Chapter 851 – Chapter 850: The Killer Must Be Killed

Up until now, these five people were still in the dark. However, there was no doubt that they had already sensed the presence of the strong. As long as they followed this Yu Tian., then it was a sure thing for them to survive. Therefore, what they needed to do now was to wholeheartedly listen to the orders of this easterner.

Yu Tian did not know what the five fellows in front of him were thinking, because in his eyes, it was not important at all. It was just like how an elephant would never care about the ants hiding behind the rocks, no matter how many ants there were behind the rocks, the elephant would not care.

About seven or eight of the explosion-proof soldiers had died, and one of them was injured. Yu Tian thought that that fellow would be treated.

Who would have thought that one of their own people would swing the stun baton at him without the help of the guards and assassins.

When Yu Tian saw this scene, he could not help but shout, "Good fellow, he's really ruthless to himself! "

Cass was also dealing with his arm that had been accidentally injured just now.

That part of his arm was charred black. He had no choice but to find a bottle of whiskey that was relatively strong from the vending machine here and pour it on his arm just like that. What was slightly surprising was that., other than frowning, this guy did not show any other expression. He did not even bite his teeth. The surface of his charred skin was stimulated by alcohol, it was as if he was being roasted by fire.

Yu Tian saw Cass and tore a piece of cloth from his shirt, he threw it to him and said, "Bandage it up. Otherwise, if you can't Get Scabs in the future, you'll have to carry a piece of rotten meat on your back. If that happens, it's only a matter of time before you get infected. You 'll be in trouble. "

Cass took the cloth strip and swiftly tied it up. He stood up and looked at the battle in front of him. He was always on high alert. He was ready to stand in front of Yu Tian at any time to protect the new boss in front of him.

The battle on the assassin group's side did not last long because when there were successive defeats, panic only lasted for an instant. Even if it was the commander's brain, no matter how bravely the Black Man took the lead., it only alleviated the death of the few guys who were following him closely, and even he himself was almost killed on the ground.

However, this guy was also extremely brave. Just by relying on the strength of his two hands, he actually strangled an anti-explosive soldier to death.

This made Yu Tian unable to bear to look at him in a new light!

However, in the next second, this black man was also kicked to the ground by the captain of the anti-explosive soldier who rushed over. After that, he was beaten to death on the ground with a headshot.

There were only three people left on the side of the assassin group who had nowhere to retreat and were hiding in the corner.

The weapons in their hands were also electric batons, so they could threaten the explosion-proof soldiers who were surrounding them.

As for the guards, there were two more!

Fifteen was not enough, but the sound of the end had not yet sounded.

At this moment, a guard who was on the verge of collapse dragged a brother who was covered in injuries, he cried and shouted, "It's over! It's over! My Brother is going to die. It's all over. There are already fifteen people. For God's sake, it's over! Warden, it's Over! "

At this moment, the riot squad stopped in their tracks, but they did not retreat.

A voice sounded from the loudspeaker. It was the Warden's voice.

"Oh, that's right. There are less than fourteen people left. Let Me See. HMM, there are only twelve people left. However, don't forget that there are eleven other people standing inside. They are still alive. How many people are there now? "Come, calculate for me! "a voice that pushed something away sounded, the voice of another person with a frightened tone rang out from the other end of the loudspeaker.

From the loudspeaker came the voice of the guy who had been caught and said with a trembling voice, "Report! report! There are still 23 people left! "

Then, the Warden's voice rang out again. He smiled and said, "Children, the game is not over yet! "

At this moment, Yu Tian, who was below, felt that it was extremely laughable.

He felt that any competition would violate the rules of some rich people.

However, it seemed that this guy didn't care too much about it.

Now, there was still a choice. Yu Tian was planning to make his own decision.

However, what was shocking was that the warden's voice sounded again from the loudspeaker, he said with extremely disgusting words, "Hahaha, my little babies, my test subjects, you have been deceived. The competition this time has already ended. The guards who are still alive will receive 100,000 US dollars. The assassins will receive points as rewards. This time, I will reward you 50 points. Please rest assured that the next event will follow soon. The reward points will be even more."

After saying this, the rest of the explosion-proof soldiers stopped. However, one of them, who looked like a captain, deliberately came to Yu Tian's side. He stared at Yu Tian and his gaze leaped over Cass, who was in front of Yu Tian, there were also five other people who stood up forcefully, his tone was very provocative as he said, "You Guard, I will remember you as an Easterner. I hope that you won't be so unlucky next time. You can still be chosen to enter the game during this meal. If you still know how to do it, I will definitely skin you alive and eat your flesh."

Yu Tian looked at him and asked, "Take off your helmet and tell me your name."

The guy opposite did not hesitate and directly took off his helmet.

It was a man in his late twenties with short golden hair. There was a very obvious scar on the left side of his face.

His beard was unshaven, and his eyes were as sharp as an eagle.

He looked at Yu Tian and replied, "My name is Ke Luo. I was once a general of a country. Now, I'm just a security captain here. I hope to remember your name, and you remember mine. "

Yu Tian did not hesitate and replied, "Yu Tian, we will meet again."

"Yu Tian?" KE Luo read the name and looked at Yu Tian deeply. "Okay, I will remember this name. "

After saying that, he turned around and left.

At this moment, the cafeteria door opened.

A group of soldiers rushed in. This group of soldiers all had guns, so no one resisted.

As for Yu Tian, he just drank the beer in his hand. He didn't care anymore.

Yu Tian said to Cass who was beside him, "Follow me. I want to know what to do after this is over. If I'm not wrong, they should have started to suspect and investigate me. "

Cass nodded after hearing that and followed Yu Tian out.

As for the Five Guys who were still alive, they all chose to shut up..

Chapter 852 – Chapter 851, Yu Tian? A Legendary Name

The end of a game, the end of a competition.

To Yu Tian, there was no difference, because he still had to stay here.

He was even facing the danger of being caught in an inescapable net at any time.

However, he, Yu Tian, was not afraid at all. He could even talk and laugh with others.

As for when he was brought to a room that looked like an interrogation room!

He acted as if nothing had happened and swaggered into a chair. He looked at the two men in front of him. Seeing their fierce looks, he did not take them seriously at all, he opened his mouth and asked, "Tell me, why are you looking for me? Oh right, I forgot to tell you. You'd better bring me a glass of water. I just killed a lot of people and am a little thirsty."

The two guys standing in front of Yu Tian first glanced at each other.

One of them shouted into the walkie-talkie, "Someone, bring me a glass of water."

Then, it was this guy again. He sat on the chair opposite Yu Tian. There was an iron table between him and Yu Tian, and he asked, "Who are you? Where are you from?"

"Yu Tian, Dongfang Kingdom. "

"Yu Tian? Your real name?"

"It's the real deal, if it's fake, then it's real."

"Okay, what are you doing here?"

"I'm asking for a way out. I killed someone in Dongfang kingdom and committed a serious crime. "

"Really?"

"Of course, you can go and check it out. I, Yu Tian, look like this, it's relatively easy to find out. I'm not a common face, Hehe." Yu Tian looked confident, and when it came to killing people..., when he had committed a major crime, there was no trace of fear or guilt.

One had to know that at this time, Yu Tian's bloody clothes had not been changed.

Even though it was the blood of his enemies that had splashed onto his body.

But in the eyes of others, such a look was especially frightening.

Not to mention, he really looked like a person who was extremely vicious and extremely evil.

At the same time, the warden, who was watching from the monitoring room, revealed a suspicious expression when he heard this.

It was not until a subordinate hurriedly found information about Yu Tian from the headquarters and quickly brought it over to the warden that the warden dispelled some of his suspicions.

The warden looked at his subordinate and asked, "Are they all the latest?" The subordinate nodded with certainty and said, "Yes, Sir Warden."

"The few pages above were all found from the headquarters. He has indeed committed a serious crime in the eastern country, right?"

"Yes, Warden. He killed more than ten people and even escaped from the prison cell. However, he should have changed his name to Yu Tian. It shows that he filled in his name when he came here illegally. What's his name? His Majesty, Li Sha."

The warden flipped through the documents in his hands and looked through them carefully. The information on them should be true because they all had official certificates from the eastern country. None of them were missing. It was practically a complete set of information, these were all requested by the headquarters of Interpol from country M to transfer over from the eastern country.

The subordinate next to the warden took a careful look at the warden and then carefully retreated to the side.

He also understood that he could not stand by the warden's side now. If something unsatisfying happened, he would be the first one to die.

After the warden carefully read through it, he threw the document in his hand to the side and looked at the guy on the screen, listening to his careless series of details, however, he did not care about the "Extremely sinful past" at all. The warden's mouth cracked into a smile. The smile on his ashen face became very creepy.

The warden pointed at Yu Tian on the screen and said, "I like this little guy. I like his name even more. His name is like the legendary name of an eastern country. However, I know quite a few people in their eastern country with this name alone. Previously, one of them came to us and said that he was the mysterious king, Yu Tian. However, in the end, he was still an imposter. It's really shameful. "

The warden seemed to have heard of the mysterious king from the Eastern kingdom more than a year ago. He even wanted to capture that person and bring him to him.

The best blade, of course, had to be in his own hands.

The warden stared at Yu Tian on the screen. He felt that this was a very good blade, so he planned to make good use of it.

When Yu Tian walked out of the interrogation room.

It was worth mentioning that Cass had been waiting outside the entire time. As for the Five Guys, they were able to survive. They had already exchanged all their points for US dollars and left Demon Island early, however, before they left, each of them had to pay a transportation fee of 50,000 US dollars.

They were transported to the shore as if they were goods.

As for everything here, even if they were to say it out loud, they would be thrown into prison.

People like them would definitely face life imprisonment. They would not have a second choice.

Cass looked at Yu Tian who walked out and handed him a bottle of ice-cold beer. He asked with great concern, "Boss, they didn't do anything to you,

It had to be said that Yu Tian was very satisfied with this new follower, even though the tattoo on his face made him look very ferocious no matter what expression he made, just like the Acalanatha king in the Buddhist scriptures..., glaring at Vajra and evil raksha.

Come to think of it, Cass could also be considered a Buddhist disciple, right?

The difference was that he cultivated something similar to the martial arts of the outer regions.

Yu Tian had heard about that Indian country's Dragora Temple. It was specifically trained to train those monks who killed people.

Yu Tian took the beer and glanced at the two guys who had left.

Then, he paid special attention to the three surveillance cameras not far away.

Only then did Yu Tian say to Cass, "You know that the warden is coming for me, right?"

Cass nodded and did not say anything, but the certainty and worry in his eyes were unquestionable.

Yu Tian saw that he nodded and confirmed that his prediction was correct. Moreover, this was also part of his plan.

It seemed that he was able to come out of the prison safely without arousing any suspicion.

That Fellow from the prison must have obtained his "True information".

If it was someone else who had done this kind of information, it would have been impossible for them to do it within a short hour.

However, for someone like Yu Tian, the manpower, resources, and even the power he represented were indeed enough for him to accomplish these incredible things.

Uncle Long's actions were also very swift.

Yu Tian asked Cass, "Those five have left, so you can leave as well. You should have quite a lot of points this time.."

Chapter 853 – Chapter 852, Have You Heard Of It?

Cass was speechless. He just stared at the wall in front of him.

Yu Tian did not want to break the silence. What he needed now was Cass'absolute loyalty, because the next plan needed a person who would open his eyes and bite his mouth to death even if his head was chopped off.

Right now, Yu Tian was still testing Cass, even if he felt that he could already trust this guy enough.

However, in this environment, Yu Tian would not easily trust anyone.

Testing was necessary, even though it was very ruthless.

At the last moment, Cass finally spoke, he said, "I feel that you can bring me out. I'm willing to be your hired thug. As long as you need me, I'm willing to be the first to charge forward and kill that damned warden. Of course, as long as you need me, I'll do it!"

This was exactly what Yu Tian wanted to hear. He finally trusted someone who could say such words in such an environment. This was someone he could trust, not to mention that he did not misjudge Cass back then.

This white man had some indecipherable symbols tattooed on his face. Furthermore, he was bald. His right hand was strangely adorned with a string of Buddhist beads. Furthermore, he came from the Dala Monastery in India. No matter where such a person was placed.., he would attract attention, and it would take some patience to subdue him as a follower.

Yu Tian walked past Cass and gently patted his shoulder, then, he told him, "I promise, you have to walk out, not just walk out like a human. I know you have to leave, but live under the Sun. No problem, I can guarantee it. I even have the ability to do it. But now, I need more information about the clone society. Come, Let's go back to your place." Cass nodded solemnly. "Yes, Boss."

"No need. Call me Tian 'ge."

"Okay, Tian 'ge."

In Cass 'cell, this room was a few meters wider than the other cells. There was a small electric fan inside. On the Demon Island in summer, especially during the day, even though this place was located on the sea, it was still very warm, therefore, with such a small fan, it was really cooler.

As for when he came at night, he could leave it on because it would be even warmer here.

It was a strange weather in the place.

The more it was like this, the better Yu Tiancai felt that the country was. This place was really not suitable for people like him.

Thinking about it, he used to bask in the sun on the beach, but now, he had come here.

He said that he was resting, but who knew that he had only taken a year off!

Cass took out a draft paper-like thing from under the bed. There were densely packed things like symbols and map markings on it.

Yu Tian stood under the small electric fan, looked at the thing in Cass 'hand, and asked, "Map?"

Cass shook his head and answered, "It's intelligence. Although I said that I don't know much about the clone society, I have been collecting a lot of useful information. "

As if he was worried that Yu Tian would be suspicious, Cass hurriedly explained, "I'm just trying to understand if the person I want to work for is worthy of my trust. "

Yu Tian waved his hand, he stopped him and said, "I know. Don't worry. I believe you. You're my follower. I Won't doubt you. I'm just curious. Where did you get all this information? "I want to know the source of the information. I want to know every detail. This is very important. "

Cass knew what Yu Tian wanted to know, so he started to explain to Yu Tian bit by bit what he had recorded. Even the things that looked like tattoos were clearly explained by Cass, even a small detail could tell him when, where, and who he had learned it from.

Yu Tian listened very carefully. Finally, he pointed at the image of the rotting man's head on the blueprint, feeling very puzzled, he asked, "Are you saying that this thing is not just talking about a person, it could even be something else? "What exactly does this mean? I really don't know about this. Can you be more specific?"

Yu Tian thought that he would be able to hear a more reasonable or detailed explanation.

Who knew that it was about this? He had also seen something on the armbands of the base's soldiers, but it made Cass stunned. He did not know how to answer at all.

In the end, Cass could only helplessly shake his head and say, "I don't know about this either. "

"But what you said just now was that you didn't get it from those soldiers'armbands, but from an old man's mouth. "

"Yes, what that old man said was that this man wasn't a 'human')."

"What's the identity of the old man?"

"A retired three-star general from M Nation. He died in the bathroom of his own home. "

"What was the cause of Death?"

Suicide. " Suicide?" "Yes, a suicide with twelve bullets in his back. "

Yu Tian was speechless. What kind of suicide was this?

Suicide!

However, everything pointed to this three-star general from M Nation. He was a very important figure.

Yu Tian thought about this and did not seem to be able to find anything. Most of it was from the warden.

Therefore, he made a decision and said confidently, "Find an opportunity and go to the Warden's office. Then, we'll find a way to destroy this place."

Cass thought for a while and said, "If we want to destroy this place, we can directly blow up the small nuclear power generating facility under this island.

But before that, you and I have to guarantee that we can have a speedboat or a helicopter to leave this place quickly. "

"A small nuclear power plant? No wonder it's under this island to achieve the best cooling effect, right? It's really not bad. This place is really going through a lot of trouble. It's not just to hold an assassin's competition, right?"

Cass shook his head and said, "No, it should be said that this place is to hold this competition. But at the same time, there are also some human body modification experiments. Unlike the outside world, this place is a real human body experiment. They are all crazy experiments such as genes or even the implantation of an exoskeleton. Not all countries have the ability to practice martial arts like your eastern country. But these guys can be considered to have found a new way to find some good methods."

Yu Tian finally understood what was going on. The only difference was that he hadn't found the experimental area.

The only way now was to find this thing first.

It wasn't a difficult task.

He just had to come up with some ideas..

Chapter 854 – Chapter 853, Kass'Brahma

A martial artist pursued martial arts wholeheartedly.

As for Yu Tian, what he wanted was to upgrade his golden needles.

Therefore, he had always been very attentive to ancient martial arts matters.

This was obviously the case, but there was at least something strange about it. He did not have a systematic secret manual to learn, but it seemed that every time he used the golden needles, he would always be able to experience a different state of mind, and this kind of mental state improvement could immediately improve his golden needle technique once again.

In Yu Tian's view, this might be an ancient martial arts practice that only belonged to him, and not a step-by-step process. It might even be like those ancient martial arts practitioners who followed the experience of their predecessors step by step.

Did Yu Tian like this kind of training method? It was just continuous improvement in battle. This way, he would not only be familiar with it.

Just like that, Yu Tian lay in Cass 'cell. Cass occupied the room next door.

Yu Tian inserted a thin silver thread into the golden needle. If he put it on one of his fingers like this, he would get a mysterious feeling of the golden needle leaving his hand and piercing into the enemy's body, he could even pull the golden needle back at once. This kind of feeling could be considered a needle-controlling feeling, right?

Yu Tian shot the golden needle into the ceiling according to his hidden weapon technique. Then, he gently pulled it back. In an instant, it returned to his hand as if it was alive. and most importantly.., this thing would not go beyond its control. Even the angle of the return route and even the strength seemed to be within his grasp.

"Sigh, is there any way that I can retrieve this needle without using this thread?"

Yu Tian looked at the little thing in his hand under the moonlight and could not help but sigh with anticipation.

At this moment, he recalled something that an elder had once told him.

That was that when a martial artist cultivated to the end, he would continue to cultivate. After reaching a certain realm, he would be like an ancient martial artist, possessing! Qi!

Yu Tian still couldn't fall asleep as he thought about this. Uncle Long's voice sounded in his ears.

This time, he didn't need to sleep anymore.

Uncle Long said, "We've searched for those symbols that you mentioned. We've even used the power of the country's machinery, but we still haven't found anything that's similar to this thing. If you don't plan to start from your side, I can only consider continuing to use the power from all over the world to help us search for this thing. As for the KLONI association, we can be sure that it has something to do with those ancient merchant families in Europa. "

"Our rich friends from the desert, can't they think of a way with us to help us solve this problem?" 'C I saved them from the jaws of death in front of the world a year ago. Aren't they going to thank me, a friend from the East?"

Yu Tian said that it was precisely those rich people from the desert, but it was already a year ago. It was said that that guy had gone back to inherit the chieftain's throne that his father had passed down to him. Even after he had inherited the throne.., he had no choice but to change his name. His name was Jabali or something, and he even wore a golden crown and became the chieftain's king.

Uncle Long was silent for a moment before he spoke with a very certain tone, he told Yu Tian, "That little tian, although the newcomers below are all a bunch of newbies who call you 'number one', I can tell you with absolute certainty that your friend is now a loyal gambler of the Demon Island Killer Competition. How do you think we can get him to ask around? With his outspoken and heartless appearance, wouldn't everything be exposed?"

When Yu Tian heard that, it was indeed true. According to his understanding, that guy would definitely do it.

You could say that he was simple and straightforward, or even a person without any schemes. However, you could also say that he was stupid and had a lot of money. He was also very silly. He was simply a living, breathing idiot!

Forget about changing his name, even if he changed his entire persona and skin, he would still be an outspoken and careless tycoon. He had no brains at all!

Therefore, when he heard Uncle Long's words, Yu Tian gave up very straightforwardly.

However, he also suggested, "Let the Chu sisters go?"

Uncle long then said, "They are all carrying out a mission. Why don't we find a new helper for you?"

"AH? Forget it, Pll look for it myself. You can rest yourself. Uncle Long, I find that you are becoming more and more unreliable. "

Uncle Long did not take Yu Tian's merciless ridicule to heart. He only continued to report the information he had found.

At this moment, Yu Tian was not worried about being bugged. In the sky above him, there were dozens of satellites providing him with power. This kind of financial and material resources was not something that could be done with money.

After Yu Tian turned off the earpiece communication, he closed his eyes. Everything from the past appeared in front of his eyes.

Inside, he began to search for information about the clone society.

However, he had to admit that it was a brand new force. There was no news at all.

Now, it seemed that there was no other way apart from the Demon Island.

Just as Yu Tian was thinking about his plan.

Next to this prison cell, Cass was sitting cross-legged with his legs facing the sky, as if he was meditating and practicing yoga. He closed his eyes and concentrated, constantly adjusting his breathing.

If Yu Tian were to see him now, he would definitely notice that this guy's body was faintly showing signs of Qi. He had been wondering if ancient martial art practitioners could cultivate qi-like things.

Cass was mumbling something, as if it was a scripture or a chant that helped him cultivate.

When the Qi seemed to gradually dissipate, he opened his eyes and gently exhaled a mouthful of turbid qi. Then, he stood up and faced the iron window toward the moonlight outside. He began to pray to his Brahma God.

In the end, Cass said something, he said softly, "This new master will definitely wash away my sins. Master, I will return to our temple and come to your seat to repent. But not now. This warden used to be the killer who killed my entire family. I will make him pay for it. Even if his heart is no longer human and his physical body has been completely transformed, I now have hope. He is the new master Yu Tian!"

If Yu Tian heard what Cass said, he would be shocked, because even he felt that Cass this guy, is a man who has killed countless people, but will also have the same idea of repentance..

Chapter 855 – : Chapter 854, Beast Fighting

Early the next morning.

Yu Tian was about to communicate with the guy who bumped into him with the greetings from the east and the West in the morning.

Who would have thought that Cass would grab this guy in one go, capture him in no time, and give him a fierce kick in the butt, causing him to roll down the stairs and fall to the ground, this guy wanted to curse, but when he looked at Cass, he shut his mouth!

This was the truth. This was where the strong were respected. Yu Tian would not use his sympathy in this place.

These were not ordinary people. The people here were a bunch of guys with blood all over their hands.

Cass clapped his hands and automatically retreated behind Yu Tian. He looked like a henchman.

A qualified henchman. Perhaps that was the case. As long as anyone on the other side dared to touch his master, he would act decisively and get rid of all the people who threatened his master.

Thinking about it, it was indeed not bad. At least for now, Yu Tian felt that Cass was very qualified.

This time, Yu Tian could not go down from the shortcut to the base. That place had already been sealed off. Moreover, the most important thing was that there were still a few guys guarding there.

Helplessly, after taking a detour, Yu Tian could only take the vertical elevator that they had mentioned.

It was a very exciting elevator. Because it had been in disrepair for a long time, it was rusted, and it kept shaking.

Not to mention the feeling of sitting on the elevator, it was creaking all of a sudden, as if it was going to fall at any moment.

Not to mention now, even if one could stand up, if they were to sit together, they would not know if they were dead or alive in the next second.

Yu Tian really did not want to try the consequences of falling together with the people in front of him.

Therefore, it was better for him to be careful. For now, Yu Tian did not want to die here. He was very unlucky.

This rotten elevator was in such a place, and everyone was still squeezed together. The weight of falling together would cause everyone to fall into minced meat.

Yu Tian looked at the group of people in front of him and saw that they seemed to be very afraid as well, he could not help but laugh at them and said,

"Brothers, we are all licking our wounds. Why are all of you so afraid now? Are all of you afraid of riding a roller coaster? Is the Macho Man Frightened?"

Yu Tian's words immediately caused the group of people here to protest repeatedly. They were burning with anger. Everyone was looking at him with extremely unpleasant eyes, but they did not dare to speak out.

This was because they also knew how this Yu Tian had slaughtered everyone in the assassin game that day.

The most crucial point was that this guy did not look like an ordinary person at all. In fact, when he made a move, he could actually lift a person up in a decisive manner. He could even lift a guy who was dozens of times stronger than him, then, he was knocked to the ground. Now, everyone here couldn't afford to offend this guy.

Yu Tian also knew this, so he would act even more unbridled.

However, Cass had a very good deterrent effect. This made everyone who looked at Cass and Yu Tian very clear about this point.

In his current state, even if no one looked down on him, it was still the deterrent force of Cass.

The people here knew that even the group of explosion-proof soldiers and base soldiers who did not participate in the killer game competition, and even those murderers who had become guards, knew who was easy to provoke, they knew very well who was not easy to provoke.

Yu Tian yawned and waited for the elevator to arrive. Then, he bumped into a guy next to him and gave him a middle finger in an extremely provocative manner. He looked like a very evil person, but the interesting thing was.., these guys kept quiet and only glanced at Yu Tian with slight dissatisfaction. It was over just like that. They would not say any more nonsense.

The reason why Yu Tian did this was to make himself fit his identity on the "Real information ".

He had confessed this to Cass, and the key point was that Cass also knew why Yu Tian did this, so he was willing to cooperate and make that fake information that was known by the warden.

However, it seemed that the effect was a little too good.

At this time, Yu Tian walked in front, and he followed Cass, who followed closely behind, he said in a low voice, "You and I will start looking for that laboratory now. You know what I mean. We don't have much time, and I'm not familiar with the route here, but there's one more thing. Remember, remember to record it down. That way, we can find useful information and slowly pave the way for the map in the future."

Kass expressed that he understood everything. He then headed in another direction. As guards, he was also very clear about the situation here. There were some places that he had no chance to enter, the most crucial point was that ever since some engineering teams arrived in the past few days, many places in the underground base had electronic access guards. It was not just soldiers with guns and live ammunition.

It was a very direct result. If Yu Tian and the others were slightly careless, they would be exposed, and the consequences would be unacceptable.

As for the current situation, if they were not exposed, they could still quietly continue to complete the new mission.

Moreover, there were still many things that had yet to be discovered. This was the most important point.

Therefore, they could not be exposed.

Alerting the enemy was also the most taboo point at the moment.

At this moment, Uncle Long's voice rang in Yu Tian's ears.

It was a communication call.

"Xiao Tian, I have a new piece of news to tell you. We are a mercenary in Europa. He actually has information about the clone society. "

"Yes, go ahead, "Yu Tian replied.

"He participated in an experimental mission in the North Pole once, and during that time, he said that he saw a lot of people who weren't human, although I don't really understand what he meant. "But the interesting thing is that he didn't stay in the experimental team anymore. This is a very good proof! "!"A person like him has seen a lot of scary things. Why would he retreat when it comes to making money?"?" "We suspected that it was an ancient martial art practitioner or a modified monster, or maybe it was a person. But now, it seems like it's the same thing. I don't know what you mean."

How could Yu Tian Express his thoughts at this time?

He simply didn't have the time!

However, Yu Tian also quietly replied, "Now, I need the location information that you gave me. Then, according to the device that I carry with me now, I will use this place to scan the detailed electronic three-dimensional map of this place. Then, I will be able to obtain a very good data image. After that, even if I hand over my actions to you, I will be able to complete this task very quickly. According to what you said, there are still more things that need to be investigated outside.. "

Chapter 856 – : Chapter 855: Trapped Beast

For Yu Tian, fighting a trapped beast meant breaking the cage and letting the beast out.

Just like now, he had punched a base soldier through the chest with his explosion-proof suit.

Yu Tian had used the last tiny electronic interference device he had brought.

The surrounding surveillance equipment instantly went out of order within a ten-meter radius.

In that instant, Yu Tian nailed the person in front of him to the wall with a punch. Under this guy's unimaginably shocked gaze, he was dragged into a small room at the side by Yu Tian, it was disposed of in an instant. The way to deal with it was very simple. The cabinet was the smallest, and the box was the smallest. It was stuffed into the cabinet and the box.

It was simple and violent. In the end, Yu Tian chose a toilet that looked like a single bathroom.

It was indeed very convenient. It was indeed a convenient place for people to solve problems.

However, Yu Tian also began to inspect this room. It was indeed a little strange because it was not like other independent rooms, if this underground base was said to be a place where the Demon Island Prison had been rebuilt, then this was now a completely rebuilt underground base.

This small room seemed to be a resting place. There were a lot of explosion-proof clothes and some boots on the ground, but the strange thing was..., there was a white coat filled with the smell of alcohol! the strange place seemed to be related to the experimental area.

After Yu Tian got the result, he carefully looked through the details of this place until he was sure that this was where the base soldiers changed their clothes, and there was a large woven basket containing these things, it seemed that every day, the dirty clothes of the various districts were sent to the laundry room, and so were the clothes here.

Then, he could be sure that there would be a large number of fixed changes of clothes here, which meant that there must be something in this area that required frequent changes of clothes.

After Yu Tian thought carefully for a moment, he began to find a white coat, and then he casually rummaged through it to find an ID without a photo and hung it on his chest, then, he put on a clean, unopened mask that he found in the cabinet and walked out.

Turning left was the electronic door that was guarded by the base soldier. It was completely sealed without a piece of glass on either side.

It seemed to be unlocked by fingerprints, and Yu Tian had already prepared it.

He took out a bloody thumb from the pocket of the white coat and pressed it on the electronic lock area of the door.

Then, the electronic lock rang, and a clean sound was heard.

Then, a muffled sound like that of a pneumatic valve came from the gap of the door on both sides.

Following the sound, the door slowly slid open on both sides.

Yu Tian also saw the scene inside through the door.

A rectangular elevator that looked like a cargo platform was in the area just a few steps ahead.

There were surveillance cameras on both sides of the elevator.

Yu Tian tidied up his clothes and walked in confidently.

As for the elevator platform, he pressed his thumb on the control panel. Sure enough, he needed a fingerprint to check it. Such a high-tech thing actually appeared in such a place., the oddities that Yu Tian felt also increased. In the end, they all turned into curiosity and curiosity in his heart.

He needed to figure out this place, and then he would be able to understand what that clone was.

According to Uncle Long's intelligence outside, it only pointed to information that was not very important. However, at least some of it could be confirmed that one was pointing to the North Pole, the other was the retired three-star general of the M nation who had "Committed suicide. "Of these two, one was what Uncle Long said, and the other was what Cass told him. They were both intelligence that could only be answered outside, he had already asked Uncle Long to send people to investigate.

As for him, he was here. Obviously, this could be done at the same time, and the two would not be unrelated.

The elevator platform shook slightly, and then it descended.

Yu Tian counted the seconds in his heart. At the same time, he calculated the time of the descent. Compared to the number of floors outside the elevator, he roughly calculated the depth of the descent.

After counting to three seconds, the elevator stopped, and the sound of wind could be heard outside the door.

It seemed that there was a larger space outside.

"Three seconds. Its speed is compared to the outside. Five floors! This place is really deep. It seems that whatever it is hiding here, it doesn't want anyone outside to know."

Yu Tian muttered to himself softly, and the wide and long elevator door in front of him opened.

Yu Tian saw the experimenters in white coats passing by in front of him.

There were also base soldiers armed with assault rifles.

This was an experimental area of a circular plaza. It was like a circular plaza with a circular structure.

Yu Tian walked out and stood in front of the huge glass in front of him. Looking down, he felt that this area was at least the size of five or six large football fields.

Moreover, the plan was very reasonable. If Yu Tian could use one word to describe it, it would be honeycomb.

This was a man-made underground honeycomb-like structure. Rooms with different functions were built on the basis of many laboratories to construct such a large area.

When Yu Tian heard the sound of the wheels of a cart rolling on the ground behind him.

He turned around to take a look. There was a bloody man who was not even covered by a white cloth. His entire body was exposed to the cold air, and he was pushed to the side of the passage by a base soldier.

Yu Tian's gaze also fell on a sign hanging on the man's foot. If his gaze was not wrong and the English words on it were not wrong, it read transformation failure.

The word "Failure" was also written at the end of the sign.

Yu Tian immediately understood.

When he saw a group of soldiers walking towards him, he turned his back and switched on the communication device in his arms at the same time. The fitted earpiece hidden in his ear also emitted a faint electric current sound.

Then, it was Uncle Long's turn from the earpiece, it sounded softly, "Now that I have adjusted the intensity of the sound, you can listen very carefully and it will be very comfortable. However, Xiao Tian, you have to think carefully. Our satellite has already lost your current position. I have roughly obtained some information from the last image that was scanned by the communication device on your chest.. "

Chapter 857 – Chapter 856, Test Area

Yu Tian nodded his head and said softly, "Yes." He lowered his head so that the nearest monitor could not see his face. Although he was wearing a mask, it was inevitable that something would happen to him, therefore, he pretended to be an experimenter who was resting casually. His eyes pretended to be looking at the building areas below. There were small rooms that looked like bungalows.

Uncle Long then said to Yu Tian, "Xiao Tian, although I'm not very sure about your current location, I can be sure that some time ago, the western coast of country M was said to be conducting military exercises. It seems that it was built for such a place. We also have data on the underground of Demon Island. Below it is an extremely hard seabed. Moreover, the depth here is very low. Even a submarine can not be too deep or shallow. It can only float at a depth of five to six meters below the sea level."

When Yu Tian heard Uncle Long's words and saw that the patrolling soldiers had left, he asked in a low voice, "Is this place related to country M?"

"Xiao Tian, although you hold a lot of wealth in the world, and you can even be considered important in the eastern country, if you accidentally trigger a war, everyone will die together. I'm sure you know this as well. After all, you only stopped a world war a year ago, right? That almost destroyed the world!" Uncle Long said slowly, it was also to remind Yu Tian of something.

Because at this moment, Uncle Long also understood that Yu Tian seemed to be planning to use the power of the company, or even the state machinery of the eastern country.

After Yu Tian heard Uncle Long say this, he also stopped some thoughts.

He was still thinking of going to the beautiful seaside for a vacation in the future, and then wandering around the world to travel and retire.

Therefore, Yu Tian decided decisively, he said to Uncle Long in a low voice, "Then I'll investigate and deal with this newly emerged organization with my personal identity. Didn't you give me a new identity on your side?" "The Chu sisters are also carrying out their respective new missions. Leave the forces and challenges that will appear in a year's time to me. As for the new assistants, Pll also look for them. However, your side is still my biggest support in the dark. "

Uncle long replied, "Yes, alright. It's not just the company, nor is it just the Chu family. That Lord from the country has also said that whatever you want to do, he will believe in you. The entire eastern country will also support your every move. "

"Hehe, so much face?"

"We all know that you once had the opportunity to control or even destroy the world, but you stood up to stop it. I believe that that Lord will naturally believe in you as well. Xiao Tian, this is the respect and trust we have for you, "Uncle Long said affirmatively, he had a deep impression of what had happened a year ago.

If it had been anyone else or him who had made that final decision, it would have been hard to say!

Therefore, the admiration he had for Yu Tian was also the respect he had for that person.

It was simply beyond admiration, not to mention Yu Tian's ability and the power he possessed.

It was enough for him to look down on many countries in the world.

Yu Tian did not dwell on these words. It did not matter who admired him or gave him face. What he was most concerned about was how he could dig out everything in front of him bit by bit and solve it in one breath, he was in the dark and did not have the threat of staying in the rules that he had designed.

Assassin games, such competitions were not something that anyone could do.

At this time, Uncle Long also continued to tell Yu Tian, "One of our secret service personnel who is heading to country M is a newcomer. Should we send him over to your side?"

"Hehe, Uncle Long, you are getting more and more professional with this new company. There are even secret service personnel here. Are they also ancient martial arts practitioners that we have trained ourselves?"

"Of course. You didn't care about anything this year. I created this for you, the boss! I have to manage this well for you, the boss. Otherwise, what if you come back and resign me?"

Hearing Uncle Long's words, Yu Tian couldn't help but smile. It was really like that.

It seemed that Uncle Long was better at managing things than he was. It seemed that it was very right to hand these things over to him back then. At this moment, Yu Tian asked, "Has the newcomer arrived in country M?" "According to Yesterday's reply, he has already arrived. What's the matter?"

"Then don't come to my place. Go directly to investigate the matter of the three-star retired general."

"En, okay. I understand what you mean, Little Tian." Uncle Long said and asked, "The newcomer doesn't know your identity. Is it the same as before?" "Yes, just call me No. 1 or commander. Yu Tian is fine too, but I'm afraid that if you call me that, as Uncle Long, you won't respect me enough. When we go back, you'll definitely have to yell at them again. "

"Of course. Xiaotian, you're the boss."

After Yu Tian explained the details to Uncle Long, he heard the footsteps of new patrolling soldiers approaching, he hurriedly said in a low voice, "I've already memorized this place. I'm going to go back and draw a map of this place first. I'm going to leave now. Otherwise, I'll definitely arouse suspicion. Uncle Long, just follow my instructions. "

"HMM, you don't plan to go any deeper?"

"If you stay too long, you'll be suspected. You'll have to make more preparations. It's enough to find this place today."

"Hehe, Little Tian, you've become calmer. I'm even more impressed."

Yu Tian returned to his room in time. At the same time, Cass also returned.

Naturally, Cass did not gain anything, but Yu Tian was full of gains.

Yu Tian could be said to have a lot of things here. He had drawn out all the things that he had memorized in his mind.

Cass looked at the things on the map and listened to Yu Tian's explanation. He could not help but be filled with admiration.

Cass looked at the things on the map and listened to Yu Tian's explanation. He could not help but be filled with admiration.

Now, to him, Yu Tian was like the core of a leader.

After listening and looking at the things drawn on the map, Cass was very surprised that there was actually such a big place hidden in this place below. It even had a close relationship with the M nation's military, it was not as simple as dealing with an organization. It was more like challenging a country, the current world overlord of the M Nation.

Yu Tian did not think too much about these problems. He could only think about the matter in front of him.

Although he was a person who was prepared for a rainy day, he was definitely not a person who would aim too high.

He spread this simple but well-prepared draft map on the bed, pointing at the entrance, he said, "I brought that finger. After I left the experimental area below, I touched a lot of strong acid and melted his body into the toilet.. "

Chapter 858 – Chapter 857, Making Plans

As Cass listened to this handsome but determined man in front of him, his heart was filled with incomparable admiration. He had even thought through every step of his plans.

He had even paid close attention to some simple details, ensuring that he would not leave any traces for others to catch. This was the terror of grasping the details. Instead, he did not seem like a criminal at all, instead, it was a real killer.

Perhaps it was because he saw the shock in Cass'eyes, or perhaps it was just a casual mention by Yu Tian, he simply said, "As I said before, I'm not just a killer. I prefer to call myself a killer hunter.

Because I've killed the most people, and instead of being hired to kill some ordinary people, I'm ordinary not because of his status, but because of his ability."

Then, Yu Tian continued, "Instead, it's powerful people like you, and even these killers who have participated in the killer game.

"You came to the competition for money or something else, and I came here to kill you, specifically to kill people like you."

After Yu Tian finished speaking, he turned around and continued with his work. He had to pay attention to many details, including the guns that the patrolling soldiers were equipped with, and the time when they arrived at a location each time they patrolled.

All of these could not go wrong. No matter how powerful he was, he could not take on hundreds of guns head-on. Then, facing hundreds of anti-explosive soldiers armed with these guns, he would go on a killing spree, just like in the movies.

That was obviously impossible.

At least, for now, Yu Tian felt that it was impossible. As for if he continued to practice ancient martial arts to the top, Yu Tian thought about his golden needles and still had an expectation that was not very reliable.

As for Cass, after hearing what Yu Tian said, he was even more shocked in his heart!

Other than some fear in his eyes as he looked at Yu Tian, it was replaced by worship for Yu Tian.

It was a kind of worship that originated from reverence. It could be said that it originated from the worship of the strong, a worship that originated from the heart.

Cass did not speak anymore. He only focused his attention on the draft that Yu Tian was working on adding in detail. Then, he listened carefully and did not dare to be distracted. He told himself to remember the new master.., every word that this boss told him, he was afraid of dragging Yu Tian down.

If Yu Tian knew that Cass actually had such thoughts, he would definitely regret what he told him. His original intention was not to scare this guy, instead, he wanted to let him know that he did not need to be protected at all times. He, Cass, was not only his bodyguard, but also a subordinate like a brother. He wanted to risk his life with him and then go through fire and water.

Yu Tian liked this feeling. This was also the key reason why he dared to take such a risk here.

It was not just because of the threat of this new unknown force.

It was also because he had already rested for a year, and he already missed the taste of "Danger. ".

After Yu Tian put down the things in his hands, he looked at the serious Cass with great satisfaction, then, he instructed him, "But if we want to go deeper in a safer way, what do we need? "The real documents inside, so for this week's work in the laundry room, especially the matter of collecting clothes, you have to let me and you join in. You know what I mean, right?"

Cass nodded and said, "Okay, the team leader of this area is that damn fatty Locke. I know he likes to drink. Coincidentally, I can get a very good bottle of wine here, which is hidden by a guy I know,

"No matter how much he doesn't like me, he won't stop me from taking advantage of the opportunity to collect clothes and find some opportunities to get some money to live a good life for me on the island."

When Yu Tian heard this reason and this reason that was so perfect that it could be believed, it also contained an obvious "Selfish" intention to make the other party believe it. This was simply too clever.

Yu Tian was very satisfied, so he asked Cass to take action now.

As for that bottle of wine, Yu Tian did not want to know what it was, nor did he want to know who had gotten it. He only wanted a simple result.

When night came, Cass returned to his room.

He still had a bottle of good whiskey in his hand, which seemed to have come from France.

Yu Tian took a look and asked directly, "That damn fatty likes this thing?" Cass nodded and said, "Yes, he also likes to drink this thing with Coke." When Yu Tian heard that, he was full of admiration. Then, he said to Cass, "You'll be back in half an hour. If you don't come back, I'll think that you've failed to make a deal with that guy and met with danger..

Then, I'll definitely go look for you. At that time, no matter what my brothers encounter, I'll kill that Damn Fatty."

Hearing this, Cass was even more moved. Suddenly, he felt that following Yu Tian was really the right thing to do.

As expected, the bosses of the eastern country were all different. They were completely different from the bosses and big brothers he knew before.

Cass nodded his head heavily and started to handle this matter.

As for Yu Tian, he counted down the time and slowly closed his eyes. He was indeed worried about this new underling that he had just taken in, as long as he was willing to work with him, he would be a brother. Yu Tian had to ensure that he could fulfill his promise to bring this fellow away from this ghost island safely. He would also give him a chance to live under the Sun.

This was what Yu Tian had promised, so he did not want to break his promise. This was not his character.

Just like that, Yu Tian waited until the last minute of half an hour. He picked up his military knife, put away the golden needles, and planned to leave this house.

To his surprise, when he walked out of the door of the room, Cass came back.

It was just that his arm seemed to have suffered some serious injuries.

Cass answered honestly, "Although that damn fatty agreed, he fought with me. Although he didn't take advantage of me, he bit my hand viciously. At least a piece of flesh fell off.

Yu Tian turned his head to look at the cell area in front of him. Then, he looked at the fatty dragging his limping fat body, as if he was planning to head to the infirmary, he just smiled and said, "No need. I will handle this for you. That Fat Man doesn't seem to be having a good time either. I need you to tell me the result now.

"Okay, Boss. "Call me tian-ge."

"Yes, tian-ge."

After Yu Tian got the result, the Fat Man naturally agreed. However, he only gave him three hours.

Moreover, he really wanted money. Yu Tian felt that it was easy. He directly took out dozens of big dollar bills from his pocket and said, "I will give them to him tomorrow. This is what I brought with me when I came here..))

Chapter 859 – Chapter 858, Leader Moss

Early the next morning.

Yu Tian followed Cass and went to collect the labor protection gloves.

The two of them were just like diligent little bees, loving labor.

This made the surrounding people's eyes fall out of their sockets.

Only that damned Fatty Locke, who knew the "Truth", glanced at them briefly before returning to his office. He crossed his legs and sat on the sofa, enjoying the massages of his underlings.

As for the table in front of him, there were more than ten large American dollars on it.

Even though mosquitoes were small, they were still meat.

Not to mention that the reason why they came to this place was for money, lots and lots of money.

Yu Tian whistled and did not give any face at all. He would kick anyone he saw on the road.

All of this fell into the eyes of the warden who was in the monitoring room.

Steel Claw, who was beside him, was also observing Yu Tian on the screen, finally, he said to the warden, "Mr. Warden, this guy is not as simple as he looks. Should we expel him from demon island or kill him completely in the next assassin competition?"

Regarding Steel Claw's suggestion..., the warden shook his head and said, "No! No! No! You wouldn't understand. You are a cold and heartless man. You wouldn't understand how much wealth such a fighter would be to us.

Moreover, you have seen his value. He is a person who wants to make money and does all kinds of evil. "

Steel Claw was silent. He didn't know how to explain to the warden how he felt about this Yu Tian Guy.

However, he knew that there was nothing wrong with keeping a close eye on this person.

Steel Claw turned to the side and found a subordinate. He told him something and instructed him to do it.

This subordinate nodded and agreed. He did not dare to disobey and immediately went down to do it.

The task given to him by Steel Claw leader was very simple. Keep an eye on this

Yu Tian Fellow.

As for Cass, he also kept an eye on him.

In the eyes of Steel Claw, Cass's submission to Yu Tian was too quick. This was because he understood Cass. He was an extremely proud Indian monk. Generally, he would not simply submit to any opponent stronger than him, he would not simply submit.

However, Cass 'complete submission to Yu Tian was enough to make him feel extremely surprised.

Steel Claw looked at the Easterner in the prison surveillance and revealed a deep vigilance.

"Everyone, your clothes and all the dirty things, obediently throw them here. Oh right, don't throw them, or your heads will immediately appear in the toilet! "Yu Tian shouted from the side with his arms crossed, looking at those extremely vicious people, they obediently walked over like primary school students and threw things in the cart.

The people here were all the fearful killers outside. They were even criminals who had been sentenced to a heavy sentence.

But here, when they met a powerhouse like Yu Tian, they were all more obedient than dogs.

As for Cass, he didn't even need Yu Tian to do anything. He took over the cart the entire time, but he wouldn't give Yu Tian the chance to do it.

Yu Tian wasn't allowed to do these dirty and tiring tasks at all.

Surprisingly, he was a loyal subordinate and a qualified bodyguard.

Although in Yu Tian's opinion, he didn't need it at all.

However, Yu Tian also began to record every place he passed by and perfected many details on the map.

At this moment, Uncle Long was also transmitting the latest news through his earpiece.

However, at this moment, a reckless fellow pushed aside the guards in front of him and came to Yu Tian in a very displeased manner, he glared at Yu Tian and said, "Hey, you brat, are you that person from the Dongfang Kingdom?"

Yu Tian looked at the muscular man in front of him who was as big as an ox. He looked at the muscles on his body, especially the black fur on his chest and vest that could not be blocked. Yu Tian revealed a disgusted expression that could not be concealed.

Yu Tian scolded him, "Get out of my sight, you disgusting ape! "

"What did you say? You're courting death!"

The muscular man angrily reached out his hand and wanted to grab Yu Tian's neck. However, when he reached out his hand, Yu Tian quickly grabbed his wrist and even grabbed his small wrist joint.

This fellow seemed to know the power of joint techniques. He quickly reached out his other hand and planned to use both hands to break free.

At this time, Cass had already reacted and came forward to help.

However, when he saw Yu Tian looking over, he immediately understood and stopped in his tracks.

Yu Tian had asked him not to help, so he naturally didn't dare to move recklessly. Moreover, he didn't think that Moss was a match for his new master, Yu Tian.

Moss was the leader of this region and also a team leader. Most importantly, he was Crowe's disciple.

Demon Island had its own small world and rules.

Crowe failed his mission that day.

Because the warden said to kill everyone.

Although the warden would not blame Crowe, as his disciple, Moss had been waiting for this opportunity for a long time after knowing that it was Yu Tian who caused everything.

Moss struggled free with both hands, and it was all because of his bull-like strength, which surprised Yu Tian.

Although MO Si

I

s strength was shocking, Yu Tian was not surprised. He changed his hand into a dragon claw and grabbed MO Si's wrist.

He then took a step back and used inner strength with one hand. With a fierce strike, MO Si s body was pulled out of balance and he fell forward.

Yu Tian used one hand to pull back, and his right leg kicked toward MO Si's left calf.

This kick was still successful, and Moss 'calf was broken on the spot.

Moss 'reaction was extremely quick. He took a step back and instantly gritted his teeth. He used all the strength in his arms in an attempt to escape!

However, under everyone's incomparably shocked gazes, Yu Tian, who appeared to be a weak and gentle young man, actually pulled Moss 'body, which was as heavy as his body, to the side with one hand, and even backhanded with a palm, he pushed moss to his chest.

He used his strength to push Moss, who had wanted to escape and retreat, with another huge push.

He stumbled and fell head first into the cart basket behind him.

He was simply in a sorry state!

This scene, when the nosy people around looked on, was so shocking that their jaws almost fell to the ground.

They had never seen a guy like Moss suffer a loss, let alone fall so miserably.

Especially in this place on Demon Island.

Because Moss was too strong, he directly sat in the stroller full of stinky clothes.

It was extremely comical.

The busybodies around all cast happy expressions..

Chapter 860 – Chapter 859, Domination!

"Oh my God! Am I seeing things?"

"Oh my god, he actually flipped moss into a pile of smelly clothes."

"This is interesting. This guy will become the leader of Demon Island."

"The mysterious Easterner. Looking at him, he seems to be an assassin, right?"

"What assassin? He is a terrorist criminal who has committed a serious crime and escaped safely in a country like the Easterner. Do you think he is an assassin? That's too stupid!"

"Leader Moss is also a tyrant in our region. However, he is much weaker when compared to this Easterner."

The discussions in the surroundings were incessant. Every sentence stimulated Moss's self-esteem.

Mos was extremely furious. He kept throwing away the dirty clothes on his body one by one. His eyes were bloodshot and his eyes were about to split open. One could see how difficult it was for him to control his anger at this moment!

"Yu Tian! ! !"

"Yu Tian"

MOS shouted Yu Tian's name from his throat. He used both of his hands to grab the edges of the cart with all his might, and with a sudden burst of strength, he destroyed the entire cart into pieces.

The cart was separated from the sides, and the dirty clothes were scattered on the ground.

As for MOS, he also stood up from these things. He glared at Yu Tian across from him, and his eyes were full of anger.

Yu Tian looked at his unbearable appearance and did not forget his "Position" at all times, so he put on a disdainful and sarcastic look, he pointed at Moss' nose and scolded, "You just crawled out of the Cesspit, why are you still thinking of fighting me standing up? I suggest you kneel down and

Kowtow to Me for mercy, or you won't have the chance to go back to your Master Crowe and complain with your snot! Hahahaha. "

Yu Tian Yangtian laughed loudly. He was very arrogant, very arrogant. He did not put anyone in his eyes at all.

If he compared these clothes to a cesspool, didn't that mean that he treated the surrounding guards as if they were the things in the toilet?

However, even though Yu Tian said so, the surrounding people who were outside were all evil fellows. None of them dared to say a word.

The meaning of Yu Tian's words was that everyone here was trash.

Moss was no longer simply angry. He was so angry that his entire body was trembling.

"You're courting death! ! !"

Moss let out a furious roar. Like a bull, he charged fiercely towards Yu Tian. Yu Tian's lips curled into a smile. He knew that this fellow, Moss, belonged to the type of strength-type enemy.

Naturally, he did not intend to fight head-on with him.

Although Yu Tian was confident that he could suppress such an opponent in terms of strength, the amount of energy he spent was not proportional to the benefits he would gain from fighting the enemy.

Yu Tian responded calmly. Looking at the furious bull charging towards him, he pushed the clouds with one hand and waved his hand to form a palm. His eyes were extremely determined and his expression was extremely calm.

Just as Moss was about to touch Yu Tian in the blink of an eye, the two of them were less than three inches away from each other.

Just as everyone thought that Yu Tian was about to be smashed into a wall and crushed into a meat patty!

There were even some fellows who thought that they would be able to see a bloody scene. They could not help but whistle and let out strange cries!

"Shh Shh Shh!"

"Wa wa wa wa, Wu Wu Wu Wu! "

"Crash him to death!"

"Crush him! "

However, when they were about to witness a person's corpse lying on the ground, Yu Tian blocked moss in the hundreds of eyes around him!

Yes, it was the one who used only one hand to block Moss's arms like a collision board.

There was complete silence!

All the strange sounds came to an abrupt stop.

Even a buddy who was drinking water had controlled his urge to swallow the water, and he did not dare to make any sound.

Something fell to the ground and made a ping-pong sound. The surrounding people were startled awake by this sound, and all of them stared at the scene in front of them with their mouths Agape, they didn't know what kind of sound to make, because it was too unbelievable.

How could such a thin and gentle-looking guy block the ramming of a bull.

Such strength was enough to flip over a small car.

However, Yu Tian in front of him only used one hand to block this mad bull.

He blocked it with one hand and threw a punch at Mos' arms, stopping mos in front of him.

Mos 'blood-red eyes were filled with shock.

How could Yu Tian block his attack?

Yu Tian saw his opponent's shock. He merely smiled and said provocatively,

"Are you a raging bull or a calf plowing the land? You're really useless! "

"You 're really a skinny monkey who doesn't know life from Death! "MOS also roared in anger. He waved his fists and smashed them towards Yu Tian, he roared angrily, "Can you withstand this move of mine? You Disgusting Yellow Monkey, Skinny Little Shorty, die! "

Yu Tian laughed coldly. He had a lot of fun with this kind of angry big guy.

Yu Tian dodged nimbly. After dodging lightly, he turned around and stepped on a wall. With a leap, he jumped over Moss'fist. Then, with an extremely gorgeous movement technique, he circled behind Moss, a punch landed on Moss 'lower back with an explosive force!

Bang!

A low and deep sound of air exploding rang out.

Following this sound, Moss was directly pushed forward by a huge force from behind him. He stumbled forward and crashed into the iron door in front of him.

Clang!

The crisp sound of his head crashing into the iron door rang out.

Yu Tian clapped his hands as he looked at his masterpiece, he smiled very interestingly and said, "It sounds good, so I'll tell a guy like you that I've rehearsed all of your attacks in my mind. Now that you've even crashed your head into the door, I've already thought of it for you. So, don't think that you can defeat me, because you don't deserve it!"

MOS felt a sharp pain in his lower back. He felt that his entire kidney was being pressed down by a drill bit!

That kind of pain made mos so painful that tears were about to flow out of his eyes.

MOS was not an idiot. He instantly thought of something a€" a€" the ancient martial arts of the east!

Mos took a deep breath. When he heard the ridicule from the people behind him, he turned around again. This time, he did not dare to be careless! Yu Tian saw the wariness in Moss's eyes. He also withdrew his mocking attitude.

This was because Moss had started to let go of his contempt. It was clear that he planned to take a more realistic attitude towards his enemy. Towards such an opponent, Yu Tian had his own respect and caution.

Regardless of his strength!

This was the attitude that Yu Tian had always had when he was a killer hunter..

Chapter 861 – Chapter 860, Ten Minutes

Such an attitude allowed Yu Tian to survive many times.

Therefore, his caution and caution had always been the guarantee of his survival.

Mosi took a step forward and performed a very standard karate starting stance. He placed his palms on his waist and did a knife hand.

Yu Tian looked at Mosi in front of him. He could tell that the martial arts that this guy had learned from Crowe was the Japanese karate that was living a good life.

It seemed that the Westerners really liked this set of martial arts.

However, in Yu Tian's opinion, the short Japanese people were suitable for this set of karate martial arts, and not the burly westerners like Moss.

Moss took a deep breath and lowered his hands to his waist. He took a step forward with his left foot and pulled with his right foot. It was as if everything was natural.

Yu Tian could vaguely see the faint aura on his body, especially his palms.

Yu Tian looked at his palms and said, "Inner strength? It seems that you have some ability. "

MO Si stared at Yu Tian and put away his anger, he said to him seriously, "General Ke Luo is my master, and you are the person I want to challenge. Now I officially challenge you. I apologize for my disrespect to you. You are a martial artist. I didn't know before, but now in my eyes, you are not a criminal! "

Yu Tian also stopped looking down on him. His eyes showed some surprise.

This burly guy didn't seem to make him feel so disgusted anymore.

At this moment, Moss was like a martial artist, challenging him.

"I practice the ancient martial arts of the eastern country, and the karate you learn can't be compared to the martial arts inheritance of our great Xia. Now, you are just trying to verify what you have learned. Your Real Master should be my eastern country." Yu Tian took a step back, he also struck out with his front palm and back fist. The difference was that he already had a lot of understanding of the ancient martial arts. Although this fellow opposite him was not an ancient martial arts practitioner, he had managed to cultivate his own inner strength.

After discovering this, Yu Tian seemed to be looking forward to his golden needle's continuous growth.

However, he had yet to discover his own cultivation path.

Yu Tian had always been without a teacher. What he learned and felt, he could only rely on himself.

He half-closed his eyes, and in an instant, he felt that his body was filled with a wonderful power.

For a moment, his hands were also covered, but only he could feel the wonderful aura.

Moss' eyes were even hotter. He also sensed that strand of special power on Yu Tian's body.

That was also unique to warriors like them.

MO Si had heard his master, Crowe, mention that among the mysterious martial arts of the eastern country, there was an even more powerful cultivator, and that was the ancient martial art!

Speaking of the extraordinary power of the ancient martial art, MO Si still remembered the yearning in his master, General Crowe's eyes at that time.

The next moment.

Moss made his move!

He took a step forward and charged towards Yu Tian.

Yu Tian smiled confidently. He turned his hand into a palm and grabbed moss' one-handed fist. With a step forward punch, he directly punched Moss' chest!

Bang!

It was the same dull sound of air exploding.

"Cough, cough, cough! "Moss took a punch to his chest and kept retreating. He covered his chest with one hand and showed an extremely pained expression!

The next second!

Puchi!

Moss spat out a mouthful of blood.

The surrounding guards had extremely astonished expressions on their faces.

They could not see Yu Tian 's punch clearly at all. They did not even think that Yu Tian could react to Moss's punch and even receive it., he could even dissolve it in an instant, disassembling the attack and striking back with a sharp blow at the same time!

At the same time, Cass, who had been watching Yu Tian's battle closely, looked at his new master and once again revealed an expression of endless admiration.

He had not mistaken this master. This person indeed possessed a martial path that was different from his cultivation path.

At this moment., cass was even more determined in his heart. "No matter what, I must follow this master to the death. No matter what, I must ensure his safety and become his subordinate. This is a great honor for me. I should be able to learn from him what master told me back then. I need the opportunity to advance to a new realm! "

Just as Kass was having this thought, a man with a whiskey in his hand stood by the fence on the second floor with a stubble on his beard. He looked down at the battle below, especially when he noticed Yu Tian, his eyes revealed a strange admiration. As for Moss, he was his disciple and the only person here whom he felt a little worried about.

This person was General Crowe, who was the captain of the bomb squad that had entered the canteen that day.

Crowe treated Moss as his child. As for the others, they had nothing to do with him.

At this moment, a man whose hands were like steel claws strolled to General Crowe's side, he looked at the two people fighting below and asked, "General Crowe, you have to tell me something. Did you teach Moss martial arts that doesn't belong to the West?"

Crowe raised his head and drank the whiskey in his hand, looking at him with disdain, he sneered and said, "Ha, they are not martial techniques. They are martial arts that belong to the eastern country, and not ordinary martial arts. They are not things that those old men in the eastern country practice in the square. They are real martial arts! "

"What do you mean?"

"Ancient martial arts practitioners, the real powerhouses of the eastern country the practitioners of ancient martial arts! "

"Hmph, I know, but no matter how powerful a martial art is, it's only human strength. And the great project that we kroni will be doing is to change all of us and become soldiers like Super Warriors!"

"Is that so? But I think it's just a human experiment!"

"General Crowe, shouldn't you go to the psychological treatment room? I feel that I still have to tell the warden. Do you have doubts about our cause?" General Crowe ignored steel claw. He felt that he and Steel Claw would never chat on the same channel.

To be more precise, they were not the same group of people at all.

Although they were in the same place and were from the same organization.

However, from the bottom of his heart, Crowe did not agree with this guy. It was even about the organization behind them.

As for Steel Claw, after seeing that Crowe ignored him, his gaze also fell on Yu Tian who was fighting below.

Yu Tian was more powerful than he had expected!

It even made him have a feeling that Yu Tian still had a lot of true strength hidden away.

A terrifying man who was worthy of vigilance!

Crowe said at this time, "In ten minutes, Moss will immediately lose the challenge.. "

Chapter 862 – : Chapter 861, Steel Claw

Crowe's assertion made steel claw sneer, "As Moss'master, you look down on your own disciple? How could that Easterner be so strong?"

Crowe glanced at Steel Claw and shook his head without saying anything. He only felt that Steel Claw was as arrogant and arrogant as the prison warden.

The difference was that Steel Claw was only a dog, while the prison warden was a madman.

As expected, before Crowe could finish his sentence in ten minutes, Yu Tian had knocked Moss to the ground with one punch.

An uppercut had knocked Moss's jaw out of its socket, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

However, Yu Tian did not continue to attack Moss, who was lying on the ground, to take his life.

If he had killed Moss here and now, no one would blame him.

Because on Demon Island, under the rule of that crazy prison warden, people died every day.

The new batch of killers who had just arrived yesterday had already died and were thrown into the sea to feed the fish.

Moss 'eyes turned white. Yu Tian walked over, squatted down, and slapped him on the left side of his face.

The slap was so heavy that Moss 'head was tilted to the side.

He also woke up in a daze.

Yu Tian stood up and returned to the damaged cart. He said to Cass, "Bring a new one. I'll wait for you here. "

"But? "Cass looked around. He was obviously worried that Yu Tian would be alone here, especially when he saw the steel claws and Crowe on the second floor above him. His wariness was even more obvious.

Yu Tian had noticed everything that Cass saw, especially the steel claws on the second floor.

During the few days he was here, he had also learned a lot about the organization and some key figures here.

This guy whose hands had been transformed into sharp claws naturally couldn't escape his understanding.

As for Crowe, Yu Tian wasn't worried that he would make a move on someone he was familiar with.

He saw something familiar from Crowe's body A SOLDIER! "Hurry up and go back. Also, I need to do something alone. "

"Yes, Master."

Cass nodded and turned around to leave.

Yu Tian looked at this fellow and realized that this western monk still called him (master'

It was as if he treated himself as a slave.

At this time, the people around them, especially the curious ones, all came to the side of Moss, who was lying on the ground. Although he had woken up, he was still in a daze.

"Hey, Hey, Hey, Big Guy? You lost. Tell me, how did you get into trouble with such a guy? The Bane of the East! "

"Hehe, I think from now on, we guards and those killers might not be able to defeat this guy."

"Can't? Then let the warden do it!"

"Scram, scram, scram. Don't drag me along. What nonsense are you talking about?"

"For God's sake, can one of you bring him a basin of water to sober him up?"

"Why don't we just Pee? While he still doesn't know who's who, he's still in a daze."

"You're really a bastard! "

Yu Tian stood at the side and pretended to be humming a little tune as if he had nothing to do. However, his peripheral vision had always been paying attention to the two people on the second floor.

Ke Luo had fought with him before. Although the two of them were like commanders of their own teams, they had never seen ke Luo before.

However, it could be seen that this ke Luo's skills were good.

He was experienced in offense, integrated offense and defense, and was also full of strength.

As for Steel Claw, Yu Tian paid more attention to his hands that were embedded in his palms with steel claws.

He had heard Cass mention that this guy had lost both of his hands.

It was when he was outside that the Mafia had managed to dodge both of his hands.

Later, no one knew where Steel Claw went. When he returned to his city, people discovered that his lost hands had been replaced by a pair of pitch-black claws.

Those claws were made of pure black steel, and Steel Claw had used these new hands to take revenge. He had killed all the Mafia in his city, a total of 130 people.

When Yu Tianchu heard about this, he was only curious about Steel Claw.

But now, when he saw this guy, there was only a hint of vigilance in his eyes.

Steel Claw was an assassin. Yu Tian saw the shadows of many assassins he had met before.

He was an assassin Hunter. He was very familiar with the aura and unique temperament of an assassin.

Such a person was often a danger hidden in the dark.

Therefore, Yu Tian had already started to plan in his heart how to kill this man called Steel Claw.

"Go Away! You Bunch of small fries, when I recover, I will turn all of you into meat pies."

At this moment, Moss completely woke up. Although he had a mouthful of blood and his face was badly bruised, he looked very miserable.

However, he was still the person in charge of this area. The team leader here was also extremely powerful.

At least in this area, this area was considered "Outstanding".

Therefore, the surrounding busybodies all hurriedly avoided him. Even one of the guys who was about to pick a bird to pee quickly turned his back and escaped.

Shush! "

A loud whistle came from the second floor.

Moss looked over. It was his master, Crowe, who was waving at him with a smile.

Moss lowered his head in shame. Then, he pulled open the iron door without looking back, intending to treat his injuries.

Looking at the big guy who had walked away, Yu Tian remembered this guy in his heart.

He felt that this big guy from Moss could be used. He was just brainless, so he wasn't really annoying.

sound was heard.

Yu Tian turned his head and looked over. Steel Claw jumped over the fence on the second floor and onto the ground on the first floor. It was still looking at him.

Looking at Steel Claw who was staring at him, Yu Tian frowned and snapped his middle finger at him. It was just like the character character that he wanted to act out, he shouted unhappily, "Come on, do you want to exchange blows too? What the Hell Are You? Come and fight! Look at how your father hits people, how do you envy your father's skill? Then you have to go back and ask your mother if my skill is something that even she admires!"

If the Sisters of the Chu family were here, they would definitely not recognize Yu Tian who said that.

However, Yu Tian, who had gone through countless assassin competitions, had already learned how to hide and disguise himself.

Even his acquaintances would not be able to recognize him.

Crowe looked at Yu Tian, who was downstairs, amused. He realized that he liked this kid more and more.

That day, the cafeteria felt that he was an opponent, a "Strong enemy" or "Prey" that could be killed.

Now, it seemed that they could be more like friends, drinking a few cups of whiskey and chatting.

Steel Claw did not move. He just stared at Yu Tian with cold eyes. There was no sign of anger at all..

Chapter 863 – Chapter 862, I've Got It!

The Calmer Steel Claw was, the more Yu Tian felt that his potential danger was higher.

Just as Yu Tian thought that it would end like this!

Steel Claw's figure suddenly moved!

In the blink of an eye, a sharp claw with killing intent had already charged straight at Yu Tian's face.

The surrounding people had not reacted in time!

Just as some people were planning to wait for their heads to explode and bleed all over the ground, their heads would be split open.

Or maybe Yu Tian dodged strangely and gave Steel Claw a sharp counterattack.

But in the next second, none of these appeared.

A sharp steel claw stopped an inch away from Yu Tian's eyes.

Even if Yu Tian blinked his eyes, he could feel the Sharp Claw's blade with his eyelashes.

But Yu Tian did not dodge. He did not even blink his eyes. There was only a calm and seemingly disdainful indifference.

Yu Tian could dodge, but he did not Dodge.

As for Steel Claw's right claw, as long as it took one more step, Yu Tian's face would be in great pain.

Steel Claw's pair of cold eyes stared at the man in front of him. A hint of uncertainty flashed past his eyes as he asked, "Are you really not going to Dodge?"

Yu Tian laughed in his heart. His eyes were filled with disdain as he said, "Is there a need to dodge? There is no killing intent in your eyes."

Steel Claw smiled when he heard that. He could not deny that Yu Tian was right.

He did not plan to kill this Yu Tian right now.

He just wanted to test something.

And now, he had gotten the answer he wanted.

Steel Claw withdrew his sharp claws and stopped provoking Yu Tian.

However, he still stared at Yu Tian and warned, "I will continue to keep an eye on you. You have to be careful. Demon Island belongs to the warden. It is not a place that outsiders like you can mess up. "

Yu Tian smiled and did not comment.

At this moment, Cass pushed a car over and said, "Boss, I'm Back! "

"Pick up your clothes. We love to work. "

"Boss, I'll do it. You stop."

Steel Claw did not stay here any longer and walked out of this area.

As for Yu Tian, he went to the next area.

Yu Tian followed Cass and collected the dirty clothes in several areas. However, just as they were about to enter the area that Yu Tian had discovered yesterday, they were stopped by two soldiers guarding the Iron Gate.

Cass went up to explain his purpose of coming, but they only pointed to the room next to it.

It was the place where Yu Tian had killed that unlucky guy the day before, but there seemed to be no one there now.

After Yu Tian followed Cass into the room, he searched around and found nothing that they wanted.

At this moment, Cass saw the ID cards on the chests of the two base soldiers at the door and had an idea at that moment.

Cass suggested to Yu Tian, "Boss, should we start with these two guys?"

Yu Tian nodded in agreement. However, there were surveillance cameras outside, so it was obvious that they could not do it outside. He also did not have the mini electronic interference system, which was especially important.

However, Yu Tian was also smart. After whispering to Cass, Cass smiled knowingly.

Then, Cass pushed down a cabinet at the side.

Bang!

The heavy sound still alarmed the two soldiers outside.

At the same time, Cass pretended to quarrel with Yu Tian and roared angrily, "B * stard, do you want to take a bath in the toilet? Let me tell you, I'm going to teach you a good lesson today! "

Yu Tian also roared, "Who do you think you are? Are you courting death?"

After saying that, he kicked the chair in front of him.

With a clang, he kicked it to the ground.

At this moment, the two soldiers outside finally couldn't hold it in anymore and directly walked in with guns in their hands.

As soon as they pushed open the door, they saw two guys who were at daggers drawn. There was also chaos on the ground, especially the cabinet that had fallen to the ground. A lot of shoes and socks that everyone had changed into were scattered.

A base soldier said unhappily through his mask and helmet, "What are you guys doing? There's not allowed to be too much noise here. If you want to fight, go up and fight. Even if you die, it's up to you. But Not Here! "

"Right, hurry up and pick up what you want to take. Hurry up and get lost. "

Yu Tian pretended to be obedient and squatted down to pick up his clothes. He looked like he was worried and afraid.

As for Cass, he walked to the side as if he was trying to pick up the fallen cabinet.

The angle of the two men was exactly one on the left and one on the right of the two base soldiers.

Seeing this, the two base soldiers gave each other a look and intended to turn around and leave.

They felt that these two guys were not in any danger, even if one of them was the Easterner who had been rumored to be very famous on Demon Island recently.

But the moment they turned around!

Yu Tian moved!

With a swing of his hand, two golden needles flew out from his hands. They were as fast as lightning and directly pierced into the back of the necks of these two people. That was the most vulnerable part, and also the weakest part of their defenses.

Once the two golden needles entered their necks, these two people were instantly stunned!

As if they had been hit by something, their entire bodies froze!

In the next moment, it was Cass who suddenly grabbed their heads with his arms.

Crack! Crack Crack Crack!

As the helmets were crushed, the sound of their skulls being crushed was heard.

Just like that, the two soldiers in riot gear were strangled to death by Cass with his arms.

Even their skulls were crushed along with the helmet. Blood, flesh, and some vicious white things were slowly seeping out from the cracks in the helmet.

Yu Tian did not feel disgusted. He just hurriedly searched for the documents on their bodies.

Then, he said to Cass, "Use corrosive water to stuff their bodies into that toilet. "

"Is there strong acid corrosion there?"

"I left a bottle in the toilet here. You can use it directly. "

"Didn't I just kill one here yesterday? It must have been flushed away by the toilet. "

Hearing that, Cass quickly took action. It was dangerous to stay here for one more minute.

Moreover, there were some drops of blood on the ground. He had to quickly wipe it clean before it was dry.

"I'll find two sets of their clothes. There are a lot of them here. Throw them in when they secretly pass by our room later."

As Yu Tian said this, he also moved quickly, but he did not dare to delay at all.

As for Cass, he was cleaning up the bodies in the bathroom. He could decompose the bodies of two people with just brute force alone.

Yu Tian's understanding of Cass had improved a lot again.

As he had said before, Yu Tian would not feel sympathy here.

These guys were not good people. Naturally, this included these soldiers.

Yu Tian knew from the calluses on their hands that these were the hands that held guns and knives all year round.

Even the scars on their bodies had been through many battlefields.

They were all executioners. They were not ordinary people and did not deserve any sympathy..

Chapter 864 – : Chapter 863: Killing With A Nod Of The Head

More than ten minutes later, a murder scene was perfectly cleaned up.

There was not even a trace left behind. Yu Tian and the others did not leave any trace behind.

When they pushed the door open and walked out, the room behind them was as usual.

It was just a messy room with a simple change of clothes.

As Cass pushed the cart, Yu Tian took one last look at the iron door behind him that led deeper underground, he said in a low voice, "We'll take action tonight. I heard that there's a two-person assassin competition in the arena today. It's in the two-person competition area next door. This is a good opportunity for us."

"Got it, Boss."

"Yeah, let's go eat something later."

"What about these clothes?"

"Uh, you're not really planning to wash them, are you? Have you heard of prison bullies?"

"I don't know."

"I'll teach you how to bully the strong and fear the weak later."

Half an hour later.

A group of guards obediently washed the clothes for him and Cass in the laundry room under Yu Tian's coercion.

As for the Damned Fatty, Yu Tian once again gave him dozens of dollars.

This made Fatty's bandaged face smile a little more.

Money was also very useful here.

At night, the so-called two-man Arena's assassin competition began.

Yu Tian and Cass also found a wonderful opportunity to change into the explosion-proof clothes that the new base soldiers had passed on.

Moreover, they were all wearing the standard assault rifles of the base soldiers here.

Yu Tian tried to speak, but what surprised him was that this thing came with a short-range walkie-talkie. This allowed him and Cass to wear helmets at the same time, the walkie-talkie inside was still tuned to their short-range channel for clear communication.

"This thing can't be a civilian military item. It must be from the military's high-tech. It seems that this place must be inextricably linked to country M. "yu Tian said, but he also began to doubt, if what he said was true, then the next step would be to deal with a country.

Although it was not like he had never met one before, it was always a little troublesome.

Cass did not know much about these things. He only felt that this thing looked heavy on his body, but it was actually very light. Moreover, his breathing and communication were extremely easy, it was completely different from what it looked like.

This made Cass like this kind of explosion-proof suit that had good defense and could defend against low-millimeter bullets.

Cass said, "Boss, should we go down directly now? If we go down from here, no one will recognize us. This is the sentry post of the soldiers on top. "

Yu Tian nodded and said, "Okay, throw the three guys we just killed into the sea and feed them to the Sharks."

"Yes, Boss."

When Yu Tian and Cass left the base, the three poor guys had already fed the fish in the sea.

They probably didn't know until they died that Yu Tian and the others came to the sentry post just to change their clothes.

As for the identification cards in front of them, they were of no use.

This was because ground base soldiers like them couldn't enter the deeper parts of the base, especially the experimental area.

Yu Tian followed Cass and passed by the guards and even the soldiers guarding the door.

No one noticed that something was wrong with them. They only glanced at the yellow identification cards and let them pass.

Yu Tian also realized that the guards on the ground didn't have such cards.

As for the soldiers on the top, their cards were yellow.

The ones on the bottom were black, and the cards of the soldiers in the experimental area were white.

The two people on Yu Tian's chest were black.

They could enter the experimental area, but they could not go deep because they needed the white ID card.

Only the group of soldiers in charge of security in the experimental area could do so.

On the way, Yu Tian also saw Moss, who had been beaten up by him during the day.

However, this guy was like a big and simple guy, holding a piece of pork head and eating it.

Yu Tian did not know where he got it from, but he could still hold it in his hands and chew on it.

Looking at how he was enjoying it, Yu Tian truly felt that this fellow was a natural-born simple-minded person.

Yu Tian really needed this kind of fellow.

This was because as long as he served food and treated him well, he would do anything. He was also very obedient and was very respectful of orders.

Cass saw that Yu Tian was paying attention to moss, and it was obvious that he had thought of something, he said to Yu Tian directly, "It's not that Moss can't be used, but we have to find a way to get rid of his master. General Crowe is different from everyone here. He still has the national flag of country M in his room. You have to know that everyone here doesn't like their country. Only General Crowe is like a soldier, and not a mercenary or killer."

"You still call him general?" Yu Tian asked with a smile, "It seems that you have a good impression of him?"

"Yes, he is a very pure person. In order to make money, to make up for some of his mistakes, and also for the moss that he took in here, that guy who is not very smart. "

"Father and his son?"

"You can say that, but the difference is that moss is not General Crowe's biological son. General Crowe's son had already died in the hands of an unknown group of assassins."

"Really? Unknown?"

"Yes, an unknown group of assassins directly rushed into his villa and killed his eldest son and youngest son. Only his second son survived, but he was also scared silly and became a fool."

When Yu Tian heard about this, he suddenly found an opportunity.

He stopped and looked at Cass, asking excitedly, "What do you think? How about we cooperate with Crowe?"

Cass shook his head and said firmly, "No, he won't resist the warden, or he won't want to offend the Clone Society. "

"Why do you say that?"

"Fear. Simple fear. It's also for his family who are still outside."

"But what if there are enough benefits to move him?"

"Huh? Boss, he seems to have earned a lot of money."

"I'm talking about turning his second son from a fool to a normal person. "

"How is that possible? "Cass was shocked when he heard that. He did not believe that a fool could become a normal person.

Yu Tian smiled confidently. "You won't understand. The country I come from is the most mysterious country in the east. Besides the ancient martial arts practitioners there who practice martial arts, there are also many mysterious medical skills. They will definitely be able to help General Crowe's son. He will definitely do this deal!"

"What if it fails? It will be exposed!"

"Ha, killing people is just like nodding your head.. "

Chapter 865 – Chapter 864, The Weirdo

Two-person life and death battle.

Only when one side died could it end.

Yu Tian and Cass came to the underground base. As soon as they entered the competition area, they saw that the surroundings were filled with high-definition cameras and a series of recording devices.

With so many sets of equipment, it was enough to equip a provincial television station.

But here, it was just to film a killer in an iron cage fighting to the death.

There were also benches of varying heights arranged around.

Some guards and some base soldiers who had come off duty were all watching with relish.

From time to time, they would whistle and scream incessantly.

"Kill him! Wahahaha, break his head!"

"You bunch of retards, even your mother knows how to fight better than you."

"Is this the strength of an assassin? It's getting worse every year."

"SH * t! Hurry up and commit suicide, it's so embarrassing."

"Kill him!"

When Yu Tian heard this group of people who seemed to be smoking mental marijuana, he even noticed that they had a small note in their hands that was similar to a lottery ticket.

They must have participated in the gambling of the killer competition and wanted to make a fortune.

They could make such a windfall, but in the eyes of the warden, they might not be next.

Just as Yu Tian was about to follow Cass around this area.

Someone shouted from behind them, "Hey, what are you two doing? Wait, come with me."

Yu Tian and Cass were stunned. They looked at each other and turned around.

They saw a base soldier with an assault rifle walking towards them.

Yu Tian was calm in the face of danger. He went up and asked, "What's wrong, brother?"

The soldier first looked at the id on Yu Tian's chest, then he said in a calm tone, "Follow me down there. There's an experimental subject who is disobedient and needs manpower. I saw that you guys are idle here and are fully armed. Don't watch this damn competition here. Just buy one. "

When he heard "Go down there, "Yu Tian's heart was filled with joy. This was really a waste of effort.

Without thinking much, Yu Tian nodded and said, "Okay."

Then he shouted to Cass behind him, "Let's go. help."

Cass nodded silently. The two of them did not have too many strange expressions. This made it impossible to suspect that they were not soldiers of the base at all.

It was Cass 'first time entering the experimental area under the underground base. He was filled with curiosity about any place.

But he didn't dare to make a sound. He didn't dare to make an extra sound.

Just like now, Yu Tian was leading the way, but he didn't dare to walk too fast.

When he stepped into the experimental area of the base, Cass also saw the entire experimental area.

It was a shocking architectural panorama. This place was completely an underground experimental factory.

The base soldiers in front led them along. After a few twists and turns, they took a downward elevator and arrived at the first-floor area.

Then, they entered a new area through a left-turning door.

Yu Tian looked at the layout of the structure and was even more certain that the bottom of the island had been dug out. They even went deep into the shallow seabed.

This was not something that a simple faction could do. Even the mysterious wealthy families in the world had to cooperate with a country that had the strength to develop a submarine base.

Then, the most likely possibility now was the M nation.

After entering this experimental area, there were sealed glass doors all around. There were sporadic experimenters doing experiments in full protection. Yu Tian could not understand the assortment of experimental items, but at least he had some understanding of them.

He found that there was not only a chemistry laboratory, but also a biological laboratory.

What shocked him the most was that he walked to the door of a transparent glass laboratory. Through the glass, he saw a man whose hands and feet were tied to the operating table. His body was pierced by countless thin tubes, those tubes were filled with a viscous blue liquid.

It looked like blood plasma, but the blood was not blue.

There was indeed a human experiment going on here!

Just as Yu Tian was carefully observing and quietly recording everything with the device on his chest.

The soldiers in front stopped.

Yu Tian and Cass also stopped in their tracks.

At this moment, in front of Yu Tian and Cass, other than the base soldiers who were leading the way, there were also groups of base soldiers holding long electric batons and guns.

In front of this group of base soldiers, in a two to three-meter-tall iron cage, there was a man who was more than two meters tall.

Yu Tian had only seen such a height in the NBA. Moreover, only those extremely tall players could be like him.

The strangest thing was that this guy was wearing a binding mask and a mouth ball on his entire face.

The only pair of eyes that were exposed were blood-red, like a ferocious beast that was hiding its bloodlust.

His limbs were even thicker, so strong that he did not look like a human. He had arms and legs that he should have.

His muscles were hard and his blood vessels seemed like they were going to burst his skin at any moment.

Moreover, when he clenched his fists, it was a punch the size of a casserole that people often joked about.

As for his feet, from his calves to the soles of his feet, they were covered with dense fur, just like an animal.

Moreover, they were brown!

Looking at this fellow in front of him, Yu Tian could not help but think to himself, "Just what kind of fellow is this?"

Cass was also stunned by this little giant-like "Weirdo" in front of him for a moment.

He was said to be human, but his body was completely like a monster!

He was said to be not, but this was clearly the appearance of a human. He had a nose and eyes, and not a single ear was missing.

You could even feel his heavy breathing from the undulation of his chest.

What a standard human being!

However, this strange and frightening appearance was really strange enough.

The base soldier who had brought Yu Tian here went forward to report something to a captain.

Then, the captain shouted at Yu Tian and the others, "Open the cage and remove the shackles on this guy's limbs. We will protect you."

Yu Tian was stunned when he heard that. Then, he mocked in his heart, "These guys are obviously here to find two scapegoats. Everyone can see that this guy is no less dangerous than a lion or a tiger."

However, since he had already come to this place, Yu Tian did not want to waste such a great opportunity.

Therefore, he planned to do it.. Moreover, he was also curious about the real face of this guy!

Chapter 866 – Chapter 865, The Beast In The Cage

However, before Yu Tian could make a move, Cass had already stepped forward. He looked at the captain in front of him and said, "I'm enough alone. My brother doesn't need to come with me."

"Cass?" Yu Tian couldn't help but step forward and whispered, "You're taking a risk. We can do it together. This guy might not be able to hurt us."

Cass also replied in a low voice, "You are my new master, and that is my boss Cass. As a subordinate, how can I let my own master be in Danger?"

Yu Tian was indeed a little touched when he heard that. This Cass Guy had a weird tattoo on his face and looked fierce. However, he was indeed qualified to be his brother!

Good brother!

This trip was enough for Yu Tian.

Coincidentally, he was going to establish a brand new organization. Cass would definitely be his right-hand man in the future.

As for Cass, who was in front of him, wanting to go up alone, Yu Tian would naturally not agree.

He walked up directly and looked at the captain. "Okay, captain, get ready."

The captain nodded and waved his hand. A soldier stepped forward with a key in his hand and carefully prepared to open the iron cage.

This soldier had a cautious and fearful look on his face. Even Yu Tian could feel his fear.

There were fully armed soldiers here, and each of them carried a very long high voltage stun baton.

Even if they didn't shoot, it was enough to stop the guy in the cage.

Not to mention, the man in the cage was still tightly locked with both hands and feet.

At this moment, a heavy sound of a door closing came from behind.

Yu Tian turned his head and looked. He didn't know when, but the iron door that had entered earlier had already been slowly closed.

Behind this door were the laboratories that he had just passed by.

As for this place, it was more like a spacious, independent, and empty large room.

The surrounding walls were covered with surveillance and alarm devices.

The sound of keys twisting the cage door could be heard.

The people inside the cage seemed to have been stimulated. They started to widen their eyes and stared fiercely at everyone outside the cage.

Naturally, Yu Tian and Cass were among them. They were soldiers of the base now.

This kind of gaze made Yu Tian wonder what this guy had experienced here.

Inhuman human experimentation?

Or an even more cruel experience of falling into hell?

All of this made Yu Tian curious. His curiosity to find out all this didn't stop him from investigating the behind-the-scenes scene here.

This was because such a thing must be inextricably linked to this place. It would also be closely related to that clone.

The Strange Man in the cage was obviously very important.

Criminal?

Yu Tian didn't think it was that simple.

After the soldier unlocked the cage door, he retreated continuously. Only then did the other two push open the iron door of the cage.

This made the two-meter-tall giant stand directly in front of Yu Tian and the others.

The brown hair on his feet was really dense. It was completely the hair of a wild beast.

Even his feet were much bigger than the average person's.

The soles of his feet made Yu Tian think of the big feet of those wild people from the deep mountains in the strange legends.

His bare upper body was full of scars. They were either knife wounds or marks of whipping.

Even Yu Tian couldn't help but be surprised by the scars on his body. How could he still be alive with such injuries? However, looking at these wounds, he could already tell that he was a "Qualified" dead man.

However, not only was the guy in the cage not dead, Yu Tian could also feel his strong vitality and uncontrollable power!

If he was thrown into the wild, Yu Tian could guarantee that this guy, together with the Lions and tigers, would be able to turn around and eat those wild beasts.

Who was the real fearsome wild beast! !

At this moment, it was finally Yu Tian's turn.

The Captain threw a bunch of keys at Yu Tian, he ordered, "Open his arms and legs. Be careful and hurry up. We can guarantee your safety, but if you seek death, then there's nothing we can do. For God's sake, I'll provide protection for you, but if you don't listen, you'll still seek death. That has nothing to do with me. "

"Boss, let me do it."

Cass saw Yu Tian holding the keys and suggested.

"It's fine."

Yu Tian said and walked forward. He stared at the "Beast" in the cage, especially when he saw the anger and hatred in this guy's eyes. He was slightly stunned! This guy was rational!

At the beginning, Yu Tian really thought that this was a guy who had been transformed into a crazy person, which was also a killing machine.

He wasn't just like a ferocious beast; he was no different from an animal.

But now, Yu Tian was very sure that this guy still possessed the rational thinking and even emotions of a human.

Yu Tian walked to the edge of the cage and stretched out his hand, wanting to open his hands.

Hualala!

A fierce struggle caused the sound of the chains being pulled.

The guy in the cage began to struggle, and his entire body began to lean toward Yu Tian.

However, the strong chains and shackles still firmly bound him, leaving him helpless.

The surrounding soldiers were all extremely nervous.

With a swoosh, all of them raised their assault rifles, and those guys holding electric batons also drew close.

One by one, they stretched out their electric batons, intending to stab him!

Crackling sounds came from the front of the electric batons, and the electric arcs were also jumping non-stop.

Cass was even more direct. He pulled out the military knife that had been on the back of his waist the whole time. When he came forward, he intended to charge from Yu Tian's back, preparing to stab this guy in front of him to death!

However, in an instant, Yu Tian stretched out his hand to block Cass who was behind him.

Yu Tian did not retreat. In fact, the guy who leaned down did not even scare him.

Yu Tian's eyes were very calm!

He even shouted loudly, "Captain, I think for the sake of safety, you guys should step back a little. If that's the case, you guys will also have time to react, right?"

The person who was called the captain nodded in agreement. He quickly took his men and retreated to the main entrance.

In Cass'eyes, this was really too cowardly.

As for the captain, he found it hilarious.

Where did these two idiots come from?

Were they really going to sacrifice themselves for others?

No matter what the captain thought, Yu Tian had already confirmed that they had retreated far away. Only then did he avoid the surveillance camera's view.

He began to take off the helmet on his head, revealing his original appearance.

Yu Tian took off the helmet. The captain and his soldiers at the entrance felt strange.

But the next second, the captain suddenly understood and explained, "In order to facilitate the operation, call for help, and then run! "

Chapter 867 – Chapter 866, The Rothschild Family

The soldiers all nodded in agreement.

They felt that their captain was right. There was nothing wrong with this analysis.

Then, they continued to stare at the situation in front of them. Even though they had hidden so far away, they could not hide their fear and fear.

Yu Tian's action of taking off his helmet clearly stunned the man in the cage.

At this moment, Yu Tian said in a low voice, "Do You Want Revenge? Tell me!"

The Man's eyes revealed a burning hope. It was even more difficult to hide the burning anger in his eyes, as well as the monstrous hatred.

Yu Tian looked at such a gaze. He could already feel the anger of this fellow in front of him.

From the looks of it, it would not be an exaggeration to say that this hatred was a blood feud.

Speaking of which, he still didn't know if he could control such a person!

However, Yu Tian had already begun to remove the shackles on one of his hands.

What was puzzling was that even after removing one of this fellow's shackles, one of his hands was still hanging down.

At this moment, Yu Tian noticed that there was a lute bone on the back of this person. There were two hooks that pierced into his back. It seemed that it had been quite some time, and even the bloodstains on the hooks had dried up.

It was only after being pierced for a long time that the blood that flowed out had dried up on the hook thorns.

Yu Tian sympathized with this man who was imprisoned like a wild beast. However, before he could fully control him, Yu Tian was not in a hurry to untie the hook thorns that could truly make him move automatically.

Yu Tian pretended to untie the shackles on his other hand, at the same time, he whispered beside him, "I want to know who the master behind this place is, what that clone is, and who are you? I can tell you that the person beside me and I want to destroy your place and burn this place to the ground! "

The monster-like man's eyes revealed an ecstatic expression. It was as if he was a traveler in the desert who could not see the source of water. Suddenly, after being thirsty for a long time., he finally saw a large oasis in front of him.

The man's deep and turbid voice was extremely hoarse as he said in a low voice, "The! Rothschild! family! "

Hearing this, Yu Tian immediately thought of this mysterious ancient family.

It seemed that they really had a great connection with the rich in Europe and even the M nation.

"What About You?"

. Gauss!" "Gauss?"

Italian. "

"Yes, I know. I don't want to know too much about you right now. I need you to cooperate with me and find an opportunity. I'll come back in a few days. Are you here?"

"Yes, I can only be here."

Yu Tian pretended to continue to untie the shackles and nodded slightly. Then, he continued to say to him without changing his expression, "Will kroni be the Rothschild Family?"

"No! completely! No."

"Alright, I Won't ask anymore. You seem strong, but you're actually extremely weak. "As Yu Tian spoke, he had already removed the shackles on his other hand.

What was shocking was that the group of soldiers behind him was not too strange. They were just still on guard.

Cass also heard the conversation between Yu Tian and Gauss. He began to deliberately block the line of sight of the group of soldiers behind him.

This was to provide cover for Yu Tian. He was even worried that if he was exposed, everything would be over.

Yu Tian did not ask what exactly happened to Gauss.

He just squatted down and intended to untie the shackles under Gauss 'feet.

At this moment, Yu Tian asked, "What would you do when you remove this step in the past?"

"Spit at you, then when you remove the other foot, I'll hook you over and trip you over. Pll use the knees of both my legs to crush you to death under my feet. "

"That's really cruel, but you can't do that today. You can just rage and struggle crazily. "

"Can I really trust you?"

"You don't have a choice, but you should know that my target is the clone society, not just here. "

"Heh, you can't be their opponent. Even a country as strong as a country can't be their opponent. "

"How would you know if you don't try?"Yu Tian reached out his hand toward the last Gauss Shackle, "In three seconds, prepare to be furious when I unshackle myself. Otherwise, they will definitely suspect me later. I will also quickly put on my helmet. Remember, what you see is a short Southeast Asian, not an Oriental. "

Gauss did not say anything, but he had already begun to make a fierce expression.

Compared to him, Cass was much more direct.

He walked up and took off the mask Gauss was wearing on both sides of his face.

Finally, Gauss revealed his real face.

He didn't look very ugly, but he definitely looked fierce.

Especially his eyes, which were completely blood-red. He didn't look like a normal person at all.

"Ah Ah Ah Ah Ah! Damn soldiers, Pm going to eat your flesh. "

Crash!

Gauss began to struggle very cooperatively and kept roaring at Yu Tian in front of him.

"I'm going to eat you! Pm going to eat you! Ah! "

"Ah Ah Ah, all of you deserve to die, all of you deserve to die, Pm going to eat all of you."

('I'm going to eat all of You Alive!')

Accompanied by Gauss 'roars and roars, Yu Tian looked very scared. He grabbed his helmet tightly and sat on the ground in fear. He quickly crawled away from the cage.

Cass also quickly followed. Although he did not know how to act, he could always act like he was running away.

As for the group of soldiers, they also let out a long breath.

The captain even came up to look at Yu Tian, who was so scared that his legs were trembling, he said disdainfully, "How can you be a soldier of our demon island base with this little bit of guts? Hurry up and take your brothers and get lost. You guys are still not qualified to be soldiers of this experimental area. No wonder you can only be black. "

Yu Tian didn't say a word and quickly followed Cass to the main door.

It seemed that there were people watching the place from the outside. When they saw Yu Tian and Cass walking toward the door, the door slowly slid open to both sides.

"Ah! You Bunch of damn beasts. You will die a horrible death. I will eat all your flesh and drink all your blood. I will treat your skulls as my football! Ahhhh! "

"You still dare to scream? Give me electricity! "

"Zizz Zizz Zizz!"

The crackling sound of electricity started to ring out behind Yu Tian. During this time, it was mixed with Gauss 'angry screams.

The moment the door closed, Yu Tian looked at Gauss. He also looked at Yu Tian who was standing at the door, just as the door was about to close.

There was a tacit understanding between the two.

However, there was hope in Gauss 'eyes as he begged!

This was not a monster, but a poor man..

Chapter 868 – Chapter 867, Evidence

Back in the room.

Yu Tian and Cass deftly looked at each other's received messages.

Cass even fished out a crucial document.

This was what they fished out from an office in the experimental area. The rest of the documents were not very important research materials. Only this one, for the first time, mentioned the clone society.

Yu Tian did not have time to read the details, but he knew that there were many places where the clone society was mentioned.

Cass directly brought this document out.

He closed the door with a click, and this document was spread out on the bed by Yu Tian.

The base soldiers' attire had already been hidden in the tower.

They came over in guard clothes, and no one felt that something was wrong.

Yu Tian pointed the communication device he had brought to the file in front of him and began to scan and transmit it to Uncle Long.

Although the speed wasn't fast, it was still transmitted over.

At this time, Uncle Long was also at the headquarters and began to translate and search for the information on it.

It wasn't until ten minutes later that.., uncle Long's voice came from the tiny earpiece hidden in Yu Tian's ear. "This is a transaction list. It's a large number of technology chips that the clone society purchased from Japan and the M Nation. They are all chips that are used for military purposes, and there are even some confidential chips that are the core of the two countries. At the same time, they are also thinking about the ancient families in Europe and have collected some things that look like antiques. The most important thing is that the Rothschild family is also a member. "

"A member?"

"Yes, a member of a family, country, or even an organization. It can't be an individual. "

"That is to say, you must have a certain amount of power. Whether it's financial or national power, you have to meet the standards. Then, you have to become a member of a faction?" Yu Tian stood up and asked.

"Yes, the last signature shown on it is the same signature of each member.

There is not only the military of country M, but also the military of Japan. There is even the signature of the Europa Alliance. "

When Yu Tian heard this, he could not help but be shocked. It seemed that all the major western countries were in it.

He did not expect that after he had been on vacation for more than a year, these guys would be restless again after he returned.

He immediately asked a few more organizations and found that they were all involved. For a moment, the worry in his heart became even more intense.

This was because he was aware that there was nothing to do with the Dongfang kingdom.

As one of the five great countries, the Dongfang kingdom was the only one without him. That meant that they might be targeting the Dongfang kingdom.

Yu Tian said to uncle long, "Tell that person to go. This is related to the kingdom. "

"Okay, I've already asked my secretary to go."

"Mm, you've done well. Oh right, the secret service personnel sent by that person has already arrived, right?"

"Yes, he's already here. He's also a newcomer. He can be considered a good seed that we've selected. " "Okay, tell me his name."

"MO Youlan. "

"Mm? A Woman?"

"Yeah, no! he's here to help our little tian. He must be a woman! "

Yu Tian was instantly speechless. Uncle Long could still joke around at this time.

Uncle Long chuckled and stopped joking, he then told Yu Tian, "I've always been against what you 're trying to do, but this little bit of information is enough to prove that your previous decision was correct. Are you planning to come back?"

Yu Tian fell silent when he heard Uncle Long's question.

Yes, such an investigation was already sufficient. This document alone was enough to obtain a lot of evidence.

However, Yu Tian's final goal had yet to be achieved.

He wanted to destroy such a crazy place. Not only was it his assassin's game, it wasn't organized under his own influence. More importantly, there was a hidden danger here, it seemed to be very disadvantageous to this world and the Eastern kingdom.

He had only stopped the crisis of the world's destruction once a year ago.

Now that such an organization had appeared, it really planned to create something that was not under the control of the rules he had set.

That was something that had to be destroyed!

Uncle Long heard Yu Tian's silence on the other end. He understood Yu Tian very well, so he did not say anything more.

He believed that Yu Tian definitely had a bigger goal that he hadn't achieved yet.

In the end, uncle long mentioned something, "In three days, a mini electronic submarine will arrive at the west coast of your place. This document needs to be returned in its original form, just in case you need it."

"You're thinking what I'm thinking. Alright, I'll see you in three days. By the way, help me check on someone. Gauss, I'll also send you the image scan records recorded on my communicator. I want to know about this guy. "

"Sure, you're the boss. Anything you say is fine."

"Okay, turn off the communication. I'm worried about being intercepted. "

"There are more than a dozen satellites in the sky that we can use to keep an eye on right now. But one of them is anti-intercepting! how can it be intercepted?"

"It's always good to be careful."

After hanging up the communication, Cass did not ask anything. He knew that Yu Tian had a miniature earpiece in his ear.

However, this was not important to him.

He was only loyal to Yu Tian. As for his master's matters, he had no reason or right to ask.

Cass was a loyal fighter and also a loyal guard.

Although Yu Tian wanted to treat him as a brother, this made Cass feel even more willing to be loyal to Yu Tian.

This made Yu Tian feel that it was really difficult.

Fortunately, Yu Tian did not care about trifles. After all, he treated his brother like a brother.

At dinner time.

The warden came.

He said a few encouraging words to the people eating in the cafeteria, and even to the assassins who were still alive.

He encouraged them to place their bets.

Then, his expression changed, and he threw a bloody head at the people who were eating.

Yu Tian recognized this guy. It was in the cell next to him and Cass.

It was a man who looked no different from a skinny monkey.

He was estimated to be in his thirties.

What was impressive was that this guy would always roar and scream in his room.

The head fell to the ground in the middle of the canteen, the warden sneered and warned everyone, "Killers who are here to participate in the game, and my loyal guards, you'd better not approach the iron gate below without permission. Otherwise, you'll end up like this guy, and you won't get a single cent. I Promise You! "

The people here had seen too many guys die tragically, so they all continued to eat without feeling anything.

Even if the head rolled to a person's feet, it was casually lifted away like a football..

Chapter 869 – : Chapter 868, Uncle Long'S Instructions

Yu Tian looked at the head and then at the Warden's stance. He knew that it was going to be another night of killing.

Even if he was near that place, his subordinate was still a guard.

He had killed him without any mercy at all.

The warden was someone who could kill his own people, and he even used such a method to make an example out of them.

No wonder everyone here was so afraid of him.

As for Yu Tian, he had some disdain in his heart. He relied on this method to suppress the hearts of the people.

Undoubtedly, he could only suppress them for a while. If he wanted to stabilize them, he still had to distinguish between rewards and punishments. The rules were strict.

The most important thing was to treat his own people well. He had to treat his enemies cruelly and mercilessly.

Yu Tian felt that this was how he had lived in the past, and it was still the same now.

Cass sat beside Yu Tian and whispered, "Later, we'd better leave first. We can't affect Boss's business. This guy might get sick again."

Yu Tian knew what Cass meant, so he also pretended to stand up with the crowd.

At the same time, he whispered to Cass, "Let's go down to the lab. I'll use the golden needle to cure that guy's pipa bone. "

"A single needle can cure a disease?"

"Hehe, martial medicine comes from the same source. It's not strange. They're just human acupoints. "

"Okay."

When they came out of the tower, Cass and Yu Tian were already two base soldiers.

It was already nine o'clock at night. A new killer competition had begun once again.

Today was the individual arena point competition. As long as you killed your opponent quickly and violently enough, you would be able to obtain the most points.

Such a competition could actually be used to earn more points. In order to earn money, the more such competitions, the better.

As for the players who placed their bets.

This competition could also be played more. In addition to life and death bets, one could also bet on time, bet on means, bet on death levels! it was completely tailor-made for the entertainment of Crazy Gamblers.

The most crucial point was that this was only a one-on-one, so it could be better and more intuitive to place bets.

During the betting process, one could also pay attention to the matches in the other arena zones at any time.

In this way, the players could also "Earn" more. It was simply too perfect.

The current way of playing had already been developed to such an extent. The moment Yu Tian walked into this area, he was greeted with a wave of sound.

"WA wa wa wa wa!"

"Leo! Leo! Oh Oh Oh Oh! "

"Smash his head! "

"Dig out his brain! " "Damn it, are you a piece of trash? Your father, come! "

"Break his neck!"

"Bite him to death! "

The Crazy Guards, the soldiers from the base who were off duty, and even the people from the experimental area gathered together. They looked at the arena in front of them and waved the small notes in their hands.

Yu Tian couldn't help but admire the official who ran this place. It was said that he was a capable assistant of the warden.

He was like a military counselor.

It seemed like he was the one who made all these things.

He gave wages and bonuses to the people here. Then, he let them spend money here and gamble continuously. They wouldn't take the money out at all. In the end, it would still be the money from the demon island and the Kronin Society.

They were also a group of vampires. Even if it was just a small amount of ant meat to them, they would still have to eat it.

Yu Tian felt that this person's brain was really good. He had completely squeezed everyone here dry.

The most important thing was that he already knew that the killers who lost in the game competitions and died had their bodies used reasonably. If they did not sell their organs.., the next part was handed over to the laboratory. This was not so much a venue for the killer competition that was modified from the prison on Demon Island.

Rather, it was more like a modified killing factory.

It was specifically used to kill "Tool men"who could extract the value of money.

Yu Tian didn't go to watch the competition anymore. He suddenly realized that when it came to the competition that he was protected from, at the very least, he could withdraw from the competition, surrender, or even escape. But this!

was the way out of life and death, there was no third way.

For the first time, Yu Tian was a little disgusted with this game.

This was the game that he decisively chose to hand over to uncle long a year ago, while he had been on vacation for more than a year.

When they arrived at the experimental area, they were already familiar with the route this time. There were no obstructions, and they arrived below.

However, to enter the special detention area for Gauss, they needed the credentials of the soldiers here.

Yu Tian had his eyes on a guy who was patrolling.

He took the opportunity to strike up a conversation and stabbed the guy in front of him to death.

Then, with an arm around his shoulder and a cover from Cass, he threw him into the toilet on the side.

Cass took out the strong acid corrosion from the nearest laboratory, the same formula.

After everything was settled, the next guy they had their eyes on.

Just like that.

After everything was ready, they hung up their new documents and walked to the place where Gauss was being held.

"Wait, who are you?"

A soldier who was standing guard at the door walked out and stopped them.

Yu Tian looked at this brother and said with a pleasant expression, "Warden let us see if this guy is still alive. Pm just afraid that he died during the experiment yesterday. "

"Hehe, don't worry. This guy's vitality is completely enough. There's no need to care about this guy. He carries a lot of hope from the warden. How could we dare to kill him so easily! "The soldier said with a laugh, at the same time, he let the brothers behind him open the door.

He then checked the documents on Yu Tian and the others ' chests. After confirming that there was no error in the scan, he officially let them pass.

The door slowly opened.

The familiar place was once again opened for Yu Tian and the others.

As for Yu Tian, he looked at the person-in-charge of the team who was about to follow them in, he pulled him back and said with a smile, "Don't do that, Buddy. The warden is watching from the surveillance cameras. Let us show ourselves and give us a chance. Otherwise, he will think that we are very afraid of this guy. Now, he is locked up tightly."

The captain smiled without saying a word and patted Yu Tian on the shoulder. He completely agreed.

He understood this kind of favor very well.

Moreover, the Gauss inside did not pose any threat at this time.

This was indeed the truth.

Therefore, he was not worried that any accidents would happen when the two of them entered.

He just needed to close the door.

Moreover, wasn't the warden watching as well?

So, he did as Yu Tian said.

Yu Tian exchanged a look with Cass and hurried inside.

The Gauss in the iron cage seemed to have more scars than yesterday..

Chapter 870 – Chapter 869, Gauss'Gratitude

When he heard the commotion, Gauss opened his furious eyes.

His blood-red eyes were fixed on the two men who were walking towards him.

"What are you planning to do for your grandfather? Just come at me. Even if Satan is here, I'm not afraid anymore. You're just a bunch of dogs licking the warden's feet, lowly animals!"

Even Yu Tian could feel the anger in Gauss'furious scolding. However, it was worth mentioning that he was not the Warden's man. He was just an "Outsider"who wanted to destroy this place and kill the warden.

"Partner, are you so welcoming to the person who wants to save you?"

Yu Tian stood in the cage and said with a smile.

When Gauss heard this voice, he was stunned.

He couldn't believe that that guy really came to find him again! the only man who gave him a glimmer of hope.

"It's! really! You?"

"Hehe, what else can I do? But I can't save you now. You should understand?"

"I understand. The time is not right. "Gauss nodded gently, but he also carefully paid attention to the surveillance camera and said, "I will still put up a struggle, or else they will suspect you."

"Yes, you're very smart. But I haven't found any information about you yet. I still need some time."

"I can tell you."

"I will look into it myself because I am worried that a stranger who is working with me for the first time will always hide something. "As he said that, Yu Tian helplessly spread his hands, "After all, everyone has secrets. You and I both have secrets, including my brother, Cass. So you should understand this."

"You're really a cautious person. Alright, I'll tell you everything I know and everything about me. "

"Well, to put it simply, I don't want to know useless information. Pm also here to treat your lute bone. I don't want you to come out with me while you're injured. "

"Thank you. "

"You're welcome. It's just a cooperation. Pm Coming to your back now to perform the golden needle penetration, but I need Cass to block me."

Cass knew, so he pretended to be on guard and then prepared for Yu Tian's golden needle insertion.

Without even needing to get close, Yu Tian had already wrapped his golden needle with those thin silk threads.

These things were all spat out by the Golden Silkworm. Previously, Yu Tian had thought that he could throw the flying needle out and get it back.

It was just that he had yet to cultivate to the realm of the ancient martial arts where he could expel foreign objects.

Yu Tian was also in the process of cultivating ancient martial arts. He was certain that his golden needle skill was an ancient martial art.

Moreover, the more he cultivated, the more he understood that there were too many mysteries in this world.

This ancient martial arts practitioner was one of them.

At this moment, Yu Tian's technique was really like the embroidery of the oriental invincible.

Three golden needles rapidly shot into the position of Gauss 'shoulder blade.

Then another three needles went into the lute bones of Gauss.

For a moment, Gauss only felt a warm sensation on his back, which had been in so much pain that he could not feel anything.

Most importantly, the recovery of this sensation did not make him feel the pain of being pierced.

Instead, it was very comfortable, as if a warm current was flowing on his back.

Yu Tian explained for him, "This won't help you remove the barb, and it's not the right time, but it will continue to repair your broken flesh and your meridians. Of course, you don't understand. This is the concept of our eastern country. You just need to know that when we give the signal, you will be able to free yourself from this thing. It will be very easy, and you will gradually feel

Gauss clenched his fists. He could already feel a little bit of strength coming from his shoulders.

"The mysterious eastern country. It's really an ancient country. I envy your country. It's not like I came from a broken country. There's only war there. It's no longer as strong as it was back then."

"What Country?" Yu Tian asked. With a whoosh, a needle was inserted into Gauss 'back.

This needle directly entered the acupuncture point in the middle of Gauss 'spine.

"ERMAO country! used to be a Russian country."

"So you are a Russian?"

"Yes. "

After more than ten minutes, Yu Tian felt that it was about time. He pulled with his five fingers and pulled back all the golden needles through the silk.

Through the change in strength and ingenious techniques, the golden needles were all returned to Yu Tian's sleeve.

Yu Tian felt that he was already flexible and flexible when it came to playing this somewhat special ancient martial art. Practice made perfect.

After retracting the golden needles, Yu Tian said, "Alright, don't move around on your own, and don't use too much strength either. Let the Qi in your body flow to your wound on its own. This will continue to nourish your injured areas. "

"Magical! I can already feel it. Thank you, Mysterious Man! "

"Just Call Me Yu Tian. You're not loyal to me yet. We're just working together. "

"If you can save me and fulfill one of my wishes, I'm willing to serve you and offer my loyalty. "

Hearing this, Yu Tian smiled in his heart. This was the main purpose of his visit today.

Subduing this person in front of him was not the right time, but it was also the best opportunity.

Yu Tian did not say anything more. He just turned around and left with Cass.

Cass walked to Yu Tian's side and asked carefully, "Can this strange man really be used by you, Boss?"

"Humph, not just him. I want Crowe to be used by me."

"What happened last time?"

"Yes, I have already contacted the famous doctor of our eastern country for his poor little son. He is also an ancient martial arts practitioner. He Can Cure Crowe's poor little son. "

"Boss, you really think of everything! "

"As the boss, let's go. We'll go find Crowe now."

"Can I ask boss how long it will take you to take action?"

"After the arrows are ready, we only need to wait for the East Wind. "

"What do you mean?"

"Hehe, I'll explain it to you when we get back. This is the history of our eastern country."

The next morning.

Yu Tian pretended to be bored as he wandered around. He was now a guard. Other than being responsible for the stability of his own region, he was only left with helping to watch over the newcomers and assassins who had come here.

Recently, more and more criminals had come to this place. There were even people who didn't have jobs.

However, as long as this group of people dared to cause trouble, they would die.

Yu Tian also noticed that these new guys would be selected to become killers.

Then, they would enter the competition or become mercenaries sent out from other places.

Here on Demon Island, it was like a "Talent" that was specially trained to do business with the dark side of the world.

Yu Tian could also intuitively see what Kronin had in mind.

He wanted to be the second kronin, and he wanted to help the American military and his men..

Chapter 871 – Chapter 870, Tennessee

In an office so clean it didn't look like it belonged to Alcatraz.

The walls were covered with pictures of Crow joining the army, from Young to old.

This strong old man in his early sixties had his own memories and pride.

As for the guest who came to this office, Yu Tian, to him, this place was like a memorial for the general's retirement.

Crowe poured a cup of good coffee for Yu Tian and handed him a good cigar.

Yu Tian took it and accepted Crowe's light for himself. He took a puff with a look of enjoyment.

The enjoyment of the smoke in his mouth was very comfortable. It left a pleasant fragrance in his mouth.

After he spat it out, the air was filled with a fragrant smell, which made people feel extremely comfortable.

Crowe looked at Yu Tian who was feeling pleased with himself. He couldn't feel it at all from Yu Tian. The image of the vicious and evil felon depicted in the information was more like a refined scholar, like a big boy next door, moreover, his face was kind, and he didn't look like a murderous maniac.

But when he thought of the incident in the cafeteria killer game that day, there was no doubt that Yu Tian also had the ability to kill anyone.

The Man in front of him was extremely calm. Ke Luo could very well give a direct evaluation.

Looking at Yu Tian, Ke Luo was the first person who could not help but ask,

"Who are you? What do you want to Do?"

Yu Tian smiled with a cigar between his fingers and said, "Our eastern country has an ancient medical skill, and it is not an ordinary traditional Chinese medicine. It is an excellent medical skill created by ancient martial art practitioners who uphold the natural yin and yang of the five elements of heaven and earth. Do you know it?"

General Ke Luo was a well-informed person, and he had also been to the eastern country.

He even had a lot of connections with an old man there.

He also liked the eastern country very much. If it wasn't for the experience he had at home, he would have already retired in the eastern country.

It was an ancient country with beautiful mountains and clear waters, and a long history.

Ke Luo nodded and said, "I know. My family has also gone to your place to seek medical treatment, but even your famous doctors can't cure my family, so I don't really believe it."

Speaking of this, Ke Luo's eyes could not hide the regret and sadness in them.

This expression disappeared in a flash, but it was still quickly captured by Yu Tian.

Yu Tian smiled and asked, "How famous is your famous doctor?"

"Anyway, many of your people know him. He specializes in treating many of your high officials and wealthy people. "

"This isn't famous, it's just a little bit of Fame."

"How is that possible?"

"That's the fame of an ordinary person or in your eyes, not mine."

"Then what are you referring to? "A glimmer of light seemed to flash in ke Luo's eyes, but it was well hidden by him.

"To the head of the country, a national holy doctor who specializes in seeing patients and treating them. He has inherited traditional Chinese medicine for 1,300 years. This is the famous doctor in my eyes, and at the same time, he is also the head of an eastern country's ancient martial arts aristocratic family. " As soon as Yu Tian finished speaking, ke Luo's hand that was holding the cigar began to tremble slightly. Even his calm eyes began to show waves of excitement. He could not hide his excitement as he looked at Yu Tian, he stuttered a little and asked, "Do! Don't tell me! You Know Him? ! Do You Know Him?"

"No! I don't know him. "

General Crowe's heart sank!

"I don't know him, I can ask him to treat my illness."

General Crowe stood up from his chair, the cigar in his hand falling to the ground.

He put his hands on the table and looked at the calm man in front of him with excitement and surprise.

This man came from the eastern country!

Crowe looked at Yu Tian, unable to come back to his senses for a long time!

He did not know why, but when he looked at Yu Tian, he could clearly feel that Yu Tian was not lying to him.

If that was really the case, then there was hope for his child's illness!

Ke Luo stared at Yu Tian, and after a long while, he asked in a low voice, "What exactly do you want?"

Yu Tian smiled but did not say anything. He was not in a hurry to answer, but took another puff of his cigar.

He was very satisfied with Crowe's reaction. This way, he would have a chance.

As for Crowe's current state, it further increased the chances of success.

Therefore, he was no longer in a hurry. Instead, he was thinking of maximizing his profits.

Just like how he used to hunt killers, the purpose of a trap was not just to kill one but to kill more killers who were attracted to it to maximize his profits!

Ke Luo could not hold it in any longer. He glared at Yu Tian and raised his voice in exasperation, asking, "What exactly do you want! ?"

Only then did Yu Tian say, "I know about your youngest son's illness. I've already asked. That old gentleman has a way to cure him, and it can even cure him completely."

"What! !

At this moment, General Crowe was no longer calm. The excitement and excitement in his eyes made his face flush.

He looked at the mysterious guy in front of him, and endless hope was ignited in his heart.

He did not doubt, nor did he have the slightest doubt, because he had already lost hope for a long time.

Crowe felt the most guilty towards his own child, not to mention the youngest son who was the only one who survived the disaster.

Unable to regain his senses for a long time, Crowe wiped the tears from the corners of his eyes, looking at Yu Tian in front of him, he said, "No matter what you want, I'll give it to you. I'll go bankrupt, even if it's my life! "As long as you save my youngest son, I'm willing to give everything, even if it's my loyal country and faith! "

Yu Tian put out his cigar in the ashtray on the table. Then, he stood up and asked Crowe, "Is your home in Tennessee?"

"Yes. "

"Your wife will call you in three days. She hopes that you will receive her call. Someone will pick up your family and take them to the eastern country. That old man doesn't like your country very much. He has to treat them in person.

You should understand."

Hearing that his family was going to be picked up, Crowe was worried.

After experiencing that incident, he was afraid.

Even his old comrades were protecting his family's place.

But it was his last hope!

Yu Tian looked at him and asked, "Whether you want to bet or not, it's up to you. Do you know?"

"Okay! I'll Bet! "

"Ha, you're worrying too much. You can talk to your wife normally every day as long as your place isn't bugged. "

"Okay! "Crowe replied, "It won't be bugged. Pve prepared a jamming device here. The warden also knows about it. This is the right he gave me. "

"He really thinks highly of you. "

"It's just because of my relationship with the military."

"Then it really is you. The M Nation's military is a super soldier here?"

"You Know About It?"

"It's hard not to know. Of course, this is for people like me. "Yu Tian shrugged and said, "A smart person, isn't it?"

"You are, but you're more like an old fox, a shrewd strategist."

"Thank you very much. I'm going to take the call. I'll take my leave.."

Chapter 872 – : Chapter 871, What Uncle Long Did For Yu Tian

Yu Tian took a year off from work.

He handed over all the plans to Uncle Long.

Uncle Long did not let him down. He integrated the resources of the world assassin company that he had annexed.

He established a mysterious company that was supported by the Chu family and the eastern kingdom as the background.

Uncle Long named this company Royal Sky.

It used the homonym Yu Tian, and as for Yu Tian, he was also a mysterious "Number one."

Uncle Long sat in the office of the Eastern Empire's imperial capital headquarters. He received a call from the M Nation's Tennessee State. The people he sent out had already received that pair of pitiful wives and children.

Although they were somewhat suspected, those comrades of Crowe's finally put down their guns when Crowe called.

They were a group of veterans who were disliked by the current M nation's authorities.

The veterans didn't die, but gradually withered.

After hanging up the phone, Uncle Long had already ordered them to rush to the eastern country and take the fastest private jet.

As for the National Holy Doctor, he had also come out of the retirement sanatorium.

"A strange old man. He can't Live Well. He likes the sanatorium where the old men in the army gather together, the cadre retirement center! but he's really a capable man! "

Uncle Long said with a sigh. At the same time, his phone rang again.

"Hello, it's me! Yes, I know. Is He also in Tennessee?"? "Okay, then we can send out our mini submarines. But after you finish your investigation, go to the west coast and wait for No. 1. You're a newcomer, but you're also a good player. Don't be too nervous. No. 1 doesn't like others to call him No. 1. You can just respect him as a young master. "

On the other end of the line, a cold female voice replied, "Got it, got it." Uncle Long would not reveal Yu Tian's identity to these newcomers.

These newcomers to the company did not need to know who Yu Tian was or what his last name was.

They also did not need to know that he was the mysterious king who had valiantly stopped the destruction of the world a year ago.

The number one in the Chu family, the number one in royal, the number one in the assassin rankings! no matter what Yu Tian did, he eventually became the number one existence that made others look up to him.

Uncle Long lamented that he was already old, and at the same time, he felt that he would retire sooner or later.

However, he met a boss that he did not like even more and directly left him in charge.

Uncle Long could only open the drawer and eat a few more six flavor digitalis pills and kidney treasure pills.

At the airport in Tennessee, there was a private jet that was the most high-tech and the latest model from the eastern country.

When General Crowe's wife got on the plane, she turned on the video call and called General Crowe.

General Crowe, who was at the base of Alcatraz, had been waiting anxiously.

When he heard the ringtone of Beethoven's Symphony of fate, "he hurriedly picked it up and took a look.

It was his wife, and it was the video call that he had instructed.

"Hello, Mary! "

"Crowe!"

After picking up the phone and seeing that his wife was still safe, he couldn't help but ask, "Look around, and our Kerry! "

"Yes, yes, yes!"

When he saw the interior of the plane and Kerry, who was already accompanied by specialized medical care, Crowe was overjoyed.

Crowe cried tears of joy. He seemed to have really seen hope!

Crowe's tears flowed down his face. For a moment, he did not know what to say.

"Crowe, look at this plane. There are many things inside that were prepared for Kerry!

General Crowe laughed and cried, "Silly Mary, this is the latest private jet of the eastern countries. I heard that only the super rich over there can have it. Even some of their country's leaders will have this plane. It seems to be real!

take Kerry with you and take good care of our son. "

"Okay, I will call you when I get to the eastern countries. It's still a video call. I know. "

"Yes. "

Crowe watched Mary turn off the video call and then relaxed.

Crowe wiped the tears from the corner of his eyes. It had been a long time since he had such hope.

So he was so excited that he was about to cry!

Crowe looked at the person sitting opposite him, the man who was silently smoking the cigar he had given him.

Yu Tian!

"Who exactly are you?"

General Crowe couldn't stand the man's calmness any longer. He took the initiative to ask.

This was a mysterious guy. Even at this moment, Crowe couldn't figure out his identity.

He didn't seem to be an official of the eastern country, but he also didn't seem to be a member of the big aristocratic families of the eastern country.

This was because the M country's military had also obtained a lot of information about these families.

But now, it seemed that this guy in front of him was just a guy with an unknown background.

But the mystery behind him was unfathomable. From the way he had lent a helping hand this time, it was already shocking enough. Yu Tian didn't immediately answer Crowe's question

Instead, he adopted a silent response.

Until he finished smoking his last cigar, feeling refreshed and satisfied, he stood up and said, "Then I'll be leaving first. Please wait for the news of your youngest son, Your Excellency General. I still have to go back and see if there are any disobedient little fellows in our area. There's no need for the damn fatty to make a move, so I can teach them a lesson! "

As he said that, Yu Tian walked to the door and twisted the doorknob with a click.

"What exactly do you want me to do?"

Crowe's voice came from behind and interrupted Yu Tian's actions.

Yu Tian smiled mysteriously and then turned around to look at General Crowe, he told him, "Next time, let the surveillance equipment outside be ineffective. Otherwise, I don't need to hide in the crowd to come here. The surveillance equipment here is not very safe. Being cautious in everything seems to be a common point between people like you and me. General Crowe, we'll talk later.

Thank you for the Cuban cigar. It's very good. "

After saying that, Yu Tian opened the door and walked out. He closed the door with a soft ping sound.

General Crowe looked at the figure who had walked out and sat down weakly on his chair.

Everything had been controlled by this guy called Yu Tian.

He had even been led by the nose by Yu Tian the entire time.

As a general who had led troops to war, he could not hide the helplessness he felt when facing Yu Tian.

The two of them were not opponents on the same level.

The Feeling Yu Tian gave him was not as simple as an assassin.

It was a kind of calmness that came from a superior who had even experienced too much blood and fire, and a deterrence to even a strong enemy.

This made Crowe feel heartfelt fear and admiration.

Fear was to treat this kind of person as an enemy.

Admiration is that he can plan and control the overall situation, even he as a general can not think of..

Chapter 873 – Chapter 872, The Threat Of The Dead Fatty

When Yu Tian returned to his room.

What was strange was that Cass was not here.

He had only left a note.

Looking at the line of words left on it, Yu Tian did not even think about turning around and leaving.

He went straight to the abandoned prison factory on the back coast of this base.

This place used to be used to dispose of the corpses of this base. Later on, there was a more professional place, so it was abandoned.

When Yu Tian rushed here, he originally thought that a big battle would be waiting for him.

Who would have thought that right below his feet, in the abandoned factory, Cass was moving his wrists as he looked at the group of people kneeling in front of him. There were at least a dozen of them.

Among them, the dead fatty was the leader of the kneeling group.

Looking at his bruised and swollen face, Yu Tian laughed to himself. He was still worried about Cass.

He did not expect that the other party would fight so well and make these guys obedient. They did not seem to have any temper at all.

Yu Tian jumped down and saw Cass standing up when he heard the voice. he shouted, "Boss, you're here."

Yu Tian nodded and looked at the group of people here. He asked with a smile, "Why? Are you going to use your life to threaten me to hand over the money that I still have hidden? Or do they already know something?"

Yu Tian had already guessed everything, but he still asked this question because he felt that this damn fatty was quite interesting. There was a need to drag them into the water.

Yu Tian walked in front of the Fatty and looked at this white man who was so fat that he was almost as big as a sumo wrestler from Japan.

Yu Tian looked at him and asked curiously, "You mean that you have my evidence. If I don't give you all the money that comes after that, you're going to go to the warden and expose me, right? And everyone here?"

As Yu Tian spoke, he glanced around at the rest of the people. They had all followed the dead fatty, Locke.

The dead fatty was quite kind. It seemed that only the dead fatty's injuries were slightly more serious. The rest of them were fine.

It was probably Cass who had caught the head of the bandits first. He had caught this guy in an instant, shocking all the subordinates of the Dead Fatty.

It was interesting to say that Cass seemed to have followed Yu Tian for a few days and understood the same principle.

Don't kill someone before you beat them up. Only kill them when there is no value in obtaining some information.

Otherwise, according to Cass 'previous style of doing things, the group of people in front of him would probably be corpses one by one.

Cass had kept them alive because he obviously knew that Yu Tian was coming over soon.

It would depend on Yu Tian, the boss, what information he needed.

When he saw Yu Tian coming, Cass was happy.

Sure enough, Yu Tian cared about his brothers very much. Following Yu Tian, Cass felt that he had good taste and finally had the feeling that he had finally met a wise leader.

It must be known that the bosses that Cass followed before treated him as a merciless killing machine.

They did not take care of him like brothers.

Even after the Boss had an accident, they still sold off their underlings.

He could be said to have remembered all these things. They were simply vivid in his mind and could never be forgotten.

Now that he had met Yu Tian, he simply wanted to carry out his loyalty to the end.

No one could expect him to find a new boss.

When Cass saw that Yu Tian was asking questions, the dead fatty did not answer a single word. The thugs around him only lowered their heads and kept their mouths shut.

This made him a little unhappy.

He walked over and lifted one of the dead fatty's underlings up, holding his neck.

Then.

There was a crack!

This person's neck was broken by one of Cass's hands.

His entire head was twisted 180 degrees, as if the cervical vertebra did not exist.

His eyes were really growing at the back!

This guy spat out blood from his mouth.

As for his corpse, it was also casually thrown aside by Cass, cass said coldly, "This is demon island. I don't care if a few people die here. You'd better answer my boss quickly. Otherwise, your next death won't be as simple as this. "

When the crowd heard this, the remaining ten or so Fatso's underlings looked at their comrades who had died with their eyes wide open. Their faces were staring at their corpses from behind. For a moment, their bodies were trembling.

At this moment, their hearts were filled with regret. They were on the verge of crying. How dare they provoke this malignant star?

In their hearts, they were about to curse their boss, the regional team leader Locke, a stinky head.

Wasn't it all because of this team leader, NO, the damn fatty?

What else could they say? If everyone attacked together, this Cass would definitely not be a match. All they had to do was to deceive him.

Now that they saw this, what else could they say?

How unlucky!

They thought they were unlucky!

The damn fatty naturally did not know how his subordinates were cursing him in their hearts.

After all, at this moment, he was only thinking about this Yu Tian who had come. He definitely did not want to be exposed by him.

One had to know that he had already grasped Yu Tian's true purpose of coming here.

However, he did not expect that at this moment, Cass would kill another person in front of him.

Moreover, it was obvious that if he did not reply, then perhaps the next Cass would break his head.

Cass walked towards him. Yu Tian quietly watched all of this and found an old machine tool to sit on.

He stuck his hands in and looked at the dozens of kneeling people below.

There was no killing intent in his eyes, only an incomparable calmness.

It seemed that the person who had his neck broken by Cass just now could not touch his heart at all.

It even caused a slight fluctuation in his heart.

Yu Tian was very familiar with killing people, even if it was more cruel than this.

Every single person here was not weak. The truly weak ones were the ordinary people of this world.

Yu Tian's sympathy would not be left on this group of people in front of him.

Otherwise, he would not have chosen to become a killer hunter.

At this moment, fatty said, "I did not intend to target you guys. It was just that I accidentally saw you guys placing a mini submarine on the shore that day. I intentionally eavesdropped on your neighbors. My ears are especially sharp. I can even hear you guys whispering through the wall. This is one of my talents. "

When he heard this, Yu Tian himself was also affected, even though he felt that there would be occasional collisions on one side of the wall.

He thought that it was the guy next door doing something.

Now, it seemed that this damn fatty was too heavy. He could even hear the sound when he was pressed against the wall.

Yu Tian looked at him and teased, "You, a damn fatty, learned how to climb a wall? You eavesdropped on the kung fu of others in the corner. Do you think that you, a damn fatty, have also specially practiced it? Your ears are so sharp?"

"Cough cough! Yu Tian! please spare me.. I don't dare to go against you anymore! "

Chapter 874 – Chapter 873, There Was No Exception

Yu Tian did not believe Locke's words at all.

This fellow had learned from others to listen to the corner of the wall and was even planning to blackmail him.

What kind of a good person was this?

Completely unworthy!

Unworthy of his trust, but he could still make use of it.

Yu Tian looked at Cass, he pointed at a dead fatty's underling and said, "Drag him over and hand him over to this dead fatty. There's one more thing for him to do himself. In the end, go upstairs and find a base soldier's explosion-proof suit. You should know what I'm going to do."

"Understood, boss. Do I need to take a video?"

"I have enough equipment."

The fatty seemed to have guessed something. He could not hide the fear and unease in his eyes. He looked at Yu Tian as if he was looking at a devil!

Only a devil would force a human to sign a contract with the god of death and then bring this pitiful human into hell.

The damned fatty trembled as he said, "No! Yu Tian, you can't do this. You have to anger the warden, but I don't want to! I beg you! Sob sob sob sob, I beg you! sob SOB SOB SOB!"

He did not expect this damned fatty to actually cry out in fear. He even began to kowtow towards Yu Tian.

Bang!

The damned fatty cried and kowtowed towards Yu Tian.

Bang!

He kowtowed heavily and begged for mercy again!

Yu Tian looked at him and understood one thing even more. Every single person here, even if it was someone like the damned fatty who was extremely vicious in the outside world, still had people they were extremely afraid of in this place, they could even feel the fear of life and death. They were very afraid of that prison director!

After Yu Tian saw this, he became even more serious about using the dead fatty.

Since he wanted to change, he might as well bring more people with him!

Yu Tian gave Cass a look.

Cass swung his fist at his underling who was kicked over, directly smashing his head with a punch!

The sight of blood and flesh splattering everywhere was extremely terrifying.

Even Yu Tian couldn't help but sit back a little. He wasn't afraid, but the smell was a little smelly.

The main reason was that he had just smoked a decent cigar at Crowe's place.

Between his mouth and teeth, there was still a faint cigar smell.

Then, Cass threw the corpse on the ground, right in front of the damned fatty.

The Dead Fatty Locke started to panic, because he had already seen Cass walking to the side to look for an explosion-proof suit for the base soldiers.

This was originally the place where the corpses were disposed of, and there had been the deaths of those soldiers before.

Naturally, they became the visitors here.

Every corpse was treated as trash, and the value of every organ was used to the extreme. It was just that the members of the Kroni Society had received this extreme value.

Their wallets had even more money than before.

Yu Tian watched as Cass came over with a set of explosion-proof clothing and started to dress up this corpse.

He looked very meticulous. He really treated this corpse as if it was his beloved toy.

It was only after he put on a helmet for this headless fellow.

Cass came behind the Fatty and started to pick up a rock from the side. He grabbed it tightly and said coldly to the back of Locke's head, "Three seconds.

You Know My Locke, three!"

Who knew that this Cass had only said three words.

This Locke threw a heavy punch at the 'explosion-proof soldier' that was placed in front of him.

His eyes were filled with tears. Those were the eyes of fear and unease. He had completely collapsed.

When Cass held a rock on his head.

In front of him was the shattered head of this corpse.

There was always something more frightening than fear. For Locke, it was death before his eyes.

He loved money so much that he didn't tell the warden immediately, because he knew that the warden wouldn't give him money. After knowing the news, he just told him to go back and stay in peace.

At the same time, he thanked him slightly and threw him a decent m nation sausage.

Because the warden liked to eat this thing.

Therefore, he felt that he could get money from Yu Tian.

He had already guessed that Yu Tian's identity and background must not be simple.

Whether it was official or private, as long as he could get money for him.

That was the result he wanted!

He just wanted more money, and that was the reason why he came here.

Otherwise, his crimes outside would have already been punished.

The damned fatty, Locke, punched the dead guy again and again.

Yu Tian held up his omnipotent communication device, pretending to be filming a video, and turned on a small blue light.

In fact, he did not activate the recording function, but it seemed to be enough.

It was simple to think of. To control the heart of a person, it was just a simple word or action.

It would even make your enemy believe that you had the ability to control his fate.

The only thing to do was to be calm.

And extremely calm.

For Yu Tian, this was his personality, not to mention today after so many years.

He was no longer the Yu Tian from before, and he was no longer that simple assassin.

Under his protection, the Sisters of the Chu family all grew up beautifully.

All of this was because of his strength!

For the safety of his own people, for the safety of his own small world, Yu Tian learned a lot of ruthless things.

"It's not enough. Drag one over for him," Yu Tian pretended to record a hand gesture and then said to Cass.

Cass did not refuse. He turned around and walked toward another poor guy.

As for the one who wanted to run, Yu Tian flicked out a golden needle and shot it through his head.

The poor guy fell to the ground. Not even a drop of blood flowed out.

There was only a small red dot between his eyebrows and the back of his head!

a red dot that was getting redder and redder. Yu Tian's killing skills shocked everyone here.

As for Cass, he was already used to it.

Yu Tian was his new boss, his new master. The strength of his master was also the guarantee of his safety.

Therefore, he was happy to see Yu Tian reveal such unfathomable skills.

As for the Dead Fatty Locke, he did not dare to go against any of Yu Tian's words or words.

Fifteen minutes later.

Yu Tian got up and jumped down from the machine.

The damned fatty was still kneeling, but the bodies on the ground were all the men he had brought with him.

There were no more, no less, fifteen of them. All of them were dead.

Out of Cass, two had been killed, while the rest had died in the hands of the damned fatty himself.

Yu Tian also promised Locke, "After this matter is over, I'll give you a million dollars. This is an amount that you don't even need to think of in your entire life. It's already enough for you. You should understand, right?" Yu Tian had more money, but he wasn't willing to give more.

Locke's value was only worth this much!

Just this much.

The only way to get more was to give him ghost coins..

Chapter 875 – Chapter 874. Money Can Do Many Things

Once everything was ready, there was only one thing left to do.

However, this was still within the borders of country M. This made Yu Tian not want to create too much of a ruckus.

Although sinking an island was already considered a big ruckus, this place was after all far away from country M.'s west coast.

It was even a small island close to the international waters, far away from the secular world.

Back when the M Nation chose to build the infamous Demon Island prison here, it was also world-famous.

Now, it was still the same place, with another base rising up.

If it was someone who came here to stir up some trouble, it would be nothing out of the ordinary.

Anyway, it was an abandoned place, but it could not be too big.

This was because Yu Tian did not intend to cause any more international disputes, and because he had already "Disappeared" for a year.

Yu Tian returned to his room first.

As for the dead fatty behind him, his every move was being watched by Cass.

When it was time to eat in the canteen, Yu Tian found an opportunity to sneak down to the laboratory area.

He once again used the Golden Needle on Gauss. This allowed Gauss to break free from the chains by himself.

This time, Yu Tian was alone because he had taken a lot of small things from the mini-submarine.

There was an electronic interference watch in the high frequency range.

This allowed him to temporarily keep the monitor in place instead of blackening the screen for dozens of minutes.

Everyone in the monitoring room could not see any strange points from the screen.

Yu Tian said to Gauss, "I will put a mini earpiece in your ear. This little thing can communicate with me through six floors. We are ready to make our move. "

"Thank you. I will do as I promised."

Simple loyalty. "

"This is the only thing I can do. I have nothing to repay you for saving me from my own life."

"Hehe, just remember this."

Yu Tian did not say anything more after saying this.

He knew that this guy from Ermao seemed to have his obsession.

Although Yu Tian could not guess what it was at this moment.

He was confident that he could appease the obsession of his subordinates.

Even if it was to kill a country's president, he had the means and ability to do so.

After Yu Tian had done all this, he placed the small earpiece into his ear.

Then, he turned off the jamming device and prepared to walk out of the place.

As usual, as per the rehearsals, Gauss also cooperated with Yu Tian's rage and roar.

He was like a furious beast that wanted to eat Yu Tian!

As for Yu Tian, he was like an ordinary base soldier as he began to walk forward

Even after opening the door, he still saluted the captain.

The warden seemed to dislike managing the affairs below. It was all handed over to him by the so-called "Military advisor".

That mysterious guy was in charge of everything here.

Even if it was as small as the purchase of experimental equipment.

Yu Tian was also curious about such people.

Until he took the elevator and was about to go back up.

He met five people, one of whom was steel claw, and the other was General

Crowe.

As for what caught Yu Tian's attention the most, it was the middle-aged man wearing glasses and a white coat. He was very gentle.

After this man glanced at Yu Tian, Yu Tian saluted him.

He nodded slightly and walked forward in a hurry.

As for Crowe, he glanced at Yu Tianhou in a daze.

There was a hint of confusion in his expression.

Steel Claw wasn't surprised, he just followed the man with glasses.

Yu Tian watched them walk over and then took the elevator.

He watched the man with glasses leave.

There was only one thought in his mind: this was an extremely focused man.

He didn't even notice his obvious flaw.

Steel Claw didn't notice because he didn't even look at him.

As for General Crowe, he had obviously noticed some minor details.

Even Yu Tian noticed that there was a hint of panic in the way he looked at him.

Yu Tian naturally knew that he would not expose him in front of him.

However, if that steel claw really discovered something, he could only strike first.

He was not worried about being exposed. The main reason was that he still had plans to follow up.

If that was the case, it would affect the crucial importance of General Crowe as a chess piece.

Seeing that everything was normal, Yu Tian, who had always been calm, could not help but let out a sigh of relief.

He also let out a sigh of relief in his heart.

When he returned to his room, Cass had not returned yet.

Yu Tian began to spread out his sketch, fixing all the incomplete parts.

In this way, his simple sketch was extremely detailed.

In addition, when the time came to make a move, he would also call for reinforcements.

There was basically no foolproof plan in this world. The only way to do more was to continuously improve.

Bang Bang.

There was a knock on the door. Yu Tian put away the detailed blueprints of the underground and underground base on Demon Island.

This was what he had spent this period of time on. It seemed like everything was under his control.

Yu Tian was cautious and careful. He knew better than others how to study the information in his hands and construct the things that he needed.

This was the reason why he was able to support such a large organization. It wasn't just because of the Chu family.

From an ordinary person in the beginning to the mysterious King a year ago, until now, he had returned to being ordinary.

Yu Tian had truly experienced too much.

But in the end, he still didn't forget his ability to "Earn a living."

For example, if one of the Sisters of the Chu family was here, he wouldn't have to draw the pictures himself.

Wasn't there a genius who could remember everything he saw?

But now, he had learned a lot from them.

It was a good thing that they were improving each other.

Cass knocked on the door and then pushed it open.

A good habit. If the details were done well, the chances of failure would be reduced.

As soon as Cass came in, he reported to Yu Tian, "Damn fatty Locke doesn't dare to act rashly. There's a relatively sudden matter. It's the disciple that General Crowe took in here. His foster son's big idiot has already left. He converted all his points into US dollars. He didn't even accept the warden's invitation to stay. "

"Do you know where he went?"

"No, but I noticed that he has a Chinese dictionary in his hands."

Yu Tianyi smiled in his heart when he heard this. It seemed that Crowe was still worried about him and was also concerned about his wife and children.

That stupid big guy must have gone to protect his teacher's wife.

"It doesn't matter. I know where he went. Now it's better to start doing our work. Tonight, from the NACI ventilation duct in the laundry room, throw all our directional TNT explosives along that duct into the underground experimental area that we have already found.. Then, Crowe will give us the map of the Nuclear Energy Center! "

Chapter 876 – Chapter 875, Pocket Money

The next morning.

Yu Tian arrived at the cliff at the back of Demon Island as promised.

A radar station was needed here today, so Yu Tian volunteered to come.

Although he was here to be a supervisor, he had an extra cigar in his hand.

Because General Crowe happened to wander here out of boredom, they stood together and chatted under the witness of dozens of guards.

They were upright, even though both of their faces were extremely ugly and looked like they were not on good terms with each other.

"I should have killed you on the day of the assassin competition. How did you become a guard?"

"Ha, your team is still not enough!"

"Is that so? Then I still want to see your figure in tonight's hunting competition."

"I don't have the time to earn that kind of money. I have quite a lot of points now, so I'm preparing to leave the island."

"What a shameful coward."

..

Such a conversation made Steel Claw, who followed behind him, smile coldly for no reason.

He felt that he was thinking too much. How could a person like General Crowe have anything to do with Yu Tian.

Moreover, he was conspiring against the demon island in such a public place.

Therefore, after listening for a while, Steel Claw turned around and left. He still had to prepare for tonight's hunting competition.

He was the invincible BOSS in tonight's competition. He still had to sharpen his sharp claws!

However, he did not have much free time. He paid attention to the two people who were not on good terms with each other. He watched the sea as they fought head-on.

He heard the footsteps behind him gradually fade away.

Only then did Yu Tian whisper, "Where are the things that you want to prepare for me?"

"What on earth do you want to do?" General Crowe also gritted his teeth and whispered, "Do you really intend to blow this island up into the sky? This place has been completely destroyed by that crazy prison warden. There are no ships here at all. Unless the headquarters send over supplies and personnel, they will only bid for a warship that the Kroni will buy themselves. "

When Yu Tian heard his words, the corners of his mouth could not help but smile.

That's right, he really planned to blow this entire island into the sky.

However, the sky was obviously impossible, but entering the underground sea was no problem at all.

When Yu Tian thought of this, the corners of his mouth could not help but smile. He was already looking forward to that scene.

When General Crowe saw Yu Tian's expression, how could he not understand? He took a deep breath of the high-quality cigar in his hand and shook his head repeatedly in annoyance.

"Madman! He's really a madman! "

Yu Tian was very cooperative towards such an evaluation. He shrugged and said, "I accept."

At this time, the guards in front were starting to build the base, so they did not notice it here.

General Crowe quickly passed a small piece of paper with a cigar rolled up to Yu Tian.

Yu Tian took the brand new cigar and did not ask anything.

He just looked at the sea and asked, "How's your wife and Son?"

"Thank you for taking care of them. They got the best doctors and nurses, and even that old senior you mentioned. He actually let my youngest son, Kerry, regain the ability to count. Now he seems to have the wisdom of the third grade. He even remembered some happy things in the past. "

As General Crowe spoke, his eyes were filled with tears. He was clearly moved by the emotion.

The current Crowe, if you said that he was a killer full of evil, it didn't seem like it at all!

Even a retired general who had led troops and fought and killed didn't seem like it.

The only thing that seemed like it was an old man who was very touched because his son's illness had been treated.

Such a general ke Luo made people feel that he was a kind-hearted old man.

Speaking of which, Yu Tian had met people like general ke Luo before. The only difference was that they seemed to be rivals.

Even the Chu family and those old fellows at the beginning seemed to have some enemies with him.

Now, it seemed that everything had become a fleeting cloud.

Yu Tian who had been in the past.., he assured ke lu, "Remember to come here at the last moment. I can bring my men with me, and that includes you. Don't worry, I will make sure that your son is well and that you can meet him successfully. However, you have to cooperate with me without any reservations. For example, your loyal team can start to move now. My explosives have already been thrown to the designated location."

General Crowe was shocked when he heard this. He didn't expect Yu Tian's ability to move so quickly.

He had even completed the task of sending explosives from the outside.

This guy in front of him had really grasped an extremely astonishing ability.

Even Crowe felt that his guess of Yu Tian's identity was a little too small.

It seemed that Yu Tian's identity was not as simple as that of an important upper echelon of the eastern country.

It was even more terrifying!

When he thought of this, Crowe really could not imagine how this young man, who was not even thirty years old, could have such a powerful background?

Who exactly was Yu Tian?

Crowe felt that only when he reached the eastern country would he be able to solve that mystery.

Now, he could only nod and reply, "Alright, I understand."

However.., he also mentioned something, "My team is not loyal to me. They are only loyal to the price I gave them that is absolutely unacceptable. This price is all the money I have paid. If you want me to fork out more money, then you can only use this old man as collateral."

Yu Tian smiled bitterly and said helplessly, "I didn't bring any money with me, did I? "Besides, if I want to make a call or contact the outside world through my equipment, it's too late. As for those guys here, it's not like you don't know. They only recognize cash! "

Speaking up to this point, Yu Tian recalled that he seemed to have seen a large safe in general ke Luo's office.

Thinking up to this point, Yu Tian knew that this old man was also someone who recognized cash.

From the looks of it, the money in that box seemed to have bled quite a bit because of this operation!

Yu Tian smiled and said, "Don't worry, I won't mistreat you. After you pay the money out, I'll let you get three times the price. Even if you think the price is sky-high, I can still give you three times the price."

"Sky-high three times?"

"Hehe, don't use all your assets to be curious about my pocket money." Yu Tian really said a very simple sentence.

But to general ke Luo, Yu Tian had already confirmed a fact wealth that could rival a country.

The young master of an ancient family in an eastern country that could rival a country?

The possibility of general ke Luo was very high!

Chapter 877 – : Chapter 876, Trash!

General Crowe no longer planned to think about Yu Tian's mysterious background and identity!

Because he couldn't think of any clue even after racking his brains.

What he could be sure of now was that Yu Tian was not only an outstanding assassin, but also a powerful figure of the eastern country. This strength was not only in the aspect of martial force, it was even in terms of the most crucial position, his financial strength, and even his power!

These were all influence!

Hence, General Crowe was certain that this fellow's background was not simple.

Not to mention such a passenger plane, Yu Tian could actually be mobilized.

The identity of such a terrifying young man was no longer very important. What was important was that this fellow was not his enemy. It really made him feel extremely fortunate.

The cigar in General Crowe's hand could not help but smell even better!

Going against Yu Tian was simply crazy!

However, when he thought about how Yu Tian wanted to deal with the warden here and had already started to lay out a flawless plan.

General Crowe felt that this Yu Tian in front of him was even more terrifying than that warden.

The warden was a means, while Yu Tian controlled the overall situation step by step, just like a grandmaster in chess. Every step he took was aimed at the general.

As for the Queen and the Knights, the bishops were all chess pieces that could be sacrificed at will.

From Yu Tian's operation, the rest of the people on Demon Island, as long as they were not his people, were all "Bad guys "who could be buried together with him!

Yu Tian had already gotten what he wanted. He put out the cigar in his hand, put it into his pocket, and began to return.

Not far behind him, Cass was standing there obediently waiting. Even if it was Steel Claw's threat, he did not care.

Cass was such a person. He was a stubborn Indian monk!

When Cass saw his boss coming over, he went forward and asked, "Should we get rid of Steel Claw in advance?"

When Yu Tian heard this proposal, he agreed, but that guy did not seem to be easy to deal with.

Who knew that he seemed to have specially planned it out for his boss.

This cass directly said, "Tonight's assassin's hunting competition, he is the invincible BOSS, which is also the guardian of the resources in the neutral zone. His invincibility is also his strength. As for the resources that he protects, they are the medical supplies that the group of assassins need after they are injured. Without these supplies, the entire demon island's carnival that lasts for three days, there will be no tomorrow for them to continue living!"

When Yu Tian heard what Cass said, he understood what the competition was going to be.

This was really a big competition. Yu Tian could smell the smell of blood coming.

No wonder a radar base was going to be built here.

Even the guards were required to go to the underground base and stay in the cafeteria and the activity areas in the halls there, watching the live projection on the big screen.

It seemed that the world on Demon Island would be handed over to the killers.

Their competition venue was now in this place!

At the same time, Yu Tian was even more glad that he had acted early and that God was helping him.

It was really like the saying, "Man proposes, God disposes! "

Because in this way, he would definitely be able to obtain a very good advantage.

That was General Crowe's confidant team. Today, they could make good use of it to start their operation.

From the location of the underground base, they would take out the explosives and place them at the location that Yu Tian needed.

Those explosives were all quantitative TNT like a small piece of white chocolate. It was difficult to find those things stuck on the white wall.

The most important thing was that Yu Tian had taken out more than 300 pieces of explosives from the mini submarine.

Although these explosives were small, their explosive power was comparable to those explosives that could split mountains.

With the development of technology, the weapons used to kill people became smaller and more lethal. They were even more powerful.

Even the heavens were helping!

Yu Tian then asked, "Cass, what are your specific thoughts?"

"If I participate in this assassin competition, I can get rid of him!"

Yu Tian heard this suggestion, he took a deep look at his newly recruited underling. This fellow whose entire face was tattooed with scriptures, he suddenly realized that he had underestimated the loyalty of one person!

Clearly, Cass was such a loyal fellow!

Yu Tian patted his shoulder and said with a smile, "Don't go, I'll go. If I'm not mistaken, that Steel Claw is a complete reformer. Not only did he inject some serum into his blood, but his broken hands were also connected to the sharp claws like Wolverine in the Movies! This is a killing machine, you are not his opponent!"

Cass refused, "I know what you are worried about boss, but please believe in my strength, I have the ability to deal with him. "

"You are so confident?"

"With my experience, it is more than enough to deal with an opponent like him."

"But isn't he an invincible BOSS in this game?"

"That's not what I mean. This invincible boss is just his strength. Among the assassins participating in the assassin competition, he is definitely an invincible existence. Moreover, he also has two soldiers armed with guns to help him guard the neutral area of the supply point. Therefore, the assassins don't dare to provoke him! They also don't dare to fight with this guy.

However, in such a competition, out of fifty assassins, only ten must survive.

Unless you give up, then injuries are inevitable! "

Cass explained this to Yu Tian, and Yu Tian finally understood.

At this moment, Yu Tian thought of something, and he could not hide the shock in his heart, looking at Cass in front of him, he said, "Are you planning to directly look for this guy after entering the assassin competition? "And then let those assassins snatch those supplies. Because you know that those supplies will be the protection of those assassins, and your target is not them, so you think that they will work together to deal with this BOSS? "Aren't you being a little too arrogant?"

"Yes, such an existence may become an existence that no one dares to provoke! "Cass smiled, he changed the topic and said, "But if his weakness appears, and it is a fatal weakness, then he will be mercilessly devoured by countless assassins swarming over!"

Yu Tian looked at Cass. He suddenly felt that this killer monk who came from the Dora Temple!

He had really thought too simply!

But for now, Cass 'adventure seemed to be the most worthwhile one at the moment.

He, Yu Tian, personally took action. If anything unexpected happened, all the plans would end and turn to dust!

The truth was Cass was the only choice!

Chapter 878 – : Chapter 877, A Dream

At the beginning of the plan, Yu Tian had made a lot of plans.

When he fell into a deep sleep.

He took a deep breath and immediately entered a state where he forgot about both things and himself.

Yu Tian had been practicing his golden needle for a long time. From what he could do, he could also wrap the end of the tail of the golden needle with the thin thread of natural silk to complete some things like those in novels, flying the needle to guide the acupoints, taking someone's life from a distance and then taking back the golden needles.

There were some things that looked mysterious but looked at it from a different angle, only to find that there was nothing mysterious about them.

Just like that magic trick, it was just such a simple gadget.

Speaking of which, Yu Tian gradually realized the world of ancient martial arts.

He could not reach the "Qi" that the old man who visited him a year ago said!

He could only use some tricks to make his golden needles appear to be manipulated.

From the flying needles to the retracting fingers, it was actually through the small invisible silk threads in his hand.

It was a fantastical technique, but it also had the ability to kill and steal.

However, it was a very simple fact. At least after killing, there was no need to take the needles.

The tiny thread was pulled back, and it was usually hidden in his sleeves.

The golden needle killing someone to take their life was indeed a special skill.

It was somewhat similar to a martial arts novel.

In the past, Yu Tian naturally did not believe it. However, as his cultivation progressed, he also felt that there were some mysteries that he wanted to unlock.

Just like now, Yu Tian had already achieved some reverence in his heart.

Putting everything else aside, it seemed that he was already very certain about the ancient martial arts.

He had also begun to step into this threshold.

However, he was only at the entrance to watch the show, so he really had no idea what to do.

He thought of the reclusive aristocratic families that Uncle Long had mentioned before. All of them had ancient martial arts inheritances, but no one knew about them. All of them seemed to be reclusive.

Yu Tian planned to find out more after he understood everything.

It was always good to be apprenticed to a master or to look for a master to visit a friend.

Now, Yu Tian could already feel that there was an obvious bottleneck in his self-exploration.

He knew this bottleneck in his heart, so he needed a new breakthrough to complete it.

Thinking of this, Yu Tian began to fall asleep.

He slowly fell asleep.

In his heart, he was also thinking about the golden needle in his hand.

At this moment, what he didn't know was that a faint, indistinct aura began to appear on the tip of his finger.

It was like an aura that should have existed, but was obviously invisible.

Unfortunately, he was already asleep at this time, so he didn't notice it at all.

Early in the morning.

The new assassin competition began.

Cass was not in the room. Yu Tian knew what that Kid had gone to do, so he finally agreed to Cass's suggestion.

Although it was risky, it could not withstand Cass 'persistence. Moreover, his determined and confident expression was not one that could be rejected.

Yu Tian knew a little about this guy. He had always wanted to challenge the strong.

If Yu Tian didn't agree this time, he could predict that Cass would be very disappointed.

Not to mention that Steel Claw was a dangerous factor in this plan.

A person like Cass would never easily get around such a person.

Rather than helping him to deal with such a person,.

It was more like the two had a reason for each other.

One was that Cass wanted to challenge the strong. If he was too strong, he would be courting death. If he was too weak, he would not achieve his goal.

There was no doubt that the warden was not suitable. That would undoubtedly expose his identity and purpose.

It would also implicate the entire plan.

However, he could not be too weak. The best target would be steel claw.

Secondly, Steel Claw was the one who was prepared to attack them at any time in this plan.

It would not make sense if such an opponent did not find a perfect opportunity to kill them.

Thinking of this, it could arouse some vigilance.

Therefore, although Yu Tian was worried about Cass wanting to get rid of him, he seemed to be unable to refuse.

Cass was not around. He participated in the hunting competition above the demon island. It was simply a big escape that lasted for three days.

Yu Tian did not make any movements. He just followed the arrangements and quietly walked into the underground base.

It was still the same familiar cafeteria, but the spacious rooms on both sides of the cafeteria had been changed into floor mats.

As long as they finished eating, they would stay here obediently. Unless they needed guards, they would not be as good as the killers who were preparing to participate in the assassination.

There were also six or seven screens projected here, which were the live broadcast information of the killer competition.

They could see the competition from all angles. These were all from the high-definition cameras that had been covering the base for the past few days.

There was also the holographic radar station. Any movement would not be able to escape the detection of these machines.

Yu Tian could not think of helping Cass, because Cass and the others were wearing radio interference bracelets.

However, Yu Tian believed in his new little brother, just as he believed that his boss would take him out and give him the right to walk in the Sun.

Speaking of this matter, Yu Tian felt even more uneasy if something happened to Cass.

Such a little brother was worthy of being called his brother.

So, just in case, he still ordered General Crowe.

He sent a base soldier to infiltrate the patrol on Alcatraz Island.

Their role in this competition was to monitor and guard.

The difference was that they were different from steel claw.

Steel Claw was directly involved, but they had no role.

In this competition, the killers saw them for the same reason as they saw invisible people.

Even if an assassin died at their feet, they could not touch these guys.

As for the base soldiers below the base, Yu Tian noticed a group of about a dozen guys with a tiger LOGO badge on their arms.

They were General Crowe's people, his trusted aides, and members of the team who had taken a lot of money from General Crowe.

General Crowe called them the tiger team.

It was a very rock-and-roll way of naming them.

These people were all Yu Tian's men today, and they all occasionally glanced at

Yu Tian.

Apparently, they had also received General Crowe's words that Yu Tian was the true hidden mirror in the plan.

Yu Tian was their organization.

Most importantly, Yu Tian also promised them that after the matter was done, he would give them another million dollars each when he left.

This made each of them extremely loyal!

Two sums of money, this was practically enough to make them throw away everything.

As long as they had it they would do it!

Chapter 879 – Chapter 878, Why? Kill You!

In the silent canteen.

Everyone was paying attention to the start of the match.

When someone noticed that there was actually Cass among them.

They began to jump for joy and placed bets on Cass.

As for Yu Tian, he also placed a bet. 100 dollars on Cass being alive, or even the first place.

Yu Tian only placed a bet of 100 dollars. This caused the guard in charge of the betting to look at him with disdain.

It was as if he felt that Yu Tian was only willing to fork out so little money for his little brother to participate in this kind of competition.

At that time, Yu Tian did not pay attention to this fellow. Instead, he turned around fiercely and punched this fellow in the nose.

This punch was to reward this guy for spouting nonsense!

Then, he grabbed this guy whose face was covered in blood, he threatened, "Remember, I want to buy his first place with 100 dollars and still be alive. You better remember this, you shameless bitch! You are only qualified to count votes for him here, not to enter and earn big money. This Is You, a coward bug for Life! "

Yu Tian let go of this guy and gave him a middle finger. The surrounding people did not dare to provoke Yu Tian.

Who knew how powerful Yu Tian was? At the same time, everyone knew about Yu Tian's relationship with Cass.

Such a person was not someone they could provoke, not to mention Yu Tian's current strength. It was obvious to everyone in the base.

In an office filled with surveillance cameras in the underground base, the warden and his subordinates were all standing there. The man wearing glasses was also standing there, the person standing beside him was none other than General Crowe, who had secretly cooperated with Yu Tian.

The warden looked at the screen and saw that every assassin was already in position in his own area. He was extremely happy. This time, there were more and more rich people betting. He could also get a lot of funds from the headquarters, this way, his base would become even more important in Kroni.

This was all he wanted, to make his position in Kronny even more important.

It was just that the money he made recently, he still felt too slow, so he increased the excitement of the competition and the odds.

This made even more rich people interested.

There were actually some rich people from the east, this was the news he had just received.

The warden had always wanted to bring this competition to the eastern country.

However, there was nothing he could do about the damnable "Royal Sky"company. The headquarters had instructed him not to have any conflicts of interest with the company or even the eastern country.

The warden knew that the company was the assets of the mysterious King from a year ago. The power behind him was astonishing.

Therefore, he was also very careful not to have any conflicts with such a giant.

At this time, the warden noticed Cass on the screen, he smiled and said, "This Cass still seems to think that the money is too little. Doesn't his new boss plan to give him more money? "Let him enter this game to fight for his life. Let alone him, even if his boss, Yu Tian, comes, he might not be able to survive in this game. This is a three-day-and-three-night grand escape mode. Without any supplies or medical supplies, he can forget about surviving. In the end, out of the fifty of us, only ten assassins survived. I advise him to give up! Oh right, we have no choice but to jump into the sea and swim back to M Nation.

Hahaha. "

The bespectacled man behind him was swiping his phone, he told the warden, "This time, another rich man from the Orient has placed a bet. His target is Cass. He has placed a bet of five million US dollars, and he wants to bet on his first place and survival. It seems that we can't let this guy survive, or else we won't be able to earn so much money."

"Mr. Zach, has the headquarters allowed us to interfere in the game in front of this group of rich people?" "You have to know that this group of rich adults not only want excitement, but also a game competition so that they can smell the scent of money. If our interference is obvious, then they will feel that this game competition has lost the 'justice' that they need. Although there has never been a so-called 'justice, 'we have to pretend to have it."

Crowe agreed with the Warden's words, crowe nodded and said, "That's right. We haven't been here for long. Although the demon island base has been built for a long time, we have only been here for a short period of time. We Can't give up just like that. So, it's better to have a long-term plan."

Crowe followed the warden's words. In any case, there was no problem with his way of agreeing with the warden.

Even the warden himself felt that there was nothing wrong with it.

But only Crowe knew that he was doing it for Yu Tian. After all, Cass was Yu Tian 's man.

And he had also received news that Cass was going after Steel Claw.

This was clearly a bold move to get rid of Steel Claw.

But it was still a very good idea.

The only inconvenience was that he didn't dare to be too obvious to protect Cass.

But now that he was following the warden's words, there was no mistake.

No one could doubt that he actually had second thoughts about the warden.

This was safe for him, and he could continue to protect Cass.

The man wearing glasses was Zach.

He only took a glance at General Crowe, he said disapprovingly, "If he wins, then we will earn a lot less this time. General Crowe, I don't absolutely disagree with your opinion, but I think we should use a reasonable method to prevent us from earning less money. "

The warden was amused.

He looked at Zach and smiled, "I knew the headquarters sent you here to protect me with your smart brain. "

Zach smiled but didn't say anything, then he took out the walkie-talkie and said to the other end, "Steel Claw, once that guy reaches your neutral zone, even if he doesn't dare to get close to you, you will force him into your zone. As long as he reaches your supply point, you, the invincible BOSS, will be able to take advantage of the situation and kill this guy in this game."

On the other end of the walkie-talkie, steel claw replied with certainty, "I understand, Mr. Zach. "

At this moment, Crowe was also calm.

Because wasn't this what they wanted?

Yu Tian wanted Cass to get rid of Steel Claw, and Steel Claw coincidentally wanted to get rid of Cass as well.

It was really a coincidence that everything happened.

Speaking of which, the scene in front of them was extremely coincidental. On the one hand, they had to kill the greatest danger, and on the other hand, they had to get rid of the guy who had affected their earnings.

They really met all of them!

Chapter 880 – : Chapter 879, Interlocking

Interlocking canine teeth!

This was the first scene Yu Tian saw at the start of the competition.

He recalled that many years ago, he had experienced many things. He did not know how many times he had participated in such competitions.

However, no matter how many times he watched such competitions, he would eventually feel that they were just the fun of the rich.

The Killers fought for their lives, the dealers made money empty-handed, and the rich gambled and were happy.

Yu Tian saw that Cass had successfully dealt with a person, so he reduced his worry.

Cass was not injured, and it seemed that he could continue to repair himself. Then, he would wait for an excellent opportunity to attract the killers to that neutral area.

Speaking of which, this plan was not bad!

However, all the risks were placed on Cass. In this way, the assassins were all staring at him.

They all wanted to see if he could bite off a piece of meat in the neutral area. Otherwise, no one would dare to move recklessly.

Thinking of this, Yu Tian's heart fell silent. With this, it was really a narrow escape for Cass.

This was completely different from what he had discussed with him back then.

Cass still chose the method that he thought was the most risky and the most likely to succeed.

Yu Tian stood up and thought to himself, "Then I'll start here too. Cass, you can make your own decision! "

Yu Tian quietly walked to the side, just like a guard who wanted to exercise out of boredom.

However, judging from the scene in front of them, everyone was paying attention to the person they were betting on.

No one would notice him.

Yu Tian walked to the front of a soldier with a tiger sticker on his armband. When the soldier saw him, he was stunned. Then, he pretended to be displeased and shouted, "Don't come to my place when you go to the toilet. Go to the side by yourself. "

After shouting, the soldier whispered to Yu Tian, "Greetings to the commander. "

Yu Tian was already the commander of this small team. It was ironic to say that these guys were the enemies that Yu Tian thought they were.

"Are the things ready? Where are the clothes I want?"

"They are all in the changing room. The people guarding the entrance of the experimental area are our two brothers today. "

After saying that, the soldier pretended to push Yu Tian who was in front of him.

After pushing him, he shouted angrily, "Get lost, I don't have a fire here. I Don 't smoke. "

Yu Tian also pointed his middle finger at him shamelessly and turned towards the end.

At this moment, the people watching the underground base did not have many suspicions.

They only cared about the match that was about to enter the first day of the afternoon.

The assassin game, the Grand Escape and kill competition. It was a very simple way to play. Live, live, or live.

As for the food and medical supplies, they found them by themselves. As for the guns, they didn't have any.

Compared to the competition with guns, the rich preferred this kind of close-quarter combat with flesh and blood.

They loved this thing to death!

Just like poppy, it made them very addicted, so they didn't lose any money at all. They kept betting and kept increasing the stakes.

It was a type of opiate that was mentally addictive!

Even the assassins who participated in the game would sometimes fall in love with that kind of fighting and excitement.

They were not only the trump cards of the players of Pai Gow on the gambling table, they were also participants.

For the sake of greater benefits, the participants who became rich overnight, the players who risked their lives.

Yu Tian came to the changing room and saw the two base soldiers guarding the gate walking towards him. At the same time, they used the device that Crowe gave them to block the surveillance devices here.

These two soldiers also had the tiger badge on their arms. They were very cute. It was obvious that Crowe loved his family and loved his children very much.

Unfortunately, his only surviving son had become a fool.

Although he was now being treated, Crowe believed that miracles would exist.

However, Yu Tian also sympathized with such a retired general.

The two soldiers walked over and nodded slightly at Yu Tian, one of them called out to Yu Tian, "General ke Luo said that you are the person in charge of this plan, our commander. Now, Commander, you can go in and change things.

As for all the spots below, we have already placed your explosives. We just don't know the starter! "

"Don't worry. At the last moment, you can go and meet General Crowe. There will be a way to send you out in advance. There is money on it too. That is the follow-up reward that we promised you."

"Thank you, commander. Is it a ship? It's here to pick us up."

"No, it's not. It's a submarine."

The two soldiers:" ! ! "

When Yu Tian came out of the room again, he had already become a base soldier with a black identification card.

Unsurprisingly, he directly passed through the gate and entered the elevator.

He only had one destination now, which was the experimental area below, and then he would release Gauss.

Was this only the first day of the competition?

No, it was already the last day.

Everything on Demon Island should die along with his history.

Yu Tian was ready. He believed that Gauss had been waiting for a long time.

Yu Tian did not encounter any obstacles along the way. He was like a soldier who was extremely familiar with this place.

He looked at the busy laboratory staff around him. He did not have the slightest bit of sympathy for them as they were about to be buried in the sea. These guys were all executioners with blood-stained long knives in their hands.

When he arrived at the heavily guarded door, Yu Tian showed his identification card to the captain.

"What's wrong now? has this guy been being watched by the higher-ups recently?"

"The test subjects need more experiments. We need to carry out the third phase of the adjustment."

Hearing Yu Tian say the word "Third phase of the adjustment" , the captain immediately stopped doubting and ordered his soldiers to open the door.

General Crowe told Yu Tian about this. He didn't expect that this group of people were really doing many super soldier experiments on Gauss.

Such inhuman human experiments. This group of people were truly insane.

After Yu Tian walked in, he glanced at the captain behind him and said, "Close the door. I'm going to give him a special injection. You all know the rules."

The captain shrugged helplessly, indicating that he knew.

Then, he had the soldiers close the door.

Speaking of which, he also wanted to leave this place as soon as possible.

However, Gauss had a long life. He was actually able to be so energetic while being tortured every day.

Especially recently, why did he look so much better!

The captain shook his head helplessly. He really wanted to take the money and leave as soon as possible.

In this damned place, it was good enough to earn money. To enjoy! there was simply nothing to enjoy.

Not even a woman.

Even the lab staff are men!

Chapter 881 – : Chapter 880, Start The Plan

Gauss saw a base soldier come in. He was about to get angry, but when he saw the shiny electronic device that the soldier threw on the ground, he immediately understood, it was the mysterious person who had been treating his injuries for the past few days, an eastern powerhouse æ” Yu Tian.

Gauss still wanted to act as usual, but he didn't expect Yu Tian to take off his helmet directly. Under his astonished and puzzled gaze, Yu Tian looked at him and said, "There's no need. Today is the day of your release. I counted the days, and your injuries should be almost healed. In addition, those people are also worried that something might happen to you, so they kept giving you nutrient fluids and glucose. Your spirit and energy are much better than the average person, right?"

Yu Tian was right. There was no need for Yu Tian to make a move at all.

When he heard Yu Tian say that he could be freed today, the monster broke free of the shackles on his hands and pulled out the hooks on his shoulders.

Then, he broke the shackles on his feet with one hand.

It was very easy for him to break the shackles with just one hand.

Yu Tian looked at such a super soldier, and the corners of his mouth revealed a satisfied smile.

Even the iron cage did not stop him from causing trouble, but it was gently pushed aside by the two hands that caused trouble. Then, he squeezed his body and directly broke the iron railing.

Looking at such a guy, Yu Tian asked curiously, "Did they inject you with the blood serum of the Hulk in the movie?"

Gauss smiled innocently, then clenched his fists and asked excitedly, "Boss, tell me, how many people do you want me to kill?"

Yu Tian waved his hand and said, "It's not killing people. We want this island to sink. Everyone here, except for Crowe's people, and our own people, will die here."

Yu Tian said this casually, but all of a sudden, he wanted to bury the entire island in the sea.

Even a person like Gauss, who was full of hatred, couldn't help but feel what a big deal!

It was a big deal, but his strength allowed it.

Gauss also asked worriedly, "Then how are we going to leave?" "I don't care.

At most, I'll die with them. I also feel that it's not a loss, but what about you, Boss?

"You're my benefactor. I Can't watch you die like this. Let's Find a boat first!

"This way, you'll be tortured more, and you'll have to endure the hatred for a few days, right?"

"It's okay. There's no need to rush. I'm already very grateful. My hope has been fulfilled!"

Looking at the big guy in front of him, Yu Tian felt satisfied with his reply.

This was also a person worth taking in as a subordinate. At least for now, there was no problem.

Yu Tian smiled and said, "Don't worry, I have a submarine coming here to pick us up. That thing can withstand a large number of explosions. There's no problem at all. "

"You still have a submarine?"

"Hehe, come, I'll check on your injuries. In a while, we'll go out. What's a submarine? I can even buy an aircraft carrier to start a basketball game! "

"What an awesome pen! "

Gauss quietly received treatment. He also asked why he didn't go out now.

Yu Tian told him about the matters above, especially since Cass hadn't started to fall into chaos yet.

So now wasn't the time to make a move.

Gauss asked curiously, "How do you know here?" "Crowe has already cooperated with us. Don't forget. "

"That's true. Gauss is an idiot."

After Yu Tian gave him the golden needle acupuncture point, he still felt that there shouldn't be any problems with this kid.

He even saw with his naked eyes that his wound was slowly healing.

Looking at this scene, Yu Tian finally understood that the possibility of being a super soldier was really realized by this kid.

Yu Tian's curiosity towards the modified human was still because of his previous contact with him.

However, after seeing a super soldier like Gauss today, he believed that the cyborg like Steel Claw was only going to be eliminated. The real success case was still the existence of Gauss!

However, he could imagine how many experiments had been done on Gauss.

Yu Tian did not continue to heal Gauss 'wounds at this time.

Because everything was much better, the current Gauss was enough to immediately join the battle.

Now, Yu Tian had to do something new.

That was to interrupt the surveillance equipment in the underground laboratory area, and then there was the only elevator that went up.

Yu Tian took out a small tablet from his pocket.

Then, he commanded gauss, "Go to that surveillance equipment, smash it, and then pull down a line for me."

"Okay, Boss!"

Yu Tian's next actions were like a hacker, very high-end.

He made a large area of the laboratory's monitoring screen stop moving.

But the monitoring time below was still flowing normally.

This was a way for hackers to break in.

Yu Tian then said, "Smash Open the electronic lock at the door. Is Your Fist Okay?"

Gauss took action to prove that he was alright.

He smashed the screen of the electronic lock with his fist.

Then, he pulled out a wire from it. It was still emitting sparks and electric current.

Yu Tian was stunned.

He saw Gauss scratch his head and said embarrassedly, "They did a high voltage experiment on me. My body can withstand a certain volt of electric current without any problem. "

"They really tortured you a lot and came up with a lot of tricks! "

"They did a lot of experiments on me that I can't forget for the rest of my life, but the success of these experiments allowed me to use everything they gave me today to completely destroy this place. "

Yu Tian nodded and began to connect the circuits.

As long as he was not inside, the electronic door would lose its effect.

This way, he could wait for the news from above.

As for the captain outside the door, at this time, he would not look for trouble.

After all, the Warden's eyes were all on the match today.

Yu Tian asked gauss, "From now on, your life will be mine, right?"

Gauss nodded seriously and said, "Yes, I don't have any family anymore. You Are My Big Brother! "

"You used to be about two meters tall? Are you still so strong?"

"I used to be about 1.8 meters tall and very thin. I came here and was constantly changed. "

"Good, then don't call me Gauss. From now on, forget about the past. You are my little brother, so call me Big Guy! "

"Alright boss, I'll call you big guy."

"Very good! "Yu Tian stood up after he was done, he put the small tablet back and said, "Destroy all the surveillance equipment here for me now. I've already fixed their images, but just in case, I don't want to make any mistakes and let them realize that we're out of their control. At most, they'll think that it's a black screen and that the equipment is damaged..))

Chapter 882 – Chapter 881, Voodoo

The beginning of a plan was usually the end of the plan.

However, the process of ending depended on whether the plan succeeded or failed.

Success and failure counted as the end.

If it was fast, the end would be even faster, regardless of victory or defeat.

Yu Tian was very clear about this, so he wanted to end it quickly, and on the side of the goddess of victory.

All the explosive points of the quantitative high explosive penetration explosives, the only trigger device was in his hands.

And that small tablet was the trigger device that entered the activation code.

Even if this thing was lost, or if Yu Tian made a mistake.

Those gadgets, would be detonated on time in 48 hours.

Win or lose, the beginning of this plan meant the end, the end of the Alcatraz base.

The only fate was to bury the sea, and the question of how many people would die.

But no matter what, it was enough to give the clone society a heavy blow.

Not to mention, Yu Tian already had a lot of information about the clone society here.

After the field agent sent out retrieved useful information from Tennessee, he would hand it over to a professional intelligence processing analyst, and then all the questions would be answered.

The net was now closed, and the goal of destroying the base was now begun.

Yu Tian did a final check on Gauss. The moment he did not mind giving him the nickname "Big Guy," Yu Tian knew that this guy was the underling he was looking for, simple and honest, most importantly, there was hatred for the Clone Society, which was crucial to Yu Tian.

His new organization was not facing the world, nor was it facing the east.

Instead, it planned to monitor the west, which had not been very obedient. He had actually managed to create so many things during his one-year vacation.

He did not plan to completely retire from the martial arts world!

If he really had to retire, how would that be possible?

The power in Yu Tian's hands was enough to deter these little rascals, but it did not mean that he did not have it.

Moreover, power couldn't be eternal. He needed to create a rule for these disobedient fellows and create a radius.

Without rules, there wouldn't be a radius, not to mention threatening the eastern kingdom.

He, Yu Tian, was still there. The mysterious King wasn't dead yet. He wasn't like the rumors outside, and had disappeared without a trace.

He just liked to live a low-key retirement life and took a vacation for a period of time.

Yu Tian turned on the communication device and reset the detonation code to the point that even uncle long did not know about it. Then, he started to contact uncle long.

Uncle Long had been waiting on the other end of the line for a long time.

When he heard Yu Tian's voice., he immediately asked excitedly, "How is it? Is it safe? The submarine has already set off, but it's not from our country, and it's also not from the M Nation. After all, the M Nation won't fight against their own people for us. " "Then what is it?"

"The great hairy nation. "

When Yu Tian heard this, he also came back to his senses. It was also such a place. It was located on the west coast of the M Nation, and it had to be advanced to the point where it would not be discovered by the M Nation's navy, there was also a point where it could quickly react to the M nation's west coast to hide, and it was silent in the depths of the ocean.

Yu Tian understood the great hairy nation. He smiled and asked uncle long,

"How is it? How much did you spend to hire them to help me?"

"Not much, not much. It's only 50 million." "Rubles?"

"How is that possible? Green coins, US dollars! "

"50 million US dollars to come and pick us up once? May I ask what kind of submarine is it? It's extremely expensive."

"What kind of submarine would be qualified to come and pick up our boss Yu Tian? Naturally, it's their country's god of the North Wind! "

When Yu Tian heard this, he could not help but Grumble in his heart what a huge sum of money.

However, when he learned that a submarine had come to pick him up, Yu Tian was no longer worried.

Right now, he was only planning to start the operation, but Uncle Long had also made sure that the investigation in Tennessee was progressing smoothly.

He did not want to break off midway because of him, which would cause the other party to be on guard.

Uncle long promised, "Don't worry. That field agent is much smarter than we thought. She has almost finished her investigation. Oh right, she is a member of my newly established nine-tailed Fox team. Come to the company when you have time. Take a look at my newly trained team. I will definitely satisfy you! " Yu Tian felt troubled when he heard that, he flatly refused, "Don't. Pm a non-existent person now. The new company is yours, and I'm no longer part of the Chu family. Just let me have some free time to do what I want to do from time to time."

"Aren't you taking a risk now? Or are you risking your life? !" "Hehe, this happens to be what I want to do. Ah, can't I do it?"

"Yes, yes, yes, it's awesome!"

Yu Tian didn't want to argue with Uncle Long anymore, he just wanted him to say, "Hurry up there and get more information. Once I'm done here, Pll go back and go straight to the relevant information that you can find out. If it's really Europa, then I'll go straight there. For such a thing to suddenly appear, I won't start with country M first. I'll have to clean it up from the outer circle. No one can escape. Pull out the radish and bring it out of the mud! "

"I know. I've been with you for a long time. I know what to do."

"As long as you understand. That's all for now. Pm going to make my move now. Give me the satellite positioning image. With the holographic scanning Pve given you during this period of time, we can mobilize more than fifty satellites. All of them can draw a map for this little thing in my hand, right?"?

"They can also locate me." "There's no problem at all." "Alright then. We'll start on time in three hours. Even if Cass can't get his hands on it, we'll still take action here."

"All the equipment has been hacked?"

"Yes, even the electronic doors that control the circuits have been hacked.

Now, this little tablet in my hand is the real key to this place. "

"Is their firewall so simple?"

Yu Tian said sarcastically, "I always feel that I'm the most advanced, but I don't even know that I've been surmounted by someone secretly. Perhaps arrogance is the greatest enemy of mankind the end."

Before Uncle Long could respond, Yu Tian had already turned off the call.

He now needed radio silence for a period of time.

Waiting was the longest torture! Yu Tian did not know who had said this.

He really felt that it was a famous saying.

Especially when there was no news from General Crowe.

Yu Tian sat in the corner with his back against the cold wall, and the big guy sat obediently beside him.

The Big Guy asked at this time, "You just invaded this place. Can you watch the live broadcast outside? The killer competition is where Cass is participating. "

Yu Tian nodded without saying a word.

"Then why didn't you watch it?"

"I don't dare. I believe him, but I also know how powerful Steel Claw is. I can't bear to see my brother suffer..

Chapter 883 – : Chapter 882, False Alarm

The Big Guy didn't say anything more and just waited quietly.

He had already freed himself from the shackles and fulfilled his wish.

He just wanted to vent all his hatred and anger.

But now he had time to endure it, because it was worth the wait.

..

In the experimental area.

The warden looked at the numbers on the screen, feeling very dissatisfied. They had agreed on three days, but suddenly thirty-five of the fifty people had died!

The remaining fifteen were all gathered together. What the hell was going on?

The warden saw that something was wrong, and even his strategist, Zach, also saw that something was wrong.

Zach looked at the fifteen people gathered on the screen, especially one of them, Cass, he could not hide his anger and said, "Sure enough, it's this kid. Cass is planning to use the number of survivors to attack the neutral zone. He seems to know that we are going to get even with him, and his plan is to bring such a group of people and burn all bridges! our game still has one more bet. I think the warden also knows the one that is the most impossible and has a frighteningly high odds! "

Hearing Zach's words, the warden immediately became alert.

Yes, there was a high betting odds, and it was the most unlikely one.

That was the way to end the game, and that was to kill the invincible BOSS.

This was something that the tycoons had suggested at the last minute, so the warden added it, adding some interest to the game. The most important thing was that there were quite a few bets on this every time, therefore, it was a waste of money. He also earned money. The only difference was that the invincible BOSS in every battle was truly invincible.

Not only were there base soldiers with guns guarding the place, there was also a BOSS. Once, it could even be the warden, once, it could be a group of soldiers, and once, it could be steel claw, it could even be General Crowe and his disciple. No matter who was going to be the invincible BOSS, it would always make the killers fearful. Not to mention uniting together to charge, even if dozens of people came, they would only die.

Someone had done it before, so he died. That time, the killers were all wiped out.

So no one thought about defeating the invincible BOSS and killing him. At most, they just wanted to sneak out with some supplies.

Every big escape would last for three days. There were so many surveillance cameras in the middle. As long as you dared to steal something that did not belong to the supplies, even if it was a piece of biscuit crumb that others could not clear in time, you would be immediately caught by the base soldiers, then, they would kill you without any mercy. This was the rule of the game, and they also liked to kill people.

It was all fun.

Looking at the fact that Cass was actually paying attention to the end of the game rule, the warden smiled in anger when he saw Zach's anxious look, he waved his hand to let Mr. Zach calm down and said, "Mr. Zach, don't be angry. It's okay. I know Cass's ability very well. He was selected from the last assassin competition. This time, he's still participating. It's clearly his new boss. The money he gave is not enough for his expenses. He wants to earn money and leave this place as soon as possible. No matter what, he won't be a match for Steel Claw. We can rest assured and collect his body. "

The warden said, "Isn't that what we want? We want that guy to get close to the neutral zone and let Steel Claw and the others kill him. "

Zach heard the warden's words and did not say anything more. However, he felt a little strange. Why did Cass suddenly participate in this competition? With his strength alone, it would not be a problem for him to enter the top ten, therefore, he could survive. There was definitely no accident.

However, Cass suddenly organized a small team in the midst of killing. He even targeted the special game ending rule.

The probability of this was much lower than the probability of him getting into the top ten.

It was even very dangerous. If he was not careful, he would lose his life in there.

Thinking of this, Zach had a strange thought.

Then, he went to the other side of the monitoring room. This place was monitoring the underground base.

He asked, "How is it? Did you find anything strange?"

The guy who was eating potato chips and monitoring dozens of areas..., he spread his hands in boredom and said, "I'm watching it all the time. It's normal. These guys love these competitions more than anything else. They don't have any thoughts at all. I guess they don't even want to go to the toilet anymore. The BET has entered a critical period."

Zach also glanced at it, but he didn't find anything strange.

Then he asked, "Where is the Kid I asked you to watch?"

"Oh, here. He just went into the toilet at the corner. He was pushed by our soldiers just now. This kid actually went to borrow fire. It's really funny." As he spoke, the operator adjusted the screen. It was the video of Yu Tian entering the toilet from the corner first.

Then, it was Yu Tian who entered.

As for the base soldier, Zach was still worried. He pointed at the base soldier and asked, "Bring up his call channel. I want to contact him. "

The operator began to operate.

Then he called out, "Hello, Hello. Mr. Zach from the control room is contacting you. "

"Roger that. Standing by. "

The operator handed the microphone to Zach. He continued to stare at the screen while yawning. He opened a new bag of potato chips in his hand.

At this time, General Crowe walked over. He looked at the person on the screen and listened to the voice coming from the microphone. He smiled and said, "This is my man. Feel free to ask. He is more reliable than your butt!"

Crowe turned around and left with a smile. He continued to watch the live broadcast.

The warden also laughed when he heard this. He felt that Zach was too cautious.

After asking a simple question, Zach was sure that Yu Tian was here to borrow fire and was chased away. After he went to the toilet, he did not have any more doubts.

Moreover, this was General Crowe's man. Zach trusted him even more.

Zach told himself that he was too cautious, so he was worried too much.

Everything seemed normal, there was no problem.

Then, Zach was relieved.

At this time, Zach did not notice that a drop of cold sweat was dripping from General Crowe's forehead.

As for his man in front, the soldier, he was also shocked that his back was full of sweat from fear.

Yu Tianke had disappeared several hours ago.

What they saw was what Yu Tianke had controlled..

Chapter 884 – Chapter 883, Poison Gas Kills Without A Trace

General Crowe's small team of soldiers could not help but take off their helmets to wipe off their cold sweat!

It was really scary. He suddenly felt that this sum of money was not that easy to earn.

Right now, he only wanted to finish this job and then immediately go home. He did not want to stay in this place with a bunch of crazy people. It was not a place for people to stay. His desire to go home.., was even stronger.

He began to pray like a devout religious man.

Amen, I will definitely be able to get on a boat to leave this place!

No, that Lord was talking about a submarine. The two brothers next door had already told me.

A submarine, I will definitely be able to take me with me!

This base soldier began to imagine his beautiful life. He felt that he must have followed a team member this time.

Otherwise, wouldn't he have wasted so much money?

Therefore, for the sake of money, he had to help that mysterious person called Yu Tian to achieve his goal.

After seeing that everything was fine, Zach returned to the front with peace of mind. It had been a while, but Cass and the others still did not move. Seeing this, Zach asked, "What are they waiting for?"

Crowe replied in a deep voice, "Waiting for the most tiring night of the day. Even a person like Steel Claw, who has been trained, will be especially tired at one point in the day. Cass will wait for this time to make a move. Do you think we should help?"

Crowe's question seemed to be for the benefit of the base and also to protect Steel Claw.

However, the moment he said this, it immediately caused the warden to object.

The prison was confident. There was one more point. He was unwilling to let the business he had built up cause the rich to suspect that this game was being manipulated.

Therefore, he still chose not to make a move. As for Steel Claw.., he said bluntly, "Even if another ten kass were to come, they wouldn't be Steel Claw's match. We've seen his strength in the last match. It's impossible for him to be Steel Claw's match. Both of you should understand this point."

Crowe also agreed with the Warden's words, then, he nodded and said, "Yes we've all witnessed Cass's strength. It's impossible for him to be a match for Steel Claw. We just need to wait quietly, like what the Warden said, to collect his corpse. I believe in the Warden's judgment on this point. Hehe. Moreover, Cass, this kid, is that Yu Tian's man. Now that he has died here, it can be considered as avenging my disciple who has already left. "Hahaha. "

Crowe didn't look like a good person, nor did he look like a person who had already formed a partnership with Yu Tian. They could be considered as a life-and-death alliance. They were on the same boat, but they were more like two unrelated enemies who even hated each other.

It had to be said that as Crowe grew older, he became more and more shrewd. He also became more and more skilled in acting.

It was as if he could be given a golden statue.

Crowe's reaction seemed to be what Zach wanted to see. Zach nodded and also believed in Steel Claw's strength.

However, he still felt that it wasn't safe, so he secretly planned to do something.

He began to say to a soldier beside him, "Go and prepare some poison gas. I want to make their hands and feet at least stiffen, and not let them die on the spot. You should know what kind of poison gas I want you to release, right?"

The soldier nodded. Then, he glanced at the warden and found that the warden did not have any objections.

So, he quickly left.

However, at this time, Crowe's face began to look a little ugly.

Half an hour later, Crowe pretended to have finished smoking the cigar in his hand. After fumbling left and right, he asked Zach who was beside him, "There are cigars in the underground base that I put in my office in the underground base. You didn't smoke them in secret, right?"

Zach was also a person who liked to smoke, and this was because General Crowe liked to give them to him as gifts.

So, Zach smiled and said, "Don't worry, how could I touch your rations? I just took a box. If you want it, I'll get someone to send it to you."

Crowe rolled his eyes at him, then, he patted his shoulder and said, "Forget it, they don't know about your and my tastes. I'll bring you one too. It's been a few days. Although I don't know if this kid can deal with Steel Claw, I promise that I'll give him a little more time to collect his body."

After saying that, General Crowe turned around and was about to leave to get his cigar.

Suddenly, the warden called out to General Crowe who had already turned around and walked to the door.

General Crowe froze!

He was completely stunned. From the angle where others couldn't see him, he was already covered in cold sweat.

General Crowe didn't know what had happened in his heart.

At this moment., the Warden's voice suddenly said, "Crowe, bring me one too. Forget it, let's have two. You know the taste that I like. It's the taste of that very comfortable apple. You know, I only smoke Cuban ones. Don't give me English ones, or I'll definitely get even with you! "

At this moment, Crowe turned around and looked at the warden with disdain, he said helplessly, "It's really you. You guys eat my food every day. These things are very expensive. They can only be delivered once a month and they're all bought with my money. You're all a bunch of bastards! " "Got it, Warden. I'll go now. "

"Hahaha. "

"Hurry up and go, Hehe."

The warden and Zach also laughed.

The moment Crowe walked out of the room, his whole body tensed up.

Then, he let out a long breath. This made him even more nervous than when he was on a mission back then.

He knew very well the methods of the warden inside, and he also knew how powerful he was. He was simply no match for the warden.

Speaking of which, even if he and his team faced the warden, he was not confident that he could deal with that guy.

General Crowe really thought that he was about to be discovered.

But fortunately, it was all a false alarm.

General Crowe quickly left the place, turned around and really started to walk toward his underground office.

Along the way, he also quickly turned on the miniature headset that Yu Tian gave him. A very simple button was stuffed into his ear, and it was hidden outside the ear, and it was the same color as his skin.

At this moment, Yu Tian heard the latest news from General Crowe.

General Crowe anxiously told Yu Tian that they were going to use some nerve gas.

It was not fatal, but in that competition, it was definitely fatal.

After Yu Tian listened, he did not worry much, he just said to him, "Since ancient times, India has had the ability of a turtle's breath. You probably don't know what a turtle's breath is. Let me tell you, it's called inner circulation breathing, fetal breathing!. although Cass is white, he learned the art of killing in India's dharani temple!"

Chapter 885 – Chapter 884, Odds Of Winning

General Crowe's worries were not without reason.

However, in the current situation, his worries had already been vetoed by Yu Tian.

At this time, Yu Tian did not have much choice. All he could do was to trust his brother.

As for Crowe's good intentions, he also knew that he was worried that the plan would go awry.

Yu Tian simply told general crowe, "Even if something happens to Cass, he won't be able to complete his part of the mission, nor will it affect the complete completion of our mission. All he can do is to help us pull out a nail, but the addition of this nail will not affect us from blowing up this solid iron door."

General Crowe instantly understood Yu Tian's wonderful metaphor.

He walked into his office and pretended to be here to pick up a cigar.

At the same time, he asked in a low voice, "Then why did you let Cass do it? You're just watching him die!"

Yu Tian didn't have many reasons, he answered Cass 'question very simply, "Cass 'biggest wish is to challenge the strong. Here, he can fight, but only a strong person like steel claw can not die in vain. Most importantly, he felt that it was necessary to pull out this nail for me, the new boss. I didn't stop him because I knew that if I stopped him, he would lose his last wish to bid farewell to the assassin."

"You won't kill anyone after I follow you?"

"I won't kill again, but I won't be the killer I used to be."

"Alright, since you've already made up your mind, then I'll risk my life to accompany you today. This is an old saying of your eastern country. I also know that I'll take care of Cass. What you need to do now is to start detonating according to the planned plan. Also, has the ship that we want to leave really arrived?"

"I told you, it's not a ship but a submarine. It's right under the cliff of the back pirates. You'll know when the island explodes."

"Yes, I'll keep your promise. I'll start this conversation until the end."

"Very good, you've completely trusted your partner. "

"Heh, what else can I do?"

"That's right, but this happens to be your best choice."

"God Bless Me. I hope I can get out of here alive with a lunatic like you. "

"Not just god, but I bless you, Hehe."

Chapter 886 – Chapter 885, Live Broadcast Interrupted

Steel Claw was preparing at the resource point. He was standing on the platform above an abandoned prison building in the Demon Island prison.

The only way to get up here was through some broken stairs.

These stairs were made of steel, but after so many years, they had long been rusted.

This was also an external abandoned factory, just like the place where Yu Tian had dealt with that damned fatty.

Steel Claw had received the news from above. He looked extremely confident and did not care at all about the danger he was in. Not to mention when he learned that the nerve gas had already covered Cass and the others..., therefore, he was even more confident. He felt that he could kill 12 of the 15 in a single exchange. This definitely included that Guy Cass. He had always wanted to deal with him!

Especially when he found out that Cass had actually followed Yu Tianhou, his intention to kill Cass became even more intense.

Steel Claw assured on the walkie-talkie, "Mr. Zach, and the warden, don't worry. ASK General Crowe to prepare a good cigar for me. I don't need half a day's time to guarantee that this killer competition will be over soon. Wait for my news. I can already smell the approaching prey. "

On the other end of the walkie-talkie, Mr. Zach smiled and nodded. "Okay, then we'll be waiting for your good news. But you should be careful. I always feel that there are a lot of strange things about Cass taking the initiative to participate in this killer competition. It's always good for you to be careful. "

"Got it, Mr. Zach. I'll listen to you. You're my brain. I'll listen to your orders."

"Well, that's it then. I'll wait for you to finish."

The walkie-talkie was electrified, and then it was calm again.

Steel Claw threw the thing onto the medical supplies and the box full of food, he shook his head regretfully and said, "You're such a good Cass, yet you insist on being together with that Oriental man. Then don't blame me for letting you watch this scene when I cut off your head! "

After saying that..., steel Claw also ordered the base soldier who was holding a weapon beside him, "Keep Your Eyes Wide Open and look at this place. When they get close, I'll go and kill all of them by myself. Then, you guys keep an eye on this place, just to let Mr. Zach know that there are still people here. As for them, they are all my prey. You Can't snatch them away, understand?" The two base soldiers didn 't dare to say anything and quickly agreed.

As for more, they didn't dare to dissuade the Steel Claw captain who was close to violating the rules.

Because they knew that if they really dissuaded him, then after the competition ended, the two of them wouldn't have a good ending.

In order to continue working here, they didn't dare to offend anyone else.

The one they especially offended was captain steel claw!

This was a ruthless character who killed without batting an eyelid, even killing his own people.

Steel Claw looked at the few little red dots on the radar in front of him. Finally, he could not hide his surprise as he polished his sharp claws. He looked at the red dots that were gradually approaching, revealing a look as if he had discovered his prey..., it was a look of a predator who could not wait to attack and kill!

It was a burning desire, a burning desire to kill. He wanted to use this group of killers, especially the fresh blood of Cass, to fill this desire of his.

When Cass smelled a trace of something wrong, it was a colorless and tasteless smell, but it was definitely different from the smell here. He noticed the thin white fog at the vent.

He quickly shouted to the fourteen killers, "Close your mouth and nose, and prepare to wet your clothes and tie it to your face as a mask. "

The dozen killers had strange expressions on their faces.

But in the next moment, one of the killer's limbs suddenly became weak, and he sat on the ground.

As killers, they immediately followed Cass 'instructions.

poison gas!

The poor assassin could only be left on the spot. His resistance was even weaker. A little poison gas directly paralyzed his entire body.

Such an assassin had not undergone the anti-virus training of nerve agents, so he was still very weak.

The rest of the people looked at Cass, who had become the backbone of their operation.

Cass did not hesitate to hold his breath as he began to tell them his next battle plan.

Cass would definitely wait for his opponent to be the most tired.

The time he chose was almost past midnight. It was already nine o'clock in the evening.

What they had to do was to get close, but they had to ensure that under the surveillance of this group of people, which was the live broadcast, they would not go near that neutral area.

Cass was sure that no matter how crazy they were, Steel Claw would not leave the place where he was supposed to stay in front of the live broadcast.

When they arrived at the predetermined location.

Cass was not in a hurry to attack. Instead, he had them open all the windows and doors around them.

There were ventilation ducts everywhere here. Even in this kind of unobstructed room, the nerve agent would allow them to accurately inhale some.

Therefore, it was necessary to open the doors and windows. This way, the closer it was to night, the stronger the sea breeze would be.

The effect of the poison on them was very small.

Even if it was continuously discharged, it would be diluted to almost the same extent.

But similarly, even if they wore masks made of wet clothes to cover up.

It was inevitable that they would inhale some into their bodies.

Some of the guys who had no resistance to the nerve gas directly went limp. Although they could move, they still couldn't exert much strength.

Just at this moment, two more guys laid down on Cass's side.

Now there were only twelve people in his team.

Although this poison didn't care about their lives, Cass could also see that they did it on purpose.

Obviously, they wanted them to die at the hands of Steel Claw, and not let those rich people see that something was wrong and completely hate the warden's killer game competition on Demon Island.

In this way, Kronin would have to settle the score with the warden, and the warden would not have to feel troubled.

The higher-ups would have to make him feel "Constantly troubled"!

Cass sat with his back against the wall of the window. There was a slight sea breeze blowing over his head. The sea breeze at this point was actually not very strong, so the white fog from the ventilation pipe above his head continued to spread out.

Cass recited the scriptures that his master had taught him.

They were all in Sanskrit. He recited them softly and then prayed for himself.

At this time, the killers around him also believed in the legend.

In the last assassin competition, the only first place was a white monk who had a face full of devil tattoos and could recite scriptures.

His assassin definitely did not match his scriptures.

It was rumored that he came from the Draonie Temple in India, which was the most mysterious place in India that trained monks to kill people..

Chapter 887 – Chapter 886, The End

The Killers believed in this man because the place he came from was a place that everyone was extremely afraid of.

However, if it was just this, they would not have gathered around this cass.

The reason why they gathered around Cass was to survive. Also, Cass had promised them that when he dealt with steel claw, they could take away the supplies as long as they helped him kill the two base soldiers.

The Assassins did not know why Cass would make such a "Stupid" plan.

They only knew that if they came like this, they would still be able to survive, not to mention that the higher-ups had released a nerve agent to deal with them.

They could not tolerate and accept such an outcome. If they stayed like this, no one would be able to survive.

Therefore, at this moment, they only planned to work together with Cass.

Among them was a Japanese assassin, he asked, "Captain Cass, you said that we can only wait now, but that Steel Claw is also resting. We'd better fight him even more tiredly. He has water and food, but we don't have any food at all."

Cass didn't say anything and took out a dead rat from his pocket and threw it to him. "Just eat it. If it's not enough, go to the rat hole yourself. You can roast it openly, but you have to promise that you won't be tired, so I suggest you eat it right now. "

The Japanese man looked at the dead rat on the ground, his whole face turning eggplant-colored.

He had no interest in this special "Game".

But Cass was right. They killers also knew the truth. This was the hope of survival, unless they intended to die here like the dead rat, then, they would be abandoned somewhere, so eating this thing was their only choice.

The Japanese assassin picked it up and ate it, but he was so disgusted that he almost vomited.

However, Cass gave him a look, and he swallowed it back.

"Urgh! "

He was so disgusted that he retched, but with this bite, he was really full.

Cass looked at this guy with satisfaction. The remaining half of the Rat's body was picked up and eaten by another guy.

Even its tail had to be chewed to pieces.

"I'm from England, just like you, but I'm from the north of your home."

"Okay, follow me. I'll bring you out alive. I have a boss. He promised that anyone who follows me can live. As long as you follow me, you 'll definitely get out alive, and you 'll also bring your money with you. "

"They won't refuse to give it to us, will they?"

"No, that money doesn't belong to the warden. It's a neutral financial institution, and it comes directly from the Clone Society. "

"Okay, got it. We'll listen to you."

As time passed, the moonlight gradually became thicker, and the sea breeze also gradually increased. This made the poisonous gas in the prison buildings above demon island much less, but the three guys who had inhaled it., were still unable to move their limbs. Helplessly, the three of them could only give up in a room and wait for the game to end by themselves.

They were also at ease because it seemed that they would be included in the quota of ten people who survived.

However, they regretted that they were not included in this mission that took the initiative to "Die".

This was also the first time that they felt that they could challenge that rule. It was as if they saw the hope of breaking it, so they showed an extremely yearning expression.

Now that they thought about it, they had no other choice but to trust Cass.

However, after the killers chose to trust each other, they could not follow the person they trusted and live and die together. That was a kind of betrayal.

The Killers also had their own beliefs. They would be ashamed of this kind of betrayal.

It was eleven o'clock, and the sea breeze at night was even stronger.

Cass looked at his brothers who were looking for insects and rats to eat. He said, "Okay, get ready to move."

The twelve men held their weapons and started to move toward the resource point, the invincible neutral BOSS area.

There were the so-called "Invincible Boss" steel claws and two base soldiers holding modern weapons.

The two soldiers were not weak either. These twelve people with steel pipes and watermelon knives knew that they would definitely die in this dangerous situation.

But they had no choice. This was a desperate situation. They had to fight to the death.

They came to the shabby three-story prison building not far ahead.

The headlights had already shone on Cass.

Steel Claw, who had been waiting for a long time but did not make a move, looked at the twelve people under the searchlights and revealed a mocking smile, he shouted, "Is this your strength, Cass? "You're only a small fry, yet you dare to fight me here. You entered the competition this time just to earn more money. Why don't you kneel down and beg for mercy? I promise to give you a place to live and let you earn this time's money. I'll give you a chance to abstain. I believe the prison will agree. "

The warden, who was in the monitoring room of the underground base, was listening to Steel Claw's words, at this moment, he nodded and said, "No problem. If this Cass surrenders and kowtows, I'm willing to give him a chance to abstain. After all, our game did not say that we would not allow it, nor did we say that we would allow it. In this way, the money that was focused on him can belong to us. Although he can live by abstaining, he is still alive. However, it doesn't count as the ten-person quota."

The warden looked at Zach and asked, "What do you think, Mr. Zach?"

Zach nodded and said, "That's fine, but I don't think Cass is that kind of person. I'm sure you all know that, so I think we don't have to think too much. We just have to wait for Cass to cross the Red Line and enter the neutral zone of the supply point. That way, their time of death will come. "

There was a chilling killing intent in Zach's eyes.

It seemed that he really wanted to kill him.

He was more like a "Warden" than a prison warden.

Zach had more status than a prison warden to Kronin.

Because he was directly sent by Kronin from headquarters.

Such a guy, his heart was more for the maximization of benefits.

As for how many people died and how they died, that wasn't his concern at all.

He just wanted to earn more money for his own forces in this assassin competition.

At this moment, General Crowe, who was at the side, also became silent.

He also saw that Cass had already arrived at that location.

Now, everything was about to be triggered!

Chapter 888 – Chapter 887, Your Ending Is My Beginning

General Crowe had turned on the mini earpiece of the radio.

Yu Tian could hear everything from here. He leaned against the wall and took a deep breath, then, he said to the big guy, "Get ready to move. Cass has already reached there. We need to make some noise here. As for the submarine, it has already reached the waiting area. Now is the best time to make a move."

After Yu Tian said that, he stood up and gave the big guy a look. The Big Guy understood and went straight to the door to wait.

In the current situation, no matter what the action was,.

He still needed to make some noise here so that at least this place could be resolved.

Yu Tian took out his tablet and small computer. He looked at the door and entered the activation password.

The door slowly opened. Yu Tian heard the captain outside, he was confused. "Why did you go in for so long?" "We wanted to inform the higher-ups. If it wasn't for the competition, I would have dragged you to the warden. I even suspected that you were someone from the outside. How! God! "

Before the captain could finish his sentence, he saw the door slowly open. A familiar face that looked like a small giant stood in front of him. Moreover, this giant-like small giant was rubbing his fists as he looked at him, he revealed a meaningful smile and said to him, "Captain, it's time for us to clarify some things. "

Shoot! "

"Oh God! Quick, quick, be on guard."

"Sound the alarm! "

Without waiting for the captain to shoot, the first second after he gave the order, the Big Guy threw a punch at him and smashed him into a wall on the side. His body was badly mutilated and his bones were shattered!

Even his helmet was smashed by the sudden attack. Blood and flesh flowed out from the helmet.

Yu Tian, who had just walked out of the scene in front of him, only operated the tablet in his hand, blocking all the electronic signals in the area. Even the door behind the group of soldiers behind him was closed.

The moment the gunshots rang out, Yu Tian hid behind a wall at a corner.

Screams continued to ring out in front of him, as well as the dense gunshots.

However, what attracted the most attention was the muffled sound of a small monster crashing against the wall and rolling on the ground.

It was worth mentioning that Yu Tian felt that there was no need for him to make a move.

As long as he waited quietly for the time to end, it would take him a while to estimate.

Yu Tian continued to control the hacker-like gadget, closing every door in front of him, or else no one would be able to get out.

He didn't have to kill everyone. All he had to do was prepare to detonate.

These people would all die in the depths of the ocean.

When the last scream rang out, a person flew past Yu Tian from the side and crashed into the wall in front of him, Yu Tian heard a voice from behind him,

"Boss, it's all settled. We can continue walking. Leave the base soldiers in front to me. They modified me into such a small millimeter that even a bullet couldn't penetrate my skin. They implanted the rhinoceros gene into me. This is what they did to me. Now, I have to repay them all. "

Yu Tian turned around and walked out of the wall. What he saw was a pile of corpses. One of them had turned into a meat patty and was pressed onto the clean floor. Yu Tian was very curious as to whether this fellow had died from sitting on his butt?

Why was it stuck to the floor like a pancake? It was impossible to tell that there was even a single bone on this fellow's body.

As for the big fellow, he used to be Gauss. Now, he was Yu Tian's loyal little brother, the Big Fellow.

Yu Tian looked at him with a hint of surprise in his eyes.

The terrifying eyes of this guy were still clear. He had not lost his mind. Even though his chest was heaving violently and he was panting heavily, his mind was still there. He was even covered in blood, like a furious beast, he did not attack Yu Tian who suddenly appeared in front of him at the first moment.

It seemed that reason had taken over his brain. The Big Guy was not just a monster, he was just a pitiful super soldier that had been modified.

The genetic modification was even more complete than the modification of the Steel Claw's body.

Yu Tian looked at him as he walked forward and said, "Don't bother about too many people. Let's go directly to the small nuclear facility and throw an explosive there. Every key place here has the explosive that I asked General Crowe's men to place as planned. When it is detonated, a chain reaction can completely drag this place into the abyss of the sea. "

Yu Tian also explained, "The underground experimental area here has completely lost all communication with the higher-ups. The only communication that can still be used is the gadget that I wear in my ear to contact Crowe. "

Crack!

Another automatic door was pulled open to the left and right.

Yu Tian wore the fury beast and came to the outside area.

Three soldiers who were in a daze were directly in front of him. The Big Guy was about to make a move.

However, one of the base soldiers stepped back and raised his gun. with a few "Da da da"sounds, he shot at the two soldiers who were standing beside him. His colleague! was killed in an instant.

The Big Guy was looking at him in confusion when he saw the base soldier show his shoulder badge. It was the badge of a small tiger. This person was also a soldier of General Crowe's tiger team.

He walked forward and first glanced at the big guy who was standing on the small hill, then, he saluted Yu Tian and said, "Three brothers and I are on duty today. I will immediately inform them to gather here. Sir Commander, according to your instructions, the passage leading to the small nuclear power plant has already been arranged for you. There are no uncontrollable surveillance equipment and uncut communication that you are worried about. "

At that moment, the big guy also understood that this person was one of his own. He must be Crowe's team of soldiers.

The Big Guy looked at him and asked, "Where's the card? Boss needs a card to open the last lock. I was one of you before. Don't forget, you need a special card there."

Yu Tian really didn't know about this. Hearing the Big Guy say this, it was really unexpected.

The soldier took out a bloody electronic key card from his body.

He said, "I've already killed the person in charge. This is the key card. Commander, you guys go. I'll bring my brothers to the elevator and wait for you. "

"Okay, follow the plan. If there are any changes, just guard that place. "

"Got it, we understand."

After saying that, Yu Tian led the big guy deeper into the laboratory.

The surroundings were filled with laboratories where all the doors and windows were shut in an instant.

Looking at the panicking laboratory staff inside, Yu Tian waved at him and smiled.

Death smiled and came as well..

Chapter 889 – Chapter 888, Blow This Place Up

These guys couldn't break these windows. These were specially made for this place. They were high-priced military-grade bullet-proof, high-explosive glass. They even had their strength refined. These windows were as hard as marble.

Therefore, any angry guy wouldn't be able to kick open these doors and windows. They could only beat them helplessly. They even used the sophisticated equipment in the laboratory to smash the doors and windows, at the same time, some of the base soldiers also noticed that something was wrong and started to use guns to help break open the doors and windows.

However, when they paid full attention to these things, the three Crowe soldiers would clean up the people they encountered.

At the same time, the patrols also reacted. They quickly reported and sounded the alarm, but there was no response at all.

Even the walkie-talkie seemed to have gone out of control. In just a short moment.

The surveillance footage of the security room in the experimental area was still the same as usual. There was no change, but the soldiers in the security room had already rushed out of their office. Everyone picked up their weapons, although they did not know what was going on, when they saw the monster, Gauss, standing next to a soldier in the base, they shouted.

"Here, here, Gauss has run away! "

"Focus your fire on Area A. there's another soldier next to him. It seems to be one of his men. "

"Damn it, I know that soldier. Isn't that the man from the eastern country?"

"Oh my God, why is he out?"

"Shoot, Shoot! "

"Damn it, don't let him get close to our men! hit his head, head! Aim a little more!

"He's hiding, damn it!"

After all, a mortal body was the limit of humans. After Yu Tian killed a few soldiers, he picked up his gun and threw it at Gauss, the two of them started to fight with the guys in front of them as they moved closer to the destination.

As for the team leaders in charge of the experimental area, after they couldn 't get in touch with their superiors, they started to plan to start from the elevator.

So they sent people there.

But when the people who arrived saw that there were three soldiers on duty, they didn't suspect anything. They just planned to open the elevator and go up. But the sniper behind them started to teach them a lesson. The same people in front of them weren't their own people.

Seven or eight people sent to the elevator were all eliminated by General Crowe's three soldiers.

General Crowe's three soldiers turned off the power of the elevator. Unless Yu

Tianlai came, they would stay here.

At the same time, no one could come down!

One of them picked up the guns and ammunition of the dead soldiers.

At the same time, he said to the other two brothers, "We have to guard this place with our lives. It seems that the communication device and the surveillance system above have been hacked. We will be much safer this way. As long as we wait for the commander to come back, we can go up directly. We can go home with our money! "

One of them asked worriedly, "Can we really go back? Can We really get on that submarine? Will there really be a submarine coming to pick us up?"

The other one also asked worriedly, "Will it really come?"

"Hehe, I believe it. Because even General Crowe can trust people, don't you think we should trust them? Moreover, this amount of money is enough for us to spend a few lifetimes, not to mention escaping from here. Moreover, aren't we here to do these disgusting things for the sake of money? Now that we don't have to do these disgusting things, we can still earn money. We Can't wait to be happy, so why don't we believe it? Why don't we just follow that commander and risk it all! "

"Right! Let's do it! "

"That's right, let's do it until we die! "

"Let's go out and play with women and drink together. "

The small team of three people formed an alliance all of a sudden. They even emitted a new fighting spirit, and none of them were afraid of danger anymore.

At the same time, on Cass's side, he had not crossed the last red line drawn around the supplies.

As long as he did not cross the people inside, he could not shoot him.

There were live webcams around here. Any slight movement could be seen clearly.

No one could think of playing any tricks in front of that group of rich people.

They wanted money, but they couldn't see your hands behind their backs. They hated this game that cheated them of their money, even though they knew very well in their hearts that there must be some vicious manipulation behind it, but as long as they didn't let them see you interfere excessively, they could accept the game and were willing to bet.

Steel Claw looked at Cass, who hadn't moved a single step, he said sarcastically, "Why are you considering my suggestion? Or are you afraid? It's not too late. Hurry up and surrender and forfeit. That way, I won't have to make a move again. This will save us a lot of time, won't it?"

The killers around Cass didn't suspect Cass, because they knew before they came.

Cass wanted to wait, especially to make the opposite steel claw lose its patience and walk down the high platform.

The high platform had a great shooting range.

For killers like them who did not have hot weapons, it was too disadvantageous.

So the time needed to wait!

Cass did not stay idle. He looked at the steel claw on the high platform, he asked with contempt, "That hand of yours, when it was cut off, it seemed that I was drinking in your city. At that time, I was carrying a beauty without any worries. As for you, your family was destroyed and your hands were chopped off. If I had known earlier, I would have gone to see you and poured you a cup!

No, you don't even have hands, how could you drink? "However, I will treat it as if I was pissing in your mouth! "

Such an insult still brought up Steel Claw's scar.

This time, Steel Claw was furious. He shouted at the soldiers beside him, "Shoot him, kill him!"

The two soldiers were stunned.

One of them said, "If we don't cross the Red Line, we will shoot. The warden will punish us."

The warden in the monitoring room was also afraid that Steel Claw would go berserk.

He wanted to communicate through the walkie-talkie, but he found that the walkie-talkie had been turned off by Steel Claw.

The warden said angrily, "Steel Claw is still impulsive. If he fails, I will kill him and let him know the consequences of disobedience."

Zach nodded and said, "I agree with that, but the two soldiers won't listen to him. It's okay."

General Crowe's eyes flashed with joy.

He smoked his cigarette and said, "Of course. We just have to trust Steel Claw. Even if something happens, Cass won't be his match. Don't worry about that, you two.."

Chapter 890 – Chapter 889, Chance For Cass

As Zach had expected, the two soldiers beside Steel Claw did not intend to shoot.

This made the three people in the monitoring room heave a sigh of relief.

The three of them had different thoughts, but they were all very satisfied with this result.

Not only did the soldiers on the material platform not shoot, but they also fired, instead, they reminded steel claw nervously and cautiously, "We are live broadcasting now. We must not break the rules. Don't act rashly, or the warden will definitely not let us go!"

Steel Claw's face was flushed red, but after taking a deep breath, he quickly calmed down.

Although he was still angry, he was very clear in his heart.

His identity was just a thug, a thug who had the status of a watchdog, so he had to obey his master's rules.

If he broke the rules of the game, no matter how fierce he was when he bit people, his master would not hesitate to stew him.

His Master did need a vicious dog, but he did not need a mad dog that could not be controlled.

Thinking of this, Steel Claw could not help but spit fiercely, he said to Cass who was below, "Don't talk nonsense. Since you want me to drink, then hurry up and come up. I have everything here. It will definitely be much more comfortable than you eating a dead rat down there. "

Cass said calmly, "Why should I go up? Why Can't You Come Down? I think it's suitable to use dead rats to drink you. "

"Nonsense! A bunch of nonsense! "

Of course, Steel Claw couldn't go down the stairs. His duty was to guard the supply point. If he left the supply point, it was equivalent to interfering with the competition. It was the same as shooting and killing Cass and the others.

If he dared to do that, the customers who had lost money would definitely use this as an excuse to believe that he had destroyed the fairness of the competition. Then, they would go back on their words and demand compensation from the prison.

Cutting off one's source of income was like the father of murder.

In such a situation, the warden and Mr. Zach would definitely skin him alive.

Steel Claw could only restrain his anger and continue to tempt and provoke

Cass. "Don't say such useless words. If you have the guts, come up. "

Cass chuckled and replied unhurriedly, "If you have the guts, come down." Steel Claw snorted coldly. "You clearly know that I can't go down, so why are you saying such nonsense? You 've already come this far, don't you have the courage to come up one more step?"

Cass rolled his eyes. "Why should I go up? Go Up and let you shoot?"

Steel Claw sneered. "Do you think I need a gun to deal with you? You think too highly of yourself. "

Cass said indifferently, "You are a cripple with no hands. What else can you rely on without a gun? Oh, that's right. Perhaps your gun has long been crippled. You can only rely on other people's guns to carry on the family line."

This sentence was a little too insulting. It really did not fit the identity of a monk.

Steel Claw was immediately angered. "Cass, come up if you have the guts. I will tear you to pieces with my own hands! "

After saying this, steel claw immediately shouted to the soldiers beside him, "All of you, step back. Do not fire without my orders. Do not approach this place. I will tear these bastards to pieces with my own hands."

The surrounding soldiers looked at each other and hesitated for a moment.

However, someone quickly made a decision and followed Steel Claw's instructions to step back.

With someone taking the lead, the rest of the soldiers also stepped back and quickly left the edge of the platform.

With guns in hand, the soldiers were not worried about losing their supplies.

No matter how skilled they were, they were still afraid of kitchen knives, not to mention these powerful military firearms.

Any assassin who rushed onto this supply platform would not be able to withstand their concentrated fire and would only end up dead.

Even if there were no steel claws in this material spot, the soldiers would be able to defend the only stairway. They would not have to worry about being broken through.

Since Steel Claw wanted to fight these assassins with their bare hands, the other soldiers were also happy to watch a wonderful killing performance.

In fact, they were very clear about Steel Claw's strength. They also felt that Steel Claw had the ability to tear their opponents into pieces. There was no need for them to worry.

Seeing that the soldiers had already retreated and left, Cass felt a lot more relaxed. He knew that his chance had come.

At the same time, Yu Tian finally reached the end of the experiment zone.

This was the core of the entire experiment zone. Not only did it contain the most important experimental materials and specimens, but it also stored all the experimental data and information.

The core area was much quieter than the outside. Yu Tian and the big guy passed through several security doors without encountering a single guard.

The outer area of the experimental zone was already heavily guarded, and there were all sorts of strict security measures. Therefore, after entering the inner area of the experimental zone, there was not much need for the strength of the guards.

The guards here mainly maintained the internal order, there was no need to face the enemies outside.

Because if the enemies really entered this place, it meant that the entire demon island had fallen.

If there was no hair left, there would be no skin left.

The entire Demon Island was finished, the experimental zone could not possibly have any defensive and defensive abilities.

Arranging the guards here, other than when they surrendered to join in the fun, had no other use.

Therefore, there were no guards in the core area, only a few ordinary security doors.

For ordinary people, the ordinary security doors were enough to keep them out, so that they did not have any chance to pry and steal internal secrets.

However, for Yu Tian now, all the electronic security facilities were just decorations.

Not only did the warden, Zach, and the others know nothing about what was happening in the experimental zone, but even the workers in the core area knew nothing about what was happening outside.

The last security door slowly opened in front of Yu Tian, and he strode in with the Big Guy.

Inside was a huge room. Along the wall, there were large biochemical cultivation tanks filled with reckless humanoid monsters.

These were the research results of the Clone Society. They were the crystallization of technology that they were proud of.

Other than these things, there were all kinds of research equipment in the middle of the hall.

There was an observation room at the end of the hall. It was also made of bulletproof glass. It was not much different from the laboratory outside.

Yu Tian and the Big Guy stood at the entrance of the hall. They quietly observed for a few seconds before someone noticed their presence.

"You! Who Are You? Who let you in Here!"

A middle-aged Caucasian man walked to the door and questioned them with confusion and dissatisfaction. His attitude was somewhat arrogant.

However, the Caucasian man soon realized that something was wrong.

He saw traces of blood on the Big Guy's body as well as traces of battle..

I Have 108 Older Sisters #Chapter 891 - Read I Have 108 Older Sisters Chapter 891

Chapter 891 – : Chapter 890, Charge Of The Rhinoceros

Actually, Yu Tian's appearance was quite normal. He was dressed like a base staff member.

However, the big guy's attire was obviously wrong. In other words, he didn't have any attire at all.

He was just an experimental material. His status was similar to that of a lab rat. There was no need for him to wear any clothes or attire.

Yu Tian had no intention of changing the Big Guy's clothes at all.

Even if he changed his disguise, it would not be able to cover up the bloodstains all over his body and his abnormal characteristics as an experimental subject.

In such a situation, there was no need for Yu Tian to even explain and cover it up.

He calmly glanced at the white man and said, "Who is the person in charge? call him over."

"What person in charge? is the person in charge someone that you can meet just like that? Didn't you hear me asking you a question? Who exactly are you? What's with this experiment subject that you brought? Why didn't you put shackles on him! "

"Long-winded! get rid of him. "

Yu Tian was not interested in talking nonsense with this Caucasian man. He only intended to give these people a chance to answer questions.

In any case, the people who conducted these human body research and experiments on Demon Island were not good people.

If they answered his questions properly and cooperated with him properly, they would have a chance to live a little longer.

However, the people here would still die together with Demon Island in the end.

Yu Tian shook his head and gestured for the Big Guy to clean up this white trash that was full of nonsense.

With the big guy around, he did not need to Dirty Yu Tian's hands to clean up these ordinary people. He could always hold his small tablet.

The Big Guy did not hesitate at all. He suddenly took a step forward and slapped the white man's head.

There was a soft sound, as if a watermelon had been smashed.

Blood and flesh flew everywhere. Half of the white man's head was missing, and even his neck was crooked.

His body swayed on the spot twice, and then he fell down unwillingly.

There was another soft sound, like a broken sack filled with garbage being thrown on the ground.

The noise wasn't too loud, and it wasn't even as loud as breaking a teacup.

However, someone suddenly screamed in the surroundings.

This scream immediately triggered a chain reaction. All the researchers who were focused on their work turned their heads to look at the door.

Then, everyone was stunned.

The corpse that had half of its head blown away by the big guy was still twitching on the ground. This strange scene was extremely horrifying.

Being noticed by everyone was a good thing. Yu Tian happily raised his voice and shouted, "Who is the person in charge? Stand out immediately." No one in the hall made a sound.

This was human nature. Under such circumstances, the person in charge definitely did not have the courage to step forward.

But it did not matter. The other staff members would betray him.

Yu Tian did not even need to open his mouth to ask. He did not even need these people to answer. He found the person in charge.

Because after Yu Tian asked this question, everyone's eyes could not help but look at the same person an old Caucasian man.

Obviously, this was the person in charge.

The surrounding gazes made the old man realize that something was wrong. He quietly took a few steps back and suddenly turned around to run toward the end of the hall.

The core laboratory had an emergency evacuation tunnel. It was used to evacuate people and important research materials in the event of an accident or emergency.

Although there were no guards inside the laboratory, there must be a back door for escaping.

Yu Tian was not surprised.

He originally wanted to give the old man a golden needle, but the big guy beside him did not wait for his instructions and suddenly dashed out.

The Big Guy might not be nimble enough, but when he charged, his speed was somewhat terrifying.

Perhaps it was because he had the rhinoceros gene, but the big guy actually rammed straight ahead, knocking away the experimental tables, desks, and other things in the middle of the hall.

For a moment, the messy test equipment, desks, and chairs flew everywhere, and all kinds of documents flew in the air.

The other staff members were scared and hurriedly dodged, rolling and crawling to the corner of the wall.

The Big Guy's charge was not much inferior to a real rhinoceros, and the person in front of him would not end up better than a car accident.

The old man in charge only focused on running for his life and did not know that danger was rapidly approaching from behind.

Just as the old boy was about to be hit to death by the Big Guy, the big guy suddenly stretched out his hand and slapped the old man to the side.

Then, the Big Guy finally slowed down his pace.

However, he came aggressively and was not done yet. He still knocked away a few desks and smashed the items on the desks into pieces.

The old man in charge got up from the ground in a daze.

Although the big guy's slap was not heavy and was only equivalent to pushing him, it still almost knocked him out.

He finally regained his senses and felt that someone had grabbed his collar and lifted him up.

The Big Guy easily picked up the old man, walked in front of Yu Tian and threw the old man on the ground.

All of this happened in just a few seconds.

The staff in the lab were all dumbfounded, and at the same time, they gave up the idea of quietly escaping through the back door.

With their lack of exercise, it was impossible for them to outrun a rhinoceros.

If they were accidentally killed by a rhinoceros, even if the rhinoceros was willing to apologize, it would be useless.

Yu Tian glanced at the panicking staff around him again, and then did not pay much attention to them.

Those people were not far from death, so they were no longer important.

He glanced at the still confused person-in-charge, and then asked coldly,

"Your Name. "

The person-in-charge was stunned for a moment, and then realized that Yu Tian was asking him a question. He immediately shivered and said, "Parker, my name is Parker!"

"Position. "

"I'm a researcher, the chief researcher here. I, !! The experimental area is not under my control. Pm not in charge of these administrative tasks. Pm just doing some scientific research!"

"Age."

"Ah Pm 51 years old."

"Nationality."

"M nation. "

Yu Tian asked a few small questions in succession. These small questions seemed a little boring, but they made Parker answer the questions more fluently.

This was a psychological tactic, a bit like interrogation.

Although Yu Tian was not good at interrogation, it did not stop him from borrowing some interrogation techniques.

However, Yu Tian did not have much time to interrogate Parker. After a few small questions, he immediately got to the main topic.

"Where are your research materials?"

"This! "

Parker began to hesitate.

If the research materials fell into the hands of outsiders, he would certainly die..

Chapter 892 – : Chapter 891, Removing The Hard Drive

The researchers were not fools, even though they looked a little dazed.

Parker knew very well what would happen if he handed over the research materials. Without waiting for external forces to punish him, the Kronin society would drown him in the toilet.

But if he did not hand over the research materials, would he be able to avoid this disaster?

Parker quietly raised his head and looked at Yu Tian.

Yu Tian said coldly, "I will only ask each question once. If you don't answer properly, you won't have to answer any more questions for the rest of your life."

Parker suddenly shivered. He felt that Yu Tian's attitude was very serious, and he didn't seem like a person with a sense of humor.

A wise man would not take advantage of the situation before him. Parker immediately made a smart choice.

"The research materials are all in my computer. There's no internet connection, no other physical connection, and even the USB drive and other storage devices have not been used!"

Pausing for a moment, Parker said to Yu Tian in a flattering manner, "If you want to copy the information, I'll prepare a large USB drive for you right now. "

Parker's attitude was very sincere. He decided to leave immediately after handing over all the information. He followed behind Yu Tian and left Demon Island.

He believed that Yu Tian had a way to leave Demon Island. Since Yu Tian dared to come here to snatch the information, he was naturally prepared to escape unscathed.

Therefore, his survival depended on Yu Tian.

Since he had decided to escape, Parker naturally had to cooperate fully with Yu Tian. He had to settle everything quickly and leave as soon as possible.

Yu Tian did not want to waste time, especially when it came to copying data.

He checked the data on Parker's computer and roughly confirmed the authenticity of the data. Then, he said, "No need for the USB drive. Remove your computer's hard drive. I'll take the hard drive away."

"Uh! okay. "

Parker was only stunned for a moment. Then, without any hesitation, he immediately turned off the computer and began to dismantle the chassis.

While Parker was dismantling the hard drive, Yu Tian ordered the big guy again, "Go and destroy the escape passage here."

Yu Tian could control the safety door in front to close and lock it, but the back door of the escape passage was not under the control of the security system.

He guessed that it should be a mechanical lock and some manual devices to ensure that it could be used in the event of an accident, a fire, or a power failure.

It was best to leave the destruction of such a mechanical device to the big guy.

The Big Guy ran to the end of the hall without looking back. Then, a series of metal groans came from the end of the hall.

The rest of the researchers looked panicked and then gradually relaxed.

They soon understood the meaning of Yu Tian destroying the back door. He wanted to lock them in the core research room and not let them leave.

This result seemed terrible, but in fact, it meant that Yu Tian would not kill them.

In the end, they could still keep their lives, but they would not be able to leave this place for the time being to warn the management.

At this time, who would care about the issue of warning.

Anyway, they had lost their research materials, so the responsibility was not on them, ordinary researchers.

Soon, the Big Guy returned and ran back to Yu Tian's side like the wind.

"Boss, it's done. Even a mouse can't get out now."

"Very good. "

Yu Tian nodded gently and looked at Old Man Parker again.

Parker had also taken down the hard drive of the computer. He even wrapped it carefully with foam paper and placed it in a small paper box.

He carefully handed the hard drive to Yu Tian and smiled apologetically, "Sir, all the information is here. I guarantee that you can take it back and continue our research work here! "

"MHM."

Yu Tian snorted indifferently.

He wasn't interested in studying these things. He brought the research materials back, but he felt that these materials were the only things on Devil Island that still had some value.

In addition, if he had the opportunity to understand the research of the clone society, he could also learn about himself and his enemies. In the future, it would be much more convenient for him to take measures against the clone society.

As for the biochemical modification of genetic warriors, this was not the path of development he needed.

After putting the hard drive away, Yu Tian immediately led the big guy out of the door.

Parker also hurriedly followed behind Yu Tian and Parker.

Yu Tian led the big guy to the door. He turned around and glanced at Parker.

Frowning, he asked, "Why are you following us?"

Parker smiled apologetically and said, "Well, I also want to leave this place!"

"Just stay here obediently. Seeing that you were cooperative just now, I won't kill you. Just wait patiently for a few hours. The island's guards will naturally let you out! "

Parker said with a sad face, "That's impossible. Pve given all the information to you. When the guards come over later, they won't be saving me. They will kill me."

"You were just robbed. Even if you're in the wrong, you don't deserve to die."

"I'll die, I'll die. They won't care about these reasons. I'll die if I stay here. Just think of it as doing a good deed. Even if you can't Save My Life, don't lock me up here and wait for death. "

Parker was anxious. Locking him up in the laboratory was no different from directly killing him.

Kronin wouldn't care if his life was in danger. After all, if he lost his data, he wouldn't have a good ending.

After all, Parker wasn't a particularly important researcher in the Kronin Society. The research area on Demon Island was just convenient for obtaining test specimens nearby. Its main function was to conduct some human experiments, observe and report the test data to the headquarters.

A researcher like Parker had not reached a position that no one could replace. There was no loss or pressure for the clone society to execute him.

Yu Tian was silent for a moment before he slowly said, "Follow us out of the research area first. "

"Thank you, thank you!"

Parker thanked him profusely and heaved a sigh of relief in his heart.

Yu Tian actually did not care about Parker's life because he did not intend to continue the anti-human research of the clone society. Therefore, Parker was of no value to him.

The reason why he agreed to take Parker out of the experimental area was because he felt that he had to be kind.

After all, Parker had shown some cooperation just now. Yu Tian did not have to burn the bridge after crossing it and deliberately caused his death.

As for after leaving the experimental area, Parker could only fend for himself.

Yu Tian did not care about Parker's life or death. If more such researchers died, it might be more beneficial to human society.

Demon Island would soon be destroyed by him. Whether or not Parker could escape from here was his own ability..

Chapter 893 – : Chapter 892, Steel Claw'S Strength

Yu Tian would not help Parker escape, but he had no intention of stopping him, or even deliberately killing him.

Letting him fend for himself was already Yu Tian's most benevolent attitude.

Closing the security door of the core research room, Yu Tian brought the big guy with him and turned around to walk back to the passage they came from. Parker also hurriedly followed behind Yu Tian and the big guy.

At the Resource Point, Cass'operation had finally begun.

He had already exhausted Steel Claw's patience. Feeling that the time was ripe, he suddenly darted up the ladder of the resource platform.

His speed was extremely fast. He was as quiet as a virgin, and as fast as a rabbit.

Steel Claw was cursing on the platform, constantly provoking Cass. He had long lost his patience.

He suspected that Cass was playing him, or was trying to stall for time.

He even thought that Cass might suddenly turn around and leave in the next second.

Cass'sudden action caught steel claw off guard.

But Steel Claw was also a veteran of hundreds of battles. He immediately came back to his senses.

His muscles tensed up, his posture slightly lowered, and he was quickly ready to face the battle.

In terms of strategy, he had to look down on the enemy, and in terms of tactics, he had to pay attention to the enemy.

Even if a lion tried its best to kill a rabbit, Steel Claw would never look down on an opponent like Cass.

He guarded the position at the entrance of the stairs, which was the necessary place to go up to the platform.

The attacking time that Cass chose was very good. When these people approached the supply point, it was already dark. Even though there were lights all around, there were also all kinds of shadows, making people feel uncomfortable in their line of sight.

This was the right time.

But Steel Claw had the geographical advantage.

In this position where one man could hold off ten thousand enemies, the two could only fight head-on.

Steel Claw was very confident that he could kill Cass in a head-on fight. He focused and calmed his mind, waiting for Cass to rush up and launch an unavoidable head-on attack.

But when Cass rushed halfway up the stairs, he suddenly stopped.

"You bastard! Are you kidding me?"

Steel Claw was slightly stunned and immediately became furious.

Cass had made him wait for too long. He had just rushed up the stairs and suddenly stopped. It felt like he was trying to escape.

It was obvious that he was fooling him and wasting his energy.

Steel Claw could not stand it anymore. He suddenly jumped up high and pounced on Cass who was at the bottom of the stairs. he shouted, "Idiot! This place is no longer your safe zone! "

Climbing up the stairs was equivalent to crossing the red line of the resource points. Steel Claw, the guarding boss, had the right to make a move.

Cass was not an idiot. Of course, he knew that Steel Claw had the right to launch an attack. He would not let him leave this "Hunting zone".

He deliberately created the situation. Steel Claw had lost his cool in his anger and gave up on the most advantageous battle terrain.

At the same time, Steel Claw had also adopted the most wrong attack method in his anxiety.

There was once a palm technique that fell from the sky with unparalleled power.

But unfortunately, that was only a movie.

It was definitely not a wise move to jump high in a battle.

When a person was in midair, there was no room for them to dodge or move.

The only advantage of Steel Claw was that it looked down from above and was unstoppable.

However, Cass had no intention of blocking it head-on.

His eyes turned cold and he suddenly jumped out of the right side of the stairs. In the blink of an eye, he jumped out of the stairs.

This action did not conform to the conventional thinking of normal people. At least in the eyes of Steel Claw, Cass should have nowhere to run and could only take it head-on.

Was it illegal to jump out of the stairs?

Even if it was illegal, it could not restrict CASS.

Cass jumped out of the stairs, but he did not completely leave the stairs.

After he jumped out of the stairs, he immediately grabbed the handrail of the stairs with his hand. Then, he twisted his body and turned around to jump back up the stairs.

This entry and exit looked like an act of being stuffed, but it just happened to avoid the sharp edge of Steel Claw.

At the same time, Cass used the force of this turn to kick fiercely at the underarm of the Steel Claw.

The Steel Claw missed and fell to the ground in a hurry. There was no time to Dodge Cass 'kick.

But the steel claw was not an ordinary person. Having experienced hundreds of battles, he immediately took the measure of using offense against offense.

Since he could not dodge this kick, he simply launched a fierce attack at Cass 'kick.

Although his arm could not twist his thigh, the arm of Steel Claw was not an ordinary arm.

His name was Steel Claw, and his arm was modified steel!

In a head-on clash between flesh and steel, the only one who would suffer was Cass.

If one of Cass 'legs was disabled, then most of Cass 'fighting strength would be lost, and Steel Claw would firmly hold the advantage. Victory was only a matter of time, killing Cass would only drag on for a few more meetings.

But Cass was not a fool. He would not be foolish enough to use his thigh to Twist Steel Claw's Steel Claw.

He suddenly pulled back his leg and kicked on the handrail of the stairs. With the help of the reaction force of this kick, he changed the momentum of his body and dashed diagonally behind steel claw.

Merely dodging the attack of Steel Claw was not enough. He still had to counterattack.

When he ran past steel claw, he conveniently grabbed the neck of steel claw.

"Don't even think about it! "

The neck was a vital position. How Could Steel Claw let Cass succeed so easily.

He immediately changed his move. He twisted his waist and grabbed both claws at Cass'arms.

This timely change of move and counterattack was enough to show the strength of Steel Claw.

Although Cass 'tactics were closely linked, Steel Claw still had a reaction speed that far exceeded that of an ordinary person, and it also had a reasonable counter-measure.

It was natural for a flesh arm to be at a disadvantage against a steel arm. Cass was a little surprised by the reaction speed of Steel Claw, but it was too late to withdraw his arm at this time.

The two of them firmly punched each other's arm, and then each took half a step back.

Cass looked at his own arm silently. There were a few faint traces of blood on it.

In the moment when they fought, Steel Claw used the advantage of his steel claw to give Cass a fierce claw.

Although Cass could withstand a small-caliber bullet, this claw still tore through his skin.

Steel Claw sneered proudly. "Your arm is really hard! but it's okay, Pm very patient. Pll slowly tear you into pieces. Hahaha! "

Steel Claw laughed crazily, the warden and the others in the monitoring room also laughed.

"It seems that Cass is not steel claw's opponent at all."

"This is already expected, the ultimate boss is obviously not so easy to challenge. "

"Steel Claw's strength has always been very good, with him guarding the material point, we can completely rest assured. "

"Yes, there are still so many soldiers. Of course, there will be no problems with the supply point. "

General Caro also echoed a few words, but in his heart, he smiled bitterly..

Chapter 894 – Chapter 893, Gunshots

Yu Tian and general caro had been in a continuous state. Although he had not seen the battle with his own eyes, he had roughly understood the current situation of Cass through the conversations of the people in the monitoring room.

Was Cass really not a match for Steel Claw?

Yu Tian chuckled. The martial arts of ancient India were not that simple. He did not believe that Cass could not do anything with just two iron arms.

At this time, Yu Tian had already taken the elevator with the three soldiers of the Tiger Squad and arrived outside the experimental area.

It was very quiet outside, as if it was not affected by the chaos in the experimental area.

Yu Tian glanced at the tablet and said to the communicator in a low voice, "General Karo, we should retreat."

General Karo was slightly startled, and then he became secretly excited.

The warden and Zach were still paying attention to the movements on the monitor. Cass and Steel Claw had started to fight again.

Steel Claw obviously had the upper hand. The warden and Zach were talking and laughing with ease.

General Caro looked at the time and said, "It's getting late. We should rest. The situation is very stable now. We don't need to stay up to watch the fight. "

The warden waved his hand and said, "Go to sleep if you want. Pm not sleepy. I want to see Cass being torn to pieces by the steel claws."

General Karo looked at the monitor. There were a few more wounds on Cass 'body. He looked like he was bleeding. It seemed that he was about to lose.

General Karo said, "The match is destined to end. There's nothing to watch!

Pll go and rest first."

"Wait a minute. "

Zach suddenly stopped general caro and walked towards him.

General Caro's heart tightened.

Zach smiled and put his hand on general Caro's shoulder. "I'm going to rest too. Let's go together."

"Don't you want to continue watching the match?"

"There are still two days until the end of the match. There's no need to watch all day. The overall situation is under our control anyway."

"That's true. Maybe that Zach will suddenly turn around and run for his life, and the result of the match will drag on for a while. "

General Karo let out a few relaxed laughs and then walked out of the surveillance room with Zach one after the other.

The surveillance room was located in the core area of the Demon Island. It was both the command center, the living area, and the safe area.

General Karo and Zach chatted as they walked out of the office building and slowly walked in the direction of the living area.

There were sentry posts and patrols along the way, so Zach did not have to worry about his own safety.

General Karo was not in a hurry to retreat. He could wait until he was separated from Zach and went back to sleep before leaving the room alone and leaving with Yu Tian.

However, when he was about to approach the dormitory district, General Caro was stunned.

Yu Tian and the others were standing on the road leading to the dormitory district.

Seeing that General Caro was stunned, Yu Tian waved at general caro indifferently and said, "Why are you stunned? Hurry up and come over."

"Uh! okay."

General Caro could only walk quickly to Yu Tian's side.

Zach was a little confused. Who else on the island was qualified to tell General Kalo what to do?

He didn't doubt Yu Tian's identity. After all, Yu Tian and the few tiger squad soldiers behind him were all wearing their own military uniforms.

The only suspicious thing was the big guy behind them.

However, Zach felt that there wouldn't be any strange enemies in this core safe zone, and there wouldn't be any danger.

The light at the side of the road was dim, so Zach couldn't see Yu Tian and the others' faces clearly, so he followed General Caro and continued to walk forward.

This was the direction to go back to the dormitory.

When he got closer, Zach finally saw Yu Tian's face clearly. His heart skipped a beat, and all the hair on his body stood on end.

"You Are! "

"Yes. "

Yu Tian smiled nonchalantly. It was time for him to reveal his true identity.

Zach's mind was a mess. He could not understand how Yu Tian had gotten into the safe zone.

This place was not a place that could be easily infiltrated by wearing a uniform. There was also a strict identification procedure, as well as various surveillance and security facilities.

Zach's heart sank. He glanced at the expressions of Yu Tian and General Caro and seemed to have realized something.

He suddenly ran in the direction he came from.

As long as he ran back to the command center..

No, as long as he ran into the patrol team on the road, he had a chance of escaping.

Zach was certain that Yu Tian and the others would not dare to shoot. This was the core safety zone. As long as there was a gunshot, countless guards would swarm over.

Therefore, he only needed to run fast enough.

However, before Zach could take a few steps, gunshots rang out behind him.

The huge impact caused Zach to pounce forward as if he had been hit by a car. Then, he fell heavily to the ground.

Intense pain followed, but soon, Zach could not feel anything.

General Caro was a little surprised. "Why did you shoot? There are many patrols here. "

The Big Guy was also a little puzzled. "Just let me chase after him and kill him. He definitely won't be able to outrun me. "

Yu Tian smiled and said, "If we don't shoot, how are we going to make this place chaotic! continue shooting and shoot into the darkness ahead."

Although they were a little puzzled, the tiger squad soldiers immediately carried out Yu Tian's order and started shooting into the darkness ahead.

Although they were a little puzzled, the tiger squad soldiers immediately carried out Yu Tian's order and started shooting into the darkness ahead.

Yu Tian continued, "Let's go. Mr. Zach has been assassinated. We have to start chasing after the murderer. "

Everyone suddenly understood.

That's right, Zach had been killed by them.

However, there was no one else at the scene of the incident. There weren't even any cameras at the location that Yu Tian had chosen.

Under such circumstances, who knew who had killed Zach?

Unless there was a large-scale screening of all the surveillance cameras in the vicinity, only then would Yu Tian and the others give themselves away.

Unfortunately, the demon island was going to be destroyed tonight, and Kroni would never have the chance to investigate again.

Yu Tian and the others jogged forward and soon ran into a few patrols who heard the sound.

Since everyone was wearing the same uniform, the patrol guards were not on high alert.

"What happened? Who's shooting! General Caro?"

The patrol guards quickly recognized General Caro, and their attitude immediately became more respectful.

General caro shouted anxiously, 'C Quick! Mr.. Zach has been assassinated! "

Chapter 895 – Chapter 894, Evacuation

The safe zone was in chaos.

After hearing the news of Zach's death, the soldiers of the patrol team immediately became nervous.

Such an important big shot had been assassinated in the safe zone. All the sentry posts and the patrolling soldiers could not escape responsibility.

The only way to make up for it was to immediately chase and catch the murderer. Only then could they slightly reduce their guilt.

Thus, under General Caro's scolding and command, all the patrols began to move, searching and chasing in different directions.

The murderer ran too fast and had already lost his shadow. General Caro didn't even see clearly who the murderer was.

The soldiers of the patrol team had no way. They could only catch one by one and control everyone they met along the way.

For a time, the entire safe zone was in chaos. The guards of the patrol team and the sentry posts were in a mess.

Should they take this opportunity to kill the warden?

After thinking for a while, Yu Tian gave up on this plan.

Let him and the Demon Island die together. He didn't need to waste so much effort.

Yu Tian and the others chased all the way to the edge of the safe zone. The surroundings gradually became quiet again.

At this time, there was no need to pretend to chase them anymore, so they slowed down with Yu Tian one after another.

There was a tavern in front of them, which was one of the entertainment facilities on Demon Island.

After all, Demon Island was an isolated island. There was not even a single sow on the island. If there were no entertainment facilities like taverns, many staff members would go crazy from holding back.

Although taverns were a little expensive, the income of these staff members on the island was not bad. There were also quite a number of people who stayed in taverns all night.

According to the prior agreement, the members of the tiger team had already gathered in this small tavern. However, the gunshot just now had also alarmed the tavern. Many drunkards walked out of the tavern in a daze, they stood on the street in front of the door and looked around curiously.

The customers in the tavern were mostly guards and soldiers, and there were very few civilian staff.

Most of them carried guns with them, which was not strange on Demon Island.

There would be some small trouble at any time here, and the guards would also enter overtime from their resting state at any time. It was more convenient and safer to carry weapons with them.

The soldiers of the tiger squad were even more well-equipped. They looked like they had just been relieved of their duties and did not appear to be out of place. When they saw Yu Tian and general caro, the members of the Tiger squad immediately came forward to welcome them.

"General!"

"Let's go. "

General Caro did not say any nonsense. Everyone was well aware of what was going to happen tonight. Now was the time to leave Demon Island with Yu Tian.

The group gathered together and quickly walked out of the safe zone.

The soldiers in the tavern were confused. Some of them even waved their hands and said, "General Caro, where are you going?"

"Mr. Zach was assassinated. We are going to search for the murderer."

"Whoa! "

The drunkards were a little restless, but they quickly regained their calm.

They had already gotten off work, so this nonsense had nothing to do with them.

As for the unlucky Mr. Zach, it had nothing to do with the low-level soldiers.

They didn't even have to pretend to be sad.

After watching General Caro and a dozen soldiers leave in a hurry, the drunken drunkards went back into the tavern without thinking too much.

The safe zone was now a mess. Many patrols and sentry posts were still confused about what had happened.

Yu Tian held his tablet and threw a virus into the server of the security system, causing the warden's command system to be paralyzed.

Then, he sent all kinds of messy orders to the sentry posts along the way, and mobilized all the patrols to start searching outside the safe zone.

With General Caro leading the team and Yu Tian's fake electronic orders, the group successfully passed through the sentry posts outside the safe zone.

Because there were already many patrols outside the safe zone, their actions did not arouse any suspicion.

Soon, Yu Tian and the others approached the supply point where Cass was.

The surveillance cameras in the vicinity had long been cut off by Yu Tian, including the live broadcast that the warden was watching.

Of course, the warden was not in the mood to watch the live broadcast. He was troubled by the chaos in the safety zone, as well as the paralyzed command and communication system.

Cass and Steel Claw did not know about the chaos on Demon Island, nor did they know that no one was watching their performance.

Their battle was still going on, and it was within the rules.

Cass 'body was already covered in wounds, but he knew in his heart that these wounds were only superficial wounds.

The superficial wounds looked miserable, but it didn't affect him much. He didn't even bleed much.

This was originally part of his plan. He wanted to use this pale disadvantage to make steel claw let down its guard.

This miserable appearance really made steel claw feel a little proud. After all, Steel Claw was still in perfect condition, except for the fact that it consumed a lot of energy.

But Steel Claw did not care about this.

The energy consumption was a matter of two people. The two of them were fighting one-on-one, and neither of them had the chance to rest or recover.

Cass 'current condition seemed to be even more exhausted than Steel Claw's.

Steel Claw felt that this should be the effect of his injuries and blood loss.

Although Cass 'injuries were not serious, with the accumulation of his advantages bit by bit, Cass would be at a disadvantage in every aspect, and eventually, he would be completely defeated.

Steel Claw's victory was in his grasp.

The two of them had already fought on the platform. Due to Steel Claw's prior orders and the fact that Steel Claw now had the advantage, the soldiers watching the battle on the platform did not have the intention to open fire and intervene in their duel.

Everyone was watching the battle and felt that there was only one outcome of the battle, and that was that Cass would definitely be torn to pieces by Steel Claw.

The current situation was too obvious. Steel Claw had the upper hand everywhere. Cass was only struggling to dodge and counterattack.

However, Cass 'counterattack did not cause any damage to steel claw. Steel Claw had sufficient ability to block and withstand.

Only Cass was injured.

After an angry roar and a muffled sound, the Steel Claw and Cass separated once again.

The Steel Claw was slightly proud. "Cass, I know that you are a genetic warrior.

Your skin is rough and your flesh is tough. It is not easy to get injured. However, it doesn't matter. My Steel Claw will definitely not let you down. I will tear you into a pile of minced meat very soon. "

Cass looked a little weak. "You only have a pair of modified steel claws. This thing is no different from a weapon. I use my bare hands against your weapon, you have nothing to be proud of."

This statement, the steel claws feel a little unfair to win..

Chapter 896 – : Chapter 895, Steel Claw

Steel Claw thought that the live broadcast had not ended yet. Cass'words made him lose face.

"Weapon? This is a part of my body! What is there to be proud of, you genetically modified monster?"

If not for the effect of the genetic modification, Steel Claw would have torn Cass into pieces long ago.

For his own face, Steel Claw decided to speed up and tear Cass into pieces as soon as possible.

In order to achieve this goal, he could even slightly injure himself.

In order to tear apart Cass's sturdy body, there had to be a time of stalemate and exertion of strength. It was also the same as giving Cass a chance to counterattack steel claw alone.

But Steel Claw felt that it was worth it.

Cass's attacks were neither painful nor itchy. They did not cause much damage to him.

If he could withstand two heavy blows from Cass and then tear Cass into two halves, it would be a sure win for Steel Claw.

Soon, this opportunity came.

Cass and Steel Claw fought again. Steel Claw took advantage of the opportunity when Cass' attack missed and flashed to Cass 'side.

Following that, he immediately grabbed Cass 'waist, causing Cass to lose the distance between the two attacks.

Next, he immediately grabbed the muscles on Cass 'waist and started to exert strength to tear at both sides.

Cass was a genetic warrior. The muscle strength of his body was much stronger than that of an ordinary person. However, this did not mean that the steel claw could not tear him apart.

This was nothing more than something that required a little more strength.

"Go to hell! "

Steel Claw's expression was ferocious. Both of his arms started to exert strength.

Cass hurriedly clamped his arms and stopped him from tearing apart.

Steel Claw sneered. This was actually a very irrational move, as it was too passive.

The correct move should be to surround him and save him. Cass should counter-attack Steel Claw's vital points and force steel claw to give up on this attack.

This was a very common situation in free combat, such as being controlled by Brazilian jiu-jitsu.

The controlled party often could not make an effective counter-attack. They could only follow the teaching of jiu-jitsu and think of ways to get rid of the other party's control.

Steel Claw did not leave any space for Cass to counter-attack. As long as Cass dared to let go of his arms, Steel Claw would immediately tear apart Cass 'waist.

In fact, there were many strange counter-attacks in ancient martial arts, but these strange moves were considered as flowery.

The reason why they were called flowery was because the user had indeed practiced these things into flowery shelves. They were only superficial and did not display their power.

Without the foundation of strength and speed, any exquisite moves could only become flowery shelves.

Only a few outstanding fighters could use ancient martial arts in modern combat.

Cass was precisely the inheritor of ancient Indian martial arts.

Ancient Indian martial arts emphasized the flexibility of the body. It could allow a fighter to attack from an incredible angle with considerable damage.

Cass suddenly twisted his arm around the arm of Steel Claw.

This move might not be understood by many people, but in the ancient martial arts of the eastern countries, when the golden snake silk hand was mentioned, many people would come to a sudden realization, then, their minds immediately connected to the strange movements shown in various movies and TV shows.

Steel Claw immediately realized that something was wrong. His arm suddenly lost the space to move and exert force while being entangled by Cass.

Both of his claws were even clamped under Cass 'armpits.

Steel Claw immediately felt that something was wrong. If he did not want to tear Cass into two halves, his arms would not have been so easily controlled by Cass.

Looking at Cass 'strange and twisted arms, he could not help but exclaim,

"Yoga! "cass sneered, "How can that kind of thing practiced by women be compared to Indian ancient martial arts! "

"What rubbish ancient martial arts? Stop Bragging Here! Let Go of me! "

Steel Claw struggled with all his might, trying to pull his arms out of Cass 'control.

At this time, he did not expect to tear Cass 'body apart.

Just like the ultimate moves in the game, although the power was great, the charging time was too long, so it was not suitable for a one-on-one battle.

Steel Claw realized that he was too impatient.

At the beginning of the next meeting, he would still use the nibbling method to slowly grind Cass to death.

Unfortunately, Cass did not give him another chance to meet up.

Not only did Cass not let go of his arms, but he hugged his arms even tighter and hugged him tightly in front of him.

The two of them hugged each other face to face. There was no gap between their bodies, causing normal attacks to lose their distance and space.

"You can die now! "

Cass suddenly exerted his strength.

His strength far exceeded Steel Claw's imagination. Steel Claw suddenly realized that Cass had been hiding his true strength.

Cass 'injuries were all an illusion. These superficial wounds were just to let steel claw relax his vigilance.

Steel Claw could not resist Cass 'strength at all, just like he could not resist a rhinoceros.

"AH! "

Steel Claw screamed.

The Steel Claw that he was proud of, along with his upper arm, his entire arm was no longer under his control. He could not even use his strength.

He did not have the chance to tear apart Cass 'waist anymore. Instead, it was Cass who began to tear apart his arms.

Comparing strength with a rhinoceros genetic warrior, this kind of behavior was simply too foolish.

"Wake up! Idiot!"

Cass let out an angry roar that sounded like a chuunibyou, and fiercely tore off the two steel claws' arms.

"I'm sorry, you've become a cripple again. "

Cass grabbed Steel Claw's two arms and quickly took a few steps back.

The two iron arms were a little heavy, but Cass didn't mind holding them for a while longer. This would give him a great sense of achievement.

The intense pain made steel claw cry out in pain.

"Shoot! Kill this bastard!"

He still remembered his position and duty, and also remembered his biggest trump card.

Although he lost the duel, he still had a way to kill Cass.

However, Cass did not give anyone the chance to shoot. Before the stunned soldiers could react, he leaped and suddenly jumped off the material platform.

The height of the three-story building was not considered high. After Cass landed on the ground, he was not injured.

Without any hesitation, he immediately ran out of the Red Line while hugging the two arms of the Steel Claw.

This position had already exceeded the range that the soldiers were allowed to attack.

"Steel Claw, Call Me Daddy. I can return your two claws to you. Although it has injured a few of your nerves, you still have a chance to reattach the claws. You can continue to be your steel claw in the future!"

Cass started to laugh. Of course, the victor could mock to his heart's content.

The soldiers on the material platform looked at each other. In the end, they did not dare to shoot at Cass..

Chapter 897 – Chapter 896, The Submarine Arrived

The soldiers at the supply depot were not aware of the chaos on Demon Island, nor did they receive any orders.

They thought that the live broadcast was still going on and that they were still under the surveillance of the surveillance cameras, so they still adhered to the rules of the game.

Looking at Cass who was standing outside the red line, the soldiers were helpless.

They could only surround steel claw and help him to stop the bleeding.

Although the two missing arms were not from steel claw, they were connected to the muscles and nerves of his upper arm.

Tearing off Steel Claw's arms was like tearing open his scar, causing a lot of wounds and bleeding.

Steel Claw's physical fitness far exceeded that of an ordinary person. Under the intense pain, he was still able to persevere and not faint.

However, both of his iron arms had fallen into Cass' hands. This caused him to lose all face.

He forced himself to stand up from the ground and walked to the edge of the material platform. Looking at the smug Cass Downstairs, he was even more furious.

"Cass, you bastard, are you interested in my two arms and planning to get two iron arms to play with?"

"If you want to get two iron arms, just tell me directly. If you don't have money, I'll lend it to you. I'll sponsor you to get two Iron Arms."

"What do you mean by taking my two arms now? Do you want to change my two arms?"

"You look just like a beggar. I feel embarrassed for you. "

"Are you even qualified to be a killer? !"

Steel Claw cursed loudly on the platform, but he was no longer a threat to Cass after losing his arms.

Losing two mechanical arms was not a serious injury. Since Steel Claw could perform the first mechanical transplant, he could naturally do it a second time.

The only problem was the money.

The two mechanical arms that could fully connect the nerves and allow him to operate freely were very expensive.

If he lost the two arms and replaced them with two new ones, the cost would be enough to bankrupt him and leave him with a huge debt.

The public money of the colony was not that easy to owe.

Steel Claw wanted very much to take his arms back now.

The mechanical arms needed to be custom-made and no one else would need them.

Steel Claw wanted Cass to throw the arms away like garbage so that he could get them back.

So, Steel Claw pretended that he didn't care about the arms.

After cursing at Cass for a while, he sneered again, "Cass, I'll give you the two iron arms. I hope you can use them soon. The two arms have been used for a long time, and there are a lot of small problems. You have to get used to them. I'll take this opportunity to exchange for two new arms! "

Clang! "

As expected, Cass casually threw the two iron arms on the ground.

Steel Claw was secretly delighted.

Cass said unhurriedly, "You're really generous, giving away such expensive arms so easily. But unfortunately, I won't have the chance to use these things in my lifetime. "

After thinking for a moment, Cass said, "Since your two arms have long malfunctioned, then they definitely won't be picked up and used. Trash that no one needs, I'd better destroy them."

After saying this, Cass squatted down in front of the two mechanical arms.

He picked up one of the arms and fiercely smashed it on the other arm.

Then, a series of clanging sounds of metal colliding rang out, and the two arms of Steel Claw were quickly smashed into scrap metal by Cass.

Steel Claw was dumbfounded on the roof.

Cass casually threw the broken iron arms on the ground, and then waved at Steel Claw. "Goodbye!"

Without waiting for Steel Claw to react, Cass turned around and left.

Yu Tian had already urged him to leave through the communicator. Cass was satisfied with the results of the battle, so there was no need to waste time.

Steel Claw watched as Cass suddenly left and quickly disappeared into the buildings. He was at a loss for a moment.

Could it be that Cass came here just to rip off his two arms?

The other assassins were also somewhat baffled.

Weren't their targets the supply points? Now that they had already achieved half of their target and the invincible boss Steel Claw had been crippled, why did Cass suddenly run away again?

The assassins looked at each other in dismay, and then simultaneously chased after Cass.

"Boss Cass, where are you going?"

"Boss Cass, wait for us."

"Boss Cass, what do you want to Do? Bring us with you."

The battle just now had made the assassins completely convinced of Cass. They knew that they would not be at a disadvantage if they followed a smart assassin.

Cass did not turn his head. He answered while jogging, "I'm leaving the Demon Island. "

"Leaving the demon island? Boss Cass, do you have a way to leave the Demon Island?"

"My boss has a way."

"Boss Cass's boss?"

The assassins were a little surprised, but then immediately said, "Boss Cass, take us with you. We also want to leave this place. We'll follow you in the future. "

"I can't decide whether to take you or not. But I can give you a chance to see my boss. If you want to come, hurry up and follow us."

Kass did not stop and quickly ran to the rendezvous point.

The further they went, the darker the surroundings became.

Gradually, all the lights disappeared. Kass and the others could only rely on the weak moonlight to continue moving forward.

There were no prison sentries in the outer area because Kroni would not have to worry about these participating killers escaping from Demon Island.

All the transportation on the island was in the hands of the Kronny Society. Outsiders had no chance to snatch it.

Even if someone could snatch the transportation from the KRONNY society, they would only be able to snatch a pile of scrap metal that was detonated by remote control.

Therefore, in a sense, these killers were still very free when they competed.

Soon, Cass brought this group of assassins to the rendezvous point that Yu Tian had arranged.

Yu Tian did not expect Cass to bring more than a dozen tails, but he did not drive them away.

He did not want to waste time, so he brought everyone to the beach in a hurry.

"Uncle Long, send my location to the submarine that is receiving us."

"Okay."

After cutting off the communication, Yu Tian told everyone, "Rest here. When the submarine comes, we can leave. "

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief. They sat down on the reefs by the sea and began to wait quietly.

The wait did not last long. A vague shadow appeared on the surface of the sea in front of them. After waiting for a moment, the faint light on the shadow lit up again.

Ermao's submarine finally arrived. However, there were more reefs on the shore and the water was not deep enough. The submarine could not be too close to the coastline..

Chapter 898 – Chapter 897, Nuclear Explosion

Yu Tian lit up the tablet in his hand and shook it in the direction of the submarine.

Very soon, the other side reacted. The lights on the submarine also flashed slightly. It could be considered a greeting as they confirmed each other's existence.

Following that, Yu Tian ordered everyone, "Get in the water. We have to swim over on our own."

A few of the assassins sighed.

"It's over. We have to swim there ourselves. It must be a few hundred meters away, right?"

"Why didn't they bring a small motorboat?"

"How can a submarine bring a small motorboat? Drag it from behind?"

"It's really over now. My swimming skills are very poor. I can swim a few hundred meters for half an hour."

"My swimming skills are even worse. My mom and my wife fell into the river at the same time. I couldn't save any of them."

"Did you guys prepare a life jacket?"

"We don't have a life jacket, but I brought a girlfriend."

"A girlfriend?"

"Yes, the inflatable kind."

"No Way. Do you still carry this kind of thing with you when you're in a competition?"

"I have to. How Can I abandon my girlfriend?"

Although some people complained, they still followed Yu Tian and the others into the water.

If they didn't enter the water, they could only stay on the island. If they entered the water, at least there would be someone to help them.

General Caro and his tiger team were good swimmers. Swimming was a training subject in many armies. Special Forces and elite troops, in particular, required a wider range of skills to master.

It was hard for these killers. Some of them were good swimmers, but some only knew a few simple doggy paddles. Swimming a few hundred meters was a challenge.

The most troublesome was the big guy. His muscular structure was a little ridiculous, and his buoyancy was obviously not enough. He could only let Yu Tian drag him along.

After about ten minutes, Yu Tian finally dragged the big guy onto the submarine.

On the submarine stood a bearded old man in his forties and fifties, holding an old-fashioned flashlight in his hand.

When he saw Yu Tian and the others climb onto the submarine, he shone the flashlight on them.

"You're Mr. Yu, right?"

"Yes, I am."

"Hello, boss. Pm Ivan. I'm your captain now. Pm happy to serve you."

"You're welcome. Take everyone off the submarine. We have to leave now. "

"Yes, Boss."

After a few simple conversations, Ivan turned around and opened the cabin door. Then, he leaned over the hatch and shouted into the submarine, "Ava, the guests have boarded the ship. There are a lot of people. Vacate that damn room!"

After shouting, Ivan held a flashlight and shone it on the surface of the sea.

Only 20 to 30 heads were exposed on the surface of the sea. There were still a few assassins who had fallen behind the main group and were paddling hard.

"Fortunately, my submarine is big enough. Otherwise, it would not be able to carry so many of you. "

Ivan shrugged and said to Yu Tian, "Go down. Ah Wa will take you to your room to rest."

Yu Tian patted the shoulders of the big guy. "You guys go down first. I will wait here for everyone to arrive."

The Big Guy grunted and took the lead to climb down the stairs.

The old iron escalator creaked as if it could not bear the heavy load.

Yu Tian did not expect uncle long to arrange an advanced nuclear submarine. He knew that this kind of submarine that came out to take on private work was definitely an obsolete product that was bought back by some organizations or small countries after it was decommissioned.

However, this submarine seemed to be a little too old. Yu Tian even doubted whether it could still dive.

However, it was already very good that they could find a submarine to come and receive them.

After the explosion of Alcatraz Island, it was impossible for them to swagger home on a yacht. If that was the case, they might not even have walked a few nautical miles before they were caught by a missile.

After dawdling for a long time, everyone finally boarded the submarine.

Yu Tian did not expect that Cass would bring back so many killers. The space inside the submarine was not big to begin with, so it was indeed a little depressing for so many people to squeeze together.

As the boss, Yu Tian still had a relatively spacious resting space. Ivan prepared a separate cabin for him.

However, Yu Tian did not have the intention to rest now. Instead, he followed Ivan with great interest and watched them pilot the submarine.

"Brats, get ready to set off and dive! "

Ivan shouted.

The submarine began to dive. Yu Tian also started the detonation process of the bombs on Demon Island.

The detonation time was ten minutes. This was enough for the submarine to run for a distance.

The submarine did not have to dive too deep. After it sank into the water, it began to exert full power and leave quickly.

Yu Tian had already told Ivan that he was going to detonate the demon island. Ivan naturally knew that it was better to stay as far away from the demon island as possible.

Ten minutes later, there was a series of explosions on the Demon Island. Countless flames and fireworks shot up into the sky.

After a slight delay, there was another loud sound. Huge Flames and light were emitted from the island. A mushroom cloud suddenly appeared in the center of the Demon Island and shot up into the sky.

The huge shock wave triggered a tsunami. Even the submarine that had escaped far away was affected.

The submarine suddenly fell into darkness. All the lights were extinguished.

Not long after, there was another shake. The people in the cabin immediately fell to the side.

"What's the situation? Why is the power supply cut off?"

Ivan roared in the cabin.

The other crew members in the cabin also exclaimed, "Oh, damn it, all my equipment has been hacked!"

"Why are all my control systems disabled? !"

"What kind of explosion is this? How can it be so powerful? We've been so far away and we've been damaged?"

"Are we under attack? Electromagnetic Pulse Weapons?"

"Wait, the explosion just now! did you use a nuclear bomb?"

Ivan turned on the flashlight and looked at Yu Tian helplessly. "Dear boss, you should have told me earlier that you were going to drop a nuclear bomb on that Damn Island. You should have at least waited until we were at a safe distance before taking action. "

"I didn't use a nuclear bomb, but! There seems to be a small nuclear power facility on Demon Island. "

Yu Tian was also a little frustrated. He had indeed neglected the fact that a nuclear explosion could produce a nuclear electromagnetic pulse.

If there were no corresponding protective measures, those electronic equipment, circuits, and electronic components would be destroyed by the electromagnetic pulse.

However, the situation was still good. Not all of the equipment in the submarine had been destroyed. It was not to the extent of turning the entire submarine into a large iron coffin.

Ivan had already started to repair the equipment with the crew. This kind of large-scale damage was a huge headache for everyone.

The unprotected electronic equipment on the submarine had all been destroyed, including Yu Tian's tablet computer and communications equipment.

Only the mechanical devices were intact. Through manual operation, they could barely maintain the mobility of the submarine..

Chapter 8

As a military weapon, the design of a submarine had to take into account the situation of being attacked and destroyed. Many of the important functions on it had to be completed manually.

The older the submarine, the more mechanical equipment that had to be manually operated.

"So, those modern technological creations are very unreliable!"

"The more complex the machinery, the more likely it is to malfunction. The more you rely on electronic equipment, the easier it is for you to become a slave of technology."

Ivan sighed. "Fortunately, the things in our country have always been quite sturdy. We also attach great importance to the skills and quality of our people. Even if we are docking in space, we can rely on our own technology to complete it manually!"

Yu Tian smiled. "That's right. You Old Russians are indeed fierce."

Ivan rolled his eyes. "That's true, but you still have to pay for the damage to my ship. "Although we don't rely on these electronic equipment, it's still much more convenient with these things. We still have to repair and replace them when we go back."

"No problem. You can give me the bill anytime."

The money was not a problem. If Yu Tian was happy, he could directly get a new submarine for Ivan as long as Ivan could find a supplier himself.

However, this was a matter for the future. The most important thing now was to return safely in this old submarine that had suffered heavy damage.

All the crew members were busy repairing the equipment, trying to repair everything that could be repaired.

The submarine needed to rely on the battery to power the submarine underwater. Under the influence of the electromagnetic pulse just now, the battery had burned down, and the submarine's engine had stopped working. It could not move forward anymore.

So the first thing to do now was to restore the power and get the submarine moving again.

The submarine had spare batteries for energy. Fortunately, the spare batteries were not damaged.

After the crew worked with their flashlights for a while, the cabin lights were lit up again and the engine was started.

There was no problem with the oxygen supply in the submarine. The oxygen tank was enough to last for a few months.

However, due to the impact of the shock wave, the submarine had deviated from its original direction. It needed to re-navigate and correct its direction.

However, the inertial navigation system could no longer be repaired. This was a device that needed to work with electricity. It had long been burned alive by the huge electric current.

The submarine also had equipment such as gyroscopes and compasses, but these things needed to be coordinated with the positioning system to be able to determine the accurate course.

Ivan did not know how far it had deviated from its original course. It was impossible for him to just focus on one direction and run madly.

This place was, after all, an incomparably vast sea. Even if the direction was correct, the destination would still be very far away.

Ivan had a headache. He rubbed his messy hair with all his might, he sighed and said, "Correct the direction first. Head due east and run out of this sea area. At least run to a place where there is no nuclear radiation! Ava, go and find the nautical chart! "

Although the sonar detection was dead, Ivan did not have to worry about reefs and the like in this deep sea. He could run as fast as he could without worry.

When he reached a safe place, he would consider the specific route.

Correcting the route required manual operation. There were not many electronic control devices left in the submarine. They could only rely on the muscles of the crew.

Fortunately, there was no shortage of manpower on the ship, and they were all strong and good workers.

Soon, the direction of the submarine was determined, and the submarine began to run at full speed.

In fact, a submarine traveling underwater could not reach its maximum speed, because the submarine could only use batteries as power, and diesel engines did not have enough oxygen to burn.

This difference was like an electric car and a motorcycle.

Not only could the storage battery not allow the submarine to reach its maximum speed, it could not provide much electricity.

So every time they ran for a distance, the submarine had to float up and start using the diesel engine to move forward while charging the storage battery.

Of course, a nuclear-powered submarine did not need to go through so much trouble.

After running for a distance, Ivan had no choice but to start floating up.

Fortunately, it was already late at night. Sailing at night was more suitable for the submarine to hide its tracks. At least after it surfaced, there was no need to worry about being easily discovered by aerial reconnaissance or satellites.

However, a nuclear explosion on Alcatraz Island would definitely attract the attention of various countries. Satellites and the like would also immediately focus their attention on the nearby waters.

Ivan did not dare to be too ostentatious in the nearby waters. If he could dive, he would definitely dive.

Modern technology already had the technology to control nuclear radiation and nuclear pollution. The big countries that had responsibilities would definitely dispatch professional teams to the vicinity of Alcatraz Island to deal with the nuclear pollution there.

According to the Eastern countries' mobilization and speed, this time would not exceed 24 hours, including the time to travel.

Ivan had to run again, but he did not dare to run on the surface of the sea. This kind of conflicted feeling made his balls ache.

If he had known that Yu Tian would detonate the nuclear facility, he definitely would not have come and gotten himself into this mess.

If he was discovered, he would become a street rat in the world in the future.

All the countries and organizations would demand an explanation from him.

He clearly had nothing to do with the nuclear explosion. He was just picking up a person. Who would have thought that he could cause such a big trouble.

The more Ivan thought about it, the more his balls hurt. Increase the money! He had to increase the money!

After floating and sinking for nearly a hundred nautical miles, Ivan finally heaved a sigh of relief.

"The nuclear radiation shouldn't affect this place, right?"

The crew member behind him was also covered in cold sweat. "I don't want to become a deformed freak. Things like nuclear radiation are simply killing people without a trace."

"No matter how much money you earn, you still have to have a healthy body to Squander. "

"Even professional women will be discriminated against by deformed people.

General Caro and his tiger team also joined in the discussion.

"I'm more familiar with Demon Island. The nuclear power facility on the island is very high-tech, and there are very few nuclear materials. The area affected by the explosion shouldn't be large enough. "

"We could be affected even after running so far away. Isn't this area large enough?"

"Of course not. If it was a normal nuclear bomb, we would have already died." "This is really a terrible accident."

"Fortunately, we already have the technology to deal with nuclear radiation and nuclear pollution. Otherwise, even if we are not exposed to radiation now, the pollution will sooner or later affect the whole world."

"Increase the money. We have to increase the money. We will definitely be targeted by the intelligence agencies all over the world. "

Ivan finally made his request righteously.

"The problem of money is just a small problem!"

Yu Tian also felt that the request of increasing the money was very reasonable..

Chapter 9

Increasing the money was not a problem. Yu Tian's current problem was how to disappear from this area of the sea without anyone noticing.

Although the sea was vast, finding a submarine in the sea was not much easier than finding a needle in the sea.

However, the various countries would come at any time. Yu Tian and the others would eventually be discovered.

Yu Tian did not want to be exposed to these countries, even if it was the eastern countries.

Right now, he could only hope that Ivan could run faster and be further away from Demon Island.

If he could use money to solve the problem, that would be the best outcome.

Yu Tian calmly asked, "Increasing the money is not a problem. How much do you want?"

Ivan stretched out a palm. "At least! 200 million!"

Yu Tian looked at the five fingers on his palm and smiled.

"I admire your direct style. 200 million is not a problem. However, you have to send us safely to shore first. After all, I don't even have any usable communication equipment on hand."

As he spoke, Yu Tian gently shook the tablet with a pitch-black screen in his hand.

Ivan grinned, revealing a mouth full of big black and yellow tobacco teeth.

He knew that there was no way to complete the transaction at the moment, but Donglong company was very wealthy and had always been very reliable in paying the remuneration.

Since Yu Tian had already agreed to the 200 million remuneration, Ivan did not have to worry that he would renege on his promise. He only needed to do his job properly and bring Yu Tian back safely.

"Surface! Surface! Ava, Where's the work I asked you to do? Hurry up and bring me the nautical chart! "

Ivan immediately began to shout, driving the crew into chaos.

Ava took a long time before he finally found the nautical chart Ivan wanted.

It was a paper nautical chart.

In this era, a paper nautical chart was already considered a very rare item. In a few more years, it would probably be sent to a museum as an antique.

Ivan had kept this nautical chart for his own collection. Perhaps it was just in case he needed it, but he had never thought that he would need it.

The crew also came over curiously, wanting to see how Ivan used this nautical chart to determine his direction.

Without GPS and other satellite positioning, it would be a little troublesome to determine his position in the sea.

"So, it's time to use those traditional technologies."

Ivan composed himself and waved his hand. "Float up. I want to go to the sea and observe the sky at night!"

Soon, the old submarine bubbled and floated up from the sea.

After pushing open the cabin door, Ivan took the lead to get out of the submarine and brought Ava onto the wet and narrow deck.

Yu Tian followed curiously and took a few breaths of the cool air on the surface of the sea.

Ivan stood on the deck for a few seconds and realized that he had miscalculated.

The sky was completely dark. He could not see the Moon or stars at all.

Even if he had the ability to observe the sky at night, he needed to see the constellations in the sky to figure out his position.

Of course, there were also some ancient methods.

The Ancients did not have satellite navigation. They could also use the sextant to observe and locate, but this method of observation could not be done at night. The accuracy of the observation also depended on one's technical proficiency.

Ivan now felt a little helpless.

Yu Tian came over and patted Ivan's shoulder. "How is it? You've been staring at the sky for so long. Have you seen anything yet?"

Ivan coughed lightly. "According to my observation, this sea area! will soon be hit by a storm. "

This prediction did not seem to be wrong. Yu Tian could already feel the cold sea breeze coming from the front. It was a little more intense than before. He said helplessly, "In other words, you still can't determine the location and Ivan spread his hands and said, "In this situation, there's really no way to determine the route. We can only wait until dawn and the rain stops tomorrow.

"However, it's also a good thing that there's a storm. At least we can move at full speed on the surface of the water and not have to worry about being discovered by others. "

Yu Tian shrugged. "That sounds pretty good. "

Ivan grinned and said, "It's indeed pretty good. We're not the only ones affected by the storm weather. At least, in this kind of weather, it's impossible for planes to come and scout. As for the fleets of those big countries, if they want to rush to the vicinity of Demon Island! Well, they definitely won't be able to make it tonight. "

"In that case, we can swagger out of here."

"Yes, we can move forward at full speed. Although we don't have a positioning system, if we maintain the correct direction, we shouldn't go too far off course. "

"Then let's seize the time and leave this area first. "

There were pros and cons to everything. For Yu Tian now, the storm was the best cover for them to hide their tracks.

In just a few words, the storm rushed over impatiently.

A bolt of lightning pulled open the prelude of the storm. The originally dark and gloomy sky became even darker and oppressive. The strong wind blew so hard that people couldn't even open their eyes.

Yu Tian did not even have time to return to the cabin when a few spittle raindrops fell on his face. It was like the prelude to being spurned by tens of thousands of people.

"Ha, hurry up! Let's go back to the cabin!"

Ivan shouted excitedly.

It was much more comfortable to hide in a submarine to welcome the storm than on a ship. There was not even a need to prepare for the storm.

Back in the great maritime era, those wooden sailing ships were toyed with like toys by the storm. Every storm was a disaster.

The sailors had to lower the sails, hold the rudder, and fix themselves and the odds and ends. They were washed on the deck by the storm for an entire night. They were exhausted and looked like they were going to die.

In comparison, the people hiding in the submarine were much more comfortable.

Although it was a little shaky, it was better than being exposed to the wind and rain on the deck.

"My ancestors all lived at sea. One of them was a captain, but he fell into the sea during a storm and never appeared again. "

"So when I saw the submarine, I fell in love with this thing hiding under the water. At least when the storm came, we could hide under the water quietly. "

"Of course, if we want to move at full speed, we still have to move on the surface. "

"But sitting in a submarine is much more comfortable than sitting in those ships on the surface."

"Now we only need to have a happy supper."

Ivan waved his hand. "Boys, the dinner has begun.. Bring out our big lie BA and Vodka to entertain our big boss!"
