Chapter 31: A Small Happiness

Ye Yongxi arrived at the scene after being notified. She watched the recording from beginning to end.

Han Wenling was the one who instructed a staff member to pass on the news. She pretended to act surprised to see Ye Yongxi and retrieved the electronic tablet. A smile spread across her face as she spoke.

a◆?President Ye, you came at the right time. I'd like to enquire your opinion on how to settle this mess. Besides, I should consult the boss before punishing a person, right?a◆?

Dongsheng Corporation was considered a well-known enterprise in Linhai City.

Its president, Ye Yongxi, was a beautiful woman in her thirties. Pretty women like her were always sought after by men.

Wang Yupeng was her latest a◆?plaything.a◆? She only promoted him to vice president because that made it more convenient for her to bring him around.

The man was considered lucky to be able to visit Feng Lai Yi. In fact, he had frequented this place over ten times.

There was a flurry of emotions on Ye Yongxi's face.

The second she walked in, Yupeng felt a chill down his spine.

Oh no!

Everything was ruined!

Despite that, he refused to accept his fate. He turned around and looked at Yongxi desperately, begging for assistance.

After all, the two of them had spent quite some time together. It was very likely that she had developed some feelings for him.

Yongxi took a deep breath to regain her composure.

a◆?I'll pay for all the damages my vice president has caused to the club as well as compensate the people that had their reputations destroyed because of him.a◆?

a◆?Compensate? Oi, do you think that I'm desperate for your money?a◆?

Wu Yulian mocked.

a◆?I finally understood why a petty person has no friends. If I were you, I??wouldn't let a terrible man like him anywhere near me.a◆?

Yulian concluded that she was the unluckiest person tonight.

She came here to have some fun but instead, she was involved in this huge mess.

Yongxi clenched her jaw before spitting out the next few words.

a◆?Then, what do you want?a◆?

Yulian covered her mouth with her hand and sneered, a◆?Well, if it's up to me, I'll make him kneel down and kowtow to me three times before crawling underneath my legs. That should do it. The others might be afraid of Dongsheng Corporation, but I'm not.a◆?

Yu Tian chuckled. After that, he cleared his throat.

a◆?President Ye, right? I won't demand your lover to kowtow or crawl between my legs. All I ask for is one of his hands! Earlier, he pointed his dirty finger at my older sister. Don't you think it's only fair that I chop off his hand?a◆?

a◆?Gasp!

Everyone gasped out of shock.

Tang Ran, Xiao Li, Qu Wen, and the other women stared at him with their eyes wide open.

Yongxi dared not offend Yulian, but she did not fear Yu Tian!

She knew that the men who visited Feng Lai Yi were mainly gigolos anyway.

At the very most, this little boy who dared to talk back at her was a kid from some rich family.

Besides, she knew all the rich young men in Linhai. Yet, she did not recall meeting this particular person.

Yongxi had finally found a chance to lash out and release the suppressed anger inside her.

A look of irritation flashed across her face.

“Who do you think you are? You're in no position to speak!”

Yu Tian's lips curled into an evil smile. He casually took out a name card from his pocket and handed it to the woman using his two fingers.

Xinghe Technology CEO Yu Tian.

The boss of Xinghe Technology, the top information technology enterprise in the entire Dongshan Province, was this young man right here!

Not only was Yongxi taken aback, but even Wenling narrowed her eyes.

It seemed very unlikely that everyone would walk away satisfied from tonight's mess.

Dongsheng Corporation resembled a tiny speck of dust in comparison to Xinghe Technology. The latter was a large-scale enterprise worth billions.

They could easily destroy Dongsheng with just a snap of a finger.

Yongxi tried to come up with a plan to end this matter peacefully. She could not afford to ruin her company's future.

Men were nothing but “playthings” to her. She could simply replace today's toy with a new one tomorrow.

She was slightly reluctant to make this decision, but Yupeng was insignificant in comparison to her company.

After making her decision, Yongxi curled her lips into a genuine smile.

She accepted the name card with both of her hands and replied politely, “It's a pleasure to meet you, President Yu. As of now, Wang Yupeng is no longer an employee of Dongsheng Corporation. So, you can do whatever you want with him.”

Yu Tian grinned with satisfaction.

a◆?You've made a smart choice, Miss Ye!a◆?

Yongxi forced another smile and stayed quiet after that.

a◆?President Ye, you can't do this to me!a◆? Please save me, pleasea◆?|I beg youa◆?|a◆?

Nonetheless, the security guards of Feng Lai Yi came over and surrounded Yupeng.

Upon realizing that he had no way to escape, he knelt down on his knees.

Yupeng crawled to Yu Tian's feet and tugged at the hem of the young man's pants.

He cried, a◆?President Yu, I'm sorry. Please forgive me! I'm a stupid fool. I shouldn't have developed inappropriate thoughts about Miss Chu. I promise thata◆?| No, I swear! I swear that I'll never appear in front of you and Miss Chu ever again. Please, give me a second chance!a◆?

His face was covered in tears and snot.

Yu Tian only looked at him coldly. There was a saying, one should beat the snake to death or it would cause endless calamity.

Being kind to the enemy meant being cruel to oneself.

a◆?It's too late to apologize now. You've already lost the chance when you deliberately accused and humiliated my older sister.a◆?

Yupeng stared at the young man who was expressionless.

a◆?Crack! Crack! Crack!'

The loud noise of bones cracking filled the air. What followed immediately after was the hysterical wailing of a man.

Yu Tian did not chop off the man's hand. Instead, he smashed the bones of his arm into pieces.

Serious injuries like this could not be cured even in a million years. Not even the world's best orthopedic doctor could help.

Yupeng's arm was crippled!

Chu Xin, who had stayed silent ever since the beginning, felt honored about the special treatment.

She did not think that Yu Tian would stand up for her to this extent!

This scene should have made her fear the young man. However, for some reason, there was a fuzzy feeling inside her heart.

“Now, kick him out. We're truly sorry for the inconvenience caused. At least things had come to a happy ending. Please return to your respective rooms and resume the party. Tonight's bills will be on the house.”

Clearly, Yu Tian was someone that should fear based on Yongxi and Wenling's reactions.

The others were only here to have fun. They did not want to get involved with any troubles.

Since Feng Lai Yi had already stepped in to mediate, the rest of the customers returned to their respective rooms.

Yu Tian's identity was very mysterious, but Chu Xin did not bother to elaborate and the other women knew better than to press further.

However, there seemed to be a slight tension in the air after the incident.

Less than two hours later, Chu Xin announced her intention to leave.

It was almost three o'clock in the morning by the time Chu Xin and Yu Tian arrived home.

“Lil Tian, thanks for tonight.”

“Elder Sister Xin, you don't have to be so polite with me.”

“Well, I'm returning to my room now. You should get some rest too.”

Yu Tian only headed back to his room after seeing the woman's receding figure..

Chapter 32: Emergency Meeting

Shortly after he got into bed, Yu Tian heard his phone ring.

Still half asleep, he fumbled around to search for his phone. Once he answered it, Xu Guaodong's anxious voice blasted through the speaker.

a◆?President Yu, something terrible has happened. Please come to the office right away. We're all waiting for you in the meeting room!a◆?

a◆?What happened? What meeting?a◆?

Yu Tian subconsciously. His mind was still floating in dreamland.

a◆?Oh my God. Young master, get out of bed right away. Otherwise, something bad would happen!a◆?

The chaotic shouting from the other end of the phone finally woke Yu Tian up.

He asked, a◆?What's going on?a◆?

a◆?You'll know when you get here!a◆?

After hanging up the call, Yu Tian immediately leaped out of bed. He freshened up and got dressed.

Then, he had grabbed the car keys and was ready to leave the house. All of this happened in less than five minutes.

a◆?Lil Tian, have some breakfast before you go!a◆?

Chu Qing placed a spoon on the table.

a◆?I can't. Old Xu said there was an emergency at work. They're waiting for me in the meeting room.a◆?

a◆?Well, take this for the road.a◆?

She handed him a sandwich.

a◆?I'll see you later.a◆?

a◆|

Yu Tian rushed to the company. The second he stepped into the room, he noticed the tension in the air.

Usually, the staff would be busy with their work.

However, the atmosphere felt more hectic than usual. Several people could be seen running about in the office.

In their arms were huge stacks of documents. Yu Tian wondered where they were rushing off to.

When he got out of his personal elevator, he almost bumped into Xiao Yun, who was running in his direction.

a◆?President Yu, you're finally here. I was about to personally go to your house to look for you!a◆?

Upon seeing Yu Tian, she heaved a sigh of relief.

a◆?What's going on? Why is everyone so anxious?a◆?

Since Yu Tian had only recently taken over the company, he was still unfamiliar with how things operated.

Naturally, he felt a little bit nervous because of the unexpected emergency.

a◆?Please, follow me into the meeting room. I'm not sure about the exact details, but it seems like there's a problem with one of our partnerships.a◆?

Meeting room.

When Yu Tian walked through the door,??he noticed that all the executives of the company were present.

Upon seeing his arrival, Guodong finally stopped shouting at everyone.

a◆?President Yu, you're finally here. Let me explain to you about the situation.a◆?

He grabbed a chair nearby and sat down next to Yu Tian.

a◆?So, our company and Madripoor agreed to collaborate on a new project that benefits the country and its people. Both parties accepted the terms and conditions to share data with one another. The collaboration has been going well and the project was developing as expected. However, for some reason, Madripoor has deliberately concealed their key data from us since last month. It significantly impacted our research progress. If this continues, not only will the project be ruined halfway, but the capital and manpower that we had invested will also be a total loss.a◆?

Madripoor. Not again!

This microstate seemed to always cause problems!

Yu Tian was not very fond of Madripoor.

He said nonchalantly, a◆?If they're deliberately hiding things from us, then we should just end the collaboration.a◆?

a◆?I wouldn't be this worried if things were so simple,a◆? replied Guodong while sighing.

a◆?If we want to pull out from the collaboration, we will lose everything that we've invested so far. Furthermore, we have to pay another 10 billion yuan as liquidated damages.a◆?

Yu Tian was taken aback.

Ten billion!

To begin with, he did not even have one billion.

What a headache!

He asked with a frown, a◆?What kind of a project is this? Why are the penalty fees so high?a◆?

Guodong was anxiously pulling his hair from his almost bald head. A few strands of hair fell out and landed between his fingers.

His heart was bleeding!

More hair loss!

a◆?Not again!

a◆?My precious hair!

a◆?This is a project with promising prospects. Our country has a population of 1.4 billion people. It'll be a success if each person registered an account. This account is designed for one-click payment on every website. You can also utilize the system to generate a unique and personal QR code for transactions. It allows people to go out and about without having to carry cash. Anything can be done as long as they have their cell phones. If we develop the technology further, we can also strike a deal with the public transportation industry, civil aviation, railway trains, and other departments. The goal was to let people travel across the country with just their cell phones!a◆?

Yu Tian understood the project better after hearing the explanation.

If that was turned into reality, trivial matters in daily lives could be solved with just a cell phone. Everyone's life would be much more convenient. Apart from that, in the long term, the project could bring unimaginable profits to the company.

a◆?Why did we collaborate with Madripor for such an important project?a◆?

Guodong replied weakly like a deflated balloon, a◆?We had no other choice. Madripor is one of the best in terms of technological advancements and that's exactly what we need. I wouldn't want to collaborate with them either if we had other alternatives.a◆?

How horrible!

This was such a tricky problem!

Yu Tian kept quiet.

The others dared not speak either.

Thousands of different thoughts were drifting through Yu Tian's mind.

a◆?Sacrifice some short-term assets in exchange for Madripor's advanced technology. We must continue with the project!

a◆?We shouldn't collaborate with the little devils of Madripor. As of now, they have no credibility. Moreover, our country has abundant resources and a lot of talents. There are bound to be some tech geniuses. We should take this upon ourselves and kick them out of the picture!

Suddenly, Yu Tian sprung to his feet.

His unexpected movement shocked everyone else. They all turned to look at him with curiosity in their eyes.

Yu Tian scanned the room and said in a sonorous voice, a◆?We'll kick the little devils of Madripor out of the picture and develop our own research branch. Get the HR department to write up a hiring notice. We'll bring in the finest technicians by offering the best benefits! We must take this into our own hands and not let others restrain us. Don't worry about the money. Just report the numbers to me and I'll solve the problem! Old Xu, you're in control of the specific details!a◆?

His passionate speech made everyone enthusiastic!

After the meeting, Guodong followed Yu Tian to his office.

“President Yu, I think your idea is brilliant but hiring will take some time. Currently, there aren't many talented candidates in the market. Without the right technicians, this project is likely to bring down the company.”

Yu Tian understood what the man was saying. After giving it some thought, an idea popped into his mind.

“I know what to do. Just wait for my good news!”

Without giving the other person a chance to question further, Yu Tian grabbed his car keys and walked out of the office in big strides.

He walked past Xiao Yun's desk and casually took one of the files related to the project.

Yu Tian was unsure if he could convince those stubborn old men. After all, he was a penniless, fresh graduate.

He was popular back in his university, but that meant nothing to the famous professors.

All that mattered was to persuade the old men of this project's potential..

Chapter 33: Revisiting the Campus

Yu Tian stepped out of the elevator and headed for the parking lot. Suddenly, he paused in his tracks.

He was thinking if he should bring Xiao Yun along since she had just graduated recently and knew the professors well.

Perhaps she would be more persuasive than him.

If his plan failed, then he could take advantage of the young lady's connections.

With that being said, Yu Tian quickly made a phone call to Xiao Yun.

He waited for a while in the car before he saw her running out of the elevator while carrying a small purse.

a◆?Xiao Yun, over here!a◆?

He quickly winded down the window and waved his hands.

The young woman was panting when she got into the car.

Yu Tian stepped on the accelerator before she could even readjust her sitting position.

The car sped straight out of the underground parking lot like an arrow.

Xiao Yun shrieked at the sudden acceleration.

a◆?President Yu, please slow down!a◆?

Her eyes widened and she clutched the safety handle with her tiny hands.

a◆?Don't worry, my driving skills are great. Just relax.a◆?

He smiled at the young lady.

Xiao Yun noticed that Yu Tian was skillfully overtaking one car after another. Every second, the speed of the car increased.

Her poor heart was pounding loudly beneath her skin as if it was going to explode at any second.

a◆?Prea◆| President Yu, wherea◆| Where are youa◆| Taking me?a◆?

The young lady stuttered.

Yu Tian decided not to scare her anymore and decreased his speed.

a◆?We're revisiting the campus. I bet you haven't returned since graduation.a◆?

Upon hearing that, Xiao Yun became relaxed. She placed a hand over her chest and rolled her eyes.

a◆?Yup, I haven't been back ever since I've graduated.a◆?

a◆?Perfect. Let's relieve our campus experience.a◆?

Xiao Yun cocked her head to look at Yu Tian's handsome side profile. For some reason, she thought that he was acting quite differently today. Yet, she could not pinpoint exactly what it was.

a◆?My dear President Yu, the company is about to be swallowed by the abyss. However, you're thinking of revisiting the alma mater! I could say that you're calm or unbothered!a◆?

Yu Tian chuckled and waved his hand dismissively.

a◆?I'm just mysterious!a◆?

The university did not really change. Only the faces that showed up at each corner of the campus were different.

Yu Tian felt that the world around him had transitioned so much. However, he did not have time to be philosophical.

a◆?Xiao Yun, do you know anyone from the computer science department?a◆?

The young woman thought for a moment and said, a◆?I do. His name is He Tianyu and he's the head of the software engineering department.a◆?

Yu Tian was elated and snapped his fingers. Luck was on his side.

a◆?Let's go and meet him! Our success today depends on you!a◆?

Xiao Yun looked at him with a perplexed expression.

a◆?Shouldn't we visit the lecturers from our department? Why are we looking for the head of the software engineering department?a◆?

A few seconds after posing the question, she figured out the answer.

Her jaw dropped as she stared at the young man. She was completely shocked.

a◆?You're undermining the foundation of socialism?!a◆?

Yu Tian gave a dry cough.

a◆?No, I'm simply providing a better employment environment for our juniors!a◆?

a◆?Pooh, I don't believe you!a◆?

She criticized him.

Yu Tian looked up at the sky, speechless. This young lady was looking down on him!

The two of them joked along the way to the software engineer department head's office.

Xiao Yun was quite reluctant, but she had no choice and knocked on the door. Someone replied, granting them permission to step inside.

The young woman smiled.

a◆?Hi, Mr. He.a◆?

He Tianyu beamed upon seeing her.

a◆?It's you! Why did you come to see me? Don't you have to work? Come on in. Have a seat. Also, who is this young man?a◆?

He shifted his gaze to Yu Tian, who was standing next to the young woman.

Xiao Yun immediately pushed Yu Tian to the front.

a◆?Mr. He, this is Yu Tian, the president of Xinghe Technology. He's also a fellow alumni from this university.a◆?

a◆?Yu Tian? Yu Tian! Ah, we finally met! I remember that there was a popular student on our campus about two years ago. Is it him?a◆?

a◆?You're right. That's me.a◆?

Yu Tian smiled.

The professor pushed his glasses up the bridge of his nose and spoke in an interrogative tone, a◆?Spill it! What's the purpose of you being here today?a◆?

Tianyu was no fool. There had to be a reason why two former students outside of his department were visiting.

Something fishy must be going on.

Yu Tian decided to be frank since the other person had spoken in a straightforward manner.

a◆?Mr. He, I'm here to inform you that Xinghe Technology is currently hiring computer science graduates. I was hoping that you could recommend some of your top-performing students. Of course, Xinghe Technology guarantees that they'll receive the highest pay and obtain the best benefits in the market.a◆?

Tianyu looked at the young man in silence.

Finally, he said, a◆?Tell me your real intention! I'll have to show you to the door if you keep beating around the bush!a◆?

Yu Tian was shocked. Indeed, experience comes with age!

a◆?I really can't hide anything from you!a◆?

He tried flattering the professor. After all, he had to go all out for the company.

Tianyu waved his hands.

a◆?Little boy, flattery is not going to work on me!a◆?

a◆?Then I'll just have to tell you the truth! The thing is, Xinghe Technology is facing some serious problems. We have a collaboration with Madripooraa◆|a◆?

Yu Tian told the full story without hiding anything.

a◆?Therefore, I'd like to request the experienced professors from our alma mater to help. Needless to say, I'll return the favor generously.a◆?

Tianyu was initially infuriated after hearing that Madripoor was purposely concealing data.

However, his face fell when the young man requested the professors' help.

a◆?Dream on! How dare you try to use the professors this way! I can't believe you have the cheek to think about something like this and even say it aloud!a◆?

Tianyu shouted while pointing a finger at the young man.

a◆?Mr. He, you misunderstood me. I'm not asking the experienced professors to help me regain my financial losses. If this project comes to fruition, our country will advance significantly.a◆?

Yu Tian quickly explained. He did not want to leave empty-headed.

a◆?There's no point in trying to sound dignified. Our experienced professors are all in academia. Why would you hire people if not for profit? You even mentioned the highest pay and best benefits in the market!a◆?

Tianyu chided without thinking about the young man's feelings.

Yu Tian did not argue back. He considered things from the professor's perspective and understood where the latter was coming from.

If this project did not have the potential to generate loads of money, Xinghe Technology would not have accepted the partnership in the first place.

Xiao Yun quickly stepped forward to mediate the tense atmosphere.

“Mr. He, you've really misunderstood President Yu. He has already forked out 10 billion yuan for the penalty fees to pull out from this project. He's doing it so that the technology will remain in the hands of our people.”

Tianyu looked slightly less angry upon hearing that.

“Young girl, you better not be working with this little boy to trick me!”

The suspicion was still evident in his tone.

Xiao Yun and Yu Tian exchanged looks.

“I swear that I'm telling the truth. We also chose to work with the experienced professors from our alma mater for the benefits of the university.”

For the benefits of the university?

Tianyu looked at Yu Tian and Xiao Yun with a strange expression..

“Imagine if the university had granted several inventions' patents during your term time. It'll definitely bring some fame to the computer science department! Recruiting new intakes will also bring many advantages,” said Xiao Yun.

a◆?This collaboration will allow Xinghe Technology to provide ample employment opportunities for the students that are graduating this year!a◆?

She tried to offer more benefits that were feasible for Yu Tian.

All that was left now was He Tianyu's decision.

a◆?I'll consider your proposal, but one question remains. How're you going to prove that you're actually from Xinghe Technology? Yu Tian had only graduated two years ago. No one is going to believe that he's currently the president of that company. He's too young!a◆?

Tianyu shook his head as a way to express his reluctance.

Yu Tian was surprised by what Tianyu said. He did not think of ways to prove his status prior to this.

After all, all the senior executives from Xinghe Technology knew him. None of them dared to request him to bring a work card around.

He finally spoke after a long pause.

a◆?Mr. He, please follow me. I think I have something that can prove my identity.a◆?

a◆?Sure, I promise that I'll introduce you to the other professors if you can prove your identity. However, you have to convince them yourself.a◆?

Yu Tian replied confidently, a◆?Alright, that's settled then!a◆?

They stepped out of the office and the young man pointed into the distance where his Bentley Continental GT was parked.

Yu Tian retrieved his car keys and pressed a small button. The lights of the car immediately lit up.

Tianyu looked at the young man in disbelief. That car cost millions!

It was enough for him to look at the young man in a different light, even if he was only partially convinced.

Then, Yu Tian took out a checkbook from his pocket that had his name signed on it.

a◆?Perhaps this can also help prove my identity?a◆?

Tianyu was startled. He accepted the evidence and nodded.

a◆?Okay, I'll bring you to the other professors.a◆?

a◆|

They followed Tianyu and the three of them walked around several blocks of classrooms before arriving at the front of an old building.

Despite the shabby appearance, numerous students were walking in and out of the building.

a◆?This is the software engineering department. Professor Yan is in the room on the far left on the third floor. I'm not going to accompany the two of you. I need to inform the third and fourth-year students.a◆?

Yu Tian took a quick glimpse of the building before shifting his attention to Tianyu.

a◆?Thanks, Mr. He.a◆?

After saying goodbye, Yu Tian and Xiao Yun headed towards the third floor together.

The door to Professor Yan's office was ajar.

Yu Tian was standing outside of the door, but he could see a gray-haired old man sitting in front of the desk. His fingers flew across the keyboard as if he was playing a tune.

All four desktop screens on his desk were brightly lit.

a◆?Knock, knock.'

Yan Qingshan did not look away from the screens.

a◆?Come in.a◆?

His fingers were still busy typing on the keyboard.

a◆?Professor Yan, it's a pleasure to meet you. I'm Yu Tian, the CEO of Xinghe Technology.a◆?

Qingshan was not bothered at all. He scratched his disheveled hair absent-mindedly.

a◆?State your business quickly. As you can see, I'm really busy!a◆?

Yu Tian was shocked. This old man was really hot-tempered.

He suppressed the anger rising inside him and said politely, a◆?I'd like to invite you to collaborate in a project with Xinghe Technology. You're welcome to decide your salary.a◆?

Qingshan waved his hands impatiently.

a◆?No. You can leave now!a◆?

Yu Tian refused to give up so easily. He took a deep breath and said to no one in particular, a◆?Xinghe Technology is developing a direct payment software, which can deposit and withdraw money online. This service is also available to merchants. Users must sign up with their real names. They will be given a unique personal QR code, which can then be used for collecting and transferring payment. Furthermore, it's going to be a mobile app.a◆?

Qingshan stopped typing on the keyboard and leaned to the back of his chair. He did not speak, but he did not stop the young man either.

Yu Tian thought that the old man might be slightly interested. At the very least, the latter had changed his demeanor.

He continued, a◆?Once it becomes widespread, we can even connect the app to other departments that'll bring convenience to people's daily lives such as in aviation, subways, trains, buses, and so on. It can also be used effortlessly in convenience stores and fresh markets. People can save time because they no longer have to personally withdraw money from the bank. They will be able to travel across the country with just their cell phones and no longer have to carry a huge stash of cash around.a◆?

Qingshan nodded before voicing his compliments.

a◆?It's not a bad idea, but that has nothing to do with me. I don't have the time to become your money-making machine.a◆?

a◆?Professor Yan, this software will benefit the country and its people. If you're leading the development, you'll be able to reap both fame and fortune. As far as I know, no company in the world has invented something like this yet! You'll naturally become the head inventor of this project if you're personally involved. Any company that wants to invent a similar software in the future would definitely think of you!a◆?

Although these were mainly words of flattery, they really resonated with the heart of this old academia.

Being at the top in a certain field was certainly his lifelong dream!

Qingshan would be lying if he said he was not convinced. However, he was not going to give in easily.

After a brief consideration, he said, a◆?I have several conditions. I'll head over to Xinghe if you accept them. Otherwise, I'll have to show you to the door!a◆?

Yu Tian was not intimidated. There was no problem in this world that he could not solve with his massive financial resources.

a◆?First of all, as long as it doesn't conflict with the company's research projects, I'll apply for patents over the things that I've personally developed. Secondly, I'd like to bring several students along. Their salary has to be double the market price. Thirdly, this department building has to be rebuilt. If you accept these terms, I'll get my students and leave with you right away!a◆?

Yu Tian and Xiao Yun almost broke out into laughter. This was basically a◆?two for the price of onea◆?!

The strength and talent of those students that worked closely with Professor Yan could not be measured with money.

Besides, the old man was only requesting them to donate an entire department building.

Those were not conditions.

They were just small complimentary gifts that came along with a big prize!

Yu Tian immediately agreed without hesitating!

He gave Qingshan a check worth ten million yuan.

a◆?Take this check and build the department building to your liking! I'll also cover the teaching equipment needed!a◆?

Qingshan did not waste any time. After accepting the check, he turned off the desktops and grabbed his laptop.

a◆?Let's go.a◆?

He said to Yu Tian.

Qingshan led them through the door. The old man's quick strides gave Yu Tian the impression that he was really impatient.

Yu Tian shook his head and followed silently from behind.

First, Qingshan knocked on the door next to his office.

After knocking on five other doors, three men and two women were gathered. All of them were dressed in basic clothing. They looked rather disheveled.

They were definitely Qingshan's students. Yu Tian would not believe otherwise.

The five of them were in their thirties or forties, which is exactly the perfect demographic for a company to build its reliable backbone.

This group of people could bring Yu Tian an enormous amount of wealth if he could convince them to stay in Xinghe Technology..

Xinghe Technology.

Yu Tian had contacted Xu Guodong beforehand. He wanted the staff to greet the new employees at the main entrance.

It had been a while since there was such a big event at the company. Upon learning the a◆?national treasure◆? Yan Qingshan was their special guest, Guodong immediately arranged for a big welcome.

A red carpet had been rolled out by the lobby's entrance. Fresh flowers and confetti were scattered along both sides of the carpet.

The employees were lined up on both sides of the entrance too. Everyone had a sincere smile on their face.

They knew that Qingshan joining the company meant a high probability of success for their new development!

This project would not only benefit the country and its people, but also immense wealth for the company!

Yu Tian nodded with satisfaction after getting out of the car.

a◆?Old Xu is good at his job.a◆?

a◆?President Yu, may I ask how you managed to convince Yan Qingshan?a◆?

Guodong asked. He was clearly confused. Numerous large-scale companies had tried hiring Yan Qingshan before, but none ever succeeded.

How did Yu Tian accomplish such a feat on his first try?

Yu Tian shrugged.

a◆?It's all thanks to Xiao Yun. Don't forget to give her a bonus.a◆?

At first, Xiao Yun was surprised to hear this. However, she soon understood the young man's intention.

Her cheeks immediately blushed.

Yu Tian was trying to tell Guodong that she was more than just a pretty face. In fact, she had made a huge contribution at a critical time!

Shortly after, Qingshan arrived with his team.

They were evidently shocked to see the fancy welcome party.

A serious expression took over Qingshan's face. Several seconds later, he said, a◆?Yu Tian, this is such a waste.a◆?

a◆?Professor Yan, this wasn't my idea. Guodong and the rest of the staff just wanted to give you a warm welcome. Besides, we really appreciate you and your team coming to Xinghe Technology.a◆?

Yu Tian curled his lips into a smile. He had great respect for experts and professionals.

a◆?Well, clear it up. Let's head for the meeting! We don't have much time!a◆?

Qingshan waved his hand dismissively.

a◆?Oh, right. Arrange for our accommodation to be somewhere close to the company. We want to eat and stay nearby. Actually, it'd be best if we can stay in the office.a◆?

Yu Tian was rather surprised by this request.

Yan Qingshan's motivation and fighting spirit was on another level.

Guodong quickly nodded.

a◆?Professor Yan, there are employee accommodations upstairs. They're five-star rooms. We provide single rooms as well.a◆?

a◆?That's good. Let's get straight to work.a◆?

Qingshan waved his hand and led his team upstairs.

He seemed to be even more impatient than Yu Tian and Guodong.

However, his enthusiasm for work motivated all of the staff at Xinghe Technology.

Things went smoothly.

Yu Tian left the meeting room after listening to the details of the project. He was left with no choice. Qingshan and the developers were discussing in-depth technical concepts that he did not understand.

The young man was free again after handling the company's crisis.

Since he was bored, he chatted with Xiao Yun in his office about random topics.

Suddenly, his cell phone rang.

It was a call from Li Shancheng and Situ Kun.

Yu Tian fell into deep thought after asking the two of them to come over.

He ordered his secretary, a◆?Xiao Yun, get the person in charge of our company's gaming department here.a◆?

Then, he clicked into the company's internal website to check out their gaming projects.

Ten minutes later, Han Sanqiang, the gaming department's manager arrived.

a◆?My apologies, President Yu. I was in the washroom,a◆? said Sanqiang with blushed cheeks. He did not expect to be called into the newly promoted president's office while he was in the bathroom.

It was such bad timing!

He really wished he could shove all the contents back into his body so the president would not have to wait for him.

Yu Tian waved his hand dismissively.

a◆?I've checked out the progress of the gaming department. It's doing good, so keep it up.a◆?

Sanqiang heaved a sigh of relief at the sound of that.

Luckily, he was not in trouble with the boss.

a◆?Yes. President Yu, I'll try my best and not disappoint you,a◆? replied Sanqiang with a smile.

Yu Tian nodded.

a◆?I'd like to develop a game. Can you spare me a few developers?a◆?

a◆?What kind of game do you have in mind?a◆?

Sanqiang frowned ever so slightly. He had heard about the incident where the boss got into a fight with the representatives of some gaming company.

Yu Tian briefly explained his idea. After listening to him, Sanqiang's eyes twinkled with brilliance.

a◆?President Yu, I'd personally like to get involved in this project with five of my best employees. I believe we can work well with the other company and come up with something incredible in a short time.a◆?

Sanqiang spoke as if he was giving out a military order. He was an expert in gaming development. Thus, he grasped the key concepts right away after hearing the boss's idea.

The game might attract unprecedented attention when launched.

At the same time, Sancheng and Kun had arrived.

a◆?The three of you should talk.a◆?

Yu Tian let them talk among each other and catch up to speed for about ten minutes.

Then, he said, a◆?I'll leave the project in your hands. Tell me, how soon can we do an alpha-testing?a◆?

Alpha testing?

The three men appeared to be rather surprised. They did not expect Yu Tian to be so confident in his plan.

They discussed briefly before coming to a conclusion.

a◆?President Yu, if everything goes as planned, it can be done in three months.a◆?

Yu Tian looked at the calendar and shook his head.

a◆?No, that's too long. University students will have their break soon. The alpha testing must be ready within a month.a◆?

Almost every new game was targeted at university students, especially in their initial testing stage.

This demographic of users would make marketing much easier later on.

With that being said, the summer holiday was an extremely important time for a newly launched game.

Furthermore, internet live streams would help to market a product very effectively.

The three men appeared to be reluctant. A shadow veiled over Yu Tian's features.

a◆?You've seen Professor Yan's attitude earlier. He made the decision to live at the company without any hesitation. The older man has such an amazing attitude towards work. I hope he becomes your role model. This world belongs to the young. You shouldn't relax more than the older generation. I'll provide the financial budget and other forms of support. All you need to do is finish the product within a month's time. Of course, I'll not let your effort be wasted. After the game is launched, the net profit of the first month will be your bonuses!a◆?

The net profit of the first month would be their bonuses?

Their eyes instantly shone with brilliance.

Other people might not know this, but the three men were well aware of how much that could possibly amount to.

Given Xinghe Technology's capabilities, the first month's net profit of a newly launched product would bring in at least ten million yuan.

In other words, they could gain at least a million yuan as bonuses.

The thought of it was exhilarating!

All of a sudden, burning the midnight oil for a month did not seem to be a problem.

a◆?President Yu, I promise that I'll complete the mission!a◆?

Sanqiang, who was overwhelmed with excitement, even saluted his boss.

Shancheng and Kun followed suit.

Yu Tian chuckled at the sight.

“What's this about? You're not in the army. Anyway, get back to work. Our time is limited!” said Yu Tian before asking them to leave.

Xiao Yun, who was listening from the side, could not hold back her curiosity.

“President Yu, how are you so confident about the game?”

“I'm not confident, but I have enough money to splash on the project.. With such a huge budget, I can probably create the greatest game of all time!”

A huge budget?

Xiao Yun shook her head helplessly upon listening to Yu Tian.

“President Yu, I know you're wealthy. However, I think it's important to invest in something with profitable returns. Otherwise, how is this different from wasting money?”

Yu Tian shrugged nonchalantly. Money was the least of his concerns right now.

In fact, he had no idea how much money he actually owned.

To a certain extent, all the wealth that belonged to his one hundred and eight older sisters was his too.

A faint smile appeared on his face.

a◆?Money is meant for spending. What else should I do with them? We'll proceed with the project. Don't worry, I can afford it!a◆?

Xiao Yun was speechless.

At the same time, soft neon lights were shining through the windows of Yuewan Villa. It was the evening sun.

Ye Yongxi still could not forget about the humiliating incident that she had experienced in Lai Feng Yi.

She clenched her jaw and glared at the thorny cactus on the table.

a◆?That b*tch Chu Xin actually dared to humiliate me in front of all those people. Now, I'm the laughing stock of the rich women's circle. It's exasperating!a◆?

A bulky young man placed a glass of red wine in front of her.

a◆?Your Majesty, who made you so angry? Your loyal servant will tear that person into pieces!a◆?

Enraged, Yongxi picked up the glass of wine and poured its content down her throat.

This man named Fa was her most trusted adviser. Despite looking effeminate, he was a vicious person who had taken many lives.

a◆?Chu Xin had found herself a rascal named Yu Tian. They humiliated me in public.a◆?

The tone of her voice was indifferent.

a◆?I'll reward you handsomely if you can avenge me!a◆?

Fa frowned slightly and thought to himself, a◆?I can't offend people from the Chu family. What should I do now since I've already made such big claims? Ah, I can't offend the Chus, but I can punish the little loafer. He's probably being looked after by the Chus. However, I can make them abandon him!

Fa grinned mischievously after coming to that conclusion.

a◆?Tsk, Yu Tian? Your Majesty, there's no need to be angry. I'll avenge you!a◆?

Fa flicked his hair to the back as an evil smile spread across his face.

Yongxi sent him a photo of Yu Tian.

She said through gritted teeth, a◆?This is the little piece of sh*t. I've asked around and found out that he's staying in the Chu Villa. It's up to you how you want to punish him!a◆?

Fa took a closer look at the picture. The young man was rather good-looking, but it was a shame that he was living off a woman. Fa decided that he would teach the young man a lesson.

Xinghe Technology.

Yu Tian was leaning against the back of his chair. He could doze off at any second.

All of a sudden, his cell phone rang. It startled him.

He picked up the phone and noticed that it was Chu Qing calling.

The young man rolled his eyes and said impatiently, a◆?Can't a man get some rest?!a◆?

Chu Qing's low voice could be heard coming from the other end of the phone.

a◆?If you're not busy, come home right away. I have something to tell you!a◆?

a◆?What's the emergency? Can't you tell me through the phone?a◆?

Yu Tian was reluctant because he wanted to take a nap.

Without giving any explanation, Chu Qing hung up!

As he got up to his feet, he said to himself, a◆?Alright, you win. After all, you're Elder Sister Qing!a◆?

Fifteen minutes later, Yu Tian arrived at the house. He was ready to meet Chu Qing.

The woman seemed rather upset. It was quite obvious that she had been crying.

Yu Tian was confused. Chu Qing had always been a domineering woman. What happened to her?

He asked in a gentle tone, a◆?Elder Sister Qing? Did someone bully you? Tell me who it is and I'll break their leg!a◆?

Chu Qing smiled. The arrogance was audible in her voice.

a◆?That's nice to hear. If you really want to do something for me, then you should further strengthen yourself as quickly as possible. All the troubles will go away once you've become truly powerful!a◆?

Yu Tian could tell that she was holding something back from him.

However, he did not want to force her to talk about it. She would explain it when the time was right.

He tried to cheer her up and said, a◆?Should we go out for some fresh air? I know an awesome barbeque place. I'll bring you there!a◆?

Chu Qing did not mind where they were going as long as they were together.

So, she went upstairs to get changed. The two of them headed out while laughing and joking around.

Simultaneously, a man wearing a hoodie was following them closely from behind.

When they arrived at the barbeque place, it was full of people. All the seats were taken.

They had to ask for an extra table to be set up outside near a corner.

Chu Qing looked around the place. She was evidently displeased.

a◆?I've never been to a street stall like this one. I wonder if the food and place are clean. In the future, you're not allowed to come to establishments like this!a◆?

Yu Tian chuckled.

a◆?This is how normal people live! Waitress, I'd like to order 50 lamb kidney skewers! Make it extra spicy!a◆?

The waitress with brown wavy hair was dressed in a tight, black miniskirt and heeled boots. She was throwing coquettish glances at the hooded man who had been following Yu Tian.

a◆?It won't be a problem since it's an order from Elder Brother Fa. Today's customers are all my friends. I'll let them know in a minute. Just wait and see!a◆?

The man in the hoodie chuckled as he slapped the waitress on her butt. Hearing her soft and delicate moan filled him with excitement.

Yu Tian and Chu Qing had just taken their first sip of the cold beer when the waitress approached them in an alluring manner.

a◆?Hey there, can you please pay the bill first? It's quite busy today and I'm afraid I might forget later!a◆?

Yu Tian did not think much about it and followed the waitress to the till.

However, she suddenly tripped and it looked as if she was about to fall.

The young man quickly reached out his hand to hold the waitress's waist, stopping her from falling face down.

Unexpectedly, the waitress began shouting hysterically and started hitting him.

a◆?Let me go, you rascal! Help! He's molesting me. Help!a◆?

The other customers quickly sprung to their feet. They a◆?angrilya◆? surrounded Yu Tian without uttering a word.

a◆?How dare you act so crudely in broad daylight. Do you wish to die?!a◆?

a◆?How could you molest the poor waitress? Can you even call yourself a human being?a◆?

a◆?Take photos of him and share them on the internet. Let the public see his true colors!a◆?

Upon hearing the commotion, Chu Qing hurried into the restaurant. After grasping the situation, she pushed her way through the crowd and glared coldly at the panic-stricken waitress.

a◆?What nonsense are you people talking about? He's not this kind of person!a◆?

Suddenly, a middle-aged bald man came out from one of the private rooms. He had a swollen and bruised face.

a◆?There's no justice in this world. You monster, how could you molest the waitress? You even hit me when I tried to stop you. Guys, you have to seek justice for me!a◆?

The crowd became even more furious. They rolled up their sleeves and started yelling at Yu Tian.

a◆?I thought I heard someone fighting in the private room. As it turns out, this little rascal was picking fights with others!a◆?

a◆?You must kneel down and apologize to them. If not, we'll cripple you!a◆?

a◆?What are you staring at? Feeling wronged? You already have such a sexy b*tch with you. Yet, you still molested the waitress. I'm going to teach you a lesson, you animal!a◆?

Chu Qing was about to reveal her identity but Yu Tian stopped her.

On the contrary, he appeared to be calm and unperturbed. He even gave her a knowing glance.

Upon seeing that, Chu Qing felt better.

Yu Tian quietly watched the scene play.

These people were clearly working together to set him up.

However, he did not recognize any of them.

Was it an order from someone else?

The young man wanted to see who was bold enough to challenge him.

A faint smile appeared on his face.

a◆?How much were you paid to do this? You're all professional, huh? Is this when you start to beat me up? All according to the script?a◆?

The arrogance was audible in his tone.

It surprised the crowd. Some of them narrowed their eyes out of diffidence.

This young man appeared to be quite smart.

However, they had accepted the money. Thus, they must continue with the act. Otherwise, they would not be hired again in the future.

Out of nowhere, the waitress screamed, a◆?I don't want to live anymore! My body is tainted by him! I'm going to kill myself!a◆?

The bald man pretended to hold her back.

a◆?Don't do that. You're still young. We'll seek justice for you!a◆?

Upon seeing that, Chu Qing began shaking with rage. She wanted to lash out, but Yu Tian stopped her again.

He was completely indifferent.

a◆?If you want to die so badly, then go ahead. I bet none of you are brave enough.a◆?

a◆?Get out of the way.. It's my time to shine!a◆?

Chapter 37: The Source of Fa's Confidence

Yu Tian could not be bothered to waste his time with these people. He pushed his way through the crowd and stood right in front of the man wearing a hoodie.

The latter was taken aback. All he could do was keep his head lowered and quietly look at the table while pretending he had nothing to do with this.

He had no idea how Yu Tian knew this was a set-up.

Furthermore, how was the young man so sure that it was him behind this incident?

Yu Tian knocked on the table and said coldly, a◆?It would've been more convincing if you had ordered a few skewers. Tell me, who's behind all this?a◆?

Everyone at the restaurant was either paying close attention to the commotion or picking fights with him. However, this man was just sitting here. He did not order anything. Not even a beer. It was certainly suspicious.

The man in the hoodie narrowed his eyes. He did not expect these little details to expose him.

The others exchanged nervous looks. Their a◆?bossa◆? was exposed before they were paid. Should they keep acting?

Meanwhile, the waitress and the owner of the place tried to flee the scene. However, Chu Qing shouted, a◆?Stay right there. Who said you could leave?a◆?

The two of them were startled and froze in their tracks. They looked at Yu Tian fearfully, unsure of what to do next.

Suddenly, the man in the hoodie sprung to his feet. He wanted to push Yu Tian away and escape from the restaurant.

Of course, Yu Tian would not allow it.

Without warning, he kicked the man in the chest. The latter was thrown across the room, smashing several tables and chairs along the way.

Upon witnessing this scene, the men who wanted to fight Yu Tian earlier staggered backward.

This little boy was capable of fighting!

Fortunately, they held back earlier. Otherwise, they would have ended up like the man in the hoodie or worse.

Yu Tian walked over and clutched the man who was in pain.

He said coldly, a◆?This is your final chance. I'll cripple you if you don't tell me the truth!a◆?

The man in the hoodie cried out in terror, a◆?Boss, please stop hitting me. It's Fa! He gave me 20,000 yuan to mess with you. Please let me go!a◆?

a◆?Who's Fa and where can I find him?a◆?

Yu Tian did not waste any time. He had no memory of offending a person named Fa.

a◆?He works for Ye Yongxi and he's always around her. You'll definitely find him at Yuewan Villa!a◆?

The man in the hoodie noticed that Yu Tian was lost in his own thoughts. He instantly seized the opportunity to scramble out of the restaurant.

When Yu Tian snapped back into reality, he noticed that only Chu Qing, the waitress, and the owner were left in the barbecue restaurant.

The others had disappeared ages ago. They were probably terrified of being beaten up.

Chu Qing clenched her teeth.

a◆?Ye Yongxi? She dares to bully my younger brother. Does she think she's more powerful than me, Chu Qing?!a◆?

The waitress and the owner were frightened upon hearing that. Their legs turned into jelly and their knees almost gave out.

They had no idea who Yu Tian was, but they certainly knew Chu Qing. Apart from the toddlers, all the ten million people living in this city had heard of that name before.

Moreover, the young man that could fight really well turned out to be her younger brother.

The barbeque restaurant was probably going to be shut down after this.

Yu Tian ignored those two and shifted his attention to Chu Qing. He said in a lowered voice, a◆?I'm the one they're after. I'll go meet the man named Fa and see what makes him so confident. Let me send you home before heading for Yuewan Villa.a◆?

Chu Qing suppressed the raging fire inside her and nodded.

a◆?Don't worry if someone ends up dead. I'll sort it out. Do whatever you want and show them your real power!a◆?

Yu Tian forced a laugh. Then, he shook his head from left to right. Elder Sister Qing had become even more hot-tempered.

Perhaps this was the true colors of this intelligent and beautiful woman.

Yu Tian's spirit was ignited. The two of them sped off into the distance while others looked in envy and surprise.

a◆|

Yuewan Villa was not located in the best neighborhood, but the area was still expensive and elegant.

The buildings in this area were constructed based on a European style. Ye Yongxi's villa was located right in the middle of the neighborhood. There was a cupid fountain in the front garden. It gave the villa some resemblance to a castle.

Yu Tian arrived in front of the villa without facing any obstacles during the journey.

A faint smile appeared on his face and he rang the doorbell politely like a gentleman.

Shortly after, a middle-aged woman dressed in a white top and black pants appeared out of the dimly lit garden path. She headed to the main gate and looked rather vicious.

The woman gave Yu Tian an indifferent look and asked in a low voice, a◆?Who're you looking for?a◆?

Ye Yongxi had such a strange taste when it came to hiring servants. Most people would have been terrified to see this ghost-like housekeeper, especially late at night.

The young man replied nonchalantly, a◆?Ye Yongxi!a◆?

a◆?No one by that name lives here. Please leave!a◆? said the woman and she turned around to leave.

Yu Tian looked up and saw the security camera on the door. With a smile on his face, he kicked the door wide open without uttering a word.

This caused the older woman to become flustered. She yelled, a◆?Help! There's a trespasser!a◆?

The bodyguards leaped out all at once like an ambush.

Yu Tian simply threw a slanted glance at them. He headed toward the house, looking unperturbed.

The fifteen bodyguards kicked, punched, and shouted at him simultaneously.

However, Yu Tian just snorted. As quick as lightning, he dashed toward them and started fighting.

The young man simply fought back instinctively since the opponents had already made their moves.

Every time he threw a punch, some of the bodyguards would fall to the ground. A few of them would shriek in agony whenever he delivered a kick.

Right angle elbow hook, kicks as strong as an ox, as well as punches with tremendous force. Wails of anguish could be heard from every direction.

In less than a minute, all fifteen of the bodyguards were defeated. Some of them were rolling on the ground in pain. A few of them were even spitting foam through their lips.

The middle-aged woman's jaw was dropped.

Yu Tian ignored the woman and walked past her.

In the villa's study room, the huge screen in the middle of the bookshelves showed that Yu Tian's figure was getting closer.

Exasperated, Ye Yongxi clenched her teeth.

a◆?What's the point of paying those useless bunch? They can't even win against one man. All of them should just go to hell!a◆?

Fa was standing behind her with his arms crossed. His eyes narrowed as he fell into deep thought.

a◆?This young boy actually knows how to fight. He seems to be pretty good at it too. I've certainly underestimated him. I thought he was only a weakling that was living off a woman.

a◆?But it's alright. Getting your revenge from me won't be easy!"

Fa stepped forward and whispered in Yongxi's ear, a◆?Your Majesty, please wait for me in the secret chamber. I'll deal with this sc*mbag for you!a◆?

She snorted while glaring at the massive screen.

a◆?Make sure he doesn't leave alive. I want him dead!a◆?

Fa nodded and curled his lips into a smile.

a◆?Your wish is my command. I'll not let him live to see another day!a◆?

Yongxi took out one of the books on the bookshelf. Suddenly, the shelf began to move, revealing a back door.

After smiling coldly, she pushed the door open and walked inside. The bookshelf gradually returned to its original position.

Meanwhile, Yu Tian had already arrived in the living room.

He shouted, a◆?Oi, Ye something and that Fa guy. Show your faces now. Do you want me to destroy your house?a◆?

Immediately after, a burst of peculiar laughter could be heard coming from the second floor.

Just by hearing that voice, Yu Tian felt disgusted.

He turned to the source of sound and saw a person wearing a red suit. The latter was merely standing there and laughing out loud. His laughter really pissed him off.

a◆?Stop laughing at once. I want to see that Fa guy and Ye Yongxi right now!a◆?

a◆?I'm Fa. What do you want?a◆?

Fa covered his face shyly before chuckling again.

So this was the person Yu Tian was looking for!

The young man felt goosebumps all over his body upon seeing this strange-looking person.

He shouted, a◆?I don't want anything. I'm here to sort things out so you won't bother me again in the future!a◆?

Before he could finish speaking, Fa suddenly leaped off the second floor and landed on the ground without making any noise.

Yu Tian raised his eyebrow at the unexpected sight. This was his first time meeting another cultivator..

Chapter 38: Exposed

Interesting!

Fa's qinggong was pretty impressive. It was not something an ordinary person could achieve by simply practicing parkour.

No wonder he was so brave. It was because he was a cultivator too.

Yu Tian could use some combat experience to improve his strength. He hoped this effeminate man was actually good at fighting.

A devilish smile spread across Fa's face.

a◆?I'll give you another chance to kowtow and beg for my forgiveness. You can live if you're willing to kneel down and kiss my toes!a◆?

Yu Tian laughed coldly.

a◆?Well, let's see if your legs are still intact after this!a◆?

Without further ado, Yu Tian attacked.

He took a step and appeared in front of Fa's eyes. This happened at the speed of lightning. A punch was immediately thrown.

Fa remained composed. He thought that Yu Tian's speed and power were not bad, though still inferior if compared to himself.

Yu Tian's fist almost hit Fa's face, but the latter suddenly vanished into thin air.

His fist collided with the air and he heard a loud ringing in his ears before he could retract his arm.

Fa appeared behind him and was about to strike the back of his head.

At this moment, the nameless fighting sequence flashed across Yu Tian's mind.

In a split second, one of the moves from that sequence named Falling Petals was engraved into his mind.

The young man moved his body under the guidance of his heart. Like a flower petal falling in the wind, he fluttered lightly in the air and hovered several meters away, easily avoiding Fa's attack.

Shock filled Fa's eyes. Why did he feel as if he had seen this technique before?

At the same time, Yu Tian had hovered back to him. He threw a slanted palm strike.

Fa dared not underestimate his opponent. He knew the latter was still holding back his actual strength.

He fought to the best of his capabilities by jumping up, down, left, and right at the speed of the lightning.

Yu Tian had mastered the essence of Falling Petals by now. His sudden and random change of position was impossible to predict. Both of them were on similar levels and neither was gaining the upper hand in this situation.

How could he defeat this effeminate man if this kept on?

Yu Tian's gaze followed Fa's silhouette closely. Gradually, he discovered that Fa only changed his position horizontally or vertically.

A realization popped into his mind.

The effeminate man was moving at such a high speed that it was impossible for him to make any turns.

Upon figuring out the man's weakness, Yu Tian raised one corner of his lips and deliberately moved backward.

Fa thought that Yu Tian had become exhausted and was trying to escape.

a◆?Now would be the perfect time to strike!

He directed all his energy to his legs and dashed forward.

A light twinkled in Yu Tian's eyes.

He thought to himself, a◆?Perfect timing.'

Yu Tian did not wait around for Fa to regain his balance. He moved slightly backward and stomped the ground, leaping straight up into the air.

a◆?What?!a◆?

Fa was shocked. He wanted to change his position, but it was impossible unless he wanted to cripple his own legs.

All he could do was direct his strength to his arms and block Yu Tian's attack from above.

Yu Tian executed an explosive attack using his full force. A massive amount of energy equivalent to hundreds of pounds struck Fa's arms mercilessly.

Like a kite with a broken string, Fa flew several meters backward. He smashed into the window and landed in the garden.

Despite his effort, this attack still dealt high damage to his internal organs. They were crushed against each other inside his body like waves colliding with one another.

He spat out blood all the way for about two meters. His head was spinning and he felt like he was about to pass out.

Yu Tian jumped out of the same window. Earlier, he said he was going to cripple the man. So, he was definitely not going to be merciful.

Fa turned his palm over, revealing a black cloth the size of an egg. He smashed the thing into pieces and vanished.

A pungent smell assaulted Yu Tian's nostrils and ashes filled the air.

Yu Tian quickly moved backward while covering his nose and mouth. He held his breath in fear of the ash being poisonous.

By the time the ashes and smell dissipated, Fa had already disappeared.

Yu Tian narrowed his eyes and clenched his teeth.

“You’re quick to escape. I’ll let you live for a few more days. I’m sure we’ll meet again. By then, I’ll make sure to take your life!”

The young man did not forget about Ye Yongxi.

He returned to the villa and examined the entire place, but he could not find her anywhere.

“Forget it. She’s a famous person. I’m sure it won’t be difficult to locate her in the future. I’ll let her off this time.”

Upon leaving the villa, the middle-aged woman and bodyguards instinctively moved out of Yu Tian’s way. They dared not even look him in the eyes.

Meanwhile, behind a pile of rocks at the beach, Fa was still spitting out blood. Every time he tried to breathe, he suffered excruciating pain.

His hands were shaking when he retrieved his cell phone to send a text.

[Nameless fighting sequence has reappeared. Raise the flag and hang lanterns at all three rivers and five seas. We need the old man to return!]

Shortly after, he received a reply with two simple words.

[No problem.]

Fa passed out after reading the message.

On the other hand, Yu Tian had returned home. Chu Qing, who had been eagerly waiting for his return, quickly rose to her feet.

“How was it? Did you teach them a lesson?”

“I sure did, but my opponent escaped!”

Yu Tian forced a smile.

Chu Qing snorted.

“He won’t get away. I’ll arrange for some of my men to track this person down. It doesn’t matter if he’s hiding in the core of the earth. Anyone who dared to disrespect us shouldn’t be allowed to live!”

Yu Tian did not try to change her mind. He knew it was pointless. Chu Qing had always been a protective person. She would not suddenly have a change of personality.

The two of them chatted briefly before returning to their representative rooms.

Yu Tian soaked himself in the bath and clicked into the sisters' group chat.

Strangely enough, the group chat was eerily quiet today. Even the talkative elder sisters were not exchanging messages. They even changed their profile picture to a black square.

He sent a message to the group and tagged Chu Xin.

[What happened today? Something feels amiss.]

The young man waited for some time but no one replied. There was not much he could do. Thus, he got into bed.

In order to expand the company's business, Yu Tian showed up at the office early in the morning. However, he felt slightly embarrassed when he found out that Professor Yan and his team were already halfway through their meeting.

The project was progressing rapidly. They were already talking about the network transmission phase.

Yu Tian could not comprehend any of that. He returned to his office and asked for Engineer Han from the gaming department.

Old Han had woken up when it was still dark outside to write a proposal for the game project. He was hoping to show off his competence.

Yu Tian skimmed through a few pages before putting the proposal aside.

A hint of terror flashed across Old Han's eyes. Yu Tian took a sip of coffee before speaking in an intimidating tone.

a💎?I've said many times that I don't want to scam our users' money. What's all this about giving away a bunch of free equipment when they recharge with real money? Have you been watching too many advertisements these days?a💎?

Old Han quickly tried to defend himself upon realizing that his plan had failed.

a💎?I might have misunderstood you, President Yu!a💎?

a◆?You didn't understand me in the first place. What I want is an artistic project, a game where users could really indulge and enjoy themselves. The kind where they'll be shouting at the top of their lungs out of excitement after playing for a few seconds!a◆?

Yu Tian shook his head helplessly and dismissed the man.

a◆?Sigh, why can't they understand that a game aiming to scam users' money will not be successful?a◆?

He heaved a long sigh and scanned around the office out of habit.

All of a sudden, he felt as if something was out of place..

Chapter 39: Xiao Yun Is Being Sold Again

a◆?Where's Xiao Yun?a◆?

Yu Tian realized she had not shown up at work. It was almost nine o'clock, but she did not even explain her absence with a phone call. Did something bad happen?

He instructed Old Han to redo the proposal and call Xiao Yun.

a◆?She turned off her phone?a◆?

The young man immediately rose to his feet. He decided to drop by her house to check if something was wrong.

Xiao Yun's house.

Xiao Aichu poured baijiu down his throat. Under the alcoholic influence, his twisted features were magnified.

In the corner, Xiao Yun's hands were tied up behind her back and she was gagged. She curled up into a ball and cried with terror.

Aichu smashed the alcohol bottle in front of her and shouted through his gritted teeth, a◆?T'll sell you off to Young Master Lei if you don't call your boss. I lost two million yuan to the b*gger last night!a◆?

a◆?Didn't you say that your boss adores you? He wants to marry you, right? I'm his future father-in-law, so what's wrong with asking him to lend me some money?a◆?

Xiao Yun shook her head violently. She had lost all faith in her father.

After Yu Tian helped him settle the debt with Young Master Feng, he went on to gamble at another illegal casino on the same night. In the end, he lost another two million yuan.

He even demanded Xiao Yun to ask for more money from her boss. The young woman was already clueless as to how she would repay Yu Tian's previous kindness.

So, she had made up her mind to not ask him for money ever again, even if it meant she was going to be killed.

Aichu stomped forward and pulled his reluctant daughter's hair.

He shouted, a◆?If you don't do it, then I'll have no choice but to sell you to Young Master Lei. I birthed and raised you. Your life belongs to me!a◆?

Shortly after, a young man in his early twenties dressed in a black suit and brown sunglasses showed up. He walked into the house with a handkerchief over his mouth. Disgust was written all over his face.

Upon seeing him, Aichu instantly changed his demeanor. He humbly bowed and smiled at the man.

a◆?Young Master Lei, you didn't need to come all the way here. Please, take a seat!a◆?

Lei Yi glanced at the young woman who was crying in the corner. Behind the sunglasses, there was a hint of excitement in his eyes.

He did not expect Xiao Aichu to have such a sexy daughter. It seemed like the man was planning to trade her for two million yuan.

He gave a snort of indignation and said impatiently, a◆?Enough with the nonsense. I'm here to collect the two million yuan you owe my casino. Have you got the money ready?a◆?

Aichu turned to look at his daughter. Then, he smiled shamelessly.

a◆?Young Master Lei, I don't have the money now. However, my son-in-law is a wealthy man who owns a huge business. My daughter will be able to get the money from him!a◆?

Lei Yi did not believe a single word he said.

No one would be foolish enough to trust the words of a gambling addict.

Who would want to be the son-in-law of such a useless person?

Unless the person was stupid himself.

Since the man was unable to repay his debt, Lei Yi thought that he should trade in his daughter instead.

Once he got bored of fooling with her, he could sell her off to the west to become a prostitute. It would still be a profitable business.

Without wasting more time, he instructed his staff to forcefully drag the struggling young woman out of the house.

He was about to leave when Aichu stopped him.

a◆?Young Master Lei, hang on a second!a◆?

a◆?Why? Are you regretting your choice?a◆?

Lei Yi glared at him coldly.

a◆?Oh, no, of course not. I'd like to ask you for a favor. When my son-in-law pays for the ransom, can you demand another few million yuan from him? I want to have some pocket money!a◆?

Lei Yi had encountered numerous shameless people, but none of them could compare to Xiao Aichu.

This person was totally inhumane. He was a piece of garbage.

However, this had nothing to do with him. He just snorted sarcastically and took his leave.

After sending them off, Aichu found another bottle of alcohol in the cupboard. He hummed joyfully as he drank more liquor.

a◆?Once I get the money, I'll try my luck at the casino again. I don't believe I'll always be so unlucky!a◆?

At the same time, he heard the noise of tires screeching coming from outside his house.

He turned to look at the source of the noise, only to see Yu Tian kicking open the door and stomping inside.

Aichu was delighted. Now, he could take advantage of the young man again.

He put on an anxious look, hurried to the front door, and started wailing.

a◆?My dear son-in-law, you're finally here. Please save my daughter. She's been kidnapped! They're asking for five million yuan in ransom or they'll kill her!a◆?

Kidnap?

Yu Tian frowned. Who would be foolish enough to kidnap Xiao Yun, who had nothing of value?

It would have made sense if she was the daughter of some affluent family.

Clearly, Aichu was lying.

Yu Tian yelled in rage and wrapped his fingers around the man's neck.

a◆?Tell me the truth. Have you sold Xiao Yun off to someone again?a◆?

The tone of his voice was very intimidating.

Aichu's entire body was shaking uncontrollably. His little trick was not enough to deceive the young man.

Since his lie was exposed, he thought that he should just tell the truth. After all, he did not believe that Yu Tian would kill him.

Upon reaching that conclusion, Aichu covered his mouth with both of his hands and started crying.

a◆?It's all my fault. I couldn't control my addiction and went gambling again last night. I lost five million yuan to Young Master Lei and they took Xiao Yun away as payment!a◆?

Yu Tian was exasperated. He would have killed this man with a single punch if he was not Xiao Yun's father!

How could he sell his own daughter off like a commodity?! In fact, he even did it twice!

He had to give him a good warning. The young man pushed Aichu to the ground and firmly reproached him.

a◆?Listen, starting from this moment, Xiao Yun is no longer your daughter. I'll kill you if you dare to harass her or her mother again!a◆?

Aichu's face was as pale as a sheet. He nodded nervously.

Either way, his plan worked.

As for Yu Tian's threat?

He could deal with it next time!

After Yu Tian sped off into the distance in his Continental GT, Aichu snorted in contempt and slowly got back to his feet.

a◆?Xiao Yun is my daughter. You can't do anything about it. I'll not give up until I get 10 million yuan from you!a◆?

Meanwhile, Yu Tian made a phone call to Chu Qing.

The second she picked up, he asked impatiently, a◆?Elder Sister Qing, do you know someone named Young Master Lei? He runs a casino!a◆?

Her cold voice entered the phone.

a◆?It seems like you keep getting yourself involved with casino owners. Is it because of your secretary again?!a◆?

Yu Tian did not know how else to explain.

a◆?Elder Sister Qing, we graduated from the same university and she's also my employee. I'll do the same if anyone else was in her situation!a◆?

a◆?Enough!a◆?

Chu Qing's unkind tone turned several octaves higher.

a◆?You treat her like a friend but she thinks of you as her husband. I can't control what you do but may I remind you, you're now a boss with a net worth of over ten billion yuan. Yet, you're going around town, fighting with strangers because of a female secretary. I'm ordering you to head back to the office right now. I forbid you from getting yourself involved with Xiao Yun's family business again. Their life has nothing to do with you. Listen to me and head back right away!a◆?

She was genuinely furious this time.

Yu Tian was doing too much for Xiao Yun. It was enough to threaten his relationship with the elder sisters.

Furthermore, Chu Qing was considered as one of the more merciful sisters. The other elder sisters might make Xiao Yun disappear if they learned about this news.

However, Yu Tian was not the kind of person to watch someone die!

“Elder Sister Qing, I can't do that. You can scold me all you want, but I'm going to rescue Xiao Yun no matter what!”

“What kind of person would he be if he chose not to save the young woman?”

Chu Qing became even more infuriated upon hearing that.

It seemed like Yu Tian could not understand where she was coming from.

Given his status and identity, Xiao Yun was not a good match for him.

When would he understand that?

Chu Qing sighed helplessly. She knew Yu Tian would stand his ground.

She spoke again but with a calmer tone, “Yu Tian, you don't need me to remind you of your status again. Even if I don't stop you from seeing Xiao Yun, she will make your life miserable in the future. Listen to me and give up. It's for your own good!”

“The young man was carrying more burden on his shoulders than he realized. Chu Qing was trying to lessen the obstacles in his path.

“I know where you're coming from, but I also know what I'm doing. Just tell me, are you helping or not?”

Yu Tian did not want to say much. He was not thinking about the far future.

Upon realizing she could not change his mind, Chu Qing forced a smile.

Could she say no to him?

“I’ll tell you about Young Master Lei. However, you must promise me that this is the last time you’ll help her!”

The young man clenched his jaw before replying in a low voice, “Okay, I promise. Please tell me about his background!”

Chu Qing did not press further after hearing his promise.

“His name is Lei Yi and he’s the owner of the biggest underground casino. He’s located at Xianggu House in the southern district of the city. Let me warn you, Lei Yi’s identity is rather complicated. I have to be tolerant of him, so you better not act rashly!”

“Thanks, Elder Sister Qing. I know what to do. I’ll cook some noodles for you when I get home!”

Furious, Chu Qing shouted, “All I get in return for helping you is a bowl of noodles. Hello, what’re you thinking? Hey! Little rascal! How dare you hang up on me? I’ll teach you a lesson when you come home!”

Yu Tian thought she was unusually moody lately. He wondered if she was on her period.

Yu Tian’s Continental GT made a perfect drift and was parked in an empty lot in front of the Xianggu House.

The young man received numerous flirtatious glances from the women around when he got out of the car.

Unperturbed, he looked around the manor that expanded beyond dozens of hectares.

The manor had a quaint exterior with its red bricks and blue tiles. There were also several pavilions scattered across the place. This place was hustling and bustling with people.

Two security guards in uniforms simultaneously walked over to examine Yu Tian from head to bottom. The chubbier security guard had a disdainful look on his face. He said harshly, “Are you blind? Don’t you know who this parking lot belongs to? Quickly move your car away!”

Yu Tian looked at the man indifferently.

a◆?Watch your tone. I think you're the blind one here!a◆?

a◆?The thinner security guard adjusted the cap on his head. His features were twisted together when he talked back later.

a◆?Hey, how dare you speak to us using that tone. Do you think you're all that because you're driving a Bentley Continental GT?a◆?

a◆?Look around carefully. Everyone here is worth more than you. Stop acting high and mighty!a◆? added the chubbier security guard.

a◆?This parking lot belongs to Young Master Tian, so you better move your lousy car right away. Otherwise, you'll have to bear the consequences of provoking Young Master Tian!a◆?

Why were there so many young masters around here?

Yu Tian thought it was ironic because his net worth was ten billion yuan and yet, he did not ask to be addressed as a young master.

He chuckled, a◆?Enough with the nonsense. I'm just going to leave my car there. You can smash it if you're brave enough. I don't care!a◆?

a◆?Then, he walked away and left the security guards behind.

a◆?The chubbier guard glared at the young man's receding back. He and his younger brother lived off Young Master Tian's tips.

If Young Master Tian learned that his spot was taken by someone else, the brothers might be fired and replaced.

At the thought of that, the chubbier guard rushed forward to grab Yu Tian's arm.

What followed next was two high-pitched wails that filled the air.

The tourists turned their heads to the source of the commotion. They saw both security guards lying on the ground with foam coming out from the corner of their mouths.

Yu Tian could not be bothered to waste any more time on them, so he solved the problem with violence.

He was amazed upon entering the estate.

The white marble pavement was about three meters wide. It seemed as if there was no end to it.

There were different kinds of stores along both sides of the walkway. Yu Tian checked them out absent-mindedly as he walked along.

Antiquarian, jewelry, arts and crafts, restaurants, bars, nightclubs, and so on.

This place was like the center of a city. Occasionally, groups of beautiful ladies dressed in qipaos could be seen walking along the busy street. They were smiling and greeting the tourists.

However, Yu Tian did not manage to find any casino.

He heaved a long sigh. The young man had left so quickly that he forgot to ask Xiao Aichu about the casino's exact location.

Chu Qing did say that it was an underground casino. Thus, it should be somewhere more hidden and difficult to find.

Yu Tian walked past a store that was selling oil-paper umbrellas. The faint fragrance of paint filled the air.

He randomly picked up a red umbrella.

A long-haired young lady wearing a floral dress walked out of the store. She was very graceful and greeted the young man with a smile.

a◆?Would you like to buy one? Is it for gifting or your own usage? I can give you some recommendations!a◆?

a◆?The young lady's voice was melodious.

Yu Tian thought of buying one as a gift for Chu Qing. After all, she always complained that his only way of saying thanks to her was through home-cooked noodles.

He was about to inquire about the price when suddenly, someone shouted rudely from behind him.

a◆?Qing Xiaowan, where the hell is your father? Bring him out here at once or I'll destroy your store!a◆?

Yu Tian looked over his shoulder.

a◆?There were more than ten burly-looking men behind him. They either had arms full of tattoos or naturally angry-looking faces.

This young lady was called Qing Xiaowan. It was a rather nice name.

However, Yu Tian did not want to get involved with more women at the moment. Besides, he still had to go look for the underground casino.

At the thought of this, he put the umbrella away and left.

Xiaowan glared at the group of men. Although she was shaking with fear, she argued back in a determined voice, a◆?What right do you have to destroy my store?!a◆?

One of the tattooed men, who was probably the leader of the group, snorted and rolled up his sleeves.

a◆?Stupid little girl, I don't think you understand the situation. Your father lost 700,000 yuan at our casino. This store belongs to us if he doesn't pay up today. It's up to us if we want to destroy it!a◆?

Yu Tian heard the man mentioning a◆?casinoa◆? even though he was a few meters away. He immediately turned around and headed back to the store.

a◆?Once more, luck was on his side.

Upon hearing the commotion, people began to gather around the store.

a◆?The tattooed man cracked his head and yelled at the onlookers, a◆?What the f*ck are you looking at? Get out of my sight or I'll make you suffer!a◆?

The group of men acted like animals. They would bite anyone who dared to provoke them.

a◆?The crowd quickly dispersed and secretly watched from afar instead.

Yu Tian was the only one left. He was grinning at the group of men.

The tattooed man's enraged gaze landed on Yu Tian's face.

a◆?Is this person sick in the head?

a◆?Why is he still here? Everyone else had run away in terror.'

a◆?What the f*ck are you laughing at? I want you to b*gger off, understand?a◆?

a◆?The tattooed man and his gang gathered around Yu Tian.

The latter replied while still looking unperturbed, a◆?Does it bother you that I'm smiling? I think you're funny. That's why I couldn't hold back my laughter!a◆?

The group of burly men immediately became furious.

a◆?This little boy dared to mock us!a◆?

a◆?Have you never been f*cking beaten up before? I'll show you what pain is!a◆?

a◆?You useless trash! Stop laughing already! Kneel down and kowtow to us!a◆?
