?Chapter 71 – Keep An Eye On Him For Me

Thank you readers!

In the blink of an eye, it was time for Yu Qi'er to be discharged from the hospital. Chu Qing followed Yu Tian to bring her sister out of the hospital.

The hospital director personally escorted Yu Qi'er out of the hospital with a group of dozens of high-ranking officials.

He did not forget to flatter Yu Tian and Chu Qing. a€?Miss Yu Qi'er's recovery is exceptionally good. After she's discharged from the hospital, she can come for regular follow-up treatment. Miss Chu, are you satisfied with this arrangement?a€?

Chu Qing nodded. a€?She's doing quite well. Your hospital wants to borrow money from our Tianhai group to purchase medical equipment. I've approved it for you. Get my sister's follow-up treatment done.a€?

The hospital director's bald head was about to hit the ground as he repeatedly bowed in gratitude. a€?Thank you, Miss Chu. Thank you, President Yu!a€?

After returning home, Yu Qi'er did not believe that she would one day be able to live in the villa. She did not even want to sit on the bed. She was afraid that it would be dirtied.

Yu Tian touched her forehead and said with a smile, a€?This will be our home from now on. You can live in it however you want. I'm rich now. I'll make you happy every day from now on!a€?

Chu Qing opened the wardrobe. It was filled with all kinds of branded clothes, shoes, and leather bags.

a€?These are all my younger sister's. If you don't like them, you can go to my mall to buy them. If you like them, I'll give Tianhai Mall to you!a€?

Yu Qi'er was extremely surprised. It felt like a dream.

Chu Qing opened another wardrobe. Inside were all kinds of luxury items, rings, necklaces, cosmetics, and everything else.

a€?Younger sister, these are all newly bought. You can use them as you like. I've also arranged a job for you. You'll be your brother's secretary and be in charge of all his work and living arrangements. Especially when I'm not by his side, you have to help me look after him!a€?

Yu Tian had no choice but to frown.

a€?My sister has her own plans, alright? She has to go to university. What's the point of following me? You'd better arrange a good school for her!a€?

Chu Qing smiled smugly and said, a€?Even if it's to study abroad, I can arrange it with just a phone call!a€?

Just as they were talking, Yu Tian's phone suddenly rang. a€?Qing Xiaowan? Why is she calling me at this time? Could it be that she has been harassed by someone surnamed Shao again?' In front of his sister, Chu Qing, Yu Tian picked up the phone.

Qing Xiaowan cried, a€?Yu Tian, please save my father. He's in the hospital. He's dying! a€?

a€?I'll be there soon!a€? After hanging up the phone, Yu Tian left.

Chu Qing was not happy and stopped him. a€?My sister has just been discharged from the hospital. I've arranged a cocktail party tonight to celebrate her discharge. Where are you going?a€?

a€?Qing Xiaowan's father is dying. I have to go and take a look. The party can go on as planned. I'll rush back!a€?

After saying that, Yu Tian pushed open the door and left.

Chu Qing turned around and complained to Yu Qi'er, a€?So, which university have you set your eyes upon? You have to look after your brother. This fellow is a womanizer. Oh right, there's ten million in this card. It's your pocket money. I'll arrange for you to go to university tomorrow!a€?

Yu Qi'er took the card and thanked her immediately. a€?Sister Qing, I'll look after my brother for you. Thank you!a€?

a€?What are you thanking me for? We're family. If you need anything in the future, just let me know!a€? Chu Qing held Yu Qi'er's hand and went to look at the other rooms.

Since she had maintained her relationship with Yu Qi'er, she could look after Yu Tian indirectly. The more Chu Qing thought about it, the happier she became. Her dimples hung on her cheeks as she laughed.

When Yu Tian rushed to the hospital, Qing Xiaowan was anxiously pacing outside the operating theater and rubbing her hands together.

“What happened?” Yu Tian looked at the lights in the operating theater and asked in a low voice.

Qing Xiaowan's tears rolled down her cheeks. “They took the umbrella store. My father knew that he was cheated by Shao Tian. He couldn't take it and committed suicide. Fortunately, I discovered it in time. If anything happened to my father, what should I do?”

At this time, the doctor walked out of the operating theater and said in a low voice, “The patient's condition is not ideal. Although his life is saved, he may need professional care later. The cost is astronomical. I can recommend you to the best sanatorium. Else, you can take the patient home to take care of him when he's discharged.

Qing Xiaowan was in a difficult position. How could she afford to let her father stay in a sanatorium?

Yu Tian smiled and said, “Arrange for him to go to a sanatorium. I'll get you the fees!”

The doctor looked at Yu Tian in disbelief and reminded them, “I told you, it costs an astronomical figure. You have to consider it carefully. Don't abandon his treatment when you're in the middle of the process and say that it's expensive. I've seen a lot of people who were abandoned by their families!”

Yu Tian felt that the doctor was talking too much nonsense.

“Is 100 million enough? If not, take 100 million. I'll buy the sanatorium for him. What do you think?”

The doctor looked at him in shock. “Sure, why not? You can buy it with 100 million!”

“Then, why don't you make the arrangements?”

The doctor jogged away.

Qing Xiaowan tugged at the corner of her shirt, feeling that she was too ashamed to look at Yu Tian.

Yu Tian also knew what Qing Xiaowan was thinking. As long as she had some support, she could not call him for help.

Looking at the time, Qing Xiaowan definitely had not eaten.

“Let's go, I'll bring you to eat something first!”

Qing Xiaowan thanked him in a low voice and followed behind Yu Tian to a nearby high-end restaurant. It was peak hour. The restaurant was full, and the fragrance of the food filled the air.

Qing Xiaowan was indeed hungry. When she smelled the aroma, she could not help but swallow her saliva. This kind of high-end restaurant was filled with elites. If they were not in suits and leather shoes, then they were all wearing jewelry.

When they saw Qing Xiaowan dressed in such shabby clothes, everyone's eyes were filled with disdain.

Yu Tian found a seat and sat down. The man and woman at the next table looked at them with disdain. The woman said, "Nowadays, anyone can come to a high-end restaurant to eat. We have an appointment with an important guest. If he sees us, he'll think that we're using an ordinary restaurant to brush him off!"

The man looked at Qing Xiaowan and Yu Tian with a cold look, then called the waiter. Then, he said, "What's wrong with your restaurant? Can anyone come in to eat? Aren't you afraid of affecting other guests?"

The waiter looked at Yu Tian and Qing Xiaowan.

He smiled and said, "I'm sorry, Sir. Our restaurant doesn't restrict guests from entering!"

"Then let them change tables. When my distinguished guests arrive later, they'll think that this is a snack bar when they see them. Even the service is so poor!"

The woman also snorted coldly.

"That's right. We're people with status. My husband is a member of your restaurant. His annual fee is 500,000 yuan. You should provide us with the best service. Otherwise, call your boss to come over!"

Chapter 72 – Tianhai Group

Thank you readers!

When the waiter saw their clumsy manner, he could only listen and nod.

Yu Tian had heard all this a long time ago and turned a deaf ear to them.

Qing Xiaowan did not want to embarrass Yu Tian. She said in a low voice, "Why don't we change to another restaurant?"

Yu Tian said indifferently, "We'll eat here!"

The waiter came over and said awkwardly, "Sir, can you please change seats? I'm just a waiter. Don't make things difficult for me, okay?"

Yu Tian was not willing to listen to this.

"If you don't want to make things difficult, then I'll change seats. Since when did a waiter's status become higher than a guest's?"

The waiter had nothing to say. No one could afford to offend a guest, so he could only look for the manager. The middle-aged female manager had already heard the conversation. With the sound of her high heels, she came up to Yu Tian. Her attitude was very cold.

"Sir, I'm sorry. The waiter may not have expressed it clearly. We're a western restaurant and we have a dress code. The lady you brought doesn't comply with the dress code. Kindly be mindful of the other guests. Why don't you change to another table? Or let me treat you to a meal at another restaurant!"

The man in a suit behind Yu Tian swept his hair back, looking arrogant. "You heard what the manager said. There's a dress code here, and there are foreigners everywhere. You should be mindful and not lower the status of your countrymen!"

The woman in the red suit also put on a noble posture. "We're all people with status. We don't want to lower ourselves to the level of poor people like you. Don't make us seem as if we're unreasonable. How about this? You can change tables. As long as you keep your distance from us, we'll treat you to whatever you want to eat today!"

Yu Tian smiled indifferently. "I'm afraid you can't afford it!" As he spoke, Yu Tian looked at the signboard at the bar counter. Under the words "Violet Western Style Restaurant", there were also the words "Tianhai Group". In Linhai, almost all the high-end places belonged to Chu Qing.

The middle-aged man threw the white silk napkin on the table and sneered. "You sure talk big. What do you know about dining in a high-end restaurant? Do you know how to use a knife and fork? It's not that I look down on you, but this is probably your first time coming to such a high -end place. Do you know how to order from the menu?"

"If you want to be romantic, you have to look at your own abilities. Manager, give them two servings of abalone fried rice. After they're done eating, tell them to scram. Don't degrade such a good dining environment!"

The manager was quite appreciative of the middle-aged man. She smiled and said, "Sir, you're really generous. Later, we'll give you a pastry as a token of our appreciation!"

Then, she turned his smile into contempt and looked at Yu Tian. "You heard it, Sir. The abalone fried rice is free for you. You just need to experience the environment here. Please go to the table under the pillar over there. You may leave after you're done eating. If it weren't for that gentleman's generosity, we wouldn't have entertained people like you!"

"After all the ruckus, it turned out that she was treating me and Qing Xiaowan as stinky beggars." Yu Tian's expression did not change. His indifferent gaze did not have the slightest fluctuation.

"What if I don't leave? What can you do about it? You can either take my order now or get out of my way. Don't disturb my mood here!"

The manager's face darkened. She blinked in disbelief. His attitude became even more unreasonable. "Sir, I'm trying to reason with you. If you don't want to give me face, then I can only ask you to leave now. No one will take your order. Also, I have to tell you that this is a subordinate restaurant of the Tianhai Group.

"The boss of the Tianhai Group, Chu Qing, is our boss. Do you think you can behave atrociously here?"

Yu Tian chuckled.

"What's wrong with Chu Qing? Can Chu Qing stop people from eating here? Can Chu Qing chase away the customers who come to eat?"

Just as they were talking, a middle-aged man arrived. The manager turned around and her expression changed drastically. She hurriedly stood properly and bowed.

"Hello, Director Wu!"

Yu Tian raised his eyes and looked at the person who had arrived. He was in his forties and had a belly. It was extremely inappropriate for him to wear a suit.

The man laughed and said, "The restaurant management is good. I'll ask President Chu to promote you later. Oh right, let me introduce you. These two are clients of the company. We'll have a meal here and talk about some work!"

Then, he got closer to the manager's ear and whispered, "Get some good drinks and put them under the company's expenses!"

The manager understood.

"Okay. Director Wu, please take a seat. I'll go make the arrangements right away!"

Before sitting down, Director Wu even glanced at Yu Tian and Qing Xiaowan. Especially when he looked at Qing Xiaowan, he even licked his lips. That shameless look made Yu Tian so disgusted that he almost vomited.

After he sat down, the middle-aged man's face changed, and he started to suck up to him enthusiastically.

“Director Wu, it's really hard to ask you out for a meal. Back then, I worked with you. Now that you're a manager in Tianhai Group, you should also help your brother out!”

Wu Xinran grinned and said arrogantly, “Right now, I'm barely making a living. It's not easy for me to be able to cling to the big tree of the Chu family. I'll try my best to arrange the plan you proposed. But you also know that there are many people in the department and they have mouths.”

The middle-aged man raised his eyebrows and naturally understood what he meant. There was no need for him to say anything.

“Director Wu, feel free to arrange it. I've long prepared it here. I guarantee that you'll be satisfied. After dinner, I'll bring you to my club to take a look. The new stock has arrived!”

Wu Xinran's eyes flashed and he smiled. “Oh, then I'll have to take a look!”

At this moment, the waiter carried two servings of abalone fried rice and placed them on Yu Tian and Qing Xiaowan's table.

“This is the abalone fried rice that the gentleman ordered for you!”

The voice was quite loud, and Wu Xinran heard it. He asked the middle-aged man, feeling a little strange, “Do you know him?”

The middle-aged man looked as if he was not joking. He said disdainfully, “For someone of my level to know such a person? Aren't you looking down on me? Isn't it to create a good dining atmosphere for you? I just want them to change their seats. And give them a bite to eat, and then they can quickly scram!”

Wu Xinran looked at Yu Tian with understanding and laughed arrogantly. “We're just having a simple meal. There's no need to make such a big scene. If we really want to make a scene, with my status, I can't come to this restaurant either. Since we're here, let's just have a casual meal. There's no need to lower ourselves to their level. It'll look like we're bullying them!”

Yu Tian laughed when he heard this. He calmly said to the waiter, “We've already been sitting here for half a day. Why aren't you here to take our order? Do you really want me to call your boss over?”

?Chapter 73 – A Friendly Reminder

Thank you readers!

When Yu Tian spoke to the waiter, Wu Xinran chuckled and could not stand it any longer.

“Young man, if you have anything to say, you can say it to me. This restaurant is the property of Tianhai Group. Although I'm not considered a high-ranking manager, I can at least say a few words. If you have any dissatisfaction, you can let me know!”

Yu Tian smiled indifferently and said, “You're still not qualified. I reckon that even the highest-level managers of the Tianhai Group might not be able to say anything in front of me. So, you'd better eat your meal. It's best if you don't disgust me here!”

Once he said this, everyone was shocked. Was this kid crazy? Wu Xinran was a general manager of Tianhai Group. He had many resources in his hands. In the entire Linhai, he could be considered an important figure.

Even if he did not know who Wu Xinran was, the kid should also know the strength of the Chu family in Linhai. Talking like this was simply courting death.

However, Wu Xinran laughed out loud. “This young man is really interesting. It's good to be young and ignorant. Thinking back to when I was young, I was also like this. There's a saying, you won't shed tears until you see the coffin.

“Young man, I'm warning you out of kindness. It's best not to be so arrogant. There are many people in this world who are more powerful than you. A single breath from Tianhai Group can blow away.

“I'm in a good mood today so I won't lower myself to your level. Hurry up and eat your abalone fried rice. Then, take your little lover and leave this place. You can either get a room or go to the wild!”

The manager also looked at Yu Tian with disdain and said in disgust, “Director Wu has treated you kindly. Either you eat the abalone fried rice and leave, or our Tianhai Group's security department will come. You won't be able to leave even if you want to then!”

Yu Tian did not believe what he heard. He said in disdain, “Oh? So, the Tianhai Group's security department is so powerful. Then I'll have to see it for myself. Why don't you call them over? Let's see if I'll leave or if you'll leave when the time comes.”

The middle-aged man was already disgusted with Yu Tian. He slammed the table and stood up. “Are you shameless? I already bought you abalone fried rice. What more do you want? Do you know the consequences of you being rude to Director Wu?”

“It’s still not too late for you to apologize to Director Wu. Otherwise, you might not even be able to stay in Linhai anymore. Apologize to Director Wu immediately!”

Qing Xiaowan kept tugging at Yu Tian’s arm. If she had not brought him here for dinner, why would they have a conflict with these people? Just thinking about it made her feel even more apologetic.

However, Yu Tian smiled faintly. “It’s alright. Just order whatever you want to eat with the waiter. I’m definitely going to eat today’s meal. I want to see how arrogant the people of the Tianhai Group are.”

Wu Xinran’s face also darkened. This guy was really shameless. He immediately turned to the manager and said coldly, “Call the people from the security department and ask them to come over and settle this. In the future, people like him are absolutely not allowed to enter the restaurant!”

The manager immediately nodded and said timidly, “Okay, Director Wu. I’ll immediately call the people from the security department. I’m really sorry for disturbing your meal. In the future, I definitely won’t let such a person walk into the restaurant again!”

After saying that, the manager picked up the phone and called the security department.

Yu Tian knew what kind of people in the Security Department of the Tianhai Group were. He had heard it from Chu Qing when he was chatting with her in the past. The so-called security department was actually a group of hired thugs.

If someone wanted to cause trouble in the branches of the Tianhai Group, then this group of hired thugs would be used. They would do whatever it took to get rid of the troublemakers.

Anyway, the Tianhai Group had plenty of money, so it would not matter even if someone died.

However, Yu Tian wanted to eat. What was there to call the security department? So, he immediately took out his phone and dialed Chu Qing’s number.

Chu Qing, who was leading Yu Qi’er around the mall, immediately picked up the phone and said, “Don’t tell me you’re still together. Go home and get ready for the cocktail party!”

Yu Tian chuckled. “I’m having dinner at the Violet Restaurant under the Tianhai Group. I need you to come over now!”

Chu Qing said without hesitation, “Okay, I’ll go right away!”

The middle-aged man continued to mock her. "Oh, you even know to call for help. Who in the entire Linhai is more powerful than the Tianhai Group? Do you think you can find someone who doesn't even care about the Tianhai Group?"

The woman in red added, "How is that possible? Look at their level. What kind of people can they know? They are no people more lowly than them!"

Wu Xinran shook his head helplessly. He stared at Qing Xiaowan and said regretfully, "Miss, you have to be careful when finding a partner. First of all, you can't find someone who's pretentious. You won't know when this kind of person will be beaten to death.

"Moreover, people who are willing to put on an act aren't promising. I see that your figure and appearance aren't bad. If you don't have a job, I can introduce you to work at the Tianhai Group. The benefits will definitely satisfy you.

"It's better than following this poor boy and being despised in this restaurant. In the future, I can often bring you here to eat!"

Qing Xiaowan completely ignored him. She did not even want to look at him. To say that Yu Tian was a poor boy, he was really blind.

At this moment, more than ten men in black walked into the restaurant. The leading man in a black suit and tie bowed to Wu Xinran first.

"Director Wu, we immediately came over when we received the call. Who's causing trouble in this restaurant? I think he's not afraid of death!"

Everyone looked at Yu Tian, and it was self-evident.

Wu Xinran smiled smugly and said, "You have to let them live. You guys are now regular employees of the Tianhai Group's Security Department, not those big shots in the past!" The man in the suit chuckled and said attentively, "Director Wu, you're right. I'll get rid of that guy right now. Please continue eating!"

Wu Xinran grinned and nodded. He instructed, "Just teach him a lesson. But don't hit that girl. I think she's pretty good. She's just following a poor boy. Let her leave!"

"Okay, Director Wu. I understand what you mean. Leave it to me!"

With that, the man in the suit turned around and instructed his men, "You've heard Director Wu. Now, please escort these two out of the restaurant. Be civilized and don't disturb the guests here!"

?Chapter 74 – Completely Erased

Thank you readers!

As he spoke, a few security guards immediately surrounded him and were about to make a move.

At this moment, Chu Qing shouted sternly from behind the crowd, "What are you all trying to do? I want to see which one of you dares to use force on my younger brother!"

The crowd turned around and was dumbfounded when they saw Chu Qing, who was trembling with anger.

A few strands of hair on Wu Xinran's head stood up. He hurriedly stood up and ran to Chu Qing like a servant.

"President Chu, why are you here? Who, who's your younger brother?"

Wu Xinran prayed desperately in his heart. "Please don't mention that poor boy."

However, reality still gave him a slap. Chu Qing walked over to Yu Tian and directly called him "little brother" in a domineering manner.

"Little Brother, did these people bully you? Don't be upset. I'll help you vent your anger!"

The faces of the manager, Wu Xinran, the middle-aged man, the woman in red, and the bodyguards turned dark. Wu Xinran was especially scared. He was so scared that his head was buzzing. He rushed forward to explain.

"It's all a misunderstanding. President Chu, this gentleman with extraordinary looks and temperament is actually your little brother? It was just a little conflict during dinner. It was really a misunderstanding!"

Yu Tian snorted coldly. Then, he said indifferently, "It doesn't seem like a misunderstanding. I brought people to eat at a restaurant under my sister's company, but they chased me away because I wasn't dressed well. They even ordered two servings of fried rice for me and even called security. Sister Qing, the people of the company are really amazing. Are you usually this vicious?"

Chu Qing's eyes widened and she looked at Wu Xinran in disbelief. "Is what my brother said true?"

Wu Xinran could not even wipe away his cold sweat. It was useless to say anything else now. He knelt at Yu Tian's feet and pleaded like he was crying, "It's my fault today. I was just pretending. If you're angry, you can beat me up and kick me a few times. It's those two b*stards who made me misunderstand the situation!"

Chu Qing turned her head and looked at the middle-aged man coldly. She said angrily, "Who are you? Speak!"

The two people were so scared that they almost slipped under the chairs. The arrogant look of the woman in red had long vanished. Her face was full of fear and embarrassment. In front of Chu Qing, she was just an ant. Chu Qing could easily kill her with a casual stomp.

The middle-aged man took a deep breath and mustered his courage to get up. He said respectfully, "President Chu, I'm the general manager of Tianding Entertainment Media. This is my wife, Qin Yang. We—"

Chu Qing did not want to listen to his nonsense. She immediately asked, "You ordered fried rice for my brother?"

Qin Yang said incoherently, "I ordered it. I didn't mean that.."

Yu Tian suddenly snorted and said disdainfully, "I understand what you mean. Waiter, give her 50 servings of abalone fried rice and let her eat them all in front of me!"

50 servings of abalone fried rice?

Qin Yang was crying. He imitated Wu Xinran and knelt at Yu Tian's feet, kowtowing and bowing. She slapped herself and begged, "President Yu, I'm a dog who looks down on others. I'm shameless, I'm a b*tch!"

It was useless to do this. This was not what Yu Tian wanted. He turned to look at the manager.

The manager had a mournful look on her face. Her expression was twisted.

Yu Tian said indifferently, "I just want to have a peaceful meal here but you agree to their shenanigans. You have quite a lot of power, huh? Why don't I give you President Chu's position so you can become the president instead?"

"I don't want to talk nonsense with you. I'm so hungry that I feel uncomfortable. Who's going to take my order?"

Chu Qing turned her head and said domineeringly, "Qin Yang, close the company and leave Linhai. Don't appear in any city where our Chu family conducts business."

"Wu Xinran, get out of the company and go to the countryside to raise pigs. You're not allowed to come back for the rest of your life. As for you, manager, you're no longer the manager, but you don't have to leave. From now on, you'll do the dirtiest and most tiring work in this restaurant."

“If you have the guts to not do it or leave secretly, I can wipe you out of this world at any time.

And you guys!”

Chu Qing looked at the bodyguards of the Security Department with a cold gaze.

“From now on, you guys go to Chu Xin's entertainment nightclub to be waiters. Similarly, if you dare not do it, I'll immediately wipe you out!”

Everyone sighed and cried. They really could not afford to live anymore.

Chu Qing waved her hand and the bodyguards she brought immediately rushed up to kick them out of the restaurant.

“Brother, are you satisfied with this?”

They were just putting on a show. This was already not bad. If she were to do it, they would all be crippled. Chu Qing could be considered to have saved their lives. This result was still acceptable.

Yu Tian smiled and said, “Can we get some food first? I'm so hungry that I'm seeing double!”

Chu Qing smiled and called for the waiter to order for Yu Tian. Qing Xiaowan stood up and said timidly, “Hello, Sister Chu!”

“You don't have to ask me to call you sister!”

Chu Qing looked at her coldly and sat directly in front of her. Her beautiful legs were crossed and her diamond sandals, which were worth millions of dollars, were shining brightly.

Yu Tian wanted to say something, but Chu Qing raised her hand to stop him. She turned to Qing Xiaowan and said coldly, “I hope that after you eat this meal, you'll never use any reason to get close to my brother again. You two aren't on the same level.

“Moreover, every time my brother sees you, he'll always have conflicts with others. You two may be fated to have a nemesis. I have a bank card with ten million in it. You can go to any city but you cannot stay by my brother's side!”

Qing Xiaowan did not even look at the card. She only gritted her teeth to endure the humiliation. She looked at Yu Tian with tears in her eyes and smiled. “Yu Tian, thank you for taking care of me. I'll repay your kindness in the next life!” After saying that, Qing Xiaowan turned around and left.

Yu Tian did not chase after her. It was useless even if he did. Chu Qing's words were too hurtful. He would let Qing Xiaowan calm down first. If there was a chance, he would find her. As for Chu Qing, it was for his own good. There was no need to be angry with her.

While they were eating, Du Mingzhe, who had left Xinghe Technology, was about to leave the house when he was tied up by a few men and was brought to a luxurious villa in the suburbs.

Lei Yi stared at him expressionlessly, which made Du Mingzhe's hair stand on end. He said fearfully, "What do you want to do?"

"You don't have to be afraid. No one will hurt you. In fact, I want to help you!" After Lei Yi said that, a smile appeared on his face.

Du Mingzhe looked at the fierce-looking men on his left and right, but he was still uncertain. He said with a trembling voice, "Can you speak more clearly?"

Lei Yi picked up the red wine and leisurely swayed it around. He said slowly, "I'll provide you with funds to help you continue developing the five-dimensional code technology because our enemy is Yu Tian!"

?Chapter 75 – Trash Must Be Thrown Away

Thank you readers!

Du Mingzhe understood. "This person wanted to use my technology to compete with Yu Tian. Yu Tian kicked me out of the company, so I should take revenge on him. Let him know that choosing Yan Longwen was the wrong decision. When the time comes, I'll make him kneel in front of me and beg me."

Du Mingzhe narrowed his eyes and said coldly, "I agree but on one condition. Once the technology is successfully developed, I want to have a part of the shares!"

Lei Yi snorted coldly and said, "Sure, I can give them to you. I want Yu Tian's Xinghe Technology to go bankrupt. I don't care about anything else. Call your team and you can start work tomorrow!"

Thinking about how Yu Tian had humiliated him in public, Lei Yi wanted to smash his cup. Since he could not use force, then he would play with something else. "I don't believe that you, Yu Tian, are a god."

The next morning, Yu Tian personally sent Yu Qi'er to Linhai University. It was currently school time, and there were many people coming and going. It was especially lively.

At the school gate, the children of wealthy families all made grand appearances. All kinds of supercars appeared one after another.

Yu Tian looked at one after another. It was true that there were many beautiful women in universities. At this moment, a horn sounded behind him. When he turned around, he saw that it was a red convertible Veyron.

A man and a woman sitting on it looked at Yu Tian and his sister impatiently.

The man in school uniform stood up and shouted, "Hey, are you deaf? Get out of the way quickly. Don't block the road here!"

The woman looked at Yu Qi'er. Then, she laughed coldly and said, "Looking at her looks, she must be from the countryside. Now, anyone can come to an aristocratic school. I wonder how long can she last?"

Yu Tian looked at them indifferently and said, "I think you guys should be the ones who get out of the way. This is the sidewalk. Are you blind?"

The man sneered and scolded, "Kid, I know this is a sidewalk. Whether I should move or not or attend classes or not, my family has the final say in this school!"

The surrounding people began to discuss.

"See, that country bumpkin offended the vice principal's son. This time, he's asking for it!"

"Last time, someone provoked Peng Nan and was expelled a few days later. I think this guy doesn't even need to enter the school anymore!"

"Here, provoking Peng Nan is courting death. Our parents worked so hard to send us to school, yet we still have to look at his face. He's really angry!"

Yu Tian understood after listening to the chatters. So, this guy who looked like an asshole was the vice principal's son. No wonder he was so arrogant.

At this time, the girl in the front passenger seat impatiently flew into a rage. She said in disgust, "Peng Nan, we're going to be late. If you can't make it, then just push them away. Don't block our way here. It's so disgusting!"

Boos rang out in the surroundings again.

"Peng Nan and Qin Lu are simply a natural-born couple!"

"Don't spout nonsense. Be careful that Qin Lu hears you. Her father can kill you!"

“That's right. Qin Lu's father is a mob boss. If you provoke him, he can easily order someone to beat you to death!”

At this moment, a middle-aged man with a big belly came close and looked at Yu Tian and Yu Qi'er with an evil expression.

“Are you guys here to study? Why aren't you going to class yet? Why are you standing here? Are you looking for trouble?”

Yu Tian asked disdainfully, “Does it have anything to do with you whether we go to class or not?”

Before the middle-aged man could speak, Peng Nan said disdainfully, “Director Gu, you came at the right time. These two students seem to look down on our school and spoke rudely to me. What do you think we should do?”

Director Gu hurriedly nodded and bowed, saying, “Young Master Peng, I know what to do. Just give them a big demerit. If it's not enough, I'll report it to the higher-ups later and have them directly withdraw from the school!”

Yu Tian thought, “Aiyo, damn it! What the hell is this? My younger sister hasn't even entered the school gate, and she already got a big demerit. She was expelled without even seeing the teacher. It's such a big school. Could it be that it was controlled by these bastards?”

Director Gu looked at Yu Tian with his dog-like face and shouted, “Didn't you hear that? Hurry up and scram. Otherwise, you don't have to go to school anymore. Just go home!”

Yu Tian said disdainfully, “Can you give me a reason why we need to leave?”

“The reason is that Peng Nan is the vice principal's son. Is this reason enough?” Director Gu's voice was so loud that it was as if the entire school could hear it. Anyone could provoke anyone, but they could not provoke Peng Nan.

To Yu Tian, this reason was enough for him to take action. He said coldly, “That's good. Today, I'll provoke the vice principal's son. Now that he's blocking my way, let him get out of my way!”

Both director Gu and Peng Nan laughed out loud. Was this guy mentally ill? How dare he ask Peng Nan to get out of his way? These words were simply ridiculous.

Peng Nan craned his neck and said, “Let me see how capable you are. I'm right here. Come on!”

Yu Tian's originally indifferent face suddenly exuded a murderous intent. He took a step toward the car and kicked it.

Peng Nan and Qin Lu's bodies shook. Then, it skidded backward and with a bang, it crashed heavily into a tree. The violent impact caused the windshield to crack. If not for the airbag exploding, Peng Nan and Qin Lu would have smashed their heads and bled.

This scene shocked everyone. That kick was so powerful that it could kick a supercar several meters away. No matter what kind of leg it was, it was definitely not a human leg. No one could do it unless it was a superman, but there was no superman in this world.

Director Gu was so scared that he almost shit his pants. He hurriedly ran over and pulled the dazed Peng Nan and Qin Lu out.

He immediately called the vice principal and other teachers over to send the two of them to the infirmary.

Then, Director Gu turned around and pointed at Yu Tian. He cursed in fear, "You dare to hurt Young Master Peng. I think you don't want to live anymore. Don't even think about leaving!"

Yu Tian snorted and walked up to him. He said disdainfully, "I think you don't have to work as a director anymore!"

Looking at Yu Tian who was two heads taller than him, Director Gu's face turned cold. His state of mind exploded, and he turned around, wanting to leave.

Yu Tian grabbed his neck and smashed him into the door of the supercar.

Director Gu, who weighed more than two hundred pounds, seemed to have lost all his weight in Yu Tian's hands. He was thrown here and there, and in the end, he vomited blood. Only then did Yu Tian throw him into the trash can next to him.

He clapped his hands and said indifferently, "Trash has to be thrown!"

?Chapter 76 – Buying A Noble School

Thank you readers!

At this moment, everyone who saw this scene had their mouths agape and was dumbstruck.

Yu Qi'er was even more stunned. "Is this my brother? What exactly happened to him all this while?"

Yu Tian did not even look at Director Gu in the trash can. He turned around and held his sister's hand.

“Let's go, I'll send you to the classroom!”

The crowd hurriedly moved to the sides.

Yu Tian walked into the school campus in a domineering manner. Who dared to stop him?

He wanted them to know that Yu Qi'er was Yu Tian's sister. In the future, whoever dared to provoke her and look down on her would end up like Director Gu.

Just as they walked into the teaching building, the vice-principal and a dozen teachers blocked their way.

Peng Nan, who was still in shock, pointed at Yu Tian and cursed, “Father, it was this b*stard who beat me up. Chase them away. Otherwise, I won't go to this school in the future.”

Peng Yuejian looked at Yu Tian coldly. He gnashed his teeth and said, “How dare you hurt my son? Don't go to this school. Call your parents over. I want to see what kind of lousy parents raise lousy kids like you two!”

Yu Tian's expression suddenly turned cold. It seemed that this vice-principal was also trash. Otherwise, why would his son be such trash?

Yu Tian snorted coldly and said, “I have 108 parents, which one do you want to meet?”

Peng Yuejian shouted, “You dare to talk to me like that? I think you're lacking in manners. Today, I'll teach you a lesson on behalf of your parents!”

More than ten security guards immediately surrounded the siblings. They did not care how many people were watching and were eager to fight.

Yu Qi'er was so scared that she grabbed Yu Tian's clothes. Yu Tian stroked her hair and smiled.

“Don't be afraid. I usually fight with more than a hundred people. They'll fall in just a few blinks!”

As soon as he said that, Yu Qi'er really blinked a few times. However, Yu Tian disappeared before her eyes.

Following that, a series of wails and screams followed. When she turned around to look, the security guards were all lying on the ground as expected. Not only were they lying down, but they were also rolling around on the ground in excruciating pain.

Peng Yuejian's cold sweat trickled down his nose. How could this b*stard fight? Even a dozen security guards were no match for him.

Peng Nan was so scared that his legs and stomach were turning. If he had known that Yu Tian's fists were so tough, why would he provoke him?

At this time, Yu Tian came in front of the furious Peng Yuejian and said disdainfully, "Let's have a one-on-one match!"

Peng Yuejian was so scared that he trembled. He took a few steps back and almost hit the wall. He snorted angrily, "You're simply rebelling against me. My school cannot tolerate you. I'm now ordering you, as the vice-principal, to immediately take your sister and get lost. I don't accept you here!"

Yu Tian laughed disdainfully. "I'm afraid your words are nothing!"

"My words are nothing? I'm the vice-principal here and I have the right to do so. Now, all of you leave immediately and I'll pretend that nothing has happened. Otherwise, I'll see which teacher dares to teach you and which student dares to come into contact with you."

The more Peng Yuejian spoke, the more agitated he became. It was as if he was about to lose control.

Yu Tian did not want to say any more nonsense. "Since you want to be trash, then I'll fulfill your wish. What vice-principal? I'll beat you up into a pulp and let you lie on the bed!"

Just as he was about to make a move, the principal arrived. When he was still more than ten meters away, the principal shouted, "Stop fighting, stop fighting!"

Yu Tian turned around to look.

The principal was wearing a suit and a red tie. He had a pointy head and a round chin. He was also bald.

The principal trotted over and said to Yu Tian breathlessly, "I'm sorry that I'm late, Student Yu. I ate too much chili yesterday and my stomach is a little bad. The other students have already told me what happened. I apologize on behalf of the school!" As he spoke, the principal bowed to Yu Tian.

Peng Yuejian and the others were stupefied. What was going on? Was this still the usual arrogant and domineering principal?

Why did he bow to this little b*stard? Did he have diarrhea until he went insane?

Yu Tian knew that Chu Qing must have arranged it, so he just smiled and watched his performance without saying a word.

The principal turned around and glared at Peng Yuejian with extreme disgust. "Do you know who they are? Do you know how ignorant and disgusting your behavior today is?"

Peng Yuejian, who was inexplicably scolded, said in a low voice, "Principal, I don't care who he is. He injured my son. I absolutely can't let him stay here. Otherwise, how can I do my duty as the vice-principal in the future?"

The principal shook his head helplessly and said, "What do you think you can do as the vice-principal? I'll be honest with you. Immediately kneel and kowtow to the siblings so you can still have a chance to earn a living in other places. Your position as the vice-principal is Yu Tian's!"

"What did you say?" Peng Yuejian's mind rumbled. He felt as if the entire world had collapsed. However, he quickly calmed down.

He snorted coldly and shook his head. Then, he said angrily, "If you say so, then so be it. I'm the vice-principal appointed by the school's shareholders. You don't have the right to do this. Even if you want me to hand over the position of vice-principal, the shareholders have to agree to it!"

The principal helplessly said, "You may not know this, but the school has already been bought by the Chu Corporation. Now, every blade of grass and every tree here belongs to the Chu family. And that Yu Tian is Chu Qing's younger brother, and Yu Qi'er is Chu Qing's younger sister. Do you understand now?"

With a plop, Peng Yuejian collapsed to the ground. His gaze was dull, and even his saliva was spurting out. This was simply a bolt from the blue.

What else could others say about the Chu family? That was an extremely terrifying existence. No one could disobey their wishes and orders.

To think that Yu Tian and Yu Qi'er were members of the Chu family. No wonder he was so domineering and arrogant. It turned out that he had the right to do so. The scariest thing was that he had provoked them.

On the other side, Yu Tian was also helpless. He had agreed to let his sister go to school quietly, but in the end, Chu Qing had bought the entire school. She even made him the vice-principal.

“Moreover, looking at it this way, my authority as the vice-principal seemed to be even greater than that of the principal. I really couldn't understand the world of the rich.”

At this moment, Peng Yuejian suddenly got up and forcefully grabbed Peng Nan's hair in front of Yu Tian.

“Student Yu, beat him to death. As long as you can vent your anger, you can beat him to death!”

“F*ck, for his own benefit, he didn't even care about his own son's life. This kind of person really deserved to die.”

Yu Tian snorted coldly and said disdainfully, “Go to the side and don't disgust me. Now I want my sister to go to class. Bring your son to the playground and kneel. When it's dark, get out of the school!”

Chapter 77 – The Mysterious Ship

Thank you readers!

Peng Yuejian had no choice but to provoke the Chu family. This was what he had to endure. If he had known earlier, he would not have pretended to be better than Yu Tian. How could he have known earlier?

Peng Yuejian dragged the zombie-like Peng Nan and knelt on the field. This had really become the most beautiful scenery on campus.

The principal said enthusiastically to Yu Tian, “President Chu has already instructed that your sister will enter the best class and be taught by our best teacher. If your sister feels that there's anything she doesn't understand, we can let the professor tutor her!”

This was truly an aristocratic school. However, since he treated her sister well, there was no need to reject him.

Under everyone's envious gazes, Yu Qi'er nervously walked into the classroom. A female professor stood at the door obediently and bowed first. Then, she warmly said, “Student Yu Qi'er, welcome to my class. I'm your form teacher.”

“From now on, I'll be in charge of your study and life here. If you have any requests, you can tell me. Moreover, because of your arrival, President Chu has specially donated ten million in class fees. She has specially bought all the items to help you with your studies. As your teacher-in-charge, I have to thank you!a€?

Yu Tian felt like he was just a bystander. a€?Such meticulous arrangements. Doesn't Chu Qing have anything else to do? Since everything is settled, I'll go and do something else.'

He waved his hand at Yu Qi'er and encouraged her to study hard. He turned around and was about to leave when he received a call from Chu Yue.

After the call was connected, Chu Yue said coldly, a€?Come to the port now. I have work for you!a€? a€?What kind of work can you have? I just want to rest!a€? Yu Tian said impatiently.

a€?Are you tired from hitting people? The one who was thrown into the trash can will probably spend the rest of his life lying in bed. We helped you settle it. Are you coming or not?a€? Chu Yue's voice was as cold as ice that it could freeze people to death.

a€?I'm coming. Why are you shouting? My ears are ringing. Wait for me!a€?

After hanging up the phone, Yu Tian looked at the two people on the field and said to the principal indifferently, a€?Don't let them leave until the sky turns dark!a€?

a€?I understand. I'll keep an eye on them for you!a€? The principal nodded and bowed.

Half an hour later, Yu Tian arrived at the port office.

Chu Yue threw a folder on the table without saying a word.

What was this? Yu Tian opened the folder curiously and saw a few pictures of the ships. He asked in confusion, a€?What's this? Can you explain?a€?

Chu Yue stood up and brewed coffee for Yu Tian. Then, she said coldly, a€?This ship may be in our port for a short stay, but the people on this ship are very special. They want to meet you for five minutes and then leave!a€?

Yu Tian asked, a€?I still don't understand. Who are they, and why are they meeting me?a€?

Putting down the coffee, Chu Yue's expression was nervous, and her cold gaze made Yu Tian feel very uncomfortable.

After a moment of silence, she said coldly, a€?I can't let you know now because I don't know either. This is an order from the higher-ups of the family. In other words, that million-ton ship is here for these five minutes. This is your mission!a€?

My mission? Yu Tian smiled disdainfully. 'I don't even know how many missions I have now.'

He said indifferently, 'You really think highly of me. Since they're here, then let's meet. I want to see what kind of mysterious people they are.'

At this moment, he suddenly received a message from Yan Longwen. 'CEO Yu, Du Mingzhe has established his own company. They are developing the same project as us. They are using my father's technical parameters. They are really too shameless!'

Yu Tian did not reply. So be it. What was so great about setting up a company? So what if they succeeded in their research and development?

'If they can develop a five-dimensional code, can I develop a six-dimensional code? Let's see who is more powerful then?'

However, Yu Tian was puzzled. How did they get the funding?

Professor Yan once said that this project was extremely costly. Just the testing equipment and network construction alone would not be possible without a few hundred million.

Therefore, the person who provided the funding for Du Mingzhe was definitely not a simple person. Moreover, he knew that I was also developing this project, yet he still dared to invest and go against Xinghe Technology.

'This person must be my enemy. Shao Mingzun? Zong Ming, or someone else?'

At this moment, he received another message. It was only a few words.

'Pan Duzi in the suburbs!'

Yu Tian frowned. Pan Duzi was the name of a place. That place was the wilderness. 'There wasn't even a family there. Who wanted to meet me there?'

The number was also unfamiliar. Why did he guess so much? He would know once he went to take a look.

The Phantom Ghost started to work at an incredible speed. Like a gust of wind, he arrived at Pan Duzi in the blink of an eye.

He walked into a meadow. Under the red glow of the setting sun, the old man looked at him expressionlessly with his hands behind his back.

Yu Tian looked left and right. After confirming that it was the old man alone, he asked indifferently, 'One-on-one or a group fight?'

The old man chuckled and said gloomily, 'I'm not here to fight with you. We don't have that much hatred between us. We don't have to fight to the death. Instead, we can work together!'

'I'd be dumb to believe your words.'

Yu Tian laughed disapprovingly and said, 'Did the sun rise from the west today? You old fart, you want to work together with me? Why? Do you want me to kill all your sissy disciples?' The old man could not take it anymore and said angrily, 'Can you speak properly? We're both Jianghu people. When we see benefits, we have to take them. I want to join hands with you to kill Zong Ming.'

'I know you want his port, and I want his money. When the time comes, the port will belong to you, and the rest will belong to me. What do you think?'

Yu Tian looked at him silently. He did not nod or shake his head. In his heart, he was thinking about the old man's intention.

'He could kill Zong Ming himself, so why did he have to work with me? He probably wants to drag me down with Zong Ming. You old man, you really think too much.'

However, the old man said gloomily, 'I know what you're thinking. I can easily kill Zong Ming, but I can't get the password to control the money in his head. I want you to get all of that out and use methods other than force. Now, you should understand, right?'

When Yu Tian heard this, he yawned lazily and said disdainfully, 'What if I don't agree? What can you do about it?'

'Then, we continue to be enemies and fight to the death. If you want to kill me, it won't be that easy. I can't kill you, but I can make a move on the people around you.'

'But I don't want to do that. It's better to have friends than enemies. Only when you and I join hands can we rule the world!'

Yu Tian laughed. 'I don't have such a big goal in life. On the contrary, my goal is very simple. That is to kill you now and I'll be happy!'

?Chapter 78 – Enjoy Everything

Thank you readers!

Talking nonsense with the old man was a waste of time. After Yu Tian finished speaking, he was about to make a move. The old man's face tightened and he hurriedly stopped him.

“I won't make a move against you today. To show my sincerity, I can tell you an inside story!”

Yu Tian put down his stance and said disdainfully, “Let's see what you can use to exchange for your dog life.”

Walking up to Yu Tian, the old man said coldly, “Zong Ming has found an expert to deal with you. It's said that this expert is very powerful. Even I'm not his match. If you're willing to cooperate with me, I can provide you with information about that expert. How about that?”

Looking at the old man's gloomy and cold gaze, it did not seem like he was fooling around.

Yu Tian snorted indifferently. “How can there be so many experts in this world? I'd like to see what kind of experts Zong Ming can find. You can scram now!”

The old man felt that he could not leave just like that. “Then, what about our cooperation?”

Yu Tian laughed out loud. “It depends on my mood. I'm already very unhappy that I didn't kill you today. If you don't scram now, I'll kill you!”

Thinking about his martial strength, the old man was indeed not Yu Tian's match at the moment. He chose to retreat, but he was reluctant to do.

“I won't fight head-on with you now. When my strength reaches a higher level, I'll definitely let you know how powerful I am. When that time comes, I'll definitely make you kneel and kowtow to me.”

Yu Tian did not know what he was thinking, nor did he care. He just wanted to keep him alive for a few more days. Now, Yu Tian should know who was supporting Du Mingzhe.

At this moment, Du Mingzhe, who had just come down from the opening reception, invited his R&D team to the nightclub to have fun.

There, Du Mingzhe called the waiter in front of him in an imposing manner.

“Serve me the best wine, the best fruit platter, and the best ladies. Also, your music is too loud. I like to listen to light music. Change it for me!”

The waiter said awkwardly, “Sir, I'm sorry. This is nightclub music. There's no way to change it. Why don't I invite you to the private room instead?”

Du Mingzhe looked at the waiter coldly and said angrily, "I want to be here. I want everyone to know who I, Du Mingzhe, am. Do you think there's only Yu Tian in Linhai? Let me tell you. I, Du Mingzhe, have started to rise today!"

After saying that, he even took out tens of thousands of yuan and threw them on the table. He said arrogantly, "Do you want to change the music or not?"

The waiter could not solve the issue, so he hurriedly called for the chief attendant. The chief attendant was a long-haired beauty. When she smiled, the dimples on her face were very cute.

She greeted everyone first. Then, she smiled and said, "You guys obviously capable people. This room isn't suitable for your status. There are ordinary people around. They are noisy and have no manners. Why don't I introduce you to the luxurious private room on the top floor? That's where big bosses like you should be!"

However, Du Mingzhe did not appreciate her kindness and demanded, "I want to sit here today. Now, you sit next to me and drink with me. Otherwise, I'll close your nightclub!"

The chief attendant hurriedly waved her hand to refuse. She could finally see that this bespectacled man was a poor man who suddenly became rich.

In the private room, others could not see his pretense so it was meaningless. The best place for him to show off was in the hall. She had really seen many people like him.

Du Mingzhe saw that the chief attendant dared to reject him and said angrily, "I gave you face, didn't I? Don't think that you're so great. Aren't you just a higher-class prostitute? Today, you can accompany me to have fun. Say how much money you want. I can afford it!"

The more he said, the more he went overboard. The chief attendant's expression sank. She turned around and left, ignoring them.

A few of the security guards also noticed them and surrounded them.

Du Mingzhe looked left and right, and said disdainfully, "What, you want to play with me? Do you know who I am? My name is Du Mingzhe, the boss of Tian Tu Technology. I'm worth hundreds of millions. If you don't bark like a dog, I'll shut down your nightclub!"

The security guards looked at each other and felt that Du Mingzhe meant what he said.

One of the security guards, who was wearing a suit and tie, said politely, "So, it's President Du. I'm Sun Chen. Since you're here to support us, we'll naturally welcome you. If you need anything, just let me know!"

Du Mingzhe snorted coldly and said proudly, "I don't have any other requests. Just let the chief attendant accompany me to have fun tonight. Is 100,000 yuan enough?"

This request was indeed very difficult.

Du Mingzhe also shouted, "500,000 yuan or 1,000,000 yuan. I'll spend money to buy her to accompany me to have fun today. If you don't agree, I'll give each of you 100,000 yuan for the entire venue. I'll let people wreck your nightclub!"

Sun Chen had encountered pretentious people, but none of them were as pretentious as Du Mingzhe.

Sun Chen's expression was a little embarrassed. "This nightclub is under the Tianhai Group. Compared to them, your 1,000,000 yuan was like a grain of sand in the desert. Why are you so pretentious?"

In order not to make the scene bigger, Sun Chen suppressed his anger. "President Du, the chief attendant won't drink with you. No matter how much money you give, it's useless. This is the rule of the Tianhai Group. If you must do this, then I can only escalate this to Sister Chu!" Du Mingzhe was shocked. So, this nightclub belonged to the Chu family's Tianhai Group.

"So what? My backer is Lei Yi. He's not afraid of the Chu family. If they dare to touch a single strand of hair on my head and affect the progress of the research and development, Lei Yi will kill them."

Thinking about this, Du Mingzhe sneered. He adjusted his gold-rimmed glasses and said disdainfully, "So what if it's the Tianhai Group? So what if it's the Chu family? I came here to spend my money."

"Is your nightclub choosing customers to serve? Do you think the Chu family is so great that everyone has to give you face? I, Du Mingzhe, will not fall for your tricks. Now, I want you to immediately call the chief attendant over and have a drink with me. Otherwise, I'll turn your nightclub upside down!"

"If you don't want me to do it, you can ask the Chu family to come and have a drink with me. I'm worth hundreds of millions. I can afford to spend this money!"

Even the people Du Mingzhe brought over could not bear to watch this show.

"You still dare to show off to the Chu family? Aren't you drunk? You're completely crazy."

A few people rushed forward to persuade him. However, Du Mingzhe did not listen at all. The feeling of being rich was really great.

“I had been so humble for the first half of my life. Now that I finally had a chance to be rich, I must enjoy everything.”

At this moment, Yu Qi'er led a few new classmates into the nightclub..

Chapter 79 – Just Beat Her Up

Thank you readers!

It was Yu Qi'er's first day of school. In addition to what happened during the day, everyone knew that she was a member of the Chu family, and they worshiped her as an idol.

Anyway, this nightclub belonged to the Chu family, and Chu Qing had also told her about it. As long as it was the Chu family's business, Yu Qi'er could eat, drink, and have fun for free.

The moment she stepped into the nightclub, she heard Du Mingzhe scolding Yu Tian.

Du Mingzhe seemed to have lost control as he shouted arrogantly, “What's wrong? I, Du Mingzhe, can't afford to play with Your Chu family's business? She, Chu Qing, can be played with by Yu Tian as she pleases. I, Du Mingzhe, can do the same. Call Chu Qing over and I'll play with her in front of all of you!”

When Yu Qi'er heard this, she hurriedly took out her phone and called Yu Tian.

Yu Tian was thinking of having a meal at this time. When he received the phone call, he ran straight to the nightclub without saying a word.

When he reached the place, Du Mingzhe was about to stand on the table. Sun Chen did not want to make a move for fear of affecting the other customers.

Moreover, Chu Xin had also ordered that they could not make a move no matter who was causing trouble at the nightclub. It was not a big deal to break things, but the most important thing was not affecting the business of the nightclub.

Du Mingzhe, on the other hand, was extremely happy. He said arrogantly, “What? Is this all the Chu family can do? Isn't it the Tianhai Group? Isn't It Yu Tian? So, they're all cowards. Even I'm afraid of them.”

Yu Tian saw that the surrounding customers were also pointing at him, and his eyes were filled with disdain.

“How much of a show did this trash have to put on in order for those drunkards to go up and f*ck him? More importantly, if you want to put on a show, then so be it. I don't care if you scold the Chu family, but you can't scold me.”

Yu Tian approached with a faint smile. Du Mingzhe was shocked when he saw that it was Yu

Tian. He pushed up his gold-rimmed glasses and said sarcastically, "So, it turns out that President Yu has personally come. I thought the Chu family would send some experts over."

There was nothing more to talk about with him. Yu Tian chuckled and said, "So, you're here to find trouble?"

Sun Chen, who was at the side, turned to look at Yu Tian. This handsome young man was the younger brother of the legendary 108 sisters of the Chu family, Yu Tian.

He hurriedly stepped forward and bowed. He said very nervously, "Good evening, President Yu. This guy has drunk too much and is acting like he's getting carried away. I'll take care of him!"

Seeing the security guard being so polite to Yu Tian, Du Mingzhe felt that the situation had been turned against him.

He snorted coldly and said, "I always thought that Yu Tian is the owner of Xinghe Technology, with a net worth of over ten billion. It turns out that he's just a dog raised by the Chu family.

"I don't believe that you dare to make a move on me. You have the protection of the Chu family, and I also have my backer. Don't think that I'll give you face just because you appear here."

Yu Tian smiled indifferently, but he suddenly rushed in front of him and raised his hand to slap Du Mingzhe. His gold-rimmed glasses were smashed away, and he almost fell to the ground.

The surrounding people clapped and cheered. Finally, someone dared to teach this guy a lesson. It was simply too awesome.

Sun Chen and the chief attendant looked at Yu Tian in admiration. This was a real man.

The few good-for-nothings that Du Mingzhe had brought wanted to stuff their heads into their pants. Seeing that Yu Tian did not even have the guts, they all stood up and moved aside, quickly drawing a clear line with Du Mingzhe.

The one who was most shocked was Du Mingzhe. His face was swollen from the slap and he shouted angrily, "You dare to hit me? I think you don't want to live anymore!"

Yu Tian only chuckled and raised his hand to strike again. With a crisp sound, Du Mingzhe's delicate body fell to the ground. He vomited blood.

Yu Tian stepped on his face and said coldly, "Don't you have a backer? Call him over. I'll finish you both together and save you time!"

Du Mingzhe was in pain and scared. He grimaced and said, "Yu Tian, you'd better let me go. Otherwise, my boss, Lei Yi will not let you go!"

So, it was Lei Yi. "I told him to get out of Linhai, but you still dare to play tricks on me. I had given you enough face. I thought that I'd have to spend some effort to find out the boss behind Du Mingzhe, but in the end, this trash revealed it himself."

Yu Tian turned around and said to Sun Chen, "Throw this trash into the alley. Do you understand what I mean?"

Then, Yu Tian turned around to look for his sister.

Sun Chen said excitedly, "I understand, President Yu. Just leave this trash to me!"

Sun Chen ordered his subordinates coldly, "Don't just stand there and watch. Do it!"

His subordinates all understood what Yu Tian meant. Throwing him into the alley meant that he wanted to beat him up. Otherwise, they would have been thrown out in front of the nightclub.

While everyone was cheering, a few of them threw Du Mingzhe into the alley. Then, the few of the men gave him a vicious beating.

Yu Tian came to the private room and saw that his sister was having fun. Yu Qi'er pulled Yu Tian into the room and proudly introduced him to her classmates, "This is my brother, Yu Tian."

Brother, they are all my classmates that I just met today!"

More than ten boys and girls stood up. Yu Tian's domineering attitude in school was now known by all his classmates. They all regarded Yu Tian as their idol.

"Brother Yu, you're really too handsome today. I'm going to fall in love with you!"

"Peng Nan is usually arrogant and domineering. Today, you taught them a lesson. It's really too satisfying!"

"You guys are still from the Chu family. You're really too awesome!"

Yu Tian was praised until his face was a little red. He flicked his hair and said seriously, "I'm now your vice principal. Qi'er, when you get tired of playing, bring your classmates to eat some food. I'll transfer some food money to you!"

Under the envious gazes of his classmates, Yu Tian directly transferred one million yuan to Yu Qi'er.

"Wow! One million yuan, that's amazing!"

The classmates exclaimed in surprise. He gave one million yuan just for a meal. The best brother in the world was none other than Yu Tian.

Yu Qi'er was delighted. She kissed Yu Tian on the cheek and said with a smile, "Thank you, Brother!"

Yu Tian smiled and stroked her little head. He said indifferently, "Find the best restaurant to have a meal. If you don't spend one million yuan, you're not allowed to go home. You guys continue to have fun. I'll leave now!"

When he left the private room, the students were so happy that they jumped. They could have fun without restraint today.

No matter what he did, Yu Tian felt that he owed his sister too much. He was willing to do this even if it meant compensating her for the rest of his life.

The Phantom Ghost entered the Xianggu House through the special passageway and arrived in front of the casino. However, the usually bustling casino was now empty. Only a few managers were organizing some things.

Yu Tian pulled a manager over and asked, "Where's your boss, Lei Yi?"

The manager looked at Yu Tian in confusion and said in a low voice, "He flew out of the country in the afternoon. We personally sent him off!"

Yu Tian smiled. So, before this trash left, he had helped Du Mingzhe to go against me. He had been commanding this little trick from outside the country. "However, this move of yours was still a little too inexperienced."

?Chapter 80 – Public Relations Company

Thank you readers!

At the same time, in Zong Ming's manor.

A few men wearing suits and carrying a briefcase walked into the villa under Zong Ming's warm greeting. The leader was in his forties. There were wrinkles and scars at the corners of his eyes. His gaze was filled with ferocity and confidence.

Zong Ming called for someone to bring over red wine and personally filled the man's glass. Zong Ming smiled and said, "Tianyou, you're finally here. If you're any later, I won't be able to live anymore!"

As soon as he finished speaking, someone placed a document in front of Chang Tianyou.

Chang Tianyou said professionally, "Yu Tian isn't Chu Qing's biological brother. It's more like they're using each other. Chu Qing gave Xinghe Technology to Yu Tian, and Yu Tian naturally has to repay this gift.

"As long as we make Yu Tian lose the support of the Chu family, it's equivalent to reducing Yu Tian's strength by half. When Yu Tian's backing disappears, we'll break up Xinghe Technology, and Yu Tian will have to get out of Linhai.

"I've already thought of a plan. We can start tomorrow. Boss Zong, just wait and see how Yu Tian will be played by us!"

Zong Ming seemed to have already seen Yu Tian kowtowing to him. He excitedly drank the entire glass of red wine in one gulp and said, "Good, very good. As long as I can kill Yu Tian, I'll be happy!"

Chang Tianyou did not drink. Instead, he calmly leaned against the sofa and said with a smile, "In that case, Boss Zong, you should also be clear about the fees. We're a professional public relations team, and it's very expensive.

"We charge by the second. The price per second is 100 yuan, which is 8.6 million yuan per day. Since we're old friends, I'll give you a discount. 8 million yuan per day.

"Moreover, the daily fee had to be paid one day in advance. Otherwise, we won't start the plan for the next day!"

Zong Ming thought highly of them because they were expensive. The more expensive they were, the more valuable they were, and the more likely they were to defeat Yu Tian. He nodded in satisfaction and said with a smile, "Then, what's the first step of your plan?"

Chang Tianyou flipped through the information and said gloomily, "First, we have to get rid of Yu Tian's standing in the Chu family. We have to destroy his reputation. According to the information we have, on many public occasions, Chu Qing's interaction with Yu Tian is ambiguous.

“We also know that there are two people who are more important to Yu Tian. One is called Xiao Yun, and the other is called Qing Xiaowan. Currently, Chu Qing hates these two women the most. What we have to do is to make one of these women have something with Yu Tian!”

Zong Ming really admired these people from the public relations company. He did not know about Yu Tian's situation but they knew it clearly.

When they spoke, the old man also heard them clearly. “I can't say this to Yu Tian. I'll let him see what these people are capable of. When he can't stand up to them, he'll naturally come and beg me for help!”

Yu Tian did not know that there was a group of people discussing on how to deal with him right now. Instead, he was in the R&D Department of Xinghe Technology, understanding from Yan Longwen about the progress of the R&D.

When Yan Longwen mentioned the part where she was angry, she threw all the documents on the conference table.

She was furious as she said, “I didn't know Du Mingzhe is such a sly person. They actually signed the exclusive rights for the integrated version. Without this integrated version, our R&D cannot proceed at all.

“Moreover, in the world, the only company that can produce this integrated version is the Super Nation's Aster Technology!”

Yu Tian smiled indifferently and said, “Then what's the problem? Why don't we just buy the rights to use it?”

Yan Longwen said, “President Yu, my dad used to work with Aster Technology. Now that my dad is gone, they think that Du Mingzhe is the successor. Moreover, they don't think that I can develop the five-dimensional code technology. Hence, it's very difficult to buy the rights to it!”

Difficult? In this world, as long as there was money and a strong fist, there was nothing that could not be obtained.

Yu Tian said disdainfully, “I can buy the entire Aster Technology and let them serve us. Don't bother about this. I'll settle it for you very soon!”

Yan Longwen also forced a smile and said slowly, “Aster Technology is also one of the top 100 companies in the world. This is a difficult task!”

Top 100? Yu Tian smiled disdainfully.

“One day, I'll make Xinghe Technology to be the number one company in the world.”

After the meeting ended, Yu Tian wanted to call Chu Qing and ask about Aster Technology. He wanted to see how powerful they could be.

However, the phone rang first. It was Yu Qi'er calling. She cried in panic, "Brother, quickly come and save me. We're at the Lantern Restaurant. My classmates are injured!"

Without saying a word, Yu Tian only took five minutes to arrive at the venue. Walking into the messy private room, Yu Tian looked at Yu Qi'er nervously. After making sure that she was not injured, he let out a long sigh.

However, the other boys were all injured. Two girls were with disheveled hair. They hugged each other in fear and were greatly agitated.

"What exactly happened? Don't be afraid. Tell me slowly!" Yu Tian held Yu Qi'er's hand and asked softly.

Yu Qi'er blinked her big tear-stained eyes and said, "We were eating. There were a few hooligans around our age who wanted to drink with us. When we refused, they beat us up. My classmates were injured by them for protecting me!" Yu Tian nodded and asked in puzzlement, "Didn't you say that you're Chu Qing's sister?"

"I did say that, but they didn't seem to care!"

At this time, a boy with a bruised face said firmly, "Brother Yu, I've seen those hooligans. They seem to be Qin Lu's people. I've seen them drinking together. They often hang out in that beverage shop!"

Yu Tian smiled indifferently and said, "They can basically say goodbye to cold drinks in the future!"

After sending them to the hospital and Yu Qi'er back home, Yu Tian went straight to the beverage shop. It was quite lively there, and it was filled with young men and women.

Yu Tian strode in and casually ordered a drink. He found a seat and opened his phone. While watching the videos of the thugs beating people up, he searched for them in the crowd.

Sure enough, he saw one of the trash in his twenties who was flirting with girls. This guy held a cigarette in his mouth and looked pleased with himself. He stared at the girl beside him with lecherous eyes.

"Sister, just tell me, can we get along? If you follow me, I guarantee that you'll have good food and nice clothes. In the future, only you'll bully others and no one will dare to bully you. My boss is Brother Long. Have you heard of him? To tell you the truth, I'll be Brother Long's successor in the future."

“When that time comes, Linhai will be mine. If you follow me and make me happy, you'll reap many benefits!”

The girl only smiled and did not say anything. On the other side, Yu Tian felt helpless..
