Chapter 146

Allison lowered her head. She had nothing to say about her father. Even her mother supported her father. She was unable to comprehend the fact that she had also turned her back on Ryan. "Allison."

She turned to Teresa and saw her crying.

down her cheeks.

"I am so sorry. I should have been with you." Teresa said. Tears kept rolling Allison smiled at Teresa sadly and hugged her.

"Don't cry. I am happy that you are back to me. I was so alone at that time."

Saying that Allison could not stop her shuddering voice.

She could not stop herself anymore.

The two close friends comforted one another with hugs and tears as they sobbed together.

After breaking the hug, Teresa held Allison's hand and made her sit on the bed, then sat next to her.

"Allison, what you did was never your wish. What's now? How will you

Allison shook her head. "It's been a while. Everyone has changed, including me. Currently, this is my life. There is nothing else that I can do at this time."

"Teresa, relax. I told you the truth because you are my best friend. Don't tell this to others. All of this was in my past. My present and future are what I

"How did you pass all those days?"

"By training." "So, are you ready to be this pack's Luna?"

"What else can I do? Life never gave me the chance to let me live like I wanted. It broke my heart at first by rejection, and then when I tried to was down. "I think he still loves you."

Allison let out a chuckle as she rubbed the palm of her hand with her

"No. I have seen hatred in his eyes. I deserve it. I am the one to blame for

"What?" Allison asked as she turned her head to her. She saw that her head

Teresa talked to her for a while, then she got a call from Max.

"My best friend turned into a businesswoman; not bad." Allison remarked while giggling to herself.

"You have no idea how I am feeling at this very moment. I got my best

"Yeah, I noticed how you were missing while making a new best friend."

When Teresa heard her, she paused for a moment. She gave a small shake of her head and said, "I swear. She will never be able to replace you in my

"When?"

"Come on. Don't try to convince me that you were blind to what she did when you saw it. She questioned me on anything and everything pertaining

"Oh. That's normal to her. She is crazy about Ryan. When I first met her, I thought she was insane. But then I realized that she is not a bad girl but just

Allison was silently listening. Teresa bit her tongue when she realized that she was talking about another woman liking Ryan in front of Allison. Allison was able to observe Teresa's hesitance. She gave her a friendly grin

"Okay. Then see you tomorrow." Teresa responded. Allison went downstairs with Teresa to see her off to the door.

"Where are you going? I prepared a few meals specifically for you. Teresa, how about we all eat lunch together?" Allison's mother came out of the kitchen when she heard them talking.

She would have gladly agreed with her if she had not known about the reality of the situation. However, after hearing all of the things that Allison

Teresa eventually made her way out of Allison's home after giving her one

"Some time ago, Uncle. I am leaving now." Teresa replied without any

As she reached the pack house, she noticed that Elora had already pulled her car over. Additionally, she was also outside.

"Where were you?" Teresa asked with a surprised look while coming out of

Because Elora was new here, she would lose if no one guided her here. So

Elora got out of her car, closed the door, and then threw the keys to the security guard standing nearby. "Park it for me."

Her car was parked outside. She unlocked the car and got inside. She

Their ears were able to pick up Ethan's voice. When Teresa turned around, she saw that Ethan was standing nearby with a few pack fighters.

His words were directed at Elora. He did not like how she threw the car

"Yeah." Elora replied while avoiding her gaze, which confused Teresa.

"You are not allowed to act in such a manner toward my people."

Teresa glanced at Ethan, and then she also went inside the pack house.

However, rather than going to her own room, she walked to the very last

"I think I should leave now." Teresa pushed herself to her feet and stood up. "So quickly?"

"Yeah. There is some sort of file that requires my attention right now."

"I like her. I have nothing against her in my heart. But why did she target me last night in the club?"

and reassured her,

"It's okay, Tess. I am happy that he got someone who actually loves him."

"Leave it. Tell me when you will come to the pack house."

"I am not feeling like going. We will meet tomorrow."

When they headed to the door, Teresa stopped when she saw Allison's father coming from outside.

"When did you come, Teresa?" He asked as he glanced at Allison.

She opened the door after getting permission.

"Come in."

"You-"

"I'm sorry, Aunt. Right now, I have to leave. I am grateful that you requested it. Bye." Teresa said to her.

Teresa turned to her and declined her by shaking her head.

Elora rolled her eyes and crossed her arms before continuing, "I can do

Therefore, she started to walk to the pack house, avoiding the other two.

Ethan was taken aback by her words. Elora also did not like either.

"Alpha" She said as she looked over at Ryan, who was seated on the couch. He was

He gave the door a glance before responding. "Yeah."

"I am busy right now, Teresa. Talk to Max if you have any issues with any Teresa could see his mood was not okay since he was working. However,

"Alpha, it's important. I want to talk about Allison."
