wu Ling rolled her eyes. When she saw Jiang Yu casually spouting nonsense while munching on sunflower seeds, she was instantly angered to death.

What standard could she have? Was she really good at spouting nonsense?

She really couldn't understand why Zhuo Zheng and Li Lu suddenly thought so highly of Jiang Yu.

...

Dazzling Entertainment.

Sister Xia had just returned to the office when she saw her assistant waiting for her in the office.

When she saw sister Xia come in, her assistant was instantly excited. "Sister Xia, quickly take a look at this."

Her assistant had specially recorded Jiang Yu's highlight reel just now for sister Xia to see.

When Sister Xia saw her assistant's glowing face, she immediately had a premonition that Jiang Yu had done exceptionally well on the show.

"This is the scene where Jiang Yu earned her first wave of thank-you cards on the show." The assistant handed it over as if she was presenting a treasure. Her eyes filled with pride.

The artists in their company were amazing. She directly crushed the other artists to death.

When Sister Xia took it over to take a look, her eyes immediately lit up.

In the video, Jiang Yu was making furniture and selling it to three guests.

Judging from the sky, it should be in the morning.

At this time, the show had just started filming and Jiang Yu had already earned so many thank-you cards.

Sister Xia was stunned.

She had a premonition that this video would be trending soon.

Sure enough, as soon as she opened the trending page, she saw that Jiang Yu's purely natural furniture had already been pushed up to the top of trending searches.

This was purely pushed up through the curiosity of the netizens. The company didn't pay a single cent for the publicity.

As expected, Jiang Yu was the queen of the topic.

Sister Xia was rather emotional, but she still looked at the scene a little worriedly. "However, with such a sharp edge, won't she be ostracized by the other guests?"

Sister Xia suddenly had a bad feeling. She felt that Jiang Yu would probably be hated by the other guests later on.

In the end, the assistant said, "Sister Xia, take a look at the live broadcast room now."

Sister Xia picked up her phone to take a look. She saw Li Lu and Zhuo Zheng fighting to play the piano in front of Jiang Yu. Moreover, they were all anxiously looking in Jiang Yu's direction.

Meanwhile, Wu Ling was standing there with a look of suspicion on her face. She was petrified.

Li Lu and Zhuo Zheng listened to the simple comments that came out of Jiang Yu's mouth. They seemed to have thought that they had received an imperial edict and treated it as words of wisdom. This was very absurd.

After watching for a while, sister Xia couldn't close her mouth.

How the f * ck was she being ostracized? She had become a fragrant bun.

How did Jiang Yu do it?

Sister Xia was also confused. Zhuo Zheng had worked with Jiang Yu before, so it was fine if he treated Jiang Yu better. However, Li Lu was eager to curry favor with Jiang Yu.

It didn't make sense!

Sister Xia slapped her thigh and sat down. Seeing that today's live broadcast was about to end, she had to watch the entire live broadcast again today.

It seemed that she had really missed out on a lot of exciting things today.

Later on, the more sister Xia watched, the more engrossed she became. She couldn't help but pinch her own thigh.

Why was the artiste she signed so outstanding?

From then on, sister Xia became a hardcore fan of Jiang Yu's variety show. No matter what variety show Jiang Yu was in, sister Xia would make tea and earnestly watch the show.

Having an artiste who could create a trending topic on her own was simply too satisfying.

On the other side, Li Yue, who had just returned from filming, was also removing her makeup and watching the live broadcast of "Cabin in the woods."

The moment she turned on the live broadcast, she saw three guests crowded into the hall of Jiang Yu's room.

Li Yue was stunned when she saw this happy scene.. She glared at her sister.

Chapter 209: Changed Rules

Why did it seem like Li Lu was trying to curry favor with her?

On the other hand, Wu Ling was standing at the side with a calm expression.

Li Yue narrowed her eyes. What kind of method did Jiang Yu use to be able to coexist peacefully with the three guests?

When she saw the live broadcast footage, she saw that Li Lu was actually so obedient to Jiang Yu. She listened to whatever Jiang Yu said and acted as if Jiang Yu was her teacher.

Li Yue frowned and scolded, "Useless thing."

She was actually fooled by such a small trick.

Anyone with a decent appreciation of the piano would be able to say what Jiang Yu said.

Jiang Yu really only needed to move her mouth.

Li Yue placed the mineral water on the table heavily. After thinking for a while, she could not help but make a call.

In the live broadcast, Wu Ling initially looked down on Jiang Yu. However, she realized that Jiang Yu's luggage was packed with a lot of things. This made her very tempted and she was eager to borrow some to use.

As for Jiang Yu, she pretended to be nonchalant as she tidied up her luggage.

At this moment, Wu Ling's phone rang, causing her to forcefully stop her footsteps.

When Wu Ling saw the call, she immediately rushed out.

On the other side, Jiang Yu saw that Wu Ling didn't take the bait and a flash of pity flashed across her eyes.

She slowly placed the few things that Wu Ling needed the most in the most conspicuous place.

She did not believe that Wu Ling would not be tempted when she returned from the call.

After a while, Wu Ling came back from the call and looked at Jiang Yu warily.

On the phone, Li Yue reminded her to be careful that Jiang Yu could buy people's hearts. This made Wu Ling realize what was going on.

When she saw Zhuo Zheng and Li Lu who were fighting over the piano, Wu Ling felt a chill down her spine.

Jiang Yu's method of buying people's hearts was too powerful.

Jiang Yu raised her eyebrows. She realized that Wu Ling was standing far away from her when she came in.

Moreover, she didn't even look at the items that she had put out. Jiang Yu knew that it was impossible for her to get a thank-you card again today.

The moment Wu Ling met Jiang Yu's gaze, she immediately glared back fiercely. Then, as if she was guarding against thieves, she pulled Li Lu and left.

Unfortunately, Li Lu felt that she hadn't practiced enough on the piano and was rubbing her hands excitedly.

Wu Ling had no choice but to leave first.

After washing up, Jiang Yu went out to hang the clothes. She saw Wu Ling pulling Li Lu into the room and talking about something.

After Li Lu came out, she lost her enthusiasm and walked around Jiang Yu with her head lowered.

It was as if Jiang Yu was some kind of ferocious beast.

Jiang Yu touched her nose and was a little confused.

Early the next morning, the four guests were gathered in the courtyard.

In front of them were the crew members of the program team, and the director was standing in the middle.

After being slapped in the face last night, the director today was full of energy, as if his fighting spirit had been reignited.

“Director, are we going to start the missions today and get the thank-you cards?” Li Lu asked subconsciously.

Why did it feel like all the staff members were looking at Jiang Yu, as if they were purposely targeting Jiang Yu?

Jiang Yu turned a blind eye, completely ignoring the glances that had a strong sense of presence and stretched her back.

However, the director said directly, “Today’s mission is a group mission. Every guest has to participate.”

When Wu Ling heard this, she immediately looked at Jiang Yu with a meaningful look. Wasn’t the director hinting that Jiang Yu was slacking off yesterday?

As expected, Jiang Yu was stunned for a moment before she looked straight at the director.

The director smiled and announced confidently, “Today, we’ll be working in pairs to look for hidden cards. The group that finds the most cards will be able to exchange a piece of furniture with us for free!”

Everyone could tell that the rules had changed.

Chapter 210: Team Up

The production team was full of confidence. In this way, only two people could exchange for furniture. The guest wouldn’t be getting thank-you cards, so there was no need to return it to Jiang Yu.

In this way, Jiang Yu’s monopoly would be broken.

It had to be said that this was something that the director team had taken a long time to think of .

It could definitely cure Jiang Yu.

“Then where are we going to find the card?” When Li Lu found out that it was not a mission card, her interest was immediately piqued.

In the end, even if she exchanged for the furniture, it would still be her own.

Jiang Yu could not do anything about it.

After all, they had agreed that they owed the thank you card, not the furniture.

“When the time comes, we will send you to the place where the mission card is hidden,” the director said mysteriously.

As expected, the guests were all very curious.

“Next, we will be divided into two groups. Everyone come over and draw lots to decide the groups.” The director took out the props that he had prepared.

This way, not only would each of the guests have a scene, but they could also interact with each other and there would be more to watch.

The director was already thinking that the effect of the shooting would definitely be very good.

The guests would help each other out! There would even be competition between the two groups.

Li Lu’s eyes flashed as she looked warily in Jiang Yu’s direction. She didn’t want to be on the same team as Jiang Yu.

After all, after Wu Ling’s reminder yesterday, Li Lu also knew how evil Jiang Yu was. She had to be careful of her tricks.

Hence, when the lot was drawn, Li Lu prayed in her heart that she could be on the same team as Wu Ling.

After all, the two of them could be considered good friends, and they could take care of each other.

Of course, it would be good if it was Zhuo Zheng, as long as it wasn’t Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu also walked forward to draw the lots. She was as calm as if it didn’t matter who she was with.

Unlike Wu Ling and Li Lu, who even looked at each other.

Wu Ling took out the draw and read out the words on it, “I am group A.”

Then, she eagerly went over to look at the note that Li Lu had drawn.

In the end, Li Lu had a bitter expression on her face because it said Team B.

The two of them actually missed each other.

Li Lu and Wu Ling subconsciously looked up at Jiang Yu, who had yet to open the note. In that case, one of the two of them was going to team up with Jiang Yu.

This was simply a disaster.

Zhuo Zheng smiled and opened his own note. “I’m Team B.”

Instantly, Li Lu revealed a look of joy and immediately hopped over to stand beside Zhuo Zheng. “Brother Zhuo Zheng, we’re in the same team.”

Wu Ling’s expression was ugly as she walked unwillingly to Jiang Yu’s side.

She was unlucky. Just as she was about to keep a distance from Jiang Yu, she was actually bound to her.

Wasn't this giving Jiang Yu a lot of opportunities to trick her?

In short, Wu Ling had already made up her mind that she would never exchange anything with Jiang Yu.

After forming a team, two cars drove over.

The two groups of guests got into the cars.

The director team watched the guests leave with a smile and changed the venue as well.

Very good, today's filming went very smoothly.

In the car, Jiang Yu glanced at Wu Ling, who had her head lowered in silence. She did not speak to Wu Ling and simply closed her eyes to rest.

On the other team, Li Lu and Zhuo Zheng were already discussing how to divide the work and cooperate later. They were guessing that the card would definitely well hidden, so they had to look for it in the most inconspicuous place.

The audience in the live broadcast room watched the live broadcast with great interest.

When they heard that Zhuo Zheng's train of thought was so clear, they couldn't help but give him a thumbs up.

In the end, the screen switched to Jiang Yu's team, and there was complete silence!

The entire screen was filled with the words 'awkward'.

"This pair is too passive!"

"Looks like today's first place will definitely go to Zhuo Zheng's team."

"Why do I feel Like Jiang Yu is not going to work again? How can she fall asleep at a time like this?"

"It can't be helped. After all, the guests still owe Jiang Yu a thank-you card. She doesn't need to work too hard to live a comfortable life here."

"I just want to see Jiang Yu get slapped in the face.. She's too conceited."
