

Older Man 311

Chapter 311: Medical Miracle

After Jiang Yu finished performing acupuncture on Miao Ling, she put away the silver needles and said, "Professor Miao, give me your address. In that case, I'll go to your house directly next week to perform acupuncture on you."

Miao Ling already felt that it was inappropriate to trouble Jiang Yu. Now that she heard Jiang Yu say that she had to go to her house to perform acupuncture on her, she felt even more apologetic. She said, "There's no need to go through so much trouble. Just wait for me to come to you for acupuncture every week."

Jiang Yu didn't insist and said, "Okay."

Miao Ling knew that the illness in her leg had been an old problem for many years. Jiang Yu had only performed acupuncture on her once today, but she didn't know what was driving her to stand up in the wheelchair.

Jiang Yu saw through Miao Ling's thoughts. She reached out to hold Miao Ling's arm and said, "Professor Miao, I can help you stand up."

Miao Ling seemed to have made up her mind. Even if the pain in her knee was unbearable after she stood up, she would still challenge herself to do it once.

However, when she slowly stood up with Jiang Yu's help, there was no prickling pain on her knee. Instead, there was a dense, fine pain from the prickles.

Before when she stood up, the pain was unbearable. It was as if thousands of kilograms of needles had pierced into her knees. Now, the pain was just a drop in the ocean.

Miao Ling was also worried that her situation wasn't getting better, but rather, a terminal lucidity. The worry in her heart overflowed onto her face.

Jiang Yu sensed Miao Ling's worry, she said, "Professor Miao, don't be afraid. This kind of pain is normal. I've used silver needles to activate the muscles around your knees so that they can regain their vitality. In this way, the active muscles can better wrap around the injured bones in your knees, so that your knees can be better protected."

After listening to Jiang Yu's explanation, Miao Ling's heart finally settled down.

However, she couldn't stand for too long, so she sat down with Jiang Yu's help.

However, this was much better than being unable to stand up for a second.

She said, "Jiang Yu, thank you so much. This illness of mine has been an old problem for many years, and no doctor has been able to treat it for so many years. I didn't expect that I would be able to stand up for a short period of time after just one treatment from you. Jiang Yu, your medical skills are really amazing!”

Miao Ling was praising Jiang Yu from the bottom of her heart without any false sincerity.

After all, Jiang Yu had even cured Mo Long’s leg.

‘After Miao Ling expressed her gratitude to Jiang Yu, she had to go back to work.

After sending Miao Ling off, Jiang Yu prepared to go back to the hotel to memorize her lines. This way, she wouldn’t have to spend too much time memorizing her lines for tomorrow’s shoot. She could save more time to study the emotions during the shoot.

On the way back to the hotel, Jiang Yu bumped into Li Lu.

It was more like Li Lu had been waiting there for Jiang Yu for a long time.

Jiang Yu ignored her and only said, “Are you feeling indignant for your sister again?”

“What a joke. Am I feeling indignant for my sister?” Li Lu crossed her arms. “Who do you think you are? Do you think you can get into my sister’s eyes?”

“Then what are you waiting here for me to say?”

“There’s nothing to say. I’m just here to see you. Don’t forget your role in the film just because you’re recording a variety show,” said Li Lu.

It seemed that she was still upset that the program team hadn’t invited her to record the variety show..

Chapter 312 Viewership Drop

Filming was still going on in an orderly manner, and the competition between the two production teams was still going on.

It was just that Li Yue’s “The Chu Family’s Empress” had a little glitch recently. The plot of the latest episode and the plot of the previous episode were somewhat out of sync.

This made many fans who were following the series very confused. They thought that the director’s staff had been careless and misplaced the series.

However, a day had already passed. No matter how many fans left comments on the director’s Weibo, and even if some bold fans directly tagged the director, the latest series had not been changed.

Now that things had come to this, the fans also knew what was going on. The series had not been misplaced. The latest episode was this episode.

However, the storyline really did not connect. Chu Xuan, who was played by Jiang Ran, clearly hated Chu Xiao so much that she wished that she would disappear from her sight forever. How could she possibly have such a caring attitude towards Chu Xiao in the latest episode?

The fans were puzzled. Since they could not get any response from the director, they would go to the main leads to try their luck and see if anyone would come forward to answer this matter.

As Li Yue was both the movie queen and the main lead, many fans who were following the drama left comments under her Weibo, hoping that she could give a reasonable explanation. Since the fans had already come forward, Li Yue couldn't remain indifferent.

No matter how many problems there were in this episode, it had nothing to do with her.

However, Li Yue was too lazy to reply to the news herself, so she let her manager take full responsibility for this matter.

Her manager was naturally on Li Yue's side. Hence, she replied as Li Yue, "I naturally know about the problems in the latest episode. Maybe it was because I didn't get along well with the supporting cast, which caused her to be in the wrong mood during the performance. This is something that I didn't consider when acting with a junior." It sounded like he was taking the blame on herself, but the meaning between the lines was — the plot of this episode was wrong entirely because the supporting cast didn't act well and didn't grasp the character. Therefore, it made the audience feel strange. For a moment, the online attacks were all directed at Jiang Ran.

It wasn't that Jiang Ran didn't have fans online, so after this incident came out, someone spoke up for Jiang Ran, "Didn't the movie queen say that it was because she and Jiang Ran didn't get along well that Jiang Ran didn't have a grasp on the character's psychology? Can you guys stop being so aggressive?"

Unfortunately, Jiang Ran had too few fans and the movie queen was on the other side, so the words that she said for Jiang Ran were quickly drowned out.

The matter became bigger and bigger and soon, it reached the director team.

The director looked at the ugly comments online and those that strongly suggested that Jiang Ran should be replaced. He was also very conflicted.

Although Jiang Ran's acting skills were indeed not up to standard, the problems that appeared in the latest episode's plot had nothing to do with Jiang Ran.

It was because Li Yue had requested to change the script. During the process of changing, the scriptwriter discovered that if the plot here was also changed, then the subsequent plot might not be changed but rewritten.

Therefore, in order to save some effort, the scriptwriter did not make too many changes to the storyline here. Initially, he thought that after the filming was over, he would let the post-production crew cut a little and broadcast the entire storyline together so that the audience would not be able to see any small flaws.

However, he did not expect Li Yue to request for the filming to be broadcast at the same time. This resulted in the post-production crew not being meticulous in their editing. Furthermore, it was a single episode broadcast so the flaws in it were magnified infinitely.

Chapter 313 Secretly Exposing

Li Yue was indeed the movie queen. Her status was very honorable and the power behind her was not to be trifled with. However, the scolding voices of the fans had already spread to the director team. They couldn't possibly allow themselves to be scolded so much just to agree with the movie queen, right?

Therefore, the director thought about it and decided to expose the matter of Li Yue requesting to change the script.

However, this matter could not be said directly. It needed to be hidden a little. If it was too direct, he might lose all decorum with Li Yue. If she abandoned the role, he would lose more than he gained. Therefore, the director arranged for the scriptwriter to post a daily post on the official Weibo like in the past, the content was: "Regarding the plot problem this time, we have already reflected deeply on it. In fact, there wasn't a big problem with the plot. As long as we do not change the script later on, it would be fine. If the script is not changed, the plot will not have a big problem. So fans can still continue to watch the show."

In the eyes of most of the audience, this was just an ordinary thing.

Now that the director team knew their mistake, they could correct it next time.

However, there were some troublemakers who accurately grasped the key word — again.

"What do you mean by 'rewriting the script'? Could it be that the script has been rewritten before?"

Once this question was thrown out, it attracted more and more people's attention.

"That's right? What's going on? Even if it's because you're not satisfied with the plot, it shouldn't be to the extent of changing the plot incoherently, right?"

"That's right. Besides, hasn't the script been reviewed after it was written? Why did you change it so much? You directly made the plot not coherent. How are you going to look at it?"

"So why did you change the script? Could it be that some actors are not satisfied with their roles, so they requested to change the script?" The moment these words were said, the entire Internet went silent.

If what he said was right, then who in the production team had the right to request to change the script?

Jiang Ran? That was definitely impossible.

Even though she could be considered as a person who was heavily supported by the investors, her ability was not so great that she could ask the director to change the script and the director would just obediently change the script.

In the end, there was only one person who had such great ability — that was Li Yue. As the movie queen, Li Yue's capabilities and number of fans were obvious. In addition to the power behind her, if she was not satisfied with her scenes and requested the director to change the script, then the director might agree to Li Yue's request in order to keep her. Since the matter had already been analyzed to this extent, anyone who was not stupid would be able to see what was going on.

Li Yue requested the director to change the script because she wasn't satisfied with her part. And the director had agreed to let her change the script in order to keep the Great Buddha Li Yue.

However, he didn't expect the screenwriter to realize when he was changing the script that if the script was changed here, it would have a great impact on the subsequent development of the plot, so he didn't change it. Initially, he had hoped that the audience wouldn't notice it, but he didn't expect it to be discovered in the end.

This matter quickly became a hot topic. Some fans who were purely following the drama expressed their confusion towards Li Yue's actions. "Why did you change the script? Is it because you're the movie queen that you can do whatever you want?"

"If you're not satisfied with your part, you can just not accept this script from the start, alright?"

"Now, because of changing the script, I can't watch this plot anymore. You can just not act from the start. Seriously."

However, no matter how many negative comments were made on the internet, Li Yue maintained a high profile and refused to step down to explain this matter.

Chapter 314: Explanation

Li Yue did not come forward to explain this matter, allowing it to continue to ferment on the Internet.

'The cast and crew of 'Ruyi' also saw this post. Initially, they thought that it would be better to avoid unnecessary trouble, so they did not say anything about Li Yue requesting to change the script.

'Who knew that He Zhen was such a straightforward person. Before the director could say, "Forget it, let's just focus on filming our own scenes." He had already commented at the bottom of the original post, "Li Yue also requested to change the script in that production team?"

To be honest, He Zhen's use of the word "also" was very clever.

Everyone knew that Li Yue was originally the female lead in "Ruyi", but later on, she refused to act in it.

At that time, her explanation was that she didn't want to act in it and wanted to give the opportunity to the newcomer Jiang Yu.

But looking at the situation now, the truth was not what Li Yue had explained at that time.

With He Zhen's explanation, everyone knew the truth at that time. When Li Yue was on the set of 'Ruyi', she also requested to change the script but the director was unwilling to change, so Li Yue refused to act.

"Isn't this acting like a big shot?" Someone commented, "Is it because he was unwilling to change the script?"

"If you're not satisfied with the script, don't accept it in the beginning. In the end, you asked the director to change the script according to her own ideas. If he doesn't change it, then she won't act."

"She's acting like a big shot. Just because she's a movie queen, she can do whatever she wants?"

There were more and more comments about this on the Internet, and the unfavorable balance tilted towards Li Yue.

There were still a large number of people who were loyal fans of Li Yue on the Internet, but they were still on Li Yue's side regarding this matter. They tried their best to explain for her, "Can you guys not make wild guesses? The movie queen didn't even come forward to explain the whole story, and you guys are just making wild guesses here?"

"That's right. My idol is the movie queen, can you guys not make wild guesses? Can't you just watch the drama?"

The actions of the die-hard fans had indeed angered the fans who were watching the show.

"Is it that we don't want to watch the show? How are we supposed to watch it after acting like this?"

"That's right. The supporting actor's acting skills aren't up to par, and the main lead even caused such a scene. Tell me, how are we supposed to watch the show?"

The dispute between the fans on both sides of the internet was getting more and more serious. However, this was only limited to the cast and crew of the Chu Family's empress. The cast and crew of Ruyi was not affected at all.

Therefore, the director took this opportunity to quickly shoot a new series. He planned to broadcast it first.

Li Yue had experienced all these things on the Internet. As her younger sister, Li Lu could not possibly not care about it. It was also impossible for her to not be affected at all.

However, no matter what kind of influence she was affected by, she had to film her scenes well. She couldn't delay her filming just because of what her sister had done on the Internet.

She couldn't possibly let the two sisters of the Li family be both attacked on the Internet, right?

Jiang Yu also knew that Li Lu was in a dilemma, so when she was filming, she tried her best to help her get into character's emotions as quickly as possible so that she could finish filming smoothly.

However, Li Lu didn't thank Jiang Yu. She even felt that everything that happened to her sister online was all because of Jiang Yu.

"Jiang Yu, even if you helped me during filming, don't expect me to thank you," Li Lu said to Jiang Yu in private.

Jiang Yu didn't expect Li Lu to thank her either. She was simply afraid that she would delay the filming process, so she chose to help her.

"Don't think too much. I am afraid that you will delay the filming process, so I will help you." Jiang Yu explained.

Chapter 315: Boyfriend's Visit

Although Li Lu and Jiang Yu were not on good terms in private, they could not show it on the surface.

They still had to shoot the scenes that needed to be shot, and they still had to accept the interviews that needed to be done when the filming was finished.

During the intermission of the filming, a black car was parked outside the parking lot of the production team.

The onlookers pointed their mobile phone cameras at the car, curious to see who exactly got out of the car.

'The first person to get out was a young man in a gray suit. He had a pretty face and a good temperament.

'When everyone thought he was visiting one of the actors in the crew, the young man tidied up his clothes and opened the door of the driver's seat.

Was this young man someone else's secretary?

Who was this big shot? He had a secretary with such an aura?

Soon, the crowd knew who the big shot was.

'Mo Long was wearing a black suit and holding a large bouquet of flowers in his hand. After getting off the car, he walked straight into the filming set.

'The crowd was so shocked that they forgot to take a photo. It was not until Mo Long's back had completely disappeared into the studio that the crowd exclaimed, "Is that Mo Long?"

"It's Mo Long, right? Isn't Mo Long Jiang Yu's boyfriend? Is he here to visit her?"

"Of course. He brought flowers. If he's not here to visit his girlfriend, is he here to visit you?"

When someone said that, the rest of the crowd laughed.

Mo Long walked into the studio's filming location and accurately found Jiang Yu, who was resting in the crowd.

Jiang Yu was pleasantly surprised to see Mo Long. She quickly stood up to greet him. "Why are you here?"

Mo Long smiled and handed the flowers to Jiang Yu. "I'm here to see my girlfriend, is that okay?"

Jiang Yu took the flowers and smiled. "I was afraid that President Mo would be too busy to come to see me which might delay your work."

Mo Long kissed Jiang Yu's forehead affectionately and said, "As long as it's visitng you, I'll never be busy."

Jiang Yu closed her eyes and immersed herself in Mo Long's tender love.

'When the people at the side saw Jiang Yu and Mo Long display their unbridled love here, they all expressed that their teeth were already sore.

"Stop showing off!" He Zhen couldn't stand it anymore. "Are you really bullying us single people?"

Hu Xuan was also wailing. "Great CEO Mo, that's my female lead! Don't be like this!"

'The director was also laughing at the side and said, "What are you shouting for? Her boyfriend is here to visit his girlfriend. How is he bothering you guys? Hurry up and memorize the lines and read the script. We're going to shoot a scene in a while."

Everyone was grinning. Only Li Lu was gritting her teeth as she looked at Jiang Yu. Her gaze was as if she wanted to eat Jiang Yu alive.

That detestable Jiang Yu! Not only did she steal my sister's boyfriend, but she also caused my sister to be attacked on the internet.

Not only did Jiang Yu not feel guilty, she even went to the extent of publicly flaunting her love for Mo Long on the set?!

Didn't she know that she was also on the set? Didn't she know that she looked down on her and Mo Long being together?

How shameless!

Jiang Yu naturally felt Li Lu's gaze. However, she didn't care. No matter what, Mo Long belonged to her alone and no one could take him away from her.

This was not only her absolute confidence in herself, but also her absolute trust in Mo Long..

Chapter 316: Met A Familiar Face

Mo Long had come to visit and had also asked the director for a leave of absence. He said that he wanted to take Jiang Yu out for a walk.

Mo Long said, "I know that the matter regarding Li Yue on the internet has more or less affected you. Since you're unhappy, I'll take you out for a walk."

Mo Long said this and the director felt that he was right. After all, the main role of Jiang Yu had been decided by him after Li Yue had rejected it.

Now that something like this had happened to Li Yue on the internet, it must have affected Jiang Yu to a certain extent.

After spending the past few days together, he also knew that Jiang Yu was a very strong young lady. She might have kept these things to herself and was unwilling to tell others.

Since Mo Long had decided to bring Jiang Yu out for a walk, he had to agree no matter what. "It's alright, Jiang Yu. You still have the last scene for today in a while, It'll be over after that. Go out with President Mo to have a good walk."

Since the director had said so, Jiang Yu didn't insist any further and said, "Thank you, director."

The director waved his hand and said, "It's alright."

Jiang Yu finished filming today's scenes. After returning to the lounge to change her clothes, she went out with Mo Long.

In the car, Mo Long asked, "Where do you want to go?"

Jiang Yu said, "I don't really want to go anywhere, so I'll just go to wherever I go."

Mo Long smiled dotingly and said, "Alright."

The car drove slowly on the road. Jiang Yu looked out of the window and suddenly saw a market.

'The name on it was "Antiques Market'.

Mo Long saw Jiang Yu's mood and gestured for Teng Yi to stop the car. He asked, "Yu-er, do you want to take a look at this market?"

Jiang Yu nodded and replied, "Yes!"

"Alright." Mo Long did not hesitate and immediately agreed.

Mo Long had watched every episode of "Antiques Chamber of Commerce" that Jiang Yu had participated in previously.

Jiang Yu's performance in the program had indeed shocked Mo Long, who was standing in front of the screen.

He had only known that his Yu'er was extremely talented in medicine, piano, and performance. He had not expected her to have such high attainments in antiques appraisal.

Mo Long smiled, It seemed that this treasure of his still had more abilities that he had not discovered.

Mo Long and Jiang Yu walked into the Antique Market. There was a dazzling array of items inside, all of which Jiang Yu had never seen before during the recording of the program.

Jiang Yu was reading those novel gadgets when she suddenly heard someone call her name in front of her. "Jiang Yu?"

Jiang Yu looked up and saw that it was an old friend — Tang Kuai, Boss Tang, from the recording of the program.

Tang Kuai was also planning to come to this article market today to try his luck and see if there were any treasures worth getting.

'When Jiang Yu saw Tang Huai, she was also very surprised and said, "Boss Tang? Why are you here?"

Tang Huai said, "I'm here to see if there are any treasures worth getting my hands on. Why is Miss Jiang Yu here?" Tang Huai looked up and saw Mo Long behind Jiang Yu. When he remembered that Jiang Yu was Mo Long's girlfriend, he suddenly came to a realization.

"So Miss Jiang Yu came out to relax with President Mo?" Tang huai smiled and said, "Then I won't bother you. I originally wanted to ask Miss Jiang Yu to help me see which of these treasures is worth getting."

Jiang Yu turned to look at Mo Long, intending to ask if she could help Tang Huai.

Mo Long smiled and said, "It just so happens that I also have a business matter to discuss with Boss Tang. I wonder if Boss Tang is willing to come with us?"

Chapter 317: Picking Antiques

'Tang Huai followed Jiang Yu and Mo Long and looked at them along the way. Jiang Yu's eyes were fixed on the antiques.

'Tang Huai knew Mo Long's identity and had been interested in doing an antiques business with him since a long time ago.

However, he had never had the chance, so the idea was put to rest.

He did not expect to meet Jiang Yu and Mo Long at the antiques market today. Mo Long even told him personally that he had an antiques business that he wanted to do with him. This really made Tang Huai feel flattered.

Jiang Yu picked among the antiques and soon picked up a small-sized horse-riding swallow, she said, "This 'horse-riding swallow is a very good toy. If Boss Tang is interested, you can buy this."

'Tang Huai looked at the small horse-riding swallow and asked in puzzlement, "Miss Jiang Yu, hasn't a horse-riding swallow been unearthed in the country? It's a little bigger than this one, and it's now stored in the country's museum. Now there's this one. Isn't it a fake?"

He spoke in a low voice because he was afraid that the stall owner would hear him and argue with him.

However, Jiang Yu had absolute confidence in her vision.

She raised the small horse-riding swallow and pointed it at the light. She said, "Boss Tang, look carefully. The one that was unearthed before was a horse and a swallow. This one is a horse and four small swallows."

Upon hearing this, Tang Huai also went over and looked carefully at the light.

As expected, it was just as Jiang Yu had said. This one was a horse and four small swallows.

Jiang Yu continued, "This type of horse-riding swallow should have been made by the workers of the previous dynasty when they saw the horse-riding swallow. They were amazed by its workmanship and craftsmanship, so they thought of making a similar one themselves."

'Tang Huai suddenly understood.

Jiang Yu said, "However, there might be something more valuable than this literary toy in this market. If Boss Tang is not satisfied with this, we can still continue walking forward and take a look."

'Tang Huai was very generous. With a wave of his hand, he spent 600,000 yuan to buy the horse-riding swallow.

He said, "Since Miss Jiang Yu said that this horse-riding swallow is a valuable thing, then I don't have to think too much about it. I'll just buy it directly."

Jiang Yu also admired Tang Huai's forthright attitude. She smiled and said, "As expected of Boss Tang. He's spending so much from the start."

Mo Long also smiled and said, "Indeed. This makes me more and more looking forward to working with Boss Tang."

'Tang Huai also said, "I'm also more and more looking forward to working with President Mo."

The three of them continued to walk forward while chatting and laughing, hoping to see some valuable small items.

However, the further they walked, the fewer people there were. Although there were still small stalls selling antiques, there were not many customers left.

Seeing this, Tang Huai suggested, "Why don't I treat President Mo and Miss Jiang Yu to a meal?"

Mo Long looked at Jiang Yu and asked for her opinion, "Yu-er, do you want to go for a meal?"

Jiang Yu looked at the end of the line of people and was silent for a while before saying, "I want to go take a look."

Mo Long naturally followed Jiang Yu's lead, but he didn't know if Tang Huai was willing.

He looked at Tang Huai and said, "Then what is boss Tang's plan?"

'Tang Huai already knew Jiang Yu's ability after going through this journey. Since she said she wanted to go over and take a look, it was definitely not purely out of curiosity.

Therefore, Tang Huai was also willing to follow Jiang Yu to see what kind of amazing place the end of the road that no one had gone to was..

Chapter 318: Auction

In front of them was a magnificent villa. Four or five luxury cars were parked at the entrance of the villa, and a waiter in a suit opened the door.

"T's an antique auction." Tang Huai narrowed his eyes.

It seemed that it was the right decision to follow Jiang Yu to take a look.

Jiang Yu had only heard of the antique auctions but had never participated in it personally.

Mo Long leaned over and whispered into Jiang Yu's ear, "Yu-er, do you want to go in and take a look?"

'Mo Long knew that there was an antique auction today because Teng Yi had received an invitation and had asked if he wanted to participate in the auction.

However, Mo Long only wanted to go and see Jiang Yu at that time. He wanted to take her to relax after she was done with her work and ease her mood for the past few days. Therefore, when Teng Yi came over with the invitation, Mo Long threw it into the trash bin without even looking at it.

He didn't expect to bring Jiang Yu to the auction tonight.

Jiang Yu had never been to such an auction before, so she naturally wanted to go in and take a look. However, she also knew that if she wanted to enter a place like this, she would need an invitation.

Since she did not have an invitation card, it would be difficult for her to enter.

Tang Huai said, "I've heard about this antique auction a long time ago. I've always participated in it. However, this auction will only invite a few famous people from the business circle. Even if I wanted to come, I wouldn't have the chance."

Jiang Yu was a little disappointed as well. She said, "Since that's the case, let's go back the way we came and take a look at the other stalls."

Tang Huai and Jiang Yu were about to leave when Mo Long wrapped his arms around Jiang Yu's waist and said, "If Yu-er wants to go in and take a look, I'll bring you in."

Jiang Yu looked at Mo Long in surprise and said, "This kind of place requires an invitation card to enter."

Mo Long smiled and said, "This auction gave me an invitation card before. It's just that I wanted to accompany you today, so I declined this auction."

Jiang Yu was surprised and said, "This... didn't I delay your work?"

Mo Long said, "Not at all. As long as I can accompany Yv'er, I can turn down all of my work."

Jiang Yu blushed and plunged into Mo Long's arms.

Tang Huai, who was listening by the side, felt that his teeth were about to fall out of their sockets.

He smiled and said, "Alright. President Mo and Mrs. Mo, don't show off your love here in front of an old man like me. It's really going to make my teeth fall out of their sockets."

'When Jiang Yu heard this, her face became even more flustered.

Mo Long didn't take it to heart. Instead, he smiled at Tang Huai and said, "Boss Tang and Madam Tang are a pair of lovebirds that outsiders envy."

Tang Huai laughed loudly.

Mo Long brought Jiang Yu to the villa. The attendant at the door stopped them and said, "Do you have an invitation?"

Jiang Yu was originally a little nervous, but when she stood beside Mo Long, she felt extremely at ease.

When the attendant saw that Mo Long did not speak, he immediately became angry and said, "Go, go, go! What kind of place is this? Do you think that people with your status can just casually come in?"

Tang Huai was extremely angry and said, "What do you mean by this? Do you know who is standing in front of you?"

The attendant looked at Tang Huai mockingly and said, "Who is it? Do I need to know the identity of you country bumpkins?"

Tang Huai said, "What do you mean by this?"

The attendant couldn't even be bothered to give Tang Huai a look and said, "It's the literal meaning. Could it be that you can't even understand this?"

As he spoke, the attendant saw another car driving over. He quickly put on a charming smile and hurriedly opened the door for that car..

Chapter 319: Stunned

'The waiter opened the door and said with an apologetic smile, "Hello, Sir!"

The secretary in the car threw the invitation card at the waiter's face and snorted coldly.

'The waiter picked up the invitation card and opened it. It turned out to be the famous Rong Yan of the business circle, President Rong.

"Hello, President Rong!" The waiter hurriedly nodded and reached out his hand, wanting Rong Yan to get off the car with his hand.

However, Rong Yan looked down on this kind of waiter who received guests at the door. He did not even look at him. He hugged the slender waist of a young girl and got off the car.

The waiter's face was a little awkward, and he withdrew his hand embarrassedly.

He turned around and saw that Mo Long and the other two were still standing there, so he vented the anger in his heart on them.

"Why are the three of you still here?! I just told you to leave, don't you understand? Don't you know how much standing here affects our overall image?"

Rong Yan heard the waiter's profanity and sneered. He subconsciously looked over, but when he saw Mo Long, he was so shocked his footsteps suddenly stopped.

'The young lady looked at Rong Yan in confusion and said, "CEO Rong? What's wrong?"

Rong Yan coughed a few times and tidied up his appearance. He threw the young lady aside and walked straight to Mo Long.

'When the waiter saw Rong Yan walking towards him, he thought that he had something to say to him. So he quickly took a few steps forward and bent down to wait for Rong Yan to speak.

He did not expect Rong Yan to walk straight past him and walk behind him.

The waiter was baffled. Why did Rong Yan walk behind him? Could it be that there was something behind him?

But other than those three country bumpkins, there was no one else behind him?

Just as the waiter was scratching his head in confusion, he suddenly heard Rong Yan call out, "Hello, President Mo!"

President Mo?

'The waiter was stunned. He kept searching in his mind for the identity of the person surnamed Mo who could make the famous Rong Yan respect him so much.

... Could it be the Mo Long that the organizer had said to "Invite over no matter what methods are used"?

'The waiter's legs gave way and he turned around in fear.

'As expected, Rong Yan was conversing with the man in the middle who was wearing a black suit.

So that person was Mo Long?!

The waiter wanted to cry but he couldn't. He was already worried about his future job.

"President Mo is very low-key today. Even the aura around him has become smaller," Rong Yan said with a smile.

Mo Long said plainly, "I'm accompanying my girlfriend out to relax today. There's no need to go through so much trouble."

"Girlfriend?" Rong Yan was stunned for a moment before he reacted. Mo Long had indeed publicly announced his girlfriend online before. It seemed to be called... Jiang Yu?

Rong Yan could not help but tilt his head to look at the petite woman in Mo Long's arms and said, "So it's Miss Jiang Yu?"

Jiang Yu smiled politely at him, and Rong Yan's heart almost skipped a beat when he saw it.

This Jiang Yu was really beautiful. Even without makeup, her temperament could not be compared to that of an ordinary girl.

It seemed that Mo Long had really picked up a treasure.

'When the young girl who had been ignored by Rong Yan saw Rong Yan's reaction, she felt extremely reluctant and looked at Jiang Yu with hatred in her eyes.

Jiang Yu also felt that someone was secretly watching her. However, when she looked around, she did not find anyone strange.

'When her eyes met the young lady's, the young lady nodded and smiled at her. Jiang Yu politely returned the smile.

However, the young lady's smile was a little strange. It was as if she was reluctant to pull out a smile..

Chapter 320: Snuff Bottle

Mo Long and Rong Yan chatted happily, and the latter generously invited Mo Long to the auction.

Mo Long did not decline and brought Jiang Yu and Tang Huai into the auction.

'When he passed by the waiter, Mo Long did not spare him a glance. However, the waiter's legs were already weak and he could not stand properly.

'When the few people completely disappeared into the auction villa, the waiter finally heaved a sigh of relief. However, not long after, he received a call from the organizer. "You have been fired."

'The waiter was stunned and his phone almost fell to the ground and broke into pieces. He stuttered and asked, "Boss? Why, why?"

'The organizer bluntly said to him, "You offended Mo Long and wanted to shut him out. You're asking me why I fired you?"

Mo Long! So it was really because of him!

The waiter wanted to cry, but no tears came out. Just as he was about to fight for a chance for himself, the sound of "Du du" came from the other side of the phone.

The waiter's hands and feet began to feel cold. He didn't expect that the job that he had always been proud of would be completely ruined because of his momentary blindness.

The auction provided a mask to every guest who came to participate. This was to protect the privacy of the guests.

'After Mo Long and his group put on their masks, they were about to enter the auction venue when another masked waiter walked over. He bowed to Mo Long and said, "President Mo, your VIP room is on the third floor. Please."

Mo Long naturally would not refuse. Rong Yan, on the other hand, was a little annoyed that he could not continue to get close to Mo Long.

However, he was still the boss of a large company after all. He had to put on a good show.

He smiled and said, "Then, president Mo, I'll see you in a while."

Mo Long nodded slightly and replied, "Alright."

Rong Yan then hugged the waist of the girl beside him. He slowly walked to his seat.

Everyone sat in their own seats. The auction was about to begin.

'The first treasure that opened was an exquisite snuff bottle. The degree of its exquisiteness was so exquisite that even laymen could tell that it was not an antique from a long time ago.

Some people thought that the organizers were just trying to fool them with some inconspicuous items, so they threw down their bid cards. However, they controlled their emotions well and did not curse out loud.

The host gave the price of the snuff bottle. "The first treasure is a snuff bottle from the Republic of China. The starting price is 50,000 yuan."

From the period of the Republic of China? Did they really think they were fools? This exquisite snuff bottle had been maintained as if it had just been made. In the end, the host said that this snuff bottle was from the period of the Republic of China?

Wasn't this a pure joke?

Jiang Yu, who was on the third floor, saw the snuff bottle and said to Mo Long, "This is indeed a snuff bottle from the period of the Republic of China. It may be because the original owner likes this snuff bottle very much, so it has been maintained very well."

Mo Long's eyes darkened, and he stuck close to Jiang Yu's ear and said, "Yu-er, do you want to buy it?"

Jiang Yu paused for a moment and said, "This snuff bottle can be used by the older generation. For example, your father or your grandfather. This snuff bottle is very suitable for them."

"Okay." Mo Long raised the sign in his hand and said, "100,000."

The moment the price was offered, the crowd became even quieter.

After a moment, everyone began to whisper, "Who is this spendthrift? It's obvious that this isn't something valuable, and he wants to spend 100,000 yuan to buy this snuff bottle?"

"Is there really no place to spend this money?"

"He's a spendthrift. 100,000 yuan to buy a snuff bottle? Who would do such a thing?"

Everyone was puzzled by the guest who had bid 100,000 yuan, but no one came forward to stop him.

They weren't the ones who were paying anyway, so why should they care about how much others had spent?
