

Older Man 921

Chapter 921: Ask Mo Long For Help

Kang He saw that no matter what he said, the person on the other side would not budge. She had no other choice.

"This person is a scoundrel," Kang He cursed in a low voice. Then, she called Jing Chi.

Jing Chi was also having a headache because this matter could not be resolved. No matter how many people were sent out, they could not find out who the person who posted the post was.

And Kang He had come to disturb him at this time. In Jing Chi's eyes. She was clearly here to see him become a joke.

"Kang He, you look down on me, don't you?" Jing Chi's voice turned cold. "Do you think that after I cooperate with you, you can be so unscrupulous towards me?"

"Huh?" Kang He was dumbfounded. "CEO Jing, I haven't said anything yet."

"Shut up!" Jing Chi was furious. He even thought that Kang He had set this up. "No wonder you told me that you wanted to introduce your sister to me. It turns out that you wanted to drag me down with you today, right?!"

"It's not like that, CEO Jing..." Kang He wanted to explain.

But Jing Chi did not give her the chance at all, he even vented his anger on her. "Kang He! I'm warning you, don't disturb me at this time! I'll give you a deadline. If you can't find the person who posted the post within three days, then we can forget about cooperating!"

"No way! CEO Jing!" Kang He was anxious. "You have 30% of the shares in your hands! If you don't cooperate with me, then I won't be able to live!"

"I don't care if you live or not. In short, if you can't solve this matter, then our cooperation ends here!"

After saying that, Jing Chi hung up the phone.

Kang He looked at the phone that had been hung up and didn't know what to do for a moment.

If she had known earlier, she wouldn't have called Jing Chi. Not only did she not find a solution, but she even got herself such a big job and dug such a big hole.

Now, the hole was bottomless, but she had to jump into it.

Kang He sat in her office, deep in thought. She did not know who to ask for help at this time.

After thinking about it, she suddenly remembered that an international hacker competition had been held a long time ago, and Mo Long was the biggest investor in that competition.

Since he was the biggest investor, he should have seen the first place in that competition, right? Then, as long as she brought up Jiang Yu and asked him for help, perhaps he would tell her the contact information of the first place winner?

At the very least, as long as she was in the top three, it would be fine as long as she had the technology to find out who the person who posted the post was.

Kang He immediately stood up and went to Mo Long's company. The secretary at the front desk stopped her and asked, "Hello, Madam, do you have an appointment?"

Kang He paused. "No? I have something urgent to talk to your President Mo..."

The secretary smiled apologetically. "I'm sorry, Madam. If you don't have an appointment, you can't go in."

Kang He knew that she came here to ask for help, so she lowered her posture and said in a low voice, "Then how can I see him?"

The secretary replied, "The only way is to wait for President Mo to get off work."

"Then when can he get off work?"

The secretary smiled apologetically, "I'm sorry, President Mo doesn't get off work at a fixed time..."

"What do you mean?" Kang He's voice suddenly became louder, "Does that mean that I can only wait here for him to get off work?"

The secretary replied, "If you don't want to miss President Mo's off-work time, it's better to wait here. But if you don't have anything important to do, I still suggest that you go back to work."

"Of course I have something important to do!" Kang He spun around anxiously and lowered her voice again, "Please, can you make an exception and let me see President Mo?"

"I'm sorry, this is not something we have the right to do." The secretary was very sorry.

Kang He had no choice but to sit on the guest sofa at the door and wait for Mo Long to get off work.

"Seriously, why isn't he off work yet?" Kang He was getting more and more anxious as she waited.

"You're the CEO, why are you still working so late at the office?"

However, it was only 3:30 in the afternoon. It wasn't even the usual time to get off work.

Kang He waited anxiously. Finally, at 4:30, Mo Long got off work.

"President Mo!" Kang He ran over excitedly. "Hello, President Mo, I'm Kang He!"

Mo Long did not look at her, but walked straight out of the company.

Kang He did not give up. She followed closely behind Mo Long and kept shouting, "President Mo!"

Chapter 922: Reject Her Request

Mo Long took out his sunglasses and put them on. He waved his hand at Teng Yi, who was beside him, indicating for him to settle Kang He's matter.

Teng Yi accepted the order. However, just as he walked in front of Kang He, she rushed in front of Mo Long and blocked his way.

Mo Long paused and asked in an unfriendly tone, "Madam, what's the matter?"

A smile hung on Kang He's face. "Hello, President Mo... I'm Kang He."

"You're Kang He?" Mo Long sized up Kang He.

"It's me." Kang He was very happy when she heard that Mo Long knew her. She felt that she would definitely succeed in asking him for help today. Hence, before Mo Long spoke again, she first stated her purpose. "I think you must know me from Jiang Yu. I've been in a little trouble recently and I want to ask you for a small favor."

Mo Long snorted and asked, "Why should I help you?"

Kang He paused and replied with a dry smile, "President Mo, no matter what, I'm still Jiang Yu's sister. Although I'm not her biological sister, I'm still her relative..."

Before he could finish, Mo Long interrupted Kang He, "Whose sister are you? Why do I remember that you only have one sister, Kang Xue?"

"That's my biological sister..." Cold sweat dripped down Kang He's forehead, "But our family is also a branch of the Kang family, so we're still related to Jiang Yu."

"You said yourself that you're a branch, so what's your relationship with the main branch of the Kang family?" Mo Long bypassed her, "No matter what your purpose in coming to me is, please give up on this idea, because I won't help you."

Mo Long's direct rejection made Kang He feel a little awkward for a moment.

She thought that Mo Long knew her, so if she asked him for help, he would definitely help her. However, she didn't expect that it would end up like this.

"Bah!" Kang He, who was rejected, spat on Mo Long's back. "You can be so arrogant just because of your status? I've already lowered myself to beg you, but you actually rejected me directly. You really don't know what's good for you."

After scolding him, Kang He still felt unsatisfied. Therefore, on the way back, she scolded him in the car. In the end, even the driver was a little afraid, worried that he might have received an abnormal customer.

However, if Mo Long's side didn't work, then she could only continue to find a way elsewhere.

Kang He returned to the company and sat until nine o'clock in the evening. She didn't know how to resolve this matter.

She had no choice but to send a private message to the person who had posted it.

"Are you going to delete this post or not?" The person on the other end did not reply for a long time. He must have gone offline.

But in reality, Jiang Yu saw it but did not reply.

She held a cup of hot milk and sat in front of the computer. She looked at the message Kang He sent her with interest.

"If you don't delete it now, I'm really going to call the police."

"Where are you? Are you pretending not to see it? I'm warning you, if you don't delete the post now, I'm really going to call the police!"

"Okay, you forced me to do this. I'm really going to call the police!"

Kang He's message ended there. No one knew if she had gone to call the police or if she was thinking of new threats.

Mo Long also brought a glass of milk from the kitchen. Jiang Yu had asked him to drink it, saying that it was good for his sleep at night.

When he entered the room, he saw a smirk on Jiang Yu's face. He asked, "What are you smiling at? You look like a little rascal."

Jiang Yu pointed at the screen. "Quick, look. There's a clown here."

Mo Long walked over and looked at the chat interface. After reading it, he asked, "The person opposite is Kang He?"

"That's right." Jiang Yu grinned. "Because they couldn't solve this matter, they could only come to me. No matter if it was a threat or a plea, they used all kinds of methods."

Mo Long smiled and suddenly remembered something. "That post, was it really published by You?"

"It was me." Jiang Yu bit the edge of the glass in her hand and looked up at Mo Long. "What's wrong? Did it cause you trouble?"

"That's not it." Mo Long smiled and shook his head, "When I read it, I was still lamenting that this author really had extraordinary courage. He actually dared to publicize the scandal of Jing Chi. "Although the two words 'Little Jiang' at that time felt very familiar, I didn't expect it to be you."

"Of course it's me," Jiang Yu said. "As long as I can bring down Jing Chi, you can call me 'Old Jiang', not to mention 'Little Jiang'."

Mo Long was amused by her. He couldn't help but hug her in his arms and bury his head in Jiang Yu's neck.

Chapter 923: Justice

Mo Long said, "Why didn't you tell me that you wanted Jing Chi to collapse? If I stop all the cooperation between the Mo group and Jing Chi now, his company will be lost."

"Of course I know. You can settle this matter with a flick of your finger," Jiang Yu said earnestly, "But I'm not the kind of person who wants to make life difficult for anyone who dislikes me. There must be a reason for me to want to destroy Jing Chi, right?"

Mo Long answered on her behalf, "I know what the reason is. You want Jinchi to never harm innocent girls again."

"It's not just that," Jiang Yu explained, "This matter must be resolved publicly. Let the girls who were hurt by him and those who wanted justice but could only turn to reality in the end. Let them see that this evil man has been punished for his crimes."

As she spoke, she rested her chin on Mo Long's shoulder, "If I ask you to resolve this matter, he will only know that he has been punished, but he will not know what he has been punished for. They will feel that the suffering they have suffered has not been resolved. This is unfair to them."

"Yes, I know." Mo Long tightened the circle around Jiang Yu. "I promise you, I will not interfere in this matter."

"Okay." Jiang Yu smiled happily. "Even if you can't help everyone, you have to help everyone in front of you."

That was indeed what she thought.

Originally, she only wanted to help Kang Xue. From then on, she would be free from Kang He's suppression and be able to grow up on her own. However, she didn't expect to meet with Jing Chi again. Because of his superstition, he had persecuted so many innocent people.

Jiang Yu never believed that there were bad things that had to be done in this world.

She turned off the computer and no longer paid any attention to Kang He. Meanwhile, Kang He saw that so many messages that she had sent had all fallen into the sea. There was no reply and she gradually lost her patience. She simply turned off the computer and went home to sleep.

The next morning, Jiang Yu turned on the computer, she replied to the few messages that Kang He had sent, "I will never delete this post. No matter what you say, it's useless. If you think calling the police is useful, I will wait for you here."

After the reply ended, Jiang Yu once again looked at the post that she had posted yesterday and found that it had nearly 50 million views and likes. There were even people who had hidden this post.

Jiang Yu was very gratified. It seemed that everyone had not forgotten the crimes Jing Chi had committed after a few years. In that case, the downfall of Jing Chi would only happen in the next few days.

However, her post had already gained so much attention that Jiang Yu did not believe that the people at the police station would not see it. Moreover, when Jing Chi encountered this matter, he would definitely seek the help of that police uncle.

However, up until now, the police station had not issued an arrest warrant. It seemed that Jing Chi's uncle was still suppressing this matter and did not order the arrest. Moreover, even if Jing Chi was arrested, it was estimated that he would only be fined a little money and would not even be handed over to a higher-up.

Thinking of this, Jiang Yu found the address of the current police station chief — Luo Hao.

There were not many introductions about Luo Hao on the internet. From the beginning, Jiang Yu only knew that he was an old man in his sixties. His body was very strong, so the higher-ups all hoped that he could continue to work in the police station.

And Luo Hao himself was willing to work hard for the people, so he agreed.

Based on these simple and cursory introductions, it was difficult for Jiang Yu to say whether this Luo Hao was a good person or not.

After thinking about it, Jiang Yu recalled that Lu Qi's father had gone to the police station with a customer because of a business deal.

At that time, Lu Qi was present. She heard that it was that Luo Hao who had dealt with it, hence, Jiang Yu called Lu Qi. "Xiao Qi, do you know Luo Hao?"

"Luo Hao?" Lu Qi paused for a moment. She felt that she had heard this name somewhere before. After thinking for a long time, she finally remembered. "Old Man Luo. Isn't he the current police chief?"

"Yes, that's him," Jiang Yu said.

"He's alright. I'm not that familiar with him. However, because of my father's matter, that old man Luo and my father had a pretty good relationship. Why did you suddenly ask about him?"

Jiang Yu explained, "I published a post about Jing Chi. It was very popular. It was impossible for the police station not to see such a hot topic. But they haven't issued an arrest warrant yet. I wonder if someone is suppressing it?"

"Aiyo, so you were the one who posted that post about Jing Chi!" Lu Qi was very excited. "When I read it, I was still very shocked!"

Chapter 924: Report

"Don't be so agitated." Jiang Yu held her forehead with a headache. "Tell me first, what do you know about Luo Hao?"

"I don't know much about him," Lu Qi answered truthfully. "His relationship with my dad isn't that good that he would tell me anything. So even if I ask my dad, I might not be able to get anything out of him."

"Okay, I got it." Jiang Yu already had a feeling in her heart.

Although she didn't know what kind of person Luo Hao was, she knew what kind of person Lu Qi's father was.

If Luo Hao was also a money-grubber and mercenary, Lu Qi's father would never have interacted with such a person.

However, this didn't mean that Luo Hao was a good person.

Jiang Yu originally wanted to visit Luo Hao, but she remembered that Mo Long was worried about her reckless behavior, so she decided to go with Mo Long.

Fortunately, Mo Long came back early today, so Jiang Yu told him about it.

"Luo Hao has always abhorred evil. If he really knew about this, he would have issued an arrest warrant." Mo Long had a certain understanding of Luo Hao.

"Really?" Jiang Yu's eyes suddenly lit up, "So someone must be suppressing this matter, right?"

"Your guess is not unreasonable." Mo Long pondered. "But who has such power to hide it from the chief, Luo Hao?"

"What about the deputy chief?" Jiang Yu guessed, "Jing Chi's uncle is the deputy chief of the police station. As long as he wants to, he must have the ability to hide it. Moreover, chief Luo is old and probably won't pay attention to the things on the Internet, so he doesn't know about this matter at all."

"It's possible." Mo Long agreed with Jiang Yu's idea, "Although Luo Hao is still the chief, almost all the matters in the Bureau, big and small, are handed over to the deputy chief. If Jing Chi's uncle is the deputy chief, then he indeed won't issue an arrest warrant."

"Then let's pay a visit to chief Luo and tell him about this matter," said Jiang Yu, "If the police station has always been in the hands of Jing Chi's uncle, then what's the difference between this and the police station being in the hands of Jing Chi? Although he is anxious about this matter now, once this matter was resolved, he would continue to harm innocent people. "This situation will continue to be a dead cycle. More and more people will be killed, but no one can help them."

"Okay." Mo Long agreed to Jiang Yu's request without any hesitation.

He brought Jiang Yu to Luo Hao's house, where Luo Hao was feeding the birds.

He knew Mo Long, so he was a little shocked by his sudden arrival.

"President Mo, why did you suddenly come to see an old man like me?" Luo Hao smiled, his face full of the kindness of an old man.

Mo Long explained, "We came here this time because we have something to tell you."

"You?" Luo Hao paused. "So you're not the only one."

Jiang Yu walked out from behind Mo Long, bowed and said, "Hello, director Luo. The person who is looking for you is actually me."

"It's a little girl." Luo Hao smiled and said, "What's the matter?"

Jiang Yu told him everything about Jing Chi, including the matter of her posting on the Internet.

"I remember that the matter about Jing Chi was reported a few years ago." Luo Hao thought for a while, "But I was leading a team on a mission at that time, so this matter was handed over to Yue Heng. I don't know much about this matter. After the mission ended, I came back to ask about it. He only said that it was a misunderstanding and that it had been resolved satisfactorily.”

Yue Heng was the deputy chief of the police station, Jing Chi’s uncle.

“No, this isn’t a misunderstanding. It’s true,” Jiang Yu said. “This matter hasn’t been resolved either. The deputy chief is Jing Chi’s uncle, so he used his own power to suppress this matter.”

“There’s such a thing?” Luo Hao was shocked. He couldn’t believe that Yue Heng was such a person.

After all, back when Yue Heng entered the police station, it was Luo Hao who helped him step by step to become the deputy chief. But the person he valued so much was actually a person who only knew how to abuse his power?

This made it difficult for Luo Hao to accept.

Jiang Yu saw through his thoughts, she said, “Chief Luo, even if you really don’t believe it, the truth is already in front of you. No matter what, Jing Chi’s crime is a fact, and it’s also a fact that no one issued an arrest warrant. So I hope that you can help, not help me, but help those girls who have been persecuted. They are still waiting for someone to save them, and someone to bring the bad guys to justice.”

Luo Hao was silent.

After a long time, he said, “I understand. I will issue an arrest warrant.”

Chapter 925: Arrest Warrant

Luo Hao issued the arrest warrant and immediately arrested Jing Chi.

Yue Heng was immediately dumbfounded when he received this order.

What was going on? He had obviously kept this information under wraps and definitely did not reach Luo Hao’s ears.

Then how did he know about this? And even issued the arrest warrant?

But this was Luo Hao’s order, Yue Heng did not dare to disobey it.

He could only bring Jing Chi over first. Without any evidence, he could wait for 48 hours before releasing Jing Chi without a crime.

“Men, arrest Jing Chi.” Yue Heng gave the order to his subordinates.

They brought Jing Chi back and brought him to Yue Heng.

“Uncle! What’s going on?!” Jing Chi saw Yue Heng as if he saw a life-saving straw. He quickly went forward and grabbed his sleeve. “Didn’t you say that you’ve already sealed the news? Why did you suddenly issue an arrest warrant?”

He still hadn't found the person who had posted the post, yet he was already in jail. Wasn't this a waste of time?

Yue Heng had no choice. Luo Hao was the bureau chief, so in terms of status, he was superior to him. Therefore, Yue Heng could only follow his orders.

Therefore, he explained to Jing Chi, "This is the bureau chief's order. What can I do? Just stay here and suffer. I'll let you go in 48 hours."

"But I still have something to do!" Jing Chi frowned, "Uncle, you saw the post on the internet. I still haven't found the person who posted it. If I delay here for two days, it will be a waste of time!"

"I know, I know." Yue Heng was impatient. "I will help you check these two days, okay?"

Jing Chi was unhappy. "Uncle, what kind of attitude is this? I'm your nephew!"

Yue Heng did not want to hear Jing Chi's complaints anymore. "If my sister did not ask me to help you before she left, do you think I would be willing to care about your stupid matters? Alright, hurry back to your cell and stay there. Pack your things and scram back after 48 hours."

With that, Yue Heng left.

"What kind of attitude is that! I'm just asking you for a few favors!" Jing Chi shouted at Yue Heng's back, "You're my uncle, it's only right for you to do these things for me! What's the use of being impatient now? Aren't you still going to solve this matter for me?"

Jing Chi dared to shout so brazenly because Yue Heng's back had already disappeared. He was sure that Yue Heng could not hear him.

He stood on the spot to vent his anger for a while, then took his suit and went to the nearest cell.

He was the only one in that cell, but the cells next door and opposite were full of people.

"What is this place?" Jing Chi looked at the surrounding environment with great disdain.

He said to the guards behind him, "Has the environment here always been so bad? Don't you know how to fix it?"

The two guards looked at each other, not knowing what was wrong with the environment here.

Jing Chi walked into the empty cell with a sad face and sat in the corner.

Someone in the opposite cell leaned on the window and greeted Jing Chi, "Hey, brother, what did you come in for?"

Jing Chi looked at that person coldly, not willing to talk to him. He closed his eyes and sat on the ground, leaning against the wall to rest.

But the person on the other side continued to speak, "I came in because I stole something, but I had no choice. My daughter is sick, and it costs a lot of money to treat her illness. But the family is too poor, and the medical fees are too expensive. My relatives are also not willing to lend us money. I have no choice but to steal..."

The person on the other side kept talking, and the more Jing Chi listened, the more annoyed he became, he opened his eyes and said loudly, "I don't want to know how you got in. What does your daughter's illness have to do with me? What's the use of you telling me? Can I help you cure your daughter's illness?"

After being yelled at by Jing Chi, the person on the other side shut his mouth resentfully.

Jing Chi didn't seem to be able to vent his anger, he continued, "I'm different from all of you. I've been wronged. I'll be able to leave this place in 48 hours. How can I be like all of you? You still don't know how long you'll have to stay here."

As soon as he finished speaking, a guard came over and opened the door. he shouted, "Jing Chi, someone wants to see you."

When Jing Chi heard this, he immediately stood up. He thought that Yue Heng had helped him resolve this matter, and now he was here to let him out.

"Got it. I'll come over now," Jing Chi said in surprise.

Chapter 926: Refused To Admit Guilty

When he came out of the cell, Jing Chi looked at the person who had just spoken proudly. "See? It Won't take forty-eight hours. I can go out now."

Jing Chi followed behind the guard. After walking for a while, he realized that this was not the way out.

"Where are you taking me?" Jing Chi asked vigilantly.

The security guard did not speak. He just silently led the way until he brought Jing Chi to the door of the interrogation room.

"Can you at least tell me who wants to see me?" Jing Chi had a bad premonition.

The security guard opened the door expressionlessly and said, "Chief."

Chief?!

Jing Chi was shocked. When he walked into the room, he saw two men in police uniforms.

One of them had white hair, and the other was young and strong.

Jing Chi gingerly walked over and sat down. He carefully asked, "Officer, what business do you have with me?"

The man with white hair was Luo Hao, and the young and strong man was Chang Kai. He was recommended by Jiang Yu.

Luo Hao looked at Jing Chi and slowly asked, "You are Jing Chi?"

Jing Chi nodded his head unsteadily. He did not know which of the two people in front of him was the bureau chief.

However, based on the current situation, the old man in front of him should be the “Luo Hao” that Yue Heng had mentioned.

“You should know the reason why you came in, right?” Luo Hao asked with a rather amiable expression on his face. “Then, do you have anything to say about this matter?”

Jing Chi quickly defended himself. “I’m innocent! I didn’t do those things! The post on the Internet is framing me!”

“I didn’t issue the arrest warrant because I saw that post, but because someone came to me to report you, so I decided to capture you,” Luo Hao explained.

“Who? who has the guts to report me?!” Jing Chi was furious when he heard that.

“You don’t need to know who turned you in. You just need to tell me if you admit it or not.” Luo Hao said patiently.

Of course, Jing Chi wouldn’t admit it. “Why should I admit something I didn’t do?”

“You didn’t do it?” Luo Hao looked at Jing Chi calmly, “If you admit it now, I will reduce your sentence according to the situation where you turned yourself in. But if you don’t admit it now, then once you are convicted, you will spend the rest of your life in prison.”

Jing Chi didn’t care. “So what? I just won’t admit it because I didn’t do it.”

As he said this, Jing Chi seemed to think of something and asked again, “Director Luo, are you looking for me to take the blame because you can’t find the real criminal?”

“Of course not.” Luo Hao smiled, looking very amiable, but the words he said were very ruthless.

“Because the real criminal is you. If you don’t confess, then we will find evidence to convict you. Once the crime is established, not only you, but also your uncle, Yue Heng, won’t have a good ending.”

“My uncle...” Jing Chi was stunned. Although he was a little scared, he still braced himself and said, “If I didn’t do it, then I didn’t do it. Don’t think of accusing the good people.”

Luo Hao was still smiling as he looked at Jing Chi, observing every tiny expression on his face.

Every muscle in his body was trembling and his eyes were twinkling, indicating that Jing Chi was in a very nervous state at the moment.

Although the “Real criminal is you” was a lie to deceive Jing Chi, Luo Hao now believed that it was true.

Chang Kai kept taking notes at the side until he finally asked, “When you did those things, didn’t you feel guilty at all?”

Jing Chi paused. He knew that the young policeman in front of him was trying to get information from him, so he said firmly, “I didn’t do it. Of course I won’t feel guilty.”

Chang Kai finished writing the last sentence and said to Luo Hao, “Chief Luo, the notes have been recorded.”

When he left, Luo Hao said to the security personnel behind him, "Keep an eye on Jing Chi. Don't let any of his acquaintances come to see him, not even the deputy chief."

The security personnel bowed respectfully, "Yes! Chief!"

Only then did Luo Hao turn around and go to the reception room next door. He found Jiang Yu who was waiting for him in the reception room.

Mo Long was standing beside her.

Jiang Yu saw Luo Hao come in and asked, "How is it, chief Luo?"

Luo Hao said, "I've studied psychology for more than ten years. When I interrogated Jing Chi just now, I realized that he couldn't help but feel nervous whenever this matter was mentioned."

Chapter 927: Victims

Jiang Yu understood. "Although we can't directly say that he's the criminal, it's enough to prove that he has something to do with this matter, right?"

Luo Hao nodded. "But we need evidence now. The most basic thing is the victim's testimony. But it's been so many years. We still need to investigate where the victims are."

Jiang Yu said, "Leave this matter to me. I can find out the current situation of the victims. "Although I can't guarantee that everyone can find out, I can still find out more than half of the victims' situation."

"Okay." Luo Hao nodded and gave Jiang Yu a positive affirmation. "Then I'll leave this matter to you."

Jiang Yu nodded and immediately returned to Mo Garden with Mo Long.

"There's something I'm very curious about." Mo Long asked Jiang Yu as he went upstairs. "Yu'er, why are you so sure that you can find out the situation of those victims?"

"This matter was reported a few years ago. Many victims reported it to the police, but in the end, they were not dealt with at all. There must be records of this matter. We'll be able to find out from these records," Jiang Yu explained.

"I see." Mo Long nodded. "Do you need me to call the technical team to investigate?"

Jiang Yu thought for a moment and said, "Call them over. The more people there are, the greater the strength. It will be faster to investigate."

Hence, Mo Long immediately called Teng Yi and asked him to tell the technical team that everyone would arrive at Mo Garden within ten minutes.

The technical team also had a headache. They were supposed to leave work in ten minutes. Why did they have to rush to Mo Garden at this time?

However, this was president Mo's order, so they had no choice but to obey.

The technical team hurried over and arrived at Mo Garden in ten minutes. However, when they arrived, they realized that they didn't seem to be working for president Mo, but for his wife.

Aiya, if that was the case, wouldn't they be full of energy?

They took out the computer they had gotten from secretary Teng and waited for Jiang Yu's order at all times.

When Jiang Yu saw that they were all ready, she said, "You should already know about what happened to Jing Chi a few years ago. Now, I need you to help me find the victims of that year. Don't leave any of them behind."

"Yes, Madam!"

The technical team replied and then began to work hard.

Jiang Yu didn't stay idle either. She sat in front of the computer and also began to look through the information.

In this way, only Mo Long had nothing to do.

So he went to the kitchen and made a bowl of oatmeal with hot milk and gave it to Jiang Yu.

Although the people in the technical team were unfamiliar with the president's behavior, it was not a bad thing to see another gentle-looking president outside the company.

It had to be said that it was very fast when there were more people. Although they wanted to finish the investigation quickly and then go home from work, Jiang Yu was very satisfied with the speed.

Jiang Yu looked at the documents that they handed over and said with great satisfaction, "This is it. Thank you."

"You're welcome. This is what we should do for Madam."

"You guys go back first. Be careful on the way," said Jiang Yu.

"Yes."

The technical team packed up their computers and left one after another. Mo Long sat next to Jiang Yu and read the contents of the document with her.

"So many victims?" Mo Long looked at the long list of names and was a little surprised.

"Yes. If this matter is not resolved now, there will be more and more names in the future." Jiang Yu swiped the mouse, "There are all the victims here. Some have already taken the money and settled the matter, but there are still some unwilling victims who chose to call the police. However, in the end, it was not settled. It was Yue Heng who suppressed this matter behind the scenes."

"It seems that the police station is not very peaceful either." Mo Long laughed mockingly, "Back then, Yue Heng spent two million yuan to become the deputy chief. Because more than half of the money was paid for by his sister, Yue Heng agreed to help Jing Chi after she passed away."

"No wonder Yue Heng, as the Deputy Chief, always helped Jing Chi clean up the aftermath." Jiang Yu suddenly came to a realization. "But he has helped Jing Chi so many times, and the value is far more than two million yuan. Why would he still choose to continue helping him?"

"Who knows." Mo Long shook his head. "Maybe it's just to show off his bearing as an elder."

"Maybe." Jiang Yu copied this document and sent it to Chang Kai.

"This is all the information of the victims. Most of them are victims who reported to the police but were not dealt with," Jiang Yu typed a string of messages.

Chapter 928: Served Justice

Chang Kai quickly replied, "Got it."

He printed out the document and handed it to Luo Hao.

After Luo Hao read it, he quickly sent people to look for the whereabouts of several of the victims.

Jing Chi lay in prison for two days in fear, afraid that someone would suddenly come looking for him. He said, "Your crime has been proven. Hurry up and go out to receive your punishment."

He did not dare to sleep either. As soon as he closed his eyes, he could see the female college students crying and crawling over. They grabbed his sleeve and asked him why he had lied to them.

Therefore, Jing Chi kept his eyes open and did not dare to close them for even a moment.

After two days of high tension, Jing Chi finally waited for someone to open the door for him.

He looked at the person with anticipation, waiting for him to say, "Let's go. You have been acquitted."

However, the person did not look at him and only said, "Let's go, there's evidence to convict you."

"Rumble..." It was as if a thunder had exploded above Jing Chi's head.

His nerves, which had been tense, broke at this moment. He muttered to himself in disbelief, "How is this possible? How can there be evidence?"

The guard said impatiently, "How would I know? Hurry up and come out, don't waste time."

Jing Chi still sat on the ground without moving until the guard called for someone to carry him to the interrogation room.

In the interrogation room, there were not only Luo Hao and Chang Kai, but also quite a few young girls.

Jing Chi looked very familiar, but he could not name any of them.

Luo Hao still had that amiable look on his face as he beckoned Jing Chi to sit down.

"Come and sit down. There's something I want to ask you today."

Jing Chi sat down with trepidation. His voice was trembling as he said, "What is it?"

Luo Hao smiled and said, "Look at these girls. Do you recognize them?"

Jing Chi only felt that they looked familiar, but he could not admit it. "I don't know them."

When one of the girls heard this, she sneered and said, "You don't know us? We know you!"

Jing Chi was shocked and looked at Luo Hao shakily. "Who are they?"

Luo Hao looked at him in surprise. "You should know better than me who they are. They are the girls who were deceived by you in the past."

"Huh?" Jing Chi was stunned.

No wonder he felt that this group of people looked so familiar. It turned out that they were the people whom he had deceived in order to "Nourish his body" in the past?

"How is it? Do you remember?" Luo Hao looked at Jing Chi with a smile.

"I..." Jing Chi's back broke out in cold sweat,

Luo Hao's face was obviously smiling, but Jing Chi only saw coldness. He couldn't admit it. Once he admitted it, the results of his hard work for more than ten years would be torched, and Yue Heng would also be implicated in this matter.

So Jing Chi braced himself and said, "I don't know..."

Before he could finish his words, the smile on Luo Hao's face instantly turned cold. He slammed the table hard and shouted, "Jing Chi! You still refuse to admit it even now!"

Jing Chi was so scared that his heart pounded, and cold sweat kept pouring out.

The girls sitting at the side took out a well-preserved check from their bags one after another. Some even took out their phones and found screenshots of the sky-connecting records from a few years ago, all of which were thrown on the table.

"Jing Chi, you bastard. This is the evidence of your crime of lying to us back then. These are all evidence. Do you want to die and not admit it?"

"Jing Chi, I've been waiting for the day you were arrested by the police and brought to justice for four years."

"People like you deserve to die. Why are you still alive?"

Everyone's words were squeezed into Jing Chi's ears.

He knew that he had to admit it in front of these irrefutable evidence.

So he could only lower his head and say, "I confess."

As soon as these words were said, the girls were all wrapped up in a ball, crying bitterly.

They had been persecuted back then. They had called the police to try to bring the bad guys to justice, but there had been no results. Now, after four years, there was finally someone who stood up for their grievances, putting an end to their bitter past.

After Jing Chi confessed, Yue Heng was also investigated for covering up the crime.

"Two big tumors were removed at once." Jiang Yu felt refreshed.

"Now, Kang He is going to have a headache." Mo Long smiled.

"She asked for it." Jiang Yu pursed her lips, "Everyone knew about this incident back then. How could Kang He not know? But she still had to work with Jing Chi and even helped Jing Chi lie to Kang Xue. She doesn't deserve to be Kang Xue's sister at all."

Speaking of "Sister," Jiang Yu thought of Jiang Ran at an inappropriate time.

She had not seen Jiang Ran for a long time and did not know what the Jiang family was like now.

Chapter 929: A New Job

She didn't know if Sun You would still choose to stay with her after such a big thing had happened.

But no matter what Jiang Ran's current life was like, she had brought it on herself.

Although Jiang Yu felt sorry for her, she didn't pity Jiang Ran.

Mo Long and Jiang Yu returned to Mo Garden. They had originally planned to make a travel plan after this matter was over.

However, as soon as the two of them returned home, Jiang Yu received a call from sister Xia before she could even warm up her butt. "Jiang Yu, I've accepted a new job for you."

Jiang Yu paused and looked at Mo Long helplessly.

Mo Long smiled and patted Jiang Yu on the shoulder. He said softly, "It's alright."

Jiang Yu could only sigh and ask, "What kind of job is it?"

Sister Xia said, "It's a non-remunerated public service film, but you know that if you act in a public service film, your popularity will get higher, and the reviews of people will be better."

"Okay, got it," Jiang Yu answered and hung up the phone.

She sat weakly on the sofa and said as if she was joking, "I can't travel anymore. I have a new job."

"If you don't like it, you can turn down this job," Mo Long said with a smile.

"No." Jiang Yu suddenly sat up. "Li Yue will definitely participate in this charity film. If I don't go, won't that be letting her off easy? No, I must go."

Mo Long couldn't help but laugh. He didn't expect Jiang Yu to be so enthusiastic about matters related to Li Yue.

The next day, after Jiang Yu went to the studio, she found out from Sister Xia that Li Yue had indeed participated in this charity film.

"Just as I thought, Li Yue has really come to participate in this charity film."

“Such a good opportunity. She’s not a fool. How could she not participate?” Sister Xia said disdainfully, “Moreover, there’s an opening ceremony for this film. I heard that she has prepared a dance for the opening ceremony.”

“She’s really putting in a lot of effort.” Jiang Yu looked at herself in the mirror. “I wonder if the audience will appreciate it.”

“Who knows?” Sister Xia shrugged, “Since she wants to, then let’s do it. No matter who everyone looks at, the person who can win the new ‘Movie Queen Award’ will be the biggest winner.”

“Then I wish her good luck,” Jiang Yu said slowly.

This time, the public welfare film was a city-themed one. The female lead was Li Yue, the second female lead was Qin Yuan, and the third female lead was Jiang Yu.

When Sister Xia received the script, she was still a little unconvinced, she went straight to the director and asked, “Director, why is Jiang Yu the third female lead? I can admit that Li Yue is the first female lead, but what about Qin Yuan? How can she be the second female lead?”

Even if the director thought that Li Yue had won the Movie Queen award twice in a row and used her as the first female lead, what was wrong with Qin Yuan? No matter what, she should not be the second female lead!

The director was also in a difficult position and explained, “I have no choice. This is the request of the investors.”

Sister Xia was stunned and did not know what to say.

Even if it was a public service film, there were investors. Since the investors had such a request for the director, then the director couldn’t be blamed.

Hence, sister Xia could only wave her hand and say, “Alright, I got it.”

After Jiang Yu found out about this matter, she wasn’t as impatient as Sister Xia. Instead, she was very calm.

Sister Xia looked at her and was a little surprised. “Jiang Yu, don’t you feel unconvinced?”

“No.” Jiang Yu was very calm, “You just said it yourself. This is what the investor wants from the director. Since that’s the case, we don’t have to make things difficult for the director. Moreover, it doesn’t matter if we’re acting as the female lead or a supporting role in a movie. Everyone is making contributions for this movie.”

Sister Xia sometimes admired Jiang Yu’s attitude. She was always so generous. In the current murky entertainment industry, Jiang Yu’s personality of not fighting for anything was like a clear stream.

“Then you should get ready. The opening ceremony will be held in the afternoon the day after tomorrow,” Sister Xia reminded.

“I understand,” Jiang Yu replied.

However, that was what Jiang Yu said. She was wearing a more ordinary style of dress, and even the makeup on her face was light.

When Sister Xia saw it, she pulled her back to change her clothes and put on makeup.

Jiang Yu said helplessly, "Sister Xia, this is just a ceremony. There's no need to dress so grandly. "I'm dressed like this so that I'll look different from usual. This way, I'll be able to interact better with the audience during the ceremony."

"Even if I don't change out of the gown, I'll have to redo the makeup on my face." Sister Xia refused to let Jiang Yu go.

Chapter 930: Jiang Ran's Revenge

Even if Jiang Yu didn't wear makeup, her face was still very exquisite and beautiful. But Sister Xia knew that during this opening ceremony, that group of people would definitely wear heavy makeup. She absolutely couldn't let Jiang Yu lose at the starting line.

How could Jiang Yu not know what Sister Xia was thinking, she hurriedly said, "Sister Xia, if that group of people had heavy makeup on their faces, then I shouldn't be like them. I'm wearing light makeup. Compared to them, it's more like a bright scenery."

Sister Xia paused. She felt that Jiang Yu's words made sense, so she let go and said, "You're right. Let's set off now."

Sister Xia and Jiang Yu went to the venue of the opening ceremony and found that they were the first guests to arrive.

"We're early. Let's go to the lounge and sit for a while," Sister Xia suggested.

"Okay." Jiang Yu happened to be tired from walking, so she naturally agreed with Sister Xia's request.

However, on the way to the lounge, they unexpectedly saw a familiar figure.

Although the figure only flashed by, Jiang Yu still saw her face clearly.

Sister Xia also saw it, and because she was walking in front, she could see it more clearly than Jiang Yu.

"That person... is it Jiang Ran?" Sister Xia turned to look at Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu nodded. "It's her."

"Didn't you say that she's pregnant? According to the date, it's still within three months. Why isn't she taking care of the baby at home?" Sister Xia was puzzled.

However, Jiang Yu had already guessed what was going on.

Without the identity of "Kang Die's daughter," Jiang Ran had lost all her value to Sun You. Therefore, Sun You would not marry her, so naturally, he would not allow her to keep the child.

Jiang Yu more or less understood Jiang Ran's character. If it were not for Sun You holding something against her, Jiang Ran would definitely not be so obedient and would abort her only bargaining chip — Sun You's child.

However, this matter had nothing to do with Jiang Yu. She would not be so bored as to meddle in other people's affairs.

Hence, she said, "I don't know. Her matters have nothing to do with us."

"That's true." Sister Xia smiled and went to the lounge with Jiang Yu.

When their figures disappeared, Jiang Ran, who had been hiding in the darkness, stood up.

She knew that Jiang Yu would be the guest today, but she didn't expect her to come so early. Before she could finish her work, she saw Jiang Yu.

Jiang Ran had gone to the hospital for surgery a while ago. Although the doctor told her to take good care of her body, Jiang Hai had already started to dislike Jiang Ran because of what had happened in the Kang family, he even wanted Jiang Yu to return to the Jiang family and acknowledge her ancestors.

Wei Juan and Jiang Ran were also estranged because of that incident.

For a time, there was no place for Jiang Ran in the Jiang family's huge house.

She wanted to find Sun You and get back together with him. But Sun You simply ordered people to chase Jiang Ran out if they saw her. There was no need for them to report to him.

Jiang Ran, who was despised everywhere, did not know what was the meaning of her life. She even wanted to die. But when she thought about how good Jiang Yu's life was now, the nameless anger in her heart burned.

"Jiang Yu! If I'm not doing well, don't even think about it! Just wait and see, I'll definitely pull you down!" Jiang Ran swore in her heart.

She had seen the opening ceremony on the flyer and knew that Li Yue, Qin Yuan, and Jiang Yu were all guests today. Hence, she disguised herself as a volunteer and sneaked into the venue.

She went to the storage bag and took the backpack. Inside was a bag of flying catkins.

There were very few catkins in this season, and this bag was only collected by Jiang Ran when she went to the water bay in the countryside.

She did not know if Jiang Yu was allergic to catkins, but she knew that once catkins landed on people's skin, they would cause redness, swelling, and itching. If there was an allergy, it would be even more serious.

She sneaked into the lounge backstage while everyone was working and no one noticed her.

There was only one waiting room, so Jiang Ran only needed to blow a whole bag of catkins into the room.

She saw a vent near the waiting room, so she walked over and climbed along the pipe.

The pipe was very short, and it went up diagonally. Jiang Ran climbed for a few minutes and reached the end.

At the end was the waiting room where Jiang Yu was.

Jiang Ran paused there for a moment, wondering if she could hear any earth-shattering news from Jiang Yu.

But after listening for a few minutes, she realized that Jiang Yu was only talking to Sister Xia about some trivial family matters, so she immediately lost interest.

"Boring," Jiang Ran muttered to herself.
