

Older Man 38

Chapter 38: Strange Illness

Wei Juan and Jiang Ran looked at each other and quickly followed.

After so long, no one knew what Jiang Yu's condition was like now.

She should be much better now. Wei Juan and Jiang Ran both felt that Jiang Yu must have caught a cold outside, so she had a fever.

She should be fine after sleeping for a while.

However, when Mo Long pushed open the room, he saw Jiang Yu curled up on the bed, her face pale.

"Yu'er!" Mr. Mo Long was shocked.

He quickly sent someone to send Jiang Yu to the hospital.

Wei Juan and Jiang Ran did not expect Jiang Yu's face to be even paler than before. She looked weak, as if she was about to die.

They were also panicking at this time. They quickly followed her to the hospital.

In the ward, the doctor checked Jiang Yu but shook his head. "Strange, there are no symptoms at all. She is just unconscious!"

Mo Long frowned.

How did she end up like this?

The doctor was helpless. In the end, he classified Jiang Yu's illness as a rare disease. He could not find a way to treat her for the time being. He could only resign himself to fate.

Wei Juan lowered her head guiltily.

If people found out that Jiang Yu had fallen in front of her and she had ignored her, would they say that her mother was too cruel?

"Find out what happened to Jiang Yu today." Mo Long gave out an icy aura and ordered on the spot.

Wei Juan and Jiang Ran looked at each other and secretly felt that they were really unlucky.

Jiang Ran could only take a step forward. "We arranged the banquet with Jiang Yu today, but Jiang Yu seemed to be a little uncomfortable and suddenly fell to the ground. We thought that she was too tired, so we sent her back to her room to rest."

Mo Long's dark eyes were filled with hostility when he heard that. "She's fainted but you sent her back to her room?"

Wei Juan said guiltily, "Who would have thought that her condition would worsen?"

Mo Long sneered. "If she doesn't wake up, you two will be buried together with her!"

The mother and daughter were immediately guarded by the bodyguards. They couldn't leave even if they wanted to.

They secretly prayed in their hearts that they wouldn't be affected by Jiang Yu. They hoped that Jiang Yu would wake up soon.

Otherwise, she would not be able to explain this matter clearly.

At night, Jiang Yu blinked her eyelashes on the hospital bed.

Everyone in the room immediately became restless. Even Jiang Hai looked as if he loved his daughter dearly. "Mr. Mo, Yu'er seems to be waking up."

Jiang Yu slowly opened her eyes. When she saw that everyone in her family was looking at her worriedly, she thought that she was hallucinating. It was fine that Jiang Hai was worried about her, but why were Wei Juan and Jiang Ran crying with joy.

Could it be that she was dreaming again? That she had finally received the recognition of her family?

Jiang Yu blinked, hoping that she would not wake up from this dream.

Mo Long quickly asked, "Yu'er, how are you feeling?"

Jiang Yu shook her head and slowly sat up.

The doctor quickly came over to check on Jiang Yu and found that she was much better. He was immediately puzzled. "Why is her condition getting better for no reason?"

This strange illness came and went in a strange way.

In the end, Mo Long was the only one left in the ward to look after Jiang Yu.

"What's going on?"

Jiang Yu shook her head. "I don't know either."

If her family knew that she would fall ill at the sight of blood, she would not be able to study medicine.

Besides, Mo Long would definitely not let her study medicine.

However, she still wanted to cure his leg, so Jiang Yu lied.

Mo Long looked at Jiang Yu with her head lowered. He did not want her to waste any more energy, so he changed the topic.

"I will find another doctor to take a look at you."

Jiang Yu shook her head. "There's no need. My illness came and went so suddenly. It shouldn't be a problem."

She was unconscious and looked so weak. How could it not be a problem?

Mo Long looked at her disapprovingly, but he secretly made up his mind to find a godly doctor to treat her.

Meanwhile, at the Jiang family home.

Jiang Hai was throwing a tantrum in the hall.

“How did you take care of Yu’er? She’s so sick, how could you just leave her in the room? !”

Wei Juan and Jiang Ran rarely saw Jiang Hai throwing such a tantrum. They immediately became angry but did not dare to say anything.

“You two, pack your things and accompany Yu’er to the ward tonight. It’s also an apology to Yu’er, do you hear me?”

Jiang Ran was extremely aggrieved. “Dad, we didn’t do it on purpose.”

“If Mr. Mo Long blames you, will you still be able to stand here in peace? Go and get ready!” Jiang Hai slammed the table angrily.

Jiang Ran also felt some lingering fear. If Jiang Yu had not woken up today, Mr. Mo Long would have really sent them down to be buried with her!

But what was so good about Jiang Yu? Why did Mr. Mo long value her so much?

Jiang Ran packed her things in a wronged manner and went to the hospital.

“Mom, dad has never yelled at me for someone else before!” In the car, she pulled her mother in a wronged manner.

Wei Juan also sighed. “It’s all because she has Mo Long to protect her. Otherwise... daughter, you must take Mo Long’s heart.. When that time comes, you can bully Jiang Yu however you want.”
