Chapter 157

"Tomorrow night?"

asked.

Ethan asked and stared at Ryan. Everyone was stunned by his decision.

Ryan did not turn to face her but nevertheless answered the question she

"Why tomorrow?" Ella spoke out with a shocking tone.

"Maybe you did not count the days, Mrs. Iversen. I told you all that I would be here only for a week."

Everyone had almost completely lost track of the time. They were unable to comprehend how a week had already gone by in front of their very eyes.

Allison fixed her gaze on Ryan. Her insides were filled with resentment.

She felt bitter in her heart. Hearing about his leaving, her heart clenched inside.

She knew one day he would leave, but seeing him after a long time, she did

For once, she wanted to be selfish and wanted him to stay here in front of her eyes.

At least she could see him.

"Ryan, you can stay for a few weeks. You can leave after attending your brother's wedding." Alpha Neil said. His voice was calm. His tone was one

The way Colin spoke did not sit well with Ethan. He questioned Ryan, Unexpectedly, Colin's eyes caught her gaze. He regarded her with a raised

Ryan never stopped eating, despite the fact that other people were having discussions all around him.

"Did I ever promise any kind of alliance? Because I can't remember it."

"But I sent those invitations for your alli-"

He placed the fork and knife on the plate and asked,

But he paused when he heard about the alliance.

"We don't need any alliances from him, my son." Alpha Neil interrupted Ethan.

anything.

"Uncle, I have something to talk about with you."

Allow us to throw a party in honor of your departure."

Alpha Neil's face turned pale. Ella shook her head and said,

"Thanks for coming to visit our pack, Alpha Ryan. It's nice to meet you.

Ryan rolled his eyes and stood up. "Let's see how much respect he can show me. I am okay with attending the party before leaving."

Saying that Ryan left the dining room. But his officials did not leave. They

"Excuse me. I am done eating."

She left the dining room. Everyone knew that she would follow Ryan.

"Wade, be sure you invite everyone and arrange everything in the best way.

It will be a grand party. He should not think that we have any bad intentions

Allison lost her appetite. Teresa looked at her with sad eyes.

"No." Ethan cut her off.

"It's important. If you have free time after lunch, then we can ta-"

She glared at him. He shook his head while warning her not to say

Therefore, she received the phone call.

"Are you doing what I said to you?"

Elora closed her eyes and sighed.

"Why did you call me?"

Dad anytime later. So after lunch, follow me."

She clenched her hand into a fist as she viewed the display on her phone.

She turned her head and noticed that there was nobody else there.

After leaving the dining room, Ella proceeded towards the stairs. But she

"Don't try to lose your track. I know how to control you."

Elora cut the call without replying. She felt tears glistening in her eyes. She

"I beg you, don't bother calling me. I would rather not engage in conversation with you. I am just done with you."

wiped her eyes and rushed upstairs to her room.

She saw Ryan standing outside her room. She stopped and looked at him. He frowned at her while puffing on the cigarette that he was holding between his fingers.

"Why are you crying?" He asked while observing her face.

She shook her head with fear in her face. "N-Nothing."

He approached her and lightly gripped her jaw with the hand that was holding the cigarette.

"Does my hybrid start to hide things from me?"

While he was tilting her face to the left and right, she closed her eyes.

Her eyes flung open. "No." She mumbled while looking into his orange eyes.

"Don't you want to leave?"

"I-I do."

He acknowledged her with a nod and then moved in close to whisper in her

"By any chance, do you find yourself falling for your mate?"

ear.
