

Older Man 831

Chapter 831: My Backer

Ah Xiang sat up straight for once and looked at Jiang Yu carefully. He asked uncertainly, "You're Jiang Yu?"

Jiang Yu didn't find it strange that Ah Xiang knew her. He must have found out from Li Yue or someone close to her.

But out of courtesy, Jiang Yu smiled and replied, "Hello, I'm Jiang Yu."

"What are you smiling about? Did you see me smiling at you?" Ah Xiang sneered. "You're not a police officer, what are you doing in the interrogation room?"

"Don't be too presumptuous," Teng Yi, who had been hiding in the darkness, suddenly said, giving Jiang Yu a fright.

Although she knew that Teng Yi was involved in this matter, she didn't expect that Teng Yi would appear in the interrogation room after capturing the criminal.

Teng Yi noticed Jiang Yu's confusion and explained, "Madam, I was the one who caught the criminal this time."

"I see." Jiang Yu nodded.

When Ah Xiang heard the word "Madam", he only thought that Jiang Yu was some rich lady and didn't link her to Mo Long.

Therefore, he became even more unscrupulous and even started singing loudly.

"Stop singing!" Chang Kai couldn't take it anymore and slammed the table in the interrogation room.

Even though the volume was very loud, Ah Xiang wasn't afraid, he even provoked proudly, "So what if I'm singing? If you want to send me to prison, then bring out some serious evidence? Without any serious evidence, you want to send me in? Do you know that my backer is Li Yue? She will protect me! It's useless even if you send me to jail. She will save me!"

When he said this, he was very confident. It was as if if he accidentally went to jail, Li Yue would definitely save him.

Ah Xiang saw that no one was talking and thought that what he had just said had shocked them. Hence, he started to feel proud and was ready to sing another song.

However, Jiang Yu did not intend to give him face. Instead, she calmly asked, "Do you really think that Li Yue will save you?"

Ah Xiang paused and looked at Jiang Yu in disbelief. He asked, "W-what do you mean?"

"Li Yue was the previous movie queen and now I'm the movie queen. But this will motivate her to win the movie queen award. And if she wants to become the movie queen, she has to ensure that her reputation is clean and without any stains. Otherwise, not to mention the public won't recognize her, she won't even be able to get on the nomination list."

"You're a criminal with a criminal record. Now you're shouting Li Yue's name in the police station's interrogation room, saying that she will definitely save you. Do you think she will give up on you to protect her reputation? No matter if you brought her a poisonous hook beetle or something else, she'll pretend that she doesn't know you. She might even turn the tables and accuse you of framing her."

Jiang Yu was still smiling when she said that.

But when Ah Xiang saw it, he couldn't help but shudder.

But he still forced himself to hold on, he said, "You, what evidence do you have? Don't spout nonsense here! Li Yue had promised me that if anything happened to me, as long as I called out her name, no one would mistreat me! Who are you to dare to talk about her here?"

"I'm telling the truth." Jiang Yu shrugged. "If you don't believe me, you can give it a try."

"Who are you? Why should I believe you?!" Ah Xiang was still forcing himself to shout.

"Shut up!" Teng Yi stood at the side and couldn't stand it anymore. "This is the president of the Mo Group — Mo Long's fiancée! How dare you make such a big fuss here?"

"Mo, Mo Long?" Ah Xiang was obviously stunned.

When Ah Xiang first joined the group, he had heard of this rule — in this line of work, anyone could be provoked, but Mo Long couldn't be provoked.

Ah Xiang did not know what the meaning of this rule was, but since his boss had said this rule, as his subordinate, he should abide by it.

So when Ah Xiang went out to do things, he always tried his best to stay away from people or matters related to Mo Long.

He did not know that Jiang Yu was Mo Long's fiancée. If he knew, he definitely would not have accepted Li Yue and Li Lu's request!

Wasn't this obviously sending him to the fire pit?!

"Erm, are you really Mo Long's fiancée?" Ah Xiang probed Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu looked at him in amusement. "What's the matter? You believe that Li Yue will definitely save you, but you don't believe that I'm Mo Long's fiancée?"

"No, no, I, I believe." Ah Xiang broke out in cold sweat and stuttered. He was afraid that if he fell into Mo Long's hands, he would die without a complete corpse.

Chapter 832: Confessed

"If you believe it, then believe it. Why are you shaking?" Chang Kai looked at Ah Xiang's shaking legs. He did not know why he was so afraid when he heard the name "Mo Long."

“Mo Long... isn’t he very scary?” Ah Xiang asked this question in a trembling voice, like a child asking an adult, “Is spider very scary?”.

Everyone present looked at each other in dismay, not knowing why Ah Xiang would ask this question.

Even Teng Yi was a little unable to react. He began to think in his mind about how scary his CEO was.

In the end, Jiang Yu was the first to react. She put on an expression that said she wanted to eat someone, “What do you think? Go out and ask anyone. See if they will be afraid when they hear the name ‘Mo Long? I advise you not to provoke him. Otherwise, you won’t even have the time to say your last words!”

Jiang Yu’s expression and tone successfully frightened Ah Xiang. He was already trembling all over, and in his mind, he seemed to already have the image of his body being exposed in the wilderness.

Jiang Yu still intended to scare him, but before she could speak, Ah Xiang cried and knelt on the ground, “Wait! I’ll speak, I’ll tell you everything!”

He cried until his nose was snot, and his tears were a little disgusting.

“I’ll tell you everything I know. Please, don’t let me fall into the hands of Mo Long!” Ah Xiang cried as if he was extremely afraid of the Mo Long.

“Then tell me everything you know.” Chang Kai took out a pen and paper and prepared to record Ah Xiang’s confession.

Ah Xiang wiped his tears. He started from how he posted his information on the website and how Li Yue found him. Li Lu had even called him, she had asked him to hit Jiang Yu with his car.

Ah Xiang looked at Jiang Yu carefully, he said softly, “She didn’t ask me to hit you to death, but she said it was best that way. If someone was by your side to protect you, she would just send you into the hospital.”

“Oh my God!” Sister Xia was frightened by Li Lu’s vicious heart. “How could Li Lu be like this?! No, it’s not just Li Lu. Li Yue has changed too. What happened to the two sisters?”

“Li Lu has always been like this,” Jiang Yu said.

“But... she shouldn’t have such thoughts of harming others.” Sister Xia still found it hard to believe.

“Don’t forget about Xiaoxia from before,” Jiang Yu reminded.

Only then did Sister Xia remember that a long time ago, Li Lu had bribed a person and drove his car fiercely towards Xiaoxia.

Why were the Li sisters each more ruthless than the other?

“Is that all? Is that all?” Chang Kai stopped recording. “I’m not only asking about Li Yue, but also the gang behind you.”

“This...” Ah Xiang hesitated. “In our line of work, there are rules. If you’re caught by the police, you can’t tell the police about your brothers.”

"Then you can betray Li Yue?" Chang Kai asked.

"How is that called betraying?" Ah Xiang was anxious. He glanced at Jiang Yu and lowered his head, he said submissively, "Didn't she say so? If I were to go to jail, Li Yue would not rescue me. She was the one who broke her promise. How can you blame me for telling her everything? This is called 'tit for tat'. If she is unkind, don't blame me for being unrighteous."

"You are quite sensible." Chang Kai smiled. "But when you are in prison, your brothers won't come to save you."

"But we are still friends. I was sentenced to six years in prison. When I got out, my brothers even gave me a homecoming party." Ah Xiang said, "I can't forget anyone but not forget my brothers. I can't betray my brothers even if I betray everyone else."

"You are quite loyal, but do you know that what you have done is illegal?" Chang Kai asked.

Ah Xiang did not speak. After a long time, two words slowly came out of his mouth, "I know."

"Are you going to let them continue to be so wrong?!" Chang Kai's voice suddenly rose, "Do you know how many people have been harmed by what you have done?!"

"We, we... We also have to eat," Ah Xiang mumbled.

"There are so many ways to eat, and you have to use this method?!" Chang Kai slammed the table, "Quickly tell me everything you know! Otherwise, I can't guarantee what kind of treatment you will receive!"

As he said that, he looked at Jiang Yu meaningfully.

Although Ah Xiang was worried that he would fall into Mo Long's hands, no matter how afraid he was, he didn't want to be the person who betrayed his brothers.

Therefore, he gritted his teeth. "I won't tell!"

Chapter 833: Godly Doctor Intervening

Chang Kai felt helpless when he saw Ah Xiang clenching his teeth and refusing to let go.

However, they couldn't just torture him.

Seeing this, Jiang Yu walked in front of Teng Yi and asked in a low voice, "Did you only bring people to arrest Ah Xiang?"

Teng Yi answered truthfully, "Including the villagers who escaped from that village. We have already caught them all. As for the gang behind Ah Xiang, we are still investigating because they are too well hidden."

"Mm." Jiang Yu nodded. She had already guessed that Mo Long would definitely get Teng Yi to investigate the whole matter thoroughly and then arrest everyone involved.

But now that he had kicked a hard iron plate, the matter was a little difficult to handle.

Ah Xiang still refused to confess and was in a stalemate for a long time. Chang Kai and Zheng Xiao had no choice but to investigate Li Yue first.

Seeing that Chang Kai and the rest were about to leave, Ah Xiang heaved a sigh of relief.

But before he could relax for more than a second, he heard Jiang Yu say, "I can cure your mother's paralysis. As a condition, tell me everything you know."

"What?" Ah Xiang suspected that he had heard wrongly.

How did she know that his mother was paralyzed?

Jiang Yu repeated what she had just said and added, "This is a very good deal. How about it?"

Ah Xiang's heart wavered.

Since Jiang Yu knew that her mother was paralyzed, it meant that she had already gone to her hometown. Or rather, her mother had already fallen into her hands. Regardless of the situation, as long as she was willing to confess, she could protect her mother from harm.

Moreover, Jiang Yu had also said that she would cure his mother's paralysis. However, his mother had been paralyzed for decades. Could Jiang Yu, this young girl, really cure her?

Therefore, Ah Xiang still asked with some hesitation, "You... can really be cured?"

"Of course." Jiang Yu snapped her fingers. "This is a very good deal. How about it? You don't want to see that Di Di is so young and have to bear the burden of the family alone, right?"

Di Di..

Ah Xiang closed his eyes as if he had accepted his fate. He hardened his heart and said, "Let me see you cure my mother's paralysis with my own eyes. Let me see Di Di again. I will tell you everything I know."

"Deal. Then come with me." Jiang Yu smiled.

Chang Kai and Zheng Xiao were still confused. They did not even realize what Jiang Yu had said. Ah Xiang was actually willing to confess?

But this was a good thing after all. So Chang Kai and Zheng Xiao cuffed Ah Xiang and left with Jiang Yu.

Teng Yi led the way and led them all the way to a very large prison. More than twenty people in the village were all here.

Ah Xiang's mother was curled up in a corner, beside her was a trembling Di Di.

Chang Kai went in and carried Ah Xiang's mother on his back. After some thought, he brought Di Di out as well.

When Ah Xiang saw Di Di, he was so excited that his eyes turned red. "Di Di!"

Di Di also shouted excitedly, "Father!"

Even Ah Xiang's mother, who had always been expressionless and did not want to give people a good look, was now so excited that tears streamed down her face.

Chang Kai placed Ah Xiang on a chair and sat him down. Then, Jiang Yu took out a bag of silver needles from her backpack.

Sister Xia said in surprise, "Jiang Yu, so you were prepared for this?"

Jiang Yu smiled. "Of course. I had long guessed that Ah Xiang was unwilling to confess, so I thought of using this condition to make a deal with him."

Jiang Yu took out a few silver needles and reached out to pull Ah Xiang's mother's trouser leg up. She pressed a few more acupuncture points and then quickly and accurately stabbed the silver needles into those acupuncture points.

"Humph, you're just pretending." Ah Xiang's mother snorted coldly. "I've been paralyzed for decades. Can I be cured with just a few needles from you? You're still young and quite conceited."

"You just wait and see, Grandma. If I can cure your leg, Di Di won't have to be so tired in the future." Jiang Yu smiled and didn't get angry because of those words.

A Xiang's mother paused, then turned her face away and said, "My surname is Wang."

"Got it, Grandma Wang."

Ah Xiang's mother didn't believe that Jiang Yu could cure her paralysis for decades, so she didn't have any hope for Jiang Yu at all.

Ah Xiang was also frightened and felt that Jiang Yu wasn't 100% confident.

Chang Kai and Zheng Xiao also felt that the paralysis for decades had probably entered the bone marrow. Jiang Yu's few silver needles couldn't cure it.

Chapter 834: Change His Ways

The only people who believed that Jiang Yu would be able to cure Ah Xiang's mother were Teng Yi and Sister Xia.

After all, there were two examples of Mo Long and Miao Ling, so they believed that Jiang Yu would definitely be able to cure Ah Xiang's mother's leg this time.

However, after waiting for 20 minutes, Ah Xiang's mother's leg still didn't show any reaction.

Teng Yi and Sister Xia also began to waver. Could it be that Jiang Yu couldn't be cured because she had been paralyzed for too long?

Ah Xiang's mood gradually turned from fear to disappointment.

"I knew it couldn't be cured." Ah Xiang said in disappointment, "Forget it. This deal is canceled."

"Have some patience." Jiang Yu wasn't as nervous as the others. She was in a good mood and even played a number game with Di Di.

Sister Xia walked over and gently tugged at the corner of Jiang Yu's clothes. She asked in a low voice, "Jiang Yu, what's going on?"

Jiang Yu said in a relaxed manner, "It's nothing. Don't worry. It's been decades. Can it be cured in twenty minutes? So have some patience. Ten more minutes and it should be enough."

"As long as it can be cured." Although Sister Xia said so, she was still worried.

"Then I will wait for another ten minutes." Ah Xiang's mother's tone was not warm. "Anyway, I have been lying and sitting for decades. I don't need your ten minutes."

"Don't be discouraged, Grandma Wang. You will be able to stand soon." Jiang Yu said with a smile while playing a number game with Di Di.

Except for Sister Xia and Teng Yi, everyone thought that Jiang Yu could not cure Ah Xiang's mother's paralysis. But after ten minutes, Ah Xiang's mother's legs miraculously felt something.

Although it was a continuous pain, it was great news for a person who hadn't felt her legs for decades.

"I can feel my legs!" Ah Xiang's mother cried out in surprise. "I can really feel them!"

Her voice was very loud, and even the villagers who were locked in the cell heard it.

The villagers looked at each other in dismay. They couldn't believe that Ah Xiang's mother's paralysis had been cured in just half an hour.

Jiang Yu said, "Your legs have not been exercised for decades, so the blood flow is not smooth. These few needles not only removed the moisture in your legs, but also activated the blood circulation and removed the stasis. Therefore, it's normal to feel a tingling pain at the beginning. This situation will last for about a week. After a week, you can try to stand up and walk under the help of external objects."

Ah Xiang's mother's eyes turned red. It was not only because she had never thought that there was still hope for her paralysis to be cured, but it was also because she had given Jiang Yu so much face back then, in the end, she was still willing to treat her leg.

She really did not know how to repay this favor.

She struggled to get up and wanted to kneel down to Jiang Yu to thank her for being willing to treat her leg.

Seeing this, Jiang Yu quickly held her down. "The needle is still on your leg. Don't move. Just maintain this position for now. I'll take the needle off in another hour and a half."

"Thank you! Thank you, female Bodhisattva!" Ah Xiang hurriedly knelt down to Jiang Yu and kowtowed.

"Get up quickly!" Jiang Yu quickly helped Ah Xiang up. "I can't afford such a big custom. If you really want to thank me, then tell me everything you know. Remember, don't do it again."

"Okay, okay, I will definitely tell you everything!" Ah Xiang was so excited that tears welled up in his eyes, "I promise that I will never do such illegal things again! When I get out of prison, I will definitely turn over a new leaf and find a job obediently to support my family. I will never do such things again!"

"Okay." Jiang Yu nodded in satisfaction.

Chang Kai and Zheng Xiao were surprised that they did not get Ah Xiang to confess despite their threats. However, Jiang Yu managed to get Ah Xiang to confess willingly with just a few silver needles.

As expected, they had underestimated Jiang Yu in the beginning.

They brought Ah Xiang back to continue taking notes while Jiang Yu stayed here to accompany Ah Xiang's mother. When an hour and a half had passed, she removed the silver needles.

"Thank you, little girl." Ah Xiang's mother was in tears and she was out of breath when she spoke, "I treated you like that before, but you were still willing to treat my leg. It's because I, an old woman, don't know how to behave. I actually threw a look at my savior."

"It's okay. People have to be more generous." Jiang Yu smiled. "I don't have a big temper. I won't get angry over a small matter. Moreover, Di Di is a very obedient little girl. I like her very much."

Chapter 835: Denunciation

An hour and a half later, Jiang Yu removed the silver needles.

At the same time, Ah Xiang had already told them everything he knew. From how he joined the gang in the beginning to what the gang behind him wanted to do and where they wanted to go, he had told them everything.

After he finished recording the last sentence, Chang Kai closed his notebook and said to Ah Xiang, "You've done very well. Your attitude of admitting your mistake is also not bad. When the time comes for your sentence, we will fight for a reduction in your sentence."

"Thank you, thank you." Ah Xiang hurriedly thanked him.

With the information provided by Ah Xiang, it would be easy to capture the gang behind him.

Jiang Yu also found out about this matter. She originally wanted to help, however, Sister Xia stopped her. "What are you doing? Leave this matter to Chang Kai and the others. You should go back and prepare for the upcoming finals. The finals will be here in half a month. When that time comes, Kang Xue will be back from Cecilia."

Jiang Yu only remembered that Kang Xue would be back soon after Sister Xia said that.

She and Kang Xue had both studied at Cecilia University. It was inevitable that people would compare the two of them together.

Even if everything seemed calm now, when Kang Xue returned, there might be posts comparing the two of them together on the school forum.

As for who everyone was leaning towards, it was hard to say.

"If I didn't say it, I would have forgotten. Kang Xue will be back soon," Jiang Yu said thoughtfully.

Sister Xia said, "Don't you know what kind of person Kang Xue is? "Hurry up and go back to prepare for the final exam. I will keep an eye out for things here. "When Chang Kai and the others catch the criminal gang, I will definitely inform you immediately."

"Okay." Jiang Yu nodded. She did not bargain with Sister Xia and packed her things before returning to school.

However, when she returned to the school gate, she saw someone she did not want to see — He Li.

He stood at the gate like a wife-gazing stone. When he saw Jiang Yu, he wanted to act like he did not see her out of habit. However, he had not contacted Jiang ran for a few days, which made He Li very anxious.

Therefore, he hesitated and stopped Jiang Yu, asking, "Jiang Yu, do you know where Ran Ran went?"

Jiang Yu thought for a long time before she remembered that the "Ran Ran" He Li mentioned was her brainless sister, Jiang ran.

However, she was very curious about the relationship between He Li and Jiang ran, so she didn't tell him directly. Instead, she asked, "Why are you asking for her?"

He Li scratched his head in embarrassment and said, "Ran Ran hasn't contacted me for a few days. I'm a little worried about her."

"You have nothing to do with her. It's normal that she hasn't contacted you for a few days, right?" Jiang Yu shrugged.

"It's not like that! I, I have a relationship with Ran Ran!" He Li blurted out anxiously. "I'm Ran Ran's boyfriend!"

"You're her boyfriend?" Jiang Yu was stunned. "Doesn't she have a fiancé?"

He Li lowered his head, after a long while, he said, "I know. But Ran Ran told me that she and her fiancé were not happy at all. She even said that she would break up with me very soon and then be together with me. So I thought that it wouldn't be too much for me to say that I'm her boyfriend, right?"

"Huh?" Jiang Yu didn't quite understand what was going on. "Jiang Ran and Sun You are fine, how could they not be happy? You... could it be that you were deceived?"

"Deceived?" He Li was stunned. He had never thought that Jiang Ran would deceive him.

"Yeah, you didn't really believe Jiang Ran's words, did you?" Jiang Yu suddenly felt that the boy in front of her was a little pitiful.

"Ran Ran wouldn't lie to me, right..." He Li muttered to himself, then, he roared at Jiang Yu, "You're lying! You wanted to sow discord between me and Ran Ran, so you deliberately said such things! Don't think that I don't know that you've been bullying Ran Ran since we were in the Jiang Family! Now, you still want to sow discord between me and Ran Ran. Jiang Yu, you really have a venomous heart!"

"What?" Jiang Yu was so angry that she laughed. She instantly felt that the person in front of her deserved to be deceived.

"You're saying that I'm trying to sow discord between you and Jiang Ran? What's the reason? Is it because I can't bear to see the two of you fall in love, or can't bear to see the two of you live well? Besides, is the relationship between the two of you very strong? Can you withstand my discord?"

Jiang Yu didn't want to waste any more time with He Li. After saying this, she walked into the campus.

He Li was left standing alone at the school gate, still waiting for Jiang Ran to come back.

He simply didn't believe that there was only the spotless Jiang Ran in his heart.

Chapter 836: Good Citizen Award

A few days after Jiang Yu returned to school, she received a phone call from Sister Xia. "Jiang Yu, there's great news! Chang Kai and the others have already taken down all the criminal gangs behind Ah Xiang!"

"Really?" Jiang Yu was very happy. If that was the case, there would be one less criminal gang in the world to continue harming people.

"Of course it's true!" Sister Xia was also very happy. "It's not a waste of our previous suffering!"

This was indeed a piece of good news that was worth being excited about. However, amidst her excitement, Jiang Yu thought of Ah Xiang's mother.

"Is Ah Xiang's mother still in prison?"

"The entire village's villagers are all here," Sister Xia said, "It was Ah Xiang's mother who instigated the villagers to surround us. She deliberately hurt us, so of course she will be punished. But Di Di had nothing to do with this matter, so we arranged a place for her to stay alone for the time being."

"That's good." Jiang Yu was relieved. "Di Di is a good child. If she has the chance to go to school, she will definitely be a good student."

Sister Xia nagged, "How can her family afford to send her to school? It was unknown how many years Ah Xiang would be in prison for coming in this time. Although her grandmother's paralysis had been cured, she can only do some daily chores and can not go out to work. Her family doesn't even have a source of income. How can they afford to go to school?"

Jiang Yu was silent and did not speak.

Sister Xia guessed her thoughts. "Jiang Yu, don't tell me you want to use money to send Di Di to school?"

After a long while, Jiang Yu answered softly, "Yes."

Sister Xia began to have a headache, "You just can't stand to see others suffer, so you always think of sacrificing yourself to help others. "But you can't do this. Di Di is someone else's daughter. If you give her money, isn't it equivalent to helping someone raise their daughter? Moreover, it's the daughter of Ah Xiang who wants to kill you!"

"She's still young, so she won't need much money." Jiang Yu smiled and said, "It's okay, Sister Xia. You don't have to worry about me."

"You... Aiya." Sister Xia sighed. She knew that no matter how she tried to persuade Jiang Yu, she wouldn't listen.

"Forget it, forget it. I won't talk to you about this anymore. Chang Kai said that you have half the credit for their mission being successful. Therefore, the higher-ups of the police station have unanimously decided to give you a 'good citizen award'. It will be sent to your school in a few days."

"There's no need to be so exaggerated, right? I only helped you with a very, very small favor." Jiang Yu was a little surprised.

"Don't be modest. This is a pennant personally given to you by the higher-ups of the police station. It's a blessing that others can't even envy!" Sister Xia said.

A few days later, the police station leader personally came to green vine university.

Everyone looked at the police car parked at the school gate, thinking that someone had committed a crime and was about to be arrested.

In the end, after waiting for a while, the police station leader personally presented the pennant to Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu stood on the stage, reached out her hands, and politely took the pennant.

The people below the stage were discussing, "What's going on? A good citizen? Don't tell me that any good citizen can get the flag now?"

"No, no, this flag was personally sent over by the police station leader."

"What did Jiang Yu do? She actually got the police station leader to personally send the flag over?"

"I don't know. She can't be helping them solve the case, right?"

"What a joke. She's just a performer. How can she help the police solve the case? You think too highly of her. It's already good enough that a person like her doesn't cause trouble for the police uncles."

Some people were disdainful of this. However, the truth in the end gave them a hard slap.

The police station leader spoke into the microphone, "Thank you, student Jiang Yu. You have helped the police solve a drug trafficking case and a case of intentional assault. Now, through the unanimous decision of the police station's senior leaders, student Jiang Yu will be awarded the 'Good Citizen Award' and the pennant as a token of honor!"

As soon as he said that, the audience burst into thunderous applause.

It was the first time that Jiang Yu had received such an award in front of all the teachers and students in the school since she was a child. She was at a loss for words for a moment. When the principal handed the microphone to her, she did not even react and took it.

It took her a long time to come back to her senses. When she took the microphone, she was so excited that her hands were trembling, but she could not say a word.

The feeling of being recognized and praised by others in public was really good.

Jiang Yu stood on the stage for a long time before she said, "Thank you, everyone. Thank you to the police officers for their recognition of me."

"Jiang Yu, you are really great," the police station leader praised and gave Jiang Yu a thumbs up.

"Thank you," Jiang Yu thanked him sincerely.

Chapter 837: Kang Xue Was Back

Jiang Yu carried the "Good Citizen Award" back, but Kang Xue returned from University of Cecilia just a few days after she returned.

Her return was very grand. There were more than a dozen black luxury cars lined up neatly in front of the school gate, as if they were there to welcome Kang Xue back to the country.

A group of people also gathered at the school gate, all wanting to see this lively scene.

Lu Qi didn't mind it. "Didn't she just come back from studying abroad? There's no need to make such a big fuss, right? Those who didn't know would think that she came back from taking the first place in Cecilia."

Speaking of the results, everyone remembered that Kang Xue and Jiang Yu were both students studying at Cecilia University.

However, Kang Xue was an exchange student, while Jiang Yu relied on her own strength to pass Cecilia's entrance exam and become a student there.

Everyone was looking forward to Kang Xue's exam results, but Kang Xue wasn't willing to tell others about her results.

Everyone thought that Kang Xue was trying to maintain some sort of mystery, but only Jiang Yu knew that Kang Xue might not have participated in the final exam when she returned at this time.

This was because Jiang Yu knew the time of the final exam when Cecilia was studying. Cecilia had always been used to postponing her final exams and never bringing them forward.

Kang Xue's hesitation and unwillingness to reveal her results further confirmed Jiang Yu's conjecture.

Moreover, based on Kang Xue's personality, if she had a good result, she would have wanted to announce it to the world. How could she have kept it a secret like this?

However, since she was unwilling to disclose her results, others should not have the chance to compare her with her, right?

However, the reality was always very different from what Jiang Yu thought.

Not only was there someone who compared Kang Xue with her when she had no results, but that person was Kang Xue herself.

In Kang Xue's post, she had always emphasized how hard she worked. However, the competition in Cecilia was too fierce, and she really could not stand out. She couldn't compare with those who relied on connections and backdoors. She could even take the final exam in advance and come back with a graduation certificate.

Although the word “Jiang Yu” wasn’t mentioned in every sentence, people with good intentions could smell something different from it.

If the person Kang Xue was talking about wasn’t Jiang Yu, who else could it be?

Even the comments below were one-sided in support of Kang Xue. “I knew it long ago. Jiang Yu clearly studied acting. How could she possibly pass the entrance exam for the Piano Department of Cecilia University?”

“When I first saw her two certificates, I was very envious. However, if these two certificates were obtained through connections... Hehe, I won’t say much about how real or fake they are.”

“Jiang Yu only dared to act so brazenly because she had Professor Bai’s favor and that Professor Karl’s favor.”

“Yeah, without the protection of Professor Bai and Professor Karl, look at Jiang Yu.”

The comments below were basically the same as these. Occasionally, there were a few people who spoke up for Jiang Yu, but they were also scolded badly, so they didn’t dare to speak up.

This post had 10,000 reposts, over 100,000 views, and over 100,000 likes.

Naturally, Lu Qi and Dai Zhu also saw this post. They wanted to show off their skills in the comments section, scold Kang Xue, and clear Jiang Yu’s name.

Unfortunately, there were too many people supporting Kang Xue, so Lu Qi and Dai Zhu were always scolded by a group of people. Moreover, the comments where they spoke up for Jiang Yu would soon be deleted by Kang Xue.

They had nowhere to vent their anger, so they could only come to Jiang Yu to complain.

“Little Yu, look at what they’re saying. What kind of words are they saying?” Lu Qi complained. “They don’t even know the whole story, and they’re just following behind Kang Xue to slander you. How can there be such a person?”

Jiang Yu was not angry because she had long been used to such things.

“Jiang Yu, aren’t you angry at all?” Dai Zhu was so angry that her lungs were about to explode. “Kang Xue is slander you! If the situation is serious, you can even call the police!”

Jiang Yu shrugged and said indifferently, “Kang Xue has always been like this. Don’t you understand? If I’m angry because of this, wouldn’t that be fulfilling her wish?”

“Then do you plan to just watch?” Lu Qi asked unwillingly.

Jiang Yu replied, “Of course not. I’m not angry, but it doesn’t mean that I will let her spread rumors here. Don’t worry, Kang Xue will pay the price for what she did.”

Chapter 838: Bet

Since Jiang Yu said so, it meant that she had a plan in mind.

Therefore, Lu Qi and Dai Zhu went over to listen to Jiang Yu's plan.

"Kang Xue is competitive. She always likes to compare herself with others, but she doesn't allow others to be better than her," Jiang Yu said, "Moreover, she doesn't consider the consequences. It's obvious that she's brainless. As long as we do the opposite of her and say a few bad things about her, she won't be able to help but jump out."

"But so what if she jumps out?" Lu Qi was puzzled. "People like her might start biting people when she's anxious."

"Her original intention was to let others talk about me behind my back. She wanted to see me make a fool of myself in front of others." Jiang Yu smiled. "In that case, let her jump out on her own accord and see who made a fool of herself."

Lu Qi and Dai Zhu still didn't understand what Jiang Yu meant. However, seeing how confident she was, they didn't ask any more questions. Instead, they waited for Jiang Yu to finish writing the post and help forward it.

When Jiang Yu was halfway through writing, she remembered that she hadn't seen Tian Guo recently, so she asked, "Where's Tian Guo? I haven't seen her recently."

Dai Zhu replied, "Tian Guo plans to directly take the postgraduate entrance examination after graduation, so she recently applied for a qualification test. She spends every day in the library reading and taking notes. Lu Qi and I don't see her all day long."

"It's a good thing to take the postgraduate examination. Don't disturb her," Jiang Yu said. She casually typed a few words and the post was completed.

She pressed the "Confirm" button and the post was posted on the school forum.

Lu Qi and Dai Zhu immediately went online and forwarded the post. They left a few comments below to attract more people to read it.

"Will this really work? Will everyone believe it?" Dai Zhu still felt a little uneasy.

Jiang Yu said indifferently, "It doesn't matter whether they believe it or not. It's fine as long as Kang Xue believes it."

The facts proved that Jiang Yu was right.

Most people didn't believe Jiang Yu's post. However, Kang Xue, who was the subject of the post, seemed to have been stepped on by someone. She hurriedly jumped out and questioned, "You said that my grades failed. What evidence do you have?"

That's right. The main content of the post Jiang Yu wrote was about when Kang Xue was studying in Cecilia. It was about the teacher's class assignment. The final score was negative. It was precisely because of this that her final score was less than 60 points. She was not qualified to take the final exam at all.

Jiang Yu wrote the truth, but Kang Xue didn't admit it.

She even went to find Jiang Yu and loudly questioned her why she slandered herself.

"You said I slandered you? Then why didn't you think about slandering me when you posted that I used my connections to pull strings?" Jiang Yu retorted.

Kang Xue was momentarily at a loss for words, but she still braced herself and said, "I slandered you? Am I not telling the truth? Do you dare to say that you passed Cecilia's entrance exam by relying on your own strength?"

The more Kang Xue said, the more confident she became. It was as if everything she said was the truth.

Jiang Yu could not help but laugh. "Since you said so, why don't you show me evidence?"

"You have the nerve to ask for evidence? Who doesn't know that Professor Bai dotes on you the most? You, a performer, actually passed the entrance examination for the piano department of Cecilia University. No matter who it is, they will think that you entered through the back door, right?" Kang Xue crossed her arms in front of her chest, she sneered, "Jiang Yu, I advise you to be self-aware. Don't embarrass yourself here."

"I think you are the one who embarrassed yourself, right?" Jiang Yu sneered, "Kang Xue, let's make a bet. Let's see if my strength is qualified to pass the entrance examination of the University of Cecilia."

Kang Xue hesitated for a moment, but she still agreed to Jiang Yu, "Alright, let's compete. But I want to make a bet with you in front of others. Otherwise, when you lose, you won't have the face to admit it. What should we do?"

Jiang Yu smiled. She felt that Kang Xue was quite intelligent from time to time.

"Alright, then we'll find a few witnesses outside and record a video and upload it to the forum. In that case, many people will see it. You won't be worried this time, right?"

Kang Xue smiled and said, "Jiang Yu, you dare to play so big. It seems that you're prepared."

"Of course. If I didn't have full confidence, how would I dare to bet with you?" Jiang Yu smiled and looked at Kang Xue.

When Kang Xue saw Jiang Yu's smile, a bad premonition arose in her heart.

However, she kept cheering in her heart and followed Jiang Yu to find the witness.

"Jiang Yu, I'm not afraid of You," Kang Xue comforted herself.

Chapter 839: Cleaning The Bathroom

"I didn't say that you were afraid of me." Jiang Yu looked at Kang Xue and smiled thoughtfully. "You're so nervous. Are you afraid?"

“Don’t talk nonsense!” Kang Xue turned her head and stopped looking at Jiang Yu.

Although it was Kang Xue’s unyielding choice to make a bet with Jiang Yu. But when it came to a real bet, Kang Xue was not completely confident.

They found a few music majors — bel canto majors — outside to be witnesses.

They had seen Kang Xue and Jiang Yu, and they knew about the posts that Kang Xue and Jiang Yu had posted.

But they were very supportive of Kang Xue. They sneered at Jiang Yu in front of them, not willing to say a word.

Kang Xue let out a long sigh of relief. She was glad that the witnesses she found outside were all supportive of her.

Hence, she felt even more confident. She looked at Jiang Yu proudly and said, “Come on, didn’t you say you wanted to make a bet with me?”

Jiang Yu looked at Kang Xue and the few people behind her thoughtfully and said slowly, “You have quite a good relationship with people. In the entire school, there are always people who support you.”

Kang Xue became even more proud and began to speak without restraint, “You don’t have a good relationship with people. Do you think you can blame me?”

Dai Zhu had a bad temper. When she heard Kang Xue’s words, she could not tolerate it no matter what.

Therefore, she said loudly, “Kang Xue! Don’t go too far! Do you really think this is your territory? Don’t you think too little of me, Dai Zhu?!”

Because there was someone supporting her from behind, Kang Xue was very confident. She was not afraid of Dai Zhu at all. “When have you ever appeared in my eyes? Dai Zhu, even if you are the daughter of the Dai family, don’t take yourself too seriously!”

“Kang Xue! You!” Dai Zhu was so angry that her face was red.

“Stop talking.” Lu Qi patted Dai Zhu’s back to comfort her.

Then, she said to Kang Xue, “Kang Xue, as the daughter of the Kang family, don’t go too far.”

Kang Xue laughed loudly and said, “Lu Qi, aren’t you Jiang Yu’s little follower? What right do you have to say such things to me?”

“Kang Xue!” Lu Qi was also angered. She could not get her breath down.

Jiang Yu’s eyes turned cold and her voice turned cold. “Kang Xue, do you think that you are the one who opened this school? You can speak without regard for the occasion?”

Kang Xue’s originally laughing face instantly froze.

In her impression, Jiang Yu had a good temper and rarely got angry.

The few times she did, Kang Xue was indeed a little scared.

Therefore, in order not to cause unnecessary trouble, Kang Xue decided to restrain herself. Therefore, she coughed a few times to ease the awkwardness and asked, "Didn't you say you wanted to make a bet with me? What bet?"

Jiang Yu's expression eased up, as if what had just happened had not happened at all.

She said, "Didn't you say that you didn't believe that I would pass Cecilia's entrance exam? Then let's bet on this. I will retake the exam. If my result is above excellent, then you will lose. If my result is below excellent, then I will lose. What do you think?"

Kang Xue Thought for a moment and felt that Jiang Yu's suggestion was feasible. After all, as long as the result was one point lower than excellent, then it wouldn't be an excellent.

She did not believe that Jiang Yu would be so lucky to get an excellent grade again.

Therefore, she readily agreed and asked, "What about the bet?"

Jiang Yu thought for a moment and said, "How about this? Let's bet. If the loser loses, the loser will clean all the bathrooms in the entire teaching building, right?"

She originally wanted to say that she would only clean the female bathroom, but Kang Xue beat her to it and said, "Including the male bathroom."

She seemed to think that she would definitely win, so she couldn't wait to see Jiang Yu make a fool of herself. Rather than only cleaning the ladies' bathroom, she might as well clean the men's bathroom as well.

Jiang Yu looked at Kang Xue in amusement and accepted her suggestion. "Alright, including the men's room."

This Kang Xue really didn't give her any leeway. It seemed that she firmly believed that she would win.

The students behind her were the same. They looked at Jiang Yu and sneered disdainfully, as if they had already foreseen the miserable state Jiang Yu would be in when she cleaned the bathroom.

"What are you laughing at?!" Dai Zhu said unhappily.

One of the bel canto students glared at her and said, "What's wrong? Your mouth is on someone else's body, so you don't allow others to laugh?"

"Of course I allow you to laugh." Lu Qi looked at her with a sneer. "Hurry up and laugh a little longer. I'm afraid that you won't be able to laugh later."

"Don't be arrogant," the student said. "I'm very interested to see what results Jiang Yu will get in the exam later."

Chapter 840: Cheated

As she was worried that Jiang Yu would secretly prepare herself, Kang Xue suggested, "Go to the piano room to take the exam now. I definitely won't give you any extra time to prepare."

Jiang Yu happily accepted it. "Sure."

The few of them went to the piano room. Before Jiang Yu took the exam, Kang Xue didn't forget to record a video. After a short self-introduction, she told Jiang Yu about her bet with her, then, she posted the video online.

While uploading the video, she said proudly, "That was the deal. Upload the video to the forum. Jiang Yu, don't deny it."

Jiang Yu didn't look at her. She adjusted the piano and said, "I don't have the habit of denying it."

Kang Xue choked. She put away her phone and didn't speak anymore.

After Jiang Yu adjusted the piano, she said, "You can look for the test questions."

Kang Xue felt that the written test was very simple. Anyone who had experience with the piano could answer it, so she did not look for the written test questions.

Instead, she directly looked for the listening test questions.

"This is a set of questions that I borrowed from Professor Karl when I came back. It is said that it was a set of test questions that Cecilia came up with when she first started her school. "If you can answer these questions and get an excellent grade, then I'm willing to admit defeat." Kang Xue smiled smugly.

Since she dared to say such words, it meant that she was certain that Jiang Yu couldn't answer this set of questions.

Because all the piano pieces in this set were composed by Kang Xue herself.

It would be strange if Jiang Yu could answer it. And even if she really answered it, she could also say that she was wrong.

Therefore, no matter what answer Jiang Yu gave, she would definitely lose this bet.

Jiang Yu did not know about this. She said to Kang Xue, "The piano has been adjusted. Do you want to play it yourself, or play it on your phone?"

Kang Xue wanted to show it to Jiang Yu, so she said, "Of course, I'll play it myself. When I play a song, you have to tell me the size of the chords, without missing a single one."

Jiang Yu nodded. "Got it."

So Kang Xue began to play, immersed in her own world and unable to extricate herself.

After the song ended, Kang Xue slowly opened her eyes and looked at Jiang Yu beside her. "How was it? Did you hear the size of the chord?"

Jiang Yu frowned and said thoughtfully, "I heard it... but there are a lot of chord mistakes. Are you sure that this is really the exam question given to you by Professor Karl?"

"Of, of course." Kang Xue felt a little guilty.

But compared to this, she was more concerned about what Jiang Yu meant by "Mistakes."

“What do you mean by ‘mistakes’?” Kang Xue asked.

Jiang Yu explained, “There are a lot of chord errors in it. It doesn’t look like a normal exam question at all.”

“Nonsense!” Kang Xue was anxious, but after she reacted, she immediately calmed down, she said, “I already told you. It is exam questions written by the school when it first started. It should be normal for there to be mistakes, right? Can you not always care about these small problems?”

Jiang Yu felt a little strange, but she did not think about it carefully. She honestly told her about the size of the chords she heard, and did not let go of even the mistakes.

After Kang Xue heard it, she directly waved her hand. “No, it’s wrong.”

Jiang Yu looked at her in surprise. “You didn’t even compare the answers. How do you know it’s wrong?”

“Nonsense. If I say you’re wrong, then you’re wrong.” Kang Xue looked at Jiang Yu impatiently. “Alright, this bet is over. You’ve lost. Hurry up and clean the bathroom.”

After saying that, she was about to leave when Jiang Yu stopped her. She smiled and said, “Take a look at the answer. If I’m really wrong, then I’m willing to admit defeat.”

How could Kang Xue have an answer? Moreover, this was her own song. The chords that Jiang Yu had just said were all correct, but how could she possibly say it out loud? Therefore, she wanted to quickly get rid of Jiang Yu and said, “Jiang Yu, if I say you’re wrong, then you’re wrong. What are you doubting? Can I lie to you?”

Jiang Yu looked at her with a smile. “Can’t you?”

Kang Xue paused and became even more anxious. She wanted to leave no matter what.

However, Jiang Yu stopped her and refused to let her go.

A few singing students couldn’t stand it anymore and said, “Jiang Yu, can you not go too far? Kang Xue already said that you’re wrong. Can’t you just admit defeat?”

Jiang Yu shook her head and said, “No. I can admit defeat and go clean the bathroom. But you have to give me a reason. At least let me see the answer so that I can be sure that I’m really wrong.”

“No answer!” Kang Xue was anxious. “Professor Karl didn’t give me an answer!”
