

Older Man 911

Chapter 911: Incident Caught

He continued shooting at Kang Zheng's arms and legs until he lay unconscious on the ground, his clothes stained with blood.

"Brother-in-law! Cool!" Shang Wen was shocked by the scene in front of him.

At this moment, Xin Xiu couldn't care less about Shang Wen. She wanted to quickly go over and check on Kang Zheng's injuries. "Kang Zheng!"

"Don't go." Shang Wen held Xin Xiu down. "If his vital points weren't hit, he won't die. If he really dies, he deserves it."

Mo Long put away his gun and walked towards Jiang Yu. He squatted down, took off his windbreaker and draped it over Jiang Yu's body.

"Why didn't you inform me immediately when you encountered such a situation?" Mo Long asked while checking her injuries.

There was no anger in his tone. Instead, it was full of worry and self-blame.

Jiang Yu's nose turned sour. She took out her phone from her bag and explained in a low voice, "My phone broke. I couldn't tell you."

"That's not what I meant." Mo Long sighed, "I'm talking about going out for dinner. You went out without saying anything. You didn't even come back for a whole night. You didn't even pick up your phone. Do you know how worried I was? If it weren't for that GPS app on your phone, I probably wouldn't have been able to find you even now."

"I'm sorry. I was wrong. I won't do it again," Jiang Yu lowered her head and said pitifully.

"There won't be a next time," Mo Long said with a tone that couldn't be rejected.

"I know," Jiang Yu said in a very low voice.

Mo Long held Jiang Yu in his arms, completely ignoring Shang Wen and Xin Xiu.

Shang Wen felt a little embarrassed, so she reached out to touch her nose, turned her head to the side, and stopped talking.

After a while, a group of people ran over. There were both members of the Kang family and the police in this group.

Jiang Yu saw the group of police and asked, "Did you call the police?"

"It wasn't me." Mo Long shook his head. "It was the members of the Kang family who called the police."

Jiang Yu looked over. Through the gaps in the crowd, she saw Kang Cheng and Kang Xuan, whose expressions could not be described as gloomy or disappointed.

One of them was his wife of 30 years, who was actually his younger brother's lover. The other was his uncle, whom he had been calling his father for more than 20 years, who was actually his biological father.

This matter was unacceptable news to anyone.

The police carried the unconscious Kang Zheng into the police car and brought Xin Xiu along.

As they passed by Kang Cheng, Xin Xiu heard him ask her, "Why did you lie to me?"

Xin Xiu did not have much feelings for Kang Cheng to begin with, and now that she heard him ask her this question, she did not feel much guilt.

So she only said, "I didn't lie to you. From the very beginning, I was unwilling to marry you. It was you who was too stupid to see it and happily married me."

Kang Cheng paused and said in a low voice, "I know."

His voice was hoarse, and it sounded like he was about to cry.

Xin Xiu and Kang Zheng were taken to the police station by the police, and this matter finally came to an end.

The rest of the people all returned to the Kang family. Jiang Yu and Shang Wen took a hot shower and changed into clean clothes, feeling refreshed.

Old Master Kang sat in the living room and looked at Kang Cheng with an expression that couldn't be described as either pity or sympathy.

"This is first son's family matter. No one should interfere," Old master Kang said.

"How can we not interfere?" Kang Qi refused to give up. "Dad, isn't Wenwen your granddaughter? Kang Zheng and Xin Xiu almost killed your granddaughter!"

"The police will solve this matter." Old Master Kang didn't look at her. "You don't have to worry. As for other matters, it's first son's family matter. Outsiders like us shouldn't interfere."

Kang Qi heard this and did not speak anymore.

The air was silent for a moment, in the end, it was Kang Cheng who spoke in a slightly awkward manner. "Wen Wen, Xiao Yu, Xin Xiu didn't do anything to you guys, right? If she did anything to let you guys down, I'll apologize on her behalf."

"Big brother, didn't you see what she did or didn't do?" Kang Qi's tone started to turn bad when he mentioned this matter. "Kang Zheng wanted to kill Jiang Yu, and Xin Xiu wanted to hit my daughter. Weren't you there at the time? Why are you still asking when you already know?"

"I..." Kang Cheng paused, not knowing what to say.

"Forget it, uncle didn't think of this either." Shang Wen stopped Kang Qi. "Am I not well right now? Don't make things difficult for uncle."

"I can let it go, but what about Jiang Yu? What about Mo Long? Don't tell me the Mo family won't pursue it?" Kang Qi glanced at Jiang Yu and Mo Long.

Chapter 912: The Persecutor Punished

Kang Qi was pleased with herself. She thought that Jiang Yu and Mo Long would definitely pursue this matter.

However, Jiang Yu said, "First uncle, this matter has nothing to do with you. Don't blame yourself."

"But this matter was done by Xin Xiu. Although I will divorce her, we are still husband and wife," Kang Cheng explained.

Jiang Yu was silent for a moment before she said, "Alright then, I accept your apology."

Kang Cheng looked at Jiang Yu gratefully. "Thank you, Xiaoyu."

Kang Qi immediately felt uneasy. She sat up straight and tidied up her clothes.

"Forget it. Since Xiaoyu has accepted your apology, I'll accept it too. I don't want others to say that I'm unreasonable," Kang Qi said uncomfortably.

"Okay, thank you." Kang Cheng's eyes were filled with tears unknowingly.

It had been three days since that incident.

Kang Zheng was still recovering in the hospital, while Xin Xiu was in prison. She was alone, and no one came to visit her.

Kang Xuan originally wanted to visit her, but he felt that he had nothing to say to his mother, so he did not go.

Xin Xiu stayed in the prison for an unknown period of time. A policeman opened the door and said, "Xin Xiu, someone is here to see you."

Xin Xiu was delighted. She did not care who the person was and quickly ran out.

The people who came were Jiang Yu and Kang Cheng.

Although these two people were the ones that Xin Xiu did not want to see for the time being, it was already good enough that someone came to see her in prison. Moreover, these two people might even be able to save her.

Hence, she hurriedly asked, "Are you here to save me?"

Kang Cheng was silent and didn't say anything.

Xin Xiu looked at Jiang Yu with hope, but Jiang Yu only shook her head.

"You're not here to save me?" The expression on Xin Xiu's face instantly changed. "If you're not here to save me, then why are you here?"

"To look at you," Jiang Yu said with a smile.

"To look at me as a joke? Right?" sXin Xiu glared at her.

"Of course not. We just came back from the hospital, and Kang Zheng has already admitted to all his crimes. So now we're here to ask you if you admit it," Jiang Yu explained with a smile.

"What did I do? What do I have to admit?" Xin Xiu turned her face away guiltily.

"It's fine if you don't admit it. The police were watching anyway," Jiang Yu said. "We've said what we wanted to say, so we'll be leaving first."

As she said this, Jiang Yu turned around to leave. Xin Xiu hurriedly called out to her, "Wait! Jiang Yu, are you really not going to save me?"

"Why would I save you?" Jiang Yu looked at her in confusion. "You and Kang Zheng joined forces to harm me and sister Shang Wen. Why would I save you?"

"Can't I just apologize?" Xin Xiu smiled apologetically. "Xiao Yu, just treat it as if your aunt was muddle-headed. She trusted a muddle-headed person and did a muddle-headed thing. Is that okay?"

"No," Jiang Yu rejected immediately. "I will definitely not let Kang Zheng off either."

"That's your second uncle. How can you bear to let him continue to go to jail after he's discharged from the hospital?" While Xin Xiu begged Jiang Yu to save her, she also helped Kang Cheng plead for mercy.

Jiang Yu looked at Kang Cheng and said, "My first uncle is here. Isn't it inappropriate for you to plead for mercy for Kang Zheng?"

Xin Xiu paused and then looked at Kang Cheng.

This was the first time Xin Xiu had seen this tall man put on such a dejected look.

But she didn't feel guilty. "Kang Cheng, I've already said what I should have said that day."

"I know." Kang Cheng still kept his head down. "I'll always take care of Little Xuan. Don't worry."

"Then thank you," Xin Xiu said. "But you have to save me. You can't just watch me die alone in prison, right?"

"Kang Zheng is with you," Jiang Yu smiled.

"Jiang Yu, what do you mean? Do you have to watch us die?" Xin Xiu was in a bad mood. "Why are you so vicious? I thought you were a good person."

"I thought you were a good person too." Jiang Yu's smile was plastered on her face, but her tone was cold, "I never thought that the people who wanted to kill me would be my biological uncle and aunt. I asked myself, I don't owe you anything, but you insisted on provoking me. Who can be blamed for ending up like this?"

"We had no choice." Seeing that Jiang Yu was unmoved, Xin Xiu began to play the emotional card. "Now that we know we were wrong, can you forgive us for once? We promise that we will never appear in front of you again after we leave."

Chapter 913: Peaceful Life

Xin Xiu had been pleading with Jiang Yu, but she had never looked at Kang Cheng.

Even though he had initially thought that as long as Xin Xiu saw him, she would remember their past and reminisce about their past. But now, Kang Cheng could no longer lie to himself.

But after 30 years of sharing a bed, Kang Cheng could not say anything harsh. Therefore, he just sighed and turned around to leave.

Xin Xiu acted as if she did not see him and continued speaking to Jiang Yu, "Jiang Yu, did you hear what I just said?"

"There's nothing to say." Jiang Yu also left with Kang Cheng.

"Jiang Yu! Jiang Yu, come back!" Xin Xiu kept shouting from behind.

However, Jiang Yu did not turn around.

Jiang Yu and Kang Cheng returned to the Kang family home together. There was only Kang Xuan sitting on the sofa in the living room.

When he saw Kang Cheng return, he quickly stood up and called out with a smile, "Dad."

He saw Jiang Yu out of the corner of his eye and immediately retracted his smile. "Jiang Yu, you're here too?"

"You guys talk, I'm going back to the bedroom," Jiang Yu said as she went straight upstairs.

Actually, Jiang Yu could guess Kang Xuan's motive for coming.

He found it hard to accept this matter and was worried that Kang Cheng would abandon him. Even if he was still the eldest son of the Kang family, his parents were already in prison.

For a man who had lived peacefully for thirty years, this was indeed unacceptable.

However, this was still a family matter for Kang Cheng. Whether he forgave Xin Xiu or whether he was willing to accept Kang Xuan as his son was his own decision.

"I can finally live a stable life." Jiang Yu stretched lazily.

She suddenly remembered Kang Xue who was still unconscious in the hospital. This morning, sister Xia told her that Kang Xue had woken up, but she was too busy and forgot about it.

Therefore, she rushed to the hospital and pushed open the door of the ward. She saw Kang Xue with a bandage on her head drinking porridge.

There was also a doctor who was taking notes of her condition.

"Jiang Yu! You're here!" Kang Xue was very surprised to see Jiang Yu.

"She should have come a long time ago." Jiang Yu smiled and looked at the Doctor. "Doctor, how's her injury?"

The doctor replied, "The little girl's body is not bad and she's recovering very well. After she finishes the discharge procedures, she should go home. She should go out for a walk and breathe some fresh air. It's helpful for her body to recover."

"Then let's go out," Jiang Yu suggested. "Call Xiao Qi and Dai Zhu."

"Okay," Kang Xue agreed readily, completely ignoring whether those two people would accept her or not.

Therefore, the heavy responsibility fell on Jiang Yu. She sent a message in the small group, asking Lu Qi and Dai Zhu to go out for a walk. They agreed readily.

But when they heard that there was still Kang Xue, the two of them instantly did not want to go.

"Xiao Yu, why are you still so close to Kang Xue?" Lu Qi could not understand. "Did she cast some kind of voodoo on you?"

"No." Jiang Yu smiled. "Kang Xue is not a bad person by nature. She only developed this character because she was bullied at home."

"She was bullied by others, and then she came to bully others?" Lu Qi said unhappily, "What kind of character is this? She is obviously lying to you so that you can sympathize with her!"

Dai Zhu also agreed with Lu Qi's thoughts. "Kang Xue is definitely not a good person. Jiang Yu, you must stay away from Kang Xue in the future. Don't be led astray by her."

"It's really fine." Jiang Yu smiled helplessly. She could not help but sigh at how imaginative Lu Qi and Dai Zhu were.

Lu Qi felt that Jiang Yu did not listen to her at all after she had said so much. Therefore, she decided to look for Jiang Yu and explain the matter to her. "Little Yu, are you in the Mo Garden or the studio? I'll look for you now."

Jiang Yu replied, "I'm at the Kang family."

Lu Qi and Dai Zhu replied with a long list of question marks.

"Why did you go to the Kang Family?" Lu Qi was extremely puzzled.

Only then did Jiang Yu remember that she had not told the two of them about her return to the Kang family. She had already told Lu Qi and Dai Zhu everything.

After that, the two of them were once again shocked. "So you are Kang Die's daughter?! Oh My God, you only told us about such a big matter!"

Jiang Yu replied embarrassedly, "I had too many things to do recently, and I was a little busy, so I forgot."

Lu Qi thought of something. "Then, aren't you and Kang Xue related?!"

Jiang Yu: "Yes."

Lu Qi didn't know what to say. After a long while, she finally said, "This is really a dramatic story."

Jiang Yu smiled and asked, "Are you going to come out or not?"

Lu Qi: "Of course I'm going! If Kang Xue is going, I'm going too!"

Chapter 914: Forced Blind Dates

Seeing this, Dai Zhu had no choice but to follow them.

Meanwhile, Tian Guo was still preparing for her exams, so they did not disturb her.

They had arranged to go shopping at a newly opened mall the next day. According to Kang Xue, this was Kang He's building.

"This is your sister's shop?" Lu Qi looked at the mall in front of her. Although it was gorgeous, it did not look big.

"To be precise, the whole mall belongs to her." Speaking of this, Kang Xue didn't feel proud at all. She was calm as if she was talking about someone else's business.

"It's flashy but not practical." Dai Zhu curled her lips in disdain. "I want to see how the things inside are."

As she spoke, she was the first to walk in.

The first floor was a grocery store for snacks, the second floor was for daily necessities, the third floor was a clothing store, and the fourth floor was a cinema and a barber shop. It was no different from an ordinary mall.

Dai Zhu walked around the first floor and bought some snacks that she wanted to eat. Then, she planned to go out.

"This place is no different from an ordinary shopping mall," Dai Zhu said disdainfully. "I thought your sister would open some famous shopping mall. So, this is what it is like?"

Lu Qi also felt that this place was very ordinary and there was nothing to shop for.

"Since we're already here, let's go shopping first," Jiang Yu suggested. "Since it's no different from an ordinary shopping mall, then the things here should be no different."

"Okay." Lu Qi also bought some snacks and prepared to kill time when she was bored.

The few of them went straight to the third floor and prepared to buy some clothes. However, just as they went up to the third floor, Kang Xue received a call from Kang He. "Where are you?"

Kang Xue did not tell her that she was in the shopping mall that she owned. She replied, "I'm outside."

"Alright, I don't care where you are. I'll give you an address in a while. You come over immediately."

"Why?" When Kang Xue heard this, she knew that there was definitely something bad going to happen.

"What do you mean why? Of course I'm helping you arrange a blind date. You don't need to worry about it. If I don't arrange it for you, would you go and look for it yourself?" Kang He's tone was very harsh, as if Kang Xue was disobeying her.

"I said that I'm very young now. It's not suitable for a blind date at all." Kang Xue wanted to resist.

"Is it up to you whether you're suitable or not? Jiang Yu is the same age as you and already has a fiancé! I only arranged a blind date for you. I didn't force you to get married. What's there to be unwilling about?"

"She's her, I'm me. She met someone who loves her, but I didn't meet him." Kang Xue gradually became impatient.

"I don't care if you met someone or not. Just do as I say. Kang Xue, I'm usually strict with you because I'm your sister. Everything I do is for your own good."

"If there's nothing else, I'll hang up first." With that, Kang Xue hung up the phone, completely ignoring Kang He's angry stomping.

"You're quite brave. You still dare to hang up on your sister?" Lu Qi smiled and teased, "Then when you go back at night, won't she beat you up very badly?"

"My Grandfather is at home. She wouldn't dare." Kang Xue sighed.

"It's not like your grandfather will be at home every day." Lu Qi laughed.

Kang Xue opened her mouth and was about to speak when she heard a familiar voice from behind her. "Kang Xue, that little brat, you've really grown bold recently. How dare you hang up on me? Watch me go home tonight..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Kang He saw Kang Xue standing in front of him.

"Why are you here?" Kang Xue was a little surprised. She didn't expect Kang He to be in this shopping mall.

She had clearly heard her say that she was going out to discuss business last night? Could it be that she was going out to discuss business in this shopping mall?

Kang He didn't expect it either. "What's so strange about me being in my own shopping mall? I'd like to ask you, why are you here?"

"I'm out for a walk." Kang Xue did not explain further. "If you don't want to see me, then we'll just leave."

"You guys?" Kang He was stunned. Only then did he see Jiang Yu and the others behind Kang Xue.

However, he was looking for Kang Xue for something, and it had nothing to do with Jiang Yu and the others.

Kang He reached out and grabbed Kang Xue's arm. Without any explanation, she pulled her out. "Since you're here, hurry up and follow me. I'll settle the score with you tonight after you hang up on me."

"I said I'm not going!" Kang Xue struggled desperately. "Why don't you go yourself?"

"President Jing's son wants you by name!" Kang He dragged Kang Xue with all her strength. "Hurry up and follow me! If you neglect President Jing, I'll make you suffer!"

Chapter 915: Parted on Bad Terms

"Kang Xue said she's not going. Can't you hear her?" Jiang Yu walked over and pushed Kang He away.

"What has it got to do with you?!" Kang He staggered from the push and looked up to see Jiang Yu's face. "This is our family's business. Do you think you have the right to interfere? Why? Do you really think you're the Miss of the Kang family after returning to the Kang Family? Jiang Yu, don't be too naive! Grandfather doesn't love you, he just feels guilty!"

Jiang Yu snorted coldly, "Do you think you know what others think?"

"You!" Kang He could tell that Jiang Yu was calling her a worm. Kang He immediately became furious, "Jiang Yu, don't be ungrateful! This is our family matter, do you want to interfere?!"

"Of course I won't interfere with your family matters." Jiang Yu shrugged and smiled evilly, "But Kang Xue is my friend. How can I not help when my friend is in trouble?"

"Unreasonable!" Kang He glared at Jiang Yu and then looked at Kang Xue again. "Are you coming with me or not?"

When Kang Xue saw Jiang Yu standing beside her, she felt emboldened and shouted, "I'm not going!"

"You've grown wings, haven't you?!" Kang He was so angry that her eyes were a little red. She took out her walkie-talkie and called for the security guards. "Hurry up and come here. Chase the troublemakers out!"

"You don't have to come. We don't want to see you either." Jiang Yu snorted. "Let's go."

After leaving the mall, Kang Xue finally heaved a sigh of relief. "Thank you, Jiang Yu. Otherwise, I really don't know what to do."

"It's okay. We're by your side," Jiang Yu comforted her.

Dai Zhu pursed her lips. "Kang Xue, is she really your biological sister? Why does she treat you like a tool? She looks at you as if she saw something dirty?"

Jiang Yu stopped her. "Dai Zhu, you can't talk like that."

"I'm not wrong either." Dai Zhu turned her head away.

Kang Xue Sighed, she said softly, "I know. She has always hated me. She can't wait for me to get married and stay far away from her. But she also wants me to marry into a powerful family. In this way, it will help her career."

"Her abacus is really loud." Lu Qi sneered. "The abacus even hit my face."

"Then you don't know how to resist?" Dai Zhu was so anxious that she was about to go crazy, "You were acting like a young miss before. You always look so high and mighty, but you only dare to stand in front of others? In front of your sister, are you a little sheep that doesn't dare to speak loudly?"

Kang Xue said embarrassedly, "More or less."

"Huh? Don't tell me your family doesn't care?" Dai Zhu was stunned.

"They think more highly of my sister," Kang Xue said.

"Huh?" Dai Zhu and Lu Qi were both stunned.

Kang Xue lowered her head even lower. If there was a crack in the ground now, Jiang Yu suspected that she would go straight into it.

However, Jiang Yu suddenly remembered something and asked, "Kang Xue, do you want to surpass your sister?"

"Of course I do." Kang Xue Sighed, "But I don't have the brain like her, nor do I have the courage to do things like her. Although this shopping mall is the same as an ordinary shopping mall and there isn't much innovation, I can't even do something like this."

"You just don't have confidence in yourself, so you don't even dare to try the most basic things." Jiang Yu patted her shoulder, "If you have confidence in yourself and dare to try, then today's result might be reversed."

Kang Xue seemed to have seen some hope. She raised her head and looked at Jiang Yu, her eyes shining.

"Then what should I do?"

"Learn from your sister," Jiang Yu said, "Learn from her and surpass her step by step. Isn't this a very happy thing to do? You can do whatever she can do, even better than her. When the time comes, not only her, but your family members will also look at you in a new light."

"Really?" Kang Xue's eyes lit up with hope. "I'll do it right now!"

"There's no rush now. We should make a plan." Jiang Yu snapped her fingers and led Kang Xue and the others to a teahouse. Then, they booked a private room.

Dai Zhu did not have much hope for Kang Xue to surpass Kang He, "Just her? I think we shouldn't waste time. She doesn't even dare to speak sarcastically in front of her sister. Do you still expect her to open a mall and compete with Kang He?"

“Who said she has to open a mall?” Jiang Yu curled her lips. “If it’s troublesome to open a mall, why don’t we just buy Kang He’s mall?”

Chapter 916: The Acquisition Plan

Not only was Jiang Yu’s idea bold, it was also difficult to complete.

At this moment, Kang Xue was also somewhat deterred. “Let’s forget about the acquisition? The newly opened mall will not go bankrupt, so how can I acquire it? Moreover, even if that day really comes, I don’t have the money to acquire it.”

“Look, what did I say?” Dai Zhu started to point at Kang Xue again, “She thinks she can’t do such a small thing. Jiang Yu, let’s not waste time on her. Instead of letting her buy some company, why don’t we help find a good family for her and let her marry there as soon as she graduates?”

“Who said that you have to bankrupt that shopping mall before you can buy it?” Jiang Yu smiled mysteriously, “There are clearly many ways to buy it. The CEO Jing that Kang He mentioned just now should be the real estate developer, Jing Chi. A famous businessman in the business world. Other than Jing Chi, there is no one else. We should investigate Jing Chi first. Find out if there’s anything shady about him. Let’s start with him first.”

“The name Jing Chi sounds familiar...” Lu Qi searched her mind and suddenly remembered that she and Jiang Yu had previously investigated those who had cooperated with Kang He.

One of them was Jing Chi. He was obsessed with the superstition of “Plucking Yin to supplement Yang.” He had harmed countless girls.

Therefore, she told him about it and said, “This Jing Chi is really not human! He is already so old, yet he still wants to harm little girls.”

“Isn’t he a big pervert?” Dai Zhu was shocked. “What about the girls who were harmed by him? Are they all so peaceful? Aren’t they going to call the police?”

Lu Qi thought for a while, she tried her best to tell her about Jing Chi. “This matter was exposed by the media once. I heard that some of the girls took the money and left. Some of them were cheated and wanted to call the police, but in the end, nothing happened. I heard that Jing Chi had an acquaintance in the police department and helped him solve these troublesome matters behind his back.”

“Such a person can still get away with it?!” Dai Zhu was so angry that her body was shaking. “No, I’m going to report him now!”

“It’s useless, we have no evidence,” Lu Qi said, “Even if this matter was leaked by the media, it was a few years ago. We used the things that everyone knew a few years ago to question him now, so we could easily be arrested by the police.”

"But we can't just let him go free!" Dai Zhu had always been a person who couldn't hide the truth in her eyes.

"Since he did it, there must be evidence," Jiang Yu said, "Even if he cleaned up the traces, it's impossible for there to be no trace left behind. No one in this world can commit a perfect crime!"

"But where are we going to find this evidence?" Lu Qi asked. "We have no connection with Jing Chi. Do we need someone to be the bait?"

Dai Zhu and Kang Xue looked at each other.

"What are you thinking about?" Jiang Yu knocked on the table. "How can we let you do such a dangerous thing?"

"You can't do it!" Dai Zhu shouted.

"I won't do it either!" Jiang Yu laughed. "I'm not a fool. How could I put myself in danger just to take down Jin Chi?"

"Then how can we get evidence?" The others were in a dilemma again.

Jiang Yu thought for a moment and said, "I know a policeman. I'll tell him about this and ask him to help investigate. You don't have to worry about the rest. Just leave it to me."

"Can you do it by yourself?" Lu Qi was a little worried.

"Of course. It's just using the computer to check some information. It's not that difficult." Jiang Yu smiled. "Alright, don't worry. Just leave it to me."

"Can we do anything?" Kang Xue asked.

Jiang Yu had been busy with her matter, but she couldn't help at all. She really felt bad.

Jiang Yu thought for a moment, "When you go back, don't alert the enemy first," she said. "Keep an eye on Kang He's actions and think of a way to find out if her collaboration with Jing Chi was successful. Jing Chi will probably be very angry that you didn't go on today's blind date, so his collaboration with Kang He shouldn't be smooth either."

"Alright, I'll let you know as soon as I hear anything from her."

Chapter 917: 917 collected dirt

Collect Evidence

After the four of them finalized their plans, they went home and didn't have the mood to continue shopping.

As for Kang Xue, she had just recovered from a serious illness, so when she returned home, she laid on the bed to rest. No one said anything about her.

Only Kang He, who came back at night, didn't look too good. Although the elders were all around, she still said bad things about Kang Xue to vent her anger.

"All she does is stay at home every day. It's not easy for her to go out once, but she refused to go on a blind date. "President Jing must be very angry today. If it weren't for me increasing my shares, President Jing would not have agreed to work with me! Kang Xue, this trash, is of no help at all."

Kang He was so angry that the white and green on her face were distorted.

Kang Xue was sprawled at the door of her bedroom and heard her scolding herself. She told Jiang Yu about this matter, "Kang He and Jing Chi's cooperation is still successful. They are still slandering me as usual."

After Jiang Yu received the message, she replied, "I got it. Kang Xue, from now on, you have to become more confident. Don't be suppressed by Kang He anymore. Bring out your personality from school. Kang He won't dare to order you around so casually anymore."

Kang Xue wanted to, but she had been suppressed by Kang He for many years. Although it was not to the point where Kang He didn't dare to say anything, it was about to happen.

Today, she had already gone against her wishes by telling her not to go on a blind date.

However, she didn't want Jiang Yu to be disappointed in her, so she replied, "I will try my best."

Jiang Yu was very considerate. "I know this matter is a little difficult for you. We can take it slow, but you have to do it. If you don't do it, then you will never be able to suppress Kang He in terms of imposing manner."

Kang Xue was encouraged and immediately filled with confidence. She replied, "I know, I will!"

"Yes, yes."

Since Kang He and Jing Chi's cooperation was successful and they had increased their shares, it meant that as long as Jing Chi stepped down, Kang He would also be dragged into the water and could not protect herself.

Jiang Yu had already received a detailed answer from Chang Kai regarding Jing Chi's question. This Jing Chi was indeed superstitious about "Taking yin to supplement Yang". He had even specially chosen ignorant girls and female college students who lacked money to do it.

After the media exposed it, Chang Kai had also received orders from his superior to arrest Jing Chi. However, this order only lasted for less than three hours before the superior gave another order, saying that there was no need to arrest Jing Chi.

It seemed that Jing Chi did have some tricks up his sleeves. Otherwise, he would not have been able to get away with it until now.

Jiang Yu wanted to know who was the media worker who initially exposed this matter, however, Chang Kai's reply made her a little disappointed. "When this matter first came out, less than three hours had passed. All the media that exposed this matter were banned. We haven't had the time to collect evidence, so we don't know who those workers are either."

“Alright, I got it.”

Although it could be found out, if she could get some useful information from Chang Kai, it would save some time.

Jiang Yu was still browsing on the computer about the incident with Jing Chi. Although he had been banned, there were still a few small websites with some records about this incident.

Jiang Yu sorted out what she had seen and came to a few conclusions — Jing Chi had persecuted innocent girls because he was superstitious about “Taking yin to supplement Yang.” Some of the girls had chosen to settle the matter for money, while those who were unwilling had called the police. However, Jing Chi knew high-ranking police officers, so the case had not been established until now. Jingchi was still superstitious to this day, so he was still persecuting the girls.

Kang He probably had the same reason for asking Kang Xue to go on a blind date. Although he said that he was going on a blind date for Jing Chi’s son, if Kang Xue really went, she would probably end up in the mouth of that old guy Jing Chi.

Jiang Yu’s teeth were itching. She did not realize that Mo Long had already come out of the bathroom and stood behind her.

When he saw the contents on the computer, he could not help but feel a little surprised. “Yu’er, why are you investigating Jing Chi?”

Jiang Yu then told him about what had happened today.

“Jing Chi’s son?” Mo long paused. “He has a health problem and does not have a child.”

Jiang Yu was also stunned, “So Kang He told Kang Xue that he was going on a blind date with Jing Chi’s son. Was that a lie? Everyone knew about this matter at that time. It was impossible for Kang He not to know. Why would she let Kang Xue go? Wasn’t it obvious that he was pushing her into the fire pit?”

Mo Long muttered, “Jing Chi’s matter, whether it’s the media or the police, it involves too much. It’s not that easy to investigate.”

Chapter 918: Mo Long’s Help

“But we can’t let him continue doing this.” Jiang Yu looked at Mo Long with a determined gaze, “If Kang Xue wasn’t with us today and only dared to reject Kang He’s request because she had the confidence, she would have already gone. I don’t even dare to imagine what the outcome would be.”

“Be good. Don’t be afraid.” Mo Long pulled Jiang Yu into his embrace. “Leave this matter to me. I will help you investigate.”

“But Kang Xue is my friend. I also want to help her,” Jiang Yu said.

Mo Long did not reject her. “Okay. I will get the company’s computer technology team to help you investigate.”

That night, Jiang Yu stayed in Mo Long's arms and slept more comfortably than ever.

When she woke up the next day, Mo Long had already gone to work. Jiang Yu got up and washed up briefly, preparing to go to the kitchen for breakfast. However, when she reached the stairs, she saw a group of people wearing glasses and black uniforms. Each of them was holding a computer and sitting in every corner of the living room.

The computer keyboards in front of each of them were tapping. Jiang Yu guessed that this should be the computer technology team that Mo Long had mentioned.

When the group of people saw Jiang Yu, they also shouted in unison, "Good morning, Madam!"

Jiang Yu was shocked and almost fell down the stairs.

She patted her chest and calmed herself down. Then, she smiled and said, "Hello, you've worked hard."

The group of people said in unison, "It's not hard at all. This is what we should do!"

Jiang Yu didn't know what to say. She could only smile awkwardly.

Someone asked, "Madam, do we only need to investigate Jing Chi?"

"Yes." At the mention of Jing Chi, Jiang Yu remembered the purpose of the group of people coming here today. "We only need to investigate Jing Chi. By the way, get someone to help me investigate Kang He of the Kang family. Which businessmen has she discussed the cooperation with recently?"

"Alright."

Jiang Yu went to the kitchen to heat up a glass of milk and then returned to the bedroom.

She turned on her phone, she saw Kang Xue sending her a message: "Kang He went out today. I heard that she went to meet some CEO. I originally wanted to follow her, but my grandfather said that I have just recovered from a serious illness and that I'm not allowed to wander around."

Jiang Yu was puzzled. "But didn't the doctor say that you should walk around more and breathe fresh air?"

Kang Xue was also helpless. "He didn't believe it. He felt that he would need to rest for a hundred days even if his bones and tendons were injured. What's more, my head was injured. He felt that I would need to rest in bed for at least half a year, so he didn't allow me to go out."

Jiang Yu paused. She didn't know whether to say that Kang Xue's grandfather was worried about her or that he was afraid that Kang Xue would delay Kang He's matters.

After all, when Kang He said that Kang Xue's only use was to form an alliance through marriage, the whole family agreed with Kang He's point of view.

"Then you should rest well." Jiang Yu deliberated for a moment before replying, "I already know about Jing Chi and Shang. Leave the rest to me."

"Alright."

There were many people with the surname Shang in the business world. There were those who were famous, those who were slightly famous, and those who were not famous. There were a lot of them.

Therefore, Jiang Yu did not know who this person with the surname Shang was.

She could only wait for the technicians downstairs to find out who these people were.

There were many people in the technical team, and they were very skilled. Therefore, they only needed a few hours to find out the information that was difficult to look up.

They sorted all the information they found into a document, which was a total of ten pages. Everything from the date and time when Jing Chi was born to what illness did Jing Chi have that prevented him from giving birth was written on it.

As for the recent cooperation between Kang he and the merchants, it only took up a few lines.

“Jing Chi, Shang Ye, Gu You...” Jiang Yu slowly read out these words.

Shang should also be a relatively unknown merchant, because Jiang Yu didn’t have such a person in her mind.

As for Gu You, she was a newly risen female merchant recently.

Actually, she had started her business earlier than Jiang Yu, but her business had always been very dull, because no one looked down on her, a female merchant from a poor background. However, ever since Jiang Yu rose up in the business world and gave Gu You a lot of encouragement, she had been thinking of ways to expand her business.

Until now, Gu You was already in the top 20 of the business rich list.

“Madam, this is all the information we have found,” The leader said respectfully.

“Okay, thank you,” Jiang Yu thanked them.

Chapter 919: Shang Ye And Gu You

“You’re welcome. It’s our honor to be able to serve madam.” The person bowed. “If madam doesn’t have any other instructions, we’ll be leaving first.”

“Okay.” Jiang Yu nodded. “Thank you for your hard work. After this matter is resolved, I’ll treat you to a meal.”

“Thank you, Madam.”

After the technical team members had all left, Jiang Yu began to investigate Shang Ye and Gu You on her own.

Gu You was a businesswoman who had recently risen to prominence. At the same time, she was praised as a “Dark horse”, so it was not difficult to understand why Kang He would look for her to cooperate.

However, what Jiang Yu could not understand was Shang Ye.

Shang Ye was simply a nobody in the business world, doing the timber business. He was diligent and honest all year round, and did not have any bad records.

“Strange, why would Kang He find a business partner to work with?” Jiang Yu muttered to herself, unable to understand this matter.

However, from all these points of view, Jing Chi was still the biggest business partner. As long as he was pulled down, Kang He wouldn’t be able to last long with just Gu You and Shang Ye.

After Jiang Yu finished reading the ten pages of documents, she had a new understanding of Jing Chi’s identity.

He was in the real estate business. His uncle was the deputy chief of the police station, and his brother was an investor in the media world. They were all big shots who had their word. It was no wonder that the matter was settled back then.

“You can do whatever you want with your identity, right?” The more Jiang Yu read, the angrier she became. “I’ll make you spit out all the money you ate immediately.”

It wasn’t easy to make a move on the police station, so Jiang Yu chose to use the media as a starting point.

In this world, the least costly thing was public opinion.

And where there was public opinion, there would definitely be disputes. As long as Jiang Yu stirred up a storm in the media, the rest would depend on whether Jing Chi dared to jump down.

She first registered an alternate account and named it “Freelance writer Little Jiang.” Then, she re-posted the matter online.

Jiang Yu tried many times, but it did not work.

It seemed that Jing Chi was still worried that this matter would be exposed under the sun again, so he bribed the administrators of the major websites. As soon as such a post was found, it would be immediately banned from publication.

“Do you think this will be difficult for me?” Jiang Yu’s lips curled into a sneer. Her fingers tapped on the keyboard casually a few times, and then she entered the administrator system of this website.

She entered a string of code and used the code to apply for the identity of an administrator.

After she succeeded, she posted her post online again. Then, she quickly switched the interface and passed the post before the other administrators blocked it.

“Ding –” this was the sound of the post being published successfully.

Jiang Yu was worried that other administrators would delete this post, so she used her identity as an administrator to lock the post and set a password. No one except herself could unlock this password, so naturally, she couldn’t delete this post.

"It's done!" Jiang Yu stretched herself comfortably. "Jing Chi, your good days are over."

After the media was dealt with, the only thing left was the police station.

Although Chang Kai was a police officer, he was just an ordinary police officer. He had no right to interfere with the matters of his superiors. Although Jiang Yu also wanted to hack into the police station's management system, it was illegal. She did not dare to take such a risk.

If nothing happened to Jing Chi, she would go to jail first.

After the post was posted, in just three minutes, the number of views and likes had already exceeded 500,000.

However, they could not repost it because once they reposted it, it would be automatically deleted by the administrator, so they could only give likes and comments.

"Isn't this something that happened a few years ago? Does he still believe in the saying 'Taking Yin to supplement Yang'?"

"A dog can't change its spots. When I saw his face back then, I knew he wasn't a good person!"

"He's already so old and half of his body has already been buried. Why does he still believe in these things?"

The number of views and likes on this post increased, and the number of comments below it also increased. Jiang Yu was very satisfied as she watched these numbers increase rapidly.

Meanwhile, the administrators were so anxious that cold sweat was breaking out on their foreheads. However, they were still unable to delete this post.

In the end, they had no choice but to contact the person who had posted the post. "Your post contains rumors. I hope you can delete it as soon as possible. Otherwise, we will force you to delete it."

Jiang Yu smiled. "Force you to delete it? But didn't you come to me because you couldn't delete it?"

Chapter 920: Burning With Anxiety

The administrator instantly fell silent. He did not expect the other party to see through their actions.

Hence, they changed their tone. "Deleting it is good for everyone. Don't implicate us, and we will not find trouble with you. If you are a little more sensible, quickly delete the post."

Jiang Yu typed quickly, "Good for who? It is also good for you guys who help the bad guys, right? Jing Chi has persecuted so many innocent girls, and all of this is the truth. What's wrong? Can't you even tell the truth now?"

"What truth? Do you have evidence?"

"If I didn't have evidence, I wouldn't have posted this post," Jiang Yu replied.

"Just you wait, we will make you suffer!" The administrator said harshly.

“Then I will accompany you at any time.”

The administrator did not say anything else. He must have gone to contact Jing Chi.

The popularity of this post was pushed to the top. Even if someone came out to suppress the popularity, in less than five minutes, the popularity would rise again.

Jing chi naturally knew about this matter and was anxiously pacing around the office.

The secretary said submissively, “The administrators said that this post has been encrypted. Only those who know the password can unlock it and delete this post. They don’t know the password, so they can’t delete it.”

“Other than them, who else has the ability to encrypt this thing?!” Jing Chi shouted until his voice was almost hoarse, “There must be a mole between them! And that poster, no matter what method you use, you have to find him!”

“Yes, yes!” The secretary was so scared that he rolled and crawled out of the office.

Jing Chi was so angry that his breathing was not smooth. He could only sit on the chair and breathe heavily.

When he first saw this post, he didn’t realize the seriousness of the matter. He thought he could just delete the post.

But he didn’t expect that no matter what method he used, the post couldn’t be deleted. And even if he sent someone to reduce the heat, in less than five minutes, the post would rise to its original height again.

This was the first time he had encountered such a thorny problem. He called his brother, hoping that he could help him resolve the matter.

But his brother was also at a loss. He could neither delete the post nor defuse the heat. There was no way to resolve the matter.

When the matter had been exposed a few years ago, he had used all his connections to suppress it. Whether it was the unwilling women or the media studios, he had a way to make them never speak again.

But this time it was different. It was a post by an unknown small contributor. Not only could he not be found, but he could not delete the post he had posted.

He had a vague feeling in his heart that he thought he was smart for most of his life, but today, he might fall into the hands of this unknown contributor.

Jiang Yu was still paying attention to the situation of this post, and at the same time, she was also paying attention to the private message chat box.

Soon, Jiang Yu received a private message, but it was not from Jing Chi or the administrator, but from someone with the nickname “Kang He He “Who are you? Why are you posting this post?”

Jiang Yu knew that this person was Kang he the moment she saw this nickname.

She must have seen this post and was worried that she would be affected after Jing Chi’s accident.

Therefore, Jiang Yu replied, “I posted it to let more people know Jing Chi’s true colors and prevent more people from getting hurt because of him.”

“This is someone else’s matter. What has it got to do with you?” Kang He’s tone was unfriendly. “Do you know how much of an impact this will have?”

Jiang Yu retorted, “Then do you know how much of an impact it will have if we keep letting Jing Chi get away with it?”

Kang He paused and replied, “I don’t care who you are or what your motive is. I advise you to quickly delete this post. Otherwise, I’ll make you suffer.”

“I won’t delete it,” Jiang Yu replied. “After talking for so long, who are you? What’s your relationship with Jing Chi? Why are you speaking up for him?”

Kang he: “Who do you care who I am? I’m just asking if you want to delete it or not.”

Jiang Yu: “I won’t delete it.”

Kang he: “Alright, then don’t blame me for being impolite. This is considered a rumor. I can call the police.”

Jiang Yu laughed. “Then call the police.”

If calling the police was useful, Jing Chi would definitely have gone to the police immediately. Why would he wait until now?
