Chapter 11: Yinxian Villa

The landscape taken up by Yinxian Villa completely shocked Yu Tian.

Clearly, the owner was someone extraordinary. At the very least, the person's status and position must be more prestigious than his three elder sisters.

When Yu Tian entered the villa's grounds, he was not greeted by a tall, glorious building or even a three-story tall mansion.

Instead, it was a two-story building located in a space that resembled the landscape gardens of an ancient emperor.

a◆?Yu Tian, don't get nervous,a◆? whispered Chu Qing softly.??For some reason, the woman who had never been afraid to speak her mind was lowering her voice.

Yu Tian asked, a◆?Elder sister Qing, who am I meeting? Why do all of you look so nervous?a◆?

Chu Qing shook her head and remained silent. A frightful expression flashed across her face.

a◆?Elder sister Xin, Elder sister Roua◆|a◆?

Yu Tian tried again but it was to no avail.

Finally, Chu Xin broke the silence.

a◆?You'll find out soon enough.a◆?

Yu Tian forced a smile. Was he meeting the emperor or an ancestor of the family? Why was everything so mysterious?

After making several turns within the villa grounds for about ten minutes, the car stopped in front of an ordinary-looking courtyard.

The three women cautiously led Yu Tian through the gates. They walked past the corridors connecting the pavilions and kiosks. Eventually, they stopped at the rear court.

A massive lake took up most of the space. There was a small pavilion ingeniously built on the boulder that was exposed in the middle.

At the same time, a person was drinking tea and playing Weiqi alone inside the pavilion.

Yu Tian could clearly see the person.

He became curious. Finally, he got to meet the mysterious man.

“Yu Tian, you'll have to go on by yourself. The answers you were searching for are over there,” mumbled Chu Xin. Then, she led the other two women toward some stone stools.

Even though he was confused, Yu Tian walked to the pavilion alone.

“This person must be the elder sisters' elderly. Why else would they be so terrified?”

The women became nervous when Yu Tian's figure receded.

“Elder sister Xin, will Yu Tian be fine?” asked Chu Qing in a concerned tone.

Chu Xin shook her head and curled her lips into a faint smile.

“Don't worry, our younger brother isn't an average Joe. The fact that he accepted us while still having an amiable heart means that he's not a bad person.”

“Agreed. I have faith in Yu Tian. I'm sure he can pass this test.”

Chu Rou adjusted her qipao before sitting down elegantly.

“I didn't expect my second visit to Yinxian Villa would be because of Yu Tian.”

“|

While the women were still whispering, Yu Tian arrived at the pavilion.

He coughed softly as a way to indicate his arrival.

For some unknown reason, he felt that the man's upright figure seemed rather familiar.

The other person did not turn around.

“You're here? Sit down and have some tea,” he said softly.

The man's voice was flat and emotionless as if it belonged to a mystical being who had already seen everything in this world.

Yu Tian took to his seat. Finally, he got to see the person's face.

The man was probably in his fifties, Yet, he did not have a single gray hair. His eyes were radiant and beneath the seemingly calm expression, he was as sharp as the edge of the knife.

Additionally, the man's cheeks were glowing beneath his smooth, wrinkle-free skin.

Yu Tian felt a strange feeling, but he could not pin down exactly what it was.

“You can call me Uncle Long,” said the man. He poured Yu Tian a cup of tea.

The fragrance of the tea leaves entered Yu Tian's nose. He could not help but sip on the tea.

“This tea is great! Thank you, Uncle Long.”

“Yu Tian, aren't you curious about who I am?” asked Uncle Long while smiling. It was as if his gaze was capable of penetrating through the young man's soul.

The latter revealed a polite grin.

“Obviously, I'm here today because Uncle Long has something to tell me. I didn't think it would be polite to ask you directly.”

Uncle Long was satisfied with the young man's reply. He still had a faint smile on his face.

While he refilled the teacups, he also gestured to the board game. It was an invite for Yu Tian to play Weiqi with him.

A look of embarrassment flashed across Yu Tian's face.

“Uncle Long, I don't know how to play Weiqi,” said Yu Tian humbly. Back then, he could not afford to learn it.

Uncle Long shook his head gently.

a◆?It's your move.a◆?

Was it?

Yu Tian was frustrated. The man was not giving him any choice.

a◆?Am I being tested?'

He almost laughed at this thought.

In the end, Yu Tian picked up a random playing piece and placed it down at the first empty spot that he could find.

Uncle Long stayed silent for a very long time.

Then, he laughed aloud and began putting away the playing pieces back to a box.

a◆?Perhaps this is fate,a◆? said Uncle Long. His sharp gaze was filled with admiration.

a◆?Yu Tian, I'm only an old butler for the Chu Family. Today's meeting is simply to confirm if you're actually the person that we're looking for.a◆?

Uncle Long did not beat around the bush.

Yu Tian's expression glowed,??as he preferred this straightforward style of speech.

a◆?Well, are you sure now?a◆?

The older man shook his head and replied ambiguously, a◆?Yes, but also no. However, there's no need to rush. We still have time.a◆?

a◆?Uncle Long, please confirm if I'm the right person. I don't want to accept these privileges for nothing.a◆?

Yu Tian's unexpected confession surprised the man.

Uncle Long looked intensely at Yu Tian for a while to judge if he was telling the truth.

a◆?Based on everything that has happened, you're indeed the person that we're looking for. Nonetheless, you still need to grow and that will take some time.a◆?

a◆?Do I have huge responsibilities over my shoulders?a◆?

Yu Tian wanted to laugh. This scenario felt like something out of a novel.

a◆?Yu Tian, you're still young and there's so much that you still don't know. This world is very complicated, but there's no rush. One day, you'll understand everything.a◆?

Uncle Long gradually rose to his feet and gestured at the young man.

a◆?Come with me.a◆?

Yu Tian looked at Uncle Long who was walking slowly with a perplexed expression. All of a sudden, he had an urge to kick the older man.

a◆?Why can't he get straight to the point?

a◆?Beating around the bush is exhausting!

Shortly after, Uncle Long brought Yu Tian to the ancestral hall.

The plaque of the ancestral hall read: Chu Ancestral Hall.

a◆?Yu Tian, come on in. You just have to perform three bows.a◆?

Uncle Long's tone suddenly sounded much more serious.

Bow?

Why would he bow to unknown ancestors?

He might not even be a part of the Chu Family at all!

However, if that was the case, why did the Chu Family take such great care of him?

Furthermore, what were the implications of the three bows?

Meanwhile, Uncle Long had already performed three respectful bows.

No matter what, the deceased should be respected. Moreover, these were the ancestors of the elder sisters who had helped him out greatly. It was not strange to show them some respect.

Suddenly, Uncle Long requested, a◆?Yu Tian, hand over your pendant.a◆?

The smile on his face appeared to be even more gentle.

Instinctively, Yu Tian reached for his pendant but he had second thoughts.

Both Chu Qing and Uncle Long had shown interest in this pendant.

Was this not an ordinary pendant?

Yu Tian frowned slightly.

“Uncle Long, this pendant may not be worth much, but it means the world to me. You can have a look but I can't give it to you.”

Uncle Long laughed upon hearing that.

The sound of his laughter filled the entire hall. All of a sudden, the older man knelt down in front of the altar.

“Ancestors of the Chu Family, we have finally found the Young Lord!”

Young Lord?

What the h*ck!?

Yu Tian looked at Uncle Long with a perplexed expression. The older man was acting differently from before.

However, they were still inside the Chu family's ancestral hall. Thus, Uncle Long simply remained silent.

Several minutes later, Uncle Long rose to his feet. He turned around and stared at Yu Tian. The latter could not help but stagger backward due to the fervent gaze.

Yu Tian would have a better reaction if a beautiful woman was staring at him like that, but this was an old man.

“Uncle Long, what do you mean by Young Lord?”

Yu Tian asked softly. Things had gone beyond his expectations. He needed to figure out the situation.

The older man nodded his head as he wiped the tears off the corners of his eyes. Then, he bowed respectfully to Yu Tian.

It caused the latter to frown. This formal etiquette was only performed during the ancient days!

“The Chu family became so powerful because of the Yu family.”

What Uncle Long said startled Yu Tian.

The Yu family was the reason why the Chu family became successful.

“Damn, but why was my life so miserable in comparison?”

Yu Tian could not even afford three meals a day ever since his parents went missing!

Uncle Long sighed as he could tell what the young man was thinking.

“The Chu family is ancillary to the Yu family. The former used to be one of the more inferior families.”

Yu Tian's mouth was agape. He was completely stunned.

Why did this scenario sound like something out of a novel?

It must be nonsense!

“Are you going to tell me that I'm actually the abandoned young master of a massive family who has finally been found?”

Yu Tian guessed. It would be so melodramatic if that was the truth.

Uncle Long chuckled at the comment and waved his hand dismissively in the air.

“Calm down. You're right, but not entirely. A hundred years ago, the Yu Family experienced a catastrophe and suffered an inevitable decline. Fast forward to this day, you're the Yu Family's only descendant that's still alive.”

A solemn expression took over the elder man's face.

“Of course, we're still not completely certain that your parents are dead.”

What?

Shocked, Yu Tian grabbed the older man's arm.

“Are you saying that my parents are still alive?”

Uncle Long nodded. He budged slightly, but that was enough to make the young man stagger backward. His expression then became stern.

“We have no evidence to prove that they're dead. For now, you're not entitled to learn the truth, especially concerning this issue. Don't worry though. You'll know more once you prove your self-worth. There will be many tests ahead of you.”

Uncle Long smiled gently and grabbed a wooden chair from the side.

“The world isn't as simple as you thought.”

He added before slowly placing his fingers on top of the back of the chair.

“Crack!”

The man crushed the back of the thick wooden chair effortlessly.

Yu Tian could not believe what he saw.

“Gulp.”

“Uncle Long, you're not telling me that cultivation is real, right?” he said with a quivering voice.

Uncle Long chuckled.

“A lot of things that you have read from novels exist, albeit slightly different.”

Yu Tian smiled bitterly. The changes in his life were definitely not ordinary!

Out of nowhere, he suddenly had one hundred and eight elder sisters. They gave him wealth, a business to run, and anything else that he ever wanted. There's a catch to everything. Only a fool would believe otherwise!

Yet, things seemed to be going well so far.

“This is all I have to say. I only ask one thing from you, which is to improve yourself and be worthy of the ‘Young Lord’ title one day!”

Uncle Long looked intensely at Yu Tian. He had high expectations. At the same time, he also looked concerned.

Yu Tian frowned. After thinking for a while, he asked, a◆?Uncle Long, I'm curious about something. How are you sure that I'm the one you're looking for?a◆?

a◆?It's simple. First of all, the Yu Family members genuinely can't play Weiqi. Every time they are put to the test, they will make a fatal move even if it's by chance.a◆?

Uncle Long smiled as he explained. This was one of those mysteries that no one could figure out.

Members of the Yu Family were unable to learn the game, even if their lives depended on it!

a◆?Secondly, it's your pendant. You might not realize it, but that pendant is the Yu Family's heirloom. It has been passed on for numerous generations.a◆?

Yu Tian found what the older man was saying hard to believe.

However, why would he lie?

a◆?Yu Tian, wealth isn't important to a truly powerful family. What's really important is competence!a◆?

Uncle Long quickly said as he noticed that the young man was getting distracted.

He clenched his fists and looked at the broken chair again.

a◆?You'll discover a whole new world once you're competent enough. Work hard and do your best. We're still waiting for the Young Lord to lead us into the new world!a◆?

Again, Yu Tian was perplexed.

Despite that, he remained silent. After all, the older man was unwilling to offer more explanation.

Regardless, Yu Tian had a better understanding of his circumstances now. Fortunately, he turned out to be the heir of a great family, even if they did lose their power. Additionally, he was required to go through many tests.

a◆?I don't really care about the details. All I want is for my younger sister to live a good life. Also, I'd like to find my parents,a◆? said Yu Tian. At the moment, those were his goals.

Uncle Long let out a sigh.

a◆?Yu Tian, it doesn't take much to lead a good life and it's not difficult to find your parents either. As it turns out, I know where they are buta◆|a◆?

a◆?But what?a◆? asked the young man impatiently.

a◆?But we're still lacking in strength. We'll be courting death if we're reckless!a◆?

Uncle Long regretfully slammed his clenched fist on the wooden chair.

a◆?Crash!

The sturdy wooden chair immediately shattered into pieces.

Small pieces of wood were scattered across the floor.

Yu Tian was taken aback by what he just witnessed. A normal human did not possess this amount of strength!

Even the strongest soldier in the whole world was not this powerful!

Only those people who practiced cultivation in novels do.

a◆?Yu Tian, this is the path you're destined to take.a◆?

Uncle Long took out a delicate wooden box from beneath the altar and handed it over to Yu Tian.

a◆?You must practice cultivation and become stronger. Once you're on top of the world, you'll be qualified to learn about your parents' whereabouts,a◆? said Uncle Long after taking a deep breath.

a◆?Furthermore, in order to increase your power, you must take advantage of the resources provided by the Chu Family. You'll understand what I'm saying when the time comes. The Chu Family is still too weak in terms of power. Yu Tian, you don't have much time left.a◆?

After saying that, Uncle Long took two steps backward and knelt down.

Yu Tian went forward to help him up, but the older man refused.

a◆?Yu Tian, I beg you. Please do your best in cultivation. For yourself, for the Yu Family, and also for the declining Chu Family.a◆?

Then, the older man began kowtowing to him.

Yu Tian was bewildered. He did not know how to react.

In his heart, he began to feel a heavyweight of responsibility.

“Uncle Long, the Chu Family is in trouble?” he asked while helping the latter to his feet.

“A lot of trouble! So much that the Chu Family could not overcome it with their own strength. You're the only one that can help them.”

Uncle Long said earnestly. He added, “The Chu Family had faced several massive obstacles in the past hundred years. Each time, the Yu Family would lend them a hand but now—”

“I understand. I don't know if I'll be of much help, but I'll try my best.”

Yu Tian nodded.

He needed some time to digest all the information. However, he was willing to risk everything to help the Chu Family.. It was not an abnormal decision after everything he and his sister had received from them!

Uncle Long courteously bowed and gestured toward the door after hearing his reply. Yu Tian did not expect him to react that way.

“Am I being chased out?”

“D*mn! Why did his attitude change so drastically?”

Yu Tian was speechless. He still had so many doubts!

“I'll answer your questions the next time we meet again. Now is not the time,” replied Uncle Long ambiguously before leading the young man back to the pavilion.

“See you next time,” he said to Yu Tian while smiling. Then, he walked into the pavilion alone.

Perplexed, Yu Tian shifted his gaze toward his three elder sisters who were nearby. They stared back at him. In the end, he forced a smile and shook his head.

“Why is Uncle Long such a temperamental man? Why did he chase me out so quickly?”

Yu Tian simply did not understand. It was as if the older man was afraid to be asked more questions.

He approached his sisters but the three women simply led him out of the place quietly. It seemed like there was an unspoken rule between them.

After getting into the car, the talkative women began bombarding him with multiple questions.

Yu Tian smiled bitterly. He finally understood why women were called gossip queens.

“Elder sisters, I believe you already know the answers to your questions, and that you're not supposed to know anything more,” he said plainly, mimicking Uncle Long's way of speech.

Unexpectedly, this worked wonders. The women immediately stopped talking.

Frustrated, Chu Qing said, “They only chatted for a short while, but Yu Tian has already been infected by Uncle Long.”

“Elder sister Qing, who exactly is Uncle Long? Is he really capable?”

Yu Tian asked in a curious manner.

“Uncle Long is a senior member of the family. I heard that he's almost in his seventies,” Chu Qing replied casually. Her answer surprised the young man.

“Seventies?”

“He looked as if he was only in his early fifties!”

“Was this thanks to the power of cultivation that Uncle Long kept stressing about?”

Instinctively, Yu Tian caressed the delicate wooden box in his hands. He looked at it with expectant eyes.

It must be really precious since it was kept carefully in the Chu ancestral hall.

Yu Tian asked a few more questions but only received similar replies.

The women did not have the answers to his questions!

“Yu Tian, you don't have to waste your energy. We are nowhere near the core of the family. Moreover, we've only met Uncle Long once before today,” said Chu Xin.

The young man stopped asking more questions.

Shortly later, the four of them arrived at home.

Yu Tian spoke with the women briefly before heading for his room.

He looked at the wooden box as if it was something precious. Finally, he opened it with the utmost caution.

The lock was undone and immediately, a pleasant scent filled the room.

Yu Tian could not help but inhale deeply. He felt extremely relaxed while indulging in the pleasant scent.

The item in the box was a piece of old, red satin that looked as if it had been stored for a long time.

Yu Tian picked it up with care and unfolded it, revealing an ancient book.

The cover of the book was made of animal leather. It was beneath a thick layer of patina and was still in good condition.

Only one word was written on the cover a Yu.

It was written in ancient writing, thus, it took Yu Tian a while to recognize it.

The young man could hear his own heart pound as he began reading the book's content.

Although he was not used to ancient Chinese, he managed to grasp the context without much difficulty. The characters made sense once they were put together in sentences.

After briefly scanning through, Yu Tian let out a long sigh and wiped off the sweat on his forehead with the back of his hand.

His face appeared calm, yet, his hands were shaking.

The contents of the ancient book were a compilation of cultivation methods passed down by the Yu family's ancestors. It also recorded the method of cultivating the Golden Core!

As for the second half of the book, it was specifically about the Yu family's ancestors' insights throughout their cultivation journey.

Yu Tian's father had written down his experiences as well. However, the man had only attained the peak of Qi Condensation Stage. He was many stages behind in comparison to the core formation experts that were mentioned in the first half of the book.

a◆?Sigha◆|a◆?

Yu Tian let out a long sigh.

a◆?Soa◆| Cultivation really does exist◆|a◆? he said to no one in particular.

This was even more outrageous than suddenly having one hundred and eight elder sisters that fulfilled all his wishes!

However, looking at his father's handwriting cleared some of his doubts.

No wonder his father had always been so strong. He even caused sleepless nights due to the loud noises he made.

Then, Yu Tian slapped himself. How could he criticize his father like that? He was trying his best to become strong!

Yu Tian placed the Yu Cultivation Method Book aside. Suddenly, a note left inside the box caught his attention.

His father's handwriting was scribbled across the note.

a◆?Yu Tian, as a father, I didn't want to involve you in the cultivation world because there's too much cruelty here. If you're reading this, it means that we really can't escape from destiny. Our family has a cultivation background. Although we're declining in influence, we're still powerful. Right now, you have to practice cultivation diligently by using the Yu family's methods. It will help improve your cultivation base in a short amount of time.

In order to shield you from danger, your grandfather and I had cast restrictive spells on you. There's a Barrier Breaking Pill inside the box. Consuming that will lift the restrictive spells in your body. That way, you can start your cultivation journey. You're the only lineage left of the Yu family. You must become strong. More than tens of thousands of people need your protection!

Your pendant is an important treasure handed down from generation to generation within our family. However, its purpose is still unknown. You'll have to find the answers by yourself. There's something else inside the box that's related to the pendant. You must keep it with utmost care.

I don't have much time to explain further. Remember, your mother and I will always love you. Take care, my son.

Oh right, marry often and father many children!

The more the better!

The letter was short but Yu Tian could feel his parents' overwhelming love.

Yu Tian was not too surprised at the fact that thousands of people needed his protection. Otherwise, why were all his one hundred and eight older sisters so eager to become his wife?

Still, he did not really understand what his father meant by marrying often and fathering many children.

He understood the importance of having many children, but marrying many wives?

Although this was a dream of many men, they were currently living in a lawful society!

Besides, was it a good idea to get married at such a young age?

Perplexed, Yu Tian shook his head and dismissed the thoughts. He placed the letter aside and sighed before lifting the jade bottle wrapped in a soft cloth. There was a delicate and round object inside.

a◆?Breaking Barrier Pill? Father is already incredibly strong. I wonder how much more powerful is grandfather in comparison? A Foundation Establishment expert? Tsk tsk!a◆?

Yu Tian had read numerous novels before. Hence, he knew that having the ability to cultivate was amazing.

Given the Yu Family's current unfavorable situation, the Chu Family had no reason to treat him like a king.

Becoming an expert must be a grueling task!

Yu Tian shook his head. The idea of being an expert cultivator seemed a faraway goal. He still wanted to enjoy the life of being wealthy!

Lastly, Yu Tian turned his gaze to the remaining object left in the box.

a◆?Hey, this seems interesting!a◆?

Chapter 14: Became Stronger After a Night's Sleep

A dragon head made out of some unknown metal was at the bottom of the box. It shone with a silver color under the faint light.

a◆?What's this?a◆?

Yu Tian picked it up and immediately felt a chill spread across his palm. At the same time, he also felt a sense of familiarity for some reason, as if he had worn the item for a very long time.

After analyzing the dragon head carefully, Yu Tian still could not figure out what was special about it.

However, he knew that it must be something extraordinary since it was placed in the same box as the Yu's Cultivation Method Book and the Breaking Barrier Pill.

Yu Tian was about to give up when he subconsciously touched the pendant hanging in front of his chest.

a◆?Could it have something to do with the pendant?a◆?

He said to himself.

Then, he removed the pendant from his neck and waved it in front of the dragon head.

As soon as the dragon head touched the pendant, the two objects stuck together as if there was an invisible force.

a◆?Click!'

The dragon head and the pendant became one!

Surprised, Yu Tian grabbed the dragon head and tried to pull the two objects apart. However, it would not budge no matter how hard he tried.

It seemed like the dragon head and pendant were destined to stick together.

a💎?How strange.a💎?

Seeing as he could not pull the two objects apart, Yu Tian gave up. He found a tougher chain to loop through the pendant instead.

After putting it back around his neck, a feeling of serendipity filled Yu Tian's entire body, calming his frustrated mind.

a💎?The two objects combined had created such an effect. Impressive!a💎?

Yu Tian nodded his head softly as a peaceful feeling overtook his body. Since he was now calm, he could think with better clarity.

a💎?If this goes on, will I become like the main character from a novel? Will I be able to fly and achieve anything I want? Hahahaha.a💎?

Yu Tian's eyes sparkled upon imagining the things that he could possibly do in the future. If the room was darker, one might be able to see the green spark twinkling in his eyes.

He looked at the Breaking Barrier Pill and said to himself, a💎?Father said that consuming this pill will lift the restrictive spells that were cast on my body. Then, I can start cultivating! Hmm, I might as well do it now.a💎?

Yu Tian picked up the pill and swallowed it whole.

An indescribable warmth spread across his entire body.

He shut his eyes and waited patiently for electrifying energy to fill his body, just like what happened in novels.

However, after waiting for some time, nothing extraordinary happened.

On the contrary, his body was completely relaxed.

a💎?Huh?a💎?

Yu Tian opened his eyes. He had a surprised expression on his face.

a💎?Was that all?a💎?

The experience was no different from eating a strange-tasting candy.

He sweated a little bit, but that was it.

Yu Tian felt rather disappointed. He was expecting to feel an immense strength that would take over his body.

◆?What's going on? Is this thing authentic? Has it expired?◆?

Yu Tian had no idea that the restrictive spells in his body had already been lifted.

The young man shook his head and shifted his gaze to Yu's Cultivation Method Book. It contained precious knowledge that was passed down from generation to generation.

After reading it thoroughly, he began to perform step-by-step breathing exercises as instructed in the book.

Yu Tian sat down cross-legged. Gradually, he got the hang of it. Inhale and exhale.

Time flew by and he felt at peace.

Half an hour later, Yu Tian came to a halt. There was a scowl on his face. It was due to the numbing and soreness in his legs. He had no choice but to stop for now.

◆?D*mn, not everyone can endure cultivation practices. I need to move my body around.◆?

Still, Yu Tian had not experienced any unusual changes inside him. For instance, he did not feel as if he had been overtaken by heaven and earth's energy.

The curious young man found an array of fighting techniques recorded in the book. They were incorporated into cultivation practices.

One of the techniques looked powerful, even though its name was unknown.

Yu Tian had a feeling that it was mightier than the other techniques.

So, he rolled up his sleeves and started practicing each punch and kick according to the images in the book.

Perhaps his body was only average in terms of fitness, but Yu Tian could not get the hang of it even after several tries.

Fortunately, he was not someone who would give up easily. The determined young man started from the top, practicing again and again.

He only stopped after he was exhausted.

a◆?Phew, I think I got the hang of it.a◆?

Yu Tian wiped his sweat off before plunging himself on the couch. He was panting.

After a quick rest, he cleared everything up and took a shower before heading to bed.

Meditation and practicing fighting sequences really wore him out.

That night, the young man slept like a log. He even had a weird dream.

In his dream, there was a vague silhouette of someone nagging at him.

However, when Yu Tian woke up the next morning, he could not remember anything from the dream.

a◆?Perhaps I was too engrossed in practicing last night.'

He thought to himself before getting out of bed.

a◆?Huh? What's happening?a◆?

The moment his feet touched the ground, Yu Tian felt that his body was lighter than ever.

Yu Tian thought that he was hallucinating since the change to his body was so apparent.

a◆?Is this really my body?'

Without wasting any time, Yu Tian walked to an empty space within the room and started practicing fighting moves again.

He finished the entire sequence smoothly. It was completely different from last night!

Now, the sequences just felt natural.

a◆?Hmm, I've become much stronger. It seems like my body has gone through a huge change!a◆?

Yu Tian punched his fist in the air, smiling from ear to ear. He still could not quite believe what had happened.

All these changes occurred after just one night's sleep!

a◆?I must continue to work hard for myself and everyone that needs me!a◆?

Then, Yu Tian washed up and headed down the stairs.

He glanced at the clock. It was already 8:30 a.m.

a◆?Elder sisters must have already left.a◆?

Yu Tian stretched his body. It was then he spotted Chu Qing who was working on her laptop.

The woman sprung to her feet upon seeing him.

She said with a beaming smile, a◆?You're up. Come and have some breakfast,a◆?

a◆?Sure!a◆?

Yu Tian scanned around the room.

a◆?Elder sister Qing, where are the others?a◆?

a◆?Chu Rou and Chu Xin left to deal with something else. Ignore them. Let's have breakfast.a◆?

Sitting in front of the dining table, Chu Qing looked at the young man with expectant eyes.

a◆?Try it. I made them myself.a◆?

Yu Tian ate a mouthful of vegetables.

Chu Qing looked at him excitedly.

A few seconds later, the young man's expression changed.

a◆?This tastesa◆|a◆?

a◆?Not great?a◆?

A look of embarrassment flashed over the woman's face. This was her first time cooking.

It should be good because she had followed all the steps according to the cookbook. A simple task like cooking should not be a problem for the Queen of Linhai, right?

a◆?Would you like to have some noodles instead? I'll cook.a◆?

Yu Tian smiled softly. He secretly spat out the food in his mouth when Chu Qing was not looking.

So this was why the other two women did not stay for breakfast.

It was probably because Chu Qing's cooking was horrible!

On second thought, there were only a few people in this world that she was willing to cook for!

Nonetheless, Yu Tian decided that if he wanted to be fed each day, it would be better if he was the one who cooked!

He headed into the kitchen and started making some noodles.

Chu Qing stood at the side helplessly. However, when she saw Yu Tian's handsome face, she teased, a💎?It's said that men look the best when they're hard at work. My younger brother really looks the best among all.a💎?

Yu Tian waved his hand dismissively.

a💎?Elder sister Qing, don't tease me. I have experiences in relationships.a💎?

His words made Chu Qing feel as if she had been slapped across the face.

Soon, the noodles were done.

a💎?Try it.a💎?

Yu Tian placed the food in front of Chu Qing.

a💎?My younger brother gives the best service.a💎?

The woman gave the young man a thumbs up. She was getting hungry, so she immediately picked up the chopsticks.

Initially, she expected Yu Tian's cooking to be just mediocre.

However, her eyes widened after the first bite.

a💎?This tastesa💎|a💎?

Chu Qing looked delighted.

a💎?How does this taste so amazing?!a💎?

Yu Tian rolled his eyes.

“You’re really exaggerating. It’s just a bowl of noodles. You would’ve done so much better than me if you had practiced cooking at a younger age!”

After breakfast, Yu Tian got into his Continental GT and headed for work.

Upon arriving at his office, he walked through the door. A pure and beautiful young lady was cleaning and organizing the documents on his desk.

It was Xiao Yun.

He looked at her with a surprised expression.

The woman was wearing a sky-blue cropped coat and velvet knee-length skirt, which made her delicate figure more prominent.

She was also wearing a pair of black boots, showing off her long and slender legs.

Compared to yesterday, her outfit choice today looked much more mature. It suited her better.

“You look nice today.”

Yu Tian complimented her sincerely. Before Xiao Yun could reply, he instructed, “Get Manager Xu for me.”

Xiao Yun had an embarrassed look on her face and hurried out of the office.

The corners of Yu Tian’s lips curled up into a smile as he watched the beautiful woman’s figure recede.

However, his lips twitched upon remembering his fierce elder sisters.

“Old Xu, this is all thanks to you..”

Shortly after, Xu Guodong showed up at Yu Tian's office.

a◆?President Yu, were you looking for me?a◆?

He instantly noticed that Yu Tian had a gloomy expression on his face and felt goosebumps all over his body.

a◆?Old Xu, you're such a thoughtful person to spread rumors around,a◆? said Yu Tian with a smile.

a◆?President Yua◆|a◆?

Guodong shuddered. His heart was pounding rapidly.

a◆?Wella◆| You knowa◆| With President Chua◆| If Ia◆|a◆?

a◆?If you what?a◆?

Yu Tian raised an eyebrow.

a◆?If you didn't tell her about the matchmaking, then she wouldn't know, right?a◆?

Guodong was taken aback. He did not even realize that he was holding his breath.

The room fell silent.

Finally, with his head lowered, Guodong said, a◆?President Yu, I've made a mistake. How can I earn your forgiveness? I'll do anything as long as you don't fire me.a◆?

Yu Tian snorted.

a◆?Don't try to play tricks on me. Let me tell you, Elder sister Qing was really angry about this. If I didn't back you up, you would've already been replaced.a◆?

a◆?What?!a◆?

Guodong could not believe what he was hearing.

If this news came from anyone else, he would not have trusted it. After all, he had held the position of general manager for numerous years. He should have been given merit for his hard work instead of demerit.

Normally, Chu Qing would not replace any employees unless absolutely necessary.

However, since this news came directly from Yu Tian, he had no choice but to take it seriously.

Still feeling a little doubtful, he asked again, a◆?President Chu was really going to fire me?a◆?

a◆?She should have thought about all the contributions that I've made for the company!'

a◆?What do you think?a◆?

Yu Tan replied.

Guodong was flustered.

a◆?Slap! Slap!'

He slapped himself across the face twice. His cheeks instantly turned red.

a◆?President Yu, it's all my fault! I shouldn't have said anything unnecessary. Please give me a second chance.a◆?

a◆?Alright, alright.a◆?

Yu Tian waved his hand dismissively in the air.

He thought of questioning Guodong further but after seeing the man's action, he could not be bothered.

a◆?Let's put a stop to this. I'm sure you're well aware of the consequences if anything like this happens again.a◆?

a◆?Yes, of course. President Yu, I'll never make another mistake again! I will follow your instructions without question!a◆?

The terrified man promised again and again. He already knew how important Yu Tian was to Chu Qing.

If his new boss really wanted to punish him, he would probably be packing up his belongings by now. Oh, wait, almost everything he owned was the company's property.

Yu Tian was about to speak again when Guodong's phone suddenly rang.

It was Chu Qing.

a◆?President Yu, President Chu is calling,a◆? said Guodong in an embarrassed manner.

He was almost punished by his new boss, thus, all his following actions had to be made with extra caution.

After all, he did not want to get into trouble again.

a◆?Answer it.a◆?

Relieved, Guodong answered his phone in a respectful tone, a◆?President Chu, how can I help you?a◆?

a◆?Has Yu Tian arrived at the office?a◆?

Chu Qing's voice sounded rather lazy.

a◆?Yes, President Yu is already here.a◆?

a◆?Help him familiarize with his work.a◆?

a◆?Yes, President Chu. Don't worry, I've already done everything as instructed. President Yu is currently organizing the reports. He's smart. He got the hang of it after just one example was shown. In fact, he's the brightest young man that I've ever met!a◆?

Guodong kept throwing glances at Yu Tian as he spoke.

a◆?Sigh, Old Xua◆|'

Yu Tian did not know whether to laugh or cry. Regardless, it was not a bad idea to keep this man around. After all, his sales achievements were outstanding.

a◆?Alright, proceed with your work,a◆? said Chu Qing from the other end of the phone.

a◆?Understood.a◆?

Old Xu hung up and wiped the sweat off his forehead.

He felt awkward being sandwiched between Yu Tian and Chu Qing.

However, no matter how difficult it was, he needed to endure it so he could keep his job.

a◆?President Yu, was my reply satisfactory?a◆?

Guodong looked nervously at Yu Tian.

“Not bad. Just be more careful next time,” said the latter as he waved his hand.

Guodong finally felt the heavyweight being lifted off his shoulders. He quickly walked out of Yu Tian's office.

After some time, Yu Tian became bored of being in the office alone. So, he began to wander around the company.

Upon arriving at the lounge, he was shocked.

He had been in the lounge once, but only just noticed the billiards. It was one of his favorite cue sports.

Yu Tian noticed that there were two men playing the game. Since he was bored out of his mind, he decided to walk over and spectate.

“Sigh, Old Li, when will Xu Guodong be free?” said the thinner man. He had a swept-back hairstyle and was wearing a suit. His name was Situ Kun.

Meanwhile, the man he called Old Li was his business partner, Li Shancheng.

“Let's wait for a bit longer. I've asked their staff. Apparently, Xu Guodong is still busy.”

Shancheng replied.

“He didn't agree to our proposal last time. We must succeed this time around!”

Yu Tian's interest was piqued. He stepped forward and asked, “Are the two of you here to collaborate with our company?”

“Who are you?”

Shancheng and Kun looked at Yu Tian from top to bottom.

“Yu Tian.”

The two men exchanged looks.

“We've never heard of your name before.”

a◆?Are you an employee here? You can help by reminding Xu Guodong that we've been waiting for him,a◆? said Shancheng.

Before Yu Tian could speak, Kun interjected, a◆?I'm sure he's just a low position employee. I don't think he knows Xu Guodong.a◆?

a◆?I do,a◆? answered Yu Tian. He continued, a◆?Which company are you from?a◆?

Upon hearing that, the two men immediately straightened their posture.

a◆?I'm the chairman of Li Corporation and we're here today to propose a collaboration with your company. As for Kun, he's the creator of this gaming project. He's also my lawyer that helps with negotiation.a◆?

Shancheng said with a somewhat arrogant tone.

Yu Tian was not bothered by it and simply said, a◆?The chairman of Li Corporation? Alright, tell me about your proposal.a◆?

a◆?Tell you?a◆?

Shancheng twitched his lips.

a◆?Sure, I guess there's no harm to it. We're planning to create a saga-type video game that allows us to recycle the in-game coins. It'll be profitable.a◆?

a◆?Oh?a◆?

Yu Tian appeared to be surprised.

a◆?What do you mean by recycling?a◆?

a◆?We've put a lot of thought into it. The monsters can randomly drop in-game currencies and equipment. Players can then use those game coins and trade them into RMB.a◆?

a◆?Why does it sound like a scam to me?a◆?

Yu Tian blurted out subconsciously. A video game like the one Shancheng was proposing was really trendy at the moment.

To begin with, Kun was not impressed by Yu Tian. He became even more displeased when his project was doubted.

a◆?What the f*ck? Scam? I dare you to say it again!a◆?

Yu Tian replied, a◆?Was I wrong? It doesn't sound reliable to me.a◆?

a◆?F*ck!a◆?

Kun cursed again and rolled up his sleeves. He was about to fight the young man.

The long wait for Xu Guodong had already filled him with frustration and Yu Tian's negative remark triggered his anger.

Shancheng stepped forward.

a◆?You're only a low position employee. Why are you acting so arrogant? Apologize immediately! Or do you want to get fired?!a◆?

a◆?Didn't you hear what the man said? Apologize right now!a◆?

a◆?Apologize? Not happening.a◆?

Yu Tian shook his head.

Kun was completely enraged. He rushed forward to grab the young man.

Obviously, Yu Tian was not a pushover. Furthermore, they were on his turf!

He extended his arm to push Kun away.

His strength had improved immensely after practicing cultivation even if it was only for a day. Just a slight push was enough to deal with the situation.

a◆?Bam!'

Kun felt as if a bull had run into him. He flung backward before landing on the ground.

a◆?Elder brother Kun!a◆? shouted Shancheng. He immediately went to help his friend up.

a◆?F*cking prick! How dare you lay a hand on me?!a◆?

Kun struggled to regain his balance. He was completely humiliated.

A low position employee dared to push him down?!

a◆?Elder brother Kun, I'll help you!a◆?

Shancheng rushed forward.

Despite their determination, they failed miserably against Yu Tian.

a◆?Boom!'

a◆?Bam!'

Both Kun and Shancheng fell to the ground and bruised their faces.

Yu Tian wiped the dirt off his hands.

a◆?Don't blame me. You guys started it.a◆?

a◆?D*mn it!a◆?

Kun rose to his feet. His left eye that got punched became swollen.

a◆?I've been attacked! Where's the security?!a◆?

a◆?Is this how you treat your customers? By punching them? An employee like this needs to be fired instantly!a◆?

Shancheng even took out his phone, intending to call the police.

Several male employees approached them upon noticing the commotion.

When they saw Yu Tian, they respectfully greeted, a◆?President Yu.a◆?

a◆?Hmm.a◆?

Yu Tian nodded before scoffing at the two men.

a◆?Presidenta◆| President Yu?a◆?

Both men were in utter shock..

a◆?What did you call him? President Yu?a◆?

Li Shancheng asked one of the male employees.

The latter nodded.

a◆?Are you joking? I've never heard of him before,a◆? said Situ Kun.

The male employee answered, a◆?President Yu has just joined us recently. It's normal that you haven't heard of him.a◆?

He was actually the boss?!

Shancheng and Kun stared at the average-looking young man. The expressions on their faces instantly darkened.

They thought that Yu Tian was only a low position employee, but he was actually the boss!

Shortly after, four security guards showed up.

The commotion earlier was so loud that some of the employees had to notify security.

Upon seeing Yu Tian, the security guards greeted him respectfully.

a◆?President Yu.a◆?

Looks of terror flashed over Shancheng and Kun's faces.

One of the stronger-looking security guards turned to Yu Tian and asked, a◆?President Yu, what happened here?a◆?

Yu Tian was about to answer when Shancheng quickly interrupted, a◆?President Yu, we're sorry. We didn't know that you're the boss.a◆?

Although Kun was unwilling to accept this fact, he had no choice but to tag along.

a◆?President Yu, please forgive us.a◆?

Yu Tian was unperturbed. After all, these two men attacked him first.

He said flatly, a◆?I would have been terribly beaten if I didn't know any martial arts.a◆?

a◆?No, no. Of course not!a◆?

Shancheng broke out into a cold sweat. He immediately knelt down.

Kun quietly did the same.

a◆?President Yu, please give us a second chance. We were wrong. Please forgive us,a◆? said Shancheng nervously.

Kun added through his gritted teeth, a◆?I was offended because you insulted my work. I was really confident, and what you said a◆|a◆?

a◆?Tell me more about your project,a◆? replied Yu Tian after a brief consideration.

Since they were here to propose a collaboration, Yu Tian decided to give them a chance to present their idea. Perhaps he would be satisfied.

Startled, Shancheng stared at Kun.

After taking a deep breath, Kun explained, a◆?This saga-type video game allows players to recycle their in-game equipment. As long as the players are willing to spend their time in the game, they could earn money. The core of the game concept is free trade. Rest assured that the players will earn a profit from playing. This is a new win-win gaming model!a◆?

Yu Tian commented, a◆?So how does the company benefit from this? Are we supplying free electricity out of kindness?a◆?

a◆?President Yu, please hear me out. The players are free to trade however they want. We just need to increase the rate difference between in-game coins and real-life money. The price of the in-game equipment will also be increased a◆|a◆?

a◆?The novelty will wear off soon.a◆?

Yu Tian interrupted.

a◆?Then we'll keep developing new areas. Besides, we can leave once we gain enough profit a◆|a◆?

a◆?That's scamming.a◆?

Yu Tian shook his head.

Shancheng and Kun dared not argue further.

After all, the young man was the boss of this company.

An awkward silence filled the room.

Yu Tian was thinking with his eyes shut. The rest of them remained quiet out of fear.

Shancheng and Kun lowered their gazes to the ground while waiting to hear from Yu Tian.

Finally, the latter said, a◆?It's not impossible. Perhaps we can give it a try.a◆?

After considering it, Yu Tian came to the conclusion that venturing into gaming might not be a bad idea.

He was personally interested in gaming. Being able to involve himself with game development would be more satisfying than anything else.

Secondly, since his elder sisters treated him so well, he wanted to show them his capability.

Although Kun was an impatient man, he had some good ideas.

The concept had potential. Yu Tian just needed to make some amendments!

a◆?Huh?a◆?

Everyone seemed perplexed.

a◆?As you have mentioned earlier, we'll have free trade in the game. However, we can't scam the players. I do not want to earn money through sleazy methods. We have to execute it properly.a◆?

Yu Tian looked at Kun.

a◆?Being kind will not earn you any money,a◆? said Kun without holding back.

Shancheng agreed.

a◆?That's right. President Yu, everyone else is doing the same thing. If we play by the book, we might not be able to break even.a◆?

a◆?A really good and interesting game will always be well received,a◆? said Yu Tian.

Besides, it was not as if he lacked money. He could wait for as long as it was needed for the profits to roll in.

a◆?But this required a huge investmenta◆|a◆?

Kun stopped mid-sentence. He wanted to say that this would be a waste of time and effort, but he changed his mind after seeing Yu Tian's confident expression.

Frankly, what the young man said was not wrong.

Players would be hooked as long as the game was interesting. The only difference was the amount of profit gained.

Actually, Yu Tian did not care if the game would go viral or not.

He just wanted to take it easy and test the water.

a◆?It doesn't matter how much we earned. It's more important to garner a good reputation.a◆?

Yu Tian waved his hands dismissively in the air like an arrogant rich person.

Upon hearing that, Kun lowered his head. There was nothing much he could say.

a◆?President Yu, are you thinking of venturing into the gaming market?a◆? asked Shancheng.

a◆?Yes.a◆?

a◆?Then you should collaborate with Li Corporation!a◆?

Shancheng looked delighted.

a◆?Collaborate with you?a◆?

Yu Tian narrowed his eyes.

a◆?That's right. We're here today because we wanted to collaborate with your company. Our project is full of potential, but many companies dared not take the risks. President Yu, I'm sure we'll succeed if you take the first step! I have faith in your decisions!a◆?

Shancheng began to flatter the young man.

Yu Tian chuckled.

a◆?A collaboration is not impossible.a◆?

a◆?Really?!a◆?

Shancheng grinned from ear to ear. The wrinkles on his face collided with one and another.

Without saying anything else, Yu Tian took out his phone and called Chu Qing.

The call was picked up within seconds. He told the woman about what happened.

Chu Qing had Shancheng and Kun investigated and the results came back quickly.

a◆?Li Corporation is a small company. There's nothing much to talk about, but Li Shancheng is a good man who often engages in charity work. Situ Kun is not bad as well. He once received the Righteous Bravery Award.a◆?

After getting his answers, Yu Tian hung up the phone. He turned around and looked at the two men.

a◆?President Yu, soa◆|a◆?

Shancheng gulped in fear.

a◆?Come to my office,a◆? said Yu Tian.

Go to his office?!

Shancheng and Kun exchanged looks. They thought they had heard the young man wrongly.

However, upon seeing that Yu Tian was leaving, they quickly followed him closely from behind.

In the office, Yu Tian took his seat and spoke in a straightforward manner, a◆?Tell me more about your proposal.a◆?

Immediately, Kun replied, a◆?This is what I have in minda◆|a◆?

a◆?President Yu, what do you think?a◆?

Yu Tian gave it some thought before shaking his head.

a◆?It's too old-fashioned. This concept already exists in the market. It's not exciting.a◆?

a◆?Do you have any ideas, President Yu?a◆?

Shancheng frowned. The young man appeared to be quite arrogant.

a◆?We'll venture into mobile gaming since that's all the rage now. Let's create a game where five players compete against each othera◆|

a◆?That's all I have for now. We can discuss the details later.a◆?

Yu Tian told the men his idea.

When he raised his eyes to look at them, he was surprised to see the astonished looks on their faces.

a◆?What's the matter?a◆?

Yu Tian asked.

a◆?Amazing! President Yu, how did you come up with that idea?a◆?

Kun could not resist clapping.

Shancheng agreed.

a◆?It's a great concept. No wonder you're the president of this company. Incredible!a◆?

Li Corporation had a long history in the gaming industry. Therefore, Shancheng was well versed in terms of video games.

However, this young man without any background was able to take him by surprise!

Yu Tian did not really believe them and said, a◆?Just be honest if the idea is terrible. Don't try to flatter me.a◆?

a◆?We're not flattering you! The concept is seriously incredible! President Yu, you've got a bright mind!a◆?

a◆?President Yu, can I work for your company? You don't need to pay me. I just want to learn from you,a◆? said Kun.

Shancheng was not offended to hear that. If he was not the chairman of Li Corporation, he would have asked for the same thing.

a◆?President Yu, please take me in as your underling.a◆?

Kun echoed, a◆?Me too!a◆?

Chapter 17: The Big Fight

Yu Tian wiped the sweat off his forehead. He was speechless. After the two men calmed down, he said in a stern voice, a◆?We should talk about the project in detail. What I've mentioned earlier was only a rough idea. a◆?

With that, Li Shancheng and Situ Kun participated in the discussion with utmost seriousness.

Yu Tian was an efficient type of person. He would focus once his mind was made up. The meeting continued until late noon.

They were distracted when someone knocked on the door.

Shancheng quickly walked over and opened it.

The person behind the door was none other than Chu Qing!

a◆?Presidenta◆| President Chua◆|a◆?

The man greeted her with a quivering voice. His mind had gone blank.

He had seen the woman before, so he was not stunned into silence by her beauty. Instead, it was her domineering presence.

Chu Qing shifted her attention from Shancheng to Kun. After making sure that there was no other woman in the office, she turned to look at Yu Tian with a softened gaze.

a◆?Elder sister Qing, what brings you here?a◆? said Yu Tian.

Chu Qing hurried towards the young man.

a◆?Old Xu told me that you've been occupied, so I decided to drop by for a visit.a◆?

In reality, she was there to monitor the relationship between her younger brother and his secretary.

She was relieved to see that there were only men in Yu Tian's office.

a◆?Surely, there was nothing fishing going on among them, right?

a◆?I have faith in Yu Tian's sexuality!

a◆?I'm discussing a gaming project with Chairman Li and his friend.a◆?

Yu Tian replied with a smile.

a◆?The meeting is still going on even though it's so late in the afternoon?a◆? said Chu Qing while giving Shancheng a subtle glare.

a◆?Cough.'

a◆?President Chu is right. It's time for lunch. We'll take our leave now. President Yu, we can continue the discussion next time.a◆?

Then, Shancheng turned to the woman and added, a◆?President Chu, see you again.a◆?

a◆?See ya,a◆? she replied flatly.

Shancheng quickly dragged Kun out of the office. He could still feel Chu Qing's domineering and oppressive presence even when he had gotten into his car. Nonetheless, they had a peek of the woman's feminine side. At the very least, she acted completely differently around Yu Tian!

a◆?Let's go and get some food,a◆? said Chu Qing to Yu Tian.

a◆?Sure.a◆?

The young man rose to his feet and followed the woman to the parking lot.

Unexpectedly, Chu Rou and Chu Xin were there too.

a◆?Yu Tian, my marvelous younger brother.a◆?

They greeted him enthusiastically and both of them gave him a hug.

Yu Tian coughed unnaturally.

a◆?Shall we go for lunch together?a◆?

a◆?No,a◆? Chu Xin replied in a determined voice.

a◆?The two of you will go for lunch without us. Chu Qing will drop us off at the house later, a◆? said Chu Rou.

a◆?Huh?a◆?

Yu Tian had a perplexed expression on his face. His elder sisters had their respective chauffeurs, but they wanted Chu Qing to take them home.

Something fishy was definitely going on!

a◆?Let's talk in the car.a◆?

Chu Qing glanced at her watch and quickly opened the car's door.

They got into the car and headed for Haitian Restaurant together.

Yu Tian finally understood their intention after getting into the car.

As it turned out, Chu Qing's childhood playmate, Ren Jianzhong had recently returned from the army. He had asked her out for dinner.

Ren Jianzhong called it a reunion dinner, but the three women knew that it was clearly an arranged date. It was to evaluate each other as potential marriage partners.

Chu Qing did not think much of it after receiving the invitation. However, since Ren Jianzhong was a person that she had basically grown up with, there were some things that she could not be straightforward about.

Therefore, she sought guidance from her two sisters.

They suggested that Yu Tian could pretend to be her boyfriend as a way to give Jianzhong some hints.

Chu Qing was worried that Yu Tian would not agree to this. Thus, she asked Chu Rou and Chu Xin to convince him together.

As expected, the young man stood no chance against the three women.

Fifteen minutes later, Yu Tian and Chu Qing arrived at the entrance of Haitian Restaurant.

They followed the instructions given by Jianzhong and walked into a reserved room.

Chu Qing was taken aback by what she saw.

Ten strong men who were almost two meters tall were standing in a line.

These muscular men were wearing short sleeves, revealing the scars and wounds on their shoulders and chests.

Yu Tian narrowed his eyes. After his training last night, he was not afraid to go up against these men.

Besides, he was not the same person he used to be!

A man with a crew-cut hairstyle was sitting in the main seat. He looked over his shoulder and was delighted to see Chu Qing.

This man was Ren Jianzhong, Chu Qing's childhood playmate!

a◆?Chu Qing, you're here!a◆?

He took a few steps towards the woman and led her to the seat next to his.

Yu Tian followed closely and sat down naturally next to Chu Qing.

Jianzhong slightly frowned.

a◆?Chu Qing, your younger brother is acting a bit rude.a◆?

He was implying that the young man did not ask for his permission to sit.

Unexpectedly, Chu Qing replied, a◆?Jianzhong, Yu Tian isn't my younger brother. He's my boyfriend.a◆?

a◆?Boyfriend?a◆?

This took Jianzhong by surprise. After looking at the young man from top to bottom, he sneered, a◆?Chu Qing, if you're trying to give me a hint, you should've found someone more convincing. This young man is so skinny. He's rather handsome but what else can he offer? He looks even younger than you. Is he your sugar baby or something?a◆?

a◆?Ren Jianzhong, watch your mouth,a◆? said Chu Qing casually. Each of her words reeked of intimidation.

a◆?Is he really your boyfriend?a◆?

Jianzhong changed his tone too after realizing that the woman might be serious.

a◆?He is my boyfriend,a◆? she repeated. a◆?I know what's on your mind, so I'm here today to tell you to stop wasting your time. I've only regarded you as my elder brother.a◆?

a◆?Elder brother?a◆?

Ren Jianzhong laughed bitterly before shifting his gaze to the young man who had been quietly staring at him.

a◆?What are you glaring at? Get the hell out of here!a◆?

Jianzhong shouted.

He could not help but feel defeated by this young man.

Yu Tian was surprised but he replied, a◆?You want me to get the hell out of here? After you.a◆?

a◆?Young man, you're courting death!a◆?

Jianzhong slammed his fist against the table and sprung to his feet.

He looked down at Yu Tian from above. The anger on his face was apparent.

a◆?Yu Tian, we should leave.a◆?

Chu Qing was worried that the two men would start fighting.

a◆?Chu Qing, stay here. The young man can b*gger off,a◆? said Jianzhong.

Yu Tian ignored the man and grabbed the woman's hand.

a◆?Lil Qing, let's go.a◆?

He respected his elder sister's wish to not get into a fight.

a◆?Let her go!a◆?

Jianzhong shrieked. He raised an arm in Yu Tian's direction and was about to punch him.

The latter punched back instinctively.

a◆?Bam!'

The two fists met. Jianzhong staggered several steps backward, shocking everyone.

a◆?How is this young man so strong?a◆?

The muscular men at the back seemed confused.

They knew Jianzhong's capability. How was he struggling against this frail-looking young man?

Chu Qing could not believe her eyes. Yu Tian seemed different from before.

“Young man, I did not expect you to have such strength. Why don't we fight? The person who wins can have Chu Qing while the person who loses must give up and leave.”

The competitive spirit in Jianzhong was instantly ignited. He was confident that he could triumph over anyone in terms of strength.

A fight?!

The ten muscular men looked excited. They knew that Jianzhong was enraged.

Yu Tian did not stand a chance!

Chu Qing thought so too.

“Yu Tian, don't take the bait. Let's go.”

She was well aware that Jianzhong had been practicing martial arts ever since he was young. On the contrary, Yu Tian was just an average man with no fighting experience. Taking on the challenge out of ego would surely mean defeat.

However, Yu Tian patted her on the hand and said, “Lil Qing, he won't pester you anymore if I win.”

Yu Tian eagerly wanted to see the results of his training from last night.

“Sure!”

Jianzhong's eyes sparkled with determination. This was his chance to show off in front of Chu Qing.

“Where?”

“I know someone who runs a boxing studio. Let's head over there.”

Jianzhong blurted..

a◆?Boxing studio?a◆?

Yu Tian raised an eyebrow.

a◆?Don't accept the challenge. Jianzhong has been practicing martial arts ever since he was young. There's no way you can defeat him,a◆? said Chu Qing anxiously.

She did not want to see Yu Tian get beaten up.

Since Chu Qing and Jianzhong grew up together, she knew the man well. He would not show mercy or forgiveness, especially to a love rival.

Yu Tian patted her on the shoulder as a way to tell her not to worry.

a◆?So? Do you accept my challenge?a◆?

Jianzhong looked at the young man with a mocking expression.

a◆?Why not? There's nothing to be afraid of.a◆?

Yu Tian replied flatly.

a◆?Let's go.a◆?

a◆?Good. You're a brave one.a◆?

Jianzhong sneered and began making arrangements on the phone.

Shortly after, all of them arrived at the boxing studio.

They were greeted by a tall and sturdy man who was standing in front of the studio. His name was Cai Feiyu. He was the friend who owned the boxing studio as mentioned by Jianzhong earlier.

a◆?Jianzhong, it's been a while since your last visit,a◆? said the man.

a◆?I've only had some free time recently. I came home for a visit and was greeted by an opponent. So, I've brought him here to settle things.a◆?

Jianzhong smiled and patted the other man on his shoulder as they spoke.

The two of them seemed to be good friends.

a◆?You have an opponent? That's hard to imagine.a◆?

The shock was evident in Feiyu's tone of voice.

He looked around and asked, a◆?Are you competing against those ten burly men?a◆?

a◆?They all work for me. This time, I'm competing with that young man.a◆?

Jianzhong replied as he pointed his finger at Yu Tian.

Feiyu looked in the direction where he was pointing and was immediately confused.

a◆?Are you serious? Jianzhong, how much have you deteriorated? That young man is so skinny that even I can knock him out in one punch.a◆?

a◆?Don't look down at him. He's pretty strong.a◆?

Jianzhong threw a sideways glance at Yu Tian. Although he was smiling, the arrogance was audible in his tone.

He knew that he was just acting humble and was confident that he could defeat the young man.

Feiyu walked towards Yu Tian.

a◆?Are you as strong as I was told?a◆?

a◆?I dare not say that I'm really strong, but I'm much stronger compared to you guys,a◆? replied Yu Tian nonchalantly.

How arrogant!

The other men sneered.

They all thought that he was just boasting.

Feiyu glanced at Yu Tian with much interest.

a◆?What a haughty young man. Well, I've just bought some new machines for my studio. Why don't you and Jianzhong compete there to see who's stronger?a◆?

a◆?Just a strength competition?a◆?

Yu Tian asked.

This was not what Jianzhong said earlier.

Feiyu said disdainfully, a◆?Young man, I'm not looking down on you, but you're really too skinny. Jianzhong will knock you out with one punch if the two of you get into the boxing ring. Many people have already lost their lives here, so I'm trying to prevent the worst-case scenario. I don't want my boxing studio to get a bad name.a◆?

Yu Tian was about to say something when Chu Qing interrupted, a◆?That's fine.a◆?

Then, she leaned forward and whispered in Yu Tian's ear, a◆?A strength competition is enough. Don't fight.a◆?

Yu Tian nodded unwillingly.

On the other hand, Jianzhong felt a surge of anger rising from within as he watched the two whispering in front of him.

a◆?D*mn it, how dare they act so intimately in my presence! Chu Qing, I'll definitely show you that I'm a better match for you than him!

Feiyu brought them to the training room.

There were numerous training machines in the room. Although they looked similar to the ones found at other places, they were actually custom-made.

These machines were specially designed to train professional boxers.

Feiyu gave them a brief tour before stopping in front of a gravity machine.

a◆?Try this. Young man, you've said that you're pretty strong. Why don't you show us?a◆? said Feiyu as he turned to Yu Tian.

a◆?Yu Tiana◆|a◆?

Chu Qing grabbed his hand.

a◆?Hmm?a◆?

a◆?Don't force yourself. We can give up if you want to.a◆?

a◆?I won't be defeated.a◆?

Yu Tian replied.

He removed the woman's hand and stepped onto the gravity machine.

“The person capable of doing the most reps will win. Don't worry, nothing will be unfair. We can all count the reps together,” said Jianzhong.

“Sure.”

Yu Tian laid himself down on the machine and began pushing.

Feiyu sneered at the young man's confidence and thought to himself, “Young people nowadays are so impulsive. Does he think that my machines are similar to the ones at other places? You'll be crying in a few minutes.”

He was aware of the true power of these newly-purchased machines.

All the boxers from his studio had tried it and not one of them was able to push more than ten reps. The gravity machine was truly unique.

However, in a matter of seconds, the smug smile on Feiyu's face disappeared.

“One, two,”

The crowd counted as Yu Tian pushed the weights on the machine.

“Eight, nine, ten,”

As the number increased, Feiyu's eyes widened.

“D*mn!”

He shouted.

Then, he rubbed his eyes to make sure he was not seeing things.

Yu Tian kept going effortlessly. His speed was increasing too. It looked like he had gotten a hang of the machine.

“Twenty-five.”

The young man suddenly stopped after reaching this number.

Jianzhong and his men began to make fun of Yu Tian.

“Is that all?”

“This young man is an amateur.”

a◆?What a joke! Jianzhong will be able to do at least a couple of hundred reps.a◆?

a◆?Jianzhong will defeat him easily.a◆?

a◆?I don't know where he gets his confidence from. He's still too young and naive.a◆?

Jianzhong felt great after listening to his men flatter him.

He said to the young man, a◆?Is that your limit? You're pretty weak.a◆?

However, Yu Tian looked at the man as if he was the biggest fool on earth.

a◆?Actually, I just wanted to ask if this gravity machine is broken? It's too light.a◆?

a◆?Light?!a◆?

The ten burly men began laughing.

Yu Tian was unbothered. He turned around and looked at Feiyu. The latter was the owner of this boxing studio so naturally, he would know if the machine was broken or not.

Feiyu was staring at the young man in disbelief.

a◆?Hey, owner, I'm asking you a question. Is the gravity machine broken?a◆?

a◆?Huh? Um, yes, it's broken.a◆?

a◆?Broken?a◆?

Shocked, Jianzhong immediately laid down on the gravity machine. He wanted to see if it was really broken..

Ren Jianzhong was offended by the look on Cai Feiyu's face. It made him feel as if he had been defeated by Yu Tian.

He wanted to complete a couple of hundred reps even if the machine was broken. It was his way of proving to Chu Qing that he was clearly the better choice!

a◆?Jianzhong!a◆?

Feiyu shouted.

It was too late. The man had already laid down on the gravity machine.

Jianzhong wrapped his fingers around the handles and was ready to make a big push.

However, he had underestimated the difficulty of this machine. He spent every last bit of his energy just to make one rep.

His men began counting. Obviously, they were going to show support for their boss.

Suddenly, Jianzhong stopped out of the blue after they had counted to twelve.

a◆?Huff, huffa◆|a◆?

The man was panting heavily.

a◆?D*mn it. This gravity machine is definitely broken. It has suddenly become much heavier! Feiyu, you must perform maintenance on your machines.a◆?

a◆?Jianzhong.a◆?

Feiyu approached his friend while debating if he should tell him the truth.

After a brief consideration, he decided against it and simply nodded.

a◆?Understood.a◆?

a◆?This means you've lost.a◆?

Chu Qing took the opportunity to declare the winner.

She was not going to let this chance slip. This could help prevent Yu Tian from getting into the boxing ring.

Jianzhong yelled as if he had been genuinely offended, a◆?No way! This doesn't count because the machine is broken! We will proceed with the competition!a◆?

Then, he turned to look at Yu Tian.

“Young man, are you still in? If not, you'll be considered defeated by default.”

Yu Tian was looking for a chance to test his strength. Naturally, he would agree to it.

He replied, “Let's continue. You can pick whichever machine you fancy.”

The young man felt as if his strength would never be depleted. The reps from earlier actually stimulated him.

Feiyu's expression darkened.

“Why don't we call it a day?”

He had noticed something unusual about Yu Tian.

However, Jianzhong was already at the barbell area. The rest of them followed from behind.

Feiyu was speechless. He composed himself and prayed internally.

“I hope I was wrong. This young man is not going to make it.”

Jianzhong picked the heaviest barbell. It weighed four hundred kilograms. He adjusted his stance and lifted it effortlessly.

“Awesome!”

“Nice one, Jianzhong. That barbell weighs 400 kilograms but you make things look so easy.”

“You're my motivation!”

His men began cheering for him.

Jianzhong placed the barbell on the ground. Then, he said to Yu Tian, “It's your turn.”

Yu Tian looked at the barbell and shook his head. After that, he shifted his attention to Feiyu.

“Boss, please unload this for me.”

The latter was surprised and thought to himself, “Can he not lift this?”

Regardless, he hastily unloaded the four hundred kilograms worth of weight from the barbell.

a◆?Hahaha, this is too funny. Is he trying to start out with lightweights?a◆?

a◆?I bet he is. There's no way he can lift this.a◆?

a◆?Young man, stop embarrassing yourself and just get out of here!a◆?

a◆?Challenging Jianzhong is not a good idea!a◆?

Yu Tian completely ignored those comments. Once Feiyu finished unloading the barbell, he requested him to unload all the other barbells too.

The others were perplexed.

A worrying thought came across Jianzhong's mind.

a◆?Is he thinking about increasing the weight?'

Jianzhong could still lift some extra weights, but it might be slightly more difficult.

He refused to believe that a young man with such a small frame could lift more than four hundred kilograms of weight.

a◆?Boss, please load it up to 600 kilograms,a◆? said Yu Tian.

a◆?600?a◆?

a◆?Kilograms? Or grams?a◆?

Feiyu could not believe his ears.

Six hundred kilograms was more than half a ton.

The current world record for weightlifting was about five hundred and fifty kilograms.

Yu Tian was challenging the world record!

a◆?Kilograms.a◆?

Feiyu was speechless.

Meanwhile, Yu Tian thought that six hundred kilograms should not be a problem.

A person needed to use the strength from their entire body for weightlifting.

Coincidentally, the fighting sequence that Yu Tian had practiced last night taught him how to redirect his strength to the hands.

He wanted to see if his practice paid off.

“Are you joking?” said Jianzhong.

“Don't injure yourself just to show off. No one can help you if you're crushed by the weights.”

Upon hearing that, Chu Qing became nervous.

“Yu Tian, don't overdo it. Prioritize your own safety.”

Yu Tian looked at the woman confidently before rushing Feiyu to load up quicker.

Finally, the weights were all loaded.

Yu Tian walked towards the six hundred kilograms barbell and recalled his training from last night.

The young man yelled loudly as he successfully lifted the heavyweights.

Everyone's eyes widened.

Other patrons of the studio were also stunned.

Yu Tian carried the barbell for quite some time before returning it to the ground.

The crowd recollected themselves from the shocking sight.

“Did he just | Broke the world record?”

“Wow, where did he come from? He's so strong and tough.”

“His strength is unbelievable. Even the national athletes are no match for him!”

Yu Tian was not surprised by the crowd's reaction. He knew that he had extraordinary strength.

This was nothing compared to his recent experiences.

“Does this mean that I've won?” said Yu Tian calmly.

Jianzheng stared at the young man in disbelief. He realized that he had looked down upon the latter. Despite that, he could not bring himself to admit defeat!

Feiyu was unaware of the feud between the two men and hurried towards Yu Tian.

“Young man, what's your name?”

Chu Qing stepped forward.

“Now that he's won, you want to know his name?”

“I'm just curious about how strong he really is. I mean. You saw it yourself. He actually lifted those weights even though he had a small frame. It's scientifically impossible!”

Feiyu spoke incoherently.

“It's an innate gift.”

Chu Qing was not bothered.

As far as she was concerned, it was a good thing that Yu Tian was strong.

How he achieved it did not matter.

She knew that it must have something to do with Uncle Long and the Yu Family. Hence, there was no need for her to dig deeper..

Cai Feiyu turned to Yu Tian again.

“Yu Tian.”

Feiyu was silent for a brief moment. Then, he said, a◆?Yu Tian, do you want to test your strength?a◆?

The young man was surprised to hear that.

a◆?Is there a machine for that?a◆?

He was eager to try it. After all, he wanted to know how powerful he actually was.

a◆?Yes, of course. It's also definitely accurate. We test our boxers with it all the time.a◆?

Yu Tian replied, a◆?Show me the way.a◆?

Feiyu led both Yu Tian and Chu Qing towards the left side of the boxing studio.

Ren Jianzhong clenched his teeth. A surge of anger rose inside him. He got even more furious at the sight of them walking closely together.

a◆?I must prove myself to Chu Qing!a◆?

Unwilling to give up, he and his ten men followed closely from behind.

a◆?This machine will let us know how powerful you are.a◆?

Feiyu briefly introduced the strength testing machine.

Everyone shifted their gaze to the massive machine. There was a small bag of weight hanging in front of the red display screen.

a◆?All you need to do is punch this bag. The machine will tell you how much force was used,a◆? said Feiyu as he pointed to the small bag hanging from the top.

The rest of the people watched curiously.

Yu Tian adjusted his stance, took a deep breath, and hit the bag.

a◆?Bam!a◆?

A loud noise filled the room.

The bag flung backward as if it had been hit by a strong wind.

Simultaneously, the red LED numbers on the display screen continued to increase.

Eventually, it stopped at three hundred and eighty-eight.

The room fell into silence.

Everyone was too shocked to speak.

Yu Tian touched his fist while wondering why the others were being so quiet.

He looked over his shoulder, only to see their widened eyes.

“388?”

Jianzhong read the number in disbelief.

He finally understood the difference in strength between him and the young man. It was enormous.

A normal person could probably score between one hundred to one hundred and fifty.

Those who trained regularly, such as Jianzhong, could score somewhere around two hundred.

The world record was only about two hundred and twenty-four.

Yet, Yu Tian had scored three hundred and eighty-eight!

He was only a young man with an ordinary physical build.

If proper training was given, he could massively improve.

How could Jianzhong compete with him?

Feiyu excitedly grabbed Yu Tian's hands.

“Yu Tian, you have already broken two world records!”

“I've broken two world records?”

Yu Tian looked confused. This scenario felt rather familiar.

Feiyu was unsure what the young man was thinking, but he continued to say, “You did. I didn't expect this from a young man like you. By the way, it just so happens that our studio is organizing a boxing competition. The winner will be eligible to compete in the international boxing championship. This is a chance!”

Yu Tian interrupted the man, “I'm not interested in becoming the boxing champion. I only came here to compete with Ren Jianzhong. I'll be leaving now since I've won.”

a◆?What did you say?!a◆?

Jianzhong was enraged upon hearing that.

a◆?So what if you're slightly stronger?! B*stard, come and fight me in the boxing ring. I'll destroy you within seconds!a◆?

a◆?You're still unwilling to admit defeat? Fine, let's fight in the boxing ring.a◆?

Yu Tian agreed. He did not think it was going to be a problem.

Besides, he had made up his mind to help Chu Qing. There was no reason for him to break his promise.

He would not stop until the opponent had admitted defeat!

a◆?No!a◆?

Chu Qing looked at Yu Tian with a concerned expression.

a◆?Yu Tian, don't do it. You can't beat him.a◆?

a◆?I'll try.a◆?

a◆?Not a chance!a◆?

She shouted and promptly turned her head to look at the other man.

a◆?Ren Jianzhong, do you know how shameless you are? Everyone knows you've been practicing martial arts ever since you were young. Other than years of training, you've also learned various fighting techniques from the time you were in the army. Aren't you embarrassed for trying to bully Yu Tian?a◆?

a◆?Bully? Chu Qing, can you stop taking his side? Why don't you think about the position I'm in? It's been so many years. I'm sure you know how I feel about you.a◆?

Despair filled Jianzhong's eyes.

a◆?Stop it!a◆?

The woman shook her head.

a◆?I've told you many times that I only see you as an elder brother. Please, let me go!a◆?

Chu Qing did not hate her childhood friend. However, he was very persistent and had been pestering her for years. It was very frustrating.

At this very moment, she even felt disgusted at him.

a◆?So, that's what you think of me!a◆?

Jianzhong forced a smile. All of a sudden, his eyes were filled with affection.

a◆?I've said it before. I'll leave you once you find the right person that can protect you, and I will!

a◆?However, this man had yet to defeat me!a◆?

The man's tone suddenly became hoarse. His eyes were red and filled with violence as he looked at Yu Tian.

Chu Qing wanted to say something but Yu Tian grabbed her hand.

a◆?I'll beat you. Let's go to the fighting ring.a◆?

a◆?Hahaha! Sure!a◆?

Jianzhong laughed hysterically and said to Feiyu, a◆?Get the fighting ring ready.'

The latter wanted to advise against it.

Having immense strength did not mean that one would also excel in boxing. It would be a huge shame if Yu Tian, who was full of potential, got destroyed by Jianzhong.

However, there was not much he could say. He grabbed his phone and made some calls.

Chu Qing held Yu Tian's hands tightly.

a◆?Have you gone mad?!a◆?

a◆?Elder sister Qing, trust me.a◆?

Yu Tian's eyes shone with confidence.

a◆?Sigha◆| Be careful. Just surrender if you can't take it anymore. It's nothing to be ashamed of.a◆?

a◆?Don't worry.a◆?

Shortly after, one of the fighting rings was set up.

Yu Tian and Jianzhong entered the fighting ring. There was no referee, so Feiyu took up the responsibility.

“All the best!”

Jianzhong's men cheered for him.

“Yu Tian, you can do it!”

There were some people supporting Yu Tian too.

Jianzhong closed his eyes to compose himself. When he reopened his eyes, he was calm.

“Feiyu, you should give the young man some protection gear,” said Jianzhong.

Although Yu Tian was stronger than him, Jianzhong had all the other advantages in this match.

Moreover, he did not want to injure the young man because that would upset Chu Qing.

All he wanted was to teach Yu Tian a lesson and for him to leave the woman alone.

“You're not wearing any protection yourself, so why should I?”

Yu Tian asked.

“I don't need them.”

“And I do?”

Yu Tian chuckled and added, “Just bring it on..”
