

I Have 108 Older Sisters #Chapter 801 – 850

Read I Have 108 Older Sisters Chapter 801

Chapter 801 – Chapter 800, Incomparably Arrogant

Before Yu Tian could continue listening, another quarrel broke out on the other side of the crowd.

Yu Tian turned his head and saw a few more sisters who had become monks. He didn't know why they were fighting.

At this moment, they didn't have the unity of the 108 sisters at all. They were like a group of madmen.

What Yu Tian couldn't accept was that not only did Chu Yue not stop them, but she also came in front of the sisters who were quarreling and said arrogantly, "What's the point of all of you quarreling like this? Why Don't you just kill them?"

"Kill one and lose one, so that you don't feel like you're so great. The 108 sisters are nothing. If you can kill one of them, then you're Awesome!"

What was she talking about?

Not to mention Yu Tian, even Chu Hui, who was standing at the side, felt very angry.

She glared at Chu Yue fiercely and said coldly, "Shut up. Do you have the right to speak here? Why Don't you come up and talk to the other sisters when they're fighting? You're still saying some weird things!"

"If you drink too much, then go back to sleep. Don't embarrass the Chu family here!"

Chu Yue obviously didn't put Chu Hui in her eyes. She glared at Chu Hui fiercely and said with disdain, "Aiyo, are you ordering me?"

Do you think you have the right to order me? Not to mention you, even if your father, Chu Aotian, stood in front of me, I wouldn't give him face. Even if Yu

Tian stood in front of me, I would still look down on him, you're just a high-level executive president of the Chu family. Do you think that everyone will listen to you? Look at your expression. I, Chu Yue, don't put you in my eyes. What can you do to me?"

Chu Hui was so angry that her entire body was trembling.

Chu Xin frowned and hurriedly held Chu Hui. She comforted her softly, "Don't lower yourself to her level. There are many important people here today. Don't let them see our Chu family as a joke! "

Chu Xin's words sounded nice, but Chu Yue was even more sarcastic as she said, "Isn't that Sister Chu Xin? Now she's also here to mingle in the imperial capital! "

So You're not doing well in that city? Why are you here now to support other people's smelly feet? If you like to support smelly feet so much, why don't you come and support my feet?

"Sister, my feet are more fragrant than theirs. I can give you a free meal and you 'll be doing better than you are now. If you follow Chu Hui, you'll only be a part-time worker forever. What kind of future can you have?"

Chu Xin smiled indifferently and said without changing her expression, "Then I really have to thank you, Sister. But I don't have such an idea yet. When I have this idea in the future, I'll naturally tell you!"

"I only hope that you can still be as good as you are now! "

Chu Yue glared at Chu Xin angrily and said through gritted teeth, "I'll always be so good. Don't think that you're the senior management of the family, as if you're superior to us sisters! "

"If we give you face, you'll be the senior management. If we don't Give You Face, you'll be nothing!"

Yu Tian, who had been behind the crowd and listening to the sisters, felt that he couldn't continue listening.

Otherwise, he would definitely be angered to the point of having a heart attack by these women.

This was the number one family in the world. In the eyes of outsiders, this family was incomparably powerful and incomparably united.

However, who knew that this family was actually no different from other families, and was even more chaotic than other families.

This was especially true for the 108 sisters. Everyone had their own thoughts, but their thoughts absolutely did not include the honor of the family. They did not have their own honor.

When he thought of this, Yu Tian immediately changed his face. He knew that at this moment, no one had noticed that Yu Tian was standing in the crowd.

Just as everyone was listening to their argument, Yu Tian's phone suddenly rang.

It was Tiffany calling him.

Yu Tian calmly picked up the phone and said for the first time, "I'm Yu Tian. If you have something to say, just say it!"

Just this sentence made everyone turn their heads in surprise. All eyes were focused on Yu Tian.

When they realized that the person on the phone was indeed Yu Tian, they were all stunned. Some of them even had their jaws dropped to the ground.

Tiffany said slowly over the phone, "It seems that there are more killers than we thought. I thought that some of the citizens didn't want to leave Lagarre! "

"But now that I think about it, these people are all killers. These killers have even started forming teams. Should we recruit a few killers who work for us?"

Before Yu Tian spoke, he first glared coldly at Chu Yue.

Chu Yue, who had been incomparably arrogant previously and spoke arrogantly with a disdainful look on her face, was now so frightened that her face was deathly pale and her entire body was trembling non-stop.

What did Yu Tian want to say when he wasn't here? He could act pretentiously however he wanted. However, Yu Tian was, after all, Yu Tian. In the past, more than ten thousand people behind the Chu Hong clan were all killed by Yu Tian.

This was no joke. If Yu Tian was especially angry and sent her to the Luo Jue tribe, then her life would be completely ruined.

At this moment, Yu Tian said coldly, "I'm in a very bad mood right now. I'm very angry. I'm extremely angry, so don't tell me this now!"

"I'll call you when I've calmed down a little!"

The moment Yu Tian hung up the phone, Chu Yue was so scared that her legs went weak and she fell to the ground.

Chu Hui, Chu Qing, and the others who were standing there were indeed very proud.

Chu Qing, in particular, said excitedly, "Chu Yue, what's wrong with you? Stand up and continue talking. Don't you think you're very powerful? Don't you think we all want to make a living with you?"

Now that Yu Tian Is Here, do you want Yu Tian to make a living with you as well? Sigh, say something! "

What else could she say? She couldn't even speak, and Chu Yue felt as if her breathing was about to stop.

At this time, Yu Tian didn't even look at Chu Yue, but directly came in front of Chu Ni.

In some aspects, Chu ni was the same as Chu Yue.

When Yu Tian wasn't around, she always felt that she was very impressive. When Yu Tian appeared, especially when Yu Tian erupted with a king's aura, Chu Ni knew.

He was able to become the guardian of the Chu family and at the same time become the man of the 108 sisters. It was definitely not like what the rumors said. Just based on that aura of his, no one could surpass him.

Especially when she saw Yu Tian staring at her eyes that were filled with killing intent, Chu ni was so scared that she subconsciously took a few steps back..

Chapter 802 – Chapter 801, I Still Have To Thank You

In front of Yu Tian's domineering attitude, everything was for free.

Chu Ni was even more arrogant and hot than Chu Yue before, but in front of Yu Tian, she was still scared out of her wits.

However, Yu Tian did not coddle her at all. In front of so many people, Yu Tian said coldly, "I'm standing in front of you. Don't you want to kill me? Do It! You have to kill me today!"

Chu Ni did not know what to say at all. She could only lower her head and remain silent as she panted heavily.

Not to mention killing Yu Tian, even if she scolded Yu Tian, she did not have the courage to do so now. It was likely that she would not have the courage in the future.

Yu Tian's domineering aura was in his bones. If Yu Tian did not stand in front of her, he would never have felt Yu Tian's domineering aura. Even Yu Tian's words and eyes were especially lethal.

That feeling was like an invisible pressure that pressed down on her and made her unable to breathe.

If it wasn't for her best friend supporting her by the side, just a sentence from Yu Tian could have scared her out of her wits.

Yu Tian glared at her coldly and continued to ask, "You said that your father died because of me. You have to tell me clearly. Who exactly is your father?"

How could he die because of me?"

Speaking of this, Chu ni mustered up her courage and raised her head. "My father was originally working on the Chu family's electrical appliances development project. Moreover, most of these electrical appliances were exported to superego, however, because of the war between you and Superego, my father was unable to export these goods. At that time, he had also applied with his family members, hoping that they could continue to open the export channel for his goods, however, this application was rejected by you. Helplessly, my father could only personally go to the superpower and look for Chu Wen from the metropolis to continue applying to open the export channel for goods, chu Wen rejected my father's proposal at that time. She said that all the investments that were being offered now had to be withdrawn from the superpower, so the export channel for goods had to be closed as well, in a moment of panic, my father directly went to the importer of goods from super country, hoping that he could use his identity to open another export channel for them, however, those importers already hated the Chu family to the core. When my father was negotiating with them for a cooperation project, they found assassins and killed my father,

"Although you didn't kill my father with your own hands, if it wasn't for you who started that war, how could my father have died? "And now you still have the face to stand here and ask me how my father died?"

Hearing this, Yu Tian also slightly frowned. He had never known what Chu ni said, and Chu Wen had never mentioned it to him.

But because of this, he was blamed. This was a bit unjustifiable.

Yu Tian coldly looked at Chu ni and said indifferently, "If you think this is my fault, then it's up to you. After the family had a war with the superpower!"

"All the investments in the family have been withdrawn from the super country, and all the goods have been closed. At that time, the family and the super country would fight to the death, or even to the death!"

"Your father didn't stay in the eastern country well, but went to the super country at that time. Moreover, he went to the super country as a senior manager of the Chu family. Do you think they will let your father go?"?

"Although I initiated the war on behalf of my family, if your father wasn't greedy, how could he have lost his life? "Did he really go to super country at that time for his goods?"

Chu Ni was rendered speechless by Yu Tian's words.

This was indeed not Yu Tian's fault. If his father really stayed in super country, not to mention that Yu Tian only started the war with super country, even if it was a war with aliens..., her father would not have lost his life.

But in the end, her father had lost his life because of Yu Tian. Whether it was Yu Tian's fault or not, as long as Yu Tian started that war, it was his fault.

Although Chu ni did not say these words out loud, Yu Tian could already tell what she wanted to say with his eyes full of hatred.

Yu Tian was so angry that he really wanted to throw her into the Luo Jue tribe.

However, he couldn't do it now because there seemed to be some other secret behind Chu ni. He had to get hold of all these secrets and then talk about it later.

Even if he didn't throw her into the Luo Jue tribe, he couldn't let her feel relaxed now.

When he reached here, Yu Tian said coldly, "Is the head of the security department here?"

Chu Ai, who was standing in the group of sisters, immediately came to Yu Tian's back. She shook her head helplessly and said, "I am now the president of the Security Department. All the security personnel in the family are under my control, what order do you want to issue now? But before you issue the order, can you calm down first? Please don't!"

Before she could finish her words, Yu Tian directly interrupted her coldly, "I am very calm now. You Don't have to waste your breath on me. Bring Chu ni back to my room immediately. Without my order! "

"Don't leave the room. Otherwise, your names will appear on the Heavenly Tyrant Order! "

She could say anything else, but the mention of the heavenly tyrant order scared Chu ai so much that she trembled. She hurriedly said, "Yes, I understand. I'll get someone to make the arrangements right now!"

At this point, Chu ai immediately turned around and nodded expressionlessly at the security guards in suits.

More than ten security guards came to Chu Ni's side and brought her back to her room without saying a word.

At this time, Yu Tian also came to Han Shaozhe.

Han Shaozhe felt that the Yu Tian in front of him was very familiar. He suddenly remembered that the man from before was wearing the same suit as Yu Tian?

Could That Man Be Yu Tian.

When he thought of this, Han Shaozhe was so scared that his face turned pale. He stammered, "You! You Are Yu Tian?"

Yu Tian snorted coldly and said disdainfully, "That's right. I Am Yu Tian. But you don't have to be afraid. I Won't kill you. On the contrary, I have to thank you! "

"If you didn't act tough in front of me today, how would I know that the family actually has so many insider information? But then again, you took advantage of the Chu family quite a lot, didn't you?"

Han shaozhe directly knelt at Yu Tian's feet. He slapped his own mouth and begged bitterly, "Mr. Yu Tian, it's my fault. It's my fault for showing off. Please don't lower yourself to my level! "

"What I said before was all nonsense. Please don't take it to heart!"

Yu Tian looked at him indifferently, but the corners of his mouth curled up slightly. He said coldly, "How could I not take it to heart? Based on your analysis, this family may be about to collapse!"

"But I don't know what you said.. I think the head of the Chu family may not know either!"

Chapter 803 – Chapter 802, It'S Up To You

At this moment, Chu Aotian was drinking tea in his room. When he heard the butler say that Yu Tian had arrived, he hurriedly ran to the venue.

However, when he arrived at the venue, he heard Yu Tian say, "I don't know what kind of project your Han family is doing in the capital, but I now feel that your family shouldn't be staying in the capital,

"I'll give you one day. You and your family will have to leave the capital, and all the projects you're working on will have to be terminated. This is because I'm in a good mood,

"If I'm in a bad mood, I can take your lives anytime, anywhere. Get lost now, and never let me see you again!"

Han Shaozhe hurriedly kowtowed a few times to Yu Tian, stood up, and ran out of the venue.

Everyone was also shocked to the point of breaking out in cold sweat.

Although the Han family couldn't compare to the Chu family in the capital, their strength was still extraordinary.

Their family's investment company had invested in many projects in the capital, but now, because of Yu Tian's words, all the projects had to be terminated.

Han Shaozhe's family had suffered heavy losses this time.

But who could be blamed for this? In front of Yu Tian's strength, he didn't care about any family.

With just a simple sentence, he could destroy an extremely powerful family.

This also allowed everyone to see why Yu Tian could become the CEO of this super family. It was because of his absolute management, absolute authority, and absolute strength. No one could shake him.

If they were not satisfied, they could try it out with him. However, the result would definitely be without any suspense. No one would have any chance of surviving in front of the Chu family.

Unless they knelt at the feet of the family and allowed themselves to have the mood of a slave. Only then would they have the chance to live.

Only then would they be able to have a living under the premise that this family had monopolized everything.

Therefore, when facing Yu Tian, everyone's emotions were very complicated. They were terrified and worshipped him.

At this moment, Chu Aotian came in front of Yu Tian and said respectfully, "Yu Tian, when did you come? Why didn't you ask someone to inform you first? We are also prepared to welcome you! "

Yu Tian chuckled, but his eyes were full of disdain and dissatisfaction toward Chu Aotian.

He said indifferently, "If I had told you guys in advance, how could I have seen so many wonderful performances? As the head of the family, look at how you manage this family, especially the 108 sisters!"

Initially, I thought that these 108 sisters were as close as a family, but now that I look at it, what is this called? "A family? "They're all enemies. Why didn't you tell me about this?"

Chu Aotian hurriedly explained, "The 108 sisters are all your women. All the rules in the family can not restrict the 108 sisters, so in terms of management, we have the heart but not the strength,

"If we don't manage them, these sisters will grow up barbarically. But if we manage them, we will have to refute your face in some aspects, causing the upper management of the family to be especially troubled, "As for me, I might as well just ignore it and do whatever I Want! "

Actually, Yu Tian also understood what Chu Aotian said.

After all, these 108 sisters would all become his women in the future. If he provoked them now, they would definitely play with his father when they had more power in the future.

A shrewd old man like Chu Aotian would definitely not provoke these sisters.

Otherwise, it wouldn't be worth it if he became an old man who wouldn't die.

Yu Tian knew even more clearly that ever since he became the guardian of the family, Chu Aotian's power had been slowly weakened by him.

Moreover, the highest CEO of the summer vacation was Chu Hui, who was also Chu Aotian's daughter. Thus, Chu Aotian usually didn't ask about the management of the family.

Tonight, I was supposed to attend Chu ni's birthday cocktail party. After drinking a glass of wine, Chu Aotian felt a headache. Then, I went back to my room to rest.

But who knew that Yu Tian would come at this time. After hurriedly explaining, Yu Tianzhao didn't get angry at him.

But Chu Yue, who was sitting on the ground, Yu Tian glared at her coldly. Then, he said coldly, "Chu ai, there's no need to continue with the cocktail party.

Tell the rest to leave the venue immediately, all the sisters in the capital have to stay. Now, go and make the arrangements! "

Yu Tian gave the order and all the guests who were attending the banquet immediately left.

This was because they, outsiders, had no right to stay and watch what would happen next.

They did not want to know too much. After all, this was the management of the Chu family. It would be better if they did not watch.

Especially now that Yu Tian was especially angry. Even if he did not say anything, they all wanted to leave.

After the entire venue quieted down and only a few dozen sisters from the Chu family and some senior managers were left, Yu Tian finally spoke coldly.

"I don't know what you all think of me, and I don't want each and every one of you to treat me as your man. Pve already said this before..,

"I won't force you to become my women. If you like me, you can stay by my side. If you don't like me, you can choose your own life!"

I didn't set this rule. The reason why you want to stay by my side is not because I like you. On the contrary, I hate you now, and I even disgust you very much, if it weren't for my family's request, I would definitely do this. Do you think I would care about you? And now, each of you feels that you have suffered a great grievance, very good, very good. In that case, from now on, is Your Chu family dead or Alive? Especially your 108 sisters. No matter what difficulties you face in the future, I, Yu Tian, will never help you, today, even if my family is here, I will say this. You really make me feel very, very helpless. I worked so hard outside, but it was all for the sake of protecting you,

"Didn't I do it so that all of you could live well? Did I do something wrong? "If this is a mistake, I won't continue. I Won't continue to be wrong..,

"Then from now on, all of you can leave this family!"

Yu Tian's voice had yet to fade when the clear sky and moonlight suddenly exploded with a shocking thunder.

That deafening thunder caused everyone present to feel a wave of fear and trepidation.

Before they could recover from their shock, another bolt of lightning descended from the sky and blasted open the roof of the hall, leaving a huge crater in the ground and emitting a pungent smoke.

Everyone, including Chu Aotian, retreated in fear. Chu Yue, who was sitting on the ground, fainted on the spot..

Chapter 804 – Chapter 803 Was Filled With Envy

At this moment, not only the 108 sisters were scared out of their wits, even Yu Tian himself was a little shocked.

He had only said a few words in anger, could it be that the family side would be so furious?

He didn't even say a word and directly struck them with lightning. This was a little too much.

Moreover, he only wanted to let the 108 sisters know that he was angry, and then scare them so that they could be well managed in the future.

He did not want to end up like this. Everyone had their own interests to pursue, and in the end, he would become an unnecessary person.

They did not even know how much he had sacrificed for them.

Just a few simple words and a few simple thoughts, and the family would be so angry at the Chu family. It was not worth it.

Chu Aotian was on the verge of tears. He knelt down at Yu Tian's feet and begged with a frown on his face.

"Master, please don't say these angry words. The 108 sisters are all your women. None of them can leave you. This is their fate. No one can change it! "

"If you let any of them leave now, master's family will definitely punish the Chu family. This punishment is not something a monk can afford! "

Chu Hui followed closely behind Yu Tian and knelt down on one knee. She pleaded in fear, "Master, my father is right. None of the 108 sisters can leave,

"And from now on, we swear to follow you for the rest of your life. From now on, we will definitely not do anything that will damage your dignity,

"We will also never do anything that will harm the interests of the family. From now on, we will only be your woman. We are willing to do anything for you at any time. Please calm down, Master Qing! "

As soon as he finished speaking, all the sisters present, as well as the top management of the Chu family, knelt on the ground and begged Yu Tian loudly to take back his previous order.

No one could bear the anger of the Yu family towards them. If Yu Tian did not take back his order, this huge family might disappear in an instant.

Sometimes, they might forget that the reason why the Chu family existed in this world was because of Yu Tian.

Everything they did and the value of their lives was also because of Yu Tian's existence.

However, there were always some people who would forget all of this, just like Chu Yue who fainted on the ground.

They always thought that they were amazing and that their strength had even surpassed Yu Tian's. Even without Yu Tian's protection, they could still live well.

But now, they once again understood that the Chu family would always be Yu Tian's slave. No matter how powerful this family developed, no matter how powerful this family was..., they would never be able to surpass Yu Tian's existence.

Yu Tian shook his head helplessly and said indifferently, "Everyone, get up. I was just saying a few words in anger. The 108 sisters'integrity is more important than anything else, but they don't know that I hope that after this, the 108 sisters will understand the value of their existence. Actually, you are not doing this for me, but for yourself and the entire family's life,

"Do you all understand now?"

The sisters all nodded in unison, completely understanding Yu Tian's painstaking efforts.

At this moment, the murderous aura in the sky slowly disappeared.

Only then did everyone feel a little more relaxed.

Chu Yue also woke up at this moment. She looked as if she had been stimulated by something, and her entire being became as dumb as a hen.

Yu Tian came up to her and gave her a disdainful look.

Although he said some things in anger, it was because of Chu Yue that he said those things.

It was because of this Chu Yue that the entire Chu family was almost wiped out.

When Chu Yue reacted, she hugged Yu Tian's leg and pleaded with all her might, "Yu Tian, I know I'm wrong. Please, don't punish me. I'll do whatever you want me to do..,

"Just don't let me go to the fallen angels. Please, I'll Never Go There! "

Yu Tian looked at her expressionlessly and said coldly, "Since you don't want to go to the fallen angels, why are you so arrogant? Don't you know?

"If your family didn't support you behind your back, do you think you could still be the person you are now? Unfortunately, you don't understand this logic, in that case, I don't need to waste any more time with you. From now on, all the family projects that you and your department run, including your personal projects, will be handed over to the family management department, and your department will be handed over to the family management department to manage. I Won 't let you go to the Department of extinction. But from now on, you will go to the lowest level of the management department, "When you understand the value of your existence and know what you should do, you can return to the higher levels of the management department. Now, get the hell out of here. I don't want to see you again in the near future! "

Chu Yue didn't have the guts to refuse. Although this punishment made her feel that she couldn't bear it, she didn't want to provoke Yu Tian's bottom line.

She had already given her a lot of face today. At least, she was not allowed to go to the fallen angels. At any rate, she was not allowed to leave the family. This could be considered as giving her a chance.

Could she seize this opportunity? That would depend on herself.

After Chu Yue left the hall in a daze, Yu Tianzuo calmed himself down and said to Chu Hui, "Tomorrow, hand over all of Chu Yue's projects to Chu Xin to manage! "

Chu Hui didn't have any objections.

Although everyone was scared, the gang of the 108 sisters couldn't be eliminated immediately.

Chu Xin, Chu Qing, and the others were all on her side. Of course, the other sisters also had their own gangs, but now, these gangs disappeared very quickly.

But no matter what, Chu Xin was still one of them. She would definitely be able to handle Chu Yue's project.

Chu Xin was especially grateful to Yu Tian. Being able to have a project to manage, it could also reflect her own value and ability.

At this moment, Yu Tian said, "Everyone, go back and rest. Chu Hui, Chu Qing, Chu Xin, the few of you can accompany me! "

Yu Tian's order made the other sisters feel jealous.

No matter what, why were these women always favored by Yu Tian?

However, they couldn't do anything about it. Yu Tian had already left the hall with his sisters.

They went straight to Chu Ni's villa.

When they reached the door, Chu Qing asked curiously, "Why are you here? Do you want Chu Ni to scold you?"

Chapter 805 – Chapter 804, Different Values

They did not understand, and Yu Tian felt that it was very normal. This was a very secret project, and even the number of people in the entire family who knew about it could be counted on one hand.

At the moment, they had not confirmed whether or not it was Chuni who had invested in them behind the scenes, so they could only come here to ask her.

The reason why they were brought along was mainly because there were sisters present, so some words could be said easily.

However, Yu Tian felt that he should explain a few things to them.

Hence, he said indifferently, "You must know that I have been in Raqqa recently. The main reason is to completely eliminate the assassin organization called the Magic Snake,

"According to the information I received, the funding behind the magic snake assassin organization was provided by our Chu family. Right now, I still don't know who among the 108 sisters is most likely to provide funding to this assassin organization,

"However, according to my own analysis and judgment, this person is very likely to be Chu ni. Therefore, I came here to ask Chu ni. If it really is her, then we should immediately cut off this funding! "

With that said, everyone understood.

Chu Hui frowned and said in puzzlement, "If it's the Chu sisters who are investing, it's impossible that I don't know. Although the 108 sisters are financially independent now.,

"They don't need to go through the family to spend any money. They need to go through my consent. Moreover, the money they earn is also under their control,

"However, the most important thing is that the money that each sister earns or spends must go through the family's banking system. So far, we haven't found any excessive investment,

"Although Chu ni had also spent 50 million before, can this 50 million support an assassin organization?"

Yu Tian shook his head helplessly and chuckled, "50 million is nothing to you. However, this money is equivalent to an astronomical figure outside. An ordinary existence! "

Not to mention supporting an assassin organization, it was more than enough to form a mercenary army. There would even be countless people willing to throw their lives in for this 50 million, however, 50 million to you is just a few sets of clothes or cosmetics. This value is incomparable. Don't think that this 50 million is worthless,

"Now, the entire world's economy has been controlled by our Chu family. Although there is inflation in many areas, the real value of money is still very high,

"50 million is basically enough for an assassin organization to do whatever they want! "

With this explanation, Chu Hui and the others immediately understood.

Soon after, the few of them approached Chu ni's villa.

At this moment, Chu Ni was sitting alone on the sofa, sulking. Her expression looked painful and angry. When she heard the door open, she turned around and saw Yu Tian and the others. This girl became even angrier.

She stood up angrily and said loudly, "Who told you to come? This is my home. Without My permission, no one is allowed to come in. Get out immediately. I don't want to see you now! "

Chu Qing was especially unwilling to listen to her. She glared at Chu ni coldly and said in a commanding manner, "Do you think we're willing to come here because the Lord has something to ask you!"

"After asking you, we'll leave immediately. I don't want to stay with you for even a second. I don't even want to see your expression. Look at what you've Done! "? "You're really embarrassing us sisters! "

Chu ni shouted indignantly, "It's not your place to lecture me. Pm embarrassing my sisters just because I've done something. If you think I'm embarrassing, then chase me out. Why are you still here to see me?"

Yu Tian didn't want to hear them arguing here. It was simply a waste of time.

He casually sat on the sofa and coldly looked up at Chu Ni. He then said coldly,

"I only want to ask you one question, but I need a satisfactory answer!"

"If your answer doesn't satisfy me, I will throw you into the Luo Jue tribe in the next minute. You will never see the sunlight for the rest of your life. Do you understand what I mean?"

Chu NPs heart skipped a beat. No matter how complicated the expression on her face was, it could not hide the fear in her heart.

If she was really thrown into the lost tribe, then her entire life might be ruined there.

Yu Tian did not want to waste any more time. He asked, "Whether it's your father or you, are you guys supporting the Magic Snake Assassin organization in Raqqa?"

Chu ni suddenly frowned, obviously not knowing what Yu Tian was talking about.

She shook her head and said, "What Magic Snake assassin organization? Pve never even heard of it. Is this the question you want to ask me? Then my answer to you is very simple. I don't know what the Magic Snake Assassin organization is! "

Yu Tian had been looking into his eyes, and he was sure that she was not lying.

But Chu Hui, who was at the side, also asked coldly, "If you didn't support the magic snake assassin organization, where did you spend the 50 million you took out from the company?"

Chu ni stared at Chu Hui with disdain, gritted her teeth and said, "Aren't you the senior management president of the family? Don't you know everything about the family?"

"If that's the case, why did you ask me? "You know exactly where I spent the 50 million!"

Chu Hui sneered and said with disdain, "Although I'm the senior managing director of the family, I've never been there to ask my sisters where their money is spent!"

"And every sister is financially independent. They have the ability to earn the money they want to spend, but only you. You don't have the ability to earn money yet, but you spent 50 million in one go!"

This money is the family's money, not yours. Therefore, I must know, where did you spend your money? If you really support that demon snake assassin organization...

then you are going against our Lord. I hope you can understand this principle, don't act like a fool! "

"You are the one who is a fool!" Chu Ni was scolded until her eyes were full of tears. She turned to look at Yu Tian's expressionless face and said hatefully, "Well, don't you all just want to know where my money is spent?"

I can tell you that I'll use this 50 million to invest in building a school! "

This answer made Yu Tian feel a little shocked. Building a school? Even if he used it to buy clothes, it would still be quite valuable.

The more he thought about it, the more confused he became.. Yu Tian chuckled and asked, "Why do you want to invest in a school? Can you explain it to me?"

Chapter 806 – Chapter 805, The Height Of Loneliness

It was obvious that Chu ni didn't want to give any explanations. Instead, she cried and cried, "I don't want to give you any explanations. Please leave now. I don't want to See You Again!"

Yu Tian immediately shook his head and refused, "That's impossible. I Won't leave this place until I get a reasonable explanation."

"I've already made it very clear to you. The 108 sisters are all my people. You have to tell me everything you do. Otherwise, it's equivalent to playing tricks with me."

"You also know that the lightning bolt from before almost destroyed your family. If you don't want to see that scene again, you'd better give me a very reasonable explanation now!"

Facing the orders and pressure from Yu Tian, Chu Ni's expression became even more aggrieved.

She sat on the sofa as if she was being soft-hearted and slowly said, "I don't want to be a sister of the family. I just want to be a very ordinary person!"

"After returning home every day, I would have a heart-to-heart talk with my mother and then go out for a walk with my father. This is the life I want!"

However, because I was a sister of the Chu family, but because my surname was Chu, all of this seemed to be infinitely far away from me. No matter how much I pursued, I could never get it.

It was also because of this that I was like a different person in school. Everyone was so far away from me. It was as if saying a word to me would cause them to lose their lives, they were especially afraid of me, but I was just an ordinary girl. I also had the dreams and feelings of a young girl, but I had to hide all of this in my heart, i could never let them be known by another person. Those so-called good friends were just the children of the wealthy families in the capital. They approached me in order to elevate their own status, i hated them so much that I didn't even want to see them. However, I could only hang out with them every day because only they dared to talk and chat with me without restraint in front of me, they even went to the mall with me to buy things that they liked. This was not what I wanted. I wanted to go to school quietly. However, because of my status, the principal would personally greet me at the school gate every day, in the eyes of other students, it was as if I was the principal, and the principal was my student. The school wanted to create a series of projects, but they didn't have the funds, the principal and the students all treated me as their investor. The school's teaching building and the dormitory building where the teachers lived all needed to be renovated, but the school simply couldn't afford it, but to me, this amount of money wasn't worth mentioning at all. I wanted to go to that school, and I had to face the teachers and students every day, and my surname was Chu. If I didn't invest this money, everyone would treat me as a lunatic. They would even say that I had been abandoned by the family, they would even say that I was a child that no parents cared about, so the family wouldn't put me in their eyes. Everything I did was for my own face, so that I could live a more relaxed life, "Did I do anything wrong?"

Chu ni said so much in one breath. When Yu Tian and the others heard this, they felt extremely uncomfortable in their hearts.

Yu Tian especially felt that he had really wronged Chu ni.

He should have thought about it carefully before coming here. However, even if he didn't hurt her, he would have hurt her. Yu Tian could only slowly get up and calmly say, "Who said that you're a child who doesn't have a home?"

Who said that you are a person that no one cares about? Then what am I? You are also one of the 108 sisters, even though you are still young, however, compared to us, we are not much different. The difference is that I can give you more care, and I understand the pain in your heart very well, because I also have the same pain as you. That is, when you reach a certain height, you will feel very lonely. Everyone has to look at you through a layer of lenses, even if there is a mountain or a sea, we are just ordinary people. Naturally, we have the right to pursue what we want. However, we don't. This is our fate, i know that you have always wanted to prove that you are a good girl who can survive without the help of your family. However, there is one thing that you have to understand, just like you said, your surname is Chu, and you're one of the 108 sisters of the Chu family. If that's the case, half of your fate doesn't belong to you, although this is extremely painful, you have to accept it. Everyone in the family, including me, sometimes can't resist fate, don't think that your father's death was all because of the war that the family started. To put it simply, everyone in the family is thinking about their own interests and how to Live Well, this is especially difficult for us, Chuuni. I know you also want to be free, but at the same time, you have to understand that the family and I will not confine you. Everything depends on your own choice, if you want to continue to take over your father's project, that's not a problem at all. Tomorrow, I will let Chuhui arrange it for you. What do you want to do then? "It's entirely up to you to decide,

"No one in the family will interfere with your decision! " s words became even sadder. However, she had to say that Yu Tian's topic was about her own pain.

Chu Ni

At this moment, Yu Tian's image in her eyes had become more secure. He was just like her father.

Yu Tian didn't want to continue talking. He didn't have so much time to comfort others.

Now, he should cherish every second and find the person who provided the funds to the motorcycle assassin organization as fast as possible.

Chu Qing asked this question in advance.

"If it wasn't Chu ni who invested in them, then who provided the funds to this assassin organization? Chu Hui, can't the banking system see that the 108 sisters'funds channel?"

Chu Hui shook her head helplessly and said softly, "It's impossible. Every second, just the 108 sisters'funds data is in the trillions. It's impossible to find the channel to invest in the assassin organization! "

"If this sister doesn 't want others to know, as long as the funds are invested in other projects, we won 't know. So we have to use other means to find the sister who invested in this! "

Yu Tian nodded and said indifferently, "That's right. If we don't find this sister who invested, the assassin organization will likely mess up some things in the fastest time possible,

"I will also stop them, so the task of finding this sister will be left to you! "

Chapter 807 – Chapter 806: I Hope There Are Experts

Yu Tian stood up immediately.

He looked at Chu ni and said in a low voice, "I have to go back to Raqqa now. The battle there will be very intense. You have to remember one thing while you are here!"

"Don't make such a big commotion. Everything must be done in secret. Tell me immediately after you find the investing sister. I will also collect more information in Raqqa!"

Chu Hui hurriedly nodded and said, "You go to Raqqa first. Leave this to us. I will definitely find the sister who invested in the project!"

There was no need to waste time on anything else. Yu Tian immediately activated the teleportation and returned to Raqqa's residence.

At this moment, Tiffany was making instant noodles when Yu Tian suddenly appeared behind her. She was so scared that she almost threw the noodles in Yu Tian's face.

"You really scared me to death. Couldn't you have told me before you came? Why is it so sudden every time?"

Yu Tian chuckled. He was too lazy to explain so much to her. The whole world was under his feet. He could go wherever he wanted to go. Why did he have to tell them so much?

He looked at the noodles in Tiffany's hand and felt that it was quite appetizing. So, he calmly ordered, "Make more noodles. I haven't eaten yet! "

Tiffany shook her head helplessly, so she added more noodles into the pot and slowly said, "Now all the citizens of Raqqa have retreated to the residential area, however, the Magic Snake Assassin Group hasn't announced the start of the competition yet, but they sent a message earlier, telling every assassin participating in the competition to stay where they are,

"You can't casually attack other assassins. If any assassins are killed before the competition officially starts, the entire competition will be canceled at any time!

Yu Tian shook his head disdainfully and snorted coldly. "It seems to be quite formal. However, it's just a bunch of mediocre assassins. I don't even know how interesting this competition can be. "

Tiffany looked at him with disdain and said unwillingly, "Don't think like that. All the high-level assassins from all over the world have come to Raqqa this time. "

Among them were a few extremely famous super assassins from all over the world. They were all in Raqqa now because they wanted to win this competition. Moreover, the strength of the magic snake assassin group had completely exceeded our imagination, these assassins had all come to Raqqa now. Every one of them was a murderous demon. Up until now, mercenaries from many places in the world, as well as those bosses behind the scenes.., all wanted to take the lives of these assassins. Some countries'special combat teams had even mixed in, in order to kill some assassins, therefore, after the competition started, my suggestion to you is to watch the show here. When there are only a few people left, you can kill all of them easily to preserve your strength, you can also successfully enter the magic snake assassin organization. Isn't that better? Don't tell me that you want to go out now and kill those assassins. This is completely irrational! "

Yu Tian laughed and said proudly, "No matter when I join the competition or the Special Combat Team, I'm no match for them. I can kill them in a minute. "

"Also, destroying this assassin organization is not what I want to do the most this time. I came here to meet some experts so that I can gain enough experience. This is the most important thing! "

"Then this time, you will definitely be satisfied! "Tiffany poured the cooked noodles on the plate, took some delicious sauce, and sprinkled it on the noodles.

Then, she continued, "The information I collected before shows that if there are assassins who appear in the competition and no one can stop them, then at this time, some elite assassins from the magic snake assassin organization will also join the competition,

"Although they won't kill you, they will give you an all-round challenge. This is also the final test for every assassin who wins the competition,

"If you can pass, you will immediately join the Magic Snake Assassin Group.

Isn't this enough for you to play with?"

Yu Tian ate the fragrant noodles and said nonchalantly, "It's best if there are more experts and I'm happier. What all-round Challenge? I'm their biggest challenge! "

"If they can survive in my hands, then even if they have accumulated virtue in their past lives, I still want to start a massacre here. I always felt that I was too weak before! "

"To become the strongest person in this world, it's also necessary to have a cold heart! "

As soon as he finished speaking, the sky outside began to buzz.

Helicopter after helicopter shuttled back and forth in the Dark Sky.

The searchlights on the helicopters would carefully illuminate every corner of the ground.

At this time, the live broadcast of the competition began on the ordinary television channels.

A male and female host stood under a large screen, the male host said first, "Welcome to the scene of Raqqa's killer competition. In 24 hours, we will put on the most wonderful show in the world, at that time, 5,000 super assassins from all over the world will have a death duel in this romantic and prosperous city, the final winner will join the Magic Snake Assassin Group and become one of the most powerful assassins in the world. I am talking about the dreams and pursuits of these 5,000 assassins, we will also show you every scene of this competition. Now, every killer can see the helicopters in the sky, these helicopters have two functions. They can be used as rescue helicopters while providing you with a live broadcast. If a killer is in the middle of the competition, you can choose to quit at any time. You only need to send a signal to the helicopter that you want to quit, or a fire, or a puff of smoke,

"The helicopter will immediately take you out of Raqqa. Of course, in the past competitions, no killer chose to withdraw because they had no chance to do so, "In the end, they all died on the ground of this city!"

The female host smiled and said, "Don't make the topic so heavy. This is just a competition. Every killer participating in this killer competition has already made preparations,

"To every killer, this competition is just a game. If it's a game, there will naturally be winners and losers. And we will also open up a channel for everyone to invest during the entire competition process! "

"You can use this channel to place bets on every killer. No matter which killer you buy, the Magic Snake Killer Organization will give you three times the odds.. Now, we will introduce the information of each killer to everyone! "

Chapter 808 – Chapter 807, Assassin Code

The male host added, "Also, the highest CEO of the Magic Snake Assassin Group, and also the mysterious king of Assassins whose codename is magic snake, let me say one thing to every assassin participating in this competition..,

"That is, I hope that every assassin can compete fairly in this competition and bring out your best abilities. I hope that every assassin of yours will have the opportunity to join the magic snake assassin group..,

"He will prepare a special gift for the winning Assassin!"

The female host smiled gently once again and continued, "In every assassin competition, Mr. Magic Snake will prepare a gift for the winning assassin. We were very lucky to know what this gift is!"

"This gift is definitely worth it. Every assassin has a lifetime to live. However, in order to ensure the mysteriousness of the competition, I will not say what this gift is. As for the other rules!" I believe that every assassin would already be very familiar with it, i would like to add a few more points. The entire competition venue was Raqqa. Every assassin could not leave this city during the competition. Otherwise, it would be considered as giving up on the competition, the entire competition did not provide any weapons. However, there were no restrictions. The competition between assassins could use any means. They could even make their own weapons, however, they were absolutely not allowed to bring weapons into Raqqa. This was also the fairness of the competition, because this was a special competition. Every assassin participating in the competition would be given a code name,

"We have already sent this code name to every assassin through special equipment. This code is also convenient for the audience watching the competition to place their bets!

When Yu Tian heard this, he felt that these two hosts were particularly slow-witted. The killer competition was made to seem like an ordinary competition.

However, how did they know that most of the 5,000 killers would be killed in this competition? Perhaps all of them would be killed. However, they spoke as if they were joking.

Raqqa was a city of Assassins. Everyone in this city seemed to have long been accustomed to this kind of cruel competition.

In their eyes, some assassins should be killed, and some assassins should become super assassins.

How did Stryne train these people's thoughts so well?

At this moment, the male host introduced, "There are a total of 5,000 assassins participating in this assassin competition. They come from all over the world, and each of them is a particularly powerful assassin, this is because it is impossible for ordinary killers to participate in this competition. Otherwise, it would be equivalent to giving up their lives. Among these 5,000 killers, we will also add special instructions on their code names, this will also make it easier for the audience to have a clear choice when betting. Of course, we will only provide special instructions to the more powerful killers, out of the 5,000 killers, we have already selected at least 100 Super Killers. These 100 super killers are the ones most likely to win the competition, after the competition begins, we will also broadcast the process of these 100 killers. Of course, these 100 killers are only based on some information gathered from the world, this is a special explanation for you, among the remaining assassins, there may be some dark horses that will shock the world. Therefore, this competition will definitely be very interesting and exciting, don't be stingy with your money. Every choice you make will bring you great rewards. Later, we will provide the information of these 100 assassins to every audience,

"We have already broadcasted this match to more than 100 countries around the world. We will also communicate online. However, the internet is not open yet. Once the match starts, it will naturally be open to the whole world!

Yu Tian nodded. He felt that this was still possible. At least, he wanted the whole world to know that there was a match here.

He also wanted the entire world to know that in the end, this competition would be completely destroyed by a man called the mysterious king.

This included the headquarters of the Magic Snake Assassin organization. Therefore, Yu Tian hoped that the host and the entire world's audience would know that this was also the last competition of the magic snake assassin organization.

After the host dawdled, the program began to provide everyone with information about the 100 super assassins.

Yu Tian looked at them briefly. These assassins could really be called Super Assassins.

Each assassin had killed at least 100 people, and these 100 people were all relatively famous people in the world.

In Raqqa, this was a kind of honor. Even if there were many special combat teams ready to take their lives at any time, they still wanted to flaunt their honor unscrupulously.

When Tiffany saw this, she shook her head in disdain and said, "These people are really unscrupulous. Moreover, their code seems to be a number!

"According to the number of people killed, the more people killed, the higher the number. It is said that the first person with the number has already killed more than 700 people,

"He is simply a killer. I reckon that after this competition starts, more people will die at his hands!"

Yu Tian smiled disdainfully and said, "Similarly, he will also die at my hands. These 100 people are quite interesting. Moreover, after the competition starts, the scene will definitely be very chaotic,

"These 100 people will definitely have the same thoughts as us. They will continue to observe until the people are more or less dead. Only then will they make their move,

Since they are not in a hurry, then I will wait until they make a move before I make a move!

At this point, Yu Tian got up and returned to his room. He began to close his eyes and meditate.

There were still 24 hours before the start of the competition. He should be able to recover enough energy and fight with all his strength against those experts.

Time quickly passed and it was noon on the second day.

The whole of Raqqa was shrouded in a haze. Even the sky had become particularly gloomy, and it was raining heavily.

Yu Tian was standing in front of the window, quietly watching the heavy rain outside.

"No matter how heavy the rain is, it can't wash away the darkness and blood of this city!

At this moment, the two hosts appeared on the screen again.

The male host first greeted everyone and then said, "Then there are still 10 hours left before the start of the competition. We have also interviewed a few assassins randomly before!

Everyone was in a particularly happy mood. They were all looking forward to having a good time after the competition started. The killer organization will open the Internet Channel in five hours, when that time comes, the entire world's audience will be able to communicate and communicate. The Code of each killer will also be activated at the same time.. After the competition starts, we will know the location of each killer, and what they do during the game

Chapter 809 – Chapter 808, Special Value

The female host once again displayed her gentle smile and slowly said, "In a moment, we will once again confirm if there are any citizens of Raqqa who have yet to retreat!"

The Assassin's organization would also issue a reminder. If they did not withdraw from Raqqa after five hours, then any injuries or deaths that occurred during the competition would have nothing to do with the assassin's organization's competition, moreover, after five hours, the assassin's organization would once again conduct a scan of the entire Raqqa. If there were any reporters who did not have the approval of the Assassin's organization, the Assassin's organization would also invite them out of Raqqa, after all, this was only a private competition. Of course, the eyes of the entire world were also focused on this competition. However, the assassin's organization preferred to carry it out in secret, so our broadcast rights were very expensive,

"The data of the entire competition is also extremely expensive. Although no one wants to use these things to exchange for money, at least its value exists! " Yu Tian ate the noodles made by Tiffany and shook his head in disdain.

He still wanted to hold a competition and let the whole world know about it. Then, he wanted to keep it a secret. Could it be that all the benefits in the world were from their assassin organization?

This was too ridiculous. He wasn't as arrogant as them.

At this moment, Yu Tian received a message on his phone. He opened it and saw that it was from Chu Hui.

"We already know which sister is supporting the Magic Snake Assassin organization. Her name is Chu Zhen. Among the 108 sisters, she is even more obscure than Chu Bing. She even made her own project very special, very quiet!

Yu Tian frowned slightly and immediately called Chu Hui.

On the phone, Yu Tian asked softly, "How did you find out? and can you be sure that Chu Zhen is supporting this assassin group?"

Chu Hui nodded with certainty and said without any doubt, ("I am very sure. You must want to know how I know. In fact, it is very simple. Chu Zhen's father was once an assassin!"

When the Chu family was developing in the early stages, there were many hostile forces all over the world. Some people even deserved to die. Therefore, the family had to use some special methods at this time.., at that time, all the assassins in the world were busy on two sides. One was the family, and the other was the person the family wanted to kill. At that time, Stryne was also employed by our family! "

At this point, Yu Tian directly turned on the transmission and arrived beside Chu Hui in the blink of an eye.

Then, he hung up the phone and asked coldly, "Isn't that better? You said that the family also employed Stryne at that time? How did you know this information? Is there anything more comprehensive?"

"This is the information my father provided me! "As Chu Hui spoke, she took out a thick stack of documents.

Yu Tian lowered his head and looked at these documents. The surface of the documents had been corroded by the dust. It looked like they had been there for many years.

Chu Hui followed up with an introduction. "These are the family's secret documents. Because the family holds so much wealth in the world, many of the documents are top secret. My father found this document and handed it to me,

"That's how I found out that Stryne was once a professional assassin in our family. The person in charge of contacting Stryne was Chu Zhen's father, the 108 sisters had 108 different parents, and each of them had their own professions and even pursuits. At that time, Chu Zhen's father had especially yearned for a life of bloodshed in the pugilistic world, that was why he himself was also an expert, and he had a particularly close relationship with other experts in the world, or people in the pugilistic world, at that time, Stryne was a very good partner of Saint Wu Chu. At that time, Saint Wu Chu admired Stryne's accomplishments in the field of assassins, and also admired some of his skills, the two of them even did some special missions. However, Stryne was later used by someone to assassinate a high-ranking executive of a certain country. From then on, Stryne was hunted down by assassins all over the world, in order to prevent Chu Shengwu from being hunted down along with him, he came to Raqqa. Chu Shengwu cherished Stryne very much at that time, he felt that Stryne was a very good talent and that he would definitely become an expert in the profession of an assassin. Therefore, he took out a large sum of money and not only changed Stryne's identity, chu Shengwu also joined this assassin organization and became one of the most powerful assassins, of course, only the family knew this secret. The others didn't know that the founder of the magic snake assassin organization was actually not Stryne, but the family's Chu Shengwu! "

As Chu Hui explained, Yu Tian simply looked at the documents. They were just some missions that they had worked together with the people they had killed before.

It could be clearly seen that many of the missions were done by Chu Shengwu and Stryne together. It could be seen that the two of them had a very good friendship.

After that, Chu Shengwu provided Stryne with more than a billion dollars in funding, allowing him to establish the magic snake assassin organization. This allowed Stryne to stand firm.

However, during an assassination mission, Chu Shengwu was discovered by the target's subordinates and injured.

After Chu Shengwu returned to his clan with great difficulty, his injuries were too serious and he died.

From then on, Chu Zhen replaced Chu Shengwu and provided funds for the magic snake assassin organization.

This time, Chu Zhen provided funds for the assassin organization competition.

After seeing this, a question appeared in Yu Tian's mind.

Right now, the family didn't need these assassins at all. Why would Chu Zhen continue to support the magic snake assassin organization.

This definitely wouldn't be the case. It was only because of Chu Shengwu's feelings for this assassin organization. There must be another reason behind this.

Thinking of this, Yu Tian coldly asked, "Is Chu Zhen also in the imperial capital?"

Chu Hui shook her head and said helplessly, "We don't know where she is right now. She has this temper, and she especially likes to travel. Moreover, every time she leaves the capital, she doesn't greet anyone!"

"We also don't know where she is right now! "

In that case, Yu Tian felt that there was no need to waste time here. The Assassin's competition was about to start. After he took down the entire magic snake organization, Chu Zhen would naturally appear.

At that time, he would know what this woman was thinking?

There was still an hour before the competition when he returned to Raqqa. It was really lively in Raqqa..

Chapter 810 – Chapter 809, The Start Of The Competition

At this moment, Raqqa was extremely lively. Many assassins had come outside.

Yu Tian was extremely puzzled. What were these people trying to do? Were they not afraid of death?

The competition was about to start, yet they still exposed their position. By doing so, they were undoubtedly giving those high-level assassins a chance to assassinate them.

These people completely treated this competition as a game. It was very likely that after the competition started, a large number of people would withdraw.

However, did they still have the chance to withdraw?

For example, if they participated in this competition, it was impossible for them to give others the chance to withdraw.

As long as the competition started, many assassins would kill others.

This was because there was a gamble behind this. After these assassins obtained the highest score, they would also receive a large sum of money.

However, these assassins who were currently showing off outside were not only unable to receive the reward, they even had to withdraw from the competition the moment the competition started. Moreover, they had to withdraw in a manner of death.

Yu Tian looked at his own code again. He was actually ranked 4500th.

He shook his head helplessly and said with a faint smile, "It seems that my ranking is still a little low. It is actually 4500th. With my strength, I should be ranked within 45th! "

Tiffany chuckled and said disdainfully, "You feel satisfied if you're ranked within the 45th place. In my opinion, you should be ranked first. Moreover, no one can surpass your ability!"

"However, the competition is about to begin. Your Code will change. Some people may have to kill many people to be able to place themselves at the top.

Some people may not have to do anything!"

"As long as you hide well, your ranking will continue to be high. This will depend on what methods you use to participate in the competition. "

Yu Tian shook his head in disdain. This was not a fair competition to begin with.

If it was fair, these killers should first be divided into several groups. Each group should have a few high-level killers.

At the same time, there should be a few powerful people. Only then would the competition be fair.

However, the assassin organization did not seem to have this intention. They only wanted the best of these assassins, or the best of them. Not everyone could enter the magic snake assassin organization.

This opportunity was especially precious. For some assassins, for this opportunity, they could kill everyone.

Half an hour before the start of the competition, the two stupid hosts appeared on the big screen once again.

The male host said excitedly, "Ladies and gentlemen, the assassins participating in the competition are only half an hour away from the competition, we have already placed the first 100 numbers on the big screen. These people are all extremely powerful assassins. They are also extremely famous in the world of assassins,

"As for the numbers after the 100 numbers, we won't provide them anymore because the chances of these people passing this competition are really too small,

"So we don't need to waste resources on them! "

The female host changed into another set of clothes. This time, her clothes were especially revealing. Yu Tian felt that this woman's figure was still not bad.

Although she looked a little plump on television, if she were to see her in person, she would definitely have a special feeling.

The female host then said, "Then after the competition starts, we will give points to each assassin. Every assassin that is killed will get one point,

"The one with the highest score will win. Of course, the score does not mean everything. If a certain assassin kills 100 people and gets 100 points, if he is killed by someone else, he will be killed by the person who killed him,

"Therefore, I specially remind every assassin to protect their own lives. If you feel that you can not complete this competition, then please withdraw as soon as possible! "

As soon as he finished speaking, the sky above Raqqa was filled with fireworks.

Yu Tian stood in front of the window and looked up. The Magic Snake Assassin Group was really able to create an atmosphere. An assassin competition made it seem like a regular competition. They even set off so many fireworks. It was simply a waste of time.

The entire fireworks display lasted for half an hour. After half an hour, countless signal flares suddenly appeared in the sky.

This was the signal for the start of the competition.

Yu Tian and Tiffany immediately came to the big screen.

After the competition officially began, just as Yu Tian had expected, the scene was especially hot and bloody.

Most of the assassins were desperate to assassinate other assassins.

Those who were capable would immediately leave after killing other assassins. Those who were not capable would not even know how they died.

The entire Raqqa was filled with a bloody atmosphere.

Yu Tian especially noticed that many of the assassins' weapons were daggers.

Because the assassin organization did not provide any weapons during the entire assassin competition, and after the competition began, they were not allowed to take out any special weapons.

However, there was a rule that forbade these assassins from using daggers, so the dagger became one of the most important weapons that every assassin had to choose.

Of course, there were also some assassins who were especially strong. For example, Yu Tian saw a man in leather clothes. This guy killed people with great pleasure.

He did not need to use any weapons at all. He just used his fists.

His fists seemed to be particularly powerful. He only needed two punches to knock his opponent to the ground.

Then, he followed up with another punch. That assassin was basically dead. He couldn't die anymore.

Yu Tian's gaze was fixed on the man in leather clothes. The strength that this guy displayed was definitely first-class.

When he saw this, Yu Tian asked softly, "Who is that guy in leather clothes?" Tiffany immediately turned on the computer. After searching for a while, she said softly, "His code is 1700. He has already scored five points. His code name is fiery bird."

"I also looked up some information about fiery bird on the internet. This guy is a very good killer. In the past year, at least 200 people died at his hands.

"What's more interesting is that this killer never uses any weapons to kill. He only uses his fist. Every time he kills someone, he doesn't use more than three punches. That's why he's very famous in the world!

"Fiery Bird?"

Yu Tian smiled indifferently. This guy is indeed interesting.

Normally, an ordinary person's fist wouldn't be able to cause severe damage to another person.

Unless it was aimed at the opponent's vital points, or the parts of the body that could cause paralysis, such as the heart, pants, and the back of the head.

However, this guy didn't attack these parts at all, and even ignored the opponent's defense.

One could imagine how powerful this guy's fist was..

Chapter 811 – : Chapter 810, Increasing The Score

At the same time, the scores of the other assassins were also increasing.

Other than Flamingo, the assassin whose code name was Dark Angel had the highest score increase.

Tiffany looked at the information on the computer and said in a deep voice, "This dark angel is also a female assassin. Her current score is ranked first. Since the start of the competition!"

In just five minutes, she had already killed 27 people. Her current score was 27 points. She was now ranked first in the entire competition, the Dark Angel was a mysterious assassin. According to the information that could be found on the internet, no one in this world had seen the true face of the Dark Angel, everyone who saw the Dark Angel was killed. Therefore, the Dark Angel was also a powerful assassin that many people had high hopes for in this competition!"

The Dark Angel was indeed very powerful. Yu Tian could not even find the existence of this person on the big screen. He could not even find the shadow of the Dark Angel.

"This woman's speed is really fast. Even the helicopter could not see his shadow. Interesting, really interesting!"

Before the competition started, what were the strengths of the killers? No one knew.

After the competition started, the assassins who were originally in the top 100 were now far ahead of the others in terms of points.

However, it had to be said that this was also their tactic. It might be the same as what they thought.

That was to wait until almost everyone was dead before making a move.

They could preserve their strength and their own strength. There was no need to go out and show off at this time. It was useless to do so.

Of course, there were even more assassins with 0 points.

Yu Tian looked at his points and his ranking in this competition. He was now tied with the others at 4300 points.

It could be said that he was ranked last.

However, Yu Tian chuckled and even said with some surprise, "In just a few minutes, 700 assassins have been killed. This means that there are 700 points outside of the competition! "

"I'll wait for a while more. When there are only dozens of assassins left, I'll go out and participate in the competition. I'll just watch the show now!"

"Such an exciting competition is not something you can see every day! "

As Yu Tian finished his words, a series of chaotic footsteps came from outside the room. It sounded like several people.

Tiffany immediately activated her x-ray vision and shook her head helplessly. "You have to do something now. There are five assassins. They seem to be coming to our room! "

Yu Tian also sighed helplessly and said in a low voice, "I didn't think of doing anything now, but these people insist on coming here to seek death. Raqqa is so big, where can they not go?

"They insisted on coming to my place. In that case, I'll earn a few points from him and also move up in the ranking! "

As Yu Tian spoke, he turned on the switch of the necklace and changed his face to the face of the mysterious king. At the same time, he turned off all the lights in the room, causing the entire room to be in darkness.

At this moment, the five assassins all held daggers and sneakily jumped into the room through the window.

Yu Tian, who was hiding in the dark, quietly watched them.

These assassins were obviously panicking. They probably formed a small team and found a remote place. After the competition was over, they were thinking about how to get the highest points.

There were many teams like them in the entire competition.

However, it was useless to do so. In the assassin competition, as long as one did not quit, it was impossible for the team to be accepted.

They could form teams now, but when the competition was nearing its end, they would still have to kill each other.

It was better to kill each other now so that they would not have the heart to kill each other after developing some feelings.

At this moment, an assassin had already approached the potted plant that Yu Tian was hiding.

When Yu Tian saw the opportunity, he snapped this guy's neck cleanly.

The assassin didn't even groan as he directly fell to the ground.

The code device that he carried with him also found Yu Tian's code device and directly added points to Yu Tian's code device.

The remaining killers felt that the atmosphere was a little strange.

They even stood there and started to study it.

"It seems that there is an extremely powerful killer hiding here. I can feel his aura!

"No matter who is here, I don't think he is a match for the five of us. If it is just one killer, we can kill him Together Now! "

"Wait a minute, did you see that assassin called Sea Beast?"

At this point, the few of them immediately looked around cautiously and fearfully.

When they entered the room, there were clearly five of them, but now, one of them suddenly disappeared.

One of the assassins called out in a low voice.

"Sea Beast, are you by our side?"

No matter how he called out, there was no response.

The assassin wiped the cold sweat from his forehead, turned around and said to the other assassins, "This place is really strange. We have to be careful. Now, let's go find the power switch!"

"I want to see if there's anyone else here!"

"Let's go to another room and take a look. Everyone, be careful. It's not easy for us to form this team. If we find anything, we have to immediately send a signal to the others! "

The few of them nodded. Then, the team made the wrong decision and immediately dispersed.

This created a particularly good opportunity for Yu Tian.

First, a guy came to the front of the power switch. Before he could reach out to turn on the power switch, Yu Tian suddenly appeared behind her and grabbed his neck.

Before the guy could shout, Yu Tian exerted a little strength. With a crisp crack, the killer's neck was broken.

Yu Tian gently placed her on the ground. At this time, his score was already two points.

As his score increased, his score quickly rose to 2,700 in the entire killer's code ranking.

At this time, another killer had already sneaked into the kitchen. Under the faint moonlight, this guy even opened the refrigerator. Perhaps because he was too nervous and especially thirsty, he wanted to get some water from the refrigerator to drink.

However, just as his hand reached into the fridge, Yu Tian, who was already beside him, slammed the fridge door shut and broke his arm.

Before he could cry out in pain, Yu Tian grabbed his hair and smashed his throat with his other hand. His entire windpipe was smashed into pieces, and he died on the spot.

The other two killers who heard the sound looked toward the kitchen..

Chapter 812 – : Chapter 811, The Mysterious King

When the remaining two assassins walked into the kitchen, Yu Tian punched and kicked them, knocking them to the ground.

One of the assassins suddenly took out a dagger from his waist, got up, and stabbed at Yu Tian.

However, this simple move made Yu Tian feel especially ridiculous.

Before the dagger could pierce his body, this assassin's heart was pierced by Yu Tian's kick, and his heart was shattered. He died under Yu Tian's feet.

The other assassin saw that Yu Tian's skills were especially powerful. He was scared out of his wits and turned around to run out.

Yu Tian kicked the dagger and the dagger stabbed into the assassin's heart.

After the assassin let out a painful scream, he fell to the ground unwillingly.

After the battle ended, Yu Tian shook his head unhappily.

These killers were not even enough to warm up for him. It would be better to have a few stronger killers to make him feel interesting.

After Yu Tian returned to his room, Tiffany reported, "Your current score is already 5 points. You're already ranked 1700th. I think you need to make some preparations now!"

This was because throughout the entire killer competition, there were many killers who were called point hunters. They specifically targeted those killers who had points, especially killers like you who only had a few points, usually, such assassins were not very strong. Those who were slightly more powerful points hunters would find it extremely easy to obtain points from you, therefore, from now on, this room might very well become a lively battlefield.

However, I feel that this is exactly what you want, isn't it?"

Yu Tian laughed and nodded. "What you said is not wrong at all. This is indeed what I want. Compared to going out to look for those assassins and having them take the initiative to come here and let me do it, I don't know how much time and energy I will save!"

"I feel a little hungry just by moving around a little more. I'll go get some food.

You keep watching here! "

"And get me some red wine. This killer competition makes me feel particularly bloody, and it's you who's here. Otherwise, I wouldn't even want to look at such a competition. "

"Now, I need to drink two glasses to calm myself down! "

It was easy to drink red wine. Yu Tian activated the teleportation and went straight to Sean's shopping mall. Whether it was red wine or food, Yu Tian bought a large pile and teleported back to Raqqar. He ate and watched with Tiffany.

At the same time, the two hosts continued to host some of the most interesting parts of the killer competition.

The male host first said, "The competition has already started for 10 minutes. So far, more than 1,500 killers have died in this competition,

"I can even smell the smell of blood above raqqar, but this must be a special thrill for those rich people. They will definitely feel that they have never smelled such good air!"

The female host added, "Then our killer's points are also changing at any time. Now it seems that on average, one killer will be killed every minute. "

However, there was still no obvious change in the points. The first place was still the Dark Angel. His current points were 57 points. The second place was an assassin called the Punisher, his current points were 53 points, the third place was flamingo. His current points were 45 points. The fourth place was the bloody gloves. His current points were 37 points, the fifth place was the Superman killer. His current points were 30 points. The points at the back were always changing. There was a standard score line, which was 20 points, there were 170 killers with more than 20 points, and 2,100 killers with less than 20 points. Of course, as the competition continued, the points would get higher and higher, and the points would get faster and faster because in the entire killer competition, many point hunters had already started to move. Their eyes were fixed on those who had high points,

"Therefore, the top 10 assassins must be careful! "

At the same time, in the luxurious hotel on the outskirts of Raqqa, rich people from all over the world were busy placing bets on their favorite assassins.

At this moment, the funds had already reached tens of billions.

Behind every rich person was a whole group of analysis teams. These lackeys were constantly in control of the various data of the competition. Even if it was the most inconspicuous change in points, they would immediately record it.

At the same time, they would follow the changes in points and conduct a series of analysis on the killers who increased their points.

In a luxurious room, a rich person from Danka was drinking a glass of high-end red wine. His eyes were staring coldly at the big screen in front of him.

However, he was not looking at the killers who were ranked in the top 100. He was looking at the killers who had obvious changes in their points.

Only these assassins had the need to invest, and the odds given by the magic snake assassin organization were relatively high.

At this moment, a lackey in a suit came to the back of the rich man and said respectfully, "Mr. Hagerard, please take a look at this code for the assassin of the mysterious King!"

Hagerard slowly put down his wine glass, and the Lackey's tablet carefully looked at it.

After a brief look, he asked curiously, "This assassin seems to have never been famous in the world. Why did you show me the information about this assassin?"

The sidekick immediately said in a low voice, "We made a detailed data analysis module for these assassins. The number one assassin, the Dark Angel, she kills an assassin every five minutes on average, in the eyes of others, this was the fastest. As for the other assassins who were ranked in the top 10, or even the top 100 assassins, they would kill an assassin every 10 minutes or even every 20 minutes on average, the speed could only be said to be normal, or even a little slow. However, this assassin of the mysterious king only used less than a minute to get five points, this meant that he had killed five assassins at the same time within a minute.

His speed was even faster than that of the Dark Angel. Based on this time ratio, we calculated..,

if this mysterious king had taken the initiative to launch an attack, his strength could be said to be in the top 10 immediately. However, he was currently extremely patient, as though he was waiting for an opportunity,

"According to our analysis, he now wants to preserve his strength and strength. When the assassin competition is near the end, he will also become the most powerful point hunter,

"At that time, even the Dark Angel won't be his match.. We feel that this mysterious king is the most investment!"

Chapter 813 – Chapter 812, A Warm-Up Match

Hacklar nodded his head. He was very confident in the analytical abilities of his followers.

Moreover, what they said made sense. If a person could kill five killers in a minute, his strength would not be underestimated.

The odds given by the host of the Magic Snake Killer were ranked below the 1000th place. According to the continuous increase in points, the odds were 1:3 for the killers who could enter the 1000th place.

And after entering the 1000th place, they could continue to place bets, so the odds would become even higher.

Seeing this, hakrall said indifferently, "Since you think that this killer is particularly investment-oriented, then buy 100 million on him first. I hope that this 100 million can earn me more!"

The lackeys immediately nodded and went to make the arrangements.

In the other luxurious rooms, every rich man had his eyes on a different assassin, but every second, a large amount of money would enter the snake killer organization.

In the Snake Killer Organization's headquarters office, Lehnst looked at the numbers scrolling on the computer, and his heart was especially excited.

His assistant, a blonde beauty with blue eyes, also said excitedly, "Mr. lehnst, now we have already made a net profit from this assassin competition, about 2.7 billion! "

"And the investment ratio is still increasing. Our finance department has calculated that we'll make at least 10 billion after the competition is over!"

Leinster was very satisfied. He nodded and said coldly, "That's right, but I have more good plans that will make more money. The competition is going on as usual! "

"When there are only 500 assassins left, you have to remind me immediately. I need to take a short break. If there are any special data, you have to report to me immediately! "

The assistant nodded. In his eyes, Lannister was always so mysterious.

However, each of his decisions would allow the magic snake assassin organization to develop by leaps and bounds.

In just a few short years, Ernst had turned the magic snake assassin group into the most powerful assassin group in the world.

If it weren't for Ernst, there wouldn't have been magic snake.

As long as he did the work he arranged, it would be the best reward for Ernst.

At the same time, Yu Tian was also resting quietly.

The heat of the competition had slowly subsided.

Many assassins had already entered a hidden mode. As for those assassins who had no experience at all, as well as those who wanted to fish in troubled waters, those who deserved to die were all dead.

Yu Tian looked at the big screen. The city, which was originally very lively, had suddenly quietened down. He suddenly felt extremely bored.

He stood up and stretched his limbs. Then, he said in a low voice, "Didn't you say that people who have a chance would come? How come I haven't seen a single shadow!"

"If I wait any longer, I'll fall asleep! "

Tiffany smiled helplessly and explained softly, "Why are you in such a hurry now? You only have five points. The point hunters don't care about your points at all! "

They now prefer to hunt the top 100 killers who have more than 10 points, or those who have more than 20 points. If you feel bored staying here.., then you can also be a point hunter. That way, you won't feel bored. Moreover, if your points reach a certain height, the point hunters will naturally pay attention to you,

"At that time, you'll have something to play with, Won't you?"

Yu Tian felt that this idea was not bad. After all, there wouldn't be any assassins coming over if he stayed here. It was time for him to go out and stretch his limbs.

The competition had already entered another stage. If he just waited for those assassins to appear, he didn't know how long he would have to wait.

The remaining assassins had already learned to be very shrewd. They were trying their best to hide their positions. They all had the same thought as themselves, which was to wait until the end before appearing.

What was the point of continuing to play like this?

Thinking up to this point, Yu Tian indifferently said, "You're right. I should go out and exercise my muscles and bones. It will also allow my points to increase a little. At the very least, this mysterious King's code!"

"Should also enter the top 100. Otherwise, it would really make me feel too bored. You continue to stay here, and the two of us will use the radio to communicate."

"During the entire process of the assassin competition, if there is anything special, you can tell me anytime and anywhere. Moreover, your clairvoyance ability is just right for use now."

"Aren't those assassins already hidden? "Can you see through the big screen to their location?"

Tiffany nodded and said confidently, "As long as it's something I can see, I can see through it. This is my ability to see through money. Did you only understand it now?"

"Or rather, if I don't become your woman, you'll never know how powerful I am, right? "How about this? Before you go out to participate in the competition, let's have a warm-up match first?"

Yu Tian frowned slightly. This woman was simply too arrogant. If he didn't teach her a lesson, it would simply be kicking him in the face.

He snorted coldly and directly picked Tiffany up by the waist and threw her heavily on the bed.

Tiffany was surprised and happy. Her expression was filled with charm and the shyness of a young girl.

Yu Tian chuckled and said proudly, "Didn't you say a warm-up match? Let's have a warm-up match now! "

After saying this, Yu Tian also jumped onto the bed.

In the span of an hour, the assassin competition had undergone a huge change.

Especially the top 100 rankings, which were constantly changing.

The Dark Angel remained in first place. His points had now reached a terrifying 125 points.

The positions of the second and third places had also changed. Fiery Bird was now ranked seventh. It seemed that it would be difficult to find other killers.

Yu Tian put on his clothes and brought his radio. He nodded to Tiffany and said, Since both of us are having fun now, let me have some fun!"

"Now can you see who the killer closest to me is?"

Tiffany immediately looked at the big screen and soon saw a killer.

She chuckled and said gently, "It is indeed very fun. You should have made me feel so good a long time ago. Do you see that building 150 meters away from you?

"That is a restaurant. There is a killer hidden inside, but I can't see his code now. But I think the place he is hiding is very good.., now the killer is yours.. Let Me See It! "

Chapter 814 – : Chapter 813 Was Especially Perfect

Very soon, Yu Tian arrived at the entrance of the restaurant.

Unlike other assassins, Yu Tian swaggered to the entrance of the restaurant. Unlike other assassins, they were extremely cautious even if they wanted to change their positions.

Therefore, Yu Tian's action surprised the entire world's audience.

Even five helicopters came over to film Yu Tian from all angles.

In the private room of the luxury hotel, the rich people from all over the world saw Yu Tian's figure.

In hakrall's room, hakrall frowned slightly and asked coldly, "Why do I feel like my money is on a Fool?"

"This guy is walking outside so brazenly. Isn't he afraid that other assassins will discover his location? "And then kill him?"

The follower standing at the side smiled confidently and said, "Mr. hakrall, your worry is unnecessary. You can think about it. If he is really afraid of being discovered by other assassins...

"How could he walk outside so brazenly? In my opinion, he is not afraid, but he hopes that all the assassins will know about him. This is the result of our series of analysis,

"This mysterious king is definitely not a simple assassin. You just have to wait and see!"

Hakrall gave this follower an ambiguous glance, then looked at the big screen.

The two hosts who were in the middle of the live broadcast also discovered Yu Tian's figure.

The male host said in astonishment, "Oh my God! After such a long time, almost all the assassins have already hidden their positions,

"However, we found that there was one killer who did not want to hide his position. On the contrary, he was wandering around outside. Is He not afraid of death, or does he have some other tactic?"

The female host shook her head helplessly and said, "His previous code was 4500, and he had a score of 5 points. Who would have thought that he could kill five killers,

"Now he's ranked 1370th. It seems that his 5 points have given him a lot of confidence. Although she can't hear my voice, I still hope that this assassin can protect himself well!"

The male host looked at the data on the map and said a little nervously, "There really is an assassin in that restaurant. It seems that this mysterious king has known about that guy in the restaurant for a long time."

"But the assassin in the restaurant, called the Hand of darkness, also has three points. The assassins who have points now can be said to be not simple assassins,

"Now that these two assassins are about to meet, let's wait and see who will win!

As the host spoke, a large number of bets were placed on Yu Tian and the hand of darkness, but most of the obstacles were on Yu Tian's side.

This was a flexible bet. In order to stimulate these rich people, the magic snake assassin group was able to place their bets quickly.

Therefore, during the course of the competition, they would place additional bets.

For example, at this moment, Yu Tian and the assassin called the Hand of darkness in the restaurant could place their bets immediately.

At this moment, Yu Tian had already pushed open the door of the restaurant.

The restaurant was pitch black.

Yu Tian felt that this was very normal. Anyone with a little bit of intelligence would turn off all the lights at this moment.

It was better to be safe in the dark than to let each other clearly see each other's existence.

However, this move was completely useless to Yu Tian.

Yu Tian gently closed his eyes and immediately sensed the assassin's aura.

At this moment, the assassin was hiding behind the bar counter, and he sounded especially nervous.

After all, this was a life-or-death assassin competition. No one could be sure how powerful the opponent that appeared in front of them was.

The Hand of darkness was even thinking that he had hidden so well here, how could he be discovered?

Could it be that that person had been staring at him the entire time?

At this moment, Yu Tian chuckled and said very indifferently, "I know you're behind that bar counter. Now, I'll give you a chance. Either you step forward, or I'll go over and kill you!"

The Hand of Darkness' heart thumped. This person was simply too powerful. Could it be that he could see through things? He could know where he was hiding.

In that case, there was no need to hide here.

Thinking of this, the Hand of darkness directly jumped out of the bar counter and stood in front of Yu Tian.

Yu Tian saw that this person was only in his thirties, but his expression was very complicated. It was even a little heavy.

The searchlights and camera equipment on the helicopter outside were all aimed at the two people through the window.

Yu Tian did not care at all. Instead, he chuckled and said, "I don't think you look like an assassin. You look more like a worker. Why are you participating in this assassin competition? Aren't you afraid of Death?"

The Hand of darkness was even a little stunned. Yu Tian had asked his own question the moment he arrived, and he was not like other assassins who wanted to kill each other the moment they met. It seemed that this was a more civilized assassin.

Hence, he shook his head helplessly and said, "Since we are participating in this competition, neither you nor I have a choice. And only one of us will be able to walk out of this place alive, so let's start now! "

What he said was indeed very reasonable. Those who participated in the assassin competition would not be able to leave this place alive unless they chose to withdraw.

Even if they chose to quit or give up, after leaving Raqqa, in order to protect the secret of the assassin competition, the torturing assassin organization would also ask a high-level assassin to assassinate them.

No matter what, it was the case. What else was there to care about?

Just as he said this, the hand of darkness suddenly raised a chair and threw it directly at Yu Tian.

However, Yu Tian did not even dodge, allowing the chair to be smashed into Smithereens on his body. Just as the hand of darkness felt shocked, Yu Tian gave an uppercut, followed by another punch aimed at his heart.

This punch directly smashed the entire heart of the Hand of darkness into smithereens.

The Hand of darkness was like a kite with a broken string, flying backwards and even crashing into a wall.

With just this one punch, Yu Tian shocked the whole world.

Two simple punches, so simple and so straightforward that the opponent didn't even have the chance to fight back.

Not only the two hosts, but even hacklar was so shocked that his mouth was wide open.

This person's strength was indeed so outstanding. It was simply perfect

Chapter 815 – : Chapter 814, Obsession

The exciting scene that the whole world wanted to see was given to them by Yu Tian.

The battle with the Hand of darkness took less than five seconds. It was so fast that no one knew how Yu Tian had defeated the assassin.

Everyone who saw the battle was shocked. They wondered where the assassin was from?

The host also asked the same question on the television.

"We only know that this assassin called the mysterious King is an unknown assassin who was ranked at 4500,

"But he gave us a performance that shocked the world. Now, everyone must want to know more about the mysterious king, and what I can tell you is..,

"We don't know anything about this!"

The female host's face turned slightly red from shock as she continued, "I believe that as the competition progresses, the mysterious king will give us even more exciting matches,

"At the same time, we also hope that all the contestants who have been killed by the strong will be able to continue watching this match in heaven, which contains their dreams and pursuits,

"As for the surviving assassins, please hide and protect yourselves. There is no limit to death. Only the truly strong can survive in this match, and the one who has never won in the end! "

In the luxurious room of the hotel, the assistant beside Hacklar's ear said very excitedly, "Boss, the mysterious King has earned you a few hundred million,

"This assassin doesn't seem to have any intention of hiding his intentions.

He's heading towards the next destination. Should we continue to place our bets?"

Hacklar narrowed his eyes slightly and coldly said, "Wait and see. If I were Lester, I would definitely not watch my money being earned by others! "

"This competition is about assassins. In reality, it's about us rich people who have a chance. The Lives of assassins are not worth anything. Whoever Lester wants to kill will die!"

"Although the mysterious king is powerful, his luck value also exists here. I don't believe that he will always be so lucky. Lehnst will definitely not allow him to continue killing like this!"

After the assistant heard this, he hurriedly flattered and smiled, "Boss, your analysis is really too professional. Even our entire analysis team can not have such an incisive analysis! "

However, hacklar just calmly took a sip of his wine and said disdainfully, "Because I know Lannister too well. Although he used to be an assassin, he is now a businessman, what matters is his own interests. Therefore, there is no competition here, only a game of money!"

In the headquarters of the Magic Snake Assassin, Lannister also saw the video of Yu Tian's match.

He did not get angry over the loss of a few hundred million as his assistant had thought. Instead, he said with admiration, "He looks too much like a real assassin! "

The beautiful assistant was especially puzzled when she heard this. She asked in a low voice, "Isn't he an assassin?"

Lannister chuckled and said slowly, "Assassins who have not undergone the training and baptism of the magic snake are not considered real assassins, especially those who participate in the competition! "

"They all want to let the world remember their names in this competition. They also want us, the magic snake, to remember their names. Therefore, they kill as if they are performing,

"And this assassin is not performing at all. He is killing. Moreover, he has the most basic condition of an assassin, which is decisiveness. Moreover, he is exceptionally decisive,

"The second is indifference. In the eyes of this assassin, I don't see any sympathy for the weak. He doesn't even wreak havoc. He's just like a killing machine, killing people just for the sake of killing! "

The assistant finally understood what Leinster meant, so he followed up by asking, "Boss, he made a lot of money for a lot of people this time. There might be more people placing bets in the following competitions, Should we intervene?"

Lester shook his head and smiled. "This amount of money is nothing. The money lost to him can be earned back in the blink of an eye by other assassins! "

"What I want to know the most now is how far this mysterious king can go. " Yu Tian didn't even think about how far he could go?

If he wanted to, he would only be in the city in front of him. His target would be the headquarters of the Magic Snake Assassin Group.

Now that he had seven points, he would be able to increase them very quickly.

However, all of this was not what he wanted.

He had already wasted too much time. Every day, he was thinking about how to become stronger. However, he was getting further and further away from the door of that world.

He couldn't even see his own direction clearly. How much longer would he be lost.

Therefore, he had come to participate in this competition so that he could understand how the soul in his body could quietly and calmly think about his goal and how to achieve it.

It was just like the road under his feet. It was so flat. Under the light of the street lamps, it looked tired and dim.

However, he still had to continue walking. According to the information provided by Tiffany, he would continue to kill other killers.

This was what he should do now.

Because he was already in the competition. Sometimes, not having a choice was actually a very good choice.

Tiffany said gently on the radio, "I have already begun to miss you. But for your pursuit, I still have to tell you that a killer with three points and a few points is hiding 50 meters away from you!"

"I think he must want to get drunk once before he is killed by others in that bar called Night Wish! "

Yu Tian chuckled and said, "I want to get drunk once and forget who I am, even if I have to continue wandering after I wake up, or continue taking other people's lives! "

"I'm really very tired, but I can't have a drink!"

After hearing Yu Tian say so much, Tiffany could feel Yu Tian's helplessness and persistence.

This was Yu Tian's persistence, wasn't it?

Everyone had their own persistence, but not everyone had the opportunity to fight for their own persistence.

Yu Tian had already arrived in front of the bar.

It was as if the city was still living a peaceful life. The signboard of the bar was still brightly lit.

The seven-colored neon lights flickered as if they were waiting for Yu Tian to come here and pursue his colorful dream.

A killer was sitting in front of the bar counter in the bar, drinking to his heart's content.

Tiffany was absolutely right. This killer named intoxicated had no intention of hiding.

The hand holding the cup was still burning with the blood of other killers. It looked very similar to the color of the red wine..

Chapter 816 – Chapter 815, I Appreciate It Very Much

This assassin knew that Yu Tian had already walked into the bar, and Yu Tian's target was himself.

This was a battle that could not be chosen, so only one person would be able to walk out of this bar alive.

Intoxication was a middle-aged man. The reason why he chose this assassin's code name was because he had always wanted to get completely drunk once.

Because through this intoxication, he could forget many, many things.

For example, the people he had killed before, as well as the souls that should not have died by his hands.

Therefore, there were many wine bottles in front of him. It seemed that he had drunk quite a lot of wine here.

There were three killers lying at his feet.

The three killers looked very calm when they died, as if they had drunk too much and had fallen asleep.

Before Yu Tian could say anything, the killer slowly turned around and looked at Yu Tian very calmly.

However, this glance contained many complicated emotions.

Yu Tian could see a lot of fear in this gaze, and there was even a kind of indifference that could see through everything.

The killer said very coldly, "Come over and have a drink first, then we will have a life and death duel! "

Yu Tian also smiled indifferently. This assassin was quite interesting. He had to drink a little before the duel.

Actually, this was not bad. He was also thirsty now, so he would drink a few cups. It was not a big deal.

Therefore, he sat beside drunk and drunk took the initiative to pour him a glass of red wine.

The two of them even nodded at each other. Drunk said indifferently, "There are really too few people who can drink with me. There were also people who sat beside me before, but in the end, they all died. Sometimes, I ask myself, why are we doing this? Is it to see the moment of death? Or is it to give us a sense of excitement behind the scenes?

In fact, I'm really tired of being an assassin. In the years I've been an assassin, I really don't know what I've done. I came to participate in this competition because I want to see true death,

"Or only at the moment of death can I experience what is called the true value of life. I hope that in the duel between us later, you can let me feel the existence of this kind of life! "

To put it so artistically, wasn't it simply seeking death?

What's wrong with that?

Yu Tian nodded indifferently and said disdainfully, "I will definitely satisfy your request, but I have a question that I really want to ask you, why did you become an assassin? Was it for money or for what?"

In the eyes of others, this question was a waste of time.

However, when he was intoxicated by it, it made him fall into a state of confusion. He didn't even know how to answer Yu Tian.

In the end, he just helplessly shook his head and said softly, "I'm sorry! I really don't know how to answer you. Even I don't know when I became an assassin! "

"I just know that some people must die by my hands, and then I'll do it!"

While the two of them were talking, the helicopters and drones outside kept circling the bar.

Although they didn't know the content of their conversation, seeing them sit together and drink together made many people feel surprised.

Especially that hakrall. He looked at Yu Tian on the big screen with contempt and then sneered, "Did you all see that? It's not that I look down on this mysterious king! "

This was a competition for assassins. In the end, every assassin had to face his opponent, and only one of them could survive. But look at this mysterious king.., he could actually sit down and drink with another assassin. wasn't he afraid that the wine was poisonous? Or that after drinking too much, the assassin would take advantage of the loophole, if I were that assassin, I would definitely do this. So I think this mysterious king can only stop here. Assistant, Buy Me 100 million drunk to win,

"Because I think this is a tactic of this assassin. The previous three assassins should also be killed by him in this way. So this time, I bet on him to win! "

The assistant nodded. Although there was no basis for hakralPs analysis, he was the boss. Whatever he said, he would do. If he raised a different opinion at this time.

Then it would be equivalent to going against hakrall. This wasn't a wise choice.

In the headquarters of the Magic Snake Assassin organization, Lannister also saw this scene.

However, Lannister felt that Yu Tian was very interesting and very courageous.

This was the foundation that an assassin should have. If he didn't even have the calmness to face an assassin, no matter how strong this person was, he wouldn't be able to become a qualified assassin in the end.

Therefore, Leonster especially admired Yu Tian.

After the beautiful assistant looked at the big screen, she said indifferently, "Boss, I feel that this mysterious king is unlikely to be an opponent who is intoxicated. Intoxicated has been in the world of assassins for many years, he is an especially experienced assassin. In comparison, I feel that the mysterious king is still too young! "

However, Leinster shook his head and said confidently, "Evaluating the strength of an assassin does not depend on how many years he has spent in the assassin world. That is not convincing at all,

"The assassins outside are different from the assassins of our demon snake assassin organization. What we focus on is strengthening our own abilities. When we carry out missions, we constantly improve ourselves,

"Breaking through ourselves. That's why the assassins of our demon snake assassin group have become the most powerful assassins in this world. As for those amateur assassins outside..,

"They only carry out missions for the sake of killing people and earning money. They never consider how they can improve their abilities even more?

"That's why their minds are filled with thoughts of killing people. There's no need to fear them at all. As for the mysterious king, he's a person with great psychological abilities. Since he can sit in front of intoxicated..,

"In fact, he already knows that drunken drunk will definitely die in his hands!"

Although the beautiful assistant did not know if Lester's analysis was reasonable, she still felt that it was acceptable.

At the bar, Yu Tian and drunken drunk had already drunk a few glasses of wine.

It was these few glasses of wine that even made the two of them feel like they were in love.

Yu Tian could still see a little of himself in his intoxicated body.

What they had in common was that when they were in this world, they would feel particularly lonely..

Chapter 817 – Chapter 816, Points Hunter

Although the two of them felt that they hit it off, this was not something that they should do now. Moreover, this feeling could not exist between them.

It was destined that the two of them would always be enemies.

Therefore, Yu Tian slowly put down his wine glass and said with some reluctance, "Actually, I really don't want to make a move on you, but this is a damn killer competition!"

"Only one of us can leave this bar alive. Since you and I have already chosen this competition, we should respect this competition, shouldn't we?"?

"Now that we've drunk enough wine, I think we should also stretch our arms and legs and start our competition!"

Drunk nodded his head indifferently. In his opinion, no matter who was sitting next to him, no matter who said these words to him, the result would be the same.

He would definitely let this person die by his side. This was the moment he had always said that he would see through death.

Death was either someone else's or his own.

If the person sitting opposite him could let him die, he would be very grateful.

When he thought of this, intoxicated suddenly raised his hand and threw a punch.

The power of this punch was extremely powerful, and it was especially explosive.

Even just sitting on the chair made Yu Tian feel especially comfortable with this punch.

However, it was only comfortable, and Yu Tian did not feel any excitement at all.

If intoxicated was going to be an assassin, perhaps he could become an especially good assassin. However, in terms of strength, in front of him, he was just an ordinary person.

Therefore, after this punch was thrown, Yu Tian easily blocked it. Moreover, the force of the rebound almost caused intoxicated to fall from his chair.

Intoxicated suddenly looked at Yu Tian, his eyes full of shock.

This thin and weak man was actually hiding his strength. When he spoke, he seemed particularly weak, but his defense was so strong.

However, before intoxicated could recover from his shock, Yu Tian threw a punch back.

Yu Tian's punch could be said to be earth-shattering.

Intoxicated could not dodge at all. He could only brace himself and raise both his hands to block the punch.

However, it was still futile. Yu Tian's strength had an invincible penetrative power, and against an ordinary person like him, this penetrative power was basically impossible to defend against.

Intoxicated was sent flying by this punch and fell heavily to the ground.

However, Yu Tian still slowly stood up and walked to his side. He shook his head indifferently and said, "Actually, I don't want to kill you. I even want to have the opportunity to sit down and have a few more drinks with you! "

"I really like the feeling of talking to you. Although we are natural enemies here, I still want to leave you with your life. You choose to give up the competition first, so that you can leave this place alive!"

However, intoxicated shook his head and looked at Yu Tian gratefully.

He wanted to sit up, but his broken bones and tendons could not support his body at all.

He could only barely turn over and look at Yu Tian with his face facing the sky.

He slowly said, "I will not quit the competition, but I feel very good now,

"So the feeling of approaching death is so warm, like a ball of fire burning in my heart. Thank you for letting me see through the feeling of death. Actually, death is not scary. It is even a kind of transcendence,

"But I'm still an assassin. Since I'm participating in this competition, I'll leave the competition with the dignity of an assassin. So, I won't give up. You'd better do it!"

Since he had made such a request, Yu Tian could only helplessly shake his head. He could only fulfill his request.

Thus, Yu Tian raised his fist and smashed it heavily on the intoxicated head. Immediately, blood splattered everywhere.

When Yu Tian got up to shake off the blood stains on his hands, he shook his head regretfully.

Among the people who participated in this assassin competition, there were actually many people who deserved respect.

Not everyone deserved to die, just like how they couldn't kill everyone.

These people had their own reasons for being assassins, but they actually became assassins. After participating in this competition, they had to face the same result.

When he thought of this, Yu Tian felt a little regretful.

If he could win this assassin competition, when he left Raqqa, there would actually be nothing left.

The three points that he was intoxicated with were also added to Yu Tian. At this moment, Yu Tian's points were exactly 10 points, and his ranking had entered the 1000th place.

It was also because of this that Yu Tian had been targeted by many point hunters.

Although 10 points was not a lot, if it could be added to himself, it could also allow him to get a higher position in the rankings.

Some people felt very happy because Yu Tian had let them win a lot of money.

However, some people were especially angry at this moment. For example, Harclair. The moment Yu Tian defeated intoxication, he had lost a whole 100 million.

Money was actually nothing. It was only 100 million. He could afford to lose.

However, he could not afford to lose face.

There were ten people standing in his room. Usually, they were his assistants and subordinates who admired and admired him.

Previously, he had blabbered on and on in front of them, saying that Yu Tian could lose this match.

But in the end, Yu Tian slapped him in the face.

Not only did he not lose the match, but Yu Tian even killed his opponent perfectly.

He did not know what to say now, afraid that he would say the wrong thing and make Harclair unhappy.

And everyone was very clear that Harclair was very angry now.

He was a person who cared a lot about face. If someone did not give him face, he would definitely think of ways to kill that person.

However, to everyone's surprise, Hackrael didn't express his anger on his face.

Instead, he sat there very calmly and narrowed his eyes coldly. No one knew what he was thinking about.

The crowd tried their best not to make any noise and continued with their work.

In the headquarters of the magic snake.

The competition which hadn't even lasted for a few days, Leinster applauded.

The beautiful assistant looked at Leinster with a particularly excited expression. It was as if everything that the assassin had said was done by him.

However, this was still a cruel competition for beginners. The Super Assassins ranked in the top 100 had yet to come into contact with the mysterious king. It was still uncertain who would win or lose.

The assistant cleared his throat and said softly, "Boss, I don't know why you are so happy. If it were me, I would really be a little worried about this mysterious king. "

His current points had already reached 10 points.. Not only would he have points, the hunters would stare at him, and those hidden strengths in the assassin competition would also appear in front of him

Chapter 818 – Chapter 817: Man Or God

Leinster knew what the hidden forces that the assistant had mentioned represented?

Not only did assassins from all over the world participate in this competition, but so many wealthy people had also come to Raqqar's vicinity.

However, there was one point. Not every assassin came to participate in the competition alone. There wasn't only one assassin organization like the magic snake in this world.

At the same time, there were many other assassin organizations. Although they weren't as strong as themselves, they did exist in this world.

Therefore, these assassin organizations also brought many of their own assassins.

During the start of the competition, these assassins would form teams according to the code of their own assassin companies.

After killing other enemies, they would follow the various instructions of the assassin companies and complete the competition.

After ensuring that every killer could leave the killer competition alive, and that one of them could win the competition, these were the thoughts of the killer companies participating in the competition.

The beautiful assistant was talking about these killer companies.

And according to the information, there was a killer company behind the scenes.

This killer company's name was black gold, and it was also a relatively famous killer company in the world.

Different from magic snake, black gold assassin company accepted all kinds of missions. As long as it was a mission that an assassin could complete, as long as they were able to give them a generous reward, they would accept all the missions.

They were not like magic snake, who was selective about missions. Every mission had to see what kind of impact it would have on magic snake, so they would choose to accept or not.

Therefore, those assassin companies would do anything to achieve what they wanted.

At this moment, the 50 assassins from the black gold assassin company already knew the news of drunk being killed.

They didn't care whether they were dead or alive, but the black gold assassin company had already given the order to go after the mysterious king.

Only by killing the mysterious king would they be able to stand out in this competition.

Compared to killing the top 100 assassins, it was easier to do so.

The movements of all the assassins could be seen clearly on the big screen.

But the more it was like this, the more excited he became. This was a huge test for the mysterious king.

If he could survive the pursuit of the point hunter and the black gold assassin company, then the final winner of this assassin competition would most likely be the mysterious king.

This was because there had been so many assassin competitions, and every time, there would be such a dark horse appearing. However, facing the Point Hunter and the assassin company's pursuit, basically no one could survive.

Leinster hoped very much that this mysterious king would be able to survive.

At this moment, Yu Tian also learned about this series of news.

Tiffany told Yu Tian all of this information in detail over the radio.

After Yu Tian heard this, he smiled indifferently and said arrogantly, "I can finally feel a little excited to appear. Killing them one by one is really a waste of time! "

"If I let them come to my place to die together, I will save a lot of time. In that case, I will just wait for them here!"

"I like the style of this bar. Moreover, there are so many free drinks here. I can even eat some peanuts. This makes me feel quite happy!"

Tiffany shook her head helplessly and said, not knowing whether to laugh or cry, "If you can survive this chase, aren't you afraid that Leinster will find out your identity?"

Yu Tian said disdainfully, "So what if he finds out? I didn't come to participate in this competition at all. The reason I'm sitting here is to kill him!"

"But now, the possibility of him finding out about me isn't very high. My face isn't Yu Tian now, so how could he know who I am? Unless it's you who sent my information to Leinster. "

"Otherwise, no one in this world would know who the mysterious king is."

"Don't talk nonsense with me. Why would I send your information to Leinster?" "Only a crazy person would do that. You should be more careful. There are already a few points hunters approaching you. You should go and play to your heart's content! "

After the radio was cut off, Yu Tian indeed heard faint footsteps coming from his surroundings.

It sounded like there were about five people.

Yu Tian was a little puzzled. How could his position be known by these people?

Could it be that there were people like Tiffany behind them?

Throughout the entire competition, those people had been providing these assassins with all kinds of data.

This would allow them to obtain more assurance in the competition, and even obtain the final victory.

It seemed that this assassin competition was not simple at all. Not only were there hidden assassin companies, but there was also the entire Internet system.

One had to admit that this killer competition organized by Lannister was indeed quite impressive.

At this moment, a window in the bar was suddenly broken by a heavy object.

Yu Tian turned his head and saw that the thing on the ground was actually a firebomb.

The firebomb exploded abruptly on the ground, and flames instantly shot into the sky.

Alcohol was everywhere in the bar. The moment the flames burned, the fire instantly spread.

Yu Tian, who was in the flames, was exceptionally calm.

These killers could even make incendiary bombs. It seemed that they had really put in a lot of effort.

But what was the use? If they could really burn him to death, then he wouldn't have come to participate in this killer competition.

Therefore, even though the fire surrounded him, he still calmly drank two glasses of wine and then slowly walked out of the door.

What was even more amazing was that all the flames that approached him seemed to be afraid of this person. As long as they were approached by him, they would automatically dodge to the side.

It was as if a path filled with flames had been opened for Yu Tian.

This scene caused everyone who saw it to be dumbstruck.

Was the mysterious King a man or a God? Why wasn't he afraid of Fire? Instead, the fire was afraid of him.

Could there really be a god in this world?

This was impossible.

Amidst everyone's shock, Yu Tian easily killed all the score hunters.

His speed was extremely fast, as if he was teleporting back and forth between the score hunters.

At this moment, hackrael, who was sitting in the luxurious room, was already covered in cold sweat.

Meanwhile, in the luxurious office, Lannister was also frowning tightly..

Chapter 819 – Chapter 818 Was Very Analytical

Yu Tian didn't want to show off his strength too much, but after a series of thoughts, he felt that he should cherish his time and enter the core of this competition quickly.

Because in this competition, Yu Tian also found that there were many killers who didn't want to participate in this competition.

The reason was very simple. Every killer wanted to live. In the face of life or death, they were just ordinary people.

No one wanted to seek death, especially in this killer competition.

Almost every killer was very clear that in this competition, the possibility of living was not very high.

And those ordinary killers, or those killers who were commanded by the killer companies, were just cannon fodder for others.

These people really didn't deserve to die.

He didn't want to kill these people, at least not by his own hands.

That was why he had more or less displayed some of his strength. In fact, he wanted to let every assassin know.

This assassin, codenamed The Mysterious King, they had better not get close. Otherwise, they had no hope of surviving.

This was Yu Tian's idea, but it was not someone else's idea.

First, there was Leinster. When he saw the strength Yu Tian displayed, he frowned and said in shock, "The strength of this mysterious king has completely exceeded my imagination, not to mention those assassins in the competition, even those super assassins from my magic snake assassin organization might not be a match for him, i'm too curious about this person's identity now. Immediately ask our intelligence agency to understand this assassin called the mysterious king, i want to know which assassin company he belonged to before he entered the competition? Or which country he was an assassin in. If it's possible, I can even make an exception and let him join the organization immediately! "

This was the boss 'order, and the beautiful assistant could not disobey it. Although she did not think highly of this mysterious king, as long as the boss liked it, then it was fine.

Meanwhile, in the luxurious room of the hotel, hakralPs expression was extremely unsightly at this moment.

He had wasted two good opportunities to earn money for nothing, and this mysterious king was indeed extraordinary.

In less than a minute, all five points hunters had been killed by him.

From the looks of it, it seemed that all the killers in this assassin competition were courting death if they got close to him.

The assistant standing at the side looked at the series of data in his hand. Although he didn't want to talk to Haclard at this time, he would be even angrier if he didn't tell this boss the data.

Therefore, he could only bite the bullet and come to HaclaPs back. He said softly, "Boss, the Black Gold Assassin Company's target is also the mysterious king, they sent a total of 50 assassins this time, and some of them are ranked in the top 500 high-level assassins. Are we going to bet again this time?"

He thought that hacklar would be very happy to place his bet, but he calmly shook his head and said gloomily, "I don't want to count on anyone right now! "

"Although this mysterious king is very powerful, Pm now thinking that it's very likely that this is the work of Leinster behind the scenes.

"That guy wants to make us lose more money through this mysterious king.

You've collected so much information, haven't you found a crucial point?"

The assistant and the others shook their heads and said, "We really can't see as clearly as the boss. And according to the information we have, the level we can analyze can't be compared to the boss!"

Although these words were flattery, hakrall was very happy to hear it. At least his subordinates understood that they were his subordinates.

After at least two face slaps, they were still able to respect him. This was already very good.

Thus, he smiled slightly and said very confidently, "Looking at this assassin competition, even those top 100 assassins, I feel that their strength is inferior to this mysterious king!"

"If we compare it according to this, this mysterious king's ability can already join the magic snake assassin organization. Then, I have a special suspicion!"

Since he had such a super ability, how could he appear in this ordinary competition? Therefore, I felt that it was very likely that this mysterious king was a member of the magic snake assassin group, and Leinster had allowed him to participate in this competition, in fact, it was to eliminate those assassin companies, or those assassins who didn't have any potential and were ranked at the top. This was a form of elimination, moreover, he would let the mysterious king lose the competition at the most critical moment. Don't forget that behind every assassin, there would be a boss, the key role of these bosses was to be able to directly decide whether these assassins lived or died. And these assassins did not have any choice, just like the magic snake assassin group, if the mysterious King was their super assassin, when the amount of money bet accumulated to a certain extent, Lex would definitely choose to let the mysterious king die,

"Even if the mysterious king doesn't agree, the assassins in the magic snake assassin group would still kill him in the shortest amount of time. Therefore, placing a bet on the mysterious king now is equivalent to giving money to Lex,

"How can I be so stupid? This is a joke! "

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. The reason why Hartlall was able to become a world-class rich man was evident from his ability to analyze the assassin competition.

At this moment, the 50 assassins from the black gold assassin company had surrounded the entire bar.

Yu Tian knew that they were already close to the bar, but he still sat at the entrance of the bar and drank the red wine that he took out from the bar. He felt very relaxed.

If this assassin competition had not been known by the whole world, then others would definitely think that Yu Tian was a person who liked to drink and was enjoying the night time in the bar.

The two hosts were also very excited at this time.

Especially the male host, who was practically shouting out loud.

"Everyone, we will immediately present a very exciting program for everyone. There are already 50 assassins that are close to the Dark Horse of our assassin competition, the assassin called the mysterious King!"

"Ladies and gentlemen, there are 50 assassins.. Can the mysterious king survive their attacks?"

Chapter 820 – Chapter 819, Simple Attack

The eyes of the people who were paying attention to this assassin competition were all focused on Yu Tian.

Everyone wanted to know how this mysterious King would face these 50 Super Assassins from Black Gold Company.

Even if he could survive the siege of these 50 assassins, there were still other assassin companies and even more powerful assassins.

In this competition, how far could the mysterious king go?

This was just like what the television host said. This was a cruel assassin competition.

From a certain point of view, those who participated in this assassin competition were destined to die in this competition. In the end, only one person could survive.

Wanting to obtain this victory was already extremely difficult.

However, Yu Tian didn't think so. He didn't even put these 50 killers in his eyes.

This was just a process. A bridge was placed in front of him.

After crossing this bridge, he would be able to see a stronger opponent. This was his simplest thought at the moment.

From Tiffany's report, Yu Tian knew that the killers had already approached the bar.

However, Yu Tian had no intention of leaving. Although the bar had been destroyed by the fire, there were still some things that could be used.

For example, the jukebox could still play melodious music in the ruins.

There were also some good wines that had been preserved. Yu Tian liked these wines very much.

Only places that had wine could be called bars. Only in the trance of alcohol could one feel that everything was particularly interesting.

At this moment, ten assassins had already walked into the ruins.

They could even smell the smell of alcohol. If they could drink a cup at this time, it would indeed be very good.

However, under the premise that they wanted to kill this man in the ruins, his name was the mysterious king.

Yu Tian did not even look at them. He continued to sit on the broken sofa and drink the wine in his cup.

At this moment, in some corners of the world, people were sweating for Yu Tian.

These ten killers looked particularly brutal. From their tough bodies and cold expressions, it could be seen that they were killers who had experienced true death.

They knew the value of death and how to create it.

Just like the daggers in their hands, who knew how many lives had died on these daggers. Otherwise, they would not have been able to emit such a terrifying killing intent.

HACRAL narrowed his eyes coldly. At this moment, he still did not believe that Yu Tian could survive these people's hands.

However, the assistant behind him did not have the same thoughts as him.

And without him knowing, he had also placed his own money on Yu Tian to win.

This was a gamble in itself. If he could seize the opportunity, he would be able to make a lot of money in this gamble.

Right now, the odds of the mysterious king were 1:5. If he bought 100 dollars, he would be able to earn 500 dollars. Who would not do such a good deal?

The support rate of the mysterious king was also extremely high. The people in the world who had placed their bets on the mysterious king had completely crushed those who wished for him to lose.

Right now, Lester did not care about how much money the mysterious King would lose?

Compared to a super assassin, it was worth it no matter how much money he lost.

Therefore, Lester did not listen to his assistant's suggestion and asked the Super Assassin to stop the mysterious king.

This was a competition where he could completely understand the mysterious king. He wanted to see just how big of a surprise the mysterious King would bring in this competition?

It was as if a deafening thunder suddenly rang out in the quiet night. The ten assassins were the first to launch their attacks.

However, what was shocking and suspicious was that these ten assassins had only taken one step when they all fell to the ground.

They didn't even know how they fell.

No, they didn't fall.

They had already been killed.

That was because everyone who had fallen on the ground didn't get up. They didn't even move as they lay there.

It wasn't until half a minute had passed that they still didn't move. Only then did people realize that these assassins had actually been killed.

"Could it be that the mysterious King did it? How is this possible? He had been sitting there drinking wine. He didn't even move. These people had already been killed!"

"It can't be the mysterious king. I swear it can't be him. He has been sitting there holding a glass of wine and didn't even move his hand. How did these people die?"

"There must be other killers in that place. This killer must have been the first to kill these killers. This must be the case! "

Everyone was guessing how these killers were killed?

However, this was like a riddle that could never be solved. They would never know that the person who killed these assassins was Yu Tian.

Although he did not move and was sitting on the sofa, the golden needles that pierced the assassins' bodies were all thrown out by him.

Yu Tian had always liked simple people. No matter what he did, the simplest and most direct was the best choice.

The moment the ten assassins appeared, Yu Tian had already made a plan. How was he going to kill them?

If they didn't move, it would be fine. If they moved, it would be earth-shattering.

At this moment, another twenty assassins appeared.

These assassins didn't even look at their comrades who had been killed.

In their eyes, there was no pity. Dying here was their life. It was also because they weren't strong enough.

Otherwise, they would not be lying here coldly.

Since they had chosen to be an assassin, they had to think about the possibility of being killed at any time, so it was not a big deal to be killed.

These 20 assassins were even more violent than the previous 10 assassins.

Each of them held a long knife, and some of the assassins' knives were even stained with blood.

They stared unblinkingly at Yu Tian, who was sitting on the sofa.

At this moment, an assassin stood out and said coldly, "You can't keep walking. You have to throw your life here to honor us! "

Yu Tian laughed helplessly and said indifferently, "Actually, I never talk to dead people because I think it's a waste of time. But since you're so confident..,

"Then I'll reward you before you die. F * Ck your father! "

The 20 assassins didn't want to continue talking nonsense. They raised their weapons and charged at Yu Tian.

At this time, there was no need to use any tactics, nor did they need to play any tricks. The more people, the less people. This was a tactic in itself.

But this time, they chose the wrong one..

Chapter 821 – Chapter 820, Having Value

Their mistake was that they shouldn't have thought that they were on the same level as this man in front of them.

Yu Tian's body could explode with extreme strength, and this strength was even stronger than the weapons in their hands.

However, they thought that the weapons in their hands were the godly weapons that could dominate this competition.

They could even kill this man in front of them easily.

They could then continue to kill other assassins and continue this competition.

However, when they rushed to Yu Tian's side and raised their blades, a wave suddenly appeared in front of everyone's eyes.

This wave was the power that Yu Tian had unleashed. Its sharpness was several times that of the blades in their hands.

This wave directly slid through the bodies of these assassins. They suddenly stood there. The knives that had not been chopped off were frozen in mid-air forever.

This wave directly slid through the bodies of these assassins. They suddenly stood there. The knives that had not been chopped off were frozen in mid-air forever.

Before the spectators could recover from their shock, the 20 assassins were all broken into pieces on the ground.

That's right, these 20 assassins were directly cut in half.

Everyone who was watching the match, everyone who was staring at the computer screen or even the television screen, was so shocked that it was as if their breathing had stopped.

This was the most exciting and miraculous scene of this match.

The most amazing part was that he made everyone who was watching this match sweat for the mysterious King.

The most amazing thing was that the 10 assassins from before and the 20 assassins from now all died very strangely.

No one could see how the mysterious King did it?

But now, they could be sure that the person who killed these assassins was definitely the mysterious king.

Because there were no other assassins on this ruin, no matter if they were from the black gold company or not.

As long as they appeared on this ruin, their fates would be the same as the Black Gold Company's assassins. They would all be silently killed by the mysterious king.

There were even some people who now believed that the mysterious king was someone who existed just like a god.

This God had created miracles time and time again, creating wonderful scenes that no one would believe.

At this moment, the world-class wealthy man, Harklarr, felt his body trembling and his heartbeat quickening.

He had indeed missed a chance to win money, but compared to money, the shock that Yu Tian had created for him could not be bought back no matter how much money he spent.

In this cruel world that was filled with traps, he had always been able to remain undefeated.

However, in front of this mysterious king, he had lost miserably.

In the headquarters of the magic snake assassin organization, not only was Leinster stunned.

The other assassins who were watching the competition also widened their eyes in shock.

At this moment, a man wearing sunglasses with an especially cold expression said coldly, "This competition has no value to continue. This mysterious King will definitely win in the end!"

The other assassins were merely laying a foundation for him. Even US level one assassins have no chance of surviving in front of him,

"This person is the most powerful person I've ever seen. He has even surpassed the level five assassins of the Magic Snake Assassin Group! " A white-haired man standing beside him shook his head in disdain.

"He is indeed very astonishing and extremely outstanding. However, there is one thing that you might be wrong about. Compared to the Level 5 assassins of the magic snake, he is still far from them! "

The conversation between these two people caused the surrounding people to look at them one after another.

Everyone wanted to know how they would analyze this mysterious king.

The white-haired man said indifferently, "Although every assassin who can win the competition can directly enter the ranks of Level 5 assassins and become the core assassin of the magic snake assassin organization! "

There was one very important point. If he wanted to become a level 5 assassin, he should first understand whether or not he would have an opponent? Right now, he was just an independent assassin, it could be said that he was like an assassin who was enemies with the whole world. This was a lot like our boss, grinding snake. However, the biggest difference between him and magic snake was..,

could he get help from others? Or would he need more enemies? I don't think we need to say this. The Level 5 killers upstairs already knew what to do, "They will never allow anyone to steal their glory. Therefore, after watching this match, they only have one thought, and that is to kill this mysterious king,

"Once he joins the Magic Snake Killer Company, all the Level 5 assassins will bow down before him. This is the last thing they want to see,

"Therefore, this competition will be very interesting and exciting. This will be the first time that the company will send assassins to participate in the competition! "

Everyone nodded their heads in disbelief. The white-haired man was the one with the most ability to think among the assassins. He was also the calmest and cruelest assassin.

Up until now, he had never failed a mission. He could be said to be a perfect assassin.

However, the man in sunglasses shook his head and said coldly, "Then what you saw was only one-sided. Do you know why I said that?

In fact, this was the same process as ours. Why did the Magic Snake Assassin company divide all the assassins into several levels? In the end, they still wanted to choose the best among these assassins,

"This is the value of the magic snake killer competition. The purpose of this competition is to find the best killer, the best person who can enter the ranks of the company's core killers,

"It definitely won't be like what you said. The purpose of this competition is to kill people and then make a little money. What's the value of doing this?"

The sunglasses man's words made everyone nod. They felt that what he said made sense.

This was originally a competition for the magic snake assassin group to select assassins. If all the people here were killed, then why would there be a selection?

It was even more impossible for them to send the super assassins of the magic snake assassin group to participate in the competition. If they did this, there would be no benefits.

Meanwhile, in the office, Lester squinted his eyes and wiped the cold sweat off his face.

The assistant standing next to him put a glass of wine with ice on the table and said in a low voice, "If the mysterious king can win this time, we might lose close to two billion on him! "

Lester picked up the wine and took a sip.

He didn't care about the two billion at all. No matter how much money he had, it was worth it.

Therefore, he raised his head and gave an order coldly..

Chapter 822 – : Chapter 821. It Looked Familiar

"Get the engineering department to arrange for other assassins to go to other places. However, you can arrange for the top 100 assassins to go to the mysterious king as much as possible."

"The competition will continue. The money we lost on the mysterious King will have to be earned back through other assassins. Only then will we be able to achieve a win-win situation!"

The beautiful assistant knew that no matter what, Lester was extremely greedy.

On one hand, he wanted to obtain the mysterious King, an outstanding assassin. At the same time, he also wanted to earn more money through this competition.

However, if the mysterious king killed all the ordinary assassins, this competition would end prematurely. Not only would the other assassins be unable to join the magic snake, but the money won by others would also be unable to be won back.

Therefore, this arrangement was the best choice. It could ensure that the assassins could continue the competition, and at the same time, they could try their best to avoid encountering the mysterious king and be easily killed.

It had to be said that the fact that Leinster was able to become the senior CEO of the Magic Snake Assassin Company, just based on his ability to think, meant that he was exceptionally outstanding.

Leinster then said, "Also, pass my orders to the Super Assassins and Level 5 assassins. Let them just watch this match quietly,

"I don't wish for these people to appear in the assassin competition without my orders. Otherwise, I will not be polite to them!"

The beautiful assistant nodded and immediately went to the other floor of the headquarters of the assassin company.

At this moment, there were dozens of super assassins watching the competition while drinking.

These assassins didn't speak to each other. They didn't even know each other's names. They could only meet here once a year during the competition.

Their main mission here wasn't to watch the competition and help the company evaluate the assassins. They also had another mission.

If some killers broke the rules of the competition and could not survive in this competition, they had to kill them.

If they also broke the rules of the competition and killed the killers who participated in the competition, they had to kill them too.

However, today's competition was special. Up until now, they had killed at least 3,000 killers, but they still hadn't received their mission.

When the beautiful assistant came in front of them, every killer's eyes flashed with excitement.

It was the same as the previous competitions. As long as this beautiful assistant appeared in front of them, she would definitely give them some particularly exciting missions.

However, this time, the beautiful assistant said expressionlessly, "Mr. Lehnst asked me to order everyone. From now on, you can not leave the company. You only need to watch the competition here,

"If there is a mission for you, Mr. Lehnst will instruct you. However, if there is no order from him, you can leave this building. Mr. Lehnst will activate the rules of the assassin company,

"I hope each and every one of you can remember not to touch Mr. Lanster's anger!

After saying this, the beautiful assistant turned around and left.

She did not want to stay in the middle of these assassins for another second. As long as she was standing in front of these assassins, she felt that the air was filled with killing intent.

Each of them had killed thousands of people. They were simply killing maniacs. Even just looking at their eyes made her feel a special fear.

After the assistant left, all the killers looked at each other.

At this moment, an old killer in his fifties, who had once fought with Yu Tian at the back of the restaurant, suddenly said, "I feel that this person's skills are very familiar! "

The others frowned and looked at him coldly. One of the black-faced men asked in puzzlement, "So far, there is no accurate information about this mysterious king! "

"I haven't even heard of the existence of this assassin in this world. Either he isn't the mysterious king, or he has changed to another code!"

"If you feel that this person is particularly familiar, tell us, where have you seen him before?"

The old assassin shook his head.

"I haven't seen this person before, but I feel that this person's skill is especially similar to the person you all know. His name is Yu Tian. I have fought with Yu Tian a few times before! "

"His skills are very similar to this person's, but they are not the same person. However, one thing I can be sure of is that this person's skills are very similar to Yu Tian's, or even exactly the same! "

The black-faced assassin chuckled and said with disdain, "I do believe that you've fought with Yu Tian before, but open your eyes and take a good look. Is this person Yu Tian?"

Yu Tian was originally an easterner, but this mysterious king was completely a westerner. Even if he was wearing makeup, it was impossible for him to be so similar , you just wanted to show that you had fought with Yu Tian in front of us. Did you have to take such a big detour? Besides, what's so great about Yu Tian?

Compared to us, Yu Tian is just a bug that can be squashed to death at any time. Do you still think that this is a pride? You are already old..,

"It's already very good that you can live in front of Yu Tian, so there's no need to show that you've fought before. Yu Tian is just one person, it's not a big deal!

The old man glared at the black-faced assassin, and did not want to continue speaking.

At this moment, in the luxurious hotel room, hakrall had a few glasses of wine and said to his assistant behind him with a flushed face, "I've already lost a lot of money, so this time I plan to go all out!"

"From now on, I'll use all of my money to buy the mysterious king. If he really loses, then it's my mistake again! "

The assistant nodded. He knew that Hakrall was in a bad mood now, so he shouldn't look for that uncomfortable person.

Anyway, he had won a lot of money now. This was all the good luck that the mysterious king had brought him. It was better to let Hakrall Sulk there.

At the bar, the remaining 20 assassins from the Black Gold Company suddenly received an order. They were to immediately retreat and stop fighting with the mysterious king.

However, these 20 assassins didn't receive this order at all because they wanted to earn back what they had lost.

Chapter 823 – : Chapter 822, Vampires

The 20 assassins nodded their heads at the same time and immediately took off the radios in their ears and threw them on the ground.

This was a competition without a choice. For the sake of their own honor, they had to enter the ruins and fight the mysterious king to the end. This was what they should do instead of leaving here dejectedly.

However, when they appeared in the ruins, they did not see Yu Tian's figure.

They only saw an empty wine cup on the sofa, and it felt extremely strange.

This bar had already become a ruin. Other than a few dark places around it, it was impossible to hide anyone.

They had been surrounding this place from the outside, and they did not see anyone leave. However, how could the mysterious King have disappeared?

Did he disappear into thin air?

Just as everyone felt puzzled, footsteps suddenly sounded behind them.

Everyone turned around and saw the mysterious king leaning against the door frame, looking at them indifferently.

"What are you guys discussing outside? I waited for you guys for a long time, but you guys didn't come in. I thought you guys had already left. Fortunately, all of you are here!"

"Out of the 50 assassins from the black gold company, there should only be 20 of you left. You guys are really brave. You guys can still stand in front of me and look at me coldly after seeing your companions being killed by me! "

"Based on this point, I feel that all of you should be qualified assassins.

Therefore, I plan to give you guys a chance. If you leave now, I won't kill you. If you guys insist on fighting me!"

"Then I definitely won't be polite with all of you. This is a rare opportunity for me to participate in this competition and give others a chance! "

This was a frequent killer. He gnashed his teeth and glared at Yu Tian. He said coldly, "We don't need you to give us a chance. Those who participate in this competition are all killers. If you can kill us..,

"This is also our fate. We will definitely not blame the heavens and the people. If you can't Kill Us, we will consider it as you giving us honor. We will also thank you. Cut the crap. Let's do it now! "

Since that was the case, there was no need to waste time talking nonsense with them.

Yu Tian nodded slightly, and then his body suddenly disappeared from everyone's sight.

He appeared and then disappeared, making this kind of person really confused and especially surprised.

How could a person's speed be so fast? It was even faster than the speed of light that could be seen by the eyes.

In the blink of an eye, the long-haired killer heard some people behind him groan.

When he looked back, there were already 10 killers lying on the ground, dead.

Before they could recover from their shock, Yu Tian appeared beside them again. He punched and kicked them, and his strength erupted.

The remaining 10 people were like the long-haired killers. Their entire hearts had collapsed, and their hearts had been shattered. They fell to the ground and died.

After dealing with these 20 assassins so easily, Yu Tian clapped his hands proudly and said helplessly, "I have already given you a chance, but you don't know how to cherish it,

"The greed of human nature is too terrifying. I hope that the next time I give someone a chance, he will know how to cherish it, so they might still be alive!" Tiffany's voice sounded in the radio.

"It's a little strange. Most of the killers are pulling away from you. They seem to have received some orders and are deliberately avoiding you!"

With Yu Tian's current IQ he immediately understood.

He chuckled and said indifferently, "This is very normal. If these killers appear by my side one after another, this competition will not continue!"

"At that time, how will the Magic Snake Company be able to earn back the money they lost?" "That fellow, Leinster, wants to arrange some special competitions for me. I am especially grateful to him!"

"I hope that he can find me a few real assassins and not let these small fries deal with me! "

Tiffany chuckled.

"To be honest, I want to bet on you and earn some pocket money. If you agree, I'll do it. But now I have to arrange a competition for you."

"The killer closest to you is in a school two kilometers away. This killer seems to be injured. According to his code, he is now ranked 15th in the entire competition. His name is vampire killer. "

He is now the closest to you and is ranked in the top 100. You are now ranked 55th. This vampire has killed more than 70 people, therefore, his ranking is higher than yours. You only need to kill him and you will be ranked 15th. At that time, you may be closer to those top 10 killers,

"Then you will have something to play with! "

Yu Tian nodded and chuckled. "This competition is arranged well. I like it very much. I will go and meet that killer called vampire now to see if he is a vampire or not. "

Soon, they arrived outside the school one day.

This killer's nickname was really not bad. They could smell the stench of blood even before they entered the school.

There were more than a dozen killers lying in the pool of blood on the ground. They had all been killed by vampires.

Every killer had their throats cut. The method seemed relatively clean and straightforward.

This killer should have some strength.

Thinking of this, Yu Tian pushed the door open and walked into the school building.

However, he could not see where this vampire was, and he did not want to let Tiffany use her X-ray skill. If that was the case, it would be meaningless.

It would be more fun if he relied on his own ability to find the vampire.

Yu Tian followed the blood on the ground all the way to a classroom on the second floor.

He held his breath and looked into the classroom through the glass on the door.

Although the classroom was dark, there were some very weak lights.

He saw a middle-aged man wrapping gauze around his injured arm.

This guy's injury was not light. Half of his arm had been cut open, and even his bones could be seen.

No wonder he came to this school, because he could find first-aid medicine here.

And the rules of the competition were that an assassin could not go to the hospital after he was injured.

Otherwise, he would just come and go, and this competition would be meaningless.

To think that the school had first-aid medicine, this assassin was still relatively smart.

Although he didn't want to disturb him, Yu Tian still kicked open the door of the classroom.

The vampire suddenly turned around and reacted very quickly. He picked up the medicine on the table and threw it directly at Yu Tian..

Chapter 824 – : Chapter 823: Fight To Your Heart'S Content

While Yu Tian dodged those bottles, the vampire knew that he couldn't focus on the fight right now. He turned around, jumped out of the window, went to the school playground, and ran out of the school.

He ran for a full kilometer in one breath. The vampire's cold and frightened eyes turned back to take a careful look. After making sure that no one was following him, he kicked open the door of a residential building next to him.

Now, he should recuperate properly. At the very least, he could not let the blood continue to flow like this. He should wait until it was slightly relieved before continuing to participate in the competition.

Everything was still more important to save his life. If it really did not work out, he could wait until the competition was over and then give up on the competition. At the very least, he could still save his life.

However, just as he sat on the sofa, the door of the room was kicked open by Yu Tian.

The vampire turned around and saw that it was that guy again. His face immediately turned cold.

He couldn't fight now, so why was this guy still pestering him? He had already shaken him off, so how could he suddenly appear in front of him? Could This guy be invisible?

Yu Tian smiled indifferently and said, "You're quite fast. Keep running!"

The vampire picked up a sofa and threw it at Yu Tian.

The sofa was kicked into pieces by Yu Tian. At this time, the vampire broke the window and began to run wildly.

This time, the vampire was careful. After running for a distance, he would stop and listen carefully to the sound behind him before running for another distance.

He would not run on the main road, but on some small roads.

Finally, after jumping into a house, he immediately stopped all sounds and tiptoed to the neighbor's door.

Then, he kicked open the door, but did not enter the house. He turned around and jumped into the courtyard next door, hiding in the darkness and watching quietly.

But at this time, Yu Tian appeared behind him again and gave him a big slap on the back of his head.

This big slap was not very painful, but it scared the vampire so much that his heart almost burst.

This guy rolled directly to the middle of the courtyard, holding his arm that was in pain. He looked at Yu Tian with a grimace and said fiercely, "What on earth do you want to Do?

"Can't you see that my arm is injured and I can't fight now? You just want to take advantage of me, right? "I really feel ashamed for you. Are you really qualified to say that you're an assassin?"

Yu Tian smiled innocently and said helplessly, "Who told you that Pm an assassin? Why is only an assassin able to participate in this competition?

"To be more precise, Pm an assassin Hunter now. I came here specifically to kill you assassins. You say that you can't fight now, right? Well, I'm the easiest person to talk to. I can give you a chance, i can heal your arm right now, but I have a request. After your arm recovers, I want you to fight me with all your strength. How about it?"

The vampire frowned. He didn't understand what this man meant, and he didn't believe what he said.

He was not a god. How could he let his injured arm recover immediately.

Yu Tian saw the doubt in his eyes and chuckled. "Actually, it's normal for you to doubt. Because you think I'm just a person, I'm not a God!"

"How could I let your injury recover immediately? But there are many things in this world that you don't know. For example, why did you participate in this competition?

"Even now, you're still able to make it into the top 15. This surprised me a little. So, Pm going to give you a chance to see what a real miracle is! "

The vampire still frowned, but he shook his head and said, "I don't need a miracle. I don't believe in miracles. I only believe in my fists. If you want to compete with me..,

"I'll give you this chance too. Now, Make Your Move! "

Yu Tian laughed out loud.

"Since you're already prepared to fight me to the death, why don't you have the guts to let me treat your arm? You really make me feel like I'm looking down on you. And if I want to fight!"

"I don't want to fight with an injured person. If I say it like that, it'll sound like I'm bullying you. Let me treat your arm and then fight me with all my might.

That's what I need, how about it! "

The vampire felt that what this person said made sense. Since he already had the guts to fight with him, why didn't he have the guts to let him try to heal his arm.

Thinking of this, he immediately extended his arm slowly in front of Yu Tian.

At this moment, Yu Tian took the vampire by surprise and pulled out three golden needles and stabbed them at three different acupuncture points.

The vampire immediately felt the blood in his body churn.

Following that, the wound on his arm healed at a speed visible to the naked eye.

This was completely beyond his imagination.

It turned out that there really was a miracle in this world, and it really existed in the hands of Immortals.

However, the more it was like this, the more the vampire frowned.

If this person was so powerful, there was absolutely no way he could be his opponent. If it was any other assassin, he wouldn't even put them in his eyes. But if he fought against a god, there was no way he could survive.

Even if he used all his strength to fight against him, there was no way he could leave.

It was better to wait for him to heal his arm, then casually fight with him a few times, and then find an opportunity to leave this place immediately.

At least he could still keep his life. If he liked to fight, then let him fight with those more powerful killers.

At this moment, his arm had completely recovered.

Yu Tian withdrew the golden needle and said indifferently, "Now your arm has completely recovered. If you need to rest for a while, it's also okay. Anyway, this match will take a long time!"

We can even drink some here and then fight again!"

The vampire stretched his arm and felt that there was nothing unusual. He then nodded and said, "No need to rest. I know you just want to have a good fight with me, in order to thank you for healing my arm, I'll do as you wish. Come, let's do it now!"

Yu Tian also slowly stretched out a hand. Since he thought so readily, then he did not need to waste time with him.

Therefore, he signaled the vampire to attack immediately.

The Vampire did not stand on ceremony. Instead, he stepped on the ground and kicked out a pile of dirt.

The dirt turned into a pile of sand in the air.

Yu Tian really did not think that this fellow would be so wicked. Before he made a move, he had already played a dirty trick on him. But the more it was like this, the more fun it would be.

Yu Tian chuckled..

Chapter 825 – Chapter 824, He Had Hidden Weapons

As the saying goes, this was how a fight looked like. No matter what moves he used, as long as he could knock the other party down to the ground, that was a good move.

On this point, the vampire played it to its heart's content.

Yu Tian liked this kind of opponent. He was willing to do anything to win, even taking off his pants and fork. This kind of person was a real good opponent.

Although the vampire's first trick did not succeed and Yu Tian dodged it, he then launched a series of attacks.

His explosive power and coherence were particularly good.

Yu Tian did not fight back. He just wanted to see how strong this guy was. He was able to stand out among so many assassins and was directly ranked in the top 15.

He must have some special methods.

However, based on the current situation, Yu Tian felt that this vampire's kung fu was just average. It was just some basic tricks and there was nothing interesting about it.

Therefore, Yu Tian was too lazy to fight back. He let him attack first. When he felt that his attacks were too weak to hurt him.

He reckoned that this guy could use some special methods.

Moreover, Yu Tian also discovered that although this vampire was a westerner, he used the eastern style.

His foundation was particularly good, and his punching speed and other aspects were also good.

However, there was a small point. This guy's punching routine was basically a complete set, as if he was performing a combination punch.

As soon as he made a move in front, Yu Tian knew what he wanted to do from behind.

Therefore, after fighting for a long time, Yu Tian felt that it was getting more and more boring.

Finally, he kicked the vampire's hand, directly kicking the vampire back a few steps.

When he stood firm, Yu Tian said impatiently, "Don't tell me you only have this much ability? I really wonder how you got into the top 15,

"Can you give me some excitement?" "At least let me feel that it's worth it for you to get into the top 15. Don't waste your time here with me. At the very least, I've healed your arm. Now, you have to give me some real ability! "

The vampire also furrowed his brows tightly.

He had originally thought that the man in front of him was definitely not some newbie. However, he did not expect that this guy's strength was actually so powerful.

He had been busy for a long time, but he had not even touched a hair of the other party.

It seemed that he really had to use his killer move, or else he would die here today.

Thinking of this, the vampire did not say any nonsense. He suddenly jumped in the air, raised his fist, and smashed it at Yu Tian's body.

This move looked a little fierce, but it was just a little fierce. Yu Tian did not feel that there was anything special about it.

But at this moment, a cold light suddenly flashed out of the vampire's sleeve.

"Hidden Weapons! "

When he saw this light, Yu Tian's mind immediately reacted like this.

So this guy was able to fight to the top 15 because he used hidden weapons.

With Yu Tian's current power, no matter how fast the vampire's hidden weapons were, he could clearly see that these hidden weapons were actually some traditional darts from eastern countries.

To be able to train darts to such a degree, he could be considered to have some skill.

However, it was basically impossible for these darts to reach Yu Tian.

Yu Tian's dodging movements were as fast as lightning. Even the vampire who threw the darts could not clearly see Yu Tian's figure.

He felt that the scene in front of him was a blur.

His feet had just stood on the ground when Yu Tian's foot had already kicked his back.

He was kicked so hard that he almost fell to the ground.

Yu Tian saw that this guy was only capable of this much, and it was impossible for him to make any more moves that excited him.

In that case, there was no need for him to waste his time here. He would just take care of him and then find his next target.

However, just as Yu Tian was about to attack continuously, the vampire's hands suddenly pulled.

All of the darts that he had thrown out suddenly formed a string and spun around Yu Tian's back.

This made Yu Tian feel a little surprised.

It turned out that this guy could actually control those darts. However, this was definitely not a special ability, nor could it be some kind of magic.

This was because Yu Tian could clearly see that the vampire was pulling a string in his hand. It was this string that connected all of the darts together.

The vampire's control was particularly flexible. The darts that were together flew up and down in his hand, cutting and slashing them.

At the beginning, Yu Tian really felt a little flustered.

This was because the darts were especially sharp. The slightest carelessness would cause the skin to be cut.

If there was poison on these darts, he would have to detoxify them. It was simply a waste of time.

In just a few blinks of an eye, Yu Tian saw the opportunity and directly grabbed the thread connecting the darts. He then pulled hard, and with a crack, the thread was directly broken.

The darts also fell to the ground with crackling sounds. At this moment, the vampire finally revealed a terrified expression.

This was his ultimate move. He was able to enter the top 15 all because of this move.

However, this move was easily countered by the person in front of him.

It seemed that the person in front of him was a true expert. If he was compared to him, there was no chance of him winning.

Yu Tian did not want to waste any more time on him. Just as he was stunned, Yu Tian rushed forward and punched and kicked the vampire's heart, shattering it.

The vampire did not even make a sound as he fell to the ground and died.

Yu Tian smiled smugly and said indifferently, "It seems that I have overestimated you. This is all you've got! "

He felt that it was very easy and normal, but some of the people watching the match were already stunned.

From the start of the match until now, from the moment this person called the mysterious king appeared, every match, every attack, and even every defense of his would shock them greatly.

The assassin ranked 15th didn't even have a chance to live in front of him. It seemed that in the end of this competition, who knew how many people would die at the hands of the mysterious king.

At the same time, those who could see this competition immediately began to bet crazily, putting all of their money on Yu Tian.

For example, haklar. This competition had allowed him to earn a total of 200 million. Although the odds of Yu Tian's win were getting smaller and smaller, in this competition against Vampires, the odds were 1:1. However, this also allowed him to earn enough money.

Haklar felt extremely excited. The speed at which he earned money was simply too fast.

It turned out that there was nothing wrong with believing in this mysterious king..

Chapter 826 – : Chapter 825, Extremely Happy

While Haklar was excited, he was also considering a question.

What was magic snake Lancaster thinking at this moment?

If this match was a big gamble, then as the banker, Lancaster would definitely not just watch his money be won by others.

He would definitely think of ways to stop it. In other words, the chances of the mysterious King winning were becoming less and less.

When his chances of winning reached a certain level, Lancaster would definitely send even more advanced assassins. At that time, it would be basically impossible for the mysterious king to win.

Thinking of this, he immediately said to his assistant behind him, "All of you must keep an eye on the entire match. The mysterious king is now ranked 15th, the 14 assassins in front of him, you must remember their information. If a mysterious assassin suddenly appears, you must tell me immediately!"

The assistant did not understand what Haklar meant, so he asked with a trembling courage, "Mr. Haklar, I don't understand. Why are you doing this?"

Haklar said indifferently, "It's very simple. If I were Lester, I wouldn't be able to let the mysterious king win all the time. So, when necessary, I will ask an even more powerful assassin to stop him. "

Of course, this assassin must be someone from the magic snake company. If they had not participated in the competition, they would not have any points. Once an expert without points appeared..,

"That means that Leinster has already sent an assassin to kill the mysterious king. At this time, my bets should be immediately terminated so that I can win the most money! "

However, the assistant frowned and said softly, "Mr. Hartlall, your idea is too good. I have learned a lot from you!"

"But I still have a question to ask you. If a mysterious killer who has been hiding all this time also appears at this time, he also doesn't have any data! "

"Then should we also immediately give up betting?"

Hagerlall nodded and said coldly, "I've already told you before, as long as the killer who doesn't have any points appears, immediately stop betting. This is the safest way! "

The assistant nodded and immediately turned around to make arrangements.

In the Magic Snake Company's headquarters, experts gathered on the floor.

Everyone's gaze was fixed on the big screen, but every high-level assassin's expression was especially indifferent.

No matter how much strength Yu Tian displayed in front of them, these people were never surprised.

There were even many people who were thinking of a problem. If it was them, they might even be killed by Yu Tian faster.

Therefore, after thinking about it, Yu Tian's strength was only so-so.

However, some assassins did not think so.

They just did not know how to explain everything that they had seen.

Every assassin who participated in the competition had to work hard to live, and even work hard to win this competition.

However, the mysterious king was completely different.

He didn't seem to care about this competition at all, nor did he participate in the competition to kill people.

In the eyes of these people, the mysterious king seemed to be playing around here. He didn't care about the rules of the competition or the powerful assassins at all.

He was like this when he fought against the vampire assassin.

He could have killed the vampire several times, but he didn't make a move at this time.

Instead, he kept dodging.

From the looks of it, the mysterious King's strength was even higher than they had imagined.

The old assassin sitting at the back had been frowning.

He had fought with Yu Tian, so he knew some of Yu Tian's martial arts skills. This mysterious King's martial arts skills were too similar to Yu Tian's.

Even if this mysterious king wasn't Yu Tian, then he would definitely know Yu Tian. It was very likely that they were fellow disciples, and it was the same master who had taught them.

His thoughts would definitely not be wrong. This mysterious king definitely knew Yu Tian.

Or it was very likely that Yu Tian had asked him to participate in this competition. In this way, it could explain why the mysterious King didn't take this competition seriously.

In other words, the mysterious king must have other motives for participating in this competition.

Thinking of this, the old assassin immediately got up and left the room. He went straight to the door of Leinster's office and gently knocked on the door.

The blonde beauty opened the door and saw that it was him. She immediately asked cautiously, "This is the president's office. What are you doing here?"

The old assassin said gloomily, "I want to see Mr. Magic Snake. I have something to say to him!"

After hearing the voice, Leinster immediately ordered, "Let him in! "

The beautiful assistant stood to the side. The old assassin strode into the office. In front of magic snake, he was very respectful. Before he said anything, he bowed.

Leinster was also very polite. He nodded and said, "If you have something to say, then sit down and say it! "

The old assassin sat down in front of Lannister and began to speak.

At this moment, Yu Tian had already obtained other information from Tiffany.

His target was the 14th ranked assassin, codenamed Devil.

Tiffany gave Yu Tian detailed information.

"Dear, if vampires are only powerful on the surface, then this devil can be considered quite powerful. His current points are 257 points!"

"Previously, he specialized in being a points hunter. Many experts died at his hands. I've seen his competition videos. This fellow's killing methods are extremely fast. Moreover, when you see him!"

"You will definitely be confused by his appearance. This is because he looks like an idiot. No one would think that this idiot would be able to become an outstanding assassin. "

Because he looks like an idiot, when he's a killer, everyone he kills until their eyes close still thinks he's an idiot, don't be confused by his appearance, and don't think he's a real idiot. Otherwise, you might have a hard time dealing with his sneak attack, now, he was five kilometers away from you. He seemed to be looking for other killers, but the magic snake company seemed to have made special arrangements, they sent some ordinary killers to other places, and those who stayed by your side and around you were all the top 15 killers, the Devil Killer is now bored. I reckon that after you meet him, you will definitely have a lot of fun! "

Yu Tian chuckled and said indifferently, "I realize that it is an extravagant wish for me to have a good time in this competition.. I hope that this devil can give me some excitement! "

Chapter 827 – Chapter 826, The Strange Killer

Yu Tian was not a person who could change his mind easily. When he set a goal for himself, before his goal was achieved, no matter what kind of thoughts he had, there would be no change.

However, this killer competition was different. He originally thought that he would be able to meet many experts in this killer competition. At the very least, it would allow him to gain some experience.

Currently, the chances of finding experts in this world were becoming fewer and fewer. Moreover, the experts who had come from that world had also hidden themselves very well.

If he wanted to find them, it would be as difficult as ascending to the heavens.

This was the best opportunity for him to gain experience. However, up until now, these assassins had not made him feel happy or excited at all.

Although his level was not high, compared to him, these people were noobs.

He hoped that the devil killer that Tiffany had told him about was a real killer.

"If you continue to chase me like this and make me anxious, I'll immediately withdraw from the competition. I Won't play anymore, Alright?"

Hearing this, Yu Tian was a little confused. was this guy really stupid or was he pretending to be stupid?

If he was pretending in front of him, then why didn't they fight with him? At the very least, they could have ambushed him for a while, but this guy seemed to be especially afraid of him.

He was even more than ten meters away from him. If he didn't take a step forward, he would take a step back.

Yu Tian asked curiously, "We are all here to participate in the competition. Why aren't You Fighting Me? Are you afraid of dying, or are you afraid of losing this competition?"

"I'm afraid of You! "The Devil Killer said straightforwardly. "I'm especially afraid of you. I can smell the blood on your body. Even if I killed so many people, I wouldn't have this kind of smell on my body!"

"But on your body, I can smell that you're not a human at all. You're the Real Devil. If you like being a killer here, you can be one yourself!"

"I can give you the code name of My Devil Killer. From now on, you'll be called the Devil Killer. If you come near me again, I'll immediately withdraw from the competition! "

The more he said, the more interesting it became. He was originally calm, so how could there be killing intent?

It was even more impossible for him to have the smell of blood on his body.

Even if there was, he could still smell it from so far away from him. This was a bit unreasonable.

Don't talk nonsense. It was also impossible for him not to want to fight with me.

After all, I've walked five kilometers here. How boring would it be if I didn't fight with him?

Thinking of this, Yu Tian stopped talking nonsense with him. He clenched his fist and charged directly at the Devil Killer..

At this moment, the devil killer suddenly stopped and turned around to look at Yu Tian, panting. He asked in puzzlement, "Why are you always following me? Haven't you seen my weight?

"I don't have any strength now. You'd better stop chasing me and go chase someone else. There are people everywhere. If you are also participating in the competition! "

"After you kill them, you can still get their points. That's what I did. You can do that now. But there is one thing you must remember. From now on, don't follow me,

"I feel that I especially hate you, especially those eyes of yours. That's why I don't want to fight with you. I don't want to fight with you either. I just want you to stay away from me. Don't come close to me! "

Yu Tian laughed. This guy was really a little silly, but he was just pretending.

So he said coldly, "As far as I know, this assassin competition is still going on. As long as the competition continues, only one person will be able to leave this place alive after we meet!"

"You Said You're an assassin, so I'm also an assassin. How about this? Let's fight to see who will be able to leave this place alive?"

The devil assassin seemed to be particularly frightened. He waved his hand and shook his head. "I've already said that I won't fight with you. Is there something wrong with you?

"I don't want to fight with you, but you insist on fighting with me. What if I beat you to death? "I'll tell you again, I won't fight with you,

He didn't even chew. After stuffing it into his mouth, he directly swallowed it.

Looking at his silly appearance, he really looked like an idiot.

If it wasn't for Tiffany's warning, the first time he saw this person, he definitely wouldn't have thought that he was a particularly powerful killer.

At this time, the Devil killer also noticed Yu Tian. Instead, he felt particularly scared. He was so scared that he directly threw the drink in his hand at Yu Tian, then turned around and ran.

Yu Tian saw that this guy ran in a different way than the others.

If the others wanted to leave, they would either jump out of the window or look for a way out.

However, this guy directly went through the middle of the rows of shelves. He didn't even go through the door. He used her fat body to knock down the wall and then left the mall.

Was this guy really an idiot?

The door was right beside him, but he didn't go through it. He had to knock a hole in the wall to get a kick out of it. What was wrong with him?

He didn't care about these things now. It wasn't easy to meet an assassin, so it was better to catch up with him first.

Yu Tian's speed was much faster than the Devil Assassin's. In the blink of an eye, Yu Tian had caught up with the devil assassin who had soaked in the park.

Even if it could not provide him with any experience, it was already good enough to make him feel happy.

Otherwise, it would be a pipe dream for him to have any hopes of happiness in the hands of a bunch of noobs.

Soon, Yu Tian arrived in front of a shopping mall five kilometers away.

This shopping mall was a storage mall. At this moment, the door had been smashed, and there was still a lot of food and drink cans on the ground.

At this moment, Yu Tian heard the sound of cabinets being smashed in the house.

The sound was particularly ear-piercing, and it was also clattering.

Yu Tian followed the sound to a corner of the shopping mall. He saw a man with disheveled hair and a face full of beard smashing a drink vending machine.

His method was really good. After a few punches, the drinks inside the drink vending machine all rolled down with a crackling sound.

This fellow casually picked up a can of drinks and realized that it wasn't his favorite flavor. He then threw it aside and picked up another can. This time, he felt satisfied and opened the can of drinks and drank it.

It was fine if he drank the drinks, but Yu Tian saw that this fellow was still desperately stuffing cakes and other food into his mouth.

Chapter 828 – Chapter 827, Elastic Killer

Yu Tian did not want to waste any more time with this devil killer. It was just a waste of time. He should finish him off as soon as possible. This was what he should do.

He did not want to waste all his time watching this guy play dumb.

His speed was as fast as lightning, and his fists were like volcanic eruptions. In comparison, the Devil Killer's clumsy body did not even have the chance to dodge.

The Devil Killer did not have the intention to dodge, but its reaction speed was exceptionally fast. It raised its fist and smashed it against Yu Tian's fist.

Just this one punch shocked Yu Tian.

The Devil Killer's strength was very strong. Although he did not use all of his strength, at most he used half of his strength, but the moment he collided with the Devil Killer, he felt his arms go numb.

He didn't even stand firmly on his feet and even took two steps back.

However, the devil killer was still as steady as Mount Tai. He didn't even feel the slightest pain.

Only at this moment did Yu Tian realize that this devil killer was indeed not a simple person.

At this moment, the Devil Killer suddenly launched an attack.

This guy's attack was particularly interesting. He hugged his stomach and jumped in the air. Then, he started talking about his body and suddenly smashed towards Yu Tian.

That feeling was like a meteorite falling from the sky.

Before he could figure out how powerful the other party was, Yu Tian could not fight head-on with him. He directly hid at the side.

The Devil killer that landed on the ground directly smashed a big pit.

Yu Tian even felt the ground tremble violently. How strong was this guy's body?

He was like a bomb.

The Devil killer was like an elastic ball. He immediately jumped out of the pit and curled up his body, chasing after Yu Tian and smashing him.

Yu Tian dodged left and right, jumping and jumping. There were pits one after another on the ground. Even the park could be destroyed at any time.

In less than a minute, more than 50 pits had been created on the ground.

Perhaps he was a little tired, but the devil killer did not jump up this time.

Instead, he stood at the edge of the pit and said like an idiot, "Are you happy now, look at this park that you destroyed. Don't you have any sense of civic-mindedness? I've told you before, I don't want to fight with you, but you want to fight with me, now that I'm fighting with you and you're dodging me, what do you want from me? If you're always like this, we don't have to fight anymore, I don't want to waste time here with you. You'd better find another killer and don't come near me again!"

After saying this, the devil killer turned around and left without hesitation.

Now, Yu Tian was basically certain that the devil killer wasn't playing dumb in front of him. He really didn't want to fight with him.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been so determined to leave. His two short legs kept moving. In the blink of an eye, he had arrived at the entrance of the park without looking back.

However, he absolutely couldn't let him leave just like that. This battle had only just begun, and the fun was yet to come. How could he let him leave so easily.

Thus, Yu Tian burst out with a series of speed and lightning-fast attacks.

This time, if it was the Devil Killer, he would dodge and Dodge.

Although his body looked especially fat, his movements were still relatively agile. What surprised Yu Tian the most was that this guy's defense was surprisingly high.

The few punches that he had landed on Sha's body felt like he had landed on cotton.

He could even hear the sound of fat jumping in her body. This was the first time he had seen such a defense.

The previous Powell Trus was that fellow who couldn't be beaten to death. His defense was also extremely astonishing.

But compared to the Devil Killer, there was a clear difference.

Powell Trussy couldn't be beaten to death, but this devil killer was purely defensive. From a certain point of view, the Devil Killer's defense was even higher than Powell Trussy's.

At the beginning, the Devil killer was still anxious to leave, but after a few blows, he was completely anxious.

After putting some distance between them with one punch, the Devil Killer gave himself two punches with all his strength.

Then, he roared, "I already said that I don't want to fight with you, but you keep pestering me. Alright, if that's the case, then I won't be polite to you, now, I'll fight you seriously. Whoever leaves this place will be my son! "

At this point, the Devil Killer jumped into the air again and started to use that move again.

Yu Tian's head hurt when he saw this move.

He didn't know how to deal with such an attack. He could only Dodge to avoid the devil killer's attack.

But the more it was like this, the more uncomfortable the fight became.

He originally thought that according to physics, there should be a period of time between landing and jumping.

Although it was only a few seconds, if it was used well, it could also cause a fatal attack on the Devil Killer.

Now, as long as he found this opportunity, he could immediately launch an attack.

However, after he observed it a few times, he still shook his head helplessly.

The Devil killer was like an elastic ball. It would bounce off the ground without any time at all.

It was as if there was a spring installed on this guy's body. There was no movement of him landing on the ground and then jumping up again.

Yu Tian scratched his forehead in annoyance.

Could he not kill this guy?

The Devil killer shouted in a particularly violent manner while smashing him, "Why are you hiding? Don't you want to fight with me? Come on, Let's fight to our heart's content. You Always Dodge left and right. Is this your only ability?

If you have the guts, don't Dodge. Do you believe that I can kill you in one hit?

Pve already said that I don't want to fight with you. Do you really think that Pm afraid of You, to tell you the truth, I just don't want you to die in my hands. I think you're a very good killer. Not only can I Smell the blood on your body, I can also smell that bit of humanity on you, you are much better than the other killers here, so I want to give you a chance, but you don't want it when I give you a chance. You are looking for death in front of me without hesitation. Do you think I can still coddle you?

In that case, I will kill you today, but don't blame me. You asked for it!"

Yu Tian didn't care what he said at all. What he was thinking now was how to crack this guy's elastic ball.

If he used his own strength to smash him directly, he would probably be injured by the destructive force of the impact.

The best way was to break his defense first so that he could attack him..

Chapter 829 – Chapter 828, Breaking Through His Defense

Although the idea was quite good, it was quite difficult to put it into practice.

The Devil Killer's strength was extremely powerful, and its speed was also extremely fast. The force that it smashed into the ground was like a volcano erupting.

If he couldn't break through his defense, he wouldn't have any chance to attack. However, if he wanted to break through his defense, he first had to find an opportunity to attack.

When he thought of this, Yu Tian suddenly shook his eyebrows.

"How could I forget this? I have a golden needle. My golden needle can completely pierce through his defense!"

Yu Tian, who was quick-witted, immediately took out a golden needle and threw it out at the right time.

The sharpness of the golden needle directly pierced through the demon killer's skin.

Although there were no acupuncture points to choose from during the rapid movement process, the demon killer still felt pain after the golden needle pierced through his body. He let out a blood-curdling scream and fell to the ground with a thud, he could no longer bounce up.

He still wanted to see what was sticking into his body, but the golden needle had already entered his blood vessels, so it was impossible for him to see it.

The golden needle rampaged through his blood vessels, stabbing and stabbing. The pain caused the demon killer to roll on the ground and scream like a pig being slaughtered.

"What did you stab me with? Hurry up and take this thing away from me. I Can't Stand the pain anymore. I admit defeat. I don't want to fight with you anymore. I still want to leave this place alive!"

"I still have quite a few women that I haven't hit on yet. I don't want to lose the opportunity to hit on girls. Hurry up and get this thing out of my body!"

Yu Tian didn't want to listen to him at all. Just as Tiffany said, this guy was extremely good at pretending to be crazy and acting dumb.

Most importantly, this was a competition for assassins. After the assassins saw the assassins, they would harm each other.

After the real fight, only one of them would be able to leave alive.

This was the rules of the competition. Although it was a little cruel, this was a competition. Yu Tian also liked the rules of the competition. It was simple and violent.

In order to prevent this fellow from ambushing him, Yu Tian took out two more golden needles. This time, he pierced them directly into the Devil Killer's acupuncture points.

This caused the devil killer to be in so much pain that his soul was scattered. He felt as if all the tendons and bones in his body were being shattered. His face had already turned black, purple, black, and purple.

He originally wanted to beg Yu Tian again, but the intense pain made it impossible for him to say anything. He could only scream at the top of his lungs to alleviate the pain in his body.

However, it was futile. The pain was getting more and more intense.

He knew that his vision had gone black and he had completely fainted. One day, he came before Yu Tian and easily pulled the golden needle back into his hand.

Yu Tian suddenly realized that there was something different.

The first golden needle that had pierced into the devil killer's body had actually turned red.

Yu Tian had thought that the devil killer's blood had stuck to it, but after carefully rubbing it, the golden needle was still red.

The other golden needles were still the same color as before, except for this one.

The more Yu Tian looked at it, the more he felt that it was strange. When he used the golden needle in the past, it had never appeared like this.

Why did the golden needle turn blood-red? Could it be that he had absorbed the blood from the Devil Killer's body to turn this color?

Then why didn't the other golden needles change color? Only this time would the golden needles change color?

With Yu Tian's current intelligence, he still couldn't understand these magical things.

However, any riddle in this world would have a correct answer, but it just needed time.

Yu Tian casually put the golden needles back into his pocket. When he had time to slowly study them in the future, he would definitely be able to understand why they changed color.

As for this devil killer, Yu Tian directly stretched out his hand and broke his neck.

There was no possibility of him giving up on the competition. He had already said that the top 15 assassins would all die at his hands.

This battle still shocked everyone who was watching the competition.

Even now, they no longer had any desire to watch other people's competitions. They were all staring at Yu Tian's figure.

The code for the mysterious king had already shocked the entire assassin world.

Hacklar was so excited that he stood up from the sofa and said excitedly,

"Indeed, he will never let anyone down. Pve seen too many assassins. They are cold, cruel, and unscrupulous!"

"But this mysterious king is completely different from those assassins. He has personality, temper, and methods. This is a true assassin! "

I wanted to know if, when he saw this assassin, he would compare him to his own assassin? If he discovered that the mysterious assassin was more powerful than any of his assassins, then...

would he feel that his position would also be replaced by this mysterious assassin? However, there was one possibility. There would definitely be many changes in the magic snake assassin company this time,

"First, it will be Leinster himself. Right now, I really want to see Leinster's expression. It will definitely be very interesting! "

At this moment, at the headquarters of the Snake Assassin Company.

Leinster had his hands behind his back as he stared coldly at the city outside the window.

Usually, when he looked at this city, he felt a special sense of satisfaction.

Even though the assassin competition had already started for such a long time and he had lost a lot of money, the feeling of satisfaction still hadn't changed.

Whether he won or lost, he did not care about money at all, because the money would not go into his pocket.

In comparison, being able to see a particularly powerful assassin dominate this assassin competition was the real excitement.

However, behind this excitement, there was a very high possibility that it was a conspiracy.

At this moment, the old assassin sitting behind him slowly stood up and said, "Mr. Leinster, so I think that this assassin called the mysterious king was very likely sent by Yu Tian,

"But now, I don't know why Yu Tian is doing this? "He already has everything in this world. Could it be that he still wants your magic snake assassin company?"

The golden-haired assistant who stood at the side shook his head and voiced out his different opinions.

"I think that this is unlikely. How could a person who can cause his family to go to war with a country like this fancy an assassin company?"

"With his current ability, he could easily build an assassin company that's even better than magic snake. I'm not saying that magic snake isn't good enough,

"I'm just guessing. If it was Yu Tian, he wouldn't have needed to do this. Moreover, we don't have any conflict with Yu Tian. The Chu family that Yu

Tian is protecting is also our financial provider,

"So no matter what, I don't think Yu Tian would do this!"

Chapter 830 – Chapter 829, Mysterious Power

Yu Tian knew what he was doing. He had put in a lot of effort on this path of growth.

Even in this killer competition, he had gained too many insights into life.

However, this competition still had to go on because there was no goal in this world that could be made easy.

This required a painful process, and there was even loneliness and loneliness in the process.

Although he now had 108 sisters, and had become the most powerful person in this world.

But this was only the imagination of others. Was he the strongest person in this world, or was he the most powerful person in this world? Only he knew the best.

In the following competitions, Yu Tian tried his best to display his strength.

This was also a kind of pleasure. Not every assassin was able to fight against the most powerful assassins in the world.

The top 10 assassins in the competition were basically standing at the top of the world.

However, what Yu Tian wanted to do was to step on their shoulders and stand at a higher place.

During the process of the competition, people from all over the world were crazy about this mysterious king.

It wasn't just because the mysterious king had made them a lot of money. More importantly, the miracle that the mysterious king had created for them made them feel that this competition was the craziest competition, it was the craziest one.

This was because in all the previous competitions, no one had ever been able to go this far.

Of course, in every competition, there would always be someone who stood out. However, in the previous competitions, these people who stood out didn't have the strength of the mysterious king.

In the process of pursuing the final victory, the strength that the mysterious king had displayed had basically shaken the entire world.

For example, when he was fighting against the tenth ranked assassin, he was actually able to make the object bigger and smaller, causing the assassin to be completely exhausted from dealing with it. However, in the end, he was still killed by the mysterious king.

This was simply a magnificent magic. No one would have imagined that a person would be able to display such a mysterious ability.

Unless one was an immortal from the heavens, no one would be able to do it.

When the assassin ranked 10th was killed by the mysterious king, the entire world saw the despair in his eyes.

This assassin ranked 10th originally thought that he could obtain victory in this competition and then join the Magic Snake Assassin Company.

However, his dream was still shattered by Yu Tian.

However, Yu Tian did not feel that he had done anything, because too many people would die by his hands. Not just now, but even in the future, it would be like the present.

A strong opponent that he had not met might make him feel flustered at the beginning, but in the end, they would die by his hands. This was the value and meaning of his existence.

Just like in this assassin competition, Yu Tian felt as if he was climbing a staircase. With every step, his height would increase.

And the staircase in his life had only just begun. He continued to climb until he reached the highest point.

Next was a very powerful assassin. He had a particularly violent nickname, called the Bloody Devil.

This assassin was very special. In this assassin competition, he was the only one who was not injured, just like Yu Tian.

Up until now, after obtaining so many points, the bloody demon was still able to maintain his physical strength. This made Yu Tian a little excited.

In the process of finding an expert, it was like a hunt. When they found an especially good prey, the excitement was self-evident.

The bloody demon was about 50 years old, and he was a very cold middle-aged man.

When Yu Tian saw him, he was in a ruin, just like when he was in that bar.

There were still many killers lying in the ruins. These people all wanted to get points from the bloody demon, so that they could get close to the top 10 ranking.

Even if they could not obtain the final victory, they could at least surprise the world in this killer competition and let the whole world remember his name. It was worth it to do so.

However, this world could not remember their names because this world could only remember the winners, only the strong. It would never remember a weak person.

Their existence had only one value, and that was that when they were killed, they would bring entertainment to the whole world. They had no real value.

Therefore, when the bloody demon saw Yu Tian, he was still particularly cold, and even expressionless.

He regarded Yu Tian as other killers, those weak people who wanted to get his points and kill him.

Therefore, he did not even look at Yu Tian and only said coldly, "Why do you have to choose to fight me? You are courting death. More people have died in this killer competition! "

"Don't you want to live a little longer?"

Yu Tian chuckled and said indifferently, "But there will always be people who will be killed in this competition. Just like the current you, me, one of us will stay here forever, and one of us will continue to walk!"

This is the killer competition, something that we all strive for. However, some people have many dreams, while some people place their dreams above death, in fact, I feel that you and I are pursuing the same goal. We can all hope to win in the end, because we need that feeling. There is a saying that you are right, there are already enough people who have died,

"However, you can't stop death. There will be more people who will die at your or my hands. Now, we don't need to continue talking. Just bring out all your abilities, "It will also allow me to feel a little pleasure once again! "

The bloody demon laughed and looked at Yu Tian with admiration. He then said coldly, "You're the first person who makes me feel that you're very similar to me. What You Said isn't wrong at all. Our goals are the same,

"Both of us want to get what we want in this competition. It is very difficult, but it is also very simple. As long as you kill your opponent, you will be able to do it!"

"I hope that this duel between us will be a real battle. I will not reserve my strength. I hope that you will not reserve your strength either. No matter who dies in the hands of whom! "

"This is an honor for us!"

Yu Tian nodded and said with a faint smile, "This is what I want. Let's begin now.. I Can't wait any longer! "

Chapter 831 – Chapter 830, Benefits Were The Most Important

This duel once again attracted the attention of the entire world. Everyone wanted to know whether the bloody demon or the mysterious King would win.

While watching this match, Lannister was also thinking about something else.

His question was, could this person be Yu Tian's Man? If he was Yu Tian's man, why did he participate in this competition? What was the reason behind this?

Could it be that Yu Tian also wanted to earn more money through this competition? But was he really a person who lacked money?

For a person who controlled two-thirds of the world's wealth, was money really that important?

Or did he want to use this competition to allow his influence to infiltrate the world of assassins.

This was because compared to assassins, the combat strength of mercenaries was too weak. Assassins were the natural enemies of mercenaries. No matter what, it was impossible for a mercenary to leave alive in front of an assassin.

Think about what the whole world knew. The conflicts that Yu Tian had with other countries were all using mercenaries.

Although these mercenaries had the best weapons and equipment in the world, and they even had very strong combat abilities, they were still mercenaries. They had no experience as assassins and did not have the feeling of being assassins.

Therefore, if Yu Tian wanted to participate in this competition, it was very likely that he wanted to get his own magic snake assassin company.

He knew that he couldn't give this company to him, so he wanted to use this mysterious king to get his own company.

His guess was absolutely correct, because he couldn't imagine why Yu Tian wanted to participate in this competition?

This could only be the only reason, and also the only plausible excuse.

In that case, he absolutely couldn't let Yu Tian's idea succeed. The Magic Snake Killer Company was everything to him. If he let Yu Tian take it.., then this killer company would no longer become his ultimate weapon.

He still needed to obtain more things through this killer company. This was also the reason why every killer would stay by his side.

Because in this pursuit, every killer's thoughts were the same as his.

Killers didn't just want blood and money. Sometimes, they needed more things.

They didn't even know what they needed. If they had a goal that they could achieve, they would pursue it.

Therefore, killers didn't have souls, and the company, as well as themselves, were the souls of these killers.

When this soul was handed over to someone else, the magic snake company would completely disappear, never to appear again. At least, it would not appear in his hands.

When he thought of this, Lannister turned to look at the old assassin and said coldly, "Your analysis is reasonable. Regardless of what Yu Tian thinks about this assassin competition and my magic snake company?"

"What I need to do now is to stop him immediately. I absolutely can not let him get his hands on the magic snake company. Are you confident that you can kill the mysterious King?"

The old assassin slowly stood up and said proudly, "Of course I'm confident. Even if Yu Tian comes personally, I won't put him in my eyes,

"Leave this task to me. I will definitely kill this mysterious king without anyone knowing. Treat it as a gift to Yu Tian!"

After saying this, the old assassin turned around and left the office.

Leinster nodded slightly. These older assassins were more reliable.

He originally wanted this mysterious king to become his assassin. Moreover, he also had the idea of training him to become a core assassin.

Unfortunately, this mysterious king wasn't on his side. Although the boss behind him, Yu Tian, was also on his side in some ways.

However, Yu Tian was extremely greedy. He wanted everything in this world. He didn't even want to let go of the magic snake company that he had personally created.

Compared to this, nothing was important. Only his own interests were the most important.

This was because he had yet to achieve his goal. During this process, he was also pursuing it. He was also painstakingly creating it. He absolutely couldn't hand everything over to others at this critical moment.

Thinking of this, Leinster turned to the blonde beauty and said, "Immediately close the live broadcast channel. Tell the two hosts to try their best to arrange other people's competitions! "

"From now on, I don't want the whole world to see the mysterious king killed by the old killer. This is also to protect our interests, so I have to do this. Do you understand what I mean?"

The blonde beauty immediately nodded.

"I understand what the boss means. I'll go to the engineering department right now and have them cut off all the live broadcasts! "

On Yu Tian's side, the bloody demon was already covered in blood.

The bloody demon sat on the ground and panted heavily. His eyes were filled with fear, anger, and even a lot of excitement.

He slowly said, "You are the first person who can make me hurt. I am very grateful to you for making me feel pain. Do you know why I want to be a killer?

"I just want to know what pain is. I just want to feel the taste of pain. But so far, only you have made me feel this way,

"It turns out that the feeling of pain is so hard to accept, but I still have to thank you. If it weren't for you, I would never have experienced this feeling,

"But thanks are thanks, our battle is not over yet. I can still continue fighting with you. What you said was very correct. Only one of us can leave this place, but this person will definitely not be you! "

As soon as he finished speaking, the bloody demon stood up once again and charged towards Yu Tian without hesitation.

Actually, in his heart, he already knew that he was no match for Yu Tian. Regardless of whether it was strength, speed, or explosive power, the strength that Yu Tian displayed was basically much, much stronger than his.

Therefore, the bloody demon had already made preparations for this attack, and even realized it.

Yu Tian really did not want to kill him. It was rare for him to meet a worthy opponent.

However, in the eyes of the blood demon, his pursuit of death and obsession was an obsession that he could not give up on.

In that case, he would let him get what he wanted.

When the blood demon rushed in front of him, Yu Tian waved his hand and punched out, directly piercing through the blood demon's heart, causing it to stop beating in the end.

The blood type demon looked at Yu Tian gratefully and said while spitting out blood, "Thank you for letting me let go of my obsession. This feeling is really great.. Thank you very much! "

Chapter 832 – Chapter 831, Opening The Passage

The bloody demon fell at Yu Tian's feet in the end. Yu Tian looked at him regretfully.

In fact, there were quite a number of experts in this assassin competition. However, this was a competition, a life-or-death competition. Everyone who participated in the competition had to make a choice in the end.

If this wasn't a competition, every expert he met would be able to help him obtain more things in the future.

Unfortunately, these people died in his hands. Therefore, this was a competition without a choice.

While he was feeling regretful, he couldn't attach his feelings to it. A competition was a competition. He had to continue to go on and find more powerful experts.

At this moment, Tiffany's voice sounded on the radio.

"Yu Tian, you definitely can't imagine what the assassin company did. They actually closed your live broadcast channel. Now, the whole world can't see your competition!"

But all of this was nothing to him.

He didn't participate in this competition to broadcast to the whole world. He wanted to obtain the magic snake assassin company and kill that reinster..., he also wanted to kill those super assassins.

"I don't care if it's broadcast or not. Now, tell me where the next assassin is. This is what I care about the most."

Tiffany said calmly, "Can't you think about why they are doing this? In my opinion, they are afraid of charging more money, so they don't want your competition to be bet by them."

This was also the most convincing reason, but now I especially want to hear your opinion. What do you think?"

Yu Tian chuckled and said disdainfully, "My thoughts are different from yours. Not Broadcasting my match is actually very simple. They just don't want the following match to be seen by others!"

If Pm not wrong, the next people to appear in front of me are not the killers participating in the match, but the killers sent by the Killer Company.., that Leinster must have discovered that I'm a particularly powerful person, and his killers have fought with me before. For the memory of those super killers, they will never forget some of the memories of me fighting with them, so they must now think that I, the mysterious king, Am Yu Tian's man, when they thought so, this match would no longer be a match, but an attack and defense. If I were Lester, I would have to put up all my defenses right now, I absolutely couldn't allow any experts to enter the company's headquarters. However, if this game was played like this, it would be meaningless. If the match was still ongoing, the headquarters of the assassin company would disappear, then, these assassins will definitely do something that will shock the entire world. I don't want to see so many innocent people die at their hands, therefore, I only have one sentence. I will let them do whatever they want. I will play this game with them until the end to see who has the most brilliant methods, moreover, I have another idea. I will immediately get someone to unplug the live broadcast. Since you want to be happy, then the entire world will follow me and be happy! "

Tiffany laughed and said, "I said that your idea must be much more mature than mine. If you do this, you will definitely make the assassin company feel helpless,

"I even want to know what kind of anger they will feel when they know that the live broadcast has been opened again!"

After hanging up the phone, Yu Tian immediately called Chu Xuan. After a brief explanation, Chu Xuan said proudly, "When you were talking to me, I had already opened the live broadcast channel! "

"From now on, no one can close the live broadcast channel except for your orders and my skills! "

"That's great! Playing this game is the best!"

At this moment, the blonde beauty walked into the office in a panic and said seriously, "Boss, our live broadcast channel has been hacked, and now we are continuing to broadcast the mysterious King's match!"

"Moreover, our engineering department has been unable to shut it down by all means. What should we do now?"

Leinster frowned. If the whole world knew that the assassin company had sent assassins to assassinate the mysterious king, then this match would not continue.

All the rich people who participated in the match would not let the magic snake assassin company off.

Before the competition started, he had told them that this was a fair competition. However, he had destroyed the fairness of this competition. If he made those rich people anxious..., they were especially angry.

If he lost the support of these rich people, it was acceptable. As long as the monks continued to provide him with funds, he did not need these rich people.

He could even treat them as his enemies.

But now, Yu Tian was also involved in this competition. What were the thoughts of the Chu family? They didn't know anything about it.

This meant that at some times, he still needed the support of these rich people. He absolutely couldn't provoke them now.

Thinking of this, Leinster coldly ordered, "Immediately tell the old assassin to give up the mission. We don't need to do this now. After the mysterious king wins the final competition and joins our assassin company!"

"At that time, we can kill him!"

However, the blonde beauty shook her head and said, "I've already tried to make the old assassin give up on the mission, but there's a problem with the old assassin. When he's on a mission, he never talks to anyone!"

He also doesn't listen to others. The only way to stop him now is to let other super assassins intercept and kill the Old Assassin! "

Leinster's brows furrowed even more tightly.

Every assassin in the assassin company was an extremely precious treasure. Even at the age of the old assassin, he was reluctant to give it up.

However, compared to the benefits of the entire assassin organization, an old assassin was nothing.

Therefore, he nodded and said, "Although this idea of yours isn't very good, it can only be done this way now. You can go and make the arrangements, but no matter what, you must make sure that the old assassin appears before the mysterious King! "

"Let our killer kill him. Of course, if he voluntarily gives up on the mission, we can still spare his life! "

When the blonde beauty turned around and left, Leinster took out another phone. This was a secret phone, and he directly called the boss of the Chu family..

Chapter 833 – Chapter 832, I'M Just Playing With You

However, Lester's thoughts were still a little slow. The old killer arrived in front of Yu Tian as fast as he could. He did not know that the live broadcast channel was once again open.

Yu Tian still remembered this old killer very clearly. Back in the backyard of the restaurant, he had tied with this old killer.

It had to be said that he was a very capable person. The more he did so, the more excited he felt.

The old assassin did not make a move directly. He first looked at Yu Tian with a very pleased expression, then said, "I know who you are, and I also know who sent you here!"

I especially wanted to know why Yu Tian did not personally participate in this competition. If that was the case, I would be able to kill him with my own hands. Your cultivation method is similar to Yu Tian's!"

"Even Yu Tian is no match for me, so naturally, you can't be my match. Why Don't I give you a chance? You just have to tell me why Yu Tian wants you to participate in this competition?"

"I can make your death easier. At least, I won't make you feel any pain. You have to seize this opportunity! "

Yu Tian chuckled and said disdainfully, "I feel like you're dreaming. How do you know that Yu Tian is no match for you?"

As far as I know, when the two of you were fighting in the backyard of the restaurant, Yu Tian didn't use his full strength. He was just teasing you, you really think that you're a match for Yu Tian. If that's the case, why don't we put it this way? Even I'm not a match for Yu Tian. Do you think that you're a match for Yu Tian?"

"If I put it this way, you definitely won't be convinced. Then let's not talk so much nonsense. There's always a winner and a loser in a fist fight. If you can't even defeat me, how can you possibly be a match for Yu Tian? "It's simply a FooPs Dream! "

The old assassin smiled coldly, nodded and said, "Alright, I also want to experience your kung fu. Let's see just how strong you are to be able to handle this match with ease, however, no matter how strong you are, you are useless in front of me. Now, show me what you are capable of! "

Yu Tian chuckled, suddenly clenched his fists, and directly charged at the old assassin.

This time, it would not be like last time. Whether it was strength or speed, he would hold back. This time, he wanted to show him his ability.

The moment he made his move, everyone who saw this match was shocked.

This was because the old assassin wasn't an assassin participating in the competition. He was sent by the assassin company to kill the mysterious king.

This was especially the case for hakrall, who was in the luxurious room. He was so angry that he threw his wine glass on the ground and said angrily, "I told you that Leinster was a person you can't trust! "

"Now, he has indeed brought the high-level assassins from the assassin company. They just don't want the mysterious king to win this competition. They just don't want us to be able to win his money,

"What he has done is simply destroying the fairness of the competition. It's simply too hateful! "

It wasn't just hackrael. Everyone who had watched this competition and placed a heavy bet was cursing the assassin company and Leinster.

However, they would never allow the money they had earned to be lost to Leinster.

As a result, the people who had placed their bets all over the world asked the assassin corporation to double their bets immediately. Otherwise, they would let the entire world know how unfair the match was.

Just like what Hackrael had said, if the entire world knew about the nature of the snake assassin corporation, what kind of nature would they have? Then they would never receive any business in the future.

Because no one would trust them and be able to provide them with trustworthy services.

At this moment, Reinster was completely roaring.

The old killer was too fast. If he did this, he was simply courting death. He even made the company so passive.

However, the boss of the Chu family was right. If they couldn't change the course of the competition, they wouldn't be able to change their minds about the magic snake killer company.

It would be better to use this opportunity to carry out his plan in advance.

Lester stood in front of the window. He didn't have the mood to watch the match between Yu Tian and the old assassin. He had been thinking about what the boss said, or perhaps he should really do it.

At that moment, Yu Tian, who had already erupted with power, had beaten the old assassin to the point that he did not even have a chance to retaliate.

The old assassin was extremely shocked. The more shocked he was, the more flustered he became. He had been hit by Yu Tian several times in a row, and in the end, he had already vomited blood.

He wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, gritted his teeth, and said, "Did Yu Tian teach you all this?"

Yu Tian chuckled, he said proudly, "Why? Do you feel that you're no match for Yu Tian Now? Pve already told you before. Yu Tian was only teasing you back then. Do you really think that you 're the most powerful person in the world?"

"You're simply wishful thinking. Today, Pm going to let you die by my hands.

In the end, you'll know whether you're a match for Yu Tian or not. "

Yu Tian did not want to waste any more time with him. Taking advantage of the old assassin's flustered state, he launched another attack.

This time, the old assassin did not even have the ability to defend himself.

He felt as if Yu Tian's fists were like meteors hitting the earth. Every punch made him feel incomparable pain.

After the last few punches, the old assassin collapsed to the ground. His internal organs had been shattered. He spat out blood and could not even speak.

Yu Tian stepped on his neck and smiled indifferently. "You must want to know who I am to Yu Tian. Seeing that you are about to die, I will let you see who I am. "

He immediately turned off the projection function of the necklace.

When the old assassin saw that the person in front of him was Yu Tian, his heart skipped a beat. Following that, his vision turned black and he died.

Yu Tian activated the projection function again and said proudly, "I was just teasing you. You really took it seriously. No wonder you died here. Sometimes, you can only act so arrogantly! "

At this moment, two more super assassins appeared behind him.

Yu Tian slowly turned around and looked at them with disdain. He snorted and said, "Why? Do you want to die in my hands like this old assassin?"

The two assassins looked at each other and shook their heads. "No, we're not here to kill you. We're here to kill this old assassin. Now, the entire world can hear our words! "

"What I want to say is that this old fart came here because it was not an order from Leinster, nor was it an order from our assassin company. Therefore, we wanted to stop him. From the looks of it now! , we can go back, too!"

Chapter 834 – Chapter 833, Attack

After saying this, the two assassins looked at each other. Without saying anything else, they turned around and left.

However, Yu Tian suddenly called out to them.

"Wait for a while. Since you are also assassins from the assassin company, I would like to see the strength of the two of you. Why don't we use this opportunity to have a match? How about it?

"I'll deal with the two of you by myself. The two of you can attack together, and you can use any weapon you want. I'll only use these two fists of mine. In that case, it should be very fair, right?"

Yu Tian's words caused everyone who was watching this match to be shocked until their mouths were wide open.

This mysterious king was simply too domineering. If it were any other assassin, they would definitely choose to accept or even immediately leave after seeing these assassins.

However, not only did he not leave, he even challenged these two assassins. If he did not have such self-confidence, it was absolutely impossible for him to do so.

Courage had nothing to do with strength. It was just that having courage without strength was impossible.

Having strength without courage, he also did not have the courage to provoke these two super assassins.

Unless he had the strength and courage, he would only do this.

The two assassins frowned. One of them said coldly, "You are a little too arrogant. We are not that old assassin. Moreover, we are not here to fight with you,

"We don't want you to die so quickly. You can continue to participate in the competition. Or, in front of other assassins, they will kill you. However, the person who will kill you will definitely not be us,

"This is because we don't care about doing so. In our eyes, you are just a small assassin. You are not worthy of our attacks. Now, continue to participate in your competition. Don't be arrogant here! "

Yu Tian completely ignored what they were saying. As soon as the assassin finished speaking, Yu Tian took a step forward. His strength erupted like the roar of a wild beast.

The two killers were forced to retreat. One of them even spat out blood and almost fell to the ground.

The reason why Yu Tian was so confident was that after defeating the old killer, his level had increased.

On one hand, he wanted to use these two killers to see how much strength he could unleash after his strength had increased.

Secondly, these killers were going to die in his hands anyway. Killing them now was the same as killing them later.

Yu Tian was extremely excited when he saw these two killers spit out blood after being beaten by him in one move.

After his level had increased, his strength had also increased exponentially. Now, basically no one was his opponent. At least in this world, no one knew who his opponent was.

These two killers were also extremely shocked. The strength that Yu Tian had unleashed was completely crushing them. Now, they had no choice but to make a move.

However, even if they made a move, it was impossible for them to be a match for Yu Tian. After a few simple punches, the two assassins fell to the ground and did not move anymore.

At this moment, Lester had also made his final decision. The boss was right. Since it was already like this, it was better to carry out the plan to the end.

Therefore, he immediately went to the hall downstairs and asked the blonde beauty to call all the assassins in the company over.

In front of these assassins, he said coldly, "You joined my assassin company to get everything you want, and the person who can give you all is me! "

"That's why you're standing here. Our dreams are the same, and even our past is the same. You and I are both assassins!"

We've seen too much death, in the process of being a killer, but the profession of killer, in the eyes of the rich, is nothing, they just use us as tools, to do things they don't want to do, and don't want anyone to know, and we endure humiliation, but we still have to do this job, why is this so? We can be killers, absolutely not the choice we want, if we can really give a choice, i think now you may be a doctor, you may be a boss, or even other professions, but absolutely not a killer, people outside think we like to kill people, but only we know that we don 't like to kill people. We just want to live well. Today is a great opportunity. I think we should do something now, today we can get what we want. Remember the Plan I told you about? Today is the best time to carry out this plan! "

Every assassin's blood boiled when they heard this.

He had stayed in this company for so long so that he could carry out this plan.

Looking at everyone's expressions, Lehnst knew that his words had already made everyone boil, so he seized the opportunity and said, "Since everyone understands what I'm saying..,

"Then I'll say one more thing to everyone. Immediately bring your weapons and tie up all those rich people who are staying in our hotel. Don't let a single one of them off! "

Hundreds of super assassins, even first-rate assassins, immediately picked up their weapons and charged towards the luxurious hotels.

At this moment, Yu Tian was still continuing to search for opponents. He had no idea what Leinster wanted to do at this moment?

After the Super Assassins rushed into the hotel, they gathered all the rich people in the hall as fast as they could.

One of the assassins said loudly, "Don't Talk Now. I just need you to listen to me. In a few minutes, Mr. Rienster will be here, he will tell you what to do. If not, you will die here today. I know that you are all super rich people in the world. Your lives are very precious,

"Therefore, I will try my best to let every single one of you leave Alive!"

Standing in the crowd, Harklarr was the first to shout angrily, "It seems that this is the order of Leonster, right? This is also what you want to do in this killer competition, right?"

As soon as he finished his words, Leonster, who had just entered the hall, replied coldly, "You are right. This is my order, and it is also what I have always wanted to do,

"Now, all of you listen well. If you want to leave this place alive, each of you must give me 100 billion. This is what I want all of you to do!

Hakrall sneered and said, "It's only 100 billion.. So that's what you're after! "

Chapter 835 – Chapter 834, Influencing The World

It was obvious that Harklarr's words did not make reinster angry. Instead, he laughed.

"You're right. I don't have that many pursuits. I just want what I deserve. Many years ago, I was an unknown assassin,

"I risked my life for the sake of you rich people, but in the end, I only had a small amount of money in my hands. Are the lives of us assassins that worthless?

So from then on, I thought that one day, I could make you rich people, stand in front of me, listen to my orders, and let you truly understand, what is the real value of a killer?

You Don't have to say those useless things in front of me, I am in charge here, my request is very simple, each of you 100 billion, in exchange for your lives,

"The time will be until noon tomorrow. If you put the 100 billion here before then, you can leave alive. Otherwise, you will stay here forever!"

Hakrall gave a contemptuous smile. 100 billion was nothing to him, but he would never take out the money like this.

After all, he was someone who could dominate a region. How could he be blackmailed by an assassin? If this were to spread, how would he survive in this world in the future? How would others view him.

If other assassins were like Lester, thinking that rich people like them were so easy to deal with, wouldn't they often be kidnapped by them in the future.

Most importantly, Hacklal didn't think that the money was what he was aiming for.

He had the support of the Chu family behind him, so how could he be short of money? He must have wanted something else.

At this moment, Yu Tian was still looking for other assassins, but at this moment, Tiffany's voice suddenly sounded from the radio.

"Yu Tian, open your phone. You will definitely want to see the next set of information! "

He spoke so mysteriously. What information did he want to see.

Yu Tian randomly opened the phone and received a video request. After connecting, Yu Tian immediately frowned when he saw the scene.

Leinster was leading his super assassins to kidnap at least hundreds of rich people.

Yu Tian felt a little strange. Why did Leinster do this? Could it be that he cared about money?

No matter what he did, this was a very good opportunity for him. He could use this opportunity to directly kill them all.

It saved him from having to go to the headquarters of the assassin company and kill them one by one.

Thinking of this, Yu Tian immediately ordered Tiffany, "Connect all the videos to the live webcast and let the whole world know what Reinster is doing! " After hanging up the phone, Yu Tian directly walked out of Raqqa.

Of course, there was no need to rush to kill them now. First, he had to figure out what they were doing? Especially Lester. What exactly did he want to get?

If one only considered a person with greed, then there were only a few desires in this world.

However, some people's desires were different from othersh

They pursued things that were impossible to obtain and were especially challenging.

For example, the current Lester had kidnapped hundreds of rich people around the world. If he wanted to control something through these rich people, it would be easy.

Or, this was the Lester's plan that the previous person had told him.

And there must be someone more important behind this plan. Otherwise, Leinster wouldn't have the courage to go against the entire world, unless he didn't want to live anymore.

The news of him being kidnapped immediately spread throughout the world, causing the entire world to shake.

Every wealthy family immediately focused their gazes on Raqqa.

Every family's mercenary troops, bodyguards, and even their own assassins immediately went to Raqqa.

At this moment, Leinster was waiting for those wealthy families to make an important decision. The beautiful assistant came to his side and said in a low voice, "Boss, now the whole world knows about your plan!"

"Moreover, we have received many messages from people, especially some particularly famous mercenary troops, as well as individual armed forces, and even some large international companies! "

"They want us to get the people they want out of here immediately. Otherwise, they will kill you at all costs. And some countries' administrative departments also want you to hand over their supporters immediately,

"Otherwise, their weapons will rain down like people in Raqqa. What should we do now?"

Although Leinster was a little shocked, he quickly calmed down.

Those people were just saying to scare him. They were in their own hands, so they couldn't do something so impulsive.

So he said proudly, "Ignore them. As long as these people are in our hands, they have to listen to us. Otherwise, kill a few of them to show them. I'm not joking with them! "

After hearing these words, harklarr still glared at Leinster angrily and said coldly, "Leinster, do you know how big an impact you will have on this world by doing this?

Everyone here is the CEO of the world's largest financial group. Every minute of our time, or even one of our decisions, will affect the entire world's economy, if you hurt anyone here, it's very likely that the entire world's economic chain will suddenly break. When that time comes, do you think the world will let you Off?

Unless you leave this world, otherwise, we will definitely be able to kill you. The money is in your hands, and you can't spend it. If I Were you, I would do as they say now,

"At least now I can redeem some dignity. When one day you are trampled under our feet, do you think at that moment, you will still have a chance to live?"

Leinster suddenly looked at hackrael and said gloomily, "I appreciate you saying this to me, Mr. Hackrael, but you have to know one thing, since I have made this choice, I will not be afraid of those people. The snake assassin company is a whole company, and I am just one of them. Even if I leave this world.., then the others will still continue this plan.., so Don't try to stop me. In fact, you are just like me. We can not change this now. We can only put our lives in the hands of God and let him decide who will live and who will die!

Hackrael frowned.. What did reinster want? Did he want to destroy the world?

Chapter 836 – : Chapter 835, The Right Choice

Chapter 836: Chapter 835, the right choice

Hackrael was extremely calm. No matter what Lester's plan was, it was impossible to achieve it. Because at this moment, there would definitely be someone trying to stop him.

At least now, the whole world knew that this damn assassin had kidnapped almost all the super rich people in the world. Everyone knew what this meant, so these people would definitely not just watch.

There was also the most important person, that mysterious king. Now, he finally understood why that mysterious king did not seem like an assassin after participating in the competition.

Now that he thought about it, he also understood the reasoning behind this. The mysterious king should have known of Leinster's plan long ago. The reason why he participated in the competition was to kill Leinster and then stop his plan.

Thinking of this, hacklar laughed and said coldly, "Although you don't have a choice, others will have a choice. Some people will choose to be a bad person, but some people will definitely choose to be a good person. The existence of a good person is to stop those bad people. Just like the mysterious King, you should not forget this person, he is also a killer competition, but now I think, he is more to kill you, do you think you and your killers will be his opponent?

The world is full of crazy people, you are crazy, but some people are even crazier than you, since we are all here to gamble money, how about we also make a bet, if the mysterious king can not kill you before noon tomorrow, I will give you 200 billion. If I can kill you before noon, then I will put a flower on your grave!

Leinster smiled coldly and nodded. He liked this bet very much.

He even said proudly, "The mysterious king you mentioned is indeed very powerful. I also feel that he is very amazing. At least, in all these years, there has never been an assassin who is as outstanding as him,

"If he were on my side, we would definitely make a very good team. My Plan would also be realized ahead of time, and it would be 100% realized. However, if he were on my enemy's side..,

"Then I would definitely kill him without mercy. He isn't worth my attention. Otherwise, I wouldn't have done all of this. Right now, all of you should preserve your physical strength,

"You will have to stay here until 12 O'clock tomorrow. There will be no water, no food, and even no medicine. This may be unacceptable to you rich people,

"As I said, I am in charge here!"

Hakrall also stopped talking. However, he absolutely believed in the mysterious king. The lives of these rich people were in the hands of the mysterious king.

If he was a person with courage and strength, he definitely wouldn't give up on them.

At this moment, Yu Tian had already arrived outside the hotel.

He had been pondering along the way.

The mysterious force behind Leinster definitely couldn't be a member of the family.

This was because the family simply didn't need the money, and the family couldn't do anything that would affect the entire world. If they did, it wouldn't benefit the world, and it wouldn't benefit the Chu family either.

The family definitely wouldn't throw out their own interests and do such risky actions.

As long as they were slightly intelligent, they would definitely not choose to do this.

There must be someone else behind Leinster, and this person was especially familiar with the family, and he could even support him in the name of the family.

So what she needed to do now was to know who the person behind this was?

At that moment, Chu Meng's phone call came in.

Her tone was especially flustered.

"Yu Tian, it seems like a World War is about to break out. In many areas, we've detected some attack signals. These attack signals are from large-scale attack weapons! "

These attack weapons shouldn't have existed in that place before, but after these rich people were kidnapped, these attack signals appeared..,

"According to our radar detection, these tools and weapons are aimed at different locations and different attacking countries. We don't even have any information at the moment,

"We don't even know how these attack weapons appeared there."

When he heard this, Yu Tian frowned. This game was getting more and more interesting, and this riddle was getting harder and harder to guess.

Were they after money, power, or simply wanting to destroy the world.

No matter what, he had to save these rich people first, and then talk about other things.

This was not very difficult for Yu Tian, and it was especially simple.

Almost no killer could stop him. Soon, Yu Tian arrived at the hall and met with Lancaster.

Lance frowned and looked at Yu Tian. He said coldly, "You are the mysterious king. We were supposed to meet in my office, and then I would welcome you to join the Magic Snake Killer Organization. "

"Follow me and realize the plan to dominate the world. Although we are meeting here, I can still send you this invitation. If you agree to join us!"

In the future, you will enjoy endless wealth and splendor. You can even become the most high-ranking person in the world. Like these so-called rich people, they are just some pariahs, in front of you, they will only kneel down and kowtow to you, begging you for a little pity for them. Don't you want all of this? Don't all of this have any temptation for you?

I believe that people are greedy, and you are greedy. In that case, why should we become enemies? If I Were you, I would choose to agree, at least this can let you get a lot of things, not after you refuse, will lose your life!"

Hakrall was afraid that Yu Tian would be convinced by Leicester. At that time, all their hopes would be destroyed, and the world would really be controlled by Leicester.

Thus, just as Leicester finished speaking, hakrall said loudly, "Mysterious

King, don't believe this guy's nonsense. He can't dominate anything. He's just waiting to die here,

"You're the only person in this world who can stop him now. If you can save us all, you'll receive more than what he gives you!"

"And you can save this world. I think you'll definitely make the right choice.

Even if you're a killer, I think you're also a killer with humanity, you 'll never be completely dehumanized, like Lester! "

Chapter 837 – Chapter 836, Destroying The World

When Yu Tian heard this, he smiled indifferently.

What kind of choice did he make? It was not their place to judge.

What was he doing? He knew it very well.

He turned around and looked at lehnst, then slowly closed the necklace around his neck.

When he revealed Yu Tian's face, the whole audience was shocked. Lehnst was so shocked that he could not speak.

So this mysterious king was Yu Tian. No wonder that old assassin said that the movements of the mysterious king and Yu Tian were very similar. At that time, he was still wondering why the mysterious King would participate in this assassin competition?

Now, when he saw Yu Tian, everything was clear. Yu Tian wasn't here to participate in the competition at all. He was here to stop his plan.

Harklarr and the others were even more excited. Although Yu Tian was extremely domineering in certain aspects, one thing was certain. The most powerful man in the world was here at this moment, it was impossible for him to stand together with Leinster. Leinster was like a FooPs dream. His plan was destined to be destroyed by Yu Tian.

As for the so-called rich people, they could leave this place alive without paying a single cent.

At this moment, under everyone's astonished gazes, yu tian calmly said, "So you also want to dominate the world. It seems that our goals are the same! "

"But in this world, there is only one person who can dominate and be the ruler of this world. However, this person definitely can not be you. I am climbing towards this goal, and I will not let anyone stop me! "

Not only you, but also the mysterious person behind you. But I still want to give you a chance. After all, you were once a poor killer, during your time as a killer, you experienced the cruelest and coldest things in this world, but now you have become a person who can forget that time, but you choose to continue, to be a cruel killer, so how can you say this to us?

You are trained by this world, this is clearly your own choice, but I am different from you, I am not a killer, I kill everyone is a damn person, and before I kill these damn people, I will also consider one thing, should I take their lives or not? Because no one in this world can decide the life and death of others, including you and me. We are just a fragile life. Compared to this world, we are even some poor people. Sometimes we have no choice, enduring loneliness and loneliness, struggling in the difficult hardships. The crawlers are like wounded beasts, when we are weak,

"We can only lick our own wounds. Because of this, I have decided to give you a chance. You just have to tell me who the mysterious person behind you is,

"You and your killer can leave this place alive!"

It was not clear what kind of choice Lester wanted to make, but the super killers behind him were all moved by Yu Tian's words.

What Yu Tian said was not wrong at all. What exactly were they pursuing? The moment they became assassins, all of this had been forgotten.

However, at this moment, their memories were awakened once again.

They saw the joy they once had, and even the dream they once pursued. But why did they become assassins? Then, they were abandoned by this world and could only live in darkness and coldness forever.

Some assassins had unknowingly put down their weapons, and some assassins were already in tears.

Yu Tian's words had truly touched the most vulnerable point in their hearts. At least, they knew that they were still human.

However, Lester had never thought of it this way. The hatred in his heart was definitely not something that could be resolved with just a few words.

He did not care about what the other assassins did. Instead, he aimed his weapon directly at Yu Tian's forehead.

"Don't try to change my mind here. Since I have already chosen to do this, this choice will never change. I am grateful for this opportunity that you gave me. I am also very grateful to you for allowing my assassins to listen to your words,

"But killers are killers. Every killer's hand is stained with someone else's blood, and it will never be washed away. Although you're the most powerful person in the world! "

"But now I also want to know whether you're more powerful or my bullets are more powerful! "

Yu Tian did not give him the chance to open fire at all. As soon as he finished speaking, Yu Tian's golden needles had already pierced into his body. In the midst of endless pain, Lester still wanted to commit suicide.

How could Yu Tian give him this chance?

He took a step forward and stepped on Lester's face. He asked coldly, "The choice is actually just an instant. If you had chosen the right one, then you would have left this place alive by now, but you chose to let me step on you. Who should you blame for this? "I think you should blame yourself. I don't want to waste my breath on you now. Who is that person?

"Tell me, you can still live. Otherwise, I will make you suffer ten times, or even a hundred times, and make your life worse than death! "

In the end, Lannister compromised. Pain was unbearable, especially this kind of heart-wrenching pain.

He gritted his teeth and said, "It was Yu Han. He was the one who asked me to do this. Please let me go. I Can't stand this kind of pain anymore! "

So it was this fellow. Previously, he and Chu Hong had joined forces to trick him. In the end, they had not succeeded. Now, he had actually jumped out again. This time, he had played a particularly big game and wanted to control the entire world.

He did not want to control the world at all. Instead, he wanted to control the entire family. In this way, he could get everything he wanted in the cultivation world.

Yu Tian had played this conspiracy very well. However, if he knew about it, the game would be even more exciting.

Yu Tian stretched out his hand and pulled back the golden needle. Leonster panted as he said, "Yu Han wanted me to kidnap these rich people so that the entire world would have their eyes on this place,

"He still has other things to do. If I'm not wrong, he is thinking about how to destroy this world. I don't have any feelings for this world, but I am still grateful that you are able to let me live,

"Can you stop him? That depends on your ability! "

Yu Tian nodded slightly, turned around and said to the tycoons, "You can all leave now, but there's one thing you have to remember. No matter what happens in this world..,

"I hope that you can understand how to make the right choice. Otherwise, you'll be going against me.. Everyone understands! "

Chapter 838 – : Chapter 837, Protecting The World

Yu Tian left with these words and turned to leave.

However, Hacklar took a step forward to stop him and said respectfully, "Mr. Yu Tian, I am very honored to be able to meet you here. At the same time, I am very grateful to you for saving us, if you have any needs, I will go all out to help you. Whether you need funds or people, as long as you tell me what you need, I will give it to you,

"If there is a war in this world, I will stand on your side without hesitation. I believe that everyone here has the same thoughts as me. In the end, I wish you all the best,

"You Can Stop This World War!"

Yu Tian nodded. In this world, there were still many people who could understand what they should or should not do.

But he didn't need their help. If he couldn't even solve this problem, how could he be the strongest person in this world.

He turned around and left the hotel, teleporting back to Sean.

He had to issue some orders here.

But as soon as he arrived at the command center, Chu Meng came in front of him in a panic. She pointed at the Sea of fire on the big screen and said helplessly, "A minute ago, those offensive weapons were launched!"

"At present, most of the world has been destroyed by these weapons, but we don't know who developed these weapons now. "?"

"After they launched, we simply couldn't intercept them. Even part of Sean's area was bombed by them. To put it simply, the entire world was targeted by them. "

According to our analysis, their second round of attack will begin very soon. I have already sent mercenaries and special teams to the area where the weapons were launched. We will destroy as many as we can now., this is all we can do!"

Just as she finished her sentence, Chu Yue suddenly said nervously, "Look, their attack has already begun. This time, their target is the imperial capital of the Eastern kingdom, and it's our family's headquarters! "

Yu Tian immediately came in front of the big screen and frowned as he looked over.

The computer had already calculated the simulated target of the attack weapons, and it was the imperial capital's family's headquarters.

Thinking of this, Yu Tian immediately said coldly, "They want to destroy my family's headquarters. This is simply a dream. Immediately activate all the attack weapons for me! "

"As soon as you find their base, immediately bombard it. Bombard it with destruction! "

After giving this order, Yu Tian directly teleported to the base where the attack was coming from.

At this moment, a large-scale attack weapon was about to be fired at the headquarters of the imperial family. Yu Tian's sudden appearance caused those who were operating the weapon to panic.

Before they could react, Yu Tian had already taken care of them.

However, he did not destroy the weapons. Instead, he took them to the research and development headquarters. He wanted the scientists to immediately study the weapons to see where their weaknesses lay.

As long as they could find their weaknesses, they could intercept the weapons. The world was now in the midst of war. Most of the areas had been destroyed by the weapons.

Countless innocent civilians had lost their lives in the attacks.

The entire world hoped that someone could stop all of this, but they didn't know who would be able to stop it?

Of course, this person was none other than Yu Tian.

He had once wanted to be the king of this world, and he wanted to use his own power to dominate this world.

He had even thought that many innocent people would lose their lives in the process of him dominating this world.

However, this was also inevitable. There was a saying that went especially well:

one would succeed and ten thousand bones would die. This was what it meant.

However, at this moment, Yu Tian's thoughts were completely different from these.

When he saw those innocent people die in the bombing, he suddenly understood a principle.

What he needed to do was not to destroy them, but to protect them.

It was extremely easy to kill someone, but it was extremely difficult to protect someone. Destroying a person's life was something that happened in an instant, but to protect a person's life was something that would last forever.

It was just like the 108 sisters of the Chu family. They were the people that he had to protect forever.

If he wanted them to live happily ever after, he would first have to kill that Yu Han.

Yu Tian returned to the imperial capital and met Yu Han in a very secret manor.

Yu Han knew that Yu Tian would come here, so he had been waiting for him.

At the moment he saw Yu Tian, Yu Han smiled very indifferently and even personally poured a cup of tea for Yu Tian. After that, he said slowly, "I knew that you would definitely come here, so I have been waiting for you all this while! "

"You must want to ask me why I Did This?" 'C I will answer you very simply. You are not the only one who wants to dominate this world, but why must the people from your family support you to dominate this world?"

"You even want to dominate the cultivation world in the future. I feel that this is extremely unfair. Since you can fight for it, I can fight for it as well!"

While you were thinking about how to dominate the world, I had already developed those super weapons. I knew that those weapons wouldn't be able to stop you, but I had never expected that those weapons would be able to stop you, that's why you're standing here now. There's a saying that's right. We used to be brothers, but now we should be enemies. Who will stop me? "Who am I going to kill?"

Yu Tian only smiled coldly and said disdainfully, "You just want to dominate the world, but why do you want to destroy this world? Do you want to be in ruins?

"If I Were you, I definitely wouldn't do that, because only an idiot would do that. Since you want to dominate the world so much, then go dominate it. I definitely won 't fight with you for this, in the end, you still don't understand me, in fact, I don't want to dominate the world, I just want to be a normal person, carefree life, that is what I want, but now you do all this, let me feel very angry, since you said we were once brothers, now are enemies, this also let me eliminate the worry in my heart,

"Let me treat you completely as an enemy. Since you're an enemy, there's no need for me to let you continue to exist. This tea smells quite fragrant, but I don't want to drink it, "Because I want to do something else now! "

Before Yu Han could say anything, Yu Tian was the first to launch an attack. He unleashed his full strength and threw a punch.

Yu Han furrowed his brows tightly. He was completely shocked by Yu Tian's punch.

Yu Tian did not have such high strength previously.. Could it be that he had increased his strength again?

Chapter 839 – Chapter 838 Was Especially Beautiful

Yu Tian's punch not only displayed his own strength, but also his own anger, his disgust for this world, his contempt for the rules of the family, and even his own understanding of pain.

No one could withstand this punch. Even the heavens and earth were trembling. Yu Han originally thought that he could withstand Yu Tian's attack, but in the end, he was still wrong. Just one punch was enough to pierce through his heart.

When he fell to the ground, the unwillingness and intense hatred in his eyes condensed into a cold gaze as he stared at Yu Tian's face.

"Your strength has actually become so powerful now. It seems that everything is destined. There is only one king in this world who can dominate the world. However, from the looks of it now, this person is not me!"

"However, I do not regret being able to die at your hands. At the very least, I have fought for it before. Yu Tian, I hope that after you dominate this world, you will be able to truly be yourself!"

"Actually, you and I are both tools of the family. We don't even have the right to choose. The reason why I want to do this is actually the same as you. I want to break the rules and be free to do what I want to do,

"I don't think there's anything wrong with this. One day, you will definitely dominate the family. I hope so. At least, I can see my shadow in You! "

After saying this, Yu Han closed his eyes without any regrets.

At this moment, Yu Tian's mood was also a little heavy.

What he said was especially true. He was living under the family's rules, and it seemed that he would never be able to be his true self.

Could it be that everything that he wanted to do? Was it all what he wanted?

It seemed that the answer in his heart was definitely not this.

Yu Han had died at his hands, and their bodies flowed with the same blood. Looking at the fresh blood under his feet, Yu Tian felt a sudden chill in his heart.

Today was to kill Yu Han, and perhaps in the future, he would have to kill more people in the family clan who had the same blood as him. However, at that time, would he really be able to do it?

As such, he immediately had a special thought, which was to stop being the family clan's tool and return to his real self.

At that moment, because there were no more attack orders, all the attack weapons in the world instantly quieted down.

Yu Tian found the attack command device and immediately ordered all the attack weapons to immediately start retreating with Yu Han's tone.

The moment all the attack weapons were destroyed, everyone in the world cheered.

Although they did not know who saved their lives, they sincerely thanked this person, the true guardian of the world.

Yu Tian returned to the family's headquarters and called the 108 sisters to his side.

No matter where these sisters were, they had all returned to the family and stood in front of Yu Tian.

Yu Tian slowly stood up and said indifferently, "Sometimes, I pursue too many things and neglect many more precious ones. In fact, I'm standing here and saying that I'm your guardian! "

"But I don't want to do this in my heart. I don't even like some of you here. But for the honor of my family, I have no choice but to be with you!"

Now I don't want to do this, now I want to pursue my own life, I don't want to be a strong man, I don't want to dominate the world, all that is not what I want,

I now give you a choice, willing to follow me, in the future we are family, not willing to follow me, you will not be my enemy,

"But from today onwards, if you're with me, we'll go to a beautiful country and spend the rest of our lives together. If you're not with me, you can choose your own life. I won't blame you,

"If my family wants to make things difficult for you, I'll stop them. If it's great, I'll leave the family. There's nothing to be reluctant about. Now, you can make your own decision!"

The 108 sisters looked at each other in dismay after hearing this.

They did not know why Yu Tian made such a decision, but sometimes, fate could not be changed.

Since they were to be Yu Tian's women forever, this was their fate. They had to make a choice, and they had to acknowledge it.

A year passed in the blink of an eye.

On a particularly pure and beautiful island, there was a large luxurious villa. There was even a bridge across the sea that connected directly to Sean.

In the early morning, Yu Tian woke up in the warm sunshine and stretched his body comfortably.

Suddenly, the ear-piercing ringtone of his phone rang, disturbing Yu Tian's mood.

He took a glance and saw that it was Uncle Long's call.

"Sigh, it seems that this short period of good days is coming to an end. "Yu Tian picked up the phone helplessly. Before he could speak, Uncle Long's anxious voice was heard.

Something has happened. You have to come back quickly. "

"No Way. How long has it been? Do I have to go back?"Yu Tian said gloomily. This kind of life was really too enjoyable.

Uncle Long's tone was a little heavy as he said, "I can't help it. The situation is urgent. I'm afraid that you and the 108 sisters have to return."

"Two private jets are already on their way. They will arrive in an hour. "

"Let's meet and talk about the details. "Yu Tian was speechless. He hung up the phone and told the 108 sisters the news.

Who would have thought that most of the people were actually very happy! What was there to be happy about? It wasn't good to fight and kill. It was life to bask in the Sun every day!

Finally, an hour later, the plane arrived.

In the familiar building.

How long had it been since Yu Tian had returned?

He took a deep breath, exhaled another mouthful of turbid air, and walked into the headquarters.

The moment he entered, he saw the shocked receptionist.

Yu Tian waved at him and said with a smile, "There's no need to make a call. I'll go up myself. "

Yu Tian took out his black card, and all the electronic devices on the way were released to him.

Until he arrived at the office on the top floor.

When uncle long saw that it was Yu Tian who pushed the door open and entered, he hurriedly handed over a set of materials, he anxiously told Yu Tian, "An assassin game organization that appeared out of nowhere actually bypassed the latest Security Council organization that you established and started the auction. It has been live streaming for more than a week and has just finished one round. "

Yu Tian took the materials and naturally sat on the boss's chair. He flipped through the documents in his hands and his expression became more and more solemn. He asked, "Did those rich people place their bets?"

Uncle Long smiled helplessly and said, "That's right. These people are a bunch of people who don't mind a funeral. They are also looking for excitement to make money. Why would they care about this newly formed organization? Did you personally approve of it?"

"Demon Island? Does it have anything to do with country M? I think this first game is demon island? Moreover, the rules can actually carry genetic weapons. Is there a military background of country M in this?"

"The latest information doesn't seem to be there. It seems to be an organization that appeared out of thin air. "

"Alright, Pll go take a look. Book me the latest ticket and fly directly to Alcatraz Island of M Nation. That place has been abandoned for a long time,

"Yes, then according to your instructions, do we need to bring people?"

"There's no need. One person is enough. "M nation, the furthest prison island along the Atlantic coast.

Yu Tian jumped out of the helicopter..

Chapter 840 – Chapter 839, New Organization

The moment Yu Tian landed on Alcatraz.

He signaled the members of the special forces team who were preparing to land in the sky to stop.

Yu Tian opened the walkie-talkie on his chest and ordered, "Helicopter and team, return and drop the buoy communication at the middle position to ensure that I can be tracked by you at any time. A team landing on the island is too big of a target."

A man's voice came from the walkie-talkie, "Yes, number one."

Then, Yu Tian saw Apache in the sky turn around and return.

"Number one? Doesn't uncle long know that I've retired? I remember that I've deleted all my information. Why did he arrange a new codename position for me? ! It's also interesting." Yu Tian couldn't help but ridicule the way the helicopter pilot addressed him, i couldn't help but say,.

At the same time, he began to walk toward the island, which was on the outer edge of Alcatraz, and there was nothing strange about it.

However, according to our Intel, this is the site of a new organization that just hosted a killer competition.

Yu squatted down on a shoreline rock and took out a palm-sized military tablet from his pocket.

As soon as he opened it, he looked up the three-dimensional map. This was the image information that the satellites in the sky had compiled.

Yu Tian could call up all the satellites in the sky belonging to the Eastern kingdom. This was his authority.

Yu Tian did not find too many suspicious points on the three-dimensional electronic map or even the one-meter accuracy of the satellite imaging ground.

Because on the map, no matter how carefully one looked at it, it was a large prison on an abandoned island.

DeviPs Island was the largest offshore prison in the M Nation in the last century, or even the beginning of this century.

This place imprisoned the most vicious criminals, and it also imprisoned disobedient scientists that the M Nation did not want to let go.

At this time, Yu Tian zoomed in on a lighthouse in the southeast corner of the screen. He found something strange on the top of this lighthouse.

From the satellite view, this lighthouse on the southeast coast was still lit up in the afternoon.

If it was a lighthouse on the coast of other places, it would not be strange for it to be lit up at this time.

But this prison that had been abandoned for at least a few decades was still lit

This was the biggest doubt!

Yu Tian put away the tablet and took out something that looked like a draft paper. On It was a crude road map, but to Yu Tian, who was well-prepared, it was detailed enough.

These were some secret entrances and exits of Demon Island. Yu Tian planned to sneak in from these places.

He didn't plan to go through the main entrance.

When he came in the Apache, he had flown at a low altitude and skimmed the sea. He had also turned off the electronic communication and turned on the electronic shield. Even if there was radar detection here, he wouldn't be noticed when he came.

Moreover, he had taken the steepest backside glide of the pirates here.

No one would notice, no one would notice.

Half an hour later.

Yu Tian climbed over the rocky cliff on the back of Devil Island with his bare hands, and then came to the entrance of an underground drainage pipe.

This pipe was as tall as a man, and it was so wide when the two of them stretched their hands apart.

Perhaps it was because it had been abandoned for a long time, or perhaps it was for other reasons.

Yu Tian took out a dagger from his pocket and held it in his hand. Without hesitation, he went straight into the drainage pipe.

At the same time, he took out a miniature earpiece and put it into his ear. He connected it to the communicator on his chest and turned on the flashlight that came with the communicator. Then, he quickly went into the drainage pipe.

When Yu Tian had been walking for more than ten minutes, he suddenly heard a faint sound coming from in front of him.

This made him switch off the flashlight in front of him vigilantly. Then, he touched the darkness and started to feel inside bit by bit.

His footsteps were light, and the screen owner was breathing. He did not make any sound at all.

Just like that, as he slowly advanced forward, he heard a voice, a man's voice.

"Hey, do you guys think that we can really get this month's money?"

The voice was not loud, but it came from above Yu Tian's head.

Above his head was a hollow net-shaped manhole cover.

Then, another voice was heard. It was also a man.

"Don't worry, didn't you see? Today, the warden received a plane full of money. Oh My God, I've never seen so much money in my life. It's said that it's all money that those rich people lost to the bookmakers!"

"I knew it. At that time, the warden rescued us from country M's military prison. He must have wanted to bring us to make money! "

"That's right, who is the warden?" "If Black Gold Company was seriously injured after the fall of the young master of the Magic Snake Assassin, then in the entire world, other than the Chu family of the eastern country, only our warden can organize such a competition and bring our brothers to make big money together! "

"Hehe, as long as we can make money, I love money. "

"Kid, there's money to be made. Let's fix the surveillance here first and then go to the lower base to eat."

"Okay, okay. "

Yu Tian listened to the conversation above his head. At this moment, he caught a few useful pieces of information.

There was indeed a new assassin competition here, and it was not under the management of Uncle Long, which he had authorized.

Nowadays, every country in the world, whether it was on the ground or underground, had to agree to host such a competition through the authorization of three organizations and participate in the distribution of dividends.

One was under the management of uncle long, the "East Dragon" company that had just been established not long after the reshuffle of the Magic Snake Company.

The other was the Security Council that Yu Tian had personally called the heads of various countries to set up together before he retired.

The last one required the consent of the eastern country, and it could not be held in the eastern country.

The rules of these three organizations were all arranged by Yu Tian before he retired, one by one, for the sake of stability in the future.

However, today, a completely unknown organization had suddenly appeared out of nowhere.

It had even been successfully held once!

When Yu Tian thought of this, he could not help but understand why uncle long had called him back in such a hurry.

A few minutes later, Yu Tian heard the footsteps above his head gradually fade away.

He took out a small gadget the size of a pinky finger and threw it through the mesh manhole cover above his head.

Then, he heard a soft sound that sounded like an electric shock.

Only then did Yu Tian easily step on the wall of the pipeline. He jumped up, opened the manhole cover on top of his head, and climbed up.

After putting the manhole cover back into place, Yu Tian looked up at a surveillance camera not far ahead of him. It had completely lost its light and was completely black.

If one looked carefully, they would find that there was a thumb-sized black gadget on the front end of the camera.

It seems to be some sort of miniature electronic device..

Chapter 841 – Chapter 840. Who Was The Warden?

Yu Tian walked along the passage above and arrived behind an iron door. After taking a look inside, he quietly stepped aside and clenched the dagger in his hand.

He heard footsteps and two impatient voices behind the door.

"What bad luck. Didn't you just fix it?"

"Sigh, I'm too lazy to say. Hurry up and open the door. Let's take a look."

"Okay."

With a creak, the rusty iron door was slowly pulled open.

Two men dressed in light yellow prison uniforms and two yellow coats walked through the iron door with toolboxes.

In an instant, a black shadow flashed past their eyes!

The two men were stunned. Their bodies froze and their eyes widened in shock.

They lowered their heads in disbelief. Drops of blood dripped down from their chins and eventually turned into puddles of blood that flowed down their clothes.

In the next moment, the two men stretched out their hands in extreme pain and covered their necks almost at the same time.

The toolbox on their shoulders also fell to the ground with a thud, making a sound.

No matter how hard they covered their necks, the blood that gushed out crazily still soaked their clothes and dyed them red.

In the next moment, the painful expression completely turned into a dull one.

Then, the two of them fell to the ground with a thud.

Dead, just like that.

As for the black figure, it was Yu Tian. He stood to the side with a dagger in his hand.

Then, he quickly threw the two corpses into the sewer through the open manhole cover.

He also took off one of the men's jacket and pants and swiftly changed into it.

As for the radio communicator, it was stored in Yu Tian's chest pocket.

Just like that, Yu Tian also took away their walkie-talkies, which looked like big brother devices.

He carried the toolbox and removed the tiny electronic interference device "Fly" from the front of the monitor.

In an instant, the light from the restored monitor began to rotate.

As for Yu Tian, he kept his head down and pretended to squat down to pack the toolbox.

At this moment, a man's impatient voice came from the walkie-talkie that Yu Tian had taken from the two men. "Hurry up and get back here. Seriously, you can't even fix it. "

After saying that, he immediately hung up the call.

The only sound coming from the walkie-talkie was the crackling sound of electricity.

He turned off the walkie-talkie.

Yu Tian lowered his head and started to open the iron door. He then closed it and walked inside.

He originally thought about whether he should wear a mask, but when he saw a guy with a gun standing guard in front of him, who was also a yellow man, he realized that there was no need for him to do so.

Because this guy must have smoked something, and he was still crazily banging his head against the wall.

Yu Tian took a few turns along the street, and along the way, he met many people. They were all wearing the uniform of a light yellow tank top, a yellow jacket, and yellow pants.

Among these people, Yu Tian noticed the type of person who was obviously an assassin. He also saw the mercenaries who held guns in their hands all year round. He even saw that their limbs were very thick, they were not normal people at all Strong Men!

Yu Tian saw some clues about this type of person with just a glance.

A person who had been genetically modified!

Yu Tian remembered that during his retirement and vacation days, a pair of sisters from the Chu family had specially brought this technology over for him to take a look.

They said that uncle long wanted to nurture a type of genetic warrior, and they asked if he would agree to it.

Without saying anything else, Yu Tian directly rejected them. Then, he tossed uncle long a phone number.

He asked Uncle Long to look for an old master. That person knew ancient martial arts.

Yu Tian had once thought that his golden needles might not only be as simple as martial arts, but might even be of the ancient martial arts lineage.

However, since he had already retired, Yu Tian did not probe further.

Today, he encountered such genetically modified humans again. Yu Tian discovered the abnormalities in their bodies, and at the same time, he also noticed that some abnormal parts of their bodies would appear unnaturally.

Either their bodies were as strong as cows, or they didn't have an eye at all, or they could even grow 20 fingers on their hands.

For such people, Yu Tian needed to call them genetically modified soldiers. This technology had once come from country M, and it seemed to have been banned.

However, Yu Tian didn't expect to meet them here.

At this moment, he believed even more in the information shown on the materials Uncle Long had given him. This new organization had used genetic weapons on a large scale in order to modify their killers and soldiers.

Yu Tian walked to a spacious inner prison.

It was divided into five levels, and on both sides were narrow prison cells.

In the middle was an empty space and passage.

Above his head was a ceiling made of steel plates. This seemed to be a prison area.

However, Yu Tian discovered that there were people dressed like him living in the cells around this place. However, there were no prison doors, and there were even electric lamps and water dispensers. Some of them even had a small television, the television was broadcasting their favorite programs.

Most of them were male channels from the M Nation.

At this moment, all the cells were open. Some were occupied, some were not. There were also many people scattered on both sides.

Yu Tian secretly recorded everything.

He needed more information to know what was going on here.

He was just waiting for an opportunity to grab his tongue.

He was just waiting for an opportunity to grab his tongue.

Finally, he saw a skinny bald man walk into a relatively hidden cell. That seemed to be his territory.

Moreover, his cell door was actually a completely sealed iron door. There wasn't a single hole.

Yu Tian walked over quickly. Along the way, no one questioned him.

It was obvious that the people here had just gathered not long ago.

This could be seen from the fact that Yu Tian was not questioned.

The bald man was about to apply some foam to shave himself.

However, he did not expect someone to stand behind him through the mirror in front of him.

The bald man looked at the person in the mirror and said in bewilderment, "Are you a mechanic? You guys go to your own tool room and stay there. Don't come to your father's territory! "

However, the person behind the Bald Man didn't move at all. It was as if he didn't waver at all.

Just as the Bald Man was about to lose his temper, the cell door behind him was closed.

Three minutes later.

Yu Tian walked out of the cell. When he closed the cell door, he glanced at the cell.

A bald man's head was twisted and stuffed into the extremely narrow shoe cabinet.

The bald man had no breath and no life..

Chapter 842 – Chapter 841, Cass

Yu Tian acted as if he was one of the people here. He casually took out a cigarette from his pocket. It was found on the guy in the shoe cabinet.

It was a type of cigarette from country M.

Yu Tian lit one, took a puff, and looked around, he said in a low voice, "Warden, a traitor of Country M's military. The exact name is unknown, but it belongs to the organization that organizes killer competitions here. This organization, they call it the Clone Society."

Ten seconds later, uncle Long's voice sounded in Yu Tian's left ear. "We've checked, but we have no idea who this warden is. Either the M Nation is hiding it, or this identity is fake. As for the Clone Society, we do have some information. They seem to be a group of people from Europa, and they have some connections with some of the rich there."

Yu Tian exhaled a mouthful of smoke and said, "Alright, let's continue to investigate. As for the M Nation, they must be hiding something and are directly pressuring the imperial capital. I feel that the things cultivated in this place and the competitions are not as simple as making money. I suspect that they are coming for our eastern country. The leaders must also know that it is not the case."

"Yes, yes. Okay, I'll do it right away. Do you want to withdraw now?"

Yu Tian looked at the group of people around him, he chuckled and replied, "No, I plan to play around. Besides, I haven't checked it out yet. According to what you said, a new match is going to start soon. It's at this place."

"Yes, there's a small one tonight. They call it the individual challenge tournament! They say it one by one. They play quite a lot. "

"They really act like they're here for the money. "

"Isn't That So?" "For the money, there's no need for genetic warriors."

"Yes, I understand."

After uncle long stopped talking, Yu Tian walked toward the entrance of a prison cell a few steps away from him.

Then, he passed a cigarette to a tall and thin man standing there and asked with a smile, "Bro, where did you get this?"

This was a white man with tattoos all over his face. Judging from his age, he looked to be about 27 or 28 years old. His hands were full of calluses from fighting on the streets all year round. However, what Yu Tian was interested in was the string of Buddhist beads on his hands, on it, there were also some mysterious sanskrit-like characters, which seemed to be scriptures.

Such a combination! was really magical.

However, Yu Tian recognized this thing. It came from a temple in India, which specialized in training monks to kill people.

Different from the monks in the Eastern kingdom, the monks in this place were all killers who didn't care about anything.

As for what he cultivated, it was also martial arts, which was different from the eastern kingdom 's martial arts.

This brother first glanced at Yu Tian, but didn't find anything strange.

After all, Yu Tian's casual appearance and his unique unruly temperament really did not seem like a good person who did not belong here!

After taking the cigarette, he took Yu Tian's fire and lit it himself. At the same time, he replied indifferently, "Cass, England, class five felony. Robbed three banks and killed more than a dozen people. What About You?"

Yu Tian thought about it for a moment. He looked at the reinforced concrete ceiling above his head, he said slowly, "My name is Yu Tian. I have no nationality. Who Did you kill? Uh! it seems to be too many. There must be countless of them. However, they were all people who deserved to be killed. I was killed until my hands went soft. "Oh right, I don't know what crime they committed because no one can judge me. "

Cass was stunned when he heard that. He looked at Yu Tian who was beside him. After he took a deep look at him, he actually frowned and said extremely seriously, "I believe that you have what my teacher said a baleful aura! "

When Yu Tian heard that, he looked at the Buddha bead on his left hand and smiled, "From the Indian Rudra Temple?"

Cass was a little nervous. At this moment, a vigilant look appeared on his face.

When Yu Tian saw him making fun of him, he said, "Don't be nervous. I've killed people there. Of course, Pm not a monk like you. Even if I were, you're not my match. " a lot!

Cass was silent. After a while, he smoked and nodded, "I believe that there's only sincerity in your eyes. Sincerity is proof that you've killed a lot of people!

Yu Tian extinguished the cigarette in his hand and threw it down. Then, he pointed at an underground staircase and asked, "What's that?"

Cass looked deeply at Yu Tian next to him. This time, he looked at Yu Tian for a long time, then, he answered, "The underground base was built half a year in advance by the warden. The island here is connected to the depths of this place. This place is close to the coastline, so the seawater is not very deep. It can be excavated to build an underground base."

Yu Tian nodded slightly and asked, "The competition is below, right?"

"Not necessarily. What kind of competition is it? If it's a hunting competition, like the one that was just held, it would be about sealing off the entire demon island. We would patrol, monitor, and guard it. Then, we would let the participating assassins hunt and kill each other until the top five appear. This way, we can expand the scope of the bet to win. The people who bet would be more interested and feel that the odds of winning are greater, so they would be more willing to bet heavily. "

After Yu Tian heard this, he looked at Cass and smiled, "You know quite a lot."

"I was ranked fifth in the match just now. "

The corners of Yu Tian's mouth curled up slightly as he asked, "And then you stayed here?"

"Yes, the killers are not as stable as the guards here. Moreover, I need a backer. "

Yu Tian took out a new cigarette. This time, he did not smoke. Instead, he looked at Cass beside him and spoke with an extremely serious tone, he said coldly to him, "Take this cigarette. Your boss is me. If you refuse this cigarette, I will kill you immediately. Moreover, no one here will know that I killed you. " Hearing this, Cass was shocked and said in disbelief, "What are you talking about? How!

However, before Cass could finish his words, a dagger had already been pressed against the side of his waist.

The cold and sharp tip of the dagger was pressed against his waist. If this dagger wanted to stab him directly, he would immediately die here.

However, what surprised Cass the most was that this time, he did not feel any hint of danger or killing intent like before. He did not even feel it at all.

This represented an extremely terrifying reality!

For an assassin like him, this man called Yu Tian had already integrated his killing intent into his daily routine.

It was as if it did not exist.

Moreover, the movements of his movements were completely silent, making it impossible for anyone to notice even a little bit.

At this moment, Cass looked at Yu Tian in a daze. His gaze fell on the kind and smiling face that was looking at him.

The next moment, Cass took the cigarette and lit it with a slight tremble. He asked, "How? What are you going to do?"

Yu Tian withdrew his dagger and answered casually, "Grab that Warden and stuff his head into the toilet to wash it.. "

Chapter 843 – : Chapter 842, Underground Base

Cass took a deep puff of his cigarette. He felt that he had met an extraordinary "Mysterious figure" today!

Yu Tian believed in Cass. There was no reason. If there was a reason, it was because he saw in Cass'eyes the kind of expectant gaze that he often saw in the assassin company. It was a gaze that wanted to live and change his life.

It was a kind of hope that was ignited. Yu Tian knew about the expectations for the future because he had seen too much.

He was willing to give Cass this opportunity, but whether he grasped it or not was his own business.

Now it seemed that he had grasped it. Just now, he had also brushed past the Grim Reaper.

Yu Tian walked forward. At the same time, he whispered to Cass, "Let's go. Follow me. We'll go to the underground base."

Cass did not hesitate and followed them. He did not know why, but he trusted this person very much.

Because he had seen what his teacher had told him about this person called Yu Tian.

This kind of person was definitely not an ordinary person!

Just as Yu Tian was about to enter the underground stairs.

"Hey, you two? Wait! You want to go down? Go to the main door at the back.

This place is temporarily closed."

An inappropriate voice came from behind Yu Tian and Yu Tian.

A fat man with limbs as strong as wooden pillars walked towards Yu Tian and Yu Tian with heavy steps.

Yu Tian turned around and looked at the guy in front of him who looked like a Japanese sumo wrestler with a strange look on his face.

That was because the dead fat man in front of him was not a yellow man, but a white man.

However, this figure and his sturdiness were clearly the kind of person who practiced sumo wrestling.

Could it be that this was a white man who had gone to Japan to practice sumo wrestling?

Cass whispered beside Yu Tian, "This is a team leader here who is responsible for the safety of this area. He is a person from M nation. However, he was drugged with some strange drugs. He also practiced sumo wrestling in Japan before. " "What's his name?"

"Locke."

Locke came to Yu Tian not far away. He first glanced at Yu Tian before looking at Cass impatiently. He asked, "You just joined us not long ago. Why are you still thinking of becoming an assassin?"

Cass glared at the damn fatty with disdain and said, "Why do you care about me? Besides, this is the way to the underground base. It is already night time. Shouldn't I follow my friend down for dinner?"

"Your Friend?" Locke glanced at Yu Tian and didn't find anything strange. He probably couldn't think of anything wrong with his brain. He just glanced at Yu

Tian and gave up.

It seemed that in his eyes, Cass was the one who was extremely dangerous.

At this time, Yu Tian also received confirmation from Locke that Cass had indeed just joined.

From the looks of it, he was really the fifth place in the previous assassin competition.

Locke warned Cass, "Now that we listen to the Warden's orders, it will gradually become a normal state. We have to follow the rules. In this passage, other than s-rank personnel, no other personnel can enter. As for you guys, you are only d-rank personnel."

Cass took a few steps forward and walked in front of Locke. He raised his head and looked at the Fat Man who was like a small mountain. He grinned and stared at Locke with a cold smile.

Cass's smile made the tattoo on his face make him look very ferocious, like a devil.

Cass was not afraid at all and stuck to Locke's stomach. He reached out a hand and pointed at his face, he threatened angrily, "You, that's right, it's still you, Locke. If you don't want me to tear open your stomach and dig out all your intestines, then immediately, get out of my way. I'm going to take a shortcut down here because I'm hungry! "I don't want to stand here and use your intestines to fill up my stomach later, do you understand?"

Locke was more than two meters tall. He lowered his head and looked at Cass, who looked like a lunatic. He felt a sense of fear in his heart.

At this moment, all the busybodies gathered around. Some were on the upper floors, and some were on the lower floors.

"Shh, Shh, Shh!"

"woo, woo, woo!"

"WAAA, WAAA, WAAA, fight! "

"Hurry up and dig out his stomach! Hurry up, Hurry Up! "

"Cass, you coward, you're a man of your word!"

"District Five's supervisor, Locke, is angry. Our squad leader is angry.

Ahahahaha. "

"Hahahaha, Hurry Up!"

Strange screams, whistles, and jeers were all incessant. The people here were a group of complete lunatics or lunatics.

Locke frowned and stared at Cass who was staring at him. In the end, he took a step back, suppressing his anger, he pointed at Locke and said, "You'd better get lost and eat your food. I'll get the surveillance team to keep an eye on you and the short yellow monkey beside you! "

"Don't worry, cute little fatty. I'll definitely have a good time eating! "Cass said as he gave Locke a middle finger.

When Yu Tian followed Locke into the underground staircase, there was a guy in black standing guard in front of a door.

When he saw that it was Cass, he teased, "You'd better work hard to become an S-rank officer. Otherwise, in three days, you won't be able to copy this shortcut. "

Cass gave him a middle finger as well, and then pushed open the heavy iron door.

Yu Tian saw the electronic equipment on the iron door that had not been installed yet.

It seemed that the warden really wanted to completely transform this place.

The so-called underground base was more like an underground square that was divided into several districts.

In this place, other than sending out special rooms, there was only one large restaurant.

These districts were one after another, and most of them were where the killer competition took place.

The individual competition district, the double competition district, and even the team competition district.

As for the special hunting competition, that was the entire demon island.

Along the way, there were different guards from the higher-ups. There were fully armed guards here.

Every one of them was a professional mercenary, and they were all wearing explosion-proof uniforms.

Seeing Yu Tian observing these guys.., cass told him in a low voice, "They are all soldiers brought by the warden. They seem to be members of the Clone Society. As for this clone society, I really don't know where they came from or what exactly they are! Some people say that they are a chamber of Commerce, some say that they are an illegal terrorist base, and some say that they are actually people supported by the M country's military background, but they don't seem to be the same."

Yu Tian listened to Cass 'narration, and his gaze fell on the armbands of the soldiers.

It was a rotten human face!

And it seemed to be a man.

The Clone Society?

Yu Tian began to recall the information he knew bit by bit.

But it seemed to be very, very little, not much more than what Uncle Long had told him.

It really was a brand-new force..

Chapter 844 – : Chapter 843, Warden

Cass led Yu Tian all the way to the canteen.

Yu Tian felt strange and asked, "Are you really hungry?"

Cass shook his head and said, "No, the warden will appear here. He will usually come to this area at this time to check it out. There are regional team leaders like Locke in every area. He is very assured."

Yu Tian spread his hands and teased, "He is so assured that he let me fish in troubled waters like this. Then he really trusted the wrong person."

Cass'expression darkened. He glanced at Yu Tian and said in a low voice, "You are not an ordinary person."

"Could you be?"

Cass:"!"

Cass shook his head again. He suddenly felt that this man from the eastern country in front of him was really calculating everything. He did not even suspect that this man had actually seen through some of his thoughts, it was just like him standing in front of this person called Yu Tian. It was as if he had seen through all of his bones and internal organs.

Yu Tian was like a manipulator who could grasp the thoughts of a person who was in a "Desperate situation."

As he walked along the underground base, Yu Tian carefully recorded everything around him.

As for the so-called canteen, it was no different from eating at a university. Thinking about it, this place used to be a prison.

Before Yu Tian could do anything, Cass brought him a plate of rice with bacon and beef, as well as a cup of coke.

As for Cass, he was chewing on a piece of black bread and drinking a cup of milk, with a plate of mashed potatoes beside his hand.

Yu Tian looked around and carefully observed the people passing by. Among them were a group of base soldiers armed with guns and wearing explosion-proof uniforms. These guys all wore masks that looked like desert camouflage, it seemed to be made from the material of a new technological veil that could filter out toxic gases.

From this point, Yu Tian was even more convinced that there was no wealthy chamber of commerce behind this place. It had to be a country, and it had to be a poor country like some small countries on the African continent.

It had to be a rich country with some strength. Otherwise, just the explosion-proof clothes, guns, and the new gas-filtering masks that the soldiers here were equipped with! were not simple goods.

As if he saw the doubt in Yu Tian's eyes, Cass ate his food, he told him softly, "Although I don't know the exact origin of the Kronin Society, what I do know is that the last time I participated in the competition, a special team came here. Looking at their attire and armbands, it seems to be the Navy SEAL Team of the M Nation's military."

"Navy SEAL Team?" Yu Tian frowned. "You mean the Navy SEAL Team of the M Nation's West Coast?"

Cass nodded with certainty.

At this time, it was Yu Tian's turn to be confused about the situation.

It seemed that he had been on vacation for more than a year, and many things had changed too quickly.

The M Nation was still the M Nation after all. It was such a big country, and the power of the country that he controlled was more than enough to do something.

However, Yu Tian would not make such a simple conclusion.

Even if he saw so many genetically modified soldiers here.

He would not believe a simple deduction and get the result.

It was not that the most complicated problems were the simplest. It was that he had encountered something that did not belong here.

For example, the person in front of him was Cass.

He was a monk from the Indian country's Dragora temple who specialized in killing and practicing martial arts.

Yu Tian could even sense something from him that only assassins who were proficient in martial arts had qi.

It seemed that ancient martial arts had appeared!

Yu Tian's own golden needle was an ancient martial arts technique, but he had yet to thoroughly study it.

An ear-piercing alarm bell suddenly rang!

"Ding Ling Ling! "

"Ding Ling Ling! "

The continuous alarm bell rang throughout the entire underground base, and Yu Tian even suspected that it had reached the top.

The moment the people here heard the sound of the bell, they all stopped what they were doing.

At the same time, they all stood up and looked at the white door at the end of the area.

Yu Tian also stood up. He would do as Cass said.

At this time, he also noticed a group of people who were dressed up. They were neither base soldiers nor guards in prison uniforms.

These people each had their own style of dressing, as if they were all kinds of people who came here to travel.

There were about thirty people in this group, and they were located in the back corner on the left side of the dining area.

When they heard the bell, they were also the only group of people who were scattered. They only put down the things in their hands after a while and slowly stood up.

Cass saw that Yu Tian was observing this group of people, and after taking a look.., he explained for him, "They are the new batch. Some of the assassins who came here today to participate in the individual competition are from mercenary companies, some are from assassin companies, and some are idle people who don't know their origins. "

After hearing what Cass said, Yu Tian's guess was right.

This group of people were indeed here to participate in the game competition.

After one round, all of them were men, and most of them were white.

It seemed that the assassin competition organized by this new force had not spread to a large area.

For the time being, it seemed to be only in country M, which was North America.

However, the people around Cass were all from England. Thinking about it, the only area that could still spread to was probably Europa! no matter how one looked at it, it was still in the west.

For now, Yu Tian was slightly relieved about this point.

There were some things that you could organize, but you could not play on his territory.

This was one of Yu Tian's overbearing points.

Creak.

The sound of a large door being pushed open could be heard.

Yu Tian looked towards the sound and saw that it was the front door at the end of the road, which was the direction they had come from.

However, before they came, they had gone to the left side of the small door, but now, the door was being pushed open.

A group of base soldiers walked in neatly and lined up on both sides.

And behind them, a person was slowly walking in.

It was a man who was completely wrapped in a black leather coat and wore a large black gentleman's hat on his head.

This was a man who was more than two meters tall, had a broad body, but was not fat, and had a very livid face.

This guy was stepping on a pair of big boots that looked like steel nails hitting the soles of his shoes.

When he walked on the marble floor here, he would even make the sound of metal hitting the ground.

Looking at this person, Cass said with fear in his eyes, "Warden."

Yu Tian looked at this guy with a sharp gaze and hidden killing intent!

Chapter 845 – Chapter 844, Simply Killing People

No one knew the name of the warden. Cass only knew that everyone called him the warden.

As for Yu Tian, he quietly transmitted the photo back through the photo-taking device in front of the radio communication.

Uncle Long's voice rang in his ears, with confusion, he said, "Yu Tian, there's a problem. We can't find out the global appearance of this person at all. Our hackers have already accessed the database of the population of various countries. Even after using supercomputers, we still can't find anyone who is more than 80% similar to this person."

"Mm," Yu Tian replied softly, and Uncle Long fell silent as well.

However, the warden had already walked into this area, even to the central area. He then took a loudspeaker from a soldier in the base, a hand-held megaphone.

The warden opened his mouth and said, "Tonight, this place will welcome a small appetizer, a solo arena competition for assassins."

This was something that everyone knew. No one had any extra emotions.

But it was precisely this kind of reaction..., the warden suddenly added,

"However, the customers feel that playing this way is too monotonous, so they plan to play this game here. Yes, in this canteen. From now on, the surveillance cameras around us will be converted into live broadcast equipment! "Oh, right, I forgot to tell you that the surveillance cameras here were all switched to high-definition cameras an hour ago, so that the customers can see your miserable state better."

The Warden's voice was very low and extremely turbid, as if something was stuffed in his throat.

It made people not feel that he was talking, but that he was using his voice to shout out these words that were filled with hostility.

Killing, simple and direct killing!

It was brought up by such a fellow.

Everyone present was stunned at first. Then, a man who was eating and wearing that strange uniform, that was the prison uniform..., he asked in astonishment, "We! do we count as well? Warden?"

The warden took the loudspeaker and gave him a strange laugh.

Needless to say, even Yu Tian knew that it was definitely the case.

At this moment, the surrounding base soldiers began to pick up their assault rifles in unison, and the sound of their guns being loaded could be heard.

The base soldiers' guns were all aimed at Yu Tian and the others, including the group of people in the corner who were supposed to participate in the individual arena killer competition today.

Other than the killers who had come to participate in the competition, there were only about twenty or so minions guarding the place.

Of course, Yu Tian was one of them.

Yu Tian could not help but laugh. He gently used his arm to sway Cass who was beside him, he teased, "It seems that you guards can be discarded at any time. Why are you going downstairs for a meal and being treated as lab rats? Tell me, are we going to die this time, my new underling?"

Cass didn't know how the Easterner beside him could be so relaxed and casual?

From the moment he entered to the moment he offered him a cigarette and even told him his purpose, he was completely like an innocent person. This made Cass wonder if there was something wrong with his brain. Did he really think that he was here for a vacation?

Then why did he say that he wanted to use the warden's head to wash the toilet?

This guy was not a normal person at all.

Cass was in despair because at this moment, he realized that the warden was a complete lunatic. He gradually retreated under the protection of his base's soldiers.

The most fatal point was that he found that the guards who almost came in to eat just a second ago, like him, had all stopped their plans to enter the cafeteria in this area. What was even more shameless was that.., after surviving the disaster, they squatted at the open door and stood there, watching with anticipation and excitement.

"Hehehe, look, look, look, that Cass, that Cass!"

"Yo yo yo, look, and that group of hungry guys, now they deserve it, right?"

hehehe. "

"I won't eat. I'll just eat their flesh and blood, Haha."

"Get out of my way, you son of a bitch! I want to watch these people die! "

"One of them even dared to take a cigarette from me just now. Now I'll see how you die."

"For God's sake, I will take their belongings, such as watches, even! their own things. "

"Shh, Shh, Shh!"

"Whoo-hoo-hoo, whoo-hoo-hoo! "

The Purr of the door and the quietness of the dining room at the moment were like two different worlds.

Yu Tian then noticed that the surveillance cameras were all pointed at them.

Yu Tian felt something he had not felt for a long time the live broadcast of the killer competition began.

"Hoo-hoo!"

Yu Tian calmly half-closed his eyes and began to breathe. He held a golden needle in one hand.

At this moment, the space was incomparably quiet. Other than Yu Tian's breathing, one could not hear a single sound.

Cass looked at the person beside him and asked, "You also know yoga?"

It was no wonder that Cass would ask this question. After all, he was a graduate of the Dragora Temple in India.

Yu Tian smiled and said, "No, Pm just preparing to kill."

Cass was stunned when he heard that. He definitely believed that Yu Tian was not joking. Because in Yu Tian's current body, he saw a calm composure that seemed to be able to kill countless people with just a raise of his hand.

Yu Tian asked, "Are you afraid?"

Cass said, "By the god of Brahman, I am with God. " "He really is a killer monk trained by the Hindu Temple. "

"I was born to kill my own mother."

Yu Tian said, "Uh! There's no need to go into such detail."

The soldiers of the base retreated to the entrance one after another. The moment the door closed, a soldier kicked a guard away, he even scolded fiercely, "Get lost and go back to your place. The canteen is not accepting people at this time. Of course, we can let you all in now."

The guard quickly ran away with his tail between his legs. The moment the door closed.

The moment the door closed, the entire canteen was divided into two groups. The minions like Yu Tian were also the guards who were unlucky enough to come to eat.

The first group was the group of killers.

Just as Yu Tian was thinking about what kind of game it was to keep a group of people here.

The sound of music was originally playing in the cafeteria, the Warden's unpleasant voice rang out, "Hey, my children, every fifteen minutes, you will be injected with a nerve agent. Of course, it will only be a small, undamaged one! And every six hours, you will be given some surprises. As for eating? This is the cafeteria, right? I think you will definitely have food. Of course, the chefs have already left, and before they came out, all the ingredients were sprinkled with a lovely corrosive poison.. Children, the killer competition Begin! "

Chapter 846 – Chapter 845, The Slaughter Began

Fifteen minutes ago.

No one moved. Everyone split into two groups and just watched.

Then, when the first wisp of nerve gas came out through the exhaust pipe at the top, everyone covered their noses in unison.

Of course, there were also some who didn't need it. It seemed that these people could solve this problem by holding their breath.

Including Cass and Yu Tian, Yu Tian could hold his breath, and Cass seemed to have a way to breathe in.

Cass held a knife that looked like a Mitsubishi army spike in his hand and carefully looked at the people who were affected by the poison gas.

The skin of these people began to turn red, and their eyes were full of blood-red, as if they had been drugged by a drug between a man and a woman.

However, this poison was not, but a nerve agent that caused hallucinations and mania.

"Ah! ! ! I Can't stand it. All of You are ghosts, all of You Are Ghosts!"

A man cried out in fear and unease.

Following that, a few others suddenly turned towards their companions and shouted like crazy. They used their weapons and stabbed their companions crazily into their bodies. As they stabbed, they also shouted, it was hard to hear which language they were speaking. The surrounding brothers were splashed with blood and were so shocked that they retreated.

"F * ck! F * ck! They're all crazy!"

"Don't come near me? Get lost! "

"Move, move, I want to go out. A bunch of lunatics, Pm not playing anymore. Pm just a criminal thief. Pd rather go back to prison. I don't want to stay on this island anymore."

"I'll kill you! "

First, it was the minions 'Guards. Their morale was unstable, and this group of people, who looked like they were not strong-willed, began to panic.

As for the assassin group, they were indeed here to kill and make money. They immediately covered their noses and mouths, then revealed their weapons. There was even a guy who had one hand and the entire arm was a weapon, a long military spike.

It was not the first time Yu Tian had seen an assassin who had transformed one of his hands into a weapon.

This group of people was here to make money for the assassin. As long as they could make money, they were willing to do anything.

This was also a kind of naivety. The naivety of humans was so simple that they only wanted to kill and earn money. They wouldn't think about anything else.

At this moment, the killers seemed to have received a command. They all tore off a piece of cloth from their upper body clothes.

They wetted it with water on the spot and wore it as a mask on their faces.

Moreover, anyone who got close to them, as long as they weren't from their group of killers, would be killed on the spot.

As for those who "Went crazy" among them, they were merciless. They were all killed and thrown to the side.

Yu Tian and Cass retreated to a corner.

A guard who suddenly rushed over was stabbed in the throat by Cass before Yu Tian could make a move.

Even the blood did not splash on Yu Tian's body.

After a while, those who did not breathe in the poison gas would not breathe in either. However, the people who were alive were divided into several small groups in this huge canteen.

There was one in each direction. They were an assassin group, a group led by a bald man, five Asians, and a group of white men with tattooed dragons on their left arms.

"All of them are men?" Yu Tian did not see a woman, or a woman that looked like a woman, other than a ladyboy with a mustache and a pair of sissy tights.

Cass said, "I haven't seen a woman in almost half a year." "In a world where men kill, don't they need women?"

"No! I've been running for my life."

Yu Tian smiled but did not say anything. He was very satisfied with this new follower of his.

He was calm and decisive.

Such a person was very suitable for a new organization that he planned to establish.

He had retired on vacation for a year. During this period of time when he disappeared, he was really restless.

It seemed that he had not made enough preparations back then. He still had to make some backup plans.

Just like that, Cass and Yu Tian, who were a group of two people, were standing on a wall at the side, guarding a vending machine. They were immediately targeted by the other four groups.

Foreigners were also aware of this principle.

Yu Tian noticed that the way they looked at him was not right. He said with interest, "Hey, foreign monk, they are going to make a move. Later, whoever comes first, press them to the ground and beat them to death."

Cass did not say anything, but used his actions to prove himself.

He stood in front of Yu Tian and looked at the group of people in front of him. His face, which was full of tattoos, looked like a hell Asura.

Angry-eyed King Kong, Killer Monk.

He moved!

A short man walked out from the group of five Asians. He looked to be less than 1.5 meters tall.

The short man was extremely fast. He held two daggers in his hands and rushed toward Cass.

With the speed of a ghost, Yu Tian suddenly realized that he had underestimated the world of assassins a year later.

The short man approached him and with a twirl of his daggers, he arrived in front of Cass.

"You've angered Brahma! ! !"

With a loud shout, Cass accurately struck out with the Mitsubishi Army Spike and directly slashed at the incoming daggers.

With a clanging sound, the weapons collided with a crisp sound.

Cass 'powerful arm strength sent the short man flying with just a swing of his blade.

When the short man was about to get up, Cass suddenly appeared in front of him.

Just as he raised his dagger with both hands and was about to meet the enemy!

Suddenly, a cold voice came from behind him.

"Hey, don't you ever look at the ghost behind you?"

The short man was suddenly startled!

But what awaited him was a poof, and a short knife had already pierced through his chest.

The short man looked in disbelief at the front end of the knife that had pierced through his body with fresh blood on his chest.

At this moment, he could not speak because his lungs and heart had been directly pierced through.

With such injuries, even gods could not save him.

Immediately after, the short knife that had pierced through his body was pulled out.

He was also kicked to the ground by the person who had made that sound behind him.

The person behind him was Yu Tian.

At this moment, the surrounding people were also shocked.

It was not because the short man was killed.

It was because the man who appeared behind the short man did not notice when he moved.

They only felt that in the blink of an eye, he stood behind the short man.

Then, a short knife took his life.

With such terrifying speed and strength, they didn't think that these two guys were a pushover at the moment.

Yu Tian wiped the blood of the short knife in his hand clean on the corpse of the dwarf on the ground.

At this time, he looked at the beverage vending machine behind him and Cass and said with a smile, "I don't know how long we'll stay here. It's hard to guarantee that that person won't attack in the water. We're the only source of water at that time. "

"Did you plan everything from the beginning when you retreated here?"

"This is called preparing for a rainy day.."

Chapter 847 – : Chapter 846, The Spire

When a group of extremely vicious people stayed in a sealed place, the temporary killings only happened continuously.

In less than three hours, including Yu Tian, a few more dead people who wanted to challenge them piled up in front of them.

Yu Tian retrieved a golden needle from one of the people's back.

Cass looked at the thin golden needle. He had just seen Yu Tian suddenly make a move and this person seemed to be immediately frozen. This seemed to be the effect of this golden needle.

At this moment, Cass looked at Yu Tian with admiration. He suddenly realized that without his protection, this new boss was enough to deal with all the enemies in front of him.

The assassin group on the side of dozens of people still wanted to preserve their strength. However, when the warden said that only fifteen people could survive here, the other side began to kill each other.

At this moment, the number of small groups had increased, but the number of corpses had also increased.

Only the dead were not a threat. This was something everyone knew.

Even if they said it now, everyone was facing an unknown amount of time.

There were still around 60 people left.

Only 15 people could survive, so they could only kill randomly. However, no one wanted to die.

Moreover, the time to receive the prison warden's "Six-hour surprise" was about to arrive.

At this moment, everyone broke off the battle without prior agreement and saved their own strength.

However, at this moment, it could be seen that some groups had formed a death alliance.

After all, as long as there were no more than 15 people, the more people in their group, the better. They could help themselves to survive.

On the other hand, there were still two people on Yu Tian's side. However, no one seemed to want to provoke them.

At this moment, there were already eight corpses under their feet.

They did not want to go up just like that. If they provoked these two fellows, they could only decide to deal with them in the end.

In just a few short hours, the place that was previously a peaceful place to eat was already filled with corpses and fresh blood.

The shocking scene came. Yu Tian saw that he had not finished his meal yet, and it was still on the table.

He actually walked over as if there was no one else around. He carried his plate of rice back and handed a piece of bread to Cass, he said with concern, "Eat something. Otherwise, I don't want to give you the meat of these guys later. I still feel that there should be a bit of bestiality and humanity, right? Moreover, the main reason is that I dislike them being dirty. Oh right, have you eaten people before?"

Cass took the bread from Yu Tian with a difficult expression. He felt that he was already a madman. Perhaps everyone here was a little crazy, but compared to this person in front of him who could remain calm and collected at all times..., he could still remain calm and not regard any threat as dangerous. He felt that they were all ordinary people!

Cass even found a fear in Yu Tian that was even greater than the threat the warden gave him.

This came from his perception of the strong. This was a skill that Cass had learned since he was young.

He knew that the man in front of him must have an extraordinary background. But now, he looked more like a legend.

A mysterious and legendary man!

On the top floor of Demon Island, in an extremely elegant office.

It was elegant because of the elegance of this place!

It was used to use various parts of a person's body as decorations and hung in every part of this room.

It was disgusting, but the owner of this place really thought that it was the best Elegance. "

The owner of this place was the warden, the guy who was enjoying a plate of unknown meat. At this moment, he was looking at the computer screen in front of him, and then at the intercom that was turned on at the side, he ordered, "Get our little babies ready to receive customers inside later. Then we'll see how much we have bet. We've given them the number list! right, who's the guy beside Cass? Is he new?"

The walkie-talkie kept reporting to him, but he didn 't know who the guy beside Cass was.

The warden did not seem to care about these details, and he felt that no one could threaten his existence on demon island.

Therefore, the warden did not pursue this issue, he only said, "Then give him number 38, which is also a very promising experimental subject. It seems that we will be able to make a lot of money here. As for the corpses, when it's over, drag them all to be disposed of. Even if they are not dead, just kill them. We will help end their pain and let them go to God with peace of mind. As for their internal organs, all of them will be sold to the man who came to purchase them. "

The walkie-talkie seemed to have followed his instructions. At the same time, he reported the latest situation to the warden, "Number 38, someone has suddenly placed a big bet. "

"How much?"

"Ten Billion USD. "

The warden's hand that was holding the knife and fork trembled slightly. He suddenly felt that he would make a huge profit today.

Even if this person won, he would still be able to receive a lot of money from the Zhuang family today.

This competition was a no-cost business for the dealer.

Moreover, this way, it would stimulate the wealthy to follow suit.

The warden beamed, although it looked no different from a living dead person's smile.

Not only was it disgusting, but it was also very creepy.

Immediately after, he dialed a desk phone on the table.

The call went through, and a deep voice came through. It was a man's voice.

"Sir Warden, you seem to have a lot of free time?"

"No, no, no, Pm just here to report that a rich man is betting ten billion dollars. "

"Yes, I got it."

"Uh, sir, aren't you happy?"

"Okay, Pll give you a share of the profits and give you an additional one billion dollars. "

"Hehe, you're really the gentleman I respect the most. "

Du Du du du du!"

The sound of someone hanging up came from the other end. The warden was stunned for a moment and had a helpless look on his face. Then, he smiled, with a disdainful look on his face, he said, "Who do you think you are? "You're just a representative of the conference. You really think you're more noble than me. To the Kronian Society, I'm the talent they need the most. Everything here has been supported by me single-handedly. You're just waiting to carry my shoes. What an ugly thing! "

After that, the warden stood up and picked up the walkie-talkie on the table.

He hummed an unknown tune as if he was very happy.

Needless to say, it was definitely for the ten billion USD stake.

At the same time, in the imperial capital of the Eastern kingdom, Uncle Long was watching a live broadcast.

He had just placed ten billion USD in this live broadcast.

This was not his own intention, but Yu Tian's.

Uncle Long sighed, "It has begun. Our king has reappeared in the martial arts world. "

Uncle Long felt that it was dangerous, but Yu Tian did not think so..

Chapter 848 – Chapter 847, Six-Hour Surprise

What was a six-hour surprise?

The moment Yu Tian saw the door of this area open, he knew what a surprise was.

There were five burly men with electric batons in their hands.

They were all wearing things like explosion-proof clothes and helmets on their heads, which made their faces look like they were inside a glass cover.

This glass cover's helmet obviously had a high-intensity anti-impact and anti-cutting effect.

It was really well-protected from head to toe.

Not to mention the bomb suits on their bodies, which could even block the shockwave of a grenade explosion and a small millimeter-sized bullet.

Therefore, Yu Tian and the others in front of them were now looking at their homes with cold weapons, which was obviously not a threat to them.

At least, that was what they thought.

Bang.

The door of the dining hall at the foot of Demon Island closed tightly once again.

The Warden's unpleasant voice.., sounded from the loudspeakers around them again. "Lovely experimental subjects, I am your favorite warden. Now, standing in front of you are a group of people who have been specially transferred from a special place to give you massages. I don't know what their names are, but their favorite thing is massaging someone's head off. I guarantee that they will help you relieve the stress from the previous tiredness. "

Yu Tian leaned against the wall and looked at the more than twenty "Surprises "that had walked in through the door.

He increased the number of golden needles in his hand to three.

Perhaps the bullets could not penetrate that thing, or even some of the cold weapons here could not, but his golden needles could still penetrate it.

This was his confidence in his golden needles.

As for Cass, he looked as if he was facing a great enemy. However, when he glanced at his new boss beside him, he was actually not worried at all. He was still holding a few thin golden needles in his hands and playing with them, he could not help but feel a little confident. This was something Yu Tian had given him. He did not know why.

Perhaps it was because Yu Tian had always displayed a very convincing strength.

Especially just now, he had also seen that the seemingly harmless gadget in Yu Tian's hand could actually be shot out from his hand like a dart. Its power was no less than a bullet shot out from the barrel of a gun.

Moreover, it was a truly silent and untraceable "Bullet. ".

At that time, that person had been penetrated by a tiny needle into his neck, and he was stunned on the spot.

Therefore, he was able to kill that guy and break his neck at once.

Cass stared at the needle in Yu Tian's hand, full of curiosity about the mystery.

After Yu Tian noticed it, he looked at him and explained, "This is an ancient martial art from the eastern country. I gave it a name a€“ a€“ the deadly golden needle. "

"My teacher has the same technique, but he is a flying knife, a palm-sized flying knife, not like yours. " "What do I have?"

"A woman's sewing needle. "

"Uh! embroidery? Gold needles can't be used for embroidery. It's used to treat patients and save lives."

"Traditional Chinese Medicine?"

"Traditional Chinese Medicine?"

"I know quite a lot. "Yu Tian stood up and no longer leaned against the wall. Instead, he held the military knife tightly in his left hand and the gold needle in his right hand. He looked at the twenty or so people who had begun to fan out at the door and put away his relaxed expression, he said to Cass in a serious manner, "You're on the left and I'm on the right. Don't be in a hurry to make a move. Your military knife may not be able to pierce through them. The best way is to cut the ribs on both sides of their explosion-proof clothing. Those are the vulnerable parts of this type of explosion-proof clothing. "

"Okay. "Cass nodded and replied. He also made a defensive posture and stared at that group of people.

Yu Tian and his men moved.

The other groups of people naturally wouldn't just stand there and watch

They also moved. The group of people kept retreating until there was no way to retreat.

The assassin group was much calmer than they had imagined. There was indeed a commander-like role among them because at this moment, they collectively pushed down the surrounding dining tables, then, they piled up in front of them. This made the soldiers in heavy explosion-proof uniforms opposite them not want to easily deal with them.

Naturally, they set their eyes on other people's places.

Among the explosion-proof soldiers, there was a team leader. The guy with a red ribbon wrapped around his left arm first made a left-right division gesture.

The soldiers split into two teams and faced Yu Tian and a few groups of people on the other side.

At this moment.

A group of five or six guards who had been eating here formed a team and quickly approached Yu Tian.

One of them seemed to know Cass and shouted as soon as he came up, "Cass! Cass!

Yu Tian saw them coming over, he shouted, "Don't call him anymore. He listens to me. If you want to cooperate, then stand in front of us in an arc and stand together with us. Push the dining table over and take out your weapons. Don't be afraid. Aim at their ribs and attack. If you don't listen, I'll be the first to kill you!"

They had seen Yu Tian's abilities before. In just a few short hours, the people around Cass had all deeply understood how terrifying he was.

Therefore, the moment they heard Yu Tian's words, they immediately followed his instructions. They could not help but show an unexpected joy on their faces.

After all, in their eyes, it was as if they had latched onto their thighs and felt hope as if they were their saviors.

Clang!

This group of people quickly followed Yu Tian's instructions and pushed the dining table and benches in front of them to the ground. One after another, they followed Yu Tian's instructions and formed a small circular formation with only one opening, under Yu Tian's command, they quickly gathered around Yu Tian.

As for Cass, he stood in front of Yu Tian at all times. Although he knew Yu Tian's abilities, his heart told him to protect Yu Tian in front of him. Not only did he show his loyalty, he also understood.., naturally, Yu Tian was not. He would definitely be able to get through this crisis.

Within a few short hours, Cass had completely trusted Yu Tian.

This was also the best proof of Yu Tian's ability.

This ability wasn't just Yu Tian's ability to play with needles.

It was also Yu Tian's expression of facing danger at any time. This wasn't something that only an ordinary assassin would have.

The more Yu Tian gave people this feeling, the more Cass felt that he had to firmly hold onto Yu Tian, this new boss that he had just acknowledged.

Yu Tian looked at the five guys. They all looked like well-developed guys with tendons and tattoos on different parts of their upper bodies.

The five guys looked like they could still fight. Each of them had blood on their bodies, and the machetes in their hands were still dripping with other people's blood.

One of them had a knife on his waist. It was probably a western-style knife that he had fished out from the window when he was serving food. It was a slender, flat knife similar to a watermelon knife..

Chapter 849 – : Chapter 848, A Glimmer Of Hope Appeared

"I don't want to know your names. From now on, from left to right, I'll give you a number, 1 to 5. These are your names until the end of this game."

As Yu Tian spoke, he stared at the few bomb-proof soldiers who were about to approach them, he instructed them in an extremely serious manner, "Alright, later on, 1 and 3 will be responsible for guarding the dining table, preventing them from pushing it away and trying to move. The rest of you, follow me and jump out to deal with them. If you feel that you can't hold on any longer, you can come back later. After that, Cass will receive you. Just like that, he will continuously pull over the long benches of the dining table and stack them here. His back will be against the wall, leaving only the opening right in front of him."

It was a very simple and crude battle formation tactic.

Yu Tian felt that he was a killer hunter who specialized in killing people who made a career out of killing people.

All of a sudden, a bald man's loud shout was heard, and in an instant, the people gathered towards him.

Desperate situations could always erupt with an extremely shocking power.

Not to mention that the people here were not good people. They were all extremely vicious people.

The bald man raised an axe and took the electric rod from an explosion-proof soldier. The electric current flashed and crackling sounds gathered on the bald man's body.

It could be seen with the naked eye that the bald man's entire arm had been charred by the electric rod.

However, the most shocking thing was that this guy was as if nothing had happened.

He had taken a hit from such a high voltage electric baton, and he had withstood all the electrodes as if nothing had happened.

Because the bald man's bravery was extraordinary, the electric baton in the hands of the explosion-proof soldier who had been knocked away was instantly snatched away by a person.

In the next second, a thin, small man, who looked like a monkey, walked behind the explosion-proof soldier with the electric baton in his hand. He opened the electrodes with the electric baton and hit the explosion-proof soldier on the head.

The damage of the high-voltage electric baton was not ordinary. Even the anti-explosive suit had to conduct electricity!

"F * ck! F * ck! F * ck! FFFFF!"

The warden was so angry that he swore. Then, he dragged a guard whose legs were trembling and lifted him up, glaring at him, he said angrily, "You! Call the logistics department at Headquarters Right Now and tell them to bring me the next batch of explosion-proof suits with static treatment and non-conductive ones. Otherwise, I will definitely break the heads of these logistics guys!"

This guard had planned to eat in the canteen. He was already glad that he had escaped.

Now that he was yelled at by the warden, he was so scared that he almost peed himself.

If he did not hold it in, he believed that as long as he dared to pee, he would be thrown into the sea to feed the fish in front of the warden.

The warden threw the man in his hand away and said unhappily, "Hurry up and go."

After saying that, he stared at the dozens of computer screens in front of him with a displeased expression.

At this moment, a man with both hands inlaid with steel claws walked over and asked, "Warden, do you need me to do it?"

The warden looked at Steel Claw, after a moment of silence, he said, "There's no need. You're overqualified. Moreover, this is just the beginning. If you make a move, those rich people will definitely think that our game competition is fake. We won't give them any room to win money at all. At that time, we will be the ones who will be harmed. "

Hearing this, Steel Claw retreated to the side and did not ask any more questions.

The warden looked at the current one-sided situation on the screen, and the killing intent in his eyes eased a little.

However, when he noticed that there was a small group of people on the screen on one side of the wall, where there was a vending machine, his eyes turned cold again.

He pointed there and asked, "Who is this Easterner?"

The person the warden asked was Yu Tian, and the group he saw was also Cass and the others.

A Guy who was supposed to be in charge of the base staff, and he was not dressed in a yellow suit like the guards here. He was dressed in simple casual clothes and wore a pair of glasses, looking a little cultured, a man who was estimated to be in his early thirties, with a little bald head.

He first fiddled with a computer, he answered with some doubt, "We didn't find this person who looked like him. Our base doesn't have many Asian faces, and this guy seems to be from the east. However, our database doesn't have any information on this person, not even a photo. "

Logically speaking, the warden would definitely be furious after receiving such an answer. He would then vent his anger on this guy.

However, surprisingly, this time, the warden did not vent his anger on him. Instead, a slightly strange expression appeared on his face, then, he instructed his two subordinates on his left and right, "No matter what, if this guy dies later, bring him down to have a check. After that, check his identity. If he is a prisoner who escaped to our base, we will need his past experience. You can also investigate from the headquarters. "

The two men who looked like his henchmen understood.

Then, the warden looked at the screen in front of him, especially Yu Tian and the others, and his expression became more and more surprised.

This was because Yu Tian's ability was like a general who did not panic in the face of danger.

When he made a slight move, it was a one-hit kill! he had already killed two of his explosion-proof soldiers.

As Yu Tian was curious, the warden started to become more and more energetic.

At this moment, the canteen could be said to be a river of blood, and the number of corpses had increased by a lot.

If the previous and current ones were added up, not to mention letting Yu Tian and the others kill each other, there would still be fifteen people left, and they would be able to directly stand out.

There was nothing to kill, nothing to die!

Corpses littered the ground, and one side was massacred..

Chapter 850 – Chapter 849. My Name Is Yu Tian, But It'S Not Yu Tian

Although the Bald Man's side was strong and abnormal, it was difficult to control the one-sided slaughter.

Even the killer group had to split into two sides.

One side had to sacrifice, and the other side had to survive.

Finding an opportunity, they used the strategy of ants biting an elephant to death.

However, the price of exchanging a few for one was really tragic.

Finally, when the thirteenth member of their own side fell, the commander of the assassin group couldn't sit still anymore.

An ordinary-looking man was actually a black man.

He held a dagger in his hand and jumped onto the body of one of the anti-riot soldiers.

At the same time, one of his team members, who had already obtained a high voltage stun baton, rushed forward and clashed head-on with the anti-riot soldier.

The anti-riot soldier could not fight four hands with two fists, but his equipment allowed him to remain unharmed.

He was not worried at all and swung his baton at the black man who was jumping towards him!

He found the right opportunity and was ambushed by the killer who was holding the stun baton!

With a moment of carelessness, the explosion-proof soldier's entire body was twitching, and the stun baton in his hand also fell off.

In an instant, he was picked up by an assassin, and the assassin backhanded him with the stun baton.

At this time, the black man had already pounced on him and pressed him to the ground.

With an unimaginable strength, the black man's knife made a loud bang, splitting open the explosion-proof soldier's helmet.

This helmet was made of high-pressure and mild glass, not to mention this small dagger!

Even a bullet might not be able to pierce through it. This was glass fiber that was even more perverse than bulletproof glass.

However, it was just a dagger, but it was cut down by a backhand like a knife.

The helmet was cut through in an instant!

The black man did not care about anything else. He crazily headed for the opening and began to stab with the tip of the dagger again.

The sound of glass breaking could be heard continuously!

In the next moment, the helmet of the explosion-proof soldier started to bleed along with the glass shards.

He did not even have any breath left. Only his slightly twitching body was reflexively reacting.

The Black Man's face was covered in blood. Then, he quickly stood up and rushed to another explosion-proof soldier on the other side.

On the side of the assassin group, there were also heavy casualties. However, they also let out a desperate roar and fought back.

As for those pitiful guards who were dragged into this massacre because they were eating.

There were only a few left. Yu Tian's side, on the other hand, under his command and help, the five people who had defected to him had all survived, although one of them..., his hands had been broken off by an explosion-proof soldier who had fallen in front of him.

However, his pained face showed that he had survived a disaster and was still alive.

Because three explosion-proof soldiers had died on Yu Tian's side, the remaining explosion-proof soldiers, under the command of their captain, began to turn towards the group of guards on the other side who could not hold on any longer.

As for the killers 'side, the Black Man's counterattack was also fierce. He did not care about his life at all. In a desperate situation, death was inevitable!

The counterattack of a dying person was especially frightening, just like the current situation.

Yu Tian's side also noticed that, but his gaze was fixed on the killers who had already fallen to the ground.

These killers were different from them in that they all had a wristband on their wrists.

At this moment, they were not targeted by the anti-explosive soldiers. It seemed that they were planning to deal with them later.

Yu Tian looked at the wristbands on the ground and asked Cass, "What's that wristband?"

Before Cass could answer, one of the five people was bandaging the wound of an injured brother, he explained to Yu Tian, "Yes, a point-recording wristband. In every match, as long as you are alive, you will have points. As long as you have more points, each point can be exchanged for 10,000 US dollars. As for how to accumulate points, it depends on the difficulty of the game and your performance in this match. If you die, it will be useless. "

When Yu Tian heard that, he felt that it was a pity. There were so many killers, but all of them were scrapped in one go.

Not to mention exchanging points for money, even if they were still alive, they would probably only be crippled.

At that time, no matter how much money there was, many things could not be exchanged.

At that moment, Cass looked at the group of people in front of him and asked, "Do you want to help them?"

Yu Tian kicked the vending machine next to him, and a lot of drinks fell down.

He searched through the window for the beer he wanted.

With a click, Yu Tian opened his beer and quickly drank a mouthful. He said very straightforwardly, "It's comfortable!"

Then..., he replied, "It's not that I want to save them, but there are already seven of us here. If I help them survive more people, do you think I'll have to kill a few of them myself in the end so that I can decide the fifteen people who survive?"

Cass was not a kind and good person. He just felt that it was strange for him to ask.

Yu Tian knew this, so he was willing to explain to him. At the same time, he was also looking forward to the good show ahead, the person who was drinking continued to tell him, "Although I'm not a bad person, I'm also not a good person. However, I know about surviving. In a place like this, since you've chosen to come, then you should work hard on your own. Otherwise, it's better to go back to being an ordinary person. After all, everyone here may look like weaklings, but that's only compared to the anti-explosive soldiers. Who hasn't killed people outside?" compared to them, the ordinary people outside are the weak ones. They are the ones who really need saving. As for them, Heh, they don't need saving! 'Y

Yu Tian would sympathize with the weak, but he was definitely not a saint.

Compared to the real ordinary people, this group of people were the "Strong ones"!

At this moment, Cass also mentioned, "Then continue to kill the rest. We also have the ability to do so. Boss, if you're not willing, I'm willing to do it."

"I'm glad that you're willing to be my blade. "Yu Tian looked at Cass, very satisfied with his loyalty, but he also told him truthfully, "I don't like this. I saved you and then killed you? That's something other people might do, but I won't. Sometimes, I'm more willing to do my own thing. As for the rest, I'd better teach it to God. At least I think they still have a chance to survive. There are still eight spots left. "

Yu Tian's words were filled with confidence, as if he was absolutely sure that the seven people here were alive.

At this moment, the five number brothers who had just chosen to join Yu Tian's side were even more shocked.

Most importantly, they did not doubt the words of the young Easterner behind them.

They believed, and even firmly believed, this!
