

Older Man 901

Chapter 901: The Reason For The Breakup

After learning about the past from sister Wang, Jiang Yu planned to go to the car shop again and ask Kang Zheng's college roommate.

"Is there a need to ask? Didn't sister Wang already tell us about those things?" Shang Wen didn't understand.

"We can't just listen to one person's story. We have to listen to other people's stories," Jiang Yu explained.

"But sister Wang only knows so much. Kang Zheng's roommates probably don't know too much, right?"

"Let's try our luck." Jiang Yu gestured for Shang Wen to go with her. "Maybe besides those things in the past, we can also find out the reason for their breakup?"

"Really?" Shang Wen's curiosity was piqued when Jiang Yu said that. She also decided to go to the car store with Jiang Yu.

The car shop was not far from the school. It was only three streets away.

Jiang Yu led Shang Wen to the car shop. A man in a suit ran out with a smile on his face to welcome them.

"Hello, customers. What can I do for you two?" The man smiled like a flower. He seemed to be a manager or manager.

"Hello, we are looking for the manager." Jiang Yu was very polite.

The man smiled and said, "I am the manager. My surname is Liu."

"Hello, manager Liu." Jiang Yu nodded. "We are here because we have something to ask you."

"What is it?" Manager Liu thought that the two girls in front of him were the daughters of some rich family who came to buy a car.

However, he was only half right. Jiang Yu and Shang Wen were indeed the daughters of rich families, but they were not here to buy a car.

Jiang Yu asked tentatively, "Manager Liu, do you know Kang Zheng?"

"Kang Zheng?" Manager Liu paused for a moment. He didn't know why the two people in front of him would ask about his college classmate.

However, out of politeness, he still answered honestly, "That's my college classmate. Why are you looking for him?"

"Nothing much." Jiang Yu smiled politely. "He's our relative. He wants to ask you about him."

"What relative?" Store manager Liu still had a smile on his face, but he was already a little impatient.

"He's our uncle." Jiang Yu briefly introduced her identity as Shang Wen.

"I haven't heard that he has a niece. The person you mentioned and the one I know might not be the same person." Store manager Liu didn't plan to continue wasting time with Jiang Yu. He only hoped that the two of them would leave as soon as possible.

"It's the same person," Jiang Yu quickly said. "We just want to know more about him..."

Before she could finish her sentence, store manager Liu interrupted her. "I said that if it's not the same person, then it's not the same person. But no matter which Kang Zheng is, he's definitely a fool who helps others take care of their wives."

Jiang Yu asked, "Please explain clearly..."

"There's nothing to say. Do you two want to buy a car? If not, then get out of the way. Don't block other people's way and delay my business."

With that, store manager Liu chased Jiang Yu and Shang Wen away without any explanation.

"You really have no manners!" Shang Wen frowned and reprimanded loudly.

But store manager Liu completely ignored her and still forcefully chased the two of them out.

Shang Wen was very angry after being kicked out of the store. She couldn't help but complain to Jiang Yu, "How can he be like this? We just want to inquire about some things. Why does he act like we owe him money?"

"Most businesses are like this," Jiang Yu said helplessly. "But it's good. Although he didn't say anything about Kang Zheng, I know the reason why Kang Zheng broke up with aunt."

"AH? What reason?" Shang Wen didn't hear what manager Liu said at all.

"He just said that no matter which Kang Zheng is, he must be a fool who helps others take care of their wives. From what he said, I can roughly guess what he meant," Jiang Yu said thoughtfully, "Maybe something happened between first uncle and first aunt at that time and they had to get married, so Kang Zheng had to let go."

"Why does it feel like a melodrama?" Shang Wen shook his head, indicating that he could not understand.

"Alright, let's go back," Jiang Yu said softly.

"Okay."

Shang Wen and Jiang Yu went back together, but they did not return to the Kang family home. Instead, they returned to Mo Garden together.

Shang Ping and Mo Long went to their respective companies to work. Only Kang Qi and Elder Mo stayed in Mo Garden, quietly waiting for Shang Wen and Jiang Yu to return.

Upon seeing the two of them return, Kang Qi stood up and asked with a smile, "Didn't you go on a vacation? Why are you back so soon?"

Chapter 902: Beat Around The Bush

"Nothing much, I just came back." Shang Wen shrugged and pretended to look regretful.

Kang Qi smiled dotingly and said, "Then hurry up and go upstairs with Xiao Yu to rest for a while."

"Okay, got it."

Shang Wen and Jiang Yu went upstairs and went to Jiang Yu's bedroom. When they entered, Shang Wen patted her chest and said in a frightened voice, "You scared me to death. I almost told my mom about this just now."

"The fewer people who know about this, the better," said Jiang Yu, "But based on sister Wang and manager Liu's words, we don't have any evidence that Kang Zheng and aunt have an abnormal relationship. We can only prove that aunt did have a relationship with Kang Zheng when she was in university."

"Then what should we do? We have no clue at this point." Shang Wen sighed.

"After I help you with acupuncture tomorrow, we'll go back to the Kang residence and look for first aunt."

"Huh?" Shang Wen was shocked. "Don't tell me you want to ask first aunt directly?!" Shang Wen was shocked.

"How is that possible?" Jiang Yu smiled helplessly.

That night, Shang Wen stayed in Mo garden and rested in the same bedroom as Jiang Yu. This made Mo Long, who had finally finished his day of work, feel even more tired.

The next day, Jiang Yu and Shang Wen went to the Kang family's house together. They happened to see Xin Xiu knitting a sweater on the sofa and Kang Xuan, who was playing games with his headphones, sitting beside her.

When Xin Xiu saw Jiang Yu and Shang Wen, she put down the things in her hands and greeted them with a smile. "Aiya, you're back? Are you hungry? There's noodles in the kitchen. I'll cook some for you."

However, her smile looked more like a show.

Jiang Yu smiled and approached her. "Aunt, we're not hungry."

"As long as you're not hungry." Xin Xiu was still smiling. "I heard that the two of you went on a vacation yesterday? Why did you come back in just one day?"

"It was boring, so I came back." Shang Wen shrugged. "I said it was a vacation, but in fact, I just went to a small city by the side and saw some strange scenery."

"What did you see?" Xin Xiu asked with a smile.

In fact, she was not concerned about Jiang Yu and Shang Wen. She even suspected that Jiang Yu had joined forces with Kang Qi's family and wanted to devour her inheritance.

However, she still pretended to be eager, so that she could show that she really cared about these juniors.

"I didn't see anything. I just looked at the nearby schools, snack shops, or car shops." Jiang Yu smiled and told her about the places that she and Shang Wen had visited yesterday.

However, Xin Xiu didn't feel that something was wrong because she hadn't contacted sister Wang much, so she didn't know what her current job was.

As for manager Liu, Xin Xiu hadn't even met him, let alone know about the auto shop.

"What auto shop are you two girls going to?" Xin Xiu smiled. She thought that the two of them wanted to buy a car on a whim.

"I heard that the manager of the car store has a friend. The story of his university days is very interesting," Jiang Yu said slowly, observing the expression on Xin Xiu's face. "The two of us were curious, so we went to take a look."

"What story?" Xin Xiu put on a curious look.

Her expression did not change, so Jiang Yu guessed that Xin Xiu probably did not know that manager Liu.

In that case, then she had to tell the story. "His friend had a girlfriend during college. They were very in love, but the girl accidentally got pregnant. Because she was worried that it would affect the final exams in a few weeks, the girl chose to go to the hospital to have an abortion."

"The store manager's friend was very angry and ignored the girl for a few days. Fortunately, they reconciled in the end. However, for some unknown reason, the girl got together with another boy. This made the store manager very angry because he felt that his friend was helping someone else take care of their wife."

The so-called "story" ended at this point.

Meanwhile, Xin Xiu's expression gradually froze from the smile at the beginning to an incredulous expression.

"Oh my God, this is a little sad, isn't it?" Xin Xiu said with a frown, as if she really felt sorry for this matter.

However, Jiang Yu still caught the flash of fear on Xin Xiu's face.

Perhaps she just felt that this "Story" was unbelievable, or perhaps she felt that this "Story" was too similar to her own experience.

Shang Wen did not notice the change in Xin Xiu's expression. Looking at her expression, he thought that she really felt pity for the protagonist of this "Story".

"But the girl ended up marrying a good man, and the store manager's friend also married a good girl."

Chapter 903: 100% Sure

Jiang Yu casually drew a full stop to this "Story".

Only then did Xin Xiu let out a sigh of relief and said, "After saying so much, are you hungry? I think I'll go and cook some noodles for you. If you're hungry, you can just eat it."

As she said that, Xin Xiu hurriedly ran to the kitchen.

Shang Wen took a glance at Kang Xuan, who was still immersed in the game. In order to ensure that nothing went wrong, she pulled Jiang Yu into the warehouse by the stairs. "Little sister Jiang Yu, I don't think aunt is lying. She might really have nothing to do with Kang Zheng. We have misunderstood her all this time."

"Then how do you explain what sister Wang and store manager Liu said?" Jiang Yu asked.

"Maybe they really have the same name and surname?" Shang Wen guessed.

"But they can't both know the same Kang Zheng and Xin Xiu who share the same name," Jiang Yu said firmly.

"This..." Shang Wen thought for a moment and found that he really had no reason to defend himself, so he agreed with Jiang Yu. "So... is aunt really related to Kang Zheng?"

"Yes." Jiang Yu nodded with certainty. "And it's definitely not an ordinary relationship."

"Really? Are you sure?" Shang Wen asked.

Even though Kang Zheng had poisoned her in an attempt to harm her, Xin Xiu had never done anything to let her down. Therefore, Shang Wen still did not want to believe that Xin Xiu would betray Kang Cheng.

Jiang Yu nodded. "I'm 100% sure."

"Sigh..." Shang Wen sighed. "How could first aunt do such a thing?"

"Perhaps after they got married, when they met Kang Zheng, they had already rekindled their old feelings," Jiang Yu said with her head lowered.

"But isn't this very unfair to Kang Xuan? The father he's called for more than 20 years is actually his own uncle, and the uncle he's called for more than 20 years is actually his own biological father?" Shang Wen found it ridiculous as she spoke, "Even the television shows doesn't dare to act like this."

By the time the two of them left, Xin Xiu had already left with Kang Xuan.

"We've already confirmed this matter." Shang Wen sighed. "Then do we still have to say it out loud?"

Jiang Yu was in a dilemma for a moment.

Although she was a member of the Kang family, this was, after all, the family affairs of her first uncle, Kang Cheng. She had no right to care about it at all.

Moreover, there were many complicated matters involved. It was better for him to step out and not get involved in this mess.

Shang Wen and Jiang Yu had the same thoughts, so the two of them came to a consensus — no matter who asked, he had to say that he didn't know.

"But there's still one last step," Jiang Yu said. "We still don't know if Kang Xuan is Kang Zheng's son."

"There's no other way except for the paternity test," Shang Wen said. "But from what I see, even if the paternity test isn't done, this matter isn't too far off."

Shang Wen's words made sense, so Jiang Yu no longer insisted, she only said, "As long as Kang Zheng doesn't continue to do anything that threatens us, we won't say anything about this matter. If first aunt feels guilty because of what I said today, she will naturally give herself away. If first uncle has the heart, he will naturally find out."

"Mm." Shang Wen nodded, a worried expression appearing on her face.

"Then, we should just let him poison us and forget about it?"

Jiang Yu paused and then remembered that Shang Wen, who was beside her, had already been poisoned and mutilated by Kang Zheng for several years.

Although she could cure Shang Wen in time, it was still a big blow to her.

Her uncle, whom she had respected for so long, had been poisoning her. No one could accept this fact.

"I'm sorry, I didn't take your feelings into consideration..." Jiang Yu looked at Shang Wen, trying to comfort her.

However, Shang Wen had a good personality. She didn't plan to be too calculative about this matter.

"It's fine. Why are you apologizing? If you really want to apologize, Kang Zheng will have to come and apologize to me." Shang Wen smiled and put his arm around Jiang Yu's shoulder, "If I were to be calculative about everything, I would have died of anger long ago. I wouldn't have given Kang Zheng the chance to poison me."

"You really have a good temper." Jiang Yu smiled.

"Of course. After all, he is my uncle that I have been calling 'uncle' for more than 20 years. Although I was so angry when I first heard that he had poisoned me, I immediately went to his house to scold him. However, after my anger subsided, I realized that I wasn't angry. I was just disappointed and couldn't accept the truth." Shang Wen said, "Because I was too disappointed, I didn't feel anything anymore."

Jiang Yu suddenly felt sorry for Shang Wen.

Who wouldn't be sad when they found out that their uncle wanted to kill them.

Chapter 904: Took A Turn For The Worst

In the evening, Jiang Yu and Shang Wen stayed at the Kang residence and planned to stay there for a long time.

Jiang Yu even went back to Mo Garden to retrieve silver needles so that she could help Shang Wen with acupuncture anytime and anywhere in the Kang residence.

For a few days, Xin Xiu did not appear at the Kang residence. On the contrary, it was Kang Zheng who came a few times.

Jiang Yu was washing vegetables in the kitchen while Shang Wen was sitting on the sofa peeling an apple. When she looked up and saw Kang Zheng, she was momentarily distracted and accidentally cut her hand with a knife.

"Ouch!" Shang Wen cried out in pain.

"What's wrong?" Jiang Yu hurriedly ran out of the kitchen and saw Kang Zheng standing in front of the sofa and Shang Wen, whose hand was bleeding non-stop.

Kang Zheng looked coldly at Shang Wen, but he stood where he was, unmoved.

Jiang Yu took out the medical kit and helped Shang Wen to stop the bleeding and disinfect the wound. After that, she bandaged her wound.

Kang Zheng did not say a word throughout the whole process. He only looked at her coldly and no one knew what he was thinking.

When Jiang Yu put away the medical kit, he asked, "Second uncle, what's the matter?"

Kang Zheng forced a smile on his face and answered, "Why did Wen Wen get hurt by accident?"

The expression on his face was very scary. It was daytime, but it made Shang Wen and Jiang Yu feel a chill on their backs.

Jiang Yu coughed a few times and asked again, "Second uncle, what's the matter?"

"Nothing. I just came to see you." Kang Zheng put on his harmless look again and smiled. "I'm going to Italy on a business trip recently. Do you have anything you want? Second uncle will help you bring it."

"No, no." Shang Wen hurriedly shook his head. "Second uncle, be careful on the road."

Kang Zheng then looked at Jiang Yu and asked, "Little Yu, eh? Do you have anything you want?"

Jiang Yu also shook her head. "No."

"Then I'll just bring you some specialty products." Kang Zheng smiled and turned to leave.

"You scared me to death." Shang Wen's heart was still thumping non-stop. "His expression is really scary."

"He should already know that we found out about what happened between him and his aunt. He came here just to give us a warning. Or perhaps, he already has a way to get rid of us."

"Hu?!" Shang Wen was shocked. "Doesn't he know when to stop? How dare he continue!"

"Let's see what he will do when he comes back from Italy," said Jiang Yu. "The best way now is to stay put."

“Okay, okay, got it.”

Kang Zheng flew to Italy the next day and returned a week later.

During this period, Xin Xiu and Kang Xuan still didn’t show up at the Kang family’s house. Only Kang Cheng came to visit from time to time.

Jiang Yu really wanted to know what happened to Xin Xiu, so she asked when Kang Cheng came, “Uncle, why haven’t I seen your aunt and brother Kang Xuan recently?”

“Your aunt is sick. Little Xuan is taking care of her.” Kang Cheng placed all the things he bought on the coffee table and left.

“How can this be? She fell sick a week ago. Why hasn’t she recovered until now?” Shang Wen was puzzled. “If it’s really that serious, why didn’t she go to the hospital to have a look?”

“It’s not that she’s sick, but that she can’t face us,” Jiang Yu said. “It seems that she used the excuse of being sick to hide herself very well. Uncle didn’t notice anything unusual at all.”

“This matter is getting more and more complicated.” Shang Wen sighed. She didn’t know when this matter would be resolved.

On the second day after Kang Zheng returned from Italy, Jiang Yu and Shang Wen received Xin Xiu’s invitation. “Wenwen, Xiao Yu, the weather has been pretty good recently. Eldest aunt will treat you to a meal.”

“What is she up to?” Shang Wen didn’t understand. “She was clearly pretending to be sick before and didn’t dare face us. Why is she suddenly treating us to a meal?”

Jiang Yu did not know why Xin Xiu’s attitude had changed so quickly. She had a bad feeling about this.

“Are we going?” Shang Wen asked.

“Yes, I want to see what kind of show the two of them are going to put on,” Jiang Yu said.

Shang wen replied, “Sure, aunt! Where are we going to eat?”

Xin Xiu immediately sent a message, “Tonight. I’ll pick you guys up.”

Shang Wen replied, “Alright.”

After replying to the message, Shang Wen had a bad feeling. “I don’t know why, but it’s normal to treat us to a meal, but why do I feel so uneasy?”

“I feel uneasy too.” Jiang Yu also had a bad feeling. “Her attitude has changed too quickly, and it seems like she can’t wait to treat us to a meal. I don’t believe that she doesn’t have a purpose.”

Chapter 905: Knockout Powder

At night, Xin Xiu gave Shang Wen a call. “Wenwen, I’m already at the door. Come out, the two of you.”

“Okay.” Shang Wen hung up the phone and called Jiang Yu. “Little sister Jiang Yu, aunt is already at the door.”

“Then we’ll go down now.” Jiang Yu took her small backpack, which contained her silver needles.

She would never believe that Xin Xiu would suddenly be so kind as to invite her Shang Wen out for dinner. Just in case, Jiang Yu decided to bring a self-defense weapon. Sharp products were not suitable, so silver needles were the best choice.

Xin Xiu had said from the beginning that it was best not to tell anyone about this. This was a very strange request, so it reinforced the bad premonition in Jiang Yu’s heart.

As Jiang Yu and Shang Wen didn’t have any actual evidence, they didn’t tell anyone for the time being.

When the two of them arrived at the Kang Residence’s entrance, they saw not only Xin Xiu, but also Kang Zheng, who had just returned from Italy.

“Second uncle? Why are you here?” Shang Wen asked in puzzlement.

“Isn’t it because I don’t know how to drive?” Xin Xiu hurriedly explained with a smile. “Your eldest uncle is also busy and doesn’t have much time. I have no choice, so I asked your second uncle to help drive.”

“I see.” Jiang Yu and monk Wen acted as usual, as if they didn’t sense anything wrong. They opened the car door and got in.

When Jiang Yu got in the car, she secretly turned on her phone’s recording function while Xin Xiu was fastening her seatbelt and Kang Zheng was checking the accelerator.

“Xiao Yu just returned to the Kang family not long ago. As an aunt, I should treat her to a meal no matter what,” Xin Xiu said with a smile. “It just so happens that you two have a good relationship, so let’s have a meal together.”

“Thank you, first aunt,” Jiang Yu thanked her with a smile.

“What are you thanking me for? This is what an aunt should do,” Xin Xiu said.

So far, it had been a very normal development and a very normal conversation. There was nothing wrong with Xin Xiu.

Shang Wen thought that he and Jiang Yu were worrying too much over nothing. However, Jiang Yu felt that the quieter the car was, the scarier the things that would happen next.

After sitting for a while, Shang Wen’s back started to sweat. She kept fanning herself with her hands and said, “Second uncle, why didn’t you turn on the air conditioner?”

“I forgot. I’m sorry.” Kang Zheng turned on the air conditioner in the car and a strange fragrance instantly came out.

“It smells so good. Is it some kind of perfume?” Shang Wen smelled the fragrance and thought it was some kind of car perfume.

However, Kang Zheng and Xin Xiu didn’t say anything.

Shang Wen didn't understand. Just as he was about to speak, she felt dizzy and couldn't speak properly.

"Second... second uncle, what is this?"

"Nothing." Kang Zheng smiled.

"But it doesn't feel right. Why is my head so dizzy?" Shang Wen's vision was starting to blur.

Jiang Yu had the same feeling, so she guessed that the strange fragrance just now should be the knockout drug that made people lose consciousness.

So she immediately took out the silver needle in her bag, pulled out one, and stabbed it fiercely on her finger.

The sudden pain and stimulation instantly cleared up Jiang Yu's consciousness.

She looked at Shang Wen beside her without leaving a trace, and also took out the silver needle to stab the back of her hand.

If she allowed Shang Wen to be drugged now, she might not be able to care about her when she ran away later.

Shang Wen's consciousness had already started to slow down, so she did not feel any pain when Jiang Yu stabbed him with the silver needle.

After a while, she finally felt the pain on the back of her hand. However, it was not intense. She raised her hand and looked at the wound in confusion. When she saw the wound, she looked at Jiang Yu in confusion.

Jiang Yu nodded slightly, indicating that she had indeed stabbed the wound herself.

Shang Wen put her hand down and quickly felt the pain on the back of her hand.

"Hiss..." Shang Wen could not help but cry out in pain.

It seemed that she had regained consciousness and her pain perception had also recovered.

Xin Xiu and Kang Zheng did not seem to hear Shang Wen's voice and continued to focus on driving.

Jiang Yu looked at the scenery outside the window and felt that it was getting more and more remote. From the noisy and noisy scene at the beginning, it had become completely silent now.

This was not the way to the restaurant.

"Second uncle, first aunt, where are we going?" Jiang Yu asked.

"To eat," Xin Xiu said the same thing, but her tone was no longer as gentle as before.

"Where are we going to eat?" Jiang Yu stared at Xin Xiu's face in the rearview mirror.

"Of course it's a place to eat." Kang Zheng curled her lips.

Chapter 906: Silence Them

"Would the place for dinner be in such a remote place?" Jiang Yu's voice turned cold.

"Then where do you want to eat?" Kang Zheng asked. "Do you really think that we're here to eat today?"

"Aren't we here to eat?" Shang Wen did not react. "Didn't aunt say that she would treat us to a meal?"

"Shang Wen, why are you so naive?" Xin Xiu smiled. "I said that we're here to eat, so we're here to eat? You're such a naive child."

"So you've been lying to me?" Shang Wen's eyes widened. "Why?! If we didn't believe you, we would never have agreed to let you eat out!"

"That's why I said you're naive." Xin Xiu's smile was full of mockery.

"Stop the car now and let us out, or I'll call the police!" Shang Wen took out his phone and threatened.

"Then you can try and see if you can make this call." Kang Zheng laughed.

Hearing this, Shang Wen quickly turned on her phone and found that there was no signal. There were some apps on the phone that could be used, but messages could not be sent, and the phone was busy.

"What's going on? What did you do?!" Shang Wen shouted.

"You're really strong." Xin Xiu looked at Shang Wen as if she was watching a good show. "There's a small signal jammer in this car, so of course your phone has no signal."

"What, what are you guys trying to do?!" Shang Wen's hand was already on the car door, ready to open the door and jump out at any time.

Seeing her thoughts, Kang Zheng immediately locked the car door behind them, not giving Shang Wen and Jiang Yu any chance.

However, there was still one thing that he did not understand. They had been smelling this incense for so long, why were they still in such good spirits?

"I advise the two of you not to be ungrateful," Kang Zheng said fiercely. "I have already locked the door. There is no way for you to open the door!"

Shang Wen pulled the car door in horror, but found that the car door did not move at all.

Jiang Yu was also a little flustered, but she still pretended to be calm and said, "Why are you doing this?"

"You two little girls, why don't you go to school properly? Why do you always like to ask about other people's stories?" Kang Zheng's tone was a little mocking. "It's not good to always ask about other people's stories."

"Leave us alone!" Jiang Yu quickly got up and reached out to grab the steering wheel in Kang Zheng's hand.

"What are you doing? Are you crazy?!" Xin Xiu's eyes were red with anxiety as she pulled Jiang Yu back. "I advise you to behave yourself! If that's the case, no one will survive!"

"I don't think you want us to live either!" Jiang Yu roared. "Rather than the two of us dying, it's better for everyone to die together!"

"Jiang Yu! Don't go crazy!" Xin Xiu pulled Jiang Yu's hand with all her might, but Jiang Yu refused to let go.

Seeing this, Shang Wen also rushed over to help.

Both of them were fighting for the steering wheel, which made it difficult for Xin Xiu and Kang Zheng to handle.

The car crashed down on the empty path and finally crashed into a big tree.

"Help!" Shang Wen shouted and closed her eyes as if accepting her fate.

"Jiang Yu! Let go quickly! Otherwise, we will all die!" Xin Xiu's eyes were so red that they looked like they were about to bleed. "You want to die, but we don't want to die!"

"Either we all live together, or we all die together!" Jiang Yu still refused to let go.

"I advise you not to regret it!" Kang Zheng shouted and let go of his hand.

"Kang Zheng!" Xin Xiu looked at Kang Zheng in disbelief. "You're crazy! Don't you want to live too?!"

"At most, we will all die together!" Kang Zheng didn't care at this point.

"Don't!" Xin Xiu shouted until her throat was about to split open.

The car finally crashed into a big tree and then flipped over. The car rolled down the side of the hill.

The hill wasn't high, but it was very steep. The car only stopped after a few rounds.

Xin Xiu's head hit the windshield in front of her and she fainted on the spot. Although Kang Zheng protected his head, his legs were clamped by the airbags that popped out and he couldn't move at all.

The front of the car had been hit hard, so the damage was the most serious. Kang Zheng and Xin Xiu were also seriously injured. The rear of the car had been hit relatively lightly, so Jiang Yu and Shang Wen were also slightly injured.

Therefore, although Jiang Yu and Shang Wen were temporarily unconscious, they quickly regained consciousness.

After regaining consciousness, Jiang Yu quickly opened the car door and escaped. Then, she held Shang Wen's hand and ran out with her.

Kang Zheng watched them escape, but there was nothing he could do.

"Stop!"

Chapter 907: Vagrant

Jiang Yu completely ignored Kang Zheng who was behind her. She held Shang Wen's hand and walked forward.

Until Kang Zheng who was behind her begged bitterly, "Wait, I beg you. Even if you don't want to save me, Xin Xiu is your aunt. You should at least save her, right?"

Hearing this, Jiang Yu stopped. "After I save you, then you will kill us, right?"

"No, no, no!" Kang Zheng shook his head repeatedly. "I promise, I will absolutely not harm you!"

"Your words have no credibility." Jiang Yu looked at him coldly. "Xin Xiu intends to harm me with you, so the credibility is not high. I won't save you, you have to pray for yourselves."

"Wait," Kang Zheng did not give up. "We are your uncle and aunt, how can you leave us to die?"

"Don't use your identity to ask me." Jiang Yu didn't even turn her head. "When you poisoned us, why didn't you say that we were your nieces?"

Kang Zheng paused. He couldn't believe that Jiang Yu actually knew that he had poisoned them.

He thought of countless excuses in his mind, but when he looked up, Jiang Yu and Shang Wen had already disappeared.

"Damn it!" Kang Zheng pounded the ground angrily.

Jiang Yu brought Shang Wen up the hill. He had originally thought that they would be able to take a taxi back.

However, when they stood at the spot where they had fallen, they realized that Kang Zheng had already driven them to a desolate place.

"What is this place?" Shang Wenhuan looked around and felt a chill in her heart. "They are really trying to kill us. There is no one in this place. Even if we call for help, no one will come to save us!"

"Do you still remember the way?" Jiang Yu did not expect Kang Zheng to bring them to this godforsaken place.

"I don't remember." Shang Wen shook his head awkwardly. "I don't know. I didn't expect Kang Zheng to bring us to this place."

Jiang Yu fell silent and took out her phone.

Since the car had already gone down the hill, the screen should be useless.

However, Jiang Yu's phone was already broken and she couldn't turn it on.

"It's fine. Use my phone." Shang Wen took out his phone and realized that his phone was even more broken than Jiang Yu's.

"This..." Shang Wen was a little embarrassed.

"There's no other way. Let's take it one step at a time." Jiang Yu sighed and walked back according to her memory.

She didn't even see a single animal, let alone a person.

Jiang Yu originally wanted to see if there were any phone booths by the roadside, but based on this situation, she wouldn't be able to see a phone booth even if she walked for a day.

"Are we going to continue walking like this?" Shang Wen was very tired from walking and wanted to sit down and rest now. However, judging from Jiang Yu's appearance, she did not seem to have the intention to sit down and rest.

"There's no human habitation here, so we can't rest for the time being," Jiang Yu said. "Let's walk for a distance first and then find a place to rest at night."

"Alright." Shang Wen followed behind Jiang Yu until they saw an abandoned building.

This building was supposed to be demolished because the word "Demolished" was written on the door. However, the surroundings were full of weeds. It seemed that no one had been here for a long time. They didn't know whether they should demolish it or not.

"Let's rest here." Jiang Yu looked around and made sure that this was the only place to rest. Then, she brought Shang Wen in.

"It's so dark here." Shang Wen smelled a strong smell of dust as soon as she walked in.

"I'll hold your hand." Jiang Yu held Shang Wen's hand tightly and explored step by step in the darkness. "There's no one here. It should be an abandoned building from a long time ago. Although it's a little dirty, it's very safe. Kang Zheng and Xin Xiu are trapped in the car. It's impossible for them to catch up to us so quickly."

"Then let's rest here today. My feet are really sore and I can't continue walking," Shang Wen said, feeling wronged.

"Okay." Jiang Yu nodded in the darkness.

They smeared their faces and found a relatively flat place to sit. There was a wall behind them that they could lean against. So the two of them sat down and prepared to rest quietly for a while.

Jiang Yu took out her phone and tried to turn it on many times, but failed.

The phone screen was already broken, and the fragments had even punctured a steel membrane. Jiang Yu touched the bumps on the fragments and thought about the next plan to save herself.

If she kept walking, but there was no map, she did not know when she would be able to walk back.

Shang Wen wasn't sleepy either. She leaned on Jiang Yu's shoulder and didn't know what to do next.

Chapter 908: Escape In Progress

Jiang Yu and Shang Wen slept in the abandoned building for the whole night. When they opened their eyes the next day, they hurriedly left through the main door.

"Are we really going back just like that? If that's the case, who knows when we'll be able to go back." Shang Wen looked at the endless road in front of him, "We didn't go back last night. My parents and your fiancé must have been worried to death."

Speaking of Mo Long, Jiang Yu remembered that he had installed a GPS app on her phone before. He was afraid that she would run into danger when he went out, but no one came to save her.

However, her phone was already broken. She didn't know if Mo Long could still find her through the GPS app.

"Let's go along this road first and see if there's a phone booth nearby or a mobile phone shop that can repair your phone," Jiang Yu said.

"There's no such thing." Shang Wenhuan looked around, but no matter how he looked at it, this was a desolate place. It was impossible for the shops that Jiang Yu mentioned to appear.

"We still have to go." Jiang Yu pulled Shang Wenhuan along. "We can't stay where we are. If Kang Zheng and Xin Xiu also follow this road and they are faster than us, we will bump into each other sooner or later."

"Alright, let's go then." Shang Wen followed Jiang Yu closely.

They walked along this path for another morning, but they didn't know where they were. Shang Wen was so tired that his mouth and tongue were dry, he couldn't take another step. "No, little sister Jiang Yu, I really can't walk anymore. We haven't eaten anything since yesterday, and we haven't drunk a single drop of water. "I'm really too tired. I'm hungry and thirsty."

"Bear with it." Jiang Yu was also very thirsty. Her body was covered in sweat, but she continued walking forward.

"I can't bear it anymore. I'm really too tired." Shang Wen sat down on an abandoned bench by the side of the road. "Jiang Yu, let's Rest."

Jiang Yu stopped helplessly and turned to look at Shang Wen. "Sister Shang Wen, hold on a little longer."

"I really can't hold on any longer." Shang Wen waved his hand. "Little Sister Jiang Yu, you should leave first. Don't bother about me. I'm already poisoned and my health isn't good. Don't let me cause you to be unable to escape."

"Then you should rest first. I'll wait for you." Jiang Yu also sat beside Shang Wen. "When you're done resting, we'll set off."

"Hurry up and leave me alone." Shang Wen pushed Jiang Yu's shoulders. "Rather than having both of us here, we might as well take advantage of this time to run!"

"I've already said that I'll wait for you!" Jiang Yu's tone was firm. "Rest for a while. We'll set off immediately."

"Jiang Yu..."

Before Shang Wen could finish her sentence, she heard a voice from afar. "Those two brats sure run fast."

From the voice, it was... Kang Zheng! Then the person who was talking to him must be Xin Xiu!

"Why are they so fast!" Shang Wen mouthed to Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu didn't say anything. She pulled Shang Wen along and hid beside the nearest bush.

Kang Zheng and Xin Xiu didn't notice them. Instead, they sat down on the bench that they had just sat on.

"Is this chair hot?" Xin Xiu sat exactly where Shang Wen had just sat.

"Looks like it's those two little brats, they were just resting here." Kang Zheng gritted his teeth. "Let's rest here for a while, then we'll go catch those two little brats right away!"

"How did the two of them find out about us?" Xin Xiu did not understand. "And the poison she said, what's going on?"

"You don't have to worry about this for now. All you need to know is that everything I did was for Little Xuan." Kang Zheng did not intend to explain to Xin Xiu.

"What you did was illegal! Poisoning people, you said it was for Little Xuan?" Xin Xiu was furious. "If you were really caught, wouldn't you be making Little Xuan a child without a father?"

"But he doesn't call me dad." Kang Zheng turned his face away. "Anyway, Kang Cheng will take good care of him. It doesn't matter whether I go in prison or not."

"Are you crazy?" Xin Xiu was even angrier, "Even if Little Xuan doesn't call you dad now, won't he call you dad in the future? I said I would definitely divorce Kang Cheng. Don't you believe me?! When the time comes for the divorce, wouldn't Little Xuan still call you dad?"

"It's not like he's willing. Moreover, he keeps calling me uncle. How can he call me dad?" When Kang Zheng mentioned this, he couldn't hide the loneliness on his face.

"I already said that I will marry you in the future." Xin Xiu softened her tone. "You believe me, okay?"

"I believe you," Kang Zheng said, his voice becoming softer and softer.

Chapter 909: Murderous Intent

"So Kang Zheng and Xin Xiu are really having an affair!" Shang Wen was indignant and whispered to Jiang Yu, "This is not fair to uncle!"

"If it wasn't for the broken phone, I would definitely record their disgusting words." Jiang Yu was also so angry that she gritted her teeth and wished she could rush out and give Kang Zheng and Xin Xiu, this shameless pair of dogs, a slap.

"I heard from my mother that before you came back, she had been trying to curry favor with Jiang Ran." Shang Wen gritted his teeth and exposed Xin Xiu's crime, "At that time, I thought that she really felt sorry for little aunt's daughter. In the end, I realized that no matter who is little aunt's daughter, it doesn't matter to her. As long as one person wears this identity, it's fine."

"I'm really too angry." Shang Wen could no longer endure it. Even if he was going to die at the hands of these two people today, she would still jump out and scold them to vent her anger.

However, Jiang Yu stopped her and said in a low voice, "Don't be rash. When we safely return to the Kang family, we will have plenty of time to deal with them."

"Sigh... Alright." Although Shang Wen was rash, she was not brainless. She obediently squatted back down.

But just like that, the weeds behind Jiang Yu and Shang Wen began to creak.

"Who's there?!" Alarm bells rang in Kang Zheng's heart. He stood up and was about to head towards where Jiang Yu and Shang Wen were hiding.

Shang Wen subconsciously grabbed Jiang Yu's hand, and her body began to tremble involuntarily.

Although Xin Xiu also heard the sound of the weeds, she thought it was from the wind. However, seeing that Kang Zheng was so vigilant, she cautiously asked, "What's wrong?"

"There's someone." Kang Zheng trusted his instincts.

Seeing that Kang Zheng was getting closer and closer to her, and that he did not stop, Jiang Yu decided not to continue hiding.

Anyway, Kang Zheng's legs were injured, and Xin Xiu had just woken up from her coma. If a fight really broke out, who knew who would win and who would lose.

Hence, Jiang Yu stood up and said calmly, "It's me."

"You?" Kang Zheng paused and the corners of his mouth curled into a strange arc. "It can't be just you, right? Where's Shang Wen?"

Jiang Yu was about to say that Shang Wen had already left, but Shang Wen did not give her the chance to speak. Instead, he stood up and said, "I'm here. What's wrong? Did you miss me?"

"How dare you speak to your uncle like that?" Kang Zheng's expression turned cold.

"Ptui!" Shang Wen spat without any restraint. "My uncle would never poison me! You have done so many shameless things, and you still have the face to call yourself my uncle? You are really shameless!"

"Shang Wen! Did I give you a good impression?!" Kang Zheng was furious and reached out to grab Shang Wen's neck.

"Cough cough!" Shang Wen did not expect Kang Zheng to still have so much strength despite being injured.

"Sister Shang Wen!" Jiang Yu saw this and quickly took out a silver needle from her bag and stabbed the back of Kang Zheng's hand.

Kang Zheng felt the pain and immediately let go of her hand.

"Sister Shang Wen, are you alright?!" Jiang Yu quickly held Shang Wen.

"I'm fine." Shang Wen waved her hand and coughed a few times before she straightened her body and glared at Kang Zheng. "If you really have the ability, you can take our lives here! If you don't have the ability, then don't say anything!"

"Sister Shang Wen!" Jiang Yu shouted.

How could she still dare to say such "Heroic words" at a time like this!

"Good! You are courting death!" Kang Zheng saw a sharp stone not far away and quickly went to pick it up.

Taking advantage of this gap, Jiang Yu quickly pulled Shang Wen and ran forward. "Run! He is going crazy now. He will really kill us!"

Shang Wen was not a fool. What she said just now was just for fun. Was she really going to stand there and wait for death? That was absolutely impossible.

"Can we get out of this way?" Shang Wen kept running behind Jiang Yu as he asked while panting.

"I don't know." Jiang Yu was so tired that she was out of breath. "But we have no other choice now!"

The two of them ran along the road for an unknown amount of time until they were exhausted and couldn't take another step forward. Then, their legs gave way and they collapsed on the ground.

"We can't run anymore," Shang Wen said with a wave of his hand.

At this moment, Shang Wen felt that these two legs were no longer hers. Even the voice that came out of her throat belonged to someone else.

"He shouldn't be able to catch up." Jiang Yu was also very tired. Her two legs couldn't exert any strength at all.

Chapter 910: Unexpected

"This is really strange. Isn't he injured? Why is he still walking so fast?" Shang Wen was now more curious about this than she was about to run for her life. "And that Xin Xiu, what's going on? Why is she like a strong man with such a strong recovery ability?"

"She's like a cockroach that can't be killed. They're really two vermin," said Jiang Yu.

She took a few deep breaths and said, "Have you rested? We need to continue running later."

"Continue running? I really can't do it." Shang Wen waved her hand, she laid down on the ground and said, "We took so many turns just now. Unless Kang Zheng has a dog's nose, he can't possibly know where we are."

However, just as she finished her sentence, Kang Zheng's laughter came from behind her. "Hahaha! Aren't you two good at running? Keep running!"

"Oh my God!" Shang Wen jumped up in fright. "What I'm afraid of comes true!"

She quickly hid behind Jiang Yu and carefully stuck her head out to look at Kang Zheng.

Kang Zheng still had a sharp stone in his hand. Coupled with the strange smile on his face, the more she looked at him, the scarier he became.

"Kang Zheng, we have no enmity with you. Why do you have to kill us?" Jiang Yu calmly met Kang Zheng's eyes and secretly reached her hand into her bag.

Kang Zheng noticed her actions and angrily shouted, "Stop! Take your hand out! Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude to the both of you!"

Jiang Yu had no choice but to stop and said, "What do you want?"

"You know something that you shouldn't know. What do you think? Either the two of you don't go back to the Kang family for the rest of your lives, or Xin Xiu and I don't go back to the Kang family! Guess what I will choose?" Kang Zheng smiled evilly, "You don't need to think to know what I will choose, right?"

"If you really kill the two of us here, then you're quite capable." Jiang Yu sneered. "But I'm afraid that you don't have the guts or the ability to escape successfully."

Kang Zheng paused. "What do you mean?"

"Everyone knows that the two of us came out to have a meal with you. If the two of us went missing and the two of you returned to the Kang family unharmed, guess if others will suspect you?" Jiang Yu put on a very serious expression to scare Kang Zheng.

"How dare you tell others?!" Kang Zheng was so angry that his eyes were red. He raised the stone and rushed towards Jiang Yu and the others.

"Let's go!" Jiang Yu pushed Shang Wen away and took the opportunity to dodge to the side, causing Kang Zheng to miss.

"Jiang Yu!" Shang Wen was so scared that her soul almost flew out.

However, she didn't have any extra time to worry about Jiang Yu because Xin Xiu had already rushed over.

"Oh my God, you two are like cockroaches that can't be killed!" Shang Wen shouted in pain.

Xin Xiu saw that Kang Zheng was dealing with Jiang Yu, so her target was Shang Wen. However, she was injured yesterday and had not fully recovered, so there was no guarantee that she could defeat Shang Wen.

However, in order to prevent Shang Wen from running over and delaying Kang Zheng, Xin Xiu could only brace herself and go up to Shang Wen to tear her apart.

"Wen Wen, listen to me, I'm your first aunt!"

"Stop pretending!" Shang wen scolded, "Whose first aunt can get together with second uncle?!"

She rolled up her sleeves and prepared to have a big fight with Xin Xiu.

Jiang Yu had already used up too much of her energy, and compared to the middle-aged man Kang Zheng, she really didn't have the upper hand.

Therefore, Kang Zheng quickly grabbed Jiang Yu by her hair and pinned her to the ground.

"You still want to run?!" Kang Zheng laughed maniacally as he raised his hand and was about to smash the sharp stone down.

"Jiang Yu!" Shang Wen shouted in a heart-wrenching manner.

Meanwhile, Jiang Yu closed her eyes as if she was resigned to her fate.

However, the dull pain in her memory did not come. Instead, there was the sound of a gunshot, followed by Kang Zheng's mournful wail, "AH –"

Jiang Yu opened her eyes and saw Kang Zheng rolling on the ground with blood all over his hands.

"My wrist! My Wrist!" Kang Zheng rolled on the ground in pain and kept wailing.

Jiang Yu suddenly turned around and saw Mo Long standing there in a black windbreaker. He was still holding the gun in his hand, and a wisp of smoke rose from the muzzle of the gun.

The expression on his face was dark, no different from his usual anger. However, in his eyes, there was an uncontrollable anger.

"Kang Zheng, you are courting death."
