Chapter 112

All of their attention was drawn to Georgiana. The statement that she made left them speechless.

"What are you saying, Georgiana?" Joey asked with a worried tone. She knew Georgiana would not say anything foolish. She had seen something, for sure.

"I am saying what I am seeing." Georgiana replied.

"How will she get through the hazard?" Beta Glen asked Georgiana.

Ryan was looking at Georgiana. But she avoided his gaze.

"That is something that will depend on her." She replied while looking at Allison.

her own thoughts and paid little attention to the talks going on around her. There was complete silence amongst all of them. When Ethan had joined them, he questioned,

Allison chose not to look at her. She was avoiding looking at everyone. She appeared to be lost in Georgiana gave Ethan a sidelong glance. "How far along are you in your planning? I have heard

"Why are you all being so quiet?"

that you are going to be leading the pack very soon."

"Yeah."

"When?"

"Tell something about him, Georgiana." Alpha Neil asked about Ethan.

"He will be a strong Alpha. But there will be a time when he has to reciprocate."

by his parents and kept questioning.

"After my graduation." Ethan replied.

"Reciprocate for what?" Luna Ella asked.

"He knows about it. I don't have to tell him." Georgiana remarked as she kept her gaze fixed on Ethan.

"What are you? A fortune teller?" Ryan's voice came out as a mock.

Georgiana was describing. She was talking about the rejection.

"Ryan!" Alpha Neil called his name in a scolding tone.

Ethan sent a glance in Allison's direction and then nodded his head. He was aware of the situation

"Really? But she is only saying unfortunate things. Where is the fortune here?" Ryan did not stop

"She has the power to see fortune." Luna Ella said and glared at his son to shut his mouth.

politely.

"I am sorry if I said something offensive. But I only said what I felt." Georgiana explained

"I would like to speak to your younger son."

"Sure. Don't mind his words, Georgiana. My this son is a brat. Forgive his bad mouth and give Ryan looked bored. He started to walk, and Georgiana followed him behind. He came to a corner and glared at her.

"Alp-"

"Again?"

him blessings to come back on the right path." Alpha Neil said.

Others were shocked by Georgiana's behavior toward him.

Georgiana turned his head at Alpha Neil and asked,

"What were you saying there? It looks like you have got some wings. Should I cut them, Georgiana?" When he was trying to warn her, his eyes revealed a playful delight.

"Ryan, I beg you not to take what I have said to heart. But I didn't say anything wrong there. Everything was true. Ethan will be a strong Alpha."

She shook her head immediately. "No, it's not like that."

"Then why did you pull Ethan's matter? Do you believe it will make a difference to me if he "Wait a minute. Are you playing with me now just because I reject your daughter's heart?"

"I asked about the desert thing you told her."

becomes the leader of this pack? Do you think I am envious of him?"

"No way. How can it even be possible for you to be envious of him?"

"Cat caught your tongue?" "She will have to face many things in her life."

Georgiana lowered her head. She was quiet as if she did not want to say anything about it.

She looked at him and stated,

"Fate is unforeseen, Alpha. But you are more unpredictable than fate."

"What is wandering in your head, Georgiana?" He gritted his teeth.

coven to help her a few weeks ago, she would have died there."

After hearing her statement, Ryan frowned at her. It was like she was giving him some hints that he could not grasp.

orange for a second, then went back to black.

sarcastic.

only you."

"Don't open it."

"What was Georgiana saying?"

"She was talking about Elora."

"Let's go, My son."

joined the crowd.

knife and cut the cake.

Alpha Neil's voice echoed in the room.

paid attention to his father since he was talking.

Owen murmured to Ryan while flashing a grin.

looked at Allison.

passed so fastly and came at midnight.

stool.

happiness. Her wish will come true."

"Oh, Really?" Ryan raised one eyebrow and asked.

"What danger can touch her when I am here with her?"

eyes to Allison, who was standing with Ethan. He was telling her something. She was only listening to him, like a good listener. There was no sign of irritation on her face, nor was there any sign of excitement.

She looked away from him and then gazed at something. He followed her gaze and shifted his

He turned his attention back to Georgiana. She had a bright smile on her face. Ryan's eyes flushed Ryan looked away from her. "I told you once that you don't have to thank me for her. It was my duty to save her." "By saving her, you gave her another reason. She is out of control now. She has been crying every day about her new life. She says it became a curse to stay like this."

"All I want to do is thank you for saving my daughter's life once again. If you had not gone to the

But Georgiana did not mind his words. Her smile never left her face.

"Since you turned her into one of you, now I can see her fortune too. She will have all of her

"She is Elora. The great witch, Georgiana's daughter. How can she want to die?" His question was

"What is this?" Owen reached over and snatched the gift box that Ryan was holding, which Allison had given to him.

"Got it." Owen replied as he understood that it was Allison's present.

After talking with Georgiana for some time, Ryan made his way to the bar. Owen was sitting on a

She nodded her head. "I can only pray for her as her mother. But the decision maker in her life is boyfriend's birthday. He grabbed a glass from the counter and gulped the drink.

Ryan placed the glass on the counter and signaled Owen to go with him. He had no idea how time

As others began to congregate around the table, Ryan noticed that Allison and her parents had also Ryan was taken aback by his smile. He was not used to his father's that behavior. He grabbed the "Ladies and Gentlemen, I just want to grab your attention for some time. It's time to cut the Everyone turned their attention to Ryan. His mother came to him and held his hand.

Owen nodded his head and sipped on his drink. The focus of Ryan's gaze moved to Allison. She behaved strangely today. She acted as though she were just another guest there, and it was not her

His mother brought him to the center of the hall. A table with a large cake was brought in by two servants.

Alpha Neil handed the knife to Ryan and smiled at him.

birthday cake." A boy announced it by the microphone.

Ryan assumed he was one of the soon-to-be officials of Ethan.

"Happy Birthday, Ryan." Luna Ella took a small bite and fed him.

When Alpha Neil was about to feed him, Ryan did not eat it by his hand, instead, he took the

He looked at Allison, who was looking at him. He was about to go to her with a slice of cake, but piece in his own hand and thanked him. He did not show any emotion toward his father.

Everyone cheered and wished for him. Alpha Neil had indeed arranged a grand party for him.

incredible day for me. But this is not the only thing I called you here for." Everyone stopped where they were, including Ryan. He placed the slice of cake on the table and

"On this beautiful night, I want to give you another reason to celebrate." Alpha Neil paused and "I want to thank all of you for coming here to celebrate my younger son's birthday. It's an Everyone's head turned to Allison. Meanwhile, Ryan raised his eyebrows.

"People say right. Fathers always know their sons' hearts. I think he realized that you like her."

"I want to announce that my Beta's daughter, Allison Clark will be my daughter-in-law."

"Come here, my child." Alpha Neil remarked to Allison while extending his hand to her. Allison made her way slowly over to Alpha Neil and took his hand.

As Owen believed that Alpha Neil would soon be calling Ryan, he reached out and patted Ryan on the shoulder.

However, his hand paused when Alpha Neil turned his head toward Ethan.

"Ethan, my son, come here." Owen slowly turned his head towards Ryan, who was staring at Allison.

Alpha Neil placed Allison's hand on Ethan's hand and then made the following announcement.

"Ethan is getting ready for the coronation, which will take place in a few months.

Ethan walked to Alpha Neil and held his other hand.

So I am declaring Allison Clark as the soon-to-be Luna of this pack."