Chapter 136

Everyone was shocked that Ryan was the head Alpha of the dreadful Black Moon Pack. They were powerless to stop the fear that was rising up within them. They used to obey him as their head Alpha Neil's son, but now he turned out to be a powerful man whom everyone had always heard about.

No one spoke out in answer to Ryan when he asked about buying the university.

Behind his sunglasses, Ethan rolled his eyes and remarked, "Our principal is waiting for you, Alpha Ryan. Come in this direction."

As if Ryan had never been to the school before, he made a kindly motion with his hand inside the building.

"You forgot to introduce my soon-to-be Luna, Alpha Ethan. Is there any reason behind it?" Ryan asked while turning his head toward him.

The girls in the crowd gasped when they heard Ryan.

"Soon-to-be Luna?"

"Is he committed?"

There were whispers heard from within the gathering. Ethan cast a quick peek in Elora's direction as she stood there ignorantly staring at the crowd.

Allison cleared her throat and said,

"She is Elora James, the soon-to-be Luna of the Black Moon Pack. They are Black Moon's officials. Gamma Colin, Theta Vernon, Delta Owen, and Beta Max. She is Teresa, Beta Max's mate."

The introduction was simple and clear. In one way, Allison introduced everyone to the school in a polite manner.

Ryan did not bother to wait and started to proceed inside. Others moved from his side to let him enter. They bowed their heads. They bent their heads in submission. It was uncertain whether they were bowing to Ethan as he was their Alpha or to Ryan since his scent was dominant.

When they arrived at the principal's office, they noticed that all of the professors were waiting outside to shake their hands and give them a warm welcome.

They were stunned when they saw Ryan. Ethan did not wait to talk to them; he directly entered the principal's office, and others followed him behind.

The principal stood up immediately. He bowed to Ethan and greeted him.

"Alpha"

His gaze landed on Ryan. His eyes widened as he saw the school's troublemaker in his office.

"You are back, Ry-"

"Alpha Ryan." A stern voice came from Gamma Colin as he warned the principal.

The principal was scared by the demeanor. But he turned to Ethan to learn about the matter.

"He is the head Alpha of the Black Moon Pack." Ethan introduced others too and walked to the couch to take a seat.

The principal's knees were shaken up when he heard Ethan. "A-Alpha, pplease forgive me. I didn't know about that." He said to Ryan while trembling.

Ryan gave him a nod and gestured for him to go and sit down on his chair. The principal did the same thing Ryan wanted.

There was a knock on the door. "May we please come in, sir?" The voices of the professors could be heard coming from outside the door.

The principal glanced at Ethan, who nodded his head. The principal permitted them to enter the office.

All the professors came to meet the head Alpha of the Black Moon Pack.

"Alpha Ryan, they wanted to meet you. We heard a lot about you but never got a chance to talk to you like that, although you were one of our students like others." The principal said.

There was a look of shock on the professors' faces. When Ryan looked at them, they immediately lowered their heads.

"I want you to give that professor a promotion." He pointed to a professor and said it to the principal.

That professor's eyes widened. The other professors' expressions conveyed both anger and enviousness as they looked at him.

"May I ask you why, Alpha?" The principal asked.

"No." Ryan replied.

Elora could not help but laugh. Everyone looked at her with an astonishing face.

Ethan gave her a hostile look. "Don't you know how to respect others? You are in the principal's office."

Elora scoffed at him. "Don't you know who I am? There is no one over my Alpha, so I don't need to show respect to anyone else."

"You and him are just made for each other."

"Yeah, you are exactly correct, Alpha Ethan."

Allison observed them while they were taunting each other in a whispered conversation.

'When did they start to mock each other?' She thought and turned her gaze away from them. Her focus gradually shifted to Ryan.

"Because once I promised him a promotion. That time I was busy with my work, but now that I am back, he deserves a promotion."

After that, the professor bowed deeply and expressed his gratitude.

As Allison thought back to the moment when Ryan told that man about his promotion, she made a frowning face. That day, Ryan was with her in a class when he grabbed her hand and took her out of the class. In the middle of the way, he told that professor that he deserved a promotion because he let them go out of the class together.

'He still remembered that? Why?' She thought as her eyes focused on Ryan's face.

She took a careful look at his features from the side. He appeared to have grown up significantly in the past two years. His appearance was brightened by a radiance that shone from within. He was not the old Ryan who was a young boy with a carefree attitude. He had grown into a powerful man who could control any circumstance to work in his favor by virtue of his power.

Allison gasped when Ryan caught her gaze. She quickly shifted her glance away from him and attempted to look elsewhere.

She noticed Teresa was staring at her. Allison tried to avoid the sight of her best friend by turning her back on her and beginning to use her phone.

Following their time in the principal's office, they made their way to the school's cafeteria.

"This is my favorite place; it's where I have so many wonderful memories." Teresa said to Elora while glancing at Allison.

"I see. It's quite nice." Elora remarked this before walking over to the counter to place an order for her. Ryan was with her.

Allison came to a stop in the middle of her walk and turned to gaze at Ethan.

"I can't continue from here."

"Why?"

"I have classes."

"You are free to skip. No one can talk over Luna. You are aware of that."

"No way. I am not interested in staying here either."

Ethan did not force her. He informed Ryan that he would be departing and that Allison would be attending her lessons.

Ryan did not respond to them, as if he did not care.

Allison left the cafeteria and proceeded to the class she had on her schedule right now.

When all of her classes were over, she got a message from Ethan.

She checked on it and realized that Ryan had left with others. But then she read another message.

"Tonight school's boys are throwing a welcoming party for Ryan. You are coming with me. I will come to pick you up in the evening."
