

Chapter 125

Allison was stunned by his reply. She watched him walk with his officials as they headed to the meeting room. In addition, Teresa did not come to her defense, which made Allison upset more.

When Ryan went to the room where the meeting would take place, the theta that belonged to Ethan was waiting for him outside.

Ryan entered the meeting room, and the whole room turned silent.

All the Alphas in the room looked at him with wide eyes.

They knew Alpha Ryan had come to this pack, but they could not believe their eyes. Everyone quickly sprang to their feet and bowed to him as though he were their head Alpha.

The aura he had was something they could not ever have. They always heard about him and learned who he was. But seeing him in person was unbelievable.

"Alpha Ryan."

One of the Alphas called out excitedly and almost came out of his seat, but the Alpha beside him nudged his arm to stop him.

"I just wanted to shake hands with him." That Alpha whispered but could not dare, and he lowered his head when Ryan looked at him.

At the conference table, there were two chairs designated as the head chairs. While Ryan moved to sit in the other, Ethan was already occupied in one of the chairs. Their officials sat in close proximity to them.

Teresa was the only woman present, and she sat with Beta Max, who was her mate.

Ethan cast a quick glance towards the door, which was noticed by many around him.

"Start the meeting." Max spoke out.

Ethan shook his head. "No, my Luna is on her way. We can wait for a few minutes for her." He remarked this while reaching for his phone on the table.

He called her almost twenty times, but she had been rejecting his calls since the morning. It became her habit to do that.

"She is not coming." Ryan said to Ethan.

Ethan looked up from his phone and turned his attention on Ryan, who was sitting directly opposite him at the end.

"What?"

On behalf of Ryan, Vernon replied,

"Only the lady who became Luna is allowed here. So your soon-to-be Luna is not allowed in a professional meeting like this."

In most cases, Lunas did not show up to any of the meetings that were being held. However, the pack that planned the pack meeting had the ability to invite Luna to attend the meeting because it was her right to participate in the decision-making process.

Ethan looked at the door for the last time and kept his silence. He wanted Allison to attend the meeting with him, but because of Ryan's rules, she could not attend the meeting.

"But we don't have to follow this rule since the wedding is just one month away. Am I right?" Glen spoke out.

Everyone agreed with him. In the next pack meeting, she would be here anyway.

Ryan gave Glen a disapproving look and then turned to Ethan, saying,

"Alpha, your pack is so unprofessional. Even former officials can also join an important meeting like this?"

His words indicated this to Glen. It destroyed Glen's reputation in the eyes of others around him. The statement made by Ryan knocked him completely off his feet.

"Be careful, Alpha Ryan. He is my Luna's father." Ethan warned her.

All of the Alphas felt tension between the two Alphas. They felt that there was a rivalry going on between Ethan and Ryan.

However, they believed that no one could win over Ryan.

The man who had already grabbed five packs under his name, who would even dare to tease him? Each and every one of them had simply come here in the hopes of gaining favor in his eyes and preventing him from attacking their pack.

"Oh, so he is the head Alpha's father-in-law. I see." Ryan said as if he did not know the facts.

Alpha Neil shot him an angry look.

"Ryan"

"It's Alpha Ryan for you. I think I chose the wrong pack for the visit. What do you say, everyone?" After reminding Alpha Neil to address him by his rank, Ryan asked the other people in the room the question.

Although everyone nodded their heads, they were careful not to speak because Ethan was staring down at them.

They were unable to infuriate any of the Alphas with their behavior. Additionally, Ethan was a powerful Alpha. In the span of one and a half years, he accomplished a great deal for his pack.

"Let's get this meeting started." After standing up, Wade stated.

Every Alpha took turns introducing themselves, one by one. Ryan's piercing eyes were judging them with his abyssal gaze.

They felt nervous under his gaze. They felt like submitting to him at any time, but they were here to stand out from their pack, not giving up in front of him. So they controlled themselves and passed the meeting well.

"We are getting the invitation for Alpha Ethan's wedding next month. Will we get to see Alpha Ryan there?" One of the Alphas asked.

Everyone turned their attention to Ryan to figure out the answer.

"I don't think he will invite me." Ryan said. He placed his elbows on the table and looked at Ethan with amazed eyes.

Ethan shook his head. "Why won't I invite you? I will invite each and every one of you."

"Let's see."

Ethan chose to disregard his provocative statements and instead inquired, "What about your wedding?" You haven't decided on a time yet, have you?

Everyone was aware that he had fixed a woman up to be his Luna, but nobody had any idea who she was. Since he had never attended any meetings or visited other packs, they could not get to see his Luna either.

Ryan noticed everyone's excitement in their eyes, which caused him to raise one eyebrow.

"I will invite everyone and show you how the Black Moon Pack shows hospitality to others. But until then, wait for it."

He replied and stood up. Then he looked at everyone with his predatory eyes for the last time before saying,

"The meeting is over."
