To be impressed meant to rub her eyes hard and look at them again.

Before leaving, Aunt Emily tidied herself up a little.

It was normal for a woman to tidy herself up before leaving the house.

But after Aunt Emily tidied herself up, she immediately changed from a rustic aunt to a hot chick.

Yu Tian rubbed his eyes several times and confirmed that this was aunt Emily herself.

He couldn't help but sigh and thought to himself, women really do rely on makeup to make themselves look good.

In the past, it was said that one couldn't believe lies and videos, but now, human society had developed to the point where one couldn't trust humans.

Therefore, there were always people who asked where the most basic trust between people was.

These were people who had been injured in the club.

Aunt Emily set off in high spirits, driving her mini-car and carrying Yu Tian to the Blue Boma Bar.

The mouse team followed behind their mini-car with the executioner, and they also set off towards the Blue Boma Bar.

It was not too late now. It was the beginning of the night life in the mini-bull market. There were even many people who were busy with dating and eating candlelit dinners.

The mini-bull market was much more prosperous than twilight city. The streets were brightly lit at night, and there were rarely deserted streets.

The mouse team did not drive their minivan because it was not suitable for trains to appear on the streets at this time. It was rare for the people of wind country to work overtime to deliver goods at night.

The minivan was barely enough. As long as the three minivans did not follow too closely, it would look like a gang going out to do business. It would not attract too much attention.

There were more cars on the street, but it was not considered a traffic jam.

After half an hour of dilly-dallying on the road, Yu Tian and Lady Emily finally arrived at their destination.

From the outside, the Blue Poma Bar did not look much different from an ordinary bar.

Other than the dazzling neon signs, all sorts of colorful lights with unknown meanings, and the narrow entrance, the burly man who was guarding the door looked a little more majestic.

“Follow me, sir. ”

Emily parked the car with ease and then beckoned Yu Tian to get off.

The Mouse Squad’s commercial car did not approach the entrance of the bar. Instead, it stopped at the roadside far away.

Yu Tian got off the car and followed behind Emily.

However, Emily naturally held onto Yu Tian’s arm. Yu Tian thought of Emily’s age and freckles all over her face and felt a little scared.

However, Emily did not care about the age difference between the two of them.

She pretended to be very close to Yu Tian and casually asked, “Sir, how should address your ‘

“You can call me Yu... Little Yu’er.”

Yu Tian hesitated for a moment and decided to give himself a more powerful nickname.

He remembered that little Yu’er seemed to be a very powerful person. However, he did not know if others would think so.

Emily chuckled. “Oh, little fish, what a cute name. It suits the gentle temperament of You Easterners. ”

“You ‘re wrong, “Yu Tian said indifferently. “The women in the east may be very gentle, but the men in the east are much more ferocious than you think. “You should know that there’s something called Piranha in Little Fish. If you encounter them, many creatures will die without a complete corpse...”

Emily was slightly stunned, then she smiled and said, “Yes, sir. Small fish are also very powerful. Sea creatures are much more ferocious than land creatures...”

Yu Tian shrugged. “Just call me small fish.”

“Okay, small fish. Let’s hurry up. There are many dance performances that men like in this Blue Poma Bar.”

The two quickened their steps and walked into the bar.

There were many customers in the bar, but it wasn’t as crowded as the bars in the eastern countries. The music wasn’t so loud that it made people deaf.

There was a stage in the middle of the bar. It was shaped like a starfish and extended to several small stages around it.

There were some steel pipes on the small stage, but they didn’t see the dance performance that Emily had mentioned.

Perhaps this was because the dance performance had not yet started. The band that was standing in the middle of the stage was performing an exciting rock song.

There were many small wine tables around the stage. The guests at the wine tables were completely indifferent to the passionate singing of the black guy. They were just drinking and chatting.

Emily held Yu Tian’s hand as they skillfully walked through the hall and directly walked to the bar counter.

“Do you want a drink? It’s my treat.”

Emily walked forward while turning her head to ask Yu Tian with a smile.

“No. ”

Yu Tian was not here to drink. He planned to go directly to the manager of the bar.

However, he immediately changed his mind. “Give me a bottle of wine the whole bottle.

Although he could also break into the bar owner’s office and kidnap the person he was looking for, it would be too easy to cause a commotion.

He had just arrived at the mini-bull market and didn't want to create too much chaos.

Carrying a bottle of beer was at least a cover.

Emily bought a bottle of beer for Yu Tian. Out of the entire bottle of beer, beer was the cheapest.

This meant that Emily's life wasn't rich.

Although the salary offered by Donglong company was very high and there were various subsidies for every operation, a woman who had to put on makeup and go to a nightclub always had a lot of expenses.

In order to appear more normal, Yu Tian sat at the bar for a while and drank a few mouthfuls of beer.

The taste of beer from abroad was stronger and the price was more expensive.

Yu Tian burped and suddenly realized that the breath in his Dantian was somewhat chaotic.

The new and old internal forces were originally not very well-behaved in his dantian, and they both felt a little repelled by each other.

Now, they suddenly started to fight, wanting to devour each other and merge.

Now was not a good time to merge.

Yu Tian hurriedly controlled his internal forces and transferred them out of the Dantian, circulating them in his meridians.

The old internal forces could circulate according to the circulation path of the nameless internal force, and quickly walked out of the Dantian.

However, the new internal forces did not listen to him, and they were unwilling to walk the path that the old internal force had walked. They could only circulate according to the circulation path of the gentle steps.

Yu Tian could not operate two internal energy at the same time. These were two completely different ways of operating internal energy. Even if he could multitask, he could not avoid the collision of the two internal energy in his meridians.

If he allowed the internal energy to collide on its own, it would definitely cause Qi deviation and the legendary situation of Qi deviation would occur.

Yu Tian did not know what Qi deviation was, but in novels, Qi deviation was either serious injury or death. Or he was struck by genuine qi and turned into a madman or a fool.

This kind of dangerous thing was not a joke..

Chapter 1202: Chapter 1,201, a scapegoat he couldn't afford

Yu Tian put down the beer bottle, held onto the bar counter, and started to stare blankly.

He was trying his best to control the internal energy circulation in his body.

It was impossible to fuse two types of internal energy now, and this was not something that could be done in a short period of time.

He could only send the old internal energy into his meridians and circulate it according to the trajectory of the nameless internal energy. At the same time, he suppressed the new internal energy in his dantian to control their commotion.

It was like forcefully separating two children who were fighting. One was locked in the room, while the other rushed outside to let him run. This way, the two of them would not be able to fight for the time being.

Emily noticed Yu Tian's strange posture and could not help but ask with concern, "Little Yu'er, what's wrong with you? Are you getting drunk so easily?"

Yu Tian was in a tense moment when he was circulating his internal energy and had no time to talk to Emily at all.

Emily was slightly surprised when she saw that Yu Tian did not respond.

She had never seen a person who had gotten so drunk after two sips of beer.

Yu Tian did not look like he was allergic to alcohol. It was impossible for someone who was allergic to alcohol to ask for alcohol.

Unless it was a sudden attack, a heart attack, cerebral hemorrhage, epilepsy, or crazy pig..

"Little Fish? Can you hear me? Are you sick?"

Emily began to worry, but Yu Tian still did not respond.

So Emily could not help but reach out to support Yu Tian's shoulder.

Just as Emily's finger touched Yu Tian's shoulder, she felt a strange force slam into her finger.

Her finger was slightly painful, and then it was flicked away as if it had been electrocuted.

Emily was stunned. This strange situation made her feel very strange, and she even wondered if she was hallucinating.

After hesitating for a moment, she tried to stretch her hand toward Yu Tian's shoulder again, trying to verify if what had just happened was true.

The result was the same as before. Her hand was once again repelled by a strange rebound force.

This feeling was very similar to being electrocuted, except that it did not have the numbness of being electrocuted. It was more like being hit by a stick.

Emily was a little stunned. What was going on?

Static electricity?

It was very similar, but it did not seem like it.

Emily was not an Easterner, and she had never seen those eastern wuxia stories.

She could not understand what had happened to Yu Tian. Other than static electricity, what else could cause such a strange phenomenon in humans.

If an Easterner who was born and raised in the East encountered such a strange situation like Yu Tian, it was easy for them to associate Yu Tian with practicing some kind of internal strength.

People who were practicing internal strength were generally not allowed to touch them.

If one were to casually touch someone who had profound internal strength, it would not be the effect of a static shock.

The person who touched him might be sent flying or killed on the spot.

Therefore, when one's internal strength was trained to a profound level, it was not impossible to be bulletproof. The surface of the body was covered with internal strength, and it was difficult for ordinary bullets to break through this barrier.

The Golden Bell Shield and iron shirt were also based on the same principle, but they were more powerful in terms of defense, so the use of internal strength was more economical and efficient.

Emily was confused and didn't know what to do.

Yu Tian didn't respond at all and didn't answer her question, which made her even more anxious.

She began to consider whether she should ask for help from others or call an ambulance.

But considering Yu Tian's identity and the operation they were carrying out, Emily began to hesitate again.

What if Yu Tian wasn't in any danger and was just distracted? Her actions would obviously ruin Yu Tian's operation.

It would even attract attention the next time Yu Tian came here, and he would even be kicked out by the security guards.

No security guard liked troublesome customers, especially those patients who needed an ambulance at any time. This would affect the business of the bar.

Emily had a headache. If she did not care about Yu Tian, what if Yu Tian suddenly died here?

This was an important person sent by the higher-ups. If she died in an accident with unknown reasons, she would not be able to explain herself.

If she was recognized as the murderer of Yu Tian by the headquarters, her life would be over.

The headquarters had detailed information on every member and knew every member of their family.

If they decided that she was a traitor, then it would be a rebellion by one person, and the whole family would be honored.

The whole family would be implicated by her, and they would suffer together.

This was not a consequence that Emily could bear. She was not like those traitorous leaders who could relocate the whole family to a new city and a new villa, and could ensure that the whole family could live well for the rest of their lives.

Emily was so poor that she did not even have the money to travel.

With such wild thoughts running through her mind, Emily suddenly felt extremely conflicted.

She felt that she could not drag this on any longer. She had to do something.

Yu Tian had already sat in a daze for more than a minute. A normal person would not be able to stay in a daze like him until there was no movement at all. This was definitely the rhythm of an accident.

Emily decided to do it herself. First, she would take Yu Tian out of the bar.

Then, she would send Yu Tian back to the pest control company.

As long as Yu Tian did not die before he returned to the pest control company, Emily would still be able to explain this strange situation to George. She would not be blamed for poisoning Yu Tian.

So, she tried to hold Yu Tian's body again.

Although she knew that she might be attacked by that strange power, she felt that she just needed to hold on for a while and hug Yu Tian tightly. Just as her hand reached Yu Tian's waist, Yu Tian suddenly spoke.

"Don't move, I'm fine."

"Oh God... you scared my little heart out..."

Emily was finally relieved and almost burst into tears.

"Ms. Emily, please stay calm. I was just distracted when I was thinking.

Nothing happened. "

"But you just... "

"No buts. I was thinking about practicing kung fu, and then I did a little kung fu experiment..."

"Training? Oh, the magical Oriental Kung Fu..."

"Don't mind these details, Ms. Emily. I need to stay here quietly for a few minutes. Please cover for me and don't let anyone disturb me.

Yu Tian did not continue to explain. The unexpected situation in his body had not been completely resolved yet.

The nameless internal force had already begun to circulate through his meridians, but the internal force of the gentle steps of the waves was still rampaging in his dantian. It seemed that because his opponent had suddenly disappeared, he could not find a way to vent his anger for a while.

Yu Tian still needed some time to stabilize his situation. Before he solved this problem, it was not convenient for him to do other things. The action plan could only be suspended for the time being..

Chapter 1203: Chapter 1202, mingling on the third floor

Yu Tian's nameless internal strength had a very good advantage, which was that he could practice it at any time.

This was a kind of lazy internal strength. Other than the fact that the efficiency of practicing it was a little low, there were no other strict conditions, and there were no dangers in the process of practicing it.

It had no requirements for the posture of the practice, and it didn't even have any requirements for the progress of the practice.

Yu Tian could stop at any time when he was halfway through the practice.

This interrupted operation wouldn't cause any accidents, and it wouldn't even let the half of the previous practice go to waste. It just made the efficiency of the practice even lower.

Therefore, no matter what he was doing, he could casually practice the nameless internal force a few times.

Even if the effect was meager, it was better than nothing.

Even if he didn't take the initiative to practice it, the nameless internal force would still circulate passively at an extremely slow speed. It was just that the efficiency was extremely low.

This was equivalent to practicing for twenty-four hours, but the efficiency was very low.

This could be considered the only drawback of the nameless internal force. The efficiency of practicing it was extremely low, so low that all the martial artists lost interest in practicing it.

However, there was a gain and a loss. The low efficiency of the nameless internal force was very effective in such a situation where it was about to go crazy.

Yu Tian could move all the nameless internal strength out of his dantian and slowly circulate it in his meridians, preventing it from returning to his dantian.

This way, there was no need to clash with the internal strength of the Lingbo microsteps.

After this continued for a period of time, the internal strength of the Lingbo microsteps, which could not find an opponent, finally calmed down temporarily.

Yu Tian wiped off his cold sweat and thought to himself that he would definitely not randomly learn any new internal strength in the future.

This kind of playing method was too dangerous. The slightest carelessness would result in his death.

Learning the internal energy of ancient martial arts was not a joke, nor was it a game. This was something that could kill.

His current state could only be considered as a temporary measure. He could only temporarily prevent the two types of internal energy from coming into contact and create an unexpected situation.

Later, he had to make time to completely resolve the potential conflict between the two types of internal energy.

Otherwise, if he were to suddenly attack while he was in battle mode, he might really die.

Yu Tian picked up the beer bottle, took a big gulp, and then looked at the time.

Fortunately, this process of dealing with the accident only took less than ten minutes.

Emily, who was beside him, saw his movement and immediately came up to him. "Little Yu'er, are you done?" "Yes, let's get to work."

Yu Tian stood up from the bar counter.

He did not plan to stay in the bar for too long, and he was not interested in sitting at the bar counter and drinking.

Emily also stood up with him and asked in a low voice, "What should we do?"

Yu Tian walked a few steps to the side and was a little further away from the bar counter. Then he said, "Do you know where their manager's office is?"

Emily was beaming with joy as she said, "Of course, their manager's office is on the third floor. I've been upstairs. There are many private rooms on the second and third floors. Rich people like to stay in those private spaces to play..."

This answer was also within Yu Tian's expectations.

The bar had a total of three floors. Normally, the manager's office was definitely on the top floor.

However, the bar was a little big, and Yu Tian was not familiar with the environment in the bar, so it was a little difficult for him to find the manager's office.

If Emily did not give him directions, he could only catch a waiter and ask for directions, then charge into the manager's office.

Of course, now that Emily was here, Yu Tian could make this matter more covert.

"Can we go directly to the manager's Office?"

"Of course not. Half of the area on the third floor is restricted. That's their office..."

Emily hesitated for a moment and said, "However, they didn't put too many security guards in the corridor. If only one or two people are on duty, I might have a chance to lure them away."

Yu Tian pondered for a moment. "Then let's try it... come, let's go to the third floor."

After going around the stage, there was a small elevator behind them.

There was a staff member standing guard at the elevator door. He was neatly dressed and wore a small bow tie.

He looked like an ordinary restaurant waiter, but he was stronger than ordinary people.

The staff seemed to help guests with the elevator, similar to the elevator driver.

But his actual duty was to act as a doorman, and he would refuse to let ordinary guests in.

There were private rooms on the second and third floors, and he would not allow idlers to wander around the upper floors, which would add a lot of trouble to the management of the bar.

But Emily was clearly not among the idlers.

When she reached the elevator, she naturally called out the name of the guard. She also indicated that she wanted to go to Augusta's private room on the third floor because Augusta asked her to go up and have a drink.

The guard smiled and helped them to press the button for the elevator.

When they reached the third floor, there was still a guard at the door. However, when Yu Tian and Emily walked out of the elevator, the guard did not stop them. Instead, he greeted them as if he was a normal attendant.

The two of them then walked towards the corridor.

After walking for some distance, Yu Tian asked in puzzlement, "How do you know which private room on the third floor is Augustus's?"

Emily shrugged. "I don't know, I'm just talking nonsense... However, Augustus is indeed a regular here. "Maybe he came here today, but maybe he didn't come... who knows? Those watchdogs might not be aware of these things.

"Alright, looks like our luck is not bad.

Yu Tian chuckled and did not dwell on these details.

It was already good enough that they could quietly sneak into the third floor. As for whether or not such tricks would be exposed, he did not care.

After taking a turn in the corridor, the two of them left the sight of the third-floor guard behind them.

There was still a corner not far in front of the corridor, and on both sides of the corridor were the doors of two private rooms.

Emily stopped in her tracks at the door of the private room on the left, then, she whispered to Yu Tian, "Turn right in front. After that, it's their office area. The manager's office is in the second room at the end of the corridor, but there will definitely be someone guarding the entrance of the office area... What do you plan to do?"

Yu Tian looked up at the ceiling of the corridor. As expected, there were cameras installed on the ceiling, and they were at the corner of the corridor, so they could see the entire corridor clearly.

This meant that the people in the bar could monitor them at any time, and even at this time, they were already watching them.

Yu Tian hesitated for half a second and decided not to directly attack them for the time being.

He was not sure if the target was in the office. If he missed the target, he would alert the enemy..

Chapter 1204: Chapter 1203, Emily's plan

Translator: 549690339

The ancient people in the East said that there was no turning back.

Once Yu Tian decided to make a move, he had to catch the target in one go.

Otherwise, after alerting the enemy, it would be very difficult to catch the target again.

Therefore, violence was always the last resort.

Therefore, Yu Tian slammed Emily against the wall and pretended to flirt under the surveillance. Then, he asked in a low voice, "Do you have a way to confirm if their manager is here now?"

Emily hooked her arms around Yu Tian's neck and pondered for a moment. "I can try... which manager are you looking for?"

"Are there many managers?"

"Of course there are many managers, and I'm not too sure about their specific duties. They are a gang, and every leader can be called a manager, and even a pimp can be called a manager.

"I'm Looking for a guy named Barr... "

Yu Tian reached into his pocket for his phone. He had information and photos of this Barr.

"Barr? I should know this guy..."

Emily lowered her head to look at Yu Tian's phone screen, then immediately said, "That's right, it's this Barr. I know this guy. He's a ruthless character. I might not even be able to beat him..."

Yu Tian was a little surprised. "Oh? From what you're saying, you're quite good at fighting?"

Emily said proudly, "Of course. If there's a chance, I can show you. My Kung Fu is very good."

Yu Tian suddenly felt a chill and hurriedly said, "There's no need for that. I believe that you're very good at fighting... Then, do you have a way to find out if this Barr is here?"

"I'll try."

Emily pushed Yu Tian away, then turned around and walked towards the private room at the side.

She casually pushed open the door of the private room and walked straight into the private room.

Yu Tian hurriedly followed.

Before Yu Tian walked to the door of the private room, he heard Emily Roar, "Hey! Andre! You B * Tch! You actually went behind my back and came here to play with women..."

Yu Tian was stunned, and then he immediately understood Emily's plan.

She wanted to create trouble to lure Barr out.

If there were people fighting and creating trouble in the bar, the bar manager would naturally appear.

This was the case for ordinary bars, and it was even more so for bars under the management of gangs.

If someone dared to create trouble in the Blue Poma Bar, according to their rules, a large group of people would definitely come up and beat up the troublemaker, and then throw them into the Dirty Alley behind the bar.

Barr would definitely be involved in this process.

The cadres of the gangsters were also very happy to show their faces in such matters.

Yu Tian shook his head and chuckled. He felt that Emily's trick was pretty good.

However, if Emily wanted to come to this bar in the future, it would be a little inconvenient.

Of course, this might not be a problem for Emily.

After all, a woman who was good at makeup could use a different image and appearance to appear in front of these familiar people.

Yu Tian walked to the door of the private room and took a look inside.

The private room was already in a mess. Aunt Emily was grabbing a certain man and fighting on the sofa. A few people beside her wanted to pull her back desperately, but they were unable to completely pull her back.

Yu Tian didn't know how good Emily was at fighting, but looking at the scene, at least it proved that Emily was strong.

As for fighting skills, it was hard to judge.

Because Emily couldn't fully unleash her fighting strength in this situation.

She was just a crazy and out-of-control shrew.

The man who was grabbed by her accepted her storm-like tearing. He took a deep breath and hurriedly shouted, "F * ck, I'm not Andre. Andre, that bastard, is on your right..."

Emily was slightly stunned. She had just made up the name of Andre and was prepared to announce that she had mistaken him for someone else after a fight.

This explanation could be considered passable because the light in the private room was dim, so it was not strange that she had mistaken him for someone else.

Moreover, the man that she could use as an excuse to get beaten looked very similar to Andre.

However, she did not know if it was because there were too many people named Andre in the wind country, or if it was because they were really lucky, but it just so happened that there was actually an Andre in the private room.

This time, Emily's reason for fighting became even stronger.

Thus, she shouted again, "Andre, I'm going to destroy you on behalf of the Moon..."

Then, Emily gave an old punch and fiercely smashed the chin of the Andre beside her.

Duang..

Yu Tian kept feeling that he heard a strange sound, and then he saw that Andre fell straight back.

With a bang, Andre fell on the coffee table behind him, and the wine bottles and glasses on the coffee table flew everywhere.

Without a doubt, Andre had been knocked unconscious by Emily's punch.

The unconscious Andre couldn't claim that he didn't know this crazy woman, and Emily's troublemaking behavior was more justified.

Of course, no matter how good her reasons were, as long as she made a move in the Blue Poma Bar, she would be kicked out by the people in the bar, and she would be listed as an unwelcome person.

This was still considered good.

In a more serious situation, the bar would make her compensate, blackmail her, or even make her completely bankrupt, turning her into an indecent wife, and then join the gang's Independent Women's Liberation Plan..

The Blue Poma Bar was the property of the gang. These gangsters obviously wouldn't talk to people about reason and law, and there wasn't any mercy or mercy.

In the words of the Easterners, if it fell into their hands, they would at least be skinned alive.

After Andre was knocked unconscious by Emily's punch, the room suddenly became quiet.

The men stopped pulling, and the dancing girls who were screaming excitedly shut their mouths. They gloated at Emily's disheveled hair in the middle of the room.

Someone turned on the lighting in the room, and the room immediately became much brighter.

This room was very big. In addition to a theater and sound equipment, there was even a small stage for performing.

Of course, there were many sofas and all kinds of strange tables and chairs.

With such a big room, it was naturally not cheap to spend.

The people who came here to fool around were certainly not losers or commoners.

Yu Tian glanced at the few men in the private room. As expected, all of them looked "Rich and powerful. "It was a pity that Emily had torn them apart just now and made them look a little pathetic.

“You Crazy Woman, do you know what this place is? Do you know whose private room this is?”

After a moment of silence, a rich and powerful man immediately roared..

Chapter 1205: Chapter 1,204 was taken away by the security guards

Translator: 549690339

“Damn it, where are the security guards? Where are the security guards? Hurry up and get your security guards over here. I must get rid of this damn bitch!

Some men shouted fiercely at the dancers.

They didn't care about the relationship between Emily and Andre. Anyway, they knew that Emily wasn't Andre's real wife. At most, she was just a mistress.

What right did lovers have to catch adulterers?

However, this was not important. Even if Andre's real wife came, she did not have the right to break into their private room and break up their party.

The customs in the west were different from those in the east. Violent incidents caused by catching adulterers were very rare, especially in a romantic country like the windy nation. No one could avoid having a few lovers.

If everyone was serious about catching adultery, the police station would probably be busy collecting corpses every day.

Westerners were usually very calm when they encountered adultery. Most of them did not think that this was a particularly serious matter.

Of course, there were also fights caused by this kind of thing, but this kind of fight would not be justified because there was a reason for catching adultery. The box was equivalent to a private space. These men certainly would not allow

Emily to run into their box to fight, and would not tolerate this kind of fighting to implicate them.

No matter what reason Emily had, breaking into other people's private space to hit people was a serious offense.

Just now, in the short span of dozens of seconds, this group of rich and powerful men had been tormented by Emily, and each of them was panting like an ox.

They felt that it was difficult to control Emily with their own combat strength. They could only rely on the gangster security guards in the bar to uphold justice for them and uphold the law.

The dancers in the private room had already called for the security guards. The security guards were not slow either. In less than a minute, more than a dozen people had squeezed into the corridor outside the private room. The corridor was completely blocked.

Yu Tian was originally standing at the door. At this moment, he was also pushed into the private room by a group of gangster security guards.

When this group of gangster security guards arrived, the men in the private room immediately became more imposing. They immediately began to scold the gangster security guards.

“What are you security guards doing? Why did you let this crazy woman in? ! ” “This crazy woman ruined our party. You have to take responsibility for this! ”

“She even beat Andre to death! Damn it, this is a crazy woman. She killed someone! ”

“How could andre get involved with such a crazy woman? How desperate is he to have such a bad taste?”

“This is simply a disgrace to our excellent men! ”

“He must have been drunk to do such a stupid thinz.”

“Why are you security guards still in a Daze? Hurry up and get this crazy woman out of Here! ”

“Call a doctor for Andre first. I think he can still be resuscitated. ”

The group of men cursed and discussed at the same time, causing the room to become lively again.

Although their narration was chaotic, the gang security guards understood the general situation and immediately glared at Emily.

These security guards were experienced and had a keen eye for people.

They could see at a glance how cheap Emily’s clothes were and her makeup this kind of heavy makeup was basically no different from the dancers in the nightclub.

This kind of entertainment venue was originally a place where men were the main consumers. The private rooms upstairs basically only served those men who had a little money.

What the security guards had to protect, of course, was the interests of the men.

In a conflict between men and women in this kind of place, the security guards did not need to judge whether it was right or wrong. They only needed to stand on the side of the men.

Even if the men raped the women here, they would only serve the men and help the men cover up all kinds of crimes.

“Come out, woman. Let’s go to the office and have a good talk. ”

A few security guards slowly walked to Emily’s side and said with a sinister smile, “We don’t need to do it ourselves, right?”

Emily was quickly sandwiched in the middle by a few strong security guards, but she didn’t panic at all, instead, she continued to shout, “You bastards, do you want to Be Rude to me? Do you know who I am? Let Go of my arm, I want to see Barr...”

This sentence was also a reminder to Yu Tian that Barr was not among the security guards.

Actually, Yu Tian did not need Emily to specifically remind him. He had already carefully searched through the security guards and did not find Barr.

At this moment, the security guards continued, “You want to see Barr, right? Don’t worry, you ‘ll see him. Come with us, we’ll bring you to see him. ”

It didn’t work when Emily said Barr’s name, because the security guards didn’t think that this cheap woman had anything to do with Barr. Even if there was, it was just a lover who spent the night together.

This identity was meaningless to gangsters.

Even if it was a real girlfriend, they could press each other’s heads into the toilet when they were angry.

Lovers were nothing.

They caught Emily and dragged her out of the room.

Emily didn’t resist seriously. She only pretended to struggle a few times and then cursed, “You bastards, you’ll regret it... ”

At the same time, Emily threw an inquiring look at Yu Tian.

Should I be taken away by these gangster security guards?

Yu Tian's answer was yes.

Since Barr did not come to the private room, Yu Tian naturally had to take the initiative to look for him.

It was not convenient to break into the bar's office, but it was much more convenient to be taken in by the security guards.

Thus, Yu Tian immediately rushed forward in anger and gave a fierce punch to a security guard. He cursed, "Let Her Go, you bastards..."

This vicious punch did not cause any harm to the security guard. The security guard tilted his head slightly, causing Yu Tian's fist to hit nothing.

Following that, a security guard immediately punched Yu Tian in the stomach.

Yu Tian was already prepared to be beaten up, so he had already activated his golden bell shield iron shirt divine art.

This protective martial art of his was still at the very elementary stage. Not only could it not withstand bullets, it could not even withstand cold weapons such as knives, guns, and clubs.

However, this body protection technique was not completely ineffective. At the very least, it would not cause him too much pain when he was being beaten up.

Just like now, although Yu Tian bent his waist in pain and even staggered and could not stand properly, he basically did not feel any pain, not to mention that he would be injured.

This kind of soft fist was still useful against ordinary people. It was not very meaningful to deal with a martial artist like him, let alone someone like him who had practiced horizontal martial arts..

"Who is this guy?"

"He came up with this woman. It seems that he is this woman's lover. "Oh, he accompanied his lover to find his lover's lover for a duel?"

“Yes, he should be here to help his lover beat up his lover’s lover...”

Yu Tian’s behavior did not arouse the suspicion of the security guards, nor did it make them pay too much attention to him.

The men in the private room were already getting impatient.

“What are you guys still talking about? Hurry up and get this pair out of Here! ”

“Don’t let them disturb us anymore. I don’t want to see them again! ”

“Hurry up and get rid of these killjoys! ”

The gangster security guards were relatively polite to these customers. One of the leaders immediately replied, “Alright Gentlemen, we will take care of this matter immediately. I guarantee that this situation will not happen again...”

Another man reminded, “Get us another doctor. Edward has peed himself.” The security leader smiled and said, “I will arrange it for you immediately. ” “And our broken wine...”

“I will get someone to clean it up immediately. Then, I will give you a few bottles of treasure.

The security leader arranged the guests properly. He also arranged Yu Tian and Emily properly.

They were quickly brought into the office area and walked all the way to the end of the corridor.

The manager’s office was the second-to-last room at the end of the corridor, but the security guards did not stop at the door of the manager’s office.

Yu Tian glanced at the manager’s office while he was at it.

The door of the office was closed, and no one seemed to be moving or making any sound.

Yu Tian sighed in his heart. Fortunately, he didn’t call directly. Now it seemed that Barr wasn’t in this office.

The security guards opened the door of the room at the end and pushed Yu Tian and Emily in.

This room was very large, and there was a large window. However, there were thick curtains, so they couldn’t see the scenery outside.

There was a large office desk in the room, but the other decorations looked more like a living room. There was no lack of sofas and coffee tables.

There was a spacious space in the middle of the living room, which seemed to be a place for beating people up.

Most of the security guards had dispersed, but not all of them followed into the room. Only six or seven burly men came in.

In the eyes of these gangsters, six or seven burly men were enough to watch over a woman and a weak eastern man.

They closed the door of the room and surrounded Yu Tian and Emily with smiles.

“What do you want?”

Emily pretended to be a little scared, but still said loudly with confidence, “I’m warning you not to do anything stupid. Hurry up and find Barr. I want to see

The security guards laughed. “You want to see Barr? Do You Want Barr to help you pay today’s Bill? Do You Know Who Barr is? Are you sure you want to see him

Emily did not show any weakness. “Of course I want to see him. I know he’s your boss, the boss of this place! “But you must not know how deep his friendship with Me is. If you do anything impolite to me, he will definitely teach you a lesson happily... ”

“Oh, you speak as if it’s true... Barr and you have a deep friendship?”

A few security guards chuckled, obviously not believing Emily’s words.

However, the head of security shrugged and said, “Alright, you’ll meet Barr. “Before Barr comes over, I won’t do anything to you. “But if you trick us... Barr will definitely be happy to cut off your long nose. ”

A long nose was a familiar story among westerners, and those who lied would have a longer nose.

“HMPH, then we’ll just wait and See! ”

Emily appeared to be very confident, as if she really had a special relationship with Barr.

Yu Tian did not say a word. If he said too much, he would lose everything. He only needed to wait for the situation to develop.

Looking at the current situation, Barr should be coming over.

The room became quiet.

The few gang security guards did not say anything else, and they did not plan on torturing Yu Tian and Emily for the time being.

They were motioned to sit on the large sofa in the middle of the room. Other than not being allowed to move around, there were no other restrictions.

This was considered a very good treatment. It seemed that the gangster security guards were really worried about Emily and Barr's relationship.

Not long after, the door of the room was pushed open in a few minutes at most.

Three or four men swaggered in from outside the door.

Yu Tian recognized one of them at a glance. It was Barr, whom he was looking for.

Perhaps this was also known as looking for someone after a long time of searching for them.

Barr delivered himself to Yu Tian. Yu Tian finally let out a long sigh of relief. Then, he could not help but reveal a relaxed smile on his face.

He did not act immediately. Instead, he waited for Barr and the others to close the door before he walked to the sofa.

Barr glanced at Yu Tian and stared at Emily for two seconds. Then, he asked in puzzlement, "You're looking for me? Who Are You?"

"F * ck!"

These two words immediately made the security guards beside him curse. Emily had indeed lived up to everyone's expectations and fooled them.

Emily spread out her hands. "My identity isn't important, and I'm not the one who's looking for you... to be more precise, it's my boss who's looking for you."

As she said this, Emily gestured toward Yu Tian, indicating that her boss was here.

Then, Emily carefully shrank to the side of the sofa.

She wanted these gangsters to focus on Yu Tian so that she could take the opportunity to launch a sneak attack on these gangsters.

Yu Tian's goal in coming to the bar was to capture Barr alive.

Now that Barr had shown up, Emily guessed that Yu Tian would attack Barr soon, so she had to be prepared to assist in the attack.

As she had expected, Barr's gaze landed on Yu Tian.

"Oriental Man?"

Barr was a little puzzled. "Who are you? What do you want from me?"

Yu Tian did not suddenly explode like Emily had expected. Instead, he answered Barr's question unhurriedly. "I'm Looking for you, of course, to get information about your boss from you."

"Information about my boss? Are you talking about Baptiste?"

Barr suddenly laughed. "Oriental Man, do you think we like to joke? You came to the Blue Poma bar just to look for Baptiste? Everyone who knew Baptiste knew that at this time, he should be staying in the casino! Are you playing with

Yu Tian calmly said, "No, you've misunderstood. I'm not looking for Baptiste. I'm Looking for Michelle.. "

Chapter 1207: Chapter 1206. Let's have a good chat

"Michelle..."

Upon hearing this name, Barr's eyebrows twitched inconspicuously.

Then..., he pretended as if nothing had happened and said, "What Michelle? I don't know any Michelle. Everyone knows that the boss of our Blue Underpants is Baptiste. There is no Michelle at all. Why are you here looking for Michelle?

Are you playing withn meg"

Yu Tian smiled, he said slowly, "You should know very well whether I am playing with you or not. The person I am looking for is Michelle. You should tell me obediently where Michelle is hiding now. Instead of wasting everyone's time by talking so much nonsense with me here..."

"Oriental Man, who exactly are you? What right do you have to speak to me in such a tone? P'

Barr was even more shocked in his heart, but on the surface, he looked a little angry, he widened his eyes and threatened yu tian, "Kid, you have a lot of guts. You actually dare to cause trouble in my territory. If you don't obediently reveal your identity, I will have my subordinates come and have a good chat with you. "Their way of speaking is not as elegant as mine."

"Your Men? I feel that they don't have the right to talk to me, and they won't have the opportunity to talk to me for the time being..."

Yu Tian smiled slightly, then left the sofa and slowly stood up.

This calm and fearless attitude made Barr suddenly feel a trace of panic. He seemed to have felt the pressure of a superior from Yu Tian, and he could not help but take a step back.

Then, he felt a little angry.

An oriental man actually dared to be so arrogant in his territory. Did he think that their blue underpants were paper tigers?

The mini-bull market was a very complicated city. In addition to the powerful official forces, there were also many gangs and various criminal groups.

However, Barr had never heard of any oriental man's gang, or in other words, among some powerful forces, there were also the top management of Oriental people.

Therefore, he could not figure out Yu Tian's identity at all.

However, Yu Tian was obviously not interested in revealing his identity and background. Barr knew that he could not expect any results from ordinary conversations.

Hence, he immediately called out to his subordinates, "What are you all standing around for? Quickly entertain our guests!"

The gangsters' security had long wanted to teach Yu Tian a lesson. They had always been unhappy with the Easterners, but since their boss was still talking to them, they could not act on their own accord.

Now That Ba Er had given the order, these gangsters immediately gathered around with sinister smiles on their faces, ready to entertain Yu Tian.

However, the result was naturally very surprising to them. They did not even have the time to be surprised before they collapsed one after another, lying on the ground in a mess.

Yu Tian's flying needle technique became more and more skilled. He used his internal energy to control these thin flying needles. His flying needle technique and technique had become almost the same as eastern undefeatable.

That nonsense name seemed to have a lot of meaning.

The gangsters fell to the ground. Barr was immediately dumbfounded, including Emily.

Just as she was about to launch an attack, she realized that her target had fallen.

There was no one else in the room, so there was no doubt that Yu Tian had done all this.

She seemed to have seen Yu Tian's wrist move just now, but at that time, her attention was not on Yu Tian, so she was not sure what Yu Tian had done.

Barr saw it clearly. He saw Yu Tian lightly slap him a few times, as if he had smelled someone fart and then used his hand to slap him a few times.

This result made him feel a little scared. He could not help but take a few steps back, unable to speak for a long time.

Yu Tian lightly slapped his own palm, as if he had just done something insignificant.

He smiled lightly and said, "Now, Mr. Ba ER, can you answer my question properly? Where is Michelle Hiding?"

Barr was inwardly cursing, however, he could only pretend to be calm and say, "I don't know what you're talking about. I don't know any Michelle either. This is blue booma bar. This is blue underpants territory. You will definitely regret offending blue underpants in the mini-bull market. Blue underpants will definitely make you and the people behind you pay a heavy price..."

Yu Tian shrugged. "There's no need to say such nonsense. Your threat is meaningless to me. "You should now consider how to answer my question and how to answer it to my satisfaction. "Otherwise, you will pay a heavy price before anyone else."

"I've said it before. I don't know any Michelle. I'm not joking with you. Our Blue Underpants... Ah

Barr wanted to defend himself, but he suddenly felt a sharp pain on his neck and shoulder. His whole body could not help but tremble.

He wanted to reach out to touch his shoulder, but he felt a numbness on the side of his neck. His entire arm suddenly could not be lifted.

Then, Barr lost consciousness in his feet and fell to the ground.

The floor of the room was carpeted, and it was a famous oriental product with good quality and cheap price.

This fall did not hurt Barr at all, but it made his heart sink.

Paralyzed?

Mysterious Oriental Kung Fu?

Barr had heard some rumors about oriental kung fu and watched some oriental movies. He had always thought that those strange kung fu were all funny.

But now, he could not laugh.

The sharp pain in his body quickly subsided, and then Barr felt an itch on his back.

He really wanted to reach out and scratch it, but now he could not move.

So he could not help but curse, “Damn it, what did you do to me? Do you really want to become enemies with our Blue Underpants...”

Yu Tian took two steps forward and squatted down in front of Barr’s head.

“Blue Underpants... You’re just a small gang. You’re not qualified to be my enemy. ”

Yu Tian calmly reached out his hand and fiddled with the flying needle on Barr’s shoulder. “You ‘re quite stubborn. I actually admire people like you who are stubborn. I have a friend named Kobe not the one who plays basketball who also admires people who are stubborn and is very interested in people who want to be heroes. If you don’t answer my questions now, I’ll have to take you back and let him have a good talk with you.

Barr snorted. He felt that Yu Tian was just trying to scare him.

In the mini-bull market, no one dared to say that blue underpants was not qualified to be an enemy.

Besides, this was his territory. He knew very well that Yu Tian would not be able to smoothly kidnap him from here..

Chapter 1208: Chapter 1,207, the Inside Story of the Blue Underpants

There was only one window in the room, and it was now covered by a heavy curtain.

Behind the curtain was an impenetrable anti-theft net, which he had personally supervised the installation.

Behind the net was not the outside or the street, although many people thought that the outside of the window was the street.

But in fact, behind the window was another room, which was the security guards'lounge.

The main function of this room was to imprison and entertain the guests.

If the guests were not polite, they could immediately turn into a prison cell.

Barr felt that this design was very convenient.

He resisted the itch and said stubbornly, "No, you can't take me away. There are my people outside. The entire bar is mine. You may be able to kill me, but you can't Take Me Away..."

"The people outside are all yours? Just like these guys?"

Yu Tian pointed at the gangsters lying on the ground and smiled disdainfully. "Do you think they can stop me?"

Ba Er was stunned for a moment. He suddenly realized that the ability that Yu Tian had displayed was indeed somewhat magical.

He had silently taken down more than ten people, and he had done it in an instant.

With such a skill, who in the Bar could stop him?

For a moment, Barr did not know how to answer back.

Yu Tian sighed. "Alright, Barr, you should be very clear about your situation now. If you don't want to suffer, then answer my question properly. If I'm satisfied, you can continue to live and continue to be your big brother in the gang. "

Ba Er was silent for a while, then he said, "You don't dare to do anything to me. If you dare to hurt me, Blue Underpants will definitely chase you to the end. "

"Wake up, I don't care about this... "

Yu tian sighed softly, "I've already said that Blue Underpants is not qualified to be my enemy. A small gang, I can destroy you at any time. Or perhaps... I was the one who trained Blue Underpants.

"Blue Underpants was trained by you, you're simply spouting nonsense..." Ba Er could not help but laugh.

But after laughing a few times, he saw that Yu Tian's expression did not change at all. He only looked at him calmly, as if he was looking at a fool.

He was suddenly stunned. He seemed to have realized something.

As a high-ranking member of Blue Underpants and an elder, Barr obviously knew how blue underpants developed and grew.

In the past, Blue Underpants was just a small-time gang. Barr, Baptiste, and the other elders of the gang were just small-time hooligans on the streets.

Their way of life was to rely on swindling, stealing, and selling small pills on the streets.

This kind of miserable life was not about social status. It was even a little difficult to eat a full meal.

For low-class hooligans like them, any small police officer could easily take them down.

Blue underpants obviously wanted to develop and expand. Barr and the others also wanted to become awe-inspiring big shots and make the police officers bow down to them.

However, the mini-bull market was not friendly to them, and it did not leave them much room to survive.

If a gang wanted to develop and expand, they first needed sufficient manpower, and they needed underlings who were willing to work for them. However, this was not the main point. This world did not lack manpower.

What the gang really lacked was not manpower, but money.

As long as there was money, there would naturally be sufficient manpower. There would naturally be a large number of desperadoes who were willing to work for the organization.

Therefore, the gang would run some gray businesses that made huge profits. Only those businesses that made huge profits could afford to raise a group of desperadoes who were desperate for money.

However, those gray businesses that made the most money were usually controlled by the big gangs. They would not leave too much room for the small gangs to survive.

Even small businesses like blue underpants, which were swindled and cheated, would be exploited by the big gangs.

Small gangs like blue underpants could barely survive.

Because they could not make money, they could not develop and grow.

In some countries and regions, in those times when the rule of law was chaotic, some gangsters might be able to rely on their courage to fight their way out of the world and earn themselves a space to develop.

However, in this era, just fighting and killing was not a big deal.

No matter how strong a gang was, if they did not have money, if they could not make friends with the local police, or if they could not afford a lawyer, they would end up in prison.

Fighting wasn't everything. Even if they were given a territory and killed all the enemies, it wasn't their turn to guard this territory to develop and eat meat.

Soon, someone would take away the fruits of their victory and destroy them through various means, or throw them into prison.

Blue underpants couldn't fight and didn't have money. They could only become the vassals of some big gangs and become like laborers.

Barr never imagined that they would develop into a big organization, until Michelle appeared.

Before Michelle appeared, Blue Underpants was already dead in name.

Barr and a few other elders had given up on the idea of developing their own gangs and were ready to work for the big gangs. That way, they might be rewarded with a place to manage and eat. They only needed to hand over a portion of their income..

Michelle's appearance reignited their ambitions because Michelle was rich.

With money, they could recruit loyal underlings and bribe important figures in the police force, including hiring lawyers and roping in allies..

Moreover, Michelle not only had money, but she also had some mysterious background that they could not figure out.

Michelle had a way to build a relationship with important figures in the government, and she was clear about the situation of the officials.

He knew which officers could be bribed, and which police officers could be honest.

He could meet the big boys, and help blue underpants bribe them, and build a very good relationship with the big boys.

He could hire an entire law firm, and hire the Best Lavvyers to advise Blue Underpants, and not be turned down by the best lawyers.

He also registered a company for Blue Underpants, set up his own entertainment business, and began to compete with other gangs. He could even hire professional killers to create bloody massacres for rival gangs.

Michelle's magical operation shocked Barr and the others.

Rather than saying that Michelle was their investor, it was better to say that Michelle was the real gang leader. They were just a shield pushed to the front desk.

Barr never wanted to betray such a big shot..

Chapter 1209: Chapter 1,208, the bottom line

Translator: 549690339

The entire blue underpants leadership knew what Michelle was capable of, and no one dared to betray her.

On the surface, their boss was Baptiste, but that was just a name that Michelle randomly picked out.

Barr did not take Baptiste seriously. He respected Baptiste as his boss, but it was just obeying Michelle's will.

If Baptiste really thought he was the boss one day, Barr and the elders would kill him at any time and wait for Michelle to appoint a new boss.

So, the real boss of blue underpants should be Michelle.

This was something blue underpants' top management all knew.

But Barr always thought that Michelle was just a spokesperson for a group.

This was a very easy truth to understand.

Everything that Michelle did for Blue Underpants did not use Blue Underpants 'own resources.

At least when Blue Underpants was just starting to develop, there were no resources that could be used.

Michelle alone could not do so many things. There should be a team behind him, a terrifying organization.

Only an organization could control so many connections, resources, money, intelligence, and force..

Only an organization could forcefully turn a few hooligans into a gang leader. The strength of such an organization was on a completely different level from the gangs in the mini bull market.

Barr had also thought that blue underpants might be a small gang under the control of a large organization.

This powerful organization must have a purpose for investing in a gang.

For example, when blue underpants grew stronger, someone would take their place and rule over all the industries and criminal forces under them.

However, after Blue Underpants grew stronger, this did not happen.

Michelle did not plan to arrange for someone to replace them. It was just that after the gang started to make money, they kept taking large amounts of money from the gang.

Barr felt that this was a very reasonable thing to do. Every investment needed a return, and the same was true for investing in the gang.

Michelle had spent so much money and resources on blue underpants. Now that Blue Underpants had started to make money, it was natural for them to feed the investors behind him.

However, was the purpose of these investors just to make money?

Although the gray industry operated by the gang was very profitable, this kind of business also had a lot of risks and required a lot of money to make connections.

If they really wanted to make money, what kind of business was not good?

Why did they have to invest in the gang?

Barr did not understand.

Because Michelle had told them to do their own thing.

Don't ask what they shouldn't ask, don't say what they shouldn't say, and don't pry if they shouldn't know.

These questions had always been Barr's biggest doubt.

Now Yu Tian suddenly appeared at the Blue Booma Bar and said that he was the one who trained the blue underpants.

This braggart..

Barr actually believed him a little.

He hesitated for a moment, and his tone suddenly softened. "I don't understand what you're saying, but... I think you can believe me and explain. Maybe we can still have a good communication. "

Yu Tian smiled.

According to the structure of the DONGLONG company, the gang organization was only the least important part of all their businesses.

The reason why they invested in the gang was mainly to prepare for the worst.

Because in many countries and regions, the gang could sometimes play an unexpected role.

Their management principle for the gang was that only one branch maintained contact with the gang leaders, and would not leak information about Dong Long Company to the gang.

These gang members might know that there was a huge force behind the branch, but they basically knew nothing about the East Dragon Company.

But that was enough.

Under the current situation, Barr seemed to have realized Yu Tian's identity, and it might be related to the huge force behind Michelle.

His attitude suddenly became less resistant, and he began to be cautious.

This was a good thing for Yu Tian. He might have a chance to take back control of this gang.

As long as these gang leaders were not loyal to Michelle.

Yu Tian felt that this was a great opportunity, because these gang leaders were usually people who valued money but not people.

Now, even the eastern gangs did not talk about loyalty, let alone these westerners.

If you have milk, you are a mother. This was the attitude that the gang leaders should have.

Yu Tian casually untied the acupoints on Barr's body, then walked to the sofa and sat down.

He said slowly, "It seems that you should know some things. Michelle... is just a traitor at the lowest level of our organization. "

"Mr. Michelle... is just at the lowest level..."

Barr muttered to himself. He felt that this statement was a little awkward.

The arrogant Michelle was just a person at the lowest level of a certain organization?

And she even became a traitor?

Yu Tian smiled lightly. "You think I'm lying to you?"

Barr did not lie, but his expression clearly showed that he did not believe Yu Tian's words.

Yu Tian took out his phone and began to calmly read the information on the blue underpants.

He really had some difficulty reading these words of the wind nation. After reading a few sentences, he found it difficult to continue reading.

So he could only hand his phone to Emily and let her continue reading.

The information provided by No. 76 was relatively complete. It included not only the information of all the high-level leaders of blue underpants, but also the work report on how Michelle helped Blue Underpants develop step by step.

For example, how blue underpants built relationships with officials, how much money he spent, and how many police officers and city hall officials he bought.

For example, how they hired lawyers, fought those lawsuits, which industries they bought, which industries they robbed, and in the process, they met the opponents of the gangs, how they sent out the operation personnel to eliminate the main fighting force of the opponents..

Barr had no choice but to believe Yu Tian's words halfway through.

Other than the organization behind them, who else could have such a clear and detailed understanding of Blue Underpants' development history?

In this document, even their internal reward records were clear. Michelle had taken and turned in the income clearly. How could this information be stolen by outsiders?

As Emily read on, she cursed, "Gan, this gang called old train was killed by us personally... so it was working for Blue Underpants. "

"That time at the locomotive... "

Barr looked at Emily with a puzzled look, and his eyes suddenly lit up..

Chapter 1210: Chapter 1209, identity confirmed

Translator: 549690339

"I remember now. "

Barr was slightly excited. "When we killed the locomotive, there was indeed a very fierce female assassin present. We were responsible for receiving her outside. I saw a female assassin with a big rush with my own eyes...

"What big rush? That's Remington, brand name goods! "Emily corrected him disdainfully. "You gangsters are really ignorant.

"Yes, yes, Remington... "Barr said embarrassedly, "I remember that you had red hair at that time... "

"That's a wig! "Emily corrected him again with dissatisfaction. "Have you ever seen real hair stick to your head like a hat? Have you ever seen real hair that can't even move the Wind?"

Barr was even more embarrassed. "Uh, I didn't pay too much attention to your hair. I paid more attention to the clothes you wore..."

Emily smiled smugly. "I was wearing a crop top and hot pants. How is it? Is My Body Hot?"

Barr immediately said, "Hot, definitely hot. You are the goddess in my heart, the lover of my dreams! Your Mighty Battle stance made me unable to sleep at night. It was super exciting! "I wanted to ask Mr. Michelle about your contact information... but I didn't dare. Michelle didn't allow us to ask about these things. "

Emily laughed proudly. "Damn it, George is right. I'm the sexiest when I'm fighting... "

Barr praised like a little fan. "That's right, I think so too. Unfortunately, I can't find you. Michelle said..."

Yu Tian interrupted them with a headache. “This is the rule of our organization. We are not allowed to have private contact between operations departments... of course, this rule may change in the future. It’s mainly because of the chaos created by these traitors that we feel that the current management model is very inconvenient. ”

Barr immediately agreed, “That’s right, it’s too inconvenient. We should have had more exchanges so that it would be more convenient for us to carry out our business...”

Emily rolled her eyes. “We’re operational personnel. We only care about fighting. What business can we have with you guys?”

Barr now completely believed in Yu Tian and Emily’s identities. After all, he had already confirmed that Emily had indeed participated in some of Blue Underpants ‘work and helped blue underpants grow.

Barr’s acupoints had already been unsealed by Yu Tian. He stood respectfully in front of Yu Tian and said, “How should I address you?” Yu Tian said, “Well, you can call me eastern... Invincible.”

Emily asked curiously, “Shouldn’t you be called Little Fish?”

Yu Tian was stunned for a moment. “Uh, whatever. I have many titles. That’s not the point. ”

Emily shrugged and said to Barr, “This is the highest commander sent by the organization... the highest commander in our little bull market area. ”

George did not reveal Yu Tian’s specific identity to his subordinates. Emily only knew that Yu Tian had absolute authority in the little bull market.

Barr became more respectful and asked curiously, “Then our organization in the Little Bull Market... how many people are there?”

Emily said, “I’m not too sure either, but there are at least a few operations departments like ours. “We’ve participated in operations together before, and I have a very deep impression of a few handsome young men. If we run into them on the streets... ”

This was the awkward part of the East Dragon Company’s current confidentiality system. It was also impossible to prevent all the branches from having no contact or contact at all.

Many branches actually knew each other’s identity on the surface, but they were limited by the company’s rules and did not dare to have too much contact with each other.

This kind of situation led to the appearance of a traitor, and it was very easy to implicate other branches.

Even those unrelated branches would know some information about each other because they had cooperated with each other before.

However, now was not the time to think about how to solve these problems. This was Piggy Liang's job.

Yu Tian patted the armrest of the sofa. "Alright, that's enough of your small talk for now. Let's get down to business. Barr, Tell Me, where is Michelle Hiding?"

Barr hesitated for a moment. "Mr. Michelle hasn't appeared recently, and I don't know where he is. In fact, Mr. Michelle usually doesn't come to us. "If he wants to see us, most of the time, he will invite us to a very safe hotel..."

Yu Tian said indifferently, "According to the information I have here, Michelle has the most contact with you, and the most frequent contact. The last contact was yesterday... Don't you have any information that you can provide me?"

"Mr. Michelle did call me yesterday. The main reason was to ask me about the business income of the small pill, and then asked me to prepare the cash for him in advance..."

At this point, Barr was suddenly stunned. "Yes, in the past, I always transferred the business income to the account he specified, but this time, he asked me to prepare the cash..."

Barr also realized that something was wrong. This was clearly a running operation.

It seemed that Yu Tian was not talking nonsense about Michelle's identity as a traitor.

Yu Tian was slightly stunned. Then, he said with a strange expression, "You guys still do small pill business?"

Barr said, "Of course. All gangsters do this. This makes a lot of money."

Yu Tian was silent for a moment. In the end, he did not say anything more about this matter.

The donglong company had such a big plate, so there were always all kinds of illegal transactions.

Although he was a little disgusted with the small pill business, how could those gangs not get involved in such things.

In comparison, arms smuggling was not a business with a clear conscience. It was also a very harmful business.

There was business, and naturally there was harm.

Yu Tian flipped through his phone. He could not understand the detailed information on it, so he could only continue to ask, "Does little pill have a lot of income?"

Barr said, "It's not too bad. There are always a few million a month."

"So many... a small gang like yours..."

Yu Tian began to understand why donglong company was so rich.

If a branch gang could earn so much money, what about the whole world?

Barr smiled awkwardly and said, "There are a lot of people in the mini-bull market. If there are a lot of people, there will be a lot of consumption. Naturally, we will be able to earn a little more. "In addition, I promote the principle of customer first business. I also launched a loan to take small pills, take small pills in installments, and sell kidneys if we can't afford it..."

"Okay, I understand. You Don't have to explain it to me in detail... I don't care about financial matters. "

Yu Tian interrupted Barr's bragging and asked, "So, Michelle wants you to prepare a few million in cash and hand it over to him personally?"

Barr hesitated for a moment and replied, "It should be, but I'm not sure.

Michelle didn't tell me so much. He just told me to prepare the money and wait for his notice. "

Yu Tian pondered for a moment and then said slowly, "It seems that this is a chance to find Michelle... Barr. "

Barr immediately stood up straight. "Mr. Dongfang, please instruct me."

Yu Tian nodded and slowly said, "Now you know the truth of the matter. Michelle betrayed our organization. I came all the way to the mini bull market to kill this traitor.

Barr quickly said, "I understand. The blue underpants are not Michelle's private property. I know that there is a huge organization behind Michelle. The target of our loyalty should naturally be this organization, not Michelle herself..."

Betraying Michelle was something that Barr felt was justified.

In the past, he did not dare. Now that Michelle had become a traitor, she was still being hunted by the organization. She even wanted to run away with the money..

Now that he had betrayed Michelle, there was no pressure at all.

Yu Tian's status in this mysterious organization was clearly higher than Michelle's.

This could be seen from the attitude of Emily, the person in charge of the operation.

Barr had known before that those people were not Michelle's subordinates, nor were they hired killers.

In other words, the leader of those people was at least on the same level as Michelle.

Now that the people in the operation were going after Michelle and had expressed their absolute obedience to Yu Tian, Barr would also show his absolute obedience to Yu Tian.

Blue underpants did not have the strength to contend against this mysterious organization.

Not to mention anything else, just based on the information about blue underpants that Yu Tian had a clear grasp of, they could easily send a few operations teams to wipe out blue underpants' higher-ups.

Only a fool would go against this mysterious organization. Even if Michelle personally took the lead, no one would go against him.

Barr was not a fool. He was a wise man who knew how to adapt to the situation.

He immediately expressed his stance, "I will absolutely obey Mr. Dongfang's leadership.. "

Yu Tian said with relief, "Very good. You have a bright future."

Barr said again, "Do you need me to inform the other cadres in the association? They still don't know that Michelle has become a traitor. "

Yu Tian said, "There's no need to inform them for the time being. Wait until I send over Michelle's head before I announce these things to them." Barr immediately tactfully said, "Yes sir, I will keep it a secret."

Yu Tian said, "Keep a secret for one time. The most important thing now is to capture Michelle. He still has information that I need to know."

"Please instruct me, sir. I will definitely do my best to cooperate."

"For the time being, do not divulge what happened in this bar tonight. Even to your subordinates, do not divulge these matters. Furthermore, you have to give them a gag order."

"I understand."

"This won't last long. I have other work to do. I have to solve these problems as soon as possible in these two days..."

Yu Tian stood up, he patted Barr on the shoulder. "Michelle will definitely contact you again and ask you to give him the cash that you prepared. Remember my phone number. If he contacts you, you have to inform me immediately."

Barr quickly nodded. "I will definitely contact you as soon as possible."

Yu Tian and Barr exchanged phone numbers and then said, "We are leaving now. Your subordinates will wake up soon. You can find an excuse to explain yourself to them."

Barr said, "I understand. I just got in touch with an old friend that I haven't seen for many years... I will let these kids keep their mouths shut."

Yu Tian turned around and walked out of the door. Before he left, he warned, "In order to prevent any accidents from happening, it's best that you don't leave the bar for the next two days until I'm done dealing with Michelle's matter."

Barr immediately said, "I'll follow your instructions. Your will is my mission..."

This flattery was a little good. Yu Tian left the room with Emily in satisfaction.

After leaving the bar, Yu Tian and Emily drove away.

The three commercial vehicles of the mouse squad immediately followed behind.

The mouse squad had been monitoring Yu Tian's movements the entire time.

This was to prevent any accidents from happening. They could use force to support him at any time.

However, Yu Tian's combat strength was too strong. They did not have the chance to support him. They could only quickly follow and protect him when Yu Tian left.

When they reached the intersection, Yu Tian used the walkie-talkie to instruct Cass behind him, "Cass, leave two people to monitor this bar. "

"Yes, Boss. "

Cass did not ask further. He knew that Yu Tian was not completely at ease with that Barr.

He was also monitoring Yu Tian's movements the entire time. He felt that people like Barr did not have any loyalty at all.

He could betray Michelle with his words now, and he might be able to betray Yu Tian again later.

Sending people to keep an eye on him was a necessary operation.

Cass left behind a car and two members of the mouse team. The other ten or so people squeezed into the other two commercial vehicles.

Then, he said to Yu Tian through the intercom, "Boss, Mr. Executioner also wants to stay and help. He said that he is more suitable for this kind of surveillance and tracking work. "

Yu Tian pondered for a moment. "There's no need. He doesn't need to personally handle such a small matter. Please ask him to go back and rest with us."

"Yes, Boss. "

The call was cut off.

Of course, the executioner would not go against Yu Tian's arrangements. After all, he was only a guest who came to help. He could only act according to Yu Tian's plan.

In fact, the executioner was indeed very suitable for surveillance and tracking work because his lightness skills were too strange. It was difficult to detect his whereabouts, and it could definitely achieve an effect that was hard to guard against.

However, Yu Tian could not completely trust him right now. If there was really something wrong with him, Barr was very likely to lose his life. Then, this hard-earned clue would be cut off.

The most important thing now was to clean up the traitors, and to minimize the damage caused by the traitors to Donglong Company. As for the identity and background of the executioner, they would have plenty of time to investigate it in the future.

To be on the safe side, Yu Tian could only try his best to bring the executioner with him and let him stay under his nose.

In addition, Yu Tian also contacted Brother Pig and asked him to arrange for the technicians to monitor Barr's cell phone.

The details determined the success or failure. Although these arrangements cost more manpower and resources, it was also equivalent to providing insurance for the operation to prevent any accidents from happening in Barr's segment.

Subsequently, other than the two mouse team members who stayed behind to monitor the bar, the rest returned to the base of the Operation Branch, the extermination and pest control company..

Chapter 1212: Chapter 1,221, poor safety awareness

After returning to the pest control company, the rat squad finally had a break.

George did not idle around during this period of time. He led his subordinates, who were good citizens, to clean up the room prepared for the rat squad, so that everyone could live more comfortably.

Unfortunately, before the mouse team had time to rest, the people who were out on a reconnaissance mission sent back news that they had found the target.

This was another unexpected surprise. Yu Tian did not expect that today would be so smooth. On the first night of their arrival in the mini-bull market, they had obtained two clues in a row.

They set off immediately.

Yu Tian did not hesitate and immediately called out the mouse team members who had just laid on the bed.

This time, it was still a full-scale operation, including the executioner.

The current situation was that the operation personnel had already found the target. They only needed to rush over and directly capture the target.

This kind of operation was more direct, and it was a full-scale operation. Yu Tian did not have to worry about what would happen to the executioner.

George remained in charge of directing the investigation work of the other members of the operation in time.

Emily became a guide again, and this kind of manual guide was definitely more intelligent than the intelligent navigation.

The mouse team still drove their two business vehicles, but considering that they still had to capture captives, and might even have to move the body, the business vehicles might not be enough, so they took a few motorcycles from the pest control company along the way.

At this time, the traffic was still busy, but there was no traffic jam.

In order to save time, everyone began to take a shortcut under Emily's lead.

Because there were a lot of different types of vehicles this time, it was not very eye-catching for everyone to walk together, so Yu Tian had everyone follow Emily's car all the way.

It took them half an hour to take a shortcut, but they finally arrived at their destination in time.

The destination was an apartment building.

This apartment building was still not high, only five stories.

Compared to the apartment buildings commonly seen in dusk city, this apartment building looked much more beautiful, and the entire building looked much newer.

When Emily's car appeared at the corner of the street, the action personnel responsible for the investigation rode up on their scooters.

"Where is the target?"

Yu Tian did not bother to be polite and directly asked about business.

The officer did not waste any time and immediately said, "The target entered the apartment building. From the moment I reported to him, he has not come out.

"It has been more than half an hour, and the target has not come out?"

The officer shrugged. "I can only monitor the situation at the front door, so I can only confirm that he did not come out from the front door but he entered through the front door, so he should not suddenly think of leaving through the back door."

This idea was theoretically correct. If the target wasn't on guard when he entered the door, then leaving wouldn't be so alert.

But it couldn't be ruled out.

Because after the target stayed in the apartment for a while, he might also suspect that he was being watched.

This was related to the degree of concealment of the agent's actions.

Yu Tian did not dwell on this issue for too long. In the current situation, it was more important to act quickly than to waste time thinking.

So he asked the mouse team to stay outside. He and Emily once again played the vanguard and entered the apartment first.

The reason why he chose Emily as his operational partner was that women were more likely to make others lower their guard. A man and a woman also looked more ordinary and normal.

If it was a single man, or more than one man, it would be easier for others to pay more attention to them.

The two of them swaggered to the entrance of the apartment building.

There was no manager in the apartment building here, but there was a password door.

Of course, Yu Tian did not know the password.

He hesitated for a moment, then pulled the password door and gently opened it.

With a soft sound, the lock was directly broken by him, and the door swung open.

The two of them swaggered into the apartment building, as if they had returned to their own home.

Then, they went up the elevator.

However, Yu Tian realized that this unlucky elevator actually required a passcode, or some kind of electronic key.

This kind of thing could not be opened with brute force.

Yu Tian was somewhat helpless and could only take the stairs.

Fortunately, most of the buildings in wind country were not tall, so it was not too difficult to take the stairs to the fifth floor.

According to the information collected by No. 76, the target should be renting an apartment on the third floor.

Of course, this kind of thing usually used a fake passport.

For secret organizations, using a fake passport was a very common thing, and there were many ways to get a fake passport.

According to the rules of the DONGLONG company, the fake identity information used by the members was usually submitted to the headquarters for record. This was also a kind of protection mistake for the members, in order to prevent the members from being unable to trace it in case of an accident.

However, in reality, many members had multiple fake passports, and not all of them were reported to the headquarters.

The headquarters did not have any record of the fake passports used by the target to rent an apartment here.

The reason No. 76 was able to find this clue was mainly due to the location tracking. He found that the target had appeared here many times before.

Then, brother pig checked the rental information of this apartment and happened to find a fake passport registered here.

Therefore, all in all, brother pig thought that this should be a safe house that the target had rented long ago.

This safe house had been exposed unjustly. After the target started hiding, he did not reveal his whereabouts, but the location of the safe house was still so easily guessed.

The reason was mainly due to the target himself. He had been in the safe house for several days.

The safe house must not be a place that was often used. Once it was used too much, the secret of the safe house would be lost, and there would be no value in hiding.

From this matter, it could be seen how bad the members of the Donglong Company were, and how bad their security awareness was.

They were actually muddled with such basic common sense. It was no wonder that the intelligence department was wiped out by a traitor.

However, this target was only a businessman in the commercial branch, not a professional operation or intelligence personnel. It was understandable that there were some mistakes in this matter.

The intelligence division had been wiped out by someone. That was simply incompetence and negligence.

There was no time to complain about these things now. Yu Tian and Emily quickly went up to the third floor and found the room where the target was.

There was no one in the corridor on the third floor. It seemed that this time was not the peak time for going out and going home. It was also a good time to take action.

Yu Tian leaned close to the door of the target and listened for a while. Soon, a smile appeared on his face.

There was someone in the room. The target should be here..

Chapter 1213: Chapter 1212. Only contact information

Translator: 549690339

There was no need to hesitate or waste any more time.

Yu Tian grabbed the door handle and used a little strength. The unlucky lock was gone again.

Then, he and Emily quickly entered the house and closed the door.

The living room was at the door. There was a television in the living room, and a news program was playing.

There was no one in the living room. The door to the bedroom was open, and the sound of someone taking a shower could be heard from the bedroom.

Yu Tian and Emily walked to the door of the bedroom at a leisurely pace and glanced into the bedroom casually.

The bedroom was not very big, but there was a large bathroom inside.

A man was taking a shower in the bathroom, and he was even muttering an unknown song. He seemed to be in a good mood.

Yu Tian and Emily had already stood at the door of the bedroom, but the man in the bathroom did not notice them at all.

Yu Tian sighed. He felt that Donglong company needed to strengthen the safety awareness training of its employees.

They had already hidden in the safe house, yet they were still so unvigilant. They did not even notice that someone had entered the house.

Yu Tian sat down on the small sofa in the living room.

He had no interest in catching a man who was covered in soap bubbles while he was taking a shower.

This matter was left to Emily.

Aunt Emily did not care about making intimate contact with the naked man. She walked to the bathroom door without any scruples.

The Man in the bathroom finally noticed Emily.

Even a blind person could detect some scents when such a living person was standing in front of the bathroom door.

The man was stunned. He stared at Emily and could not regain his senses for a moment.

He could not understand how this hot woman had broken into his room.

“Nikola...”

Emily had already seen the target’s information and photos, so she easily called out the target’s name.

Nikola was stunned for a moment, then his face turned pale.

He quickly understood what had happened.

The only people who could find him at this time were the people from the East Dragon Company.

Emily calmly pulled his hair. “Come on, our boss wants to have a chat with you.

“Wait a minute, let me dry myself and put on some clothes...”

Nicholas trembled, but he did not dare to struggle. He could only hold the glass door of the bathroom and Beg Emily.

No matter how the East Dragon Company would deal with traitors like him, he hoped that he would be able to receive the punishment with dignity, or at least put on his clothes.

Unfortunately, Emily completely ignored his dignity and did not intend to let him put on his clothes. Seeing that he was holding onto the glass door, she immediately kicked him.

Emily's most commonly used leg technique was the groin kick. This move was a killer move that almost any fighting style would use. It was extremely effective in battle, but it was not allowed to be used in the competition.

After receiving this groin kick, Nicholas immediately bent his waist like a fried shrimp and knelt on the ground.

Emily smiled smugly and dragged his hair outside.

Nicholas instantly felt pain in both his head and head. He could only protect his hair while following Emily's footsteps. He crawled to the hall on his knees.

When he was in front of Yu Tian, Emily finally let go of Nicholas 'hair, allowing Nicholas to catch his breath.

Yu Tian glanced at this fat branch merchant and frowned. "I won't say any more nonsense. Where is your team leader, your team leader... and the other branch managers now?"

"I don't know, I really don't know..."

Nicholas didn't even manage to catch his breath before he hurriedly tried to explain himself.

Yu Tian said coldly, "You didn't even listen to my question carefully and you're already saying you don't know?"

Nicholas 'face was pale. "I really don't know. I have no contact with anyone. I don't know where they are, and I don't know where anyone is..."

Yu Tian pondered for a moment. He felt that what Nicholas said should be true.

At this time, every traitor would not tell others where they were hiding.

Especially in this era, mobile phones and the internet were very convenient. Traitors could communicate with each other through the internet if they had anything to do. Normal work would not be delayed.

Yu Tian did not continue to dwell on this issue. He turned around and instructed Emily, "Bring his mobile phone over and see if there's a computer here."

Nicholas lowered his head and did not dare to say anything.

Emily quickly found two mobile phones and a laptop in the bedroom.

Yu Tian said to Nicholas, "Tell me your contact details, including your phone number and the way to contact each other on the Internet."

Nicholas hesitated for a moment, knowing that these things could not be hidden anymore.

The phone had fallen into the hands of the other party. Even if the phone number was not saved and the call records were deleted, it could still be found out from the carrier's system.

As for the traces of other internet software usage and browsing traces, whether it was the phone or the computer, they could be easily found by hackers. Unless he asked a professional to help him remove all traces of network usage.

But he clearly did not have the time to do so.

Nikolay sighed and could only say, "The phone numbers are stored on the cell phone, and I did not delete the call records. Also, the email accounts that I contacted the team leader and the team leader, I kept them directly in my contacts..."

"Oh, you also have contact with the big team leaders?"

"Yes, this is to prevent accidents from happening to the team leaders, so I arranged more contacts than before..."

"You guys have changed it in advance... how many people can you contact?"

"I have contact with the two big team leaders and the three team leaders of the Department of Commerce... and the heads of the other branches. We also have a small chat group..."

There were more business branches in this region, so there were a total of three team leaders of the business groups.

The leaders of the branches had basically rebelled collectively. These people, feeling apprehensive, secretly linked up again and established a small chat group to exchange messages.

This small chat group was filled with businessmen from the mini bull market. There were a total of more than ten people.

This circle was not big, but everyone did not know that the other party was their colleague. After they gathered together, they realized that they could be considered to know each other, and they would occasionally interact with each other.

Nikolay knew that he could not run away now, so he simply gave up all the contacts that he knew.

However, he only had the contact information of these people, and he did not know where they were hiding.

He only knew that these businessmen would not leave the mini-bull market for the time being because, according to the demands of the team leader, they were also responsible for transferring their assets and transferring these legitimate businesses to the name of the new company..

Chapter 1214: Chapter 1,213, professional women

Translator: 549690339

Yu Tian did not do anything else after that.

He called a member of the mouse team who was more familiar with the network technology. Then, he opened Nicholas 'cell phone and computer and established contact with No. 76 at headquarters, he asked No. 76 's technical team to start collecting the data on the cell phone and computer remotely.

The phone numbers were not very valuable because the traitors were all using satellite phones. Donglong had no way to track them for the time being.

The technical team at headquarters could only think of a way through the network software.

But the traitors were also cunning on the network. All their connections were through the dark net.

The network protocol of the Dark Net was different from that of ordinary networks. Even hackers could not track the addresses of the other party. However, this did not mean that No. 76 had no way to deal with the traitors.

Hackers also had a very common method, which was a Trojan virus.

As long as phones and computers were implanted with Trojans, exposing their location would be a matter of minutes.

In order to hunt down these traitors, No. 76 had already prepared several different types of Trojans, waiting to be put into use.

The great advantage of the traitors' current mode of command was that they could not determine each other's hiding places, and they would not meet or have direct contact with each other.

They would only contact each other through the telephone and the Internet. This way, they would not delay their work and would also ensure the safety of each and every one of them.

Even if one person were to meet with an accident, the others would not be implicated.

However, there was a big disadvantage to doing so. They could not confirm the safety status of their colleagues in person.

If their colleagues were just captured and assassinated, they would still be able to find them in time.

However, if their colleagues suddenly changed sides, it would be very difficult for them to notice.

Just like how Nicholas was suddenly captured by Yu Tian and the others and completely controlled, the other traitors were still unaware.

Now, No. 76 wanted to send Trojan files to the other traitors through Nicholas, so the traitors would basically not be on guard against it.

Of course, there was also a need to treat Trojan horses differently.

It was not like having a Trojan horse in one's hand would directly send a group email and throw the Trojan virus to everyone.

The leader of the traitors usually had an assistant by his side. Among the assistants, there might be some people who were proficient in network security technology. These people were usually more vigilant against Trojans and viruses.

This was especially true for the incoming mail. This was the easiest place to hide viruses, and their checks were usually more careful.

Therefore, after No. 76 had the contact email of these traitors, she did not immediately send them Trojans.

No. 76 first targeted the chat group of these branch merchants.

The chat tool they used was a small chat software in the dark net. It did not have many functions, but it still had the basic function of sending pictures and videos.

No. 76 first sent a short video to this chat group, and asked Nikola to dub the video. He lamented that he didn't dare to go out every day, and could only develop a miserable life of friendship with professional women. After dubbing, Nikola had a strange look on his face.

Next, he waited for others to click on the video.

This chat group was filled with people like Nikola, who were in charge of commercial branches. Their situation was similar to Nikola's, and they didn't dare to bring their assistants with them.

Because the East Dragon Company might find clues from their assistants and trace them to where they were hiding.

Therefore, they only dared to stay in the safe house alone and command the company they were in charge of through the network remote control.

These businessmen basically didn't have any ability to recognize virus trojans, and they were also the most easily poisoned and unwitting group of people.

It was only a matter of time before they were exposed. The headquarters technical team only needed to wait patiently.

For a time, everyone was idle.

Yu Tian began to think about how to deal with the traitor, Nicholas.

Nicholas still had a bit of value now. He still had some assets that belonged to the East Dragon Company in his hands. If he cooperated, it would be more convenient to take back these assets.

In addition, the fact that Nicholas had been caught by them had not been exposed. He could still blend in with the traitor's communication network and continue to get some information.

Therefore, Yu Tian could only consider locking up Nicholas for now.

He could bring Nicholas back to the pest control company and let the pest control company's operational personnel guard him.

He could also let George use other backup safe houses and let the mouse team guard Nicholas.

However, Yu Tian thought about it and felt that it was best to stay in Nicholas 'Safe House.

Since this was a safe house, no one else would know about it. No one would come and disturb him. It would be safe.

More importantly, the traitor would have video contact with Nicholas. If he found out that Nicholas had moved to another place, it would be easy to suspect him.

Therefore, it was best not to change.

However, to keep an eye on Nicholas, he had to arrange for at least two people. This made Yu Tian feel that it was a waste of manpower.

There were only a dozen people in the rat squad. If he caught a few more traitors, he would not have enough manpower.

However, there were other operations in the mini-bull market. He could still send people over to help.

Thus, he immediately asked the headquarters to make arrangements.

Taking advantage of the free time he had while waiting, Yu Tian decided to take a short break first.

However, things did not go as he had hoped. Suddenly, there was a knock on the door.

This knock on the door made everyone freeze for a moment. Then, they looked at Nicholas in puzzlement.

There were guests visiting the safe house?

Nicholas lowered his head and explained slowly, "I was just bored, so I asked for a masseuse..."

Everyone knew what a masseuse was.

Yu Tian helplessly instructed a member of the mouse team, "Go and get rid of him. "

The member of the mouse team stood up and walked to the door. He opened the door that was already broken.

Outside the door was a professional woman with heavy makeup. She greeted enthusiastically, "Hi! Sir, Your Delicious Supper has arrived. "

The mouse member spread her hands helplessly. "I'm sorry, Ma'am. I suddenly have something to do here, so I can't have supper. "

The professional woman was a little stunned. "Are you kidding me?"

"I'm sorry, I'm not kidding you..."the Mouse member took out two pieces of change and handed it to the woman. "Thank you for your hard work. This is your travel fee."

"Twenty yuan? Do you think I'm a Beggar?"

The professional women felt insulted and immediately changed their expressions.

This was their professional skill. Their working conditions were as warm as the spring breeze. After work, they were arrogant goddesses.

The mouse member scratched his head. He didn't know the market price of taxi in the mini bull market. Twenty Yuan seemed to be a little low?

Chapter 1215: Chapter 1,214, eating by force

Translator: 549690339

The mouse team member did not hesitate and immediately took out two more pieces of change.

"If that's the case, it should be enough, right?"

"Hehehe..."

The professional woman sneered. "Kid, do you really think that a few tens of yuan for the bus fare can get rid of me? "Do you know how much time and work I've wasted on this trip? "You 've wasted all my time tonight. If I want to wait for the next order, I'll have to wait behind the others..."

"Okay, okay, just tell me how much it is.

The mouse team member did not want to argue with this professional woman. The problem that could be solved with money was not a problem.

When the professional woman heard that he was willing to pay, she calmed down a little and said calmly, "According to our rules, you can return the goods to exchange for the goods, but you can't return the money after placing the order... you still have to give me 500 yuan.

"500 yuan..."

This price was a little high. Although the professional woman's various qualities were quite good, this price was not something that an ordinary person could accept.

Fortunately, the mouse team member was not an ordinary person. This small amount of money was nothing to the expenses of their various operations.

The mouse team member did not haggle over the price. He reached out to his pocket and felt a little embarrassed.

He did not have so much cash on him.

He could only say to the professional woman, "Wait a moment, I'll go get the money for you."

With that, the rat squad member was about to close the door again.

However, the professional woman took a step forward and blocked the door. Then, she said to the rat squad member, "Don't think of shutting me out. Go in and get the money. I'll wait for you here.

The mouse team member felt helpless. This professional woman was too cautious.

Wasn't it just a few hundred yuan? Why was there a need to be so nervous?

"Rough... your door lock is broken..."

The professional woman inadvertently glanced at the door frame and suddenly found the burst lock and the door frame.

The door could still be closed, and nothing abnormal could be seen from the outside.

But after opening the door, it was obvious that the lock had been broken.

The professional woman paused for a moment, then blurted out, "Damn it, are you a F*cking thief..."

After saying this, the professional woman seemed to realize something and hurriedly took two steps back.

The mouse team member suddenly had a headache. Was this going to cause more trouble?

If this professional woman suddenly meddled in other people's business and went back to report it to the police, wouldn't that be a problem?

The best way to deal with trouble was naturally to get rid of the troublemaker.

This was also the most common method that the rat squad members used when they were assassins in the past.

The rat squad member was about to attack this woman when Yu Tian suddenly spoke in the living room, "Let this lady come in and take the money. Also, let her take a look there are no thieves here.

It was easy to kill a professional woman, but professional women were not an isolated existence. There were usually some gangs with related interests behind them.

This could be seen from the arrogant tone of this professional woman. She must have a backer.

Yu Tian was not afraid of the gangs behind her, but killing this professional woman would not be able to cover up anything. Instead, it would make things even more troublesome.

Therefore, it was better to let this professional woman come in and take a look.

Anyway, it did not seem like there was any theft or kidnapping in this room.

The professional woman hesitated outside the door for a moment, then said, "Forget it, I don't care what you are doing... Hurry up and give me the money, I still have to go back to work.

As she said this, the professional woman acted as if she did not care at all.

She seemed to only care about the pay she deserved and didn't care about what happened in the house.

However, Yu Tian didn't believe in the professional ethics of this profession. Since this professional woman was suspicious, there was always the possibility of some trouble.

Even if she didn't go to the police, there would be more trouble.

In order to reduce the trouble, Yu Tian decided to temporarily detain this professional woman.

Instead of letting her go back and doubt herself, it would be better to let her stay here for a while. At least, she wouldn't see any problems in this room.

Thus, Yu Tian said again, "Since you're here, don't be in a hurry to leave... just finish your work here tonight.

When the mouse team member at the door heard Yu Tian's words, he pulled the door completely to the side, then turned to the side and said to the professional woman, "Since my boss has spoken, then please come in and continue your work.

The professional woman was a little wary. "Didn't you say that you don't need my service anymore?"

The mouse team member shrugged. "My boss has changed his mind. Since we still have to pay the original price, why should we reject your service?" "But you've already said that you want to return the goods..."

"We don't know that we have to pay the original price even if we don't return the goods."

"Are you kidding me? Let me tell you, I work for Red Parrot..."

"You talk too much nonsense! "

The rat squad member was impatient. He suddenly took a step forward and reached out to grab the professional woman's arm. The professional woman immediately panicked. "What are you doing?" "What are you doing? Of course I'm F * cking you!

The strength of the rat squad member was naturally not comparable to that of the professional woman. He used a little strength and dragged the professional woman into the room.

Although the professional woman was also desperately resisting, she was tightly held by the mouse team member. Those struggles were useless.

She could only say vicious words, "I'm warning you, don't think about me. I'm from red parrot. Red Parrot's people know that I'm here..."

The mouse team member laughed and said, "Yes, they know that you're here to deliver supper."

"Let me go, you bastard..."

"Why should I let you go? It's not like we're not paying! "

The mouse team member laughed and rubbed a few times on the professional woman before saying to Yu Tian, "Boss, since we've already ordered, why don't... Let me have a meal first?"

It was originally very inappropriate to make such a request during working hours.

However, the mouse team had been holding back for several months. Now that they had come to wind country, they had not had a good rest either.

There was nothing much to do at the moment. Yu Tian felt that it would not hurt to let the mouse team member "Comfort" this professional woman.

Hence, Yu Tian looked at the time again and asked the mouse team member,

"Is half an hour enough?"

"Boss, you underestimate me too much. No matter what, I still need an hour to go up."

"Then you better seize the time. "

Yu Tian waved his hand with a headache.

The other mouse team member who was guarding the computer and cell phone immediately became jealous. "Boss, can I also seize the time to rest?" "You also want to eat midnight snacks? But there is only one woman here..." Yu Tian hesitated for a moment and suddenly said, "Do you want a gang

"F * ck! I have to pay more for this!"

When a professional woman heard such a request, she immediately perked up.

She was never afraid of work challenges. As long as she had enough money, she was happy to add a little more work to her workload.

After entering the room, she found that there didn 't seem to be anything strange in the room.

There were a total of four men and a woman in the room. No one looked like they had been kidnapped, and there were no signs of fighting or injuries.

This made the professional woman relax a little, and she began to focus on her work.

“HOW MUCH MORE?”

Yu Tian began to negotiate with the professional woman about the price.

This would seem more normal. If they successfully completed this business deal, all the doubts of the professional woman would naturally be dispelled.

As for the broken door lock there was nothing to explain about it.

The professional woman said generously, “If there was only one person, then that’s fine. But now there’s one more person, so it’s at least 1,200! And you have to give me money first!

“1,200? Are you kidding me? Wasn’t it 500 just now? Why is it 1,200 just because there’s one more person?”

Yu Tian casually bargained with the professional woman.

The professional woman said confidently, “This is our rule. After all, we are not the same person. I think you should understand the difficulty and sacrifice better than me.

“Alright, Alright, 1,200 then...”

Yu Tian was completely defeated. She could only say to Nicholas, “You can pay for the supper you ordered.

Nicholas silently took out his wallet and began to pay for the two mouse team members.

Money was a small matter. Nicholas did not mind treating others to a few supper.

The problem was that he could not eat it himself, which was a little depressing.

The two mouse team members cheerfully pulled the professional woman into the room. Emily glanced at her disdainfully.

The bedroom quickly became lively. The thin door did not have much of a soundproof effect.

After a few minutes of liveliness, someone knocked on the door again.

Yu Tian hesitated for a moment, then went over to open the door himself.

Outside the door stood a few burly men and two women.

Yu Tian sighed. “Who are you looking for?”

The few burly men outside the door did not say anything. They directly rushed into the room and even gave Yu Tian a push.

This push did not push Yu Tian, but Yu Tian did not completely block the door either. These burly men still squeezed into the room from Yu Tian's side.

Yu Tian already knew what these burly men were here for.

When the professional woman was pulled into the room just now, she must have sent some kind of alarm signal.

She said that she was a member of some red parrot and that there was a gang behind her. These words were indeed not nonsense.

Just ten minutes after she was pulled into the room, the gang behind her appeared.

They were here to save her.

However, after barging into the room, the burly men were stunned.

They clearly heard a normal sound coming from the room. The professional woman did not seem to be in any danger.

Yu Tian also returned to the living room and calmly sat back on the sofa. The people outside the room also entered the room. Other than the burly men, there were two other women.

After the two women entered the house, they also heard the sound of the bedroom.

They were puzzled. One of them was still worried, so he went to the bedroom door and asked loudly, "Monroe, are you okay?"

"I. . . temporarily... I'm okay..."

The professional woman in the bedroom replied breathlessly, as if she was very uncomfortable.

It seemed that the two mouse team members had not opened for three years. When they opened, they had to eat their fill.

The two women in the living room looked at each other, as if they were still worried.

So the one standing at the bedroom door suddenly pushed the bedroom door open again.

The sounds of battle immediately became much louder.

Seeing the situation in the bedroom, the woman at the door was slightly relieved.

Their Marilyn was indeed working, and she was not kidnapped or anything like that.

Although her work was a little stressful, it was still within the safety range.

The woman at the door asked helplessly, "What's going on, Marilyn, why did you press the emergency call button..."

"Ah, oh... how should I explain it? There must have been a misunderstanding just now. Let's talk about it later..."

Monroe didn't have the time to explain now.

The woman at the door could only close the bedroom door.

At this time, the other woman in the living room could only turn around and face Yu Tian with an apologetic smile. "Looks like we misunderstood something and disturbed you guys."

Yu Tian didn't say anything. He just stared at the woman's face strangely.

He felt that this woman looked somewhat familiar.

This was an eastern woman. Although there were Eastern women in wind country, they were rare.

Especially in a gang organization, it was even less likely that there were eastern women.

This was a very strange thing.

After the eastern woman saw Yu Tian's strange behavior, she was slightly stunned. Then, she also stared at Yu Tian carefully.

Both parties stared at each other for a long time before they suddenly spoke at the same time.

"Yu Tian?"

"Niu Meina?"

Yu Tian did not expect to meet his childhood classmate and deskmate here. What a small probability this was.

He remembered that Niu Meina had suddenly transferred schools when she was in middle school. It was said that she had gone abroad.

Now, it seemed that she had indeed become a foreigner.

Yu Tian sighed. "Niu Meina, everyone said that you went abroad. It seems that you really did go abroad... have you been in wind country all this time?"

Niu Meina also sighed. "Yes, I've been in wind country all this time... but now my name is Mina. The name Niu Meina... is mainly because it's too ugly.

"Ugly... not really. The main thing is that this surname doesn't quite match your appearance... The name Mina, well, it's not bad..."

Yu Tian chuckled twice and then asked curiously, "Why are you... Doing This?"

The impression of the classmates from middle school was naturally very simple.

Now that they were meeting on this occasion, it felt a little awkward. Fortunately, both parties did not recognize each other in bed. Otherwise, it would have been even more awkward.

Mina was now an adult woman, so she naturally did not have the shyness of her youth.

She sat down next to Yu Tian and said calmly, "I'm just following in my father's footsteps... What About You? Why did you come to wind country? and also..."

As she spoke, Mina gestured toward the room.

Yu Tian shrugged. "Those are my two employees. They've been holding back for a few months, so they're a little excited tonight."

"Your employees? Do you have any business in wind country?"

Mina was a little curious.

Yu Tian said casually, "Yeah, I have a little business, so I took the time to come over and take a look...."

The atmosphere in the apartment seemed to have become harmonious.

Yu Tian and Mina were chatting in oriental language, and they seemed to know each other.

The burly men who came with Mina immediately restrained themselves and stopped pretending to be fierce.

Yu Tian and Mina chatted casually and found that there was not much to reminisce about between them.

Of course, there were still some friendships from when they were young, but now it was just a little sentiment.

This kind of friendship was almost not worth mentioning in China. Many of their old classmates would at most greet each other when they saw each other. That was to say, when they were abroad, they would be a little more friendly when they saw their compatriots. This kind of feeling of meeting an old friend in a foreign land was even stronger.

There was nothing to reminisce about the past. The two of them could only greet each other about the recent situation.

Yu Tian said that he had some business in wind country, so he would occasionally go abroad to take a look. There was nothing suspicious about this statement.

Mina did not think too much about it. She only sighed and said, "Now that you have become a big boss, you actually managed to do business in Wind Country..."

Yu Tian was a little curious about Mina's situation, so he asked casually, (Just now, your people said... that you're Red Dragonflies?)

"Uh, yes, red dragonflies.

"Are you a gang?"

"Yeah..." Mina laughed self-deprecatingly, "I inherited my father's business to make a living.

"Is this business of yours easy to do?"

"It's just so-so, just making a living. We're not the only gang doing this business..."

Mina did not seem to be interested in talking about this topic. She asked, "How long are you planning to stay in the mini-bull market?"

"I should stay for a few days... is your red dragonfly very powerful in the mini-bull market?"

Yu Tian seemed to be very interested in the matter of the gang, so he changed the topic again.

Mina said helplessly, "We're not a big gang... But if you get into trouble in this neighborhood, I might be able to find a way to help you solve it."

"You said you inherited your father's business. Is this your father's gang?"

"More or less. Red Dragonfly used to be my stepfather's. After my stepfather passed away... It's now considered a stock system. He also has two sons and a daughter, both of whom are red dragonfly's bosses."

"It sounds quite complicated... who's your stepfather? Is He from the East?"

"No, he's a local. After my parents immigrated to wind country, they got divorced a few years later. My mother married this gang leader... so I became like this."

"Actually, you can do something else. There's no need for you to inherit your father's business. After all, you're not his only heir. Besides, there are some dangers in the underworld."

"There's nothing to do. Windy nation is a very unfair place. "The rich evade taxes, while the immigrants and refugees don't produce anything. ". "Half of the income of ordinary people has to be paid in taxes to support the refugees, giving them relief funds, and letting them eat and wait for death..."

"Are there many immigrants and refugees?"

"Many, many... there weren't so many black friends in the previous mini-bull market. Now, they can already form a gang and begin to occupy our living space..." "

"Black friends can also steal your kind of business? Who can patronize them? I can't accept this kind of heavy taste."

"Of course they can steal. They also have a lot of white women who came from the north, such as the old Russians, er Mao, and San Mao..."

"Well, I really haven't paid attention to these businesses. "Yu Tian sighed. "So, your business is not good now?"

Mina also sighed. "It used to be fine, but it's getting worse in the past few years. "Especially after my stepfather passed away, many people feel that the red dragonfly isn't doing well... However, it's still better than working outside. "

Speaking up to this point, Mina smiled again. "Don 't the people in the country like to say that working causes cancer? In my line of work, I can be considered a small self-employed boss. It's much better than working and being a middle-class who pays taxes.

“Do you really plan to keep doing this gangster business? Do you not care about these dangers?”

Yu Tian suddenly had some thoughts.

Anyway, DONGLONG company also had gangster branches in the mini-bull market. Why not let Mina run these branches?

It was also possible to pull in some old classmates along the way.

The structure of donglong company would be much simpler in the future.

The main task of each region in the future was to make money, and the work was mainly divided into two parts.

One was legitimate business, which would be integrated into a multinational group, and the headquarters would control the funds and shares openly, no longer as secretive as now.

With the complete control of the headquarters, these large companies could operate like a normal multinational group, hiring some business people to manage.

Slowly, these companies would have no regional branches. They could completely form another independent system, directly managed by the headquarters of Donglong Company.

The other was illegal business, these things would also be integrated together, under the unified management of the various regions.

Unified management, it would make them more efficient, stronger, and much better than the current situation.

Among these illegal businesses, gangs would occupy a very important position, and they would be even more important in the future.

Of course, not all gangs were valuable.

Some gangs that had not developed and could not play much role, such as those that could only bully the kind locally and collect protection fees, would basically go into sheep-herding mode in the future.

Donglong company would not waste too much energy on these garbage gangs.

The gangs that had some strength would gradually change their focus of business, giving up on those businesses that did not have much profit and beginning to truly become an international criminal organization.

Yu Tian and uncle long had similar thoughts. He felt that Donglong company should still be dominated by the easterners and firmly hold the hands of the Easterners.

In those important positions, if the easterners could be used, then the easterners should be used as much as possible.

The Mina in front of him was a good candidate.

She was originally a gangster and had some experience in running a gang organization.

Her business ability was at least better than those overseas students who used their working attitude to join a secret organization.

It was definitely a good idea to recruit Mina as a core member of this city, or even a core member of a region.

"I'm already familiar with this line of work. I Won't do anything else. " Mina's attitude also made Yu Tian very satisfied.

If Mina was just an ordinary person, Yu Tian wouldn't consider dragging her down with him. Letting her live a normal life was the best choice.

But she had plans to continue working in the gang. Of course, Yu Tian would have to drag her under his wing..

"Mina... Oh, Mina, do you have any ideas on how to make your business better?"

Yu Tian finally revealed his fox-like tail.

Mina was a little surprised. "What do you mean... by that?"

Yu Tian smiled slightly. ("I've told you before, I'm a businessman. I'm interested in making some investments in all industries... ")

"So... you still want to invest in a gang?"Mina smiled. "A gang's business isn't as simple as you think. Money isn't enough. " "Money can solve many problems. "

"Yes, but there are also problems that money can't solve. "

“That’s just not enough money. As long as there’s enough money, there’s no problem that can’t be solved.”

Mina laughed. “I can’t say that your view is wrong, but how much money do you plan to invest in a gang? One billion? If you have one billion, it can indeed solve many of the red dragonfly’s current problems. But for you to invest in this kind of industry... it’s not worth it.”

The main reason for people who were in the gang business was that they didn’t have any better options. As long as one had some ability and ability, no one would do such a bloody business.

It was the same for business investments. With a billion in his hands, who would want to get involved with the gang.

Ordinary people would not do such a stupid thing, but Yu Tian was not an ordinary person. The business that Donglong Company did was not an ordinary business either.

Yu Tian smiled and said, “Although I don’t know much about investment, I don’t seem to have done a loss-making business. I feel that I can invest in any industry. As long as the money is given to the right person and spent in the right place, there will be a very good harvest.”

Mina shook her head helplessly. “Although your words always seem to make sense, I’m really not in the mood to joke with you. “If you really want to invest in a business in the mini-bull market, I can introduce some of the situation here to you for your reference...”

Yu Tian smiled and said, “I’m not joking with you. I already have some investments in the mini-bull market... Do You Know About Blue Underpants?”

“Blue Underpants? “Mina was a little surprised. “Are you trying to say that you have some relationship with blue underpants?”

Yu Tian smiled and said, “Not some relationship. Blue Underpants is my investment. Or rather, I’m the real boss behind Blue Underpants.”

Mina was stunned. After a long while, she said, “I still think that you’re joking with me. A big gang like blue underpants... how can the Boss Be You?” Yu Tian shrugged. “Are blue underpants that great?”

Mina had a complicated expression. “They’re one of the biggest gangs in the mini bull market. The strength behind them... is probably beyond your imagination. You’d better not joke about them. This will bring you a lot of trouble. ”

Yu Tian spread his hands helplessly. “You always think I’m joking. Haven’t you ever thought that what I said is true?”

“If what you said is true... ”

Mina was stunned. She began to think about what kind of help Yu Tian would bring her if this was really possible.

Blue Underpants was a big gang, one of the biggest gangs in the mini-bull market.

If blue underpants could become her ally, then her position in red dragonfly would undergo a huge change.

If she could completely control red dragonfly, with the support of Blue Underpants, Red Dragonfly would develop rapidly and soon become a large-scale gang.

Mina hesitated for a moment, then asked, “You said you want to invest in me? How Do you plan to invest?”

Yu Tian said, “I’m not too sure about the specific process. These things are handled by professionals. But you should know that if you accept my investment, you will go from a self-employed person to a laborer.

Mina smiled bitterly. (“This is actually not important. Being a high-level laborer is much better than being a difficult self-employed person. ”

Yu Tian smiled and said, “It’s good that you understand this. However, as a high-level laborer, you will still have a lot of power and freedom. You will also become a person who can call the wind and summon the rain in the small bull market...”

“Miss Mina. ”

The conversation between the two was suddenly interrupted.

The woman behind Mina walked forward and whispered beside Mina, “Toma told us to go back quickly. Something happened at home.

“What happened?”

“Toma didn’t say over the phone. He just told us to go back immediately.

“Alright...”

Mina stood up helplessly and said to Yu Tian, “I have something to do now. Regarding the investment matter that you mentioned... please arrange for someone to contact me as soon as possible.”

“Okay, you can do your thing first. I will get someone to contact you.

Yu Tian exchanged contact information with Mina and then sent her and the others out of the apartment.

After Mina and the others left, Yu Tian contacted brother pig again and told him about Mina.

Brother Pig did not object to Yu Tian's arrangement. After all, the entire region where the wind nation was located needed to be reorganized, so it would definitely require a large number of talents.

Mina was undoubtedly a very experienced and high-quality talent, and was very worthy of being absorbed by the East Dragon Company.

However, the East Dragon Company's branch in the mini-bull market had basically been completely lost, and they only had a few operations branches left.

It was difficult for them to give Mina too much support in a short period of time, except for financial support.

In addition, they had to quickly bring blue underpants back under the command of the East Dragon Company to ensure that they could fully obey the company's orders.

The leadership of Blue Underpants was still unaware of the existence of Donglong Company. Other than Barr who had expressed his willingness to obey the company's leadership, the attitude of the others was still unknown.

Even if Barr was really willing to obey the company's orders, it was still uncertain.

After all, Blue Underpants was also a big force in the mini-bull market. They might think that their wings had hardened and that they wanted to get rid of the fate of being controlled by others.

If they wanted to establish their own sect and make blue underpants truly independent, now was a good opportunity.

Michelle prepared to run away. The other rebel branches did not dare to show their faces. This was when their control over blue underpants was at its weakest.

Blue underpants temporarily lost the support of the network behind them, but it was also equivalent to losing control.

With their current strength, it was not difficult for them to rope in some official backers and establish various networks.

Therefore, Yu Tian had to deal with the matter of Blue Underpants as soon as possible, so as to avoid further trouble in the future.

However, they still had to capture Michelle first. If they did not take care of Michelle, it would not be good for them to make too much noise in blue underpants. Otherwise, they would scare the traitors.

Therefore, dealing with the traitors as soon as possible was not only to quickly restore the East Dragon Company's stability, but also to make the reconstruction of the various regional branches more convenient..

Chapter 1219: Chapter 1,218, the big arrest

Translator: 549690339

Less than half an hour after Mina and her team left, there was another knock on the door.

This time, it was the heads of the other two operations divisions of the mini-bull market. They had received a notice from the headquarters and rushed over to report to Yu Tian.

As there might be an operation at night, the members of these two operations divisions had all been brought over and were on standby nearby.

At this point, all the operations teams of the mini-bull market had arrived.

The next step was to rest and wait.

The two mouse team members had finally solved their physiological needs and were satisfied with letting the professional woman named Monroe Go.

While waiting, Yu Tian was working hard to temper the internal force in his body.

The internal force with two completely different attributes had indeed given him a lot of trouble.

According to his years of reading novels, these two types of internal energy would either fuse into a new type of internal energy, or one type of internal energy would devour the other type of internal energy.

However, he had also cultivated two different types of internal energy at the same time. One type of internal energy could be cultivated anytime, anywhere, even when he was sleeping. It was just that the cultivation speed was very slow. The other type could be cultivated by walking. The efficiency was much higher than the nameless internal strength.

These two types of internal strength would continuously produce new internal strength and continue to conflict with each other.

If he wanted to solve the problem of internal strength conflict, it was best to stop cultivating one of the two types. Then, in the future, his body would only have one type of internal strength. There would be no conflict.

However, Yu Tian did not want to give up on these two types of internal energy. Whether it was the extremely practical internal energy such as the limbo micro step, or the nameless internal energy, which was a necessary internal energy for lazy people.

These were all things that were very suitable for a busy person like him to cultivate.

Therefore, Yu Tian could only think of a way to fuse the two types of internal energy, so that the new internal energy would have two types of internal energy attributes at the same time, and be able to smoothly fuse with the internal energy that he would cultivate in the future.

Yu Tian did not have much experience in fusing internal energy.

Even the executioner did not have any experience in this aspect. He had not even tried to cultivate two different types of internal energy.

Although theoretically speaking, the essence of internal energy was the same, so it was not impossible to fuse them.

However, the executioner did not know how to fuse them.

Yu Tian could only figure it out himself.

He extracted a small amount of each of the two types of internal energy and tried to fuse them together.

After more than an hour, Yu Tian did not know how many times he tried, but he still could not succeed.

They were obviously two types of energy with the same essence, but they each had their own personality, so they could not fuse them together.

At this time, Pigo Liang sent another communication request. Yu Tian could only put aside the matter of fusing internal energy for the time being.

Pigo Liang brought good news. The video that was sent to the chat group through Nikola had been clicked on by everyone.

No. 76's technical team had already obtained all their positions. These people were all hiding in the calf market, and the furthest place was in the suburbs of the calf market.

Next was the capture operation.

This kind of capture operation was best carried out at the same time for all the targets, in case there were any accidents during the capture of an individual, and others would notice the abnormality.

Yu Tian now had three operation branches, and with the mouse team, there were a total of 50 to 60 people.

The target to capture was only a dozen or so businessmen who were hiding alone. This level of capture operation was not very difficult.

Yu Tian assigned the capture task to three operation branches, and the mouse team was the backup support force.

In fact, Yu Tian believed in the strength of the mouse team, and he felt that it was safer to let them carry out the capture operation.

However, the mouse team was a little tired now, and they were not in a better state than the people in the mini-bull market.

Moreover, it was impossible for the mouse team to do all the capturing work. After all, they needed the participation of other teams.

Therefore, Yu Tian simply handed all the capturing tasks to three operations divisions.

Each Operation Division would first rush to the target location to investigate and confirm that there was indeed someone hiding at the target location, and try to confirm that it was the target himself.

Then, depending on the actual situation, they would decide whether they needed support and formulate an arrest plan.

This could be a very simple matter, or it could be a little troublesome.

In short, they still had sufficient time to make all the preparations.

After more than an hour, the various arrest teams reported to Yu Tian, and they were all in position.

But the slightly troublesome thing was that the targets were all hidden in the safe house and did not show themselves, so they could not confirm whether the targets were themselves.

In addition, they could not confirm whether the target had bodyguards with him.

Yu Tian pondered for a moment. Now that the arrow was already on the bow, there was no need to think too much.

In order to prevent any accidents from happening, the capture operation began immediately.

Yu Tian gave the order and more than ten capture teams took action at the same time.

The capture teams all had their own style of action, although it was not as convenient as Yu Tian pushing open the door and entering.

However, whether it was breaking windows, picking locks, or even using small explosives to blast the door, they all had their own methods of assault.

A few minutes later, the capture teams reported to Yu Tian one after another that they had successfully captured the target.

More than a dozen merchants from the commercial branches could escape, and all of them fell into Yu Tian's hands.

As some of the teams had caused a bit of a ruckus, after the capture, all the teams immediately began to evacuate.

Before the evacuation, they could not forget to bring the target's cell phone and computer, as well as all kinds of personal belongings.

George had already activated the backup safe house, which was a small hotel.

The small hotel was run by George's wife alone, because there were not enough people, so the small hotel was a bit neglected, business was very bad.

But this was exactly what George needed, they could let the small hotel announce that it was full at any time, and then all move in.

Yu Tian immediately took Nicholas and the mouse team and retreated to the inn.

The interrogation began overnight, and it was time for Kobe to show his skills.

In fact, each branch had people who were good at interrogation, and their methods were not inferior to Kobe's.

However, the interrogation value of these captives was actually not that great.

From Nicholas's situation, it could be guessed that they were unlikely to know the hiding situation of the traitors 'leaders.

The only thing that could be interrogated from them was the contact information of more traitorous leaders.

This was already the biggest gain of the day.

The contact information that they had revealed was mainly the contact information of the various team leaders in the region. Basically, all of them were present.

The next step was still the work of the technical team. They began to think of ways to give the traitorous leaders a Trojan horse and use technical means to track the whereabouts of the traitorous leaders..

Chapter 1220: Chapter 1,219, go to the beach

Translator: 549690339

These businessmen also had an important task, which was to cooperate with the staff of the headquarters and start to hand over the industries they controlled.

This was not something that could be done in a few days.

In addition, Yu Tian decided to take the initiative to expose the news that the individual businessmen had been caught by them.

Because these businessmen had now changed their residences, it was very easy for them to be detected when they made video contact with the traitors.

Only when a few merchants were caught by the DONGLONG company would they have a good reason to change to a safe house.

The choice of the person who needed to be exposed was not decided by Yu Tian, but by the technical team of No. 76.

They would use some of the merchants 'mailboxes to send the mail and hide the Trojan inside.

If the Trojan was discovered by the other party, then the merchant who sent the mail would have to be exposed.

All the work was piled up on that night, and the staff of the headquarters were all busy.

These merchants were all arranged in separate rooms, and the Operation Division was still divided into teams according to the capture task, keeping an eye on them.

The good news came quickly from No. 76. Her trojan horse had been successfully implanted into the target's cell phone and computer, and was not detected by the other party.

It seemed that the traitorous leaders did not pay much attention to network security, or the technical staff around them were too poor.

Next, No. 76 decided to expose Nikolay.

The merchants immediately spread the news that Nikolay was being held hostage and immediately broke up the group chat.

Then, these news and pictures, along with the Trojan Horse, became information to be reported to the higher-ups.

Soon, the leader of the traitors began to call other merchants to ask about the specific situation.

These merchants anxiously and simply reported a few words. Then, under the excuse that they were in the middle of moving, they hurriedly hung up the phone.

The whole night was a little chaotic. It was only when it was close to dawn that everyone finally felt a little quieter.

The mouse team, on the other hand, had a good night's sleep and didn't get up until dawn.

They thought there wouldn't be any work during the day, but Barr, in blue shorts, called.

Michelle finally contacted Barr again and asked him how the cash was coming along.

Barr, of course, claimed to have all the money ready, and then asked Michelle where the money was going.

Michelle immediately gave him an address and asked him to send the money now.

Barr hung up the phone and contacted Yu Tian immediately to report the matter to Yu Tian.

Yu Tian was a little puzzled. Why was this Michelle so anxious?

She wanted to take the money and run away in broad daylight. wasn't she worried that it would be easier to expose her whereabouts in broad daylight?

Then, Yu Tian immediately understood.

This Michelle was probably frightened by the incident with Nicholas.

The arrest of Nicholas meant that the East Dragon Company had started to take action against the traitor of the mini-bull market.

How could Michelle Dare to stay in the mini-bull market for long? Naturally, she quickly took the money and walked as far away as possible.

Yu Tian even felt that he might lose contact with the traitor and then take the money himself and run to an unknown place. He would hide his identity and become a rich man, and live the rest of his life honestly.

Because it was only for the sake of getting back the public funds, he did not need to take such a risk. He should first ensure his personal safety.

The new organization of the traitor would not lack a few million dollars. There would also be other safe means to get the proceeds from the Blue Underpants.

From this, it could be seen that the traitors were not united as one.

Every organization had people who went AWOL, and every member had their own plans.

If the organization was strong and stable, these people might not dare to make any unusual moves.

But when the organization was in trouble, they would be like Zhu Bajie, saying that they were going to leave and return to Gaolao Zhuang.

For those who had betrayed once, it didn't seem like a big deal to betray again.

Yu Tian located the address given by Michelle and found that the place was a beach for vacation.

This kind of beach was very common in the mini-bull market, because the mini-bull market was originally a city close to the sea, and the whole city was built along the coastline.

Therefore, there were a lot of beaches suitable for leisure here.

Every beach was very lively, and the tourists and locals all liked to squeeze on these beaches.

Michelle decided to collect money on the beach, which was also a good choice.

For such covert activities, such as criminal transactions, there were usually only two locations to choose from.

It was either in a very lively place or in a very secluded and secluded place.

Both places had their own advantages.

In a less crowded place, it was mainly easy to find other people who should not be there, such as the police.

If they found out about the situation, they could enter the mode of “There is a mole, stop the transaction

However, Michelle was in a hurry to get the money, so of course, it was impossible to stop the transaction.

He chose this kind of place with more people, so that even if there were enemies, he could still forcefully complete the handover and then take the money away under the cover of chaos.

Yu Tian was instantly delighted. He felt that it was impossible for a normal human being to slip away under his nose.

No matter what kind of transaction method Michelle chose, it would be impossible for it to escape from his hands.

He asked Barr to act according to the normal rhythm. As if nothing had happened, he sent the money to Michelle.

As for the rest, he did not need to care about anything else.

Then, Yu Tian immediately rushed to the target beach.

At the same time, he notified No. 76, asking her to monitor Barr’s phone.

Barr used an ordinary smartphone, so it was easier to monitor.

For this operation, Yu Tian still brought Aunt Emily, because this local veteran could make his movements more convenient.

As for the mouse squad, Yu Tian felt that they would not be of any use.

It was just to capture Michelle, there was no need for so many people. Even if there was really an unexpected situation, he could completely deal with it alone.

However, there was still one more person in the team this time. The Executioner took the initiative to request to move together with Yu Tian. The reason was that he had nothing to do all day and it was really too boring.

Yu Tian could only helplessly agree to the executioner’s request. He felt that bringing an executioner with him would not have any effect on the arrest.

This job was still too easy for him.

As long as Michelle dared to show up, Yu Tian would have the confidence to catch him. Nothing could stop him.

The three of them drove Emily's car all the way to the beach.

They were not too far from the target beach and arrived there in about ten minutes.

At this time, Barr was still on the way..

There were many people on the beach. Just like all holiday beaches, there were people in swimsuits everywhere.

However, there were not many beautiful women in swimsuits on the beach. There were not as many beautiful scenery as movies and television.

In order not to appear out of place, Yu Tian and the other two had to change their clothes.

Fortunately, there was a shop selling swimsuits near the beach. The three of them each bought a set of beach equipment.

Yu Tian and the executioner were both martial artists. Their bodies were more well-proportioned and sturdy, which attracted more attention on the beach.

Therefore, Yu Tian and the executioner could only wear a flowery shirt and beach pants.

Emily immediately bought a set of swimsuits that she was proud of because her figure was not as bloated as the average aunt. Perhaps it was because she often practiced martial arts, but Aunt Emily still had some less obvious muscles on her body.

After the three of them were properly dressed, they swaggered into the beach.

After walking around the beach, Yu Tian did not find any traces of Michelle.

This was also within expectations. Michelle definitely had her guard up and would not show up so easily.

After walking around for more than ten minutes, Barr finally arrived at the beach.

Following Yu Tian's instructions, Barr directly dialed Michelle's number and told Michelle that he had arrived.

He originally wanted to inform Yu Tian at the same time, but when he remembered that Yu Tian asked him to act according to the normal way and did not need any additional reporting, he gave up the idea.

He felt that Yu Tian must have other ways to monitor him, including monitoring the entire beach.

Such a powerful organization, if it did not even have this ability, it was not worthy of his respect.

Barr picked up his money bag in a relaxed manner and followed Michelle's request to the beach.

After entering the beach, he did not find Michelle either. Instead, he found Yu

Tian and the others, especially his goddess, aunt Emily.

Barr was a little excited, but there was nothing unusual on the surface.

At this moment, Michelle called.

"Barr, are you sure that no one is following me?"

"Of course not. I have been watching carefully along the way. No one is able to follow me.

Barr swore in his heart while secretly ridiculing in his heart. They had already come directly to the beach, so why would they need to follow him.

Betraying a traitor was a blow that would lower the dimension. It was much more effective than stalking.

Michelle was not at ease with Barr, so she did not have too many doubts. He continued to instruct, "Go north along the beach.

"North, okay, north... uh, which way is north?"

"Idiot! The north is on your left!"

"Okay, left direction, I got it..."

Barr began to walk towards the north of the beach, cursing in his heart. Damn Kid, you traitor, you still dare to be so arrogant?

Once you're caught by them, I'll see how you can continue to act arrogant!

"Number one, the target, Michelle, should be near the beach. He can clearly see Barr.

The technical team had been in real-time contact with Yu Tian and promptly notified Yu Tian.

Yu Tian's position was not too far from Barr, so he could clearly see Barr's movements.

After receiving the message, Yu Tian slightly looked around Barr.

There were a lot of men and women in swimsuits around Barr, but Yu Tian had roughly looked through these people just now, and Michelle was not among them.

So, Michelle should not be on this beach.

Yu Tian looked in the direction Barr was going. In the distance, there was a cliff facing the sea. The cliff was not very high, almost like a small hill, and the vegetation on it was very lush.

It seemed that the cliff was the most likely place Michelle was hiding.

There were many beaches in the mini-bull market, but most of them were flat. It was only at this location near the edge of the city that there was such a cliff.

Michelle was not picky about so many beaches, but she chose this place. It was obvious that she had her eyes on that Cliff.

Yu Tian laughed and said to the executioner and Emily, "You guys follow behind Barr. I'll take a shortcut in front. "

Although he had basically figured out Michelle's location, he still let the others stay behind and continued to follow Barr for safety reasons.

He left the beach on his own and took a detour on the road next to him.

This time, he used the Lingbo micro-steps to move.

The lingbo micro-steps were not considered the fastest, but the way they moved was strange. It was a bit like those long legs that could walk very fast.

Ordinary people felt that they were walking at the same pace as normal people, but as they walked, they found that they could not keep up with their pace at all.

Unknowingly, they were left behind by this kind of person by a large distance.

Ordinary people had no way to keep up with this kind of pace at all. Even if they ran to catch up, they would find it somewhat strenuous.

Yu Tian had now entered this kind of rhythm. Outsiders couldn't feel it, but he realized that his speed wasn't slow at all. It was much faster than that race-walking thing.

He was instantly delighted. It turned out that the limbo micro-step was suitable for traveling in the city. It could achieve the effect of running wildly without others noticing.

Soon, he went around the cliff.

Barr was still dawdling on the beach at this time, asking Michelle from time to time where she should go.

Yu Tian quietly searched the cliff, but he still did not find any traces of Michelle.

He was puzzled. Was he wrong?

Although the vegetation on the cliff was lush, it was not as dense as the original forest. If someone was hiding, it would be easy to find him.

Yu Tian was absolutely sure that Michelle was not on the cliff.

After thinking for a while, Yu Tian decided to find a bush to stand guard. Then, he secretly stared at Barr, who was gradually approaching in the distance.

Soon, Barr reached the bottom of the cliff. Then, he slowly walked up the cliff along the gentle slope beside him.

After walking so far, Barr was a little impatient.

(‘Mr. Michelle, I’ve already walked to this cliff. If I continue to walk down... Pd better go back and drive. This will definitely be much easier than walking.

“I’ve already reached the place. Hurry up and go up the cliff.

Barr sighed and climbed up the cliff with much effort.

After climbing up the cliff, Barr took a few deep breaths and then hurriedly reported to Michelle, “I’ve reached the place. Where are you?” “You go to the edge of the cliff. ”

Barr followed her instructions and walked to the edge of the cliff.

Then, he saw a small motorboat parked on the surface of the sea below the cliff.

There were three people on the motorboat, and Michelle was among them.

Michelle also saw Barr, who had emerged from the cliff. He waved to Barr, indicating his location, and then quickly commanded the motorboat to move closer to Barr's position..

Chapter 1222: Chapter 1,221. There was no escape

Translator: 549690339

Yu Tian also saw Barr approaching the cliff. He immediately realized Michelle's location. The Kid was hiding under the cliff.

Michelle did not plan to directly contact Barr. Instead, she wanted Barr to throw the money down from the cliff.

The cliff was not high. It was about seven or eight meters, which was equivalent to the height of a two-story building.

As long as Barr did not throw it too far away, he could easily throw it on the motorboat.

Michelle could even catch the money bag with her hands from below without getting hurt.

Because the two parties did not have direct contact, even if Barr was being followed, the tracker would not be able to get close to Michelle quickly.

The tracker might jump off the cliff directly, but the bottom of the cliff was the sea. If he jumped, he would only fall into the sea.

Michelle was sitting on the speedboat. The person who jumped into the sea had no way to catch up with him.

Even if the swimming champion came, he would not be able to catch up with the motorboat.

Unless the pursuer could jump onto the boat, Smash Michelle to death, and everyone would die together.

But it also depended on whether Michelle gave him a chance. He was not a dead person. If he took the money bag, he would definitely leave quickly.

In such a situation, unless he had already prepared the speedboat, he might still have a chance to stop Michelle.

If he did not prepare anything, then he could only watch as Michelle ran away.

This was a normal situation.

However, Yu Tian was not an ordinary person. He dashed towards Barr's direction like a gust of wind.

Barr stood at the edge of the cliff and hesitated for a moment. However, when he thought of Yu Tian's previous instructions, he still quietly took off the money bag and threw it in the direction of the motorboat according to Michelle's request.

Then, he felt a gust of wind around him.

On the motorboat at the bottom of the cliff, Michelle revealed a satisfied smile.

Barr followed his request and threw the money bag down. There were no accidents in between.

When the money bag accurately fell into Michelle's hands, Michelle finally heaved a sigh of relief. Then, she immediately ordered the two bodyguards on the motorboat, "Go, leave this place immediately."

As soon as she said that, Michelle seemed to see a figure flash by the corner of her eye, and it landed on his motorboat from above.

Michelle suspected that her eyes were playing tricks on her, because the entire motorboat did not shake at all.

But he soon knew that his eyes were not playing tricks on him.

His two bodyguards reacted faster than him. The moment the figure landed, one of the bodyguards let out an angry roar and immediately swung his fist in the direction of the figure.

The other bodyguard was a little further away and was sitting by the motor at the stern. His first reaction was to immediately take out a dagger and prepare to attack with his partner.

They all had pistols on them, but in this narrow motorboat, pistols were not easy to use. Not only was it difficult to have a chance to aim and shoot, but it was also easy to cause accidental damage.

Fists and daggers were the best weapons.

They did not even need to cause too much damage to the enemy. They only needed to shoot the enemy off the motorboat or force them off the motorboat.

Their countermeasures were not wrong, but unfortunately, the enemy they were facing was Yu Tian.

Bodyguards of this level were no match for Yu Tian.

Yu Tian easily jumped off the motorboat. This height was effortless for his lightness skills.

Then, he casually slapped the two bodyguards who attacked him, sending them flying into the sea.

After dealing with these troublesome bodyguards, Yu Tian looked at Michelle with a smile and said slowly, "Michelle? You can't escape."

Michelle immediately broke out in a cold sweat. She had a feeling that doomsday was coming.

He held the money bag and wanted to jump into the sea.

However, he found that the chances of escaping were not high because Yu Tian could hit him with the motorboat at any time.

Moreover, the weight of the money bag was very heavy. If he jumped into the sea with the money bag, he would not be able to swim.

As for throwing away the money bag to escape, he did not think about it. Anyway, it did not make any difference. He could not escape.

Michelle's legs went soft. She sat down on the motorboat and became dejected.

"I didn't betray. I was just... protecting myself.

Michelle started to explain herself. He had already guessed Yu Tian's identity.

At this time, the only people who could still find trouble with him were the people from the East Dragon Company.

As a branch manager, Michelle had always felt that the overall strength of the East Dragon Company was unfathomable. It even made him feel a little afraid.

The more he did, the more he discovered the endless power behind the East Dragon Company.

Moreover, he was only in charge of a city's gang operation branch. He had already experienced the support of the power from all levels of society. These powers all came from the East Dragon Company. They were simply everywhere.

Adding on the gangs that he controlled, these powers covered almost all levels and corners of society.

This omnipresent support allowed him to easily turn a group of street thugs into powerhouses in the underworld.

Then, he would use the power and means of these gangs to protect the interests of the other Dranpnes.

Such a combination of interests could simply do whatever he wanted.

And this was only a small bull market.

If it was a large region, or even the entire world, this kind of power would be too terrifying to resist.

Michelle really didn't want to be a traitor, because he didn't know how much advantage the traitor had in the whole East Dragon Company.

He didn't completely believe the propaganda above, and he also didn't completely believe the notice sent by the East Dragon Company to all its members.

He felt that the best situation was that everything would remain unchanged.

He still did his job, and ran his gang branch well.

When the power struggle at the top was over and everything was settled, he would come out and show his obedience.

He didn't care who was the boss. He couldn't resist who was the boss anyway.

However, all his information was in the control of the group leader.

If he didn't obey the group leader's orders, then his beautiful new wife and a few smart children would all be turned into ashes.

He had no choice but to obey. According to the new rules of the organization, he transferred all the funds he had into a new account. He followed the group leader's instructions and sneaked into the dark. He remotely controlled the power of the gang and carried out some sabotage and assassination operations.

He always felt that these things would bring him serious consequences. As expected, the group leader informed him in the early hours of the morning.

The East Dragon Company's fighters had already begun to operate in the mini-bull market and captured the head of a business branch.

Michelle had already known that this would be the result. The East Dragon Company would not let these traitors go, and they definitely had the ability to deal with these traitors.

Fortunately, Michelle was already prepared. He was ready to run..

Chapter 1223: Chapter 1222: Emily's disappearance

Translator: 549690339

Michelle was crying in front of Yu Tian.

He swore that he had no intention of betraying the team. He was only being forced by the team leader.

He only wanted to take the money and escape from the team leader's control.

He did not have the power to rebel against the team leader. He only did it so that he would not participate in the rebellion and avoid these internal conflicts.

"I can give you a way out..."

Yu Tian listened to Michelle's nonsense very patiently and felt that his explanation was reasonable.

Therefore, Yu Tian could give him a chance.

Yu Tian said indifferently, "If you still want to live, then cooperate with our actions and find out all the traitors above you. "

Michelle said with a bitter face, "I really don't know where they are hiding. I'm just a small branch manager..."

Yu Tian said indifferently, "It doesn't matter. As long as you cooperate with us to slowly investigate, we'll be able to find some clues. "

Michelle pleaded, "I'm just a small branch manager. I'm really not good at these things... If they find out, my whole family will die. "

Yu Tian sneered, "Don't tell me you still want to stay out of the matter and watch the fire from the sidelines?" "You receive a generous salary in the East Dragon Company, enjoy countless benefits, and obtain so much power and social status... when something happens in the company, do you really want to stay out and watch? "Do you really think the company is a place for you to laze around?"

Michelle was instantly speechless.

Indeed, he only wanted to laze around in the East Dragon Company. When he had nothing to do, he would run errands and act as a bystander. When he had something to do, he would hide in a corner and wait for the storm to calm down.

Many branch managers of the East Dragon Company were just so incompetent. The reason why they were able to do things well was not because they had much ability, but because the East Dragon Company's platform was too strong and had too many resources.

Any ordinary person would not be able to do too badly in their position.

With a little practice, they would be able to do better than them.

The reason why Michelle was able to take the position of the person in charge was simply a coincidence. She was old enough and just happened to be promoted.

Other than having a little more experience, he did not have particularly strong abilities. He also did not have the courage that a member of a secret organization should have.

Yu Tian said again, "You keep saying that you are just a small branch manager. Don't tell me that the power in the hands of Your Branch Manager is still small? "When there's a traitor, do you really not have the power to protect yourself and resist?"

Michelle instantly became dejected.

He just didn't have the courage to resist. It wasn't that he didn't have the chance at all.

If he had been more courageous and organized the power of blue underpants to fight against the other rebel branches, he might have been able to stabilize the situation in the mini-bull market and make a few great contributions.

Yu Tian did not have much hope for such an incompetent person. After reprimanding him, he sighed and said, "Let's go. Follow me back to the safe house. If you can cooperate well with our work, there will still be a chance for you to leave your job safely in the future.

Donglong company did not need such trash members, especially when Zhu Ge Liang planned to carry out reforms in donglong company. This trash would be cleaned out.

However, this kind of cleaning would not immediately drive them out of Donglong Company. No secret organization would allow such an easy exit.

At least for the next five to ten years, he could not leave the sight of Donglong Company. He still had to do some unimportant chores at the lowest level of Donglong Company.

As for the next ten years, all the confidential information and information he had become history. At that time, kicking him out of Donglong company would not cause any harm to donglong company.

Michelle did not have the ability to resist now. She could only obediently listen to Yu Tian 's arrangements and drive the motorboat to dock at the edge of the cliff.

Bar was waiting for them on the shore with a smile on his face. He greeted Yu Tian respectfully and even greeted Michelle politely.

Yu Tian's godly operation just now had already frightened bar.

He was a little shocked. Could it be that the people sent by the organization were all warriors of this level?

Were these traitors courting death? What ability did they have to fight against such a warrior?

Other than growing more respectful towards Yu Tian, Ba er also completely disregarded Michelle.

Although he was polite in his words, he already knew in his heart that Michelle was just an idiot.

After they went ashore, Yu Tian instructed Barr, "Barr, there are two bodies in the sea. Bring them to the boat and then take them away to be dealt with... After you're done with this matter, you can go back and wait for orders.

"I'll do as you say."

Barr's fighting ability was much better than Michelle's. After all, he was a street thug and had done a lot of hard work.

Although he had been living in luxury for the past two years, he also had the habit of training. It was not difficult for him to do such a little hard work.

He had already noticed the bodies of the two bodyguards. Then, he drove the speedboat alone to retrieve the bodies and put them on the small motorboat.

After retrieving the two bodies, he curiously checked the cause of death of the bodies.

Damn, the necks of these two bodies were broken and the bones on their necks were limp.

Barr immediately felt a chill.

He had clearly seen Yu Tian's actions on the cliff top just now. It was just two light slaps.

Two slaps, and he broke the necks of two bodyguards?

Too fierce, too fierce..

Barr shivered, and then quickly drove the small motorboat to the distance.

The gang naturally had the means and methods to deal with these matters, so Yu Tian did not need to worry about Barr.

He took Michelle up the cliff again and walked towards the beach where they came from.

After a few steps, Yu Tian suddenly felt that something was wrong.

Where were Aunt Emily and the executioner?

Weren't they following behind Barr just now?

Why did they not follow Barr after staying on the cliff for so long?

Yu Tian immediately realized what had happened.

He didn't call Emily's cell phone, but immediately contacted No. 76's technical team. "Headquarters, track and locate Emily immediately! She seems to have disappeared!"

The members of the operation branch all had miniature locators. Although this thing wasn't as good as the equipment of the mouse team and its functions were relatively simple, the effect of the locator was definitely not a problem.

Moreover, this thing was relatively hidden, and was not as obvious as devices such as cell phones, earphones, and communicators.

The technical team immediately tracked Emily's location.

('Emily is in your southwest direction, about one kilometer away! The specific location has been sent to your cell phone, please pay attention to check.

Because Yu Tian did not carry a personal communication system, the technical team could only send the location map to his cell phone. Yu had just taken out his phone when it rang..

Chapter 1224: Chapter 1,223: attack

Translator: 549690339

It was the executioner who called Yu Tian.

Yu Tian ignored the doubts in his heart and immediately picked up the call.

“Let’s Go! We’ve been attacked. The enemy is very powerful and is rushing towards your direction.

The executioner hurriedly said a few words and then hurriedly hung up the phone.

If even the executioner said that the enemy was very powerful, then he was definitely not an ordinary person.

Yu Tian did not have time to think about whether there was anything illogical about this. He picked up Michelle casually and put her under his armpit. Then, he turned around and ran in the other direction of the cliff.

In fact, he did not mind fighting with those powerful enemies because he did not think that there would be any real experts overseas.

If it was in the eastern country, there were quite a number of ancient martial arts experts that he was afraid of.

However, he decided to retreat now because the Michelle in his hands still had some value.

It didn’t matter if he fought to the death with the enemy, but it would be difficult for Michelle to care about it.

Regardless of whether the enemy saved Michelle or killed Michelle, it wasn’t a good thing for him.

Michelle was a little stunned and said in a panic, “What happened? What Happened?”

“Shut your mouth.

Yu Tian said as he ran, "Do you have a tracker on you? Throw away your phone and all those messy things."

Michelle began to hesitate. Although he did not know what happened, he could tell that Yu Tian was running for his life.

He did not know if it was a good thing to run with Yu Tian. Perhaps the team leader had sent someone to save him.

However, he had already planned to abscond with the money, so what he did today was different from what the team leader had arranged.

The team leader might not have found him to save him, but it was also possible that he wanted to kill him.

After hesitating for a moment, he decided to throw his phone away first.

However, before he could reach for the phone in his pocket, Yu Tian suddenly pounced behind a rock at the side.

"PFFF..."

Michelle heard a series of soft sounds, which seemed to be the sound of bullets hitting the rock.

He did not hear the gunshot. The shooter must have used a silencer.

There was sound even with a silencer, but it could not be heard clearly from a distance.

The power of the bullets was not great, and they could not destroy the rocks on the cliff.

If it was a powerful rifle, even the rocks might not be able to block it.

Of course, the more powerful the rifle, the louder the gunshot. Even a silencer could not cover it up.

Yu Tian threw Michelle behind a rock and lay down in the grass beside him.

The bullet came from in front of him. In other words, the enemy might have surrounded the entire cliff.

Not only were there people chasing him from behind, there were also people blocking the way in front.

He was careless.

Yu Tian thought that the mission this time would be as simple as before, so he did not bring anyone from the mouse team.

However, the enemies were all using hot weapons, so it would be a little difficult for him to deal with them alone.

At the moment, he did not know how many enemies there were. However, before he pounced on them, Yu Tian had already seen four or five people on the opposite side climb to the top of the cliff.

Yu Tian took out a flying needle and thought to himself that he should actually bring the big revolver with him.

The attack range of the big revolver was actually not much longer than the flying needle, and its lethality was about the same.

Although the big revolver was more powerful, when used to kill people, a bullet and a flying needle were not much different.

However, the big revolver had one advantage, which was that it could make a very loud gunshot.

Shooting near the beach would definitely scare the people on the beach, and then someone would definitely call the police.

The enemy carried guns and installed silencers, so they definitely didn't want to make too much noise and attract the attention of the authorities.

Just the weapons they carried were enough to attract the hostility of the police.

Unfortunately, Yu Tian didn't have a way to make a loud gunshot.

Should he call the police?

"I've been attacked. The enemy has brought automatic weapons... get the mouse squad to come over and support me with their weapons.

Yu Tian immediately sent a message to the headquarters.

The hotel was only about ten minutes away from here. If the mouse squad were to run like mad, they would arrive in less than ten minutes.

Yu Tian thought that he should be able to hold on for another ten minutes or so.

It didn't seem like he couldn't use the flying needle against the rifle.

The space at the top of the cliff wasn't small either. Yu Tian could use his lightness skill to deal with the enemy for a while.

"Let me call the police for you first..." Piggy Liang's voice sounded in Yu Tian's earpiece. "There's a police station by the beach. There are still a few policemen inside.

Yu Tian said helplessly, "What can these few policemen do? They're not even enough to stop the enemy..."

Brother Zhu Liang said, "The police can at least act as a deterrent and increase the psychological pressure on the enemy, making them only think about completing the mission and leaving as soon as possible."

Brother Zhu Liang was right. The appearance of the police would at least make the enemy feel a sense of urgency, and then it would be easier for them to make mistakes.

A few policemen were indeed nothing, but they represented the police force of the entire bull market.

If the enemy dared to attack these few policemen, the result would be more policemen rushing over to reinforce them.

If the enemy didn't attack these few policemen, it would be impossible. The police wouldn't let armed elements like them off.

This seemed to be a good idea.

Yu Tian immediately said, "Then call the police first!"

Before he could say anything else, the enemy had already reached the cliff and surrounded Yu Tian's position.

Yu Tian leaped out of the bushes and threw out a few flying needles.

thorn

However, they did not fall down as Yu Tian had expected. Instead, they did not react at all.

Yu Tian had already seen clearly that the two enemies were wearing full bulletproof equipment, including bulletproof vests and helmets.

His flying needles did not have the ability to penetrate the bulletproof vests, which was something that even ordinary bullets would find difficult to penetrate.

Of course, there were some gaps in the bulletproof equipment, and Yu Tian was confident that he could hit those gaps.

However, those were not vital spots. Even if Yu Tian hit those spots, at most, it would only cause the enemies some pain and delay their offensive actions slightly.

Yu Tian started cursing in his heart. Could it be that they could only engage in close combat?

Actually, the two enemies reacted very quickly. At the same time that Yu Tian attacked them, they immediately opened fire on Yu Tian.

Thud thud thud..

The crisp sound of gunfire rang out.

The sound of a rifle equipped with a silencer was indeed not loud, but this distance was enough for Yu Tian to hear it clearly. It was as if someone in the next room was smashing a sledgehammer.

The enemy's shooting was also very sophisticated. A whole bunch of bullets chased after Yu Tian's figure and shot towards the spot where he had landed.

This was going to kill him..

Chapter 1225: Chapter 1,224. Another genetic warrior

Fortunately, Yu Tian could be considered a person with some skill.

After all, he was already an ancient martial arts practitioner. Moreover, he had also practiced the mystical and awesome skill of internal movement technique.

If such an expert was casually killed by a few shots, wouldn't it be a disgrace to the entire eastern ancient martial arts world.

He hurriedly twisted his body in mid-air and forcefully threw himself in another direction, falling back into the grass.

At the same time, he threw a few flying needles in the direction of the enemy once again.

His target was the enemy's shoulder and arm.

There were acupuncture points on the arm that could allow the enemy to cripple an entire arm, but the enemy's arm was also equipped with armor.

Therefore, Yu Tian could only attack in the gaps between the armor, such as where the shoulder armor was connected to the arm armor, or where the joints were.

Although this position was not fatal, it was enough to make the enemy suffer for a while, and then lose their shooting accuracy.

It was even possible to make the enemy curse in pain and directly retreat for a distance.

However, Yu Tian did not want the enemy to retreat directly. He just wanted to create an opportunity for himself to get close to the enemy, and then kill the enemy close to him.

Killing the enemy was the best way to ensure his own safety.

However, the result gave him a shock.

The enemy's arm had obviously been hit by a needle, but they were still unaffected.

They quickly changed their magazine, and then continued to chase after Yu Tian.

What the hell!

Yu Tian immediately thought of genetic warriors. Previously, when he had kidnapped that arms dealer, Cui Zhengzhi, he had encountered such a situation.

The bodyguards beside Cui Zhengzhi were also genetic warriors. They did not have any acupuncture points and could not even feel pain.

At that time, Yu Tian could only use his internal energy to fight back. Flying needles were completely ineffective against them.

A person who did not even have acupuncture points, how could he be considered a human?

Yu Tian did not have the time to complain. He still had to dodge the enemy's bullets.

In a moment of desperation, Ling Bo Micro Step's strange footwork was used.

His qinggong wasn't as fast as a bullet, but it was faster than a person's reaction speed and eyes.

Although the reaction speed of these two genetic warriors wasn't slow, they didn't know where to aim their guns due to Yu Tian's messy footwork. When Yu Tian saw the effect of Ling Bo's footwork, he was overjoyed.

He immediately moved closer to the two genetic warriors.

In just a few steps, he had suddenly moved behind the two genetic warriors.

The two genetic warriors hurriedly turned around and retreated. At the same time, they hurriedly adjusted the direction of their muzzles.

“Go to hell!

Yu Tian was prepared to give the two genetic warriors a vicious slap. Suddenly, two more genetic warriors appeared from the side and started shooting at Yu Tian.

Yu Tian could no longer be bothered to attack. Stepping on Bagua, he moved to the side of the two genetic warriors in front of him.

At the same time, he grabbed the shoulder armor of one of the genetic warriors and pulled him in front of him, allowing him to block a bullet for him.

Dong Dong Dong..

Yu Tian did not get shot. The one that got shot was the shield in front of him.

The bullet hit the body armor of this genetic warrior, producing a dull metallic sound.

The enemy didn't hold back. Even if there were people blocking in front of them, they would still continue to shoot without mercy.

This was probably because they knew that their comrades had body armor protecting them, so they wouldn't be injured.

However, even if their comrades weren't wearing body armor, they would still shoot without hesitation.

Genetic warriors were used for fighting and killing. They were all death warriors.

They were not even afraid of killing themselves, let alone killing a few of their teammates.

Yu Tian instantly felt that he had encountered a huge problem.

However, he would definitely not give up just like that. He grabbed the genetic warrior in front of him and charged towards the two genetic warriors that were firing at him.

At the same time, he also gave a vicious kick to the genetic warrior beside him.

This kick was somewhat hasty. Yu Tian felt that it would be very difficult to kill the genetic warrior with a single kick.

However, it didn't matter. This kick would at least send the genetic warrior flying, preventing him from firing again for at least two seconds.

Next, Yu Tian continued charging forward and rammed into the genetic warrior in front of him.

"Die!" The genetic warrior in Yu Tian's hands roared angrily. He pulled out a dagger from the outer thigh and stabbed it at Yu Tian's body with a backhand.

Naturally, such a low-level attack would not be able to hit Yu Tian. Yu Tian pushed with all his might with both hands and simply used this genetic warrior as a weapon to throw him out.

The few genetic warriors instantly fell to the ground.

Regardless of whether they were injured or not, at the very least, they would not be able to fire for the time being.

Just as Yu Tian was about to seize the opportunity to pursue and attack, he noticed another genetic warrior darting out from the side and shooting fiercely in his direction.

Helpless, Yu Tian could only give up on chasing and once again use the limbo micro-step to dodge.

Fortunately, the effect of the limbo micro -step was pretty good. It was like passing someone in basketball. Sometimes left, sometimes right, and then suddenly disappeared.

If a basketball expert were to fight someone with a knife, the average fighter would probably not be able to defeat them.

In fact, the traditional martial arts of the eastern country were very particular about these movements and techniques, especially the pursuit of some nimble moves.

However, these things were not very practical in modern times. Because they placed too much emphasis on the dexterity of moves, they did not have the time to carry out strength training.

Therefore, in the sparring matches between traditional martial arts and modern martial arts, one could often see the traditional martial arts striking their opponents dozens of times in a flashy manner, without any effect at all.

The opponent would hit back with a heavy punch and knock down all the martial arts practitioners on the spot.

However, this did not mean that traditional martial arts were useless.

Just imagine how much of a threat this kind of technique, which relied on speed and dexterity to win, would pose to a martial artist if he held a dagger in his hand.

Therefore, some people often said that no matter how good one's martial arts were, one would still be afraid of a kitchen knife.

Of course, an ordinary person would not be able to beat an athlete with his or her fists. However, if he or she held a weapon, as long as his or her movements were fast enough, sudden enough, and strange enough, there was a good chance that he or she would be killed instantly.

There was a limit to how fast a human's reaction speed could be. An athlete's reaction speed might be faster, but the limit was only the same as that of Bruce

Lee 's.

An ordinary person's sudden attack was still very difficult to guard against, and the fast attack of an ancient martial arts master was even more irresistible.

Tian Yu's type of attack, which was both an exquisite ancient martial arts attack style and had sufficient speed, the key thing was that he had inner strength, so his strength was still small.

He did not need a kitchen knife. He could eliminate the enemy with his bare hands. His attack power was even stronger than those martial artists.

After dodging the muzzle of the enemy once again, Yu Tian finally seized the opportunity to attack.

He got close to the side of the genetic warrior and strangled his neck.

Wearing a level three head, right?

Do you think I can break your neck?

Yu Tian sneered. He exerted force with his hands and directly twisted the neck of this genetic warrior by 180 degrees.

If he still didn't die, then the genetic warrior would truly not be considered a human..

Chapter 1226: Chapter 1,225. There were also experts among genetic warriors

The genetic warrior in Yu Tian's hands softened.

Genetic Warriors did not bleed and were not afraid of pain. However, that did not mean that they would not die.

His neck had already been twisted into such a state. He was too embarrassed not to die.

The genetic warriors, coupled with their bulletproof equipment, were indeed somewhat like a tortoise that no one could lay their hands on.

Yu Tian felt that this was perhaps the ultimate goal that the clone would pursue.

In the city battlefield, without heavy weapons, this team of genetic warriors was basically invincible.

Ordinary people would find it difficult to inflict heavy injuries on them with attacks. No matter how heavy a punch was, it might not have much of an effect.

Yu Tian might be able to achieve a good effect with his internal energy, but in order to save time and effort, he still used the neck twisting method.

This method was much more efficient. Just like an ordinary person, the genetic warrior was dealt with by him in one move.

The dead genetic warrior was still useful. Yu Tian pushed his corpse towards his companion.

This companion did not panic, nor did he have any intense reaction due to the death of his companion.

He calmly retreated while raising the muzzle of his gun and shooting at Yu Tian's head.

Yu Tian hurriedly lowered his head and hid his body behind the shield.

Kacha!

The bullets in the hands of the genetic warrior were coincidentally emptied.

The moment Yu Tian heard this sound, without the slightest hesitation, he immediately dashed out and pounced at the genetic warrior in front of him.

In a close combat, the genetic warrior was naturally not his match.

This genetic warrior's head was easily covered by Yu Tian, and his neck was twisted and broken.

After killing two genetic warriors in a row, Yu Tian was in a great mood.

Is a genetic warrior really that great? The research results that you guys spent so much effort to produce, weren't they all finished by me in one move?

He really wanted to shout, "Who else is there? P'!

Let's have a good show.

However, now was not the time to celebrate and show off.

On the cliff, more than a dozen enemies had already started running up. All of them were at his front, back, left, and right.

Yu Tian was still within the encirclement. After changing his magazine, the enemies immediately started shooting at him again.

He wasn't as tough as a genetic warrior. As such, he could only swiftly move behind the trees and boulders.

Fortunately, the combat effect of the micro-steps of the soaring waves was quite good. The enemies' fierce firing didn't keep up with his rhythm at all.

The top of this cliff wasn't that kind of bare place. There were more or less some trees and boulders.

Yu Tian used the cover of these trees to quickly jump out of the small encirclement.

He avoided being attacked from both sides so that he could continue to deal with the enemy.

However, after jumping out of the small encirclement, he found that there was actually another layer of encirclement outside.

No, it seemed to be more than one layer.

There were quite a number of enemies and they were continuously surrounding the top of the cliff.

Were they planning to encircle him with a large number of soldiers?

Yu Tian was puzzled. Why were the enemies using so many soldiers to encircle him?

Could it be that they knew his identity?

With this situation... even if they were to encircle the headquarters of the Eastern Dragon Company, they wouldn't use so many genetic warriors, right?

Yu Tian instantly became alert.

Should they continue to break out of the encirclement?

Yu Tian hesitated for a moment.

At this time, the best choice should be to retreat immediately and prioritize his own safety.

However, Michelle was still behind that rock. If Yu Tian continued to break out of the encirclement, Michelle would definitely fall into the hands of the enemy.

Michelle was also very valuable. If he was allowed to step out, blue underpants could easily be taken under his command. There were basically no accidents.

It was truly a pity to give up on Michelle so easily.

After hesitating for a moment, the enemies at the periphery had already charged forward.

The enemy's formation seemed to be more fixed. They were all in groups of two.

The two enemies that had charged the fastest had already arrived before Yu Tian's eyes.

Yu Tian could see the attire of these enemies. They seemed somewhat different from the previous batch of equipment.

They were also wearing bulletproof helmets and vests. However, they were not as tightly wrapped as the genetic warriors from before.

There were more gaps on their bodies, but they also appeared to be more agile.

They were also equipped with short charge. After reaching the top of the cliff, they did not care how far they were from Yu Tian or how many obstacles there were between them. Immediately, they started firing in Yu Tian's direction.

Although doing so would be a waste of ammunition, it was also the easiest way to cause damage to Yu Tian.

It seemed that they were going to kill Yu Tian at all costs.

Yu Tian continued to dodge. Stepping on the eight trigrams position, he quickly approached the two enemies.

He used the same trick again. His figure floated and once again, he hugged the neck of the enemy.

Who knew that the enemy would suddenly raise the short charge in his hand and smash it towards Yu Tian's arm.

Yu Tian was slightly surprised. This guy's reaction was actually not slow?

The enemy's counterattack naturally could not hurt Yu Tian. Yu Tian could easily pull his arm back.

However, this kind of operation had underestimated Yu Tian's ability.

He did not Dodge or Dodge. He raised his arm and continued to throw it at the enemy's short charge.

Bang!

The short charge in the enemy's hand was deformed by him. It was obvious that it was bent by a section.

Yu Tian's fist force was not only that, but the momentum of this punch did not decrease. It continued to smash towards the enemy's neck. The enemy had no choice but to use his arm to receive it.

Bang!

There was another muffled sound. This enemy retreated a few steps and then sat down in the messy grass.

What surprised Yu Tian was that although this enemy looked disheveled, he did not seem to be injured.

Even his short charge had been bent by Yu Tian, yet this enemy's arm did not seem to have any bone fractures or other injuries.

This did not mean that the enemy's arm was harder than steel. Rather, it meant that the enemy knew how to deflect force.

It was a human's instinct to deflect force to protect oneself. However, in order to deflect the enormous force of Yu Tian's punch, not only did one need to have an extremely high degree of resistance, one also needed to have a certain level of skill.

This was an expert?

Yu Tian was even more surprised. Could it be that there were experts among genetic warriors?

As if to prove this point to him, the genetic warrior beside him suddenly gave up on his short charge, which had emptied its magazine. He took out his dagger and pounced on Yu Tian.

The physique of a genetic warrior far surpassed that of a human. His reaction speed and reaction speed were also the same.

In the blink of an eye, this genetic warrior pounced to Yu Tian's side and stabbed his dagger into Yu Tian's waist.

This position might not be fatal, but it would definitely cause intense pain and even make one lose the ability to move.

Although the speed of the enemy was very fast, it was still not enough to deal with Yu Tian.

Yu Tian turned his body slightly to avoid the enemy's dagger. Then, he reached out his hand to grab the enemy's head again.

Once he grabbed the enemy's head, he could forcefully break the enemy's neck. This was a fatal move.

However, the enemy suddenly crouched down and caught up with him with a backhand dagger..

Chapter 1227: Chapter 1,226, escaping by jumping into the sea

The target of the genetic warrior was still Yu Tian's waist.

His reaction speed and coping skills were completely that of a professional martial artist with proficient martial arts.

Yu Tian was still unable to determine how high his martial arts level was. However, he could be certain that this was at least the level of a professional martial artist who had practiced for quite some time.

Moreover, compared to the fighters in the arena, these fighters who specialized in actual combat were even more dangerous.

Not only were their mental fortitude stronger, but their attacks were all fatal moves. They didn't have the habit of attacking with the goal of scoring in the arena at all.

Such an opponent had the ability to pose a threat to Yu Tian.

If there were only one or two of them, Yu Tian might be able to focus on dealing with them.

However, when there were too many of them, Yu Tian felt as though he was unable to fight against four hands with two fists.

Shocked, Yu Tian hurriedly somersaulted, avoiding the dagger.

He jumped behind the genetic warrior and gave the genetic warrior a fierce kick.

The genetic warrior was instantly kicked to the ground. However, due to the fact that he was wearing a bulletproof vest, this kick of Yu Tian's did not cause much damage to him.

Yu Tian's head started to ache.

Genetic warriors that knew martial arts?

A hooligan that knew martial arts could already be said to be unstoppable.

If all genetic warriors knew martial arts, even Yu Tian would not be able to do anything to them.

Looking at these genetic warriors that were surrounding him from all directions, Yu Tian knew that he could no longer hesitate.

He had to break out of the encirclement quickly.

Although he considered himself an expert, he was still not an immortal.

If he continued to delay, even an immortal would be exhausted to death by these genetic warriors.

However, he had no intention of running down the cliff.

On this side of the cliff, there was a beach. The terrain was too spacious.

On the other side, although it was not a beach, there was similarly no obstruction.

There were so many genetic warriors following behind him. Furthermore, each of them had a micro-charge in their hands. The density of the firepower they fired was no joke.

No matter how strange his micro-steps were, it was very likely that he would be shot into a sieve by random bullets.

He would not be able to escape this way.

Yu Tian decided to jump down from the cliff and directly jump into the sea.

The sea would block the enemy's line of sight. As long as he dived deeper and swam a distance away quickly, the enemy would lose their target and could only blindly fire.

In addition, the bullets would also encounter great resistance in the seawater. Even if a few bullets hit him in the deep water, they would not cause any harm. He still had the golden bell cover and iron shirt protecting him. This was enough to protect him in the seawater.

After making up his mind, Yu Tian immediately retreated.

The genetic warriors did not hesitate. They fired at Yu Tian while quickly catching up.

Yu Tian quickly moved and dodged. Very quickly, he returned to his original position.

However, Michelle was no longer lying behind a rock.

Yu Tian anxiously scanned his surroundings. He discovered that this brat had actually climbed to the edge of the cliff by himself. It seemed like he also had the intention of jumping into the sea to escape.

What was wrong with him? He was the best at escaping.

However, this coincidentally saved Yu Tian a huge trouble. If he was carrying a person, his movement speed would definitely be affected.

Yu Tian was not completely confident that he could safely carry Michelle to the edge of the cliff.

However, it would be much easier if Michelle climbed over on her own. Yu Tian quickly stepped forward and kicked the back of Michelle's buttocks.

"Aiya..."

Michelle screamed in pain. It was not because she was in pain or because she was scared. Then, she danced and fell to the surface of the sea.

Yu Tian followed closely behind her. With a stomp of his feet, he flew diagonally toward the surface of the sea like an arrow leaving the bow.

The impact of this kind of jump was greater, much greater than the force of a natural fall.

But the advantage was that the speed of the fall was faster and more direct.

Yu Tian wasn't stupid enough to jump into the air, either to the top or to the front. That would only provide more opportunities for the enemy to shoot.

The moment he fell into the sea, he grabbed Michelle and dived into the water.

Before Michelle could take a deep breath, she was pulled into the water by Yu Tian.

He struggled in a hurry but was slapped unconscious by Yu Tian.

The more he struggled and moved, the more oxygen was consumed.

In order to save time, it was most convenient to knock him unconscious.

Even if he drowned afterward, Yu Tian was confident that he could save him.

It was not difficult for Yu Tian to pull a person to dive, at least it was much easier than carrying a living person who was struggling.

He quickly dived several meters, and then the bullets chased them down.

The sea was not a pool of water, it was always moving.

After jumping into the sea, the ripples on the surface of the water would soon disappear and be covered by the waves.

The enemies that were following closely behind could not find their landing spot. They could only make guesses based on the location where they jumped off the cliff. Then, they started firing at a large area.

There were quite a number of genetic warriors. The water nearby was splashing.

Countless bullets drilled into the bottom of the water, creating beautiful splashes.

Yu Tian did not care about these bullets. He pulled Michelle along and swam forward quickly.

He wanted to swim out of the range of these micro-bursts in the shortest time possible.

The effective range of a rifle was usually two to three hundred meters. After this distance, the accuracy would be greatly reduced.

At that distance, it would be difficult for the enemy to hit them quickly after taking a breath.

Then, they would continue to dive, and the bullets would basically not pose a threat to them underwater.

Therefore, how far they could swim before the first breath would determine how safe they were.

The further they swam, the safer they were. After swimming for more than 300 meters, they could basically be considered to have escaped the pursuit.

Yu Tian regretted letting Barr walk too fast. If not, he would still have a motorboat to use.

Now that there was no motorboat, it was impossible for Yu Tian to swim directly to the depths of the ocean.

He chose the front right, from which he could detour to the beach.

He did not believe that Kroni would dare to let the genetic warriors chase after them openly in public.

If it was a few ordinary people with knives, it was still possible. With so many fully armed genetic warriors appearing in public, the local authorities would definitely not sit idly by.

As long as he ran to the beach, he would definitely be safe.

Yu Tian's swimming speed was not slow. Even though he was pulling Michelle along, he was still able to quickly cover a distance of several tens of meters.

He discovered that internal strength was also very useful in swimming. They could directly generate thrust, just like a jet fighter.

This efficiency was akin to carrying an underwater propeller, and it was a powerful version.

The seabed near the cliff was also quite deep, and the farther away from the cliff, the deeper it was.

By diving a few meters down, one could completely ignore the bullets. Then, they could swim in the deep water without worrying about being discovered..

Sorry for the inconvenience. Thank you very much!

Chapter 1228: Chapter 1,227: temporarily lost contact

Translator: 549690339

Yu Tian paddled with all his might, not caring about the commotion he caused.

Even if those genetic warriors removed their equipment and jumped into the water to chase after them, it would still be difficult for them to see their positions clearly under the water.

When Yu Tian appeared to take a breather, they discovered Yu Tian's position again. It was already too late for them to chase after him.

After he discovered that he had internal energy, the time he spent in the water had also increased.

This might be what the Taoists called the circulation of internal energy.

However, there was a drawback to this. He did not know how long Michelle could last.

There was a time limit to drowning. If it was too long, Michelle would suffocate to death in the water.

After paddling for a while, Yu Tian estimated that the distance was enough, so he brought Michelle up quickly.

After emerging from the surface of the water, Yu Tian turned his head around to take a look warily.

At the edge of the cliff in the distance, there were no longer any traces of people. These genetic warriors seemed to have felt that things were getting out of hand and had quietly dispersed.

On the surface of the water, they did not seem to see anyone chasing after them. Perhaps they knew that they would not be able to catch up to Yu Tian in the water, nor would they be able to defeat Yu Tian.

Yu Tian heaved a sigh of relief. Then, he gave Michelle a few tight slaps.

However, Michelle did not choke on the water. His breathing was temporarily stopped by Yu Tian.

Furthermore, due to Yu Tian's relatively fast swimming speed, he did not lack oxygen for too long.

A few slaps from Yu Tian woke Michelle Up.

After taking a few heavy breaths, Michelle regained some consciousness.

Following that, with a terrified expression, he said, "Damn it. Why would these bastards send so many people to kill me? I'm just a small branch manager..."

“You’re thinking too much. The one they want to kill isn’t you...”

Yu Tian sighed. So many genetic warriors were obviously coming for him.

Could it be that Kronin had confirmed his identity? Or did he just think that he was an important figure of the Eastern Dragon Company?

To mobilize such a huge force, it shouldn’t be just for an important figure, right?

However, when did he reveal his identity?

Yu Tian was puzzled. He decided to contact Piggy Liang to report this situation.

However, he suddenly realized that the communication device beside his ear had already fallen off.

Perhaps it had fallen off during his fight with those genetic warriors, or perhaps it was due to the strange movement of the Lingbo microstep, or perhaps it was due to the large steps he took, or perhaps it was due to him jumping into the sea..

In short, he definitely wouldn’t be able to retrieve his communicator.

Yu Tian hurriedly reached for his phone again.

His phone had a waterproof function, so even if he jumped into the sea, there wouldn’t be any damage.

However, after he took out his phone, he realized that his phone had somehow broken down. Even a portion of the phone’s shell had cracked.

This could be due to some collision during the fight, or it could be due to the limbo micro-step..

Yu Tian sighed. He was really unlucky.

Losing his phone meant losing all his phone numbers. Even if he found other phones and phones to use, he would not be able to quickly establish contact with others for the time being.

Now, he did not have time to complain about his bad luck. He pulled Michelle and continued to swim to the beach in the distance.

Michelle said with a trembling voice, “Are we still going to swim back? is the beach safe?”

“Do you want to stay in the sea to feed the fish? There are so many tourists on the beach, what are you afraid of?”

Yu Tian no longer had the patience to scold Michelle. He grabbed Michelle by the neck with one hand and pulled him toward the beach.

The two of them quickly swam back to the beach.

There were quite a few people gathered on the beach, curiously looking in the direction of the cliff.

Although the gunshots on the cliff were not loud, with so many rifles gathered together, the noise created was not small either. In the end, it still attracted the attention of a portion of the citizens.

Those genetic warriors should have already retreated from the cliff. However, they did not show themselves on the beach. Instead, they went around the back of the cliff and left.

The citizens on the beach did not know what had happened. They were curious. Some of them walked towards the cliff to watch the show.

Yu Tian was confused.

Didn't Piggy Liang say that he was going to call the police? Why was there not a single police officer here?

He looked out of the beach and soon found the police station on the roadside.

The police station looked quiet and there was no sign of any police action.

Perhaps, Kronin had bribed these police officers?

Yu Tian pondered for a moment and then ordered Michelle, “Follow me.”

Yu Tian took off his wet shirt and walked to the back of the beach with Michelle.

Michelle, who looked like a drowning dog, was somewhat eye-catching. Yu Tian, who was only wearing beach pants, was much better.

However, this did not affect them much. The two of them quickly passed through the crowd on the beach, left the beach, and walked to the roadside.

When Yu Tian came over, he was in Emily's car.

Emily's car was still on the roadside, but Emily's people had disappeared.

Yu Tian did not have the car keys, so it was impossible for him to drive Emily's car back to the hotel.

So he asked Michelle, "Where Did You Park Your Car?"

Michelle said with a bitter face, "My car was parked... but the car keys were on my bodyguard..."

This was the same situation as Yu Tian.

Yu Tian suddenly felt a little helpless. He touched his pocket and asked

Michelle, "Do you have any change on you?"

Michelle took out the change from her pocket. "I still have some."

Yu Tian took the change and said, "Let's go and take a taxi."

The two of them continued to walk towards the entrance of the beach.

There were more cars and taxis on the other side of the street.

Yu Tian could not find Emily and the executioner now, so he could only go back to the hotel.

Soon, the two of them approached the police station.

Logically speaking, even if there was no one standing guard at the entrance of the police station, there should still be some voices inside.

At least in the hall facing the main door, there were more or less a few people walking around.

But now, he saw that there was no one in the hall.

Yu Tian's heart stirred, and he turned around and walked straight into the police station.

Michelle was slightly stunned. She did not know why Yu Tian wanted to walk into the police station.

Could it be that he wanted to call the police?

Call the police..

Calling the police seemed like a good idea.

Michelle thought that if she asked the police for help, she might be able to escape from Yu Tian's control and take the opportunity to escape..

This thought made him a little excited and a little nervous.

Forcing himself to remain calm, Michelle quickly followed Yu Tian's footsteps.

The two of them entered the police hall one after the other, but found that there was no one in the police hall.

Yu Tian immediately felt that something was wrong.

It was working hours now, how could there not be a single police officer on duty in the Police Hall?

Sorry for the inconvenience. Thank you very much!

Chapter 1229: Chapter 1,228, fire

Translator: 549690339

The corridor was next to the hall, and there was an office next to the corridor.

There was an iron door at the end of the corridor, and it seemed to be a place for temporary detention of prisoners.

Yu Tian Strode to the front of the office and knocked heavily on the door a few times.

After waiting for a moment, there was no response from inside the door.

Yu Tian did not wait any longer. Without any hesitation, he grabbed the door handle and used his extremely skilled Strong man push the door”.

With a click, the door lock was scrapped.

After pushing the door open, Yu Tian sighed. He saw that the office was littered with the bodies of a few police officers.

The Kronin Society had indeed bribed the police. However, their method of bribing was a little special. They had bought the lives of the police officers.

They were also a world-class secret organization. The Kronin Society's strength was not inferior to the East Dragon Company at all.

Hence, the degree of boldness in their actions and the degree of arrogance in their actions were also no weaker than the East Dragon Corporation.

Yu Tian dared to hire Xi Yang Yang Yang to attack the Secret Service Team of the police, and the clone society also dared to send their own genetic warriors to attack the police station.

If both parties were anxious, it was not impossible for them to engage in a real battle in the mini bull market.

As long as there was a need, no one would care about making things big.

Closing the office door, Yu Tian immediately brought the dejected Michelle out. He had to rush back to the hotel and organize his men to prepare for the battle with Kronin Society.

In addition, he had to inform Ge Liang immediately about this matter.

The Kronin Society had come with great momentum this time. They had dispatched so many genetic warriors. Such combat strength couldn't be underestimated.

With the strength of these few operations in the mini bull market, they were still not a match for the Kronin Society.

Genetic warriors were the core combat power of the Kronin Society. They could be considered the imperial guards of their headquarters.

If the East Dragon Company wanted to fight against this power, they would definitely need the headquarters to transfer and organize elite personnel.

This was definitely a headache for brother pig. This was because the East

Dragon Company had never put too much effort into the combat department.

Under Uncle Long's management, Donglong company was more like a profitable company than a powerful secret organization.

Especially after being affected by the rebellion, Yu Tian did not know if Donglong Company could still organize a force to fight against the genetic warriors.

They brought Michelle to the street entrance smoothly and quickly stopped a taxi.

There were more taxis in the mini-bull city than in the evening city, and it was much more convenient.

Yu Tian gave the address of the hotel directly, and the taxi sped away.

It was a ten-minute journey, and they arrived almost in the blink of an eye.

After getting off at the side of the road, Yu Tian could see smoke rising in the direction of the hotel from afar, as if a fire had just been put out.

His heart sank.

Did Something Happen to the hotel?

How did Kronin find this place?

They had just moved into the hotel at midnight. How could Kronin move so quickly?

Yu Tian composed himself and led Michelle slowly toward the hotel.

From a distance, he saw the police cordoned off the street, as well as a large number of police cars and police officers.

There were many citizens who were watching the commotion nearby. There were a few fire engines and ambulances parked in front of the hotel, and there were a large number of firemen and medical personnel around them.

At the same time, there were also reporters who were in high spirits in such a lively place, and they were carrying out live broadcasts of joy.

There was indeed a fire at the hotel, and the entire building had basically been burned to the ground. The neighboring buildings had also been affected, and more than half of them had also been destroyed by the fire.

The fire had long been put out by the firefighters. The surrounding buildings had a dusty feeling from the smoke, and the nearby streets were full of flowing sewage.

Yu Tian did not believe that this was a natural fire. There were so many people living in the hotel, and there were people living in every room. How could they not have noticed the fire when it happened.

Moreover, the hotel must have had fire equipment. With so many people present, it was not difficult to put out the fire. It was not necessary to let the fire burn like this.

This was definitely arson, and it was definitely arson after the attack by the Kroni Society.

Considering that he was attacked, Yu Tian was absolutely sure that the Kroni society was the one who did the hotel thing.

To attack two locations at the same time, it must have mobilized at least a hundred people.

This was a big deal. The Kronen's counterattack was no weaker than the DONGLONG company's.

Perhaps they felt that the donglong company's actions in dusk city were too arrogant and domineering, the Kronen would also start to use such extreme violent means to counterattack, regardless of how bad the consequences would be in the city.

The conflict between the two sides seemed to be getting more and more intense.

Yu Tian did not care about facing more intense conflict and fighting. Right now, he only wanted to go over and check the situation in the ruins, but he knew that the police would definitely stop him outside.

It was impossible for him to run up to the police and say, "This is my territory. All of you, move aside and let me see what happened..."

The police would have detained him and asked him to assist in the investigation.

It was a joke, and Yu Tian was not in the mood for such a joke.

All he wanted to know was what was going on at the hotel, where the mouse squad and other operational units were.

He took Michelle and began to circle the streets around the hotel.

He wanted to see if the police had cordoned off other directions, if there was any other way to get into the ruins of the hotel.

Unfortunately, the police had set up a tight cordon, and there were also police at the back of the hotel. It was also impossible to get in through the back door. The firefighters had already evacuated and began to get into their cars to evacuate.

This meant that the fire had been completely extinguished and not a single spark was left.

The ambulances at the scene also began to evacuate, which meant that there were no living people in the hotel.

There were no bodies near the entrance of the hotel, but that did not mean that there were no bodies in the hotel.

The police usually did not begin to collect the bodies until they had finished investigating the scene.

Yu Tian looked at the roof, then looked at the surrounding buildings, and then sighed.

If he had followed the previous pattern of action, he would have found a quiet corner, jumped on the roof of the buildings next to him, and then followed the roof all the way to the hotel.

But now there were too many people around to watch the show, especially in the surrounding buildings. There were many people crowded in the upstairs windows to watch the show.

There were many buildings around, and some of the buildings were even higher than the hotels.

If Yu Tian jumped on the roof, even if he were to bend over and sneak on the roof, he would be easily discovered.

Then, he would be surrounded by people, and the video would be uploaded..

Being filmed and uploaded to a video was still a small matter. Yu Tian could even cover his face so that he would not expose too much of himself.

However, with so many people watching, there would definitely be some people who would watch the commotion. That would definitely attract the attention of the police.

Yu Tian police would not let him off. At the very least, they would catch him and ask him about his identity. They would ask him why he had sneaked into the fire scene.

Yu Tian did not want to cause any trouble for the time being, especially with the police.

Moreover, he had brought Michelle with him. He could not act alone without Michelle. That was equivalent to releasing Michelle.

It was inconvenient to bring along a burden. Yu Tian decided to get rid of Michelle first.

After looking around once more, Yu Tian was sure that he could not find any information here. He then brought Michelle and left in a hurry.

He had to find a place to lock Michelle up temporarily and have someone keep a close eye on him.

But now that he couldn't contact headquarters or his teammates, Yu Tian could only think of one person that he could trust.

Mina.

It wasn't that this old classmate was trustworthy, but Mina had no interest in this matter.

He could have handed Michelle to Barr and had Barr and blue underpants keep an eye on Michelle.

But Michelle had been the Big Boss Behind Blue Underpants, and now Blue Underpants had put him in their custody. It didn't make sense.

What if Michelle convinced Blue Underpants 'men to get away?

There would have to be a few people who cared about their old relationship?

Or maybe blue underpants just rebelled with Michelle?

It was troublesome just thinking about it.

Yu Tian took a taxi and arrived near Nicholas' apartment.

He didn't know where the red dragonfly's nest was, but he had seen Mina here last night. Mina had also said that this was the red dragonfly's territory.

So, he could just ask any passerby.

Yu Tian dragged Michelle and began to wander the streets.

It was not easy to find a random passerby. If he were to find a kindergarten child or a woman buying vegetables, there was an 80% chance that he would not know where the red dragonfly was.

Yu Tian felt that he should find some professional women or professional massage parlors.

After wandering the streets for a long time, Yu Tian did not see any massage parlors.

Perhaps it was because the massage parlors in wind country were different from those in China. They did not have the obvious characteristics of flashing red lights.

Of course, it was also because it was only noon and it was not their business time yet.

Thinking of this, Yu Tian suddenly felt a little hungry. He remembered that he had not even eaten breakfast before.

There was a fast food restaurant by the roadside. Yu Tian pulled Michelle and walked in.

They queued up and ordered food.

This was a western-style fast food restaurant. It sold some simple food such as bread, hamburgers and sandwiches. Business seemed to be good.

After waiting in line for half an hour, it was finally Yu Tian and Michelle's turn.

Yu Tian was not familiar with the food here, so he let Michelle order something that could be eaten immediately.

After a few minutes, a pile of paper bags appeared in their hands.

This restaurant did not even have a plate, but at least there was a dining table.

The dining table was smaller than a normal restaurant's dining table, and it was bigger than those foreign fast food tables in China.

Yu Tian was not picky. He found an empty seat and sat down. Then, he began to cook.

After waiting in line for so long, Yu Tian was already hungry.

He did not care whether the food was to his liking or not. He just opened the paper bag and stuffed it into his mouth.

As for the drinks, he did not care whether it was coffee or coke. He also gulped them down.

A fat young Caucasian man on the seat next to him laughed when he saw Yu Tian wolfing down the food.

"Ha, brother Dongfang, how long has it been since you've eaten? Which Country did you just escape from? Nothing seems to have happened to your Dongfang recently... "

Wind country was a famous refugee shelter. The locals had seen quite a number of refugees, but they had never seen a refugee from the east. This was a very strange thing.

Yu Tian glanced at the little fatty and found that this guy looked very funny.

Most Westerners liked to call yellow people eastern men. This was more or less a form of discrimination.

Whether it was white or black men, they were proud of discriminating against eastern people.

Most people were the same.

This was the first time Yu Tian had heard someone call him eastern brother in wind country.

Yu Tian naturally did not dislike this kind of “Friendly person”.

He immediately replied, “Brother, do you know where I can find a professional woman?”

“Huh? “The little fatty almost choked to death on his hamburger.

He hammered his chest hard twice, then stared at Yu Tian with a resentful gaze and said, “This question of yours is too sudden. I thought we would talk about refugees or things in the east...”

“Refugees also need professional women to appease them. Can’t you see that I’m very horny now? Let’s talk about the professional women here. Do you know where they do business?”

Yu Tian talked nonsense as he ate.

He just asked casually and didn’t expect to get an answer.

Because this little fatty seemed to be harmless. Perhaps he didn’t know anything about gangs or flesh businesses.

However, the little fatty did not casually answer his questions. Instead, he wiped his mouth, he enthusiastically introduced, “Professional women... There are quite a lot of them in our neighborhood. I just know a very good place. The Price is fair and the service is considerate...”

“Where is it?”

“It’s just behind this street. It takes a few minutes to walk... if you think it’s far, you can call them. They are very willing to deliver goods to your door, but you have to add some shipping fees...”

The little fatty seemed to be very interested in this topic as well. He even began to introduce some special services to Yu Tian in detail, as well as some excellent service providers.

Yu Tian finished the food in his hands in a few bites and casually wiped his hands with the packaging, then, he said to the little fatty, “Cut the crap. There’s an old saying in the east, C it’s better to see it than to hear it. ‘Don’t introduce it to me. Take me there to have a look... I’ll treat you to a free prostitute.

“AH? Free prostitute? Oh no no no... I don't need this. I'm not interested in this kind of thing. Pm a pure virgin. I'm still an otaku...

The little fatty quickly waved his hand to reject Yu Tian's good intentions.

Yu Tian was suddenly baffled. “You're an otaku? Virgin? Are you kidding me?”

Why does an otaku know so much about this kind of thing?”

“Why not? This is the specialty of our neighborhood. I think it's necessary to recommend them to our friends from outside. This is also for the prosperity of our neighborhood...”

The little fatty explained confidently..

Yu Tian was not interested in arguing with the little fatty about how pure he was, nor was he interested in listening to the little fatty's explanation.

He immediately changed the topic and said, “Alright, I believe you. Then can I trouble you to bring me to see the Special Services of Your District and let me contribute to the development of Your District?”

The little fatty immediately beamed with joy. “Of course, Brother Dongfang... I know you're not familiar with the streets here. No problem, I'll bring you there personally!

“Then what are you waiting for? Hunger and thirst are always the most urgent problems. I Can 't wait any longer.”

“Alright, I'll bring you there immediately.

The little fatty stood up and carefully wrapped up the sandwich that he had not finished eating. He held the wrapped paper bag in his hand.

“Let's go.”

The little fatty carried his lunch and picked up the large Coke Cup. He was the first to walk out of the fast food restaurant.

Yu Tian did not have time to continue eating and drinking. He pulled Michelle along and followed him out.

The three of them walked along the street for some distance before turning into an alley.

After passing through two more alleys, they arrived at a somewhat quiet street.

Not long after, the little fatty brought everyone to the entrance of a small hotel.

Yu Tian looked at the signboard of this small hotel and was at a loss for words.

Red Dragonfly Hotel.

Needless to say, this was definitely the property of the red dragonfly.

Mina had previously said that this street was the territory of the red dragonfly.

Even the dumbest person would not randomly use the name red dragonfly in this street.

If he had known that red dragonfly had such a high -profile business, Yu Tian would have directly called a taxi to find them. He would not have bothered to ask around.

The little fatty took the lead and walked into the Red Dragonfly Hotel with familiarity.

There was a service desk in the hotel lobby as usual, and two young men sat at the service desk.

“Hey! Philip, Pierre, are you guys okay?”

The fat boy greeted the young men at the service desk warmly, as if they were very familiar with each other.

“Oh, Danny...”

The two young men also responded to the fat boy, Danny. They were neither warm nor cold.

Danny did not mind their attitude. He leaned on the service desk cheerfully, he continued, (“I brought two guests for you. They are from a foreign country, and this is their first time in our They said that they are very thirsty...”

Yu Tian did not let Danny Nag anymore. He directly walked up and asked the two young men at the service desk, “Is this the red dragonfly?”

The two young men glanced at Yu Tian. “Of course. Isn’t there a signboard outside the Red Dragonfly Hotel?”

Yu Tian helplessly reorganized his words. “I mean... are you people from the Red Dragonfly?”

The expressions of the two young men immediately became serious. They looked at Yu Tian very seriously and then said, “Who are you? Why are you looking for the Red Dragonfly?”

“So, you guys are from the red dragonfly.

From the attitude of the two young men, Yu Tian had already gotten the answer. He heaved a sigh of relief and then said, “I’m looking for Mina.”

“You’re looking for Mina?”

“You’re looking for Mina?”

The two young men at the service desk weren’t the only ones who were asking questions. Danny, who was standing next to Yu Tian, was also asking questions.

The two young men only sounded a little confused, but Danny’s tone contained even more surprise.

However, Danny soon seemed to have understood something. “Oh, yes, you’re also an Easterner. You should know Mina...”

Obviously, Danny also knew Mina. At least he knew that Mina was an easterner.

Yu Tian shrugged. “That’s right. I am Mina’s friend. If you can contact Mina, please help me inform her immediately. I have something very important to ask her.

“Let me help you contact her.

Danny volunteered to accept the mission and then excitedly took out his cell phone.

Yu Tian was a little surprised. If he had known that this fatty knew Mina and had her phone number, he wouldn’t have gone through so much trouble.

The call was quickly picked up. Danny said excitedly, “Mina, I’m your good friend Danny! Are you okay? is your dog okay...”

As Danny spoke, he shook his head rhythmically as if he was very excited.

Yu Tian saw his expression and immediately understood. This kid was probably a admirer of Mina, or a secret admirer?

No wonder an otaku like him was so interested in the red dragonfly. He must have done a lot of research and understanding on Mina, and he was well-prepared for his homework.

“Oh, Mina, it’s like this. You have an oriental friend who came all the way from the east to our neighborhood. I just met him in a fast food restaurant, and we had a very pleasant conversation. Oh, he also ate an extra-large hamburger. He only used three mouthfuls...”

Danny was still nagging, but Yu Tian reached out and snatched his phone.

Danny seemed to have not reacted. He continued to mumble, “Wow, your oriental friend has a great appetite...”

Yu Tian turned his head helplessly and put the phone to his ear. “Mina, it’s me, Yu Tian...”

“Yu Tian? Why are you...”

It was indeed Mina’s voice on the other end of the phone.

Yu Tian did not explain and said, “I’m at the Red Dragonfly Hotel now. Where are you? I have something to ask you for help. ”

“The Red Dragonfly Hotel... Alright, wait for me. I’ll be there right away. Mina hurriedly hung up the phone. Yu Tian returned the phone to the dazed Danny.

“Did you hang up? Oh, I wanted to ask her when she’s free...”

Danny came back to his senses and felt a little regretful.

Yu Tian shrugged. “She’ll be here soon. You can ask her slowly then.”

There was a sofa in the hotel lobby. Yu Tian casually found a seat and sat down, quietly waiting for Mina’s arrival.

Michelle also sat on the sofa next to him, wondering why Yu Tian was looking for the red dragonfly.

Because of his work, Michelle was quite familiar with the underworld in the mini-bull market, but he did not know much about the red dragonfly.

He had never paid much attention to small gangs that had been entrenched in a territory for many years but still could not develop.

His attention was either on the big gangs in the mini-bull market or on those street thugs with potential.

Moreover, he was only the big shot behind the scenes. He did not have to be responsible for the specific matters of the development of the gangs, so he did not have the opportunity to understand the other small gangs.

Danny still could not stay idle. He continued to lean on the service desk and chat with the two young men.

But the two young men were not in the mood to chat, there is a sentence without a sentence of perfunctory..

Chapter 1232: Chapter 1,231. It was not a big deal

After waiting for about ten minutes, Mina finally appeared at the entrance of the hotel with her people.

“Yu Tian.”

Mina

Yu Tian was slightly stunned. He saw that Mina was wearing a very formal black suit, including her entourage.

This was usually a dress for a funeral, and there were no colorful decorations on the dress.

Yu Tian could not help but ask, “What happened to your outfit?”

Mina smiled bitterly. “It’s not a big deal. It’s just that... one of my brothers was killed. ”

“Brother?”

“One of my stepfather’s sons... ”Mina sighed. “Let’s not talk about this. Why did you come to me?”

“It’s not a big deal. I just wanted you to help me imprison someone... but now it seems that you’re in a lot of trouble yourself.

“Yes, I did run into some trouble here, and I wanted to ask you about it... take care of your business first. Who are you going to imprison?”

“It’s the guy next to me. I need him to stay in a safe and hidden place and cut off all contact with the outside world.

Yu Tian turned around and looked at Michelle.

Michelle smiled bitterly. He could roughly understand a few sentences of oriental language and basically understood what Yu Tian meant.

Fortunately, it was just a simple imprisonment. It was better than being chased and scared outside.

Mina glanced at Michelle.

She did not know the boss behind the blue underpants, so she said calmly, “This is simple. I will arrange the place and the guards... Should we send him away now?”

“There’s no rush. Let’s Find a quiet place to talk first... Get Someone to buy me a phone. My phone was broken just now.

“Okay. ”

Mina replied crisply and immediately arranged for her attendant to buy a phone.

Then, she said to Yu Tian, “Let’s find a room here to talk?”

“Okay.

Yu Tian gestured to Michelle, and then said to Danny, “Thank you, Danny. If you didn’t show me the way, I would have wasted a lot of time to find my friend.

Danny said happily, “You’re welcome, My Oriental Brother. It’s my honor to be able to help Mina’s friend...

“Then, Danny, Mina and I still have some important things to discuss, so Pll have to excuse you for now... I’ll definitely treat you to a free prostitute later.

“Free prostitute? Oh no no no... I’ve already rejected you just now. I’m not a free prostitute, Mina knows my character...”

Danny hurriedly waved his hand. He knew that a free prostitute was a very immoral behavior in the eyes of Oriental women, and he did not want Mina to misunderstand him.

Mina sighed and said to Danny, "Okay Danny, I believe you won't treat me like a free prostitute. Thank you for bringing my friend here, but I have some important business with my friend right now... you should go back first."

It was said that men were ruthless, but in fact, men who women were not interested in themselves were even more so.

Otherwise, they would not be able to lick house and would eventually lose everything.

In Mina's eyes, Danny was a completely worthless suitor, not even a spare tire.

If it were not for her good manners, Mina would not even bother to talk to Danny.

Although Danny had helped Yu Tian a little, now was the time to send him away.

Danny was indeed a qualified licking dog. Facing Mina's arrangements and requirements, he had no complaints.

He was still full of smiles. "Okay, Mina. I know that you must have important gang affairs to deal with. Then I'll go back first. If you need help, please let me know at any time..."

"Okay, thank you, Danny."

Mina did not mind using a few cheap polite words to win his heart. She even gave Danny a sweet smile.

Then, Mina nodded to Yu Tian. "Follow me. "

There was a side door at the back of the elevator in the lobby. Mina led Yu Tian and the others to the side door.

Behind the side door was a corridor. There were rooms on both sides of the corridor.

However, the rooms on the first floor were not guest rooms. Instead, they were staff rest rooms and utility rooms.

There was a stairwell at the end of the corridor, which could be considered a fire escape.

Next to it was the back door of the hotel, which led to the alley at the back.

There was a room next to the stairwell. Mina opened the door and led Yu Tian and the others into the room.

The room was decorated like a small living room, but there were still a lot of things piled up in the corner, such as hotel supplies.

The others were left outside the room. Only Yu Tian brought Michelle, and Mina brought a female assistant into the room.

“Tell me about your situation. What happened to Red Dragonfly?”

Yu Tian had plans to recruit Mina into the East Dragon Company’s organization, so he obviously couldn’t let any accidents or dangers happen to her now.

Moreover, red dragonfly was also considered Mina’s team. With its own team, it would be much more convenient to do anything in the future.

Of course, Yu Tian would not let the red dragonfly suffer any major losses.

Mina stroked the hair beside her ear and said slowly, “Actually, nothing major happened. It’s just that one of my brothers was killed...”

“Alright, your brother was killed. It’s not a big deal. ”

Yu Tian shrugged helplessly. He could tell that Mina did not have any feelings for her brothers.

He did not ask any more questions about Mina’s brothers and said directly,

“Then tell me what kind of trouble you have encountered?”

“About this matter... let’s start with the situation of our red dragonfly.

“Our red dragonfly is a small gang. We haven’t developed much over the years, and our territory has always been stuck in such a small neighborhood.

“Because there are still a few small gangs in our neighborhood, and their strength isn’t too different from each other, we don’t have the ability to swallow each other

“Moreover, not only can we not fight each other, but we also have to cooperate in order to avoid being swallowed by those big gangs

“Actually, this mode of cooperation has been going on for many years

“Small gangs like us all have different ways of making a living, so we can all do business in each other’s territory as long as we don’t get involved in each other’s main business.”

“This is a very good cooperation rule. It can allow everyone to develop better, but it won’t harm each other’s interests.

“When small gangs like us join forces, we have a certain degree of self-protection ability. We can stop other gang forces from going outside and protect our land...”

Mina’s expression was serious as she said, “That’s why we have a very important agreement between us. That is to jointly stop foreign forces from developing in our territory..”

Chapter 1233: Chapter 1,232, the crisis of the red dragonfly

Translator: 549690339

(‘This is a very important agreement. It can guarantee our status and interests in these streets, and ensure the long-term survival of Our Gang.”

Mina said seriously, “Even if it’s some street thugs, we won’t leave them any room for survival and development. Any small force that wants to appear in our territory will be strangled to death by us in the Cradle. ”

Yu Tian nodded silently, “So, there’s a problem with this agreement?”

Mina said, “Yes, there’s a small gang called big wave that deals in the small pill business. Their business has never been big, and they haven’t had much manpower. But recently, they seem to have suddenly gained a lot of manpower, and there are also a lot of black men...”

“It should be normal for them to expand their manpower, right?”

“No, this is very abnormal for us. “It’s actually very difficult for us to expand our manpower, because the income of our districts is very limited, and we can’t support more people. “It’s basically impossible for us small gangs to expand our manpower in large numbers...”

“So you think that there’s an external force that used the name of this small gang to enter?”

“That’s right. At first, we thought that the big wave had recruited some refugees, but soon, someone recognized some of the black gang members...

they’re from Ice City Hell.”

“Ice City Hell?”

“Yes, Ice City Hell, a big gang with the same strength as blue underpants...” Mina’s expression was grave.

Although in the eyes of Yu Tian and the East Dragon Company, these gangs were like ants.

But in the eyes of Mina and the other small figures, large gangs could be called a nightmare.

For the forces of Ice City Hell to enter their territory, this was definitely a great threat and challenge.

In the past few years, the reason why Ice City Hell did not attack these small gangs was mainly because they were worried that the losses from the gang war would be too great, causing them to lose their strength in the competition with other big gangs.

It could be said that the coexistence and mutual restriction of the big gangs also left some room for the small gangs to survive.

However, this peaceful state was only an illusion. It was only equivalent to giving alms.

When the hell of ice city really wanted to attack them, even if these small gangs were all united, they might not have the ability to fight against them.

Especially when there were traitors and spies among them, there was even less hope of fighting against the hell of Ice City.

The situation that Mina and the others were facing now was that big wave, this small gang, was taking the initiative to lure the wolf into the house. This was definitely a very fatal thing.

This was because these small gangs had been working together for many years. They did not know each other well, but at the very least, they were very familiar with each other's situation.

If big wave really wanted to cooperate with ice city hell to attack other gangs, then he would be a very excellent and qualified guide.

Ice City Hell could completely attack suddenly and wipe out the headquarters of these small gangs in a short period of time.

This was a very dangerous situation.

Mina said worriedly, "The reason why they did not directly attack small gangs like us is that they need an excuse, an excuse to explain to the authorities and other organizations..."

"An Tian was puzzled. "Is this thing very important?"

“Of course it’s important. Unless you’re a criminal gang that’s running around committing crimes, you might be able to commit all kinds of violent crimes without any scruples. “But if you want to survive and develop in calf city for a long time, you have to abide by the unspoken rules of the underground world. “Otherwise, whether it’s the government or the underworld, they will do their best to encircle and suppress you...”

The underworld also had rules, especially in a city where social order was very stable. Every gang would abide by the same rules of the game and maintain the stability of the entire city.

If there were no rules of the game, then these big gangs would fight together and use guns and explosives unscrupulously, turning the city into a battlefield.

Small gangs also had their own fighting strength. Although they were weak, they could still organize their own fighting teams and enter guerrilla warfare mode.

If they couldn’t defend their own territory, they would break all the rules. with the principle of “Everyone stop playing” , they would wreak havoc in the territories and places of other gangs.

For example, they would run into casinos to rob, entertainment venues to throw bombs, financial companies to prevent fire..

An underground world without order was absolutely not allowed to exist by the authorities.

With order, everyone could make money and enjoy themselves.

Therefore, even if ice city hell had the power and ideas to annex these small gangs, they still needed to find an excuse, an excuse to start a gang war.

“That brother of mine should be the breakthrough point they chose.

Mina sighed. “That brother of mine had some disputes with big wave before. That was during the meeting of the leaders of the local gangs. He and the other gang leaders questioned big wave about why he joined forces with Ice City and Hell to betray the interests of this region...”

“When did that happen?” “A few days ago.”

“Nothing happened at that time?”

“No, no matter how much they argued during the meeting, they were not allowed to fight. This is the rule...”

“And then?”

“Yesterday, he was suddenly killed by someone. When he was found, he was already dead on his bed in his apartment.

“What about the murderer?”

“I don’t know who it was, but someone saw the black gang appear nearby. “Mina said with certainty, “This was done by big wave. Or rather, this was done by the hell of Ice City.”

This kind of thing basically didn’t need evidence. It was enough to have suspicions.

Yu Tian rubbed his head. “Then. what is their DurDose for doing this? Your Brother’s death doesn’t seem to give them any excuses, right?”

Mina said, “I don’t know what their purpose is either, but there must be a conspiracy behind this. “Our neighborhood has been peaceful for many years, and even ordinary murders rarely appear. “Now, my brother was suddenly killed... This is a sign that the ice city hell is about to invade.

Yu Tian pondered for a moment and asked, “What did the rest of you red dragonflies say?”

Mina smiled helplessly. “What else can those trash say... the one who died was my stepfather’s eldest son. The remaining youngest son and daughter couldn’t come up with any ideas other than clamoring for revenge.

“Who do they want to take revenge on? Have they found the murderer?”

“No, but they all think it was big waves...”mina spread her hands helplessly. “But without evidence, we can’t act brazenly, we can only....

Chapter 1234: Chapter 1,233, traitor

Mina hesitated for a moment, then lowered her voice and said to Yu Tian, “They plan to assassinate the big waves.

“Assassinate... ”

Yu Tian sighed. It seemed like the mini-bull market was in chaos. Assassinations seemed to be done without anyone noticing, leaving no evidence behind.

However, the parties involved must have known what was going on. They did not care about the evidence, only thinking about how to fight back.

Thus, assassinations would come, assassinations would go, and in the end, it would become a fight on the surface.

The conflict between the East Dragon Company and the Kronin Society was already hot enough. With a group of gangs fighting, the mini bull market might soon enter a state of lockdown like dusk city.

Mina said worriedly, "They originally planned to hire professional killers to do this, but... They weren't willing to fork out the money, so in the end, they decided to hand this task over to the people in the association..."

Yu Tian smiled and said, "Isn't that equivalent to a clear kill?"

Mina sighed and said, "Yes, that's why I'm very opposed to this plan. This will only make the situation more chaotic and let the Ice City Hell find an excuse to intervene... but I don't know what to do now. We can't do nothing."

After saying that, Mina looked at Yu Tian with anticipation. She hoped that Yu Tian could find a way to resolve these matters.

If Yu Tian was really like what he said, the Big Boss Behind Blue Underpants.

Yu Tian scratched his head, "I'm not very familiar with the way you gangsters fight, and I have something very important to do right now... Michelle."

Michelle sat on the sofa at the side in a daze for a long time. When she heard Yu Tian call his name, she immediately sat up straight. "Please tell me what to do, sir."

Yu Tian sighed softly. "Call the people from blue underpants over. I want to meet them here."

Michelle replied hurriedly, "Yes sir... is it all of them?"

"What do you think? How many more people do you think can sit in this room"

Yu Tian glared at Michelle.

Michelle quivered and quickly said, "I understand. I'll call their leaders over right now... Miss Mina, please give me a phone that can access the Internet."

Michelle's phone had also been scrapped. However, due to work, he had also backed up a lot of relevant information on the internet, including the information and contact information of the main characters of blue underpants.

Mina did not hesitate to hand her phone to Michelle. As soon as she heard the words "Blue Underpants, she knew that things had turned for the better."

Michelle found the phone information on the internet and immediately began to make calls.

He contacted several high-level leaders of blue underpants, including Barr, and gave them the address of the Red Dragonfly Hotel, telling them to gather quickly.

Although it was strange to gather in someone else's territory, the leaders of blue underpants did not question Michelle's orders.

Other than Barr, he was very curious as to why Michelle, the traitor, still dared to give him orders.

However, after Yu Tian spoke from the side, Barr quickly followed the order and rushed to the Red Dragonfly Hotel.

It would take some time for everyone to arrive, so Yu Tian was free for the time being.

He began to think about how to establish contact with the headquarters.

He did not remember any of the phone numbers, so the only way to contact the headquarters was through the Internet.

He picked up Mina's phone and logged into his social media account. He did not use many of these social media apps because he did not usually use them.

Therefore, he didn't have many friends in his social media app, including Liang Zhu and the mouse team.

However, because he had exchanged some emails with No. 76, he saved his email address.

So, he immediately sent an email to No. 76.

This was the only way he could think of to establish contact with headquarters. Fortunately, No. 76 seemed to have been waiting for him to contact him. Soon, he replied to his email and sent him a bunch of social media accounts and phone numbers.

No. 76 complained in the email that he was too unreliable and didn't leave anyone any contact information other than his phone number.

Yu Tian sighed and then greeted Mina. He walked to the room next door and avoided Mina and the others before dialing No. 76's phone number. "Yes." Piggy Liang's voice immediately sounded on the phone.

"How are you?"

“I’m fine... I was ambushed by dozens of genetic warriors. They were all very powerful fellows. I only managed to kill two of them before I had no choice but to run away.”

“It’s good that you managed to escape. I knew you would be fine.

“The hotel was also attacked. That place has already been sealed off by the police. Have the others contacted the headquarters?”

“No, I was going to inform them to support you, but I haven’t been able to contact them... now I don’t know their situation. ‘h “But don ‘t worry, I’ve sent people to the mini bull market. I Won’t let you fight alone.”

“That’s not important. I don’t care if I’m fighting alone... Have you located the mouse team?”

“I’ve already tried to locate them. Their cell phones and other communication devices have lost their signal. It could be damaged, or it could be blocked by some means. In short, their current situation is definitely not good... ”

Brother pig sighed.

All the devices had no signal. This was definitely bad news.

In this situation, either everyone had died in battle and all the equipment had been destroyed.

Or everyone had been captured and the equipment had also been destroyed. Or, they had been centralized and managed by someone and had been blocked.

In short, the situation of the mouse squad and the other operation branches was definitely not good.

Yu Tian was silent for a moment, then, he said to brother Pig Liang, “Continue to search for their tracks. I am now dealing with some other matters. If you have any information, immediately inform me. You must remember that as an operation member, I am definitely the strongest.”

“Alright, I got it... In addition, I have to remind you. According to the current situation, that person called the executioner is very suspicious. I think that he might be the one who leaked your whereabouts.

Piggy Liang analyzed very carefully, “The Kronin society should have gathered the operation team long ago, and they have already rushed to the territory of wind country. “However, they didn ‘t have time to catch up with you in dusk city, so when you arrived at the mini bull market, they immediately followed you...

Yu Tian sighed. "That's right. If it wasn't for the mole, they wouldn't have arrived so quickly and even found the hotel where we gathered so accurately..

Chapter 1235: Chapter 1234, thinking about new weapons

Piggy Liang continued, "More importantly, they also accurately attacked you. "How long have you been at the beach? They caught up in time and immediately surrounded and attacked you... this is a real-time grasp of your whereabouts. (I think the executioner has already guessed your identity, which is why they used such a large force to launch a sneak attack on you.

"It doesn't matter. So what if I let them Tian shrugged. "If I were to act alone, I wouldn't care about their ambush.

"No matter what, you should be more careful. They might already be very familiar with your combat style. If they are prepared to target you, you will at least suffer a little. "

"They are already targeting me. Those genetic warriors...

Yu Tian suddenly realized that these genetic warriors were truly a problem that targeted him.

His flying needles were basically ineffective against genetic warriors, unless they hit a vital organ like the eye, directly destroying the brain.

However, the genetic warriors were all wearing bulletproof vests and helmets. This made his flying needles feel as though they had nowhere to attack.

Twisting one's neck was a good method to deal with bulletproof vests. However, among these genetic warriors, there was actually a portion of experts.

This was somewhat troublesome.

More ants could kill an elephant. If Yu Tian were to be entangled by these genetic warriors who did not care about their lives, he might be in danger.

If these guys were to tie bombs to their bodies, there would definitely be a chance for them to embrace him and explode.

The neck-twisting technique was too time-consuming. To break a neck, it would take about one second to get close to the enemy.

If those genetic warriors were to tie a bomb to their bodies, one second would be enough for them to detonate the bomb in time and perish together with Yu Tian.

Yu Tian had a headache.

He had to have a more powerful and faster method to destroy the enemy.

The six meridians divine sword was not bad, but it consumed too much of his true qi and could not last long in a battle.

Moreover, his internal energy was still a little chaotic. It was better when he controlled it carefully, but in a battle, he could not concentrate on controlling his internal energy and then use something like the six meridians divine sword, it was very likely that he would go mad.

He did not want to achieve such a high-level achievement.

Therefore, it was best if he had some weapons, some weapons that could easily destroy the bulletproof vest.

For example, a peerless sword, a divine weapon, and so on.

But these were only things in legends. It was very difficult to find cold weapons that could destroy the bulletproof vest in the real world.

It was not that the bulletproof vest could not be destroyed. There were many weapons that could easily destroy the bulletproof vest, such as anti-material rifles.

However, those bullets were all disposable items. After piercing through the bulletproof vests, the bullets would usually be deformed or burst.

Cold weapons could not become such disposable items. After one slash, the entire knife would be scrapped and thrown away, right?

It was more troublesome to find weapons. Yu Tian could only temporarily throw it aside.

After ending the call with Piggy Liang, he still had to deal with the red dragonfly in front of him.

An hour later, the big bosses of the Blue Underpants finally arrived.

When the big bosses went out, they naturally had to bring a group of five or six people along with a large number of bodyguards and underlings.

Especially when they went to other people's territory, they had to pay even more attention to their own safety.

They could not rely on their own power to not put those small gangs in their eyes.

One had to know that many big bosses in the martial arts world had fallen into the hands of some small gang's small figures, becoming the stepping stone for others to make a name for themselves.

Therefore, on this afternoon, the Red Dragonfly Hotel was packed with people. There were forty to fifty people gathered inside and outside the door. All of them were fierce-looking gangsters.

Such a big lineup would easily scare the children. The Big Shots in blue underpants also found it too eye-catching, so they chased most of their underlings back into the car, only a dozen bodyguards were left in the corridor behind the Red Dragonfly Hotel.

There were only six leaders in the room, including Barr, and the nominal boss of blue underpants, Baptiste.

Mina had already let her female assistant leave the room, and now the rest of the people in the room were all important figures in her mind.

Baptiste and the others were a little strange. They did not know why Michelle had summoned them here, and there were two oriental men in the room.

Only Barr knew clearly that it was time for Michelle to show her cards.

He slightly bowed to Yu Tian and then sat on the sofa next to him, quietly waiting for a good show to start.

Baptiste noticed Barr's small action and immediately started to Grumble in his heart.

But he didn't say anything and just sat down opposite Michelle.

Michelle waited for everyone to sit down before she slowly stood up. With a serious expression, she said to everyone, "I've called everyone here today to introduce a very important person to everyone... Mr. Dongfang Bubai!

This name made Mina burst into laughter.

Although she had left Dongfang when she was very young, she had heard of such a classic movie character.

However, Blue Underpants and the others did not understand the joke of Yu Tian. They still sat up straight with a serious look on their faces.

Michelle nodded slightly. He was very satisfied with the calm behavior of these big shots.

Before he could finish his words, any sudden movements and whispers would cause him to lose points in his heart. After that, he would send those unstable guys to carry bricks.

Unfortunately, these operations with power in his hands had nothing to do with him anymore.

It was already a very good result for him to be assigned to be a handyman.

It was impossible for him to even think about ordering these gang bosses around.

Any one of the gang bosses' subordinates had the guts to beat him up until he was looking for teeth on the ground.

Michelle sighed in her heart, she braced herself and continued, "Everyone should have been guessing whether there 's a secret organization behind me. Everything Pve done for Blue Underpants was done by this secret organization..."

After a pause, michelle strengthened her tone and said, "That's right! I can tell you this answer today. Your guess is right! "Behind me, there is indeed a very powerful world-wide secret organization. "And I am just... a small branch head in this organization. "

"Perhaps in your eyes, a branch head like me is already a big figure. But in the organization, there are thousands of branch heads like me... "

"The strength of the organization is beyond your imagination."

"This Mr. Dongfang Bubai is the person in charge sent by the organization. He will take over my work and lead you

Chapter 1236: Chapter 1,235, the deterrence of sword aura

After saying what he needed to say, Michelle sat down on the sofa.

Blue underpants would no longer have anything to do with him. He was a little disheartened and did not care about the reaction of these gang leaders.

The room was silent for a moment because Michelle's words were really shocking.

Not only Mina was sherpants were also shocked.

They felt that Michelle's words were a little too exaggerated, and that she was bragging too much about the strength of her organization.

The Big Shot Behind Blue Underpants was already considered a big shot, but Michelle said that a branch manager like him had thousands of people in the organization.

So how powerful was the secret organization behind him?

Was it going to rule the world?

In fact, this number was not exaggerated.

The donglong company was divided into eight regions, and each region included a number of countries.

Each country had a few big cities that were worth investing a lot of manpower and material resources to develop, including the capital and some important provincial capitals.

In this way, each major region would have at least a dozen or so major cities, and the total number of major cities in the world would be over a hundred.

These major cities would have at least a dozen branches, and some of them even had dozens of branches.

In addition to the branches of some small cities..

It was not an exaggeration to say that the East Dragon Company had a total of a few thousand branches.

“Cough cough...”

Yu Tian lightly coughed twice, causing everyone to come back to their senses.

Then.., he said unhurriedly, “Everyone will slowly understand the matters of the organization in the future. Because the organization is undergoing reform, there will be a lot of changes in the structure in the future. You may have the opportunity to learn more about the organization. “But in front of us, we will not discuss these issues. I need all of you to cooperate with my work now...”

“I object!

Someone suddenly interrupted Yu Tian.

Yu Tian glanced at this person. This was a burly man with a valiant aura. One look and one could tell that he was a professional fighter who liked to fight and was ruthless.

For such a person to be able to climb to a high position, he must have relied on his own strength and made some contributions.

Yu Tian said calmly, "What do you object to?"

The Big Man sat on the sofa and did not move, he said loudly, "I object to you taking over our blue underpants! Our Western world is a free and democratic world. What we need is a manager who shares our values, not an oriental! If Mr. Michelle is going to leave, we hope that the organization can assign us a suitable leader. There seems to be a lot of big shots in the mini-bull market who are part of the organization, right? Why Can't we find a big shot in the mini-bull market to lead us? Why should we send a Westerner, who we have never seen before, to be our leader? I strongly object..."

The Big Man was spouting off one of his articles, and Baptiste took the opportunity to sneak a glance at Barr.

Barr's face was filled with a smile of pity.

He had witnessed Yu Tian's powerful combat strength. When Yu Tian had captured Michelle, he had personally seen Yu Tian jump from the cliff onto Michelle's speedboat. That speedboat had not even swayed once.

Such strength was not something that a human should have.

He dared to provoke Yu Tian? He was courting death.

Putting aside Yu Tian's own strength, just Emily's submissive attitude towards Yu Tian was enough to prove how powerful the operational force that Yu Tian could mobilize was.

Barr was not stupid enough to oppose Yu Tian.

Baptiste saw Barr's expression, he immediately said, "I follow Mr. Michelle's wishes and support the decision of the organization. Blue underpants was originally able to develop to this extent through the power of the organization... so, I will obey all the decisions of the organization." Barr cursed in his heart, Old Fox.

The other big shots in the room immediately looked at each other.

In fact, they didn't really like being told what to do by the Orientals, but Baptiste's attitude made them somewhat hesitant.

Could it be that this old Fox had already heard about it?

Was that why he immediately expressed his attitude in front of such an important decision?

The big shots kept quiet as they watched the burly man talk non-stop.

This burly man was the leader of the combat operations in blue underpants. He had the most underlings, and his combat strength was also the strongest.

In addition, he was also relatively good at fighting. He could even exchange a few moves with professional fighters in the ring.

It was very suitable for such a person to step forward and provoke.

Everyone was waiting to see Yu Tian's reaction.

Yu Tian sneered and turned back to look at Michelle. "Is this the kind of thing that you have nurtured?"

Michelle wiped the cold sweat from her heart and said with a bitter smile, "This is the old man in blue underpants. He is also very famous in the mini bull market. Everyone calls him..."

Just as Michelle was about to introduce Yu Tian, Yu Tian waved his right hand gently.

This action made Michelle shut her mouth immediately. He thought that this action meant to shut him up.

But he guessed wrong.

An invisible sword aura suddenly shot out from Yu Tian's finger.

This was Yu Tian's biggest killer move, Shang Yang Sword.

As Yu Tian lightly waved his arm upwards, the sword Qi at the tip of his finger also swept upwards from below.

The burly man was still making his speech, and the sword Qi swept straight from his crotch to the top of his head, without any hindrance or delay.

In the blink of an eye, the burly man was cut into two halves by the Sword Qi, and it was the most miserable left and right halves.

All the flesh and organs spilled out with a splash. Along with the sofa that was split into two halves, they fell all over the floor.

There was a moment of silence in the room, and Mina immediately vomited. The Big Shots in the blue underpants were not any better. Their expressions were as if they had eaten shit.

Although they had seen a lot of blood, they had never seen a person cut into two halves like that.

The reason why they could not vomit was not because they were mentally strong, but because they were so shocked that they forgot to vomit.

Sword Aura?

This was something that only appeared in movies, but now it appeared in Yu Tian's hands. This simply made them feel terrified.

The mysterious ancient martial arts in the east was actually so powerful? So powerful that it went against the common sense of physics?

Everyone's back was covered in cold sweat.

What kind of organization was behind the Blue Underpants? How could there be such a terrifying human existence?

These so-called big shots of the gangs, the people who were famous in the mini-bull market, didn't even dare to fart in front of Yu Tian at this moment.

They even began to breathe carefully, afraid that Yu Tian would feel that their breathing was too loud and conveniently cut them off.

Everyone was silent for a long time, and Barr was the first to stand up..

Chapter 1237: Chapter 1,236, Applause

Barr's vest was already drenched, but he still pretended to be calm.

He said with a serious expression, "Mr. Dongfang Bubai is a high-ranking member of the organization. I've had the honor to meet Mr. Dongfang Bubai before, and I've also met the people in charge of the other branches of the organization. "Mr. Dongfang Bubai's position is far above Mr. Michelle's. It's our great honor for him to be able to take over our blue underpants..."

Everyone suddenly understood and cursed Barr in their hearts. Didn't you say so earlier, you son of a B * Tch? You're just waiting for something to happen to us, aren't you?

Barr continued, "As for this... this idiot, Mr. Dongfang Bubai doesn't even want to know his name. If he dares to disobey the orders of the organization, it's equivalent to treason. It's also reasonable to execute him..."

Everyone nodded repeatedly. Just now, before Michelle could say the name of this burly man, Yu Tian had already made his move.

This meant that Yu Tian did not care about knowing the name of this burly man. Executing him was like crushing an ant, without any psychological burden.

Barr continued, "Now that Mr. Dongfang has personally executed the traitor, I don't think anyone will have any objections to the organization's decision, right?"

"I firmly support all the decisions of the organization. "

Immediately, a big shot expressed his stance.

Then, the other two immediately echoed, "Everything that Blue Underpants has is given by the organization. The organization 's decision is the highest will of blue underpants! "

"I will absolutely obey Mr. Dongfang undefeatable's leadership. Mr. Dongfang Undefeatable's will is my mission. "

Batiste immediately concluded, "To be able to work under Mr. Undefeatable of the east is truly an honor for all of us. Everyone, please give a round of applause and welcome..."

Clapping sounds immediately rang out. Mina, who was watching from the side, was dumbfounded.

This was the highest level of leadership in blue underpants?

It seemed to be similar to an ordinary person. The level of flattery was just so-so.

Yu Tian waved his hand lightly. "Alright, let's cut the crap... Let's continue with the meeting. "

His wave of his hand made everyone's hair stand on end. It felt as if there was a sword aura on his fingertips.

However, Yu Tian requested for the meeting to continue, so everyone could only sit down in the room that was filled with the stench of blood and obediently listen to Yu Tian's lecture.

Yu Tian also felt that the room was quite smelly. It was just like killing a pig or a chicken. After being disemboweled, there would always be all kinds of stinky odors coming out.

This included blood, organs, undigested food in the body, and feces..

All kinds of odors were mixed together, and it was really smelly.

F * ck, I miscalculated. There wasn 't even an air conditioner in this broken room.

Yu Tian grumbled in his heart, but his expression remained cold.

“Let’s get down to business... to the organization, Blue Underpants is indeed a small and insignificant business, so I’m not interested in accepting management. ”

“How you operated before will continue to operate according to the original model for the time being. ”

“As for how the company will be reformed in the future, there will be someone else to guide and arrange it for you... I don’t care about that. ”

“The reason I called you all here today is that there is a small matter regarding the underworld that needs your attention. ”

“Miss Mina from red dragonfly is my good friend. She is currently facing some trouble that is related to the hell of Ice City. ”

“I originally planned to directly go over and kill all the people of the hell of the ice city... of course, I know that this is not feasible. ”

“Your Gang has its own rules and means of doing things. If I wantonly kill, it will definitely destroy the ecosystem of the entire mini bull market... ”

“I don’t want to flip the table for the time being, nor do I want to ruin everyone’s jobs. After all, Blue underpants can also provide some small profits for the headquarters. ”

“So, I’ll leave the trouble of the Red Dragonfly and the Ice City Hell to you... Now, let Miss Mina tell you the general situation. ”

After Yu Tian finished speaking, Mina finally stood up with a complicated expression.

Facing these big shots in blue underpants and Yu Tian, this unfathomable old classmate, Mina’s feelings were very complicated. She was nervous, pleasantly surprised, and terrified..

“Mina, just sit and talk.”

Yu Tian chuckled, he comforted mina, “Don’t feel any psychological pressure. These big shots in blue underpants are just ordinary people. Since our organization can support a blue underpants, we can naturally support a red dragonfly...”

Mina’s heart shook slightly, “You mean...”

Yu Tian said calmly, “I think that the red dragonfly can also grow into a large-scale gang. Of course, it has to be the red dragonfly that is led by you. All the leaders are your people. “Then... you should be my people.”

Mina hesitated for a moment and then said decisively, "I think this idea is very good. If it can grow to the level of blue underpants, I don't care about being a worker... such a worker is much better than an individual.

Yu Tian smiled and said, "You don't have to worry too much. Our organization is not an evil organization. The reason why we develop the gang's power is mainly to create an additional income for the organization. The organization doesn't have much interest in the management of your gang itself... you can completely become a vassal of a region without too many restrictions."

Mina let out a sigh of relief. "That's even more perfect... as the ancient saying goes, it's good to enjoy the shade under a big tree. It's definitely better to rely on a powerful organization like yours than to rely on a large gang."

Yu Tian said, "Yeah, it's also much freer... Let's talk about this matter slowly in the future. There will be people in the organization who are specifically responsible for the gang's affairs. "Now, I'll help you solve the problem in front of you first... Let Blue Underpants help you solve the problem in front of you. You can introduce the situation to them."

"Okay..."

Mina relaxed a little, then sat back on the sofa and began to explain her current situation to the big shots in blue underpants.

The red dragonfly was now facing a fundamental survival problem. If the Ice City Hell invaded these streets under their control, the red dragonfly would have no power to resist at all.

As for Mina's brother who was killed, it was really not a big deal.

Although this brother was the nominal boss of the red dragonfly, three of their siblings were still alive. Their control over the red dragonfly was not a problem, and it would not cause any chaos or division in the red dragonfly.

This was perhaps an advantage of the small gang. They really did not have the strength to fight among themselves.

Under the heavy pressure and threats from the outside, the small gang could only unite internally.

Or they could simply break up.

Although Mina did not like her two brothers and sisters, she did not have any intention of fighting with them. Now, they were still united against the outside world, only thinking about how to let the red dragonfly survive..

Chapter 1238: Chapter 1,237, trouble with the red dragonfly

Translator: 549690339

The red dragonfly wasn't very strong.

The Big Shots in blue underpants had brought 40 to 50 bodyguards with them today, and that was all the red dragonfly could do.

Of course, the red dragonfly had more than that, but the others could only be considered external members.

For example, those professional women, like the other men who provided services and support to the sex trade, like the two guys in the hotel service desk..

The peripheral members were the guys who relied on the red dragonfly's name to eat together.

They worked for the Red Dragonfly and received a salary.

If they performed well and were loyal, they could be absorbed into the core members of the red dragonfly.

But most of the peripheral members only treated this as a job. If the red dragonfly fought with other gangs, they would basically go into hiding.

After the fight was over, if the red dragonfly continued to exist, they would continue to work for the red dragonfly.

If the red dragonfly had become the dust of history, they would have to find a new boss.

These peripheral members could only run errands for the red dragonfly during normal times. When faced with a life-and-death situation, when they needed to fight desperately, the only people they could use were the core members.

The red dragonfly only had forty to fifty core members, which was quite a lot in the small gangs nearby.

This was mainly due to Mina's dead stepfather.

The Red Dragonfly's business had been relatively stable over the years. There hadn't been any internal trouble, and they hadn't offended any enemies on the outside.

core members the gang were basically old people. They were all old gangsters who had followed Mina's stepfather. It was unlikely that there would be any problems in terms of loyalty.

The problems they were facing now were all external problems the pressure from the ice city hell.

As for Mina's brother who had been killed... This issue came up again. This matter was really insignificant.

"This is clearly a conspiracy of the Ice City Hell.

Barr was the first to speak. "They assassinated your brother. No matter what your red dragonfly does next, one of the leaders of big wave will definitely be killed.

Mina was stunned. "Big wave... They killed their own people?"

('There's no such thing as their own people... "Barr sneered. Then, he realized that his attitude seemed to be a little disrespectful to Mina, so, he immediately said seriously, "If ice city hell really wants to annex your few blocks, big wave is just a chess piece that he uses."

The other big shots in blue underpants also echoed, "That's right, this is a very simple trick. They want to make these few blocks chaotic first, and then take the opportunity to step in. When the time comes, they can use any excuse to swallow your place. "

"Yeah, your red dragonfly's boss was killed, and then big wave's boss was also killed. This is the beginning of chaos. You will soon start a war, and no one can stop it.

"Ice City Hell and big wave won't just be a simple partnership. They will definitely have a mole in big wave, and when that time comes, they will definitely start a war between big wave and red dragonfly.

"The boss was killed, and the underlings want revenge. This is a very good excuse to start a war. But once the war starts, all the gangs in your few blocks might be involved..."

"This is inevitable. If I were from Ice City Hell, I would definitely create more chaos here. 'h "When the time comes, let the police arrest a group of them. Then, in the name of maintaining order and organizing negotiations, I will come to these blocks as a middleman..." "

"This is just the beginning. As long as people from Ice City Hell come in, they won't leave in the future. A middleman has to take some benefits. Otherwise, who would do such a stupid thing?"

“The middleman is still considered civilized. If he eats a little unsightly, he can directly become an emissary of justice and wipe out all the small gangs that are harming the city... that would be even more direct.”

“That’s right, I think this operation is very likely.”

The Big Shots in blue underpants expressed their opinions and chatted for a while. It was not until Yu Tian coughed twice that he finally shut his mouth.

Yu Tian waited for everyone to shut their mouths before saying, “You guys are talking too much... Let’s talk about how to deal with this situation.”

Everyone was silent for a while before ba ER spoke first.

“Actually, it’s not difficult to solve the red dragonfly’s problem. As long as we, the people of Blue Underpants, show up a few more times in the Red Dragonfly’s territory, or... we might as well appear in public together with Miss Mina and form an alliance publicly. Then, Ice City Hell will definitely not dare to attack the red dragonfly.”

Immediately, a big shot chimed in, “Ice City Hell’s strength is slightly weaker than ours, especially in terms of combat strength. If they really want to fight us, they’ll definitely lose in the end. ”

Baptiste also chimed in, “That’s right. Actually, we’ve already considered whether or not we should annex ice city hell and a few other large-scale guilds. It’s just that we feel that the losses from the war are too great and the time taken is too long. “When we attack one gang, it’s very easy for other gangs to take advantage of the situation...” ”

Rnrr impdi*tplv c:nid WP t*Icp ndvnntn?p of the qitll*tinn and

Baptiste shook his head. “Such an opportunity is very rare. These large-scale gangs are already deeply rooted in the mini-bull market. It’s very difficult for problems to arise internally, and their position is also very difficult to shake...”

Barr smiled and said, “But now... Perhaps this is a good opportunity.”

Baptiste sighed. “Actually, the reason why we don’t annex other large gangs is because we have bigger considerations... Mr. Michelle has already explained these problems to us in the past.”

Barr said, “But the situation now is different...”

Yu Tian turned to look at Michelle. "Is there any other reason for these things? Is it related to the company's strategy?"

Michelle quickly sat up straight. "Yes, the company has considered the situation of the mini-bull market before. This city is not allowed to have a completely unified underground world. That is not in line with the official interests..."

Yu Tian was puzzled. "Wouldn't a unified underground world make the social order more stable?"

"That depends on where," Michelle explained. "There are too many people in the mini-bull market, and the underground forces are also very powerful. "If all the gangs are unified, perhaps the public security cases will be reduced. "But the major crimes, such as small pills, smuggling, and trafficking of women... will be even more serious. Moreover, this is a port city and a tourist city. The tentacles of the criminal gangs can extend further and have a greater impact on the image of the city...."

Chapter 1239: Chapter 1,238, the cemetery project

Translator: 549690339

Every city's situation was different, and the official attitude toward the underground world was also different.

Yu Tian remembered that in the movies he had seen before, some police officers even requested the underground world to unify order. They even intervened and personally selected a boss of the underground world.

Once a crime problem appeared in a city, the police would only question the boss.

This would save the police a lot of work and reduce a lot of workload.

However, this also had a lot of shortcomings. Once the boss died, there would be a vacancy in power, and the Order of the entire underground world would collapse immediately.

Those gangsters would immediately fall into chaos in order to fight for power and profit, creating a bloody storm in the underworld.

This would soon become a good subject for making movies.

In fact, the unified underground world did have a lot of problems. Many movies also had godfather level characters who were so powerful that they could do whatever they wanted. Even the authorities could not do anything to them.

The mini-bull market would not allow such a situation to happen. They would not even allow one gang to be too powerful and completely trample over the other gangs.

That was why the current situation in the mini-bull market was like this. There were several large gangs coexisting, and no one could do anything to each other.

Michelle explained the situation in the mini-bull market, and Yu Tian immediately frowned again. “In that case, it’s impossible for me to completely unify the underground world of the mini-bull market.”

Michelle said, “Yes, it’s very difficult to change the underworld situation in the mini-bull market. Currently, there are a total of five large-scale gangs in the mini-bull market. Three of them are the strongest, including Blue Underpants.

“The other two are slightly weaker, but the difference is not big. One of them is Ice City Hell...”

Yu Tian nodded. “Ice City Hell wants to annex the few blocks where the red dragonfly is located because they want to raise their strength to the first-class level.

Michelle said, “Yes, a bigger territory means more business, which also means that they can support more people. Actually, the way Blue Underpants operates is more reasonable than the other gangs, and we have more wealth. However, all of this income has to be handed over to the company...”

At this point, Michelle hurriedly changed her words. “Of course, even if we don’t hand over this income, Blue Underpants will not be able to continue expanding in the mini-bull market. Its territory has almost expanded to its limit. If it continues to expand, it will only be able to fight with other large gangs.”

Yu Tian pondered for a moment. “What if there are only two large gangs left in the mini-bull market? Blue Underpants and Red Dragonfly will each take half. Everyone will be able to face each other on the surface...”

Michelle hesitated. “This... It’s hard to say. It depends on the official attitude.” “Now, the five large-scale gangs have basically divided the five city districts of the mini-bull market. If it’s divided into the territory of two gangs... It still feels a little too powerful.

Yu Tian glanced at Ba Er, Baptiste, and the others.

Ba Er quickly said, “I think we can give it a try. Instead of asking us to protect the red dragonfly, we might as well take this opportunity to let the red dragonfly swallow up the Ice City Hell.

Baptiste also said, “Yes, even if we can make the Ice City Hell hold back and leave a small block like the red dragonfly behind, the Red Dragonfly won’t have much room for development in the future. In fact, their business will be much smaller now. “We might as well take this opportunity to target the ice city hell. ”

Yu Tian rubbed his chin and said, “Small fish eat big fish... do you have any good ideas?”

Barr immediately said, “We can make the neighborhood where the red dragonfly is located... become the empire’s graveyard.

Yu Tian was amused. “Empire’s graveyard? That’s a good analogy... how do we

Barr said, “We, blue underpants, can support them from behind. Then, we can get the red dragonfly to encourage other small gangs to unite and launch an attack on the forces of Ice City’s hell...”

“What kind of support do you plan to provide from behind?”

“We will provide weapons, operational funds, and a safe place for them to stay in our territory. “Their operational personnel can launch a sneak attack on the forces of Ice City Hell. After retreating, they will hide in our territory to preserve their strength. “Ice City Hell will definitely not dare to come to our territory to hunt us down, and we will not allow them to engage in a fight here. “In this way, the hell of ice city would become very passive. They would only be able to defend and take a beating, and have no chance to fight back...”

“Then, what’s the specific plan to stop the hell of Ice City?”

“There’s no specific plan. I think the main plan would be to attack their gang members. “Depending on the actual situation, the target of the attack would be decided, and the time and location would be flexibly chosen. In the early stage, they would attack the members who had entered the red dragonfly’s territory, and in the later stage, they could also attack the Ice City Hell’s territory. As long as enough people were killed, the ice city hell would naturally collapse.

“Not only would there be no one to use them, even the settlement fees would make them bankrupt...”

“If this goes on, won’t the authorities intervene?”

“Of course they will, so this is the best chance for the Red Dragonfly to annex

Ice City Hell!

BA ER explained excitedly, “When the time comes, we’ll first think of a way to get rid of the leaders of Hell in ice city. Their gangs will naturally lose a lot of official protection. “Then, we’ll bribe the police and use the other gangs as scapegoats. We’ll make them take the blame together with Hell in ice city, and they'll all be finished together... Finally, with our support, the red dragonfly will swallow up the surrounding streets and Swallow Up Hell in ice city's Territory! ”

“Is it easy to annex the territory of other gangs?”

“It's not difficult to say. As long as we have enough manpower and money, with the threat of force, money, and promises of benefits, those remaining forces will easily surrender.

“So, the key is still to execute the leader of the gang?”

“Of course we have to kill the leader of the gang, but we also have to clear out most of the backbone of the gang. Otherwise, it's easy for them to have the illusion that they are still powerful and that they can continue the war and even obtain the final victory...”

“It seems that a bloody storm can not be avoided.

“Yes, but this doesn't affect us much. We have already found the person who will take the blame. '(As long as the red dragonfly doesn't perform too eye-catching on this battlefield, let the other small gangs become the nominal alliance leader...”

“Finally, we'll kill the Alliance leader and the enemy together... “Yu Tianle turned to Mina and asked, “What do you think of this plan?”

Mina's eyes reflected light. She jumped up and said excitedly, “I think there's no problem.. I'm confident that I can convince the other gangs to temporarily give up on their business and go all out with Ice City hell!

Chapter 1240: Chapter 1,239, Mina's home

Nothing is complete until the nest is destroyed.

If the hell of Ice City invaded their neighborhood, the businesses and territories of these small gangs would naturally have to be handed over to others.

Rather than waiting for death, it would be better to put aside the business matters for the time being and fight the hell of Ice City to the end.

Of course, the matter of the gang fighting was not as easy as chatting in the room.

The preparation of weapons and transportation, the arrangement of the stronghold, how to communicate with the authorities, whether to hire assassins, how to select the operational personnel involved in the shootout, how to destroy the traces and evidence of their operations.., how to keep their identities secret, how to place their family members, how to prevent revenge... These were all very complicated and specific questions.

These problems were much more troublesome than Yu Tian leading the mouse squad to work.

They were outsiders, so they only needed to be careful to hide themselves and then kill without thinking.

Even if the world was turned upside down, it would not affect them too much.

However, the gangs had to make a living in this city, so they had a lot of things to worry about.

The fighting style of the gangs was not quite the same as the Operation

Department, so Yu Tian was not familiar with these things.

The professional matters naturally had to be handed over to the professional people. The red dragonfly matters were naturally handed over to blue underpants.

Next, Barr volunteered to be in charge of these specific matters. This was because these plans were basically all proposed by him.

Yu Tian naturally would not object.

He felt that Barr was very good at handling matters. His brain was also more flexible and he was more familiar with the business of the gangsters.

It was no wonder that Michelle had been in closer contact with Barr before.

Barr was one of the more practical leaders among the blue underpants.

However, the Blue Underpants had already lost a leader. Yu Tian had personally cut it into two halves.

The leader who had been cut into two halves naturally could not continue to take on his responsibilities. He had to find someone to replace him.

This was the position of the leader who was mainly responsible for operations. It was a very important position.

Barr immediately recommended a candidate to Yu Tian. The reason was that he and this person had a good personal friendship and were familiar with each other.

Next, in the War of the red dragonfly, he needed such a familiar partner to cooperate with his work and actions.

Yu Tian couldn't find any reason to refuse such a fair and aboveboard selection.

Moreover, Barr was the first leader in blue underpants to show his loyalty to Yu Tian, so Yu Tian felt that it was okay to give him some benefits.

The higher-ups of any organization would have a power struggle, and it was impossible to completely eliminate it.

As long as this struggle was controlled to a certain extent and didn't cause damage or loss to the organization, Yu Tian didn't have to make everyone intimate like a brother-in-law.

Barr and Mina discussed for a while and decided on the initial plan of action-

Then, they ended today's meeting.

Next, Blue Underpants' people began to evacuate from the hotel.

When they left, these big shots kept a low profile and tried to avoid attracting too much attention.

Blue underpants was about to enter the behind-the-scenes mode. They had to pay attention to their actions from now on and try not to show their faces on the Red Dragonfly's territory to ensure that the red dragonfly's plan could be implemented smoothly.

Michelle was also going to be sent away. According to Yu Tian's original plan, he would still be handed over to Mina to watch over.

Because a gang war was about to break out in this neighborhood, Mina had specially arranged for two reliable subordinates to bring Michelle to other parts of the city.

Due to Michelle's good cooperation and attitude, Yu Tian did not plan to torture him anymore.

He would be temporarily placed under house arrest. Other than not having freedom, he would not be abused.

In the future, Michelle would only be an insignificant pawn, so Yu Tian did not pay too much attention to her.

After settling these matters, Mina asked Yu Tian about his next arrangements.

“I’m waiting for a call. I don’t have any other arrangements for the time being.

Yu Tian had already used his new phone and sent his phone number to Piggy Liang. However, there was still no news from the headquarters, so he did not have anything to do for the time being.

Mina hesitated for a moment. “If you don’t have anything else to do... why don’t you go to my house first? Let me treat you to a meal as a host?”

“A meal... Alright.

Yu Tian thought for a moment and casually agreed.

Since he was free now, it would be good for him to go to Mina’s house to rest.

It would be much better than eating some fast food while he was at it.

Mina’s place was not far from the hotel. In other words, most of the people from red dragonfly lived in this neighborhood. Everyone lived nearby.

Ten minutes later, the group arrived at the place.

It was a small apartment building with a total of five floors.

Although the mini-bull market was bustling, there were still no high-rise buildings. Most of the buildings only had a few floors.

Yu Tian was a little puzzled. “Is this your house? Your stepfather has been in the gang for so many years. Why is he still living in such a place? Shouldn’t he buy a villa or something?”

Mina shrugged. “There’s no villa in this neighborhood... However, this entire apartment belongs to my family. It’s about the same as living in a villa. ”

“Oh? That’s interesting. Your family bought an entire apartment. Are they planning to settle down the entire gang?”

“That’s not it. If they really arranged everyone together, then the enemy would only need a single fire to eliminate the red dragonfly. ”

Mina smiled lightly and accompanied Yu Tian into the apartment building. Once they entered, it was still a small hall. The elevator was right in front of them.

There was also a service desk in the hall, and there were two pretentious apartment managers standing inside.

They were actually there to guard the door of Mina's house.

Seeing Mina enter, the two apartment managers immediately stood up and greeted her, "Miss Mina..."

Mina casually nodded at the two of them, then led Yu Tian and his entourage to the elevator.

The two apartment managers quickly said, "Miss Mina, Mr. Fernan was looking for you just now. He wants you to go to the living room immediately after you come back. "

"Got it."

Mina nodded slightly, as if she did not take this matter to heart.

She turned around and said to Yu Tian, "Let me bring you to your room to rest first... how about we eat Oriental Food Tonight?"

Yu Tian chuckled. "There's no rush. You Go and do your thing first. Let the others bring me to my room. It's still early for dinner anyway. "

"I don't have anything to do. They're just looking for me for a meeting.

They've already held a meeting for the whole day for my dead brother... "

Mina's expression was a little helpless, but she was also a little glad.

"Fortunately, I met you. The problem with the red dragonfly has been solved. Now... It's fine if we don't have a meeting.

With Blue Underpants as her backing, Mina no longer felt the pressure from before, and she no longer cared about the meeting..

I Have 108 Older Sisters #Chapter 1241 - 1,240. Let's go to the meeting - Read I Have 108 Older Sisters Chapter 1241 - 1,240. Let's go to the meeting

Chapter 1241: Chapter 1,240. Let's go to the meeting

Mina pressed the elevator button nonchalantly.

The most important thing now was to entertain the big boss, Yu Tian.

Instead of talking nonsense at the meeting, it would be better to cook a few home-cooked dishes from the east and have a drink with Yu Tian to enhance their friendship.

She would also ask about the situation of Yu Tian's organization she felt that this kind of thing was more meaningful than a meeting.

Mina felt that it was necessary to have a deeper understanding of the organization she was about to join.

However, before the elevator door opened, the side door on the right side of the hall opened first.

A strange young man with colorful hair just walked out of the side door.

When he saw Mina, the young man was obviously shocked and immediately said, "Wow! Mina? When did you come back? Why Don't you go to the living room? Mary is still waiting for you to have a meeting... are you going back to your room?"

"Hi, Fernan... "Mina helplessly greeted the young man, then said, "I want to entertain a friend, you guys have a meeting first."

"Are you kidding? We are all in a meeting, how can you go and do your own personal things... "Fernan sauntered over to Mina, he glanced at Yu Tian again, "Hey, are you also an Easterner? Your Boyfriend?"

Mina did not know how to introduce Yu Tian's identity, so she could only say vaguely, "Yes, this is Mr. Undefeatable from the east... This is Fernan, my younger brother.

It could be seen that Mina's relationship with this Fernan was not bad.

Thus, Yu Tian politely extended his palm. "Hello.

"Hello to you too. "

Fernan casually slapped Yu Tian's hand, then, he shook his body and said to Mina, "I think you should go to the meeting first. Mary doesn't have the right to decide the fate of the red dragonfly alone. You should support her in the meeting..."

Mina said indifferently, "Even if I go to the meeting, I won't support her in the meeting. Her idea is too childish. Rashly starting a war with the big wave will only make the situation worse.

Fernan shrugged. "Wow, you're right... you're all right, but I think you should go to the meeting to speak. The meeting has been going on for almost a day, you have to come up with a result... "

(I'm going to give Mary some time to calm down. Then I'll tell her what the future of the red dragonfly should be like..."

Mina and Barr already had a concrete plan, and they had no interest in discussing anything with Mary.

The elevator door opened, and Mina gestured to Yu Tian.

But Fernan took a step forward and blocked the elevator door, frowning. "Mina, you should take up your responsibility... go to the meeting and finish your work.

Mina blinked and looked at Fernan. "I understand... If you want to play with your friends, just leave. There's no need to wait until the meeting is over.

Fernan touched his nose. "How can that be? I'm a very responsible man. The interests of the family are the most important. I Won't go out to play at such an important time..."

"Yes, the interests of the family are indeed important, but I have to entertain my friends now. This matter is much more important than the meeting."

"Are you kidding? Even if you and Mary have different opinions, you don't have to find such an excuse to avoid the meeting, do you?"

"I'm not avoiding the meeting. I just don't have the time right now..."

"Then when will you have the time? Kangtan is already dead. Do you want to wait until Mary is also dead? Or do you want to wait for me? Then you can host the meeting alone?"

"Your imagination is too rich. We are a family."

"Oh, now is the time when the family needs you the most..."

Fernan blocked the elevator door and started arguing with Mina non-stop.

Red Dragonfly was a "Family business". In fact, most gangs were in the same situation.

When a person became the boss of a gang, his family would inevitably bear the mark of a gang.

Even if his children left the local area to find another job, it would be difficult for them to separate themselves from the gang.

Therefore, there were often scenes in movies where after the boss died, the younger brothers would bring the heir back from the outside world.

Sometimes, the son would be forced to inherit his father's business.

Mina and her brothers and sisters were not so conflicted. After they became adults, they would directly work in their own "Family business".

Anyway, they relied on the income of the gang to make a living. Since they were young, they had become accustomed to the business of the gang.

After their father passed away, their brothers and sisters smoothly took over Red Dragonfly's business, and they all had their own team and people.

Although red dragonfly still chose a new boss it was their dead brother, Kangtan.

But the power to decide the fate of the red dragonfly was still in the hands of the four brothers and sisters.

If Mary wanted to make a decision about the overall strategy of the red dragonfly, she had to convince Mina and Fernan through the meeting, or at least half the members of the red dragonfly would not cooperate with him and surround Cantan's team.

That was why Fernan urged Mina to go to the meeting.

Fernan was a neutral, or rather, a soft-eared person.

He felt that everyone's words made sense, and everyone's proposal was feasible. As long as everyone could unite for the interests of the family, any decision could lead the red dragonfly to victory..

Therefore, Mina felt that she and Fernan had nothing to communicate on gang matters.

Fernan repeatedly asked Mina to go to the meeting, but she was indifferent.

She felt that any meeting was not as important as having a meal with a big shot like Yu Tian.

The two of them chatted for a long time at the elevator door, and Yu Tian felt a little frustrated.

He patted Mina's shoulder helplessly. "I think you should go to the meeting first. Red Dragonfly has to make some arrangements anyway. Why Don't you make the arrangements now? You 'll be better prepared.

Of course, Mina had to consider Yu Tian's suggestion seriously.

She hesitated for a moment, then nodded. "Alright, I'll listen to you... come with me to the meeting.

“I’ll go with you? Is that appropriate?”

“What’s not appropriate? We’re on the same side anyway. Mary brought her boyfriend along to participate in red dragonfly’s internal affairs...”

“Hehe... Alright. ”

Yu Tian felt quite honored to be promoted to a position as important as his boyfriend by Mina.

Mina calmly glanced at Fernan again. “Let’s go. The meeting is starting.

“It’s already starting...” Fernan sighed in relief. “Uh, I mean... it should have happened long ago..

Chapter 1242: Chapter 1,241. Same-sex discrimination

The meeting was held in the main living room, which was behind a side door on the first floor.

According to the original design, this was supposed to be a small room like a lounge and a utility room, but now it had been opened up into two large rooms, one of which was the main living room.

Mina wanted to take Yu Tian to the meeting, and Fernan didn’t object.

He had never seen Mina bring a man home, so he had already decided that Yu Tian was Mina’s boyfriend. It was just that Mina did not openly admit it.

Since Mina thought that she could bring Yu Tian to the internal meeting of the red dragonfly, she must have approved of Yu Tian’s identity.

According to Fernan’s understanding of Easterners, a boyfriend and girlfriend was a very close relationship, similar to a husband and wife.

Easterners’ family values were even more important, and husband and wife were basically a community of interests.

Mina was a member of the red dragonfly, which basically meant that Yu Tian had joined the red dragonfly, and everyone could be considered one of them.

So Fernan followed the two very casually, and occasionally looked at Yu Tian with interest.

Mina left the other attendants outside, and only brought her female assistant, who had been following her, into the large living room with Yu Tian.

There was a long table in the middle of the large living room. There were more than a dozen people sitting around the table. The scale of the meeting seemed to be even larger than the high-level meeting in blue underpants.

There were only forty to fifty core members of the red dragonfly, but one-fourth of them came here for the meeting.

This was a very strange thing.

The smaller the gang, the more people there were in the meeting.

Perhaps it was because the number of high-level members of the small gang was too small, so it was too shabby to have just two or three people sitting in the meeting.

Or perhaps it was because the big shots of the small gangs were too weak in their individual abilities, so they wanted to brainstorm and pull out some middle-level cadres to come up with ideas.

Mina brought Yu Tian into the large living room and immediately attracted everyone's attention.

On the main seat of the meeting table sat a woman who was about the same age as Mina. As soon as she saw Mina enter the room, she immediately started shouting.

"Mina! Where have you been? Do you know what time it is? Right now, our red dragonfly is facing a life-and-death crisis. Why did you run out for so long?"

Yu Tian did not need anyone to introduce him. He already knew that this woman was the Mary that they were talking about.

It seemed that the relationship between Mary and Mina was not very good.

This might be the physical principle of the same sex repelling each other and the opposite sex attracting each other.

Mina did not seem to hear Mary talking to her. She calmly led Yu Tian to the conference table.

The conference table was very big, and there were many empty seats left.

Mina pulled a chair for Yu Tian. She first invited Yu Tian to sit down, and then she slowly sat down next to Yu Tian.

Mary was even more displeased. "Mina, Pm talking to you! We had a meeting here for the future of the red dragonfly, but you disappeared for a whole day. You Didn't answer our calls. Do you still have us in your heart? Where have you been? Who is the man beside you? Is He your lover? Did you disappear for a day just to see your lover? You are too irresponsible...

Mary spoke very quickly. Before Mina could sit still, Mary had already started chattering.

Mina suddenly became impatient and interrupted Mary's rambling, "Mary, do you think you are already the boss of red dragonfly? Even if Kangtan is here, he can't interfere with my private affairs."

"I'm not interested in interfering in your personal affairs, but now is the time for our red dragonfly to hold an important meeting. You leaving for so long without permission is the biggest irresponsibility for red dragonfly. "If you don't want to participate in Our Gang's affairs and decisions, then let me make the decision for red dragonfly."

"Just say it directly. You want to be the boss."

"Of course I want to be the boss. It's better to hand the red dragonfly over to me than to hand it over to an irresponsible guy like you."

"Hand the red dragonfly over to you? And then let you lead everyone to fight against Big Wave? If this continues, I'm afraid that in a few days, the red dragonfly will face destruction."

Mina sneered.

Mary slapped the table angrily. "Don't be alarmist here! We believe in the Red Dragonfly's strength. Big Wave will definitely not be our match. Unless you deliberately cause trouble and don't cooperate with my actions."

Mina sneered. ("I will not cooperate with your actions, and I will not allow you to start a war against big wave."

"You Coward! "Mary was so angry that she did not know what to say. "Contan was killed by big wave's people, and you, you actually..."

"We must avenge Contan..."

The man next to Mary took over the conversation and stood up from the conference table.

This man was tall and burly. He had blonde hair and was quite handsome.

He looked around at the other people at the conference table, then, he slowly said, "The death of Kangtan will not be an isolated incident. Big Wave can kill Kangtan now. Next time, it will be able to kill Mary, Mina, and every gang leader here. "If we don't do anything about it, it will only make big wave even more unscrupulous, and even worse, they will assassinate us, or even attack us... ”

“Dominic. “Mina interrupted the man’s narration. “I hope that when you talk about these things, you will provide more evidence. “We can not conclude that the Kangtan incident was done by Big Wave. ”

“We’ll find the evidence, Mina... but the evidence isn’t important. ”

Dominic sighed and started to speak with confidence. “We’re not the police.

We just need to know that big wave has enough reasons to attack us. ”

“Actually, big wave has been eyeing our territory for a long time. They’ve been very interested in our main business...”

“Everyone knows that big wave’s own territory is very small, and there is basically no profit in their territory. That’ s why big wave chose to sell small pills, which is a high-risk business.

“Because of the gang alliance, their small pill business can also be done on our territory... of course, our girl business can also be done on their territory.

“But the small pill business is not as easy to do as everyone thinks. Its profits may be very high, but in our poor neighborhoods, big wave can’t find many high-quality long-term customers.

“Especially in the past few years, the official crackdown on the small pill business has become more and more severe. The survival of big wave has actually reached a very difficult level.

“So, they have begun to set their sights on our girls’business...”

“Actually, they have a very big advantage, which is that they can use small pills to control those women.. “

Chapter 1243: Chapter 1,242. This was war

“Actually, big wave is already doing this.

“In their own territory, in those dirty slums, they control many women from the north and east. They use very low prices to provide services to the poorest of the poor...”

“Of course, the quality of these kidnapped girls can not be compared to ours. The value and profits they create can not be compared to ours.

“So, big wave’s idea is on us. They want to swallow our business.

“This time, Kangtan was assassinated. It was big wave’s first wave of attack on us.

“Next, they will continue to assassinate our leaders until we are completely destroyed. Then, they will surface and swallow our business and territory...

Dominic’s words made the leaders at the conference table nod their heads.

Someone said, “Actually, we don’t need any evidence to prove who did what in Kangtan. Those guys are big wave’s people. There’s nothing to doubt about that.

“The current situation of big wave is indeed a little unusual. Even if their goal is not to annex our businesses, they are definitely targeting our territories.

“That’s right, they seem to have people from the ice city hell behind them. The Ice City Hell has long wanted to swallow our territory... This is a terrible thing.

The leaders were full of worry.

Dominic slapped the table again. “That’s right, big wave has the support of the ice city hell behind them. This will increase their ambition and courage. “Even if we want to maintain peace and swallow our pride, war will definitely find us! (‘They will definitely not be merciful!

“It’s time to pick up our weapons! ”

Mary also slapped the table excitedly. “My dear brothers, this is war! “You have been content with peace for too long. You have already forgotten how to fight! “Now that the big waves are bullying us, we can not back down! “We must let them see our strength and let them taste the taste of being beaten up! “Only then will they suppress their ambitions and continue to respect us! ” Mina sneered but did not say anything.

A leader beside her said in a deep voice, “I am not afraid of War. However, behind the big waves is the ice city hell. I am afraid that this is not a force that we can defeat.”

Dominic immediately said, “I don ‘t think we need to worry too much about this. The Ice City Hell doesn’t dare to openly enter our neighborhood. Otherwise, the other big gangs will definitely come out to stop him. Therefore, the enemy we have to face is only a small big wave.

Mary also said, “Yes, there are not many people in the big wave. There are only a few dozen people in those pill dealers. Other than a dozen core members, the others are just some errand boys...”

Dominic added, “Yes, those errand boys are nothing to be afraid of. Everyone knows that some street thugs dare to threaten them and extort some change from them. They are most afraid of being reported. Seeing the police is like a mouse seeing a cat...”

Mary added, “So, we can start from two directions. “On one hand, we can use the power of the police to get rid of their henchmen. “On the other hand, we can also assassinate their leader. We can select elite members from the gang as we discussed in the morning...”

Dominic immediately said, “I can be responsible for this. I have very reliable candidates under me. They will definitely be able to successfully complete the assassination mission.

Mary continued, “Then, to deal with those henchmen, we have to rely on everyone to mobilize their peripheral members. As long as we know where big wave is going to trade small pills, we can report it to the police. We can also let the peripheral members follow them...”

“Wait a minute.

Mina knocked on the table. “Have you decided to start a war against Big Wave? I don’t think I agree with this decision, right?”

(“Why don’t you agree with our decision?”) “What are you afraid of? “Mary was a little angry. “If you’re afraid of fighting, you can hide back in your hometown, the eastern country. “I alone can organize this war and lead the red dragonfly to victory...”

Mina sneered. “My hometown is here, and the red dragonfly is my family. Here is also my hard work and youth. “Do you think that you can get me off the conference table and take the red dragonfly into your hands with just a few words? “Mary, I have to remind you that you are not the boss of the red dragonfly yet.

Mary was a little angry, “Then what do you want? Are you just going to object here? “Now that the red dragonfly is at its most dangerous moment, are you going to do nothing and watch the Red Dragonfly Be Destroyed?” Mina sneered, “Who said I didn’t do anything?”

Mary snorted, “In today’s meeting, other than objecting to my plan, you wanted everyone to calm down. Then, you ran out to date your lover... I didn’t see what you did for the red dragonfly.

Dominic glanced at Yu Tian with a hint of disdain in his eyes, he said, "Mina, if you still think of yourself as a member of the family, you should focus on your work. Even if you can't come up with any ideas, don't ruin and interfere with our plan..."

Mina sneered, "Who says I can't come up with any ideas? I've already arranged the Red Dragonfly's matter. You Don't need to waste your effort, the red dragonfly will be safe and sound.. "

After hearing Mina 's words, Mary suddenly laughed. "Mina, I didn't expect you to be so good at bragging... why don't you tell us about your plan and see how you can let us, the red dragonfly, be safe and sound.

Mina said indifferently, Not only can I let the red dragonfly survive this crisis safely, but I can also make the red dragonfly stronger. I've already...

Mina was about to say that she had already joined hands with blue underpants, but Yu Tian held her shoulder.

Yu Tian's identity was no small matter. Mina was very concerned about Yu Tian's attitude. Even when she was arguing with Mary just now, she had been paying attention to whether Yu Tian was dissatisfied with the red dragonfly.

Now that Yu Tian had made a slight move, Mina immediately shut her mouth.

Yu Tian smiled slightly and said, "Miss Mina has already made a perfect plan, but the details... need to be kept secret for the time being. "

Mary immediately burst out laughing in an exaggerated manner.

"Mina, I knew you were bragging. What BULLSH * T Perfect Plan? You're simply wasting everyone's time here. I really don't understand what you're planning. What good will it do you if you continue to delay? If you continue to delay, the red dragonfly will be destroyed by you!

Dominic also said coldly from the side, "Miss Mina, if you weren't a member of the family,. I would even suspect that you have betrayed the red dragonfly and now you want to betray everyone's interests. "You don't agree with our plan, but you can't come up with your own plan. "If you continue to delay like this... The red dragonfly will really be heading towards its demise.

Mina sneered, as if she did not care to give them an explanation.

Her attention was always on Yu Tian.

Now that Yu Tian said that he wanted to keep the plan a secret for the time being, she did not even need to think about it. She immediately shut her mouth and stopped talking about the plan to work with blue underpants.

Although she did not quite understand the meaning behind Yu Tian's actions, she would definitely follow Yu Tian's arrangements.

Even blue underpants had to obey Yu Tian's orders. How could Mina not be convinced.

The leaders at the meeting table were also somewhat baffled.

After listening to Mina's words, these leaders had a trace of anticipation.

They were very curious about how Mina would solve the red dragonfly's current problem. Not only would she be able to stop the Ice City Hell from reaching out to their territory, but she could also continue to let the red dragonfly develop and grow.

However, Yu Tian suddenly said to keep it a secret, which made them feel somewhat baffled.

What kind of plan needed to be kept a secret?

Could it be that you planned to act alone without the involvement of the gang?

This was simply a joke.

Everyone was looking at Yu Tian and Mina, as if they were looking at two liars and fools.

Yu Tian did not explain. He smiled at Dominic and said, "This handsome man must be Miss Mary's boyfriend, right?"

Dominic puffed out his chest and said proudly, "The correct way to say it is my fiancé. If it weren't for what happened to kangtan, we would have been getting engaged in the next few days.

Yu Tian continued to smile and said, "Oh, that's really worthy of congratulations... you guys haven't known each other for long, right?"

Dominic was a little displeased. "Your question is really boring. Mary and I have known each other for a few months. We get along well and like each other. Soon, we will start a new family... do you have anything else to ask?"

Yu Tian smiled. "Mr. Dominic, don't mind me. I'm just envious of handsome men like you. "Because people like you have good looks and conditions. It's easy for women to fall in love with you and be loyal to you..."

Dominic said angrily, "Shut up, you oriental man. Do you think I'm a Gigolo?"

"I've already proven my ability long ago. I've made great contributions to the Madan family and the red dragonfly... all the leaders here know about me.

Everyone has seen my ability and achievements. What right do you have to question me?"

"You've misunderstood. I didn't question your ability..."

Yu Tian was still not angry. Although Mina 's expression had changed because of the oriental man, she was still pressed on the chair by Yu Tian and did not flare up.

Yu Tian unhurriedly took out his phone, he continued to say to Dominic, "I just want to get to know you better. After all, I'm new here and don't know many people here... Mr. Dominic, can you give me your number?"

"Number? Why Do You Want My Number?"

"With a phone number, we can communicate more easily. For example, talk about your plan in detail and see if there's anything that can be done. For example, when you can't contact Miss Mina, you can contact me..."

Dominic's expression softened slightly. He felt that it had nothing to do with Yu Tian leaving a phone number for each other.

So he said, "Yes, my phone number is... Where's your phone number?" "My phone number is..."

Yu Tian raised his phone and saved Dominic's phone number while quietly taking a photo of Dominic.

Then, he sent the photo and number to No. 76 and left a message, "Check this person and the person who spoke to him..."

No. 76 immediately replied, "Who is this person?"

Yu Tian replied, "A gangster. I suspect that he is a spy sent by other forces to red dragonfly."

"Okay, wait for my news.

This kind of thing was not difficult for No. 76. The identity of a gangster was not considered confidential information in front of her.

Yu Tian continued to chat with Dominic while waiting for No. 76 to reply.

No. 76 did not stop. He immediately started working with the technical team.

The phone number was a very clear clue. They could get Dominic's identity information from the database of the communication service provider.

It was very simple to hack into the database of the communication service provider of the wind country. It was much simpler than hacking into the communication service provider of the eastern country.

This might be the reason why Westerners were always sloppy in this aspect. It might also be the influence of some romantic traditions of the wind country.

The technical team quickly completed the intrusion, and quickly got Dominic's registered identity information, as well as the last year's correspondence records.

With the identity information, you can also continue to search Dominic's other numbers according to the passport number. Including his previous registration with different communication services, as well as the various cell phones and phone numbers that have been deregistered.

At the same time, No. 76 hacked into wind country's identity information system and began to use Dominic's photo to compare it with the database.

This could be solved by stealing a police login account, which was much more convenient than forging a fake passport.

Through the photo comparison, the technical team quickly found out that Dominic had another identity.

It was impossible for a person to have two identities. This situation could only mean that Dominic's current identity was most likely forged.

The purpose of forging an identity was self-evident. Dominic's undercover identity was basically solid.

Of course, this little bit of information was not enough to show the level of No. 76.

She checked the relevant information about Dominic's other identity, including his resume, recent phone records, and the information of the person he called..

The power of hacking was terrifying. When they really wanted to investigate a person, they could basically check the color of the underwear.

Especially for ordinary people, the identity information was not confidential. All the information was kept in the databases of various departments and businessmen, no different from public display..

Yu Tian soon received a reply from No. 76.

At this time, Dominic was already trying to convince the other leaders to agree and support their plan of action.

Mina proposed to adjourn the meeting temporarily because it was already dinner time.

When Mary heard that the meeting was going to adjourn, she immediately became anxious.

“We’ve been discussing this for a whole day and haven’t come up with a result yet. Do you think that this kind of efficiency is what we gangsters should be doing? “I’m afraid that those rotten government agencies are more efficient than us, right?”

Mary’s words made all the leaders feel like their balls were aching.

Indeed, gangsters shouldn’t dawdle, because their industry was sometimes too dangerous.

Usually, dawdling might not cause any problems, but when faced with war and crisis, a delay might result in death.

At this time, Dominic suddenly stood up again, he said loudly, “Everyone, perhaps you still have some hesitation about the war and need to seriously consider the future of the red dragonfly. I can understand all of these. “However, even if we don’t make a decision on the action plan today, we should still do another important thing well. “That is... to choose our leader!

Mina frowned slightly and said, “Kangtan’s funeral hasn’t even been held yet. You want to compete for the leader’s position now? This is not in line with our red dragonfly’s rules.”

Dominic said, “Although it’s a little against the rules, it’s an urgent matter. The red dragonfly has already encountered a major crisis. We don’t have that much time to wait for the funeral. “Moreover, Kangtan’s body is still in the police station’s morgue. The police still have to investigate this case. We still don't know when we'll be able to bring the body back for the funeral. "If this drags on, the big waves will already hit our home..."

All the leaders sighed helplessly.

Someone said, "Yeah, we can't be so leaderless anymore. Someone has to step up and take charge of the situation as soon as possible. "

Another person said, "I think Miss Mary is very suitable. Besides Kangtan, Mary is also the oldest daughter..." "

This was Mary's supporter.

But there was also Mina's supporter who said, "Red dragonfly does not have the rule of the eldest daughter inheriting the position of the head of the family. I think Miss Mina's ability is very good. The few stores she is responsible for are also the ones that make the most money..."

"The leader is not chosen to see who can make the most money, but to see who can bear the overall situation of red dragonfly.". "Besides making money, the leader has a lot of things to deal with. "For example, his relationship with the officials, and his relationship with other allies..

"I think the most important thing for the leader is his style of doing things. He must be calm and firm, able to protect the interests of our red dragonfly..

"Then I think Mary is more suitable."

"I think Mina is more stable.

The leaders discussed animatedly. They were either supporting Mary or Mina, but no one mentioned Fernan 's name.

Fernan looked indifferent. He did not even sit at the conference table. Instead, he sat on the sofa behind the conference table, leisurely shaking his feet.

Dominic saw that everyone was arguing, so he immediately said, "Since everyone has their own choice of candidate, I suggest that we immediately vote to elect our new leader. "I agree."

"I don't have any objections. "

"Then let's vote. It's good to elect our leader as soon as possible. Otherwise, if anything happens again, everyone will be in a mess."

“Sure, since everyone is here, let’s just go through the voting procedure.

A few leaders immediately expressed their agreement and requested to go through the voting procedure.

The leader was going to be chosen sooner or later. No matter how long it dragged on, it would only be a matter of a few days before a decision was made.

Moreover, there were many conflicts between Mary and Mina at the moment, and their opinions were completely opposite. They could only choose one leader so that order could be restored within the red dragonfly as soon as possible, forming a unified situation.

Except for a few people who were still hesitating, most of them agreed to carry out the election immediately.

Yu Tian glanced at Mina and found that she seemed to be a little lacking in confidence.

There were obviously more people supporting Mary here.

More importantly, Mina was an easterner, and she was only a stepdaughter.

According to the western perception, she obviously didn’t have a leader’s bloodline.

So, except for a few leaders who were close to Mina and recognized Mina’s ability, most people still supported Mary.

However, if Mary was chosen as the leader of the red dragonfly, it basically meant that the plan to fight the big wave had been decided.

The leader had enough power to make a decision when there were different opinions.

Even if only a small number of people approved of the plan, the leader could decide to carry it out.

So some leaders were still hesitating whether to vote for Mary.

Voting for Mary was equivalent to agreeing to start a war against the big waves.

They had not thought about such an important matter yet.

But if they did not vote for Mary, should they choose Mina as the leader of the Red Dragonfly?

This made them feel a little awkward again.

The red dragonfly should be a gang of white workers. They were not a coal country. Occasionally, they could choose a coal miner as the president to show that they were politically correct and fair in color.

Dominic saw this, he immediately added, "Let's choose our leader today. As for what red dragonfly should do next, we will give everyone some time to think about it. We can continue the discussion tomorrow.

These words felt like Mary had already been elected as the boss.

However, some of the leaders who were still hesitating immediately relaxed and said, "Then let's choose the boss first."

"We've been going through a lot today. It's time to have a result. At least we can confirm the leader."

"Then let's vote. I agree with Mary being elected as our new leader.

Someone was the first to raise his arm.

The voting mode of a gang was relatively simple. There was no need for any secret voting mode, and there was no need for any other tricks.

They could just raise their hands to vote. Everyone's attitude was on the surface.

Those who supported Mary did not hesitate for long. They slowly raised their arms.

However, at this moment, Yu Tian suddenly slapped the table, giving everyone a fright.

"Oriental Man! What are you trying to do?"

Dominic was furious. Seeing that the position of red dragonfly's boss was about to fall into Mary's hands, Yu Tian suddenly jumped out to cause trouble. This made him have the urge to kill someone.

"Hehehe..."

Yu Tian sneered. Just based on Dominic's few words of "Oriental Man", he would not let Dominic walk out alive today.

Killing someone was a very simple matter for Yu Tian..

Chapter 1246: Chapter 1,245, Spies

Translator: 549690339

Yu Tian was an eastern warrior, and he was very particular about martial virtue.

He would not kill recklessly unless he could not control himself.

Dominic was definitely going to be killed, and that was something Yu Tian could do with a flick of his finger.

Killing Dominic, and even killing or holding the entire living room hostage, was something that Yu Tian could do with a little more than a flick of his finger.

However, for the sake of Mina, Yu Tian decided to make the leaders of the red dragonfly submit to him.

Yu Tian took out his phone and opened the information number 76 sent him. After taking a few glances, he sneered.

Dominic became even angrier. "Oriental man, are you deliberately causing trouble? Don't think that just because you have Mina backing you up that you can mess around in the red dragonfly meeting. Do you believe that I'll have a duel with you right now?"

"Duel? You Think You're Worthy?"

Yu Tianle was amused. "Alright, I can give you a chance to die by my hands. But before I kill you, I still have to give everyone an explanation... Yes, I have to let everyone know why I want to kill you.

Dominic said angrily, "What nonsense are you talking about, B * Stard? F * Ck me right now..."

"Martin, Bernard..."

Yu Tian suddenly called out Dominic's other name loudly, which immediately stunned Dominic.

Yu Tian sneered again and continued, "Martin, Bernard, 32 years old this year. He was born in Red Bay City. The schools he attended had..."

Dominic's face immediately changed. His background was actually read out by Yu Tian in front of everyone, as if he had gotten his own file.

Yu Tian continued to read Dominic's information for a while, then, he smiled and said, "Here's the exciting part. Martin Bernard got married five years ago in a foreign country. His wife's name is... Oh, this name may be very unfamiliar to everyone, because the husband and wife have not appeared in the mini-bull market these years. They even rarely return to wind country. "But his wife has an identity that everyone must be familiar with. She is the daughter of the red-haired Jacques..."

“The red-haired Jacques?” Someone among the leaders exclaimed, “Which red-haired Jacques?”

Yu Tian shrugged. “Who else could it be?” There shouldn’t be many people called the red-haired Jacques in the mini-bull market, right? He is one of the high-level leaders of Ice City Hell, and he is also an elder figure of Ice City Hell. When he was young, he was a famous valiant general. It is said that he is very good at fighting, and he is ruthless...”

Some of the leaders immediately cursed. They stared at Dominic with malicious intentions and said, “Dominic, is this Martin Bernard You?”

Dominic quivered and immediately shouted, “Nonsense, what is the relationship between this Martin Bernard and me...”

These words could not dispel everyone’s suspicions, because Yu Tiannian’s information was clearly aimed at Dominic.

Even Mary’s expression was full of suspicion and wariness.

Dominic quickly explained to Mary, “Mary, you know me best. This oriental man is a madman. I don’t know where he got the information, but he’s trying to frame me... Oh right, this must be Mina’s conspiracy. These sinister oriental men have been planning to deal with you for a long time. (They want to get rid of the person you trust the most and then snatch your position...”

Yu Tian sighed. “You really don’t know what’s good for you. At this point, you should kneel down and plead for forgiveness instead of continuing to quibble. “Since I can get such detailed information about you, how can I not have evidence to nail you...”

After a pause, Yu Tian pointed at a projector hanging on the ceiling and said, “Can this thing work? Can it be connected to your phone? I can show you some photos...”

“Of course it can work.”

Mina immediately signaled her female assistant to turn on the projector.

The female assistant understood and walked to the cabinet in the corner of the room in a few steps. She took out a remote control from inside.

Soon, the projector was turned on.

Yu Tian successfully connected his phone to the projector and began to show everyone the information and photos on his phone.

As the projector was turned on, Dominic's face had completely lost its color.

These photos were taken from his previous social media accounts, such as photo albums and moments.

He had not logged into these accounts for more than half a year. Ever since he used the identity of Dominic and got close to Mary, he had hidden everything from the past.

He did not use his previous phone anymore. His previous Internet software and accounts, including some of his former friends and women, had been cut off.

The point was that he had come back from abroad. It was impossible for anyone in wind country to know him, and it was also impossible for anyone to have access to his information.

He had no idea how Yu Tian had done all this.

Yu Tian showed many photos, mostly of Dominic and his wife living abroad.

The most important photo was of him and his wife's family, including the red-haired Jacques.

This was a photo of them traveling and partying abroad.

Anyone could leave traces of their existence in the world, even if they were professional spies and agents.

However, for those with special identities, the authorities would have professional organizations to help them erase all traces and make their information as blank as possible.

However, this was not a 100% guarantee that there were no omissions. It could only be said that these omissions could not be found by ordinary people.

An ordinary person like Dominic would not be able to receive such treatment. Even gangsters did not have the ability to erase his information.

After looking at those photos, Dominic's identity was completely exposed in front of the red dragonfly and the other leaders.

For a moment, the living room was completely silent. The leaders' eyes were complicated, but they did not say anything.

Of course, the spy had to be dealt with, but the traitor should be mina, or Mary herself.

"Martin... Bernard..."

Mary suddenly exploded. She swung her hand and slapped Dominic's face. "You Bastard, how dare you lie to me?"

Dominic covered his face and took two steps back. Then he said, ('I didn't... My Love for You is true... "

"True? So you really want me to be your concubine? And then sell my red dragonfly to your father-in-law?"

Mary's brainless personality had its advantages. Apart from anger, she was not too sad..

Chapter 1247: Chapter 1,246, who is more suitable

Translator: 549690339

Dominic no longer quibbled about his identity. There was no point in doing so.

The first thing Mary did after knowing his identity was to beat him up.

Dominic did not resist because he had no weapon on him.

Without a weapon, even if he had the hostage, it would be difficult to threaten others.

Moreover, Mina might not care about Mary's life or death. She might even kill the kidnappers and the hostages.

Furthermore, there were so many red dragonflies' leaders in the living room. Dominic had no chance of escaping.

Dominic could only squat down and obediently take a beating.

Mary's brainless violent output made him so tired that he was panting.

Yu Tian saw that she was almost done venting, he slowly said, "Alright, now that everyone knows that Dominic is a spy sent by the Ice City Hell, then... you should already know how to choose your leader."

"I support Mina in becoming our new leader. Mary can't even detect her own spy. Obviously, she's not a qualified leader, nor is she suitable to be the red dragonfly's leader."

The leaders who were closer to Mina immediately spoke up.

The leaders who supported Mary did not say anything.

It was actually easy for some suspicious points to appear on spies. Mary spent all day with Dominic. If she paid more attention to the details, it was not necessarily impossible for her to discover something suspicious about Dominic.

However, Mary's behavior had always been rough. Everything she did was a little rough and careless.

These leaders began to feel that Mary's character was not appropriate enough to become a leader.

If Mary became the boss, red dragonfly might often have all kinds of problems.

Mary could be fooled by an undercover fiancé for a few months today, and then she could be fooled by other enemies tomorrow.

To be the boss, of course, you had to have a brain.

Mary's brain felt a little too small.

On the contrary, Mina was indeed more stable and more careful. The leader of the gang indeed needed someone who was more meticulous.

"I agree to let Mina take over as our new leader.

A leader expressed his support.

Someone hesitated for a moment and sighed, "Maybe Mina is more suitable." Mary was anxious.

She left Dominic and returned to the conference table, she shouted, "Why did you choose Mina? Is it because she found out about Dominic? You Can 't make a wrong judgment just because of Dominic!

The leaders looked at each other. They thought Mary would give up on the competition, but they didn't expect Mary to still have a lot of firepower.

Mary continued, "I admit that Mina has some ability, but as the leader of the gang, I will be more suitable than Mina! "My skin color, my bloodline, my relationship with the gangs in the Alliance, my friendship with the authorities..."

These words were not without reason. Mary had many natural advantages.

The leaders remained silent.

Mary softened her tone, she said, "Perhaps, regarding the war against the big waves, I can reconsider and consult Mina's opinion more. "However, I absolutely do not agree with Mina becoming the leader of the red dragonfly. "This might cause us to lose the support of many officials and gangs..." The leaders remained silent. Mary's words were clearly on point.

Mina was an easterner, so her natural disadvantage was a little too obvious.

Mary said loudly again, "Rather than choosing Mina, you might as well choose Fernan. At least let Fernan represent the red dragonfly and deal with those people outside. It would be more suitable than Mina..."

The leaders began to hesitate again.

In the long run, Mina had too many flaws, especially the development of the red dragonfly, which required a lot of communication with the outside world. In the end, it was not as convenient for her to do things as white people.

Even if Mary was not reliable, they could still choose Fernan.

Fernan was the youngest heir in the family, usually very invisible.

He seemed to have no advantages, but also seemed to have no shortcomings.

Let him become the leader of the red dragonfly, seems to be passable.

But in that case, the red dragonfly is still equivalent to a state without a leader.

This was because Fernan would definitely be influenced by Mary or Mina, and it would be difficult for him to make his own decision on anything.

For example, Mina and Mary had completely different opinions on the matter of starting a war against the big waves. Fernan did not know who to listen to.

So, Fernan simply rolled his eyes. "I won't do it. I Won't do this leader. Don't even think about it. Don't choose me. Even if you choose me, I won't do it..."

The leaders immediately had a headache. They stared at Fernan, not knowing what to say.

Yu Tian sighed. "Looks like your red dragonfly is really finished..."

These words immediately made the leaders unhappy.

Someone coughed lightly. "Young man, don't be so proud. Although you helped our red dragonfly uncover the spy, this doesn't mean that you can judge us as you wish. "Every gang has a spy. This doesn't mean that red dragonfly is that bad..."

Yu Tian shrugged. "It's already bad. If your spy continues to stay undercover, he'll become your boss in the future..."

The leaders of red dragonfly were instantly embarrassed. Such a thing could really happen.

If Mary became the boss and married Dominic, the actual power in the future might gradually pass to Dominic.

At the very least, Dominic was a deputy leader.

Or perhaps Dominic would assassinate Mary again and kill her. Then, the position of the boss might really fall into Dominic's hands.

Yu Tian chuckled twice. "Don't think that I care about the position of the boss of your red dragonfly. What I can give Mina is ten times, a hundred times more than your red dragonfly..

Of course, no one believed this because it sounded too much like bragging.

Only Mina had a smile on her face, and she firmly believed it.

Yu Tian continued, "Ice City Hell has already set their eyes on the red dragonfly and your few blocks. Perhaps you don't know how dangerous your situation is..."

"You think that it's just a big wave trying to seize your territory. You think that Ice City Hell doesn't dare to openly intervene and brazenly enter your blocks..."

"Why don't you ask Dominic and see what Ice City Hell is planning?" That's right.

After Yu Tian's reminder, the leaders immediately came back to their senses.

Dominic was still waiting for their trial..

Chapter 1248: Chapter 1,247, interrogation of spies

Translator: 549690339

Dominic was quickly brought back to the conference table by a few leaders. "Tell me, Kid, what exactly is your motive for infiltrating our red dragonfly?"

A few leaders surrounded Dominic aggressively, as if they were going to pull out their knives and take care of him.

Dominic really wanted to remain silent, but he knew that he was not someone who could take a beating.

Moreover, for a handsome young man like him, the loss of being beaten up was much greater than that of an ordinary person.

Therefore, he said with a bitter face, "What other purpose could there be? Isn't it to let me control the power of the red dragonfly in the future, and then let the red dragonfly become a part of the hell of ice city... actually, this might not be a bad thing for you guys, what do you think?"

Some people usually did not like this pretty boy, Dominic. At this time, they stepped forward and punched his stomach, then scolded, "Damn Liar, do you still want to persuade us to surrender now?"

Dominic leaned on the conference table in pain, he still defended himself, "I'm not a liar, I just hid my identity temporarily. I don't intend to harm you guys. Even if the ice city's hell annexed the Red Dragonfly, you guys would just have a new boss..."

These words made some of the leaders slightly stunned. They felt that Dominic's words seemed to make sense.

Ice City Hell just wanted to swallow red dragonfly. Making Dominic the boss of Red Dragonfly and letting others become the boss of red dragonfly did not seem to make much of a difference to these leaders.

Moreover, Dominic had ice city hell backing him up. In theory, red dragonfly would have a better life in the future.

The leaders were instantly silent. In their hearts, they began to consider the possibility of surrendering.

Yu Tian shook his head and sighed. "You guys are really gullible... don't you think that if the hell of the ice city really only wanted to annex you guys, would there be a need to go through so much trouble? Do they need to play these undercover tricks with you guys? They could have directly sent people over to negotiate with you guys. With threats and inducements, can you guys reject such a big backer?"

All the leaders were speechless.

Yu Tian sneered, "The reason why they don't negotiate with you is that they can't give you the conditions that you're satisfied with. They know that you will never agree to those conditions... because they don't want to annex you, but to Devour You Alive!

Everyone was deep in thought.

Yu Tian continued, "So, stop daydreaming, and don't even think about surrendering. Ice City Hell only wants your territory and business, not leaders like you..."

“Because you will take the profits from these territories. They don’t want to give you a single cent!

“If Ice City Hell Swallowed You, those peripheral members of yours might still have a way to survive. They can continue to run errands for ice city hell and earn a living.

“But you leaders... even if they don’t use all kinds of schemes to kill you, you will only be reduced to a small lackey.”

“So, you will no longer be able to get any income and dividends from the red dragonfly, and you will no longer have any status and status. The red dragonfly will no longer be yours. You will return to the kind of hooligans who had nothing when you were young...

Bang!

A leader slammed the table and scolded, “Don’t even think about it. I have worked hard for the red dragonfly my whole life. They can forget about snatching it away from me!

“That’s right. This is our red dragonfly. It’s our territory. No one can take it away from us!

“We can not give in to ice city hell. We must fight until the end!

“For our jobs!”

“That’s right. For our jobs.”

The leaders quickly came to a consensus. It was rare for them to have a common enemy.

Dominic, who wanted to swindle all their assets with just his words, did not speak the truth. He was definitely not worthy of their trust.

Immediately, a leader suggested, “Let’s kill this guy and avenge that kid, Kangtan!

“Good Idea. Kangtan will definitely like this sacrifice! ”

“Since the war is about to start, let Dominic sacrifice the flag for us!

Cutting off one’s source of income was like killing one’s parents. This group of leaders hated Dominic to the bone.

Especially when Dominic had tried to trick them into surrendering and asking them to hand over the wealth in their hands. He was playing them like fools.

The leaders would never let such an enemy go. They all agreed to kill Dominic first.

The one who hated Dominic the most was naturally Mary.

The most hateful thing about an undercover was not that he was an enemy, but that he had deceived the feelings of the undercover subject.

A better undercover like Mary could even marry the enemy and have monkeys.

This kind of thing had happened before in history.

When both parties gave birth to a monkey together, it would be even more difficult to argue about love and hate.

Mary's feelings were also a little complicated. She hated Dominic, but she did not want to kill him just like that.

So she stopped the leaders and said, "Everyone, since the purpose of Ice City Hell is to destroy us all, then they must have a specific plan... we should interrogate Dominic First! "

"That's right, we can't let him off so easily. We have to interrogate him and torture him! "

"I'm the best at torture, leave it to me!"

Some leaders rolled up their sleeves, ready to show off their skills on Dominic.

Dominic hurriedly said, "Hey, don't be so rude, we can talk it out. We've worked together for so long, I've never thought of hurting you..."

A leader sneered, "You don't want to hurt us? Yeah, you just want to kill us, just like killing Kangtan.

Dominic quickly explained, "No, no, no, that was a misunderstanding... it must be an accident!

A leader sneered, "What a big accident. It seems that you're still not honest enough... Then I'll show you how I torture you.

Dominic was shocked. "Don't do it. I'm telling the truth. I really don't know why they want to kill Kangtan. My mission is only to become the leader of the Red Dragonfly and take over its business peacefully..."

"Peaceful? Do you think we'll believe your nonsense?"

One of the leaders took out a small fruit knife and stabbed it into Dominic's thigh. Dominic immediately trembled in pain.

The leader smiled sinisterly and said, "If you don't speak properly, I will shave off all the tender flesh on your face and turn you into a skull..."

This trick was originally used to scare women, but it was just as effective on Dominic. What he cared about the most was his face..

Chapter 1249: Chapter 1,248, there was no value in interrogating

Translator: 549690339

Dominic could not take the torture, he could only scream, "Don't do it, let's talk... Alright, I'll say it. Ice City Hell wants to assassinate you. As long as I kill all of you, I'll be able to smoothly obtain the position of Boss..."

"Nonsense! is your plan that simple! Can Ice City Hell assassinate all of us?" This explanation was obviously illogical.

If assassination alone could swallow up a gang, then there wouldn't be so many messy stories in the movie.

Their plot would always be assassination, assassination, and assassination.

All plots started from assassination, and then ended from assassination. On the jianghu, it was calm and peaceful. The big bosses of the gangs had unknowingly changed again and again,

In the end, they killed and killed, but no one was willing to do it anymore.

This kind of method could be called despicable.

Even if the gangs themselves were not an open and aboveboard existence, they still had to abide by some morals and rules.

The occasional assassination would only make people look down on them. Using crazy assassination methods to clean up the higher-ups of a gang would make everyone wary.

There were so many gangs in the mini-bull market. No gang would be stupid enough to be indifferent to this kind of thing.

No one would allow such crazy assassination methods to exist. They would be worried that this method of annexation through assassination would be used on them. Even the authorities and the police would feel insecure.

If all the higher-ups of the red dragonfly were killed, the person who became the boss would definitely be the most suspicious.

If Dominic became the boss and brought the red dragonfly to Ice City Hell, then he would naturally know who the mastermind was.

Ice City Hell would become the target of public criticism. It would become a street rat that everyone wanted to beat up, and it would soon be destroyed.

As long as their leader had a bit of brains, he would not do such a stupid thing.

Assassinations were not unheard of, but they were only an isolated phenomenon. It was usually a personal grudge.

The entire upper echelons of a gang had been assassinated, and that was war.

The participants of a gang war were very clear. It would only happen between a few rival gangs.

Sending people to assassinate and behead the leader of the enemy could also be considered a method of war.

This was different from assassinating.

One was to fight without a declaration and be sneaky.

The other was to distinguish between friend and foe. The assassination was only targeted at the enemy and would not implicate the innocent, causing the other gangs to be in danger.

Therefore, no one would believe Dominic's nonsense.

This was not in line with the leaders' knowledge and experience of the underworld.

Therefore, the leaders grabbed Dominic and gave him a good beating. Dominic could not stop complaining, he quickly begged for mercy, "I really don't know. I'm just a spy. Other than providing some information, I'm just waiting for the DOSS or me popular aragonny... I really don't know what me Ice City Hell's Plan is."

This explanation seemed reasonable.

But the leaders didn't let him go. They continued to ask, "Then why did you incite us to start a war against Big Wave? What's the conspiracy behind this?"

Dominic stammered, "To let you fight against big wave... then we can let Big Wave publicly assassinate you..."

If the red dragonfly fought against Big Wave, then assassinations would become assassinations and beheadings. It wouldn't be considered breaking the rules and morals.

This explanation seemed to be more reasonable.

Another leader asked, "Isn't big wave a pawn of the ice city's Hell? Aren't they worried that we'll destroy Big Wave?"

('I don't know either. Perhaps the ice city's hell can provide some support to big wave...
"Dominic covered his face and said, "Don't hit me anymore. I really don't know much..."

"Your interrogation can end now.

Yu Tian also walked to the front of the group, he said indifferently, "There are indeed not many plans that a spy can know about. Moreover, the plan of the hell of ice city is not worth investigating. Their plans and objectives are actually very obvious..."

The leaders' attention returned to Yu Tian.

Yu Tian continued, "Your red dragonfly's structure is still a little too small. You Can't understand the strategic intentions of a large-scale gang at all..."

"Do you think that Ice City Hell has created so many things just to swallow one of your red dragonflies?"

"How much can your red dragonflies be worth?"

('You guys think too highly of yourselves and underestimate ice city Hell's appetite too much.

"What Ice City Hell wants is the territory of all the small gangs here and all the streets.

"Do you think that Ice City Hell only wants you to fight against Big Waves? They want you to fight against big waves until both sides suffer?"

('What they really want is to make all of your streets chaotic!

When Yu Tian said this, a leader immediately said, "Young man, aren't you exaggerating a little too much?"

Another leader echoed, "That's right, how could the hell of ice city dare to create such a big mess... you made things so serious because you want us to support Mina as the boss, so that you can give us advice?"

Yu Tian laughed, "Of course I want Mina to be the boss. If your boss isn't Mina, I don't care if you're Dead or alive... as for whether I'm exaggerating or not, you'll know soon enough."

Since the first assassination attempt had already started in ice city hell, the rest of the action would naturally follow soon.

Yu Tian didn't know what exactly ice city hell would do, but according to the analysis of the big shots in blue underpants, Ice City Hell definitely wanted to stir up trouble and make the streets more chaotic.

The leaders of red dragonfly were skeptical of Yu Tian's words and didn't know what to say for a moment.

After a long while, someone asked, "How should we deal with this Dominic? Should we continue interrogating him?"

"No more interrogations. Pm too lazy to talk so much nonsense with this cunning liar. Let's just kill him.

"I also feel that there's no need to interrogate him. Let's just kill him and avenge Kangtan.

"Mary, this spy is one of your people. You should decide how to deal with him now."

One of the leaders handed the final decision to Mary.

Mary stared at Dominic with a complicated expression.

After hesitating for a while, Mary spat out two words, "Kill him."

Easterners used to like to say that a one-night stand was a Hundred Days Grace.

However, in this era, easterners no longer cared so much about their bedmates.

one-night stands were everywhere.

People in the west were more open-minded.

After confirming that the so-called love was just a lie, the love in bed was not worth mentioning at all.

Mary was originally a rough character. She quickly understood this truth and saw clearly the actual relationship between herself and Dominic.

Everyone wanted to kill Dominic. This matter was not worth her being sad about..

Chapter 1250: Chapter 1,249, should I save her

Dominic's face turned pale. He realized that he was doomed.

Undercover work was a dangerous job, and gangsters were not kind people. Usually, they could call you brother and treat you warmly as if you were their father.

But once they fell out, they would immediately disown you and even kill your own father.

Dominic curled up in pain and quietly touched the small fruit knife in his thigh.

Someone had just stabbed him in the leg, and in order to prevent bleeding too quickly, the small fruit knife had not been pulled out.

Dominic decided to seize the opportunity and use the small fruit knife to hold Mary and escape from here.

This was his only chance.

Westerners liked sports. In order to maintain his figure, Dominic also attached great importance to regular exercise.

Moreover, being in a gang, he naturally had to train some fighting skills.

Dominic's skills were not too bad. He could easily deal with one or two ordinary people.

Mary also knew some fighting skills, but she was never Dominic's opponent.

Dominic felt that his chances of success were quite high.

Seeing that Mary was determined to kill him, he wanted to kidnap Mary and torture her.

So he immediately said, "You can kill me if you want, but I hope to die in Mary's hands. At least, I will die of love..."

"Screw Your Love! "

Mary angrily walked to Dominic's side and grabbed Dominic's hair, she scolded, "You still dare to Talk About Love with me? You love that woman hiding abroad, right? You can even come as a spy for their family. This kind of love is really great..."

Dominic was a little dumbfounded. His hair was grabbed by Mary, and he didn't know how to do it to Mary.

He could only say, "Mary, please don't insult me. Please let go of my hair first... What kind of decency is this..."

Mary sneered and flung Dominic's hair away. She threw another slap at him. "What kind of decency is this..."

The opportunity finally came.

Dominic suddenly turned around and put his arm around Mary's neck. He immediately went behind Mary, pulled out the small fruit knife on his thigh, and put it on Mary's neck..

The whole set of movements was smooth and smooth, and the agility level had reached the limit of an ordinary person.

This was also the inevitable result of him being prepared.

"All of you, get out of my way! Stay away from me!" With a knife in hand, I have the world.

Dominic immediately felt that his manhood had returned.

Successfully holding Mary hostage gave him a huge sense of confidence and security.

He realized that he was not a person who could only rely on his looks. The abilities of the super agents in the movie were only so-so, and they were not much better than his operation.

The leaders in the large living room were a little surprised. Dominic, who was like a dead dog just now, actually dared to resist?

"Dominic, you bastard, let go of Miss Mary quickly! Otherwise, you're dead!"

The leaders who were on good terms with Mary immediately became nervous.

Dominic spat. "Nonsense! Let Her Go and I'll be dead meat! All of you, get out of my way. Let me out of here. I can guarantee that I won't hurt Mary!"

The leaders said angrily, "Do you think we'll believe a liar like you? Let Go of Lady Mary and we'll guarantee that we'll spare your dog life!"

Dominic did not want to be outdone, "Bah! I don't Trust You Scoundrels! Let me out first, I will not hurt Mary!"

"Let go of Lady Mary First, then talk to us about these issues!"

“F * ck! If you don’t move, I will perish together with Mary!

Dominic was furious, he took the small fruit knife and pushed it hard into Mary’s chin.

His left forearm was tightly wrapped around Mary’s neck, leaving little space for the small fruit knife.

Unless the knife went deep and cut twice horizontally, it would be able to cut off the large blood vessels and trachea.

If it was just a normal stab and a cut, it might not be fatal for Mary.

Many people did not understand this, but some of the veterans present knew it.

There was a high chance of saving Mary from Dominic, but no one was willing to take the risk.

If Dominic really stabbed Mary to death, they would not be able to take the blame.

The leaders looked at each other. Some of them slowly took a few steps back to make way for Dominic.

Dominic suddenly looked happy, and the small fruit knife in his hand finally relaxed a little.

The road to survival was gradually opening up.

At this time, Yu Tian glanced at Mina and chuckled. “Should we save her? Or... Save Her?”

Mina’s heart skipped a beat. This seemed to be a good opportunity to get rid of Mary?

If Mary died, the red dragonfly could only fall into Mina ‘s hands.

Saving Mary and saving Mary were two different things.

If she went to save Mary, Mary would probably be saved to death.

Should she do that?

Mina knew very well that Yu Tian definitely had the ability.

A person who could even use sword aura, no one would believe that he wasn’t a master.

Mina began to hesitate.

This was indeed a good opportunity, but it was also a very despicable act.

She looked at Yu Tian's smiling eyes and seemed to have understood something.

"Save Mary, red dragonfly still needs her.

Mina made up her mind.

Yu Tian nodded slightly, thinking that Mina was indeed aware of the general situation.

Red Dragonfly could not afford to cause any more trouble now. The boss, Kang Tan, was dead, and a spy, Dominic, had appeared. If the Big Boss, Mary, was also dead, it would cause panic among the people in the gang and make it even more chaotic.

Moreover, the dispute between Mina and Mary could only be considered an internal conflict. They were still a community of shared interests, and it was not to the extent where they had to fight each other to the death.

If he were to eliminate his enemies and kill those who disagreed with him, such a tyrant would not be suitable to be the leader of a group.

Mina's personality was still worthy of being relied on and nurtured.

Yu Tian decided to take action. He would first save Mary, the unlucky woman, and then help Red Dragonfly restore order as soon as possible. He walked out with a smile and stood in front of Dominic and Mary.

("Dominic... I thought I said I would kill you today.")

Dominic was slightly stunned, and then his expression became angry. "Damn Oriental Man, do you want me to kill Mary?"

Yu Tian shrugged. "Do you think I Care?"

This sentence made everyone's expression change, and then they immediately thought of the conflict between Mary and Mina.

Was he trying to kill her by borrowing someone else's knife?
