#Chapter 101 - Read I Have 108 Older Sisters Chapter 101

?Chapter 101 – Shameless Request

Thank you readers!

A series of screams sounded in the private room.

Brother Long's men had beaten Manager Xie senselessly.

Yu Tian whispered to Qing Xiaowan, a€?Your umbrella business is doing well. You should continue to do that, not endure it here!a€?

Seeing Manager Xie get beaten up like that, Qing Xiaowan felt relieved, but she did not want anyone to be killed.

She said in fear, a€?Brother Tian, don't let them fight. It's good that they've taught him a lesson!a€?

Yu Tian did not want to hear the man's screams either. He ordered Brother Long to throw the guy out. He did not want to see him again in the future.

At the same time, he told them to leave.

Then, Yu Tian took out his phone and transferred 10 million yuan to Qing Xiaowan.

When Qing Xiaowan heard the phone ring, she picked it up and was stunned.

It was 10 million yuan. Even if she had worked as a waitress for several lifetimes, she still could not earn this much money.

Yu Tian smiled calmly.

a€?Go and open an umbrella factory. Build it big and strong. If you don't have enough money, let me know at any time!a€?

Qing Xiaowan got up and knelt at Yu Tian's feet, her voice mixed with tears.

a€?Brother Tian, I owe you so much. How am I going to repay you in this lifetime?!a€?

After saying that, Qing Xiaowan seemed to have made up her mind. She suddenly stood up and began to take off her clothes.

What was going on?

Was she going to repay him with her body?

Yu Tian hurriedly stopped her. "Wait a minute. I didn't intend to obtain you by helping you. Put on your clothes first!"

Qing Xiaowan said firmly, "Brother Tian, I can't repay you with anything. I'll give you my body instead!"

If she wanted to give her to him, he would have to be able to take it.

He had just spoken to Yu Buhui that night. Other than the 108 women from the Chu family, he could not come into contact with any other women.

He said with a frown, "Forget about it. I Can't bring myself to do it. You should put on your clothes first. We'll talk about it when you're feeling better!"

At this moment, the door of the private room was pushed open by Chu Qing and the other three women. They saw the awkward scene.

Chu Qing panicked on the spot and said angrily, "You're really good. They're waiting for you to eat there. Even when you pee, you can play a game with them!"

Yu Tian slapped his forehead and said helplessly, "It's too tiring!"

Qing Xiaowan hurriedly put on her clothes. Chu Qing looked at her coldly and said disdainfully, "You really can't leave him alone. What did you promise me last time?"

Yu Tian did not want to hear this at all. He said to Qing Xiaowan in a low voice, "Don't be afraid of her. Remember to inform me when the umbrella factory opens. I'm going to eat first!"

Seeing Yu Tian leave, Chu Hui smiled and said in a low voice, "My brother is really popular with women. Fortunately, there are rules and restrictions. Otherwise, all the women in the world would've been screwed by him!"

Chu Qing could not be bothered to say anything to Qing Xiaowan. With her status there, she would ask others to tell her in the future.

The meal was still rather happy, and everyone drank a lot of wine.

So, at noon the next day, Yu Tian woke up with a dizzy head.

Yan Longwen called him.

“President Yu, come to the company quickly. Aster Technology's people are here. They want us to immediately terminate the R&D project!”

Yu Tian frowned. Zeng Xuezhen had just come to the company yesterday. Today, Aster's people would know.

Could there be a mole in Xinghe Technology?

He immediately got up to get dressed and go to the company as quickly as possible.

Huo Nianyue had even personally appeared. She was in the meeting room, getting angry with Yan Longwen arrogantly.

“I don't care where your technology comes from. The foundation is the integrated module developed by Aster Technology. Therefore, you're stealing our intellectual property. You have to stop the R&D immediately and hand over your module technology to us!”

Yan Longwen listened to her expressionlessly and sneered. “I'm sorry, I can't agree to your request. Our integrated modules have already been registered and are now the exclusive technology of Xinghe Technology.

“Not only is it impossible to hand it over to you, but our research and development will continue. To put it simply, it has nothing to do with you, Aster Technology!”

Being rejected in public, Huo Nianyue felt particularly embarrassed.

She snorted coldly and said, “You'd better call your President Yu over. There are some things that you at your level don't know. I don't want to waste my time on you. It's meaningless!” At this moment, Yu Tian pushed the door open and entered.

Huo Nianyue's expression did not change at all. It was as if she had long forgotten about yesterday's incident where someone used a kitchen knife at her neck.

Yu Tian sat down, and asked straightforwardly, “Who told you that we were using other modules to develop the project? This is the top secret of my company. Your company, which is registered overseas, is already stealing our trade secrets. You must give me an explanation today!”

However, Huo Nianyue laughed disapprovingly.

“President Yu, are you kidding me? Our Aster Technology controls global technology. Do we need to steal your trade secrets? Are you talking about a small company like yours? What is there to steal?”

“I won't waste any more time with you. You can't use the module that Zeng Xuezheng provided for you. Your research and development projects will be terminated immediately. You'll also have to apologize to me and my company in public!”

Yu Tian looked at her inexplicably and asked in confusion, “Are you crazy? Or are you hallucinating?”

Such a ridiculous and shameless request was simply insane.

Huo Nanyue suddenly stopped smiling and said coldly, “President Yu, I've given you enough face. I didn't say anything when you broke my diamond necklace yesterday.

“I have to let you know that what Aster Technology doesn't like cannot exist. This is our rule. Only Aster Technology can have the technology of integrated modules. You can only ask for our mercy. Maybe then can you use it.

“And at the same time, you have to understand that your R&D project uses integrated module technology. You have to pay us a certain fee. You have no other choice!”

Yu Tian said disdainfully, “What if I don't agree?”

Huo Nanyue smiled coldly.

“It's not up to you. Aster Technology will publish the technology and all the data that you stole on the internet. They will also hand it over to the allied countries and initiate global sanctions against Xinghe Technology!”

It sounded quite scary.

However, Yu Tian did not care at all.

Then, he smiled calmly and said, “I thought that we could start a war. So, I have to remind you that I, Yu Tian, am not scared of death. My project will continue and the module that I bought with my money will continue to be used.

“As for your Aster Technology Company, I suggest you get lost!”

Huo Nanyue was neither shocked nor angry. She slowly stood up and said with a smile, “It's really a pity. Then Xinghe Technology will be punished by the allied countries. I will not give you any face!”

What was there to be afraid of? Yu Tian gave Huo Nianyue the middle finger and pointed at the door.

?Chapter 102 – Seven-Needle Technique

Thank you readers!

Yan Longwen said angrily, a€?This is too much. Do they really think that Aster Technology is invincible in the world? Everyone wants to control it!a€?

Yu Tian smiled nonchalantly.

They were nothing to be afraid of.

The most hateful thing was that Huo Nianyue was willing to be a dog for a foreigner.

She could show off as much as she wanted. In any case, Xinghe Technology's project would be developed however it was supposed to be.

Subsequently, Huo Nianyue held a press conference with Du Mingzhe.

In front of dozens of news media outlets, Huo Nianyue spoke with conviction.

a€?Xinghe Technology stole our core business secrets. On this point, I once had a discussion with Mr. Yu Tian, the president of Xinghe Technology, but Mr. Yu Tian was very arrogant. He thought that stealing was a normal business method.

a€?I'd like to ask everyone here. If stealing is normal, then can we stop worrying about the so-called rules and do whatever we want?

a€?In the future, I will not have any compromise talks with Xinghe Technology. We will submit our stolen business secrets to the Science and Technology Committee of the Union State. I think they'll be able to give us a satisfactory answer!a€?

Du Mingzhe added, a€?The project developed by our Tiantu Technology has been properly registered and has a formal cooperation contract with Ms. Huo Nianyue. However, Xinghe Technology has brazenly stolen our R&D technology.

a€?Five-dimensional code technology was started by my team a few years ago. Xinghe Technology felt that it was profitable, so they began to use all kinds of methods to steal it.

a€?Even the famous Professor Yan was bribed to help Xinghe Technology steal my technology. It's really shameful!a€?

At this moment, Yu Tian was studying the seven golden needles and the booklet in his office. It turned out that they were used to treat injuries and illnesses.

The booklet recorded the mnemonic chant, and this chant was especially simple and easy to understand.

Yu Tian made inferences from one example. Not only did he master all the mantras, but he also discovered more uses for them.

Following that, Yu Tian burned the booklet. This kind of peerless secret technique was best mastered in his own head. That was the safest way.

At that moment, Yan Longwen called him and asked him to watch the news. Yu Tian did not know what had happened either. He opened the news and looked at it. He laughed on the spot.

Was Huo Nianyue really crazy?

Chu Qings call came in at the same time. She said domineeringly, "Aster Technology doesn't have much ability. [can make them disappear right now!"

Yu Tian smiled and said, "I can make Huo Nianyue disappear, but I can't solve the fundamental problem. Also, I think that there's someone behind Huo Nianyue who's planning to specifically target Xinghe Technology!"

"Are you talking about that Du Mingzhe?" Chu Qing asked.

"He's nothing. Du Mingzhe can open a company because Lei Yi invested in it. I think that Huo Nianyue is definitely Lei Yi's dog. Ask the other sisters if anyone has seen Lei Yi!"

After hanging up the phone, Chu Qing informed the group, "Sisters, find someone. Lei Yi, male. He used to run a casino under my management. Later, he was beaten out of Linhai by my younger brother. This guy is shameless. Find him!" The group exploded.

"My younger brother is awesome. I love you!"

"Lei Yi, right? If he dares to appear in front of me, I'll make him die a horrible death!" "Younger brother, don't be angry. I'll give you a red packet to buy delicious food!" Yu Tian opened the ten million red packet and felt helpless.

"Thank you, sisters. Don't give me the red envelope. Help me look for Lei Yi!"

As soon as the super machine of the Chu family was activated, it quickly found Lei Yi's tracks. This trash was in Hao City and had even set up an underground casino.

Yu Tian chuckled. He really could not forget his old profession no matter how hard he tried. Across a sea, he still wanted to play tricks.

When he was done with his work, he would go to Hao City to visit him.

At this moment, Chu Yue sent a message. "Go to Zong Ming's port and take a look. There's something there!"

Even if Zong Ming was not alive, he did not know what could happen to his port.

Anyway, Yu Tian had time, so he went over to take a look.

After taking a look, there was nothing much. The container, the workers, and the empty sound of loading and unloading were all very normal.

What did Chu Yue discover?

As he looked around, a few workers carrying luggage walked away while scolding him.

"You're too f*cking inhuman. You're letting me leave just like that. I've been working at this port for five years. I'm about to retire. Now I can't even get my pension!"

"I thought it would be better if I had a new boss. That f*cking sissy is even worse than Zong Ming!"

"Stop talking. Let's go to another port and see if there are any jobs!"

Yu Tian used the excuse to stop them and smiled, "Brothers, what's wrong with this port? I heard that the boss seems to have changed!"

That man looked back at the port with resentment and complained, "That's right, we got a sissy. It's neither a man nor a woman. I think his name is Ah Fa. He chased us away when he took office. He's so cruel!"

Yu Tian was puzzled. Could it be that this port had become an old-timer? He was just about to look for this guy. Was this not an opportunity?

Yu Tian thanked the few workers and walked into the port. Soon, he saw Ah Fa lecturing the workers. This sissy pinched his waist and raised his eyebrows, shouting like a shrew scolding the street.

“All of you listen well. This port is under my control now. I told you to go east, but you can't go west. If I told you to lie down, you can't stand up. Otherwise, you'll be like those idiots and get the hell away from me!”

The workers lowered their heads in silence. He could say whatever he wanted and just listen.

Ah Fa heard the sound of footsteps behind him. He turned around and saw that it was Yu Tian.

He was first shocked before he turned cold. He chuckled and said, “I was wondering who it was. So it's President Yu. It's such a rare guest. Tell me, what do you want?”

Looking at his sissy manner, Yu Tian felt short of breath. He went straight to the point and said, “I don't want to waste my breath on you. Where are Zong Ming and the old man? If you don't tell me, I'll beat you to death in front of your workers!”

Ah Fa's unbridled laughter rang out immediately. That arrogant look coupled with his sissy strength was simply too horrible to look at in Yu Tian's eyes.

This good-for-nothing even said in a sarcastic tone, “You can't behave atrociously in my place today. This port is mine now. If you dare to mess with me, I'll immediately lock the shipping lanes of your two ports. When that time comes, you'll be the one who will be in trouble!”

However, Yu Tian said disdainfully, “Oh, you're so capable now? Why don't you lock it now? What nonsense are you spouting?”

Although he said that, Yu Tian also knew that the shipping lanes into the port were all on their side. This was the result of Shao Mingzun's cooperation with them back then.

However, Zong Ming did not even say that he would lock the shipping lanes. Ah Fa was just pretending. He really deserved to be beaten up..

?Chapter 103 – I Want The Six-Dimensional Code

Thank you readers!

It was useless to beat Ah Fa now. He was just a lackey. Only by getting rid of the old man or Zong Ming could the problem be solved.

Yu Tian snorted coldly. “Go back and tell your master to hide well. It's best if I don't find him!”

It was a waste of time to bother him. Yu Tian turned around and left.

Ah Fa sneered. "Are you still our opponent now? One day, I'll make you kneel in front of me, kowtow to me, and lick my toes!"

If Yu Tian did not beat him up, why did he feel so uncomfortable? If he left just like that, this trash would continue to act pretentious in the future.

Yu Tian immediately turned around. The moment Ah Fa was stunned, he attacked him with his legs.

Ah Fa did not even have the time to react before he was kicked to the ground. Since he had already been beaten up, Yu Tian followed up with a series of punches and kicks. He was beaten up but yet, he continued to bark like a dog.

"Yu Tian, if you have the guts, let me get up. I'll fight you for a thousand rounds!"

Yu Tian slapped Ah Fa in the face and said in an agitated and disdainful manner, "From now on, I'll come here every day. I'll beat you up every time I see you!"

Ah Fa still wanted to get the workers who were watching to start a fight. He scolded angrily, "All of you are just watching. If you want to work, then beat him up!"

The workers only shook their heads.

"You were the one who was putting on an act. What does it have to do with us? It's better to beat you to death, so you don't have to put on an act."

Yu Tian chuckled. He would not stop until he was done. He pulled Ah Fa by his hair and threw him directly into the sea.

A mouthful of water almost choked this good-for-nothing to death. After a round of dog paddling, he struggled to climb onto the shore.

At this moment, Yu Tian had already left.

Ah Fa shouted angrily, "Yu Tian, just you wait!"

At this moment, Yu Tian, who was in the midst of a wild storm, turned on the music. He felt extremely comfortable.

After returning to the company, Yan Longwen rushed to the office. She frowned and said hatefully, "This is too much. Du Mingzhe invited my father's old friends to his company. Now, they are saying that we're stealing their technology. They want us to stop our research and development immediately!"

Yu Tian frowned impatiently. Du Mingzhe was really not giving him some face.

“Go and call Xuezhen and Tianci over. I have something to tell them!”

Soon, the three of them sat on the sofa in the office.

Yu Tian said indifferently, “I’ve had enough of these people’s pretense. I don’t want the QR code technology anymore!”

The few of them looked at Yu Tian in shock. Did they hear wrongly? He had invested hundreds of millions of dollars in the project, and he was going to give up just like that?

Or did this young president admit defeat?

Yan Longwen said in surprise, “President Yu, you’re not joking, right? Our research and development speed is definitely faster than Tiantu’s. We’re about to carry out the test. Why did you give up?”

Du Tianci said mockingly, “Yu, you’re crazy. Don’t you feel sorry for the money you invested? Also, aren’t you afraid that they’ll laugh at you for being a coward?”

The only one who was calmer was Zeng Xuezhen. Although he did not say anything, he kept shaking his head.

However, Yu Tian laughed.

“I don’t want the five-dimensional code technology anymore. I want the six-dimensional code technology. I’m investing five billion in this project. I want you to develop the six-dimensional code technology for me within two months!”

Zeng Xuechen looked at Yu Tian with an extremely serious expression.

“President Yu, the six-dimensional code technology is only a concept. Even the five-dimensional code technology is so complicated that it makes people collapse. Six-dimensional code? How is this possible?”

Yu Tian stood up. His gaze was extremely firm as he said in a thunderous voice, “So, I’m going to make the impossible possible. You can hire world-class experts and agree to any conditions.

Longwen, do you have any questions?”

Under his influence, Yan Longwen also stood up excitedly and said firmly, “No questions. From today onward, I’ll move into the company. Xuezhen, I need you to redevelop the multi-port module technology!”

Zeng Xuezheng hesitated for a moment before he made up his mind. He gritted his teeth and stood up. "Let's do it then. I've long had enough of Aster's bird-like anger anyway. F*ck, let's do

This time, even Yu Tian was a little stunned. When Zeng Xuezheng scolded people, he was especially imposing and infectious.

Everyone shouted at the same time, "Yes, screw it. Let's do it!"

In the evening, Tiantu Technology held a press conference. More than ten old men sat in a row with teacups in their hands, answering the reporters' questions.

Du Mingzhe grinned and said with a gloomy face, "Xinghe Technology is low-class trash that specializes in stealing other people's technology. Our five-dimensional code technology has been under development for many years. All the old seniors present today can prove it!"

Those old fogies nodded at the same time.

One of them was an old man with a pointy mouth and monkey cheeks who also wore glasses. He nodded with certainty and said, "Yes, all of us professors can prove it. At the same time, we request Xinghe Technology to immediately stop the research and development of the five-dimensional code technology!"

At this time, a beautiful reporter asked, "Mr. Du Mingzhe, if Xinghe Technology doesn't stop the research and development, what would you choose to do?"

Du Mingzhe said coldly, "It's fine if they don't stop their research and development, but Xinghe Technology has to pay us for the use of their technology. Moreover, they have to ensure that their five-dimensional code technology will not be promoted before our five-dimensional code!"

At this time, someone suddenly shouted from behind the crowd, "Du Mingzhe, are you shameless? The five-dimensional code technology isn't yours. Why are you so shameless?"

The crowd turned around. The person who shouted was none other than Du Tianci. Yu Tian, Yan Longwen, and Zeng Xuezheng also appeared at the same time.

Under the flashing lights, Yu Tian also shouted, "You may not know this, but Du Mingzhe used to be an employee of Xinghe Technology. At that time, he worked for Professor Yan. After Professor Yan passed away unexpectedly, this guy wanted to keep the technology for himself!"

The crowd booed. They had never heard of this before.

Du Mingzhe's face turned red. He did not expect Yu Tian to personally come to the press conference and ruin the situation. He even brought up his past. It was really too hateful.

Yan Longwen also took a step forward and pointed at those old men and scolded them. "The only condition for my father to join Xinghe Technology was to ask for 50 million for the school. Your retirement fund today, your luxurious offices, and the teaching building were all given to you by my father. Now, you have taken my father's benefits and are slandering my father. Are you all immoral?"

She pointed at the bespectacled old man, then she said angrily, "Professor Wen, if I remember correctly, my father is in the same office as you. Do you dare to swear in front of all the reporters that the five-dimensional coding technology wasn't proposed by my father?"

The old man directly lowered his head and was speechless. His face was so red from the guilt that it reached the back of his waist.

At this moment, Yu Tian laughed..

?Chapter 104 – Hypocritical Transactions

Thank you readers!

Chapter 104: Hypocritical Transactions

Someone in the crowd exclaimed, "He's the president of Xinghe Technology, Yu Tian!"

"Wow, isn't he too young?"

"He's worth tens of billions. It's said that the Chu family is supporting him with all their might!"

Yu Tian just smiled calmly. "Everyone, I'll use this opportunity to release a piece of news. I've decided to give up on the research and development of the five-dimensional code technology and choose to develop an independent technology to support the six-dimensional code technology. I'll test it in two months.

"For Xinghe Technology, the five-dimensional code technology is too old school. Since there are people who like it so much, we'll let them play with it. Our six-dimensional code technology can be used in any field for the most direct and simple operation.

“To put it simply, other than not being able to wipe your ass when you poop, you can do anything. I'll explain the actual application to everyone in detail during the product launch!” The crowd erupted once again.

“Six-dimensional code? That's unimaginable. What kind of technological sense would that be?”

“Mr. Yu Tian, how much capital have you invested in the research and development of six-dimensional code?”

“President Yu, may I ask if the technology of six-dimensional code will monopolize the market?”

Du Mingzhe sat weakly in his chair.

Six-dimensional code? Had Yu Tian gone crazy?

Currently, only one-third of the development of the five-dimensional code of Tiantu Technology had been completed. It would take at least a year for it to be tested.

Two months to develop the six-dimensional code? This was too unbelievable.

Yu Tian did not want to talk about anything else here. He turned around and left with his own people. Just as he walked out of the hotel, his phone rang. It was the old man who had called him.

Yu Tian picked up the phone and chuckled. “Old fart, can't sit still anymore? Are you free? Let's fight one-on-one!”

However, the old man said casually, “Yu Tian, don't misunderstand. The enmity between you and me isn't that deep. I know that you've always wanted Zong Ming's port. I can sell it to you. Isn't that more interesting?”

Even his ear had been cut off. There was not such a big enmity? He was really open-minded.

However, Yu Tian narrowed his eyes and smiled. “Interesting. How much do you plan to sell it for?”

“200 million, no bargaining!” the old man said firmly.

That port was worth at least 1 billion. This old fart was going to sell it for 200 million?

Yu Tian wanted to see what tricks he wanted to play. He nodded and agreed, “Alright, we'll make the deal tomorrow. Come to the port personally!”

“Deal!”

The old man hung up the phone and turned to Chang Tianyou. He sneered. “He agreed. How do you want to play this time? You almost died in his hands last time!”

Chang Tianyou put out his cigar, and said casually, “He’ll die in my hands this time. If I didn’t do this, would you have gotten Zong Ming’s assets? We’ve been together for so many years, and you still don’t believe me?”

“Of course, I believe you. Everyone else thinks that you’re the boss of a public relations company, but I’m the only one who knows your identity. You old fool, I have to thank you this time!” The old man laughed loudly.

“It’s useless to thank me. Tell your son to treat my sister better. Otherwise, I won’t forgive you. Kill Zong Ming’s people if they deserve it. Don’t leave him alive. If he burns it, both you and I will suffer!” Chang Tianyou stood up and ordered.

“I know what to do. Just focus on dealing with Yu Tian. The revenge for this ear of mine will depend on you!”

The old man personally sent Chang Tianyou out of the villa. Although his words sounded nice, he did not trust Chang Tianyou at all.

Ah Fa came closer with shifty eyes and asked in a strange tone, “Master, why do I feel that Chang Tianyou is good at acting?”

“He’s from the Southern Water Sect, so he has the right to act. Besides, he’s related to me, so I can use him. I need time to practice the divine skill now, so I’ll let him stall Yu Tian first. It’ll buy me time!”

At this point, the old man turned his head and said darkly, “I told you to find Shao Mingzun. Did you find him?”

Ah Fa chuckled and said in a low voice, “That old b*stard said that the Black Gate will hang lanterns and shine the sky and earth on the gate. If you shout, he’ll immediately follow and raise the flag!”

“Okay!” The old man nodded and said, “The people of the Black Sect are still easy to talk to. Let that b*stard Yu Tian suffer!”

The next morning, Yu Tian only stood lazily in front of the old man at 10:30 when the deal was agreed at nine o’clock.

The old man gritted his teeth in anger when he thought of his ears. He forced out a smile and said, “Let’s work together!”

Yu Tian impatiently interrupted him. He frowned and said, "Cut the crap. Have you brought the contract?"

Ah Fa immediately placed the two contracts on the table.

Yu Tian did not even look at them. If he wanted to make money, he had to meet the conditions. He said calmly, "The deal is fine. Leave Zong Ming to me. Now that the money is yours, why are you still keeping him? Let me take him to take revenge!"

The old man laughed and shook his head. "I've already taken revenge for you. Zong Ming has long been squashed to death by me. You don't have to thank me. This is the responsibility of the Black Gate. Let's make a deal!"

Zong Ming was dead? Yu Tian did not believe it at all.

However, he did not ask further. They had set a trap and wanted him to get into it. "Then let's get into it and see if it was their trap or his own."

After the deal was completed, the old man smiled and said, "Now this port is yours. I wish you a prosperous business!"

Yu Tian snorted and said disdainfully, "I won't make a move on you today. Now, take your people and get out of my place. Listen to me well. The next time we meet, I'll take your life. Get out!"

The old man's face twitched in anger. He snorted coldly and left with his people.

Yu Tian put away his smile and called the management of the port to the meeting room.

When everyone arrived, Yu Tian said in a low voice, "From now on, I'm your boss. I don't have any other requirements for you. Just do your job well!"

Everyone immediately nodded. Anyway, it was good as long as that sissy was not the boss.

Yu Tian sent the news of buying the port to Chu Qing. Chu Qing frowned and said, "It's a little cheap, right? Be careful that you don't fall into their trap!"

Yu Tian smiled indifferently and said, "Then it depends on who falls into whose trap?"

Chu Qing knew that Yu Tian was prepared, so she was not worried anymore. She then said, "When you have time, go to the school to visit your younger sister. I heard from the principal that there's some young master recently who seems to be very interested in Qi'er. However, I've gone through the information, but I've never heard of this young master. Yu Qi'er has just stepped into society, so it's better to be careful!"

“I’ll go to the school immediately!” Yu Tian directly hung up the phone and went straight to the school.

“If you dare to mess with my younger sister, I’ll kill you.”

When he arrived at the school, it was just after school in the afternoon. Yu Tian watched from afar. As expected, there was a youth who drove a red supercar and was waiting for Yu Qi'er.

That youth was also wearing the school uniform, but he was not from this school.

Yu Qi'er walked out of the school gate and boarded the red car. The two of them chatted and laughed as they left.

Yu Tian followed closely behind..

Chapter 105 – Better Than Expected

Thank you readers!

The young man and Yu Qi'er walked into a hot pot restaurant in the downtown area for a meal.

Yu Tian looked at the hot pot restaurant. It was average and belonged to the middle-class consumer category. The more he looked at it, the angrier he got.

“You even drove a red devil supercar, yet you brought my sister to this kind of place for a meal? Is that young master's identity real or fake?”

Yu Tian followed them into the hot pot restaurant and found an inconspicuous spot to sit down. He ordered a few random dishes and continued to observe.

There were not any good dishes on the table for the two of them. There was not even Yu Qi'er's favorite food. On the contrary, Yu Qi'er was quite happy and chatted and laughed with the youngster.

Yu Tian felt that the youngster's gaze was especially fake. He looked around as if he was afraid of being seen by others. Based on this, Yu Tian was certain that he was not a good person.

He thought about beating him up now and how it would hurt Yu Qi'er's feelings. It was better to just endure and watch.

Yu Tian pretended to look at his phone and stood behind a pillar that was very close to them, listening to their conversation.

Yu Qi'er smiled and said, "Xiao Ai, I'm really happy that you invited me to have a hotpot today. I didn't even know that you had come to Linhai and that your family had such a big business. I'm really happy for you!"

Ai Nan smiled smugly and said, "Nowhere is as good as you are now. Your brother is the President of Xinghe Technology, and even Chu Qing is your sister. Compared to both of you, I don't even have a sense of presence. However, I'm really happy that you still remember me as a junior high school classmate!"

The two of them even drank drinks as Ai Nan said, "Originally, this place isn't suitable for your status, but my family's business hasn't been very good recently. My dad's capital is a little hard to turn around, and my pocket money has also become much smaller. I can only invite you here to eat a cheap hotpot. When my father's business is better, I'll definitely bring you to eat the best hotpot there is!"

Yu Tian felt that it was especially funny. This little trick was really fun to play.

Yu Qi'er did not think too much about it and was not that calculative. Instead, she said in satisfaction, "Actually, this place is also very good. In the past, I couldn't even afford to eat here!"

Seeing that Yu Qi'er did not fall into the trap, Ai Nan sighed and said sadly, "Very soon, I will not even be able to afford to eat here. I don't want to hide it from you. I don't even have pocket money now. I don't know how long I can last."

Yu Tian really wanted to go up and kick him until he peed.

"You can afford a red devil, but you don't have pocket money? Why don't you just sell it? Wouldn't that be even more pitiful?"

Upon hearing this, Yu Qi'er said foolishly, "It's alright. I'll treat you to this meal. If you're short of money, I can help you. You have to eat!"

As she spoke, Yu Qi'er immediately transferred 10,000 yuan to Ai Nan.

Ai Nan was so touched that he cried and said gratefully, "Qi'er, I don't know what to say. If you can give me another 20,000 yuan, I can hand over the money for the cram school. No matter what, I can't give up on my dream. I must become a Ph.D. student!"

The silly girl, Yu Qi'er, did not think much about it. She transferred another 20,000 yuan to Ai Nan and said with concern, "I support you. I can help you if you're in trouble!"

Ai Nan even wiped his tears, but he was laughing in his heart.

“Your family is so rich. You don't care about this at all. However, I should take this money today and take more money slowly in the future.”

After dinner, Ai Nan sent Yu Qi'er back to school.

Yu Tian had been following him the whole time. This guy even brought a cigarette to make him look good. It was as if he was about to lose control.

Arriving at the door of a bar, Ai Nan took off his school uniform, styled his hair with a gel, and walked into the bar steadily.

Yu Tian followed suit.

It turned out that there were a few men and women of similar age waiting for Ai Nan in the bar.

After a round of jokes, Ai Nan grinned and shook his head. “All the expenses today are on me. Don't stand on ceremony with me. I'll treat you to dinner tonight. Call a few more people over. After dinner, let's go sing karaoke!”

The man in the flowery shirt sitting opposite them laughed and said, “Damn, Ai Nan, did you hook up with some rich woman again? You're so generous!”

Ai Nan said smugly, “What do you mean by hook up? This is called affection. Do you know who my current girlfriend is? You'll be scared to death if I tell you. Yu Qi'er, Yu Tian's younger sister.

Do you still need me to tell you who Yu Tian is?”

Everyone was shocked. The red-haired girl said in shock, “The boss of Xinghe Technology Chu Qing's younger brother? That Yu Tian's younger sister? How can she take a fancy to you? I don't believe it!”

Yu Tian, who was sitting next to them and taking pictures of them with his phone, also did not believe that his younger sister would take a fancy to him.

Ai Nan said indignantly, “Don't you still not believe it? I was her junior high classmate. I never looked her in the eye at any time. Who knew that her brother Yu Tian would bring her to Linhai and ascend to heaven in an instant?

“He even bought our best aristocratic school. The class fee was 50 million. 50 million was enough for you to spend for several lifetimes. After I heard about it, I didn't believe it. I only believed it after I saw it with my own eyes, so, I found a reason to have a chance encounter with Yu Qi'er.

“Do you know that Yu Qi'er is completely devoted to me? I said that I didn't have any money, and she gave me 50,000 yuan of pocket money directly. She even told me to spend it hard. If I still need more, I can look for her to get it. How about it? Are you guys envious?”

Everyone nodded their heads in envy. They took a sip of beer and the guy in a flowery shirt said, “Aren't you afraid that Yu Tian will know that you're hitting on his sister? No one in Linhai can provoke him!”

Ai Nan said disdainfully, “When I sleep with Yu Qi'er, Yu Tian won't be able to object even if he wants to. When that time comes, I'll ask Yu Qi'er to arrange for me to join the Chu family's Tianhai Group and become a senior executive. I'll be content for the rest of my life!”

He spoke as if it would be realized soon. Even Yu Tian felt that his dream was pretty good, but it was not likely to come true.

The guy in a flowery shirt and the others believed him and tried their best to suck up to him.

“Brother Ai, when you become rich, don't forget about us!”

“We'll follow you in the future!”

“If you bring us all into Tianhai Group, we'll be your slaves for the rest of our lives!”

At this point, Ai Nan's phone rang. He first motioned for everyone to keep quiet before picking up the phone. He said obsequiously like a slave, “Sister Wu, I'll go back to work in a while” “Yes, yes, everything is done. I'll send it over to you now!”

After hanging up the phone, Ai Nan gulped down a mouthful of beer and stood up. “I'll go back to my office to deliver some things as I have an appointment with someone tonight. I'll see you at the restaurant!”

With that, Ai Nan ran out of the bar in a hurry. Yu Tian followed closely behind.

Ten minutes later, Ai Nan arrived at the entrance of a Chinese restaurant. A shrew-like woman in her forties scolded impatiently, “Why are you back so late? Don't you know that I'm in a hurry to use my red devil? Hurry up and go to the kitchen to wash the dishes!”

?Chapter 106 – How Arrogant

Thank you readers!

When Yu Tian saw this, he did not even have the desire to teach him a lesson. What the hell was this?

He thought that he could at least invest some capital by using the red devil to flirt with girls. This trash actually used his boss' water to fill his cup. How shameless.

Yu Tian directly turned his head away and went to Qi'er's school.

Yu Qi'er, who was in class, was called to the office by Yu Tian.

Yu Qi'er did not know what had happened at all. She swayed her braids and said cutely, "Brother, why are you here?"

"Isn't it because of you?" Yu Tian suppressed his anger and said in a low voice.

"Because of me? What about me?" Yu Qi'er was baffled.

"Take a look for yourself!"

Yu Tian took out his phone and threw it in front of her.

From the beginning to the end, the more he looked at Yu Qi'er, the uglier her expression became. In the end, tears flowed down her face.

Looking at her pitiful and aggrieved expression, Yu Tian grabbed a tissue and passed it to her. Then, he stroked her little head and said slowly, "Little sister, this society isn't as simple as you think. Money doesn't matter, but you must definitely think for yourself. You can't easily trust anyone, and you can't easily fall in love with anyone!"

Yu Qi'er pushed Yu Tian's hand away and said, "Who said I like him? He's just my junior high school classmate. I only treat him as a classmate. Who knew that he was such a person?" "It's good that you don't like him. In the future, he won't come and harass you. I'll settle him!" Yu Tian shook his head helplessly. When would his sister stop being so naive?

In the evening, Ai Nan got off work and left the restaurant smugly. He took a taxi to the hotpot restaurant that they had agreed on.

More than a dozen scoundrels had been waiting for him for a long time. When they met, they immediately complimented him.

"Our future president Ai is finally here. Take a seat, President Ai!"

"Brother Ai, I heard that you hooked up with an angel. My father is in business now and lacks funds. Can you let her talk to Yu Tian?"

“My sister wants to go to that aristocratic school. Can you get your angel to arrange it?”

Ai Nan laughed arrogantly and said disdainfully, “That's not a problem. Yu Qi'er loves me to death now. Even if I make her kneel in front of me, she won't even blink. Are you envious?” “I'm so envious. You're so lucky. We have to admit defeat!”

“Isn't that so? If I had known earlier, I'd have gone to that rural middle school and become Yu Qi'er's classmate.”

“It's not too late now. If you follow Brother Ai, are you afraid that you won't be able to earn money in the future?”

Ai Nan's face turned red from all the praise before he even drank any alcohol.

At this moment, Brother Long walked into the hot pot restaurant with more than a dozen men. They were all shrouded in a black aura. When they saw the photo on the phone and confirmed that it was Ai Nan, they immediately instructed the thugs in a low voice.

A few burly men rushed to Ai Nan's back. Before everyone could react, a burly man grabbed Ai Nan's hair and pressed it into the hot pot.

Ai Nan screamed and struggled to get up. This time, his face was covered in blisters. It was so painful that he screamed, shocking all the customers in the restaurant.

His friends got up and wanted to leave. The big man who hit him shouted, “Sit down!”

Everyone was so scared that they sat down obediently and looked at Ai Nan with their teeth bared.

Brother Long sneered and asked Ai Nan who was crying, “Do you know why I hit you?”

Ai Nan was crying. He licked the blisters on her face and wailed, “I really don't know. I really don't know you. If I offended you in any way, I'll kowtow to you. Please let me go!”

Brother Long said disdainfully, “You didn't offend me. You offended someone that even I didn't have the guts to offend. They're Boss Yu Tianyu and his sister!”

This time, he finally knew who he had offended. Ai Nan felt that the blisters on his face did not hurt anymore. He was so scared that he could not even tell if he was a man or a woman, a human or an animal.

His scoundrel friends did not support him this time. Their eyes were filled with disgust.

Was he not quite domineering before? He even said that he did not put Yu Tian in his eyes. Why was he not arrogant now?

Brother Long took out his phone and connected to Yu Tian's video. It was a live broadcast.

When Yu Tian saw Ai Nan's cowardly look, he felt disgusted. He transferred the phone to Yu Qi'er and let her see how foolish Ai Nan was.

Yu Qi'er had never seen such a scene before. She was so frightened that she closed her eyes.

Brother Long sneered at Ai Nan and said, "My boss doesn't say anything. He just doesn't vent his anger. You'll slap yourself until my boss is satisfied!"

Did Ai Nan dare to disobey him? He raised his hand and slapped his face hard.

The blisters were all broken and his face was covered in blood. He did not even look human anymore. As he slapped, he shouted, "President Yu, I was wrong. Qi'er, I was wrong. Please spare me!"

Even if Yu Qi

er did not like him, she did not want to see him suffer.

She said to Yu Tian in a low voice, "Brother, forget it. Don't make things difficult for him. I think he should've known his wrongs. Let him go!"

Yu Tian nodded. As long as his sister could vent her anger, it was fine.

Taking the phone, Yu Tian said indifferently, "Forget it. Tell him to get lost. Don't let me see him in Linhai in the future!"

Brother Long hurriedly nodded. "Okay, boss, [know what to do!"

After hanging up the phone, a few burly men dragged Ai Nan out of the hot pot restaurant like a dead dog.

Half an hour later, they threw Ai Nan in the suburbs. Brother Long shouted angrily, "Get out of Linhai, or die!"

Ai Nan, who was neither human nor ghost, rolled and crawled toward the seaside.

After running for about two kilometers, he wanted to sit down and catch his breath. Then, two men in black stepped forward and kicked him to the ground. They put him into a bag and carried him away.

After a long while, Ai Nan, this good-for-nothing, was finally smashed to the ground.

The bag was opened. Ai Nan looked around and saw that there seemed to be a warehouse around them.

Chang Tianyou turned around slowly and looked at him coldly. He sneered. "Look at how useless you are. You were beaten up by Yu Tian!"

Although Ai Nan was afraid, he still asked with trembling courage, "Who are you? What do you want?"

Chang Tianyou snorted coldly and said, "I'll give you a chance to take revenge. If you kill Yu Qi'er, I can arrange for you to go abroad and get a large sum of money. It's better than you leaving with your tail between your legs.

"Anyway, you've provoked Yu Tian. You won't be able to return to Linhai for the rest of your life.

Why don't you be braver to take up this opportunity? What do you think?"

Ai Nan felt that what Chang Tianyou said made a lot of sense. After all, he was already dead. He might as well take a gamble. If he could not persuade him, there was still a chance.

At the thought of this, he gritted his teeth and made up his mind. He said fiercely, "Alright, I'll do

Chang Tianyou nodded his head in satisfaction and smiled darkly. "Alright, my men will bring you to treat your injuries. Tomorrow at noon, Yu Qi'er will go to a restaurant with her classmates. That will be your chance!"

Ai Nan nodded vigorously and stood up to leave with the man in black.

Looking at his departing figure, Chang Tianyou ordered in a low voice, "When he succeeds, let him follow Yu Qi'er!"

?Chapter 107 – Gold And Jade Needles

Thank you readers!

In the blink of an eye, it was noon the next day. Yu Qi'er had just finished school when a female classmate, who was usually close to her, invited her out for a meal.

Yu Qi'er did not think much of it and followed her to a restaurant near the school.

After ordering the dishes, the classmate clutched his stomach and frowned. "I have to go to the washroom. You sit by yourself first!"

Yu Qi'er chuckled and nodded. The classmate then left. Ai Nan, who was wearing a hat, suddenly appeared behind her.

Yu Qi'er seemed to have sensed something and turned her head abruptly. When she saw Ai Nan's hideous face, she let out a scream and got up, wanting to run away.

Ai Nan was still a little hesitant at first, but when she saw her expression of disgust and fear, hatred erupted as well. He raised the dagger and forcefully pushed it into Yu Qi'er's waist.

Yu Qi'er screamed again, alerting the customers in the restaurant.

Ai Nan was also terrified. He threw the dagger away and ran out of the restaurant.

At this moment, Yu Tian was studying the progress of the project with Yan Longwen. When he received a call from the hospital, his mind exploded.

Yu Qi'er was like a sore spot with pain all over her body. Now that she was seriously injured by someone?

In less than five minutes, Yu Tian rushed to the entrance of the operating theater of the hospital.

At this moment, the doctor happened to walk out of the operating theater. He said with great regret, "I'm sorry, Mr. Yu. Your sister has lost too much blood and injured her vital organs.

Unless there's a miracle, otherwise..."

The doctor could not continue speaking. He shook his head helplessly and left.

Yu Tian felt as if he was struck by lightning. All the good things in his mind were shattered.

At this moment, Yu Qi'er was pushed into the ward. The nurses and doctors asked Yu Tian to take a look at her.

However, Yu Tian was exceptionally calm now. He thought of the golden jade needles.

In the ward, Yu Qi'er had already woken up after being injected with drugs. Her eyes were filled with tears as she looked at Yu Tian.

“Brother, I can't accompany you on the road of life anymore. You must be strong and carry on. Brother, I love you!”

Yu Tian did not listen to her at all. He took out the golden jade needle and practiced it in his mind. Then, he inserted the golden needle into Yu Qi'er's acupoints accurately. At the same time, he used his inner strength to activate the golden needle.

Yu Qi'er felt a slight warmth in her cold body. The pain in her wound gradually disappeared. A few minutes later, she even felt her hands and feet.

She excitedly said to Yu Tian, whose head was covered in sweat, “Brother, I feel really good now. What kind of needle is this?”

Yu Tian said in a low voice, “Don't talk. Relax. I still have to poke at a few other acupuncture points!”

Yu Qi'er firmly believed him. She relaxed her body and closed her eyes.

After finding the other seven acupuncture points, Yu Tian followed suit and inserted the golden needle. His inner strength immediately poured into the golden needle.

The wound on Yu Qi'er's back started to heal rapidly and the injured organs were also slowly recovering.

Two hours had passed. Yu Tian was so tired that his entire body was exhausted while Yu Qi'er was sound asleep.

Yu Tian checked Yu Qi'er's pulse and found that it was very stable. Only then did he let out a long breath.

“Oh my god, I'm so tired.”

This golden needle was a good thing, but it was too exhausting. At least she was saved. It was worth it to be a little tired.

The nurses and doctors outside the ward were discussing.

“Do you think President Yu fainted because he was too sad? Should we go in and take a look?”

“Forget it, the hospital director has already called Chu Qing. She'll be here very soon. Us nobodies shouldn't get involved!”

“How pitiful. His sister has only been discharged from the hospital for a few days and now she was killed by someone. Why is her life so miserable?”

At this moment, Chu Qing, Chu Xin, and Chu Rou rushed into the corridor in a hurry.

The hospital director and the doctors wanted to go over and say something polite, but Chu Qing was not in the mood to listen to their nonsense. She pushed open the door angrily and walked in.

The doctors and nurses all gathered around to watch.

Chu Qing saw that Yu Qi'er was lying motionless and Yu Tian was sitting there weakly. She was so angry that she shouted, "Who did it? Who did it? I'll exterminate his entire family. I'll make him wish he was dead!"

The shouting was louder and it shook Yu Tian's ears. Yu Qi'er was awake. Perhaps she was nervous and forgot that she was injured. She sat up and wrinkled her nose as she asked, "Sister, what happened to you?"

Chu Qing and the other two sisters opened their mouths in shock, and a thud sounded behind them.

The doctor could not accept this mysterious phenomenon and faint on the ground in confusion.

The nurse, the hospital director, and the others did not even look at the doctor. Why did they feel like their minds were in a trance? It was as if their bodies were no longer their own.

Chu Xin was the calmest. She hurriedly turned around and closed the door. She turned around and asked in a low voice, "Brother, was it you who saved sister?"

Yu Tian took out the golden needle and shook it. He said weakly, "It was it who saved my sister's life. The old man on the ship gave it to me!"

Chu Xin's extremely shocked gaze was like a burning flame. She said with extreme fear, "The golden needle. Oh my god, so it still exists?"

Why was it said so mysteriously? Could it be that there was something to this golden needle? Yu Tian could not help but ask, "Isn't this just an ordinary golden needle?"

Chu Qing then explained, "No, this isn't an ordinary golden needle. You won't be able to see this kind of golden needle in this world. We also read about it in the family's ancient books. This golden jade needle was from thousands of years ago. It once saved the family head's life. We don't know anything else!"

“I have so many older sisters. Don't you know anything? Why don't you ask in the group?” Yu Tian just wanted to know more secrets.

“No!” Chu Xin stopped him. “You can just save your younger sister. You absolutely can't let anyone know that you have the ability to save lives. This is for your own good!”

“Everything is for my own good.”

Yu Tian said disdainfully, “For my own good, you should let me know everything. It makes my heart itch!”

Now was not the time to talk about this. Chu Qing immediately arranged for someone to bring Yu Qi'er home in an extremely secretive manner.

At the same time, she reminded the president of the hospital. “Everything you saw today must be forgotten. The others must also forget it. Otherwise, you all will know the consequences!”

The president hurriedly nodded and said humbly, “I know what to do. No one will tell anyone what I saw today. They will all rot in their stomachs!”

Yu Tian was not in the mood to care about this. He called Brother Long and scolded, “Ai Nan stabbed my sister and almost took her life. What happened to you? Do you want to continue living?”

Brother Long said seriously, “President Yu, Ai Nan is dead. He was thrown under the bridge when he was found!”

It was not important that he was killed. Yu Tian was not surprised at all. He did not plan to let him live.

After hanging up the phone, Yu Tian thought, “Who killed Ai Nan?”

This person must be the one who had asked Ai Nan to assassinate his sister. Yu Tian went through the enemies in his mind. However, he still could not figure out who would do this.

At this moment, Yu Tian's phone rang. It was Chu Yue.

She said coldly, “Zong Ming has been found!”

?Chapter 108 – Charity Reception

Thank you readers!

In a farmhouse in the suburbs, Yu Tian saw Zong Ming who looked like a beggar.

Before he got close, he smelled a foul stench. His limbs had been broken, his tongue had been cut off, and his eyeballs had been dug out.

Seeing his miserable state, Yu Tian chuckled.

Who was so generous to have done this to this animal? Yu Tian did not even need to do it himself.

Chu Yue, who was beside him, said coldly, "This family opened the door this morning and left him at the door. Our people happened to come to this farmhouse to play and reported to us!"

Yu Tian shook his head indifferently and said disdainfully, "Now he's a cripple. He has no use at all. I've thought of a good place for him!"

Chu Yue was puzzled. Yu Tian's face was full of pride. No one knew what kind of evil idea he had thought of.

An hour later, Zong Ming was thrown to the door of his original villa. At the same time, a large group of reporters came.

Ever since the old man took over Zong Ming's villa, he had spent all his time with some random women to practice his divine technique.

The old man was enjoying himself. Ah Fa knocked on the door in a panic and shouted, "Master, quickly look outside!"

What was there to look at? The old man disdainfully opened the curtains a little and his eyes widened in surprise.

Who threw that damned Zong Ming back? He even attracted so many reporters!

He immediately put on his clothes and brought his disciples to the door.

Ah Fa expressed the essence of a shrew to the extreme. He pinched his waist and fingers and cursed through the door, "You people are too outrageous. Why are you shouting at the other person's door? Do you have any manners?"

"Look carefully. This is a villa, not a ghetto. Please stop shouting. It's so noisy!"

The old man looked at Zong Ming coldly, gnashing his teeth in hatred.

"He couldn't kill you even with this. You sure are lucky. But what can you do now? You can't speak, you can't read, and you can't even write."

A reporter immediately asked, "May I ask if you're Zong Ming's family? As far as we know, this was originally Zong Ming's villa. How did you get it?"

Ah Fa snorted coldly and said, "You're so stupid. How did you become a reporter? Of course, we bought it. Could it be that we snatched it? Get lost quickly. Get this damn beggar out of here."

Otherwise, I won't be polite!"

Could the reporters be scared by them? They continued to ask all kinds of questions.

The old man raised his hand to stop Ah Fa. He said coldly, "Dear reporters, this villa was indeed bought from Zong Ming. As for why he did this, I think you shouldn't ask me. You should ask him yourself. Alright, I have nothing else to say. Please leave!"

Although Zong Ming was disabled, he could still hear and think. He was so angry that his internal organs were rolling. However, he could not shout or curse. He could only hold it in his heart.

The old man sneered and said, "Zong Ming's enemies are everywhere. Who knows who did this to him? However, I can tell you some insider information that I know. Zong Ming's biggest enemy was the president of Xinghe Technology, Yu Tian!"

The reporters were silent. All kinds of recording equipment were inserted into the door. They were all impatient to know this so-called insider information.

The old man had one eye, and he said excitedly, "Yu Tian has always wanted to get Zong Ming's port. Now that the port is his, and Zong Ming has become like this, it's up to your imagination what has transpired. I won't say anything more. This is a trade secret. If you want to know more, you can make an appointment with me alone. Please leave now!"

After saying this, the old man left with a sneer.

The reporters were ambiguous and did not know whether to believe or doubt. They left in a flurry of discussion, but no one looked at Zong Ming.

Zong Ming could not do it even if he wanted to die. He could only lie in front of his former home, in agony.

At this moment, a rough figure wearing a black hat approached Zong Ming. He carried Zong Ming on his shoulder and left quickly.

Xinghe Technology.

Yu Tian was researching the golden jade needle when Chu Qing sent him a message.

“Brother, go and get some cool clothes. Go to a charity party tonight. I still have to work overtime today. Go on my behalf!”

Chu Qing's intention was to let Yu Tian expand his social circle and get to know more people. It would be beneficial to his future.

Yu Tian was not willing to go. Socializing was the most annoying thing. However, since Chu Qing had already spoken, Yu Tian could only reluctantly agree.

8 pm, the Regal Hotel near the sea.

The lights were flickering, and the singing and dancing were ongoing. The bigwigs of the upper-class society had gathered here.

Countless rich, handsome men and beautiful women entered Regal Hall, which could accommodate 1,000 people at the same time.

Hundreds of beautiful women in Cheongsam stood on both sides with smiles on their faces, providing the best service to the guests who came.

There were even many celebrities and socialites who shuttled through the crowd. Regardless of whether they knew each other or not, they would be familiar with each other after a few drinks.

Yu Tian arrived at the entrance of the venue. Two security guards in suits asked with a smile, “May I know your name, sir?”

“Yu Tian!”

One of the security guards immediately scrolled through the tablet for a long time, but he could not find Yu Tian's name.

He could not help but ask doubtfully, “Your name is Yu Tian, right? I'm sorry, your name isn't on the list of guests. We can't let you in!”

Yu Tian did not want to waste time with them. He said indifferently, “I'm here on behalf of Chu Qing. I think you should have Chu Qing's name, right?”

The security guard chuckled.

“Of course, we have Miss Chu's name, but we don't have your name. So, we don't care if you're here on behalf of Miss Chu. We can't let you in. Please don't make things difficult for us!”

Yu Tian was not happy to hear this.

Why would he make things difficult for you? Did he hit him or scold him?

Yu Tian wanted to say something to refute him, but a woman behind him said in a strange tone,

“Hey, isn't that President Yu? Why, do you have such a good relationship with the gatekeeper?”

He turned around and saw that the person who spoke was that woman from Aster Technology, Huo Nian Yue.

Yu Tian did not bother anyone else when he saw her. She was not beautiful enough to wear a diamond necklace or an evening dress.

He could not be bothered with this woman and casually retorted, “I'm not as good as you. You don't reject anyone who comes. No wonder you look like a pit. No matter where you go, you'll end up in a pit!”

Huo Nian Yue frowned. This guy's words were quite powerful. She sneered and said, “I'm a pit, but I can enter the venue. You can only let the security guards stop you here. Now, please move aside. I'm about to enter!”

“You want me to move aside? Do you have the ability to do that?”

Yu Tian stood still. Huo Nian Yue took a step forward and stepped back. When she saw Yu Tian's cold and arrogant gaze, she gritted her teeth and still walked around him.

He had just sent this woman away when another acquaintance came..

?Chapter 109 – Today Isn'T Bad

Thank you readers!

Today was really not bad. He had just gotten into a spark with Huo Nian Yue when Shao Mingzun and his son, Shao Tian, also came.

When Shao Tian saw Yu Tian, he was so angry that he gritted his teeth.

Ever since his nose was smashed by Yu Tian, he could not even speak properly. He could only bid farewell to the KTV. Otherwise, when he sang, others would say that he was killing pigs.

However, Shao Mingzun's expression did not change as he cupped his fists. He said with a fake smile, “President Yu, how have you been? Didn't that lass Qing come?”

Recently, that lass has forgotten about me, this old fart. She didn't even come to have tea with me!a€?

Yu Tian sneered and said disdainfully, a€?Your leg isn't bad, huh? When are you planning to cripple that leg? I think today's isn't bad. Why don't you cripple it?a€?

The killing intent that came out of his words stunned Shao Mingzun. How could Yu Tian's killing intent be so strong now?

It had really been a day since they last met. He had a whole new level of respect for him.

The old man laughed along and said coldly, a€?Today is the charity banquet. If you feel that there's a fire that can't be vented, you can donate more money to the poor!a€?a€?If it wasn't for the charity banquet, would you still be standing here?'

Yu Tian smiled disdainfully and waved his hand, telling them to scram.

Shao Mingzun snorted coldly and limped into the venue with a look of disdain on his face.

Yu Tian turned his head and someone spoke behind him.

a€?Brother Yu, so you're here too?a€?

He turned his head and saw that it was an old friend with a flirtatious woman. His face was full of pride.

Yu Tian snorted coldly and said, a€?Who the f*ck is your brother? Can you not flatter yourself? Look at how old you are. Are you embarrassed to ask me to call you brother?a€?

The old man was not angry. He blinked his one-eyed dragon and said with a smile, a€?I still have to thank you for throwing Zong Ming at my door. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have had the chance to participate in this charity party.

a€?Now, I'm also a billionaire in Linhai, with a net worth of more than a billion yuan. In the future, when you see me, you have to call me brother. Later, I'll drink with you!a€?

What nonsense was there to talk to him? Yu Tian did not say a word. He raised his leg and kicked.

The old man raised his hand to block. He took two steps back and stood steadily.

Yu Tian was shocked. The old man's kung fu had improved. It turned out that he could block his kick easily.

The old man patted the dust off his arm and said proudly, "Your temper is still as bad as ever. Today is the charity banquet, and all the people here are civilized. I won't fight with you. Do you understand?"

"I'll go in for a drink first and get to know some rich people. In the future, my business will be bigger. I won't lower myself to your level today!"

With that, the old man laughed maniacally and pulled the woman into the venue.

Yu Tian snorted coldly and thought to himself, "I'll see how your business will continue." At this moment, Du Mingzhe also came with a little woman.

When he saw the angry Yu Tian, he was so scared that his legs went soft. After the last press conference, Lei Yi was furious and scolded himself.

Either he could start promoting the five-dimensional code within two months, or he could get Yu Tian's six-dimensional code technology. The last choice was to die if he could not get anything.

Yu Tian looked at Du Mingzhe and snorted.

"Don't talk to me, or you'll get beaten up. Get lost!"

Du Mingzhe braced himself, adjusted his glasses, and hurriedly walked into the venue with his head lowered.

The corner of Yu Tian's mouth curved. So many people had come today.

At this time, the two security guards finally recovered from their shock. They wiped their cold sweat with the tablet in their hands, they said humbly, "Mr. Yu, you don't need an invitation. You can enter as you please. It was our mistake before. Sorry, please go in!"

Yu Tian blinked his eyes. Why did these two security guards look like they were sick?

Looking at Yu Tian's back view as he entered the venue, the two security guards wiped the cold sweat off their faces and comforted each other.

"Fortunately, we didn't say anything out of turn. It's impossible for this macho man to be angry with us!"

"He doesn't care about so many rich people. He even almost kicked that one-eyed man. Can the two of us be his match? It's better not to provoke him!"

Yu Tian took a glass of wine and found a corner to sit down. No one paid any attention to him.

Anyway, no one paid any attention to him, including Huo Nianyue and the other enemies. They were all focused on developing their own businesses and despising him at the same time.

Huo Nianyue, in particular, started introducing Yu Tian to people before she could even finish two sentences.

“Look at the man in the corner over there. His name is Yu Tian. He's a man who lives off his wife. He once wanted to be my boss, but I rejected him. This b*stard even stole my company's technology. He's so indecent!”

Those who had heard of Yu Tian did not think so, but those who had not heard of Yu Tian took it seriously.

Everyone started discussing.

“So he's Chu Qing's boy toy. No wonder he's so arrogant. What's so great about a gigolo?”

“He has his own way of living. We all rely on our own abilities to make a living. He relies on women. He's not on the same team as us. Let's ignore him!”

“I really couldn't tell. Chu Qing has taken a fancy to this kind of person. Isn't she a little desperate?”

The old man and Shao Mingzun had a good eye for each other.

The two of them even drank two glasses of wine. The old man's words were slang.

“The Black Gate has planted a flag for me. I have to hang this lantern for you. It's everywhere. It's red all the way. Hang the gate on your good side!”

Shao Mingzun cupped his fists. He smiled and said, “We're all burning incense under the ancestral master's table. We can't get angry by kowtowing to two gates at once. Moreover, we all want to light a lantern like Yu Tian. I have the base fire. Let's see if you can burn the incense of the sub-gate.”

The old man looked at Yu Tian coldly and said fiercely, “With the South Water Gate following us into the river, this fish will definitely stomp him to death. I'll float him to the bottom. Now that my pocket is open, I'm just waiting for this fish to crawl into it!”

“Good, that's great! Haha!” Shao Mingzun laughed out loud. Those who did not know would have thought that he was engaged to that one-eyed man.

At this moment, the charity banquet officially began.

According to the rules, the staff had to rearrange the chairs according to the number of people who came.

The beautiful emcee in the cheongsam invited everyone to take their seats according to the guest list.

Everyone took their seats one after another. When they arrived at Yu Tian's place, there were no more chairs.

The manager of the charity banquet looked at the list again. The event was about to start, and the seats were not ready yet. He looked at Yu Tian and asked arrogantly, "What's your name? Do you have an invitation?"

Before Yu Tian could say anything, Shao Tian shouted from the other side, "He's nothing. He just sneaked in. Is there something wrong with your manager? We're all elites of the upper-class society here. Who does he think he is to sit with us?"

Some of the meanest people who liked to put on airs also joined in the jeering. "Yeah, what's his status? Is he qualified to participate in this kind of banquet?"

"Hurry up and kick this trash out. Don't affect our mood!" "Yeah, get him out of here. Is this where he can come?"

?Chapter 110 – Domineering

Thank you readers!

The manager could no longer remain calm. The banquet was about to begin. Even though the host was already on stage, he was still wasting his time on this chair.

His originally arrogant expression had now become extremely vile. He said in a tone that was close to scolding, "Since you don't have an invitation, there's no seat for you here. Hurry up and scram. If you affect the beginning of the banquet, you won't be able to handle it!"

Yu Tian narrowed his eyes. Did this manager feel that he was tired of living?

At this moment, Huo Nian Yue smiled with ill intentions. "President Yu, I think you've really wasted your time. Do you still think that you're in charge? Now, you don't even have a seat. It turns out that you only think that you're an elite. But in front of us real elites, you really don't even have a place to sit!"

Waves of ridicule rose from the scene.

Yu Tian just smiled indifferently and treated it as a beast calling out.

Then, the manager stretched out his hand to push Yu Tian. He shouted angrily, "Stop wasting time and get the hell out of here. Have I not given you enough face?"

Yu Tian snorted coldly. Without saying a word, he raised his hand and gave a big slap. The manager hit his head horizontally against the wall, and his head was bleeding.

Everyone was so shocked that they all shut their mouths. Yu Tian had attacked just like that. His aura was fierce, and he was too violent.

What made them even more shocked was that Yu Tian obviously did not feel satisfied with just a slap. He grabbed the manager whose eyes were about to split open. With a jab, he flattened his nose and threw him into the crowd.

The man landed on Shao Tian's body. He weighed more than 100 kilograms, and when it landed on Shao Tian's body, he felt that his bones had been shattered, and he let out a miserable cry on the spot.

Shao Mingzun stood up angrily, pointed at Yu Tian, and cursed, "Yu Tian, you dare to hit my son

Under everyone's extremely shocked gazes, Yu Tian chuckled and said, "I even dare to hit you. What does your son count for? Last time, I destroyed his nose. Today, I'll let him be like you and use crutches in the future!"

"You are| you are|

Shao Mingzun felt as if a fish bone was stuck in his throat. His eyebrows and eyes exploded. He wished he could swallow Yu Tian alive.

However, he also knew that he was no match for Yu Tian. If he were to play hardball now and anger Yu Tian, he would only be asking for trouble.

A staff member hurriedly helped the absent-minded manager up. Shao Tian also groaned as he climbed up.

He felt that he had lost face in front of others. No matter what, he had to fight for his face back. Moreover, he did not believe that Yu Tian would dare to touch him in front of so many people and his own father.

Therefore, he cursed with a face full of disgust, "Yu Tian, f*ck you! If you have the guts, fight me one-on-one. I'll kill you!"

Shao Mingzun wanted to bang his head on the ground when he heard this. How did he give birth to such a stupid son?

Yu Tian had been waiting for such an opportunity. How could he not satisfy him?

Needless to say, Yu Tian jumped in front of him like an arrow. He was like a wild beast, full of murderous intent.

Shao Tian was so scared that he fell to the ground. Before Yu Tian could make a move, this good-for-nothing rolled and crawled away in a panic. He hit his head on the chair and his head was bleeding.

The shock was nothing. Shao Mingzun felt that he had lost all his face. Why was he still sitting here? He suppressed the anger in his heart and got up to leave.

Yu Tian chuckled. The moment Shao Mingzun turned around, Yu Tian went up and kicked Shao Mingzun's good leg.

With a crisp crack, Shao Mingzun groaned and fell to the ground with a plop.

Everyone's shocked eyes were about to explode.

Shao Mingzun was an old man in Linhai. Yu Tian could kick him whenever he wanted. It was simply lawless.

However, Yu Tian chuckled and said, "I've already said that today is a good day. You just don't believe me. How do you feel now? I'll give you a good wheelchair later. How about an electric Shao Mingzun, who was lying on the ground, felt a piercing pain in his heart. He could not even speak.

Yu Tian looked around and happened to see Du Mingzhe grimacing.

"Come over here!" Yu Tian pointed at Du Mingzhe and ordered.

Du Mingzhe was so scared that he trembled. He braced himself and came closer.

"Send this old fellow to the hospital!"

Yu Tian ordered, "But if I know that he can still stand, I'll let you sit in the wheelchair!"

There was no choice.

Du Mingzhe gritted his teeth and helped Shao Mingzun up in front of everyone before he left the venue.

Yu Tian then looked at the venue manager and said disdainfully, "There are seats now. The banquet can begin!"

The manager was almost in a vegetative state. What else could he say? He was carried away by the staff.

Yu Tian sat down at Shao Mingzun's seat boldly. He did not put anyone in his eyes at all.

Everyone also tried their best to stay away from him.

Behind the crowd, Huo Nian Yue and the old man glared at the back of his head. Yu Tian's domineering performance stunned the entire venue.

They originally wanted to humiliate him, but now, they could not say a word.

The charity banquet officially began. First, there was the song, then the dance, and finally, the main event, the charity auction.

The items were nothing much. They were all ordinary antiques or jewelry. Everyone followed the bids, and the highest bidder also got the item.

Yu Tian was watching the entire time and did not bid at all. Even the old man bought two vases and spent more than a million.

Seeing that the auction was about to end, the old man deliberately said loudly, "This charity auction is really not bad. It can help the poor, and it can also help them accumulate virtue. However, some people came to watch the show and did not buy anything.

"Then what's the point of sitting here? Brother Yu, do you think that's what I'm saying?"

Yu Tian slowly turned around and said disdainfully, "Shao Mingzun's legs are crippled. Do you also want to be blind in both eyes? What nonsense are you spouting?"

The old man laughed and said, "I'm also considered a disabled person. I can even do my part for charity. You, the boss with a net worth of ten billion, are too stingy, aren't you? You didn't even give a single cent!"

He was really hateful for saying so much nonsense.

Did this trash think he was great just because he bought two vases?

Yu Tian chuckled and said, "So, why should I compete with a disabled person like you?"

After saying that, Yu Tian slowly stood up and said in an extremely domineering manner, "I, Yu Tian, will give you as much money as the charity banquet has raised today. Feel free to bid as much as you want. There's no need to save money for me!"

Everyone was stunned.

This was no longer something that could be described as pretentious. This was simply domineering.

Today's auction had at least tens of millions, yet he actually did not want anything and directly donated the money. Among the people present, who could do it?

Indeed, pretentious people had the capital. People like them were directly left behind by a few ranks.

The host went crazy and shouted at the top of his voice, "Everyone, our biggest philanthropist has been born today. He's this young and promising gentleman. Let us give him the warmest applause!"

Some people who admired Yu Tian immediately clapped. In the end, the entire audience clapped as well. Even the old man and Huo Nian Yue barely clapped a few times.

Just then, a staff member suddenly rushed to the stage..
