A chuckle came out of Allison's mouth. "Of course, that is the case. There is no room for

"Exactly. Wait a minute, did he mock me by saying that I am not powerful?" Teresa made a face,

"Yes, you are right."

The gloomy expression on Teresa's face lifted, and she broke out in a broad grin.

"By the way, where is Ryan?"

"Maybe he is attending any classes."

Allison shook her head at her best friend's changing moods.

"When did he become so attentive to his studies?"

Both of them laughed together.

"Honey, you turned the playboy into a nerd."

"Ryan, don't get mad. I know you are not a jerk."

"Hey, stop teasing me." She pushed his hand away.

"That's not what I want to do. And I don't do anything that I don't want to do."

She had a strong desire to inquire about it, but she never had the courage to do so.

She rubbed his hand with her palm and said,

She did not want to lose him.

What if he would mind her words?

"Tomorrow is Dad's birthday. So Mom and I arranged a party at home tonight. Your family will come, for sure. I want you to come too."

He looked at her. "Will you be able to say that to your father?"

"What?"

"That you invited me to attend his birthday party?"

She was taken aback. Her father strictly warned her to stay away from Ryan. He did not even

But she took a deep breath and smiled at him.

"I will. You are my guest tonight."
