

Older Man 51

Chapter 51: Desensitization Therapy

Jiang Yu carried a large pile of medical books and returned to her dormitory. She began to immerse herself in the sea of books.

Jiang Yu used to work in the library near the orphanage. She also read a lot of books day and night.

However, the medical books there were very few and incomplete.

They were not as comprehensive as the books from Ivy University.

At this moment, Jiang Yu felt that her brain was filled with knowledge.

In an instant, she felt much happier.

When she was an orphan, she had heard that knowledge could change fate.

At that time, she was very poor, and the children in the orphanage were also very poor.

Jiang Yu was focused on how to earn more money. Once, she heard the radio say, "Knowledge can change fate." At that time, it was as if she had suddenly found a direction.

Learning, no matter what kind of knowledge it was.

She wanted to learn more.

Perhaps if she learned more, it would achieve a qualitative change and she would be able to get out of poverty. She would also be able to help more orphans, wouldn't she?

She had pretty much donated the money she had gotten from Mo Long.

However, Jiang Yu still felt that she had to work harder. Only then could she earn more money and help more people.

Jiang Yu set her phone to silent mode.

When she stretched herself, she realized that it was already very quiet outside. It was late at night.

Jiang Yu hurriedly went to bed and took a look at her phone before going to bed.

She found a message from Mo Long saying that he would be busy overseas for a few days. After he was done, he would come directly to Hu City to look for her.

Jiang Yu curled her lips and her eyes were filled with grievance.

"Do you know that my dream is to be a doctor? You are too much." Jiang Yu sent the message over. She felt that she was too weak. Could Mo Long's words easily change her fate?

She had wanted to study medicine in the past because she did not like the feeling of being unable to do anything while waiting for her life to pass.

When she was young, she was malnourished due to frequent blood draws.

Many people said that she would not be able to live for long because she was like a sick child. Her face was pale and she would not be able to see the sun tomorrow.

It was the orphanage's director who bought all kinds of expensive and nutritious things bit by bit to help her slowly recover.

Studying medicine! It was her dream at that time.

Mo Long quickly replied, "Wait for me to come back. I will be at your disposal."

It was the same sentence again.

Jiang Yu felt a little helpless. She knew that Mo Long had made up his mind.

"If I manage to overcome my hemophobia, can you let me study medicine?" Jiang Yu asked tentatively.

Mo long replied, "If you manage to overcome it, I'll agree to it. But, how do you want to overcome it?"

Jiang Yu bit her lip. She knew of a treatment called desensitization therapy, which was to constantly contact the source of stimulation until she slowly adapted to it.

Jiang Yu replied, "I will find a way."

After saying that, Jiang Yu looked at her fair hands.

It happened to be the dead of night.

If she became ill, she would not scare others.

Thinking of this, Jiang Yu took out a silver needle and gently pricked her finger.

A drop of blood flowed out from it.

Seeing the bright red color and the sharp smell of blood, Jiang Yu's nose caught it.

At that moment, Jiang Yu felt her head spinning and she fainted on the bed.

The lights were still on, but Jiang Yu didn't react at all.

Her face was pale.

She fell beside the desk.

The sound of the door being gently twisted was heard at that moment.

Kang Xue poked her head in and was surprised to find Jiang Yu sleeping on the desk.

But she soon felt that it was better this way.

In the basket she was holding was a green pet snake.

This snake was not poisonous, but most people were afraid of it.

Jiang Yu would definitely be frightened.

Kang Xue Thought for a long time before she thought of this way to take revenge on Jiang Yu.

“Jiang Yu, it was your fault to make a fool of me today. You asked for it.”

Chapter 52: Thought He Was Dead

Kang Xue released the snake from the cage and gently placed it on the ground. Then, she quietly closed the door.

She didn't realize that the person on the desk was already pale.

The next morning.

Kang Xue waited for a long time, but she didn't hear any exclamations.

She was puzzled. Was Jiang Yu not afraid of snakes?

It had been a whole night, why was there no movement at all?

She had already thought of an excuse.

When the time came, she would say, “Oh, I'm sorry. My pet snake likes to run around. I didn't expect you to be so timid.”

However, it was too quiet over there now.

Was she still not awake?

No, let's go and take a look.

At six in the morning, Kang Xue could not hold it in any longer. Besides, Xiao Lu was her pet. She did not want it to be hurt by Jiang Yu.

She gently opened the door to Jiang Yu's room.

Kang Xue saw that Jiang Yu was still doing what she did last night.

Jiang Yu was still sleeping on the desk, while Xiao Lu was laying in Jiang Yu's arms. She didn't move and fell asleep.

Kang Xue frowned.

She quickly walked over to check on the situation.

However, as soon as she walked closer, she saw Jiang Yu's pale face. She immediately took a deep breath.

“Ah!”

A scream resounded throughout the entire dormitory.

Jiang Li, who was next door, was startled awake.

Before he could react, she heard Kang Xue's shout from outside the door, “Oh no, someone died!”

Jiang Li's eyes turned cold and she immediately ran out.

When she opened the door, she saw Kang Xue, who was so frightened that she was crying, pointing in the direction of Jiang Yu's room.

Jiang Li frowned and quickly went to Jiang Yu's room.

"What happened? Who died?" Jiang Yu stretched lazily.

She felt her back ache and her body was a little cold.

She also found a cute little snake in her arms. She pinched it gently and asked, "Whose snake is this?"

Jiang Li, who had just entered the room, saw Jiang Yu staring at her with a pale face.

Jiang Li frowned and walked over. She pulled Jiang Yu's arm and checked her pulse. Her face darkened. "Why are you so weak? Your body is weak and cold. It's bone-chilling."

Kang Xue heaved a sigh of relief when she saw that Jiang Yu was still alive.

She asked guiltily, "Are you... Are you alright?"

Jiang Yu twisted her stiff neck.

She should have been laying on the bed last night before she started the desensitization therapy.

She was the one who didn't think it through and ended up sleeping on the desk all night. No wonder she caught a cold.

"I'm sorry. I was too serious in reading yesterday, so I fell asleep on the desk. I might have caught a cold." Jiang Yu tried to cover up with a smile.

Jiang Li frowned and saw that the desk was full of medical books. Jiang Yu had made a lot of notes and excerpts throughout the night. She looked very serious and hardworking.

"How can people who study medicine not value their own bodies!" Jiang Li scolded.

Jiang Yu repeatedly expressed that she would not do it again.

Jiang Li thought for a while and left some prescriptions for tonics to treat her weak and cold body before leaving.

But in her heart, she had a bad impression of Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu's body was too weak from the pulse check just now, and her pulse was also very weak.

She couldn't even take good care of her own body, yet she still wanted to treat others. It was ridiculous.

Fortunately, Jiang Yu was rejected outside the door of the medical department.

Jiang Yu thanked Jiang Li, but Jiang Li kept a cold face the whole time.

Jiang Yu:"..."

“By the way, whose snake is this?” After Jiang Li left, Jiang Yu realized that there was a cute little snake in the room.

“It’s mine!” Kang Xue looked at Jiang Yu, whose face was still a little pale, and her heart was still pounding from the fright.

She took Xiao Lu with trembling hands with a face full of regret.

She didn’t manage to scare Jiang Yu, and was instead scared half to death herself.

And looking at the situation, Jiang Yu was not afraid of snakes at all!

Chapter 53: Honorary Student

Jiang Yu thought that Kang Xue was afraid of the little snake in her hand, so she couldn’t help but comfort her.

“You don’t have to be so nervous. This little snake isn’t poisonous at all. It’s a pity. If it’s poisonous, it can be used as medicine. One must know that snake venom can promote coagulation and fight cancer. It can treat stroke, cerebral thrombosis, coronary heart disease, multiple arteritis, retinal artery, vein occlusion, and other diseases.”

Kang Xue quickly carried her Xiao Lu and ran away.

Jiang Yu was too scary. She actually wanted to use the snake as medicine. Fortunately, Xiao Lu was fine.

At the entrance of the medical department.

Under the morning sunlight, the students walked into the medical department in groups of two or three.

In Jiang Yu’s opinion, these students were bright and energetic, with a bright future ahead of them.

“Sigh, how I want to be a part of this place!”

Under the sunlight, Jiang Yu stood alone by a tree, looking at the medicine department that was within her reach.

No, she couldn’t give up just like that.

Jiang Yu tried to walk towards the direction of the medicine department.

In the end, she was recognized after just a few steps.

“Ah, it’s Jiang Yu!”

“Why is she here?”

Before long, she was pointed at by quite a number of medicine department students.

Jiang Yu smiled awkwardly. “Sigh, why am I sleepwalking!”

After saying that, she walked back.

There was no classroom in the medical department that belonged to her.

Jiang Yu was very helpless.

She went straight to the design department as per her agreement with Lu Qi.

In the design department's Class 8, Lu Qi was very happy to be able to sit with Jiang Yu again.

At the same time, in the other departments.

Music department's Class 8: "Jiang Yu..."

"Teacher, Jiang Yu didn't come."

Performance department's Class 8: "Jiang Yu."

"Teacher, Jiang Yu didn't come to our class."

Computer science department: "Jiang Yu..."

Students: "..."

The teacher who was taking attendance was also very helpless.

With Jiang Yu as a student in name, if she didn't come to class, the teacher wouldn't be able to say anything.

After all, it was the principal who had said that she could attend classes at will and that she would choose her subjects in a month's time.

Design department class 8: "Jiang Yu."

Jiang Yu: "Here."

A faint voice came from the classroom.

The teachers who were in charge of the art class looked at Jiang Yu in surprise. It seemed that she really liked the design class.

For some reason, the art class teacher felt a slight sense of pride at this moment.

There were so many departments, but Jiang Yu was the first to choose her class. Did this mean that her class was also very popular.

The art professor, who had gained some satisfaction, paid special attention to Jiang Yu in class.

However, she found Jiang Yu's face full of melancholy, as if the Sun had been stolen from her.

Jiang Yu listened to the art class. Even though she tried her best to listen attentively, she still felt unhappy.

Because she really wanted to learn more medical knowledge right away.

Medical knowledge could cure illnesses and save lives. It was more useful than writing and drawing.

Jiang Yu thought as she listened to the class.

Seeing Jiang Yu frown, the art professor thought that Jiang Yu didn't understand something.

He even specially called Jiang Yu to go on stage. "How about this, student Jiang, come up and draw a model of the character. Students, please give us some advice."

The kind-hearted teacher made Jiang Yu quiver, and the surroundings erupted in warm applause.

"Clap clap clap!"

"Student Jiang probably like to draw. I saw that she was very serious in class and listened very seriously!"

"I can see that student Jiang Yu loves drawing. She came to our class for the first lesson."

The other students had their homework schedules arranged by the school long ago.

But Jiang Yu was different.

She was free.

Under the curious and eager gazes of the students, Jiang Yu looked at the teacher blankly. "Teacher, I haven't studied it specifically. I've only learned some basics."

"It's alright. Feel free to draw as you wish. Do what you learned before."

The art professor was exceptionally tolerant.

Jiang Yu had no choice but to go on stage.

Chapter 54: Skeleton Organ Diagram

She picked up the brush and started drawing on the stage.

The art professor walked over seriously.

He saw Jiang Yu draw a heart first, then a kidney next to it.

"Student Jiang, I asked you to draw a human body model, why did you draw the organs? I asked you to draw a sketch of the human body, the shape, not the inside."

The professor pushed up his glasses, thinking that Jiang Yu had misheard him.

But Jiang Yu quickly finished drawing the body organs, only then did she start drawing the skin outside the organs. "Teacher, I know, but I'll draw a heart first because the location of the heart is very important. Without a heart, you can't live. Then I'll draw the positions of the various organs so that I can accurately determine the proportion of the other body organs. This way, the human body's outline won't deviate."

Jiang Yu said matter-of-factly, "Look, I first drew the joints of the fingers. This way, the outline of the fingers can be exactly the same as the human body's structure. Every movement can also be based on evidence, and it can be drawn completely according to the movements of the joints. This is my basic skill in practicing sketching."

After Jiang Yu finished speaking, the last stroke was already drawn. She did not expect that, apart from the various organs, there was a portrait of a woman of which one could see the internal organs.

At first glance, it was actually filled with a sense of artistic beauty.

The students were all dumbfounded.

The art professor looked at the figure that was filled with organs and was suddenly enlightened. "I understand. I did not expect that you would actually be able to understand the human body's structure so thoroughly just to learn to draw. Everyone, give a round of applause to student Jiang Yu!"

"Clap clap clap!" The applause was thunderous.

Lu Qi looked at Jiang Yu, who had returned to her side, and gave her a thumbs up. "Little Yu, how did you come up with this idea to practice drawing the human body? It's really amazing!"

Jiang Yu drew the figure's shape. Every inch of the figure's body and the position of its joints were exactly the same as those of real people.

It was as if she was doing a perspective on the figure and directly took a picture of it.

Jiang Yu sighed, "Actually, this is the basic skill drawing the human body's bone structure."

It was also something that every medical student had to know by heart.

It was nothing magical at all.

Lu Qi, on the other hand, said in admiration, "I didn't expect you to study so hard."

It turned out that she had learned it when she was studying medicine, but Lu Qi was still very impressed. She couldn't even tell the location of various organs.

"Students, everyone needs to learn from Jiang Yu. Today's assignment is to draw a human figure through the bones!" After the professor said that, the class immediately began to discuss.

"The first lesson is already so difficult!"

"Oh my God, I still have to learn so many things!"

"This time is too rushed. You have to learn both painting and organs."

The professor said, "Student Jiang Yu can do it, but why can't you? You have to learn from outstanding people."

For a moment, everyone looked at Jiang Yu in unison.

Jiang Yu: "...". She didn't mean to increase the amount of homework for the students.

After all, she was also a victim who had to hand in her homework.

"Aiya, Xiao Yu, you have to teach me!" Lu Qi quickly grabbed Jiang Yu, this life-saving straw.

In the school's forum.

A few headlines were still hanging on the popular posts.

“Jiang Yu is rejected by the medical department!”

“Freshmen move into elite female dormitory!”

At this moment, a new post was posted.

Some students posted with tears in their eyes: “Human bones and organs are too difficult!”

When the alumni saw it, they immediately laughed.

This must be the medical department freshmen complaining.

The first class of the medical department was to learn about the human body’s structure.

However, how could there be so many people commenting on such a common thing? The alumni clicked on the comment and were immediately dumbfounded.

This was ridiculous.

This was not a complaint from the medical students at all.

It was a complaint from the freshmen of the design department.

They said that because Jiang Yu drew the human organ diagram in the first class, it led to the professor assigning such a crazy assignment. The freshmen actually had to draw the human bone organ diagram on the first day!

“Pfft, I can’t laugh anymore. It’s even worse than the freshmen in the medical department!”

“Damn, this is the design department’s assignment. It’s turned into a medical assignment!”

“Jiang Yu is indeed a person who wants to study medicine! She’s so hardworking!”

Chapter 55: Too Accurate

“I’m from the medical department. At first, the freshmen had to identify the locations of various organs, but I didn’t expect the design department to directly draw it from the start. I suddenly feel that our department’s homework is too simple.”

“New medical student, I originally thought that it would be too difficult to memorize so much homework, but now i suddenly feel that our teacher showed mercy and didn’t let us draw it.”

Medical department sophomore class.

“Jiang Li, Look, your new roommate is on the campus forum again!”

Jiang Li was reading a medical book when he heard the surrounding students passionately discussing some bone diagram.

“Aren’t we all familiar with the bone diagram? What’s so strange about it?”

Jiang Li glanced at the picture. Jiang Yu’s drawing didn’t seem that impressive.

If the students present took out their brushes, they would be able to accurately draw out the positions of all the organs.

It was just that it lacked the artistry.

However, the most important thing about organ drawings was practicality. What was the use of having so much artistry.

Therefore, it was simply something that was used to attract attention.

When she thought of how Jiang Yu was still pale and looked like she was on the verge of death in the morning, Jiang Li frowned.

How could such a person who couldn't even take care of her own body be qualified to enter the medical department.

"Not only this, there's also this." The student showed another post to Jiang Li.

In the video, Jiang Yu used some unknown method.

She actually made a few students who were surrounding her burst into laughter on the ground.

Jiang Li raised her eyebrows in surprise and took it over to watch it again.

This time, she finally realized that Jiang Yu had used the acupoints of the human body. She pressed on their laughing acupoint.

But the problem was that she was too accurate.

Moreover, she had accurately pressed on the acupoint while they were moving.

The student said in admiration, "This person's speed and accuracy are simply a gift from God."

Even among these second-year students, how many of them could accurately determine the acupoints of others while they were moving.

Her eyesight and familiarity with human organs were really too terrifying.

"Jiang Li, if this person enters medical school, it's likely that she will be the first in her grade!"

Jiang Li realized that she had really underestimated Jiang Yu.

Could it be that Jiang Yu was really a medical fanatic?

Did she study hard to... cure her illness?

Thinking about how Jiang Yu's body was obviously weak, but Jiang Li could not detect her illness, Jiang Li felt that Jiang Yu was suffering from some rare illness.

For a moment, she suddenly felt that Jiang Yu was quite pitiful.

"Oh right, there's a public lecture for the medical department in the afternoon. I feel that Jiang Yu will definitely attend it!"

The students all smiled and said, "Maybe we can even meet this little junior who was rejected by the medical department."

In the design department.

“How do we draw these intestines!”

“And this liver. If it’s sideways, what should it look like!”

“I went to the medical department to borrow a few X-rays. Everyone, come and take a look!”

“Aiya, student Jiang Yu, help me see if the size of the organs I drew is a little strange!”

Design Department Class 8.

Jiang Yu was completely surrounded.

The assignment this time was triggered by Jiang Yu.

Many students held onto Jiang Yu and didn’t let her go.

“I’m just going to the toilet. Student, don’t pull me!” Jiang Yu’s voice sounded in the crowd.

“Excuse me, excuse me!”

“Student, excuse me, I really need to pee.”

Jiang Yu felt that if she didn’t run away, she would be drowned by the students from the design department.

The students were too enthusiastic.

Lu Qi had already retreated out of the crowd.

She winked at Jiang Yu helplessly and helped Jiang Yu pull her out.

When Jiang Yu came out, the students were still chattering about the drawing.

Jiang Yu immediately ran away. “Lu Qi, I’m going to another department for the next class.”

“You go.” Lu Qi understood the nod.

Chapter 56: Speak, Continue Speaking

Acting Department Class 8.

The few of them were enjoying the drama on the forum especially when they saw that the students from the design department were all asking for help from the medical department, asking for various organ pictures. They couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

“Ran Ran, this Jiang Yu has the same surname as you, Jiang, and she looks a little like you. Are you two related?”

Jiang Ran was currying favor with Sun Miao, the richest girl in the class.

It was Sun Miao’s birthday tonight, and she said that she was going to invite a few good friends to her house for her birthday.

Jiang Ran had just arrived, and she wanted to build a good relationship with Sun Miao. She might be able to get to know some powerful young masters at the birthday party.

When she heard that someone was referring to her and Jiang Yu, Jiang Ran immediately frowned, she turned around and said to her classmates, "You're talking about Jiang Yu. It's true that she's my younger sister, but she grew up in an orphanage and isn't close to me at all. Moreover, she was adopted by criminals when she was young and was later sent back... In short, she's not the same as me!"

Jiang Ran said it with confidence.

It was as if Jiang Yu was some kind of poisonous trash and she couldn't wait to cut ties with her.

"Moreover, she was secretly engaged to a man who was a few years older than her. Tsk, Tsk, tsk. Moreover, the two of them were not marrying for love at all, but..." Jiang Ran was speaking excitedly.

All of a sudden, the entire classroom quieted down.

That was because some of the students had already noticed Jiang Yu who was walking in from the classroom.

This was Jiang Yu's first time coming to the acting department for a class.

She did not expect to hear Jiang Ran slander her in class as soon as she arrived.

"But what..." Jiang Ran was halfway through her sentence when she suddenly heard a familiar voice.

She turned around and saw Jiang Yu walking in.

Jiang Yu pulled out a chair and sat down in front of Jiang Ran. She faced her and said, "Speak, continue."

Jiang Ran's expression froze. She could not speak anymore and tried to change the topic. "We were just joking. Don't be angry."

"Oh, then I'll joke too. Don't be angry!"

Jiang Yu waved her hand. "When I was sick, this good sister of mine slipped into my fiancé's room in her pajamas. Then, she was tied up by his bodyguards like a dumpling."

"Oh, there's no proof. I still have evidence. Do you want to see it?"

Jiang Yu waved her phone.

Jiang Ran's face was already pale. "Jiang Yu! Don't go too far! We're family!"

"Family? Didn't you just spread rumors and slander me?"

When a few classmates heard this, they already understood.

It turned out that Jiang Ran was jealous that Jiang Yu had a good boyfriend. She couldn't snatch him away and instead went around slandering Jiang Yu.

"Jiang Ran was so confident just now that I almost believed her!"

"Isn't this too shameless? She actually seduced her own brother-in-law!"

Jiang Ran's face alternated between green and white.

But Jiang Yu didn't want to let her off.

She only saw that Jiang Yu really tapped on her phone. "Apologize. Otherwise, you know that I won't give you face!"

The next second, Jiang Ran lowered her head and said to Jiang Yu, "I'm sorry, I made it up just now!"

In fact, she was just adding fuel to the fire and making some changes. A lot of it was true.

That Mo Long indeed did not love her.

Jiang Yu had really been adopted by criminals before.

Jiang Ran thought indignantly that if she had not been caught, she could have made Jiang Yu lower her head and behave herself in school from now on.

Unfortunately...

Chapter 57: Don't Understand The Rules

On the other side, after Jiang Ran apologized, she chose a seat furthest away from Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu simply sat down on the spot and waited for class to start.

"Jiang Ran, someone like you still want to go to my birthday banquet? You Wish. I, Sun Miao, don't want to be friends with someone like you!"

Not far away, Sun Miao said in disdain.

The students quickly echoed, "That's right. A country bumpkin like you doesn't deserve to attend sister Sun's birthday?"

"Sister Sun, this is the birthday present I prepared for you."

For a moment, there were all kinds of fawning voices.

The Sun family was a big family in Hu City. They were richer than many people who came from small places.

It was no wonder that Jiang Ran started to curry favor with Sun Miao as soon as she went to school. She just didn't expect that all her previous efforts would go to waste.

Jiang Ran glared fiercely at Jiang Yu.

Her eyes were filled with unwillingness.

While Jiang Yu was reading the textbook of the acting department, she heard a little girl stammer, "Sister Sun, I... This is a health product that I bought at the last minute. Take a look."

Sun Miao glanced at it and was instantly enraged. "What do you mean by this? Would I take a fancy to this kind of thing?"

The little girl said weakly, "But I really didn't have time to prepare."

"Didn't I say it? If you don't have a gift of over ten thousand yuan, don't take it out!"

Sun Miao's lackey was instantly enraged and immediately surrounded the female classmate.

“Go and prepare now, or else you won’t have a good day in class in the future.”

Jiang Yu frowned.

Only then did she realize that many people in the class had prepared gifts in their hands, but they didn’t dare to voice their anger.

“Newcomer, I’m sure you’ve just arrived, but you don’t know! It’s still not too late to go and prepare the gifts now! Today is sister Sun’s birthday, so every student has to bring a gift, do you understand?”

The little attendant saw Jiang Yu’s blank expression and could not help but walk over to Jiang Yu.

She already knew that Jiang Yu did not have any background.

Immediately, she did not stand on ceremony with her. “What are you waiting for? Hurry up and prepare!”

Jiang Yu: “...”

As a result, Sun Miao was now the big sister of the class.

The students still had to show their respect to her, or else they would not have a good life in the future.

“Oh, what if I don’t give it?”

“Then you can give it a try. Be careful after school!” The little attendant immediately threatened.

The other students did not dare to step forward.

Some students had rich families, so it was not bad to be able to curry favor with Sun Miao.

However, some of the students did not have that much money at the moment, so they could only plead for mercy with trepidation.

Jiang Ran saw that Jiang Yu was not tactful, so she immediately smiled.

Jiang Yu did not know that this Miss Sun was not so easy to offend.

Previously, there was a little girl who accidentally bumped into Sun Miao. In the end, she could only kneel down and kowtow to Sun Miao to apologize.

Sun Miao was from one of the top ten families in Hu City.

Although her family could not be compared to the Kang family, it could completely overpower the Jiang family.

Jiang Yu had offended Kang Xue and Sun Miao at the same time. Jiang Ran instantly felt refreshed.

She was just waiting to watch a good show.

At noon after school.

Jiang Yu was surrounded by a few people.

Sun Miao hugged her shoulders. "You guys are from a small place and you don't know the rules. Then I'll let you know what the rules are!"

"Come at me!" Jiang Yu looked at them coldly.

The last time Kang Xue's people surrounded her, they were all begging for mercy.

Now, these people were just walking organs to Jiang Yu. Jiang Yu could see the weakness of these organs very quickly.

Soon, Sun Miao's wailing came from the classroom.

With a crack, her wrist was broken.

Sun Miao had never suffered such pain before. For a moment, she screamed in pain.

The other lackeys immediately looked at each other and looked at Jiang Yu in horror.

They finally remembered.

Jiang Yu and her strange martial arts.

For a moment, no one dared to come forward.

"The teacher is here!"

At this moment, there was a commotion outside.

Chapter 58: Fight

It was unknown who told the teacher about the situation here.

After the teacher came in, he immediately frowned when he saw the situation in the classroom.

"What's going on? Hurry and call a doctor!"

This was the miss of the Sun family. If something happened in the classroom, it would be difficult for the school to account for it.

"Teacher, it was Jiang Yu who hit someone!" A follower said.

The teacher immediately stared at Jiang Yu sternly. "Classmate, follow me to the administrative office to receive punishment!"

Jiang Yu frowned. "It was they who attacked me first. You should arrest them!"

Jiang Yu pointed at Sun Miao's lackeys.

The teacher's eyes flashed, feeling a little guilty.

She had heard of this young miss of the Sun family. She was used to being willful since she was young.

Looking at Jiang Yu's weak and gentle appearance, it didn't seem like she had taken the initiative to provoke her.

However, it was Jiang Yu's fault for not having a background.

"What nonsense are you spouting? Come with me! Everyone else, leave!"

Jiang Yu frowned again.

"What's going on?" At this moment, a man's voice came from outside the door.

When Sun Miao heard this voice, she immediately said in pleasant surprise, "Brother, this person is bullying me. Quickly get the school to expel her! My hand has been twisted by her. It hurts so much!"

Outside the door, Sun You, who was dressed in luxury brand from head to toe, walked in.

Seeing the current situation, his face was cold.

Who dared to bully the miss of the Sun Family? He didn't want to live anymore.

Today was Sun Miao's birthday. Sun You deliberately came to pick Sun Miao up for lunch. He didn't expect...

Sun You's gaze fell on Jiang Yu.

His eyes flashed with coldness.

"It was Jiang Yu who hurt Miss Sun!" Jiang Ran shouted from outside.

She could not wait for Jiang Yu to be expelled from the school immediately.

If she did not have a degree in the future, she would see what kind of good job Jiang Yu could find.

However, Sun You, who was approaching Jiang Yu, stopped in his tracks. "What did you say her name was?"

"Brother, it doesn't matter what her name is. Hurry up and tell the school to expel her!" Sun Miao was anxious to death.

She looked at Jiang Yu proudly.

However, Sun You's reaction was very strange. "Teacher, my sister has been willful since she was young. Today, my sister must have caused trouble again!"

Eh!

Not only did Sun You not blame Jiang Yu, but he even walked over to Jiang Yu's side. "Miss Jiang, are you hurt?"

Jiang Yu did not expect Sun Miao's brother to be so reasonable.

"I'm fine."

"That's good. I apologize to you on behalf of my sister!"

Sun Miao was petrified on the spot.

Why was her brother helping others?

"Brother, how can you..."

"Shut up!" Sun You's face was cold. "Go back and reflect on yourself!"

After saying that, Sun You wanted to pull Sun Miao to the infirmary.

"Let's go, let's go," The teacher said.

"Wait a minute. I can let go of the fact that I was attacked by others, but I think it's necessary to talk about Sun Miao threatening my classmate to buy a gift."

Sun Miao and Sun You stopped in their tracks and looked at Jiang Yu at the same time.

The veins on Sun You's forehead twitched.

He had already put the matter to rest.

He didn't expect Jiang Yu to be so inconsiderate.

"There's such a thing?"

"Teacher, I have evidence!" Jiang Yu said.

In the end, it was Sun Miao who returned all the gifts, and the matter came to an end.

In the infirmary.

"Brother, it hurts!"

"You can still feel pain! You're getting more and more lawless now, and you're even acting like a big sister!" Sun You Said snappily.

"Brother, why are you afraid of that Jiang Yu? She's just from the countryside. Just fire her." Sun Miao could not understand.

Sun you said, "You don't understand. In the future, when you see Jiang Yu and Jiang Ran, you must not offend them."

"Why?"

"Do you know the top-class wealthy family in the capital that lost their daughter 40 years ago? I just found out that the missing daughter is the biological mother of Jiang Yu and Jiang Ran!"

"Huh!" Sun Miao widened her eyes.

That person in capital was an existence that even the Sun family wanted to curry favor with.

Then today, she had offended both daughters of the aristocratic family.

"Brother, are you sure it's them?"

"I'm sure, but you have to keep this a secret for now. You have to build a good relationship with them first!"

Sun Miao: "..."

Today was really unlucky.

Chapter 59: 40 Years Ago

40 years ago, a wealthy family in the capital lost a young girl who had just turned five years old.

They searched for decades just like that.

Unexpectedly, they still had not given up on the idea of looking for her.

The Sun family wanted to cling to their side, so they helped to look for her.

Finally, they found traces of her. In the end, they found out that the young lady died in childbirth 18 years ago and gave birth to twins.

These two people were Jiang Yu and Jiang Ran.

Originally, Sun You was looking for an opportunity to get close to these two people.

He did not expect that Sun Miao would offend them today.

The name of the five-year-old child was Kang Die, and the nickname of the five-year-old child who got lost in capital family was little butterfly.

It happened to match.

After Kang Die got lost, she was adopted by an ordinary family. Later on, she married Jiang Hai, who was only a small businessman at that time. However, before she could enjoy her life, she died in childbirth.

After Sun Miao understood this, she immediately said, "Those two people are really lucky! They were actually born into a good family. Brother, I know what to do!"

"Although Jiang Yu has a grudge with me, Jiang Ran wants to suck up to me and attend my birthday party. As long as I give her some benefits, she will definitely listen to me!"

...

In the school cafeteria.

Jiang Yu was having dinner with Lu Qi.

Jiang Ran walked over and asked tentatively, "Have you been abandoned by Mr. Mo, so you hooked up with young master Sun as soon as you arrived in Hu City?"

Otherwise, why would young master Sun have such an unusual attitude towards Jiang Yu just now.

Jiang Ran was extremely jealous.

She had always heard that Sun You was very protective of her younger sister.

She never expected that he would be so abnormal today.

Originally, Jiang Ran thought that she might even become Mrs. Sun.

Jiang Yu looked at Jiang Ran speechlessly. "Are you trying to spread rumors in school again?"

Wasn't the lesson just now enough?

Jiang Ran hurriedly said, "No, I just want to know, do you know young master Sun?"

"I don't." Jiang Yu waved her hand. "You can leave now."

Jiang Ran heaved a sigh of relief and immediately laughed out loud.

"Don't pretend with me. Even if you don't know young master Sun, it's the truth that you were dumped."

After saying that, Jiang Ran took out her phone.

The latest information was on it.

"Movie queen and her lover on a date."

On it was a photo of the movie queen getting into the car.

In the photo, the car door was not closed yet, and a man's figure was faintly discernible behind it.

"Although I can't see who this man is, I recognize the bodyguard who opened the door," Jiang Ran said proudly.

Because the bodyguard who opened the door was Mr. Mo Long's personal bodyguard, right?

It was clear who the person in the car was.

It could be proved that Mr. Mo Long dumped Jiang Yu as soon as school started.

Right, Mr. Mo Long had power and status. Naturally, he would look for a movie queen who was of equal status.

How could he still care about Jiang Yu?

Jiang Ran sneered. "I've already warned you. You're not compatible with Mr. Mo..."

After saying that, Jiang Ran left triumphantly.

Jiang Yu looked at the news and frowned.

She also recognized that this car and the bodyguard who opened the door belonged to Mo Long.

Then why would Mo Long, who was obviously on a business trip overseas, have a scandal with the movie Queen in Shanghai?

Jiang Yu's breathing stopped.

Lu Qi quickly comforted her, "Just because they're sitting in the same car doesn't necessarily mean that they're in a relationship. Reporters love to make wild guesses. Yuyu, you have to calm down."

Jiang Yu felt that she was quite calm.

She and Mo Long didn't belong to the same type of family.

It was impossible for them to be together in the first place.

When the two of them met previously, it was only because of an accident that he had no choice but to take responsibility for her.

If Mo Long really had someone he liked, she, Jiang Yu, would not have continued to hold onto him.

However, the two of them were still boyfriend and girlfriend.

Mo Long actually returned to the country without informing her and even took a photo with the movie queen.

Jiang Yu thought for a moment and decided that she had to find out.

She took out her phone and called Mo Long.

Chapter 60: Felt Like Catching A Cheater

It took a long time before someone picked up.

It was Teng Yi's voice. "Miss Jiang, sir has just fallen ill and entered the physical therapy room..."

"Which hospital is he in!" Jiang Yu immediately stood up.

In the hospital.

At the entrance of the physical therapy room, Teng Yi and a few bodyguards were standing guard there.

Jiang Yu quickly walked forward. "Why did he suddenly fall ill?"

Teng Yi said, "When Sir was overseas, he was already feeling a little uncomfortable. He was busy with other matters when he returned to China. He suddenly fell ill just now."

Mo Long's legs could not stand for too long. If he stood for more than an hour, he would fall ill.

That was why he often sat in a wheelchair.

Moreover, he had to undergo physical therapy once a day. These physical therapy sessions were only effective in alleviating the symptoms and could not cure him immediately.

Outside the physical therapy room, Teng Yi discovered the latest scandal regarding the movie queen.

No wonder Jiang Yu suddenly called President Mo...

However, because people couldn't bring in electronic equipment into the physical therapy room, he picked up the call.

On the other side, Teng Yi hurriedly instructed his men to get rid of the scandal.

However, Jiang Yu had already seen it.

This was a little difficult to handle.

"Miss Jiang, if I say that the movie queen and Mr. Mo are only friends would you believe me?"

Teng Yi looked at Jiang Yu helplessly.

Jiang Yu raised her eyebrows noncommittally. "Friends?"

Before Mo Long's leg was injured, the two families had already spread the news that they wanted to form a marriage alliance?

They were friends but Mo Long insisted on meeting the movie queen before entering the physical therapy room even though his legs were feeling uncomfortable.

At this moment, the sound of footsteps could be heard.

A young lady was holding a Thermos flask in her hand. She handed it over to Jiang Yu and said, "This is the soup that our miss made for Mr. Mo Long. Miss said that she was afraid of being photographed, so she couldn't come over. She asked me to bring it over!"

The young lady saw that there was only Jiang Yu and assumed that she was Mo Long's female assistant.

She immediately said hurriedly, "Our miss is going to film soon. I have to go too. Miss said to meet again next time."

With that said, the young miss ran off again.

Her forehead was covered in sweat.

Jiang Yu looked at the Thermos flask in her arms.

Was the soup personally made by the movie queen?

She looked up at Teng Yi again.

Teng Yi also looked like he had a mouth that he could not explain.

At that moment, the door to the physiotherapy room opened.

Mo Long was in a wheelchair and was pushed out by someone.

When he saw Jiang Yu, he was stunned for a moment. "Why are you here?"

Then, he looked at Teng Yi with disapproval.

He had clearly told Jiang Yu's studies were not to be disturbed by such small matters.

He did not expect that Teng Yi would still invite her over.

Teng Yi: "Sir, Miss Jiang saw the photo that the reporters took of you..."

Jiang Yu: "..."

Mo Long: "..."

Immediately, he felt as though he was being caught cheating.

"Yuyu, let me explain."

“This is the soup that the movie queen made for you!” Jiang Yu stuffed the soup into Mo Long’s hands with a serious expression.

Mo Long: “...”

“Actually, I originally wanted to give you a surprise. I wanted to settle down and tell you that I’ve returned to China. I didn’t expect to receive a call from Miss Li. She said that she was about to enter the production team and wanted to have a meal with me. I didn’t expect that my old illness would flare up before I even had a meal!” Mo Long explained everything clearly.

Jiang Yu listened and nodded silently. “So, what surprise did you say just now?”

Mo Long’s eyes flashed. “You believe me?”

“You already said it was just a meal. Why wouldn’t I believe you? So, what surprise did you prepare for me?” Jiang Yu spread out her hands, looking like she was about to see a gift.

Mo Long didn’t realize that his back suddenly relaxed. He smiled and said, “Just come with me.”

Mo Long brought Jiang Yu to an apartment near Ivy University.

“This is the apartment I just bought. It’s the closest to your school. You can come and live here sometimes.”

Mo Long pushed open the door. The furniture inside was complete.
