

Older Man 41

Chapter 41: Save Face

Wei Juan naturally stood in front of Jiang Ran. "What's wrong with Ran Ran? When Jiang Yu seduced Mr. Mo, you didn't even scold her. Why can't we, Ran Ran, do it now? Ran Ran is obviously much better than Jiang Yu. Letting Ran Ran serve Mr. Mo is better than waiting for Jiang Yu to be despised!"

Jiang Hai was already angry, but when he heard Wei Juan's words, he immediately frowned.

Indeed, Jiang Yu was not as outstanding as Jiang Ran.

If Mr. Mo abandoned Jiang Yu, Jiang Hai would not find it strange.

There were many young ladies who were proficient in zither, chess, calligraphy, and painting, all waiting for Mr. Mo's favor.

What could Jiang Yu use to keep Mr. Mo's favor?

One more person, one more guarantee!

Thinking of this, Jiang Hai's expression also relaxed.

"But, Mr. Mo is very angry today. You were too hasty." Jiang Hai sighed. "Go back to your grandmother's house tomorrow and come back when school starts."

Jiang Hai still needed to give Mr. Mo a resolution.

He could only send Jiang Ran away temporarily.

Wei Juan frowned when she heard that. "Sending her away is fine, but you have to wait until the banquet ends tomorrow night. When that time comes, all your relatives and friends will come to attend. If Ran Ran doesn't attend, everyone will definitely think that it's because after Jiang Yu came back, she was ostracized and not allowed to attend the banquet!"

Jiang Ran said even more anxiously, "Dad, everyone knows that I'm the eldest daughter of the Jiang family. Now that you suddenly want to announce that my younger sister is the real eldest daughter, what should I do?"

Originally, no one knew that Jiang Yu disappeared the moment she was born. They only thought that she died in childbirth with her mother.

Later, after Wei Juan entered the house, in order to protect her reputation, she told the public that she adopted Jiang Ran.

However, after so many years, everyone had gotten used to thinking that Jiang Ran was the real Miss Jiang.

If everyone knew that Jiang Yu was the real Miss Jiang at the banquet tomorrow...

Then would Jiang Ran still be able to mingle in the socialite circle?

Especially since Jiang Ran already knew that she was the biological daughter of Wei Juan and Jiang Hai.

Jiang Ran was even more indignant.

Although her parents had accidentally given birth to her after drinking, she was clearly born earlier than Jiang Yu. No matter what, she was still the legitimate eldest daughter of the Jiang family.

Why was she being suppressed by Jiang Yu.

"I don't want to be an adopted daughter!" Jiang Ran took a step forward and held Jiang Hai's hand, she said coquettishly, "Dad, you've raised me for so long. Are you going to give up just like that? I'm going to marry into a rich family in the future!? Are you counting on my younger sister? Mr. Mo already said that he only got together with my sister to repay her kindness. He might change his mind one day. He doesn't really like my sister at all."

"Only I am the future hope of the Jiang family. I can't be an adopted daughter. I'm the eldest daughter of the Jiang Family!"

Jiang Ran's words made Jiang Hai's previous determination waver.

Only Jiang Ran was the hope of the Jiang family.

Jiang Yu did not know anything. It was hard to say whether she could get married in the future.

"Hubby," Wei Juan saw that Jiang Hai was wavering and encouraged him, "How about this. Tomorrow, you say that the two daughters are biological. You say that they are twins and that they are the daughters of your ex-wife?"

In any case, Jiang Yu and Jiang Ran were only born three days apart.

Jiang Ran's birthday happened to be around the same time that Jiang Hai's first wife died in childbirth.

In this way, the Jiang family could save face and still have two daughters.

Jiang Hai's heart moved when he heard this. "Then let's do it."

No matter what, he could never let anyone know that he had sex after drinking during his marriage.

As for Jiang Yu, Jiang Hai decided to explain it to Jiang Yu personally.

Both of them were his daughters and he had feelings for both. He believed that Yu'er would understand.

Chapter 42: Birth Mother Was Someone Else

Jiang Yu was coming out of the hospital and was returning to Mo Garden with Mo Long.

Jiang Ran caused such a mess today. Jiang Yu really didn't want to go home and see Jiang Ran's face.

However, Jiang Yu didn't expect to receive a call from Jiang Hai.

When she heard Jiang Hai say that she couldn't let Jiang Ran become an adopted daughter, Jiang Yu's heart skipped a beat and she felt a little uncomfortable.

Jiang Hai had not said anything about her being labeled as an adopted daughter in the past year that she had returned to the Jiang family.

Instead, he had tacitly agreed to this matter.

Now, he was actually thinking so much for Jiang Ran.

“Yu’er, no matter what, Ran Ran has been the eldest daughter of the Jiang family for so many years. She can’t stand those rumors and slanders. How about this, both of you are my daughters. When the time comes, I will announce that you two are twins. Both of you are the daughters of my first wife and I...”

When Jiang Yu heard this, her pupils suddenly constricted. “What did you say? Whose daughter am I?”

All this while, she had thought that she was Wei Juan’s biological daughter.

Who would have thought...

Jiang Hai sighed. “When you were born, your mother died in childbirth. All this while, no one dared to mention this matter. In fact, your biological mother was Kangdie.”

Jiang Hai’s words were like a huge bomb, making Jiang Yu to be unable to recover from her shock.

Over the past year, Wei Juan had been bullying her and now she finally found out why.

It turned out that Wei Juan was not her mother.

After hanging up the phone, Jiang Yu was still unable to recover from her shock.

Mo Long looked at her worriedly. “What’s wrong?”

Jiang Yu mumbled, “My father said that he will announce tomorrow that Jiang Ran and I are twins. Also, I am not Wei Juan’s daughter. I am the daughter of my father’s first wife.”

Mo Long’s eyes flashed. In fact, he had already found out about this matter.

He just did not want her to be sad when she found out that her mother had passed away.

Silent tears fell from the corner of Jiang Yu’s eyes.

When she was in the orphanage, she often wondered why she was abandoned. Did her mother not love her?

When she returned to the Jiang family, she slowly verified the fact that she was not loved.

But it turned out that her mother had died a long time ago.

As for the Jiang family, Jiang Hai’s heart was at Jiang Ran’s body.

“If you don’t want to, I can let the Jiang family only have you as the eldest daughter,” Mo Long said in a low voice.

What twins? Jiang Hai really could think of that.

“There’s no need,” Jiang Yu said in a low voice.

When she returned to Mo Garden, Jiang Yu entered the room and closed the door.

She wanted to be alone for a while.

Mo Long looked at the tightly shut door and his heart sank.

At this moment, his phone rang.

Teng Yi reported on the other end of the phone, "President Mo, we found the reason for madam's fainting."

It turned out that Jiang Yu had fainted three times on different occasions.

Every time, it was because she had seen blood.

Moreover, the symptoms were very strange. The doctors couldn't find out why. Every time, Jiang Yu woke up by herself and was able to jump around again.

"Blood sickness?" Mo Long repeated this sentence in a low voice.

In his mind, he recalled that Jiang Yu had been adopted by an unscrupulous couple when she was young. In the end, they had used her blood to sell for money.

He instantly understood the crux of Jiang Yu's blood sickness.

"My guess is that it's a psychological disorder," Teng Yi said.

"I understand," Mo Long said in a deep voice.

After hanging up the phone, Mo Long looked at the door. His eyes were full of heartache.

What had Jiang Yu experienced in the first half of her life.

Just as Mo Long was about to knock on the door, the door was pulled open from the inside.

Jiang Yu looked as if nothing had happened and said to him, "By the way, I've recently learned some massage techniques. They might be useful for your legs!"

After Mo Long entered the room, Jiang Yu said to him, "Lay on the bed first. I'll get ready!"

"You know how to massage?" Mo Long is surprised.

Chapter 43: Haemophobia

Jiang Yu nodded. "I've read some medical books since I was young, and I'm especially interested in acupuncture. However, I've never tried it before, so I don't dare to use it on you. However, I'm very familiar with the acupoints of the human body, so I can help you massage them!"

Jiang Yu rubbed some medicinal wine on her hands.

Then, she walked to Mo Long.

She began to massage his feet.

Her technique was extremely skillful.

"I used to work in a massage shop!" Jiang Yu's hands pressed on various acupoints one after another.

Jiang Yu didn't even let go of the opportunity to try the other parts of Mo Long's body that might be useful in restoring the function of his legs and feet.

Mo Long only felt that when Jiang Yu's small hands exerted force on his body, it made him feel exceptionally comfortable.

He even felt as if his qi and blood were flowing along with it.

Half an hour ago, Jiang Yu was still a patient and was unconscious.

It was just a while ago that she learned that her mother had passed away and was heartbroken.

But now, she was massaging him so seriously and was concerned about his condition.

A warm feeling flashed across Mo Long's heart.

"Yu'er!" He lowered his voice and called her softly.

Jiang Yu did not reply. She continued to massage with a serious and careful expression.

Mo Long held her hand and said, "From now on, I will be your family."

Only then did Jiang Yu raise her head and sigh. "Actually, I'm really fine now. I learned that my mother died during childbirth. It's not that she doesn't love me, but I'm also relieved."

It was better than being sad because of Wei Juan's indifference towards her.

Now, there was finally a result.

She didn't need to be conflicted anymore.

Mo Long thought of something and said seriously, "Also, I hope that you can promise me something."

"What?"

"I hope that you don't major in medicine," Mo Long said firmly.

Jiang Yu clearly fainted at the sight of blood, and her reaction was so intense. How could he let her study medicine again?

Jiang Yu was stunned for a moment. "But I'm more interested in medicine, and I also want to cure your leg."

Jiang Yu had read all kinds of medical books before. Only by systematically studying medicine could she find out the real cause of Mo Long's illness.

"No, studying medicine is not suitable for you. The operating theater is too bloody. I don't want you to face that every day." Mo Long saw her resistance and could not help but soften his voice, trying to convince her.

"I'm not afraid," Jiang Yu said firmly.

Mo Long's expression flashed and he finally revealed what he thought. "I don't want to see you in the same situation as you are today."

“Do you understand?”

Seeing Mo Long nod, Jiang Yu was stunned for a moment. She did not expect that the secret that she had hidden so well would be discovered by him so quickly.

“It’s okay. I will slowly overcome it!” Jiang Yu said.

She also knew that this was a psychological problem. She might get over it one day?

As long as she was brave.

“I won’t allow it!” Mo Long’s eyes were filled with heartache.

“There’s nothing you can do if you won’t allow it. I’ve already decided.” Jiang Yu spread her hands and finished the last set of massage procedures. She didn’t want to discuss this topic anymore.

Mo Long could see her stubbornness, but he had already made up his mind.

No matter what, he couldn’t let her study medicine.

“Yu’er, I’m doing this for your own good. I hope you won’t blame me,” Mo Long muttered.

At the Jiang family dinner the next day.

Originally, it was going to be announced that Jiang Ran was the only young miss.

However, Mo Long was angered by the story of the twins, which caused Mo long to cancel the dinner.

When the Jiang family found out about this matter, it was too late to make up for it.

In the end, when many guests found out about this matter, they all called the Jiang family a liar.

Many people didn’t come at the last minute.

The Jiang family’s banquet was cold and quiet.

Just when Jiang Hai was in a dilemma and was about to announce that Jiang Yu was the real young miss of the Jiang family according to Mo Long’s suggestion, Jiang Yu appeared.

Jiang Yu, who was dressed in a luxurious gown, had a decent smile on her face.

However, she had a different aura from before.

When Wei Juan saw Jiang Yu appear, she immediately heaved a sigh of relief. “Yu’er!”

Chapter 44: Announcing The Twins

Wei Juan was about to walk over affectionately and take Jiang Yu’s hand.

However, Jiang Yu calmly avoided her touch and coldly called out to her, “Aunt Wei.”

This sentence stunned Wei Juan.

Jiang Hai’s face turned pale as well.

Everyone present whispered to each other about this form of address.

"I've always heard that this second miss is insensible. Looks like it's true."

"Although she's adopted, she still can't call me aunt."

Jiang Ran quickly walked over with an awkward expression. "Sister, now is not the time to be naughty."

Jiang Hai also quickly said, "Yu'er, come over quickly. Come to daddy."

In order to gain Mr. Mo Long's good impression, Jiang Hai decided to follow Mr. Mo Long's words and no longer call Jiang Yu an adopted daughter.

Instead, he would call her his own daughter.

"Actually, Jiang Yu is my daughter and my first wife's daughter!"

Jiang Hai introduced Jiang Yu to all the guests.

There was an uproar at once.

"What? Jiang Yu is that person's daughter?"

"Didn't they say that that person didn't even have a child?"

"So, that child back then is Jiang Yu?"

"Then, Jiang Yu is the eldest daughter of the Jiang family, and Jiang Ran is the only adopted daughter!"

"I told you, Jiang Yu always has a noble temperament!"

Jiang Ran bit her lip.

She reminded Jiang Hai again and again that she was still there.

Did her father forget to say the last sentence?

That was, she was also the eldest daughter of the Jiang family. A twin was born at that time.

However, Jiang Hai hesitated and didn't say anything.

Since Mr. Mo didn't attend, he didn't dare to announce it like that.

At this moment, Wei Juan saw that Jiang Hai had changed his mind at the last minute, she quickly smiled and pulled Jiang Ran over to introduce, "Also, we only found out recently that the Jiang Ran we adopted was also the eldest daughter of the Jiang family. In fact, the Jiang family gave birth to twins back then! Back then, we all mistakenly thought that the child was gone. We didn't expect that we had given birth to twins and they were taken away by the outlaws."

The crowd was in an uproar once again.

Jiang Ran heaved a sigh of relief. The nervousness from before had returned to calmness.

However, a cold smile flashed across Jiang Yu's eyes.

Wei Juan was really protective of her daughter.

When Jiang Hai saw that the matter was already set in stone, he could only cooperate.

“Sister! My good sister! You’ve suffered!” Jiang Ran regained her confidence and walked up to Jiang Yu with a smile, wanting to hold her hand.

Jiang Yu’s expression turned cold and Jiang Ran awkwardly withdrew her hand.

Jiang Yu had a trace of expectation for Jiang Hai.

Now that she saw that he had tacitly agreed to the twins story, she was extremely disappointed.

She should have listened to Mo Long. There was no need for her to come to this banquet.

Out of sight, out of mind.

Jiang Yu quickly left with the excuse that she was not feeling well.

A few guests’ voices came from behind, “President Jiang, is Mr. Mo really not coming?”

“He said he had something urgent to attend to.” Jiang Hai was extremely embarrassed.

Jiang Yu left the banquet hall.

She took a deep breath and got into the car by the roadside. She did not stay any longer and returned to Mo Garden. She quickly packed her luggage and planned to go out for a walk.

She was going to the city of her university, Hu City!

The matter of the two newly recognized twin daughters of a small Jiang family did not attract much attention.

On the contrary, the Jiang family actually used the name of the Mo family. In the end, they were slapped in the face.

The Mo family spread the news that they were not familiar with Jiang Hai.

Jiang Hai was anxious to contact Mo Long, but he could not get in touch with him no matter how hard he tried.

Even many business partners, upon hearing the news, stopped working with Jiang Hai.

For a time, Jiang Hai was extremely busy.

At home, Wei Juan was preparing all kinds of things for Jiang Ran to bring to university.

“Daughter, do you want mom to go to university with you? I can stay there and take care of your daily life!” Wei Juan’s heart ached. It was the first time her daughter, who she had raised for so long, had to go on a long trip. How could she not be worried?

Chapter 45: School Registration Failed

“Mom, don’t worry. Everyone is living in dorms at the university. Who would bring their mom there? I can do it!”

Jiang Ran smiled and said, "How can I bear to see you work so hard? Just wait for me to graduate from university and bring back a rich husband so that you can enjoy your life."

Jiang Ran's mouth was smeared with honey.

Wei Juan immediately burst into laughter. "You're so filial. You're not like that heartless girl, Jiang Yu. This year we provided for her living and she just leaves to travel whenever she wants. She doesn't care about the livelihood of her family."

Jiang Yu and Mo Long had such a good relationship, but she deliberately let the Mo family spread the news that he was not close with the Jiang family.

That girl had caused the Jiang family to lose a lot of money.

"She's really a money loser!" Wei Juan gritted her teeth.

Jiang Hai just happened to come in at this time, and his face was full of fatigue.

When he heard this, he also sighed.

When Jiang Ran saw this, she immediately went over to massage Jiang Hai's back. "Dad, where's my living expenses for university?"

Jiang Hai took out a card and handed it to Jiang Ran. "Take it. Get along well with your sister in university. She has lacked the care of a family since she was young and is cold and unemotional. Teach her more."

That girl didn't even know that the Jiang family was on the same boat as her.

They would rise and fall together.

If the status of the Jiang family wasn't high, even if Jiang Yu was lucky enough to marry into a well-off family in the future, she would still have to look at other people's faces.

"Okay, dad, don't worry. I will keep an eye on her and won't let her do anything reckless!" Jiang Ran took the bank card sensibly, then she added, "Dad, if I find a rich man in the future, the first thing I will do is to ask him to support our family's business. He won't be so ungrateful."

Only Jiang Yu was ungrateful.

She had the blood of the Jiang family flowing in her veins, but in the end, she didn't side with the Jiang family.

She didn't even help the Jiang family when they had such a good chance to rise up.

Jiang Hai looked at Jiang Ran with satisfaction. Fortunately, there was a sensible person like Jiang Ran.

Hu city.

Jiang Yu spent two days in Hu City and it was time for school to start.

Green Vine University.

Jiang Yu stood at the entrance of the university and took a deep breath.

At this moment, Jiang Ran's voice came from behind, "Sister!"

Jiang Yu turned around and saw Jiang Ran striding towards her.

Not far away, Wei Juan was waving goodbye to Jiang Ran.

Jiang Ran walked to Jiang Yu's side.

She glanced at Jiang Yu's ordinary clothes, which she couldn't tell the brand, and a hint of ridicule flashed across her eyes.

She knew that Jiang Yu wouldn't stay with Mr. Mo for long.

She was dumped so quickly, wasn't she?

"Little sister, dad asked me to help you in school so that you wouldn't do something shameful again," Jiang Ran said sarcastically.

Jiang Yu also smiled. "Shameful? What's more shameful than you sneaking into a man's room and being tied up like a thief?"

Jiang Ran's face instantly turned pale. "Jiang Yu!"

Jiang Yu had already turned around and strode into the school gate.

She directly asked for directions to the medical department and reported to the medical department.

As for Jiang Ran, she was originally going to report to the performance department.

But she couldn't help but follow behind Jiang Yu.

She wanted to see which class Jiang Yu would be assigned to.

When the time came, it would be much easier to find an opportunity to deal with her.

"Classmate, is this the medical department?"

Jiang Yu asked a classmate.

The student pointed behind him and said, "You are a freshman, right? Enter and turn right."

Jiang Yu nodded and thanked him before walking into the room.

"Hello, teacher. My name is Jiang Yu!"

"Jiang Yu? Our department doesn't have such a name. Are you in the wrong place?"

"Did you see wrongly?"

"That's right. Jiang Yu, right? Your name isn't on it."

Jiang Yu went over and found that the teacher's computer screen showed that the medical department had not found the assigned class.

Jiang Yu was stunned.

Could it be that there was a bug in the system?

Jiang Ran did not expect to hear such explosive news.

Could it be that Jiang Yu had not been accepted at all?

Such a good opportunity, she had to quickly take a photo.

Chapter 46: Fake Admission Notice

Jiang Ran recorded the conversation between the teacher and Jiang Yu. Before Jiang Yu realized that she was the one who recorded the video, she quickly ran out with a smile.

Soon, she posted the video.

"I'm dying of laughter. Someone actually came to report with a fake admission notice!" Jiang Ran randomly registered a new account.

She then posted the video on the school's forum.

Soon, it was watched by many people.

Jiang Yu didn't know that she was already popular on the school's forum.

She was still waiting for the result at the entrance of the registration office.

In the end, she saw many passing students pointing at her.

"It's her!"

"She actually dares to stand here? She has guts."

Before Jiang Yu could figure out what was going on, she saw a woman walking towards her. She was surrounded by a lot of people.

"Hey, get away from me. Don't get in my way!"

The follower beside the woman looked at Jiang Yu impatiently.

"Are you the one who faked it?" Kang Xue glanced at Jiang Yu with disdain. "Get her out of here! Our school is not a place where you can behave atrociously!"

Kang Xue was the campus belle of the second year. She was a talented girl in the music department and the eldest daughter of the Kang family. The Kang family was one of the three great clans in Hu City.

Now was the time to establish her integrity.

A few second-year female students surrounded Jiang Yu.

The teachers inside were busy arranging classrooms and rooms for the students who were reporting in an endless stream.

For a moment, it was so noisy that they couldn't care less about Jiang Yu who was outside the door.

“This person is really bold!”

“Looks like she’s going to suffer today!”

“Miss Kang is still as righteous as ever!”

“A person like her who fakes should be taught a lesson!”

Jiang Yu narrowed her eyes. Only then did she realize that she had been misunderstood. She hurriedly explained, “Listen to me, I’m not faking it. It’s just a problem with the system.”

If she had something to say, she could have said it nicely. She did not want to get into a conflict with others on the first day of reporting.

However, Kang Xue sneered and said, “Do you think we’re stupid? Beat her up first before throwing her out!”

After Kang Xue said that, those few lackeys immediately rubbed their hands together in order to act well in front of Miss Kang.

In the end...

Before they could even touch Jiang Yu, all of them seemed to have been possessed. They suddenly clutched their stomachs and laughed loudly.

Kang Xue was stunned for a moment. “Why haven’t you done anything yet?”

In the end, Kang Xue saw Jiang Yu’s cold gaze and a cold glint flashed across her eyes. Following that, she said, “You want to chase me away? What right do you have?”

After saying that, Kang Xue had just taken a step forward when she felt as if her waist had been pricked. Following that, she could not help but burst out laughing.

Her muscles suddenly trembled uncontrollably.

Kang Xue laughed so hard that she fell back. “Hahahahahahaha!”

Seven or eight people laughed so hard in front of Jiang Yu at the same time.

Jiang Yu was also very surprised. It was her first time using silver needles, and she had actually hit the right acupuncture points.

It seemed that she was not far away from treating Mo Long’s illness.

Silver needles. She would become more familiar with them after using them.

“Who else wants to come up?” Jiang Yu said coldly.

The surrounding people who were watching the show subconsciously took two steps back.

“Please, spare me. Haha, I can’t laugh anymore.”

“I’m Sorry!”

“Help, my stomach hurts from laughing so much!”

A few students began to plead for mercy.

They were already laughing so much that they could not stand it anymore.

Even the usually noble Kang Xue could not help but soften her tone towards Jiang Yu. "I'm wrong!"

Only then did Jiang Yu use an extremely fast speed to brush past the few of them.

Very quickly, the few of them stopped laughing.

They slumped to the ground as if they had collapsed.

Terrifying!

The onlookers did not know how Jiang Yu did it. They all looked at Jiang Yu in horror.

"Could this be the martial arts from the wuxia movies?"

"It's too powerful!"

Chapter 47: Elite Female Dormitory

At this moment, the teacher at the registration office walked out.

"Student Jiang Yu, I just received a call from the principal. He said that the medical department is full, but you can choose any other subject." The teacher smiled.

The principal, who was sweating profusely, ran over and handed a few new admission notices to Jiang Yu. "Miss Jiang, it's a misunderstanding. It's all a misunderstanding. You can report to any other subject!"

Previously, the principal had received a new donation, but the requirement was that Jiang Yu couldn't go to the medical department. She could go to any other subject, but she couldn't study medicine.

The principal didn't expect his subordinates to be so ineffective.

They even made a scene on the school's forum, so he had no choice but to come over personally to resolve this matter.

Jiang Yu pointed at the pile of admission notices in surprise. "The medical department is full?"

Who was he trying to fool? She had just heard that the music department and the performance department were relatively popular, but the medical department was very quiet. The number of people in each classroom was the smallest.

The principal nodded repeatedly. "Yes, our medical department's plan to reduce the number of students this year has just been implemented. You can only choose from other subjects."

Afraid that Jiang Yu would continue to ask questions, the principal did not say another word and handed the few acceptance letters to Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu's face turned black. She was really only interested in the medical department.

"But I..."

"It's alright, it's alright. If you haven't chosen your subject yet, you can go to each subject to study and find your favorite subject before you decide! I still have something to do, so I'll be leaving first. Oh right, to make up for this mistake, we will arrange the best female dormitory for you."

After the principal hurriedly finished his instructions, he ran off.

All that was left were the students who were staring at Jiang Yu.

Following that, the person who was sitting on the ground suddenly said, "Sister Kang, she actually lives in the same dormitory as you!"

Only then did Miss Kang realize that she had chased out the wrong person.

However, after being humiliated by Jiang Yu just now, she was still laughing in an undignified manner. It was simply a great insult to her.

Kang Xue stood up from the ground and gave Jiang Yu a cold glance. She snorted coldly and said, "Do you deserve to live with me!"

She looked at Jiang Yu with contempt.

Jiang Yu looked at the sky speechlessly. Was there something wrong with this person's brain.

It was fine if she did not apologize to her, but she was still so arrogant.

However, she did not expect the surrounding students to be equally shocked.

"Isn't this too lucky? She actually got to stay in the elite female dormitory!"

"This dormitory is filled with the best students from various departments. What right does this freshman have?"

"I also want to stay in the elite dormitory!"

The spectators all expressed that Jiang Yu had gotten lucky today.

Not only did she get to stay in the elite dormitory, but other than the unpopular subject of the medical department, she could choose any of the other subjects at will. She could also take classes in every subject until she found one that she was interested in.

However, Jiang Yu didn't feel that she had hit the jackpot.

On the contrary, her entire body was emitting a cold aura, as if she was extremely unhappy.

At this moment, a call came in.

After Jiang Yu picked up the call, Teng Yi's cautious voice came from the other end, "Miss Jiang, President Mo wants me to tell you that the medical department really isn't suitable for you. You can choose any other subject you want."

Teng Yi was really in a difficult position, so he had to be careful the entire time.

Sure enough, Jiang Yu's voice was filled with anger, "Where is he?"

“Mr. Mo is on a business trip and is currently on the plane.” Teng Yi swallowed his saliva, “Sir said that if you want to hit him and punish him, he will listen to you when he comes back. However, this matter is non negotiable.”

Jiang Yu was about to die from anger, “Tell him that he doesn’t need to come back!”

Jiang Yu really did not expect that Mo Long would secretly do all this behind her back.

It was really too disrespectful to her.

After Jiang Yu roared angrily, she directly hung up the phone.

Kang Xue, who was about to leave, was shocked by this roar. When she thought of Jiang Yu’s strange method, her palms immediately became sweaty. She forced herself to take a breath so that her legs would not go soft.

Damn it, don’t let me catch Jiang Yu next time.

Chapter 48: Meeting Lu Qi Again

Everyone was very curious about which department Jiang Yu would eventually go to register.

There was no place for Jiang Yu in the medical department.

The farce had clearly ended, but many people were still watching Jiang Yu.

Under everyone’s watchful eyes, Jiang Yu walked towards the music department’s building.

When she reached the music department’s registration area, Jiang Yu received her school uniform and books.

“Classmate, did you choose the music department?” A curious person asked Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu blinked her eyes and shook her head. “It’s closer to the dormitory here.”

The onlookers couldn’t help but come to a realization.

So Jiang Yu didn’t come to register because she liked the music department.

It was because the music department happened to be next to the medical department, so it was the shortest distance.

“Then, which department do you think is number one?” Another curious student couldn’t help but ask.

Facing the gossiping alumni, Jiang Yu helplessly spread out her hands and pointed in the direction of the medical department with a helpless expression.

“Oh!” The other alumni seemed to have come to a sudden realization.

It turned out that Jiang Yu only wanted to enter the medical department.

The other subjects were just secondary options.

“She really has a soft spot for the medical department!”

"It's really unfortunate that she likes to study medicine so much, but there are no more spots!"

Jiang Yu originally thought that she had chosen the best route and could directly go all the way to the dormitory.

In the end, she found out that every department's registration office was waiting for her to report, except for the medical department.

In the end, among the freshmen, there was a figure in a hurry. Before long, the book in her hand was half the height of a person.

Jiang Yu was so tired that she was panting.

She cursed Mo Long a few more times in her heart.

If it weren't for his private arrangements, she wouldn't have become a rare animal among the freshmen in the school.

For an entire day, Jiang Yu reported to and received books from various departments.

She arrived at the design department.

Just as Jiang Yu was about to report, the book on her body suddenly became lighter. A familiar voice came from beside her, "Xiao Yu!"

Lu Qi took the book from Jiang Yu's hand and smiled at her.

Jiang Yu's eyes lit up.

"I heard that there was a student who received a bag from various departments. From the photo, it looked like you. I didn't expect it to really be you."

Lu Qi was shocked.

She knew that Jiang Yu had always wanted to enter the medical department.

She didn't expect it to turn out like this.

Jiang Yu sighed and expressed her helplessness.

Lu Qi patted her shoulder. "Then what do you want to do? What's next?"

After Jiang Yu received the books from the design department, she walked to the dormitory with Lu Qi.

"I plan to go to the library to look for some books from the medical department."

Even though she was currently rejected by the medical department, she could go to the library to look for some information first. Previously, Jiang Yu had only read some miscellaneous books. The medical books here should be quite comprehensive.

She should be able to find ways to cure Mo Long's legs.

Jiang Yu made up her mind. As for the lesson, she said, "I'll go to class with you tomorrow."

In any case, the other departments didn't matter to Jiang Yu.

When they arrived at the elite female dormitory, there weren't many people in the dormitory at the moment.

However, the luxury of the dormitory still made Lu Qi envious.

It must be known that other students could only live in bunk beds while Jiang Yu had her own room.

The goddesses of the other departments lived in the other rooms here.

"Kang Xue, she's a talented musician!" Lu Qi looked at the names written on the doors of the other rooms and counted them one by one.

"Jiang Li, born into a medical family."

"There's even Miss Li, the younger sister of the movie queen..."

There was even the goddess of the computer science department who had once helped to catch criminals. Yuan Zhen, who possessed extremely high computer capability, was one by one. All of them were sophomores and juniors.

Each of them was on the level of a goddess.

Lu Qi was extremely envious. "Yu'er, you have no idea how many students in the entire school are envious of you right now!"

Even a freshmen could live in the elite female dormitory.

Chapter 49: Scared Now

"If you want it, I can switch with you!" Jiang Yu didn't care about the place.

Lu Qi quickly waved her hand. "I don't have the right! You should stay here."

Lu Qi whispered, "Yu'er, you have to be careful. I heard that you had some conflicts with Kang Xue!"

The conflict between Jiang Yu and Kang Xue had already been posted on the school forum.

"This Kang Xue is the eldest daughter of the Kang family. Her status is not simple. The Kang family is a very ancient family. Although her hometown is in Shanghai, their businesses are in all walks of life. I think you should bear with her when you see her in the future!"

Lu Qi tried her best to persuade her.

This place was not like their former city. It was someone else's territory.

"I understand." Jiang Yu nodded.

If she didn't have to, she didn't want to get into a conflict with anyone.

After Lu Qi left, Jiang Yu started to pack her luggage.

Footsteps and voices came from outside.

"That newcomer is too arrogant!"

The woman who was talking to Kang Xue suddenly stopped and saw Jiang Yu's busy figure in the open room.

Kang Xue naturally saw it too.

She couldn't help but snort coldly.

How could this Jiang Yu live under the same roof as her?

Did she have the ability to do that?

How could she compare to the people who lived here and actually live in peace.

"Ha, she actually went to get a music department book. I don't think she can even understand the music score."

"She's obviously a country bumpkin!"

"I'm afraid she hasn't even heard a piano piece before!"

The two people outside spoke unscrupulously, and they even deliberately let Jiang Yu hear them.

However, Jiang Yu thought of Lu Qi's suggestion just now, and she didn't want to have too much friction with Kang Xue, so she endured it.

However, her attitude made the two people outside look down on her even more.

They thought that Jiang Yu was definitely cowardly.

She didn't know Kang Xue's identity before, and now she probably regretted it.

She did not dare to refute her. She was so cowardly.

Kang Xue's conversation with her best friend became even more unbridled.

Everyone was belittling Jiang Yu. "I think she's from the countryside. She doesn't know anything. She probably can't even read a book!"

"Wasn't she quite ruthless just now? Now that you know how to be afraid, why don't you kneel down and apologize to our Xue Xue?"

Jiang Yu packed her things. She turned around and glanced indifferently at the two people outside the door before walking out.

The two people outside the door subconsciously took a step back.

They were still a little scared of Jiang Yu.

"What are you doing?"

"Don't come over!"

Seeing that Jiang Yu was getting closer and closer, Kang Xue immediately regretted it. She didn't have many people with her now, so she definitely couldn't beat Jiang Yu.

Was there still time to run?

In the end, Jiang Yu only said, "I don't have time to waste on boring people."

"Who are you calling boring?" Kang Xue was instantly ignited. "Do you know who you are talking to?"

If she dared to challenge her authority, she wouldn't be afraid for the time being.

But when Jiang Yu's gaze swept over, Kang Xue still felt some lingering fear.

She clenched her fists and glared angrily at Jiang Yu. "Jiang Yu, do you know what will happen if you offend me? Do you know what my status is in the school? Do you know..."

"I know now, what do you want to say? !" Jiang Yu said speechlessly.

Kang Xue: "You... you..."

She did not dare say the harsh words she wanted to say.

She was afraid that she would be beaten up by Jiang Yu in the next second.

"I'm warning you..." Jiang Yu interrupted her directly. "Being angry will hurt your heart. If you're angry, the risk of heart attack will increase by 4.74 times. For people who love to be angry, the death rate of heart attack patients will increase by 24% ."

At this moment, Kang Xue, who was full of anger, couldn't help but be stunned when she heard her words. "What did you say?"

"Read more medical books when you have time. It's much more useful than saying bad things about others!"

"I still have to go to the library. You don't have to thank me for the warning just now."

Jiang Yu waved her hand, as if she really did not want to say anything more.

She had already told them about how to be healthy.

It could be considered as showing goodwill.

With this thought in mind, Jiang Yu swaggered out of the room.

Chapter 50: Can Really Understand It

In the library.

Jiang Li was looking through medical books when she saw that the person who had been wandering around in the beginner's medical books had actually come to her side.

The row of books in front of Jiang Li were all major books on neurology. Each of them was extremely professional and required at least a junior to be able to understand them.

However, the woman in front of her was still holding the introductory books. How could she possibly understand the row of books now?

After Jiang Yu chose a few basic books, she wanted to specifically look for some books on neurology. She might be able to find a way to treat Mo Long's leg disease there.

She did not expect that after flipping through them, she would be engrossed in reading these books.

At this moment, someone beside her said, "The books here are not suitable for freshmen to read. You should go to that bookshelf."

Jiang Li kindly reminded her.

She was a third-year medical student, and she was one of the best in the department.

Even she herself only dared to read these profound books when she was a second-year student.

This was because her IQ was relatively high. Normally, only third-year students would come to this area to look for books.

Jiang Yu held onto the huge neurology book and said casually, "I came here specifically to look for neurology books."

Jiang Li frowned. "Even if you want to learn this, you have to do it step by step. These books are really not suitable for people who have yet to master the basics."

"I know that these books are quite difficult." Jiang Yu finally understood the other party's concerns and said with a smile, "However, I have taught myself a little before, so I can still understand these books."

How much could she understand? Understanding a little or understanding all of them, were two different concepts.

Jiang Li's eyes were filled with disapproval.

This new student was too arrogant. She had not even finished laying the foundation yet and was already thinking of building a high-rise building.

For a moment, Jiang Li did not want to say anything more to this person.

She chose the same book herself and left.

"Senior sister, What's wrong?" A student who knew Jiang Li ran over and asked.

Jiang Li shook her head. "Nothing."

The student's mouth fell open. "Senior sister, don't tell me you still don't know. This person is your roommate, and she is that Jiang Yu."

"Jiang Yu? Who?"

Jiang Li had spent the entire afternoon in the library looking for information, so she didn't know what was going on outside.

After the junior sister gave a simple explanation, Jiang Li came to a realization.

It turned out that this person had been rejected by the medical department and was even assigned to her dormitory.

The junior sister said, "I heard that she liked the medical department very much, but in the end, there weren't enough places. What a pity."

"It's not a pity. Maybe this is good for her," Jiang Li said lightly.

It might be a good thing to not let such a person who was bent on reaching the sky in one go and aiming too high study medicine.

After all, it was not easy to study medicine. What was needed was someone who had an open mind and could calm down.

Those as impatient as Jiang Yu and wanted to read high-difficulty books before they could understand the basic books did have any self-awareness.

After Jiang Yu chose the books, she saw the person who had just given her a suggestion at the front desk.

However, the other party gave her a cold glance and did not have any desire to talk to her.

Jiang Yu curled her lips and did not want to explain anything.

However, when she accidentally saw the name on the other party's borrowing card, Jiang Yu instantly looked at Jiang Li in surprise.

Jiang Li, the woman who lived in the room next to hers.

It was said that she was one of the best in the medical department.

With the thought of building a good relationship with the same dormitory, Jiang Yu took the initiative to say, "Hello, we are from the same dormitory."

Jiang Li only gave her a look and nodded her head lightly.

Jiang Yu still explained, "Actually, I really can understand these books!"

The doubt in Jiang Li's eyes flashed past and she quickly said, "Is that so?"

Is that so?

Jiang Yu, "..."

It seemed that she had left a bad impression on her dormmate.

She had offended two dormmates in a row today. She reckoned that her future school life would not be easy. Jiang Yu thought gloomily.
