?Chapter 171 – Chapter 171, Connections In The Pugilistic World

Thank you readers!

Yu Tian just turned his head and looked at him indifferently. He said proudly, “It’s an emergency in the pugilistic world. There’s no need to be so polite, and don’t disturb my meal again!”

Lian tianlei nodded sincerely and said to his junior brothers in a low voice, “Now we can leave. Don’t disturb this gentleman’s meal again!”

The junior brother with the sharp chin tugged at Lian Tianlei’s arm and said in a low voice, “Eldest senior brother, are you stupid? Someone is treating us to a meal, and you still don’t want to eat?”

The other junior brothers also felt that this meal should be eaten. The other party did not lack this bit of money, so why shouldn’t they eat?

Even tianlei himself was hungry. In the end, he also sat down helplessly.

He turned to his sharp-jawed junior brother and said, “Zhanpeng, we have to remember this favor of theirs. In the future, when we have money, we must return this favor to them!”

Xie Zhanpeng took a toothpick and put it in his mouth. He stood up and went to long nianxue’s side, he chuckled and said, “This beauty, my name is Xie Zhanpeng. Thank you for treating us to a meal. Why don’t I use your wine to toast everyone and express my gratitude!”

Yu Tian’s face suddenly darkened. He had already told them not to disturb his meal, yet this guy actually came over to toast.

Moreover, you can toast as well. Where are your eyes looking at?

Long nianxue felt that his gaze was particularly disgusting. She ignored him with a cold face.

Lian tianlei, who was behind her, suddenly frowned. He hurriedly went over to pull Xie Zhanpeng and reprimanded him coldly, “Xie Zhanpeng, what are you trying to do? I’ve already told you not to disturb other people’s meal. Why are you still here to Toast?”

Xie Zhanpeng chuckled and said in a sarcastic tone, "They invited us to dinner, and I want to toast them to express my gratitude. Is there anything wrong with that? The jianghu relies on connections. Even if you have money and no connections, you still can't make a name for yourself!"

Lian Tianlei didn't want to listen to his twisted reasoning at all. He directly pushed him to the back, then, he said to Yu Tian with guilt, "Sir, don't lower yourself to my junior brother's level. He hasn't seen much of the world. I apologize on his behalf!"

Yu Tian didn't want to pay attention to them, but long Chenyang was angry. he shouted angrily, "Aren't you a little shameless? I invited you to eat, and you still came here to pretend. Is Anyone

Your Turn?"

As soon as he said that, even the senior brothers behind Tianlei stood up and glared at them.

Lian tianlei hurriedly suppressed the crowd and scolded in a low voice, "All of you, sit down. If you don't want to eat, leave with me now. All of you!"

Long Chenyang also stood up and said coldly, "What? Do you still want to fight? This is Linhai, not your countryside!"

The foreman who had been standing at the side also said with disgust, "This gentleman is right. You'd better not mess around here. Our restaurant will not provide you with service. Now, please leave immediately!"

Xie Zhanpeng laughed. He looked at long nianxue, fiddling with the toothpick in his mouth, and said shamelessly, "Let us leave. Ask this lady to drink a cup of wine with me, and we'll leave!"

Yu Tian, who had been silent all this time, slowly raised his head and looked at Xie Zhanpeng coldly.

That Bastard did not put Yu Tian in his eyes at all. He even boasted shamelessly, "This rich boss, we are all barefoot and not afraid of wearing shoes.

Since you are so rich, why don't you help us brothers and give us 80,000 yuan to spend? Only then can you be considered a rich man!"

Yu Tian didn't waste any time talking to him. He got up and grabbed his neck.

Under Xie Zhanpeng's terrified gaze, Lian Tianlei wanted to stop him, but Yu Tian turned around and gave him an elbow.

Lian tianlei instinctively used his hands to block, but he was pushed back by an extremely violent force, knocking the few brothers behind him to the ground.

Xie Zhanpeng wanted to use this opportunity to launch a sneak attack on Yu Tian.

Yu Tian did not give him the chance at all. He kicked at his knees and made Xie Zhanpeng kneel at his feet.

Under everyone's shocked gazes, Yu Tian smiled indifferently and disdainfully, "Do you think you have the ability to take 100,000 to 80,000 from me?"

"If you want money, you can. You have to make me think that you're worth it. But from the looks of it, you won't be able to take a single cent from me. You might not even be able to take yourself!"

Only then did Xie Zhanpeng realize that not only was this handsome man rich, but he was also very skilled.

In front of him, he didn't even have the chance to make a move. What was there to be stubborn about now?

Lian tianlei struggled to get up. He came closer and begged bitterly, "Sir, it's our fault today. It's my eldest senior brother who didn't manage them well. I'll take them away now.

Sir, please show mercy and let him go!"

As he spoke, Lian Tianlei's arms were still numb, so his tone was also full of shock.

Yu Tian saw the cold expression on his face and said arrogantly, "If the Jianghu is as bad as you guys, then it's better not to be. Go back home and farm.

"Now, take your people and get out of here. Don't Disturb my meal anymore!"

Lian tianlei hurriedly nodded and bowed as he helped Xie Zhanpeng up. He then left with his other junior brothers.

They came to an empty alley. Xie Zhanpeng was so angry that he slammed against the wall and shouted angrily, "Why did we come here? We didn't eat, wear, or drink. We still have to look at the faces of those rich people.

"No matter what, we are the true disciples of the pugilistic world. Even if we go anywhere, the sects of the pugilistic world have to give us some face. Why do we have to Suffer Like This?" Lian tianlei rubbed his arm and reprimanded him angrily, "Shut up, there is no pugilistic world anymore. We are only here to make a living.

“Do you think that our true disciples are still the same big sects of the pugilistic world from the past? Wake up, there are only a few of us left in the entire true disciples. If you still don't know how to control your temper and your lecherous nature.

“All of us will be implicated by you. I Won't hold it against you this time. If there's a next time, you can leave by yourself!”

Xie Zhanpeng snorted disdainfully. “You already said that there's no more main gate now. You also said that there's no more jianghu. Then what are we?

“If that's really the case, then why are we still talking about the rules of Jianghu? That guy strangled my neck today. I must take revenge for this!”

The other junior brothers also joined in.

“Senior brother is right. That Rich man is just willing to pretend. If it weren't for us starving and lacking strength, how could we let him take advantage of us today?”

“Although our legitimate sect no longer has the jianghu, we still can't accept this!”
“Eldest senior brother, say something now and we'll go deal with that Rich Man!”

?Chapter 172 – : Chapter 172, Hong Xiang And Hei Hong

Thank you readers!

Lian tianlei put on a bitter face and said, “Who are we going to mess with? Who can we mess with now? Didn't you see the skills of that Rich Man?

“Even if we add them together, we are still no match for him. Moreover, he even bought the wonton order for us. According to the rules of the martial arts world, this is a favor to us. How can we repay the favor with resentment?”

Xie Zhanpeng, however, said disdainfully, “Eldest senior brother, do you still talk about Jianghu morality now? This world is the world of the rich. Whoever has money will have the final say.

“As long as we get 100 million from his hands, each of us can get more than 10 million. When we get the money, we can have all the women and food we want.

“Can you give us all these things?”

Even tianlei saw that his senior and junior brothers had been incited. He rubbed his fists and was eager to give it a try.

He was burning with anger and roared like thunder, “Shut Up! Do you still have me in your eyes as your senior brother? Anyway, when you say this, don't say anymore.

Otherwise, I will clean up the sect right now!a€?

Everyone's initial excitement was forcefully suppressed.

Lian tianlei softened his tone and said in a low voice, a€?We're poor, but we have to be ambitious. This time, when we come to Linhai, we first have to find our martial uncle, and secondly, we have to go see Shao Mingzun from the black sect.

This time, he issued the Martial World Order and hung up the banner. We can go and seek refuge with him. When we settle down, we can think of ways to earn money. Now, we don't do anything. Do You Hear Me?a€?

Everyone weakly agreed with him. After all, he was the one who had received their master's true teachings.

If they angered Lian tianlei, it wouldn't benefit them.

However, Xie Zhanpeng didn't say a word.

Anyone who sought refuge with him would be under someone else's roof. He still had to be the boss in order to make his own decisions.

Meanwhile, Yu Tian, who was in the restaurant, was no longer in the mood to eat.

It just so happened that Chu Xin called him and asked him to meet her at the fence yard.

Yu Tian got up and was about to pay the bill when long Chenyang said, a€?Yu, I can do it. How can I Let You Spend Money?a€?

Yu Tian didn't care about such a small amount of money. Who Wouldn't buy it?

He nodded slightly and said indifferently, a€?Then I won't argue with you. After paying the bill, you guys should hurry back. Those people from before, their origins are unknown. Be careful!a€?

Long Chenyang and long nianxue did not say anything else and personally sent Yu Tian out of the restaurant.

When they paid the bill, Long Chenyang's heart really ached a little.

It was more than 70,000 yuan. He had to use all of long nianxue's private money to get enough for this meal.

Yu Tian went to the red fragrance nightclub in the Fence Yard. Chu Xin had already opened a private room and ordered food and drinks.

After the meeting, Chu Xin opened the window and pointed at the nightclub across the street, which was of the same level and scale as red fragrance, and gave a brief introduction. "Brother, the nightclub across the street is against us everywhere. Look at the sign at the door. The private room is free of charge, and if it costs more than 100 yuan, it will give us beer."

"I have invested in 15 nightclubs in the fence yard, and there are 21 black and red nightclubs across the street. Now, they are competing with us in all aspects."

"But the strange thing is, I actually don't know who the boss of black and red is. This person is very mysterious. Little brother, as long as you can find out who the boss is, you don't have to worry about anything else!"

Yu Tian drank his beer and stood up to look over.

The black and red nightclub across the street was indeed much better than Hong Customers came in and out, and there seemed to be many dancers.

It was impossible for the boss behind-the-scenes not to know that the boss of Hong Xiang was Chu Xin.

However, he did not put the Chu family in his eyes at all. He just wanted to use this kind of competition to suppress the Chu family.

Doing so would not benefit this mysterious boss. How could he earn money by doing this?

Could it be that he was doing this to earn money at a loss?

If he was so rich, he could do something. Did he have to act so pretentiously?

Thinking of this, Yu Tian put down the beer can and said with a faint smile, "I'll go over now and see who can act so pretentious?"

Chu Xin turned around and lovingly adjusted the collar of his suit and the black tie for him.

"Little brother, just go and take a look. Don't be rash and don't fight!"

Yu Tian smiled disdainfully and said, "You make me sound like a socialite!"

After saying this, Yu Tian left and went straight to the entrance of the black and red nightclub.

The doorman warmly received him and shouted, "Welcome to the black and red nightclub. Sir, how many people are you? Are you going to spend money in the lobby or in a private room?"

The doorman could not speak clearly and Yu Tian did not understand what he was saying at all.

He could only helplessly shake his head and say, "Get me a private room. I heard that you have good girls here? Get Me a few!"

The doorman saw that Yu Tian's demeanor was extraordinary and that his words were heroic. He knew that he was not lacking in money.

He was busy making arrangements with the walkie-talkie and brought Yu Tian all the way to the third floor.

Just as he turned the stairs, Yu Tian was shocked by the scene in front of him.

In the corridor that was a hundred meters long, the lights were blurry and pink shadows could be seen. Over a hundred young girls wearing black short skirts were standing on both sides in various styles.

When they saw Yu Tian, they all bowed and shouted in unison, "Good evening, Sir!"

Yu Tian smiled and licked his dry lips. This was probably the formation that the ancient emperors used when they entered the harem.

The doorman led the way as he introduced, "Sir, our private room is free and drinks are free. The girls here can dance freely. Their charge is 500 per hour.

They can sing, dance, touch, and play all kinds of tricks. Sir, you can choose now!"

Is this the same as asking the Emperor to flip the sign?

Yu Tian smiled indifferently and randomly selected a few girls with good figures and good looks.

Yu Tian mainly thought that their long legs were not bad and were very pleasing to the eye.

When he walked into the private room, Yu Tian realized that the nightclub was really willing to spend money on the renovation.

The walls on all four sides were filled with artistic reliefs, and all kinds of lights made it look like a stage. It was truly romantic.

There was also the sofa and table. It was obvious that they were worth a lot.

The five girls started to get busy as soon as they entered the room. Some turned on the music while others turned on the air conditioner.

There were also a few girls who sat around Yu Tian and asked gently and charmingly, “Sir, our private room is free. Beer is free, but everything else is the normal price!”

“Yes, sir, but I see that you're so handsome, so you definitely don't lack money. What kind of wine would you like to drink?”

“We can also order food here. The chef from the back kitchen was invited from the south, and his cooking skills are especially good!”

Yu Tian felt that the boss of this nightclub really knew how to do business.

On the outside, it looked like he didn't earn any money for the sake of competition.

But in fact, he's making more fucking money than anyone.

In that case, let's play with him here. .

?Chapter 173 – : Chapter 173. Be More Exciting

Thank you readers!

“What's the most expensive wine?”

Yu Tian asked indifferently.

The girl with long hair and oval face, whose name tag said “Sisia”, held Yu Tian's arm and said softly, “Of course it's the Empire Red Pearl. It costs 780,000 yuan per bottle. Sir, don't tell me you want to order this wine?”

The girl with short hair and round face, whose name was Aini, who was sitting on the right, also said excitedly, “Sir, if you really don't lack money, just order a bottle for us. We've never drunk that wine before!”

Yu Tian had long seen that the people here were staring at the money in your pocket. They didn't care who you were.

Since you want to drink, then I'll let you drink to your heart's content.

He smiled indifferently and said arrogantly, “If you have wine, what about food?”

The long-legged girl who had just finished playing the music hurriedly introduced, a€?We have roasted whole sheep, roasted whole fish, Bird's nest, and abalone!a€?

She was really picky about how expensive it was.

The five girls looked at each other and all gathered around. They said coquettishly, a€?Boss, give us some. Look at how pitiful we are!a€?

a€?That's right, boss. We usually don't have such good guests like you. Why Don't you leave us some good memories?a€?

a€?The moment I saw you, I knew you were a standard warm man. We didn't even eat today. Don't you feel sorry for us?a€?

Yu Tian just laughed and said arrogantly, a€?Sure, call the waiter!a€?

a€?Okay! You're too kind!a€?Sisi agreed and quickly got up to press the pager.

Perhaps afraid that Yu Tian would go back on his word, Aini hugged Yu Tian's arm tightly and said with a soft laugh, a€?If there's good wine, our dance will also look good. Sir, let's see if you can let us play a unique skill for you today!a€? Yu Tian just smiled and did not say anything.

Play a unique skill?

That's good. I'll just see if it's your unique skill or mine that's better.

At that moment, the waiter pushed open the door and entered. He asked politely, a€?Would you like to order something from this room?a€?

Sisi hurriedly waved her hand.

Before ordering, Yu Tian asked them first.

a€?Ladies, how much can you drink?a€?

Aini smiled and said, a€?How much can you order for us? How much can we drink? We have to drink every day. We have already trained our alcohol tolerance!a€?

Yu Tian nodded slightly and smiled at the waiter. a€?Alright then. Give me a hundred bottles of red wine from the empire's Red Pearl!a€?

Everyone was instantly shocked. They all thought that Yu Tian was joking with the waiter.

The waiter also smiled brightly and said, "Sir, you really know how to joke. This empire's red pearl costs 780,000 yuan per bottle. Of course, with your status, you don't care about money at all. But you have to let these women drink it!"

Sisi said coquettishly, "AlYO, my dear, stop joking. How many bottles do you want to order?"

Yu Tian suddenly stopped smiling and said coldly, "What, do you think I'm joking? Imperial Red Pearl, give me a hundred bottles!"

The private room instantly fell silent, and all the women were shocked.

The waiter felt fear. Even if you had money, you couldn't spend it like this.

She clenched the pen in her hand tightly, she explained, "Sir, we only have ten bottles of the Empire Red Pearl. It's such an expensive wine. It's impossible to store so many bottles, right? Why Don't you order a few more bottles? Our Lafite is not bad!"

Yu Tian said disdainfully, "I only drink the Empire Red Pearl. What is Lafite? I usually use it to wipe my shoes. Don't you have a branch in black and red? Go and make some!"

The waiter wiped the sweat off his forehead and didn't know what to say.

Sisi exchanged glances with the girls and said, "Boss, I know you don't lack money. Can we be more serious? We have to pay for the things we order here. Even if we have money, we can't spend it like this.

"One hundred bottles of empire red pearls, that's 78 million. It's enough to buy this nightclub!"

Yu Tian understood what she meant. He chuckled and said, "Are you afraid that I won't be able to come up with the money to play with you guys?"

Aini smiled and explained, "Look at what you're saying. We're also trying to save you money!"

He laughed and said, "There's no need to save money. I want 100 bottles of empire red pearls, 10 roasted whole sheep, 500 sets of bird's nest, and 1000 abalones!"

Before the waiter could react, Yu Tian took out his phone and scanned 200 million.

The moment the payment was completed, the waiter felt as if his body had been emptied.

Sisi and the other girls were all dumbfounded.

They had seen people spend money to act pretentious, but they were not that good at it.

This had completely surpassed the level of acting pretentious, and had reached the level of the originator.

Even the finance department of the Black and red nightclub headquarters was dumbfounded. They bared their teeth and checked the computer, thinking that there was a problem with the system.

There was no problem with the payment process. They had indeed received 200 million in funds.

At this moment, Yu Tian waved his phone and said indifferently, "If you want to play, then play it more exciting. Or don't play, Don't you agree? Waiter! Waiter!"

The shocked waiter finally came back to his senses.

Yu Tian ordered, "What are you thinking about? Are You Hungry? Quickly get them to bring me this. You can also come and eat!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Sisi stared at Yu Tian with a fiery gaze. Suddenly, she said, "Brother, do you have a woman by your side? What do you think of me? I can sing and dance, wash clothes, cook, and have children. Moreover, I'm a decent Lady.

"Why don't You Take Me? Ill do anything for You!"

Aini also said, "Father, Ill be your goddaughter. You can enjoy anything you want at my place anytime, Anywhere!"

Yu Tian hurriedly stopped her and said, "Stop, I have no intention of becoming a father!"

At this moment, the things that Yu Tian ordered were sent to the private room.

Of course, the drinks were sent first, and the food was served later.

The waiter even explained to Yu Tian, "Sir, we will serve the food one after another. Some of them have to be prepared first, and we have to buy them on the spot!"

Yu Tian did not care about these at all. He turned around and smiled at Sisi and the others. "Alright, let's eat. Today is my treat. The five of you can eat and drink as much as you want.

If all of you can eat and drink all of these, I will give each of you a 100 million tip!"

The hearts of the girls exploded.

Who wouldn't want a 100 million yuan tip.

But these things couldn't be eaten. Even if they were stuffed to death, they wouldn't be able to eat or drink all of them.

Yu Tian chuckled and said, "Come, bring your cell phones over. I'll give each of you 50 million yuan!"

Sisi took a look. This man seemed to have come to shake up the scene today.

Moreover, he was so decisive and ruthless. It seemed that the five of them were going to give it their all today.

Thinking of this, she stood up and said domineeringly, "Brother, we won't take the money first. We know that you don't care about this little bit of money. We'll try to eat and drink as much as we can now. If we can't eat, we still have our sisters outside to help us!"

However, Yu Tian smiled and shook his head. .

Chapter 174 – Chapter 174, Getting Married

Thank you readers!

"I ordered the five of you, but I didn't order all the women here. Life has to be a little challenging, right?" Yu Tian said with a faint smile.

After thinking for a while, she decided to go all out today. She said generously, "Okay, as long as you're happy, we'll accompany you!"

Then, these women shook their cheeks and ate and drank.

The entire nightclub was shaken. Food and drinks filled the entire corridor, and the door of the private room was filled with people.

Yu Tian just listened to the music indifferently and sipped the red wine. How they ate and drank had nothing to do with him.

If the person in charge at the back did not come out, they would eat until they exploded today.

The few of them did not even eat half of the roasted whole sheep before they could not swallow anymore.

Their long legs had only taken half a bite of the abalone before they turned around and vomited.

Aini had drunk half a bottle of empire red pearls and could not even stand properly. She was still taking food and drinks into the house.

Sisi looked at Yu Tian's indifferent expression and her heart was filled with extreme hatred.

This was clearly using money to play with them. Moreover, they wanted to play them to death.

The current situation was no longer something that the few of them could control.

She immediately gave a signal to the waiter, telling her to call for help. If they continued to play, they would definitely die here.

The waiter understood and turned around to call for the thugs who were guarding the place.

The five men pushed the crowd aside and walked into the private room with an imposing manner.

Yu Tian looked at the leader as if he was an idiot.

In order to show off his tattoos, he even deliberately rolled his tank top onto his shoulders. His big head was swaying, and he was even dumber than an idiot.

This guy started shouting as soon as he entered the door.

“F * ck, it's quite a big scene. If I didn't know better, I would have thought that we were getting married here. Bro, this is a nightclub, a place to have fun. If we play it to a certain extent, it's enough. How many more can we squeeze to death?”

Yu Tian couldn't be bothered with these few good-for-nothings.

He casually took a bottle of empire red beads and crushed it with one hand.

The expressions of the thugs tensed up.

This was a tough nut to crack.

As for the leader of the thugs, he felt that Yu Tian was just trying to put on a show with him. They were people from the society, so who would be afraid of them?

This good-for-nothing chuckled and said, "You did a pretty good job. Breaking the bottle with one hand isn't a big deal. Just Crush all the broken glass and I'll immediately kneel down and call you dad. If you can't crush it, then kneel down and crawl under my legs!"

Yu Tian did not say a word. He picked up a handful of broken glass and squeezed it hard. Then, like pouring sand, he sprinkled the glass powder on the table.

The thugs were terrified on the spot. If he squeezed their bodies, their bones would turn into powder.

The most important thing was that Yu Tian had spent a whole 200 million. No matter how they looked at it, Yu Tian was not someone they could provoke.

In fact, they were starting to regret why they had to come to work..

Yu Tian clapped his hands and looked up at his big head that was about to explode. He casually pointed at the ground beside him and said indifferently, "All of you, kneel down and feed me until I'm happy!"

"Sigh, sigh| we'll eat, we'll drink!"

The big head felt that his muscles and bones were a little out of order. Especially when he saw Yu Tian's cold gaze, he was so scared that he almost peed his pants.

There was no need to talk nonsense. The one sitting was the real boss. What were these few people worth?

He quickly kneeled in a row on the wall and started eating and drinking with the few girls.

Sisi was about to cry. The people guarding the place were scared. Now, the manager could only appear.

Big Head had already sent a message to the manager.

"President, come quickly. Someone is going to die!"

Yu Tian had just changed the song when a middle-aged man in a suit walked into the private room.

This guy smiled and sat beside Yu Tian. He poured himself a glass of wine and said in ajianghu tone, "Brother, which path and which door are you lighting the lanterns on today?"

Yu Tian glanced at him impatiently and said coldly, "Walk through the Heaven Gate, cross the Earth River, hang the lanterns and illuminate the bottom. Let's see which path is the Dark One!"

He usually did not like to say these words, but since they were playing with him, then he would play with them.

The manager frowned slightly. This kid's words were arrogant. Did he want to know the boss of this nightclub?

Even he did not know who the boss was.

Thinking of this, he smiled coldly and said gloomily, "The road leads to the road, and the river leads to the river. We have not tied any strings with this gentleman, right? Come to our place to smell flowers and drink a little wine. Little Seven welcomes you.

"But if you split the road, how can we talk about the rules of the Jianghu?"
"Black heads have good ideas and hide deep. You have to pull them out yourself. What can you dig out here?" "Let me give you a piece of advice. We travel all over the world, and all we see is faces.

"If your face is torn apart, then let's see Flesh and blood!"

Yu Tian couldn't be bothered to talk nonsense with him. This trash had just finished speaking when he was punched into the wall. Several of his strangles were broken, and the screams were so loud that everyone's scalps were numb.

Looking at Yu Tian grimacing in pain and his eyes filled with disgust, Yu Tian said disdainfully, "After the manager, who else is there? Call everyone over. Don't waste time. I'm still listening to music!"

The manager covered his strangle bones, gritted his teeth, and made a call with his cell phone.

"Hey, someone is planting a flag on the top of the plate. If you want to interrupt, just do it. You have to come over and hold the fort!"

Yu Tian did not care about these things. He turned to look at Big Head, Sisi, and the others. They were so scared that they picked up their food and stuffed it into their mouths.

Half an hour later, there was a commotion outside the room.

Following that, a wave of crisp high heels came to the door.

The people who were watching the commotion all retreated to the sides.

Yu Tian looked over coldly.

The woman who entered the room was in her thirties. Her temperament was not bad and her figure was not bad. Especially her looks, she gave people a very warm feeling. Her makeup was also very warm.

Her black silk legs were even warmer.

The woman looked around and chuckled. "You guys really had a good time today. No matter what, that alone is worth a hundred and eighty. Who can eat it normally? Hurry up and thank this gentleman for his gift."

Oh, this woman wanted to control the scene when she entered the room.

She was neither hot nor cold, neither servile nor overbearing. She praised him and even dissolved them.

However, no matter how one looked at her, she didn't seem like the boss of this nightclub.

At most, she was just a manager.

Seeing that she was a woman, Yu Tian only smiled disdainfully.

Sisi and the others immediately bowed to Yu Tian and thanked him. They turned around and ran out of the private room, throwing up for a while before saying anything else.

In the private room, the woman sat elegantly opposite Yu Tian. Her white teeth were slightly exposed, and her red lips were slightly parted, she smiled gently and said, "No matter how we walk on the road of Jianghu, it will always be stormy. We will follow the rules and walk along the road, but we will still walk in circles on the same spot."

"Let's Talk About You and me. In the end, it's all people on this road who are eating this face. The leader of the Dark Clan, Yi Xueyue, is here to greet you!"

The Dark Clan?

Wasn't it just a chicken coop?

Why were there so many martial arts sects in Linhai recently?

No wonder there were so many women in this nightclub. It turned out that the dark clan was pulling the strings.

Yu Tian did not want to give her face. He only gave her a cold snort. .

?Chapter 175 – Chapter 175, I Step On The Jianghu

Thank you readers!

Yu Tian said disdainfully, "Don't talk to me about the slang of the jianghu. I'm not a jianghu person, because all the jianghu people are under my feet, including you."

"I didn't come here today to talk nonsense with you. Tell me, who is the boss of Hei Hong? As long as you satisfy me, I will treat the 200 million I spent today as a bonus for you!"

Yi Xueyue maintained her smile. The boss of black and red was a very mysterious person. She had always contacted him on his cell phone when she was here for a meal.

Up until now, she had not seen this mysterious person. How could she satisfy this person in front of her?

She smiled slightly and said, "We who walk in the jianghu are all making a living. There is no saying who will step on who. At most, I won't be here for this job. Our secret sect is originally a flower that has drifted away. Wherever the wind blows, it will be there."

"We also have a saying. Who is the boss of the Black and red nightclub? I'm not sure either. This depends on your ability. How much money do you spend here? That is also your ability. No one can control you."

"But let's get back to the topic. All the girls in the black and red nightclub call me big sister. I have to protect them. If you want to step on them, I Won't Stop You. Moreover, I Can't Stop You."

"That's all I have to say. You decide for yourself!"

Yu Tian smiled indifferently.

This woman is playing hardball with me. She says she doesn't know who the boss is, so whose money do you earn?

Such a big nightclub and so many branches. There are thousands of employees in such a big company, but no one has seen the boss.

Even a ghost wouldn't believe it.

Since they all wanted to play hard, then let's play with them. Isn't life just a game?

Let's see who can play it and see who can play it well.

So he said domineeringly, "Well, since you can throw away your money, then what do I Care?"

From now on, I, Yu Tian, will keep an eye on you black and red. If you can make a business deal. "I, Yu Tian, write two words backwards. When will your boss come out to see me? "When can we sit down and drink and have a good time again?"

Yu Tian said his name, but it made Yi Xueyue secretly surprised.

So he was Yu Tian, the man who was famous in Linhai.

Behind him was the power of the Chu family, which even ghosts would go around.

No wonder he came here today to see the boss. Hei Hong had always been fighting for Hong Xiang's business.

He must have been sent by those people from the Chu family.

Although his secret clan was powerful, compared to the Chu family and Yu Tian, it was like a drop in the ocean.

If they were provoked because of the invisible boss, the one who would suffer in the end would still be the secret clan.

The Dark Clan ate the food of this woman. The grudges and grudges of the Jianghu had nothing to do with them.

Thinking of this, Yi Xueyue slightly bowed and said gently, "So it's Mr. Yu. Your name is like thunder in my ears. It's my honor to meet you in person today!"

Yu Tian didn't want to listen to this nonsense. He directly stood up and said coldly, "I don't have any honor. You guys make me very dissatisfied. Those who make me dissatisfied are all trash.

They will all be thrown away!"

After saying this, Yu Tian took a step and was about to leave.

"Please Wait!" Yi Xueyue also stood up and said, "The Dark clan will need your care in the future. The jianghu is very particular about etiquette.

"Today, you came here to try to pull some strings. As a jianghu person, I can't not give you face. Although I haven't met Hei Hong's boss, I have his cell phone number.

“Can you meet this person?” “It depends on your own ability. We are just flower petals that drift with the wind and rain. We can't afford to offend anyone. If there's anything that I'm sorry about today, please don't take it to heart, Mr. Yu!”

These words were actually quite interesting.

Yu Tian took the cell phone number and smiled indifferently. “When flowers float, they will eventually fall to the ground. But before they fall, you must clearly see what is on the ground. Don't touch the thorns. When the time comes, the pain will still be on you!”

Yi Xueyue smiled gratefully and said gently, “Thank you for your reminder, Mr. Yu. This door of the pugilistic world will always be open for you. No matter whether you live or Wade in the river, I will wait for the day when we meet again!”

It was really difficult to talk to these pugilistic people. If you have something to say, just say it directly and beat around the bush.

Yu Tian looked at the food and drinks around him and chuckled, “I haven't finished eating. I Won't take that bag anymore. Take it as my thanks to You!”

Watching Yu Tian leave, Yi Xueyue smiled slightly and muttered to herself, “This person will definitely become the overlord of a region in the future, so I have to rely on him closely.

If I can cling onto his leg, the meals of the Dark clan will be delicious in the future!”

Yu Tian returned to the private room of the red fragrance nightclub, where Chu Xin was still waiting.

Chu Xin was also very anxious to know who the boss of the black and red nightclub was?

Before Yu Tian could sit down and catch his breath, she couldn't wait to ask, “How is it, brother? Did you find out who their boss is?”

Yu Tian casually threw his phone number on the table and said with a faint smile, “I spent 200 million to get this phone number. It must be very valuable!”

“AH? 200 million? What did you do?” Chu Xin looked at the phone number in shock.

“Nothing much. I just treated a bunch of ladies to a drink and a meal. These ladies are all from the underworld and will be of use to them in the future. This 200 million will be a tip for them!”

Chu Xin was not worried about the money. It was just that the underworld was a group of experts in the field of romance. Could Yu Tian really be able to deal with them with ease?

She said worriedly, "I heard that this dark clan has scammed a lot of rich people. In the future, you must be careful when you interact with them. If you can avoid them, try not to come into contact with them."

"Most importantly, you must not ruin your reputation because of them!"

Yu Tian took the phone number and said disdainfully, "When comparing reputation and strength, I will still choose the latter because I have many enemies. After killing one, one will appear."

"Then I'll continue working until all my enemies are gone. Reputation is nothing!"

He immediately called Chu Meng and gave her the phone number.

A few minutes later, Chu Meng sent him an address.

Yu Tian looked at it carefully. It was actually in the middle of the city but in that luxurious mansion.

An hour later, Yu Tian followed the address and arrived at the seventeenth floor of a high-rise building. He pressed the doorbell first.

However, the room was very quiet, as if no one was there.

Yu Tian turned around and wanted to leave, but the sound of something falling came from the room. .

?Chapter 176 – Chapter 176. He Was The Boss

Thank you readers!

Hearing the sound, Yu Tian turned around and looked at the door. He leaned on the door and listened carefully.

The room was still very quiet.

After thinking for a while, Yu Tian pulled open the door.

What else was there to listen to?

It would be better to come in and take a look.

There was no one in the living room, and there was no one in the two small bedrooms.

When Yu Tian pushed open the door of the big bedroom, he saw a man lying on the bed.

The moment he saw this man, Yu Tian was shocked.

Wasn't this Zong Ming who had turned into a vegetable?

Why was he here?

Moreover, the way he looked at him was completely different from a vegetable.

And his hands and feet seemed to be able to move.

Could he be the behind-the-scenes boss of the Black and red nightclub?

Zong Ming's eyes, ears, and tongue were all gone. He had no idea who the person who entered the room was?

What was even more surprising was that he actually slowly raised his hand, took the phone, and wrote a few words on it. Yu Tian looked up.

“Is it Jianzhong?” Jianzhong?

Ren Jianzhong?

Didn't he already leave Linhai? Could he have been here the whole time?

At this moment, the door was pushed open again.

Yu Tian suddenly turned around. The person who entered the door was indeed Ren Jianzhong.

The moment their eyes met, Ren Jianzhong was shocked and turned to run.

Yu Tian followed closely and kicked Ren Jianzhong to the ground at the elevator entrance.

Ren Jianzhong knew that he could not outrun Yu Tian, so he simply gave up. He turned over and leaned against the wall. He sneered and said, “What do you want? It's up to you. I'm going all out today!”

Yu Tian frowned slightly and asked indifferently, “Why are you hanging out with Zong Ming? You even set up so many nightclubs and went against the Chu family. Do you really not want your life anymore?”

“Life? Are you going to let me live?”

Ren Jianzhong said angrily, “I was just blinded by money at that time. You guys wanted to kill me.

“Chu Qing and I grew up together. Because of you, she has no feelings for me at all. So I want to take revenge. Even if she is afraid that I will throw my life away, I will make you regret it!”

Seeing how determined he was, Yu Tian just shook his head helplessly and said softly, “I really don't know what you are thinking. Do you think that you are a match for the Chu family in terms of strength?”

Ren Jianzhong laughed out loud, “Don't think that the Chu family is so great. Although they are one of the top families in the world, it is impossible for everyone to come to Linhai.

“I only need to kill you and Chu Qing. I don't even think about going against the Chu family. You forced me to do this. Even if I fall into your hands today, I won't submit to you.

“I'm not afraid to tell you that many experts have already come to Linhai. Their target is you. They want to kill you!”

Yu Tian didn't care about this at all. What kind of experts were inferior to him?

In front of him, he was just waiting to die.

Thinking of this, Yu Tian sighed slightly. After all, Ren Jianzhong and Chu Qing grew up together.

He was really embarrassed to make a move on him.

Moreover, Ren Jianzhong's nature wasn't bad. It was just that he wasn't very considerate sometimes.

Last time, he didn't say anything when he bet on boxing, but this Ren Jianzhong was the first to cower.

After making up his mind, Yu Tian said indifferently, “No one will do anything to you. You can continue living in the future, but don't go against the Chu family again.

I'm saying this for your own good. If you still don't know what's good for you, then don't blame me for being rude to you!”

Ren Jianzhong looked at Yu Tian in shock.

Didn't he want to kill me?

At that moment, Yu Tian had already stepped into the elevator. He did not even look at him until the elevator door closed.

Ren Jianzhong sat for a long time before he slowly got up.

When he returned to his bedroom, he said to Zong Ming, "The person who came is Yu Tian!"

When Zong Ming heard this name, his entire body trembled.

He picked up his phone with a trembling hand and slowly wrote a few words.

"You must kill him. This is what you promised me!"

Ren Jianzhong didn't say anything because he didn't know if what he was doing was right or wrong?

Zong Ming followed up by writing, "The way I look today is all thanks to him. If you don't avenge me, I will find someone else. Then, our cooperation will not continue.

Don't even think about getting a single cent of my two billion dollars!"

At the mention of the two billion dollars, Ren Jianzhong's heart grew a blade of grass.

He had saved Zong Ming back then for the sake of the money in his hands.

Now that the overall situation had been set up, he would be able to get it very soon. At this time, he could not give up.

So he said firmly, "I will avenge you, but if I don't get the money, I will be the first one to kill you!"

At the same time, in the Chu family villa.

Yu Tian buried himself in the sofa tiredly. Chu Meng sat directly next to him and massaged him as she said gently, "Look at my husband, he's exhausted. Are You in a bad mood? Tell your wife!"

Chu Hong glared at Chu Meng and said angrily, "Can you not be so cheap? We're still living here. It's fine if you're shameless outside, but you're still so shameless at home!"

Chu Xin, who was standing at the side, quickly tugged at Chu Hong and said in a low voice, "Are you stupid? Can't you see that your brother is very tired? He wants to rest now, but you're still making so much noise here!"

Chu Hong snorted coldly and sat on the side without saying a word.

Yu Tian called Chu Qing to his side. Chu Qing's temper didn't care about that. She grabbed Chu Meng's hair and dragged her to the side while gritting her teeth.

Following that, Yu Tian briefly told everyone about meeting Ren Jianzhong that night.

Chu Qing was very surprised. She thought that Ren Jianzhong was already dead. She didn't expect that this guy was still alive and was even going against her family.

She said angrily, "How can you be so magnanimous to him? Have you forgotten how he tricked you back then?"

Her disappointment in Ren Jianzhong was too great.

Chu Meng laughed disdainfully. "You've been with my husband for so long, yet you don't understand his personality. He could kill an ant with a single step, yet he can't wait to find two monks to cross over. Who else can you expect him to kill?"

Just as everyone was talking, the door of the villa was slammed heavily.

The servant opened the door and screamed in fear.

Everyone rushed to the door and saw Chu Yue, who was covered in blood, lying unconscious at the door.

Yu Tian quickly carried her to the sofa and took a closer look before he realized.

Chu Yue had been stabbed more than a dozen times, and her clothes had been soaked in blood.

No time to think, Yu Tian directly tore her clothes.

?Chapter 177 – Chapter 177, He Refused To Accept His Fate

Thank you readers!

The wound was so deep that even the flesh was exposed.

Everyone was shocked by what they saw.

Yu Tian took out the golden needles and ordered, "What are you all looking at? Get the alcohol and clean clothes immediately!"

As he spoke, Yu Tian inserted all ten golden needles into Chu Yue's body.

The bleeding had stopped, but Chu Yue was still unconscious.

Chu Yue's injuries were too severe, and the wounds were clearly cut by a weapon with barbs.

There was no time to think. Who was so vicious? Saving her life was more important.

He immediately took out five golden needles and inserted them around Chu Yue's heart.

He took the alcohol from Chu Rou and poured it directly into the wound.

However, white foam suddenly appeared in the wound.

"Is it poisonous?"

Yu Tian suddenly frowned.

No wonder she was so heavily injured. She didn't wake up even after ten golden needles were inserted into her body.

Among the women of the Chu family, Chu Meng was the only one who was still calm.

She saw that Chu Yue's breathing was getting weaker and weaker. She said anxiously, "Hubby, this won't do. It seems that the poisonous gas has attacked her heart. We have to change her blood immediately!"

Yu Tian thought calmly. The golden needles could guarantee that Chu Yue wouldn't die, but they couldn't remove the poison in her body. If the golden needles were removed, she wouldn't be able to live even if she wanted to.

And the blood exchange was the only feasible way.

He immediately covered Chu Yue with clean clothes, picked her up, and left.

At the same time, Chu Qing called the hospital and told them to get ready to change Chu Yue's blood immediately.

When they arrived at the hospital, dozens of doctors and nurses, including the hospital director, who were already prepared, immediately began to change Chu Yue's blood.

Yu Tian, who was waiting outside the operating theater, frowned like a fried dough twist. Who had injured Chu Yue so badly?

At this moment, there was a sudden roar outside the hospital. A helicopter landed directly in the hospital's garden.

Chu Hui, surrounded by a few bodyguards, walked out of the helicopter with a frosty expression and went straight to the door of the operating theater.

When she saw everyone, Chu Hui first used her breath to adjust the anger and ups and downs in her heart. Then, she asked coldly, "How is Yueyue Now? Can She Be Saved?"

Yu Tian did not want to say anything at all. Whether she could be saved or not depended on how the blood exchange was going. Who knew about the rest?

Seeing that everyone did not want to say anything, Chu Qing could only sigh and say in a low voice, "The blood exchange is ongoing. We don't know yet!"

Chu Hui looked at Yu Tian and then asked Chu Qing.

"Is the area around the hospital locked down?"

"It's all locked down. The news can't be spread yet!" Chu Qing explained.

However, Chu Hui said in a deep voice, "If Chu Yue can't be saved, tens of thousands of people in the Chu family will disappear at the same time!"

Everyone immediately fell silent. Chu Rou was so scared that she lay in Chu Xin's arms and didn't even have the courage to cry out loud.

Yu Tianke was not surprised at all. He knew long ago that the 108 sisters of the Chu family were indispensable. If one of them died, all the members of the Chu family would also die.

If Chu Yue really could not be saved, then he definitely could not let the members of the Chu family die with her.

At this moment, Chu Hui's phone suddenly rang.

Seeing the number, she suddenly became nervous. She took two deep breaths before she answered the call.

Everyone stared at her in a daze.

But soon, Chu Hui hung up the phone and turned to look at Yu Tian, she said with extreme fear and emptiness, "The ship from before has appeared and is approaching the sea. Brother, it seems that Chu Yue can not be saved and the Chu family will be wiped out!"

Chu Rou burst into tears. Under the pressure of death, she finally broke down.

"I don't want to die. I don't want to die. I'm still very young. I still want to marry Yu Tian and have a child!"

Yu Tian was very calm. He even smiled as if he was joking, "What's so great about it? Aren't they just a few dead old men? Look at how scared they are.

Listen well, I didn't say anything. No one can take your lives!"

Although his words were very encouraging and everyone looked at Yu Tian with admiration, Chu Hui said helplessly, "If 108 is missing one, no one can stop this heavenly punishment.

"There are more than a few old men on that ship. Brother, if this is the fate of the Chu family, then you have to accept this fate!"

Yu Tian snorted and said disdainfully, "If I don't accept my fate, what can I Do?"

At this time, the director of the operating theater was very tired. He had performed surgery for his entire life, but he did not expect that it was just an ordinary blood exchange, but he was so tired that his legs seemed to be broken.

Chu Qing did not care about what he thought. She asked directly, "How is it? Can She Be Saved?"

The director took a breath first and said in a very depressed manner, "Although the blood has already been changed, the toxicity in her body has already seeped into her internal organs.

The toxicity is very strong and has caused all of her internal organs to be damaged. Even if she can survive, it will only be for a few days. I really can't do anything about it. I'm Sorry!"

Chu Qing was completely furious. This hospital had the best medical equipment in the world and the best team of doctors. Helpless?

She grabbed the hospital director's collar and shouted angrily, "I don't want to hear you talk about being helpless. I want you to save her no matter what method you use. Otherwise, I'll make all of you disappear!"

The hospital director's face turned red with embarrassment. He knew that Chu Qing was definitely not joking, but what could he do?

At this time, Yu Tian pulled Chu Qing's hand away and said indifferently, "Why are you telling this to an old man? Isn't there still hope now? As long as she's still alive, I can pull her back from the gates of hell!"

He then asked the director.

"According to what you know, is there any expert who can help?"

After being asked by Yu Tian, the director remembered someone.

He tugged at his wrinkled white coat and said, "You don't say. There really is such a person. Moreover, he is an expert in poison research in Linhai. He used to be a consultant in our hospital.

"It's because this old man has a weird temper. He even specialized in poison research. After a few days, he poisoned the hospital director until he had diarrhea. Then, he quit!"

This was a person that he could ask. As long as he could cure Chu Yue of her poison, he was confident that he could save her.

Yu Tian followed up and asked, "Where does the expert you mentioned live?"

"He lives near the seven vagabonds of the old man's mountain. His name is Gong Ru!"

Needless to say, Yu Tian turned around and was about to leave.

Chu Hui followed closely behind and said in a low voice, "Use my helicopter. I'll go with you!"

Yu Tian did not like to bring women around. They were in the way and had to find an empty place to Pee.

However, Chu Hui seemed to have something to say to him, so he nodded and agreed. The two of them left the hospital at the same time.

The helicopter rose into the sky and traveled under the stars in the wind and waves.

The old man's mountain was not far to begin with. Five minutes later, the helicopter hovered above the mountain range.

And seven twists was a village in the old man's mountain range. It was easy to find.

The helicopter landed in an open area. Yu Tian jumped to the ground and Chu Hui grabbed his arm. .

?Chapter 178 – Chapter 178, The Black Flag Killer

Thank you readers!

At this moment, tears were still hanging from the corner of Chu Hui's eyes. She looked like she was about to say something, which made Yu Tianxin feel pity for her.

The helicopter pilot knew that some words were not something he could listen to. He jumped out of the helicopter and stood 50 meters away.

Chu Hui felt uncomfortable. She held back her tears and said in a sorrowful voice, "Brother, if Chu Yue really can't be saved, you must remember that you must not go against those people. You are not their match at all.

"Moreover, the existence of the Chu family has always been a thorn in many people's eyes. At this time, if you stand on the side of the Chu family and go against them, your family may be wiped out.

"This is what I know, but what I don't know, perhaps it's not that important anymore!"

Yu Tian smiled indifferently.

Even his family was wiped out. was the power behind it that strong?

He looked at the silent forest in the distance and said disdainfully, "I have nothing to begin with.

I don't care whether they wipe me out or not. If they have the ability, then let them wipe me out.

"You only need to remember one sentence. As long as I, Yu Tian, am alive, no one will be able to lay a finger on you!"

After throwing down those words in a domineering manner, Yu Tian walked towards the seven twists without looking back.

Chu Hui felt as if she had fallen into the whirlpool of Yu Tian's courage. It took her a long time to come back to her senses.

Yu Tian turned seven turns and arrived at the entrance of the village.

There were only a few dozen households in the village in front of him. The dogs were barking and the chickens were barking and the children were crying.

Coincidentally, there was a snack bar at the entrance of the village. A group of people were eating melon seeds and playing mahjong. It was very lively.

Yu Tian's arrival made these people very confused.

Why did a young man in a suit come to this remote place in the middle of the night? What was he doing here?

Could it be that he wanted to seduce someone's wife?

Yu Tian bought a bottle of coke and asked the middle-aged boss at the same time.

“Uncle, do you know where an old man named Gong Ru Lives?”

The Boss Thought for a moment and suddenly said, “There is such a person, but he doesn't live here. He lives in the back mountain. The old man has a strange temper. He often buys wine from me. He even built a medicinal garden for himself.

“No one is allowed to enter. If a dog runs in, it will break its leg. If you want to find him, you'd better be careful!”

Yu Tian thanked him and wanted to leave. He turned around and asked, “You said that he is willing to drink wine?”

The boss blinked and nodded, “That's right. This old man is especially good at drinking. He drinks two catties of white wine in bulk at a time. If there is no food to drink, he can drink half a catty even if he licks the door frame!”

Yu Tian didn't want to listen to this nonsense. He looked at the cabinet behind the boss and said, “Fill up all the white wine you have here. Fill up all the dishes you have!”

With business, the boss was naturally happy. He hurriedly packed all the white wine into boxes. He also filled up a bag with peanuts, chicken feet, and the like.

When Yu Tian left with the things, the boss patted the money in his hand and said proudly, “I'm about to go to bed, and there's a big job. I sold it for more than 500 yuan. Hurry up and burn some incense for my father. Continue to bless me and make me rich!”

At this moment, Yu Tian walked along the rugged mountain road and arrived in front of a medicinal garden at the back of the mountain. He saw a white-haired old man sitting at the door of the wooden house.

Yu Tian just wanted to step in. Thinking of the old man's temper, he stopped and smiled through the wooden door, "May I ask if this old man is Doctor Gong Ru Gong?"

The old man angrily shouted, "There's no Gong Ru, no doctor, only a lousy old man!"

The old man's voice was full of energy and was very bold.

Yu Tian considered that the old man had a strange temper and directly stated his purpose of coming. It was impossible for the old man to open the door.

It would be better to use his weakness.

Thinking of this, Yu Tian chuckled and said, "Doctor Gong, I originally came to find you for a drink because of your reputation. Since you don't have such intentions, then I'll drink by myself!" When Gong Ru heard that there was wine, the hunger in his stomach began to wail.

Especially when Yu Tian opened the wine bottle and the fragrance of the wine filled the air, Gong Ru immediately swallowed his saliva.

In order to make the old man collapse, Yu Tian even deliberately smiled and said, "There's still peanuts, chicken feet, sausages, and elderflower. The key is that this isn't white wine!"

As he spoke, Yu Tian even took a sip and picked up the chicken feet to chew on it. That mouth of his made Gong Ru's head buzz with hunger.

Gong Ru couldn't take it anymore and shouted angrily, "Stop fucking smacking. Aren't you afraid of Bleeding Your Big Lips? Tell me, what do you want from me?"

Yu Tian immediately threw away the chicken claw and said seriously, "Senior Gong, I want to ask you to save someone. It's urgent!"

Gong Ru snorted coldly and said, "Even if the Sky Falls and the earth cracks, it has nothing to do with me. It's none of my business. Take your things and get out of here. Don't eat me here!" He was just a little excited when the old man poured a bucket of cold water on him.

Yu Tian gritted his teeth. This old man was really stubborn. How could he make him agree?

At the same time, the cargo ship that was floating on the sea was rampaging. A destroyer from a certain country on the sea was smashed into pieces by it.

A man in a white coat with white hair draped over his shoulders said coldly to the hundreds of masked men behind him, "In two hours, if Chu Yue doesn't live, you must wipe out the entire Chu family immediately. There must be no mistakes!"

"Yes, my Lord!"

As soon as he finished speaking, everyone suddenly disappeared from where they were.

The man flung his long hair, his face twisted with malevolence. He laughed coldly and said, "Yu family, I don't believe that all of you can hold on to power for long!"

Meanwhile, at the old man's Mountain, Chu Hui, who was waiting in the open, received a call from the family clan again.

The senior elder asked coldly, "Can Chu Yue Be Saved?"

Chu Hui hurriedly replied, "Yu Tian is looking for the antidote. Chu Yue will not die!"

The elder was silent for a moment before he said coldly, "The Black Banner Army has received the order. In two hours, Chu Yue's poison will not be cured. Everyone in the Chu family, hand over your lives!"

"What? The Black Banner Army has already moved out?" Chu Hui gritted her teeth and was trembling.

"Tell master that we can not force it. The life of the master is the most important. We have already come to our senses. Master has no regrets!" After the elder said that, he immediately hung up the phone.

A minute later, the 107 sisters received their orders at the same time.

"Wearing a black veil and a black mask, we can not resist. We will honor the heavens with our

The sisters exploded.

"Chu Hui, Can Chu Yue really not be saved? We are all going to die together!"

"Has master given up?"

"Our lives are not ours to begin with. Master does not even have the capital to play games with them. In the end, we are all the victims of their games!"

Yu Tian saw all these words.

He didn't care who was playing games with whom and for what games?

Now, he was playing games with this old man.

After thinking about it, Yu Tian came up with an idea. Whether it would work or not would depend on this one time.

He kicked open the courtyard door. When the old man saw that Yu Tian was playing hardball, he snorted coldly and picked up the hoe beside him.

?Chapter 179 – Chapter 179, Life-Reaping Grass

Thank you readers!

The old man was quite ruthless. He picked up the hoe and started to dig.

Yu Tian dodged and said, a€?I can invest in you to build a bigger, better, and more advanced medicinal garden!a€?

Gong Ru's heart skipped a beat. He stabbed the hoe into the ground and said coldly, a€?Are you kidding me? I help you save a person, and you invest in me? Do you think I'm Old and gullible? Do you believe that I can dig out your poop with a hoe? !a€?

Even if he could dig it out, it still counted.

Yu Tian smiled disdainfully and said sincerely, a€?The life and death of tens of thousands of people hangs on this person. Right now, only you can save this person.

a€?I know it's indeed rude to invite you here so suddenly, but my spit is a nail. I'll invest in You When I Say I'll invest in you. I Won't Lie!a€?

Gong ru was slightly touched by Yu Tian's sincerity.

He threw the hoe aside and said indifferently, a€?Give me a bottle of wine first!a€?

Yu Tian didn't care what kind of wine it was and casually threw a bottle to gong ru.

The old man gulped down half a bottle in one breath and said with a burp, a€?Not only do I want a big medicinal garden, I also want equipment!a€?

Was this still a problem?

Yu Tian said without hesitation, a€?You just need a few old ladies. There's no problem. Help me save them today and you'll get the funds later!a€?

Gong RU finished the remaining half of the bottle and his face turned red.

He threw the bottle away and said proudly, "Where are they? Take Me to see them!"

"They're at the hospital. I have a helicopter there. We can go there now!" Yu Tian made a gesture of inviting him, afraid that the old man would go back on his words after he sobered up.

"Wait, let me get something!"

Gong RU took out a medicine box from the wooden house and put on a coat. He closed the door and said, "Stop watching. Let's Go!"

Ten minutes later, Yu Tian and Gong Ru were standing in front of Chu Yue's bed.

At this moment, Chu Yue's face was as white as a sheet of paper. Her breathing was weak. Her lips had turned purple because of the poison that was wreaking havoc in her body. Everyone stood to the side and watched anxiously. Meanwhile, Gong Ru slowly held Chu Yue's wrist and took her pulse.

Chu Qing looked at the old man's disheveled appearance, and her heart was uncertain.

She pulled Yu Tian to the side and asked softly, "We can't afford to gamble now. The Black Flag

Army has already dispatched the steamer. If we can't Cure Chu Yue's poison in two hours, the Chu family will be exterminated!"

"Exterminated?"

Yu Tian chuckled and said disdainfully, "I'm still alive. Let's see who can exterminate your nine families!"

Hearing this, Chu Xin said very seriously, "Brother, you may not know the strength of the Black Flag Army. Any one of them that they call out is a monster. You are no match for them now!"

"Then I'm not afraid of them!" Yu Tian said proudly, "I've said it before. As long as I'm alive, no one can touch you!"

However, Chu Xin smiled helplessly. As she smiled, tears came out of her eyes.

"Little brother, do you know? The 108 sisters have lived and died for you. With the current strength of the Chu family, the Black Banner Army is still unable to wipe out the entire Chu family. However, the head of the family has decided to give up resisting. Don't you understand why?"

Yu Tian was particularly puzzled. If they could resist, why didn't they resist?

If they were waiting to be killed, were the lives of the Chu family that worthless?

Chu Xin added, "That's because if the Chu family were to resist, they would have even more reasons to deal with your family. In order to protect the strength of the Yu family, before you become a true powerhouse.

"We can't do anything to resist. This is the life of the Chu family. We also don't have the strength to resist!"

So it turned out that everything the Chu family had done was for him.

While Yu Tian was touched, he was also thinking about where the mysterious power came from? So he asked in a low voice, "Who wants to harm us? and who wants to hurt my family?"

Chu Hui explained, "That's all we know. When you meet the family head one day, he will explain it to you. What we need to do now is to save Chu Yue as soon as possible!"

At this moment, Gong RU also checked her pulse and nodded confidently. He stood up and smiled, "It's just a small trick!"

Everyone gathered around excitedly. Judging from the old man's confidence, he should be able to detoxify Chu Yue's poison.

Yu Tian asked indifferently, "Senior, does that mean you know what kind of poison she was poisoned with?"

Gong RU opened his medicine box and said slowly, "This is a strange poison, produced in the south. It's called the life-reaping grass, and its yield is not very high.

"Therefore, people who use poison like to use the life-reaping grass together with other poisons to produce a highly toxic effect. Fortunately, you called me here. If it were any later, this girl's internal organs would have rotted away!"

Yu Tian did not care what kind of poison he was poisoned with. He only wanted to know if he could be saved?

He continued to ask, "Then, is it easy to cure this poison?"

"Nonsense!"

Gong ru looked at the crowd with an unfriendly look. He snorted coldly and said, "Don't look at me. I'm not good-looking, and I'm not dressed well. But no matter what kind of poison I have, I can cure him!"

It turned out that the old man had heard their conversation.

Chu Hui and the others blushed. The old man's hearing was quite good.

Then, Gong Ru took out a black pill and asked Yu Tian to get a bottle of pure water.

He stuffed the pill into Chu Yue's mouth.

Everyone held their breaths and watched carefully.

After a few minutes, Chu Yue's face slowly turned red and her breathing became smoother.

Her lips, in particular, slowly turned from purple to red.

Gong ru then picked up Chu Yue's wrist and quietly checked her pulse.

Yu Tian wanted to ask, but he did not want to disturb the old man. He could only watch from the side.

After a few minutes, gong ru slowly put down his wrist and said proudly, "Her poison has been completely cured. You just need to inject some medicine to restore the function of her internal organs. In a few days, she will be fully recovered!"

When everyone heard this, the stone in their hearts finally fell to the ground.

They expressed their gratitude to Gong Ru.

Yu Tian invited Gong Ru to the waiting room of the hospital. After they sat down, Gong ru smacked his lips and demanded, "Do you have those wines with you? Give me another bottle!"

Those wines had already been thrown into the herb garden. Yu Tian smiled helplessly and said, "Please bear with it for a while. I'll get someone to send over the best wine immediately. Also, we can start immediately on how you want to build your Herb Garden!"

Yu Tian's spit was like a nail. Since Gong Ru had already saved Chu Yue, he had to fulfill his promise.

Gong ru smiled calmly and said slowly, "I still want to build my herb garden in the area of the old man mountain because the soil there is especially suitable for the growth of plants. However, there is a problem!"

Chapter 180 – Chapter 180. Fate Can Not Be Reversed

Thank you readers!

Gong ru placed the medicine box at his feet and said with a solemn expression, "My few acres of medicinal garden are all on the land of Qi Guizi village, but they think I'm poor and won't give me any more land.

Therefore, if I want to build my medicinal base, I have to first convince those big old poles in the countryside. Otherwise, they won't let me open a base there!"

With that said, Yu Tian immediately understood.

In the end, wasn't it just that he wanted to get some benefits?

This benefit could be completely ignored. Yu Tian said indifferently, "In this world, there are some things that can be solved with feelings. Other than feelings, money can solve it.

"This time, you saved a key person. I'll give you a reward of one billion. You take the money and build the base yourself. If anyone tries to stop you, you can directly smash them to death with money. If you can't smash them to death with money, tell me. I'll smash them to death!"

As he spoke, Chu Hong also handed the bank card to Yu Tian.

Yu Tian directly handed the bank card to Gong Ru and said with a smile, "Senior, this is your reward. One billion. You can spend it however you want. If it's not enough, you can tell me at any time!"

No matter how indifferent Gong RU was, when faced with so much money, his brain was buzzing.

That was money, a whole billion.

It was impossible to earn so much money by planting medicinal herbs for several lifetimes.

He carefully put the card into his pocket, he smiled excitedly and said, "You are indeed a man of your word. My old man is not the kind of person who is difficult to talk to. If you need my help in the future, just ask!"

While they were talking, the ship that was floating on the ocean suddenly stopped moving.

The white-haired middle-aged man in the cabin smashed a table in anger when he found out that Chu Yue had been saved.

“Such a good opportunity was ruined. This time, that damn family got a chance to breathe. It's so hateful!”

After saying this, he walked to a quiet and dark cabin.

Inside was a monk who was sitting in a monastic robe and reciting scriptures.

The white-haired man grabbed the monk's monastic robe and said angrily through gritted teeth, “This is the fate of the Chu family? How dare they fight with me? What kind of fate are you looking at?”

The monk slowly raised his head. His wrinkled face was not shocked at all. He said calmly, “There is only one kind of fate in this world that can not be seen through and suppressed!”

“What kind of Fate?” The white-haired man asked with an evil look in his eyes.

“Heaven's Fate!”

The monk put his palms together and said in a deep voice, “Only Heaven's fate can not be disobeyed. Only Heaven's fate can not be reversed. Amitabha!”

The Man released his hands and roared, “I don't believe in Heaven's will. There will never be another heaven's will!”

The monk did not argue with him and slowly closed his eyes.

The white-haired man left angrily, while the monk muttered, “Heaven's will has already been made. Who can contend with it? It's all in vain. The world's meritorious service. Amitabha. Good, good, good!”

Ten minutes later, the ship quickly disappeared on the sea level. It was as if it had melted into the night and disappeared without a trace.

Chu Hui received a call from her family's higher-ups. After confirming that the black flag army had all retreated, the girls burst into tears on the spot.

This feeling of their lives hanging by a thread, she hoped that it would never appear again in this lifetime.

At the same time, the Chu family also issued an order.

“From now on, the 108 sisters are not allowed to do anything that is detrimental to their lives. At the same time, the 108 sisters are to surround Yu Tian. When the opportunity comes, they must meet one after another!”

When Yu Tian saw this order in the group chat, he smiled bitterly.

Wasn't this encouraging the 108 sisters to come to his side?

Let's not talk about these 108 super rich men. How much destruction could they bring to this city?

These 108 women all had different personalities. Moreover, it seemed that many of them did not fit in well with others.

If all of them came to his side, what chance did he have to live?

At that time, he would probably even have the heart to commit suicide.

However, the 108 sisters were very excited.

“I've finally received this order. My body is already fully matured. If no one comes to pluck it, I'm afraid it will rot!”

“Shut up, Vixen. We Jade Girls haven't spoken yet. Why are you so anxious?”

“It's like we're all fairies. Brother, our 108 sisters were born within 108 days. They're all the same age, but they were born on different dates. You can like them all!”

Yu Tian quickly replied to a message.

“Everyone, stop. Are You 108 sisters or 108 infatuated girls? Do your jobs well and don't wander around me. You can only come when I tell you to. Do You Hear Me?”

The 108 sisters immediately replied.

“Yes, Hubby!”

“Yes, Hubby!”

“I'll listen to you, Darling!”

Yu Tian put the phone into his pocket and said with a frown, “If I really marry 108 wives, I don't even have the time to Pee. Ill have to spend the rest of my life in bed. This is so F * cking exciting!”

At noon the next day, Chu Yue finally woke up slowly.

After walking around the gates of hell, even Chu Yue herself felt a lingering fear.

She held Yu Tian's hand weakly and said pitifully, "Brother, the people who hurt me are experts in the jianghu. They are from the flower gate, especially the one who hurt me. He is the deputy sect master of the Flower Gate. His kung fu is extremely powerful!"

Yu Tian did not care about this at all. What Flower Gate and the Water Gate?

As long as they hurt the people around them, they would all end up dead.

He comforted her softly, "I know. You need to rest well now. You will recover soon. You Don't need to care about those people in the jianghu anymore. I will help you take revenge for this!"

Chu Yue nodded slightly and looked at Yu Tian guiltily. She said in a low voice, "I know that this time, it almost brought a destructive blow to the family. In fact, I didn't think that the deputy sect master's Kung Fu would be so high.

"Now, there are many jianghu people gathered in Linhai. They are working together to deal with you. No matter what, you have to deal with them carefully.

"In fact, I haven't left Linhai. I didn't show up because I wanted to see what they were going to do? "This time, the person behind the gathering of these jianghu people is Shao Mingzun from the black sect!"

"It's this old fart again. Last time, he spared his life. Not only did he not know how to appreciate it, he even played tricks behind the scenes.

Chu Meng was right. Sometimes, being merciful to your enemy was cruel to yourself.

This time, no one could stop him from taking that old fart's life.

Just as they were talking, the family issued another order. .
