

Older Man 61

Chapter 61: Sun Miao Changed

Jiang Yu looked around and was very satisfied.

When she returned to the hall, she saw Mr. Mo Long looking at her with a smile.

Jiang Yu suddenly remembered that she still had something to be angry with him about. "Don't think that just because you bought a house, I can forget that you made me unable to go to the medical department."

Jiang Yu instantly became like an angry kitten.

Her cheeks were puffed up as she looked at him with some resentment.

What should come would still come.

The air in the room suddenly became tense.

The smile on Mo Long's face also froze.

It could be seen that Jiang Yu was really angry.

"Yu'er, you should know the reason why I didn't let you go to the medical department," Mo Long said helplessly.

Jiang Yu's hemophobia was too serious. A few more episodes of the illness might affect the function of the body.

He could not take the risk.

Jiang Yu spread out her hands. "Then I can take theoretical lessons first instead of practical lessons!"

"You can learn other courses too?"

After taking theoretical lessons, it would definitely be practical next. Otherwise, what was the use of taking them?

Once it was practical, how could there not be blood?

With Jiang Yu's situation, she was the least suited to be a doctor.

"I just want to cure your illness," Jiang Yu said in a low voice, sounding aggrieved.

Mo Long's heart softened. "I've already invited many authoritative doctors to see this illness of mine. They all say that it can't be cured completely. However, if I take my time with physical therapy, I'll be able to return to normal after five years."

There was no need for Jiang Yu to work so hard to learn medical skills.

At that time, he would be able to stand up.

It was just a matter of time.

Jiang Yu looked at Mo Long's serious expression and sighed.

"I understand, but I can guarantee that I will only learn theory and not see blood. I'll write prescriptions and acupuncture treatments, but not operate a knife. Is that alright?"

Mo Long looked at Jiang Yu's serious expression and had no choice but to compromise. "How about this, you can major in other majors and take theoretical courses in the medical department."

Seeing that he had finally compromised, Jiang Yu heaved a sigh of relief.

With Mo Long's words, the school should not stop Jiang Yu from taking courses in the medical department anymore.

After checking out the house, it was almost time to start class.

"I'll send you to school," Mo Long said.

The two of them had just gotten into the car in the parking lot.

They did not expect to see a few people walking out from the elevator in the next building.

"Miss Sun, you're too kind to me. You don't have to send me. I'll just take a taxi back to school." Jiang Ran looked a little flattered.

At noon, she received a call from Sun Miao at the last minute saying that she was invited to eat at her apartment.

Today was Sun Miao's birthday. Those who could eat at her place were all young misses from rich families.

Jiang Ran was the only person in the class who was invited by Sun Miao.

Even Sun Miao's other lackeys didn't have the right to come.

"It's okay. We're classmates. It's on the way." Sun Miao changed her previous disdain and was now indescribably generous and friendly.

Jiang Ran felt that she was really too blissful.

"Miss Jiang, please get in the car." Sun You even personally opened the car door.

The polite and gentlemanly manner made Jiang Ran feel a little smug.

She didn't expect Sun Miao's brother to be so polite to others. Not only was he tall, rich, and handsome, but he also didn't put on any airs at all.

Just now when they were eating, Sun You often took care of her.

Jiang Ran's face couldn't help but turn red.

She was a little excited in her heart.

She didn't know if Sun You was interested in her.

But thinking about it, Jiang Ran shook her head again. It shouldn't be possible.

How could the young master of the Sun family like her?

She must be thinking too much.

Jiang Ran got in the car and left with Sun Miao and Sun You.

Jiang Yu and Mo Long also watched the two people leave.

“Hey, why are they walking together?” Jiang Yu felt that she didn’t have enough brain cells.

Sun Miao still despised Jiang Ran in the morning, saying that she didn’t like to deal with people from small places.

Unexpectedly, in the blink of an eye, her attitude changed so much.

Why did she feel that Sun Miao’s change was very strange?

Chapter 62: Private Concern

Seeing Jiang Yu frown, Mo Long paused and said, “What’s wrong?”

Jiang Yu said, “Nothing. I just feel that it’s very unusual for Jiang Ran to be with the Sun family.”

“Sun family?” Mo Long also frowned. “The Sun family in Hu City can be considered one of the top ten families in this place. I heard that the eldest daughter of the Sun family is arrogant and spoiled, and the eldest young master is also difficult to get along with. I didn’t expect that these things couldn’t be trusted.”

“No, Sun Miao is indeed arrogant and spoiled. It’s just that she has suddenly changed.” Jiang Yu shook her head. “Forget it. I don’t care about Jiang Ran making any friends.”

She could do whatever she wanted as long as she didn’t come to get in her way.

Mo Long didn’t know much about these people in Hu city.

Therefore, he didn’t mind and sent Jiang Yu to school first.

Green Vine University.

Jiang Yu got out of the car.

She saw Jiang Ran walking in front, talking and laughing with Sun Miao and Sun You.

Many students looked at them in surprise.

“Hey, who is that person? Why is she so close to Miss Sun?”

“I also saw that woman get out of the car with Sun Miao.”

“It can’t be Young Master Sun’s girlfriend, right?”

“That person is Jiang Ran, a student from the acting department. She’s in my class! Strange, when did Sun Miao become so easy to talk to? She actually walked together with her.”

Jiang Yu listened to her classmates’ discussions and also had a trace of doubt in her heart.

However, she was in a hurry to attend the public lecture of the medical department.

She was in no mood to care about other people's matters.

Public lecture.

Anyone from any department could attend it.

However, Jiang Yu's appearance was noticed by many people.

After all, she was someone who was rejected by the medical department.

It was said that many people were betting on whether she would come to the lecture today.

Some felt that Jiang Yu would definitely attend.

Some felt that there was no need for Jiang Yu to attend the medical department's lecture anymore.

After all, it was only a public lecture and she would not be able to learn much.

The students around Jiang Li were making a bet.

"I feel that she will definitely come," Jiang Li's best friend and desk mate said. "Whoever loses has to treat everyone to meals for three days!"

"Let's compete. I'm not scared," another student said.

Jiang Li shook her head. She wasn't interested in these boring games.

However, when she turned her gaze, she saw a figure in the crowd.

It was Jiang Yu.

"She's really here." Jiang Li's deskmate suddenly laughed out loud. "Treat us meals for three days. Don't deny it!"

"Classmate!" When Jiang Yu was looking for an empty seat in the crowd, she saw a person waving at her and signalling the seat beside her.

That seat was right beside Jiang Li.

Jiang Yu walked over and sat down. "Thank you."

"I should thank you." The person smiled kindly at Jiang Yu.

Then she looked at Jiang Li and said, "Why don't you say hello to your roommate?"

Jiang Yu pouted her mouth and thought that this person looked proud and probably wouldn't say hello to her.

She was going to pretend she didn't hear that.

However, she heard Jiang Li actually opened her mouth: "I saw your video, your hand speed is good."

What kind of greeting was this?

Miss Jiang was really strange.

Jiang Yu did not remember what video it was.

But that was not important. She took out her notebook and pen seriously.

She then lowered her head to look at the things she had recorded yesterday.

She looked very serious.

Jiang Li's desk mate immediately raised her eyebrows. "There is actually someone who is more serious than you."

Jiang Li thought about her conjecture and suspected that Jiang Yu was suffering from a rare illness. She could not help but ask, "Your condition this morning was very strange. Is there some private concern you have?"

Jiang Yu, who was studying, raised her head and thought of her hemophobia. She did not expect that Jiang Li would be able to tell at a glance.

She could not help but look at her in admiration. "It's good that you know. Don't tell others about such things."

As the two of them whispered to each other, Jiang Li's eyes flashed.

She had actually guessed correctly. She immediately looked at Jiang Yu with pity.

Chapter 63: Re-select Class

Jiang Li once again thought of how Jiang Yu often read books on neurology.

In the morning, Jiang Yu's illness was strange. There was nothing wrong with her body, but she looked like a person who was on the verge of death.

Jiang Li had already guessed that it was a neurological disease, and there was no known cause for it in medicine. That was why Jiang Yu worked so hard to learn medicine.

During class, Jiang Li looked at Jiang Yu's serious face, and her heart was filled with pity.

"I know a professor from the medical department. I can help you plead for leniency and get you into the medical department," Jiang Li suddenly said in a low voice.

Jiang Yu blinked. She had not expected that Jiang Li would be so kind to help her so much. "There's no need. I've already settled the matter of studying medicine."

As expected, when the public lecture ended, the principal's assistant rushed over.

He told Jiang Yu that she could take a theoretical course in the medical department.

However, Jiang Yu still had to choose another major.

Jiang Yu couldn't make up her mind about other majors.

Although the design department wasn't bad, the paint, paper and folio things cost the most money.

In the music department, Jiang Yu's standard in composing music was about the same. Moreover, she was Professor Bai's introductory disciple, so there wasn't much she could learn.

"Then I'll go with the performance department," Jiang Yu said.

If she studied performance, she could often find a part-time job in this area. It was also good to have an additional skill to earn money.

"Okay, then I'll inform the performance department and the medical department. Your class is still class eight for both of the departments."

Class eight?

Jiang Yu frowned. "Can I change to another class?"

The assistant nodded. "Sure."

It was just a matter of which class this person wanted to go to.

Hence, Jiang Yu randomly picked a class. "Then class one."

"Are you sure?"

"Is class one full?"

"No, let's go to class one." The assistant looked at her strangely. "Then is the medical department in class one or class eight?"

"Both," Jiang Yu said.

It was easier to remember this way.

After the public lecture of the medical department ended, Jiang Yu was wondering which department she was going to attend.

Then, she received a phone call.

"Little Jiang, I'm Professor Bai. You should be in Ivy University, right?"

Professor Bai was the piano professor who had accepted Jiang Yu as her apprentice. She had taught many pianists and composers.

"Professor, I'm in Ivy University," Jiang Yu said quickly.

"That's good. I have a class in the music department. Come and find me after class. I have something to tell you."

Jiang Yu quickly agreed.

Professor Bai was teaching the sophomore class one of the music department.

The reason why she was teaching class one and not the other classes was that those who could enter class one were all people who had passed the art exam. They were all people who had practiced music before.

Therefore, class one was the most advanced class in the entire year.

It was rare for class one of the second year to have Professor Bai invited to give a lecture. The students were very excited.

“Xue’er, your teacher wants to come to our class to give a lecture. Did he do you a favor?”

Kang Xue said, “I invited the teacher several times. Today, the teacher finally has the time to come over.”

When Kang Xue started learning piano at the age of five, she had learned it from Professor Bai.

Although she had only learned it for two years, she had laid a solid foundation.

However, Kang Xue had always been proud of having learned under Professor Bai. She boasted that she was the senior martial sister of a genius pianist and a gold medal arranger.

She had always been ambitious for this industry and wanted to stand at the highest position.

During class, professor Bai said, “I’m here today not only to teach, but also to give you a question. As you all know, two years ago, there was a flood in Lanzhou. Many people were killed or injured, and many houses were washed away. Recently, the buildings there have been rebuilt with funds from the public and the government. The Public Welfare Foundation wants to release a song about fighting against the flood...”

Kang Xue’s eyes lit up when she heard this.

In her opinion, the teacher was giving her a chance.

After all, in the whole class, Kang Xue’s ability to compose music was the most outstanding.

Chapter 64: Also Participated In Composing

“Everyone, strive to send your works over in a week’s time. At that time, the best song will be directly designated as Lanzhou Flood Relief Song,” Professor Bai said.

The class had just ended.

Kang Xue received many envious gazes.

“Xue’er, Professor Bai is really good to you!”

“Yeah.”

Kang Xue smiled and hurriedly chased after Professor Bai.

“Teacher.”

However, just as Kang Xue ran out of the classroom, she saw Jiang Yu standing at the entrance of the classroom, talking to Professor Bai.

"You want me to participate in composing a song for the flood relief? No problem." Jiang Yu nodded.

Professor Bai smiled and said, "I have high hopes for you. By the way, when you're free, come to my house. I'll give you some pointers on how to play the piano."

Although Jiang Yu's performance was good, her technique was too wild and needed to be adjusted.

Otherwise, if her technique was not professional and she played for a long time, some of her fingers would become deformed.

Fortunately, Jiang Yu had only learned the piano for a short period of time, so she could still correct it.

"Okay." Jiang Yu nodded.

Behind her, Kang Xue's expression changed drastically.

Why did Professor Bai invite Jiang Yu to participate in the composing?

Wasn't this composing only qualified for sophomore class one?

And why did Professor Bai invite Jiang Yu to her house in private to personally tutor her.

These past few years, Kang Xue found an opportunity to give gifts and wanted Professor Bai to continue tutoring her, but she was rejected.

All along, Kang Xue thought that Professor Bai was too busy and only tutored those famous artists.

She didn't expect...

What right did Jiang Yu have?

On the other side, Jiang Yu said a few words to professor Bai before sending her out of the school gate.

Along the way, many people saw that Jiang Yu and professor Bai were very close.

"Could Jiang Yu be professor Bai's relative?"

"Previously, it was Sun Miao and Jiang Ran who walked together, and now, it's Jiang Yu and professor Bai. These two sisters must have extraordinary identities."

"And I heard that Jiang Yu is a special case who entered the elite female dormitory!"

"Tsk, tsk, tsk. Looks like this person's background is not simple."

Jiang Yu did not know that her identity had been randomly guessed by others. There were all kinds of versions.

She returned to the dormitory in a good mood and saw Kang Xue sitting on the sofa in the hall with a cold expression.

Kang Xue fiddled with a lock of her long hair impatiently. It was obvious that she was waiting for Jiang Yu to come back.

When she saw Jiang Yu return, Kang Xue could not sit still.

“Stop!”

Jiang Yu: “?” Did this person eat dynamite?

“Jiang Yu, what right do you have to participate in the composing?” Kang Xue could not help but ask, “What kind of drug did you give the professor?”

Jiang Yu: “You want to learn?”

Kang Xue stared at her jealously.

“It’s actually very simple. I just played a song, and Professor Bai already likes me. You can try it too,” Jiang Yu said plainly.

Kang Xue: “Jiang Yu!”

“Is there anything else?”

“I’m determined to win this composure. You won’t have a chance.”

“Oh, then work hard.” Jiang Yu didn’t mind at all.

This stubborn attitude made Kang Xue’s anger surge again.

But at this moment, Jiang Yu spoke again, “I told you before, being angry will hurt your heart. If you’re angry, the risk of heart attack will increase by 4.74 times... I’ll give you another motto: If you lose your temper over a small matter, you’ll regret it later. “f others are angry, I won’t be angry. If I get ill from my anger, there won’t be anyone to take it for me. “f I die of anger, who would be happy? Moreover, it’s tiring and exhausting...”

This maxim was catchy.

Kang Xue was completely dumbfounded when she heard it.

This was the first time that Kang Xue had experienced how painful it was to lose her temper and not be able to lose it.

“Pfft!” Jiang Li came in from the door and happened to hear Jiang Yu’s ‘Don’t be angry’ theory. She was immediately amused by Jiang Yu’s serious look.

Kang Xue seemed to have found an ally. “Jiang Li, you came at the right time. Jiang Yu actually threatened me that getting angry would hurt my body. You are a medical student. Tell her that she is definitely exaggerating!”

Kang Xue also felt goosebumps in her heart. She half believed it.

Translator: Dragon Boat Translation Editor: Dragon Boat Translation

Jiang Li walked over and spread her hands. “What she said is true. So, Miss Kang, you should change your temper. You can live a few extra years.”

Kang Xue: “...”

Why? Why did Jiang Li speak up for Jiang Yu?

What was wrong with this world?

On the school forum, there was a piece of news about the sophomore students of the music department who were going to compose a song for the flood relief.

Originally, this matter was nothing strange. The teachers at the school would often arrange this same assignment.

However, unexpectedly, a photo of Jiang Yu standing with Professor Bai was posted.

There were also people who revealed that this time that not only would the sophomore class one would participate in the composing, but the freshman Jiang Yu would also participate too.

"This is obviously going through a backdoor, right?"

This thought flashed through the minds of some of the students.

However, everyone felt that even if Jiang Yu participated in the senior competition, there was no chance of her winning.

Seven days later, the Public Service Song of Lanzhou's flood relief announced the results of their selection.

"The mark of the storm", lyrics and composition, Jiang Yu.

For a moment, the entire music department was dumbfounded.

"I always thought that Kang Xue's song would be chosen. I didn't expect it to be someone else, a freshman."

"It can't be. Did they write it wrong?"

"There are so many talented students in sophomore class one, but they can't beat a freshman? I don't believe it."

"Is there something fishy going on?"

Thinking of the photo of Jiang Yu and professor Bai standing together, everyone had a vague guess that Jiang Yu had used some dirty tricks to get this spot.

At the same time.

Kang Xue also had a look of disbelief on her face.

The lyrics of the song she wrote, "We're together," were about inseparable relations, and not giving up on anyone.

It fit the theme perfectly, and the melody was very touching. How could she lose to Jiang Yu?

"I don't believe it!" Kang Xue was furious.

She quickly contacted the foundation and asked.

However, the reply was, "We chose between two songs in the end. One was 'We Are Together', and the other was 'The Mark of The Storm'. However, the one that got the most votes was the current one because the lyrics of this song fit the theme better. It's catchy and more vivid."

Kang Xue: "...". Her song was also in line with the theme. It was also catchy, okay?

This was clearly their way of evading her.

It must be that Jiang Yu wanted to gild herself with gold, so she used this song as a gimmick, wanting to step on her shoulders.

"Xue'er, what do we do now?" Kang Xue's friend looked indignant.

To say that a freshman stepped on Kang Xue's head, and even surpassed Kang Xue in terms of lyrics and composition, this was no longer a matter of a song.

It was a matter of reputation.

"I demand an open and transparent revote!" Kang Xue said.

On the one side, Kang Xue was still looking for various connections to request a revote.

On the other side, Jiang Yu was not in school.

These few days, Jiang Hai and Wei Juan had come to Hu city.

They said that they were worried about their two daughters being alone in Hu City, so Wei Juan encouraged Jiang Hai to open a branch office in Hu City.

Moreover, Jiang Hai's eldest brother, Jiang Guo, was still in Hu City.

Jiang Guo's business was bigger than Jiang Hai, so he could take care of Jiang Hai in business.

And today was the day Jiang Guo's daughter got engaged.

So Jiang Hai asked Jiang Yu and Jiang Ran to attend the engagement party.

In an apartment near Ivy University, Jiang Yu was busy looking for a dress.

What was more worrying was that she had received the news at the last minute and hadn't prepared any gifts.

Moreover, Jiang Yu had never met Jiang Guo's family.

Even so, Jiang Yu couldn't go empty-handed because she was related to them.

At this moment, the doorbell rang outside the door.

Jiang Yu, who was busy, hurriedly went to open the door.

She found that it was Teng Yi standing outside the door.

He was still holding something in his hand.

Chapter 66: Attend The Banquet

Translator: Dragon Boat Translation Editor: Dragon Boat Translation

“Miss Jiang, this is a gift prepared by sir.”

The gift box in Teng Yi’s hand was very exquisite.

Jiang Yu was instantly stunned. “This is?”

“This is a gift prepared by sir for your cousin. Sir knew that Miss Jiang didn’t have time to prepare it, so he asked me to send it over.”

Jiang Yu felt a warmth in her heart when she heard that.

She hurriedly nodded, and didn’t have time to look at what was inside.

Since Mo Long prepared it, there shouldn’t be any mistakes.

Just like that, Jiang Yu hurriedly changed into her dress, got into the car, and headed to the venue of the banquet.

“Mom, that Jiang Yu wouldn’t be coming, right?”

“That wretched girl, she hasn’t seen the world and doesn’t dare to come, right?”

Wei Juan and Jiang Ran were both dressed in jewelry.

Jiang Hai frowned. “I asked you to inform her yesterday, did you tell her?”

A guilty look flashed across Jiang Ran’s eyes as she lowered her head. “Dad, I told her a long time ago, but she said that she was busy with her homework and might not have time!”

A guest at the side shook his head when he heard that.

Jiang Guo was standing not far away.

When he heard that Jiang Yu did not take him seriously, he immediately looked a little displeased.

However, he still maintained a smile on his face. “Quick, quick, take a seat inside. I’m already very happy that you guys came.”

Jiang Guo generously waved at Jiang Hai and the others.

Jiang Hai quickly walked over with his wife and children.

Jiang Guo said to Jiang Ran, “The little girl has grown up. How are you doing in school?”

Jiang Ran smiled and said, “Uncle, I’ve always been at the top of the exam every time. I’m doing very well in school. Moreover, I’ve made a good friend, the eldest daughter of the Sun family. I’m doing very well in Hu City.”

Hearing that Jiang Ran actually had a relationship with the Sun family, Jiang Guo immediately beamed with joy.

He straight up said that Jiang Ran was promising, she would definitely have a bright future.

At this moment, Jiang Guo suddenly looked at the door in surprise. "Eh, this young lady, I've never seen her before. Which family is she from?"

Jiang Ran turned around and saw Jiang Yu slowly walking over in a high-fitting gown.

Jiang Yu's clothes were all prepared by Mo Long in advance.

There were a few sets of gowns and custom-made clothes in the wardrobe at any time.

Today, she was wearing a long black dress that accentuated her fair and clear skin. The exquisite jewelry on her wrist was flowing with brilliance.

She looked like an aristocrat.

These jewelry were naturally prepared by Mo Long in advance.

However, Jiang Yu would never wear these expensive things. She would only wear them on grand occasions.

Many people's gazes fell on Jiang Yu, guessing her identity.

It wasn't until Jiang Yu, who had an extraordinary temperament, walked up to Jiang Hai and called, "Dad!" that everyone realize her identity.

"Hello, uncle!" Jiang Yu smiled politely at Jiang Guo.

Jiang Guo looked at her in surprise. "You are Jiang Yu."

It was really different from what he had imagined.

He had always heard that Jiang Yu grew up in an orphanage and didn't know any etiquette. She didn't know many things.

In his imagination, Jiang Guo had always thought of her as being a rustic village child.

He didn't expect Jiang Yu to have such a temperament.

"Good, good." Jiang Guo smiled even more happily and immediately praised Jiang Yu.

"Sister, what gift did you prepare?"

At this moment, Jiang Ran said sourly.

She knew Jiang Yu wouldn't be able to come up with anything good when she received the news at the last minute, so she deliberately led the conversation in this direction.

As expected, Jiang Yu handed the exquisite gift box in her hand to the attendant beside Jiang Guo.

"Uncle, I came in a hurry and didn't prepare the gift adequately. I hope you don't mind." Jiang Yu didn't know what was in the gift box either.

Jiang Guo was about to ask someone to put the gift away.

How could Jiang Ran let go of the opportunity to embarrass Jiang Yu? She said gently, "Look at this box and you can tell it's worth a lot. Why don't you take it out and have a look?"

Chapter 67: Cheap Gift ?

Jiang Hai frowned when he heard what Jiang Ran said.

"Who opens a present on the spot? Your uncle is still busy. Let's not disturb him." At this time, Jiang Hai knew that he and Jiang Yu were on the same side.

If Jiang Yu lost face here...

Then he would lose face as well.

Subconsciously, Jiang Hai also thought that the gift that Jiang Yu took out must have been wrapped to look high-class on the outside, but very cheap on the inside.

In particular, he heard from Jiang Ran that Mr. Mo already had other new lovers, so it was impossible for him to treat Jiang Yu well.

Therefore, he wouldn't give her anything good.

Seeing that, the attendant was about to put away the gift.

Jiang Ran gritted her teeth and snatched the thing from the attendant's hand. "Wait!"

This scene attracted the attention of many people.

"What's wrong?" Jiang Guo was also puzzled.

Jiang Ran smiled. "Uncle, I have something to apologize to you. I apologize for my sister's rude behavior."

Jiang Ran weighed the thing in her hand, she said with more certainty, "Actually, my sister didn't prepare any gifts at all. She only bought a nice-looking gift box because she was in a hurry. The things inside are not worth anything!"

The word 'not worth anything' made Jiang Guo's expression change.

Jiang Hai was already extremely embarrassed.

Jiang Guo wanted to put this matter behind him. "It's okay. As long as Jiang Yu has the heart, I'm content."

Hearing this, Jiang Hai's old face turned red. He turned to Jiang Yu and said, "Little girl, haven't I always taught you to be honest?"

Jiang Yu shook her head. "No, I'm not dishonest."

"You!" Jiang Hai was extremely angry. "You're still trying to quibble. Hurry and apologise to your uncle?"

Turning his head, Jiang Hai said awkwardly to Jiang Guo again, "Yu'er grew up in a small place. She doesn't know etiquette. Sorry for making a fool of herself."

Jiang Ran was amused when she saw Jiang Yu still looking up and refusing to admit her mistake.

“Forget it. I’ll apologize on behalf of my sister. As for this gift, I’ll take it back. I’ll make up with a better gift on behalf of her tomorrow.”

As Jiang Ran spoke, she casually threw the gift box on the ground as if she was throwing some rubbish.

Jiang Yu frowned and walked over. She picked up the gift prepared by Mo Long with some heartache.

Everyone’s eyes were attracted by the commotion.

Many people looked at Jiang Yu.

The Jiang family felt embarrassed too.

Jiang Guo was also a little disappointed.

He didn’t expect Jiang Yu to be morally corrupt. She was dressed well on the surface, but the gift she gave was fake.

“What’s wrong?”

“I heard that someone even faked the gift!”

“I really couldn’t tell just now. I thought she was a well-educated young lady.”

“I heard that she grew up in the countryside and doesn’t know manners.”

Jiang Ran saw that Jiang Yu actually went to pick up the box and immediately felt disdain in her heart.

“What? You still want to take this piece of junk back and put it away?”

Anyway, Mr. Mo Long had already dumped Jiang Yu.

The gown she was wearing today might have been rented from somewhere.

What good things could Jiang Yu take out now?

Unexpectedly, Jiang Yu ignored Jiang Ran’s words and walked directly to Jiang Guo. She said to him, “Uncle, do you want the gift I gave you? If you don’t want it, can I take it?”

Jiang Guo hesitated for a moment, but he still reached out and took it. “No matter what gift it is, it’s a token of your appreciation.”

No matter what, he had to give her face.

Jiang Yu’s eyes flashed. She didn’t expect that Jiang Guo, who she had met for the first time, would trust her even more than her biological father.

“You can’t accept it!” Jiang Ran said anxiously.

At this moment, Jiang Yu opened the gift box in front of everyone.

Instantly, the entire place fell silent for a few seconds.

Jiang Yu also lowered her head to check the gift in her hand.

She immediately took a deep breath.

It was a tattered ancient book.

Jiang Ran immediately laughed. "This thing, could it have been randomly picked up from the trash can? I told you..."

Chapter 68: Priceless Treasure

But before Jiang Ran could finish, Jiang Guo took a step forward and picked up the book very carefully.

"Where did you find it? I've asked someone to look for this unique copy for a long time, but I still couldn't find it!"

It was a chess book, and Jiang Guo was a chess addict. He had asked someone to look for this chess book a year ago.

He had just learned that an old man had this chess book in his possession.

Jiang Guo had even offered a high price to buy it, but that old man refused to sell it no matter what.

He had never thought that this chess book would appear in front of her like this.

"That's great! Jiang Yu, how did you know that I've been looking for this ancient book!"

"This is a priceless treasure!"

In an instant, many people could tell that the gift that Jiang Yu had taken out was not some piece of trash, but something priceless.

Jiang Yu was also stunned for a moment. She did not understand why it was a tattered ancient book. However, she believed that the gift that Mo Long prepared would not be wrong.

Now that she saw how much Jiang Guo liked it, she immediately understood.

Jiang Ran stood awkwardly on the spot. Her fingers were still pointing at Jiang Yu. She was thinking that after today, Jiang Yu would definitely have a bad reputation in the circle of wealthy families.

Who would have thought...

Jiang Hai also heaved a sigh of relief. He quickly looked at Jiang Ran and said, "Didn't you say that this thing is not valuable? Why aren't you apologizing to your sister?"

"Dad! I... I originally thought that this was a tattered old book. I also reminded my sister not to make mistakes for her own good. I didn't expect that I was wrong."

Jiang Ran quickly changed her excuse and apologized to Jiang Guo, "Uncle, I'm sorry. I was rash."

Jiang Guo was still happy, so he didn't care about such a small matter.

Only Jiang Yu said coldly, "Oh, you thought it was an old book? I remember that you haven't even seen the gift I prepared, my good sister!"

Jiang Yu's words made Jiang Ran feel extremely awkward.

“Sister, I really did it for your own good. I thought you were short of money recently and couldn’t prepare any gifts. I’ve apologised to you okay?”

Seeing that all the guests were looking in her direction, Jiang Ran’s expression changed.

Jiang Ran gritted her teeth and immediately acted like they were sisters.

“Heh!” Jiang Yu snorted coldly. She was about to say something when Jiang Hai interrupted her. “Alright, let’s go in quickly. Your uncle still needs to entertain the other guests.”

Just like that, a farce was forcefully interrupted by Jiang Hai.

He did not want to see his two daughters continue to clash at such an occasion.

No matter who won the argument, he would be the one who would lose face.

Jiang Guo looked at Jiang Yu in a new light. He immediately smiled at Jiang Yu and said, “Jiang Yu, hurry up and go in. You and Yao’er will also meet. Both of you are of the same age. There will definitely be something to talk about.”

Jiang Yao was the young miss who was engaged today.

Jiang Yu paused for a moment and did not say anything in the end.

She just nodded lightly and walked in.

However, she felt rather sad in her heart.

She did not expect Jiang Hai to believe Jiang Ran’s words and accuse her before she had even verified it clearly.

And after she had proven her innocence, Jiang Hai still protected Jiang Ran and did not let her make a fool of herself.

In other words, Jiang Ran was the young miss whose identity could not be tarnished. And it didn’t matter what happened to her, right?

Jiang Yu was a little unhappy.

She greeted Jiang Yao, but Jiang Yao probably didn’t know her very well, so she ignored her. Instead, she chatted and laughed with Jiang Ran. After all, the two of them had been in contact since they were young.

They had a lot of common topics.

When Jiang Hai saw Jiang Yu’s dull look, he immediately shook his head in his heart.

No matter how well-dressed Jiang Yu looked, she grew up in the countryside and had no ink in her stomach. When she came to such an occasion to socialize with socialites, Jiang Yu couldn’t say a word.

She looked as if she was mute.

Chapter 69: Has A Man Behind Her

Translator: Dragon Boat Translation Editor: Dragon Boat Translation

Jiang Yao had heard from Jiang Ran that Jiang Yu acted like a crazy girl. She did not have the bearing of a young lady from a rich family. Moreover, her life style was not proper and she often did not go home at night.

Therefore, although Jiang Guo had deliberately told Jiang Yao to treat Jiang Yu better since it was the first time they met, she still did not want to lower herself to be with such a person.

Jiang Yu drank a few mouthfuls of wine and felt that it was boring.

“Sister Yao, your necklace is so beautiful!”

“I just bought a new bag. It’s a limited edition bag that I got from overseas and I bought two of them. I’ll find an opportunity to give you one of them!”

The content of the conversation between Jiang Ran and Jiang Yao was nothing more than various cosmetics, jewelry, and branded products.

All girls loved to be beautiful. Just as Jiang Ran was laughing while chatting away, suddenly, the sound of greeting came from outside the door.

“Young Master Sun, you’re here too!”

Jiang Ran looked up and saw that Sun You was greeting Jiang Guo.

He was also striding over to Jiang Ran’s side.

For a moment, Jiang Ran’s heart beat faster.

The man’s gaze froze on Jiang Yu for a few seconds. He was somewhat amazed by Jiang Yu’s temperament.

Then, he was immediately attracted by Jiang Ran’s greeting.

“Young Master Sun!” Jiang Ran immediately turned into a delicate and sweet person and called.

Sun You’s original target was Jiang Ran and Jiang Yu.

Seeing that Jiang Ran actually took the initiative, he immediately smiled gentlemanly and said, “Jiang Ran.”

Sun You’s gaze was gentle, and there seemed to be petals falling from his eyes, like a warm spring breeze that could instantly melt a person.

Jiang Ran only felt that her entire body and mind were relaxed.

Why was there such a perfect person in the world?

But in the next second, Sun You turned his gaze to Jiang Yu. His gaze was filled with curiosity and inquiry.

Previously at school, Sun You had already seen Jiang Yu’s prickly side.

But today, Jiang Yu had a new style. She was completely isolated from the world, like a princess of an country. Although she just stood there quietly and did not speak, she could easily attract the attention of others.

It was as if she was a shining light.

In the past few days, Sun You had already inquired about Jiang Yu and Jiang Ran's actions in the school.

In comparison, Sun You felt that Jiang Yu was more attractive.

Therefore, the idea of a marriage alliance with the capital family also fell on Jiang Yu. However, there were some bad rumors about Jiang Yu, and he didn't know if they were true.

"Miss Jiang Yu, we meet again." Sun You extended his hand toward Jiang Yu, full of courtesy.

Jiang Yu was a little surprised that Sun You would actually talk to her. Just as she was about to say something, Jiang Ran suddenly came over and stood between the two of them.

Jiang Ran said apologetically, "I'm sorry, my sister doesn't know how to speak and doesn't understand these etiquette. I hope Young Master Sun won't take offense."

Jiang Yu frowned. This Jiang Ran was apologizing for her everywhere, as if she had really done something wrong.

"You know better etiquette. You know that you can't give a beautiful box as a gift. Otherwise, it would be embarrassing." Jiang Yu's words instantly made everyone very clear.

Just now, Jiang Ran wanted to cheat her own sister, but in the end, she didn't achieve that and instead lost her character in front of everyone.

Sun You smiled politely and didn't interrupt.

"I was just afraid that you would make a mistake. After all, your relationship with that rich man is currently strained, so you might not be able to bring out anything good. Dad only gave you pocket money, so how could you buy such an expensive thing? I didn't expect you to really get such an expensive gift from that person." Jiang Ran deliberately misled people to think.

Sun You immediately frowned. Did this mean that Jiang Yu already had a financial backer?

No wonder Jiang Yu could wear gold and silver despite the fact that the Jiang family was not that rich.

Jiang Ran looked at Jiang Yu proudly.

Sun You had already given up on getting close to Jiang Yu.

He only felt disgusted with Jiang Yu.

It seemed that Jiang Ran was still the better choice.

At least she grew up in a big family and had a clean background.

He had heard before that Jiang Yu did not come home at night.. Now, it seemed to be true.

Chapter 70: Punish yourself With Three Drinks

“Jiang Ran!” Jiang Yu said coldly, “You just threw the gift I prepared on the ground. Do you want me to let it go just like that?”

Jiang Ran’s face suddenly stiffened. “I didn’t...”

“You didn’t do it on purpose. You’re just being kind, aren’t you? You should apologize even if you did something bad out of kindness. How about this? Punish yourself with three glasses and I’ll forgive you.” Jiang Yu handed a glass of full red wine to Jiang Ran.

Her posture was domineering.

“I’ll drink for her!” Sun You suddenly felt that it was his chance to show off.

He hurriedly took the glass of wine. “Girls shouldn’t drink too much.”

Seeing that Sun You had drunk three glasses of wine, Jiang Ran was extremely touched. “Young Master Sun, are you okay?”

Jiang Yu really couldn’t stand the deep affection between the two of them. She just wanted to leave this place immediately.

When Sun You saw that Jiang Yu was going to leave, he didn’t mind.

In any case, both of them were ladies from the wealthy family in the capital. He just needed to take down one of them.

Besides, Jiang Ran seemed to be easier to control.

At the entrance of the hotel, Jiang Yu got into the car. She initially thought that it was Teng Yi who came to pick her up. She didn’t expect that there were already people in the car.

“Mr. Mo!” Jiang Yu looked at him in surprise.

She didn’t expect Mo Long to wait here personally.

Mo Long looked at his watch. “You came out so early. Are you unhappy?”

Jiang Yu looked helpless. “I don’t like this kind of social event, so I came out early.”

Mo Long understood that Jiang Yu didn’t have much to talk about with Jiang Guo’s family. In addition, Jiang Yu didn’t like to stay with Jiang Ran, so she would definitely leave early.

“Then you must not be full yet. Let’s go, I’ll bring you to eat something delicious.”

Jiang Yu indeed didn’t eat much.

Kang Xue was walking into a five-star restaurant with her roommate, Li Lu.

“Xue Xue, did you find out what method that person used to have her song chosen as the Flood Relief Song internally?” Li Lu was a sophomore in the same dorm as Kang Xue, but she had been filming a third-female lead scene a while ago. Therefore, she was not in school.

However, she heard that a person called Jiang Yu actually used her connections to suppress Kang Xue. Immediately, she found a time to ask Kang Xue out.

Kang Xue had a depressed look on her face. "I only know that Professor Bai is very close to her. Moreover, Jiang Yu has a luxury car to pick her up. There must be a man supporting her from behind!"

"Shameless. I hate people who don't have the ability and rely on connections." Li Lu gritted her teeth and said, "My sister is a movie queen but I can only rely on my own ability and advance step by step to get the role of the third female lead."

"By the way, how do you plan to deal with her? Do you need my help?" Li Lu asked again.

It was at this moment that Kang Xue suddenly pointed to a corner of the corridor. "Jiang Yu!"

"What? Jiang Yu is here?" Li Lu immediately looked up and saw a tall woman in a custom dress entering the washroom.

Li Lu and Kang Xue looked at each other.

Why was Jiang Yu eating here? Could it be that a man had come?

Jiang Yu had just come out of the washroom when she saw two women hugging their shoulders, looking at her coldly.

One of them was Kang Xue, and the other Jiang Yu didn't know.

"What's the matter?" Jiang Yu paused.

She glanced at the two people who were blocking the way. It was obvious that they didn't come with good intentions.

Kang Xue frowned and studied Jiang Yu from top to bottom.

Jiang Yu usually wore very ordinary clothes. She didn't expect her to wear such an expensive gown today. She must have gotten it from the man behind her.

"Jiang Yu, I advise you to retrieve the public service song you wrote right now. Otherwise, the entire internet might know about what you did, including the man behind you."

Kang Xue thought that she had gotten something on Jiang Yu, so she looked at her with disdain.

Li Lu also sneered.

"A piece of trash like you can only crawl into a man's bed. Don't come and sully the entertainment industry!"
